HOMICIDE...The first homicide in Belleville since July 3, 1990. The body was discovered in this Florence Avenue home late Monday night.

Manhunt is on!

By Laurie Silberg
and Mike Lazorchak

Police have no suspects yet in the murder of a Silver Lake resident found shot to death Monday night in his home at 40 Florence Ave.

Alvaro Hernandez, 41, was discovered in his second-floor apartment just after 11 p.m. by a friend who had stopped by to visit, according to Detective Lt. William Adelman.

Hernandez was shot twice, but police would not say in what part of his body.

An autopsy, which will determine what type of gun was used, has been completed by the county medical examiner. Results won't be available for at least three weeks, according to the Essex County prosecutor's office.

No weapon has been found, said Adelman.

Neighbors said they did not hear any gunshots Monday night.

Hernandez, a native of Costa Rica, was last seen Sunday afternoon when he left work at Walter's

According to police reports, Hernandez is 41-years-old, but several neighbors said they thought he was in his mid- to upper 20s.

Hernandez lived alone, but had a friend who visited often, according to the tenant who lived below Hernandez.

The owner of the flower store said Hernandez, who she called an "honest worker," moved to Florence Avenue after living on Sylvan Avenue in Newark, and then Joralemon Street in Belleville.

Residents on the quiet one-way street had only good things to say about Hernandez, who they considered to be a model neighbor.

One neighbor, who lives two doors away, said he used to help out the elderly residents by shoveling snow, painting and doing other odd jobs.

The neighbor said Hernandez was a devout churchgoer. "He went to church every Sunday," he said.

Town water rates expected to triple

by Mike Lazorchak

A negotiation process that has taken almost two years may end with Belleville paying more than triple their current water rate.

According to Daniel Berardinelli, manager of the division of water sewer utility for Newark Water Supply, Belleville has been without a contract for almost two years.

"We presented a contract to the former administration more than a year-and-a-half ago and never received a response," Berardinelli said.

Belleville has been paying the rates of the previous contract, which was a 15-year contract, during this interim period.

The water rate under that contract is $250 per million gallons.

The current rate Newark charges regular out-of-town customers is $900 per million gallons.

Other customers may pay more depending on the type of service they receive, Berardinelli said.

Elizabeth pays $950 per million gallons because the water must travel further, necessitating more piping.

Pequannock pays $1000 per million gallons because they are considered a "peak-user," Berardinelli said. A peak user tends to only use large amounts of water during the summer, but Newark must be ready to serve them at any time.

Berardinelli said Newark sent a contract to Belleville in December and is hoping to set up a meeting with Town Manager Bertrand Kendall early next week to settle the issue.

The contract calls for Belleville to pay a retroactive rate of $750 per million gallons for 1990 and then $900 per million gallons effective Jan. 1, 1991, Berardinelli said.

Kendall said he expects a meeting will take place within a week.

"The former administration was negotiating a new contract and never followed through," Kendall said. "Now we have to pick up the pieces and get the best rate possible for Belleville."

Berardinelli said he did not know why the original contract was never signed.

"We sent three or four letters and never received a response," Berardinelli said.

One reason for the increase is a new $45 million treatment plant.

According to Berardinelli the plant will provide pure, filtered water.

"Newark's rates were really always the lowest around," Berardinelli said.

Kendall was not optimistic that Belleville would be able to retain the $250 per million gallon rate.

"We are a customer of Newark and unfortunately it looks like there will be a major water rate increase," Kendall said.

Belleville's own 'GoodFella'

by Laurie Silberg

His was one of the shortest acceptance speeches ever given at the Academy Awards. Clutching the golden trophy tightly in his right hand, he gave a hearty but abbreviated thank you, then left the stage to let his good fortune sink in.

If members of the Academy weren't surprised to hear Joe Pesci's name called in connection with Best Supporting Actor, he certainly wasn't. Not having prepared a speech - simply because he didn't think he would win - he improvised. Given the chance to do over again, he would have dedicated the award to his father, one of the most important people in his life. What he really wanted to say was "This one's for you dad."

Pesci's late father Angelo, like the rest of his family, means the world to him. A former resident of Belleville, he is deeply attached to his mother Mary and sister Louise Russo, who now live in Bloomfield. Pesci also has a brother, Bill, who lives in California, and a daughter Tiffany, who lives with her mother, the actor's first wife.

Pesci's attitude, or lack of, comes out in his obvious devotion to his hometown, where many of his friends still live. In Georgia shooting "My Cousin Vinny" with Ralph Macchio and Fred Gwynn, the actor stole away from the set to call The Belleville Times for an interview.

Walking away with the coveted Oscar for his performance as a manipulative mobster in the Martin Scorsese film "GoodFellas," Pesci said he felt confident he would not win. Down-to-earth and unaffected by success, Pesci's devotion to family and friends doesn't match up to the stereotype of a Hollywood megastar.

Either he didn't want to jinx winning by preparing a speech, or he truly didn't believe he would win. Because when his sister, who is one of his press agents, called him up the day of the awards and asked, "Are you sure you don't want me to write you a speech?" his answer was still no.

"I really wasn't prepared. I was prepared to lose," he said. "I was expecting to hear someone else's name."

Township 'wants to be normal,' seeks curbside recycling by July

by Laurie Silberg

Township officials would like to have a curbside recycling program in place by July 1, a measure which should help bring Belleville out of its recycling slump.

Belleville is one of 10 municipalities out of the state's 567 which has not gone curbside since recycling was made mandatory in October 1989. Adding insult to injury, the township is "dead last in recycling in Essex County," Township Manager Bertrand Kendall said.

Officials are discussing hiring the services of the The Occupational Center of Essex County, a 36-year-old non-profit vocational training school for the handicapped in Orange.

Involved in recycling since 1986, OCEC services Essex, Bergen and Morris counties, collecting recyclables from 130,000 households in 13 towns, including Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Livingston, Millburn, Roseland and West Orange.

Originally, Belleville was supposed to be one of six towns involved in the OCEC's pilot program, but never went through with it, according to Michael DiFranco, director of recycling operations for the OCEC.

Officials are interested in a contract with OCEC for items such as glass, a aluminum, tin, and possibly plastic soda containers and junk mail. Newspapers are presently picked up by the township's scavenger, Pucillo Sanitation of Hillside.

"We're half-way through a five-year contract with Pucillo," Ken-emery to introduce a nominee for the Best Song category, Pesci, still clutching the Oscar in his hand, apologized to the audience for not being able to speak.

Content with his career the way it was - he was nominated for best supporting actor for his role as Jake LaMotta's brother in Raging Bull in 1980 and his since made many hit movies including Home Alone and Lethal Weapon II. Pesci said he "never did think about getting an Oscar. I thought my career was just fine."

What Pesci values most in life is his family. "I like to keep my roots. I'm big on tradition," and while success hasn't spoiled Joe Pesci, he says he'd be more than willing to spoil his mother, sister, or any family member. "They know they can have anything they want."

Still a fan of this state, Pesci and his wife of three years, Marti, live down the shore where they "keep to themselves and play a lot of golf."

His allegiance to the Garden State wasn't always a good thing for Pesci. Trying to break away as an actor from the New Jersey stereotype isn't so easy, he said. Early in his career he played some roles that, had he not been such a versatile actor, could have been continuing. Like his role in "GoodFellas," his first role in a film was that of a gangster in "Death Collector," a part offered to him by child's old friend turned filmmaker Ralph DeVito.

"In the beginning I had a problem. I was playing a lot of low-life Italians, and I didn't want to get stuck like that. People tend to think that if you're from New Jersey you have an accent and pick your nose all the time."

Originally, his thoughts weren't with a career in acting. Dropping out of Belleville High during his sophomore year, Pesci hit the road to pursue a career as singer in a band. Though he got sidetracked by a movie and television career - he starred in the TV series "Half Nelson" in the '70s - Pesci has plans to get back into singing one day. "I would," he said, "if he made an album one day," Russo said.

Just a week to business for Pesci, who has several more movies in the works. Hanging around with good friends Robert DeNiro and Al Pacino, the "New York actors," Pesci's as down-to-earth as the day he left town.

His attitude is still "this is me," Russo said. "If you don't like it, too bad."

Chorus of Communities will perform 'Messiah'

The Chorus of Communities will perform the Easter portion of Handel's "Messiah" for the benefit of the Clara Maass Medical Center, April 28, 3 p.m., at St. Valentine's Church, Hoover and East Passaic avenues, in Bloomfield.

The Ecumenical Chorus sponsored by the Belleville Ministerium is made up of members of 17 churches in Belleville, Newark, Nutley, Clifton, Kearny, North Arlington, Harrison, Roseland, East Orange, Bloomfield, Rutherford, Lyndhurst, Montclair and West Caldwell.

William Moore will conduct, with members of New Jersey Symphony accompanying the group.

This most popular Easter work is the best known oratorio, second only to the Christmas portion of the same work. Musicians who know the entire composition are equally anchored in the beauty and contrasts of its passages. This portion of the oratorio relates the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ.

The words "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world" are spoken in song by the chorus as it begins the pensive Lenten section section followed by Contralto Luann Lindemann singing the touching "He was despised."

The sadness of this section is supplanted by the determined statement "Since by Man came Death, by man came also the resurrection" followed by the chorus' response "He trusted in God" and the bass aria interpreted by Marc Waters-Savant, "Who do the nations so furiously Rage?" and "The Trumpet shall sound and the dead shall be raised, incorruptible."

Tenor Kurt Watkins' rendition of, "Thou Shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel" lends exclamation to God's promised wrath. Then soprano Mary McGurrah delivers the lyric sound of, "I know that my Redeemer liveth."

You can help wildlife

By Ella F. Fillipone
Executive Administrator
Passaic River Coalition

As spring approaches, so does the final day for filing your "Income Tax!" On your state form, you have an opportunity to participate in a program that benefits the endangered and threatened species in New Jersey. The Endangered and Nongame Species Program is responsible for the protection, management, and restoration of New Jersey's endangered and nongame wildlife resources.

The program is totally funded through the state income Tax Check-Off. For Wildlife contributions from the state income tax forms, line 37B.

For years this program has been critical to bringing the Peregrine Falcon back to New Jersey. During the past year the discovery of four new nesting pairs of bald eagles has been hailed as a major success. To counterbalance, seven species were proposed to be added to the endangered list. The program is vital to identify sensitive wildlife habitats and in preventing or mitigating damage because of sound development practices. Critical information has been collected about the importance of the Cape May peninsula to thousands of migrating raptors and songbirds. Declines of migrating shorebirds on Delaware Bay has also been documented under this program. What is needed now is the funding to follow through with efforts to protect these animals and their habitats.

Species like the bald eagle and beach nesting birds require perpetual protection if they are to survive in New Jersey. This small but effective section of the N.J. Department of Environmental Protection is also working on new approaches to old problems using a broader vision of preserving biodiversity.

The maintenance of diversified species is very important to the kind of environment we as humans will live in. Many of the threatened and endangered species are also what we call "indicator" species. The bog turtle, for example, needs clean water if it is to survive. When we as a society destroy the habitat of the bog turtle, we are also eliminating a piece of our environment which insures natural clean water.

The use of pesticides has long been recognized as presenting problems in the reproduction of birds. In the 1960's DDT was banned for use in the United States because of its effect on birdlife, especially the raptors. Because of the losses which occurred during that time, we must participate in programs which provide the means to allow eagles, falcons, and other species to reestablish themselves. We must share New Jersey's unique wild places with them.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

The looming April 15 Income Tax deadline seemingly is shocking many Social Security recipients in the higher income brackets that had hovered close to the $32,000 demarcation line. The tax bracket determines who among them must pay taxes on half of their income pursuant to a formula set up by the Internal Revenue Service.

It's that Social Security Benefit Statement Form, SSA-1099, that turned the trick - it will manifest a substantial increase of a few hundred dollars paid to each person in the checks they received throughout the year. In the case of a husband and wife filing a joint return with substantial reportable income, it might just subject them to a higher tax payment than anticipated when they work out the Social Security Benefits Worksheet.

You are supposed to end up at tax-filing time owing no more than 10 percent of your tax liability. But even when your debt is greater, you may avoid a penalty. People who owe less than $500, for example, are not penalized. The biggest escape hatch: There's no penalty regardless of the amount you owe if the total of your withholding and any estimated tax payments during 1990 at least equals the amount of tax you paid in 1989 - and all your estimated tax payments in 1990 were made on time.

People due a tax refund can apply it to estimated tax payments for 1991. But once you agree to that, there's no changing your mind. The U.S. Court of Appeals in Atlanta ruled last November that a taxpayer could not rescind his decision and get the cash refund instead. The IRS, meanwhile, showed some compassion in January. In a private ruling, it told an executor of an estate that he did not have to pay estimated tax on behalf of the deceased person and said there would be no penalty when the decedent's final return was filed.

The IRS says that if you are due a refund you should get a check within eight weeks of filing your return. People who don't should contact the IRS office for their area - the tax-form instructions list phone numbers - and ask why not. If the IRS hasn't sent out a refund by the end of May, it will start paying you interest. A U.S. Court of Appeals in New York last year came down on the side of those taxpayers who wait fruitlessly for a refund that goes astray. It ruled that the IRS is not absolved of paying interest when a refund check is lost in the mail.

You can speed a refund by filing your return electronically, as more than 4 million taxpayers did last year. The IRS says electronic filers get refunds within three weeks, or sooner if you instruct the IRS to deposit the refund directly into your bank account. But the IRS doesn't let just anybody communicate with its computers, no matter how expert you claim to be on your home computer. Only professional tax preparers and firms that specialize in transferring computer data are approved to transmit returns to the government.

You must typically pay $20 to $35 to have your return transmitted, whether you prepared the return or paid a preparer to complete it.

The agency has been getting speedier, in any event. It paid interest on 452,000 refunds last year, down 39 percent from the number of late refunds in 1989. And the average interest payment was $10.39.

People facing a severe handicap, such as medical emergency or imminent eviction, can get special handling by contacting a local IRS office before they file returns. They may be able to get a refund within five days.

Many more than a few Social Security beneficiaries may have been ensnared to the point of owing considerably more in income taxes when they realize their increased Social Security checks in 1990 may have put them in a bracket that requires tax payment on income which exceeds $32,000, pursuant to terms of the Social Security Benefits Worksheet which appears in the 1990 Forms and Instructions.

Curbside recycling planned

dall said. Though not a money making proposition, recycling is a cost saving proposition. "The market is good for color separated glass," said Joe Scapperotta, township recycling coordinator. In 1990, Belleville recycled 42 tons of glass, for a revenue of $840.

"If we went curbside, we could do 10-12 times that amount," he said. Based upon the success of Bloomfield's program, and taking into consideration the population of both communities, Scapperotta said he believes Belleville could recycle 500 tons of glass per year.

"Ultimately, I believe this will pay for itself, although the first year it won't," Kendall said.

Most important is getting residents to recycle, Kendall said. The OCEC has its own public relations department, and "they use flyers to get their point across if residents are not recycling."

In the past, Kendall said, "there was never any enforcement of recycling measures. We just want Belleville to be normal."

OUR OPINION

Bring back fully tax-deductible IRAs

The Bush Administration won the support of most Americans in its handling — its brilliant leadership, to be sure — in deflating, if not yet des'roying, Saddam. No argument about that.

Yet Americans have every reason to question the President's wisdom on the domestic front. No better place is the President to be challenged on his wisdom is his refusal, so far, to line up behind a restoration of a fully deductible individual retirement account (IRA).

A bill approved by three-quarters of U.S. Senate would allow workers, regardless of income and whether they have employer pension plans, to make tax-deductible IRA contributions up to $2,000 a year.

In addition to the tax deduction, the bill would permit penalty-free withdrawals from an IRA to make the down payment on a first home, pay catastrophic medical expenses, or pay college tuition.

We can think of no sounder way to stimulate new housing, (especially for young families) to relieve the fears of a family with a member afflicted with catastrophic illness and to assist those families suffering with escalating tuition.

Furthermore, every dollar into an IRA makes available almost the equivalent amount in investment capital for business and commerce. This is a critical factor in that many thrift institutions are without funds to loan to growing businesses or prospective real estate purchasers.

Also it should be understood, Social Security is simply not enough for those wanting comfortable retirement in five, ten or fifty years. IRAs are a simple, expedient and generally safe way to save towards financially more comfortable golden — or, at least, silver — years.

Write to the President and to your congressional representatives ASAP to support IRAs, fully tax-deductible IRAs.

Guest Editorial

By Misak Murdiehian

At this late date, a new phase has entered the preliminary studies slated toward hoped-for flood relief resulting from construction of the proposed Passaic/Pompton Rivers Dual Inlet Flood Tunnel Diversion, approved by Congress, President George Bush, and awaiting the approval of Governor Jim Florio.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is now seeking permission from property owners for access to make borings in land along the newly proposed route of the Tunnel, which would go under sections of Clifton, Montclair, Bloomfield, Nutley, Belleville, Kearny and Newark. About seven or eight holes would be drilled in Nutley, about 12 in Bloomfield and about 20 in Belleville.

The original proposal would have carried the excess floodwaters (slurry) to the Nutley/Clifton border, but vociferous complaints from persons on both sides of the Passaic River prompted Rev. Robert Torricelli (D-9th) to introduce an amendment that would send the effluent directly to Newark Bay. The new alignment adds $300 million to the original estimate of $1.2 billion. After passing Belleville, it would go under the Passaic River into Kearny, then under the river again at a point generally where Ferry Street intersects with Raymond Boulevard in Newark; at short distance further, the Tunnel would allow for effluent to empty finally into Newark Bay, at the northern end.

The Army Corps of Engineers plans to start the land-boring in April or May. This phase will take about five years. Since the Corps has already indicated how the penetration of the formidable obstacle will take place at Garretts Rock, the new boring work should be unnecessary. The proposed new routing is not far from the original plan outlined in 1984. Borings should not be necessary.

If the effluent were to be discharged at the Nutley/Clifton line as planned originally, the following problems would prevail: First, Nutley does not have eight acres of land available on which to build a pumping station, as outlined in the Army Corps textbooks on file in the libraries of the 11 affected communities. Further, besides damaging the riverside parklands in Rutherford and Lyndhurst, the tremendous added flow would immediately inactivate the five grade-level bridges, namely, Avondale (Nutley), Belleville Turnpike, the Clay Street Bridge and Jackson Street Bridge, the latter three in Newark. Vehicular traffic would cease whether the bridges were in the open or closed position. River traffic would be affected. Although timing and circumstances vary in harbors worldwide, the ocean rises and falls twice during every 24.84 hours as affected by the sun and moon. If the tide is rolling in during a flood in Wayne Township, the operators of the pumping station, regardless of whether in Nutley or Newark, would have to seal off the flood, otherwise tremendous problems would prevail in Newark Airport, the Kill Van Kull, etc., regardless of any dikes or levees that would be built there.

Material excavated in any given community belongs to that community; it is not to be transported elsewhere on the basis of "right of eminent domain." There are no landfills.

The Summer 1990 issue of PROTECT — (Passaic River Organizations to Encourage Construction of the Tunnel) has the following item: "It is estimated that some seven million cubic yards of rock will be excavated during construction of the project. The route of the Tunnel was developed with the knowledge that a large quantity of high quality highly marketable rock will have to be disposed of. Some of the excavated rock will be used in the construction of levees for additional flood protection. This rock can also be used to control beach erosion and as a landfill cover. Rock quarries near planned work shafts will store the rock until it can be sold. The four workshaft locations are situated near railroad and barge facilities, to minimize the number of trucks necessary to transport the excavated rock; and to avoid the use of local highways and streets for transporting the rock." Excavated material would remain stored in those quarries awaiting arrival of an occasional contractor's truck to remove some of the stuff as needed.

YOUR OPINION

Unmerciful waste

To the editor:

I wholeheartedly agree with Mr. Mike Giordano's letter to the Editor March 28.

This war was a brutal and unmerciful waste of innocent lives and "big" money that could have been put to better use.

Pope John Paul and Cardinal O'Connor say "War is never worth the shed of blood, loss of lives and destruction of countries." This is true.

Our President and his general seem to be very proud of the victory they "think" they achieved and hate to see it end. For shame! I have a great solution to ban all wars forever!

There should be an international law at the United Nations made legal and compulsory for all presidents, dictators and rulers of all countries to fight between themselves.

Whoever wants to invade or attack other countries, let them duel between themselves. They can use weapons of their own choosing, such as guns, swords or whatever.

That way only a few will be wounded or killed compared to thousands of our young men.

If they refuse, let their generals do their fighting for them.

This way they will be fearful and not too hasty and think twice before invading other countries.

I have sent this idea to the United Nations and a letter to Congress. It may help to reduce wars that are so tragic and devastating as wars of today.

Stella Dragri

Thank you, friends

To the editor:

We would sincerely like to thank the people of Belleville for their sympathy over the loss of our dear son Frankie.

We especially want to thank the Belleville friends of our dear son for all their love, compassion and all they have done to help and comfort us at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Efraim Pacheco and daughter Sylvia

Program appreciated

To the editor:

I think it would not be presumptuous to include the citizens of the Township of Belleville in a thank you to Jim Risoli and the students of the Middle School for initiating the "Support for our troops" march that recently took place.

The program was thoughtfully and tastefully produced.

James D. Hoogendyk

Insurance explained

To the editor:

Auto insurance regulation in New Jersey has undergone many changes recently, some of which require action on the part of every auto insurance policyholder. As a professional insurance agent and a director/officer of the Professional Insurance Agents of New Jersey, Inc., a trade association representing independent insurance agents throughout the state, I would like to inform readers about one of the latest changes.

Policyholders now have the option of making their health insurance coverage primary over their auto insurance coverage for the payment of medical expenses resulting from an auto accident. This new regulation became effective January 1, 1991, and is aimed at addressing the cost of auto insurance. The average policy will cost approximately $40 a year less if health insurance is selected as primary.

Every auto insurance policyholder will be asked to choose either their auto insurance carrier or health insurance carrier as primary to pay for auto-accident related expenses when their current policy is up for renewal or when buying a new policy. Before making this decision, however, there are a number of things to consider.

First, make sure that you and all family members living with you are covered by health carriers which will pay for auto-related medical expenses. If anyone in your household is not covered for such expenses, the health care coverage is not an option.

Another important consideration is that most health insurance plans are subject to a lifetime maximum of all benefits. Payments for auto accident injuries would count against the maximum, thus reducing the amount of coverage left to pay for other types of medical bills.

This deserves careful consideration. I encourage you to contact your agent for additional information so that the decision you make is an informed one.

God Bless America

To the editor:

This is a small note of thanks to all those who contributed to our hometown hero's drive. Those of you who didn't, I'm sure you supported our men and women in your own way. The packages which we sent over made them feel how much they are missed and appreciated. This was just one way for us to express the pride we have in them, for the job they do, for the freedom all of us enjoy. God bless them and God bless America.

• NUTLEY AND BELLEVILLE Democrat Party officials have endorsed Senator Carmen Orechio for re-election. A spokesman has indicated Senator Orechio continues on a campaign course to seek re-election. Democrat Party officials of Nutley and Belleville are quick to point out that a Democrat senate candidate must carry Nutley and Belleville to win the November election.

Four years ago, Senator Gabe Ambrosio, of Lyndhurst, lost his Bergen County area but won re-election by a victory in Passaic.

Nutley and Belleville are basically Republican, with Nutley substantially Republican. Press reports indicate that Assemblyman John Kelly intends to seek re-election from the new district. Senator Ambrosio's candidacy may not be a certainty. On Wednesday, March 27, at 5:30, he made a phone call to an Orechio associate declaring he would not run against Senator Orechio.

Mr. Garry Furnari, a Nutley attorney and coordinator of a Testimonial Dinner planned for Senator Carmen

Sen. Carmen Orechio

Orechio in mid-May, indicated his committee is going ahead with its dinner plans. "As far as the committee is concerned, Senator Orechio is a candidate for re-election, and we are moving with the testimonial dinner plans which have been six weeks in the making," Furnari stated. Orechio re-election petitions are in circulation.

In the last state senatorial campaign of November 1987, Senator Ambrosio lost Bergen County to his adversary, Republican Kathy Donovan, 12,267 to 11,799. The City of Passaic carried Ambrosio to victory where he received 4,422 to Donovan's 2,231, thus giving Ambrosio a 1,723 vote majority.

At press time, Assemblyman John Kelly of Nutley is a candidate seeking re-election and Passaic Councilman Paul DeGaetano may be Donovan's running mate.

With the political climate such as it is, and the formidable Assembly candidacies of DeGaetano and Kelly, Ambrosio may face a tougher time in '91 than when he eked out a victory in '87.

Most disturbing, concerning the attitude of the Democrat members of the Redistricting Commission, was a comment attributed to Senate President John Lynch when he was quoted as saying, "We had to do everything possible to save Gabe Ambrosio." And to think that Senator Orechio was a more faithful supporter of Senate President John Lynch than most Democrat senators. In politics, if you look for gratitude you buy a dog.

• WHO said business is bad? Speak to Lou Amalfitano, the field representative marketing memberships for the Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce. In recent months, Lou signed up eighty new members. As the Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce executive looks forward to its 75th anniversary in 1992, they expect to have a membership of 500 business persons. That's quite a feat. Congratulations are certainly in order.

One of my business colleagues tells me he just received his auto and home insurance invoices. He was happy to note a decrease in premium over last year of $222, and his homeowner's insurance policy reflected a decrease of $70. Maybe, the savings for New Jersey residents predicted by Governor Jim Florio are coming true. Florio may still make believers of the doubters.

Essex County Republican John Renna has a five-star candidate in the wings, ready to become the G.O.P. Essex County Sheriff's candidate. He is Newark's Ralph Greenleaf, who has a wealth of experience in law enforcement. In the present political climate, Greenleaf would appear to be the favorite, come November. He may well bring in other Republican candidates with him.

Attorney Joe Arenas who was counsel to the eleven member of the Redistricting Commission has the inside track from the Republican Party to be appointed as a U.S. District Court Judge. Of course, cynics aside, the judgeship has nothing to do with the manner in which Arenas gave advice to the eleven member of the Redistricting Commission who voted overwhelmingly in favor of Republican positions.

• FORMER NUTLEY School Board President, Professor Anthony Baratta of Fordham University, decided not to seek re-election to the Nutley Board of Education this year. The community loses one of its most valued Board of Education members. Baratta is brilliant, dedicated, decent, able and enjoys the reputation of impeccable personal integrity. Baratta was a giant on the school board, and he joins past giants like former School Board President, Ann Rabinowitz whose personality, wit and integrity are sadly missed in the community life of Nutley.

The Nutley Town Commission election is a little more than a year away and Nutley political observers expect a female to represent them on the Board of Commissioners. The two most talked about females for the Nutley Town Commission are former School Board President Ann Rabinowitz and School Board member Sally Goodson. Both or either one of these ladies would be a fine addition to the Nutley Township Commission.

YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD PHARMACY

While consumers are wise to compare the prices they pay for medications, cost is but one factor to be considered when attending to one's health needs. Large drugstore chains and mail-order plans may be able to offer their patrons and subscribers small savings on selected medications, but what about service? Does the drugstore in a large franchise operation have the time and interest to patiently answer an individual's questions about drug interactions, dosage and generic alternatives? Whom does one consult about such matters when dealing with a mail-order house? By contrast, the neighborhood pharmacy stands with service as its cornerstone. Familiarity with customer needs and medical histories, friendly advice, accessibility, and knowledge of drug interactions and dosage schedules all add up to service that cannot be measured in money alone.

We're here to give you friendly advice, along with information on drug, drug and drug & food interactions. Complete service is yours when you come to us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1058, 759-1056. We handle the sale and rental of wheel chairs, walkers, crutches, canes and other convenient aids. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-5pm Saturdays.

NOTE: As a preventative measure, always ask the pharmacist about the procedure to be followed in the event of a missed dose of prescribed medication.

Jules Palmieri is a key to high schoolers success

By Amy LoCoco

There are many bright students in the classroom of Belleville High School. They owe much of their success to the teachers who have contributed to their education. One teacher who has shown a great contribution to furthering education is Jules Palmieri, an Italian teacher at BHS.

Palmieri has been teaching in the Belleville school system for 15 years. He has been a part of many projects, and he also runs the well established Italian Club for the students.

One of his recent projects was to conduct an experiment with his Italian IV classes. His work attracted the attention of professor John Barell of Montclair State College. Palmieri's papers on his work are being used as part of a textbook authored by Professor Barell. This textbook is used for education courses at Montclair State College.

The work conducted by Palmieri is considered highly innovative. It revolves around the idea that the students should be allowed more control in what they do. He felt that he was doing too much talking and not getting enough feedback from the students. It was unclear whether they were grasping the language that they had been studying for four years.

Palmieri's experiment involved letting the student's decide what they would like to know. They were allowed to show their knowledge of historical periods through newspapers and bulletin boards. The students also read Dante's work and applied it to real life situations. One of the most successful procedures he tried was to create lessons in game formats. The students were in control of class instead of Palmieri. Skits and dramatizations were also prepared.

Palmieri's work is included in Barell's text "Teaching for Thoughtfulness." The text cites Belleville High School as a resource for additional information.

BASE night boat ride around N.Y. harbor

By Dawn Rafferty

Barbara Cicalese, chairperson of the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education, has announced that BASE is sponsoring an all-night boat ride around New York Harbor for the 1991 graduation class. The cruise will take place on June 20, immediately following the commencement exercises for the senior class.

Debbie Meola, BHS substance awareness coordinator, is administering "Project Graduation" with the assistance of Cicalese, William Lynch and Pat Taibi. "It is an honor and a pleasure to be part of a community organization that promotes the well being of our town's youth," said Meola. "It is BASE's goal to try and promote a drug and alcohol free celebration," she added.

Students who wish to participate will be bused to Weehawken immediately following commencement, and board the "Spirit of New Jersey" for a cruise around New York Harbor. The fun, entertainment and food will be non-stop with an all-night hot and cold buffet, casino gambling (underage style), disc jockeys and a few surprises.

Base members will chaperone the evening that will wind down about 3 a.m. Students will return to BHS for an early breakfast and a final farewell.

American flag honors U.S. troops in the Gulf

By Shannon Koch

A symbol of public support for U.S. troops in the Gulf and a display of BHS talent is flying high above a new construction site in Newark on the corner of Raymond Boulevard and Raymond Plaza.

Local 342 is presently working on the construction. Robert Cerretto, a union member and a BHS alumnus, donated all the materials and enlisted the talents of BHS seniors Kathy Sibrel, Robert Sebben, Anthony Roig, Richard Pretto and Lisa Scapperotta, to spray paint an American flag on a 15 by 20 foot tarp. The students are members of the Vocational Commercial Art 2 class, under the instruction of Barbara DiLia.

The Belleville High School News is a feature of the Belleville Times. It runs weekly, space allowing.

All stories are written by the students of Mr. Anthony Salese's journalism class. Their work is coordinated by student editor Denise Zecca.

Silver Spoon program helps speed recovery of patients

Mealtime can often be a lonely depressing experience. Coupled with hospitalization, it can also mean the difference in a speedy recovery and a slow one.

To help make mealtime an enjoyable experience and possibly hasten the recovery of its patients, the Volunteer Department at Clara Maass Medical Center began the Silver Spoons program.

In operation since last December, the Silver Spoons program was developed to provide assistance and companionship for selected geriatric patients at mealtime. According to Marlene French, manager of Volunteer Services at the medical center, the simple act of keeping a geriatric patient company while he eats may speed recovery and prevent disorientation that a hospital stay can produce. Studies done in hospitals in the late 1970s showed that 30 to 65 percent of hospitalized patients suffer from some malnutrition at the very time they need extra calories so their bodies can recover from illness.

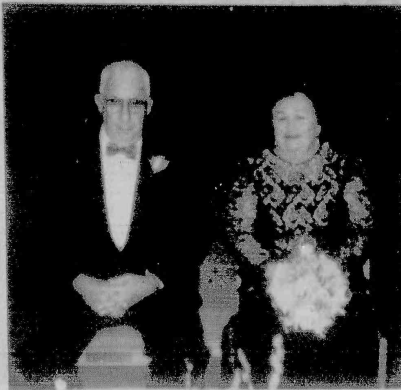

The program, initially began as an employee volunteer program and is now open to members of the community. A time commitment of one hour a week is required. To participate in the program, applicants must fill out an application in the volunteer office, set up a schedule for feeding and view a 10 minute video about the program. Volunteers who participate in the program will receive a Silver Spoon lapel pin to identify themselves.

"Most people, if given the opportunity to help a neighbor, will do so willingly," said French. "But busy people want an opportunity that is very specific, where there is definite payoff for time invested and manageable time commitment. This opportunity is close to home, the time commitment is minimal and many view the challenge as very personal. The volunteer's parents or the volunteer himself could be the patient in that bed one day."

If you would like to volunteer one hour a week as a Silver Spoon volunteer, call the Volunteer Office at 450-2150.

SPECIAL CEREMONY — Students and faculty from Holy Family School recently took part in a Seder, sponsored by the Home and School Association. The event gave them the chance to get a better understanding of the custom, celebrated by the Jewish people at Passover.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Shafer

Mr. and Mrs. Shafer celebrate golden year

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Shafer of Snug Harbor, Toms River, formerly of Belleville, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Feb. 1.

Following a renewal of their wedding vows at Ascension Church, Bradley Beach, the couple hosted a reception for relatives and friends at The Barclay, Belmar.

Mr. Shafer and the former Elizabeth C. Keenan were married Feb. 1, 1941 in Sacred Heart Church, Newark, the present cathedral. They lived in Belleville for more than 40 years before retiring to Toms River. Both were employed by the Belleville Fire Department until Mr. Shafer retired in 1966. He then worked for Midlantic National Bank, West Orange, as vice president in charge of special services until 1983.

The couple's family includes Robert J. Shafer Jr. and his wife, Barbara, of Neptune; Bernadette and her husband, Richard Whitmeyer of Barneget; Betty Ann and her husband, James Cozzarelli Jr. of Belleville and Eileen of Union. They also have 10 grandchildren.

SILVER SPOON volunteer Laverne Hageman assists 2 North Annex patient Lillian Mahaffey with some welcome refreshment.

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Since most of my predictions for major sports events go awry (witness last year's Super Bowl pick of San Francisco and Buffalo and last year's World Series of St. Louis and Oakland), I'm happy to say that I did predict Duke to beat UNLV in last week's column.

The two semi final games in the NCAA men's basketball tournament were outstanding. About the only controversy surrounding either game was the questionable technical fouls called on Dean Smith, the legendary coach of the North Carolina Tar Heels.

This isn't to say that Smith is above reproach. Forget that legendary stuff. A little common sense would have been just fine. Hitting a coach with a second technical foul with 36 left in a national semi because said coach walked past the coaching box is a little much.

If that be the case, then every official should call the technical on every occasion it occurs. Chances are, most coaches would be watching the game from the locker room around the ten minute mark in the first half. Surely, the guys who coached it, a second game of the semi would have gained an early exit if they were cited for the same offense.

Duke's victory over UNLV just goes to show how great sports can be. Here was a team that was given no chance to win. But the Blue Devils came out strong, avoided a let down and hung in there when it appeared that UNLV was on one of those patented 14-0 runs.

By the way, did Stacy Augmon play for UNLV? He was kept totally out of the game by the Blue Devil defense.

Then, of course, last Monday Duke finished the job by beating a real good Kansas team for the championship. The question now is whether Duke could be starting a dynasty of its own. Here is a team that has been to five of the last six Final Fours, has now won a championship and has the entire starting team back next season.

The average age of the Duke team was 19.5 years. If they have a good recruiting year, and you can almost bet the farm that that will happen, Duke could be the hands down choice to repeat next season.

Other teams to look out for next winter, in addition to Duke, are North Carolina, Seton Hall and Georgetown.

PROUD MARY'S SAYS GO, D-BYE

One of Bloomfield's more popular restaurants is said good bye this week as Proud Mary's closes its doors. There will be a new restaurant at the location in a couple of weeks.

There were a lot of good memories at that restaurant over the years. It was the spot to go to after a Belleville football game on an autumn evening. Many a World Series game would be watched at the bar and many a cheeseburger would be eaten.

It was basically a fun place to eat, similar to the "Cheers" bar and grill that is seen on television. The same bar could be seen there week in and week out.

There was a time that the restaurant would be packed on a Saturday evening. But times began to change and the attendance dropped throughout the years. A change was needed and now, a new establishment will take over.

I'd like to bid a final good-bye to Proud Mary's. Thanks for all the memories.

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL

The 1991 high school baseball season begins this week. With it, there are some memories of high school sports gone by. One of the better openers was the 1976 Bellview season opener with Irvington High School.

Belleville entered the '76 campaign with a great deal of promise. The team, coached by George Zandlen, ended the '75 season with a 14-0 record. Most of the players from the '75 team were back and Belleville had an ax to grind with Irvington, having lost two heartbreakers in '75.

Greg Pettit pitched a gem for Belleville in the '76 opener, but Irvington was one run better, winning a 1-0 decision.

Belleville went on a roll after that loss, taking the next 18 games in a row. Included in that streak was an 11-6 record of Irvington in early May.

Belleville was ranked number one in the state for a two week period in May. The team eventually finished the season with a 24-4 record.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

The regular season kicks off next Monday, so it's time for a few predictions.

First off, the Cardinals won't win the N.L. East. I'll concede that now. Believe it or not, I'm going with the New York Mets to capture the East, with the Cubs a close second. The rest of the division will feature St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Montreal and Philadelphia.

In the N.L. West, it should go down to the wire. Look for San Francisco to take the division, with Los Angeles and Cincinnati a close second and third respectively.

In the American League East, Boston and Toronto are the early season favorites. However, I'm going with Baltimore to surprise everyone and take the division crown.

In the A.L. West, Oakland's reign will come to an end. The pick here is Kansas City to edge Chicago and California in what should be a tremendous race down the stretch.

The World Series predictions are Kansas City and San Francisco.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The last time two teams from the same state played in the same Final Four was in 1977. That year, North Carolina and North Carolina at Charlotte joined Marquette and UNLV in the semis. Marquette eventually won the championship, beating North Carolina in the title game.

FOR THIS WEEK

What conference produced the most teams in the Final Four during the 1980's? What coach took his team to the most Final Fours? AND FINALLY...

The John Engel picnic is getting closer. Only 51 more days, and counting. By the way John, I haven't gotten my invitation yet. Perhaps it got lost in the mail.

Cardinale, Mastropoalo are undefeated

J.V. wrestlers finish 10-1-1

By Joe Piegara

All too often the success of the Belleville varsity wrestling program overshadows the progress of its own jayvee team.

This year was no exception. Despite a 10-1-1 record, the sub varsity grapplers performed in relatively anonymous terms.

Two new coaches, alumnus Mike Iuliano and Bob Gayle, led the team to an undivided season in the N.N.J.I.L. The JV Bucs lost to Elizabeth and tied J.P. Stevens in non-league dual meets.

Since the number of students involved in the sport was particularly low this year, there was no freshman team. All ninth graders participated as jayvee members, but were allowed to wrestle in freshman tournaments if they qualified.

The JV Bucs were entered in four tournaments (Elizabeth, Kearny, North Bergen and Rahway) and although they did not win any team titles, many individuals did earn plaques for their respective performances. The same fate befell the freshmen. They were entered in the Elizabeth and North Bergen freshman tournaments and performed well as individuals, but not quite so well as a team.

Two wrestlers completed the JV season undefeated, they being 103 pounder Ish Cardinale and heavyweight Anthony Mastropoalo. Cardinale, a freshman, was 27-0, not including two wins and no losses as a varsity performer. He became only the second BUC wrestler to go undefeated at three levels of competition in the same year. A 2-0 varsity record, 23-0 as a jayvee and 4-0 as a freshman pairs Ish with Ralph Perna as the only two BHS students to perform such a deed.

Additionally, Cardinale was first in all four jayvee tournaments mentioned earlier and first in the North Bergen freshman tournament, considered to be the most difficult fresh tourney in the state. Oh, and one more thing, he was first in the conference too! Any more kudos for this kid and the cramp in my writing hand will become permanent.

Junior Anthony Mastropoalo paired with Cardinale as JV co-captain and finished his sub varsity season with a 16-0 record. Anthony won the Elizabeth and Rahway tournaments as well as finishing first above all other heavyweights in the N.N.J.I.L.

Late in the season, varsity 275 pounder George Wallace went down for five matches with a knee injury. Mastropoalo was called up as his replacement and fashioned a 3-2 record in his first try at the big time. Barring any unforeseen developments, this big guy should fight right in on the varsity next year and would probably deserve the status as District 7 favorite along with Ron Edmond of St. Benedict's and Raul Davila of Glen Ridge.

This year's jayvee squad wrestled the entire year without a 171 pounder and most of the year without a 160 pound occupant. In addition, there were times when some of the JV stars were brought up to the varsity to fill in, leaving the JV lineup missing as many as five wrestlers. Naturally, because of the lack of depth, those missing wrestlers wound up as forfeits in the dual meet. Yet they overcame those obstacles to post that impressive 10-1-1 record.

The lower weights carried most of the load, much the same as the varsity lineup. Ninth grader Mark Bianchini competed at 112 pounds and fashioned an 18-7-1 record. He placed second at the Kearny jayvee tournament, third in Rahway and fourth at Elizabeth. In that monstrous North Bergen freshman event, Mark placed a very creditable third.

By season's end, Bianchini was being sorely tested by teammate and fellow freshman Joe McNish. McNish started the year slowly, but finished 10-6 earning a second place finish in the Elizabeth freshman tournament. Joe also finished second in the N.N.J.I.L. standings.

McNish and Bianchini were so closely matched that every practice session became more difficult than most of their respective dual meets. Both boys should merit some time on next year's varsity squad.

Freshman Enrico Della Merced shared the 119 pound slot with a great deal of success. Della Merced was 19-4, placing second in the NNJIL. Enrico also won both the Elizabeth and North Bergen freshman tournaments, as well as going 1-1 as a varsity fill-in. There is a better than even chance that he could fill the 125 pound class next year on the varsity if Junior Nardone chooses to move into the 130 pound division.

Pierion was 9-8, finishing fifth in the Rahway jayvee tournament. Still a bit green and rough around the edges, Pierion appears to need another year at the jayvee level to hone his skills. Rodney Gabler (2-3) and Kevin Ernst (0-2) saw part time duty in this weight class during the season.

Another soph, Joe Clay, held down the 125 pound slot and finished the year at 19-4. A first place finish at Kearny and in the NNJIL were followed by a second at North Bergen, a third at Rahway and a fourth in Elizabeth. Clay can be spectacular at times, frustratingly sloppy at others. A summer of tournaments and drilling would make him a prime varsity candidate for the 1991-92 season. When Clay needed a breather, Wilfredo Dasco covered the slot and earned a 3-4 record, placing fourth in the Rahway jayvee tournament.

At 130 pounds, tenth grader Lou Zarro finished at 11-11. He earned a second at Rahway and a fourth in Elizabeth. He also finished fourth in the NNJIL. Lou was followed in the lineup by Vinnie Barrett, a junior whose 16-5 record at 135 pounds was good for fourth place in the NNJIL. Vinnie won the Kearny tournament, also placing second at Rahway and third at Elizabeth.

The 140 pound weight class was shared by Anis Cruz and Rudy Levin, both freshmen. Cruz finished at 4-7 with a fourth place finish at Kearny and in the NNJIL. Levin, wrestling in his first season, completed a 6-9 slate.

Bob Gauthier competed at 145 pounds, fashioning a 10-12 record in his sophomore year. He earned a second at Rahway and fourth place finishes in Kearny, North Bergen and the NNJIL.

Inexperience was the bane of the upper weights as evidenced by John Lewis, both freshmen. Cruz finished at 4-7 with a fourth place finish at Kearny and in the NNJIL. Levin, wrestling in his first season, completed a 6-9 slate.

BUC NOTES: just a few bits and pieces left over from other articles: senior Tom Pontrella had the most difficult pre-district schedule. Of the 22 matches he wrestled, 14 were against opponents who placed 1st - 2nd - 3rd in the districts. Additionally, he faced 3 Regional champs, more than any other BUC. Time to start my yearly argument - best team ever? Here it is:

103 - Carl Arlt; 112 - Vince Mustachio; 119 - Mike Iuliano; 125 - Junior Nardone; 130 - Mondo Nardone; 135 - Joe Cerreto; 140 - Danny Bivona; 145 - Robert Villano; 152 - Chris Tremel; 160 - Dan Hywel; 171 - Chris Musmanno; 189 - Mike Gibbons; 275 - George D'Allesandro.

Please send all arguments to the Times, thank you! This will probably be the final article of the year, barring any unforeseen developments. Once again, it has been my pleasure to write for you. Thanks for reading! See you next year!

Fiallos only graduating senior

The future is now for Lady Buc hoops

By Mike Lamberti

Although the high school girls' basketball season has been over for two weeks now, Karen Fucello's coaching season is just halfway completed. The veteran coach is currently busy with her AAU team, a job Fucello has enjoyed for the past 12 years.

"The talent on the 15 and 16 year old level is unbelievable," the coach said. "The current sophomore class, next years juniors, in this state are a very talented group. If our kids are going to compete next year and beyond, they have to realize that next season begins now."

"Our kids" that Fucello refers to are the Lady Buc basketball team. In 1990-91, the team showed improvement, winning five games. That's a five game improvement over the '89-90 campaign which gives you an indication that the Lady Bucs had only one way to go entering this past season.

"We have a very young team," the coach said. "They were a good group to work with and during the season, I saw a lot of improvement. We were a lot more competitive than the previous season. The kids began to understand what it takes to win in our league."

"But now comes the difficult part. What are they going to do from now until the day after Thanksgiving? They have to start playing as much as possible and doing all the things necessary to be better for next year. Camps, summer leagues and playing consistently will make them better."

There was only one senior on the '90-91 squad. Zislav Fiallos was the defensive specialist on the team and provided much more with her leadership ability.

"Zislav was the heart of our team," Fucello said. "She always drew the most difficult defensive assignment. She's a tough competitor."

"Colleen needs to become more aggressive on the offensive side," Fucello said. "She has a classic jump shot and all the tools necessary to be a real good high school player."

Junior Danielle DeWerk averaged nearly seven points a game.

"Once again, Danielle needs to be more aggressive offensively next year," said the coach. "She can definitely do the job."

Sophomore Jennifer Abrams averaged over six points a game. The sophomore forward came on strong in the later stages of the season.

"Jennifer has the ability to score consistently in our league," Fucello said. "She has made a commitment to basketball during the off season."

With so many young players that now have varsity experience, Fucello has "four interchangeable parts" for the first four positions on the varsity team.

"Abrams, DeWerk, Melanie VanDam and Mary Campbell can all play four different positions in our lineup. We haven't had that much versatility in a while. Add a point guard, which this season was Vanissa Calvi and it rounds out our starting lineup."

VanDam missed a portion of the season because of injury. Campbell played well in her first year of varsity basketball.

Calvi, a sophomore, had the difficult assignment of running an

Crew team defeats Raiders in opener

By Mike Lamberti

While the results from the season opening Belleville crew race were encouraging, head coach Bob Cassin isn't planning any victory celebrations quite yet.

The Bucs defeated boathouse rival Nutley last Monday, winning all five of its races. Belleville will compete in the first of a series of "Flick" races this weekend in Philadelphia. More on the Flicks later in this article.

"It's early in the season and while the results were good, we know we have a lot of work to do," Cassin said after the race with Nutley. "The kids gave a good account of themselves, but we all know the real races start in May and these early season performances are just practice for the big races to come."

The "real" races Cassin refers to are the regattas which commence the first weekend in May. During May, the Bucs compete in the City Championships, the Mid Hudson Regatta, the Statesbury Regatta and the National Championships.

The race with Nutley was originally scheduled for last Saturday afternoon. However an early morning snow fall, along with a steady wind forced cancellation of the race to Monday afternoon.

"The snow wasn't as much of a concern as the wind was," Cassin said. "On the water, wind is the main problem, especially in late March."

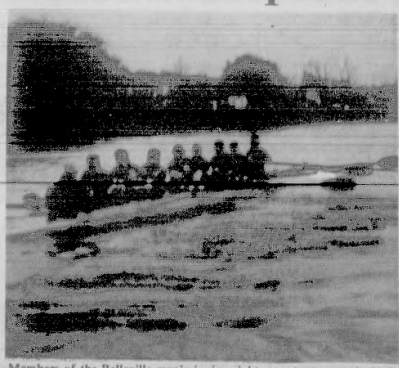

The senior four women were the first to race and the team came through with a 15 second victory.

"They came through with a strong performance," Cassin said of the women. "They have been rowing for four years and know what has to be done."

The junior eight men hit the Passaic next and they won by 16 seconds.

"They raced well, for openers," said Cassin. "They didn't row to their ability. They were a little

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Attention all teachers!

The Belleville Recreation Department has announced that applications for Summer Recreation positions are now available. Playground director positions are open to teachers and those who will have completed their third year of college by the summer of 1991. Preference is given to full-time teachers and to college seniors majoring in recreation, physical education, teaching and psychology. Previous leadership in recreation settings and/or outstanding athletic ability is a plus. Applicants must also have good organizational skills. There will be few positions open to those who desire summer employment are urged to apply promptly.

Persons wishing to apply should phone the Recreation Department office at 450-3422 weekdays to obtain an application. Interviews will be scheduled in the springtime. Potential applicants must be teachers or college students working toward a teaching degree and must be available to work for seven straight weeks from June 24 to August 9. All returning employees who qualify must also re-apply.

Recreation track

The Belleville Recreation Department will be offering a recreation track program for boys and girls in grades 6, 7 and 8. The program will tentatively be conducted Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays at the Stadium from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Scheduled to begin on April 1, the program will be designed to introduce aspiring runners to the fundamentals of track and field. Participation, rather than competition, will be stressed. Training will consist of instructions and fun activities, instead of intense physical workouts. This year's program instructor will be Donna Lee Daudelin, a former runner for the Belleville High School Track team.

Children in grades 6, 7 and 8 who reside in Belleville are eligible. Those children who will be playing baseball or softball should not take part in this program, however, since practices and schedules will conflict. To register, come to the Recreation Department office at 407 Jorammon Street between 8:30-4:00, Monday-Friday, with your birth certificate.

Umpires needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is in need of adults and boys or girls, age 16 or older, to umpire games in the recreation baseball and softball leagues. Games are played on weekday nights and Saturdays during the months of April-June. For more information or to apply, please call the Recreation Department office at 450-3422 or stop at the Rec House on Jorammon Street between 4 p.m. on weekdays.

A.M. Softball set for Sunday

The Sunday Morning Softball League (SMSL) will kickoff its 21st season this Sunday, April 7, at Belleville Park, located on Belleville Avenue.

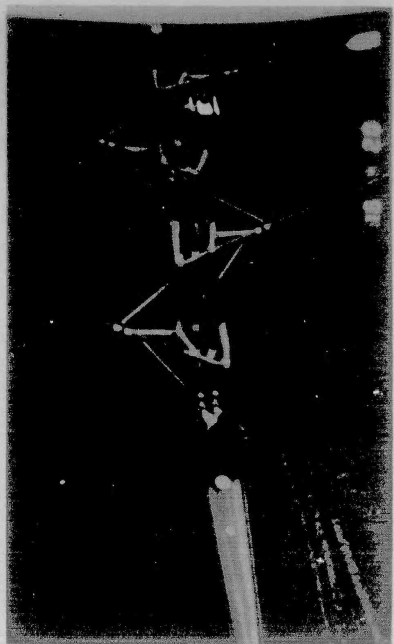

League director Tom Hayes announced that 12 teams will be in the league. Games are held at 9 a.m., 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. on Sunday mornings.

Teams comprising the SMSL this year are Domino Trucking, UTC, Bellwood Kennel, Draperies Plus, Black Sox, Garden State Caulking, Michaels Roscommon House, Tailgaters, Prestige Auto Care, Newark Firemen, Visentin Plumbing and The Bombers.

Draperies Plus are the defending league champs. They defeated UTC for the title last summer.

There is also the possibility of a benefit tournament later this season, according to Hayes.

The second annual All Star game will be played on June 2, at 12:30 p.m. in Belleville Park.

The Belleville women's senior four shell won its opening race against Nutley last Monday. The girls are expecting a big season on the high seas.

Oarsmen sweep Nutley

jittery at the start. I know they will get a lot better as the season progresses. Even though it's a junior or eight, the team is made up of six sophomores and two juniors. When they get to the Flicks race, they will see some very strong competition."

Next up was the novice eight men's team and they came through with an eight second win.

"That was probably the best race of the day," Cassin said. "Joe Ferriola is the coach of that team and they did quite well. Those kids didn't even start rowing until two weeks after everyone else because there was a mix up with their swimming test. They're mostly ninth and tenth graders and they will only get better."

The senior four men rowed in late May style in early April, winning by 30 seconds.

"They rowed really well," Cassin said. "The team was under control the entire race, with a slow pace and 28 to 29 strokes per minute, which is excellent. It's a veteran team and they showed it in the opener."

The senior four is made up of Lee Hands, Sean Kimball, Jim Mastropolo, Mark Geissen and Heather Appruxes.

Finally, the varsity eight women's team prevailed by 16 seconds over their Nutley counterparts.

The team, made up mostly of junior rowers, gave a steady performance.

As for the Flicks, they are a series of races held on Sunday's in Philadelphia. A number of schools participate in the race and Belleville has been rowing there since 1986.

"The Flicks are always a good test for us," Cassin said. "Kearny will be there and they are always strong. Other teams like Holy Spirit, LaSalle and Absecon will also be a good test. Some of the prep schools bring about five or six freshmen boats alone. Some of these teams get about 150 boys out for the crew teams."

After the races in April, the Flicks are culminated by the City Championships, usually held the first weekend in May at Philadelphia.

Girls' B-ball showed improvement

 experienced offense.
 "The pressure was always on Yanina," Fuccello said. "She has the ability. She just needs to focus on the assignment at all times. Yanina showed a great deal of maturity as the year went on."
 A pair of freshman, Li Ramirez and Adrienne Walsh both played very well.
 "In hoping that both girls make that commitment to basketball over the summer," Fuccello said. "They both have a lot of ability."
 The coach was also pleased with the performance of young players such as Chris Caputo, Tara Gallo, Kim O'Mara, Kim Salernitano and Sue Sprick.
 Those girls saw most of their playing time on the JV, but they could be key players on the varsity.
 "Perhaps Belleville's biggest victory this season was the overtime win against league rival Paramus." "We were down by ten points in that game and fought back," Fuccello said. "That game showed our kids that they can do it."

The final two games of the season also showed the team the work it needs to do to move to that next level. Belleville played league and state powers Bloomfield and Kennedy in the final two games of the 90-91 campaign. Belleville was dominated in both games, but the girls got a first hand example of the dedication necessary to build a solid program.

 "The talent in this area is only going to get better," Fuccello said in closing. "The question is whether our kids will respond to that challenge."

Golf team has big task ahead in effort to match 1990 season

By Mike Lamberti
 Year in and year out, the Belleville golf team has been outstanding. Last year, Gene D'Allesandro's team went one step better than outstanding, attaining the level of near perfection with a record of 19-1-1. The Bucs tied for the NNJIL championship with Don Bosco and set a team record for most victories in a season.
 The question for D'Allesandro now is what can the team do for an encore?
 "We're just going to do our best," the coach said. "We had a good turnout of players and we have a lot of the kids back from last year. I don't make predictions, but I feel we can hold our own and compete in the NNJIL."
 During the 1980's, the golf program at Belleville produced some very impressive results. From 1980-

89, the team posted winning records every year and won two NNJIL titles. Mike Salernitano coached the Bucs in 1980, Rocco Colucci was the mentor from 1981-86 and D'Allesandro has led the way since '87.
 This year, there is a strong senior contingent. Returning seniors are Jerry Mahoney, Vic Talamini, Mike Escott and Anthony Papanatoni. Most Belleville fans will remember Papanatoni as the outstanding center on the 1990 Bucs football team. Mahoney was voted the Most Improved Golfer on the '90 team.
 Junior P.J. Taibi is considered one of the better golfers in the league. Last season, he led the Bucs with an average of 43.4 shots for nine holes. He then capped off a strong season by shooting an 89 at the NNJIL championships.

D'Allesandro is also optimistic about three new freshmen, Cliff Marra, Jason Mohren and Bob Marra.
 "We haven't had too many practices because of the poor weather," the coach said. "We open this week (last Monday was the first match) and hopefully we can get some good weather from here on."
 The Bucs opened the '91 campaign last Monday against St. Peter's. The team will take on Cedar Grove this afternoon at Hendricks Field, starting at 3:35 p.m.
 Belleville has another ambitious schedule this spring, with 27 matches on the slate.
 "We're hoping to get them all in," D'Allesandro said, "but you know how it is, with rain and cancellations. Last year, we got in 23 matches. Hopefully we can play a few more this season."

DEFEND —

At the discretion of the Governing Body to either provide legal representation by the Township Attorney or his designee, or in the event of a conflict pay reasonable legal fees and expenses for other legal representation.

TIMELY NOTICE — Shall mean 7 days from the date of service of the summons and/or complaint upon the official or employee, inclusive of weekends and holidays.

INDEMNIFY — Pay or reimburse for the official or employee for any judgment, or not assessed against the official or employee, any settlement agreed to by the Township, and any reasonable expenses incurred by the defense. The Township shall not indemnify an official or employee for any fines or penalties imposed in any criminal or quasi-criminal proceeding, or exemplary or punitive damages awarded in any civil proceeding.

Section 3 — Obligation of Township to Defend and Indemnify:

Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 4, below, the Township shall defend and/or indemnify its officials and employees whenever any legal action has been or shall be brought against one or any of them for any action or omission arising out of or in the course of their duties as a Township official or employee.

Section 4 — Exceptions:

The Township shall not defend and/or indemnify a Township official or employee in a civil or criminal proceeding if in the opinion of the governing body any of the following circumstances exist:

A. Where the act or omission complained of was not within the scope of employment or authority, or constitutes a violation of a written departmental rule or regulation.

B. Where the act or omission complained of was a result of actual fraud, willful misconduct, actual malice or an intentional wrong.

C. Where the defendant was or is an elected official and the legal proceeding involves a question concerning the election laws.

D. Where the defense of the action or proceeding would create a conflict of interest between the Township and the official or employee involved.

E. Where the official or employee was not acting in good faith or in the interest of the Township.

F. Where a policy of insurance has been obtained by the Township, or by any other person which insures the official or employee and the insurance company has agreed to provide such defense and indemnity for the official or employee and the Township.

G. Where the official or employee fails to give timely notice of the claim or action to the Township Manager or thereafter fails to fully cooperate in the defense of the matter.

H. Where the proceeding is or has been brought by the Township against the official or employee.

I. Where the proceeding involves allegations of a crime, disorderly persons offense or ordinance violation on behalf of an official or employee setting outside the scope of his official duties or authority.

J. Where the proceeding is criminal quasi-criminal or disciplinary in nature; instituted as a result of a complaint or summons on behalf of the Township. Indemnification under such circumstances for a member of official of the Belleville Police Department shall be governed by Section 5 below consistent with N.J.S.A. 40A:45-5.

K. Where the official or employee is not a defendant and the governing body has not approved the institution of the legal proceeding.

Section 5 — Procedure:

A. Notice: Within 7 days of service of a summons, complaint and/or legal notice upon any official or employee seeking a defense under indemnification under this Chapter that person shall deliver to the Township Manager a copy of said summons, complaint and/or legal notice. Failure to supply such notice, will bar defense and/or indemnification under this Chapter unless the delay was reasonable and due to excusable neglect or inadvertence and further provided the Township has suffered no prejudice by reason thereof.

B. Review: The Township Manager and the Township Attorney shall review the notice and advise the Township Council of the notice, which shall determine if a defense and/or indemnification shall be provided and under what conditions if any. Said decision shall be in the form of a resolution.

C. Defense: In all proceedings where professionally and ethically appropriate the Township Attorney shall provide a defense when necessary to a Township official or employee. In those instances where a defense is necessary and the Township Attorney cannot provide that defense, the Township shall hire counsel to provide said defense.

D. Indemnification: Where the Township agrees to provide a defense, it should also determine whether or not to indemnify the official for any judgment entered or settlement reached. Where the Township has not agreed to provide a defense, reimbursement may only be provided to an official or employee who obtains a dismissal or favorable final judgment, provided that within 5 days of the retaining private counsel, that official or employee delivers to the Township Manager a copy of a signed written retainer agreement with the private attorney in which the attorney certifies to keep accurate and complete records of the hours which the attorney spend on the legal proceedings (to include the date and nature of services performed with regard to all times) from the outset of the case and to submit an affidavit of service at the conclusion of the proceedings setting out that detailed time information, and within 20 days of the termination of the proceedings the signed attorney's affidavit of service is delivered to the Township Manager. Reimbursement in this event will be limited to reasonable attorney's fees and expenses.

The reasonableness of fees will be determined by the current hourly rate payable to the Township by the Township. The amount of reimbursement shall be reduced by any money received by the official or employee in any counter-action against the person(s) bringing the action against him or against any third party. If no monies are received on such counter-action, reimbursement shall be reduced by any attorney's fees or court costs attributable to such counter-action.

E. Control Over Litigation: Whenever the Township provides any defense required of it under this Chapter, the Township through its Attorney, may assume exclusive control over the representation of the official or employee, and such person shall fully cooperate with the defense.

F. Costs and Expenses: All costs and expenses to be incurred in the defense of an official or employee must be approved by the Township Attorney prior to actually incurring said costs or expenses by counsel provided by the Township or retained by the official or employee. The Township will only assume responsibility for costs or expenses of which it has had prior notice and which is reasonable.

G. Settlement: If the legal proceeding is terminated by an agreement among the parties, the Township shall not be obligated to indemnify the official or employee unless the Township first approves its settlement agreement.

Section 6 — Severability: If any section, sub-section, clause or provision of this Ordinance shall be adjudged by the Courts to be invalid, such adjudication shall apply only to the section, sub-section, clause or provision so adjudged and the remainder of this Ordinance shall be deemed valid and effective.

April 4, 1991

This Ordinance shall take effect upon final passage and publication according to law. Any legal action which may be brought by this Chapter which has not been brought to a final judgment as of the date of passage shall be covered by the terms of this Chapter.

Sailing Permits, A Must for Aliens

Sailing permits are a must for aliens before leaving the United States.

A sailing permit is a certificate of compliance which you fill out upon your departure that establishes whether or not you owe any U.S. taxes.

Apply for your sailing permit at your local IRS district office no more than 30 days before departure. But allow at least two weeks for processing in case there should be any questions on your paperwork.

Bring all documentation related to your income and stay in the U.S., such as receipts, cancelled checks and past years' tax returns.

Both Form 1040C and 2063 have the "certificate of compliance" section. Form 2063 is an official tax statement certifying compliance with U.S. tax law. Form 1040C computes any tax you may owe and certifies compliance.

More information on U.S. tax requirements of aliens is available toll-free at 1-800-829-3676. Ask for English-language Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.
