Aside From That

By Howard Klausner

Friends of Alice Neff, the 16-year-old who is battling heroically a serious illness at Beth Israel Hospital, will want to help her keep up her spirits. She entered the hospital in March, and it has been a painful, difficult fight for her. Cards from friends, neighbors and classmates would be appreciated. And prayers won't hurt, either. It can be a lonely struggle for a young girl. ●●●●● A struggle of a different kind is being carried on by Ruth Shlissel, a 35-year resident who has been trying to have a traffic light installed at the Pathmark shopping center on Washington Avenue. She has been fighting for six years. Two years ago, victory seemed in sight. She received a letter from Hazel Gluck, then commissioner of the Department of Transportation, promising that the light would be erected. That was June 9, 1989. Mrs. Shlissel has heard a rumor that the traffic light is somewhere in a warehouse in the county, but no one seems to know any more than that. Police Chief George Lister said that the money has been appropriated, but some errors turned up in the agreement between the DOT and the owners of the Pathmark property, causing a delay until the errors are corrected. So it's any day, now, a-a-a-day now. ●●●●● Dr. Jack Grundfest is an example of enforced retirement. The competent general surgeon hung up his scalpel two years ago, not for lack of interest in utilizing half a century's experience in surgery for the good of his patients, but because it would have cost him $50,000 a year to carry malpractice insurance. The fun of suing the doctor has become a national pastime in the last 10 years, and an insurance policy that used to be nominal in cost is enough to end a career. Our legislators have not figured a way to protect patients - and we do need it - without bankrupting the doctors. And girls, Dr. Grundfest has a physician son whose lecturing services are in such demand as to keep him a frequent flyer, world-wide, and the guy is 38, and single. Enough said. ●●●●● Kay Clarke is the young lady of middle years who has accumulated 6,000 working hours as a volunteer at the Clara Maass Medical Center and finds time to devote herself to other volunteer work as well. The importance of volunteers to the hospital cannot be overestimated, considering how tight hospital budgets are, these days, and the spirit of volunteerism is strong in Belleville. Fortunately. ●●●●● Among themyths about Nurse Clara Maass is that she spoke only German and was born overseas. In point of fact, she was born in the Oranges to a German immigrant couple, and she was educated in Livingston. Her father was a hatter and grocer, and she studied nursing at what was then the German Hospital in Newark, which had been founded in 1875 by a group of German physicians. The name was changed in 1918 to Lutheran Hospital in the midst of the anti-German hysteria that swept the country during World War I. This was the period when the good people of Rutherford, worried about the German population in East Rutherford and Carlstadt, mounted a cannon at Station Square that faced in the direction of those two communities. East Rutherford, not to be outdone in patriotism, renamed streets commemorating Goethe and Schiller to Union and Liberty. Clara Maass served with the Army as a civilian nurse, and worked with Dr. Walter Reed. It was in Cuba that she submitted to a fatal bite from a malarial mosquito as part of an experiment in building immunity to the disease. She died in 1901 at the age of 22. An authentic heroine, she was virtually forgotten for half a century until someone remembered the courage of the young woman who literally gave her life to help humanity. This time, it is unlikely that the name will be changed.

Council sees 12½ point tax cut

Homeowners may find a 550 reduction in their property tax on the average this year if the proposed 1991 budget is passed.

This is based on a 5 point reduction plus 7.5 points expected in a windfall from the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission. The PVSC will receive $23 million from the Port Authority to finance sludge removal. This will mean a $350,000 reduction in the town's payment to the PVSC. This will be equivalent to 7.5 points in the tax rate.

The budget was discussed at a steady session in which shouts of "liar" were heard frequently from disaffected members of the audience.

Final passage of the budget awaits state approval.

The budget itself means an expenditure of $26,860,769, which is $840,000 more than the previous budget. However, additional revenues and some adjustments in the budget will mean that $800,000 less in taxes will have to be collected.

Two of the more vocal critics of the budget were former commissioners Vincent Frantantonio and Joseph Fornarotto who charged that they were being shut out of debate by the council.

At one point Frantantonio raised the question about the appropriation for the Public Library. It turned out that a figure of $471,000 should have been $417,000. Frantantonio argued that this was only one of many errors in the budget.

Fornarotto demanded to know who besides himself had been fired from the municipal government. Town manager Bert Kendall said that four jobs had been eliminated, including the one held by Fornarotto, for a total saving of over a quarter million dollars.

A discussion arose about the use of the budget surplus. In this year's budget $75,000 more will be taken out of the budget surplus than was taken last year. Kendall said this was in response to a demand by the Department of Community Affairs that the municipalities use up more of their budget surpluses to reduce taxes. This would be offset by contributions by the state to the municipalities, and some $3 million in state funds which had been intended for the educational program will be used to reduce taxes in Belleville.

Still up in the air is the school budget. The council has voted a $330,000 reduction in the school budget, but the board of education is filing an appeal with the State Commissioner of Education. Essex County Superintendent of Schools Peter Carter met Monday night with the council and asked for a compromise.

Clara Maass: "A good citizen"

It was "Belleville Day" at Clara Maass Medical Center, June 5, with town officials and hospital executives sharing expressions of good will, and the hospital dropping strong hints of its importance to the town.

President and Chief Executive Officer Robert S. Curtis listed these items: "Twenty percent of the patients treated at the Medical Center last year were Belleville residents. That's more than any other town."

"One fourth of the residents in our Continuing Care Nursing Home came from Belleville.

"Twenty-two Belleville residents have graduated from our School of Nursing in recent years.

"We are investing $38.2 million in the community through our ongoing construction and renovation work. Recent openings include a new medical office building, state-of-the-art Imaging Center, new parking deck and newly renovated patient floors.

"Two hundred and forty six Clara Maass employees live in Belleville. They were paid nearly $6 million last year.

"Over a quarter of a million dollars was paid to 40 Belleville vendors last year.

"We pay approximately a quarter of a million dollars in taxes to Belleville each year."

Among the elected officials present were Mayor Marina Perna, who spoke briefly about her warm regard for the hospital, and Councilmen Frank Noonan, Mario Drozd and William Cook. Frank Puzo represented Representative Robert A. Roe and Senator Carmen Orechio paid tribute to the memory of Clara Maass, the nurse who gave her life in a malaria control experiment, 90 years ago.

Nurse Maass was a native of New Jersey who was graduated from the school of nursing of the old Newark German Hospital, the forerunner of today's Medical Center. She died in Cuba at the age of 22, after allowing herself to be bitten by a malarial mosquito in the hope of developing an immunity to the often-fatal disease.

The hospital took on her name in 1952, about the time it moved to Belleville.

President Curtis' remarks reflected the fact that there have been vocal critics of the town's relationship with the hospital, arguing that more taxes might have been collected from the hospital site and that costs of services provided the hospital are burdensome.

Curtis emphasized the economic benefits of the hospital to the town, along with the humanitarian aspects.

One speaker, Kay Clarke of Belleville, noted that as a hospital volunteer, she has been happy to perform 8,000 hours of service, as an example of community support for the institution.

Donna Rainone of Belleville, a hospital employee, spoke of her happiness at having a productive job at the medical center.

Rotary installs first woman president

Shirlee Sherman succeeded Anthony Chirico as president of Belleville Rotary, Friday, and thereby became the first woman to head the prestigious service organization.

At a dinner held at the Forest Hill Country Club, Mrs. Sherman promised to "double the membership" of the organization, which now has 20 active members.

Friends and well wishers saluted her achievement. Senator Carmen Orechio cited her election as "another pinnacle of success in her career."

Mrs. Sherman recently retired from the children's clothing store business which had been a family enterprise for three generations.

She has been active in many civic activities, and her private charities have become legend.

Besides her activity in Rotary, she is involved in Scouting, and she is conducting a campaign in behalf of the Safe House for Battered Women, sponsored by the Clara Maass Medical Center. She is a past president of the local chapter of B'nai B'rith.

Taking office with her were Vice President George Lister, Secretary

Ralph DiMaio; Assistant Secretary David Bryant; Treasurer Robert Williams; Assistant Treasurer Don Galgano; Club Service, David Bryant, and Community Service, Rene Gabba.

Also, Vocational Service, Alice Ricci; International Service, Norm

Thompson; Membership, Robert Gaccione and Lynn Mackie; Gift of Life, Rene Gabba; Foundation, Jack Grundfest; Youth Exchange, Anthony Chirico; Conference, Joseph McGuire; Director Anthony Chirico, and Parliamentary Tom J. Devine Jr.

A ROTARY FIRST - Shirlee Sherman, first woman President of Belleville Rotary, promised Rotarians to try to double the membership at her installation dinner Friday at Forest Hill Country Club.

Times to publish student ads

The Belleville Times will publish free "Work Wanted" ads for high school and college students in special columns to run in the edition of Thursday, June 20.

Ads must be 15 words or less. Copy must be delivered or mailed to the Belleville Times office at 800 Bloomfield Ave., Nutley, no later than Friday, June 14. Phone calls will not be accepted.

Democrat sees sweep

Belleville Democrats predicted a clean sweep for their party's candidates in November, at the annual reorganization meeting of the Belleville Democratic County Committee held Monday at the home of Chairman Chester Properi.

"We'll sweep it all the way," Properi said. "And Belleville will be the stronghold of Democratic votes."

Properi predicted victory for Armando Fontoura for Essex County Sheriff, Senator Gabe D'Ambrosio and Assembly candidates Alfred Restaino and Louis Gill, in the 30th Legislative District.

The committee members elected Gina Maria Muraglia as secretary, and re-elected Properi as chairman. Marie Strumolo Burke was re-elected Vice Chairman.

Joseph Alencio is Honorary Chairman.

Perina Fortoloczki, a special assistant in the Department of Education, spoke on the state's insurance laws.

600 jobs rescued at Wallace & Tiernan

Two years ago, the future of Wallace & Tiernan, a world leader in the manufacture of water purification equipment, was on the line. Its parent company, Penwalt of Philadelphia, was putting it up for sale; the Belleville operation was losing $3 million a year, and it seemed likely that it would fall into the hands of a speculator bent on liquidation of its assets, which were being offered at less than book value.

But a group of executives, led by President Chet Ross, backed up by five investment houses, raised $44 million to buy the operation.

It had taken a harrowing 11 months to raise the money, and the idea of issuing junk bonds had been rejected, but at 10:45 p.m. on May 24, 1989, Ross was in a Chicago law office signing legal documents.

By 2:30 a.m. of the next day, he had signed his name nearly 3,600 times. Control of the company passed into the hands of the executives and the lenders, who kept a hands off policy which left Ross grateful, and allowed the company to make a grinding reorganization effort that successfully turned it around.

Just two years later, a British firm, North West Water Group, paid approximately $130 million to acquire Wallace & Tiernan, with the promise of keeping the operation going as it is, with no changes in management or personnel.

It meant that 600 jobs with an annual payroll of $23.5 million would remain in Belleville, at least for the foreseeable future.

It was also a triumph for the employees.

"Without the people of this city, and the people of this plant, we could not have succeeded," Ross said.

A youthful, sandy haired man with an air of confidence that he may not always have felt, Ross said that a certain spirit permeated the plants and brought out the best of everybody. Production was revamped. Products were upgraded. And despite a slumping economy, business improved.

Helping, as well, were the profits being realized by the overseas plants in Australia, the United Kingdom, Germany, Mexico, Canada and Brazil.

The offer from North West Water Group came as a surprise, Ross said. "But we were convinced they were the right people to have the company. I like their slogan, because it fits in with our way of thinking - Ordinary people doing extraordinary things."

Ross said that he expected the American operations to be helped by the acquisition. "We can go on to the next phase of expansion," he said.

The company's founders, Charles F. Wallace and Martin F. Tiernan, were themselves facing unemployment when they pooled their resources in 1911 to promote the use of chlorine gas to purify water, a major innovation at the time.

Their first success was at the Boonton reservoir in 1913, where after various mishaps, their chlorinator proved to be a success for the Jersey City water supply. Workmen had tossed the chlorinator into the reservoir after it showed gas leakage. The partners fished it out, repaired it, and were in business.

The firm moved to Belleville in 1921, and was acquired by Penwalt in 1969.

In a news release issued by the North West Water Group, Wallace & Tiernan was described as "the world's leading designer, manufacturer and supplier of water and waste water."

Its sales for 1990 were $121.4 million, and its operating profit was $13 million. The original partners had started the business with a capital of $1,800.

Ensign Daniel Senesky Penn State graduate

Daniel John Senesky was graduated May 19 from the School of Communications, Penn State University, College Park, with a bachelor of arts degree. He had been commissioned an ensign in the United States Navy in ceremonies May 17 at Penn State where he was in the NROTC program for four years.

Ensign Senesky served as battalion commander in the fall of 1990 and was selected to receive the Secretary of the Navy Distinguished Midshipman Graduate award. He was also awarded a $1,000 scholarship in April by the Northern New Jersey Retired Officers Association. He has been assigned to Nuclear Power School, Orlando, Fla., for six months of intensive training.

A graduate of Belleville High School, where he was a member of the National Honor Society and Scholar Athlete of the Year, Ensign Senesky is the son of Carmela and John Senesky, head football coach at Belleville High School.

His grandparents include Mrs. Anna Senesky and Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Ferragamo, all of Belleville.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

There is one Belleville township ordinance that is being sorely ignored by animal lovers: pets and the law enforcement agencies of the community which requires that dog owners who walk their dogs for purposes of their defection are subject to a $50 fine should they not clean up their "mess" of excrement, such wanton disrespect of other people's property is unpardonable and justifiably would warrant the filing of a complaint of such a dog owner who flagrantly ignores this law. There are too many increasing complaints about this flagrant flouting of the law. Get on the ball dog walkers...buy a pooper-scooper...Don't leave your animals mess for the other person to clean up! It stinks!

Public Service Electric & Gas Co. has been put on a credit review by Moody's Investor Services, which cited the utility's need to fund new construction while facing "lackluster" energy sales. About $5 billion in securities are under review, according to the rating agency. This should have only minimal impact on PSE&G, the state's largest utility, but could, and probably will, push the company to file for a rate increase earlier than anticipated.

A credit downgrade would make it more expensive for PSE&G to borrow money, and added costs eventually reflected in higher rates for customers. The Moody statement came as no surprise and a company spokesman said the rating agency's statement was relatively accurate.

The company faces $900 million in new construction costs annually over the next five years. Losses in non-utility investments made by PSE&G's parent holding company, Public Service Enterprise Group...Several of their non-utility investments made by PSE&G's parent holding company, Public Service Enterprise Group have lost money. The company's prime-rating for commercial paper is not under review.

PSE&G contends that its non-utility business has made money overall, although some companies have experienced losses.

Is Governor Florio and his consorts in politics attempting to take over every concept of government control of State Government merely to reduce budget expenses by merger of the state Board of Public Utilities with the state Department of Environmental Protection to save $4 million to reduce the state budget? If so, it stinks. For 80 years the status as an independent rate-making agency has properly and diligently controlled public utility rates for New Jersey patrons of State Utilities and done it well. People of dedicated integrity and honesty have performed in a most honest and creditable manner in discharging their duties to the advantage of the general public and consumers. Why change now by consolidation to overload an agency that hasn't performed with the success expected of it?

Opposition mounts to merger of agencies and well it should. Department of Environmental Protection Commissioner Scott Weiner states the governor retains the final say over the DPU's budget under the reorganization plan... "It's the commitment of the governor that counts and it depends upon the quality of his appointments..." we don't think so! Didn't the state Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) rule that union-filed contested contract violation charges based on Gov. Jim Florio's refusal to fund the final year of negotiated agreements covering more than 66,000 state workers are subject to binding arbitration?

The commission in a 7-0 decision, rejected the state's argument that in the present budget crisis, the Governor has "constitutional and statutory obligations, which reach beyond the area of collective negotiations," to choose "how to commit limited economic and manpower resources."

Much attention will be given this matter over the state Board of Public Utilities change wanted. It will come under legislative scrutiny and growing reservations of some lawmakers and other interest groups over the merits of the questionable plan.

OUR OPINION

Self-Discovery

Within my earthly temple there's a crowd;

*There's one of us that's humble,
one that's proud;*

There's one that's brokenhearted for his sins

And one who, unrepented, sits and grins;

There's one, who loves his neighbor as himself

And one who cares for naught but fame and pelf,

From such corroding care I would be free

If once I could determine which is me.

Meaningful welcome

The welcome home given the troops in New York City this week is an expression of the depth of feeling the American public has toward the men and women who fought in Desert Storm. The generals and the commanders have had their moments of adulation. Now it was the time for the uncommon soldiers to ave their moment in the spotlight.

In part, it was an attempt to make up for the lack of welcoming parades that greeted the veterans of Vietnam and Korea.

We don't know what the definition of a "popular war" is. Probably, World War II was a time when virtually no one questioned the necessity of the fight. But those who recall those war years know that there were no rousing songs, no great bursts of enthusiasm, such as had occurred during World War I. Perhaps the country had matured a bit, by then. But the dreadful necessity of the American role had been thrust upon an unwilling nation by the totalitarian powers.

When World War II ended, there was a decision that the veterans of that war would fare better than had the veterans of World War I. The G.I. Bill that provided total financial and educational aid to the 19 million veterans of World War II was probably one of the greatest pieces of legislation ever passed, and it has paid for itself many times over in terms of higher earnings and greater achievements of its beneficiaries.

The real tragedy of Vietnam was that the United States decided to save money at the expense of the veterans. Their educational support was paltry. The result of this penny-pinching indifference is a generation of veterans which has had 100,000 suicides, more than died in service during the war.

The argument will be made that it is too expensive to underwrite the education of hundreds of thousands of veterans. It is more expensive not to do so.

It is true that the veterans of Desert Storm are volunteers, but this should be no reason for them to be shortchanged. They deserve every bit as much support as was given to the veterans of World War II. And it may not be too late to do something more for the veterans of the wars that followed.

It is more important to those veterans and their families, and the nation, than the loudest of cheers and the longest of parades.

The right field

The Little League Field is an example of the loving care bestowed by the people of Belleville on their children.

It may be asked why so much care has to be lavished on a playing field with its accompanying fences, electronic score boards and all the other accoutrements, to say nothing of the uniforms, the equipment and the helmets.

The answer is that the youngsters' aspirations are being treated with respect.

The dreams they nurture of athletic achievement are important to their self esteem. Their victories and defeats are part of a growing-up process, and the creators of the Little League field realize their importance.

The coaches here are not thinking of major contracts, although they do realize the importance of athletic scholarships to many of the players' futures.

It would be easy to over-professionalize the teams, and make demands on the youngsters that would be more damaging than helpful.

They learn to compete. They learn to work with their team mates. They learn to improve themselves. And they do it under caring, watchful eyes.

YOUR OPINION

The wayward ten dollar bill

To the editor:

Hypothetically speaking — If the 80 million people in the work force had a spare ten dollar bill the economy could blossom, bear fruit and perpetuate and grow and grow.

Just think — a spare ten dollar bill could buy a hammer, another could buy hot dogs, bread and shoes or if the day is hot an ice cone would hit the spot — then the butcher, the baker and the hammer maker say hey, things are looking up, and they hire another worker and these workers buy hammers, cakes, hot dogs and shoes and pay taxes, hot dogs and shoes and more workers are needed and they buy hammers, cakes, hot dogs, shoes, goodies and pay taxes and the economy takes a baby step forward. Little by little the tree begins to bear fruit — the seed falls and another tree grows and bears fruit and on and on it goes — and the economy takes a giant step forward.

The moral of my story is that taxes don't vitilize an economy — but — give the free spending American guys and gals a spare ten dollar bill and it burns and they'll find a way to spend it, by hook or crook, but let taxes, corruption and bureaucrats pluck the sawback and the seed of progress dies — the tree dies and the economy dies bit by bit. So goes the American dream and the American way of life — so goes the wayward ten dollar bill — and Mr. Florio smiles, he has the wayward ten dollar bill.

Gill thanks voters

To the editor:

We would like to thank each and every registered Democratic voter in the 36th District who went to the polls this past Tuesday and endorsed our Assembly slate.

Your faith and support in us is most heartwarming and we are honored to have gained your confidence.

The task that lies before us in the coming months will not be easy, but we look forward to the challenge.

Winning the primary is only the first step. The road to the State House is a long one.

We still need your help and ask for your continued support come the general election this November.

Together we can make a difference.

Again, thank you for your support.

Assemblyman Louis Gill
and Alfred Restaino,
36th Legislative District

Wrestlers praised

To the editor:

It's nice to get a compliment about the town of Belleville, so I thought it is time to hear some good things.

While on my way to Florida during spring break, my son was carrying a "Belleville Bue" sportsbag. A gentleman came up to us and said, are you from Belleville? He replied yes. Do you wrestle? He said, I don't but my brother does. The man then stated, "Belleville has a great high school wrestling team." It's a good wrestling town. I've heard some good things about. He was from Glen Rock, N.J.

I thought it was great what a good reputation the wrestlers have.

I thought it was a good opportunity to again thank the Belleville Rec. wrestling coaches. After all, that's where the boys start.

Special thanks to Tim Buckley, Chris Tremmel, Ralph Cardinale, Lou Riccardi for an outstanding job.

Also I would like to take this time to mention the Belleville Rec. wrestlers who made it to the N.J. State finals.

Congratulations to the recreation wrestlers: James Palo, Joseph Cassera, Michael Wallis, Michael Paly, David Illaria, Anthony Conte, John Fitzgibbons, John Perilli, Luke Cardinale, Keith Hands and Robert Caputo for a job well done.

Assistance board protests

To the editor:

We would like to express our opposition to Assembly Bill 4548, introduced by Assemblyman Brown and Mattison on Feb. 25. This bill would provide for the transfer of the administration of the General Assistance Program, Municipal Welfare, to the county welfare departments, thus eliminating each municipal welfare department. The bill also provides that county administrative costs for this program would not be subject to the CAP laws.

Under the present system, each town has direct control over allocation of administrative costs for this program. If the county welfare department assumes these costs without being subject to CAP laws, costs will be uncontrollable and smaller municipalities will be paying a much larger portion of these costs through the county tax rate. This will impact directly on the local taxpayer.

In addition, clients will no longer receive individualized services now being provided at the local level. County welfare workers are not aware of local charitable funds and would be unable to assist individuals who are otherwise eligible for categorical programs. Salvation Army, food pantries, and other holiday donations are some of the ways in which at the local level. Each and every client in our community is hooked up to every program available to assist them in meeting their very basic needs.

We, the Local Assistance Board of Belleville, are opposed to removing the municipal welfare department from the Township of Belleville. Not only will it impact on the local taxpayer, but it will also create a hardship for those people in our community who need social services.

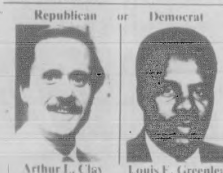

Please contact your legislators in Essex County to express your opposition to Assembly Bill 4548. For Assemblywoman Marion Crecco, call 338-7552 and Assemblyman John Kelly, call 744-2948.

• THE LATE United States Senator Clifford P. Case would turn over in his grave if he saw the campaign literature distributed by Freeholder Arthur Clay in his quest for the Republican Sheriff's nomination.

There were three Republican candidates for the nomination for Office of Sheriff, Arthur Clay, white, Anthony Imperiale, white, Louis Greenleaf, black, who was endorsed by the Essex County Republican Party organization. Clay selectively mailed a flyer which, at the very least, was misleading, and at the very worst, immoral. Below is reproduced part of the Art Clay flyer which shows only two candidates running for the Republican nomination for Sheriff, white Arthur Clay and black Louis Greenleaf.

In addition, Clay was identified as Republican and Greenleaf was identified as a Democrat. Greenleaf is a Republican — like former President Reagan — Greenleaf decided the GOP would be his new home.

Omitting a photograph of white Anthony Imperiale clearly would lead any reasonable person to conclude that the Republican choice was between white Arthur Clay and black Louis Greenleaf — a flagrant racist appeal!

The Essex County Republican party Primary is dominated by the white, conservative, suburban voter, who — when the choice is between a Newark black and a white suburban Republican, would prefer to vote for a white Republican. In this case, as expected, when Clay made the contest a racial one, Republicans voted their natural way and voted for Arthur Clay, and Tony Imperiale.

What is it worth for a person to win a nomination and in the process lose his soul?

Clay did not receive a majority of Republican votes cast — he only received a plurality; the combined vote of Imperiale and Greenleaf was twice the sum of the votes cast for Clay.

Of greater significance, and to support the conclusion that race played a factor in Clay's victory, was the fact that his freeholder running mate, Mr. Albert Panullo lost his bid for election while Greenleaf's white running mate, Philip Nufrio, was nominated by the very same Republican voters who responded to Clay's appeal to reject the black Republican Sheriff candidate.

Clay's unabashed racial appeal should be denounced by Republican office holders and candidates.

Most certainly, Tom Kean would never approve of Clay's racial appeal.

Christie Whitman, are you listening?

Incidentally, Clay did not mail his flyer to Newark, East Orange and Orange voters.

At press time the NAACP was reportedly gathering facts concerning Clay's racist appeal for votes.

In the Democrat Sheriff race, Acting Sheriff Armando Fontoura, a white, who over Newark Council President Ralph Grant, Jr., a black, by a comfortable 2,500 majority. In the contest, Fontoura never made an effort to appeal to the racial prejudices of many white Democrats.

The Sheriff's office is the major law enforcement arm of government in Essex County. Above all, the holder of that position must be blind to a person's color. Unfortunately, that cannot be said for Arthur Clay.

• OF ALL the strangest things in the political world to happen are the voices of two Republicans making a charge that Governor Jim Florio is not an environmental governor. If anything — Florio's primary concern as a Congressman and Governor is protection of the environment. Florio's response to the charge was on target. Here is what he said, "The charges made today don't help anyone get closer to the goals of safe, pure water and clean air. But they do make it clear that the political season has begun." To attempt to impeach Florio in the area of environmental interest is not credible. If anything, with the meager funds available from a budget that has been cut to the bone, Florio has done the best he could to protect the environment. Republican voices apparently are ready to criticize, but are bankrupt of solutions.

Monday, late afternoon, was not the best of times for me. Returning to my office I found two messages — my brother Carlo was ordered to return to Mountsinde Hospital, with a case of pneumonia complicating his health problem.

The second message was to inform me that my nephew Pat Mirucki, was transported by ambulance to the same hospital at 6 a.m. By late noon a 12-inch piece of intestine was removed.

• TONIGHT, Thursday, June 13th, the Nutley Historical Society is presenting its Fifth Annual Strawberry Festival at the Museum. The fun starts at 7 p.m. The committee has arranged for attendees to enjoy strawberries, cake, ice cream and musical entertainment by vocalist, John DeRosa, and pianist, Carol Binkowski. Friends and neighbors are invited to share the evening.

OBITUARIES

John Scalercio, 79

A Mass for John Scalercio, 79, of Belleville was offered May 11 in the Immaculate Conception Church, Newark, after the funeral from the Megaro Memorial Home, Belleville.

Mr. Scalercio died June 8 in the Clara Maass Medical Center, Belleville. He had been a freight handler with Universal Car Loading and the Lehigh Valley Railroad in Newark for many years. He retired in 1977.

He served in the Army during World War II and was a life member of the Disabled American Veterans of Nutley.

Born in Anita, Pa., he lived in Newark before moving to Belleville 26 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Stella; a daughter, Mrs. Catherine Rossi; two sons, Michael Scalercio and Kenneth Gill; a brother, Samuel; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Rosaria and Mrs. Mary Albergato; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Thomas Petzel, 88

Services for Thomas A. Petzel, 88, a lifelong resident of Belleville, were held June 11 in the Levandowski Funeral Home, Bloomfield.

Mr. Petzel died June 8 in the Montclair Community Hospital. He had been employed by the National Yeast Corp. in Belleville for 44 years, before retiring 21 years ago.

Surviving are his two daughters, Mrs. Doris San Giacomo and Jean Ann Petzel, and three grandchildren.

Betty Bourhill, 71

Mrs. Betty Bourhill, 71, of Pequannock died June 8 in the Chilton Memorial Hospital, Pompton Plains.

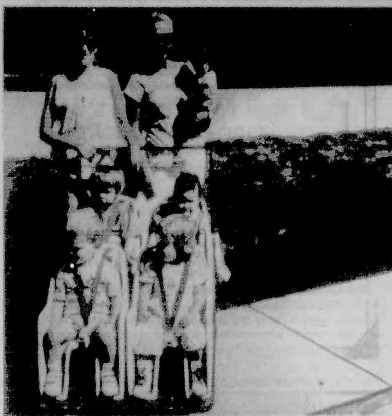

Services were held June 11 in the M. John Scanlan Funeral Home, Pompton Plains.

Mrs. Bourhill was a supervisor for IBM Corp. in Belleville for several years. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star Chapter 121 in Nutley.

Born in Newark, she lived in Belleville before moving to Pequannock 35 years ago.

Surviving are her husband, Donald; two daughters, Mrs. Betty Ackerson and Mrs. Carole Shadle and three grandchildren.

TAKING CHARGE—Belleville High School's Key Club, a service organization sponsored by Kiwanis, had a party last week at the Knights of Columbus Hall to honor its new officers. From left are Treasurer Virgilia Rajnes, Secretary Jennifer Kastner, Vice President Jill Benitsky, President Dawn Simonetti and Past President Melanie Bonaccorso. The club has continued to grow, school officials said, and is an active part of student life.

Simon wins citation

George Simon, a Belleville veteran's leader who is also an officer with the local Democratic Club and the Board of Education's Special Advisory Council, has been named the "employee of the month" at the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission at the Wanauke Reservoir.

Simon, who will mark his 10th anniversary with the Commission this November, oversees water treatment computer operations during the midnight shift.

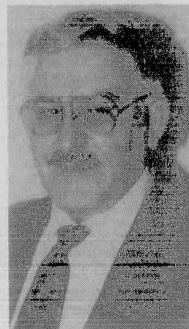

"During these overnight hours, Simon assumes the tremendous responsibility of responding to crucial problems and emergency situations which could affect the water treatment process," notes Michael Restaino, the NJDWSC executive director who presented Simon with the special award at the commission's last public session.

Simon received all of his computer training at the Commission where he initially was assigned to police and security departments. In June 1986, Simon was promoted to computer operations at the Wanauke Reservoir treatment plant. The reservoir serves more than 2 million residents of Northern New Jersey in Essex, Hudson, Passaic, Morris, Bergen and Union counties.

Selection of the "employee of the month" award is made by department supervisors and foremen. The actual presentation is made by the Board of Commissioners during public ceremonies.

NJDWSC Chairman Robert Rubino of West Caldwell sponsored the resolution adopted by the commission. Simon was also the Commission's guest at a luncheon which was attended by members of his family.

"The Commission is also impressed with George's commitment to community service in his hometown of Belleville," Rubino noted.

Simon is past commander of the Belleville American Legion Post 105, treasurer and membership chairman of the Belleville Democratic Club and former director of the Belleville Sabre Cadets drum and bugle corps.

A Navy veteran, Simon was a fireman for the city of Newark before joining the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission staff.

For relaxation, Simon says his pleasure comes from being with his two grandchildren living at his home in Belleville. Joseph, 3 years old, and Alyse Marie, 19 months old, are the children of George's daughter, Gina Marie, who attended the award ceremonies in Wanauke.

C.F.E. Security to open new office

City Fire Equipment Co. of Newark and Belleville will open its newest company, C.F.E. Security, in Belleville this month.

The firm will provide homeowners and businesses with an advanced electronic security system for comprehensive protection from burglary as well as fire and medical emergency services.

William Bretzger IV of Belleville will supervise operations at the 13 Heckle St. location.

Bretzger speaks from the experience of having been a victim of robbery.

He urges installation of an AT&T Wireless Security System. "We chose the AT&T system for the quality and reliability it offers," he said "We have a sterling reputation in the fire protection and prevention industry."

CLEARING THE AIR

It is no wonder that asthmatics may have ambivalent feelings about taking antihistamines which are prescribed by their doctors. Both prescription and over-the-counter antihistamines carry warnings on their labels that say use by asthmatics is to be avoided. However, a consultant to the FDA's Pulmonary Allergy Drugs Advisory Committee points to recent research that indicates past notions about antihistamines' effect upon asthmatics are unfounded. In fact, antihistamines do not exhibit a drying effect on respiratory mucous, as was previously thought. Until the FDA moves officially to clear up the warning-label misconception, asthmatics should bring up the issue with their doctors in an effort to gain further understanding.

For prompt service when your doctor gives you a prescription bring it to us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 1338 Washington Ave., 591464, 591466. We carry Medicare and Blue Cross approved. Tulletries, greeting cards, cameras, Russell Store candles and many more items are available for Father's Day gifts. Hours: Daily 9 am to 10 pm, Sundays 9 am to 9 pm. Have a very happy Father's Day.

NOTE: It is now believed that antihistamines may act as mild bronchodilators.

This year, Father's Day gift ideas are off the cuff

This Father's Day, think how nice it would be to give dad a pair of cufflinks that define his unique personality! Cufflinks are a singularly male item and one that has been part of the male wardrobe for hundreds of years. Today's styles are not just for tuxedo dressing. Designers of men's jewelry are offering fashion-conscious men the opportunity to show off their style and panache in the workplace while making a light-hearted statement "off the cuff" about a favorite sport or pastime.

Jewelers of America (JA), the national organization dedicated to consumer information and education about fine jewelry, suggests you visit your local jeweler for the widest assortment of cufflink designs. He or she is sure to have an appropriate sailboat or ship's wheel design for the nautical dad, golf ball or club cufflink for a dad who's always thinking of "the links," tennis racket motif for the dad who knows the score, or a cufflink depicting a bowling ball and pins to "strike" his fancy!

Cufflinks are a great gift with a personal touch, and fine jewelry the perfect gift when your feelings are real. For more information about karat gold, diamonds, colored gemstones, pearls, sterling silver, appraisals, care and cleaning, etc., write to JA, 1185 Avenue of the Americas, 30th Floor, Dept. MFD, New York, NY 10036.

Yesterday, today and tomorrow

BLENDING TRADITION WITH TECHNOLOGY — If the question is what to give the urbane man of the nineties, the answer is anything in good taste. There is no shortage of indulgences to shower on the sophisticated father of today, from a fabulous new cellular phone, to a sumptuous silk tie or a classic novel. A stand-alone present, or a great companion to any of these, is a timeless elegant, aged bottle of cognac. Cognac, the world's finest brandy, comes in all price ranges, and is a traditional favorite for discerning dads on Father's Day.

FATHER'S DAY GREETINGS — EASY AND MEMORABLE

Back when Father's Day began, the greeting card was an embryonic innovation. In 1910, most people had the time to pen hand-written letters or notes to mark important events and occasions. And letter writing was an art that we seem to have lost in today's busy society.

But, we're inventive folks, and we've come up with the ubiquitous greeting card.

So, even if you hate the sight of a pen and piece of stationery, take heart! You can remember your dad on Father's Day with a greeting card, as appropriate as if you had composed it yourself.

You can choose from traditional and sentimental messages, or some as contemporary as an abstract work of art. Your card can be as humorous as a funny sitcom, or as expressive as a piece of sculpture.

No one likes to be forgotten, and a greeting card is one way to make certain that your dad isn't left lonely on Father's Day. And it costs so little to remember him — for as little as a dollar you can buy a card, address it, put on a postage stamp (now 28-cent!) and have it delivered. What a bargain!

But, in all fairness, don't wait until the last minute. Get your greeting card in the mail early — a week before Father's Day or no later than June 8. That will give the postal service a full week to process and deliver your message of love and remembrance. And don't forget that yours is just one of about 100,000,000 greeting cards that go through the mail before Father's Day, so give your letter carrier a break. Mail early so your dad and/or dad-in-law gets the message before Father's Day, June 16, 1991.

Dawn E. Pomphrey wed to Joseph J. Obenauer

Dawn E. Pomphrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomphrey of Rumson, became the bride March 10 of Joseph James Obenauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Obenauer of Belleville.

Rev. Sheridan performed the ceremony in Holy Family Church, Nutley. A reception followed at The Palace, Lyndhurst.

Escorted by her brother, Harry Pomphrey, the bride wore a traditional off the shoulder gown and carried a bouquet of roses.

Susan Valek of Long Branch was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Kelly and Kimberly Higgins and Tracy Olivio, all of Belleville.

They were attired in black and white gowns and carried red carnations.

James Obenauer of Belleville was best man. Ushering were Harry Pomphrey of Rumson, Pete Pastorino and Raymond Norbut of Belleville.

Mrs. Pomphrey chose a black dress accented with gold. The groom's mother was in a mauve gown accented with sequins and beads.

Mrs. Obenauer, a graduate of Rumson-Fair Haven Regional High School, is a secretary with CPI Controls, Fairfield.

Mr. Obenauer, an alumnus of Belleville High School, attended Fairleigh Dickinson University and is self-employed.

The couple honeymooned in Bermuda and have made their home in Nutley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Obenauer — nee Dawn Pomphrey

Volunteers needed at Maass

Clara Maass Medical Center, has volunteer opportunities for adults during the summer, days or evenings. Adults who wish to volunteer two to four hours a week may learn new skills, make new friends and experience the satisfaction of doing for others.

Men and women with good people skills are needed to work evenings and weekends in reception areas. Orientation and training are provided for all new volunteers. For information, call the volunteer office at 450-2150.

To My Patients...

I am now on the Staff of Montclair Community Hospital, on 120 Harrison Avenue in Montclair.

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

We start this week with news from the Belleville Soccer Association. The Cobras had a busy week last week, starting with a trip to Caldwell.

There, the Cobras met little resistance in prevailing by an 8-0 count. Jim Wandling led the Cobras attack with five goals.

Franco Vitello, Marcelo DiGiano and Victor Guevara chipped in a goal each. The victory assured the Cobras a divisional title.

Last Sunday, at Highland Park, the Cobras suffered a rare defeat, losing 4-2. Questionable officiating hurt the Cobras chances. The loss was the first of the season for the team, who ended the regular campaign with an 8-1-1 record.

In a semi final playoff game, Belleville battled the powerful Sayreville Rowdies at Municipal Stadium. The game featured aggressive styles of play from both teams and at halftime, the contest was scoreless.

Fifteen minutes into the second half, the Rowdies got on the board with a corner kick. Undaunted, the Cobras came back and at the 76 minute mark, Wandling took a pass from the right wing and slammed the ball into the net.

The game remained that way through regulation time, thus forcing overtime.

The first overtime went scoreless as both teams battled for offensive position. Seven minutes into the second OT, Sayreville converted a goal for a 2-1 lead.

Belleville fought back, using an all out offensive surge. The goalie, Emanuel Arujo played a sweeper position, giving the Cobras an extra attacker. Belleville got four good shots on goal, but Sayreville met the challenge and held on for a 2-1 victory.

The Cobras are a Division I entry, which is for players 16 to 18. Many of the Buccaneers varsity and JV soccer players are members of the Cobras.

The Cobras were led by co-captain Vitello, who did an outstanding job on defense. Others who played well on defense were Ian Lonergan, Steven Vogel, Paul Mora and Mike Gonzalez. The midfield was made up of co captain DiGiano, Greg Delmotte, Wandling and Kevin Noland.

The front line consisted of Daren Lewis, Semos Epitropikas, Guevara and Joe Salamanca. Arujo did a superb job as the Cobra goalkeeper.

The team is coached by Bill Cook and Tim Cook.

On June 16, the team will participate in the Mid Jersey Soccerama Tournament, with approximately 400 other teams from throughout the state.

SCHOOL YEAR WINDING DOWN

Yes, another school year is drawing to a close, with graduation at Belleville High set for June 20. Over the next few weeks, we'll begin our annual wrap up of the seasonal sports, beginning this week with the fall campaign.

We'll start with the Buc football team, which gave its fans plenty of thrills during the course of the '90 season.

Head coach John Senesky knew he had a talented team heading into the '90 season, but the Bucs were coming off a 1-8 record in '89 and confidence would be a key factor.

The Bucs were a fired up group of players on opening night at Doc Ellis Field. The opposition was Hackensack, an NNJIL Pacific Division foe, and the results weren't too positive.

Hackensack used its speedy running attack to beat Belleville 34-0. The following week, the Bucs were able to end the scoreboard at Bloomfield when sophomore John Alvarado blocked a punt and then returned it for a touchdown.

The score gave Belleville a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, but the Bengals fought back and prevailed by a 17-7 count. (After the season ended, the state ruled that Belleville was the victor in this game because Bloomfield had used a player who was academically ineligible.)

The Bucs found the winning formula in week three at Paramus Catholic, winning 21-6. Sean Kimball scored his first varsity TD in the game. Belleville's only victory in '89 was also at Paramus Catholic and even though the team won there again in '90, the Bucs had their sights on the future.

Belleville lost to powerful St. Joe's of Montvale in week four, 19-0. The team played a good game against a very big opponent, but the St. Joe's size wore down the determined Bucs.

The following three weeks, Belleville was on the road and it turned out to be a memorable road trip. In week four, the Bucs and Paramus bumped heads in what turned out to be one of the best games in Buc football history.

Belleville scored first, but Paramus came back with three untested scores and took a seemingly safe 18-6 lead into the fourth quarter.

The Bucs appeared to have little life, but a key penalty against Paramus on a Buc punt return set the stage not only for a victory, but set the stage for the '90 turnaround.

A Buc player returned a punt to near midfield. He was already out of bounds when he received a late hit. The official on the play caught the penalty and threw the flag. However, the Buc players on the bench, led by Art Caruso and John McAloon took exception to the hit and only the quick thinking of the Belleville coaches prevented a war on the bench.

Belleville scored on the drive when Caruso hit Jason Nardachone with a TD pass. Then, late in the game, the Bucs scored a second drive and scored the winning TD with less than one minute left in the game when Caruso passed to Carmen Spina in the end zone.

The Bucs had two TD's called back on the winning drive. A big play in the drive came on a 4th and 33 situation. Senesky inserted Alvarado into the game as quarterback and put Caruso in as a split end. Alvarado, who had thrown two passes the entire season, calmly hit Jim DuHaime with a 33 yard (exactly 33 yards) pass and a first down. DuHaime later said he had no idea it was fourth down when he threw the pass.

Belleville held on to win 19-18. The following week, the Bucs (continued on page 15)

Nardachone, Caruso earn league honors

Baseball showed improvement

By Mike Lamberti

Eleven games decided by two runs or less.

That pretty much summarizes the 1991 baseball season at Belleville High School. Head coach Nick Grande saw his team play hard the entire spring, but the key hit eluded the '91 Bucs.

"We lost three games by one run and eight by two runs," the coach said. "We left 186 men on base this season. We hit .255 with runners in scoring position."

"That was our main problem. We just didn't get the key hit. I've always said that a certain amount of luck is attached to this game and we didn't get much of it this season. We improved on the defensive effort, however and we have some kids with talent coming back next season."

The Bucs finished 7-18 this season. That's a slight improvement on last year's 5-18 record and the Bucs were much more competitive this spring. There was a strong senior contingent on the team this spring and Grande will have some work to do to fill those positions next spring.

"The junior varsity and freshman teams did well this year," Grande said. "We have some kids with varsity experience coming back and the JV and freshman kids will have their opportunities next season."

Leading the way in 1991 was Jason Nardachone, who hit over 300 and earned post season honors.

JASON NARDACHONE: The senior second baseman hit .359 this year, tops on the team. He collected 19 hits and scored 19 runs. Nardachone's performance earned him a first team, NNJIL selection.

As a pitcher, he was 0-3 with an ERA of 4.78.

Nardachone, who played football for John Senesky last fall, will attend Sacred Heart University in the fall, where he will continue his baseball career.

ART CARUSO: An Honorable Mention NNJIL selection, the senior had a solid campaign, hitting .310. Caruso led the Bucs in hits with 22. He also scored 12 runs.

Caruso's season made a positive turn in late April, when he paid a visit to the eye doctor.

"I noticed that Art was having problems with fielding," Grande said. "He went to the eye doctor and once he had glasses, his performance really improved."

Caruso, who will attend Lebanon Valley College in the fall, hit .300 after the glasses (14 for 28).

A fine all around athlete, Caruso was the quarterback for the Buc football team last fall and played point guard for coach Don Roll and the Buc basketball team in the winter. Despite a knee injury late in the football season, Caruso made solid contributions in the winter and spring seasons.

CARMEN SPINA: A coach's delight, Spina had a solid year in '91, hitting .274. He collected 17 hits and scored 12 runs.

Spina will attend Ramapo College in the fall, where he hopes to play football and baseball. The baseball coach at Ramapo is Sal Garilli, a Belleville native.

Spina was named the MVP of the '91 Bucs and received the Nicholas Grande Sr. award. The award is named after the late father of the current Belleville coach.

"Carmen earned the award for three solid seasons," Grande Jr.

said. "Carmen is a tremendous competitor. I wish him the best in the future. He should do well on the collegiate level."

Spina was slowed by a knee injury late in the season, but he is 100 percent now.

RICHARD FERRUCCIA: A senior, Ferruggia did a solid job both at first base and on the pitchers mound.

Ferruggia hit .241 this year, with 14 hits. He also scored ten runs. On the mound, he was 2-5 with an excellent 2.93 ERA.

Rich had his share of injuries in '90-91. He missed most of the football season with two separated shoulders. He then started the baseball season on the DL because of a broken hand. Despite the injuries, he came battled hard and turned in a good baseball season.

JIM DU HAIME: Another guy with a tremendous amount of intensity, DuHaime excelled in three sports this year at Belleville High, football, basketball and baseball.

DuHaime hit .237 this baseball season and put together a fine year on the mound, finishing 1-2 with an ERA of 2.63.

"Jimmy was an incredibly hard worker," Grande said. "He threw the ball very well and got some key

Season begins for Jr. Legion

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville Junior Legion team has begun its summer campaign in strong fashion. Pat Turi's club has a record of 3-1, with its only loss a one run defeat to Nutley.

The team will take on Bloomfield this Saturday at 7:30 p.m. from Foley Field. Next Sunday, Park Ridge will come to town for a 10 a.m. contest. The Bucs will travel to West Paterson next Wednesday for a 7:30 p.m. game. All Belleville home games will be played at Belleville High.

The Bucs started the season by beating Glen Ridge 4-0. Mike Mundy hurled a no-hitter for Belleville, facing 22 batters, one over the game minimum.

The game was scoreless until the fifth inning, when Belleville scored three times. Robert Dena tripled and scored on a single by Mundy. Ken Johansen and Jim Napolitano singled and both men scored on a double by Jerry Turi.

In the sixth, Matt McGough walked, stole second base and scored on a hit by Dena.

Belleville improved its record to 2-0 when it defeated North Arlington 9-7. Kevin Johansen was the starting pitcher and he was credited with the victory. Ken Johansen pitched the final 2 1/3 innings for the save.

Jerry Turi and Anthony Pace had two hits each for Belleville.

The Bucs first loss was a tough 3-2 setback to Nutley last Saturday. Mundy hurled a solid game for Belleville, allowing just six hits.

Down 3-0 in the third, Belleville scored twice. Mundy singled to score Kevin Johansen and McGough singled to score Ken Johansen.

Last Sunday, Belleville breezed by Secaucus 22-5. Napolitano, Robert Dena, Ken Johansen and Joe DePeri had two hits each. Ken Johansen pitched a complete game for Belleville.

"I'm really happy with the performances so far," Pat Turi said after the Secaucus win. "The kids are playing good baseball and are working hard."

The junior legion is made up of players who are currently in the eighth, ninth and tenth grades. Current eighth graders on the team are Sal Berardi, Brian Dena and Anthony DiMeo.

The ninth graders are Robert Dena, Joe DePeri, Sam Marino, Matt McGough, Mike Mundy, Anthony Pace and Jerry Turi.

Current tenth graders include Ben Constantino, John Engdahl, Ken Johansen, Kevin Johansen, Mike Morgan and Jim Napolitano.

Turi also gave credit to his assistant coaches for doing a solid job.

They are Chris Cantarella, Mike Finan and Steve Tice. All three assistants are former Belleville High School baseball players.

Taibi, Escott lead Buc golf

By Mike Lamberti

It was another solid campaign for the Belleville golf team. Gene D'Allesandro's club finished with a 13-5 mark and were fourth in the NNJIL.

The golf program continues to excel at Belleville High. The team has a record of 63-13 over the past four seasons, which averages a record of 15-3 per season.

"I'm not one for numbers, but the program has done pretty well," D'Allesandro said. "We had a good season this year. We had a good bunch of players and we all enjoyed ourselves."

Belleville also had a strong performance in the county championships, taking fifth overall. Newark Academy won the county crown this season.

The roster this season featured a strong senior contingent. The number one golfer, however, was a junior.

P.J. TAIBI: A junior, Taibi averaged a score of 44.6 for nine holes. He took second in the NNJIL championships by shooting an 81 for the 18 hole course.

"P.J. broke 40 on a few occasions and his performance at the league championships was outstanding," D'Allesandro said.

MIKE ESCOTT: The senior averaged 47.9 for nine holes in dual matches. At the league championships, he shot an 87, good for fourth place overall.

It was at the county championships where Escott really excelled. He shot an 85, which was the

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Football registration

There will be registration for the Belleville Recreation Department's 1991 Junior Bucs tackle football program at the Recreation House, 407 Jorammon Street, now through Aug. 9. Boys who will be 8 years old through 14 and who will not be 14 before Sept. 1 are eligible. Those wishing to play tackle football must weigh a minimum of 60 pounds and a maximum of 135 pounds, and no one above 8th grade can play. Players will be broken down into three teams according to specific age/weight requirements as set by the Suburban Twin County Football League.

To register, players must obtain an application from their school or the recreation department office. All completed applications with parent approval must be brought to the Recreation House by Aug. 9, with two passport size photos of the player and a copy of his birth certificate. All returning players from last year's team must re-apply. Tryouts will begin around Aug. 5. Players who choose to participate in tackle football cannot also play soccer or touch football in the same season.

Soccer & touch football applications

Applications for the Belleville Recreation 1991 Fall Sports programs are now available in the schools and at the Recreation office. Boys and girls ages 7-14 may participate in recreation soccer. Belleville resident children who will be 7 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 14 on Dec. 31 are eligible. Nobody above 8th grade can play, and all returning players must re-apply.

Boys ages 8-10 can play touch football. Belleville boys who will be 8 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 10 on Dec. 31 are eligible. All returning players must re-apply.

Key hits eluded Bucs

"Late in the season, I pinch hit Richard Quise for him in the Nutley game. Richie hit a homer. On the bus ride home, Jimmy came up to me and said 'good call' on the move. He wanted to win and would do anything for that to happen."

DuHaine was named the winner of the Nicholas Grande Sr. Sportsmanship Award. The senior will attend Southern Connecticut in the fall, where he will continue his football career.

BILLY SALVATORE: A senior, Salvatore did a good job in left field this season. His defense was solid and Salvatore also had some big hits at the plate.

Salvatore will be remembered for scoring the first touchdown of this year's Belleville-Nutley game. The score, off a blocked punt, gave the Bucs a lead it would never relinquish.

The fact that Salvatore even played was a story in itself. He suffered a serious ankle injury just ten days prior to the Nutley game.

Next fall, Salvatore, like Nardachone, will attend Sacred Heart University.

MICHAEL CAPASSO: Another senior, Capasso was the Bucs leading pitcher this year. He posted a record of 4-3 with a stingy ERA of 2.72.

ANIBAL RODRIGUEZ: The senior pitcher had a record of 0-3 with an ERA of 4.10. He was used both as a starting and relief pitcher in 1991.

BILLY GRAY: According to Grande, "every coach needs a player like Billy Gray."

At the start of the season, Gray was told he wouldn't see much varsity action.

"He told me he just wanted to be a part of the team," Grande said. "He said he would do anything to help out."

Gray, a backup catcher, caught batting practice every day.

"He was the first player in practice and the last to leave," Grande said. "He pinch ran in some games and saw some action."

Gray's first varsity appearance came in a GNT game against Caldwell. He singled in his first at bat and drew quite a reception from his teammates. Gray stole second base and eventually scored a run in the game. For the season, he hit .333.

RICHARD QUINE: Expected to be one of the key players on the '92 team, Quine had a solid junior season. He hit .365, with 19 hits. Quine also scored 12 runs.

MICHAEL ALFANO: A junior, Alfano hit .263 and was second on the team with 20 hits. His defensive skills also improved noticeably this spring.

MICHAEL MELHAM: The junior first baseman also hit .263. He shared time with Ferruggia at first base and should be the number one man at the position in '92.

MIKE KIMBALL: Another key junior, Kimball hit .250 this year. A very aggressive player, he competes for the football and basketball teams as well.

Kimball's excellent speed gives him the option of batting in the leadoff position or hitting in the number two slot.

"He's a good hit and run type of guy," Grande said. "He could help us in either slot."

JOHN MCALOON: The junior was hitting the ball very well on the JV level when he was called up on early May. Despite an injury, McAloon hit .333 on the varsity level. A good athlete, he could be a key contributor to next year's club.

JASON APPLE: This junior showed excellent ability on the mound. His record was 0-1 with an ERA of 3.41, but he pitched in hard luck on a few occasions.

Other players Grande was encouraged with include Mike Chirichella, Sal Straface, Kevin Johansen and Doug Cancelliere.

Many of the returning players will be competing for the legion team this summer.

Tennis instructor needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is presently seeking a young adult to teach tennis lessons two or three mornings per week during the summer at the Municipal Stadium courts. Qualified applicants can determine which days are best for them. Lessons are offered to children ages 8-16 from 9 to 11 a.m. for seven weeks, June 24-Aug. 9. Call 450-3422 for more information or to apply.

le Little League Field.

The playgrounds will be opened daily to all Belleville residents in grades kindergarten through 9 from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Playgrounds are closed 12-1 for lunch and when it rains.

An adult director will be on hand at each playground to organize games, parties and other activities and an arts and crafts supervisor will travel from site to site.

Tentatively, tennis lessons, "Open Swim" and special tournaments are planned throughout the summer. These programs are all pending the hiring of qualified instructors/supervisors.

Applications for all summer program participants must be completed and signed by a parent. Registration forms are available at the Rec. House office and at all playgrounds.

Playgrounds open

The Belleville Recreation Department's summer playground program will begin June 24 and will continue through Aug. 9.

The five playground sites are located at School 9, the Municipal Stadium, the Recreation House, Clearman Field and the Friendly House. The special education playground is set up at the Belleville Little League Field.

Golf team enjoys winning campaign

second lowest individual round. That's quite an accomplishment, considering the strong talent level in Essex County high school golf. Escott will be joining the United States Navy after graduation.

JERRY MAHONEY: Another senior, Mahoney averaged 48.2 for nine holes. "Jerry shot some excellent rounds for us," D'Allesandro said. "He played for four years in the program and is a big reason why we were 63-13 over that time."

YIC TALAMINI: A senior, Talamini averaged 49.1 and turned in a solid performance in the dual matches. DAN HYWEL: The upperclassmen averaged 49 in his first full season of varsity golf. Many Belleville fans will remember Hywel for his tremendous wrestling campaign.

ANTHONY PAPANTONIO: Playing his second season of varsity golf, Papantonio showed marked improvement this season. He averaged around 50 in dual matches. A hard worker, Papantonio made a name for himself last fall, when he started at center for the Buc football team.

As for next years team, Taibi should be the number one golfer. D'Allesandro also has three freshmen who played this year and showed potential. Those three are Cliff Mann, Bob Manza and Jason Mohren.

"We're hoping to have a few more players coming out next year as well," D'Allesandro said. "We'll see what happens next spring."

The Buccaneer track team had a good season in 1991, with several individuals posting strong performances. Head coach John Tosato (center) and senior members of the team were honored at Varsity Club dinner last week.

Buc Shots

took on undefeated and state ranked Morris Knolls. Belleville fell behind 6-0 in the first quarter, but the defense stiffened and in the third quarter, Spina scored the tying TD.

M.K. eventually won, 14-6, but the Buc players knew they could play football with the best teams in the area.

In week seven, Belleville played at Teaneck on one of the hottest November days on record. Despite the heat, Belleville beat a much bigger opponent, stopping the Highwaymen 9-6 on a late Rick Constantino run that set up a TD. Mike Kimball kicked a field goal for the Bucs against Teaneck, too.

Belleville's biggest upset of the year came the following week at Belleville against Don Bosco. Once again, the Bucs fell behind 6-0, but the defense hung in and late in the game, Spina threw an option pass to split end Billy Prosser to set up the winning TD.

McAlone made a key interception late in the game to ensure the 13-6 victory. Don Bosco had a 6-1 record coming into the game and the loss eliminated them from a shot at the NNJL crown.

With a 4-4 record, Belleville played host to Nutley in the season finale on Thanksgiving Day. It was a fitting conclusion, having to play Nutley and win to assure a winning season.

The Bucs answered the call, scoring early on a Bill Salvatore touchdown off a blocked punt. Belleville led 14-6 at the half, then staged a 15 minute drive that bridged the third and fourth quarters. The drive culminated by a Spina TD and wrapped up a 21-6 Buc win.

It was Belleville's first win over Nutley since '86 and it also assured the Bucs first winning season since '86. The intensity in the stands before, during and after the game was incredible. The game was culminated when the P.A system played the song made favorite by the group Queen, "We are the Champions."

It was a super football season for the Bucs and a fitting conclusion for the tremendous seniors who endured two difficult years before 1990.

Next week, we'll continue our look at the fall sports season.

THIS WEEK'S QUIZ

Since we're on a football theme, name the player who scored the first touchdown in the 1990 Paramus game? Also, which player scored the second Belleville TD that was called back in that Paramus game?

Weichert, Realtors forms Auction Division

James M. Weichert, president of Weichert, Realtors (left), is pictured with vice president George H. Coles, who has been named director of Weichert's new Auction Division.

Weichert, Realtors, recently reported it has formed an Auction Division. The announcement was made by James M. Weichert, company founder and president. "We formed the Auction Division to augment our array of services to buyers and sellers of real estate," said the Weichert president. "Auctions have increased in popularity in many parts of the country and have proven to be an effective means to buy or sell property."

Weichert's Auction Division will be directed by Vice President George Coles, formerly of the Traiman Real Estate Auction Organization, Philadelphia.

"The advantages of an auction as a method to market a property are numerous," Coles explained. "An auction offers sellers the advantage of a speedy sale — usually within two months, which minimizes the owner's carrying costs."

"Most auctions also help the sellers find the top of the market in a varying economy by creating high visibility and interest from qualified buyers in a short period of time," Coles continued.

There are advantages for buyers as well, at real estate auctions. "In many cases, buyers can find a real bargain at auction," he said.

"Perhaps the strongest benefit to those considering an auction is the presence of Weichert offices throughout the area, with 5000 sales associates in five states," he said.

Weichert's Auction Division will work with property owners to determine if a specific property is best suited for the auction method. Large estates, groups of homes or condominiums, commercial and industrial sites are best suited.

Weichert, Realtors is a full-service real estate company, whose divisions include mortgage, insurance, relocation, rentals, commercial, new homes and land, and moving services. According to a national report, Weichert is the top ranked independent real estate broker in the Northeast.

Did You Know??

A porch — your outdoor living room — can be far more comfortable with an attractive shield against too much sun. Sew curtain rings to top and bottom of fabric panels; slide the rings onto dowels secured with screw-in hooks.

For kitchen countertops, choose matte or textured tiles. If you want a glazed tile, be sure it's heavy-duty glaze that will resist food acids and scratchy substances.

If you like the old-fashioned look, here's one way to get it: place decorative botanical prints in simple gift frames; hang from satin cords from a picture rail.

To keep wicker furniture looking good, vacuum it occasionally and then wipe down with a cloth and a mild detergent solution. Spraying with a hose may damage delicate fibers and joints.

It may be possible to seal a tiny leak in a plastic garden hose; heat a soldering iron and touch the hose lightly to melt the plastic.

The easiest way to find the just-right home for your family: see the helpful professionals at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Avenue, Nutley. Call 235-9000.
