Aside From That

By Howard Klausner

The Ice Man Speaketh. Jack Rega, presiding genius at Jackie's Lemon Ice for the past 20 years, was visited recently by Archie Bunker, or an unreasonable facsimile, a hefty type who was voicing his displeasure at "greenhorns" who he said were taking the jobs of good Americans - a good American being defined as someone whose family had been here for at least four generations. Jackie finally interrupted, saying, "If everyone who wasn't here for at least three generations was sent away, and only the 'real' Americans were left, you'd still find somebody to hate. For some people, the only way they can prove to themselves their right to be here is to push down somebody else and say he doesn't have a right to be here." Then he cooled off the visitor with a refreshing cup of lemon ice, which seemed to soothe Archie for the moment, even if it was an ethnic ice. ●●●●● Rega runs the Meals on Wheels program in town, which supplies nourishment to some 50 elderly, ill or otherwise incapacitated people, daily. "It's more than the meal. It's somebody coming in and saying Hi, Hello! How are you! that keeps people alive." A couple of years ago, Essex County said it was closing down the program immediately. Rega raised his voice and said, "I'll tell you how to save money. There's this guy making $40,000 a year and not showing up. And there's that guy, and there's - " and before he could name anybody else, the County changed its mind, and the shut-ins are still receiving those welcome visitors. ●●●●● One of the things a purveyor of home-made ices has to endure is the customer who compliments him or her on the product, and then tells everyone in earshot about the wonderful place in Elizabeth or Staten Island where the ices are even better. Actually, a good ice dessert is something like a good wine. Some appreciate it more than others. But the mystique of having the hot weather treat served from a stand on the street, and enjoying the sweet with a lot of other people similarly beating the heat, is what makes it all so neat. And don't ask us to repeat. ●●●●● If you want to know where Pete Casalino is, since he sold Raimo Liquors on Washington Avenue six months ago, he can be found at St. Michael's Hospital in Newark, where he is working his carpentry magic on a new building being erected by the noble hospital, one of the great mainstays of the city. With all the New Jersey tradespeople looking for work, it would seem the hospital is providing a much needed local financial transfusion. But, don't get sick just to help the economy. The hospital is overworked as it is. ●●●●● Remember Robin Williams in the movie, Cadillac Man, the story of a fast talking car salesman who turned out to be a genuine hero? Now hear about the Oldsmobile Men, Richard Ross, Ralph Sandola and Mike Mannilete at Supreme Olds who have been sponsoring the business career of Victor Kokas. Victor, 16, has been in a wheelchair almost since birth, and has won note for his weightlifting efforts under the guidance of Belleville High School gym teacher Mike Pollard. Now, thanks to the Oldsmobile Men, Victor has his own enterprise, selling lemon ice from a stand near the Olds car lot on Washington Avenue. He's on hand from 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. His friends and his mother help him set up the operation by posting signs, and Victor does a lot of the lugging himself. On a very good day, he may earn $20. But even if the take is five dollars, Victor says he feels good about it. The effort is also watched carefully by the Oldsmobile Men. "We told him," Ross said, "that in this world everyone has to earn their way, and we felt we ought to help him do that." Someone else keeps a careful eye on the operation. Nearby is the fast food truck stand operated by disabled ex-Marine Frank Mazza, who has been offering his moral support to Kokas, as well. Victor says of him, "Frank does a good job." Mazza, who can stand only with pain, is on his feet most of the time from 10 in the morning to midnight or 2 a.m., six days a week. This time of year, the business is in frankfurters and sodas. In winter, he adds hot coffee. Year around, his truck is air conditioned, in the sense that whatever the weather is, that's his air conditioning. "When things slow down so I can sit for a while, it's a blessing," Mazza said. "I try to hear the conversation between Victor and his customers, so that no one tries to pull something. He really needs a low pushcart that he could handle from his wheelchair." Mazza's advice to Victor Kokas is: "Believe in yourself. Serve good food. Give people your best service - and you've got to succeed."

"Just a breakfast meeting"

Mayor says meeting was unofficial

Mayor Marina Perna said that a gathering of council members for a June 15 breakfast at the summer home of councilman Frank Noonan did not involve official business and was therefore not in violation of the state Sunshine Law. Any official meeting would have to be announced to the public beforehand.

"No one was elected mayor and no one was elected deputy mayor," she said.

"The election of mayor will be held at the July 1 reorganization meeting and not before then."

She said, "It was clear on June 15, 1991, that there was no official majority consensus for any potential candidate for the office of mayor."

Mayor Perna thereby denied that she had given the nod as mayor. She also said that if a "possible violation" did exist it is "certainly technical and easily curable since no official binding action was taken."

Because the New Jersey Legislature did not approve the town's budget proposals, the town council was unable to pass any budget. This could endanger the town's ability to meet its bills. However it was considered unlikely that this would come to pass.

In other business, Town Manager Burt Kendal said that some 70 persons receiving Welfare checks would continue to get them even though the town might not be certain that it would be recompensed by the state. Normally Trenton pays 75 percent of the Welfare costs. The checks are normally in the amount of $125 to $150. To a family in need this would be large.

In other business, the Council approved the purchase of a 1991 110 foot Quint ladder fire apparatus at a cost of over $100,000. Quint refers to the fact that five different functions are served by the same apparatus.

Chief Walter Beresford said it would replace an aging piece of apparatus and improve the capabilities of the department.

Angie Piserchia, who is a member of the Board of Education came as a private citizen to protest a reported plan to assess the cost of street improvements to homeowners. Deputy Mayor Frank Caputo and councilman Jim Messina said that no such plans had been made.

Board boils over; Gabe vs. five

The Board of Education had two major items on the agenda, Monday night - passing the budget and criticizing Trustee Gabe Nazzola.

The budget was passed with the deduction of $535,000 as ordered by the Town Council, but in the hope that the New Jersey Department of Education would restore most, if not all, of the cuts. A meeting is scheduled tonight with the Council, at the request of the Essex County Superintendent of Schools, to see if some compromise may be reached.

In the matter of Nazzola, five of the trustees, including President Pat Pisano and Vice President Seymour Grossman, made statements denouncing Nazzola's statements, printed in an out-of-town publication, accusing the board of cynicism and politics.

He also referred to Mrs. Pisano as a female Charlie McCarthy under the control of an Edgar Bergen, whom he alluded to as Dr. Anthony D'Agostino.

Nazzola also said that the board had put politics ahead of the health and safety of the students, in the matter of providing fans in the Belleville High School auditorium.

This infuriated Dr. D'Agostino, who offered to pay $1,000 to anyone who could prove that a voting bloc existed on the board, or that he had ignored the welfare of the students.

Dr. D'Agostino announced that he had decided to seek re-election this year, instead of retiring after 14 years of service, in response to an allegation attributed to Nazzola that he had made too many enemies.

Caputo protests false report

Deputy Mayor Frank Caputo has denied emphatically an apparently untrue rumor that he threw a chair in anger, during an informal meeting of Town Council members held at the home of Council-

He declined to comment further on the meeting, where election of Mayor and Deputy Mayor at next month's reorganization meeting were reportedly discussed.

Councilman William Cook, who is mentioned as Caputo's possible successor as Deputy Mayor, also said that no chair-throwing incident had occurred.

And he, too, declined to comment on the substance of the meeting.

Caputo explained his declining to comment on the matter when the question was put to him last week by the Belleville Times. "We were under advice of counsel (Town Attorney Vincent Nuzzi) to make no comment," Caputo said.

Reports of the alleged incident circulated at the golf outing held a week ago by the Policemen's Benevolent Association.

The reports were that the council members had decided to retain Marina Perna as Mayor, in a split decision, and that Cook was given the nod to succeed Caputo as Deputy Mayor.

At the same time, Cook said that the gathering was an informal affair, to "discuss the ground rules" for the reorganization meeting, which could be held as soon as July 1. The meeting may or may not have been in violation of the New Jersey Sunshine law, requiring public notice of any formal meetings of a governing body.

Attempts to contact Town Attorney Nuzzi at Town Hall and at his law office have been unsuccessful.

Explosive device found

A seven-inch cylinder containing an explosive was found by workmen installing an alarm system in an empty store at 90 Franklin St. last week.

The Essex County Sheriff's Bomb Squad removed the device, and found it was an explosion simulator of the type used for military exercises.

It requires a detonator to be exploded, similar to the detonator in a hand grenade, set off by pulling a pin.

Detective Sergeant Joseph Tortorello said it was unlikely that the simulator would have exploded of its own accord.

Tortorello said that an explosion would have done major damage to the first-floor room but probably would not have destroyed the building.

The device was found within a drop ceiling. The workmen were employees of the ADT Co., installing alarms.

Detective James DeGrosso was in charge of the investigation.

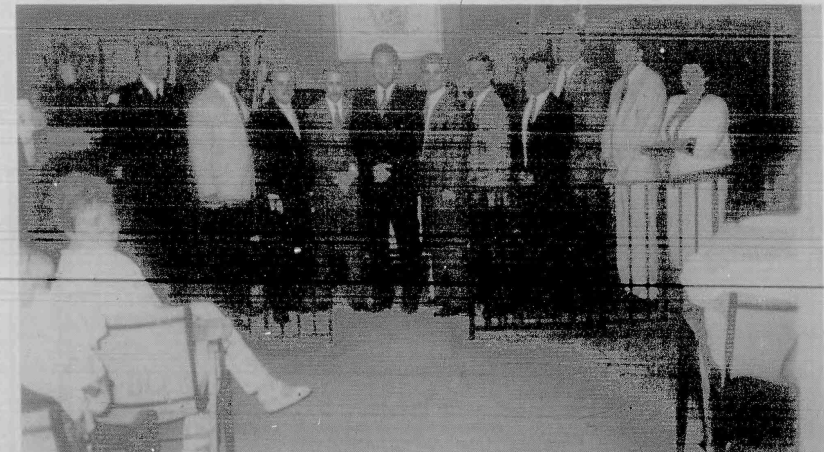

The store has been empty since January, police reported, and a new tenant is expected to occupy it in the near future.

Nearby buildings were evacuated by police until the device was removed. Belleville police and the Sheriff's office are investigating the matter.

State refunds $105M to town

A 2-point cut in the tax rate has been made possible by a $105,000 refund check of Belleville, paid by the New Jersey Department of Law and Public Safety last week.

The payment is from a fund of $8.5 million paid by some 100 garbage collection firms in settlement of charges that they conspired to rig contracts with New Jersey municipalities over a 24-year period.

The $105,000 was Belleville's share in the refund amount. As more money is collected, Attorney General Robert Del Tufo announced, further refunds will be distributed.

Starting in the 1970s, the state conducted a lengthy investigation into the operation of scavenger firms and developed evidence that agreements among the firms divided the state into territories for specific firms. The result was bid rigging and restraint of trade.

Belleville was among the municipalities which supplied voluminous amounts of data to the investigators, from the late 1970s to the early 1980s.

The period of Jan. 1, 1960 to the filing of lawsuit by the state on Oct. 18, 1984 was covered in the complaints filed against more than 100 corporations and firms.

Settlement agreements have been reached with all but 21 of the defendants, Del Tufo reported. Of the $8.5 million collected by the state, $6 million has been distributed to the municipalities affected by the conspiracy to rig bids.

For Belleville, the $105,000 check which arrived last week means a reduction of two points in the tax rate.

Park Rangers in action

The first group of Essex County "park rangers" began service in 14 parks and reservations across the county May 25.

A first group of 13 rangers has completed training and will provide service in county parks from Memorial Day to Labor Day.

The park ranger program was created to provide a more visible county presence in parks and recreational areas during months of highest usage by county residents, according to county executive Thomas D'Alessio.

The program is part of the county Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs. Park rangers, who do not have police powers and will not perform law enforcement functions, will provide a variety of protective and informational services. Composed largely of college students, rangers will report violations of park regulations and help safeguard park buildings and grounds from vandalism.

Rangers also will assist with vehicular traffic in the parks and provide information to the public about park regulations and special events.

D'Alessio said he hopes to increase the initial group to 27 by summer's end. Park rangers will work a 40-hour week and will be on the job from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. A rotating shift system will provide ranger service seven days a week.

School 3 organizes Fun Day

By Michele Hartman

School No. 3 children have worked very hard all year long. Since Mrs. Saulino, principal, faculty and the Home and School Association believe in a good strong and well rounded education, they carefully planned an entire day when the students could just be kids: to run, jump and play all day long. May 17 was "Olympic Fun Day '91." It consisted of two parts: The Olympics which were held at Clearmont Field, behind School 8 and a Carnival which took place at School 3. Everyone wore a turquoise tee shirt made especially for this day.

At 9 a.m., Mrs. Saulino and the police could be seen escorting grades 1-3 across Union Avenue to Clearmont Field. There the younger half of School 3 spent the morning competing in events like the obstacle course, the spoon race, the jump rope race, and the 50 yd. dash. When the children asked what the prizes would be; first grade teacher Mrs. San Filippo said, "You were able to participate, and that is the important prize of all!" However, at the end of the day, win or lose, every child was awarded a white ribbon which says School 3 Olympic Fun Day Participant.

While grades 1-3 were busy at the Olympics, grades 4-6 enjoyed the fun part of the day in a carnival atmosphere. Carnival games, including poster pitch, ball bounce, tic tac toe, star dart, and big mouth, were brought to School 3 on trailers. "The carnival was great," according to Sherri from fourth grade, "because everyone had 15 chances at each game. By that time, just about everyone won a prize." There were footballs, blowup toys, stuffed animals, etc. And here again, win or lose, hats, mugs, and frizbees with the words School 3 Fun Day '91 on them were given to every child.

The children returned to school for a normal lunch. They then switched places in the afternoon: grades 1-3 at the Carnival and grades 4-6 at the Olympics. All agreed that this was one of the best days ever. But the children had differing opinions on which part they liked the best. Dana, grade 4, said she liked the carnival because everyone won. Melissa Lane, grade 6, told us, "when you play a game, the harder it is the more you want to try, and we were given a lot of tries." Others like Sal Alfieri and Michele Montalto enjoyed the Olympics better.

Councilman Cook donated $25 to Olympic Fun Day. Jackie's Lemon Ice of Belleville, provided refreshment for the children all day. Special guests included: Joseph Nardiello, superintendent of schools; Angie Pascheria, and Gabe Nazzola, members of the board of education. Nazzola traveled to School 3 by way of Union Avenue with the Lemon Ice Cart from Jackie's. He served ices to the children part of the day.

ARTIST'S PRIZE WORK - Maria Lupo of Belleville is shown with her mixed media work "Resemblance/Image/Memory?" which was awarded Best in Show at NJ Center for Visual Arts Annual Members' Show and Sale. The judge was Anne Fabbri, director of the Noyes Museum. Lupo has received many awards including a Fellowship Award from the NJ Council on the Arts and most recently an award from the National Museum of Women in the Arts in Washington, DC. The painting shown here has already been sold, but works by 230 other members of NJCVA are on view through July 15 at 68 Elm St., Summit. Gallery hours are weekdays from 12 to 4, weekends from 2 to 4. Please call (908) 273-9121 for more information.

OUR OPINION

We owe it to our children

Everyone who attended the graduation exercises for the Class of 1991, Belleville High School had the opportunity to enjoy one of those bittersweet moments of life, the ending of a long school journey with its inevitable parting of the ways for the graduates, and the start of a new page in the students' lives.

Perhaps the most important message issued that night from the podium was the statement by Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello, and this was a message to the parents and the general public, rather than to the graduates.

Dr. Nardiello issued a warning, which was that the opportunities opening to Belleville High graduates because of the rising level of academic achievement could be lost by budget cuts that would narrow the range and scope of education.

He asked if a General Colin Powell or a General Norman Schwarzkopf would have achieved their roles in life if they had not had the educational opportunities provided them.

The failure to realize the potential of even one talent would be a tragedy.

"Think about that the next time you vote on a budget," Dr. Nardiello said.

He spoke without too much expectation that the next school budget will not be voted down, and the next, and the next.

Belleville taxpayers, desperate to make ends meet, would vote down the defense budget if it were put at their discretion.

Yet, education is the one best route their children have to success, short of inheriting a fortune. And come to think of it, having a good school system is like inheriting a fortune.

By themselves, the schools cannot cure all the ills of our society, but with the kind of dedicated teachers and administrators we have in Belleville, at least the tools of survival and success will be made available to those interested enough to make use of them.

Most of this year's graduates will not go to college, at least, not right away. Some 43 percent of the graduates will go to college. But those who go into the job market, or into military service, or into vocational education, will be activated by a greater thirst for knowledge and respect for learning than they would otherwise have had.

The wise man and woman will always keep on learning, whether on a school campus or in the workplace.

And a wise community will try to arm its students with the best education possible, for its own good as well as theirs.

A mixture, a blend or a nation?

Our neighbors across the Hudson are going through a soul-searching of sorts, debating what to teach students about their history and society.

One argument is to emphasize the ethnic make-up of America, and teach the histories of the different ethnic groups, and their contributions.

Some of the proponents of this idea go on to say that too much emphasis is put on European culture and not enough on those of other ancient sources of civilization.

The idea of giving each ethnic group its due is just and proper. The days when the black man did not exist in American textbooks, except as a footnote to the Civil War, should well be over.

The contributions of Asian immigrants and their cultures deserve being told.

The children of too many ethnic groups are in ignorance of the contributions made by their people to American history. A case in point is Philip Mazzei, who came to America before the Revolution, befriended Thomas Jefferson and is credited with coining the simple, ringing phrase: "All men are created equal, with inalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

A stamp was issued in his honor, but only through the earnest efforts of a nun, a historian who devoted her life to reviving his memory.

The writers of our history textbooks tend to reflect their own backgrounds and find their heroes among their own lineages.

So making an attempt to broaden the scope and understanding of history is commendable.

But history is also supposed to be fact.

It should not be propaganda. It should not be special pleading. It should be truth.

And there is no such thing as white truth, black truth, yellow truth or red truth. If the histories are to be rewritten, let them be all-inclusive, and let all who contributed to America have their proper recognition.

WE WELCOME LETTERS of interest to our local area. They should be short and to the point, they must be signed for attribution and contain the address and telephone number for verification.

YOUR OPINION

UNICO wants men

To the editor:

It is hard to believe that Belleville does not have 20 Italian American men willing to be a part of a national Italian American organization dedicated to service, heritage, and culture.

Unico National is a nationwide service organization. Its membership, at this point in time, is exclusively American men of Italian extraction or American men married to Italian American women, with good character and reputation.

This organization is united in a national chain which is working jointly on national projects and separately as chapters on community activities. All this to uplift the prestige of our people. Unico National is non-profitable and non-sectarian. Our local chapters have received much acclaim and praise for the civic activities and support of community charities.

Unico National was founded in 1922 by Dr. Anthony Vastala of Waterbury, Connecticut, when he was denied membership in a service organization because he was an Italian. Dr. Vastala's goal was to give force in fighting discrimination and defamation. The unlawful acts of some of our misdirected people were and have been played up in the media, television and movie industries. They have chosen to show us exclusively as "Mafiosos," "Buffoons" and "Bimbos." That is why this organization has dedicated itself to educating our youth, promoting our rich heritage, and fighting defamation and discrimination. Unico National has joined with many other Italian-American organizations not only to fight this growing negative image, but are ready to carry out a unified course of action to foster a positive image of our people on the screen. It is our goal to promote positive role models for our children.

Unico National has proven that we, like other citizens, can take our rightful respectful place in the community. This is accomplished by performing good deeds for others. Thus our motto "Service Above Self." The name translated from the Italian means "one" or "only" or "only one of its kind."

As District Governor for New Jersey II, which includes Belleville, I feel that Belleville must have its own chapter. The Italian Americans in town deserve to be part of this proud Italian American organization. Bloomfield Chapter is ready, willing and able to assist Belleville. I can be reached at 429-2818.

Charter membership at this time is only $20. Listed below are a few individuals who have chosen to take the first step in providing Belleville with a chapter: Rocco Andreottola, Dr. Thomas G. D'Elia, Dr. Kenneth H. D'Elia, Raymond Giacobbe, and Joseph Morano. Please join them. We need your help!!!

List your events

To the editor:

The Belleville Board of Education is in the process of collecting dates from the various municipal, township, civic and social organizations within the township. The purpose of this request is to try to avoid conflicts in meeting dates and events as we establish our 1991-1992 school calendar and board of education events.

If any organization has any upcoming calendar of meetings/events, please forward a copy to Michael Nardiello, Superintendent of Schools, Belleville Public Schools, 190 Cortlandt Street, Belleville, NJ 07109.

Thanks for sympathy

To the editor:

To the many friends of Anthony Nardiello (Ernie Ratner) who stopped by to say hi and to offer sincere condolences we say thank you. Your show of good will and empathy made our sorrow a bit more tolerable. If you haven't received a personal thank you please accept our humblest of apologies.

Michael D. Nardiello

An apology

To the editor:

We, the remaining members of the Essex County Police Department, wish to apologize to the residents and visitors to the County of Essex. Due to the downsizing of our department to forty seven officers, we are not able to provide the police services to the public as we have in the past, service which the public both deserves and pays for.

For the past few weeks, we have had only two fully equipped police vehicles to use. Nine vehicles are at the maintenance garage for repairs, six vehicles for accident body work repair, and none of these cars are to be returned to service.

In addition, we can no longer get any minor repair services at the Branch Brook garage.

Two of our cars, two motorcycles, and a mobile command post vehicle formerly assigned to the police department have been turned over to the Sheriff's Department.

Summer is just beginning, and our one remaining detective is now investigating a drowning in Branch Brook Park, a dead fetus which was discarded in the second river in Branch Brook Park, and a double shooting in Orange Park, along with his other pending investigations.

Since there was no real savings to the taxpayers, do you still believe that our decimation was not a political move?

Joseph E. Gehring Sr.

Acting President

PBA Local No. 54

• FINANCIAL writer Jane Bryant Quinn, writing in "Newsweek," suggests advice for friends who lose their jobs: Develop a bare-bones budget that includes only essential items, and identifies expenses that can slide for a few months. For every responsible bill, send a letter to the head of the credit department, explaining the job loss and saying you cannot pay at the moment, but expect to be able to do so soon. Make good-faith payments of $10 or so per month to all creditors.

• OVER the years, Nutley has demonstrated the luxury of citizens volunteering services in the public interest. One such outstanding group is the Nutley Civic Celebrations Committee. In existence since 1934, the group is responsible for the July 4th all-day program in Frank Tangora Field at Nutley's Park Oval, including one of the area's most outstanding fireworks display.

The Easter Egg Hunt is a tradition which involves several hundred people. It is an activity that children look forward to year after year. At Christmas time, $1,000 is spent for Santa Claus to ride through town, spreading good cheer and gifts to children as well as affording them a photo opportunity. The town budget annually includes $10,000 to help fund all these activities. Not this year. Currently, $1,000 is contributed from each Commissioner, thus making a total of $5,000 originating from the Town Treasury.

In order to sign a contract for the Fourth of July fireworks, the group was obliged to raise enough money for a down payment as well as sign a contract to insure the program will go on as in the past.

It was more on faith than in dollars that the contract was signed. Now it's up to those of us, who boast about civic pride and our commitment to that in tangible, step forward and send donations to the Nutley Civic Celebrations, 209 Walnut Street, Nutley, N.J. 07110. When I was a member, we had no less than 21 active members. It is to the credit of President Jack Farr and his wife, Susan, that the group even exists as it is today. Mr. Farr invites any Nutley citizen interested in membership on the Nutley Civic Celebrations Committee to correspond with him at the above address.

• IT looks like Belleville is turning back the clock to its old ways for its public officials to act. One report is that a member of the Council tossed his chair as he walked out of a recent meeting after he was turned down by his colleagues for the mayoralty. We are further informed that a number of Council members are anxious to continue attorney Marina Perna as Mayor for another year when the Council reorganizes on July 1st.

Not a bad idea. Marina Perna is a class act, a professional person with a common touch, endowed with a large measure of decency and respect. We have no favorite to fill the mayoralty spot — all we ask is that the dignity of the individual should be respected by all members of the Council. In other words, I hope Council members don't pick up pages from past history and act like clowns. Belleville has had enough of that. It's time for class to take over the behavior of public officials.

• THE Nutley Junior Raiderettes 7th and 8th grade Softball Team completed a perfect season with a 14-0 record, thus becoming champions of the Suburban Girls Softball League. Head Coach David Olmstead said the girls had a "great season." Dave — that's the greatest understatement I've read all year. The team batting average was .431. Baseball games are won or lost basically because of the quality of pitching. Nutley Raiderette pitcher Christi Cherence ended the season with a 13-0 record; and talk about records, how about Amy Hessels' batting average of .667, and Sarah Clarke's .630 and Jessica Scerbo's .555. I want to salute the members of the 1991 Nutley Junior Raiderettes championship team and its coach for bringing new glory to Nutley. The team is loaded with super stars. God bless its members and coach.

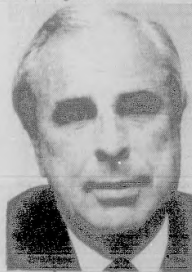

• THE Nutley High School Stock Market Club should be commended upon receiving an Excellence in Economic Education award. The all male team was led by teacher, Toby D'Ambola.

• SPEAKING of achievements, how about the Holy Family Girls Softball Team capturing the Essex County Parochial League championship, completing its first undefeated year 16-0. We live in a community of champions. To show our appreciation, wouldn't it be nice if we attended some of the games throughout the year? Home team cheering sections have done a lot to inspire professional players. Take for example the New York Giants football games at the Meadowlands. Talk to any Giants player, and he will tell you the fans' support was an intangible factor in many team victories. The same result holds true at the high school level — or for that matter, even the grammar school.

• REPUBLICAN County Chairman John Renna has sent a letter to the editors of The Nutley Sun, Belleville Times and Bloomfield Life in defense of Art Clay. It will be printed in full in the next edition of these newspapers.

• FORMER Paterson Mayor Lawrence "Pat" Kramer is the Republican candidate for Senator in Paterson's 35th District. His opponent is incumbent Senator, Democrat John Gigrenti. The leaders of both major parties have targeted the seat.

Lawrence Kramer

State Republican Chairman, Assemblyman Bob Franks, is lining up a professional staff in an aggressive effort to take over control of the New Jersey Assembly and Senate. Franks thinks it's doable. Only time will tell.

Area students named to dean's list

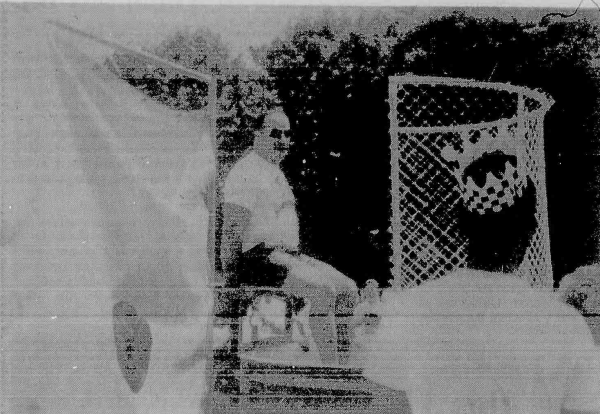

Johnson & Wales University has announced that a total of 2,298 students have been named to the dean's list for academic achievement during the spring trimester. To receive dean's list commendation, students must earn a cumulative point average of 3.40 or above. Students from Belleville are: Joseph

Carissimo of Greylock Parkway, majoring in hotel-restaurant management; Paul Grande, of 38 Belmont Street, majoring in hospitality management; Susan Marcavage of Malone Avenue, majoring in food service management. Founded in 1914, Johns & Wales

University is a private, coeducational institution offering undergraduate and graduate degrees in business, food service, hospitality and technology. Based in Providence, R.I., Johnson & Wales also maintains branch campuses in Charleston, S.C., and Norfolk, Va.

ON THE FENCE Freedom Day at School 7 saw the youngsters lined up for carnival events, refreshments and a talk by returned Desert Storm veteran John Zagani, in a fitting welcome to summer.

ON THE SEAT Vinnie Fazzari, custodian at School 7, was the willing victim of the baseball throw, where a bullseye dropped him in the drink. Sometimes, he had to pull the release, himself, to help the throwers, who were lined up for a city block for their chance to dunk him.

OBITUARIES

Pasquale Cardillo, 79

Pasquale Cardillo, 79, of Denville, died June 7 at St. Barnabas Medical Center, Livingston, after a long illness.

Born in Newark, Mr. Cardillo resided there until he moved to Denville 20 years ago. He was a Master Plumber and was employed by the Newark Housing Authority until his retirement 14 years ago.

Surviving are his brother, Fred Cardillo of Bloomfield, and three sisters, Carmella Cancellosi of Wayne and Esther DeMarzo of Belleville.

St. Peter's Church of Belleville offered the funeral service on June 11. Interment was at Rosedale Cemetery. Arrangements were by the Biondi Funeral Home of Nutley.

Turn spring cleaning into a tax deduction

By Bert Tobia

This time of the year many of us have the urge to clean out our closets and houses and purchase new furniture and clothing to complement the season. Perhaps some of us diet and a good sign of commitment is to discard our fat clothes. If your Spring Cleaning is handled correctly, the satisfaction of this urge can result in a tax deduction.

Many items you would normally dispose of can be put to good use by various charities, resulting in a non-cash charitable contribution for you. This is deductible on your tax return if you itemize your deductions.

Among the property usually donated are: household furnishings, clothing, books, sheet music and records and typewriters. A little imagination may suggest that perhaps a local school could use musical instruments or a car for its automotive shop course.

Some charities, such as Goodwill, Mt. Carmel Guild and the Salvation Army will come to your home to pick up donations. Sometimes a local church or synagogue will be happy to take contributions for a fund raising flea market.

I recommend that you prepare a letter to the non-profit organization, listing your planned donations along with its condition and "fair market value" which is defined as the price an informed willing seller would obtain from an informed willing buyer.

For contributions worth more than $500, form 8283 must be attached to your income tax return. For a contribution worth more than $5,000, an appraiser must also sign the form. The charity may be able to help you establish this figure, or IRS Publication 561 may provide guidelines.

I will be glad to send you a recognized valuation guide. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope to: Bert Tobia, 210 Hollywood Ave., Fairfield 07004.

GIFT OF CHURCHES - Christ Episcopal Church of Belleville has given the Belleville Public Library a new book, 'A Pictorial History of Anglican Churches in America'. At presentation are, from left, William Idenden Sr., warden of the church; Library Director David Bryant, and Richard Drake, treasurer of the church.

MetroWest UJA mission

Jewish singles residing in MetroWest will be joining hundreds of other singles from around the country who will be participating in the United Jewish Appeal (UJA) National Summer "Hatikvah" Singles Mission to Israel, taking place from July 28 to August 8.

"This mission promises to be the most exhilarating summer vacation Jewish singles could ever take. During our 12 days in Israel, we will travel throughout the country, exploring our cultural and historical roots and experiencing a land that blends the past into a remarkable present and visionary future. We will also witness the ingathering of the exiles, as we meet Soviet emigres who will shape Israel's future," said Arne Salkin, mission co-chair.

For further information about this mission or to sign up, call either Andy Frank or Hope Levin at the United Jewish Federation of MetroWest, 673-6800.

Honors for Serio

Tricia Renee Serio of Belleville was graduated with highest honors from Lehigh University, June 2. She won departmental honors in biology.

Miss Serio received a Bachelor of Science degree in molecular biology.

Lehigh University, in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, awarded degrees to 1,235 seniors and graduate students. Senator Bill Bradley of New Jersey delivered the Commencement Address.

More taxes coming

By Bill Grever

Everyone knows the old adage about the inevitability of taxes. But the New Jersey taxpayer has been battered with higher taxes and with no letup in sight. But look out folks, here comes some more of the same.

Governor James Florio has suggested putting tolls on the New Jersey connector of I-92 - I-95 as a way of gaining new revenue. That would take federal approval to put this state's portions of the Interstate highways under state control.

And, on yet another front, Congressman Bob Roe says we need an extra five cents added to the gas tax to pay for repair and rebuilding of the highways and mass transit system. Roe, chairman of the powerful House Public Works Committee, has run into some heavy criticism considering that the present federal gas tax of 14¢. One might ask when enough is enough. New Jersey motorists have been the targets of a battery of new taxes.

Turnpike Authority, a state agency that is officially independent.

But none of these plans have any long range aspects. Everything is done on a patchwork basis. How about cutting down the cost of government, do a manpower study of everyone's state job, and reducing the number of high-salaried executives. When government is in the red, it reverts to taxing the public. It never cuts its own operating costs.

We are not therefore very surprised to hear about some polls showing a 77% public disapproval of Florio.

We still say that the system is not at fault, but only those who try to bend it to their own political will. The public still has, in its hands, the ultimate weapon - the vote. And when the public has had enough, it exercises its own judgement. That may yet happen.

Ombalsky was one of the four Belleville recipients of the Marcela S. Gelman Scholarship which will fully pay for his remaining three years at Rutgers. Sal and Mary Lavanco are the proud grandparents.

Seeing the Forest for the Trees
If anyone needs yet another reason to preserve and protect the world's tropical forests, he need only look into his medicine cabinet. Although rain forests' dense vegetation covers less than two percent of the earth's surface, they supply the raw ingredients for roughly one-quarter of the Western World's pharmaceuticals. It is also estimated that 70 percent of 3,000 plant species recorded on possessing anti-cancer properties in the decade of the 80's originated in the rain forest. Up to ten percent of the plant extracts which have shown some preliminary potential in combating the AIDS virus have come to researchers from the rain forests. It seems that the rain forest should be saved not only for its own sake, but for all of ours as well.

Volunteer slots open for teens at Clara Maass

Students who have graduated from eighth grade will find many interesting volunteer opportunities at Clara Maass Medical Center this summer.

Volunteers are trained to escort patients, deliver mail and flowers, play games with children, feed patients and assist in clerical areas. Teens must be available for the major part of the summer and be willing to work four to six hours a week. A three-hour training program will orient the volunteers to the rules and regulations of the program and to the hospital.

During the summer, the teens may also take advantage of two optional programs — a course in Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation and a Health Careers Workshop. Teens who are interested in the volunteer program should call the volunteer office at 450-2150 for an application.

While the Belleville Times always appreciates the submission of photos for its social pages, we reserve the right to determine if they are suitable to be printed. Fuzzy, out-of-focus, too dark or too light pictures will not be used.

Project Empower announced for Maass' Safe House

Clara Maass Community Services/The Safe House and the Division of Women, New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, have announced the formation of a program developed to serve the vocational needs of female victims of domestic violence.

Project Empower, a demonstration project supported by funding from a federal Victims of Crime Assistance (VOCA) grant, is designed to supplement existing services provided to victims through shelters and support group programs. The project was modeled after successful New York program and is the first of its kind in New Jersey.

The project provides counseling as well as training in job seeking skills and employment readiness to a total of 45 women. Participants then enter the job market or obtain placement in a training program.

Project Empower will operate as a model program from May 1991 to October 1991 and will serve Essex, Bergen, Hudson, Passaic and Union counties. Two ten week cycles will run consecutively with the first cycle beginning in May of 1991.

The project operates under the auspices of The Safe House in conjunction with the New Jersey Division on Women and Small & Associates, a human resources consulting firm.

The Safe House, affiliated with Clara Maass Medical Center, shelters approximately 150 women and 300 children yearly. It is the only hospital-administered domestic violence shelter in New Jersey and one of the first in the United States. It is the third largest domestic violence facility in the state.

For more information on Project Empower, contact Patty Lue Boff at 759-2378.

Belleville Times SPORTS

BUCC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

As the nights got longer and the weather turned colder, the sports at Belleville High stayed hot with some impressive performances from the winter sports.

The boys' basketball team, under the direction of coach Don Roll showed improvement from the previous year and posted a record of 9-14. The most glaring statistic from the season was the four one point losses Belleville endured.

The Bucs were led by seniors Jim DuHaime, John Sipp and Art Caruso along with a host of talented underclassmen who should play a big role next season.

Junior Troy Talmadge was the Bucs leading scorer, averaging 19 points a game. Talmadge showed excellent jumping ability and gave the fans excitement with break away dunks.

Sophomore Dennis DeWork averaged nearly 14 points a game in his first full season of varsity action. (It should be noted that DeWork was the guy I was covering in a three on three game after practice one February evening that resulted in a snapped tendon and torn ligament in my left foot and six weeks in a cast. That's okay Dennis, I'll forget it this time but next year you owe me a rematch.)

Junior guard Sal Straface averaged 11 points a game and was perhaps the Bucs best three point shooter. Straface could be the Bucs best point guard next season now that Caruso has been graduated.

Other players who should be key to the '91-92 team include Bryant Jimenez, Michael Vista, Ken Johansen and Michael Kimball. Freshman Mike Mundy and Frank Means also showed outstanding ability.

Roll has encouraged the returning players to dedicate a good deal of time in the off season to the game by working in the weight room and playing in leagues and camps.

The girls' basketball team also showed improvement in '90-91, posting a record of 5-18. The previous year, the girls were 0-20. This year, coach Karen Fucello saw her team play very competitive basketball, especially in the second half of the season.

Colleen Mannion and Danielle DeWork provided offensive spark and senior Zulay Fiallos was a defensive wizard.

The wrestling team had another marvelous campaign, highlighted by two wrestlers advancing to the state championships.

Junior Nardone and Dan Hywel made it to the state finals at Princeton, marking the first time in memory that two Belleville wrestlers advanced to the state finals in the same season.

Nardone, who missed a number of weeks during the regular season to a knee injury, won the state title in his junior year at 125 pounds. Hywel finished his senior year by advancing to the finals where he lost a decision in the 160 pound class.

Hywel had a marvelous career at Belleville High School. He posted an 88-23 record and is in fourth place on the all time Belleville win list, behind Armando Nardone (101 wins), Joe Cerret (100 wins) and John Stampone (89 wins). This season, Hywel finished with a mark of 22-2.

Sophomore Joshua Cardinale led the Bucs in victories in 1990-91, posting a record of 27-4 in the 101 pound division.

Mike Conte finished 24-7-1 at 112 pounds, Tom Pontrella posted a record of 16-10 at 119 pounds, Nardone was 15-0, Mike Miele finished 15-3 at 130, Carlo Ritacco was 20-7-1 at 135, Angelo Torromeo finished 6-4 at 135, Vin DeSimone was 20-5 at 140, Lee Hands had a fine campaign, posting a 26-4 record, Alan Cruz finished 5-13, Jim Mastropolo had a 12-9 mark at 171, Rocco Constantino was 10-7 at 188 and heavyweights Anthony Mastropolo and George Wallace combined for a 13-9 mark and five pins.

The team had a regular season record of 15-2 and won the NNUJL championship. Also, the Bucs won the prestigious Bloomfield Holiday tournament. Belleville was edged by St. Benedicts for the District 7 crown. The team also lost to St. Benedicts by .03 in the Region 2 title bout.

For the tenth consecutive season, Belleville qualified for the sectional championships. Belleville got its first taste of life in Group III this winter and lost to Warren Hills 42-30.

The Bucs were led by veteran coach Joe Nisiovecchia, who once again did an outstanding job.

The indoor track team, under the direction of coach John Tosato competed in numerous invitational last winter. Carmen Spina, Steven Caponi and Brian Doyle turned in solid performances in their senior campaigns.

The winter season, of course, was dominated nationally by the Persian Gulf War, which broke out

Team was 16-6 for Coach Martin

Outstanding year for JV Bucs

When wrapping up the 1991 varsity baseball season a few weeks ago, coach Nick Grande expressed optimism about the future of the Buccaneer program. Part of that optimism has to do with the very successful season turned in by the junior varsity team this spring.

Coached by Chuck Martin, the JV squad posted a 16-6 record in 1991. Martin, who coached the freshman the previous two seasons, was quite familiar with the team and the cohesion definitely made for a relaxed, hard working team. "During the first week of practice, I knew this was going to be a special group," Martin said. "Having the opportunity to pick and choose from a large variety of athletes due to a large turnout and having several players able to perform at any position made the coaching aspect of the game very difficult."

"Another important part of the teams success was its love for the game and we all know that is rare with kids today."

Freshman catcher Jim Landon led the team this season.

"Jimmy anchored our defense and also hit in the number three slot most of the year," Martin said.

Landon had a superb season, hitting .413 with 24 hits, 24 runs scored, 23 stolen bases and 19 walks.

Martin contends that Landon has a tremendous future on the varsity in store for him.

"Jimmy is a joy to watch," the coach said. "People should follow his work habits and attitude."

"He was superb defensively and is a student of the game," Martin said. "Offensively, Mike improved drastically. He was physically stronger this year and that aided his performance."

Puleo hit a robust .369 this spring. He drove in 18 runs and had 24 hits.

The middle of the diamond was predominantly controlled by second baseman Jim Napolitano and shortstop Kevin Johansen.

Jimmy is as tough as they come, as well as being one of the smoothest defensive players in the program," Martin said of Napolitano.

Johansen split time between the varsity and junior varsity and did well on both levels.

"Kevin really came alive in the second half offensively and is sure as death and taxes defensively," Martin said.

Johansen hit .407 and drove in 22 runs. He had 22 hits, including nine doubles.

John Engdahl saw most of the action at third base after power hitter John McAloon was called up to the "big leagues," the varsity team.

Engdahl hit .400 and had an on base percentage of .571.

"Mr. Engdahl has great hands defensively and stepped in and did an outstanding job swinging the bat in the later part of the season," Martin said.

McAloon had 21 hits in just 14 JV games. He hit .447, with one homer and 21 RBI's. He was called up to the varsity and immediately became a productive player at the plate and in the field.

The outfield was one of the deepest and competitive, according to Martin.

Sophomore Ken Johansen anchored a talented crew in centerfield and saved several games during the year with some outstanding catches.

At the plate, Johansen drove in four runs, while collecting 10 hits. Johansen had an on base percentage of .433.

Juniors Bob Roselli and Peter Fabiano platooned in leftfield.

"Bobby was our lead off hitter and improved each game over the course of the year," Martin said. "Peter hit the ball hard all year, but unfortunately right at people."

Roselli had a .417 batting average and drove in seven runs. He also had an on base percentage of .595.

Fabiano hit .172 with three doubles and four stolen bases. He also drove in three runs.

Dennis DeWork manned the rightfield position. The sophomore hit .377 and provided good power.

He hit a homer, drove in 14 runs and clubbed four doubles. DeWork had an on base percentage of .594.

"Dennis picked up right where he left off last year offensively," Martin said. "He just crushes the ball and is quite a physical specimen."

For the second straight year, Mike Morgan was a picture of versatility, filling a number of positions during the course of a game.

"Mike played everywhere and did a solid job," Martin said. "He filled in wherever needed and performed. You can't ask anything more from a kid."

Morgan hit .250, with eight hits. He stole four bases and drove in five runs.

The pitching staff was led by junior Rocco Constantino.

"He lost three heartbreakers this year, all by one run," Martin said. "The team just didn't support him when he hurled and it was a shame."

Constantino had a 1-3 mark with an ERA of 4.36. He struck out 18 batters in 27.3 innings pitched.

Freshman Mike Mundy was a very pleasant surprise after being called up from the freshman team. Mundy combined for a 9-0 record on the freshman and JV levels combined. He was 4-0 for the JV with a very stingy ERA of 1.35.

Offensively, Mundy was marvelous in the cleanup spot, collecting 10 hits in 20 at bats for a solid .500 average. He drove in seven runs and had two doubles.

DeWork (3-1, 2.41), Kevin Johansen (0-0, 2.12), Ken Johansen (2-1) and Engdahl also did an excellent job on the hill.

The remainder of the squad consisted of Keith Veltre (DH, 2B), Brian "Floyd" Davis (catcher) and outfielders Joe Nagawitz and Brian Orlando.

Martin also expressed his thanks to assistant coach Chris Cantarella. The coach also thanked his scorekeeper, Dan Constantino.

NOTES: The team averaged 6.95 runs a game. The average margin of victory was six runs. Puleo had 104 putouts and a fielding average of .950. Mike Chirichella was 2-1 for the JV team this spring, with an ERA of 3.33. Chirichella pitched mostly for the varsity and was hampered by an injury. Grande feels that Chirichella has a good future on the varsity. Chris Marcantonio was 2-0 on the JV level with a very good ERA of 1.40. He, too, also saw varsity action in 1991.

Pace, Johansen lead Jr. Legion team past Clifton

By Mike Lamberti

Living by the baseball adage that good defense, solid pitching and timely hitting wins games, the Belleville Junior Legion team stayed hot, beating Clifton last week 5-1.

The team took a 6-1 record into last nights game at West Paterson. On Saturday, Paterson comes to town for a 3 p.m. contest at Belleville High. On Sunday, the Bucs head to Glen Ridge for a 5 p.m. game.

"We've been playing very well so far," head coach Pat Turi said after the Clifton victory. "Our defense is solid and the pitching has been excellent."

The Belleville pitching staff has not allowed more than three runs in any game this year. The staff has recorded two shutouts and in the

Victor Kokos competes in wheelchair games

By Stephanie Nieczkowski
Belleville High School sophomore Victor Kokos participated in the Tri-State Wheelchair Games at the JFK Medical Center in Edison, N.J. on May 17.

Weighing just 117 pounds, Kokos established a record in the bench press, lifting 180 pounds. Other events in the competition include weightlifting, swimming, track and field, ping-pong and archery. 28 Adults and juniors participated in the events.

Kokos has been training for two years under the direction and encouragement of Michael Pollard, who is a physical education teacher and adaptive health specialist at Belleville High. Kokos trains every day by bench pressing and in upper body exercises.

Kokos will participate in the National Wheelchair Games today at Princeton University. He will compete against 10-15 juniors and try to break his own national record at the competition.

"These games give juniors and adults a chance to excel in athletics and they can be just as much athletes as able body people," Pollard said.

Holy Family softball team is undefeated

The Holy Family girls' softball team recently defended its 1990 league title by capturing the Essex County Parochial League title with a perfect 16-0 mark.

After capturing the regular season title, the team won the playoffs with a semi final win over St. Catharines of Cedar Grove, 15-1. In the title game, the girls downed Our Lady of Lourdes from West Orange, 3-2.

The perfect record was the first accomplished by a Holy Family team since beginning to play.

The coaching staff included Lou Bivona, John Zelna and Gary Amitrano.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Playgrounds open

The Belleville Recreation Department's summer playground program will begin June 24 and will continue through Aug. 9.

The five playground sites are located at School 9, the Municipal Stadium, the Recreation House, Cleaman Field and the Friendly House. The special education playground is set up at the Belleville Little League Field.

The playgrounds will be opened daily to all Belleville residents in grades kindergarten through 9 from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Playgrounds are closed 12-1 for lunch and when it rains.

An adult director will be on hand at each playground to organize games, parties and other activities and an arts and crafts supervisor will travel from site to site.

Tentatively, tennis lessons, "Open Swim" and special tournaments are planned throughout the summer. These programs are all pending the hiring of qualified instructors/supervisors.

Applications for all summer program participants must be completed and signed by a parent. Registration forms are available at the Rec. House office and at all playgrounds. There will also be a special event for all children in grades K-8 on July 4, 10 a.m. at the Municipal Stadium.

Football registration

There will be registration for the Belleville Recreation Department's 1991 Junior Bussack football program at the Recreation House, 407 Joralemon Street, now through Aug. 9. Boys who will be 8 years old before Sept. 1 and who will not be 14 before Sept. 1 are eligible. Those wishing to play tackle football must weigh a minimum of 60 pounds and a maximum of 135 pounds, and no one above 8th grade can play. Players will be broken down into three teams according to specific age/weight requirements as set by the Suburban Twin County Football League. To register, players must obtain

Soccer & touch football applications

Applications for the Belleville Recreation 1991 Fall Sports programs are now available in the schools and, at the Recreation office. Boys and girls ages 7-14 may participate in recreation soccer. Belleville resident children who will be 7 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 14 on Dec. 31 are eligible. Nobody above 8th grade can play, and all returning players must re-apply.

Boys ages 8-10 can play touch football. Belleville boys who will be 8 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 10 on Dec. 31 are eligible. All returning players must re-apply.

For both soccer and touch football, all completed applications must be returned to the Recreation Department, 407 Joralemon Street, with birth certificates. The registration deadline for soccer is Aug. 9, and the deadline for touch football is Aug. 30. Children are advised not to register for more than one full sport since football, soccer and touch football game and practice schedules conflict.

Tennis lessons

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that tennis lessons will be provided free of charge to all Belleville youngsters ages 8 to 16. Tennis lessons will be given at the Belleville Municipal Stadium on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings beginning June 25 for 7 weeks (last day: Aug. 8). Participants must wear sneakers and provide own racquet and balls. The schedule is as follows: Ages 8-11 - 9 to 10 a.m.; Ages 12-16 - 10 to 11 a.m.

Registration will take place at the courts. There will be no lessons when there is rain!

Fourth of July activities

As many flock to the shore to escape the heat and chaos of city life at holiday time, many other Belleville residents will stay home to experience the traditional ceremonies of the Independence Day celebration here in town.

To begin the festivities on July 4, the Recreation Department will hold its annual field day for youngsters in grades K-8 at the Municipal Stadium starting at 10 a.m.

The events, which will be open to all young Belleville residents, will be divided into three categories. There is a junior division for kindergarten to second graders, an intermediate division for third to fifth graders, and a senior division for 6th to 8th graders.

Events will include the 50 and 100 yard dashes, an agility race, a three-legged race, sack races, a girl's relay race and a boys' tug-of-war.

All activities will be supervised by the members of the recreation playground staff under the supervision of director Dennis Buckley. Ribbons will be awarded to the first and second-place finishers and all will share in slices of watermelon.

A spectacular fireworks display will be presented at the stadium starting at sundown (approximately 7 p.m.). The rain date for these events will be July 5. In all, it promises to be an exciting holiday and Belleville's young and old are invited to share in the glitter of our country's historic day.

There will also be a pre-fireworks show at 7 p.m. this year. The New Jersey Concert Band, a 35 piece orchestra, will perform at the Municipal Stadium before the fireworks display. Belleville resident troops who served in Operation Desert Storm will be recognized at this celebration.

Preschool registration

The Belleville Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs is presently looking into expanding its pre-school play program for 4 year old children. The program consists of games, stories, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties especially designed for pre-school children.

If feasible, an afternoon session will be added from 12:45 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. five days a week with class limited to 23 students. The cost of the 32 week session is $100. Children already enrolled in the morning program cannot also be in the afternoon program. The mothers of the children accepted must participate by serving one duty day about every 8 or 9 days according to a published schedule.

The afternoon session will be added only if 20 or more people register. School will begin on Sept. 16 and will run through May 1992.

Children born between October 1986 - September 1987 who will enter kindergarten in September 1992 are eligible. Participants must be Belleville residents. Since there are just a limited number of openings, applications will be accepted on a first come - first served basis only.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 as soon as possible, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Board of Ed boils over; Gabe vs. five ies to be board president.

Mrs. Angie Pisciaria attributed the claim to Nazzola saying that Nazzola had sought her vote to be board president, as the "only one qualified."

She said that Nazzola described Grossman as too old to serve on the board, and DeGuercio as having his own agenda.

The board majority stated that Nazzola had taken it on himself to obtain fans, usurping the executive authority of the school administrators.

Grossman said he was "tired of his (Nazzola's) illegal ways." "He knows better than to order for the school system," Grossman said.

President Pisanio said, "I cannot change the fact that I am a woman." She said that Nazzola resented having a woman as president of the board and said he should consider offering his resignation if he could not find it possible to work with the rest of the board.

Trustee Vincent Marrone denied that there was a voting bloc, or that he was part of one, and said he resented the implication that he was so involved.

DeGuercio declined to make any statement, and Nazzola made no comment in response.

Assistant football coach Gennaro Russo spots for a Buccaneer player during recent lighthead at Belleville High. We'll have full coverage of the event in a future issue.

McGough gets two hits in win

last three games, it has allowed just two runs.

Ken Johansen was the winning pitcher against Clifton. In 5 1/3 innings of work, he allowed one run on just four hits. He struck out three and walked one.

Ken's brother, Kevin came in to hunt the last 1 2/3 innings. He gave up just one hit and was credited with the save.

Belleville scored twice in the top of the second. Kevin Johansen walked and scored when Anthony Pace drilled a two run homer.

In the third, Matt McGough singled and went to second on a sacrifice by Jim Napolitano. Robert Dena then singled to score McGough.

Clifton's only run came in the bottom of the second.

McGough led Belleville with two hits. Dena, Sam Marino, Pace and Napolitano had one hit each. Pace led the Bucs with two ribbies.

"We're also getting key hits, such as Pace's homer and Dena's single," Turi said. "Our performance in the early going has been quite positive."

the evening of Wednesday, January 16, 1991. I'm sure almost everyone remembers where they were that evening when the news came over the radio at 7 p.m. that the first bombs had been dropped. It was quite an evening and, of course, the War dominated the news for the next three months.

Next week, we'll conclude the wrap up with a look at the spring sports season.

SPORTS NEWS

The New Jersey Nets have made some major blunders in their NBA history. After being one of the most successful ABA franchises, winning crowns in 1974 and '76, the Nets entered the NBA upon the merger of the leagues with high anticipation.

Before the first regular season game, the Nets and Julius Erving were embroiled in a nasty contract dispute. It ended with Erving being "sold" to Philadelphia for $3 million.

Dr. J. went on to a Hall of Fame career in the NBA. The Nets never recovered. They have drafted poorly over the years and have consequently been the league doormat, with the exception of a short period of time in the early 80's, when the team, coached by Larry Brown and later Stan Albeck, made the playoffs.

Last year, the Nets drafted Derrick Coleman as the first pick in the draft. Coleman won the Rookie of the Year award. This year, the Nets have the number two pick in the draft. As we go to press on Tuesday evening, the Nets have been deliberating between Billy Owens and Kenny Anderson.

Both players are fine talents, but the Nets need a small forward in the worst way and Owens would fill the bill tremendously. Here's hoping that the Nets make the right pick and choose Billy Owens to team with Coleman in the front court next season and for years to come.

I'm heading to Chicago this afternoon for the weekend to see the new Comiskey Park (White Sox and Mariners) today. Tomorrow through Sunday, I'll be at historic Wrigley Field to see my Cardinals take on the Cubs. I've always heard that Wrigley Field is a tremendous place to watch a ball game. Since the Cards and Cubs are such a big rivalry in Chicago, it should add to the flavor of the park.

As for the new Comiskey Park, I hear it's a tremendous park, with the old time setting (real grass for one thing) along with the modern look and comfort.

The Los Angeles Dodgers could have the NL West wrapped up by the All Star break. Isn't it great to see the Dodgers playing so well and Darryl Strawberry not contributing to it? Then again, maybe Strawberry is contributing because he hasn't been playing.

The Dodgers pitching staff is too good for the rest of the division. San Francisco is far behind the pack and Atlanta, while improving, really won't challenge the Dodgers this year. Cincinnati has a load of injuries and by the time the healthy players come back, L.A. could be too far in front.

The Pirates aren't as good as their early season success. I'm not saying my Cardinals will beat them, but the Mets are still a force. (I can't believe I just said that).

It's hard to believe that the Mets will not make a serious run sometime this season. A team has not repeated as NL East champs since 1978, when Philadelphia won it a third straight season. Pittsburgh will have their hands full the rest of the season.

Pointers For Parents

Preparing Children For A Move

Summertime is moving time. In fact, U.S. corporations relocate between 300,000 and 500,000 employees annually, with many relocating during the summer months when kids are out of school. This relocation is almost always stressful for a family, but it can be made easier for children when they play an active role in the family's move.

To help youngsters understand and deal with changes they will face in the move, a new coloring book has been developed by Residence Inn by Marriott, a hotel chain that serves as "home away from home" to thousands of relocating families each year. The story presented in the book is "told to kids by kids," according to Laura Herring, a family psychologist who served as a consultant to Residence Inn by Marriott on the coloring book.

Designed to reach children between the ages of three and ten, the book features John and Jill, a brother and sister in the midst of a move to a new town. It captures the feeling of leaving friends and other familiarities of home while offering children suggestions for making new friends and coping with the move. Residence Inn by Marriott sponsored the coloring book as part of an ngoing effort to serve relocating families, who often stay in residential style hotels during the move for an average of 39 days.

A copy of the coloring book is available for free to those who write: Moving, c/o Residence Inn by Marriott, Dept. 851.84, Marriott Drive, Washington, D.C. 20058.

Did You Know??

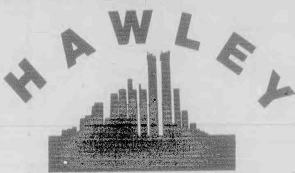

Ticking, the blue-and-white striped twill fabric that used to cover mattresses and pillows, is now showing up in the living room, covering elegant Regency sofas and period chairs. Quality ticking—woven, not printed—is part of designer collections at fancy prices.

To protect finished wood floors, vacuum or sweep them at least weekly so that dust and grit will not become embedded. It's safe to use a lightly dampened mop as long as the floor is in good condition.

Stair squeaks are usually caused by loosened parts rubbing together. Though lubrication will quiet the steps for a while, it's best to refasten the parts, usually from underneath.

Painter in Cordova, Nebraska, paints "portraits" of homes, working in watercolor from photographs. He prefers old houses, surrounding them with the appropriate trees, bushes, lawns or sidewalks.

Get the picture: we'll market your home-for-sale to the right buyer for its style and price. List with the winners at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Avenue, Nutley. Call 235-9000.

KATHARINE GIBBS

Congratulates the Class of 1991!

At the Gibbs School, we believe that success in the business world depends on a combination of superior technical skills and outstanding personal character. This is the basis of Gibbs training—a design to help students achieve their best as individuals and professionals.

The Gibbs curriculum places strong emphasis on teaching students to understand the new tools and technologies of the 90's and the ways in which they affect the methods of business organization and operation.

The Montclair Katharine Gibbs School is licensed by the New Jersey Department of Higher Education to award the Associate in Applied Science Degree to those students completing the Secretarial Arts Program. In addition, Katharine Gibbs offers the Executive Secretarial Program, the Executive Secretarial Programs Information Processing and the Travel and Conference Planning Program.

The Continuing Education Division's newest program is Hotel and Restaurant Management. This exciting program is offered in an academic partnership with the Educational Institute of the American Hotel and Motel Association. It provides specialized curriculum to prepare students in various division of hotel management. Several other evening programs are offered in Secretarial, Administrative Assistant, Paralegal and Computerized Bookkeeping.

The Gibbs commitment to its students goes beyond the fact that a well established name often helps to open doors. Gibbs graduates are entitled to use the Placement Service, and every effort is made to assist graduates in securing employment. The school provides job and career counseling and other useful graduate services.

Since 1911 the Gibbs tradition has been Excellence in All You Do, and that tradition will continue to grow as evidenced by our reputation in the business world.

In Just 24 Hours!

Peoples Bank is now providing qualified homeowners a means to borrow from $5,000 to $100,000 or more, and, in most cases, deduct all of the interest paid on their federal tax returns. (Please consult your tax advisor.)

With a Peoples' Home Equity Line of Credit or fixed-rate Home Equity Loan, you can have access to a substantial amount of money for college tuition, home improvements, investment opportunities or any other worthwhile purpose.

But, best of all, if we receive your completed application for a Peoples' Home Equity Line of Credit or Home Equity Loan today, we promise to provide you an answer in just 24 hours!

Why not stop by your local office of Peoples Bank today to apply for your Home Equity Line of Credit or Home Equity Loan? If you do, by tomorrow you may find sending your child off to college a little easier!
