Aside From That

By Howard Klausner

Dave Hatch is the sixth generation of his family to live continuously without interruption in Belleville. His forebears fought - and died - in the American Revolution and the Civil War and he served in Vietnam as a Marine sergeant. A bout of malaria contracted in Vietnam left him with a damaged kidney that for the past 22 years has required him to visit the Veterans Administration hospitals every few weeks for treatment. His father, Joe Hatch, frequently visits the hospitals with his son, and he reports that in the past 10 years there has been a definite and damaging deterioration in the services provided the veterans. It has reached the point, he says, where it is threatening his faith in America. "Legless men who have to push themselves through the parking lot to get their exercise. Longer and longer delays in treatment. Men sleeping on cots in the corridors. Is this what the men coming back from Desert Storm have to look forward to in 10 years?" The Hatches are not the first to protest against conditions in the Veterans Administration hospitals, and against VA operations in general. The federal government keeps insisting that nothing is being done to hurt the welfare of veterans, and everything going on testifies to the opposite. Is the culprit the public who refuses to pay the bill for the care of the veterans? Or is it simply a short sighted policy that is trying to save money at the expense of men and women who don't use their political clout to defend their own interests?

Certainly, the best piece of legislation ever enacted for this nation was the G.I. Bill of Rights which provided paid college education for millions, and underwrote business loans and home mortgages for millions more, and the end result was the longest run of prosperity in the nation's history. Now that World War II veterans are in their 60s and 70s, do we now undo all the good done by a policy of deliberate neglect? Does George Bush really want this to be his legacy to America?

What's in a name? In the case of Joan Charles, a substitute teacher who also works with a firm that services the United States Bankruptcy Court - and boy, are they busy! - her working name is Clique Brown - pronounced "silk-ee". She is also a professional singer, gospel variety, but she says it was another employer who urged her to use the name, Clique. The employer was the Essex County Public Defender's Office. Possibly, they thought that it was a name that would intrigue any judge, and throw off balance any young assistant prosecutor.

In any case, she managed to obtain a meeting this week with an Assistant Secretary of Education in Washington, D.C. She said she has been concerned by the reduced support given by the federal government to every aspect of education - from lack of funding for college students to lack of funding for pre-school day nurseries that keeps working mothers out of jobs and out of school. So she went to Washington with a list of questions, and she has promised to let us know what answers she received, if any.

Any members of the old Ackwees Club around? This was one of the first - if not the very first - of the social clubs that proliferated in the old Newark North Ward in the days when socializing and mutual support were a way of life. Tony Pasquale was in town looking for any of the old bunch, many of whom came to Belleville. He can be contacted at (201) 482-7753.

When people speak of Luke Suppa's pizza, they speak in awe. He only makes a half dozen or so pies in his home oven on Stephen Street, every weekend, and those who share them vie for the opportunity. And on July 23 he will be host at his annual bash for staff members of Barringer High School where he is a custodian. Before entering the school business, he was raised in the tavern business in Newark, and as a boy he learned the art of pizza making from some of the greatest practitioners of the art who ever existed, the pizzamakers of the old North Ward.

But many feel he has outdistanced even his old masters. For one thing, a Suppa pizza may weigh around five pounds, as compared to the usual one pound commercial pizza. Then there is the secret family recipe. "The secret is in the sauce," he says. "It's like nothing you ever tasted. It's outta sight!" Then there is the fresh mozzarella-in-water, the fresh mushrooms, the fresh peppers, the imported (and only imported) pepperoni, the tomatoes ("I only use good Italian tomatoes.") and for those who like them, the anchovies. Put them altogether and the result, Luke says, is "Outta sight!"

Schools evaluate test scores; Nardiello sets upgrade plan

Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello told the Board of Education Tuesday that test scores released by the New Jersey Department of Education did not reflect the real picture of student achievement.

The scores for Belleville students indicated that they were below the state median level in reading, mathematics and writing, but Nardiello said that in fact Belleville students are well above median levels in all categories.

"This was an unofficial test," he said. "We are evaluating it, but we know that our 8th graders did very well in statewide tests given earlier."

The tests were given to 11th graders throughout the state. The tests will become a requisite for graduation in 1993.

With a median score being set at 250, Belleville students averaged 220 in reading, 220 in mathematics and 225 in writing.

This compared with Newark students who scored 145, 155 and 170 in those respective categories. The score for Bloomfield students was 255, 250 and 260. Nutley students averaged 315, 300 and 295.

Nardiello said that the schools would provide today's 9th graders with special mathematics and writing instruction, to enable them to meet the test standards in 1993.

He noted that Belleville students had passed current state achievement tests with few exceptions, and that the number of scholarships and college acceptances awarded the Class of June 1991 was proof of the improving academic standing of the Belleville public schools.

Statewide, the highest averages were achieved by students in the Ridgewood school system, with scores of over 400 in all categories. Glen Ridge scored the highest averages in Essex County, with 320, 300 and 355, followed by Millburn, 330, 340 and 290.

Throughout the state, suburban school systems scored noticeably higher than the school systems of the larger cities.

Stolen police car burns on Erie track

A stolen police car burst into flames Friday morning, its motor racing while the car was blocked on the Erie railroad track at Mill Street. Police said they were working on a lead that might lead them to the prime suspect.

Police said the car, No. 14, is a 1987 Chevrolet with a book value of $5,000. Chief George Lister said that Car 14 was used only as a spare vehicle and would not be replaced. The car was parked at 11 p.m., July 4 in the lot used by the police behind the National Westminster Bank office on Washington Avenue. It was discovered at 5 a.m. the next day at the Mill Street crossing.

Police said a cinder block had been wedged against the gas pedal. The car had travelled one block down the tracks from Cleveland Street, where a pile of cinder blocks was found.

Police assume that the car was taken from the lot and driven one block to the railroad track, where it was driven down the tracks to Cleveland Street and then sent on its way.

The car came to a halt when a tire blew, and the wheel jammed against the track. The motor continued to race, and a spinning rear wheel caused enough friction with a railroad tie to cause a fire that swept through the vehicle.

Police said there was no sign of forced entry.

Six weeks ago, a police car was set afire in the parking lot, with superficial interior damage. Police found evidence that someone had been drinking in the car.

The theft of Car 14 occurred during a period when the police were busy answering reports of illegal fireworks incidents that went on until 2 a.m.

THE TOWN'S LOSS - Belleville Police Car 14 was totally destroyed by fire after vandals stole it from parking lot, jammed the gas pedal with a cinder block and sent it down railroad track where it stalled and took fire.

Woman saved from burning house; two neighboring buildings in flames

Two police officers entered a burning two-family house to rescue a distraught woman, Friday, while firemen fought to save her home and a neighboring home from flames.

Police Officers John Towe and William Palatella mounted a smoke filled stairway to the second floor of 23 Magnolia St. and found Anastasia Baybay, 60, in her bedroom, as fire poured out of three sides of the frame two story house.

"She was too panic stricken to move," Towe said. "So we had to carry her out."

Fire Captain Andrew Depczek reported that the fire broke out in wiring behind a bed in a second floor rear room of the building, in the apartment of Fiorenzo Esposito, the landlord. The fire spread to the bed, and Enzo Esposito, 7, alerted his mother, Emilea, to the conflagration.

Mrs. Esposito, wife of the landlord, called the fire department at 12:20 p.m. She tried to extinguish the fire but the heat drove her back.

Captain Depczek said the heat was intensified by the tin ceilings in the century-old structure. Flames spread to the adjoining apartment of Sy Ibanes, whose mother-in-law, Mrs. Baybay, was home alone.

The Espositos realized that Mrs. Baybay was upstairs, and the police rushed into the building to rescue her.

Flames from the house at 23 Magnolia St. poured out with a blower effect, reaching across the narrow alley to the house at 21

Magnolia St., owned by the Albanese family. The outside wall of the Albanese house was scorched, but no interior damage was done.

Depczek said the damage to the interior of the Esposito house was total.

The entire Belleville Fire Department was at the scene, under the direction of Deputy Chief Robert Caruso. Back-up assistance was provided by the Nutley Fire Department.

Engine Companies 1, 2 and 5, with Truck 6 and the Fire Department Ambulance responded to the alarm. Caruso said it took two hours to put out the fire.

Among the few possessions rescued by the Espositos were two volumes of family photographs, including wedding pictures. There was no estimate of the financial loss.

Pursuit nets theft suspect

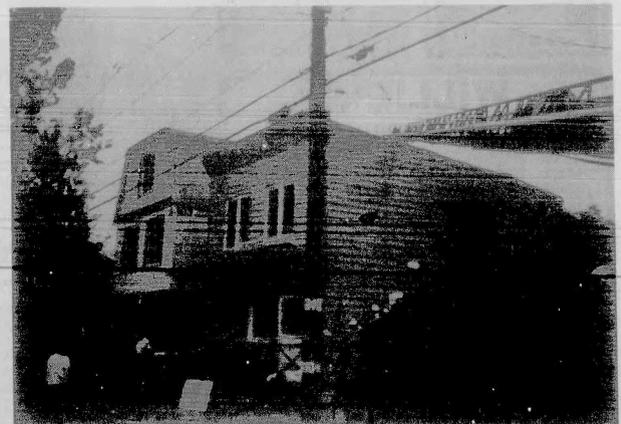

Detective James DeGrosso made a hundred yard dash through the woods of Branch Brook Park, Tuesday, and his prize was a prime suspect in a house burglary committed shortly before the chase. He nabbed Michael Martinez, 24, of Newark, who was then held in custody.

Martinez is accused of pushing in the back door of a house on New Street, about noon on Tuesday, ransacking a second floor bedroom and making off with what police said was a "substantial amount" of jewelry.

The householder told police she had returned home to find Martinez walking out of her backyard into the driveway. He passed her, saying something about having her son call him, she said. Then he kept going.

Detective DeGrosso spotted Martinez in the park, heading for Newark. The detective jumped out of his car and went in pursuit of Martinez, who had broken into a run.

DeGrosso caught up with the suspect in a wooded area near Summer Street and handcuffed him. Police said that Martinez had jewelry on him which was claimed by the homeowner, who identified Martinez as the man she had encountered in her driveway. She said he had visited the house a month earlier, as an acquaintance of her son.

TWO BUILDINGS SAVED BY FIREFIGHTERS - Neighboring houses on Magnolia Street both caught fire as flames spread from home on right across alleyway to structure on left. Police got one resident to safety. Entire Belleville Fire Department responded to alarm.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

The first apparent evidence of discord among members of the Belleville Township Council having been brought to light by the local press in the reported story of a clandestine meeting of the members of the local governing body at the summer home of Councilman Dr. Frank Noonan in Clifton. This might possibly be considered illegal as a violation of the Open Public Meeting Act best known as the "Sunshine Law." It could be discerned as an avid quest of each of the seven Council persons for "Honor and Glory" and as an after thought, perhaps the extra pelf that goes with the titles of Mayor and Deputy Mayor.

Seems this year's Fourth of July will be replete with fireworks in Belleville, both the political type and the pyrotechnical kind... might be kept.

Some members of Congress may retire to take advantage of a soon-to-expire law that allows them to leave office with their campaign contributions. There are seven congress members who are over 65 - five over seventy - who may be tempted to retire soon.

Bowing to lawmakers pressure, the Florio administration is withdrawing the plan to merge portions of the state Board of Public Utilities (BPU) with the Department of Environmental Protection and replace it with a new consolidation proposal.

The revised plan aims to address concerns raised by legislators and special interest groups who feared the original merger would undercut the independence of the BPU, particularly regarding its ability to set rates for New Jersey's electric, gas and water utilities.

However, the new plan retains all of the substantive aspects of the original merger, including consolidating BPU's solid waste unit into the DEP's Division of Solid Waste and moving energy planning and policy-making into a new Department of Environmental Protection and Energy (DEPE), according to administration officials.

The new merger plan also includes language that would "clarify" doubts about whether a revamped Board of Regulatory Commissioners would be independent of DEP, according to officials. Much of the criticism of the original merger focused on the independence of the board if placed under the control of the DEP.

Toward those ends, the new reorganization plan will stipulate that the board's budget will be prepared by the commissioners and submitted directly to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), according to administration officials, instead of first being reviewed by the DEPE commissioner, as originally envisioned.

The original merger, submitted to the Legislature in late April, would have taken effect June 25 unless both houses had moved to object. Senate Majority Leader Daniel Dalton (D-Camden) had expressed numerous objections to the merger and had introduced a resolution rejecting the move, but neither house had voted on the proposal.

Assembly Speaker Joseph Doris (D-Hudson) wrote a letter to Gov. Florio on June 17, saying that while he believed the "plan has merit and will greatly benefit the citizens of our state," his house had not been able to devote adequate time to analyzing the plan or to dealing with other pressing issues before them, such as health care reform and the budget.

The merger was first proposed by the administration in January as part of a restructuring of state government involving a number of departments and dozens of small boards. The executive order, submitted by Florio in April, however, dealt only with combining the DEP and BPU.

The administration contends that the BPU-DEP merger will save up to $3.5 million a year "in cost avoidance" through elimination of duplicative administrative functions in the two agencies, while streamlining both agencies.

DEP Commissioner Scott Weiner also defended the consolidation, arguing transferring energy planning to DEP is logical because of the close nexus between environmental and energy issues. The department had often been maligned by legislators and lobbyists as an agency grown out of control.

Voting irregularities charged in school vote

School Trustee Gabe Nazzola said that he and 12 other taxpayers had filed charges alleging that 58 of 94 absentee ballots counted in the April 30 school board elections were invalid.

The charges have been taken to the Essex County Prosecutor, Nazzola said.

Nazzola said that his allegations about the school ballots were the reason that five members of the board issued public criticisms of him, June 23.

"I said that there was a bloc of five board members against me, and it was no coincidence that the five trustees each had prepared statements that night," Nazzola said.

In their statements, the board members, President Pat Pisano, Vice President Seymour Grossman, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, Vincent Mazzone, Angie Pascerchia, said that Nazzola had maligned them in statements he had issued to an out-of-town publication.

They denied that they put politics ahead of concern for the students, as Nazzola had claimed. The dispute arose over the matter of providing fans for the high school auditorium. Nazzola said that the board was remiss in not listening to his suggestions for acquiring fans, and the board majority said that Nazzola was interfering with administrative functions.

On Monday, Nazzola said that the real cause of the criticism was his inquiry into the absentee school ballots.

In the election, Mrs. Pascerchia defeated incumbent Ralph Mazzuca, while Joseph DeGuercio was re-elected.

Nazzola said that a large number of the absentee ballots were not cast by legally certified voters.

Nazzola said that the petition filed with the Prosecutor named four individuals as "actors" in the alleged vote irregularities. He declined to name them.

OUR OPINION

Until you've walked a second mile
 In someone else's shoes,
 Or stood an hour in the heat
 Of hurts you did not choose;
 Until your heart has felt the sting
 Of criticizing tongue,
 You cannot taste the salty tears
 A wounded soul has wrung.
 Unless you've walked a moon or more
 Along a thorny road,
 You cannot feel another's need
 To know his trying load.

We do have the power

The July 4th celebration is over, and the only fireworks left in town are at the meetings of the Town Council and the Board of Education.

There is a close connection between July 4 and the meetings of the governing body and the school board. The fact that they do meet, and that the citizens have a direct say in the management of their community, is what the American Revolution was all about.

In many ways, Belleville people do not appreciate the fact that they are a self governing municipality. Some dismiss the meeting of their elected officials as meaningless. The fact is that the governing body and the school board have very real powers, and are supposed to be agencies of the public will.

It would do many New Jersey residents of suburban communities well if they were to travel across the Hudson River and see how desperately the citizens of the many neighborhoods that make up New York City try to seize some shreds of self government.

In a community such as Whitestone, Queens, which has about the same population as Belleville, the only semblance of local discussion of issues is a Citizens forum, which is usually attended by city and state officials. It is rare that less than 300 people attend those meetings, which are essentially exercises in futility.

People with very serious complaints about threats to their environment can make complaints, and receive soothing official reassurances, but they are a handful among millions of other voters, and they have little recourse against the city and state officials whose decisions can have calamitous effects on their welfare.

For example, the State of New York permitted a concrete reduction company to set up shop in a residential area right on the Long Island Sound. That meant that chunks of concrete were reduced to rubble and then transported through residential streets - and the homeowners were helpless to do anything about it.

It is inconceivable that a project like that would have lasted a week in Belleville, because the citizens would have immediate recourse against their elected officials.

It is true that a lot of home rule has been eroded, but there is still plenty of power left in the hands of the people.

If you don't think so, visit the metropolis and learn why they coined the expression there, You Can't Fight City Hall. In Belleville, you can.

Birthplace of U.S. history

Belleville is so steeped in history that it takes itself for granted. The fact that very few communities in America were actually visited by George Washington, or that Revolutionary War soldiers and British redcoats traded gunfire across the Passaic River in the town limits is something many other communities would celebrate.

If you don't think so, visit New England or Virginia, where far less fighting occurred during the Revolution than occurred in New Jersey, and see how proud the people there are of their history.

And not all our history was made by men in wigs and cocked hats. The struggles of the immigrants were parallels of the struggles of the early settlers, and in time of war, the immigrants have given more than their share of service and sacrifice.

There is one fact about Belleville that seems to have escaped many of us. That is a simple fact, but an incredibly important one. Belleville was where the very first steam engine operated, in 1753, pumping water out of the local Schuyler copper mines.

The man who built it, Josiah Hornblower, was a pioneer in creating the steam engine. Some historians say he, rather than James Watt, should be credited with the invention of the steam engine, which brought the Industrial Revolution into being.

Some 40 years later, Hornblower worked on a steamboat that preceded Fulton's steamboat by several years.

Industry has always been a part of Belleville's life. It would be fitting if Belleville could gain its rightful recognition as the Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

YOUR OPINION

Jackie Rega supports Gabe Nazzziola

To the editor:

Here we go again — it seems, that the circus we used to have, at the Town Hall, during the reign of the former commissioner, where a few rebel rousers were allowed to sneer, jeer and hiss at anyone, who dare get up and ask questions pertaining to town affairs; making our town and officials look like they are inept to run a town meeting, and because of these conditions that existed, among other reasons, the citizens of Belleville voted for a change of government.

Subsequently, the five commissioners were rejected, when they tried to run again for office and justifiably so. Now, it appears that some of these rebel rousers (although smaller in numbers) are continuing to do the same at the board of education meetings, while the other board members, just sit there, completely disregarding these conditions. To the board members, when the meeting is improperly conducted, it makes you all look bad, especially, if you sit there and say nothing. Their target, seems to be one board member, Gabe Nazzziola, and in order to hurt him, they're going after his family (children), calling it nepotism. I, sincerely feel, that I have an excellent insight to what's going on in our Belleville school system. My information, I believe, is truly genuine, because of my contact over the years, with the students in Belleville, who have worked for me and I'm talking about hundreds of them. I would ask, of the conditions of the schools and the quality of our teachers, and get an occasional small complaint, but the compliments were abundant. Being a friend of board member, Gabe Nazzziola, naturally, I inquired about his family and when, I asked about his daughter, my workers, overwhelmingly were filled with love. In fact, they even had a testimonial for her, which I participated in and they advised me not to invite any of the politicians, and I barely made the invitation list, because of being a politician.

Now, our newly elected president, Mrs. Patricia Pisano, has accused board member Gabe Nazzziola of nepotism. Mrs. Pisano, I'm against nepotism. As long as we are talking about nepotism, I would like to say, that your husband and you have been employed by the county for years. As far as I'm concerned, I feel that you're accusing someone who, incidentally, is a certified teacher by the state of New Jersey. But, you shouldn't throw stones at anyone, until you examine your own situation, which I certainly would consider, a form of nepotism, because it's coming out of the taxpayers pockets.

So, to all the board members, stop this charade that's going on at these meetings. They, want you off that board because you're not playing ball with them. Keep up the good work.

A good graduation

To the editor:

The following is a letter to Mrs. Taibi, Mrs. Cicalese, and Sub Committee Members:

On behalf of the Class of 1991, I would like to express a sincere thank-you for organizing and planning Graduation Celebration '91. We would like to thank all of the B.A.S.E. Committee members for their time and effort in raising money to meet the cost of the cruise, for informing the parents and students about this event, for providing chaperones and food before and after the boat ride, and for decorating the buses. The Belleville Alliance for Substance Education is an outstanding organization.

The Class of '91 greatly appreciates all that the committee has done to provide us with an alcohol-free and drug-free graduation night. The B.A.S.E. Committee has truly made our graduation a memorable night. Words cannot express our appreciation and thankfulness. The Class of '91 congratulates you on a job well done.

Bruce Morgan praised

To the editor:

The parents of Belleville T-ball would like to thank Bruce Morgan for all the time and effort he put into this league.

No longer will our younger children have to stay in their brothers' or sisters' shadows until they reach 8 years old. They now have something they can call their own. Something they can take pride in. He has made over 200 children very happy and that is the best gift anyone can give a child.

Fiorente Club grateful

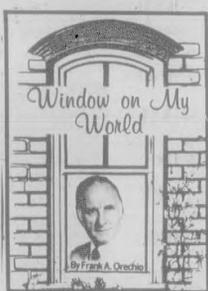

To the editor:

On behalf of the Italian Fiorente Jr. Woman's Club, I would like to express our sincere thanks to all of those who donated their time and support during our recent fundraiser. Every year our club runs a fundraiser for a seriously sick child in the Belleville/Nutley area.

This year one of our members, Donna Rotunda Guyette was taken seriously ill, and it was heartwarming to see so many people want to express their help in some way. Our fundraiser was a huge success. Thanks again to all those who donated.

A special thanks to Tommy Starr and Starr Caterers for donating our beautiful buffet. Starr Caterers should be commended for being so very generous for this worthwhile cause.

Debbie Dafick
 President
 Italian Fiorente Jr. Woman's Club

• HERES one for the books. It happened recently in Nutley's Park Avenue Firehouse — a facility managed by volunteers. A bachelor party was held, alcohol was reportedly used on the premises, a stripper was hired to do her thing, and while she was doing it, her car was stolen and so was her money.

Informed sources tell me that on the night of the incident, she allegedly signed a complaint. If even a smidgen of truth is contained in this report, one wonders who authorized use of a public building for a strictly personal, social event which included the serving of alcohol and the appearance of a stripper to entertain the boys?

• NUTLEY Fire Department Executive Charlie Kucinski and parking meter attendant, Mike Monteroso, a Department of Public Works employee, were involved in an altercation which took place in Betty Gingerelli's Public Works office. I'm told that Mike filed a complaint charging terrorist threats and assault. These complaints were based on alleged statements attributed to Kucinski, "I'll run you down if I see you in the street." All this arose because Kucinski's two daughters were parked in expired meters, and this guy, Mike, called the police to ticket both cars.

Mike could more diligently enforce the parking meter laws just a stone's throw from the Public Safety building by visiting Franklin Avenue by way of Peerless Stationery where metered parking spaces are appropriated for all day parking? Merchants have called the Public Safety Department, but with unsatisfying results.

• ESSEX COUNTY Executive Thomas D'Alesio is now facing off with the big boys. He is challenging an order by Superior Court Judge Burrell Ives Humphreys who ordered D'Alesio to renegotiate a lease within 20 days to move the family and special civil courts from the old courthouse while renovations are made to the dilapidated building which attained national landmark status in 1976.

Humphreys wants the old courthouse occupants moved to 153 Halsey St., Newark, a newly renovated building owned by Hartz Mountain Industries, which is offering a five-year lease. A special County Facilities Planning Committee approved the relocation earlier in the year. Members of the committee included appointees from the courts, county clerk, surrogate, freeholders and the administration. The only ones that opposed the move were D'Alesio's mouthpieces.

• ESSEX COUNTY politics are in the doldrums these days. The only two fellows making noise and earning some publicity are Sheriff Armando Fontoura and Freeholder Art Clay.

Clay's resort to a racist innuendo in campaign literature mailed to Republican suburban voters will haunt him until the very end of the campaign. Creating an ethnic issue where there was none is offensive to all ethnic and minority groups. Winning an election is important — but at what price?

• APPARENTLY, the Hoffmann-La Roche home office in Switzerland is getting a bum rap. A drug used to sedate patients during minor surgery or before or during general anesthesia sold under the name of Versed, was reported in a recent issue of the New York Times as being linked to 46 deaths.

There were two things wrong with this conclusion. Firstly, deaths could have been induced by other causes. Secondly, if the drug is causing a problem, it is due to the way it is used, the amount that is given and the condition of the patient. A Roche spokesman explains that there is always some risk in using anesthesia. The drug has been used safely more than 13 million times, and reports from area hospitals indicate no problem with the use of the drug.

• ANESTHESIOLOGIST Ervin Moss, a consultant to the New Jersey State Society of Anesthesiologists, was asked his reaction to the Roche drug, Versed. He said, "It's a very safe and wonderfully effective drug when used in the right dose by knowledgeable people." That sounds like a comment that could conceivably apply to an aspirin tablet. If used in the right dose by knowledgeable people, the aspirin should be helpful. There is no drug on the market that does not have side effects — some worse than others.

• ALL around us, every state is wrestling with financial problems involving adoptions of new state budgets.

New Jersey's budget for the fiscal year ending June, 1992 is now history. Republicans voted against adoption of the budget without making any constructive contributions to the process. The budget includes layoff of 3,000 state employees. Most state agencies will have their budgets cut 8 percent below the 1991 budget. Aid to state colleges for the third year in a row will be frozen. New Jersey's 400,000 welfare recipients will see no increase in their aid for the fourth successive year. The unemployed poor will have $4 million less in job training.

The state budget includes $2 million assigned for the specific purpose of reducing the burden of property taxes on homeowners. In this connection, Governor Jim Florio stated, "The heart and soul of this budget is property tax relief for the middle class."

State spending has finally come under control.

• PRESIDENT Bush's Chief of Staff John Sununu is getting a bum rap. Here's a guy that works seven days a week — at least 14 hour days — on call 24 hours a day, and there is a country-wide clamor that Bush fire his chief aide. If his method of transportation does not compromise his job, so what? The perception of Sununu is that of an abrasive, hard taskmaster. And, maybe, he is all these things. But, perhaps, that is just what the President wants — and needs.

• IF YOUR automobile is equipped with a hood ornament, give it your best loving tender care. Hood ornaments are stolen by some young people for use for display with a necklace. So, if you see a young chap wearing a necklace from which hangs a hood ornament, be even more vigilant. Somebody stole the hood ornaments from two of my automobiles. They cost between $35 and $50 to purchase, but then the installation cost involves about the same as the ornament itself.

• A BRITISH medical journal recently reported that exercise alone reduces blood pressure in people with moderate hypertension. The study was conducted at Oxford and is considered an important demonstration of the significance of exercise.

Substance awareness

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education for making Graduation Celebration '91 a reality. The way in which the event was organized was nothing short of marvelous. The enthusiasm, vigor, and boundless energy displayed by all committee members, were an example to us all. Funds raised for this drug and alcohol-free event were extremely worthwhile, since this is a high risk time for our students.

I hope all of you realize how much you are appreciated for uniting the community in an effort to save our students. Mrs. Cicalese, Mrs. Taibi, and B.A.S.E. Committee members... it has been my pleasure. To the breakfast committee, Ms. Fucello, Mrs. Richter and Ms. Moscatello, my heartfelt thanks. It is wonderful to be affiliated with caring and concerned adults.

Praise for Anthony Viscel

To the editor:

I would like to proudly submit an announcement of a most worthy young man's accomplishment. This young man is handicapped since birth and is very well known in our town of Belleville. I am a close friend of the family for years, so close that they introduce me as Aunt. Could you please find some room in your paper to insert his graduation data. I know he and his family would be thrilled to see it. Thank you in advance for your help.

Anthony "T.T." Viscel graduated June 18 from Deron School II Montclair. He was presented with a plaque denoting Outstanding Citizenship by the principal Ms. Maureen Blue. He was also given a Belleville High School diploma and two Letters of Congressional Commendation from Congressman Roe. They were presented to him by Dr. Anthony P. Chirico, Director Special Services, Belleville.

Anthony is the son of Michael and Cathy Viscel of Belleville Ave.

A mother's lesson

To the editor:

Norman Vincent Peale once asked President Dwight D. Eisenhower who was the greatest of all the great men he had known. His instant reply: "It wasn't a man — it was a woman — my mother. She had little schooling but her educated mind, her wisdom, came from a life-long study of the Bible."

Eisenhower went on to say how his mother, brothers and he were playing Flinch and he drew a bad hand. When Ike complained, his mother said: "Put your cards down, boys. Dwight, this is just a friendly game in your home where you are loved. But, out in the world where there isn't so much love, you will be dealt many a bad hand. You've got to learn to take the hands life deals you without complaining. Just play them out."

There are many morals to the above. It's not whether you win or lose but how you play the game. It's O.K. to vote for a friend but make sure they are qualified. Before you point your finger — think — 3 are pointing at you. Try it.

Use the word "empathy" in your life. Remember, there but for the grace of God go I.

A DANGEROUS PAIRING

Social drinkers know that it is best not to drink on an empty stomach, lest the alcohol go "straight to their heads." What they may not know is that aspirin can nullify the alcohol-absorbing effect of a full stomach. This is the conclusion reached by researchers at the Veterans Administration Medical Center and Mount Sinai Medical School in the Bronx. They found that subjects who took two extra-strength (500 mg) aspirin on a full stomach along with a vodka drink an hour later experienced blood-alcohol levels three times higher than when they took no aspirin before drinking. That is to say that drinking alcohol on a full stomach with aspirin can create double the intoxicating effect of the alcohol. However, the aspirin's irritating effect was not further exaggerated by drinking on an empty stomach. With or without food, the effect of the aspirin was the same.

Part of a pharmacist's job is to clearly mark all medications with notices and warnings on how to take them properly. If you don't understand the instructions please give us a call at 759-1965, 759-1956, BISSONNETTE PHARMACY, 238 Washington Ave. Wheel chair, walkers, crutches, canes and other convalescent aids are rented or sold. Hours: Daily 9am - 10pm, Sundays 9am - 5pm

HINT: The anti-ulcer medications cimetidine and ranitidine display the same effect on alcohol as aspirin.

W-2 form

There are new regulations concerning the need to withhold tax on certain travel advances or reimbursements and for making reports to employees on Forms W-2.

To comply with the regulations, some employers have had to make significant changes in their accounting and withholding procedures. Beginning July 1, 1991, penalties will be imposed for non-compliance.

The final regulations, published in the Federal Register on Dec. 17, 1990, reflect changes made by the Family Support Act of 1988 which called for travel advances or reimbursements to be taxable under certain circumstances.

New Jersey's kids waiting to be poisoned

Parents of young children should take precautions when storing toxic substances in the home, advise medical professionals at Clara Maass Medical Center, who note that approximately 40,000 children in New Jersey may be accidentally poisoned this year.

According to the Pediatric Department at Clara Maass, parents need to recheck cabinets continuously to be sure products are secure, particularly when using poisonous cleaners and taking medications.

To reduce the dangers of poison, the Clara Maass Pediatric Department urges parents to:

- Recognize hazards and place harmful substances out of children's reach. Parents should check these danger zones: under the sink, bathroom, basement, laundry room, garage and bedside table.

- Place all poisonous substances in locked cabinets.

- Products should be kept in original containers; never transfer to milk cartons or juice bottles which may be confused by children.
- Place rock salt in a safe location. Children may mistake it for "rock candy."

- Never tell a child that medicine is candy — he may decide to eat pills as though they are candy.

- Keep purses out of reach of children, especially if they contain medications, perfumes and cosmetics.

- Know your plants. Certain houseplants are toxic.

- Constantly supervise young children — who learn by tasting and touching.

If a child swallows a poisonous substance or gets poison on his skin or in his eyes, parents should not wait for a reaction; a physician should be contacted immediately.

The 10th largest hospital in New Jersey, Clara Maass Medical Center is a nonprofit, 475-bed acute care voluntary general facility located at 1 Franklin Ave., Belleville. Among the Clara Maass family of healthcare services are the Family Center for Maternal/Child Health, Medical Oncology Care, Cardiac Rehabilitation, Same Day Surgery and Community Services.

Belleville Times SPORTS

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lambert

The halfway point of the major league baseball season is upon us, with the Mid Summer Classic having been played last Tuesday evening. At the beginning of the season, I predicted (get ready for this!) the New York Mets, San Francisco, Baltimore and Kansas City to win its respective divisions.

Okay, I said it. Since I never shut up when I make a halfway decent prediction on a sporting event, I might as well hear about it when my predictions are dreadful. With the exception of the Mets, the other three teams are mired deep in the lower portions of their respective divisions. The Giants are in fifth place in a very potent division, the Orioles are grateful that Cleveland resides in the same division and Kansas City is thinking that if it only played in the A.L. East, there would be some hope. Kansas City isn't that far away, but they are in last place and have to catch six teams to win what is perhaps the toughest division in baseball this season.

Let's take a look at the four divisions, starting in the N.L. East, where my Cardinals have been playing pretty well.

I'm not a fan of Joe Torre, but give credit where it's due. Sentimentally, I wish the "Rat", Whitey Herzog was still in charge, or at least was the General Manager of the team. But Whitey is casting a fishing line and hitting golf balls while drawing a salary in excess of $500,000.00 a year. (He does some consulting work in the front office, however).

Torre has a young ball club playing well for the first half of the season. The team is in need of a fifth starting pitcher, and I only wonder how good the team would be doing if Joe Magrane were not out for the year with an elbow injury.

Nonetheless, the Cards were in third place through last Sunday and were in striking distance of Pittsburgh. As for the Buccos, they have shown signs of struggling lately, but Pittsburgh has excellent pitching and perhaps the best outfield in baseball.

As a Cardinal fan, I cannot say good things about the Mets, but I still feel this team will win the division. New York has played well recently, having won seven straight before the All Star break. However, let's not get too crazy about this "streak". The Mets won four straight against the Expos who were in the midst of an 11 game losing streak. The team then went to Philly and swept three games. Combined, the Expos and Phils are 25 games under .500. The two teams occupy the fifth and sixth spots in the division.

On the positive side, the Mets did win, and they accomplished the streak on the road. The Mets have a big home series coming up against the California teams, starting tonight at Shea. Then comes the swing through the West Coast, where it is usually difficult to win.

A few weeks ago, I got the chance to see Wrigley Field in Chicago for the first time. The Cards were in town to play the Cubs and it's always been said that Wrigley Field epitomizes baseball in its best element.

I have to admit, there is a certain charm to Wrigley Field that doesn't exist in the other N.L. ballparks. The ballpark is old, but it has been kept up beautifully. Every seat in the place is close to the field. The bleacher seats are a treasure, even though you're sitting in direct sunlight. Watching all the fans sit on the rooftops of the apartments across the street is also a treat. It really is a special place to see a game.

As for the Cubs, they haven't been very special in '91. The Cubbies have been mired in fourth place, and a lack of pitching will probably keep them there for the rest of the season. The Expos and Phillies have endured a difficult first half and it doesn't look too good for the second half.

In the N.L. West, it should be a two team race, reminiscent of the late 70's when the Reds and Dodgers battled for the title. L.A. has the key element, pitching. Cincinnati has a host of injuries, but Lou Pinella has the Reds playing well lately.

It's great to see the Dodgers playing so well, especially since Darryl Strawberry hasn't contributed to the success. Just think, $5 million paid this year for seven homers and 30 ribbies at the All Star break. (Okay, he was injured for a good part of the first half. Let's see how he "dominates" the second half).

All kidding aside, I'm really surprised that San Francisco has been playing so poorly this season. Injuries have hurt this team and a lack of stability on the mound has been a problem for the Giants.

In the American League, the Yankees have provided some spark in the Bronx. If the team played in the Western Division, there wouldn't be much conversation about winning a divisional crown. However, in the

Named top bowler for '90-91

DeBenedetto inducted to Hall

By Mike Lambert

Anyone who has bowled knows that the game can be very frustrating. You can throw a ball with perfect spin, have it hit the pocket at a good speed and the end result is a 4-7-10 split. Or, you can have what appears to be an easy spare, one pin in the center of the alley. It's a shot made nine out of ten times. But, in that pressure situation, it can be very easy to miss that pin.

Thus, when someone achieves excellence in the sport, he, or she, deserves special consideration. In this case, a local man, Mike DeBenedetto has attained a level of excellence that has earned him a tremendous honor.

DeBenedetto was named the 1990-91 Essex County Association (ECBA) Bowler of the Year. At 21 years old, he is believed to be the youngest person ever to receive the award. In addition, he was inducted into the Essex County Bowling Association Hall of Fame.

Bowling in Essex County is quite popular and there are many talented bowlers in this area. So, for a man this young to win, so far, a prestigious award is even more of an honor.

Over the past year, DeBenedetto bowled in two leagues, the Belles & Beaux and the Peddlers Square Mixed League. Both leagues are contested at the Olympic Lanes in Belleville.

In the Belles & Beaux, he had a 216 average while in the Peddlers, the average was a solid 212. Some of his individual stats were phenomenal.

DeBenedetto bowled 24 games of 250 or better. His high game of the season was an eye-popping 299. He threw two games of 290, one of 289 and four of 279. He had 13 series of 700 or better with a high series of 796 for three games. He finished second in the Class A all events in the county tournament.

Other locals who were inducted in the Hall included Richard Haug of Belleville for gross singles, John Colagate Jr., Peter Pirello and Frank Fucello of Bloomfield, Ed Wraga of Glen Ridge and Joseph Stolf of Roseland.

DeBenedetto, a righthander, is a 1987 graduate of Belleville High School. We'll hear from Mike in an upcoming issue about his future plans in bowling.

Michael DeBenedetto was recently named the top bowler in Essex County for 1990-91. He was honored at Hall of Fame Dinner. At age 21, DeBenedetto has a fine future in bowling.

Jr. Legion team stopped by Nutley, 4-2

By Mike Lambert

After gliding through the first ten games practically unscathed, the Belleville Junior Legion baseball team dropped two contests last weekend, falling to North Arlington 13-9 and Nutley 4-2. The game with Nutley was actually played last Monday because of a rainout of Sunday's originally scheduled game.

Pat Turi's club will take a 9-3 record into a game with Hawthorne this evening, starting at 5:45 p.m. at Belleville High School. On Saturday, the Buccos host Secaucus at 3 p.m. and on Sunday, Bloomfield comes to town for a 4 p.m. game. The game with Bloomfield is the final contest of the regular season.

"Too many walks and not getting the key hits". That, according to Turi, was the reason for the North Arlington defeat last Saturday. Belleville never led in the game but did tie the score at three in the bottom of the fourth inning.

North Arlington broke it open with four runs in the fifth and three more in the sixth to take what seemed to be a comfortable 10-3 lead into the last of the sixth.

Belleville came back, scoring five times to narrow the deficit to two runs, but North Arlington put the game away with three more runs in the seventh to win 13-9. To Belleville's credit, the Buccos batted back in the last inning scoring a run and loading the bases before the final out was recorded.

Belleville out hit North Arlington 13-10. Mike Mundy, John Napolitano, Kevin Johansen and Robert Dena collected two hits each. Mundy, Johansen and Dena also had two RBI's each.

Ken Johansen pitched the first five innings for Belleville, allowing seven runs. Brian Dena hurled the last two innings. "We also left 12 men on base," Turi said. "North Arlington made

Buc hoop team working hard

By Mike Lambert

Although the regular season doesn't commence until late November, the Belleville boys' basketball team is already hard at work. The Buccos recently took part in the FDUJ team camp in Hackensack, competing against a number of top Northern New Jersey schools and facing well.

According to head coach Don Roll, the camp was a tremendous learning experience for his team.

"It really was a good opportunity for the kids to compete against some strong competition," Roll said. "There were some teams from our conference there and the kids got a chance to play two games a night for five days."

The camp was held in the evening hours, beginning at 6 p.m. and lasting until 11 p.m. During that time, all the teams in the camp played two games a night.

"We either played at six and eight, or seven and nine," Roll said. "It was good because the team had the day to themselves and didn't have to be in Hackensack until 6 p.m."

Other teams that took part in the camp included Paramus Catholic, two teams from Ridgewood, Snyder, Irvington, St. Joe's of Montvale, Kearny, Clifton, Saddle Brook, Leonia, Old Tappan and a team from Suffern, New York. All totaled, 16 teams competed.

"Our team played well," Roll said. "We ran a lot of different offenses and were able to concentrate on defense, too. It was better than just the run and gun type of game that usually occurs in the summer months."

Each game had three officials who were being rated by their superiors as potential college referees this winter. Thus, the quality of the officiating was also top notch.

The Buccos used a backcourt of Sal Strafaca and Bryant Timinez for the camp. On the front line, Troy Talamadge, Dennis DeWork and John Sipp were the starters. Also playing well at the camp were Ken Johansen, Michael Mundy, Kevin Johansen, Michael Vista and Michael Puleo.

"We're hoping to compete in the camp later in the summer," Roll said. "It provided a lot of structure and was well run."

In the meantime, the Buccos will take part in a series of scrimmages. Last Monday, the team, along with Bloomfield and Hanover Park traveled to Parsippany. Next Monday, the Buccos will go back to Parsippany for a night scrimmage.

"Some of the players will also be attending basketball camp later in the summer," Roll said. "There should be plenty of opportunities for the kids to improve their skills."

Suburban team enjoys fine campaign

The Belleville Suburban girls' softball team entered the 1991 campaign as the defending league champion. That's always a difficult role, because all the opposing teams are gearing for the defending champ.

Belleville met the challenge after a slow start. The team showed a tremendous amount of spirit and displayed a willingness to learn. The result was a return to the playoffs and a trip to the championship game.

Once in the playoffs, the girls picked up the pace and won its opener over Springfield 17-1. In the quarterfinal round, the girls traveled to Caldwell and won an exciting 15-10 decision over a good Chief team.

In the semis, the opposition was Bloomfield, a team Belleville defeated in the 1990 championship game. Once again, Belleville prevailed, this time by a 13-7 count. The victory assured the Lady Buccos a trip to the championship game against arch rival and undefeated Nutley.

Belleville gave it an excellent effort, but the Raiderettes came through with a 9-5 victory.

The local girls showed tremendous improvement throughout the season. Using the team concept, the entire squad contributed to a successful '91 campaign.

Congratulations to coach Ange-

Angela Ventrella in leading the team to the championship game. The team also expressed thanks to first base coach Lou Conte for always giving the necessary support and encouragement.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Soccer coaches needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking persons interested in coaching its seven-to-fourteen year old soccer league. The league is separated into several divisions according to specific age groups.

The children learn the basics of soccer and all those attending regular practices play in all games. Games are played on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, beginning late September. All volunteer coaches will be required to attend a certification clinic by the NYSCA before the season begins.

Soccer & touch football applications

Applications for the Belleville Recreation 1991 Fall Sports programs are now available in the schools and at the Recreation office. Boys and girls ages 7-14 may participate in recreation soccer.

Belleville resident children who will be 7 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 14 on Dec. 31 are eligible. Nobody above 8th grade can play, and all returning players must re-apply.

Boys ages 8-10 can play touch football. Belleville boys who will be 8 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 10 on Dec. 31 are eligible. All returning players must re-apply.

For both soccer and touch football, all completed applications must be returned to the Recreation Department, 407 Jerome Street, with birth certificates. The registration deadline for soccer is Aug. 9, and the deadline for touch football is Aug. 30. Children are advised not to register for more than one full sport since football, soccer and touch football game and practice schedules conflict.

Playgrounds open

The Belleville Recreation Department's summer playground program began June 24 and will continue through Aug. 9.

The five playground sites are located at School 9, the Municipal Stadium, the Recreation House, Clearman Field and the Friendly House. The special education playground is set up at the Belleville Little League Field.

The playgrounds will be opened daily to all Belleville residents in grades kindergarten through 9 from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Playgrounds are closed 12-1 for lunch and when it rains.

An adult director will be on hand at each playground to organize games, parties and other activities and an arts and crafts supervisor will travel from site to site.

Tentatively, tennis lessons, "Open Swim" and special tournaments are planned throughout the summer. These programs are all pending the hiring of qualified instructors/supervisors.

Applications for all summer program participants must be completed and signed by a parent. Registration forms are available at the Rec. House office and at all playgrounds.

Night registration for fall sports

The Belleville Recreation Department office at 407 Jerome

Street will be open on Thursday nights from 6 to 7:30 p.m. for Soccer/Football registration. The Recreation Dept. staff will register people who can't get to the office during regular hours on Thursdays, beginning July 11 through Aug. 8. Birth certificates are required for all applicants at registration and all returnees must re-apply. For further information, call 450-3422. The registration deadline for tackle football and soccer is Aug. 9 while the touch football deadline is Aug. 30 - no exceptions!

Tennis lessons

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that tennis lessons will be provided free of charge to all Belleville youngsters ages 8 to 16. Tennis lessons will be given at the Belleville Municipal Stadium on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings beginning June 25 for 7 weeks (last day: Aug. 8). Participants must wear sneakers and provide own racquet and balls. The schedule is as follows: Ages 8-11 - 9 to 10 a.m.; Ages 12-16 - 10 to 11 a.m.

Registration will take place at the courts. There will be no lessons when there is rain!

Football registration

There will be registration for the Belleville Recreation Department's 1991 Junior Bus tackle football program at the Recreation House, 437 Jerome Street, now through Aug. 9. Boys who will be 8 years old before Sept. 1 and who will not be 14 before Sept. 1 are eligible. Those wishing to play tackle football must weigh a minimum of 60 pounds and a maximum of 135 pounds, and no one above 8th grade can play. Players will be broken down into three teams according to specific age/weight requirements as set by the Suburban Twin County Football League.

To register, players must obtain an application from their school or the recreation department office. All completed applications with parent approval must be brought to the Recreation House by Aug. 9, with two passport size photos of the player and a copy of his birth certificate. All returning players from last year's team must re-apply. Tryouts will begin around Aug. 5. Players who choose to participate in tackle football cannot also play soccer or touch football in the same season.

Preschool registration

The Belleville Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs is presently looking into expanding its pre-school play program for 4 year old children. The program consists of games, stories, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties especially designed for pre-school children.

If feasible, an afternoon session will be added from 12:45 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. five days a week with class limited to 23 students. The cost of the 32 week season is $100. Children already enrolled in the morning program cannot also be in the afternoon program. The mothers of the children accepted must participate by serving one duty day about every 8 or 9 days according to a published schedule.

The afternoon session will be added only if 20 or more people register. School will begin on Sept. 16 and will run through May 1992. Children born between October 1986 - September 1987 who will enter kindergarten in September 1992 are eligible. Participants must be Belleville residents. Since there are just a limited number of openings, applications will be accepted on a first come - first served basis only.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 as soon as possible, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m.

A.L. East, just about everyone is in contention.

Toronto is supposed to win this crown. That's been said every year since 1985, but the Jays have two A.L. East titles over the past six years with no trips to the series in that span. Toronto is the classic underachieving team. Maybe this is the year the Jays can break through. Maybe.

The Boston Red Sox have a lot of sock in their lineup as far as homers are concerned. But the Sox don't hit much for average and their pitching is average, at best. The Detroit Tigers have three or four guys that can, and some who already have, hit the ball out of the stadium. This Detroit team could surprise everyone and win the divisional crown. You heard it here first.

I don't think the Yanks will win it this year, but after years of making mistakes with over-the-hill players, the team is heading in the right direction.

In the A.L. West, five teams are above .500 and a sixth team (Seattle) is just two games under .500. Only Kansas City is well under the .500 mark. Minnesota and Texas had long winning streaks in the first half that put those teams into contention. Oakland has struggled, yet the A's are just three games off the pace. The White Sox (by the way, their new ball park is beautiful) have come around after a slow start. The California Angels have received some excellent performances from veteran players and they, too, have a legitimate shot at winning the title. (Could this finally be the year the Angels get to the Series?).

So, at the halfway mark, I'll modify the predictions. I said Kansas City and San Francisco in the World Series back in late March. I'll change that, picking the Mets to still win the East, Los Angeles to win the West, Detroit to steal the A.L. East and California to win a dog fight in the West.

The playoffs could be a rematch of the '88 N.L. playoffs, with the Mets beating the Dodgers this time around. I'll go with California to beat Detroit. In the series, the Mets and California Angels to play for the crown. (West Coast fans would have loved to see a "Freeway" Series between the Dodgers and Angels, but I'd love to see the Mets beat Strawberry and the Dodgers. Don't be surprised to see the Dodgers beat the Mets, mainly because L.A. has a slightly better pitching staff).

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The last fighter to go the distance against Mike Tyson and not be knocked down was James "Boncrusher" Smith. Smith stayed far away from Tyson in the 1986 fight and Tyson never really got a chance to hit him.

Tyson has been knocked down once in his career and that was in the loss to "Buster Douglas in 1990. George Foreman, who might fight Tyson soon, has been knocked down four times in his career. Muhammad Ali knocked him down and out in their 1974 heavyweight title fight. Ron Lyle knocked Foreman down twice in a 1975 fight, but Foreman came back to KO Lyle. In 1977, Jimmy Young knocked down Foreman and beat him in a 12 round decision. It was after that fight that Foreman "retired" from boxing. He stayed away for ten years, returning to the ring in 1987.

FOR THIS WEEK

We'll use a Wimbledon theme. Who did Boris Becker defeat in the finals for his first Wimbledon singles crown? What year did Becker win his first singles title? The year that Becker won the mens title, who won the womens title?

Jr. Legion falls to 9-3

the plays when they had to and deserved to win. We had a tough time with them earlier in the season (a 9-7 Belleville win). Although their record is 4-8, they are a much better team than the record would indicate."

The showdown for first place in the division against Nutley was set for last Sunday, but the heavy thunderstorms of that day cancelled the game until Monday.

Belleville scored its two runs in the second inning. Mundy and Mike Morgan singled and Napolitano hit a two run triple to give the Bucs a 2-0 lead.

That advantage held until the bottom of the fourth, when Nutley scored all four of its runs off Mundy. Mundy deserved a better fate, allowing just three hits in the inning. However, he was hurt by an error, walk and two wild pitches (one coming after a strikeout and the runner was safe at first base).

Other than the fourth, Mundy pitched five innings of one hit ball.

For the game, he allowed just four hits, striking out four and walking three.

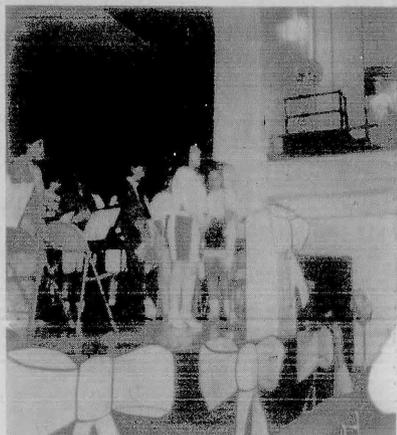

"Mundy pitched a tremendous game," Turi said. "You can't ask for a better effort."

For the second straight game, Belleville out hit its opponent, this time 9-4. But, for the second straight game, the Bucs left runners on base (eight against Nutley) and left the tying runs on base in the seventh inning.

"I can't complain about the teams effort," Turi said. "They played hard, we just didn't get the big hits this time around."

As for the playoffs, Belleville will get an automatic berth should it win the divisional crown. If the Bucs don't win, they will take part in an elimination tourney to determine the playoff alignment.

We'll have more on the playoff picture in next weeks issue.

Robyn Cammarata needs help in her struggle

Robyn Cammarata has always been a well liked, vivacious young girl, according to her family. A cheerleader who loves sports, especially softball, Robyn shares her energies and affections freely with family and friends.

Now she is desperately fighting for her life. One month ago, the seventh grader was diagnosed as having Burkitt's Lymphoma, a rare form of cancer that afflicts one person out of 1,000,000.

The pain that began in her legs was originally dismissed as "growing pains," according to the doctor. But as the pain worsened and spread to her back, it became so intense Robyn could barely straighten up or walk.

A tumor in her abdomen was discovered in a hospital in Sussex, and she immediately was transferred to Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York. At Columbia, doctors said her central nervous system was affected, leading to paralysis.

Robyn's cousin, Diana Guido, says Robyn is in intensive care, "desperately ill, but she is a fighter and has a strong will to live." Robyn's father, John, has been a letter carrier for many years in West Caldwell.

Chemical Bank has opened an account to help the family with the tremendous financial strain of Robyn's medical bills. Donations can be mailed to: The Robyn Cammarata Fund, c/o Chemical Bank, 865 Bloomfield Ave., West Caldwell 07066.

Trust co. has dividend

Sigi B. Wilzig, Chairman and President of the Trustcompany Bancorporation (O.T.C.), parent company of The Trust Company of New Jersey, announced today that the Bank reported record first quarter earnings for the quarter ended March 31, 1991. These record earnings are after an addition to the provision for possible loan losses, due to an increase in nonperforming loans in the first quarter. Compared with the first quarter of 1990, net income increased from $5,731,000 to $5,827,000.

Wilzig stated, "We have never held any 'junk bonds' nor made any joint venture real estate loans. The Trust Company's conservative investment and loan policies have resulted in unparalleled record earnings for eight consecutive years."

Wilzig continued, "The Bank's earnings performance is in contrast to the New Jersey banking industry. In fact, Standard & Poor's recently recognized Trust company's performance by raising the Bank's stock rating. This is extraordinary since during the same period, Standard & Poor's lowered stock ratings of all other major New Jersey banks."

For the quarter ended March 31, 1991, per share earnings were $6.60 compared to $3.7 for the same period last year. For the first quarter of 1991, deposits increased from $1,654 billion to $1,815 billion and assets increased from $1,820 billion to $2,025 billion.

Board of Realtors conducts Blood Drive

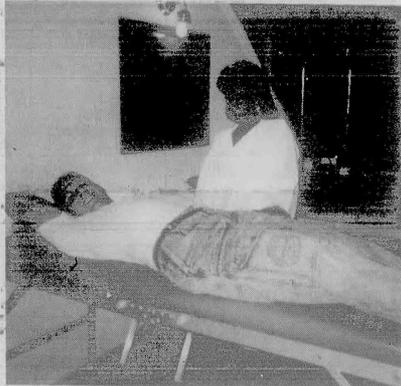

On June 12, 1991, the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors conducted a blood drive among its members in conjunction with the Red Cross and the North Jersey Blood Center at the Red Cross building on Chestnut Street in Nutley.

The idea for a blood drive was a brain child of the New Jersey Association of Realtors in January of this year. During that time the Gulf War was being fought, and the growing concern about a great need for blood was becoming more and more an issue. All local boards were encouraged to conduct individual drives.

Due to the growing concern and a lot of patriotism the first available opportunity was a community drive being held on June 12, so the Board of Realtors decided to conduct its drive in conjunction with that drive.

Thank goodness the War was long over by June but the demand for blood is still strong. The drives were a great success. And the members of the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors were glad to do their part to help.

Tonya Townsend prepares David Hamilton for his donation.

Some donors enjoying a snack afterwards.

Agnes Kash and Anita Butler, co-chairwomen of the Donor Blood Services of the Nutley Red Cross and receptionist volunteer Judy Massey wait for more donors to register at the Board of Realtors Blood Drive.

The Home Front

By Nina Kaeser

Did You Know??

Consider a pocket door to conserve space in your planned home improvement. Fitting neatly between the walls, the door disappears when it's open.

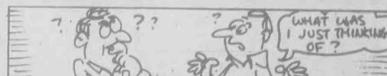

Modern homemakers are saving money — and getting better results — by using natural cleansers to shine up their homes. Vinegar and baking soda are particular favorites.

Blooming arbor makes a lovely entrance statement on a garden path. Wood frame — matched to the home's architectural style — looks best with climbing roses, grapes, or other vines.

Veneer can make old kitchen cabinets look like new again. It's easiest to work with doors and drawer fronts that have flat sides and square edges; those with curved surfaces are usually replaced.

Eldsters are getting better deals on reverse mortgages now that the FHA has inaugurated an insurance program to guarantee the loans. Seniors with paid-off homes get income from their properties.

Eldsters, youngsters — we seem 'em all at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Avenue, Nutley. Call 235-9000.

Think about this: the sudden breaking off of a thought is known as an epiphany.
