Aside From That

By Howard Klausner

"I was hoping to find Gordon Gekko, but apparently Wall Streeters like him are lying low," Gekko, of course, was the character in the film, "Greed", who epitomized the plunderers of the 1980s. But he was a man who could afford a good haircut, and Lenny Serritelli put his savings into a Manhattan salon geared to the Gekkos of this world. But times have changed, and the salon went under, taking Serritelli's investment with it. That has not deterred him. He still provides designer hair cuts on demand, visiting local businesses and professional offices, and he is now advancing into his acting career. At 32, with a resemblance to Harry Connick, Jr., he will star shortly in the New York production of Harold Pinter's dark comedy, "The Dumb Waiter". He also has been told to appear for the filming of a production in Manhattan, and is hoping to continue his acting, a subject he has been studying for 12 years. The Gekkos of this world are making do with prison haircuts, at the moment. ●●●● One would think that a job keeping you out in the open on the pleasant greens of a golf course would have few perils, but for Johnny DePaola the golf links have been near fatal. Now head maintenance man of the Essex County Golf Course, DePaola has been preserving the public golf course for 30 years, but a few years ago, he came down with an illness that left him severely disabled, but which defied diagnosis. Finally, it was discovered that he was the victim of Lyme disease, which comes from ticks that infest grass. He was bedridden for more than six months, and he required intravenous feeding for many months. Now, he is back on his feet, and back on the job. The golfers are sympathetic, but at a course which opens at 6 a.m., the reaction of the players to a prone body on the third tee is simply to play around it. ●●●● A local businessman who owns a vacation condo in a posh Florida apartment hotel received a telephone call recently from the hotel manager, saying that the police had just sealed the apartment and arrested the tenant. The tenant was a man known to the businessman for several years as a "nice, affable guy, very friendly" who had asked to rent the unit for a few months. Once in Florida, the gentleman apparently lost his affability. Police said he was accused of pistol whipping another man in a parking lot. He was furthermore accused of hiring two men to steal a Rembrandt painting valued at over $1 million, reportedly at the request of a Japanese businessman who had offered $20,000 for the heist, and he was further accused of stashing a considerable amount of crack in the apartment. The Belleville businessman told the hotel manager to keep the tenant out of the apartment, should he achieve bail. "This cancels the rental," he said.

An alert reader of The Times was the victim of a typographical error, recently. He noted that a singer, Jane Shaulis, had made her Metropolitan Opera House debut recently in Mozart's rarely performed - because it is so expensive to produce - "Idomeneo". The reader also noted that the Metropolitan Opera's Yearbook listed Ms. Shaulis as a resident of Belleville. The Yearbook was wrong, however. Ms. Shaulis is from Melville, out on Long Island. Too bad, because a lot of opera lovers live in Belleville and would be only too happy to claim Ms. Shaulis as their own. ●●●● Vincent Sorrentino is marking his 20th year in Kiwanis this year, and his 10th year as chairman of Homecoming Day, which will be marked tomorrow, Friday, with the Belleville High School Marching Band leading the students and friends from the Municipal Building to the Stadium. There, the names of the Homecoming King and Queen will be announced, as well as the runners-up. Then, it's on to the game with Paramus Catholic High School. The winners and runners-up all receive savings bonds, courtesy of Kiwanis, which sponsors the Key Club and otherwise maintains an interest in encouraging the youngsters to excel. For example, you can't be King or Queen if you don't maintain a certain grade average. Before retiring, Vinnie had his own business, which was the erection of cemetery monuments. "I pinned them down," he likes to say. These days, he sees the young people as his personal monuments, and he urges everyone to join the parade.

Children, parents and staff of School 5 will be saying farewell to Irene Goglia after 24 years of enjoying her protective eye as School Crossing Guard at Greylock Avenue and Forest Street. That's a lot of traffic, a lot of weather and a lot of youngsters to shepherd safely.

Belleville's Bella Signorina and court reflect scholarship, achievement, beauty

Selecting the Bella Signorina and two Ladies in Waiting for the Columbus Day Parade was one of the more difficult tasks of the parade committee. Councilman Mario Drozd, chairman of the Bella Signorina committee, estimated it was harder than selecting a Supreme Court Justice.

The honor of being Belleville's Bella Signorina this year falls to Dena Lacara, a Belleville High School senior who plans a career in biology.

First Lady-in-Waiting is Tina Farah, a freshman at William Paterson College, majoring in communications.

Second Lady-in-Waiting is Deborah Clarella, a Belleville High School Senior whose goal is to become a pediatrician.

Deborah enjoys athletics as well as reading, and she does horseback riding, bicycling and aerobics, as well as play basketball. She holds part-time jobs at Jack and Marie's Deli on Union Avenue, and at the Marriage and Family Counseling Center in Belleville.

She consistently has been on the High Honor Roll. She is a member of the National Honor Society, a finalist for the Governor's School on the Environment, and is recipient of a full scholarship by Hoffman-La Roche to attend the Washington Workshop's Congressional Seminar in April, 1991.

She is active in the Key Club, the Octagon Club, the Italian Club, the Environmental Club, and the Tina enjoys reading, fashion designing and sports. She has been cheerleading coach for seventh and eighth graders for the past two years.

She has held jobs as bank teller for the Trust Company and salesperson for the Janet Shop in Nutley. At Belleville High School, she was editor-in-chief of the school newspaper, a member of the Italian Club, and participated in school volleyball, basketball, track and cheerleading.

Her ambition is to become a television news broadcaster.

Dena has worked as a secretary for the Essex County Division of Employment and Training in East Orange, and Plaza Chemist in Belleville.

She is Senior Class President, Cheerleading Captain, managing editor for the yearbook, treasurer of SADD and is a certified Red Cross Instructor of HIV-AIDS, and member of the Ski Club, Key Club, Italian Club and Foreign Language Club, among other organizations.

On the High Honor Roll, she was Salutatorian for 1991, a member of the National Honor Society, winner of Rotary Youth Leadership Award, cited in Who's Who Among American High School Students and given Honorable Mention in the Essex County Essay Contest on the topic, When Mental Illness Strikes.

She intends to continue her education to secure employment in the field of biology.

Ron Carey surveys the scene

Ron Carey arrived in town this week to assume his title of Grand Marshall of the Belleville-Nutley Columbus Day Parade, and made his first appearance at the Continuing Care Center of Clara Maass Medical Center.

The native of Newark's North Ward showed some taped episodes of the Barney Miller television series, in which he first achieved national recognition.

Now busy making a comic Western series for Italian television, Carey flew east from his Hollywood home for the event.

"This is a tough audience," he said, surveying the elderly patients, many of them confined to wheelchairs, who gazed at the television series. "And I had to bring along an episode about a guy dying from cancer!"

Carey - whose family name is Cicenia - was accompanied by his cousin, Lou Cicenia, owner of Charles Jewelers in Belleville.

He noted that Washington Avenue was being renamed Ron Carey Boulevard for the occasion, and he seemed affected emotionally by his homecoming.

"It's really touching," he said. He tried to bring some jollity to the hospital wards, and he succeeded in pulling some smiles. He went on gamely through the wards, introducing himself and cracking jokes with the nurses and attendants. It wasn't the first time he had faced a tough audience, and the fact that their only payment of admission was a hospital medical chart did not lessen his effort to win them over.

And it seemed to be working.

A small, ebullient man, Carey bounces about, even at the age of 55. Actually, he has the clear complexion of a man much younger. And the outlook of a teen-ager, playing a wonderful joke on his elders and delighting in the reaction.

In Hollywood, he is close to such comics as Dom DeLuise and Mc Brooks, and makes frequent appearances in Mc Brooks' films. Many remember him as Brooks' official sidekick in High Anxiety.

He had scheduled a visit to Belleville High School, among other events, and it would be a contrast to the visit in the hospital. But it was obvious that he desperately wanted to make the patients feel some of his own warmth. A deeply religious man, he looks on his comedic talent as a gift of Providence, and one he is intended to share with the world.

On Wednesday, he was guest of honor at the Hall of Records in Newark, where the Essex County Board of Freeholders presented him with a "Good Citizen" plaque, noting that he was bringing cheer to millions through his talents.

The Columbus Day Parade Committee selected him as a good citizen and a worthy role model, who reflected well on his Italian heritage, and brought honor to his community.

A PENSIVE MOMENT - Comedian and actor Ron Carey watches a taped showing of his television appearances during his visit Monday to the Continuing Care Center of Clara Maass Medical Center. He will be leading the annual Columbus Day Parade as Grand Marshall.

THE OLD GANG - Ron Carey as Patrolman Levitt on the long-running Barney Miller series tried hard to become a detective, and when he did, he turned the squad room of the old 12th Precinct into chaos.

Senior citizen housing

Ted Robb, who has been serving as the housing consultant for the Township of Belleville, will address the residents of the Second Ward on Oct. 16. The gathering to discuss senior citizen housing, will be part of the monthly meetings hosted by Second Ward Councilman, Frank A. Caputo.

Robb, along with Caputo, will inform the residents, on specific issues, regarding senior citizen housing. "I would like the citizens of Belleville to be fully aware of the many steps and procedures, that have been taken, and completed by the Town Council," stated Caputo.

The meeting will be held at the Recreation House, 407 Joramell Street, beginning at 7:30 p.m. All residents of the Second Ward are invited and refreshments will be served.

A VISIT FROM DEPUTY DAN—Youngsters at School 9 were visited by the Safety-Mobile known as Deputy Dan, and given some important pointers on safety, on the street and at home. Sergeant Greg MacDonald was assisted by Police Officer Grover Lewis. Teachers Cindy Browne and Pauline Orsak presented the children.

Old Guard launches fight on The Notch

The Belleville Old Guard is planning to bombard Senators Bill Bradley and Frank Lautenberg with letters from all its members requesting support for Senate Bill S-567.

This bill if passed will help rectify the Notch Problem.

A full explanation of this problem is spelled out in the proposed letter.

"The Notch Problem is a big, serious problem and must be corrected."

"As you know, Congress made a grave error in 1977 when they tried to create a soft landing to help solve the social security dilemma of near bankruptcy. At that time Congress lowered the wage replacement rates over a five year period. There was no soft landing and 12 million people who were born between 1917 and 1926 are receiving lower social security benefits than were intended by the well meaning Congress.

"We are called the Notch Babies. We are not cry babies as some call us, we just want to be heard. We ask for only fair treatment for what is rightfully ours. We want our correct social security benefits. The majority of Congressmen are sympathetic to our cause and support HR917, a Bill that would help rectify this gross inequity in our social security benefits now. We need your help in the Senate.

"Please support S-567 and help give the Notch Babies what rightfully belongs to them."

Golden Comments
By Jim Golden

After 22 years in service, the Concorde seems like a vehicle for the future. It flies from New York City to London in three hours, costing passengers $4,167 each way. Yet despite its prestige and speed it has always been a money loser for its operators, Air France and British Airways. The SST guzzles too much fuel, carries too small a passenger load and makes so much noise that 30 countries have restricted its use.

Why then are aerospace engineers in a world wide scramble to build the next generation of this billion-dollar white elephant? The answer: Asia. The booming market for transpacific flights that shrink long distances. By the end of the decade, transpacific travel is expected to reach 315,000 passengers a day, or 15% more than will cross the Atlantic daily. A plane flying at Mach 2.5 (2 1/2 times the speed of sound, or 1,800 m.p.h.) could more than halve the duration of a Los Angeles-Tokyo flight to just 4 1/2 hours.

The race to build what has been called the High Speed Civil Transport (HSCT) is a multibillion-dollar gamble fraught with technological challenges. To be profitable, the plane will have to carry more than twice as many passengers as the Concorde, operate at higher speeds, span greater distances, use less fuel, run quieter and produce far less pollution. The plane's advocates say, can do. Although any such plane isn't likely to fly until at least the year 2005.

The payoff could be enormous. The nation or group that successfully develops the HSCT is likely to dominate the aircraft market well into the 21st century.

The job is too big for any one company. Aerospace firms are forming joint ventures and seeking government subsidies to foot the research bill. NASA is spending $284 million over five years to develop technologies that U.S. companies can apply to their work on the HSCT. Rival U.S. aircraft builders Boeing and McDonnell Douglas have teamed up to design an airframe, as have British Aerospace and France's Aerospatiale, the same partnership that built the Concorde. American jet-engine builder Pratt & Whitney is working closely with its nemesis, General Electric to build a power plant that is quieter, more economical and clean burning. France's Snecma and Britain's Rolls-Royce have launched a similar joint project. Gulfstream, which makes business jets, is working with British and Russian designers to build a 19-passenger supersonic business jet. "Our clients will pay almost anything to go faster," says company CEO Allan Paulson.

The Japanese are spreading their money around, spending millions on overseas research projects lacking experience to build an HSCT on its own so that they can jump in with the winner.

The biggest concern is environmental. Many factors will have to be overcome such as noise, environment, fuel consumption. Designers hope to build a combination engine that can operate in a quiet, turbofan mode over populated areas and then kick in a more powerful, turbojet mode for supersonic operation over water and less populated areas.

The biggest question is the concern about the economy of such a plane's operation. Engineers hope that full-scale production of an HSCT could be under way by the end of the decade, with commercial operation a few years later. One obstacle might be a decision on the part of Boeing and Europe's Airbus to build huge new subsonic aircraft that could carry 600 to 800 passengers.

If manufacturers switch their attention to the new subsonic aircraft, the drain on resources could delay the HSCT until 2015. But as business and tourism grow ever more global, the lure of a high-speed aircraft increases. "I never thought a supersonic civilian aircraft was needed," says Thomas Donahue, general manager for advanced technology at General Electric. "But I just got back from doing business in Australia, which means a 14-hour flight. Believe me, now the prospect of such a plane seems very real."

OUR OPINION

Just For You

*Count your garden by the flowers,
Never by the leaves that fall;
Count your days by sunny hours,
Not remembering clouds at all.
Count your nights by stars, not shadows;
Count your life with smiles, not tears,
And when your life has reached its autumn,
Count your age by friends, not years.*

— Joe Zacek

He was a success

A meeting of Native Americans has called the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus a time of mourning, rather than rejoicing.

"It meant the destruction of our culture," a spokesman said. A number of black leaders have joined the Native Americans in their protest, saying that Columbus heralded the establishment of slavery in the New World.

The fact is, of course, that sooner or later, Europe would have discovered America. The civilization of Europe in the 15th Century had its shortcomings.

The very day that Columbus sailed from Spain, he witnessed boatloads of Jews leaving the same harbor for exile, and several of his crewmen, his navigator among them, were Marranos — Jews who had chosen conversion to death or expulsion.

Columbus, himself, did not consider himself an empire builder. His empire was the sea, as a product of the sea-going culture of Genoa. France and England could dream of empire, but Genoa thought of trade.

He went to several countries to find financing of his venture — a voyage west to find a route to the spice markets of Asia.

Had Spain refused, he might have gone on to England, which was then a Catholic monarchy.

But if Columbus had not sailed, there were many behind him who would ultimately have made the move. Constantinople had fallen and the spice routes were blocked by Islam, and the rewards for a breakthrough were stupendous.

Once in the Caribbean, Columbus behaved like a European. He fought the Carib Indians, who had wiped out a settlement he had left behind on his first voyage, and he did send many of them into slavery. He thought he was saving their souls.

He also saw them as impediments to trade. He spent the rest of his life serving an ungrateful Spanish monarch, and ended his life in poverty. But it was also a life of triumph.

Columbus knew that he had accomplished something no man in history had done before him. He had proved the earth was round. He had proved that a simple man of no particular noble lineage could outdo the best that Europe could offer. His incredible faith in himself had sent him out into uncharted seas such as no European had known — at least as far as recorded history tells.

The same spirit that imbued Columbus was to imbue millions of other common men and women as they, too, sailed the unknown seas to a new world and a new life.

And out of that adventure came a new society, free of the feudalism that had destroyed freedom in Europe.

The Native American paid a terrible price for the establishment of political liberty on this continent by Europeans, but ultimately, it was a freedom for people, throughout the world. This does not reduce our debt to the Native American, but the Native American and the European alike were unwitting players in history.

It is a history that would be far worse if there were no America.

What Columbus provided for mankind was a future. That is why we owe him recognition for his achievement. It was a gift to all mankind.

YOUR OPINION

On the parade

To the editor:

The Belleville Parade Committee and I wish to thank each and everyone who supported our "Festa Colombo" held on Sept. 27, 28 and 29 at the High School grounds.

We, the Committee, were happy to see the many families share in our enjoyment in producing this event, and particularly were pleased to see your children either participate in their first amusement ride, or take to them like true veterans.

It is with the efforts of the Township Council, and the Board of Education that events such as this are able to be enjoyed by our communities, and to them, the Committee thanks you for your interest and continued support in this civic endeavor.

This organization's prime efforts are focused on off-setting the costs of producing the Columbus Day Parade which is a bi-community project involving our Nutley neighbors.

Funding realized for this parade is an individual effort of each community, Belleville's being the "Festa Colombo," and Nutley's an Ad Book.

We then equally and jointly contribute monies toward defraying the costs of the Columbus Day Parade in the spirit of cooperation, not competition. This single venture has allowed harmonious relationships to continue between our citizens, and this is why your support was appreciated.

Each year, we alternate communities in a display of friendship while honoring the Discoverer of Our Country.

This year, Belleville is the host community with Ron Carey graciously accepting to be our Grand Marshal.

Come on out on Oct. 13 to witness what your contributions have permitted us to produce for you.

Thomas Salzano, General Chairman

Story correction

To the editor:

Please be advised that I am assigned counsel to James Hartford who was mentioned in the front page article captioned "Councilman nabs fleeing suspect" published in the Belleville Times dated September 19, 1991. The article is erroneous in one material respect — Mr. Hartford was not charged with holding a child out a window and there is no factual basis for such an allegation.

Elks explain

To the editor:

The Belleville Elks would like to apologize for the Pancake Breakfast on Sept. 22. Due to the fact our Little League team was down for their jackets for winning the Belleville World Series, and our grill was not working properly, we tried to do the best we could. Most people had to wait and we are very sorry. The next breakfast we promise it will not happen again.

The Marching Band

To the editor:

I would like to share with your readers a recent experience of mine. I've just returned from an overnight band camp weekend with the Belleville High School Marching Band and Color Guard. As a parent I rarely come in contact with teenagers in such large numbers or if I do, it always seems to be in a negative atmosphere.

For this group, rigorous practice sessions begin with the last week in August and continues through Thanksgiving. All is done in preparation for the fall season of football games, band competitions, pep rallies and parades. This group of young adults are very dedicated as are their instructors. At the band camp I witnessed long days that consisted of drill practice, music lessons, marching and maneuvering and lots of hard work!

I am proud to be a member of the Belleville High School Music Parents who do so much to help support the endeavors of all the music students throughout the town, and especially this great group of kids.

If by some chance you don't get to see them perform at a half-time show, be sure to treat yourself some Sunday afternoon by attending a competition. Some are as close as Bloomfield and Livingston.

I'm hopeful that more townspeople will join me in letting these young people know that we are supporting them 100 percent. After all, the Belleville High School Band represents the residents of Belleville with pride, power and prestige!

Deborah Walsifer

Bright hydrants

To the editor:

I recently noticed a lot of the fire hydrants in our town are painted red, white and blue — I don't know the reason for it or who's behind the idea, but I know it looks great! I have a daughter who attends the Middle School and she too, along with some friends, thought it was great.

In today's day and age it is so nice to see patriotism, "a love for and loyalty to one's country" — to quote Webster's Dictionary, and reminds us — in a special way that we live in the greatest country on the earth.

Cathy Giarneruso

Boys in blue

To the editor:

This is an open letter of grateful appreciation and heartfelt thanks to the "Boys in Blue" — Belleville's police, fire ambulance and the EMS — who responded so promptly and caringly to my call for help for my husband at 3 a.m. on Aug. 29th.

Regretfully, I did not ascertain the names of those who responded. To each and everyone of you, a simple "thank you" does not seem to be enough, but believe me, it comes from the hearts of all of his family.

The honored guest is Governor Jim Florio. Donation is $75 per person.

• RINGLING Brothers Barnum and Bailey promotions have nothing over Rowe Manse Emporium's Carmen Maggio. This past three-day weekend witnessed 100,000 people who came to visit the First Annual International Gourmet Specialty Food Show at the Rowe Manse Emporium facility in Sycertown. A huge tent was erected on the parking lot site to house the many exhibitors from all over the nation. As large as the tent was — it could have been twice as big and still would be left with standing room only. The event demonstrated the well-known marketing skill of Rowe Manse Emporium's president, Carmen Maggio.

By any standard, the event was one of the most remarkable successes in retail merchandising.

• FREEHOLDER Art Clay is the Republican candidate for Essex County Sheriff. He has publicly declared a vow to hire an Hispanic aide. This is very disturbing to me. Why Hispanic only? What's the matter with Italo-Americans, Irish-Americans, Greek-Americans, Afro-Americans?

Clay's campaign manager, Bloomfield's Robert Fetterly is asking the Democratic nominee, Armando Fontoura, for an apology. I'm not quite sure "sneaky sleazeball" fits Clay's description of his Primary Election tactics — but if ever there was a candidate who owed an apology to the public, it is Art Clay, Fetterly's candidate.

In the Primary Election, Clay resorted to a racist tactic to obtain the nomination.

Additionally, Clay claims there are no-show jobs in the Sheriff's office. If true, it is a criminal offense, and Mr. Clay should go to the Essex County Prosecutor or to the New Jersey State Attorney with his proof — or failing to submit proof — Clay owes the voters another apology for an attempt to mislead the public.

Democrat Acting Sheriff Fontoura states that Clay's real purpose in trying to win election is to take over the chairmanship of the Essex County Republican Party. Clay's candidate to succeed John Renna as Essex County Republican Chairman is Essex County Republican candidate Allyson Field's Bob Felt. According to Fontoura, Fontoura says Clay and Fetterly already have made the attempt, but failed. Bloomfield sources report that Fetterly is boasting his time is coming.

• THE NUTLEY Symphony Orchestra embarks upon its 55th season with a format change to recognize the need to cut costs while still offering the best of music. Three concerts are planned — November 27th, instrumentalists will be featured; April 4th will be a night for vocalists in Bach and Handel music; and a concert in May featuring American composers, traditional, Broadway and folk songs.

• WEDNESDAY, October 30, from 8:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., the U.S. Post Office presents an educational workshop, luncheon and postal tour at the U.S. Postal Service facility, 850 Newark Turnpike. Kearny Registration fee is $25 per person. Attendees are guaranteed the event will be over by 1:30 p.m.

• THE ESSEX County trial court administrator, John Clarke, is charging County Executive Tom D'Alessio with "insensitivity" to the plight of the courts. Clarke explained that three judges are now without permanent courtrooms, and four more judges will soon be assigned to Essex County by mid-October. Essex is the state's busiest courthouse. Without adequate facilities for our judicial system, it simply means that the people of Essex County are denied the right to an early trial.

• OUR Bloomfield Life newspaper is celebrating its 10th anniversary, enjoying a commanding position in the life and times of Bloomfield Township. In competition with a 110-year-old competitor, Bloomfield Life has established its right to life.

• SPEAKING of life, I think it's well known that I believe abortion is murder. There is no in-between position on this subject. It is a question of Pro-Choice or Pro-Life, and a person cannot have it both ways.

• A NOTICE came to my attention issued by the United States Bankruptcy Court titled, "Notice of Proposed Sale and/or Abandonment." And what do you think — the Nutley Savings and Loan has a lien of $108,000 on property in Springfield, New Jersey. The following is a direct quote from the notice, "The Trustee proposes to abandon the following real property since there is no equity which could be realized for the benefit of the creditor." The property is valued at $80,000 — $28,000 less than the Nutley Savings and Loan mortgage.

• LAST week, I cited the wrong date for the Essex County Democratic Annual Dinner Party, which is really scheduled for Thursday, October 31st. The $150 per person was correct — and since it is a fundraiser to pay the headquarters rent, the tab is very reasonable.

• NUTLEY SUN's longest running advertiser is the Realtor, George Bowes. He started the same year I graduated high school — 1934. George Bowes is one of Nutley's treasures. A gentle man — always a gentleman — without an enemy in the world. George, God bless you. Thanks for being a member of the Nutley Sun family for all these years.

• FOR all our readers who resent the various taxes and taxing increases which have been our experience during the past year, the Sunday Star Ledger of October 6th published a graph comparing "The tax bite for New Jersey and its neighbors." Taking everything into consideration, the graph seems to indicate we are much better off than our neighbors.

• THE Italian Tribune Columbus Day Parade, scheduled for Sunday, October 13th in Newark, should be one of the best ever. The Grand Marshal is the famous Tony Bennett, who currently is appearing at Atlantic City's Trump Castle. A member of a pioneer Newark family, in charge of the Casino Field Development program, is Ralph Caputo, a former New Jersey Assemblyman representing Nutley and Belleville. Tony Bennett was born Anthony Dominick Benedetto in Astoria, Queens, in 1926. Robert M. McGuire, 69

Robert M. McGuire, 69, of Belmar died Oct. 5 at the Jersey Shore Medical Center in Neptune.

Born in Belleville, Mr. McGuire moved to Belmar five years ago.

He was Vice President of the First Fidelity Bank of Newark until his retirement five years ago. Mr. McGuire joined the bank in 1946 and was Vice President of its commercial Lending Division.

He served in the United States Coast Guard in World War II.

Mr. McGuire was a graduate of Rutgers University. He was a communicant of St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic Church in Avon; a member of St. Peter's Church of Columbus of Belleville, and a member of the Senior Bowling League of Highway 35 Lanes in Wall Township. He was predeceased by his wife, Margaret, in 1982.

Surviving are one son, Tim K. of Neptune; one daughter, Maureen Woodbury of Belleville; two sisters, Margaret Fitzpatrick of Belleville and Eleanor Aschenbach of West Paterson, and one grandson.

A Mass of Christian Burial was offered at St. Peter's Church in Belleville on Tuesday. Funeral arrangements were through the Reilly Funeral Home of Belmar.

The family has requested donations to the American Heart Association.

Surviving are her husband, Stanley, her daughter, Mrs. Shirley Buechert; her son, William; her brother, George Dlugos; her sister, Mrs. Margaret Kukal, and six grandchildren.

A Mass was offered at 11 a.m. today in St. Valentine's Church in Bloomfield, after the funeral from the Cofely Funeral Home, 69 High Street, Orange.

Restaino, Gill call for watchdog on spending

Assembly candidate Al Restaino, a professional educator in the private sector, has pledged to work for legislation which will ensure that New Jersey school districts are making the best possible use of taxpayer dollars.

"This year the state is providing local school districts with some $800 million in additional school aid," Restaino said. "The public deserves assurances that this new money — and all other public education funding — is being used properly."

Restaino, a Nutley resident, said he supports creation of an Inspector General position within the state Department of Education.

"The individual who fills this job will have the power and the expertise to uncover fraud, waste, abuse and corruption in the use of public education funds," he said.

"One only has to look at the high turnout in this year's school board elections to get the message that the public has strong concerns over how school districts are spending their money," he added.

Assemblyman Louis J. Gill, who is running with Restaino, noted that legislation to establish an Inspector General was approved by the Assembly Education Committee in August.

"I wholeheartedly support the proposal for an Inspector General, and I am prepared to vote for the bill if it is posted for a floor vote this term," said Gill (D-Passaic-Bergen).

"But if it has to wait until next term, it's encouraging to know that we have people like Al Restaino who recognize the value of an Inspector General."

Restaino and Gill are running for the New Jersey General Assembly in the newly-formed 36th District.

Candidate Al Restaino

Fontoura cites law enforcement experience

Essex County Acting Sheriff Armando Fontoura, campaigning for a full, three-year term as Sheriff, recently said that critical law enforcement services provided by the Sheriff's Office cannot be turned over to inexperienced hands.

"The job of clearing our streets of drugs and protecting our citizens is not something the voters of Essex County want commanded by a novice," said Fontoura. "Directing the Sheriff's Office is police work that must be handled by a professional."

"Art Clay has not once offered the citizens of Essex County his qualifications to be Sheriff and give them a chance to review our individual law enforcement resumes," said Fontoura. "As a 25 year law enforcement veteran I know that rank and file officers will never feel confident taking commands from a man with no police experience."

Fontoura said Clay's own party Chairman stated that "he does not have one inch of background to be Sheriff. If his own party chairman who knows him personally feels that way, can you imagine how the voters will feel?" Fontoura said.

The Acting Sheriff said financial pressures on the county's communities means that local police departments will have a growing reliance on the Sheriff's Office for law enforcement services they can no longer afford.

"Perhaps the most important task facing the Sheriff's Office in the coming years will be maintaining the high-quality of our services and effectively delivering those services," said Fontoura, a Newark Police Captain who was named Acting Sheriff last January following five years as an Undersheriff.

Fontoura said municipal budget pressures have led local police departments to increasingly call on the Sheriff's Office for highly specialized services like the Bureau of Narcotics, Bureau of Identification, Bomb Squad and the K-9 Squad.

"Coordinating the delivery of these vital services with local police departments is something that cannot be left to the whims of a politician," said Fontoura. "It is a law enforcement task that must be directed by an experienced professional."

Prior to joining the Newark Sheriff's Office, Fontoura was the Chief Assistant to the Police Director. He joined the Newark Police Department in March, 1967, rising to the rank of Captain. He is a graduate of the F.B.I. National Academy, and Kean College.

Gill's tuition break plan heads to governor

Members of the New Jersey National Guard could get a break on the cost of a college education, under a bill that gained final legislative approval recently.

"Joining the Guard requires a significant commitment of time and effort, even when the country is not at war," said Assemblyman Louis J. Gill, a co-sponsor of the bill. "We ought to provide some additional benefits, such as this tuition-free program, to help compensate for the job these people do."

Gill (D-Passaic-Bergen) explained that the original purpose of the legislation was to provide an added incentive to New Jersey residents to join the National Guard.

"But now, that so many of our Guard members are returning from emergency duty in the Middle East, we think this expression of gratitude for their services is even more appropriate," he said.

Under the bill, any active member of the National Guard enrolled as an undergraduate at a state college or university would be eligible to receive up to 12 credits per semester tuition-free, as long as the person has applied for all available state and federal grants or scholarships for which he or she may be eligible.

The tuition break would also be available to any child or surviving spouse of a National Guard member killed in the performance of his or her duties while on active service with the Guard. The child or spouse would also have to have applied for all possible state or federal grants or scholarships.

Gill noted that Guard members or their relatives taking part in the program could only receive credits in regularly scheduled courses in which there is available classroom space and in which the minimum required number of tuition-paying students are already enrolled.

The measure, A-3222/202/2000, was approved by the state Senate recently. Having already cleared the Assembly, it now heads to Gov. Jim Florio for action.

TOPS AT THE PRU — Connie Weedo of Belleville has been named Employee of The Month in Prudential's Corporate Office in Newark. Mrs. Weedo, a supervisor in the office of servicemen's group life insurance, was cited for her outstanding service to customers. The 1955 graduate of Belleville High School attended Rutgers University in Newark and joined The Prudential as clerk typist in 1971. She has two married daughters, Gayle and Michele, and two grandchildren, Claire Marie and Michael Anthony.

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Defense, running game excels

SRO crowd sees Bucs win, 28-0

By Mike Lamberti

Showing no ill effect from its opening night loss to Hackensack, the Belleville Bucs roared past Bloomfield last Friday night, 28-0 in the first football game at the "new" Doc Ellis Field.

The victory evened the Bucs record at 1-1. This Friday night, Belleville plays host to a very good Paramus Catholic squad. Kickoff time is 7 p.m.

Playing before a large crowd at the refurbished stadium, the TV camera's of TV-3 and in perfect weather, Belleville used a punishing ground game and a rock solid defense in beating its cross town rival.

It was Belleville's first victory over Bloomfield since 1987 and first win over the Bengals at Belleville since a 14-0 triumph in 1986. Last Friday's offensive showing was Belleville's best since scoring 31 in a victory at Passaic in '87. The last time Belleville scored more than 28 points at home was in 1984, when the Bucs beat Bloomfield 35-6.

"It was an impressive victory for our kids," head coach John Senesky said. "It was a good night all the way around. The stadium looked great and there was an excellent turnout from the fans of both teams."

Bloomfield took the opening kickoff and drove impressively downfield, behind the running of Chris O'Leary. A key pass from Vito Finetti to O'Leary and a roughing the passer penalty against the Bucs moved the ball deep into Belleville territory. However, the Buc defense made its first statement of the evening when it held Bloomfield on downs at the Buc 15.

The Buc offense, which would gain over 200 yards on the ground before the night was over, started sluggishly.

"It was a like a prize fight in the early going," Senesky said. "Two teams checking out each other's moves. We have never been a team that scores early in a game. I'd rather we start slow and gain momentum as the game progresses."

The game was scoreless until midway through the second quarter. John Alvarado's punt pinned the Bengals deep in their own territory. When Bloomfield couldn't move the ball, the Bengals punted and Alvarado nearly blocked the kick. The Bucs took possession at the Bengal 35, and after a penalty, started at the Bengal 40.

Alvarado, the Bucs quarterback, nearly had his first pass of the drive intercepted by O'Leary. However, the ball bounced out of his hands and two plays later, Alvarado tried the air waves again, this time with better success. He hit Hector Daniluk with a 15 yard pass to the Bengal 30, setting up a third and six. On the next play, Alvarado fumbled, but Scott Mayers recovered the loose ball.

It was now fourth and eight at the 33, and Senesky made a key call that worked perfectly. Alvarado, in shotgun formation, called the signals, but the ball was snapped to Ricky Constantino, the upback in the formation. The play confused the Bengal defense, and Constantino, who has outstanding speed in the open field, ran 33 yards, untouched, into the Bengal end zone. The point after kick was wide and the Bucs led 6-0.

Following the kickoff, the Bengal als began at its 35. On the first play from scrimmage, O'Leary fumbled and the Bucs recovered at the Bengal 35. Once again, a motion penalty against Belleville moved the ball back to the 40. However, Alvarado hit Daniluk for 11 yards to the 29 and Constantino gained three yards to the 26. On third and short, Carmen Tuosto picked up six yards for a first down at the Bengal 20.

The Buc ground game was beginning to take shape, and on the next play, Mike Kimball ran 20 yards around left end for the second Belleville score. Daniluk threw a key block on the scoring run.

The Bucs opted for a two point conversion and succeeded when

It's been a busy couple of weeks for the Belleville cross country team. John Tosato's harriers have battled a tough NNJIL schedule, and for the first time in many years, the Bucs are fielding both a boys and girls' varsity.

The boys have dropped its first seven meets, but the coach has been pleased with the steady performance of the team. Junior Brian Orlando has been the Bucs top runner thus far, with a personal best time of 18:36 on the home course.

Keep in mind that the Bucs run their home races at Nutley Park. The cross country course there is approximately 3.1 miles long. Orlando also earned a medal at the Passaic County Coaches Invitational, with a 26th place finish in a very talented field.

Senior Rafael Ortiz is running cross country for the first time. He has been a member of the indoor and outdoor track teams in previous seasons.

"Rafael has been a very consistent performer," Tosato said. "He has been running in the mid 19 minute to low 20 minute mark."

The remainder of the boys team is made up of sophomores. Leading the sophomore class has been Roger Hanos, who has a personal best time of 20:54 so far this fall.

Dave Luongo has looked pretty good over the past two weeks. He has lowered his time down to 22:57. Sungbok Lee has been a very consistent runner this fall, with a personal best of 21:18 in the Don Bosco race.

Wayne Zelna is another runner who has been lowering his times during the course of the season. His best time, heading into this weeks action, was a 23:06 against Passaic. Sandip Desai is hoping to compete in a race this week. Desai has been recovering from a knee injury and has not run in a varsity race so far this season.

The girls team has a 1-5 record heading into this weeks action. Junior Chris Rykowski won the Barringer race with a time of 26:33. Rykowski's first place finish helped Belleville beat Barringer, 19-36.

Freshman Rachel Anderson has run the best time of any Lady Buc so far this fall, clocking a 26:07 in the Passaic race. Senior Cynthia Adams, a talented miler for the indoor and outdoor teams, has a personal best of 26:59 this season. This is Adams first season of cross country.

Junior Jennifer C'arella's best time so far this season is a 27:29, run at the Passaic County Coaches Invitational. Her performance was good enough for 30th place overall and a medal. Another junior, Kim O'Mara, has run a personal best of 29:10, that in the Passaic race. Junior Kelly O'Mara and freshman Rosie Tantalean have been showing steady improvement during the fall.

The boys and girls team took on Nutley last Tuesday. This Saturday, the Bucs will travel to Branch Brook Park for the Essex Catholic Invitational. Next Tuesday, the team will venture to Teaneck for a tri-meet with the host school and Paramus Catholic.

CROSS COUNTRY MEMORIES

Cross country has always been a favorite sport of mine because I ran for Belleville High School in 1974 and '75. Rich Ruffalo was the head coach back then and we had a lot of fun with the sport. In the mid 70's, our home meets were held at Belleville Park, and we had some pretty good teams.

Because space is limited this week, I'd like to add a small weekly feature which will run for the remainder of the fall season. I'll call it the "Cross Country Flashback."

This week's flashback returns us to the fall of 1974. The Bellboys travel to Mountain High School for a dual meet. Mountain High School, which today is merged with West Orange High, had a grueling 3.2 mile course with perhaps the toughest hill in the area. The hill was approximately 3/4 of a mile and could be considered a mini "heartbreak hill."

Anyway, the teams were just about even as they entered the hill portion. Jim Beck, Nelson Seda and Walt Stibus were the leading Belleville runners and as they headed up the hill, appeared to be a few steps behind the Mountain runners. As they came down the hill a few minutes later, Beck, Seda and Stibus were in front and the Bellboys ended up winning the meet.

Ruffalo had spent a great deal of time in hill training in preparation for the Mountain race. It obviously paid off as the Bellboys won a big meet.

By the way, in the JV race, Belleville's John Matera finished second and a junior runner named Mike Lamberti placed third. (Just thought you wanted to know that).

TID BITS

Did you see the Belleville-Bloomfield football game last Friday night? Let's give our fans and student body plenty of accolades for a tremendous performance. They showed a TV viewing audience how much fun high school football can be for everyone. Special accolades to the parents of our varsity football players, cheerleaders and band members. There are some super young men and women representing our township. As a matter of fact, accolades should go to the parents of all the athletes who wear the blue and gold. The athletes give Belleville a good name every time they compete.

I'm not trying to make any comparisons, but the current Buc backfield of John Alvarado, Rick Constantino, Carmine Tuosto and Mike Kimball is the most talented at Belleville since the '81 team which featured Frank Fazzini, Jeff Walsh, Angelo Centanni and John Borello.

Sorry to hear that the Belleville-Bloomfield football rivalry will be coming to an end. The NNJIL should take a look at its scheduling practices and the continuance of negating natural cross town rivalries. I'll have more on this next week.

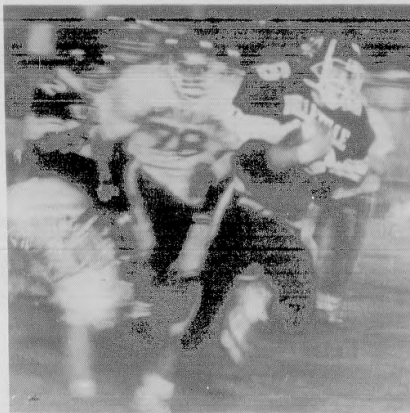

Mike Kimball, speaking on TV-3 after the Buc victory over Bloomfield last Friday, gave credit to his offensive line for giving him and his backfield mates outstanding running room. The Buc offensive line looked very impressive last Friday.

Credit should also be given to lineman J.V. Falliveno, who puts the game of football into proper perspective every time he competes. This is a man with maturity beyond his 17 years. By the way, you won't find more supportive parents than J.V.'s.

Is Mike C'arella an animal at linebacker, who what? This guy isn't just happy with a tackle, he wants to leave his name on every hit.

Fullback Ricky Constantino has a step on the Bloomfield defenders enroute to a second quarter touchdown last Friday night at Doc Ellis Field. Bucs won 28-0.

Soccer team moves to 7-1, Arujo hurt

By Mike Lamberti

Things are starting to get very interesting for the Belleville soccer team. Gino DePinto's club improved its record to 7-1 by beating league rivals Teaneck 3-1 and Paramus Catholic 3-0 last week. The Bucs and Nutley finished in a scoreless tie last Friday.

Belleville battled powerful Don Bosco last Tuesday. This afternoon, the team is at St. Joe's of Montvale. Game time is 4 p.m. Next Tuesday, Hackensack comes to Clearman Field for a key NNJIL game. Kickoff time is 4 p.m.

The Bucs have been playing outstanding defense so far this season and the offense has been contributing at key moments. Such was the case last week when Teaneck came to town.

Belleville jumped out to a 2-0 lead on goals by Greg Groeling and Frank Crocco. Groeling's goal was unassisted and Crocco's came off an assist from Groeling.

After Teaneck cut the lead to 2-1, Groeling scored his second goal of the game off an assist from Alex Alexandre.

The Bucs received fine goaltending from Emanuel Arujo and Rocco Constantino.

"Our defense did a real good job," DePinto said. "I was happy with the way we played overall."

Against Paramus Catholic, the Bucs won its seventh game but lost its number one goaltender when Arujo went out with a bruised spleen following a collision in front of the Buccaner net.

"He's going to be out for a few weeks," DePinto said. "It was a tough injury and he was in a lot of pain for a while."

Constantino did a fine job in the nets for the remainder of the game. The offense was paced Giuseppe Manella, Groeling and Crocco, each of whom scored once. Manella's goal was unassisted, Groeling's was assisted by Steve Vogel and Crocco's goal came off an assist by Paul Mora.

The Nutley game was a hard fought contest which ended in a scoreless tie.

"We had our chances to win the game," DePinto said. "The kids had about 20 shots on goal, we just couldn't get the ball in the net."

"The team was disappointed, but I felt they played very well."

The junior varsity team improved its record to 6-1 with three victories last week. The Bucs stopped Teaneck 5-1, Paramus Catholic 4-0 and Nutley 4-2.

Against Teaneck, Diego Paredes scored the hat trick while Steve Collett and Marcelo Giordano scored one goal each.

In the Paramus Catholic contest, Belleville goals were scored by Collett, Jim Berg, Mike Corino and Joe Colucci.

Versus Teaneck, Paredes scored twice and Anthony Vitello and Colucci scored once each.

The freshman team will be in action on Saturday, at Harvey Field in Kearny. The team will compete in a tournament with some of the top teams in New Jersey. Belleville takes on Randolph at noon this Saturday. Should the Bucs win, they will continue play in the single elimination tournament.

New Buc assistant coach John Apicella, a former Buc standout in 1984, encourages his players during last Friday night's action.

Giuffrida run set for next Sunday

By Mike Lamberti

The anticipation is beginning to mount for the second annual Sam Giuffrida Memorial Run. The race, in memory of the late Belleville High School teacher and crew coach, will be held on Sunday morning, October 20, at Belleville High.

There will be two races once again this year. At 9:30 a.m., a one mile fun run will be contested. At 10 a.m., the five mile run, which begins at Belleville High and tours Belleville before ending at Belleville High, begins.

According to one of the race coordinators, Lorraine Leming, there has been plenty of interest in the race.

"We're going to be receiving coverage of the race from TV-3. Also, we have a number of corporate sponsors, led by our major sponsor, Jiffy Lube. There will be a special banner, being donated by Philmore Associates, at the finish line. There's going to be a Ninja Turtle with balloons at the race, also."

As mentioned, Jiffy Lube of Belleville is the race's major sponsor. Jiffy Lube will be supplying the tee-shirts, which will be given to all runners.

Registration fee for the race is $10.00. The fee is $12.00 for those runners who register the day of the race. Applications are available from many of the merchants in the township.

"The tee shirts are beautiful this year," Leming said. "I think everyone will like them."

Philmore Associates is a major participating sponsor, and as mentioned, is providing the banner at the finish line. Other participating sponsors are Michael Davis, Michael O'Connor, Motorcycle Mall of Belleville, Golds Gym and Tom Spillane. Davis and O'Connor competed for Giuffrida on the high school crew team and were a member of the 1976 senior eight shell that won the Stotesbury Regatta. That team was inducted into the Belleville Hall of Fame in 1985.

Tonia Moore is the race coordinator. Assisting her are Leming, Bea Clinton, Mike Early, Barbara Spillane, Bill Russo and Laurie LaCourt.

In the inaugural race last fall, 250 runners competed. This year, Leming feels that number could be doubled.

"It would be nice to have at least 500 runners for the race," Leming said. "We're hoping for good weather and an exciting day."

Jr. Buc 'A' and 'B' teams improve records to 4-0

The Belleville Junior Buc "A" and "B" teams improved their season records to 4-0 each as the teams downed its Manchester opponents at Doc Ellis Field last Sunday.

The "C", "B" and "A" teams will be at Doc Ellis this Sunday to face a very good Paterson team. The games begin at noon with the "C" team seeing action. The "B" squad plays at 1:30 p.m. and the "A" team kicks off at about 3 p.m.

"A" TEAM WINS BATTLE OF UNBEATENS

Bill Abrams team improved to 4-0 in stopping previously unbeaten Manchester, 13-2.

"It was a good win for us," Abrams, the head coach, said,

"You could see why Manchester was undefeated. They have a real good team."

The Bucs did all its scoring in the first half. In the first quarter, Ben Swengle ran 70 yards for a touchdown on an end sweep. Frank Costanza passed to Tyree Hufnagel for the conversion.

In the second quarter, Damon Placente scored on a five yard counter run off left tackle. The conversion failed and the Bucs led 13-0.

The only other scoring in the contest came in the fourth quarter when Manchester was awarded a safety.

Swengle had a good day on both sides of the field. He scored a touchdown on offense and intercepted two passes at his middle linebacker position.

Outside linebacker Rob Caputo had an interception and Robert Romano turned in a key interception in the fourth quarter that snuffed out a potential Manchester scoring drive.

Placent recovered a fumble in the game and was credited by Abrams with playing a fine defensive game at safety.

CARSELDA SCORES THREE IN B WIN

Bobby Carselda scored three touchdowns to lead the B team to its fourth win without a loss, 21-0. In the first quarter, Renaldo Quinn intercepted a Manchester pass and returned it 15 yards to midfield.

Carselda then put the Bucs on the board with a 45 yard run. The team attempted to kick the extra point, which was worth two points when successful. The kick was blocked, however.

In the second quarter, the Bucs put on an impressive 65 yard scoring drive, culminated by a 25 yard run by Carselda. The Bucs got the extra point when Carselda passed to Justin Mohren.

In the third quarter, Carselda scored his third TD on a 54 yard punt return. This time, Carselda kicked the extra point and the ball cleared the uprights for two points.

It was the third shutout of the season for the B team. Defensively, nose tackle Albert Fusco, defensive tackle Anthony Albanese and linebacker Greg Sheridan excelled.

"We had a pretty good drive late in the game, about 70 yards, but the clock ran out," head coach Joe DeRiggi said. "Our fullback, Bobby Trainor and our halfback, John Farina did a real good job in that final drive."

Constantino run keys Buc victory

Alvarado ran in from the three. At halftime, the Bucs led 14-0.

The third quarter started impressively for Belleville. The Bucs started at their 30, and on the first play from scrimmage, Tuosto ran 51 yards to the Bengal 29. Belleville moved to the Bloomfield 21, but lost the ball on downs.

Bloomfield had little luck moving the ball on the Belleville defense and was forced to punt. This time, Alvarado would not be denied his punt block. The junior swarmed in and blocked the Bengal kick. The ball bounced free into the end zone where Mayers landed on the ball for the third Buc touchdown.

Mike Mundy kicked the point after and the Bucs were comfortably in front, 21-0.

Bloomfield began an impressive drive early in the fourth quarter, moving to the Buccaneer eight. There, the Buc defense stiffened and on third down, Finetti's pass was tipped by linebacker Mike Citarella and intercepted by John McAloon, who returned the ball to the Buc six.

From there, Belleville began one of its patented time consuming drives that sealed the win. A Bengal face mask penalty gave the Bucs a break and Tuosto took advantage by running for a first down to the Bloomfield 36.

Tuosto, who led the Bucs in rushing with nearly 100 yards, then gained ten to the 46. Kimball, off a great fake by Alvarado, took a handoff and ran 20 yards to the Bloomfield 34. Tuosto appeared to run 28 yards to the Bengal six, but the play was called back on a questionable illegal blocking penalty.

The Bucs would not be denied. Kimball ran 14 yards to the Bengal 20 and Constantino picked up nine yards to the 11. Constantino then bulldozed his way to the five and then Tuosto finished the drive with a five yard run into the end zone.

It was a 94 yard, 14 play drive for the Bucs. Mundy kicked the point after and the Bucs had wrapped up a 28-0 victory.

The backfield of Alvarado, Constantino, Kimball and Tuosto was very impressive. Alvarado's excellent play fakes and key play action passes opened up the running game. The backfield speed of Constantino, Kimball and Tuosto gave the Bengals problems all night long.

Was Seuecky surprised at his teams impressive victory? "I said before I didn't know how good this team could be," the coach said. "We lost a tough game at Hackensack. I felt our kids played well there, we just missed out on a few opportunities. The defense has played well, we just needed to get our offense on track."

"Bloomfield came in off a big victory over Montclair. It was a big win for them. I felt our kids would be ready to play and it turned out to be a big win for our team over a close rival."

Unfortunately, it will be the final meeting between these close rivals for a number of years. Since Bloomfield and Belleville are in opposite divisions in the NNJIL, they will not play each other for a few years, at least.

Bucs face PC tomorrow

Senesky has a great deal of respect for Paramus Catholic, which will come in at 2-0.

"They have an outstanding quarterback and a fine running back. Their quarterback can throw the ball and runs like a fullback. Then they have a fullback who has speed and power."

Buc kicker Mike Mundy boots extra point last Friday night's game with Bloomfield.

"They run an offense like the Detroit Lions, a run and shoot. Their offense is very talented. I think this will be the most complete team we've faced so far this season."

NOTES: Buc has won the last two games against Paramus Catholic. Belleville won last year, 21-6 and in '89, 21-0. Paramus Catholic won at Doc Ellis Field in 1988, 10-0. This is Paramus Catholic's first visit to Belleville since that '88 contest.

Nutley improved to 2-0 with a convincing win over Hackensack. Paramus Catholic beat Teaneck last Saturday afternoon and Senesky couldn't believe the tremendous size on the Teaneck front line. "They've got to be the biggest team in the state," Senesky said of Teaneck. "They're huge."

By the way, Senesky's wife, Carmela, will not be at the game tomorrow night. She is under the impression that the Bucs are playing at Don Bosco tomorrow night and she insists on going to Don Bosco. People tried to convince her that the Bucs don't play at Don Bosco until November. Perhaps, if Don Bosco is at home tomorrow night, Carmela can act as an advance scout.

Friday night.

It was great to see the large turnout of fans for the game. There were over 3,000 fans at Doc Ellis Field. It's been a long time since I've seen the fans lined around the fences.

NFL PICKS

I'm running out of room, so here we go. Jets 23 Houston 21, Cincinnati 20 Dallas 17, Washington 30 Cleveland 14, Buffalo 40 Indianapolis 6, Atlanta 24 San Francisco 23, Philadelphia 20 New Orleans 19, Minnesota 17 Phoenix 14, L.A. Rams 28 San Diego 17, Kansas City 27 Miami 14, Seattle 26 L.A. Raiders 17 and on Monday night, Pittsburgh to beat the Giants 23-20. The upset picks are the Jets, Cincinnati and Philadelphia. Last week, 6-5, for the season, 42-23.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The Giants and Jets first played each other in a pre season game in 1969. The Jets won, 37-14. Joe Namath was the Jet QB and Fran Tarkenton quarterbacked the Giants. The game was played at the Yale Bowl. Web Ewbanks was the Jets head coach and Allie Sherman was the Giants head coach.

FOR THIS WEEK

John Engel wants to know the last time his Houston Oilers played in the AFC title game. Who coached the Oilers that year? How did Houston do in the title game?

NJ Real Estate Market is on solid ground

The gloom and doom surrounding the real estate market of the late eighties has been complacent this year as the market, which had been adjusting from the abnormal growth of the mid '80s has found a happy medium consisting of stabilized prices and low interest rates. Now, data indicates that fall '91 and spring '92 could provide an ideal time for the savvy home buyer who is looking to lock in on low interest rates before they rise again.

For the first time in nearly four years, the average fixed interest rate on a 30-year loan has fallen below 9 percent. HSH Associates, publisher of the national mortgage information based in Butler, says about a third of all lenders in the state are now offering mortgages below 9 percent.

Data released by the firm for the week of Aug. 30, shows the average fixed interest rate in New Jersey at 9.22 percent for a 30-year loan, which was unchanged from the previous week. This is the first time since the drop began in late June that the rates have stayed consistent.

According to Keith Gumbinger of HSH, Adjustable Rate Mortgages (ARMs) are also experiencing their lowest level since the product was introduced in 1981. The average rate for ARMs with annual rate adjustment fell three basis points, to 6.95 percent. Some competitive lenders are offering initial, or first-year rates at less than 6 percent.

Maurice B. Hoffman, president of the New Jersey Association of REALTORS (NJAR), says that even the shrewd home buyer seeking ideal buying conditions should recognize that stabilized prices and below normal interest rates means ripe buying conditions.

Decision to rent or own made easy by tax break

Making the decision to rent or buy is a question faced by many sooner or later. The New Jersey Association of REALTORS

(NJAR) offers the following guide lines.

A leading consideration for people is the investment benefits gained when making a home purchase. History proves that the purchase of a home is one of the wisest financial moves one can make. The most common form of purchase is with financing. As inflation continues, which it has done year to year, homeowners will pay off their debt with "cheaper" dollars than those which they originally borrowed. They find the value of their home rising without a corresponding increase in their monthly mortgage payments.

Tax advantages when owning a home are extremely beneficial. Real estate taxes and the interest on your mortgage qualify as itemized deductions on federal and state income tax returns. When you pay rent, only a portion is deductible on New Jersey State tax returns and nothing at all on your federal returns.

Permanency, though an intangible factor, is proving more and more to be a decisive factor for people who have gone through years of landlord tenant arrangements. The desire to be in control of one's dwelling with options to decorate at will and not have to "answer" to a landlord works to take people down the home purchase path. Owning a home means just that — you own it. You make the decisions on decorating, you make the decisions on home improvements, you make all the decisions — it is yours.

NJAR is making copies of "Yes You Can Buy a Home in New Jersey," a 20-minute videotape on home ownership available. For a free certificate for a copy of the videotape, call 1-800-YES-IN-NJ.

The Home Front

By Nina Kareset

You can probably save on your mortgage expenses by cutting out private mortgage insurance you've been paying for. The coverage is often required if you put down less than 20 percent of the cost of your home, but you may be able to drop it as your equity rises.

Is it worthwhile to insulate your attic floor? The savings can be up to $342 a year.

Stock materials can give a custom effect if they're used carefully. Consider plaster veneer board and tiles around a metal prefabric fireplace kit. Add a slate hearth for richness.

It's not difficult to remove wallpaper from plaster walls with lots of steam and a putty knife to scrape it off. But dry wall can't take the moisture, so paper has to be stripped with a scraper or sponging.

Who's buying real estate? First-time home buyers are now leading the market — as much as 52 percent of the market in the East — thanks to lower mortgage rates and leveled prices.

If you're selling real estate, do it the right way. List your property with the "can do" professionals at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Avenue, Nutley. Call 235-9000.

Fight Phone Fraud

Telephone fraud is growing around the country. Consumers need to be on the lookout for calling card number thieves in public places and to hang up on suspected telephone scam artists who call you at home.

AT&T offers the following tips on how to avoid becoming a fraud victim.

—When calling from public phones, make sure no one can see you keying in your calling card number or overhear you reading the number to the operator. Whenever possible, use a phone that reads your card automatically.

—Do not use your telephone calling card as identification for purchases.

—Beware of individuals who call you at home requesting telephone calling card number verification. AT&T and other telephone companies will never ask for your card number over the phone. They already have that information in their billing records.

—If you get a call from anyone claiming to be a phone company or law enforcement official asking you to accept charges as part of an investigation, hang up. Neither entity will ever place such a call. Report the incident to your phone company. —If you suspect that your telephone calling card has been lost, stolen or otherwise compromised, report it immediately to your long distance company. It will immediately cancel your card number and issue you a new card. AT&T customers may dial 1-800-CALL-ATT.

When calling from public phones, make sure no one can see you keying in your calling card number.

Keep these tips in mind and you should keep yourself out of the phone fraud statistics.
