Aside From That

By Howard Klausner

Each of the 18 times that Constantine Minaeff has visited Hawaii his first visit has been to Schofield Barracks where he was one of the first U.S. soldiers to be wounded in World War II, and the next place has been Punchbowl Cemetery. There, in the first two graves dug in the military cemetery, are the remains of Cpl. Josh Smith who was slain by Japanese machine gun fire as he ran to the Schofield motor pool to find a vehicle, and Tighe, slain on Guadalcanal as he and Manaff were serving at a forward artillery observation post. ●●●●● Manaff, the third son of a Cossack soldier who had fought against the Bolsheviks, joined the Army in 1935, and he was serving in the Field Artillery as a sergeant, expecting his discharge on Dec. 8, 1941, when the Japanese attack came. By the time the war in the Pacific was over, he had been wounded three times, won two Silver Stars and a Bronze Star Medal, and was on his way back to the States with enough discharge points to retire an army. So, in no time at all, he had a War Department telegram calling him back to duty, sending him to the Army of Occupation in Germany, where he was finally released in 1947. ●●●●● Minaeff had been hit in the shoulder when Japanese planes strafed the barracks. "I had a 45 in one hand, and I shot the locks off the door to the weapons room, and got a Garand. But there wasn't much more I could do," he recalled, recently. Within 90 minutes, the battle fleet of the United States Navy had been sunk, most of the Army Air Force planes destroyed on the ground - although a few fighter planes did take off with telling effect - and more than 2,000 men were dead. "I still have a hatred for the old time Japanese. I have no feelings about the modern Japanese - they're about as wild as our own younger generation." ●●●●● Manaff had a series of jobs after military service, finally working 16 years for a chemical company, and retiring on three pensions - Army, company and Social Security. His first wife, Marie, died after 21 years of marriage. His second wife, Elleen died in 1988 after 18 years of marriage. He had been two days away from marriage to an Australian girl when his outfit was shipped to New Guinea. Son Nicholas is an engineer with three daughters. ●●●●● On Saturday, Connie Manaff was at Fort Dix with 300 other survivors of Pearl Harbor to receive a Congressional medal commemorating that fateful day in history, whose events are still vivid in his mind, even more vivid than any of the terrible days that followed. "There were men who looked at the medal and cried," he said. "They asked - why didn't we get it 50 years ago?" ●●●●● Manaff will be leaving for Hawaii again, this time to participate in the ceremonies marking the 50th Anniversary of Pearl Harbor. Once again, he will visit the old barracks and then pay his respects to Josh Smith and Tighe, and all the other comrades-in-arms he knew. "Lots of the kids today don't even know about Pearl Harbor," he said. "But, they should."

In another historic pitcher's duel, the Belleville contingent bested Nutley in the Second Annual Celebrity Softball Game sponsored by the Belleville-Nutley Parade Committee. Compounded by fielding errors, questionable strategy and collapsing base runners, the score was 18-to-17. There is actually a trophy that goes with this annual fiasco, a handsome silver loving cup that would retail easily at $167. It is now in the office of Town Manager Bert Kendall who played shortstop. Since baseball ability is a definite measure of political clout, we have to report that Deputy Mayor Bill Cook hit a two-run triple and his son, Tim, who can actually play the game, hit a three-run homer. Pitcher Marlo Drozd was blanked three times at bat by the Nutley pitcher, Senator Carmen Orechio whose team still managed to lose. Among the political stalwarts on the field were Councilman Frank Caputo at first base and Councilman Tom Spillane in the outfield. Councilman Dr. Frank Noonan was held in reserve, in case there was a cardiac arrest on the field. ●●●●● The Stock Market Club of School 3 is made up of Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Graders who invest $100,000 in play money - which is the safest way - in stocks. The club is in competition with 185 other Stock Market Clubs throughout New Jersey and up to the time of last week's market plunge of 132 points, it ranked 13th in profitable investments. On paper, the youngsters were running a $21,000 profit. As might be expected, one of their favorite investments is the Marvel Group which produces everything from toys to comic books. They also like PepsiCo and Chase Manhattan.

Frantantoni claims pupil is not legal resident

Former Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni told the Board of Education Monday that a grade school pupil who had just performed in a School 3 presentation before the board was a "non-resident" who had no right to attend a Belleville school.

Board President Pat Pisano asked Frantantoni to write the child's name on a piece of paper and hand it to her so that she could pass it on to Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello for investigation.

Frantantoni said he would do so, but Nardiello said on Tuesday that he had never received the name, and that he didn't believe that President Pisano had, either. Frantantoni was not available for comment.

Frantantoni previously had disputed the right of Dr. Frank Noonan to run for office in Belleville, claiming that he was not a legal resident. A Superior Court Judge ruled that Dr. Noonan could use his Belleville address as his legal residence, and Dr. Noonan was elected to the newly formed Township Council.

Dr. Noonan's child is a member of the Stock Market Club, composed of fourth, fifth and sixth graders of School 3, who gave a show illustrating the operations of the Stock Market.

None of the children's right to attend Belleville schools has been challenged, school authorities said. The only family whose residency rights have been challenged by Frantantoni is that of Dr. Noonan. Dr. Noonan was not available for comment, the day after the board meeting.

Frantantoni's claim came after some citizens had questioned the efforts of the board to ferret out non-resident students. The charges were vigorously denied by Nardiello and board members.

Last year, Nardiello noted, 39 non-resident students had been found and expelled. He cited the efforts of Attendance Officer Wayne Worley to verify residency claims by students.

"He visits the home, even asks for a look at the student's clothing," Nardiello said. The superintendent said this was done without violating the privacy rights of the family.

He said that when a Belleville resident claimed to be the legal guardian of a student, the resident had to produce tax returns proving the claim.

Trustee Dr. Anthony D'Agostino urged that private funds be raised to finance a bounty campaign for information leading to the discovery of non-resident students.

Dr. D'Agostino said he did not know if it would be legal for the Board to pay such bounties, but he said the campaign was worth trying. Other trustees, including President Pisano, endorsed the idea.

Board Vice President Seymour Grossman said that although he had been named liaison to BASE - Belleville Alliance for Substance Abuse - he had never been notified of meetings.

Trustee Gabe Nazzola said he had been attending meetings at the request of BASE, and that he was under the impression that he had been named liaison for the Board.

Nazzola noted that a study showed that the health services package for school employees came to $7,131 per individual. This includes a new family dental health policy now provided the employees.

Nardiello said this was in line with the costs of other school systems.

In other business, the board voted to award a $158,000 window replacement contract for School 10 to Thermal Window Systems of Irvington.

The action came after Frantantoni said he was prevented from providing the board with added information about the contract. "President Bush and Governor Florio have asked for more citizen participation," Frantantoni told the Belleville Times, after he had been told that he had exceeded the eight-minute time limit. "You call this encouragement?"

Rotary sponsors Awareness Day

Fifteen Belleville High School students were selected from 88 applicants to accompany Rotarians in their business and professional activities, yesterday.

The annual event is sponsored by Belleville Rotary to gain insights into career possibilities.

The students were picked up at Belleville High School at 8:30 a.m. and then spent three hours at a job location. At noon, they were guests at a Rotary luncheon, and by 2 p.m. they were back in school.

Students, vocation and Rotary sponsor were:

GATHERING IN THE LEAVES - Ken Kotowski, motor broom operator for the Belleville Department of Public Works, is the man who has been shoveling all the town's leaves into neat piles for removal to the compost yards. On the job for the past 11 years, he has been operating the motor broom rig for about as long.

Thefts, ambush on the crime front

Police made two arrests in a robbery complete with a crashed escape car, last week.

It began when Newark store owner David Alvarez, 44, was robbed of $6,000 in receipts when he was about to put the money in the night depository of Peoples Bank. Both an off-duty Newark police officer and Belleville police were in the vicinity and chased three men who had leaped into a getaway car.

The car crashed on Franklin Street. The driver was caught, but two other men escaped by stealing a car at the scene.

Questioning of the arrested suspect, who gave his name variously as Hector Vazquez and Hector Gomez, led to a second arrest. But the third man and the money are still sought.

The manager of Andros Farms, a supply house on Cortlandt Street, was robbed by two men who pushed into the building entrance as he opened the plant at 5:38 a.m. Arthur Fisher said that two black males then assaulted him and took $19 from him and $1,000 from an office desk.

A motorist reported a chase by a hit-and-run pair on Belmont Avenue. He told police he was driving down the street just after midnight when he had to slow the car to get around a double parked red Honda. As he paused, a man approached him, holding a chrome revolver.

The motorist drove around the parked car, and then stopped for a red light. His car was hit in the rear by the red Honda. He accordingly went through the light and drove until he found a police car.

A Jersey City lady known as China Doll reported that a client from Colts Neck robbed her of her night's proceeds - some $400 - at the Belleville Motor Lodge, last week. Police charged Joseph Stola, 27, with robbery and released him without bail.

Belleville running back Richard Quine picks up good yardage during last Saturday's Buc victory at Don Bosco. Fans should remember that the annual Belleville-Nutley game has been pushed up to this Saturday at the Nutley Oval. Kickoff time is 1 p.m. Quine, a senior, and nine other Bucs will be playing their final football game of their high school careers. On this play, Hector Daniluk (89), Eugene Carrera (40) and Brian Salmon (70) block.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

Reality is defined as actual existence; fact; truth... so let's get real from an editorial by David Gergen, editor at large of U.S. News & World Report, which outlines "The politicians have been fooling around with the nation's future for so long, gentlemen, please stop diddling us."

He points out that in only a decade, our politicians have quadrupled the national debt, cut the national savings rate in half, allowed income to stagnate, watched complacently as our financial institutions have sunk into the mire and — worst of all — have probably sentenced our children to a generation of harder times. No one, in the White House or Congress, can escape responsibility.

Now that a day of reckoning is upon us, many of the political big shots would like to wriggle off the hook. But the puny tax cuts they are peddling will do far more to buy their own re-election than to revive the staggering economy. Using an $11 billion tax cut to jump-start a $5.6 trillion economy is like using flashlight batteries in an 18-wheeler. Senators parade before the press to tell us of their generosity in seeking $300 rebates for working families; what they forget to mention is that their past profligacy is now costing the country more than $3,600 per family in annual interest payments on the national debt.

Over the short run, there are a few things Washington can and should do to alleviate public pain. It would help, for example, to take an additional chunk out of the defense budget and put people to work rebuilding our crumbling roads, bridges and airports. Public-works programs may seem old-fashioned but they are effective — every $1 billion in spending is thought to create 41,000 jobs. And besides, America badly needs to modernize. Our investments in infrastructure have dwindled to less than 1 percent a year of gross national product, compared with 3 percent in Germany and 5 percent in Japan. Washington should also stop dawdling over an extension of unemployment benefits. With nearly 1 in 10 Americans now on food stamps, we have a moral obligation to help the victims of this recession. The Federal Reserve Board, while mindful of inflation, must also continue to lower interest rates until they provide a stronger spark for consumers.

In the end, however, Washington must realize that it has created such a mess it can no longer produce instant relief. Far more important than short-term answers is an urgent need to lay solid foundations for long-term growth.

For nearly three years, the Bush administration has irresponsibly failed to present the nation with a coherent, farsighted strategy for a 21st-century economy. The Democrats love to talk but they, too, have shirked. With the exception of Paul Tsongas, even the Democratic candidates for president haven't yet embraced gutsy ideas. Putting aside for now the question of what kind of president he would be, Mario Cuomo would certainly be a welcome entrant into the race because he would force the nation to have a serious debate about our domestic crisis and what must be done.

The scale of reforms needed in the years ahead is mammoth, far exceeding anything the politicians will whisper. In a paper presented at the Aspen Institute, former Defense Secretary Robert McNamara laid out a compelling argument that if the nation is truly to address its unmet needs — creating more savings, rebuilding schools, stimulating scientific and technological advance, ensuring adequate health care, and the like — we must redirect at least $500 billion a year in public and private spending, about 8 percent a year of the nation's GNP. That represents a huge adjustment in our current lifestyle. As McNamara wrote, "Nothing comparable has ever been attempted by any Western nation. But no other Western nation has simultaneously confronted problems as serious as those we face." Echoing that theme, economist Charles Schultz of the Brookings Institution writes in a forthcoming book that in order to achieve even modest growth of the economy and provide for future retirees, we must raise our national savings rate from 3.5 percent of GNP a year to a figure at least double that amount. To meet such challenges, bigger defense cuts means testing for Social Security and Medicare, slashes in governmental bloat, consumption-based taxes — all these and more must be part of a vigorous national debate.

The politicians in Washington have been fooling around with the nation's future for too long. Gentlemen, please stop diddling us — or else take a hike.

Free oral cancer screenings offered in Essex County

Cancer of the oral cavity can be a horrifying and extremely disfiguring disease, said Kelly McGotty, a spokesman for the American Cancer Society. "It was at one time considered an older man's disease but in recent years oral cancer has been affecting a much younger population."

The American Cancer Society recommends having an oral examination performed once a year by a physician, she added. This month screenings are being offered free of charge in Essex County. For more information call the American Cancer Society, Essex Unit at (201) 736-7770.

OUR OPINION

TODAY

Tomorrow may bring sorrow or care
For things can happen most anywhere;
But don't fret what might be, just savor this day;
It's Gods' gift to you to use as you may.
Be happy, be helpful, be prayerful be strong
God is walking beside you all the day long.

— Ruth Scarbrough

It's a draw

People who believe that the new Council-Manager form of government has brought a new stability to Belleville may regret the confrontation between Mayor Marina Perna and the town administration, in which the determined Mayor seized the keys to a vehicle purchased, she argued, without permission of the Township Council.

Whatever the legalities or niceties involved, one thing emerges. Local government is more sensitive to rights and wrongs, real or imagined, than is big government.

In a major city, who would even know if a vehicle had been purchased by a department head, until months or years had passed? Usually, these things would not be discovered until an honest audit took place.

Mayor Perna is very sensitive to the prerogatives and the integrity of the elected governing body. This is how it should be.

By the same token, Town Manager Bert Kendall is sensitive to the integrity of the administration's freedom from political interference.

The Belleville Times believes in the honesty of both the Mayor and the Manager.

The Belleville Times also believes that the elected officials have the right to call each other all kinds of names, if that's how they see fit, even if we deplore the use of our pages for angry statements.

It may be good political fun, but it is not good government.

We had hoped that Belleville would finally have government by adults. Taken individually, every member of the Township Council is a mature, responsible person, even of particular achievement.

Taken together as disputants, they can get down to the schoolboy level.

Still, it is a lot healthier than the rubber stamp policies of so many governing bodies. It may be noisy, but it is democracy.

Big Brother, 1991

The need to keep Belleville's schools available only to actual residents of the township is obvious. It is perfectly valid for the schools to remove students who are not bona fide residents.

But there seems to be a panic among some residents that non-residents are flooding the classrooms.

One citizen has asked that posters be put up stating: "Non-residents, beware! We have our eye on you!"

It is the kind of idea that might be more appropriate to use against drug pushers, and it would be about as effective.

In fact, if the same amount of concern was expressed against drug abuse, alcohol abuse or simple family abuse, the community would probably be the better for it.

The idea, put forward by School Trustee Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, that bounties be paid for information leading to the expulsion of non-resident students, would be better applied to information about drug traffickers.

Dr. D'Agostino, an eminently reasonable educator in his own right, would seem to be taking a leaf from police state tactics.

He is a man of decency, and we do not think he realizes how a bounty system, for such a purpose, could be abused.

The fact is that the youngsters probably know who among their peers is a legal resident or not. Most of the 39 students who were removed from the system when they were found to be non-residents were discovered through information provided by youngsters to their parents, who in turn notified school authorities.

If there are hordes of non-resident students in the system, the youngsters will know it.

They do not have to be encouraged to be informers for reward money. The youngsters are just as interested in preserving the integrity of their schools in which they have to live a good part of their lives as are the adults.

Non-resident students may be a problem, but they are a very small problem compared to all the others faced by the schools.

Let us use some of the same fervor directed against the fear of non-resident students against the more real problems of education.

YOUR OPINION

My opinion

To the editor:

The Belleville High football team deserves a lot of credit. Week after week the boys go up against bigger players and play them even.

Our fresh turn out of two and three years ago were very, very small, yet the current varsity has outscored the opposition.

The officials are unpredictable. Some look twice before signaling a T.D., and this call should be made in an instant. They shouldn't have to look twice. The varsity is grossly undermanned, yet they are a very dedicated group. I give the Bucs a lot of credit. Nutley, too, has more size and depth but this game means a winning season for Belleville.

Kevin Roberts

Drivers praised

To the editor:

Please extend a special thank you to four outstanding people. They are Pete, Lois, Marlene and Cathy, four of Belleville's school bus drivers. These drivers have taken our marching band and guard to all their competitions this season and have been very supportive of this great bunch of kids. I have attended every performance and ours is the only district to have "Air-Grams" (messages sent over the public address system) sent to our children by their bus drivers. They have been there for them in celebration of victory and also during the quiet rides home when the day had not gone exactly as planned. It's nice to know we have such good caring people around our children.

'Squeaking' loud

To the editor:

November 13th's issue of The Star Ledger carried the words - the wheel that squeaks gets the oil. That wording does work but it depends on where the squeak is heard.

What I am trying to get across to the people of Belleville is "squeak at town meetings, squeak to your mayor, squeak to your councilman, squeak to those politicians that represent you in Trenton, in Washington. Yes, you might even squeak to President Bush. Let your voice be heard. A 29 cents postcard might be your best investment.

It's okay to squeak to friends and neighbors because their views and ideas might enhance yours - but then, get the message to the ones who make the decision.

Like the little mouse who ran squeaking, he won and so can you.

Ann Donatiello - Ward 1

Democratic message

To the editor:

On behalf of the entire Belleville Democratic County Committee, I would like to express my thanks to the voters of Belleville who voted for the Democratic line on Tuesday, Nov. 5.

Here in Essex County we had a great victory on the county level in electing Armando Fontoura for Sheriff and Linda Lordi Cavanaugh for Freeholder.

On the state level the other side had the issue and now Senator Gabe Ambrosio and Assemblyman Lou Gill will not be in Trenton fighting for the citizens of the new district. As for our good friend, Al Restaino, he ran a clean and honest campaign and made many new friends. We know that Al Restaino will be back in the political ring again in the near future.

Messina disputed

To the editor:

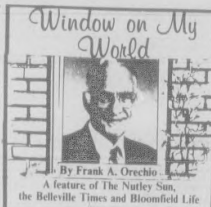

Councilman Messina in his letter published in the Times on Oct. 31, criticizes the reporters and "a certain colleague of mine," who happens to sit on his right. Messina has every right to his feelings. However, he should also be expected to speak the whole truth, 100 percent of the time. Too often those in political positions speak half-truths, holding the argument: "What I said was the truth."

In his second paragraph, Messina states: "A good reporter should report all the facts for the people who do not attend meetings, but do read the papers. A great many people believe what they read." How true! You expect us to believe you, when you state in print: "Remember the Municipal tax rate went down some 12 points and that's the bottom line isn't it?" No, it is not! If the true facts were disclosed, our taxes would be reduced by 34 points. Own it up, Jim. Your Mayor reluctantly admitted this at a previous meeting. Further proof, if the taxpayers would read their latest tax bill, they would read: "State aid to offset local property taxes - Municipal property tax relief."

How many of you can honestly say your taxes went down? Mine didn't and neither did yours, because the Council used the $1.6 million for different reasons. Mr. Messina's group, as backed by the CBB, promised a more efficient government with stabilized or reduced property taxes as a prime reason. Instead we got newly created positions, salary increases and grants. Where will we be next year, if the State doesn't come across with another "plum" of over $1 million?

Funny, the present Council complains about members of the Concerned Citizens questioning what goes on at City Hall. Now one of their own has very serious questions about their actions.

• JERSEY CITY Mayor Jerry McCann goes on trial this week in Trenton's U.S. District Court on a matter that does not involve his service as mayor of Jersey City. The charge derives from a failed hotel-recreation complex at Liberty State Park on the Jersey City waterfront. A failed Boca Raton savings and loan is central to the case. The nation's bank failures and savings and loan scandals will work against McCann. There's a feeling that most savings and loan failures resulted from scandalous, fraudulent acts and mismanagement. As mayor of Jersey City, Jerry McCann's performance is not in question in this case.

• FORMER mayor, Joe McGreevy of Belleville, a dedicated U.S. Air Force veteran, died last week. A lifelong resident of Belleville, McGreevy served as the town's Revenue and Finance Commissioner. In that job, he achieved quite a reputation - his creed was - "We don't spend money we don't have." Can you imagine a community debt free at any one day in its lifetime? It happened under Joe McGreevy.

• NUTLEY Assemblyman John Kelly has jumpstarted his next term by announcing he will sponsor a 1 percent payroll tax. This is a tax proposed by the AFL-CIO state officials who insist the tax is necessary to replace a hospital rate surcharge.

Every working person in New Jersey will be forced to pay this tax. When a tax starts at 1 percent, history shows it goes up and up. Some day this 1 percent payroll tax may very well be 5 percent.

• THE Office of United States Attorney Michael Chertoff has become involved in a probe of illegal dumping on Essex County in Verona. This was recently announced by Verona's Mayor Nicholas Rolli. The Attorney's Office and the Essex County Prosecutor's Office are both involved in an investigation which involves the dumping of more than 300 truckloads of debris on one area of a Verona hilltop. Under the able leadership of U.S. Attorney Michael Chertoff, citizens can be assured of an honest result.

• WEST ESSEX Rehabilitation Center recently sponsored its Sixth Annual Benefit reception and honored former Essex Republican Chairman and investor, Michael D. Francis, Peter McMullin, Vice President of the New Jersey Devils, and Senator Carmen

• ESSEX County Assignment Judge Burrell Ives Humphreys was picked this week by friends of County Executive Tom D'Alessio because Judge Humphreys is attempting to comply with the county's statutory obligation to provide proper facilities to the courts.

Essex County Executive Tom D'Alessio refuses to comply with the cry that he who was six years Sheriff, presiding over a budget that started at $9 million and went up to $18 million over his six-year reign, and only recently appointed a Chief of Staff who has a couple of full-time jobs and will work at the post D'Alessio appointed him to on nights and Saturdays, there are people who conclude that Mr. D'Alessio has a double standard which he applies.

The current sheriff, with four more judges, is doing more with less. There are four more judges and 28 less employees since Sheriff Armando Fontoura took over the job. This is the kind of record politicians are applauding.

It appears to students of Essex County politics D'Alessio is crying "poor mouth" because he believes it's a popular position with the voting public.

People charged with a crime in Essex County are entitled to a fair and speedy trial. They are denied that right when courts are inadequate to process the thousands of cases. Judge Humphreys is trying to comply with the law - apparently, D'Alessio's obstruction tactics must be overcome before justice can be served. Picture is of a member of the CWA Union who picked Judge Humphreys. The CWA Union represents Essex County workers and is perceived to be a major part of Tom D'Alessio's political strength. The union was in the forefront of support for D'Alessio every time he was a candidate.

BHS Orchestra attends Trenton State College

By Erika Gomez

On Nov. 1, the Belleville High School Orchestra attended the Trenton State College Festival. Belleville was among eight schools selected in New Jersey to be invited because of the high quality of their orchestral program.

The festival began with individual orchestras each performing for a panel of adjudicators. After each performance, the adjudicators spoke to each group, commenting on their program and giving them advice and suggestions for improvement. After the eight orchestras had performed, they combined with members of the Trenton State College Orchestra to form the Festival Orchestra.

The Festival Orchestra then rehearsed "L'Arlesienne Suite No. 2" by George Bizet. The orchestra was conducted by Dan Spalding, director of the Trenton State College Orchestra. After two hours of rehearsal, the Festival Orchestra performed the entire suite.

The Belleville orchestra students enjoyed themselves and found the festival to be a wonderful experience. They also increased their knowledge in all areas of music from other students attending the festival. As for Belleville's performance, Mr. Black, director of the BHS orchestra, said, "The orchestra played excellently."

High School students flex their muscles

By Gina Stable

On Oct. 1, under the supervision of Mr. Pollard, a physical education teacher, Belleville High School sponsored a weight lifting competition. Held in the BHS weight room, 18 boys participated in the contest. The winner of the contest was junior, Hieu Pham.

The competition did not measure the ability to lift a great amount of weight, rather the contest measured the greatest increase of muscle mass. At the onset of the competition the boys' upper arms, chest, and shoulder girth were measured. The boys then had exactly one month to increase muscle size. On an average the boys increased a total of 3.5 inches. Pham, the winner, increased a total of 7.5 inches.

Mr. Pollard and the boys agreed, "Everyone" enjoyed the friendly competition, and ultimately everyone was a winner. Next year we would also like to see some girls participate as well."

Mr. Pollard, coordinator of the BHS lifting contest, stands with students from the competition.

Annual Career Night aides Belleville students

By Nancy Matthews

Belleville High School's annual Career Night will be held on Nov. 26. This program gives students the opportunity to receive information from college representatives and to pick up applications from specific colleges. All the colleges and schools which BHS students apply to usually are present on this night. Along with colleges, there will also be representatives from nursing schools, trade schools and the Armed Services. Career Night is held to let younger students be exposed to all options available to them after high school graduation. It also allows older students a chance to talk on an informal basis with college representatives. Each year the program expands and invites new colleges and has new career choices.

Mr. Esposito, a BHS guidance counselor, is in charge of Career Night. The head of the Guidance Department, Dr. Benninger, states that, "Career night is part of a curricular infusion project for the state required career exploration program." All BHS students and parents are invited to attend this program.

Letters to the Editor

We, the People

To the editor:

If my memory serves me correctly, I remember a certain paper our Founding Fathers wrote that started, "We, the People," not "We, the Politicians." Somewhere in the shuffle you have all forgotten that and do what you want, when you want and how you want and to heck with what, when and how, "We, the People" want.

Our Town Manager does whatever he wants with "We, the People's" money and at least four out of our seven Council members say that's okay with them.

I think I can safely say that I speak for at least half of the people of Belleville and tell you it is not what, "We, the People" want. We want you to stop spending our money like we have a never-ending supply of it. We want lower taxes. We want you to listen to us, "We, the People of Belleville."

Do you remember the movie "Network"? Well, some dark and very, very quiet night, "We, the People" just might throw up our windows, open our doors and yell, "We, the People of Belleville are as mad as hell and we aren't going to take it anymore."

A reminder: We have a Town Council Election in May 1992 to elect four new Council members.

They plan to attend the 1992 National Festival in Greensboro, N.C. The Youth Ringers are under the direction of Christine Braden, a graduate of Heidelberg College in Ohio, who has been ringing in the adult bell choir for sixteen years and who has conducted the Youth Ringers for the ten years of their existence. Belleville-Nutley week brings back memories Belleville-Nutley week has come a few days early, thanks to the Maroon Raiders advancing to the sectional football playoffs on the Saturday after Thanksgiving. Thus, the annual Thanksgiving Day battle between the cross town rivals has been moved to this Saturday and all the excitement of the rivalry merely builds up a little quicker.

For those traditionalists out there, Belleville and Nutley began playing each other on Thanksgiving Day in 1984, but the actual games played on the holiday over the past seven years has been few. Rain forced the game to be played on the following Saturday in '85 and '86 and a surprise snowstorm pushed the game back a few days in 1989. So, it's not that unusual for this game to be played on a day other than Thanksgiving. And, as head coach John Senesky has said for the past 15 years, "it doesn't really matter when this game is played. It doesn't really matter what the records are, either. This is Belleville-Nutley."

Senesky has plenty of experience with this rivalry. It goes back to 1962, when Senesky, as a junior running back for the then Belleville Belboys, scored a touchdown in leading Belleville to a victory over the Raiders at Municipal Stadium. The following season, Senesky sustained a broken leg in the Nutley game, although he didn't know the leg was broken until two weeks after the game. That show's the emotion attached to this game.

Senesky took the reins as Belleville head football coach in 1977 and is 8-6 against Nutley as Buc mentor. Let's go back and quickly look at those past 14 games. Remember, until 1983, the game was played on the third week of the season.

1977: In a driving rainstorm at the Oval, Nutley scored the games only touchdown on a blocked punt that landed in the Bellboy end zone. Belleville finished 2-6-1 that season, but the groundwork was being laid for a dominant Belleville team into the mid 1980's.

1978: At Municipal Stadium, Ed Aulst and Mike Nicotola led a dominant Buc attack as Belleville won a 31-0 decision. Later, Buc linebacker Angelo Santinelli said "it was the biggest win of our lives."

1979: At the Oval, Aulst hit Len Mendola with a 40 yard TD pass in the third quarter as Belleville won 7-0. Senesky, after the game, said "it's always nice to beat Nutley, but we have to play better the remainder of the season." The Bucs took Senesky's advice and finished 8-1 in regular season play, advancing to the playoffs.

1980: John Mellillo, the Bucs quarterback, ran 35 yards for the game winning score as Belleville won a heartstopper, 13-7. The game was played at night at Municipal Stadium. It was the only time the two teams have played each other at night.

1981: Belleville won 26-0 at the Oval. The victory improved Belleville's record to 3-0 and set up a big game with Passaic the following week. Tom Apicella suffered a broken leg in the game for Belleville, but still wanted to get back into the action.

1982: In an NNJIL contest, Belleville won a 10-3 battle at Municipal Stadium. Mike Murphy scored the games only touchdown on an 82 yard run in the second quarter.

1983: The series was moved to opening day and Belleville prevailed 12-6 at the Oval. Murphy led a solid Belleville running attack and Mark Walsh directed the Belleville offense at quarterback.

1984: The rivalry moved from opening day to Thanksgiving Day and Nutley ended a six year losing streak against Belleville by winning a 20-6 decision. The Bucs, decimated by injuries and playing on four days rest after a playoff loss to Union, were noticeably lackluster. Walsh was named Belleville's MVP of the game. He threw a 45 yard TD pass to Steve Kimble in the first quarter to give Belleville a 6-0 lead.

1985: At the Oval, Belleville won a 14-0 decision. Dave Long earned MVP honors for the Bucs.

1986: Belleville got back on track by beating Nutley 27-16. Jim Dunphy and Jeff Spillsbury directed the Buc offense and Dunphy was named MVP for the Bucs.

1987: Belleville lost the ball on fumbles twice inside the Raider five yard line and eventually lost the game, 14-0. Nonetheless, John Cerza played a standout game on defense for Belleville and earned MVP honors.

1988: A powerful Nutley team ventured to Belleville and prevailed 38-13. Nutley went all the way to the Group III, Section II title game before losing a controversial game to Randolph. The Raiders finished 9-1-1 that season. For Belleville, Nick Turano gained MVP honors. He returned a second half kickoff for a touchdown, cutting Nutley's lead at the time to 22-13.

1989: On a very cold day at the Oval, Belleville and Nutley played three quarters of scoreless football. Midway through the fourth quarter, the Raiders scored the only TD of the game and won, 6-0. Rul Andre was named MVP of the game for Belleville. 1990: Belleville ended a three year losing streak to Nutley by winning a 21-6 decision at Doc Ellis Field. Billy Salvatore scored Belleville's first TD, recovering a blocked punt and returning it for a score. Belleville put the game away with a 14 minute, 92 yard drive that bridged the third and fourth quarters. Carmen Spina was named MVP for the Bucs.

And now, another chapter in this long and storied rivalry will be written this Saturday afternoon. Nutley comes in with a 6-2 record and Belleville is 4-4, needing a victory for the second straight year to clinch a winning campaign. Needless to say, there will be plenty of incentive on both sides of the field.

Belleville evens mark, beats Don Bosco

Bucs, Raiders meet Saturday

By Mike Lamberti

For the second straight season, the Belleville Bucs will enter its season finale with arch rival Nutley knowing a victory will enable them to finish with a winning campaign. The Bucs assured that scenario by stopping Don Bosco, 26-14 in a league game last Saturday at Ramsey.

The victory was Belleville's third in the last four games, with its only loss in that span a two point loss to Teaneck two weeks ago.

The 4-4 Bucs will travel to Nutley this Saturday at 1 p.m. The game was originally scheduled for Thanksgiving morning, but it has been pushed to this Saturday afternoon because the 6-2 Raiders are headed for the Group III, Section II playoffs.

Last season, the 4-4 Bucs played host to Nutley and came away with a hard fought, 21-6 victory. This season, the Raiders are a much improved team, having turned around a 1-8 campaign in 1990 to a playoff calibre club this season.

"They are a very good football team," Buc head coach John Senesky said of the Maroon Raiders. "They have all the tools, good speed, excellent size, tremendous all around talent. It should be a tremendous high school football team. I know our kids will be looking forward to the game."

Belleville played a steady, grinding game at Don Bosco last Saturday. The Bucs used a strong running game and another powerful defensive effort to record its fourth victory over winless Don Bosco.

"Don Bosco has some good players and they gave us a tough time," Senesky said. "It was one of those games where our kids did what it took to win. I find our team plays better against the teams with better records. This time, we weren't as intense, but we got the job done."

The Bucs scored in the first quarter when defensive lineman Scott Mayers sacked the Don Bosco quarterback, forcing a fumble. Hector Daniluk poked up the loose ball and returned it for a score. The conversion failed and the Bucs led, 6-0.

Belleville increased its lead to 12-0 in the second quarter when quarterback Mike Mundy hit split end John McAloon with a ten yard pass. McAloon had perhaps his best game of the season, catching three passes and intercepting a ball.

Don Bosco cut the deficit to 12-8 midway through the second quarter on an eight yard scoring toss by Pete Harteveld. However, the Buc defense got the Bucs back on stride late in the first half when J.V. Faliveno intercepted a Harteveld pass and returned it to the Don Bosco 33.

Mundy took advantage of the good field position, hitting McAloon with a 14 yard pass to the 19. Running back Mike Kimball picked up ten yards to the nine and Ricky Constantino finished the job, scoring from the one two plays later and increasing the Belleville lead to 18-8. Kimball added the extra point and the Bucs led at halftime, 19-8.

In the third quarter, Belleville took the kickoff and drove 73 yards in 11 plays, highlighted by Constantino's second touchdown, this time from 25 yards out. Kimball added the conversion and the Bucs led 26-8.

Don Bosco scored late in the fourth quarter to narrow the deficit to 26-14, but the Belleville defense kept the game in the comfort zone and the Bucs gained its first road victory of the '91 campaign.

John Alvarado led the defensive attack, intercepting two passes. One of his interceptions was returned for an apparent touchdown in the fourth quarter, but the run was called back because of a clipping penalty. McAloon and Faliveno

Buc running back Mike Kimball gets the handoff from quarterback Mike Mundy and looks for running room. Blocking for Kimball is J.V. Faliveno (66) and Richard Romano (63).

Leaping high above the crowd for a touchdown reception is Belleville split end John McAloon. This catch gave Bucs a 12-0 lead in second quarter. McAloon had a fine day, catching three passes and intercepting one.

Jr. Bucs advance to 'Super Bowl'

Doc Ellis Field will be the site this Saturday afternoon as the Belleville Junior Buc "A" and "B" teams play for the "Super Bowl" championship.

The "A" team earned a trip to the Super Bowl by winning a heartstopping 6-0 contest over Manchester in double overtime. The "B" team took a more conventional approach, blanking Bloomingdale, 25-0. Both games were played last Sunday at Doc Ellis.

The "B" squad will take an 8-0 record into its Super Bowl against Butler. Kickoff time will be approximately 12:30 p.m.

The "A" team (now 7-2) will take on Paterson for the Super Bowl crown at approximately 3 p.m.

"A" team head coach Bill Abrams was emotionally drained after the win over Manchester.

"It was just a tremendous effort," the coach said. "Scoreless ball for four quarters of regulation and one quarter of overtime. It went to the sixth quarter and the ten yard rule."

The ten yard rule is employed if an overtime quarter results in a deadlock. Each team is given a series of four downs at the opponents ten yard line to score.

The Bucs were able to convert when Frank Constanza passed five yards to split end Amir Moses. The Buc defense then wrapped up the victory when Carl Piscatowski made a big tackle, forcing a fumble which Joe Romano recovered.

On defense, Abrams praised his entire squad. The defensive ends are Joe Romano and Tyree Huffin, the tackles are Donnell Graham and Carl Piscatowski, the noseguards are Brian McIntosh and Ryan Brady while Danny Christoforatos plays defensive guard.

The linebacker corps features Ben Swengle, Rob Caputo and Robert Romano. The safeties are Ram Parekh, Damon Placentino and Damon Battle.

On offense, Tyrone Fitts led the way, rushing for 65 yards on ten carries.

The Bucs will have a big battle with powerful Paterson this Saturday. Earlier this year, Belleville lost a 24-8 decision to Paterson.

"We played a poor first half in that game and we trailed 24-0 at halftime," recalled Abrams. "We played a much better second half but we had too much catching up to do. We'll have our hands full, they're a tremendous team."

Abrams also had praise for Manchester.

"They played a fine game, it was a tough game for any team to lose. I felt our kids got stronger as the game went on."

In the "B" game, the Bucs used a strong running game to improve its season record to 8-0-1. In the first quarter, Bob Carsella ran 45 yards for Belleville's first score. Later in the first quarter, Mike Abidelli gave the Bucs a 12-0 advantage when he scored on a 50 yard run.

In the second quarter, quarterback Rich DeFalco increased Belleville's lead to 18-0 on a five yard keeper. The Bucs went into halftime with an 18-0 advantage.

The scored stayed that way until the fourth quarter, when Al Fusco, normally a nose guard, used his talents at running back and ran 60 yards for the final Belleville touchdown. DeFalco ran for the extra point and Belleville led, 25-0.

It was Belleville's fifth shutout of the year. Head coach Joe DeRiggi credited his defense with a fine performance.

"The kids did everything we asked of them," the coach said. "We wanted a chance to play in the Super Bowl and now we've got it."

Defensively, Anthony Albanese, Greg Sheridan, Justin Mohren, Ken Spera and Anthony Mongelli excelled.

NOTES: DeRiggi announced that the Junior Buc football program will be honored at the Branch Brook Manor tomorrow evening at 5:30 p.m. There will be an award ceremony for all three Junior Buc squads.

Soccer team falls to WMC 3-2, despite two goals by Groeling

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville soccer team was defeated by West Morris Central in the semi finals of the Group III, Section II playoffs, 3-2. The defeat closes the books on a marvelous campaign for the Bucs, who finished 14-4-1 on the season.

Belleville fell behind 2-0 in the first half, but Greg Groeling's goal got the Bucs on the board late in the first half. Groeling was assisted by Giuseppe Manella.

In the second half, West Morris Central went ahead 3-1, but Groeling scored his second goal of the game off an assist from Frank Crocetto to narrow the deficit to 3-2.

"We had some chances, but we weren't able to convert," head coach Gino DePinto said. "Our kids played very well. It was a very good effort against a very strong team. West Morris Central was the biggest team we faced all year long. Most of their guys were 6'1" or 6'2" tall."

We'll have a wrap up on the tremendous '91 campaign in an upcoming issue.

Bucs defeat Don Bosco 26-14, Faliveno excels

also had interceptions.
"Hector's (Danluk) score in the first quarter was very important for us," Senesky said. "J.V. had another solid game, as did Michael Kimball, who has played well all season long."

"Our running game was also good. John (Alvarado) is picking up pretty well on the running back position and Ricky and Michael ran well."

And now, it comes down to the annual battle with Nutley. This game promises to be an epic battle between two very proud combatants.

NOTES: Bucs and Raiders have had a streaky rivalry. From 1978-83, Belleville won by scores of 31-0, 7-0, 13-7, 26-0, 10-3 and 12-6. In '84, Nutley turned it around with a 20-6 win. The Raiders also won in '85, 14-0. The Bucs came back to win in '86, 27-16. Nutley then prevailed from '87-89 by scores of 14-0, 38-13 and 6-0. As mentioned, Belleville won last year, 21-6.

Bucs haven't won at Nutley since the '83 season won on opening day, 12-6. For that matter, Bucs haven't scored a point at Nutley since that '83 contest. Nutley defeated Teaneck last Saturday and the Raiders should be the top seed in the Group III, Section II playoffs. Nutley made the playoffs in '83, '88 and '89 prior to this years success.

Belleville is 2-4 in Pacific Division of NJJHL, 2-0 outside the division. Buc defense recorded six sacks in Don Bosco victory.

Punter John Alvarado gets ready to kick ball as Don Bosco defender applies pressure. Alvarado had another solid day, intercepting two passes on defense and running well out of the offensive backfield.

Kicking the first of two point after attempts is senior Mike Kimball. The holder is Billy Prospero. Kimball has been having a fine all around season for Bucs.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The Bengals won a playoff game last year but did not advance to the Super Bowl. Cincinnati beat Houston, 40-14 in the first round of the playoffs, then lost at Los Angeles in the next round. The Bengals beat San Diego in the 1981 AFC title game, 27-7 and defeated Buffalo in the '88 AFC title game, 21-13.

FOR THIS WEEK

The Green Bay Packers have a long and storied history in the NFL. However, the Packers haven't been too impressive over the past 20 years. When was the last time Green Bay won a playoff game? Who coached the Packers that year? How far did Green Bay advance in the playoffs that season?

DAVE GRANT

I was at the Philadelphia Eagle-Cincinnati Bengal game last Sunday at Veterans Stadium. (Being a football nut, I have season tickets for the Eagles). Anyway, the Bengals are in the midst of a bad season, but our own Dave Grant, now a starter for Cincinnati, is having a pretty good season. Grant, now a lineman for Cincinnati, played a good game against Philly. He is also one of the biggest players on the Bengal roster, standing 6'5" and weighing about 285 pounds. Grant is now in his fourth season in the NFL and is developing into a very good NFL player.

PHIL CUZZI

While I'm on the subject of Belleville athletes who have done well, I had the chance to speak with Phil Cuzzi the other day. Phil is a professional umpire who last season got the chance to umpire on the major league level. Cuzzi is hoping for more major league experience this season. With expansion coming up in 1993, Cuzzi hopes to have a full time major league umpiring position very soon.

We'll have more on Grant and Cuzzi in upcoming issues.

WISHES REALLY DO COME TRUE!

A dream... a secret, a hoped-for wish... that is the essence and wonder of childhood.

Most children have a lifetime ahead to experience again and again the joy that having a wish come true can bring. But for the child with a tragic, life-threatening illness, a dream come true is a very special miracle.

This year, you will play an important role in helping a child's wish come true. When you open a Holiday Club at First DeWitt Savings we will make a $2.00 donation to the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

The work of the Make-A-Wish Foundation is made possible through concern and support of people like you. So this year instead of receiving a gift for opening a Holiday Club, you can give a gift—the gift of making a child's wish come true.

Simple, Low-Cost Home Energy Saving Measures

Some actions you take to protect the environment—recycling, driving the car less often, choosing and using environmentally safe products—require a change in lifestyle. The following home energy-saving techniques help the environment too, but they are simple, inexpensive, and can lower your heating, cooling, and water heating bills every month, without changing your lifestyle.

Insulating Doors And Windows. Start with your home's biggest energy wasters—the windows and exterior doors. More heating and cooling dollars escape through these—per square inch—than through any other part of your home. For instance, heat passes through a window with a single pane of glass 14 times faster than through a well-insulated wall. So even if you have properly insulated your home, you still can be wasting money and energy.

Storm windows or installing double-pane windows stop this energy drain. This extra layer of glass creates a valuable insulating air space between the glass panes. Adding a storm door will create the same insulation effect between the doors.

Caulking And Weatherstripping. After insulating your windows and doors, don't overlook their caulking and weatherstripping needs. Caulking, a rubber-like material that expands and contracts, seals air leaks around each pane of window glass, and between the actual frames of doors and windows and the house.

Weatherstripping is a flexible material (foam, rubber, felt, or aluminum) that helps to assure a snug fit between the parts of windows and doors that open and close. Weatherstripping must be placed around the sides, top, and bottom of doors, and along the sides and bottoms of windows. This keeps outside air out, and inside air in.

These simple measures can save a surprising amount of money and energy. Almost 40 percent of your monthly heating and cooling bill could be going through cracks due to poorly caulked and weatherstripped doors and windows. Caulking and weatherstripping is cheap, and the materials are easy to find at almost any hardware store.

Water Heating

In the average American home, water heating is the second largest energy user. Save water and the energy needed to keep it hot by maintaining an energy-efficient water heating system and conserving hot water.

Start with the water heating tank itself.

- Keeping more hot water on hand than you need can waste energy.
- For every 10°F you can lower the temperature, you can save about 6 percent of your water heating energy.
- If the sides of your water heater feel warm to the touch, you may need more insulation. Wrap a water-heater blanket around the water heater, especially if the water heater is located in an unheated area of your home.
- In addition to insulating the water heater, you will also save money by insulating the hot water pipes leaving the water heater.

Low-flow shower heads and faucet aerators reduce water flow, saving both water and energy. Aerated showerheads and faucets mix air with water to maintain pressure, and low-flow showerheads pulse the water flow.

These simple devices are easily installed, and can reduce the amount of water and energy used by 50 percent.

Thermostat Set-Back

A set-back thermostat allows you to change the temperature setting, or turn off your heating or cooling system, at preset times. Each morning when you leave, and each evening when you return, the temperature changes to save energy automatically. Heating or cooling is done only when someone is home.

Timers can also be installed on electric water heaters to limit night time heating of the storage tank.

The Home Front

By Nina Kaeser

Many communities place restrictive covenants on what owners may and may not do with their property, sometimes forbidding laundry lines, trailer parking or TV antennas. Courts find covenants legal, as long as they are carefully written and enforcement is fair.

If a family member is allergic, it's wise to avoid upholstered pieces and carpeting that hold dust. But attractive curtains in easy-to-wash fabrics are fine, and bright-colored paint on furnishings will keep a room looking cheerful.

Because the voltage used in doorbells is so low, most people can make repairs with the power on, which is easier for testing. But anyone with a pacemaker should not handle any live electrical components.

How much is peace of mind worth? More home buyers are willing to pay the premiums for home warranty protection to cover all mechanical systems and appliances against breakdowns. In many cases, sellers buy the protection as a sales incentive.

How much does it cost for expert marketing of your home-for-sale? Most owners come out ahead when they list at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Avenue, Nutley, Call 235-9000.

Fiber Glass Roofing Shingles Offer Fire Safety And Beauty

UL Class A fire-resistant fiber glass Woodlands® Signature Series shingles from Manville simulate the rustic, textured look of hand-split shakes, and carry limited warranties of up to 40 years.

Over the past several years, safety-conscious homeowners have made fiber glass shingles the standard for re-roofing as well as new construction. These shingles carry the highest UL fire-resistance rating, Class A. By comparison, untreated wood shakes burn so readily that they fail to earn even the lowest rating, the Class C test.

There are some new fiber glass shingles that combine these fire-resistant properties with the beauty of wood shakes. Produced by Manville and called Woodlands® Signature Series, they are bold-textured, with a random architectural look that creates defined shadow lines, simulating the rustic appearance of hand-split shakes.

Because of their durable laminated fiber glass construction, these shingles offer limited warranties of up to 40 years, which are among the longest available.

The shingles cost considerably less than wood shakes, and are less expensive to install. They come in a choice of fashion earth-tone colors, including black, slate, brown and shakewood.

You can obtain more information from your building supply dealer, or write for free color catalog sheets, No. RF-722-726, to Manville Inquiry Dept., 1601 Park Avenue West, Denver, CO 80216.
