Aside From That

By Howard Klausner

Joe Conte is a proud citizen of Silver Lake as well as a Toll Collector for the Garden State Parkway at the Essex Plaza. He didn't get into the news very much until a group called New Jersey Citizen Action began quoting him in press releases as a supporter of the New Jersey Citizen Action Oil Group, which is a kind of oil-buying cooperative. "I'm amazed and baffled that more people haven't switched to NJCAOG to save so much money per gallon," is part of the quote. "Not only do you get oil at a discounted price but you get the consumer minded staff as a third party to assist and advise you on any problems that may arise." ●●●●● Mr. Conte reports that he may not have used precisely those words, but he does endorse the organization. "They're okay. I don't know what they save me because my wife pays the bills, but they are good. They come around every month and check the oil and they let me know when I need it. I like the service." His previous experience with oil dealers was spotty. "I had these wackos. But finally I got referred to this outfit." Fuel supply has been only one of his problems over the years. "For 30 years I've been trying to keep the water out of my basement. I finally had to build a wall in front of my house. This new sewer project didn't do a thing for me." ●●●●● Flooding problems do not lessen his liking for Silver Lake. "These people are real neighbors. This is a real neighborhood!" he said. After Army service he worked for a brother-in-law in the venetian blind business and then went to work for the Veteran Uniform Co. which supplied laundered clothing to many businesses. Things were great for 27 years until the business was sold and he lost his job. "I was 57. Six years ago I got this job, and, boy, was I lucky to get it!" As might be suspected, he has his problems. "You get this guy driving a Mercedes and hands me a quarter with a penny underneath. It happens." Conte is a firm believer in honesty, himself. He has a brother who is a detective in the Newark Homicide Division. "Boy, what he has to endure!" Conte said. "But we never talk about it." He has two daughters and a son who is an ex-Marine. "It's a tough economy out there, and he's looking," Conte said. Wife Dolores is behind the deli counter of a Lyndhurst supermarket - "So I cook the potatoes". And so life goes in Silver Lake. ●●●●● As if Town Manager Bert Kendall doesn't have enough disputes to handle, he is currently spending a few hours acting as an arbitrator in a Bloomfield Fire Department hearing. A fireman and a superior officer were involved in an altercation, and Kendall is conducting the hearings on the matter, deciding who slugged whom, and when, and why. Then he can get back to the quiet and peace of a Belleville public hearing. ●●●●● We lied when we reported that the Friends of Mario Drozd were holding a cocktail party and testimonial for the doughty Councilman on Dec. 7. Chairman Sam Papa says the event is on Dec. 8. For confirmation of all this, telephone Mr. Papa at (201) 429-1777. The party will be at the Chandelier restaurant, itself a reason to attend. ●●●●● When people gather on Dec. 18 at the steps of the Municipal Building to hear a concert of Christmas music, they will have to thank the good works of Maria Messina, wife of Councilman Jim Messina. She heard from a friend that the Seton Hall Madrigal Singers had performed for His Holiness, Pope John Paul II under the direction of Professor Jeanette Hille and she thought it would be nice to bring their music to Belleville. At the same time, Mrs. Messina recruited the services of the Chorus of Communities which is sponsored by the Belleville Ministerium. The chorus is led by William Moore, husband of the Rev. Nancy Moore, Minister of Bethany Lutheran Church. It promises to be a performance of concert stage quality, a Christmas gift to the whole community.

"A Father's Place" is a wonderful collection of writings that have special meaning to anyone who has lived, or grown up, in Belleville, as author Anthony Buccino has. He will be autographing copies of the book on Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Belleville Public Library from 2 to 5 p.m. It will be a good opportunity to compare notes with Buccino on our lives and times. ●●●●● Talk about mighty oaks! Jim Fusaro joined the Shade Tree Department in September of 1949. Now holding the title of Superintendent, he has announced his plans for retirement in the near future. That's 42 years of protecting the deciduous and the coniferous alike from the ravages of the Motor Age. The Fusaro name will continue in the department, with brother Anthony and Anthony's son, Mark, keeping up the good work.

Sports Authority sources say car hit attendant first

Doctor reports assault at Byrne Arena; says parking lot attendants attacked him

Dr. James Orsini, a prominent Belleville physician who heads the Oncology Department of Clara Maass Medical Center and serves as physician to the Belleville Police Department, confirmed a report that he had been assaulted by parking lot attendants at the Brendan Byrne Arena two weeks ago.

Dr. Orsini declined to give any further details.

His attorney, Frank Pomaco, whose clients include the Belleville Board of Education, said that a decision would be made as to filing a lawsuit or pressing charges. He said that Dr. Orsini, a man of medium build in his 40s, had sustained bruises and contusions, and that the doctor's family had accompanied him to the arena to watch a Nets basketball game.

Employees at the Sports Complex said that the incident began when Dr. Orsini's car knocked down an attendant.

Words were reportedly exchanged, and physical contact with the physician came when an attendant "tried to restrain him" according to sources at the Sports Complex.

During the exchange of words, Dr. Orsini reportedly described himself as a member of the Racing Commission.

Inquiries to the commission did not bring any information to confirm any connection by the doctor.

Chairman Peter Levine of the Sports and Exposition Authority expressed shock at the report, and disbelief that employees of the Authority would have been involved.

"It is such a sensitive area that if anyone even falls down in the parking lot, it gets reported," Levine said.

He noted that since March 1, the Authority had begun its own policing operation, eliminating the Burns Agency which was involved in a series of incidents in which motorists reported assaults by parking attendants. In one case, that of Adam Katz, the visitor to the Sports Complex died in a fall from a ramp which authorities claimed was accidental. His family has been seeking eyewitness to the event to challenge the ruling of accidental death.

Levine said he would conduct his own inquiry into the situation.

The Authority uses some 500 workers, most of them part-timers, to provide security during major events.

Inquiries to East Rutherford police showed that no charges or reports had been filed there. Any assault case would first be heard in Municipal Court in East Rutherford.

East Rutherford police do not have jurisdiction within the Sports Complex area. State Police based at the Totowa Barracks have a unit stationed there, but security is in the hands of the Sports and Exposition Authority.

The Kiwanis Club of Belleville presented 17 Thanksgiving food baskets to 17 needy families. The baskets were packed with food from soup to nuts, including a 12-pound turkey. The Kiwanis have been delivering baskets for the past 15 years. The effort was a joint effort with the help of Steve Prosa, manager of Pathmark Supermarket on Washington Avenue, Belleville. Shown from left are: Steve Prosa, Buckey Cairo, Eugene Reilly, Vincent Sorrentino, John Iannuzzi, Nino Bucciarelli and Mike Masaro.

Santa Claus arrives Saturday!

Through the good offices of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, and a special assist from Councilman Tom Spillane, Santa Claus will make his official visit to Belleville this Saturday.

His Estimated Time of Arrival from his North Pole Workshop is noon.

The Chamber advises that this may be affected by snow and redeemer traffic.

Santa will first pay his respects to the citizens of all ages at the Town Hall steps.

Then he will be escorted by Chamber President Rita Troise and other dignitaries across the street to the Chamber office at 155A Washington Ave.

There will be free balloons to brighten the day with their colors.

There will be free candy canes to sweeten the event.

There will be many other free gifts bestowed on the children, and all are invited to have their photographs taken with Santa Claus, at no charge.

Santa's visit is an annual event arranged by the Chamber as a gift to the community, part of the service to the town provided by this organization of business and professional people.

Spillane has been very close to Santa Claus on each of these visits, and he predicts the merriest visit by the old fellow, yet.

Chamber cites Times, Senators for recognition

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce has issued its 1992 calendar showing historical photos of the Belleville of the past century.

In an introductory statement by Chamber President Rita Troise, note is taken of the Belleville Times' efforts to have Belleville recognized as the Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution.

"The Belleville Chamber of Commerce brings you this calendar to celebrate an important milestone...Belleville's designation as The Birthplace of the Industrial Revolution.

"In 1991 the New Jersey State Senate approved a resolution which designated Belleville as The Birthplace of the (American)

Industrial Revolution. This action was preceded by the hard work of Howard Klausner, Editor of the Belleville Times.

"The special designation had the strong backing of State Senators Carmen A. Orechio and Gabriel Ambrosio.

"Such a motto for Belleville should serve our town and its business environment well."

David Bryant, Director of the Public Library and a Chamber member, said that the decision to issue the new calendar was made as a result of the new designation for the town. The previous calendar was issued in 1989.

The calendar, printed on fine coated paper, is available at $5 per copy at the Library, at the Chamber office, 155A Washington Ave. and at the Clara Maass Medical Center Gift Shop. Proceeds go to various Chamber functions, including the providing of scholarships.

Mrs. Troise noted that the Chamber works to make the town's business climate strong "that every enterprise located here will prosper."

Bruno asks $40,000 fee

John Bruno Associates says its request for a $40,000 annual retainer to act as grantsman for Belleville is "non-negotiable."

John Bruno, President of the firm, said he had told the Township Council that his firm had brought over $600,000 in funding to the town, at a fee of $26,000.

"We had originally asked for $33,000," Bruno told the Times, "and we had accepted a $7,000 reduction as a tryout. So the $40,000 fee is only $7,000 more than we had originally asked."

Bruno's position brought support from Councilman Mario Drozd who said that he felt that Bruno Associates was responsible for "less than half of the amount, but is still worth it. If you pay somebody $30,000 and he brings in five or six times that amount, he's worth it."

Councilman Dr. Frank Noonan said he opposed hiring Bruno Associates again.

"We have other officials we are paying who could do the same job," Dr. Noonan said.

Bruno said that Frank Brooks, an associate of the firm, spent more than 40 hours a week in Belleville.

A major program for which Bruno took credit was the $250,000 grant over a three year period for residential and commercial improvements for the Silver Lake neighborhood.

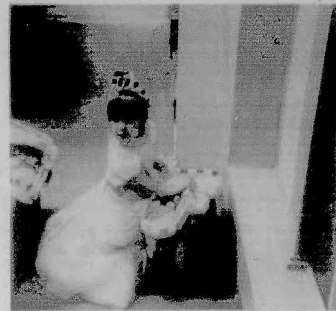

THE DUGOUT BUILDERS - Starting at 8 a.m. and finishing by noon, the day after Thanksgiving, this contingent of volunteers built two dugouts for the Belleville High School baseball field. Belleville Kiwanis donated the cement blocks, JMP Associates (Jim Messina and Michael Hebda) and C-Rock Construction (Charles Ceram) provided other materials. Township workers dug the footings and poured the concrete slabs. The Board of Education's Electrical Department ran the power lines to the third base dugout. Shown, kneeling from left are Jim Landon, Councilman Jim Messina and James Napolitano. Standing, from left, are Michael Hebda, Chipper Greco, Bruce Morgan, Councilman Frank Caputo, Charles Chiricello, Michael Chiricello, Jim Messina, Sr. and former Mayor Michael Marotti. Cooks promises toxic site cleanup

Deputy Mayor William Cook has informed the "Belleville Times" that the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection and Energy has notified him that the clean-up of the Research Organic/Inorganic site on Main Street, Belleville, is imminent.

"I have been in constant contact with the State Director of DEPE for the last 18 months in an effort to expedite the clean-up of this facility, and recent information from the department indicates that the project will begin very shortly," Cook said.

The Research Organic/Inorganic property was alleged to have caused adverse environmental impact to the area in 1983, by illegally storing and discharging hazardous chemicals. At that time, the State of New Jersey performed a preliminary clean-up to render the area safe from spreading the contamination, and ordered the building closed.

However, the final site mitigation work has been delayed for several years. Cook, since being elected to the Belleville Township Council in 1990, has been lobbying on the state level to complete the clean-up.

"I have not yet been informed of the cost for the final phase of the project. I am sure it is well in excess of one million dollars. This will be funded by the state as a result of legislation passed back in 1983," Cook said.

"Aside from the possible environmental problem, the incident has had significant financial impact on the Township. Taxes on the property are several years in arrears and Belleville is required to pay County Tax on the property, while receiving nothing in return.

We are talking about a substantial dollar amount, about $225,000," he said.

According to Cook, the contractor for the final clean-up phase has been selected and the DEPE and the contractor are working out the final details and arrangements. Cook also stated that his main consideration is to alleviate the concerns of the citizens in the Valley area of the Fourth Ward. Depending on the final disposition of the property, now pending in a legal case, Cook noted that the Township could hope to have the tract back on the tax rolls some time in 1992.

"The formal schedule and announcement from the DEPE should be available within the next few weeks," Cook said.

Oil dealers fight gas campaign

New Jersey Citizen Action (NJCA), the state's largest consumer organization warned New Jersey home heating oil users against being wooed too easily by the natural gas industry. "New Jersey homeowners have been made the target in the war being waged between the natural gas and oil industries," said Carlton Levine, Energy Spokesperson for New Jersey Citizen Action. "Our aim, as a consumer organization, is to provide New Jerseyans with some cold hard facts to assist them in making an educated decision."

Many residents of Essex County have found a way to save on home heating costs without the large investment of converting from oil to gas. They have joined the New Jersey Citizen Action Oil Group, a project of NJCA.

OUR OPINION

We're part of history

An article in the December 3 issue of The Star Ledger discusses a treasure trove of memorabilia found in an old school safe, taken from Barringer High School.

The article, by William Gordon, quotes teacher Sal Di Gerlando as describing the recorded activities of students 150 years ago. "Often the kids would go on science trips in and around the city with their teacher who would be called professor in those days. "One account told of a trip to the copper mines of Belleville."

These writings, dating back to the decade before the American Civil War, shed new light on the vigorous life of the people of the time. They also add to the recognition of Belleville's own role in history.

The copper mines of Belleville helped sheathe the bottoms of the Union Navy's warships, courtesy of the Hendricks Mill of Belleville.

Copper wire made at the Stephens Mill was used by Samuel F. B. Morse to send his first telegraph message from Belleville to Washington, D.C.

It was the existence of these copper mines that brought Josiah Hornblower here in 1753 with the first steam engine to function in the Western Hemisphere. Its role was to pump water from the Belleville copper mines.

The discovery of copper was made in 1715 by a black man, a servant of the Schuyler family which pioneered the copper mining industry in America.

We thank the Belleville Chamber of Commerce for crediting the Times with the effort to have the New Jersey State Senate recognize Belleville as the Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

We agree with the Chamber that the recognition was an important milestone for Belleville.

We also think the credit goes in good part to Joe Hatch, a direct descendant of Josiah Hornblower, and the good people of the Belleville Historical Society, who have all worked to keep alive the history that we have ignored too long.

Has time changed Japan?

The first time that American forces encountered a Japanese civilian population of any size was during the invasion of Saipan. It was a horrifying experience.

Brainwashed by propaganda about the fate that would await them at the hands of the Americans, mothers dragged their children to the tops of cliffs and threw them into the sea, leaping to their own deaths immediately after. Americans could only watch helplessly.

The question could be raised as to who was responsible for those needless deaths — the invaders, or the society that had lied to the victims.

To today's Japanese, do those mothers appear as heroines, or as victims?

In the years following the Japanese surrender, there were dozens of instances where hold-out soldiers and sailors were still showing their loyalty to the Emperor by coming out of jungle or island hideaways and slaying innocent people. They were still fighting the war the way they had been trained to do it.

In every case, they were welcomed home as heroes by the Japanese public, rather than as the dupes they were.

If anyone in Japan cared to pronounce them to be victims of the old regime, they were not given much publicity. A mayor of a city that was a target of the atomic bomb was seriously wounded by a would-be assassin when he suggested that Japan was also responsible for Nagasaki and Hiroshima.

More than 200 residents of Belleville who had no quarrel with Japan or Germany went to their deaths in the war that followed the attack on Pearl Harbor. There was no reason to plunge the world into war, but the Axis did it, and the grief has been unending ever since.

We agree that the legacy of Pearl Harbor should not be hatred. But there should be recognition by both Japan and the United States of the enormity of the act of aggression that was committed, and its cost in innocent lives.

America has never been the same, since Pearl Harbor. Can we hope that Japan has also changed?

YOUR OPINION

Sunshine Law issue

To the editor:

On Nov. 14, Vincent Nuzzi, Esq., our town attorney, was advised by the State of New Jersey's Public Advocate, to inform the Belleville Town Council that the Sept. 24 and the Oct. 22 public town meetings were held in violation of the Public Open Meetings Act (The "sunshine law"). New Jersey statutes require that all ordinances or public notices be published. N.J.S.A. 40:53-1 "vests in the governing body the authority to designate an official newspaper for publication of all advertisements and notices required by law to be published by the municipality." They must be published and circulated in the municipality. The Belleville Times is the "officially designated" newspaper. Both meetings, as well as the salary ordinances were "advertised" in the North Jersey Herald News, a newspaper published and circulated in Passaic County, (circulation in Belleville only 280 copies). In addition the Public Advocate cites N.J. 10:4-6 which requires "to provide suitable accommodations to permit interested members of the public to witness the deliberations of their local government and to preserve the public confidence."

Some 20 citizens were "locked out" of the Sept. 24 meeting, and approximately 50 citizens were prevented to attend the Oct. 22 meeting! N.J.S.A. 10:4-7 states that "the Legislature specifically declared that it is the State's public policy to insure that the citizens have the right to attend all meetings of public bodies at which any interest affecting the public is discussed." Since the meetings dealt with salary ordinances, some of them granting raises in excess of 10% for selected employees, Belleville's taxpayers were very much interested in expressing their opinion!

All of the above statutes are worded in easy to understand language (meaning not in "legalese"). They spell out what is the law, enacted to protect the interests of the citizens.

In the letter to Mr. Nuzzi, our town attorney, paid, I should expect "to protect the citizen's interests and rights," the Public Advocate requests that the council void its vote on the salary ordinances and schedule a public meeting to re-do its deliberations and vote on the ordinances in an appropriately large meeting room!

It is my personal opinion, based on the dictatorial behavior and conduct of the Mayor, Marina "your time is up" Perna and her Council, they will collectively tell us all "to go to hell, on the advice of their legal "shepherd" Vincent "the Judge" Nuzzi (he hands down opinions without a basis) and to exercise our right to file a law suit as provided for our protection by N.J.S.A. 10:4-15. Taking on the Public Advocate's advice to do this will cost the Concerned Citizens of Belleville organization several thousand dollars. In addition, all of us, as taxpayers will foot the bill for the defense of the "perpetrators"! There is no doubt the rights of the taxpayers have been grossly violated (and not by a mere error!) I also have no doubt in my mind, with the ordinances voided, re-scheduled for hearing etc. etc. the "New Form of Government" will ram the salary increases (obscene as they are) through again.

Coming to the town meetings, I have learned the town administration will award "golden parachutes" granting an additional 5 years of service upon retirement, to enhance the pension. The town manager was allowed to hire a part-time coordinator from his old "bailiwick" Ridgewood for the Silver Lake grant, effectively reducing the grant from $90,000 to $73,000. In addition, we will foot the bill for his health benefits, about $7,000 premium, his vacation days, etc. It's enough to make you throw up! Unidentified employees apparently can order and charge to the town such items as the recent purchase of a Jeep Cherokee (about $15,000) for the personal use of the Town Director of Public Works.

More citizens must come to the public meetings! If no citizens attend, no one will ever learn of what is going on. You will not be told, that's for sure!

Judge doesn't care

To the editor:

In the past few months, the moving of the Essex County courts has been too demanding by Judge Humphrey.

The cost of about $13 million to the taxpayers of Essex County should be noted to the Judge who lives in Passaic County.

The cost of $13 million will be for the leasing of other buildings and renovations of the old courthouse.

I believe all the above cost could be saved to the amount of 30 percent if all the municipal court cases are moved back to the towns from which they first came from.

Almost every municipal court is operated only one or two days a week. Most of the people involved in these cases are from these same towns, including the witnesses. Instead of traveling to the Essex County courts, the people involved can go to their local town courts.

The personnel from the county, jurors and the judges of each case will be more comfortable and with less expense to them.

We are talking about 20 municipal executive courtrooms, four days per week. That can relieve the Essex County taxpayer of almost a million dollars, until the old court building is renovated for about $8½ million.

This money is going to be paid by us the taxpayer of Essex, not Judge Humphreys, who lives in Passaic County.

I have to agree with our County Executive, Tom D'Alessio, and the county employees. This judge should be involved with judicial decisions which he knows, not building management or construction.

Our Freeholders, through themselves and the State should stop Judge Humphreys now with a court order and try looking into new ways of saving the taxpayer the cost of this dreadful expense, recommended by this man.

Please look into my suggestion. Thank you.

Former Commissioner of Belleville

• WATER — WATER — WATER

— the 1992 budget for the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission's Wanque South Project shows an increase over 1991 of .5 percent. If you take into account the refund checks the communities are receiving, the following are the results: Nutley, increased cost projected for 1992 is $4,709. The refund to Nutley is $92,148. Bloomfield, the increase projected for 1992 is $33,956. The refund is $98,877. Since Bloomfield is a partner of the Wanque North and Wanque South systems, it will receive a net refund of $64,921. If the Belleville Town Commission of the late 70's had the foresight that the Nutley and Bloomfield officials manifested at that time, it would not have to be buying water from Newark. When you buy water from a water purveyor, it is "water down the drain." When you take water from a system in which you have an equity interest, the cost of water includes the payment of mortgage. In 20 years, the cost of water to Nutley and Bloomfield will be cheaper than it is today.

• THE report of New York City is that there are 34,000 people who have been infected with Aids, and 24,000 have already died from the disease. In a city of several million people where promiscuity seems to be the order of the day, 54,000 persons may not seem much, but it is an alarming statistic and suggests an Aids epidemic has taken over New York City. Girls and boys, if you're looking for safe sex, obviously, New York City is not the place to visit.

• AT a recent dinner honoring Essex County Public Safety Director James Critchley, conferring in a corner that observers perceived as an anti-Ray Durkin meeting, were County Executive Tom D'Alessio, Newark Mayor Sharpe James and Freeholder Tom Giblin. Essex County Courthouse sources suggest the meeting was to discuss a possible takeover of the Essex County Democrat organization by the troika with Freeholder Tom Giblin as the front man.

I only know good things about Tom Giblin whose father was a former New Jersey state senator. At one point Giblin's ultimate hope was to follow in his father's footsteps. Redistricting makes it almost impossible for Giblin, a Montclair resident, to become a state senator. The new district is represented by veteran Senator Dick Codey, Essex County Chairman Ray Durkin's cousin. Probably, the greatest stumbling block to Giblin is the fact that in 1992, it may well be that the Democrat organization candidate most likely will be black from one of the Oranges or Montclair.

But — the conspiracy to dump Durkin continues — and all will fail. Durkin will vacate the office when he is ready; and powerful though Giblin, James and D'Alessio may be, they face an insurmountable task to dump Durkin. The only thing Durkin has done is to make the party strong. Durkin is responsible for the political fortunes of Giblin and D'Alessio — and yes — he has even helped Sharpe James in the City of Newark. Mayor James already is confronted with a stable of opponents ready to challenge his upcoming reelection bid.

• FORMER Essex County Executive Nick Amato seems to enjoy his new title as Executive Director of the Casino Reinvestment Commission — a job that Essex County Chairman Ray Durkin arranged. For one year, Durkin has attempted to place Amato in several positions. He never gave up. Durkin's persistence finally paid off. With dogged determination, Durkin — with no promises to keep — persisted in finding an acceptable executive position for the much deserving Amato.

Some people may forget, but it's well to remember that Ray Durkin persuaded Amato to step aside as Essex County Executive to permit the then Sheriff Tom D'Alessio, to obtain the Democrat nomination for Essex County Executive without a Primary fight. The significance of that move is to be found in the fact that D'Alessio won the county by only 16,000 votes — down from the 100,000 majority he won by when he last ran for Sheriff. The voters knew something about D'Alessio that some among us never found out until after he was elected Essex County Executive.

Not only is D'Alessio satisfied with taking on Essex County Democrat

Chairman Ray Durkin, but he is in a running fight with Essex County Superior Court Assignment Judge Burrell Ives Humphreys. D'Alessio refuses to go forward with the judicial space requirements as outlined by Assignment Judge Humphreys. D'Alessio says he was "outraged by Humphrey's lack of respect or empathy for the overburdened taxpayers of Essex County." We read in the daily newspaper days later that D'Alessio was asking for a $11,000 raise! No respect for the overburdened taxpayer?

The D'Alessio raise request raised the eyebrows of many political leaders who couldn't understand the D'Alessio double standard — wanting to reject Judge Humphreys' request for courtroom space because taxpayers were overburdened, but yet at almost the same moment, having his hand out asking for a $11,000 raise.

Some people think D'Alessio is overpaid as it is. His job costs Essex County taxpayers $100,000 a year — and D'Alessio repeatedly ignores court orders — and this from a man who has been a long-time law enforcement officer.

D'Alessio is most insulting when he accuses Judge Humphreys of "choosing to spend our Essex County dollars as he sees fit." It's as if Judge Humphreys has no respect for the Essex County taxpayer. Come on, Tom — you know better. Stop playing politics with the courts. The political game stops where the courthouse steps start.

• SATURDAY is a day none of us who lived through December 7, 1941 will ever forget — the sneak bombing of Pearl Harbor by the Japs. The significance of what happened that day at Pearl Harbor should always be remembered by Americans. It is not a national holiday — and it shouldn't be — for me December 7, 1941 was one of the saddest days of my life. What happened at Pearl Harbor that day was outright murder. It was — and is — a day of infamy. I'm one who doesn't want to repeal history — or rewrite it.

The tour was arranged by Deputy Mayor Bill Cook. Both he and manager Bertrand Kendall greeted the students and gave the students information on the town's municipal government. They commented that the students asked interesting questions.

Officer Greg McDonald then guided the students through the police department's facilities. This worthwhile field trip was arranged by middle school teacher, Lauren Cooper. It culminated a unit on local government and civil responsibilities.

Other teachers and aides who attended were Diana Kalleher, Renee Simone, and Nancy Adessa.

A winning painter

Only twice has artist Manuel Morales created paintings that were displayed on billboards in support of the NY Giants — both times they went on to become the Super Bowl Champs!

Now Morales has been invited to create a painting in support of the 1992 U.S. Olympic Team. The recently published artwork depicts the sport of baseball carrying an additional honor for Morales since the '92 Summer Games will be the first time that baseball is a Gold Medal Event.

Will this good luck phenomenon continue with the U.S. Olympic Baseball Team, bringing home the gold medal?

Morales will be on hand to autograph official Giants Super Bowl and Olympic posters of his artwork. The signings are scheduled during the months of November and December, at various art galleries in the New York metropolitan area. A collection of the artist's original paintings encompassing a broad range of subject will be on exhibit during the signings.

Currently, 20 uncut press sheets of the official Giants Super Bowl posters, autographed by the players and the artist, have been donated to select charities. The goal of raising $15,000 to $20,000 for this cause has been right on track with sales reaching as high as $1,200 each.

As a professional, Morales has been creating art work for the past 14 years. He combines fluid mixture of color and realistic rendering of images to arrive at a distinctive style which the artist titles as "Abstract Realism." From murals created on vans to book covers, editorial and advertising illustrations, and now internationally recognized fine art paintings, original graphics and reproductions resulting in a career that has encompassed many facets of the art field.

In addition to the anticipated outcome of the '92 Summer Olympic Games, one question remains — will there be a third Giants billboard and, if so, will the results be the same as before? Stay tuned.

For explorers like Stephen Venables and Robert Anderson, a reliable timepiece is more than a convenience;

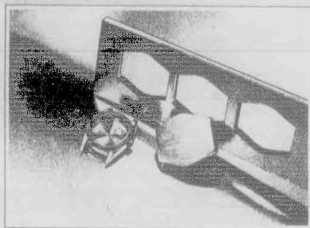

The Twinlock winding crown protects the center movement from the elements.

it's a necessity. Braving the remote heights of Mt. Everest without the aid of bottled oxygen, they needed to time their ascents with extreme caution. Their goal was to reach camp before sunset, when high winds and poor visibility make the mountain even more perilous. The timepiece they depended on was Rolex.

Part of what makes a Rolex Oyster so dependable is the design of its rugged case, which is hewn from a solid block of metal.

It takes over 150 operations just to create an Oyster case.

the Twinlock keeps water and other elements from reaching the movement. On the Submariner and Sea-Dweller diving models, the Twinlock is replaced by a Triplock crown designed to keep the watch pressure-proof to depths of 1,000 and 4,000 feet respectively.

using up to sixty tons of pressure.

To the Oyster case, we add the Twinlock winding crown. Designed according to the same principle as a submarine hatch,

After undergoing a series of grueling tests at Rolex, Oyster timepieces are sent to an independent Swiss Institute, the Contrôle Officiel Suisse des Chronomètres.

There, each watch must successfully undergo fifteen days and nights of rigorous testing before it is awarded the prestigious red seal that signifies it is an Official Swiss Chronometer.

The red seal designates
an Official Swiss Chronometer.

The extraordinary process that goes into making a Rolex helps explain why explorers find it valuable in any environment, from the frozen icescapes of the Arctic to the burning deserts of the Sahara. While there are many things explorers may need, a Rolex timepiece is one thing they can't do without.

Belleville Times SPORTS

BUCS SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

The day after Thanksgiving marks the first day of high school basketball practice in the state of New Jersey. With the regular season set to begin on December 20, there isn't much time for the coaches to get their teams ready.

Belleville boys' basketball coach Don Roll, beginning his sixth year as head coach, has an experienced team returning this winter. The team played well in the second half of the season and most of the players were active in summer leagues and basketball camps during the off season.

"The kids seem pretty enthused," Roll said. "We have some scrimmages this week, which will give me a better idea."

The Bucs open the season on December 20, with a home game against Ridgewood.

The girls' basketball team also figures to show marked improvement in 1991-92. The Lady Bucs, who won five games last winter, are led by coach Karen Fucello, who has over 200 victories in her coaching career.

Belleville will also open the season on December 20. The Lady Bucs will play at Ridgewood.

We'll have coverage of the winter sports teams beginning in next week's issue. The schedules for all the varsity winter sports teams are in this weeks issue.

Over the years, there have been some exciting basketball teams at Belleville High. From 1981-84 and again from '87-89, the girls' basketball teams were very competitive.

It was in the fall of 1980 that Fucello had a talented group of freshman named Jennifer Apicella, Dina DeAquino and Loreli Wells. Most fans know of Apicella's accomplishments at BHS (she still holds the state scoring record with over 3,000 points), but some might not remember the accomplishments of DeAquino and Wells.

Fucello often said that Wells was her best defensive player. Not know for scoring, Wells was assigned the task of covering the opponents most explosive offensive threat.

DeAquino was a fine perimeter shooter who was a clutch performer in key games. She averaged nearly ten points a game during her career.

With those three players, along with other standouts like Barbara Gundry, Carolann Salerno, Marlene Talmadge, Tracy Buono and Donna Brooks, Belleville posted records of 15-7, 17-6, 20-7 and 22-7 from '81 to '84. The '84 team advanced to the county championship game and also the sectional title game.

In '88 and '89, the Lady Bucs had two solid teams that were led by Susanne Edwards and Laurie Dondarski. Both girls scored over 1,000 points in their varsity careers and led Belleville to records of 16-12 and 13-12.

After two rebuilding seasons, the Lady Bucs of '91-92 could be ready to challenge in the very difficult NNJIL Pacific Division.

The boys' basketball team of 1974-75 put together a 13-10 season. Led by coach Danny Grasso and an all American named Abdel Anderson, the Belboys were 8-8 in the very competitive Big 10 conference and 5-2 outside the league.

The Belboys were invited to the Essex County tournament that year, which was a big accomplishment. Back in the mid 1970's, the ECT only invited the top 16 teams in the county. The Belboys had been invited to the tourney for the first time in 14 years and their opponent was East Orange, the number one seed in the ECT and the top ranked team in the state of New Jersey.

East Orange was well known by the Belboys. Because both teams played in the Big 10, they faced each other twice during the regular season. East Orange won at Belleville, 80-58 and then had to hold on to win at East Orange, 89-82.

The game was played at Bloomfield, with an SRO crowd on hand. Belleville took the early lead and had an eight point advantage late in the first half. However, East Orange, the defending ECT champion, had too much speed for Belleville and broke open a close game in the second half. East Orange won, 85-55, but it didn't take away from a fine season at Belleville High.

In the early 80's, Bucs coach Joe Papasidero had some feisty teams that didn't always win, but were always competitive.

The 1980-81 club won just four games, but the team provided its fans with some very exciting games. Players like Wayne Bubet, Rich Wilkes, Phil Colalillo, Sam DeCapua, Ron Whitman and Scott Murray displayed a fiery intensity that kept Belleville in games with much bigger teams.

In 1982-83, Papasidero's Bucs won 11 games and battled Plainfield tooth and nail in the state tourney. Plainfield won the game and went on to capture the state championship in Group IV. Dave Grant, who today plays for the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL, was a key player on the '82-83 Bucs, playing center.

In '87-88, with Roll as head coach, the Bucs posted a winning season with a 15-9 mark. One of the biggest wins that season was a victory over Nutley at Belleville on a Friday night. A sellout crowd watched Ted Sochaski and the Bucs defeat a very good Nutley team. Sochaski, who had broken Anderson's scoring record in a prior game, was carried off the court by cheering Bucs fans in a scene out of the movie "Hoosiers".

The cold weather is approaching, but there should be plenty of hot action on the Belleville High hardwood.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The 1984 Miami Dolphins defeated Seattle in the first round of the playoffs, 31-13, then beat Pittsburgh, 45-28 in the AFC title game. Dan Marino threw 48 TD passes in '84. The Dolphins lost in the Super Bowl to San Francisco, 38-16.

FOR THIS WEEK

The two newest teams in the NFL, Seattle and Tampa Bay, have both made the playoffs at one time or another. How many playoff games have each team won? How far in the playoffs have those teams advanced? How many games did Tampa Bay and Seattle win in their first year in the NFL?

TAILGATE PARTY

Parents and friends of the Belleville varsity football program threw a tailgate party for the '91 Bucs last Saturday in the High School parking lot. The weather was extraordinarily nice for late November and there was plenty of food for everyone.

It was a class function and everyone who contributed to the affair should be congratulated. The players should also be proud, knowing of the support they receive from members of the township.

AND FINALLY...

The NFL gets down to serious business this weekend with key games throughout the league. The Giants and Eagles should have more than a passing interest. Ditto the Jets and Detroit, San Francisco-Seattle, New Orleans-Dallas and Atlanta-L.A. Rams.

Colucci: one goal, two assists in final

Devils capture Premier title

The Division 4A Devils, a member of the Belleville Soccer Association, won the Premier Division playoff title, stopping Lincoln Park, 3-0.

Sponsored by BMAP Auto Parts, the Devils were a perfect 9-0 this season. It was the teams second undefeated campaign in the past four years.

After putting together a 7-0 regular season mark, the Devils won the first round of the playoffs against West Milford, 3-0. It was the first shutout of the year for the Devils.

In the championship game, left wing Daniel Rispoli scored first for the Devils. John Diaz tallied the second Devil goal and Nick Colucci netted scored the third. Colucci also had two assists in the game.

(12 goals, six assists), Martin (nine goals, ten assists), Colucci (nine goals, 13 assists), Auerbach (one goal, three assists), Gencarelli (two goals, four assists) and Adamo (one goal).

The Devils also led the league with the fewest goals allowed, giving up just nine in nine games. The team will take a few months off before preparing for the spring campaign and defense of their title. The Devils' head coach is Antero Martin and the assistant coach is Joe Colucci.

Devil's players and coaches gather for photo. Team finished with 9-0 record and won title over Lincoln Park.

Led by the play of Paul Aiello and Kevin Davies, Sylvestro's clinched the Flag Football title by stopping Dwyer Plumbing and Heating, 27-13.

Aiello ran for two touchdowns and threw a scoring pass to Davies. Later in the game, Davies recovered a fumble on the Dwyer ten and ran it in for a score.

Defensively, Jason Engel had an interception. The Sylvestro defense was also paced by Mike Driscoll, Brian Slattery and Joe Pochio.

For Dwyer's, Fabio Lamanna scored both touchdowns, one on a 35 yard run and the other on a pass from Lee Kenworthy. The defense was led by Ernie Campasano, Joe Cafone and Frank Sessa.

On defense, Steve Nucifora, Bill Brezenski and David Linfante excelled for Motorcycle Mail. Timmy Hands, Rick Neijman and Eric Ganguly led the defense for Joey's.

Giants defeat Jets, Chiefs in touch foot ball

Behind a strong defensive line, led by Rob McKonnnon, David Browne and Anthony Marra, the Giants blanked the Jets, 26-0 in week eight of the Belleville Touch Football League. The game, played on November 14 was dominated by the Giants.

Niles Monica hit Eugene Pizarro for the first score and Billy Bretzer ran for the extra point. The Giants increased its lead to 14-0 when Greg Pallante ran in from the six and Phillip Peterson ran for the PAT.

The Giant defense accounted for the third score when Steve Nardiello picked off a Jet pass and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown. McKonnnon later recovered a fumble in the Jet end zone to wrap up the Giant scoring.

The Jets defense was led by Joe Florenza and Steve Rossi. Mike DiRiggi and Mike Williams also played well defensively for the Jets.

In the other game of November 14, the Chiefs and Cowboys played to a scoreless tie. The Chief defense was paced by Mike Kimball, Rich McAisib, Dennis Caparaso and Bobby Delmonte.

The Chiefs threatened on offense twice, moving inside the Cowboy five yard line. However, good defense by the Cowboys' Marco Iannanelli, Ron Fatovic and Mike Morgan kept the Chiefs out of the end zone.

In the final week of the season, the Jets blanked the Chiefs, 6-0. The Chiefs had a chance to tie the game late in regulation time, but Ryan Stauss came through with a big sack to stop the drive. Stauss, Kyle Ulassini, Joe Florenza and Steve Rossi keyed the Jets defense.

The Chief defense was keyed by Ramon Garcia, Vin Politano and John Kimball.

The Giants blanked the Chiefs 6-0 in the second game. The only score of the game came when Pete DeSanis intercepted a pass and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown. Eugene Pizarro had two interceptions for the Giants and Niles Monica had one pickoff.

Greg Pallante, Gerry Fisicaro and Anthony Marra led the Giant defense, which stopped the Cowboys three times inside the Giant five yard line. Mike Calla, Marco Iannanelli and Michael Morgan led the Cowboy defense.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Santa's Mailboxes

Belleville boys and girls are encouraged to get out their pens, pencils, crayons and start writing their lists to Santa Claus now.

Special mailboxes have been set up from now until Dec. 18 to accommodate the expected heavy mail. One is at Town Hall on Washington Avenue and the other is in front of the Silver Lake Fire House on Franklin Street.

Children can't miss the mailboxes. They're bright red and clearly marked Santa's Mail so no one has an excuse for not writing early.

By very special arrangements made between Mr. Claus and the Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs, all letter writers are guaranteed an answer. No stamp is necessary and this special mailbox is for Belleville residents only.

If children are too young to write, they are urged to draw a picture and Santa will get the message. Be sure to have someone print the child's name and address so that Santa can answer the letters.

Men's open basketball

The Men's Open Basketball program will begin on Dec. 7, 1 to 4 p.m. at the Middle School - Girls Gym. Belleville resident men, over 18, can participate by showing the gym supervisor proof of residency. Non-residents will not be allowed in the gym.

Adult

Open Volleyball

There will be an Adult Open Volleyball for men and women on Saturdays, noon to 3 p.m. at the Friendly House beginning Dec. 7. Participation will be restricted to Belleville residents only and proof of residency will be required by the gym supervisor in order to gain admission. Call 450-3422 for additional information.

Gymnastics program

The Belleville Recreation Department will again offer its always popular Gymnastics program for girls on Saturdays at the Friendly House. This activity is slated to begin on Dec. 7 and will continue through March. Girls in grades 1-6 will participate from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the Friendly House on Frederick Street. There is no fee required but girls must be Belleville residents. Interested participants should wear sneakers and sign up for the program with the instructors when they arrive. College and high school gymnasts will provide the supervision and will teach the basic fundamentals and routines.

Letters to the Editor

To the editor:

Bellevillites, have you seen the Township Cat Ordinance? Well, its four pages long and you're gonna pay big dollars for your cat pleasure and penalties to boot. Let me quote you paragraph 6, page 1:

"Cat owners, when applied to the ownership of a cat, shall include every person having the right of property (or custody), in such cat and every person who has such cat in his/her keeping or who harbors or maintains a cat or knowingly permits a cat to remain on or about any premises occupied by the person."

Interpretation: "Rights of property" is the owner; "custody" is in your keeping; "to harbor" is to shelter; "maintain" is to provide a means of existence; "knowingly permits cats to remain about your premises" are cats you feed, such as any stray cat that crosses your lawn you must chase and say "scat you old cat or they'll get ya," but you own him also.

Now on page 2 quote: "No person shall be the owner of a cat of licensing age within the township of Belleville unless licensed with a Rabies shot" unquote — that they can otherwise seize your cat at any time at their discretion, but here's the catch. The township gives Rabies shots once per year in the first two weeks of May. But licensing your cat at any other time you'll pay for the license from $8 to 11; cost of a collar $5; ID tag $5; Rabies shots from $20 to $30, to a total of approx. $40 per cat. Big dollars for a fixed income senior and the general public on a tight budget. Also a delinquent fee of $5, plus other penalties provided in the Ordinance. Now the pet stores and veterinarians got the que and they'll have a bonanza.

Also, quote: "You must produce proof of license on request of an officer — animal control officer or health officer or you'll be prosecuted as per section 1-6 of the Township Code" unquote. Who knows — section 1-6 might end you up with a ball and chain, or jail, who knows, only the shadow knows. This is your golden age reward, seniors. You made this world for them young uns and they sock it to you. Remember, your privacy is invaded. Carry your cat card with you.

That's not all — quote again: "Any money left over at the end fiscal year goes into a municipal fund." Which will help pay for salary increases, perks, phone cards, Atlantic City conventions (and one should be coming up shortly).

In one past Board of Ed meeting, I mentioned the seniors' inability to pay, it was said "They must pay!" An unconscionable display of concern for seniors, and the basic taxpayer of the business world, who suffers undue hardship, layoffs, no job security, etc. I'm sure that they can dig into their hidden escrow and give the senior cat owners a freebie in their golden age — golden's laughable — at least give Rabies shots free.

If you think that it is unfair to throttle oldies, then call your councilmen and mayor. Mr. Caputo 751-1398; Mr. Cook 751-4768; Mr. Spillane 751-0219; Mr. Messina 751-5890; Dr. Noonan 751-0397; Mr. Drozd 751-2277. Since you cannot speak in full at the Township meetings without the threat of arrest, then you do the talking and let your telephone do the walking. Remember numbers count on Election Day.

Home Intravenous Drug Therapy
Many hospital patients are finding that they can continue their chemotherapy at home since they have reached the chronic stable level. There comes a point in the treatment of cancer, for instance, when most of the things done in the hospital can be done in the patient's home. This includes receiving intravenous therapy, sometimes referred to as home infusion, at a considerable savings over hospital treatment. Home infusion therapy began as a treatment option over 10 years ago with intravenous feeding for patients suffering from such digestive tract diseases as stomach and colon cancer, Crohn's Disease, and colitis. Today, it has become routine to administer antibiotics, chemotherapy and pain therapy at home as well.

Complete prescription service is provided at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We handle the sale and rental of convalescent aids including walkers, wheel chairs, crutches and canes. For the holidays we have a fine selection of cosmetics, toiletries, Timex watches, transistor radios, greeting cards and other items. Hours: Daily 9am - 10pm, Sundays 9am - 7pm.

NOTE: The most common disorders treated today with home infusion therapy are cardiac and bone infections, cancer, and AIDS.

'Energy-Efficient' Mortgages Help New Home Buyers

A little known national program can help new home-buyers qualify for mortgages they otherwise might not be able to get, according to the American Gas Association.

The "Energy-Efficient Mortgage" recognizes that when a home is energy-efficient, the homeowner spends less on utility bills and has more available for mortgage payments. Normally, lenders require that no more than 28 percent of a borrower's gross monthly income be spent on principal, interest, taxes and insurance. However, both the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp. (Freddie Mac) now allow lenders to raise that maximum to 32 percent, if the house being purchased is energy-efficient.

Homes equipped with high-efficiency natural gas furnaces and appliances can help a home qualify for the energy-efficient mortgage. According to the American Gas Association, homes with high-efficiency natural gas equipment can save as much as $7,700 over a 10-year period, compared with an all-electric home.

The Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac programs also allow buyers to finance home improvements that will improve energy-efficiency, such as upgrading storm windows, installing high-efficiency furnaces and water heaters, and improving insulation.

To qualify for the loan program, buyers must document the home's energy efficiency through an appropriate appraisal or energy audit service. Lenders may accept as energy-efficient those homes complying with a number of recognized energy performance standards, such as the thermal performance guidelines developed by the National Association of Home Builders.

The Home Front

By Nina Kaeser

In many areas, employers are helping their workers buy homes of their own. Some pay for mortgage loan points, while others contribute to the down payment or guarantee the mortgage loan. Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) has given the program a boost.

First-aid for some squeaky wood floors is talcum powder. Sweep some lightly between the boards.

Delicate knick-knacks are hard to keep clean and inconvenient to wash — but not if you use a blow dryer to dislodge dust.

Check attic insulation to make sure it covers the entire heated area of the house, to preserve heat and help prevent ice dams on the roof. There should be a two-inch gap between the insulation and the underside of the roof to ensure adequate airflow and prevent rot due to moisture.

Can't afford fancy striped wallcovering? Get the same effect with paint. Use a level to mark plumb lines every 12 to 18 inches around the room. Mask off the lines, then paint between them.

Think you can't afford a home of your own? We'll find one that fits your family and your budget at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Avenue, Nutley, 235-9000, for Medicine Shop

Insulation Mini-Packages Now Available

Small easy-to-carry packages for those little projects.

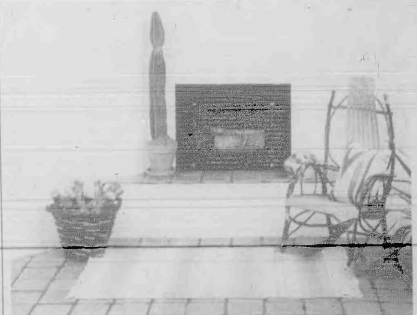

For those times when you need just a little insulation, there's a convenient new little package.

It contains just enough to pack gaps around air conditioners, cut drafts around outlet boxes, fill holes around pipes which go through the wall, or to stuff into any other tight spot which was missed during original installation.

You'll especially appreciate this mini-package if you've ever had to wait while the clerk went to the back of the store to cut a small piece off a large roll of insulation.

Manville Multi-Purpose fiber glass insulation, in the compact poly bags with the carrying handles, is available at many building supply dealers.

Elegant Rugged Acrylic Finishes Beautify Interior And Exterior Walls

Decorator-quality interior wall finishes and tough all-weather exterior wall coatings provide an easy, economical way to add beauty and durability to your home.

The interior finish system is called Ruff-B Acrylic Sculpture Coat, and the exterior coating system, Texture-B. Both are manufactured by Z-Brick, a division of ChemRex Inc.

Both are pre-mixed and pre-colored, and can be applied directly over plywood, foam-board, concrete, or concrete block. Both come in three distinctive colors, will not crack or peel, and can be applied right from the container without the mixing, mess, and equipment needed for conventional coatings.

For more information, write to Z-Brick Customer Service, P.O. Box 427, Mattawan, MI 49071; or call 800 828 0253 (in Michigan, call 616 6689 3327).
