Today is J-Day for Belleville!

International turnout honors Patriot-Inventor Hornblower

By Howard Klausner

After 180 years, Belleville has decided to celebrate the memory of Josiah Hornblower in style.

Governor Jim Florio has announced he will be present. Senator Frank Lautenberg has announced his intention to leave Washington for a day to be here. A delegation of French diplomats will be here. Jazz great Duke Anderson has written original music for the event, and descendants of Hornblower will mix with the most recent immigrants to our nation to pay honor to the Great Engineer.

Specifically, Hornblower is remembered for having brought the steam engine to the New World. He was also a great Patriot, serving in the Continental Congress and fending off British attempts to capture him.

Besides erecting the first steam engine on American soil, to pump water from the Schuylkill copper mines in Belleville, he was also instrumental in creating the first steam engine ever made in America, in Belleville, and the engine was used to power the first experimental steamboat in American history, the Polacca, which navigated the Passaic River in 1798.

Almost forgotten in history,

Hornblower's name was kept alive by his direct descendants, Joseph Hatch and Adeline Brehmer, among them.

The Belleville Times sought recognition of Belleville as The Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution, based on Hornblower's presence here. The recognition was granted by resolution of the New Jersey Senate, and by Proclamation of Governor Florio.

Now, federal recognition is sought.

Louis Cicenia, owner of Charles Jewelers, conceived the idea of celebrating Josiah Hornblower Day as part of Operation Uplift, sponsored by the Belleville Renaissance Committee, seeking to restore Belleville's image of itself and to better the community.

Cicenia obtained the endorsement of the French Consulate in New York, noting that Hornblower's respect for France influenced his selection of the name of Belleville, replacing the former name of Second River, for this community.

This morning, a limousine provided by Publisher Frank Orechio went to the Consulate at 810 Seventh Ave., Manhattan, to pick up Consul Marie Charlotte Potton and Trade Attache Jean-Christophe Potton.

Greeting her personally was Frank Orechio, accompanied by Louis Cicenia and Jaye Tarantino of the Renaissance Committee.

A Belleville police escort met the limousine at Park Avenue and Washington Avenue to proceed to the Municipal Building on Washington Avenue.

Crowds that began arriving at 9:30 a.m. were greeted by the music of the Bob Harris Orchestra and Howard "Duke" Anderson.

Bunting bearing the French Tricolor lined the buildings on both sides of Washington Avenue as the limousine and escort arrived. A platform on the steps of the Town Hall had seats for 50 people.

Chairman Cicenia welcomed the crowd and James Cozzarelli Jr. acted as Master of Ceremonies, introducing the Rev. William Mohelt of the Belleville Reformed Church offered the invocation.

The National Anthem was performed, and Jim Cicenia sang La Marseillaise, the French National Anthem.

Tara Cozzarelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cozzarelli, presented a bouquet of flowers to Mme. Bolot.

Greetings in French and English were offered by Editor Howard Klausner, and speeches were scheduled by Governor Florio and Senator Lautenberg.

Remarks were also scheduled by Mayor Marina Perna, Senator John Scott, Assemblyman Paul DeGaetano, Freeholder Art Clay and Newark Councilman Anthony Carrino.

Carrino was particularly instrumental in obtaining the presence of Governor Florio at the event, and previously, in obtaining the Governor's Proclamation.

Special plaques were then presented to Mme. Bolot, to Hatch and Mrs. Brehm, and to Publisher Orechio, for their participation in the event, and their contributions to it.

A ceremonial wreath-laying was then held at the monument to Josiah Hornblower at his gravesite, in the Reformed Church churchyard.

The Church, founded in 1658, is the oldest functioning congregation in New Jersey.

A public reception then followed in the Carnegie Room of the Belleville Public Library, and at 2:30 p.m., invited guests attended a reception at the Maisonette, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cozzarelli Jr. on Washington Avenue.

Here, business and financial leaders had interviews with M. Potton to discuss business and investment possibilities in Belleville.

At the Library, Librarian David Bryant conducted a tour of the facilities, including the acclaimed Carnegie Reading Room. Presentations were made by Barbara Spillane of the Women's Club of Belleville, Lou Paraboschi, President of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, and Patricia Pisano, President of the Belleville Board of Education.

Hosting events at the Reformed Church were the Rev. Mr. Mohelt, Belleville Historian Robert MacFayden and Ed O'Neil of the Belleville Historical Society.

Robert Reiser of the Renaissance Committee managed traffic control during the day's events. Dawn Cox of the Committee helped greet guests at the speaker's platform.

Floral arrangements were provided by Flowerana.

Those seated on the platform included:

Governor James Florio; United States Senators Frank Lautenberg and Bill Bradley (expected); Publisher Frank Orechio; Nutley Mayor and former Senate President Carmen Orechio; Mme. Marie-Charlotte Bolot; M. Jean-Christophe Potton; Chairman Louis Cicenia; Master of Ceremonies James Cozzarelli Jr.; Robert Reiser; Dawn Cox, and Jaye Tarantino.

Editor Howard Klausner; the Rev. William Mohelt; Tara Cozzarelli; Amanda Cox; Joseph Hatch; Adeline Brehm; Mayor Marina Perna; Deputy Mayor Mario Drozd; Councilman Tom Spillane; Senator John Scott; Assemblyman Paul DeGaetano, and Assemblyman John Kelly.

Peoples Bank establishes 'Belleville Renaissance Fund' to support Uplift

Patrick C. Sweeney, President and Chief Executive Officer of Peoples Bank, N.A. in Fairfield, has announced that Peoples Bank has established a "Belleville Renaissance Fund" to help boost the efforts of the Belleville Renaissance Committee and Operation Uplift. According to Sweeney, the bank kicked off the fund with a "significant" contribution and is encouraging the citizens of Belleville, both merchants and individuals, to support Operation Uplift and make contributions to the fund.

According to Sweeney, the mission of Operation Uplift and the Belleville Renaissance Committee is to pursue the revitalization of Belleville by working to rebuild its infrastructure, enhance its image and promote the heritage of Belleville. "Peoples Bank has unique ties with the Belleville community, having been founded here some 71 years ago. Now, as then, our mission as a community bank, is to serve the financial needs of the individuals and businesses of Essex County," stated Sweeney. "After learning of the Josiah Hornblower Day celebration and the laudable goals of the Belleville Renaissance Committee, we approached the Committee as a concerned corporate citizen, and a 'community partner' to offer to lend a hand," continued Sweeney.

The manner in which Peoples Bank lent a hand was a great boon to the Belleville Renaissance Committee, as the bank offered to establish a Belleville Renaissance Fund with a large initial contribution. Sweeney added: "We recognize Belleville's heritage and wish to be a partner with the Belleville Renaissance Committee, helping the businesses and individuals in Belleville to lend their support to Operation Uplift in the form of financial contributions or volunteer assistance. To demonstrate our support for Operation Uplift and our belief that Belleville can return to its glory days, we're adopted the slogan "We're Backin' Belleville," which customers will see in our Belleville offices and hear more about in the days ahead."

According to Diane Carroll, Senior Vice President with Peoples Bank, additional support will also be provided to the Belleville Renaissance Committee. From now through Sept. 4, Peoples will run a promotion at its three Belleville offices that will result in additional contributions to the Belleville Renaissance Fund. "In an effort to energize the community and rally support for Operation Uplift, Peoples will run a "We're Backin' Belleville" new account promotion and contribute $5.00 to the Belleville Renaissance Fund for each new personal deposit account opened through Sept. 4," said Carroll. "In order for the fund to receive the $5.00 contribution, a 'We're Backin' Belleville' coupon must be completed, and the funds to open the account must be either cash or a check from another financial institution. In addition to the $5.00 contribution to the Belleville Renaissance Fund, we'll be offering other incentives for customers to get behind our 'We're Backin' Belleville' promotion," she added.

Peoples Bank will provide all new deposit account customers a free 2 inch by 5 inch safe deposit box for one full year, and if customers open a new checking, savings or money market account, they will also be provided a free MAC card for one full year. In addition to the $5.00 contribution toward Operation Uplift, that's a $32.00 value customers can take advantage of.

Peoples Bank is "Backin' Belleville" and urges the Belleville community to become a supporter of Operation Uplift and the Belleville Renaissance Committee. Contributions can be made to the Belleville Renaissance Fund by sending them (payable to the Belleville Renaissance Fund) to: Belleville Renaissance Fund, Fairfield, NJ 07004. If you would like more information about "We're Backin' Belleville," Operation Uplift or the banking services of Peoples Bank, please call the bank toll-free in New Jersey at 1-800-257-2265.

Peoples Bank is an FDIC-insured, full service commercial bank with seven offices in Essex County. The bank provides a full line of commercial banking services, including checking, savings, money market and investment accounts, as well as a variety of business and personal loans. The bank also offers customers access to checking, savings and money market accounts through MAC - New Jersey's largest automated banking network.

THEY'RE BACKIN' BELLEVILLE - Presenting a check for $4,500 to the Belleville Renaissance Committee is Stuart Lashow of Peoples Bank. Accepting it is Committee Chairman Louis Cicenia, accompanied by Belleville Mayor Marina Perna. Mystery illness at Board Hq? Nardiello asks for lab tests

Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello asked the Board of Education for $2,500 to fund an inquiry into the cause of a rash of illnesses among many of the 26 employees of the Board of Education headquartered at former School 1.

Board members balked at the cost of the test, and put the matter under advisement.

Nardiello said that he and Assistant Superintendent Michael Lally were among those with persistent coughs and upper respiratory illnesses which defied physicians' explanations.

"A number of women employees have complained of nausea, dizziness and light-headedness," Nardiello said, "and one of our workers is four months pregnant."

School trustees noted that the Board headquarters is due to be moved to the basement of Belleville High School this fall, and Trustee Gabe Nazzola questioned the cost of "$2,500 for one air test."

Board President Patricia Pisano

asked if bids could not be sought for the job.

Trustee Angelina Pascheria said, "As someone afflicted with many allergies, I can see the need for this. A life is a life."

Nardiello told the Board, "I remember when four young men, police officers, were cut short in their lives by cancer, and I can't help thinking that these were four men who came to the same place to work, at the same time. But the town didn't want to spend the money to find the cause."

Aside From That

By Howard Klausner

We were surprised to hear Pat Sweeney, President of Peoples Bank, reeling off some convincing French. He is among the select group of business and finance leaders who are meeting today with the French Commercial Attache, Jean-Christophe Pottou, at the work-of-art home of James Cozzarelli, Jr. Mr. Sweeney is quite capable of handling himself in French because, he reports, he did considerable business with the French while he was chief executive of a steel company, before he entered banking. It seems quite appropriate that Josiah Hornblower Day would be the beginning of a major promotion by Peoples Bank to support the Belleville Renaissance Committee and Operation Uplift to restore Belleville's estimation of itself. ●●●●● Peoples Bank goes back to 1921, and is the oldest banking institution in Essex County to survive under its own name. The Altken family was involved with it from the beginning and is still involved. Sweeney estimates that 40 percent of the businesses in Belleville today do business with the bank, which now has three branches in town. "We have always been part of the community," Sweeney said. Some current projects include the funding of the new electronic scoreboard at Municipal Stadium, the supplying of an ambulance to Clara Maass Medical Center, and the underwriting of any number of civic and charitable efforts. "We want to see the whole town get behind this effort," Sweeney said. "We're backing Belleville."

●●●●● We continue to hear more from people who were at the scene of the 1967 crash of an airplane into Belleville High School. A lady who was a school teacher at the time said the building was by no means empty when the plane struck. "I was just leading a class to the main door when we heard this terrible explosion. The plane had crashed right near where we would have exited the building. For months afterward, I was terrified by the sound of an airplane flying overhead. I still remember hearing the plane motor stop, and then the silence before the crash." ●●●●● Patty Salvanischi was a student taking summer courses when she was in the building. She remembers: "We heard this terrible explosion. The floor under our feet turned white hot. We were running, and I don't know what exit we used to get out. But there was this great tower of flame out front." Patty was waiting for her parents, Michael and Geraldine Terrezza to pick her up. Her father remembers hearing the sputtering of an airplane engine and then looking up to see an aircraft headed toward the school.

He was driving there with Patty's mother, Geraldine. "She was saying there's a plane in trouble. I looked up and I told her, it's only a model plane. I thought it was a model plane because of the sputtering of the motor. Then we saw the smoke coming up from the burning fuselage, against the front of the high school. The parents were terrified that Patty was trapped in a burning building, but the family was soon reunited safely. Says Patty, "I've never forgotten." We are still awaiting an official government report on what happened to the airplane, a Beacraft Bonanza, but a Federal Aviation Administration official at the time reported that the crash was due to an explosion aboard the plane. Fire Captain Carmen Vicari, who had been one of the first at the scene, said that so little of the airplane was left that he thought it was burned out couch someone had left at the school. How much evidence could have been culled from the ashes is problematical. ●●●●● Grace Purdue writes, sending us a copy of a request she has circulated for a reunion of Belleville people.

"Twenty years ago, three parents from School 7 decided to go to lunch at the end of the school year. Soon the three grew and a grand luncheon was enjoyed at The Manor. Since that time, people from other schools have joined us and several reunions were held. Each dinner allowed us to remember those pleasant school days we shared with our children. It gave us a chance to see each other and to once again share all that has happened over the years: marriages, divorces, births and, sadly, even the passing of some of our friends who were a part of this group."

●●●●● They are planning a 20th anniversary reunion at the Forest Hill Field Club on Wednesday, Oct. 7. People who can be contacted for further information are Lucille Gastewicz, (201) 759-7632; Dee Freedman, (201) 751-1330, and Grace Purdue, (201) 759-6059. ●●●●● James Brown is back in town, this time with some photographs of his castle in France. (This seems to be the day to discuss France). Dr. Brown, who holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree in Psychology, retired after a long career with the United States Treasury in some capacity. It involved drugs, and Dr. Brown says it was his job to evaluate defendants in drug abuse cases, and to help them into rehabilitation programs, if possible. He also saw a great deal of the world, and spent a lot of time in France. There he met his beautiful wife, whose family also happens to own genuine castle in the Douth of France, near the town of Hyeres. For the past three years, Dr. Brown and his wife have been transforming the structure into a 150-bedroom hotel. This is made complicated by French laws covering old castles. For example, he cannot intrude sanitation pipes or electrical wiring into the castle. So he has installed chemical commodes and other devices to circumvent the ban on bathrooms as known to modern man. "Don't worry, the guests will never know the difference," he says, optimistically. He hopes the castle will be stormed and taken by visitors from both France and other nations, out to enjoy beautiful mountains and scantily dressed bathers on the Riviera.

Silver Lake organizes to fight for security

By Marie Burke

Due to the increasing car thefts and crime plaguing the Silver Lake area residents, organizer Marie Strumolo Burke and Sebastian (Sam) Papa, convened a meeting of the residents at the Moose Club of Belleville on Aug. 5.

Over 300 aroused and emotional residents met with officials from Newark, Belleville and Essex County along with the State Senator and Assemblyman.

The organizers, Burke and Papa, distributed over 1,000 flyers in the area and the residents responded overwhelmingly.

Some of the concerns included the 'no chase pursuit into Newark' and punishing juveniles as adults.

Councilman Carrino from Newark suggested that a citizens border patrol be instituted. Papa and Burke asked for about 10 volunteers and at least 25 residents responded. A meeting will be held shortly on this formation.

Mayor Marina Perna made a dramatic appeal to Newark for their help and cooperation. Deputy Mayor Drozd was instrumental in inviting the officials and helped to orchestrate this meeting. Also in attendance from the Council was Council President Frank Noonan. Since the original date was changed from Aug. 17 to Aug. 5, 1st Ward Councilman James Messina could not be in attendance due to a prior commitment, but was in total support of the meeting.

Senator Scott and Assemblyman Paul DiGaetano gave their pledge to support legislation on punishing these juveniles and to institute a boot camp.

A meeting was arranged for the next day at the Essex County Prosecutor's Office with Belleville Police Captain Ray Kimble and Director William Celester of the Newark Police, to resolve the no pursuit policy.

A question and answer period followed with numerous inquiries on how to combat the crime in the area.

Over 200 residents signed up to become members of the newly created Silver Lake Civic Association. Burke and Papa advised the residents that a general meeting would be called in September to elect officers and to discuss the avenues the organization will take.

Officials at meeting: William Celester, Newark Police Director; Calvin West, Aide to Mayor Sharpe James; Glenn Grant, Administrator Newark; James Mulvill, Acting E.C. Prosecutor; Louis Greenleaf, E.C. Prosecutor's Office; Anthony Carrino, North Newark Councilman Newark; Ray Kimball, Belleville Police Chief; Michael Petrillo, Deputy Chief Belleville; Captain William Escott; Lt. Joseph Rotunda; State Senator John Scott; Assemblyman Paul Di Gaetano; Mayor Marina Perna; Deputy Mayor Mario Drozd; Council President Frank Noonan; Marie Strumolo Burke, Vice Chairman Belleville Democratic Party and District Leader, Silver Lake; Sebastian Papa, Chairman Belleville Planning Board, Silver Lake Resident.

Golden Comments

Oddities in the news! Ironies link Lincoln, Kennedy across a century.

• President Lincoln and President Kennedy were both deeply concerned with civil rights.

• Lincoln was elected President in 1860; Kennedy was elected President in 1960.

• Both Lincoln and Kennedy were assassinated in the presence of their wives.

• The wives of both Kennedy and Lincoln lost children through death while residing in the White House.

• President Kennedy had a secretary whose last name was Lincoln. And President Lincoln had a secretary whose last name was Kennedy.

• It should be noted that federal law provides that the speaker of the House of Representatives becomes president if neither the president nor vice-president is serving. When Kennedy was assassinated, the speaker of the House was John W. McCormack of Massachusetts.

It is to be noted: Then-Secretary of State Alexander Haig apparently was also of the opinion that he was next in line for the presidency when he, upon hearing that President Reagan had been shot, rushed to the microphone and announced, "I'm in charge here!"

Hotels are not liable when your room is burglarized and thefts are just the start of troubles. It's not bad enough that your hotel room was ransacked and thousands of dollars of valuables are missing, but in all probability you're going to find that the hotel is not legally liable for your loss.

In most cases the liability of a lodging establishment for a guest's jewelry, cash etc., only applies if the valuables had been placed in the hotel safe, and even then its responsibility may only cover a small percentage of the loss.

"Generally, hotels are not liable for personal property that is lost or stolen from anywhere other than the hotel safe. Moreover, goods stored in the hotel safe are only insured up to a certain amount," said a New York attorney specializing in host-guest law and hotel liability. He pointed out that under the law, a hotel's maximum liability on goods lost or stolen from the safe is $500 in New York and New Jersey, which, he said, are pretty much representative of what the laws are in other states.

The good news is that most victims can usually collect from their homeowner's insurance policies, he said...the attorney still, "Travelers often believe incorrectly that the hotel is the insurer of their property. That just isn't so; noting that the standards that apply to hoteliers are the same as those that apply to landlords of rental apartments and to homeowners."

"In the absence of negligence, the hotel is liable for nothing. And even in the presence of negligence, the liability is usually limited by statute," which in many states dates back to the middle of the last century, when it was instituted "to protect hotels from scams, many of which are still attempted today."

What travelers should do before leaving home is make sure to find out just what and what isn't covered in their homeowner's policy.

Questions to be asked are: Is a rider required on the policy to cover valuable items being taken on the trip? Has the value of these items been updated to represent present replacement cost? If traveling out of the country, are there limitations on the insurer's liability?

The attorney also suggests that travelers rely on traveler's checks instead of cash because lost or stolen money "has the most problem of proof."

Even though there are limitations on what a hotel is responsible for in its safe, the hotel's safe is where valuables should be put, including larger items.

One way to help thwart a pickpocket is to carry your wallet in your front pocket.

Herb Klein

Klein calls for action on unemployment

Herb Klein, the Democratic candidate for Congress in New Jersey's Eighth Congressional District, reacted to the gloomy employment statistics released recently by urging Congress to stop wasting billions of dollars on defense and start placing more emphasis on creating jobs by rebuilding America's decaying infrastructure.

"Since the recession started in 1989, we've lost more than 270,000 jobs in northern New Jersey," said Klein. "By the end of this year, we could lose another 38,000 jobs, many of which won't ever come back. This is an economic and human tragedy that demands immediate attention."

Klein pointed out that unemployment statistics, which are regularly released by the United States Department of Labor, only measure the number of people who are out of work and still looking for a job. They do not include the millions of people who have given up looking for work and dropped out of the labor force. "When you add this group to the figures, the true dimensions of the unemployment problem appear far worse," he said.

Passaic County currently has an unemployment rate of 9.8 percent, one of the highest of any county in the metropolitan area and significantly higher than the national average of 7.6 percent. But these figures pale beside the unemployment rates in urban areas such as Paterson, where unemployment exceeds 16 percent.

Klein said that Congress could do much to ease the unemployment problem by diverting the $150 billion spent each year to defend Germany and Japan into various long-term public works projects already approved by Congress. "Under the highway bill that Congress recently passed, New Jersey will receive about $5.6 billion over the next five years to rebuild its roads, bridges and factories," he noted. "What I am suggesting is that we use the peace dividend to speed up funding under the highway bill so that we see the full benefits now rather than over five years."

Congress can also help, Klein added, by passing the Anti-Recession Infrastructure Jobs Act of 1992, which was recently proposed by Democratic Congressman Robert Roe. This bill would provide $10 billion in development grants to economically distressed states like New Jersey which otherwise might not be able to pay its share of big infrastructure projects.

"These are only the first steps that should be taken to turn the economy around and make America competitive again," said Klein. "We must also make changes in our education system and place more emphasis on long-term research and development. The problems are complex, but they are solvable. All we need is a little political will."

Tax rebates cost town 10 points

Proposed budget means a 22-point tax increase

The proposed municipal budget, due for public hearing on Sept. 22, reflects a tax rate increase of 22 points. Scheduled for introduction last Tuesday, the budget also reflects the cost to the taxpayer of recent court decisions reducing the valuation of many rates because of the economy.

Township officials estimated that the reduction in revenues from reduced rates mean 10 points on the tax rate.

The budget gap would have been far higher had it not been for a $3 million state grant for Supplemental Municipal Property Tax relief. Estimated rates for 1992 are $450.7 million, down $12 million from 1991.

Estimated tax revenues for 1992 are $13.2 million, compared to $12.3 million for 1991.

The total budget for 1992 is estimated at $26,603,940.

There was a surplus of $2,250,000 for 1991. There will be no surplus for 1992.

The tax rate for municipal purposes will be $3.43 per $100 of assessed valuation, compared to the current $3.21.

Members of the Township Council have promised to work for further reduction of the budget.

OUR OPINION

Quiet Moments

*There's such pleasure in the silence of a morning sunrises steal
And comfort in the shadows of a cozy, firelit room.
There is quality in hush at dawn
when morning sunrises steal
Into the waning clouds of night, day's beauty to reveal.
In gentle moments such as these
I have scaled to heights above,
Felt winds of joy upon my face, and know the peace of love.*

— Frankie Davis Oviatt

It's No Small Occasion

Josiah Hornblower Day.

When has there been a time in the past half century that Belleville has felt like celebrating one of its own? In fact, how long has it been since Belleville even recognized one of its own?

Yes, we have wonderful entertainers who come from Belleville - Connie Francis and Joe Pesci are world famous.

But they are symbols of our community - examples of the talent that it possesses. They would never claim to be the makers and guides of the town.

But Hornblower was an authentic creator. He was one of that tiny groups of human beings who actually have a definite and even stunning impact on our civilization. And for the good.

It was Napoleon who looked at the memorial to Voltaire and said, "The world would have been better off if neither of us had ever been born."

This would not have been something to have said about Josiah Hornblower. The world is immeasurably better for what he has done.

It is true that progress has its price, and the Steam Age exacted its toll. But stagnation is death.

The development of steam power was even more significant to America than any invention of Benjamin Franklin, or even the discoveries of Thomas A. Edison.

Edison ushered in the 20th Century with his applications of electric power, but the Age of Steam made Edison possible.

Napoleon, of course, realized the impact of his overturn of the older monarchies of Europe, and he saw the release of the ideas of Voltaire as throwing the world into a turmoil it could not handle.

Josiah Hornblower was not afraid of new ideas. He welcomed a new country where the older distinctions of class were less powerful than the recognition of ability.

Born an Englishman, he embraced America. In that, he has been like every other immigrant who came to these shores and passed through Belleville on the way into the American mainstream.

The more we study Hornblower, the more he becomes the prototype of the modern American.

We are a nation of inventors and tinkers. We are stirred by new horizons. We tire of older surroundings. We have faith in the progress of mankind.

Not everyone shares those ideas, but those who reject them have no real substitute, except conformity or chaos.

Even the way the celebration of Josiah Hornblower Day came into being is an example of individual enterprise and individual effort.

No government official was involved. No organization promoted it. It was all out of the efforts of a single man, Louis Cicenia, who is probably more in the Josiah Hornblower mold than even he realizes.

Lou was laughed at, ignored and even opposed. But he brought it off.

Now Belleville can begin to count its blessings, and it can start realizing how many blessings it has. For Josiah Hornblower was only one among the many who created this community, and we should take a good look at all of them.

YOUR OPINION

Doc Noonan on Juntas

To the editor:

I'm afraid that I will have to take exception to your referring to Marina Perna, Mario Drozd, Charles Cerami and myself as a cabal.

Junta is a very acceptable word that we have taken directly from the Spanish, as a group of persons who run a nation, usually after a dictator has been disposed of and it is usually a temporary arrangement, to stabilize the government until a democracy is established.

There is no question that Bert Kendall has all the dictatorial powers of Hitler or an absolute monarch like Louis XIV. He hires and fires as he pleases, he doesn't need advice and consent of the council and he only refers to the law (NISA) when it suits his purpose.

A cabal implies, as per dictionary, "a secret group of plotters or political conspirators (1989 Edition of New Merriam Webster Dictionary). There has been nothing secret about the way I feel about the current government.

Of the four "conspirators" three have been elected At Large (represent all the people of Belleville) and none of the four have any members of their family working for the town. Since they are not working for their own aggrandizement or wealth maybe they are viewing our town only for altruistic reasons.

Ask any student of German History what resulted when a government was controlled by a dictatorial manager, especially the period from 1932 to 1945.

Frank J. Noonan, M.D.

(Editor's Note) Of course, the Township Manager has "dictatorial" powers in appointing people to jobs. That is the whole idea of the Council-Manager form of government, to keep patronage out of the hands of the politicians. And, of course, the Council Junta would indeed like to name a new Township Manager, one who would be more compliant to its orders. Again, we note that the voters endorsed Bert Kendall in the last Municipal Election. Neither a Hitler nor the Junta pay much attention to the will of the voters.

• THE National Rifle Association is spearheading a drive to repeal New Jersey's tough ban on large-magazines, semi-automatic "assault firearms". Republican Assemblyman Robert Martin of Morris County, who in the past voted twice to repeal the legislation, now has recognized the error of his ways and has publicly stated he will not support an override of Gov. Jim Florio's promised veto of the repeal bill. Assemblyman Martin is asking his fellow Republican Assembly members "whether the Legislature can stand up to the special interests". He pointedly made references to the National Rifle Association's pressure to defeat the proposed initiative and referendum amendment to the Constitution. Four other Republicans, to their credit, also oppose repealing the existing ban on assault firearms. They are the outstanding Assemblywoman Maureen Ogden and Assemblymen Monroe Jay Lustbader, Arthur Albohn and David Russo. The Republican Assembly members from Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield have all caved in to the pressures of the National Rifle Association, voting to repeal New Jersey's tough ban.

Five regional offices and more than fifty district offices will be closed. Senior postal managers will be cut from 42 to 24. 140,000 long-term employees will be eligible for early retirement options starting August 17th.

SAILING TO KNOWLEDGE — Children at the Shafter Branch Library constructed a little boat and sailed the boats in a special program for the Discover New Worlds Reading program, recently held. The departure was from Palos, Spain, and the arrival, the New World. This was a special event also for the Columbus Quincentennial celebration. Shown, in the far right of the picture, is Fred Lewis, Branch librarian, with the children who attended.

Abstract watercolors, acrylics

On exhibit during the month of August in the Trustees Gallery of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center is an exhibit of abstract watercolors and acrylics by Assistant Library Director Adrea Gwen Cohen. "I love creating abstracts as it gives me the opportunity to mix colors and forms harmoniously to achieve an effect," Adrea has stated. "Since I enjoy creativity in my everyday living and job, I find it relaxing not to have to paint with rigidity, but with colors, shapes and relationships as a concrete experience."

Cohen has studied oil painting with professional artist Nina Lalin of Wayne for several years and watercolors with professional artist Joan Samsel, formerly of Belleville. Cohen has served as a former Board Member of the Printmaking Council of New Jersey and has served as an Associate of the New Jersey Committee for the Humanities.

A Past President and Executive Board member of the New Jersey Library Association, Cohen has also served as President of the Paterson Area Zonta Club, an international organization of women in the professions and business. She is active in the Literature Department of the Woman's Club of Belleville, a Charter member and Program Chair of the Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, a member of Phi Beta Mu, International Library Service Society, and currently Chair of Libraries in Focus, a cable consortium of 28 New Jersey libraries.

She enjoys hobbies of walking, playing tennis, playing the piano, and takes pride in her husband, Roy, a Fort Lee CPA, her daughter Pamela, a New York City attorney, and her daughter, Bonnie, a senior at Rutgers University.

Cohen has exhibited at the Wayne Public Library and at the New Jersey Library Association Spring Conference in the librarian's showcase.

The Republicans Are Coming Houston Gets Ready

Houston

Houston, the largest city in Texas, is a big center for business, medicine and space research. Many oil, gas and other energy companies have their headquarters there.

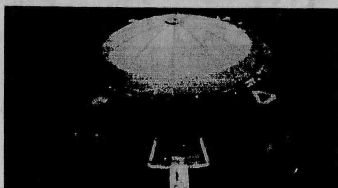

Houston was named after Sam Houston (1793-1863). He was an outstanding leader who served as U.S. senator and governor of Texas.

Houston is 50 miles from the Gulf Coast. It is also one of the busiest ports in the United States. How can that be?

Answer:

Houston is connected to the Gulf of Mexico by the Houston Ship Channel.

Buffalo Bayou (bi-yu), a narrow, shallow channel, was deepened and widened. Today large ships and barges travel up and down the channel.

The Houston Host Committee is in charge of getting the city ready. (Texans are often pictured wearing cowboy hats since the state has so many cattle ranches.)

The city is expecting

- 2,209 delegates
- 2,209 alternates

Busy, busy, busy! For more than two years, Houston has been getting ready to host the Republican convention.

The Republican National Convention will be held Aug. 17-20.

This is the second time the Astrodome has been the site of a convention.

- 4,418 family members and friends
- 15,000 media

Total:

Here are some of the Houston committees:

VISIT NASA, TEXAS Entertainment: prepares a city guide of things to do and places to visit and eat.	HOW ABOUT SOME TEXAS CHILI? Delegation: plans welcoming parties to be held on Sunday, Aug. 16.	THANK YOU! Media: prepares a press kit, or special guide to be used by reporters.	WE'LL NEED SECURITY. Special events: makes plans for the president's arrival and departure.
LOOKS GREAT! Clean-up: spruces up the city so it will look good to the visitors.	WE NEED HELP! Volunteer: organizes the 15,000 people who offer to help.	THANK YOU! Hospitality: runs information booths and gives out "goodie bags" with gifts.	WELCOME! Distinguished visitors: takes special care of important foreign guests.

A Mini Page To-Do Pretend that a convention is being held in your city. Make a list of the points of interest you would like the visitors to see.

Republicans Get Ready

Throughout the country, delegates are packing their bags. They are getting ready to go to Houston.

Delegates sit or stand on the convention floor. They mingle and talk, even through many speeches.

Much of the work of the convention is done by committees. Here are a few:

- The National Committee runs the convention. There are members from every state.
- The Credentials Committee checks to see that the delegates have the qualifications to vote.
- The Rules Committee decides the rules and order of business.
- The Platform Committee writes the platform. A platform is a list of party ideals or goals. Each goal is called a plank.

Fact-a-roonie

The U.S. government provides nearly $11 million dollars for each convention. The city of Houston also raises money to help pay for the added expenses of the convention. Many businesses and citizens donate money.

For ready-to-readers: Look through your newspaper for the donkey (Democratic) and the elephant (Republican) symbols.

Political convention Fact-a-roonies

Political conventions were not mentioned in the Constitution. They have become an American tradition.

Frederick Douglass was the first black to receive a vote for the presidential nomination. This happened at the Republican convention of 1888. Benjamin Harrison was nominated.

Today, political conventions usually last about four days. The Democratic convention of 1924 was the longest ever. It lasted 17 days. It took 103 ballots for the party to finally nominate John W. Davis for president.

In a convention, there is a roll call of states. Someone from each state announces how that state's delegates wish to vote. When a roll call is completed, we call it a ballot.

The first woman to win a nomination at a convention was Geraldine Ferraro. She was nominated as vice president at the Democratic convention in 1984.

Check your TV schedule for Wednesday, Aug. 19. This is the night the Republicans will nominate their presidential candidate.

Belleville

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville junior legion baseball team competed in the prestigious state tournament last week and fared well. Coached by Steve Tice and Chris Cantarella, the team won five of seven games, losing only to Berkeley Heights. The tourney started with a 7-0 blanking of Burlington. A fired up group of Bucs scored once in the first, three times in the second and two more in the third to put the game out of reach early.

Brian Dena was the winning pitcher, improving his record to 5-2 and boosting the team mark to 16-3 in the process. Dena pitched six innings, allowing just one hit and fanning six.

In the second inning, Anthony Pace scored on an error, Sal Berardi scored on Jerry Turf's hit and Matt McGough crossed the plate thanks to a hit by Robert Dena.

Pace had an RBI double in the third, scoring Sam Marino. Pace later scored the sixth Belleville run in the third inning off a Burlington error.

Offensively, Brian Dena was 2 for 4, Robert Dena finished 2 for 3 with a ribbie and Pace was 2 for 4 with two runs scored, two doubles and one ribbie.

The Bucs lost a heartbreaker to Berkeley Heights in round two of the states. Joe DePeri was the hard luck losing pitcher, in relief of starting pitcher Dan Brunello. "Our pitchers were uncharacteristically wild," Cantarella said. "Also, we hit too many fly balls."

Belleville jumped out to a 2-0 lead with solo runs in the top of the first and third innings. B.H. came back with three runs in the third, then scored single runs in the sixth and seventh innings.

Brian Dena was 2 for 4 and DePeri finished 2 for 3 with an RBI.

The Bucs rebounded in game three to edge Park Ridge in a wild game, 8-7. Belleville rallied from early 2-0 and 3-1 deficits to take a 7-3 lead in the fourth inning. The Bucs then scored one run in the fifth, then held on as Park Ridge scored runs in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings to narrow the deficit.

The Bucs had 12 hits in the game. McGough was 2 for 4, Robert Dena finished 1 for 2 with an RBI, Marino had two hits and scored a run while Joe Cotugno collected three hits and drove in two runs.

McGough was the winning pitcher, improving his season record to 2-0. He won in relief of DePeri, who pitched the first two innings. Brian Dena came on to pitch one inning and earn the save.

The victory was Belleville's 17th of the summer.

The bats were red hot in game four of the tourney. The Bucs blasted DelRan 13-5, collecting 15 hits in the process. Belleville scored four times in the second and added six more in the third to put the game out of reach.

Marc Bruzzio hurled a marvelous game for the Bucs. He won his first game of the season and had a no hitter for 6 1/3 innings. For the game, Bruzzio allowed just one hit and one earned run.

Cantarella credited catcher Robert Dena with calling a fine game.

Offensively, Brian Dena collected three hits and drove in a run. McGough was 2 for 3 with three runs scored, Robert Dena collected two hits and two ribbies; Marino had two hits, scored two runs and drove in three and Cotugno collected two hits, two ribbies and scored two runs.

In the final round of the losers bracket, Belleville took on Bloomfield and prevailed 7-3. The win was especially gratifying because the Bucs had lost a late regular season contest to the Bengals at Foley Field.

This time, it was all Belleville as the Bucs scored twice in the first and four more in the second. Brian Dena was the winning pitcher, hurling a complete game and striking out six.

Dena's control was erratic as he walked 12, but he pitched out of trouble throughout the game.

"Brian could have really been hurt by so many walks, but he settled down and let his defense help him," Cantarella said. "A lot of the walks he allowed came with two outs."

The Bucs had seven hits in the game. Robert Dena led the offense with two hits and two ribbies.

In the finals, the Bucs split a doubleheader with Berkeley Heights, winning the first game, 7-1 but falling in the nightcap, 7-6.

In the first game, Brunello was the winning pitcher, improving his record to 4-1. Brunello pitched a complete game, allowing five hits and striking out eight.

The Bucs scored four times in the third, once in the fourth and two more in the seventh to seal the win. The offense came through with 14 hits.

McGough and Brunello led the way with three hits each. McGough had a double, scored a run and drove in

Bucs do well in summer league

By Mike Lamberti

All in all, it was a good summer for the Belleville boys' basketball team. The Bucs competed in the Glen Ridge Summer League and did pretty well, according to varsity coach Don Roll.

"We finished 5-5 and lost our final two games," Roll said. "David (Boyd) and Teddy (Sochaski) did a real good job in coaching. I wasn't so much concerned with wins and losses as I was about our playing as many kids as possible."

"We had a few kids that were injured and work schedules held a few of the kids back. But it was good experience for the kids because they have to learn how to play when we're not at full speed."

One of Roll's biggest concerns was giving Ken Johansen ample time to learn the point guard position. Johansen, who will be a co-captain this winter, played the two guard and small forward last season. At 6'3" tall, he could be a very valuable man at the point.

"We've never had a guy that big playing the point," Roll said. "He will be able to see over defenses and run our break. Ken has two years of varsity experience, so he knows what to expect. I'm confident he can do the job."

Dennis DeWork, the other co-captain is expected to handle a good deal of the scoring work. The upcoming senior has a good chance of entering the 1,000 point club before his career is over.

"Dennis is progressing very well," Roll said. "He's our go-to guy, along with Kenny. I think he's ready to handle that pressure. Dennis has been working for this the past four years."

Kevin Johansen played very well this summer, too. The senior, according to Roll, is a natural talent who can play the two guard or the small forward position.

"He might be our best three point shooter," Roll said. "Kevin has the ability to score anywhere on the floor. He's also a very aggressive rebounder."

Senior Mike Cristy, perhaps the tallest player on the team at 6'5", suffered an ankle injury and hardly played this summer. Roll is hoping Cristy will be 100 percent for the start of basketball season.

"He came around pretty well at the end of last season," Roll said. "Michael gives us a presence in the paint and he can score some key points for us."

Westley Costa did a real good job in the summer league. A guard, Costa showed good scoring prowess and impressed Roll with a solid work ethic.

"I wish he had played as a freshman and sophomore," Roll said of Costa. "He has shown tremendous progress over the past year."

A busy work schedule kept Anthony Parzanese from steady competition this summer. But Roll is hopeful that Parzanese will be able to make some big contributions to the Bucs this winter.

Sophomore forward Dennis Capriglione played very well in the summer league. Roll figures Capriglione to be a JV player at the beginning of the '92-'93 season, but feels the sophomore could be a varsity contributor if he continues to improve.

Other players who contributed to the summer league include

Jason Albert, Tyree Sumner, Frank Means, Kevin Rivera, Alex Alexandre and Michael Sobanko.

"Jason Albert is a strong kid who could step right into a varsity position," Roll said. "He has that type of potential."

Frank Means has a world of talent. He gives us speed and is an outstanding defensive player. He can also score consistently."

As for the overall performance in the summer league, Roll seemed satisfied.

"We didn't play with enough intensity. Maybe we can use that game as an example of how important it is to always play with intensity."

"I was pleased with the effort against Montclair. We lost by two points and played most of the game without Dennis (DeWork).

"I guess the toughest part about summer league basketball is developing a cohesive unit. Vacations, legion baseball, jobs, they all affect having a steady lineup. But we got the chance to play a lot of kids and they did a good job."

Now, the emphasis shifts to November. What the players do between now and the first day of practice the day after Thanksgiving will determine to a good extent the level of success the Bucs have next winter.

"The kids have to play basketball as much as possible," Roll said. "It's as simple as that. You're not going to get better in this game unless you play it as much as possible."

Giuffrida run set for Oct. 4 at High School

By Mike Lamberti

Believe it or not, it's almost time for the annual Sam Giuffrida Run.

Race coordinator Lorraine Leming has announced that the third annual run will be held on Sunday, October 4 at Belleville High School.

The race, in memory of Sam Giuffrida, the Hall of Fame crew coach and Belleville High School teacher who passed away in 1989, was first held in the Fall of 1990 with 125 runners in attendance. Last year, the number of runners doubled.

"We're hoping for another good turnout," Leming said. "We hopefully will have good weather."

The event has been blessed with marvelous weather the first two years. There will be two runs, a one mile fun run which should commence about 9 a.m. and the five mile race, which starts and ends at Belleville High and covers a good part of Belleville in between, which kicks off at about 10 a.m.

Right now, corporate sponsors are needed for the event. We'll have more information about the race in an upcoming issue. In the meantime, contact Leming if you interest in being a corporate sponsor. You can leave a message for her by calling Belleville High School during regular business hours.

'82 Passaic win is #1

Senesky's 15 most memorable games

By Mike Lamberti

He has been at the helm of the Belleville football program since Jimmy Carter was President and disco was in the music. When he first took over as head coach, the deaths of Elvis and Bing Crosby in a span of two months had stunned the nation.

Reggie Jackson and Thurman Munson were leading the New York Yankees to its first World Series triumph in 15 years. Some of easy, but after that, the remaining games were all great."

We begin what this writer has termed THE GAME. As was mentioned in last week's Buc Shots, next month will mark the tenth anniversary of THE GAME. In professional football, most people will argue the '58 Giants-CFL title game was the best in the history of the league.

College football fans will argue the '66 game between Notre Dame

Cancelliere kicked a 36 yard field goal in the second quarter to give the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The lead held until the final seconds of regulation time when Cancelliere, also the Bucs punter, stepped out of his own end zone instead of kicking a punt block that could have led to a last minute Passaic win.

Three of the players in that game are in the NFL today. Belleville's Dave Grant plays for Cincinnati while Craig Hayward and Tyrone Stowe of Passaic are with New Orleans and Phoenix respectively.

The emotion of that victory can still be felt today. The Bucs went on to finish 8-1 in the regular season and earn a post season berth. Passaic rebounded to finish 9-2. The Indians eventually won the Group IV, Section I championship in early December.

2) Belleville 21, Montclair 20. At Belleville High, October, 1986.

The Bucs had lost its first two games and after struggling in 1985 with a 2-7 record, this team needed a lift. The Star Ledger predicted Montclair to win by a 28-0 count. That prediction turned out to be a rallying cry for the Bucs on the sidelines during this contest.

Montclair had been to the previous four state championship games, winning in 1983. Thus, it wouldn't be easy for Belleville to beat this powerhouse. In addition, the Bucs had not beaten Montclair since 1980.

Jay Marchese, Jim Dunphy, Jeff Spillsbury, John Magi, Gerard Corbo and Jason Galloti all played tremendously. Late in regulation time, Montclair had cut the lead to 21-20 and went for two points in an attempt to win. Belleville's Vinnie Vollerio made the key tackle at the one yard line to seal the win.

The victory was Belleville's first in a year and propelled the team to six wins in its last seven games in 1986.

3) Belleville 14, Morris Knolls 7. At Glenside Stadium, November, 1980.

It was Belleville's first playoff victory in school history. The Bucs jumped out to a 14-0 lead before Morris Knolls scored in the fourth quarter to make things interesting.

Paul Scheuplein led the Belleville attack with 135 yards rushing. Lujl Chimento and Anthony Jamie Galloti gets off punt during 1986 game with Passaic.

D'Agostino paced a blistering defense that kept Morris Knolls off balance the entire evening.

"Morris Knolls had a tremendous team," Senesky remembered. "Our defense was able to control their speed. It was a big win for the program."

The victory moved Belleville to the Group IV, Section II finals against West Essex. At the conclusion of the Morris Knolls game, the famous song by Queen, "Another One Bites the Dust" was played on the Giants Stadium speakers as the Bucs ran off the field in victory. That song was Belleville's theme song during the marvelous '80 campaign.

4) Belleville 7, Montclair 6. At Belleville High School, October, 1980.

In a driving rainstorm on a Friday evening at Municipal Stadium, the Bucs scored on its first drive of the evening, thanks to the strong

Football registration

There will be registration for the Belleville Recreation Department's 1992 Junior Buc football program at the Recreation House, 407 Joramelon Street, now through Aug. 14. Boys who will be 8 years old before Sept. 1 and who will not be 14 before Sept. 1 are eligible. Those wishing to play tackle football must weigh a minimum of 60 pounds and a maximum of 135 pounds, and no one above 8th grade can play. Players will be broken down into three teams according to specific age/weight requirements as set by the Suburban Twin County Football League.

To register, players must obtain an application from their school or the recreation department office. All completed applications with parent approval must be brought to the Recreation House by Aug. 14, with two passport size photos of the player and a copy of his birth certificate. All returning players from last year's team must re-apply. Practices will begin around Aug. 17. Players who choose to participate in tackle football cannot also play soccer or touch football in the same season.

Soccer & touch football applications

Applications for the Belleville Recreation 1992 Fall Sports programs are now available in the schools and at the Recreation office. Boys and girls ages 7-14 may participate in recreation soccer. Belleville resident children who will be 7 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 14 on Dec. 31 are eligible. Nobody above 8th grade can play, and all returning players must re-apply.

Boys ages 8-10 can play touch football. Belleville boys who will be 8 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 10 on Dec. 31 are eligible. All returning players must re-apply.

For both soccer and touch football, all completed applications must be returned to the Recreation Department, 407 Joramelon Street, with birth certificates. The registration deadline for soccer is Aug. 14, and the deadline for touch football is Aug. 28. Children are advised not to register for more than one full sport since football, soccer and touch football game and practice schedules conflict.

Pre-school leader needed

The Belleville Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs is presently seeking an adult to serve as its afternoon Pre-School Play Program Leader. The Pre-School program meets Monday through Friday afternoons, 12:45-2:45 p.m., and will begin its new session on Sept. 21.

Qualified applicants for this part-time position must have a minimum of one year of recreation leadership experience and/or a teaching background experience. Other necessary requirements will be reviewed with the successful candidate at the time of hire.

All applicants must submit a signed Application for Employment and must furnish two written references. For further information or to obtain an application, please contact the Recreation Dept. at 450-3422.

Soccer coaches needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking persons interested in coaching its 7 to 14 year old soccer league. The league is separated into several divisions according to specific age groups.

The children learn the basics of soccer and all those attending regular practices play in all games. Games are played on Saturdays and Sundays afternoons, beginning mid-September. All volunteer coaches will be required to attend a certification clinic by the NYSCA before the season begins.

Those interested in coaching may call the Recreation Department at 450-3422 weekdays before 4 p.m.

Basketball team needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is presently seeking at least one team to play in its Men's Basketball league beginning in November. The league plays on Thursday nights at the Middle School, using primarily high school rules. There is a residency requirement, mandating that two-thirds of the team be Belleville residents.

Football coaches needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is presently taking names of people who would be interested in coaching for either the Junior Bucs or Touch Football programs. Volunteers who are interested should contact the Recreation Department at 450-3422.

Basketball permits required

Effective Aug. 15, basketball permits will be required of all persons wishing to play basketball on the Rec House courts.

Use of these courts will be restricted to Belleville residents only and will be monitored by a Recreation Department and/or Police Department representative. Non-residents will not be permitted to play and will be asked to leave.

To obtain a permit, you must visit the Recreation Department office weekdays during regular hours (8:30-12:00 or 1:00-4:00). All applicants/players must furnish:

1. Positive identification with photo.
2. Proof of residency.
 - a. If age 17 or older, only a valid driver's license will be accepted.
 - b. If school age, a high school I.D. card or current report card will be accepted.

Permits must be in person's possession in order to play.

running of Pete Haverick. Montclair came right back on the ensuing drive to narrow the lead, but the Mounties missed the point after kick.

The remainder of the game was a defensive struggle. Scheuplein made a key interception late in regulation time to seal the win. The victory was Belleville's first of the season. The Bucs had lost the previous week to Livingston, 36-12 in the season opener. The team would not lose again until the state finals in December to West Essex at Giants Stadium.

5) Belleville 13, Passaic 9. At Passaic High School, October, 1980.

The Bucs had struggled to victories over Montclair and Nutley heading into this game at Passaic. The Indians were undefeated and had some talented players. The lead went back and forth. The running of Frank Fazzini gave Belleville a 7-6 lead, but Passaic regained the advantage on a field goal early in the fourth quarter, 9-7.

The Bucs rallied late in the game, thanks to the passing of John Melillo and the key catches by Billy Walsh and Scheuplein. It was Scheuplein's one handed catch in the end zone that put Belleville ahead for good.

Fazzini had been moved to full-back in this game. He had started the season as the halfback. The move was a big boost to the Bucs. Fazzini rushed for 106 yards in the win over Passaic and proceeded to run wild the next seven weeks.

Fazzini would gain over 1,000 yards rushing before the end of the season and the Bucs would post a 9-2 mark in 1980.

6) Belleville 34, Seton Hall Prep 8. At Seton Hall University, November, 1980.

"I remember there was a stiff wind at Seton Hall that day," Senesky said. "We won the toss for the opening kickoff and elected to kick off. It turned out to be a big help to us."

The Bucs dominated this game, taking a 21-0 lead before the Hall tallied a TD just before halftime.

In the second half, scores by Fazzini and Kenny Constantinou sealed the win. Fazzini rushed for over 200 yards and scored three touchdowns. Phil Cerza paced the defensive effort.

The Bucs had dedicated the game to Craig Mack, then a sophomore lineman who had suffered a serious spleen injury the week of the game. Mack would make a full recovery, playing a key role on the 1982 team.

As for this game, the victory improved Belleville's record to 6-1 and set up a game with Clark that would enable the Bucs to earn a berth in the post season playoffs.

7) Belleville 28, Kearny 19. At Belleville High School, Thanksgiving, 1981.

In a see saw battle, the Bucs capped a 7-2 season by beating their then traditional Thanksgiving rival, Kearny. The key play in the game came on an option pass from Fazzini to Eugene Cancelliere.

"Ralph Borgess was coaching Kearny then and he had them up for the game," Senesky recalled. "We always had tough games with them, especially in the first half. We needed all the breaks we could muster to win."

Fazzini clinched the Essex County scoring championship in 1981 by scoring two TD's in the game. For the season, he rushed for over 800 yards, and that was with a bad ankle for a good part of the season.

The '81 Bucs were an underrated team. The only two losses incurred by the Bucs came to teams with a combined record of 22-4. The Bucs lost to Passaic, 7-0 in week four and dropped a 27-7 game to Seton Hall in week seven. The Seton Hall game was tied at seven in the fourth quarter before the Hall scored three times to seal the win.

Next week, we'll continue our look at Senesky's Top 15 games, along with an Honorable Mention of a few that rank just below the Top 15.

two more. Robert Dena was 2 for 4 with two ribbies and a run scored.

In the final game, the Bucs lost a tough game to B.H. 7-6. It was a back and forth contest, with Belleville taking a first inning 1-0 lead, B.H. taking a 3-1 lead, Belleville tying it three all, then falling behind 5-3.

The Bucs came as close as 5-4, but Berkeley Heights held on by scoring two runs in the sixth inning. The Bucs outlived B.H. 12-10.

Brunello pitched the second game, but he was tired and pitched the first 1 2/3 innings. McGough hurled the final 4 2/3 and was quite effective, allowing just two runs.

"Dan was a little tired," Cantarella said, "but Matt came in and closed the door. Our kids never quit, they kept coming back and played hard. That's all you can ask for."

Cotugno had two hits, scored two runs and drove in a run. Berardi was 2 for 4 with three ribbies and Frank Tortorello had two hits.

The Bucs lineup for the final game featured McGough in leftfield and later as a pitcher, Jerry Turl in second, Brian Dena at first, Robert Dena catching, DePeri at shortstop, Marino in rightfield, Cotugno at third, Sal Berardi in center and Tortorello in leftfield.

We'll have a wrap up on the 1992 season in an upcoming issue. Congratulations to the team on a fine season. The Bucs posted a record of 20-5 and advanced to the title round of the state tourney.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

Tom Seaver retired Don Baylor for the final out for Seaver's 300th career victory. The game was played at Yankee Stadium in 1985. Seaver was a pitcher for the Chicago White Sox. Reid Nichols made the catch for the final out.

FOR THIS WEEK

As a Cardinal fan, the 1992 baseball season has been far from favorable. But ten years ago, the Cards won the World Series. Who did the Cards play in the Series that year? How many games did the Series go? Who did St. Louis defeat in the N.L. championship series? Who did the Cardinals World Series opponent defeat in the A.L. Series? What was the Cardinals starting infield for the final game of the '82 Series?

BELLEVILLE*Renaissance CommitteeSTATE OF NEW JERSEY
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT*Proclamation*

WHEREAS, based on the historic fact that in 1753, Jostiah Hornblower, an English engineer and associate - and rival - of James Watt, set up the first functioning steam engine in the Western Hemisphere in Belleville, New Jersey to pump water from the Schuylar copper mines; and

WHEREAS, some 40 years later, the first steam engine to be built in the United States of America was made in a Belleville foundry, commissioned by Nicholas Roosevelt (great-uncle of both Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Theodore Roosevelt) to power the first experimental steamboat in America, The Polacca, which negotiated the Passaic River on October 21, 1793, several years before Robert Fulton's Clermont sailed the Hudson; and

WHEREAS, since the invention of the steam engine is considered by historians to be the beginning of the Industrial Revolution, and because the presence of Hornblower in Belleville brought to the town many of the creators of the American industry - including members of the Rutgers family, many of whom are buried in Belleville, in the cemetery of the old Dutch Reformed Church - we consider that Belleville has a rightful claim to the title of Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution; and

WHEREAS, these historic facts were gathered and correlated for their historic significance by the Belleville Times, official newspaper of Belleville Township, which first proposed the formal recognition of Belleville's place in history;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIM FLORIO, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby recognize

BELLEVILLE

New Jersey, as the Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution, I urge the U.S. Congress to accord the same honor to this New Jersey community.

GIVEN, under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this twenty-fifth day of March in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ninety-two and of the Independence of the United States, the two hundred and sixteenth.

St. Mary's School in Nutley has closed its doors after 71 years, and OBC-TV was there.
Front Page Edition with host Lee Spinelli, one of the most watched shows on Channel 36, Suburban and Channel 20, UA Columbia, once again shows why it is so popular with the local viewers.
Spinelli, the host and executive producer, says the show's popularity is due in part to OBC-TV's new image. It is up-to-the-minute, and definitely in touch with the communities it serves — all 12 of them! Front Page Edition, in particular is a new show based entirely on local news with the emphasis on national and state issues. The viewers are enjoying the series.
The latest entry, St. Mary's School Closing, covered the Banquet held at the Chandelier Restaurant in Belleville in honor of the Sisters of Charity who have devoted the last 71 years to the school, and to honor the current faculty and Principal, Sister Marie Chantilly.
If you attended St. Mary's School, or if you know anyone who did, let them know that a TV special has been done in honor of the school, its founders and the people who make it the special place it was. A must see for all.
Airing on OBC-TV, Channel 36 Suburban Cable and Channel 20, UA Columbia on:
Thursday, Aug. 13, 8 p.m.; Friday, Aug. 14, 9:30 p.m.; Monday, Aug. 17, 9:30 p.m.; Friday, Aug. 21, 9:30 p.m.

All-day kindergarten will receive its tryout

Some 25 youngsters will be enrolled in the Belleville school district's first "all-day" kindergarten class, at School 3, Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello has announced.

They will attend class from 8:30 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.

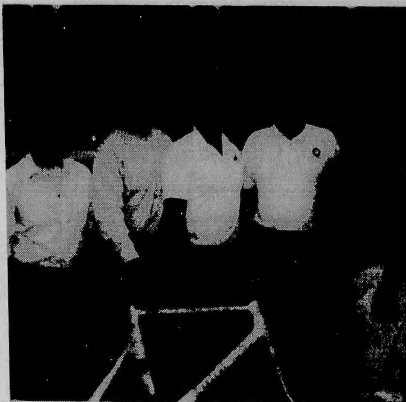

Present kindergarten classes are split into two sections, each attending a half day.

Parent demand has been a factor in trying out the longer kindergarten session school officials said.

Also, there was the possibility that educational quality might be improved. Notices are being sent out to the parents of the 260 children now enrolled in kindergarten. Those who wish to have their children in the all-day session will have their names put in a pool from the winning names will be drawn by lot.

Parents must also agree to provide transportation for their children, between home and school. "If it works out, then we may have the all-day session in all the schools," Nardiello said. "In the meantime, this is an experiment."

BUILDING MUSCLE - Belleville sports chiropractor, Dr. Ken D'Elia, far right, was on the neuromuscular support team for the 150-mile bike race sponsored by the National MS Society, Northern New Jersey Chapter. He is an active member of the New Jersey Chiropractic Society's Sports Council.

Rapid weight loss unhealthy for young athletes

Some young athletes carry weight control to unhealthy extremes. They use dangerous rapid weight-loss methods to qualify for competition in lower weight divisions.

Coaches and parents should discourage this practice.

Like everyone else, young athletes require some body fat to maintain normal health and body function. When young people are not overweight and attempt rapid weight loss, they lose mostly water and lean muscle, not fat. This results in dehydration, impaired body-temperature control and diminished strength, endurance and heart-pumping action. All of these changes could lead to poor athletic performance.

For safe body-weight reduction:

- Check with your doctor. He or she will determine how much, if any, weight you need to lose, prepare a sound nutritional eating plan and give you weight-loss advice.
- Do it gradually — taking at least five weeks for every 10 pound loss — through sound nutrition and dietary planning. The goal for athletes is to increase the ratio of lean weight to fat weight — to achieve a high lean-muscle mass and a low body-fat content.

- Avoid severe calorie restriction, fasting, laxatives, diuretics, fluid restriction and self-induced vomiting.

- Ask a physician to help you establish the desirable range of acceptable (DRA) percentage of body-fat values for your sex, age and bone structure.

The desired percentage of body-fat averages 10 to 13 percent of body weight for non-athlete male high school students. Even competing high school wrestlers should carry no less than five to seven percent body-fat.

For non-competing female students, the DRA body-fat percentage is 16 to 25 percent. For female high school athletes, the DRA body-fat percentage is between 12 and 14 percent of body weight.

Don't depend on insurance company charts or popular magazines to determine your "ideal" weight. If you aren't sure what it should be, visit a wellness or fitness center where a health professional can weigh you underwater and determine the exact DRA percentage for your age, sex and activity level.

AMONG THE ELECT - Betty Ann Cozzarelli of Belleville and Dr. Richard Guarino of Glen Ridge congratulate each other. Dr. Guarino has been elected President of the Lacordaire Academy Parents' Guild. Mrs. Cozzarelli has been elected Elementary School Parent Representative of the Executive Board of the Guild.

Foundation sponsors 50s rock concert

The Charles Seller Foundation was founded in 1950 when a young Charles Seller was struck by a train. In order to pay for his medical bills his friends put on a variety show. They called this show Talent Time. Since then the Charles Seller Foundation presents Talent Time during the summer months. Every summer Talent Time produces a different play to help pay for the high medical bills of a needy child in the area. The Charles Seller Foundation is a nonprofit organization run solely by young adults who volunteer their time.

This summer Talent Time is putting on the 50s rock n roll musical "Grease." The show is being put on to benefit 3 year old Louis Ricardi of Nutley who has spina bifida. Spina bifida is a birth defect in which there is an abnormal closing of the spine during development. Cases tend to range from mild to severe in degree. It usually occurs in the lumbar spine, but in severe cases it can occur much higher. In a mild case of spina bifida there may be no physical effects. In a severe case it can lead to severe retardation and handicaps or even death.

"Grease" will be presented at the Bloomfield Middle School at 60 Huck Road, Bloomfield, Aug. 14 at 8 p.m. and Aug. 15 at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door for $6 for adults and $3 for children and senior citizens. Donations may be sent to the following address: The Charles Seller Foundation, P.O. Box 1654, Bloomfield, New Jersey 07003.

HARD-TO-SWALLOW FACTS

When taking medication in pill form, it is usually a mistake to crush each pill into powder for easier ingestion. If the medication is in time-release form (as many one-day blood-pressure medications are), it is designed to release slowly and steadily into the bloodstream. By crushing a time-release pill, a patient assures that it will enter the blood all at once and quite possibly cause side effects. Other pills have enteric coatings that prevent their breaking in the stomach. Reducing these medications to powder may induce irritation of the mouth, throat, esophagus and stomach. On the other hand, there are pills that lend themselves perfectly well to crushing, but patients should not attempt to crush a pill without first consulting with the pharmacist or physician.

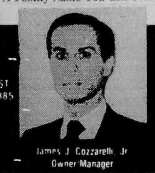

Consultations with our pharmacist are always welcome. We're happy to answer your questions and give advice on how to take medications. Just give us a call at 759-1956 or 759-1968.

ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave. Free prescription delivery is provided. We also handle the sale and rental of convenience items including walkers, wheel chairs, crutches and canes. Open: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 10am-9pm.

HINT: Tilting the head back when taking a pill only elongates the esophagus and makes swallowing more difficult.

The leading edge of style

FOR A FRESH, CUSTOM LOOK in the kitchen or bath, jazz up your countertops with a fancy edge treatment. You can choose from a wide range of products that are designed for just this purpose. Modestly-priced options include laminates with color all the way through, pre-made edge moldings in beveled laminate and wood, and dramatic metallic accent strips. At the high end, today's solid surfacing materials lend themselves to inlays, carvings, and other forms of detailing, just right for the edge of a countertop. For more information on what you can do to add some fresh pizzazz to your kitchen or bath, write to: Wilsonart, Box 6110, Dept. TV, Temple, TX 76503.

The home has become the showpiece of the '90s

®All the hard data might not be in yet, but the trend is clear: American Baby Boomers, who are the great majority of the consumer public, are trading in their nighttime designer duads for well-worn sweats and spending their evenings parked in a lounge chair instead of in a lounge.

The home is the showpiece of the '90s and the majority of today's consumers, the thirty and forty-something Baby Boomers, have transferred their interests from the conspicuous consumption of jewelry, expensive electronic toys and cars, to buying high-quality, high-value products for their homes.

"Today's home is the central core of our lives — the place for raising children, recovering from the tensions of work, and entertaining our friends and family. These homes have to be both practical and beautiful," says Martha Stewart, entertaining expert and lifestyle consultant to Kmart.

Today's homemaker wants it all...the home, the job, the family, the garden. She's reworked the "super-woman" ideal to fit her new lifestyle. How can she accomplish this?

She demands the same high standards of the products and furnishings that she puts in her home — and of the retailers that sell them — that she demands of herself. She prizes convenience and time savings and she will only buy what she considers to be high quality and high value.

Stewart has made her contribution to help today's consumers with her line of beautiful — and affordable — bed and bath linens. They are produced with quality fabrics and workmanship exclusively for Kmart, one of the first American retailers to recognize and adapt to consumers' changing domestic needs.

Martha Stewart has created bedroom ensembles, bath accessories, and coordinating fabric packages for Kmart that all bear her distinctive, homey-yet-chic style. Her bed and bath products offer affordable elegance, high quality and ease of care — everything that spells value for today's consumers.

"I'm thrilled to be a part of Kmart," Stewart says. "It has been wonderfully challenging and exciting for me to work on such a large scale. To me, Kmart represents good value and quality for everyone."
