'A special place in the history of our Nation'

Roe introduces bill for U.S. recognition of Belleville as Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution

By Howard Klausner

Representative Robert A. Roe, 8th District, on Monday introduced a Resolution calling upon the Congress and the President of the United States to recognize Belleville formally as Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution, based on the bringing of the steam engine here by Josiah Hornblower in 1753.

Roe's Washington office transmitted a copy of the Resolution to Louis Cicenia, Chairman of the Belleville Renaissance Committee. A spokesperson for Roe advised Cicenia that a concurrent Senate Resolution would also be required to enact the proposal.

Cicenia said on Tuesday that he planned to contact both Senator Frank Lautenberg of New Jersey and Senator Joseph Biden of Delaware, with whom Cicenia is acquainted, to sponsor the Senate Resolution.

In an address to Congress, Roe noted that New Jersey Governor James Florio had proclaimed Belleville's historic status. He also noted that the Belleville Times was instrumental in pressing for recognition, along with Cicenia, and Edward O'Neil and Robert MacFayden of the Belleville Historical Society.

The Resolution was referred to the House Committee on Post Office and Commerce.

MacFayden, president of the Historical Society, provided most of the information to Roe's office on which the Resolution is based.

"Belleville has a special place in the history of our Nation," Roe stated.

"As the site of the first functioning steam engine operating in the Western Hemisphere and the foundry where the first American steam engine was manufactured and constructed, Belleville has the unique distinction of witnessing the spark which heralded the beginning of the American Industrial Revolution."

Roe added: "In recognition of these momentous occurrences and the many other significant historic events in which Belleville has taken part, it can truly be called the Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution."

The text of the Resolution, listed as House Concurrent Resolution 374, is as follows:

Whereas in 1753, Josiah Hornblower, an English engineer who was an associate and rival of James Watt, assembled the first functioning steam engine in the Western Hemisphere in Belleville, New Jersey, to pump water from the Schuylker copper mines;

Whereas, approximately 40 years after such assembly, the first steam engine made in the United States was manufactured in a foundry in Belleville from designs by Josiah Hornblower;

Whereas the designs were commissioned by Nicholas Roosevelt, who was the great-uncle of Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Theodore Roosevelt, to power the Polacca, which was the first experimental steamboat in the United States;

Whereas, the Polacca negotiated the Passaic River on October 21, 1798, which was several years before Robert Fulton's boat, Clermont, sailed the Hudson River;

Whereas, historians herald the invention of the steam engine as the beginning of the industrial revolution;

Whereas, the presence of Josiah Hornblower in Belleville brought many of the initiators of the industrial revolution in the United States to Belleville;

Whereas, such individuals included members of the Rutgers family, many of whom are buried in the cemetery of the old Dutch Reformed Church in Belleville; and

Whereas, Belleville has a rightful claim to the title "Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution"; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That -

(1) The Congress recognizes Belleville, New Jersey, as the birthplace of the industrial revolution in the United States; and

(2) The President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation honoring Belleville as such birthplace.

PROUD MOMENT - Louis Cicenia, Chairman of the Belleville Renaissance Committee, received word from Washington, D.C. that a Resolution recognizing Belleville's historic status had been introduced in Congress by Representative Robert A. Roe.

Council votes budget amendment 4-to-3 to hike last quarter tax bills by 39 points

By Howard Klausner

If final approval is voted next Tuesday, a $1.2 million shortfall in municipal accounts will be corrected by the taxpayers in their fourth quarter tax payments, in November. The Township Council voted 4-to-3, with one Council member telephoning his vote from his sickbed, to raise the current budget by 39 tax points - averaging $200 for a home valued at $50,000 - to meet outstanding bills.

Councilman Dr. Frank Noonan broke with the Council majority to support the amendment. "We have to pay the bills, Marina," he told Mayor Marina Perna.

Mayor Perna steadfastly refused to vote for the budget increase, claiming that "it had come out of nowhere."

This was disputed by Councilmen Bill Cook and Tom Spillane, who said that on Aug. 28, Township Financial Director Art Minsky had issued a memo warning of the impending budgetary shortfall.

"Why didn't you take action before tonight?" Cook asked the Mayor.

The main cause of the increase was a sharp boost in health care charges by Blue Cross and Blue Shield, amounting to $898,000.

Spillane noted that the increase would have been avoided if his plan to enter the State Health Insurance system had been approved.

"It would have meant a $1.2 million decrease in premiums," Spillane said. He added that this would have been lessened by added coverage required under contracts with township employees, but still would have saved the taxpayers some $800,000.

Other increases included $167,000 for Public Safety; $40,000 for the Fire Department; $19,000 for the Manager's office - because of payouts to Manager Bertrand Kendall when he was forced out by the Council majority; $13,000 for elections; $40,000 for legal expenses; and $98,300 for bills to be paid from the previous year.

Council Jim Messina was telephoned at his home for his vote, and he cast it with Dr. Noonan, Spillane and Cook to pass the amendment.

Voting against it were Mayor Perna, Deputy Mayor Mario Drozd and Councilman Charles Cerami.

Cook warned that if the amendment were not passed next week, the mailing of tax bills would have to be delayed past Nov. 1, and the township would have to borrow money to meet its bills.

"This would cost more than whatever would be saved by us in reducing the budget," he said.

Director Minsky advised the Council, "If the budget increase is not passed, we shall run out of money, and we shall have to start closing down departments, as of Nov. 1."

Cuccio hired on interim basis

The Belleville Township Council unanimously voted to appoint Stephen Cuccio of Wyckoff, as Interim Township Manager, as of Oct. 13.

Cuccio, 60, will receive $60,000 a year without benefits.

Cuccio reportedly informed the Council that he expected to receive benefits from his previous employer, Wayne Township, where he resigned as Township Manager officially two weeks ago.

Cuccio had been one of the finalists being considered for the job of Township Manager in Belleville two years ago, when the decision was made to hire Bertrand Kendall.

Kendall retired under pressure from the Council majority, and received a $43,000 payout.

Cuccio's contract may be terminated on two-weeks notice.

He is still eligible to be named full time manager, but he is not guaranteed the appointment. He had applied for the full time appointment.

Rabbi routs 'nazis' on High Holy Day

Rabbi Dr. Kenneth Simkes, spiritual leader of Congregation Ahavath Achim, encountered two teen-agers who shouted "Heil Hitler!" and "Sieg Heil!" as he walked home from services at the Synagogue on Rosh Hashonah, the Jewish New Year, last week.

Dr. Simkes, who was accompanied by his wife and year-old daughter, advised the pair that he would "knock their blocks off" if they continued, according to an eyewitness. The two youths hurried away.

Eyewitnesses described the youths as in their late teens, one a blonde and the other wearing a bandanna over his hair.

Neither appeared anxious to accept the Rabbi's offer to talk to them, face to face.

Dr. Simkes is a stocky five-foot-six man, and a practicing dentist.

Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello heard about the incident, and met with school principals on the matter. "It is deplorable that something like this could happen," Nardiello said.

Rabbi Simkes said he did not think the young men were of school age.

Elks hosting Blood Drive

The Belleville Elks in conjunction with the North Jersey Blood Center, will be hosting their semi-annual blood drive on Oct. 10, at the Belleville Elks Hall, 254 Washington Avenue, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The Belleville Elks would like to promote community involvement by asking the citizens of Belleville to take an active part in this blood drive by donating blood to this drive which will help maintain an adequate blood supply for our local hospitals.

To assure blood will be there (continued on page 3)

Three young ladies have been selected as Belleville's Bella Signorina and Ladies-in-Waiting for the 1992 Columbus Day Parade, Chairman Mario Drozd of the Parade Committee has announced.

ToniAnne Maria DeLeva and Tara Galio have been selected as Ladies in Waiting. Danielle Simone Mazzuca has been selected as Bella Signorina.

They were selected from many applicants on the basis of academic achievement, community activity and personal appearance.

Miss Mazzuca attends Montclair State College where she is an Honor Student and a member of the Conservation Club. An Honor graduate of Belleville High School, she was a member of the Italian Club, the Foreign Language Club, the Track Team and the Chorus, and she received awards for her poetry and other writing.

She hopes to become a teacher, and enjoys poetry, music, writing and dance.

Miss Galio is a Senior at Belleville High School. She is working as an assistant at a hair salon, hoping to work her way through college. Belleville to be twinned with famed Italian town

Belleville will become a sister city of Lavagne, in the Province of Liguria, Italy, at a ceremony this afternoon (Thursday) at the Belleville Public Library.

Italian officials will be present at a ceremonial signing of a "treaty" between Lavagne and Belleville.

Lavagne - whose name is synonymous with "blackboard" in Italy - is a town of some 13,000 population famed both for its slate quarries and its seaside resort.

A haven for yachts and motor craft, the harbor is on the Riviera

Levant, near Genoa, and is a noted resort.

The town was selected by Italian Senator Emilio Taviani, who visited Belleville earlier this year at the invitation of Mayor Marina Perna.

Taviani is back in America, this time as part of a delegation from Genoa to the Columbus Day Parade in New York City, honoring the Genoese sailor who discovered the New World in 1492.

The event at the Library will include folk dancing and refreshments.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

Deputy Police Chief Mike Petrillo received another telephone call from Singer Frankie Valli recently. It was another request that Petrillo get back into the music industry he left 19 years ago — "But I guess now that you're deputy chief, you'll stay a cop," Valli said. Petrillo was a jazz musician in a world that turned rock-and-roll. He was a reed man, playing a tenor sax, but he also composed and arranged. He wrote hit songs — not the least of which are "Tell It to the Rain" and "Patch of Blue Sky" which are now standards, and he worked on 12 albums, including one by Frank Sinatra. "It was 'Border Town' — my favorite Sinatra album — and it sold 450,000 copies, which by Sinatra's standards was a flop," Petrillo said. ●●●●● A chance tour of Newark with a Newark cop made him interested in police work. "The one thing that music had was excitement, and this was excitement, being a cop. I left music," he said. It meant leaving a business where he was so well established that he was earning in the six figures annually. "I couldn't take the politics any more. They said I couldn't quit — but I did." He was newly married when the opening in the Belleville Department came up. He has been a cop ever since. "But I still get calls to go back. And I can't give music up altogether. A few weeks ago, I went across the street (to Spinosa's Music Store) and I picked up an alto sax — a student's sax. Now I'm playing around with it a little." After all, there is always a chance that Jazz will come back ●●●●● In case you're nervous about a hurricane coming this way and removing the roof of your house, as happened to thousands of homeowners in South Florida recently, get in touch with Nick Coppola who uses a seamless urethane roofing material that makes a house into a unified whole. For the roof to go, the whole house would have to go with it. "You would need a wind blowing 1,500 miles an hour to damage it," the confident Coppola said. A long time roofing contractor, he became involved in urethane roofing some 15 years ago. Then, and now, its most practical application is for factories. It is a bit expensive for a private home, but it is a great roof saver for a business firm. A typical gravel roof may weigh 600 pounds per 100 square feet. An inch of urethane weighs about 60 pounds for 100 square feet. "Furthermore," Coppola said, "urethane breathes. You don't have the expansion and contraction that cracks the roofing of most factory buildings. Coppola says he doesn't know how long the urethane roofing lasts because so far none of the roofing he has installed has worn out. That's Energy Savers, and he's in the telephone book, in Belleville. ●●●●● Kevin Kennedy was on his way to the meeting of the Township Council last Tuesday to do his bit for the veterans. He had heard there were plans to remove the appropriation of $7,500 for the Veterans Day parade. As it happened, that particular idea was dropped, but it didn't do Kevin much good. On his way into the School 7 auditorium, he slipped on a step and fractured his left leg in 12 places. The foot is in a cast now, and Kevin gets around with a cane. Never a dull moment for Kevin. ●●●●● Kevin reports progress in the investigation as to how a so-called State Police file on him became public knowledge, and was used in an underhanded mail campaign against him when he ran for the Council. The material came illegally from confidential files, and they are supposed to be kept confidential because the subjects are entitled to privacy, and because the information is not always substantiated.

We salute Belleville's Joe Pesci as the Grand Marshal of that other Columbus Day Parade, the little one in Newark, and we are happy to see that Newark realizes where to find talent. Television reruns of "Landlord" and "Home Alone" have been showing him off at his comic best, the past couple of weeks. ●●●●● Belleville has a rising star in Elizabeth Ann Horst who at the age of five is performing on stage at the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn. According to her mother, Susan, "Only last year, Elizabeth was playing the role of Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz for Halloween. A little girl's fantasy and favorite movie. She acted it out and played all day long that she was going to the Emerald City to see the Great and Powerful Wizard of Oz. Now, not even a year later, the dream that she dared to dream really did come true. Elizabeth was one of 30 children chosen from over 600 to play a Munchkin. She now plays with, as she says, 'The real Dorothy, Tin Man, Scarecrow and Cowardly Lion.'" ●●●●● Rehearsals started on Aug. 20 in New York City and went through Sundays and Labor Day, and now Elizabeth is performing eight shows a week, and apparently loving it. "We thought she'd tire of it long before this," her mother said. Instead, she comes home tired and happy and looking forward to the next day's rehearsal and living with her new friends. "Everybody at the Paper Mill is my best friend," Elizabeth said. "But my best friend is (Assistant Director) Larry Grey and of course, the Scarecrow." Cheering her on are mother Susan, father Nathan, brothers Scott, Mark and Shaun, and the Kindergarten Class of School 9.

THE CAUSE OF IT ALL - A case of a mysterious substance that fell from a truck and burst on Route 21 caused a traffic tie-up of huge proportions while firemen and the Hazardous Materials team investigated. Collisions also occurred as a cloud of dust arose. It turned out to be a harmless chemical, but there was no point in taking chances.

Legislature votes school bus seatbelt legislation

After a twenty year battle, school buses in New Jersey now will be properly equipped to protect children: they will have seat belts.

The seat belt legislation, sponsored by Assemblymen John Kelly and Paul DiGaetano (R-36) assures that students receive the utmost in safety at a price that is reasonable and cost effective.

"The Republican victory in the seat belt battle ends a long debate that should never have occurred," Kelly stated. "For too long our children were afforded less than the optimum level of safety and protection."

That unfortunate time is over. But the protection offered by the new Republican law goes beyond merely mandating that seatbelts be placed in all school buses. It requires that they be worn by all students traveling to and from school.

"The new law will help prevent the needless deaths and injuries that have occurred in school bus accidents over the past two decades," DiGaetano stated. "All statistical data supports the concept of seatbelts saving lives, and having them on school buses will do just that."

The law requires that school buses be equipped with lap type seat belts proven to be the most effective type of restraint for use on such buses — and that all school buses be equipped with a minimum seat back height of 28 inches or 24 inches from the seating reference point.

In Dec., 1989, the New Jersey Institute of Technology, Center for Transportation Studies and Research, recommended that both Type I and Type 2 school buses be equipped with seat belts.

In its conclusion, the study found that school buses are the safest mode of transportation. However, accidents do happen and pupils continue to be injured and killed in the interior of a bus.

The study also stated that seat belt use for all occupants of school buses be a mandatory part of the law.

"No longer will our children receive less than the best that we can give," Kelly stated. "Finally, through the efforts of the Republican-controlled Legislature, the safety of our school-aged children will be provided for."

OUR OPINION

We are honored

The recognition of Belleville as Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution by the Congress of the United States will be the most significant event to occur in this community since its founding.

A Resolution to this effect has been introduced to the Congress by Representative Robert A. Roe, and has been presented to the Post Office and Commerce Committee.

The importance of the passage of this Resolution would be difficult to exaggerate.

This recognition will be followed by the recognition of both private and governmental agencies.

It will mean an interest in the historic values preserved here, and will plant the seed, we trust, of a great educational institution devoted to the American industrial experience, to be founded and developed in the birthplace of that experience.

A favorable vote by the Congress will be a major step toward the economic revitalization of Belleville.

It will mean a rebirth for Belleville.

It will also be one of the finest legacies left to his constituents by a Congressman who has provided many outstanding acts of legislation during a long and distinguished career in the Congress.

Belleville owes Mr. Roe its thanks. We hope his successor will continue to maintain the standards set by this man who served his country as a combat infantryman, a civic leader and as a lawmaker, serving well and honorably in every role.

Manager or 'manager'?

The Township Council, or at least its four-member majority, has named an Interim Township Manager.

In line with most of the other actions taken by the Council majority, it is a flawed appointment.

Not that Stephen Cuccio, the man who will hold the job, is flawed. But Mr. Cuccio had applied for a permanent appointment, while another applicant, Robert Czech, had asked for the interim job.

The Council's decision then is to put Mr. Cuccio on notice that if he expects to keep his job - and he can be fired on two weeks notice - he had better listen to what the Council majority tells him.

This is not what the Faulkner Act was enacted to accomplish, but the Faulkner Act is probably considered a dead letter by the Council majority.

In point of fact, the Faulkner Act is very much alive, and those who have circumvented it are liable to find out that it is very much alive.

The fact is that the Council majority has never consulted the public on any of its moves, from the ouster of the previous Township Manager, Bertrand Kendall, to the appointment of an Interim Manager.

We think the public should have been heard. And if the Council majority had an intelligent case to present, we're sure that there would have been a public hearing.

The Belleville Times wishes Mr. Cuccio well.

We can only imagine what it was like to try to function under the thumb of Wayne Township's imperious Mayor Newton Miller.

We can only hope that Mr. Cuccio will not find a similar relationship with the Council majority. It would not be good for him, or for the public.

Another step forward

Having a sister city in Italy is a good thing - for Belleville. How the citizens of the Italian town will feel about it, we cannot say.

But for Belleville, it will mean a sharing of communication, and we hope, visits between the two communities.

If the day comes when Belleville students will be able to visit Italy as part of an ongoing cultural exchange program, it will be a wonderful addition to the educational process.

It is not simply the ancient history of the Italian kingdoms and city-states that should be known to us, but the remarkable social and economic strides that have been made in Italy, particularly since the end of World War II.

There is probably not a city in Europe that would not have lessons to offer us, but certainly the remarkable mosaic that makes up modern Italy is not as well known here, or appreciated, as it should be.

And America has its lessons to offer as well.

We hope that interest in Italian culture would not be limited to those of Italian heritage.

But we think it will do far more than that.

YOUR OPINION

'Mayor should resign'

To the editor:

I call for the resignation of Mayor Perna due to the fact she is an inefficient and uncaring person whose only ambition is political. We need someone who is caring and takes an on hand approach to today's problems facing our town. It is time for a positive change not just a change. We in Belleville know of the waste in tax dollars and waste comes from ineffective leadership. I believe from my dealings with Mayor Perna that she cares nothing of the people of Belleville or the children of Belleville.

If these are the kind of people we are going to trust with our future and our children's future, someday we will look back and say I remember Belleville when it was a beautiful, wonderful place to live and raise a family. I call for a referendum to elect a new mayor to lead us forward not backwards. I call on all concerned citizens who feel as I do to speak up and be heard. Our future is on the line!

'A Spirit Walks'

To the editor:

Belleville the Beautiful Village is locked up in history, it's a peaceful happy place I know I live there, my spirit walks the streets of old to hear the things never told.

A place of beauty with hills of green a valley of trees and flowers and a rolling river

A place of harmony and peace with cemeteries and churches all in a row

A place of friendships and truth among its people

A place where deceit could never exist

A place where the people all help with the care of the land and help out their neighbor without looking for payment or something in hand

A place that is loved for the wonders it holds

A place of picnics and carnivals, laughter and fun

And then behold a traffic light shining red and back to the buildings and factories and cars galore, who could ask for more.

Tomorrow will come, my spirit will walk again, maybe along the river I'll stop to fish or maybe just sit to ponder the things that I see.

Town meetings are friendly and all ideas are heard, between tea and sweets we have a good time.

Ideas are ingredients like making a cake or building a house, to make either one perfect no ingredient is left out.

Come walk with my spirit in the place I live and see how beautiful it really is.

Yanuzzi vs. Del Guercio

To the editor:

Having served as a member of the Belleville Board of Education with Joe Del Guercio, and having gotten to know him during that period of time, it came as no surprise to read his letter to the editor in last week's Belleville Times. Mr. Del Guercio's arrogance and super inflated ego were evident to anyone who took the time to read his garbage letter.

The "public" Joe Del Guercio is quite different from the real Joe Del Guercio. The real Joe Del Guercio is the one who came to the reorganization of Belleville Republican County Committee, and used filthy language and profane behavior in front of more than fifty people. The real Joe Del Guercio is the one who goes to the Board of Education office and tells all those who will listen how he is going to "get rid of" the two Board incumbents who are running in this April's election. This is the same Joe Del Guercio who complains in private about the conduct of Board employees, yet does not have the nerve to repeat these derogatory comments in public. The Joe Del Guercio that I know passes remarks under his breath yet never has the nerve to confront someone face to face if he has a problem.

Joe Del Guercio should stop throwing stones because he lives in a glass house. He should pay more attention to his own conduct, and should start acting not only as a responsible person, but as a responsible Board member. During his term on the Board of Education, Mr. Del Guercio has one of the poorest voting and attendance records in recent memory. He has never met a pay raise he hasn't voted for, and he's written and voted for all of the largest budget and tax increases in the last five years. At the last Board meeting alone, an immediate member of Mr. Del Guercio's family was hired by the Board of Education. What does this say about Mr. Del Guercio's credibility?

In summation, having been described by Mr. Del Guercio as having a twisted mind really did not offend me, for it is his opinion, and he has the right to express it. However, in my opinion, Joe Del Guercio's comments are sort of like the pot calling the kettle black.

• THE New Jersey Republican Party is burdened with riches. Four formidable political candidates in next year's Primary have independent strengths and represent a rainbow of philosophies. Christine Todd Whitman and Cary osophy is somewhat in the middle. Whitman, Edwards and Gormley are aggressive, making moves in north Jersey. Edwards recently had a $5,000 per head party. Christine Whitman has made three forays into Essex County. Gormley

Edwards can be considered Moderate Liberals. Assembly Speaker Garabed (Chuck) Haytaian is at the other end of the spectrum — a true blue Conservative. And then there's Atlantic County's Senator Bill Gormley whose political phil-has four trips scheduled for north Jersey, including Essex, Passaic, Bergen and Union Counties. Assembly Speaker Chuck Haytaian is not a candidate, but he has enough admirers from Atlantic to Sussex Counties that give credence to his candidacy.

• AN ENLIGHTENED Middlesex County Democrat Party has a new county chairman, Harry Pozychi, who, as his first decision, named nine new members to the party's executive board as part of his plan to reform the organization.

• I THINK a measure of the public reaction that we have sampled indicates disgust with the Bush campaign techniques.

What the population is waiting for is meaningful proposals from Bush on what he would do or didn't do to give us a lousy depression that hangs over the nation like a cloud.

We experienced the depression of the 30's. Author Studs Terkel's 1970 book, "Hard Times — an Oral History of the Great Depression" — tells us, "That's one of the things about the Depression. There was more camaraderie than there is in 1970. Even more comradeship than the Commies could even dream about. That was one of the feelings that America lost. People had different ideas, they disagreed with one another. But there was a fine feeling among them. You were in trouble... damn it, if they could help ya, they would help ya"... not so today.

Peggy Terry who lived through the Depression of the 30's says, "I remember it was fun going to the soup line. 'Cause we all went down the road, and we laughed and we played. The only thing we felt is that we were hungry and we were going to get food. Nobody made us feel ashamed. There just wasn't any of that. Today you're made to feel that it's your own fault. If you're poor, it's only because you're lazy and you're ignorant, and you don't try to help yourself. You're made to feel that if you get a check from Welfare that the bank at Fort Knox is gonna go broke."

Belleville Optimists salute Cozzarelli

The Optimist Club of Belleville acknowledged with pride the honor bestowed upon one of its Charter Members, James J. Cozzarelli Jr., in his being selected as the Belleville Grand Marshall for the quintennial anniversary Columbus Day Parade.

The Belleville Parade Committee component of the Belleville-Nutley Columbus Day Parade Committee, Inc., announced their selection for Grand Marshall at the last meeting of the joint town committee. The Nutley Parade Committee component chose Vincent LoCurcio as the Nutley Grand Marshall, for this dual anniversary parade.

Since this is the 10th anniversary of the Belleville-Nutley Columbus Day Parade, as well as the 500th anniversary of the discovery of America, the joint committee decided to repeat the selection of a grand marshal from each town as was the case in the original parade when Mayor Michael Marotti and Mayor Carmen Orechio represented their respective towns.

In recognition of this distinguished honor, the Optimist Club of Belleville has initiated a membership drive according to Membership Committee Co-Chairmen Emil Nardachone and Gabe Nazziola. Anyone interested in joining the Optimist Club of Belleville should call Nardachone at 450-8883 or Nazziola at 997-2121.

The Optimist Club of Belleville is dedicated to the youth of our township. The organization meets weekly at the Branch Brook Manor and develops fund raising events including a Christmas Dinner Dance, and a President's Brunch to provide annually for student scholarships, an oratorical contest, an Easter Egg Hunt, and a basketball hoops shoot day.

The Optimists will be placing a contingent in this year's parade and marching in honor of Belleville Grand Marshall, James J. Cozzarelli Jr., and the great explorer 'Christoforo Colombo.'

YOUR OPINION

Dutch pay their way

To the editor:

During a recent (9/15/92) dialogue on the topic of health care, Radio Talkshow host Bob Grant, classified the Netherlands as a "Welfare State." While stating that "he knew nothing about the health care in that country," he also offered his opinion, and I agree with the assessment, that "the citizens of this country (the U.S.A.) would never stand for the excessive taxation, required to support a "Welfare State." We have enough of a tax burden to support the considerable welfare we currently dole out.

In order to refute Bob Grant's erroneous characterization that the Netherlands is a nation of "welfare recipients," I offer the following informative answer.

When the fees of your Doctor, Dentist or the Hospital you selected as your health care provider gets paid by your Insurance Plan, supported by your premiums, are you a "welfare recipient"?

When a wage earning woman is entitled to 16 weeks of maternity leave, with 100% of her pay (with a maximum of $175-pay) from the insurance plan, is she collecting "welfare checks"?

Health care is guaranteed to ALL citizens/residents of Holland. By law, everyone is mandatorily insured and pays premiums, some shared between employer and employee. With the exception of the contributions to the Old Age Pension system (Soc. Sec.), the premiums are payroll deducted and paid into and administered by some 8 trade organizations (NOT labor unions), such as those for butchers, bakers, electricians or agricultural workers.

As an analogy, I wonder if Bob Grant were to be reimbursed for damages by virtue of New Jersey's mandatory automobile insurance law, will he consider that to be a "welfare" check?

A Halloween Tale

To the editor:

Once upon a time there was a sweet old Grandma with white hair and blue eyes. Really, she looked like most of the other grandmas, but to four little girls and one little boy she was different. She was their grandma. Now this sweet little old grandma loved her "babies" as she called them, very much. She decided one day to invite them all for lunch. And they came.

First she decided to do the wash, and while the three year old was leaning on the washing machine, it jumped and scared little Robyn. Then she was cooking their soup and the stove popped when she shut off the gas, and scared little Gregory. Then the baby Anna was crawling around the bed and couldn't find Mommy, so she began to wail. When poor Grandma tried to get Kate to do a chore, she said, "Please throw this in the garbage, Grandma, and the container tipped over, spilling the garbage on the floor. Becky tried to sweep it up but it was too messy, and Grandma was weary so she said, "Up at the table all of you, or you'll get no lunch today.

Then she fed them brown bean soup from an old kettle, and egg salad sandwiches, and tangerines with raisin cookies, and chocolate milk. The witches and skeletons hanging from the ceiling began to dance and a breeze blew the baby's hair. While the children looked around for the breeze, Katey knew the air conditioner was on and soon all were eating and laughing happily when Mommy came home. She was so happy to see them laugh, that she ate bean soup and egg salad with the children. Just then a great explosion came, and lightning flashed, and the witch and skeleton blew down and the TV went off, and so did the fans. Now it really was Halloween and scary after all. Grandma went for candles which were brown and orange, and in the light she looked very strange. Her hair looked messy, her eyes shone, and her apron didn't look like Grandma's.

Just then a black cat meowed and howled and a light flashed by the window, lighting up the kitchen. A dog started barking (he didn't like thunder and lightning) and the phone rang. A man wanted to know if Grandma's lights were out. She said, "Yes," and wished Grandma would come home. The good witch heard her and next thing she knew, Grandpa was coming in the drive. She met him at the door, and all the children started talking at once. Grandpa looked from one to another and laughed. "I guess I can't leave my girls and boy alone on Halloween," he said. Then they all laughed while he opened a box of donuts. They were brown and orange with sprinkles, and all the children agreed it was the best Halloween ever. They didn't hear the ugly witch say, "Just wait until next year."

Child I.D. Program

To the editor:

I would like to publicly thank all of those who have made the Annual Child I.D. Program a success once again. Despite the inclement weather on Sept. 26, approximately 100 children were processed, by having their personal description, fingerprint and photo taken. This program could not have been a success without the interest of the parents who brought their children and the volunteers who donated their time.

I must thank all of the following: Det. Thomas Agusta, Belleville Police Department; Officer Domenico Palmari, Essex County Sheriff's Department; Sheriff Armando Fontoura and Police Chief Ray Kimble for their support in providing the officers annually. Lt. Dennis Courter from the Essex County Crime Prevention Officers Association who donate the use of the equipment every year. Also, I must extend my thanks to Kathy Drozd, Marie DeSantis, Carol Politz, Michael Politz, Delores Tremarco, Ann Sibilia, Marisa Ippolito, Kevin Kennedy, Barney O'Connor and Victor Canning who volunteered their time to make this program possible.

Council muffs chance to aid Columbus fete

A $5,000 donation to fund Columbus Day festivities following the Columbus Day Parade on Oct. 18 was left out of a proposed budget amendment, Monday, when nobody remembered to include it.

This angered Deputy Mayor Mario Drozd, who insisted the appropriation had been approved in August. This was disputed by Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood, who said that a search of the tapes of August's meetings had not shown any vote taken.

An attempt to save the $5,000 as a special appropriation then failed.

Parade Chairman Mario Drozd, who is also Deputy Mayor, sought to have a special appropriation voted, but was not able to vote for it because of conflict of interest. Neither was Councilman Charles Cerami, who is also involved in organizing the Columbus Day event.

Voting against the additional donation - which would have been added to the $5,000 voted previously to fund the parade - were Councilmen Jim Messina, Tom Spillane and Bill Cook. Voting for it were Mayor Marina Perna and Council President Dr. Frank Noonan.

Cook and Spillane argued that the added appropriation should have been included in the budget amendment which was introduced at the work session.

Drozd responded that he was certain that the added appropriation had been voted during the month of August.

Township Clerk Mary Lou

Hood said that the tapes of those meetings had been turned over to Acting Manager Ray Kimble, who had listened to eight or nine hours of tape and found no indication that the appropriation had been voted.

Drozd insisted that tapes were obviously missing, which Mrs. Hood indignantly denied.

"We'll just have to cancel the opera singers and all the other things we had planned," Drozd said.

The parade, itself, scheduled for Oct. 18, will not be affected.

Melissa Muniz gets scholarship

St. Mary's Council of the Knights of Columbus announced that it has awarded a $2,000 scholarship to Melissa Ann Muniz of Belleville. She is a freshman at Queen of Peace Catholic High School in North Arlington.

Melissa Ann and her family attended the Council meeting on Sept. 14 where she was presented with her award by Lance Zaremba, Immediate PGK and Chairman of the Council's Education Committee and Youth Activities Committee.

Melissa Ann graduated from St. Mary's School in Nutley, with honors. She is a recipient of the Presidential Academic Fitness Award, a North Jersey Newspapers Spelling Bee Champion and a recipient of the Knights of Columbus Good Citizens Plaque.

PGK Zaremba reports that she is the first student to receive an award from the Council's Educational Assistance Fund, which provides assistance to children (of Council members) who are attending Catholic high schools and colleges.

The committee was established early in 1992. Several key members of the Council volunteered to develop the program. It consists of PGK Robert Davies, PGK Joseph Doyle, PGK Owen Haveron, William Lynch, PGK Paul Wirth and PGK Lance Zaremba. They developed the guidelines for this program. As a result of their efforts, the Council was able to activate the Fund this year and to notify the membership.

Zaremba has indicated that details concerning the 1993 program will be announced in March.

1492: More Than Just Columbus

Playwrights Isaac Doets and Diana Sunrise use the diary of Don Isaac Abravanel as the basis for the confrontation between Queen Isabella of Spain and her Financial Advisor, fighting to save the Jews from expulsion in 1492.

A series of slides depicting the 800 year influence of Moslem culture on Spanish Art also unfolds the story of the Moors' capitulation in Granada in the same year. Lastly, a discussion of what Columbus actually "found" in the New World completes the program.

Foster children are also eligible for free or reduced price meals. Application forms are available at your school and application can be made at any time during the school year. If a household member becomes unemployed, or the household size or income changes during the school year, parents should contact the school so that all children receive the proper benefits.

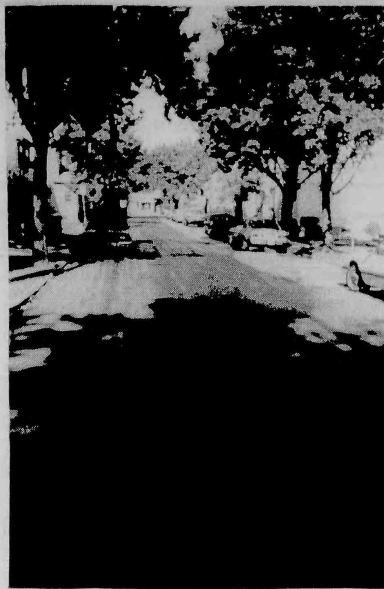

For the school officials to determine eligibility, the household must provide the following information listed on the application: names of all household members; household income listed monthly by the amount received by each household member and the type of income; signature and social security number.

The information provided will be kept confidential and will only be used to determine eligibility.

The school will advise parents of their child's eligibility within 10 working days after receipt of application. Any parent dissatisfied with the determination may contact the school to request an informal conference or may appeal the decision by requesting a formal hearing. A hearing can be arranged by calling or writing: Sr. Irma Papaleo, M.P.F., 24 Brookline Ave., Nutley, (201) 667-2049. Parents may call Mrs. M.A. Charlton at the same number for further information on the program.

Once determinations are completed, school officials are required to verify a minimum of three percent of the approved fee and reduced price applications on file.

In the operation of Child Nutrition Programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or handicap. Also, the names of those receiving free or reduced price meals will be kept private. Children who receive free or reduced price meals are treated the same as children who pay for meals. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

SPILL TIME—This was one of at least four oil spills that occurred in Belleville last week, when an unknown truck dumped the oil at various locations. Officials are still looking for the truck, last seen heading into Montclair.

Hollywood Mechanical Horror Show at Convention Center

Come celebrate Halloween Hollywood style. Promoter, Tony Scarpa is presenting Hollywood Mechanical Horror at the Meadowlands Convention Center located in Secaucus, on Oct. 10 & 11.

Scarpa, who has always been interested in everything from classic horror movies, to the actual collecting of movie props, said he began to realize that unlike his family, some families do not have the opportunity to celebrate Halloween in a safe and enjoyable environment. The Hollywood Mechanical Horror, Scarpa said, will offer just that.

"I've always enjoyed the Halloween Season and go overboard celebrating with my family. Every year my home is decorated with Halloween figures," Scarpa said.

It was a few years ago that Scarpa realized that he could offer this type of event to the public. He began to seriously consider different ideas and eventually contacted Lou Nasti of Mechanical Displays located in Brooklyn, N.Y. They met at a trade show and the idea was developed from there.

Two years of developing and planning followed. Nasti, with his experience in making mechanical figures along with his notoriety in the decorating field for his displays at Macy's WonderLand in New York, was also able, through his drawings, to present a workable plan for the event's decorative theme.

The convention center will house many mechanical figures from monsters to silver screen stars. Favorites, including Frankenstein, and Heavy Metal, will be on display. A variety of vendors, appealing to all ages and interests will sell items related to the season. Scarpa said, "We plan on offering this type of show in many different locations on an annual basis. Regardless of age, Halloween is an event that families can celebrate together. We look forward to seeing you."

New Jersey speeders beware!

Attorney Francis Hermes is a member of the Board of Governors of the 3,000 members of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America-New Jersey.

The days of the traditional highway stop for motorists exceeding the speed limit in New Jersey may well be numbered, as the new age of technology in the field of photography and in devices measuring time and speed are upon us.

In the usual situation, up until now, a vehicle which was determined to have been exceeding the speed limit would be pulled over by a law enforcement officer, and the driver would be issued a summons at the scene. However, the New Jersey State Police are currently field testing, on New Jersey's roadways, a new radar machine which determines both speed of an approaching vehicle and weather its driver is exceeding the posted speed limit.

The radar machine is being set up off the roadway, programmed to determine the speeds of the vehicle passing through its "zone of influence". As approaching vehicles pass this zone, the device measures the vehicle's speed, and if it exceeds a predetermined limit, the device also takes two photographs. One photograph is taken of the vehicle's plate and the other is taken of the driver as the vehicle reaches its point closest to the radar machine. The time, location and speed of the vehicle are then recorded and the alleged violator is sent a summons by mail. Since there is no actual stop on the roadway at the time of the alleged violation, the traditional methods of seeking to have the officer exercise his discretion in issuing the summons no longer come into play.

In a recent field test, the machine was set to record vehicles traveling at a speed of 68 miles per hour or more on a roadway with a 55 mile per hour speed limit. In a time span of three hours, several hundred alleged violators were recorded. At this time, however, no summonses are being issued and it is anticipated that warnings will be sent to these speeding motorists.

Our State's statute regarding speeding does not contain a presumption that the owner of a vehicle is presumed to be its operator, unlike the statute regarding vehicles which illegally approach and overtake school buses. However, the Legislature could pass such a provision if it concludes that this new method of enforcing the speed limit is acceptable.

Walk Relay will benefit children with cancer

A Walk-Relay this Saturday at Giants Stadium will benefit The Valerie Fund, a non-profit organization that supports a statewide network of hospital-based treatment centers for New Jersey children with cancer and blood disorders.

More than 500 people are expected to participate in the event, which will be hosted by Richard Bey of WWOR-TV's "Nine Broadcast Plaza."

To enter, teams of between three and six walkers raise a minimum of $50 in donations per person. Team members then take turns walking a track inside the stadium for 10-minute intervals over a two-year period. Prizes will be awarded in several categories, including most money raised, most laps walked, youngest and oldest walkers, and most walkers from a single company or organization.

Every participant receives a free gift, and there are special prizes for those who raise more than $100, including weekend getaways, gift certificates, electronics and autographed sports equipment.

Face painting, clowns, a deejay entertainment, and team spirit competitions will add to the festive atmosphere. The Walk-Relay is sponsored by Anheuser Busch/Bud Dry, Gibraltar Securities, DataMasters, Burger King, WWOR-TV and Green, Baker & Zuckerman.

In addition to complete teams, participants may sign up to walk individually or be placed on a team, with other walkers. Because donations are not based on the total distance walked and walking is done in intervals with ample resting time, the event is easy for people of all ages to enter, regardless of age or athletic ability.

Monies raised will benefit The Valerie Fund Children's Centers for Cancer and Blood Disorders, the organization's Happy Camp Happy Times, a summer camp for New Jersey children with cancer, and support and counseling services for families.

For more information, call 1-800-8VALERI.

What's really in our food?

Major strides in nutritional science have prompted a national preoccupation with healthful eating in recent years. But in a recent new book, Dr. Mia Parsonnet of Millburn says many self-styled nutrition experts and health-food promoters are modern-day snake oil peddlers, skilled in salesmanship, but not in science.

Dr. Parsonnet is clinical instructor of medicine at the UMDNJ-New Jersey Medical School, Newark. UMDNJ is New Jersey's university of the health sciences.

The book, "What's Really in Our Food?," explores what Dr. Parsonnet calls food fact and fantasy. "Some foods and supplements make more sense than others," she says.

On a list of unnecessary and even potentially harmful "health foods" or supplements, Dr. Parsonnet includes:

- Alfalfa, animal fodder promoted for mineral, vitamin and chlorophyll content, is largely indigestible by humans.
- Bee pollen is a very expensive source of nutrients that are readily available in a well-balanced diet.
- Bone meal and dolomite often contain contaminants, including lead.
- Brewer's yeast, which offers no advantages over foods containing B vitamins, amino acids and minerals.
- Carob, a chocolate substitute that, when combined with other ingredients and incorporated into a candy bar, is similar to chocolate in fat and calories.

Chlorophyll, important in plants, serves no nutritional functions in humans.

- DNA and RNA, specific components of all cells, are useless in food supplements.
- Flavonoids or bioflavonoids, derived from algae and plant foods, have not been shown to play a role in human nutrition.

Garlic, being studied for medicinal properties, has shown no beneficial effects to date.

- Ginseng, touted to restore natural balance and sexual potency, can cause diarrhea, nervousness, insomnia and elevated blood pressure. It must not be used by pregnant women, because it has harmful hormonal effects on fetuses.
- Granola, a cup of which has more than 500 calories, half from fat.
- Honey, which has no nutritional advantage over table sugar.
- Kelp, produced from seaweed, provides iodine, magnesium and calcium. It may also contain harmful amounts of arsenic.

- Macrobiotics, various cereal grains. A true macrobiotic diet is nutritionally incomplete.

Papain, an enzyme found in papaya that breaks down protein, tenderizes meat but does little for humans.

- Royal jelly, which promotes development of the queen bee, does nothing for humans.
- Wheat germ, which provides vitamins E and B and some minerals, has 108 calories per ounce, 25 percent from fat.

According to Dr. Parsonnet, "natural" is a meaningless term for which there are no standards of definition. She also calls vitamin B12 injections worthless in healthy individuals who eat a balanced diet.

Dr. Parsonnet says the most important nutrient — one we cannot live without — is water. "Every cell, tissue and organ requires water for normal function," she says. "Life as we know it cannot exist in its absence."

The human body is one-half to two-thirds water — about 10 gallons in a 150-pound person. Individual daily water turnover is between two and four quarts.

Humans cannot drink too much water because it is readily excreted. However, drinking too little water can be fatal more quickly than a deficiency of any other nutrient. Dr. Parsonnet recommends that individuals consume at least two quarts of water daily — much more during hot weather and for individuals who exercise regularly.

JOURNAL CO-CHAIRMEN Diane and Charles Gruber

Ad journal provides main funds at Family Service Bureau ball

Many people are working behind the scenes to make the annual Nutley Family Service Bureau Charity Ball a success, both socially and financially.

One of the most important committees is the one that puts together the Souvenir Journal. This is the "money-maker" of the event.

This year's journal co-chairmen are Diane and Charles Gruber, who acknowledge, "In these difficult times, people are finding the Nutley Family Service Bureau an important enough community function to reach down and give whatever their means will allow to support this important fundraiser. Where some companies and people have declined to participate this year, we have been able to obtain some new support. Also, it's important to note that the journal is something people keep, and if they don't look through it the night of the ball, they will take it home and read it the next day."

The 79th annual charity ball will be held at Marriott Glenpoint Hotel (formerly Loew's Glenpointe) in Teaneck on Saturday, Nov. 7. Cocktails are at 7 p.m. with dinner following at 8 p.m. Donations for the ball are $80 per person.

The committee for the souvenir journal includes Louise Cremonni, Ken Duke, Jim Kuchta, Craig Harrison, Vince LoCurcio, Matt Polito and Frank Lemma.

If you are interested in placing an ad or attending the ball, please call the bureau at 667-1502. For information about overnight lodging at the hotel, call Debra Harrison at 661-1502.

Belleville

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Grace Worley's 1992 "Wizards of the Hardwood" continue their early season success. The Lady Buc volleyball team improved its season mark to 7-2 by defeating Nutley, Clifford Scott and University last week. The team lost games to Hackensack and Immaculate Heart.

The girls take on Paramus Catholic this afternoon at 4 p.m. Next Wednesday, it's off to Paramus for a 4 p.m. game.

"The team is playing well," Worley said. "We lost a tough match to Hackensack in three sets, but we played well in beating Nutley in two sets and we did well against a strong Clifford Scott team."

Belleville won in straight sets against Nutley (15-5, 15-5) and University and had to go to three sets to beat Scott. As the coach said, the team lost in three to Hackensack and dropped a straight setter to a very good Immaculate Heart team.

"Michele Pzonka has done a good job serving," Worley said. "We're getting very good play from Andrea Curran and Marie Acuna also."

"We're glad to have Melanie (vanDam) back. She had been hurt and her leadership is a big help. We got some good tests last week and this week, we'll be facing some very good teams in the league."

This is Belleville's best start in volleyball in three years. Worley is hoping that the team can continue the positive trend now that the younger players are getting varsity experience. The road will be tough, however, with the NNJIL one of the best leagues for volleyball in the state.

"A" TEAM WINS FIRST GAME

Joe DeRiggi's Junior Buc "A" team won its first game last Sunday, beating Garfield 6-0 in a thriller.

The game, played at Garfield, was a defensive struggle and a big win for the Bucs, who were 0-2 coming into the contest.

"This was a well played game," DeRiggi said. "It was a hard fought game and our defense came through at the end with a goal line stand."

The only score on the game came in the first quarter. Mark Constantino took a handoff from Anthony Vitanzo and ran 50 yards for a touchdown.

"Anthony handled the offense well," DeRiggi said of Vitanzo, starting his first game after quarterback Rich DeFalco went down with a shoulder injury.

Garfield rallied late in regulation time. The Boiler-makers drove 85 yards to the Buc one, but the defense stiffened and forced a fumble which stopped the drive and sealed the win.

Scott Rafferty was phenomenal at defensive tackle and center. Others who excelled were Phong Nguyen, Jim Palo, Ed Pagen, Al Fusco and Chris Zarro.

Nguyen had a key interception, Palo recorded ten tackles, Pagen had two quarterback sacks, Fusco also had two sacks and Zarro recorded ten tackles.

The Bucs are home this weekend, playing host to West Paterson. The "C" team will kick off action at about 11:30 a.m. from Doc Ellis Field.

The "B" team will play as soon as the "C" team is done and the "A" team follows the "B" squad.

By the way, the "A" team is for players 12 and 13, the "B" team is for 10 and 11 year olds while the "C" team is for players 8 through 10.

The Junior Bucs will be home for the next three weeks, starting this weekend against West Paterson. On October 18, Bloomfield comes to town and on October 25, the big test with Nutley is scheduled. Both of those games will be televised on OBC-TV, cable channel 36. All games start at 11:30 a.m. with the "C" game.

After a bye week on November 1, the season ends on November 8 with a game at Clifton.

GIUFFRIDA RUN A BIG SUCCESS

Last Sunday, the third annual Sam Giuffrida run was held at Belleville High School. Once again, the weather was picture perfect and the turnout for the race was good.

Congratulations to all of the people who helped put the race together. We have a full picture page of the event in this weeks issue. Next week, we'll have a recap of the race results.

Tied for first in league standing

DePinto's Bucs roll to 7 - 0

By Mike Lamberti

It's been a total team effort for the Belleville Buc soccer team so far in 1992. Gino DePinto's team won three more games last week, stopping Queen of Peace 5-2, Paramus Catholic 8-0 and Nutley 3-0.

Thus, the Bucs will take a 7-0 record into this week, where the competition will be very intense.

Belleville faced undefeated Don Bosco last Monday. This afternoon, St. Joe's will be in town for a 4 p.m. start at Clearmon Field. Next Tuesday, it's off to Hackensack for a 4 p.m. game.

"The kids are playing very well," DePinto said. "Everyone has contributed. We're getting excellent play from our midfield. Our defense has been excellent, with two shutouts last week. Offensively, we're getting the job done."

The week started with a victory at Queen of Peace. Greg Groeling scored the hat trick and Giuseppe Manella and Joe Colucci scored one goal each.

Alex Alexandre had two assists while Nicolai Castro and Groeling had one assist each.

Mike Percio played a solid game in goal, stopping eleven shots.

Against Paramus Catholic, the offense was in high gear as Belleville ran away with an NNJIL contest.

Groeling, Castro and Reddy Perez had two goals each. Manella and Emanuel Arujo added a goal each.

Groeling and Manella were also top assist men with two each.

"We had control of the game early," DePinto said. "We had the 8-0 lead with 20 minutes left in the game. We had everything going in that game."

The Belleville defense did the job against Nutley last Friday. The Bucs scored twice in the first half and the defense chalked up its fourth shutout of the season.

"Nutley played a very defensive game," DePinto said. "They triple teamed Groeling and kept a lot of players back on defense. Fortunately, we were able to score some goals early and open the game up."

Groeling and Perez scored first half goals and the Bucs led 2-0 at intermission. In the second half, Colucci, a sophomore, scored to seal the victory.

Alexandre had two assists in the contest and Groeling added one assist.

Percio was once again very impressive in goal, turning back seven shots.

"My midfielders have been outstanding," DePinto said. "Castro, Alexandre, Manella and Colucci have played very well."

The success is not limited to the varsity program. The JV team remains undefeated in league play, picking up two wins last week. The JV Bucs downed Paramus Catholic and Nutley by 4-1 scores.

Against Paramus Catholic, Joe Cotugno tallied twice while Jeff Vogel and Anthony Rasczyk had one goal each. Michael Guzman did a solid job in the nets.

In the Nutley game, Cotugno, Jim Berg, Frank Tafur and Chris Castro scored goals. Once again, Guzman did a good job as goalie.

The JV team lost its first game of the season last weekend, falling to Kearny 3-0 in the Kearny Invitational.

On the freshman level, the Bucs downed Nutley 4-2 in its only game last Friday afternoon. Salvinio Aguiar and Hamilton Reyes scored two goals each. A fine performance was turned in by goaltender "Juice" Prvulovic.

"The Don Bosco game is a big one for us," DePinto said. "They're undefeated and they've won the league the past three years. It will be a good test for us, especially since it's on the road."

"Hackensack is also going to be tough next week. The seedings for the Essex County tournament will be out in a few weeks, so it's important to do well in these games."

Cross country team nearing full strength

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville cross country team has faced some outstanding competition so far in 1992. John Tosato's team has dropped meets to Ridgewood, Don Bosco, Passaic, Bloomfield and Nutley.

This Saturday, the Bucs take part in the Essex Catholic Invitational at Branch Brook Park. Next Tuesday, Belleville will host a tri meet against Hackensack and Paramus. That race will be held at Nutley Park, starting at 4 p.m.

The Bucs opened the season against no other than Ridgewood, ranked number one in the state. A few days later, the team faced Don Bosco, which holds the number five ranking in the state.

"We've seen some very good teams," Tosato admitted. "Our kids have faced some good runners. On the plus side, we now have nine runners on the boys team and we fielded our first complete team last week against Passaic."

Of the nine runners on the boys' team, five are freshmen. So far this year, Mike Janicelli has led the team, followed by John Cariaga and Dan Rykowski.

"Mike's been a very consistent runner," Tosato said of Janicelli. "He has been running for the track team and decided to try cross country this season."

The girls' team has done well in the early going. The team was 1-4 heading into this week. The victory was against Bloomfield.

Rachel Anderson has led the Lady Bucs. Anderson won the Bloomfield race in 26:01 for 3.1 miles.

Jennifer Citarella and Chris Rykowski have been running well. Others who have performed well are Kim O'Mara, Reina Silva and Nicole Morinelli.

"The girls have been working together before school started," Tosato said. "They're running well and showing noticeable improvement."

Bucs defeated by Hackensack, 27-0

By Mike Lamberti

John Senesky didn't mince words when asked about his team's play against Hackensack last Saturday.

"They physically overpowered us," the coach said.

Those four words pretty much summarized the Comets 27-0 win over the Bucs on a warm afternoon at Hackensack. The Comets had a tremendous combination of speed, power and agility in dominating the game.

The Bucs had hope to regroup this weekend at Paramus Catholic. It won't be an easy assignment as P.C. comes in with a 2-0 record and a marvelous offensive attack.

Inexperience in the secondary, but Hackensack is a very well balanced team. They can run the option, pass and power run all very effectively."

To give you an idea of how big Hackensack was, you need only to look at the game program. The guard and linebacker was 6'3", 210 pounds, the tackle was 5'8", 246 pounds. Another starting guard stood 6'1" and weighed 225 pounds. One of the tackles was 6'3" and 265 pounds.

The average player on the Hackensack line stood 6'1" and weighed 220 pounds. Compare that to the Belleville player who averages about 185 pounds and stands 5'9" tall and the difference is quite Buc running back Anthony Caruso looks for running room as blockers lead way. Bucs drop game to Hackensack, 27 - 0.

Please remember that the game starts at 2 p.m. because of SAT's this Saturday.

The Bucs have faced some big teams throughout the years. However, it will be difficult to find a team that had as much size and talent as Hackensack last weekend.

"They're just a very good team," Senesky said. "Are they four touchdowns better than us? On this day they were, but I have confidence in our kids."

"Their passing game showed our notable.

Hackensack's tremendous speed took center stage in the first half as the Comets scored twice, set up by long runs. Mixed in between was the fine passing of John Krueger, the Comet's senior quarterback who is 6'5" and 200 pounds. Krueger was able to see over the secondary and spot some talented receivers.

clently set up the running game and once the speedy runners had a little room, the result was usually a long gain.

Belleville did have a few scoring threats, especially in the first half. "We had a few opportunities," Senesky said. "But Hackensack is so talented they were able to compensate for a mistake by using their speed. Against a lot of teams, we would have scored on a few of our runs."

Most notably was a 51 yard run off scrimmage by Ricky Constantino late in the first half. Constantino broke loose and appeared the have the angle toward the end zone. But he was caught from behind and the scoring drive was stalled four plays later.

"Ricky had an excellent run," Senesky said. "Not many players would be able to catch him in the open field."

Belleville quarterback Mike Mundy had a difficult afternoon, facing a fierce pass rush. He was called for two intentional grounding penalties, one of which was questionable.

"He didn't have time," Senesky said. "Mike is a talented player, but he needs the time to pass the ball." The gutsy Bucs did battle hard and managed to withstand injuries. Late in the game, Joe Citarella went down with an ankle injury, but it is not believed to be serious.

"The kids battled," Senesky said. "We were up against a very good team. I really believe that our team is going to be stronger as the year progresses."

NOTES: Bucs have a 2-2 record against Paramus Catholic. Belleville won in 1989, 21-0 and in 1990, 21-6. Both of those victories came at Paramus Catholic.

P.C.'s two wins have been at Belleville. Paramus Catholic won in 1988, 10-0 and last year, 21-14. Both games were played in steady rain at Doc Ellis Field.

In last year's game, P.C. jumped out to a 14-0 lead, but Belleville rallied in the second half to tie the game. P.C. won on a late T.D. pass. "Paramus Catholic has the entire team back from last year," Senesky said. "Their offensive attack is tremendous. Their passing game is outstanding and they have one of the best runners in the conference."

P.C. is 2-0 this year, defeating Clifton 36-30 and Roxbury 34-18.

A big NNJIL Pacific Division game will be at Montvale this weekend as St. Joe's plays host to Hackensack.

After the game with Paramus

Catholic, Bucs return home to play another powerhouse, Bergen Catholic. That game will be on Friday evening, October 16 at Doc Ellis Field. The game will also be the annual Homecoming Game.

Quarterback Joe Berg (12) is about to hand off during fourth quarter of game with Hackensack last Saturday.

IN THE PHARMACIST WE TRUST
Pharmacists have played an important role in dispensing information along with prescription medications to their customers. In recent years, this role has expanded along with the increasing trend toward self-medication with over-the-counter drugs. Today, people want high-quality health care information to help them make decisions about selecting medications. According to a recent Gallup poll, pharmacists are fulfilling their customers' expectations. For the third year in a row, Americans judged pharmacists to be this nation's most trustworthy professionals. Pharmacists provide the answers that consumers need in medication need, without an appointment and at no cost. Apparently, this is a service that the American public does not take for granted. Our pharmacist is always happy to answer your questions and provide information on the hundreds of medications we carry. You expect and we get the finest of service at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 318 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. We have the sale and rental of convalescent aids including walkers, wheel chairs, crutches and canes. Russell Stover candies, cosmetics, toiletries and other items are carried. Open: Daily 9am-10pm. Sundays 9am-9pm.

The Electoral Vote

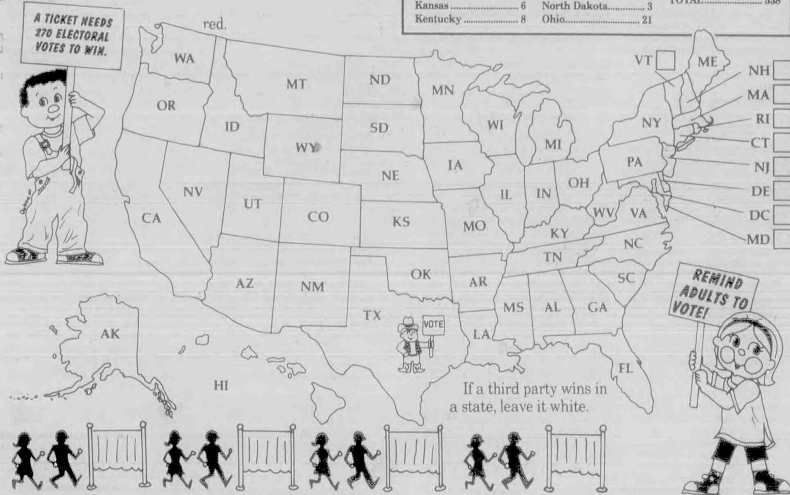

On Nov. 3, we will vote for either the Democratic or Republican Party's choice for president and vice president. The presidential and vice presidential candidates from each party run on the same "ticket" as a team. According to the rules set down by the Constitution, each state is allotted a certain number of votes. Today, the total for the whole country is 538.

These votes are called electoral votes.

The winning ticket in each state wins all of that state's electoral votes.

Write the number of votes for each state on the map. Save the map. After the election, color the Democratic states blue. Color the Republican states red.

Do-It-Yourself Electoral Vote

Here's how you can vote in your school to understand how we elect our president.

1. Assign a certain number of "electoral" votes to each classroom in your school. (The classrooms will stand for states.) Each classroom gets two votes. Then allot another vote for every five students in the class. The classes with the most students will get the most electoral votes.
2. Divide each class into two groups, Republicans and Democrats. Elect a set of electors for each group equal to the number of electoral votes assigned to your classroom.
3. Hold the general election and count the vote.
4. The candidate who wins in your room gets all of the electoral votes assigned to your class.
5. Ask the electors from the winning party to cast their votes and seal the envelopes. (They should vote for their party's candidates.)
6. Carry the envelopes to a student council meeting. Open them and announce the winner.

Learn about our presidents!

The Mini Page Book of Presidents is a must in this election year.

The book features a black-and-white picture of each president, along with such information as dates of birth and death, dates served as president, political party, signature and important achievements.

It also features stories about the president's Cabinet, political terms, and a visit to the White House.

To order, send $4.95 plus $1 each for postage and handling. Send only checks or money orders payable to Andrews and McNeil, P.O. Box 419150, Kansas City, MO 64141.

How We Elect Our U.S. Presidents

BEFORE YOU READ... THINK ABOUT AND DISCUSS: WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT HOW OUR PRESIDENT IS ELECTED? THEN READ ON.

The Electoral College

WHAT'S THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE?

When we talk about this election process, we say that our president and vice president are elected by the Electoral College.

There is really no college with a campus and students. Another meaning for "college" is a group that meets and has special duties.

The Electoral College has the duty to elect the president of the United States.

But its vote is based on how the people in each state voted.

Electoral votes

We elect our president and vice president by what we call electoral votes.

There are a total of 538 electoral votes. This number is based on the total number of members of Congress:

Senators.....100
Representatives.....435
From D.C.....3
Total electors.....538

Each state is allotted the number of electoral votes equal to the number of members that it has in the U.S. Congress.

Montana has 2 senators and 1 representative, so it will have a total of 3 electoral votes.

The political party in each state nominates a set of electors equal to its number of members of Congress.

IF A STATE HAS 3 PEOPLE IN CONGRESS, IT WOULD HAVE:

3 Republican electors, who would be expected to vote for the Republican ticket.

Republican ticket

3 Democratic electors, who would be expected to vote for the Democratic ticket.

Democratic ticket

Independent parties would nominate a set of electors, too.

We vote on Nov. 3. The winning ticket in each state gets all of that state's electoral votes. This is called "winner takes all."

WE LOST OUR STATE... WE ONLY HAD 200,000 VOTES.

WE WON OUR STATE... WE HAD 200,340 VOTES!

We will all know who the winner is on the night of Nov. 3 by counting the electoral votes. However, there are other steps that make it official.

In December, the winning electors, or special voters from each state, meet in their state capitals and cast their votes.

They are expected to vote for the ticket that won the popular vote in their state. (However, in a very few cases, unfaithful electors haven't cast their vote for the winners, but this is very unusual.)

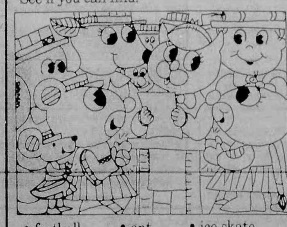

These electoral votes are put into sealed envelopes and sent to the president of the U.S. Senate. On Jan. 6, he opens the envelopes. He reads the results before a meeting of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives.

If there is a tie, or no one gets as many as 270 votes, the House of Representatives must decide who will be president. Each state has only one vote.

This does not happen very often. It has happened only twice in our history.

The Electoral College was set up more than 200 years ago when our Constitution was written in 1787. The writers of our Constitution had a hard time deciding just how our president and vice president were to be chosen.

How much did our largest president weigh? Find out this and more in our presidential fact-a-rooms story next week.

Summer sales of homes increase significantly Reports Weichert, Realtors

Interest rates at 20 year low cited for surge

Morris Plains, N.J., September 14, 1992 -- The summer of 1992 was marked by brisk activity in the sales of home, reports Weichert, Realtors, the nation's largest independent real estate company.

James M. Weichert, company president, said, "Our sales pace for the months of June, July, and August was exceptional good for the summertime. In August, for example, our sales were up 20% over August 1991."

The company, whose 185 offices serve Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, D.C., explained that real estate sales very often follow seasonal patterns. "August is typically a month for vacations and back-to-school preparations, and is not usually an active month for real estate sales," stated Weichert. "August 1992 was an exception," he said.

"Buyers and sellers alike have had some confidence restored in the economy and have begun to take advantage of today's remarkably low interest rates," the Weichert president explained. "In fact, the last time interest rates were this low, the average price of a home was just $35,000."

Weichert, Realtors expects this upturn in the market to continue throughout the fall season. "Savvy buyers will not let an opportunity like today's extremely favorable market conditions pass them by," Weichert added.

Weichert, Realtors is the national report, with 6,400 sales associates in 185 offices in seven states. Weichert's services include mortgage, relocation, commercial, moving services, and new homes and land.

The largest piece of masonry ever built is the Grand Coulee Dam in Washington. It consists of about 12 million cubic yards of concrete.

DID YOU KNOW?

Lace curtain lovely-- just hem lace yardage and stitch on rings to slide onto a decorative rod. Graceful drape can be as formal or informal as the lace you choose.

Planting a tree? Dig a hole twice as big as the circumference of the root ball and deep enough so the top of the root ball will be at ground level. Set the tree in place, remove the burlap cover and refill the hole with soil. Soak well.

Color-wash ties together wood tables and decor. Rub in a soft white stain, or tint to match furniture or draperies. Finish off with a clear top coat.

Even an old refrigerator will look new again if you polish and buff it with automobile wax. Smudges will wipe off easier too.

The key to a perfect wall arrangement of pictures and bric-a-brac: plan it carefully on a large sheet of paper on the floor. Outline positions of all the elements before you hammer a single nail.

The key to finding your dream home at an affordable price: the knowhow of our househunters at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Ave., Nutley. Call 235-9000.
