Car thefts drop 60 percent in wake of shooting incident

By Howard Klausner

Unofficial reports indicate that the number of car thefts in Belleville has taken a dramatic fall since the shooting incident in which police wounded a car theft suspect who reportedly tried to run them down.

On Aug. 30, police arrested Romeo Marques, 17, charging him with attempting to run down three Belleville police officers after being caught in an attempted car theft.

Police wounded Marques three times, firing at him as he tried to run them down.

Marques' mother, Maria Marques, subsequently filed charges of attempted murder against the police.

The arraignment of the seven

Belleville police was given front page coverage by The Star-Ledger. The story on the following day, which reported the dismissal of the charges by Acting Prosecutor James F. Mulvihill, was printed on Page 29 of The Star-Ledger.

For whatever reason, the number of car thefts in Belleville has fallen to less than one a day since Aug. 30, after running at about two a day for the earlier part of the year. Most stolen cars taken in Belleville are found in Newark, police report.

The "no pursuit" policy adopted by Newark has been blamed for the high incidence of car theft in the towns bordering the city.

In 1989, 392 vehicles were stolen in Belleville. The number of thefts rose to 520 in 1990 and 543 in 1991, and the rate of car theft took a sharp rise in early 1992.

It was not uncommon for the car thieves to ram police cars hoping to inflate the crash bags in the car and immobilize the police.

A police chase into Newark resulted in a collision with a civilian car in which the driver was killed. The Essex County Prosecutor's Office has not issued a report on this tragedy, but The Star-Ledger and other media put the responsibility for the fatality on the police.

The Belleville Times disputed this, pointing to the no-pursuit rule as the culprit.

Subsequently, editorial opinion has shifted, and the State Legislature has been enacting strict penalties for car thefts by juveniles.

Belleville police have launched an Anti-Auto Theft Vehicle Decal Program, or C-Vombat Auto Theft Program whereby township residents have decals placed on the left side of their car rear windows.

Any car being driven between the hours of 2 and 6 a.m. are subject to being stopped by police for rider and owner identification.

A driver whose name does not correspond with an authorized name on police records is subject to arrest.

A Belleville resident seeking to obtain a decal must contact Detective Fred Puleo of the Crime Prevention Bureau at (201) 450-3365.

Garden State Limo donates $10,000 to Queen of Peace School Fund

Garden State Limousine, one of NJ's largest limousine, rent-a-car and leasing companies, recently announced their second annual donation of $10,000 to the Queen of Peace High School Annual Giving Fund. John J. Rose, president of Garden State Limousine, presented the check at the Annual Giving Campaign kick off event, which marks the beginning of a year-long fund raising effort for the North Arlington high school.

According to Tony Chiariello, director of development for Queen of Peace, the funds raised will be used for two major enhancement projects: increasing the computer software for the various subject areas at the school, so that there will be more computer-aided instruction (CAI); and the replacement of windows throughout the school.

"John Rose's commitment to Queen of Peace was a crucial factor in the success of last year's annual giving campaign, which he chaired. Mr. Rose's generous donation to this year's fund has put us well on our way to our most successful campaign to date," said Chiariello.

John Rose, president and founder of Garden State Limousine, is deeply committed to the community. In addition to his work with Queen of Peace High School, Rose serves on the Board of Directors for Crimestoppers and The Bergen Council of The Boy Scouts of America. Rose is also on the Board of Directors of New Jersey's Commerce and Industry Association and is an active member of the New Jersey Republican Party, serving as a member of the Bergen County Committee and honorary delegate to this year's Republican National Convention.

Miracle on Rutgers Street

Two shotgun blasts miss crime victim

The Belleville Police Night Squad arrested two Paterson men and a 17-year-old youth, early Friday morning, after they allegedly terrorized and attempted to slay a Belleville man in his Rutgers Street driveway.

Police said the suspects fired two shotgun blasts at Mark Calaterra, 37, as he struggled with two men who tried to rob him.

At 2 a.m., Calaterra was parking his car in his driveway when he was approached by one of the men, who said, "Give me a quarter."

Calaterra offered the man a dollar, and as he reached into his pocket, he was kicked in the right side of his face, knocking him down.

Calaterra tried to tackle his assailant, who fired a sawed-off shotgun at pointblank range. A second man then fired his sawed-off shotgun, again missing.

The two men ran off to a waiting car, which drove off, heading down Cortlandt Street.

The shots were heard by Police Lieutenant John Maalot, who pursued the car.

Two other members of the Night Squad, Police Officers Pat Goldrick and Gerard Corbo, stopped the car as it approached Route 21.

Police said they found the two shotguns in the car, one with its serial number filed off.

They arrested Larry James, 20; Wilson Clinton, 18; and the juvenile, 17.

The suspects face charges of attempted murder, armed robbery, possession of weapons, and defacement of a weapon - in removing the serial number.

The juvenile was sent to Youth House. The adults were held for arraignment.

Police elevator jails two

The new elevator in the brand new Public Safety Building had an inauspicious start last week.

The elevator stalled while carrying two Belleville detectives.

The detectives had to gain attention by their plight by using a walkie-talkie radio which one of them happened to be carrying.

The call for help was relayed to the Police Desk still located in the adjoining Municipal Building, and someone found a key that unlocked the stalled mechanism.

The elevator has been closed for repairs since then.

The building is not officially open, but police have been moving their operations into it piecemeal. Police Chief Raymond Kimble and the Detective Squad are now in residence in their new larger and brighter offices.

'Rehired' and unhired

Joe Fornarotto gets ride on merry-go-round

Former Commissioner Joseph Fornarotto was briefly rehired as Housing Inspector by Interim Manager Stephen Cuccio on Friday afternoon and told it had been a mistake on Monday morning.

It was the latest chapter in Fornarotto's campaign to get back on the Township payroll, after his retirement on May 1, 1991 from the post that then paid about $26,000 a year. Fornarotto has claimed that he did not retire permanently, but had been laid off when the job title was eliminated.

He has insisted he was entitled to rehiring. Former Township Manager Bertrand Kendall steadfastly refused to rehire Fornarotto.

Interim Manager Cuccio reportedly put Fornarotto back on the payroll at the request of Township Council President Dr. Frank Noonan.

Sources said that Cuccio, who only started on the job Oct. 13, assumed that the Council majority favored the appointment. Apparently, Deputy Mayor Mario Drozdz emphatically opposed the appointment when he learned of it.

When Drozdz led the move to change the township form of government from Commission to Council-Manager, his criticisms of Commissioner Fornarotto were a major element of his campaign.

Fornarotto was supposed to replace Aldo DiChiara as an inspector. DiChiara had returned from retirement last June to fulfill the requirement of working 15 years to qualify for medical benefits.

He completed his four-month stint, working 21 hours a week, last week.

At that point, Fornarotto asked to succeed DiChiara.

After an interview with Cuccio,

Fornarotto announced he had been rehired, and at 8:30 a.m., Monday, he appeared at the Department of Public Works office to start work.

He was then advised that Cuccio wanted to see him, and Fornarotto spent two hours in the Manager's ante-room before meeting Cuccio.

Sources said that Cuccio told Fornarotto that a hiring freeze was in effect, and that the decision to rehire Fornarotto was an error.

Fornarotto became a Housing Inspector in 1985, placing first in a Civil Service test on the basis of being a disabled veteran. When he was elected to the Commission, he continued to hold his job as inspector.

Previously, Fornarotto had been employed by the Township as a sewer worker for 10 years. He was dismissed by then-Commissioner Mary Sotatore in 1968 on charges which he claimed were politically motivated.

Gorilla spotted off of Route 21 in Belleville

Everyday in Belleville, a gorilla is spotted on the roof of State Fair Halloween Costumes at 229 Main Street. There is no cause for alarm, because this gorilla is there to promote the free "Girl to Gorilla" illusion that takes place inside this warehouse outlet.

The show is performed Monday through Fridays at 7 p.m.; Saturdays at 1 and 4 p.m.; and Sundays at 1 and 4 p.m. Although the show is free, State Fair is accepting donations to be given to the American Cancer Society, Essex Unit. Special shows are arranged for organizations, such as Boy Scouts and schools, with advanced notice. For organizations, the show would also include a talk on Halloween Safety and free prizes to the children.

"This show is actually an old carnival illusion that has been around for years," said Al Dorso, owner of State Fair, and emcee of the show. "With no amusement parks in the area, we wanted to create a 'Disney-like' atmosphere where people can take their kids."

In addition to the "Girl to Gorilla" show, there are also costumed characters wandering through the store and parking lot, and waving to cars on Main Street. Children also can pick their own pumpkins at the Pumpkin Patch located in the parking lot.

State Fair Halloween Costumes is one of the metropolitan area's largest Halloween supplier. A division of State Fair Supply, a wholesale company which opens its doors to the public for Halloween and Christmas, State Fair Halloween Costumes has over 10,000 square feet of warehouse space devoted entirely to Halloween sales. Here is found a complete selection of adult and children's costumes, latex masks, wigs, hats, make-up and accessories.

Chamber sets dinner

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce will sponsor its 28th Annual Dinner-Dance on Saturday, Nov. 7 at the Branch Brook Manor.

Refreshments will begin at 6 p.m. A five-course dinner will follow. Entertainment will be provided by the Explosive Rhythm Disc Jockeys.

The theme for this year's dinner-dance is "Volunteerism".

Honorees will include Barbara Cicalese, chairperson of the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education; James J. Cozzarelli, Jr., architectural designer of building facades and the interior of the Belleville Public Library; Marlene French, Director of Volunteers for Clara Mass Medical Center; and Edward O'Neil, President of the Belleville Historical Society.

Firefighters oppose role as cops

By Howard Klausner
 Belleville firefighters are not enthusiastic about the proposal by Council President Dr. Frank Noonan that they assume safety patrol duties at night.

The Belleville Township Council has instructed Interim Manager Stephen Cuccio to explore the idea, and Dr. Noonan told a meeting of citizens in the Third Ward that it would help law enforcement.

Firefighters interviewed by the Belleville Times strongly disagree. They see it as endangering both their own lives and those of the citizens, besides being unworkable in practice.

The main argument of the firefighters interviewed is that the department is under-staffed at the present to the point that about 12 firefighters are on duty at any given time.

This works out to no more than five firefighters who would be actually involved in battling a blaze, because ambulance crews, dispatchers and executive officers are also included in the dozen on duty.

"I think the Belleville Police Department is doing a terrific job," one firefighter said. "I think we do a good job in our field. We don't need interference with each other."

Another comment was, "I don't think it's legal. For us to do police work is something that's not under our job title."

Other comments were:

"Our job is fighting fires, and we do a dam' good job of it."

"We have the best arson squad in Essex County, with the highest rate of convictions."

"I don't think people realize what we do. We don't have enough guys to do the job now."

"Dr. Noonan thinks we're second class citizens."

"I'm on ambulance duty. If he thinks I'm sleeping on the job, he's got the wrong idea."

"Two or three towns tried the idea, like Clifton, and dropped it."

"We used to have a department staff of 82, in 1986. Now we have 69, not including officers."

"Doc Noonan uses our ambulance to carry his patients more than anyone else in town."

ECIA offers $400,000 loan to help township buy housing site

The Belleville Township Council was scheduled to approve an agreement with the Essex County Improvement Authority for a $400,000 loan to buy four acres of land from the county as a site for Senior Citizen housing.

The offer was made Monday night to the Council at its work session by Thomas Banker, director of the ECIA.

Banker proposed that the money be repaid over 20 years at 4 percent interest.

When the township has legal possession of the land, which is on the site of the old Geriatric Institute, it will be eligible for a federal Housing and Urban Development grant for construction of Senior Citizen housing.

However, there is no guarantee the township will get a HUD grant. Banker said the ECIA would be open to discussion of funding for municipal parking facilities off Washington Avenue.

This was in response to an inquiry from Councilman Jim Messina who said he hoped some action could be taken to provide the shoppers' parking.

"I'm getting tired of having to be constantly asked by businesspeople when we're going to have the parking," Messina said.

He mentioned Louis Cicien, owner of Charles Jewelers, as one of those who was persistent in seeking action.

Banker also suggested that the Township use a firm, New Community Corporation of Newark, to design and manage the proposed Senior Citizen housing.

Clay tries to save jobs from airport expansion

Essex County Freeholder Vice President Arthur Clay, assisted by fellow Republican Freeholder James Treffinger, are seeking to prevent the closing of the Vibra Sewer Company plant in Fairfield, which has been condemned to allow the enlargement of the Fairfield Airport.

The Board of Freeholders granted the condemnation rights to the Essex County Improvement Authority, allowing the ECIA to obtain 21 acres and a building adjoining the airport.

Clay argued that the decision had been made with the firm being given an opportunity to oppose it.

Clay stated: "The Freeholders made a mistake in allowing the County administration to confiscate the property. This kind of thing used to happen in Russia and East Germany, but now it's happening right here in Essex County. We can't just go around taking away people's property at whim."

Prosecutor rejects charges against Belleville police

Acting Essex County Prosecutor James F. Mulvihill announced recently that he had exercised his authority under court rule to administratively dismiss complaints that were filed against seven Belleville police officers by the mother of a juvenile who was apprehended in a stolen car on Aug. 30.

The complaints charged that the officers conspired to murder, attempted to murder, and assaulted the juvenile. Mulvihill stated that the charges are premature since the entire matter will be presented to an Essex County Grand Jury in the near future.

The Prosecutor noted that the complaints relate to an incident that occurred on Aug. 30 in Belleville at approximately 3:25 a.m.

On that date, Belleville police received a report that a white Pontiac Trans Am vehicle was stolen on Hill Street in Belleville. As police officers were responding to the area, they saw two Trans Am vehicles driving in tandem on Jorammon Street.

The officers stopped the first Trans Am, which was driven by and registered to Jack Baptista, 25, of Hillside. The second Trans Am, which was being driven by the juvenile, was the vehicle that had been reported stolen.

According to police reports, the juvenile attempted to run down three police officers, prompting the officers to fire at the juvenile. The juvenile then rammed a pursuing police vehicle and a parked police vehicle before coming to rest. After a brief struggle, the juvenile was apprehended.

The juvenile suffered three gunshot wounds and was hospitalized for treatment. He was released from the hospital on Sept. 17.

The juvenile has been charged with attempted murder, aggravated assault, theft of the automobile, eluding the police, resisting arrest, and weapons possession offenses. The Prosecutor has filed a motion in Family Court to transfer these charges to adult court.

The Prosecutor noted that once this motion is granted the entire matter will be presented to the Essex County Grand Jury. In accordance with the Attorney General's guidelines on the use of deadly force by law enforcement officers, the Grand Jury will review the actions of the police officers. This, the Prosecutor observed, is standard practice in all cases involving serious bodily injury resulting from the discharge of firearms by police officers. In fact, the Prosecutor pointed out that he had publicly announced this on Aug. 30.

Tax bills going out

Belleville Tax Collector Steve Vogel reports that the fourth quarter tax bills are in the mail.

The due date for payment is Nov. 16, Vogel said.

On Monday, Nov. 2, the Tax Office at the Municipal Building will be open from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., in addition to the regular day time hours, to assist taxpayers with information on their bills.

The winning ticket was purchased at Debbie's Everything in Newark.

Jokers' Wild offers a full range of instant cash prizes from $10,000 to one free ticket.

Car theft suspect evades capture

A suspected car thief eluded police on the morning of October 19 after chases along River Road, Route 21 and side streets in Nutley, Belleville and Newark, said Nutley Police Chief Robert DeLitta.

The Chief said the incident began at 6:45 a.m. when Ptlm. John Rhein noticed a late 1980s Chevrolet Cavalier in the parking lot of the Valley National Bank at River Road and Park Avenue.

The engine was running and the lights were out, the Chief said.

Suspicious of a car in the lot at that hour, Ptlm. Rhein approached the vehicle, but as soon as he made the turn, the driver swerved toward him almost ramming him.

Rhein followed him south on River Road into Belleville where the driver turned and headed north on Route 21. Meanwhile Belleville police joined the chase.

When the driver reached Exit 8 in Nutley he turned off again and back to River Road.

Rhein and the Belleville police followed him up and down side streets into Newark then south on Summer Avenue. When they reached Chester Avenue they cut off the chase because of the excessive speeds and the danger to civilians.

OUR OPINION

FOR PRESIDENT

Bill Clinton

We support Bill Clinton for President.

The question foremost on the minds of most voters today is no secret — the economy.

Some of us have lived through and experienced the woes of the mother of all depressions — the one that descended upon us — and stayed with us during the 1930's.

The recession that has frozen this nation in place for the past two years is an event that President George Bush permitted to fester and refused to recognize until a few weeks ago.

Bush is just not with it. While he accuses Governor Bill Clinton of being careless with the truth — Bush lies about his participation in the sordid deal which resulted in trading arms for prisoners during the Iran confrontation.

Then he fabricates a story to extricate himself from a self-inflicted wound when he confesses allowing Iraq to build up its army and air force with United States loans and guarantees of billions of additional loans.

Bush's credibility is suspect.

On the economic front — Clinton has detailed plans to get our people working again. 17 million Americans are either unemployed or partially employed.

At 360,000, the number of unemployed New Jerseyans is a 100,000 higher than a year ago, and the state's jobless rate remains the second highest among the 11 industrial states.

Bush deliberately lies about Clinton's record as Governor of Arkansas. Following are Bush allegations versus Clinton's record as Governor:

Bush Alleges: Average taxes per person in Arkansas are the highest in the nation

Fact:	Average taxes per person in Arkansas is	$1273
	Average taxes per person in U. S.	2017

Bush Alleges: State income tax, sales tax and property taxes in Arkansas highest in U. S.

Fact:	Arkansas average individual state income tax	314
	U. S. state average individual income tax	425

Bush Alleges: Arkansas sales tax highest in U. S.

Fact:	Arkansas average sales tax per person	413
	U. S. average sales tax per person	488

Bush Alleges: Arkansas average property tax highest in U. S.

Fact:	Arkansas average property tax	228
	U. S. average property tax	626

Bush Alleges: Greater percent of personal income of average Arkansas resident going to state taxes highest in the nation

Fact:	Percent of Arkansas resident's personal income going to taxes	9.6
	U. S. average	11.5

Bush shouts, "Don't let Clinton do to America what he has done to Arkansas."

We say elect Clinton President so he is given the opportunity to do for America what he has done for Arkansas.

The voters of Arkansas have elected Clinton five times as Governor. Each election was a referendum on Clinton's abilities to govern fairly and effectively — and each election represented voters' confidence in Clinton's integrity and character.

A family weekly newspaper is precluded from using language encountered in New York's Village Voice publication to properly characterize Bush's deplorable and persistent personal attacks upon Clinton.

Heh! Mr. President! We now hear you deliver campaign oratorics about what you plan to do to us — or for us — during the next four years? — what kept you from making these proposals while you were president during the past four years? A credibility question for Mr. Bush.

P.S. — Four years ago, we endorsed Bush. FAO

Ross Perot

"Crazy or Not?" That was Tuesday's Page One headline in the much respected and broadly read Bergen Record.

The on-again, off-again candidate startled the nation Sunday night when he announced on the nationally acclaimed television program, "60 Minutes", that a Republican plot to smear his daughter and sidetrack his candidacy led to his withdrawal this summer. Perot accused the Republican Party of dirty tricks including an effort to tap his "financial business telephone line". Perot also stated his life was threatened when five armed gunmen approached his property intending to kill him, but were scared away by his barking dog.

Credible? You judge. This is the third excuse he has offered the American voters as his reason for quitting in midsummer. Bush spokesman, with Bush's approval, said Perot was "paranoid" and a "crazy man". Amen. FAO

Herb Klein for Congress

The Eighth District congressional seat currently occupied by Bob Roe is up for grabs. A contest is between Democrat Herb Klein and Republican Joe Bubba.

Ten years ago, I selected Mr. Klein to represent a multi-million dollar estate for which I was co-executor/trustee. My selection was concurred in by my co-trustee. And ten years later, we are happy we selected Klein.

Over the ten years, Mr. Klein was confronted by many problems. In resolving the problems, Mr. Klein showed astuteness, restraint, patience and ability.

Throughout the ten years, the connecting link was Mr. Klein's total integrity, both through the oath as a lawyer and in his representation of the client.

During those years, many were the times that government was the subject of discussion. When it comes to government, Mr. Klein is a learned man. He knows enough about government, and is skilled in the knowledge of how to get around red tape to accomplish an objective.

We have a two-year recession on our hands, and Republican George Bush — as recently as two weeks ago, stated he couldn't understand the public's concern over a misperception that a recession is upon us. Well — ask anybody who is unemployed whether she or he is better off now than four years ago.

From all indications, Bill Clinton will be the next president of the United States. A Democrat congressman from this district can do more for our people with a Democrat president than a Republican.

Because Herb Klein is well qualified — because he is a man of integrity — because with Clinton as president, Klein could do more for the people of our district, we support Herb Klein for congress. Klein has the endorsement of retiring Congressman Bob Roe. He is best able to continue the legacy of the Roe years.

• GEORGE BUSH is at it again. On Monday, September 9th, Bush again pledged not to raise taxes if he is re-elected. Here is what Bush said on ABC's "Good Morning, America" program, "I will never ever go along with another Democrat tax hike as I did in 1990." Then — to have it both ways, the following day, White House spokesman, Marlin Fitzwater, in response to a question said, "It wasn't a pledge. No." When President Bush was asked about Marlin Fitzwater's comments, his reply was, "As far as I'm concerned, I will never, ever go along with another Democrat tax hike. I'm going to hold the line on taxes, and that means no new taxes." In my fifty years of politicking, I have heard many candidates — and officeholders declaring, "I'm against new taxes — I will not increase taxes." — and do you know what? There is only one person that I could remember who campaigned on the issue and kept his word. Of course, he is dead. He was the late Nutley Finance Commissioner Raleigh S. Rife. I truly believe candidates for office, for the most part, are sincere in saying they are against raising taxes. But — the inevitability of governing is such that it is practically impossible to reduce taxes unless a one-time happening comes along — whether it be a federal or state grant that results in keeping down the local real estate tax bill.

• A WONDERFUL thing happened in New Jersey recently. Democrat Minority Leader, Senator John Lynch, and Assembly Speaker Garabed "Chuck" Haytaian, mutually agreed for "a suspension of legislative hostilities to focus on the people's business." The proof is in the pudding. Hopefully, Speaker Haytaian means what he said — for it's the only way the best interests of our great state could be advanced. "Bickering hampers not only government itself, but reduces the public's trust in government," said State Senator John Lynch. Haytaian took credit for repealing the one cent sales tax and submitted that action as proof that "not all politicians lie."

• PRESIDENT BUSH vetoed a family leave bill that would require businesses with fifty or more employees to grant workers up to twelve weeks of UNPAID leave each year to care for newborn babies or sick family members. This is the second time that Bush vetoed a family leave bill. If there is any one single act that tells the public that Bush is mean-spirited, there are some people that point to this action. And — in his inaugural speech, Bush said, "I want us to have a kinder, gentler nation." Not only has he broken his promise to the people of America, but in making the statement, he indirectly was accusing former President Reagan of being unkind and not gentle.

Bill Clinton

• DURING the last twelve years, day after day, we have read of teens jailed on drug charges — teens charged in cheating on SAT exams. The question arises whether or not today's teens know right from wrong. A recent survey by USA Weekend newspaper showed that of an estimated 126,000 youngsters, ages 13-18, 25-40 percent of teens see nothing wrong with cheating on exams, stealing from employers or keeping money that isn't theirs. More than 90 percent said they were satisfied with their answers. A high school sophomore questioned regarding the results of the survey said, "Morals don't seem important right now. They're just kind of rules." An estimated 40 percent said they would do things most people consider dishonest.

• THE Belleville-Nutley Columbus Day Parade is now history — and another success. Much credit goes to committee members that gave freely of their time and effort.

• SANTA CLAUS is going to arrive in Nutley Friday, November 27. It is the 31st anniversary of the Chamber's annual Christmas celebration. Dr. Paul DeMaio will again bring Santa into Nutley using his own helicopter.

• LAST month's New York U.S. Senate Primary is now just a memory, except Italo-Americans have a score to settle with New York City's Elizabeth Holtzman who lost the U.S. Senate Primary battle to New York Attorney General Bob Abrams. But — in the process, she accused former Congresswoman and Vice Presidential candidate, Geraldine Ferraro, of having Mafia ties. Many active politicians blamed Holtzman's anti-Italian-American attacks for Geraldine Ferraro's loss — and that was close. In the closing days of the election, Bob Abrams jumped on Holtzman's bandwagon raising questions about Geraldine Ferraro's association with not-so-clean characters.

The anti-Holtzman feeling is so deep within the New York Italian-American community that she was forced to cancel her attendance of a ceremony marking Italian Heritage and Culture Month.

Students, start writing

By Cathy Scocimarro

Mrs. McFarland, the Belleville High School English department organizer of creative writing week, is asking all students to put their imaginations to work.

In addition to English classes, McFarland also teaches a half-year course in creative writing.

The creative writing course emphasizes the importance of students expressing what they feel when writing. This is precisely the purpose of creative writing week.

Students should submit their short stories, poetry, and/or essays to McFarland before the end of this month. All student pieces will be considered for publication in the Emano, BHS's literary magazine that will be published in the spring.

S.A.T. discussed

By Joseph Ouffero

Guest speaker Robert Cohen, employed by the Princeton Review Company, recently addressed the S.A.T. Prep course students at Belleville High School. Cohen demonstrated techniques to raise test scores and change the way students think about the test.

Cohen emphasized that there is no substitute for practice on real exams and thorough review of fundamentals. Cohen also stated that the March 4, 1994 test will have a change in the Verbal and Math portions. Students will be allowed to use calculators during the test. Also, there will be ten questions that are not multiple choice. The antonym section will be eliminated from the verbal section and vocabulary will be tested within the reading comprehension section. Cohen concluded that the changes are not significant.

PBA sponsors safe Halloween

Belleville Policemen's Benevolent Association President Detective Peter Fraone has announced that the PBA is sponsoring a Halloween safety campaign that will include all Belleville elementary schools.

The program is taught by members of the Juvenile Aid Bureau as well as the DARE unit.

The PBA has purchased coloring books which will be distributed to the fourth and fifth grade students.

Fraone said that students in Classes K through 3 will be instructed by the elementary guidance teachers.

Grades 4, 5 and 6 will be instructed by the Police Department.

The classes will cover ways in which children can have a safe and enjoyable Halloween.

School note

Belleville High School authorities have issued this statement:

"The students of Belleville High School know that Halloween is about having fun, not vandalizing public and private property.

"Students can help stop vandalism, not add to it."

Spanish course proves a success

By Jon Blake

Valentino Fraterolli, BHS Foreign Language Department supervisor, is pleased to announce the outstanding success in the study of foreign language at the high school.

Three out of four students in Mrs. Vera Kopko's Spanish Five AP class of 1992, took the Spanish AP exam and achieved a perfect score of five on a scale of one to five.

Cynthia Rodriguez, Deysi Yanez and Erika Gomez earned perfect scores on the AP exam and are now attending college. Kopko confirmed that the exam is very difficult and that the students were rewarded for their achievement by receiving three college credits; credits that would have cost money for classes and books. According to Kopko, "The commendable performance of the students can be attributed to a honing and polishing of Spanish language skills throughout their Belleville foreign language program experience."

There are few things stronger than a child's imagination. Children believe in all things magical and wishing on a shooting star can sometimes make great things happen.

This year, you can be that star in a special child's life.

First DeWitt Savings and The Make-A-Wish Foundation have joined forces once again this holiday season to work towards fulfilling the wishes of children afflicted with life threatening illnesses.

When you open a Holiday Club at First DeWitt Savings, we'll donate $2 to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and you'll play an important role in making a child's wish come true.

The work of the Make-A-Wish Foundation is made possible through concern and support of people like you. So this year instead of receiving a gift for opening a Holiday Club, you can give a gift—the gift of making a child's wish come true.

You could be at risk for "silent heart disease" - even if you have no symptoms.

A painful heart attack is hard to miss. But millions of Americans have heart disease, and don't even know it. They are the victims of "silent heart disease," or, as it's known by cardiologists, "silent ischemia."

If you have several of these risk factors — high cholesterol, high blood pressure, smoking, obesity, diabetes, or a family history of heart disease — you could be in serious danger.

At North Jersey Heart Center, we have the special expertise and state-of-the-art equipment to detect "silent ischemia" and other heart diseases before they become a problem.

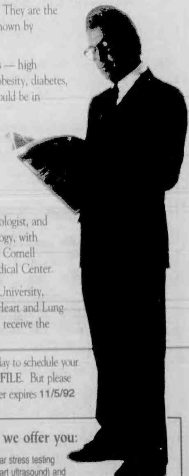

Our director is a board-certified cardiologist, and Fellow of the American College of Cardiology, with advanced training at Columbia University, Cornell University Medical College, and NYU Medical Center.

He has taught cardiology at Temple University, Downstate Medical Center, and Deborah Heart and Lung Center. But most of all, he makes sure you receive the attentive care you deserve.

Take the first step. Call 748-6181 today to schedule your FREE CARDIOVASCULAR RISK PROFILE. But please don't wait. Your heart is too important. Offer expires 11/5/92

At North Jersey Heart Center, we offer you:

Cardiac risk factor analysis • Treadmill and nuclear stress testing Cholesterol management • Echocardiograms (heart ultrasound) and EXG's • Individualized programs for diet, exercise, and medication • Warm, personal consultations with doctors and staff

Belleville

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

I'd like to start by apologizing to the Belleville Kiwanis Club. They were the sponsors of the Homecoming Night festivities at Doe Ellis field two weeks ago. While the kids received the recognition in last week's issue, I forgot to mention the Kiwanis, who devote many hours and hard work in making the Homecoming festivities such a success.

DID ANYONE GET THE LICENSE NUMBER?
I've had the opportunity to cover sports at Belleville High now for the past 17 years. When I first started doing this, I was a senior at Belleville High. I've been covering football at BHS for 15 years. I've seen a lot of good games and some very good Belleville teams.

Back in 1981, as a 23-year-old writer and fan, I covered the Belleville-Seton Hall Prep game at then Municipal Stadium. It was a bitterly cold day and there was a lot at stake in the game. Seton Hall was 6-0 and ranked second in the state. Belleville was 5-1 and ranked fourth.

The game was tied at seven in the fourth quarter. Suddenly, some very questionable officiating marred a great game. Seton Hall pulled away in the last seven minutes and won 27-7.

The following week, I was critical of the officials and acted more like a disappointed fan than a writer who was there to analyze a game.

Truth be known, Seton Hall was the better team that day. They went on to an 11-0 record in '81 and won the Parochial A title.

Belleville finished 7-2 and missed the playoffs by a half game. Maybe the Bucs could have won that game back in '81 and yes, the officials did make some suspect calls in critical times. But we'll never know and my first responsibility is to give the details in as professional a manner as possible.

With that in mind, let's now move to 1992. Last Friday, the Belleville Bucs traveled to Randolph to play the number five ranked team in the state. The Bucs are not ranked in the top 20 this year. They were 1-3 coming into the game, Randolph was 4-0.

The Bucs had played well in the previous few weeks, even though the team had lost three straight. The Bucs were beaten by Hackensack, Paramus Catholic and Bergen Catholic, teams with a combined record of 19-1 heading into this weekend's action.

In Randolph, the Bucs were facing a team that could actually see eye to eye with. Honest. Randolph, a well drilled team who executes its offense with tremendous precision, is not the huge team that you saw in Hackensack or Bergen Catholic.

There was actually a feeling of confidence that the Bucs could compete with a team its own size for once.

But remember, the opponent is Randolph. Perhaps a little history is needed here.

Football in the Morris County town of Randolph is HUGE. This is a town that loves its football team. The fans come out in record numbers. They are treated to a team that loses once every presidential election, perhaps longer.

Randolph holds the state record for consecutive victories and for consecutive games without a loss. Honest. This team hadn't lost a game from the midpoint of the 1985 season until the final game of the 1991 campaign.

This isn't official, but Randolph, over the past seven years, has a mind boggling record of 66-1-1.

Don't be surprised if there isn't a made-for-TV movie about the 1990 Randolph team. That was the squad who was coached by the legendary John Bauer Sr. The coach was fighting a game battle with cancer, a battle he sadly lost midway through the '90 campaign.

Bauer's son, John Jr., an assistant on the coaching staff, assumed the coaching duties. Three days after the death of his coach, Randolph took the field against Livingston and rolled 35-0 in an emotional game. Bauer Jr. guided Randolph through another undefeated, untied season and led the team to a 6-0 win over Union in the first round of the Group IV, Section II playoffs.

In order to win the Group IV, Section II crown, the Rams had to play the number one ranked Montclair Mounties, holders of a 10-0 record and an awesome football team.

On December 2, 1990, the two hooked up in an epic battle at Woodman Field in Montclair. The Mounties led 21-19 late in regulation and had the ball deep in its own territory. Montclair opted to run out the clock, but poor clock management led to a fourth down and time left on the clock.

Montclair punted, but the ball didn't travel far. Randolph took possession deep in Montclair territory and one play later, kicked a field goal for an unbelievable 22-21 win.

It was perhaps one of the best high school games ever. Randolph won the state championship in 1990. Last year, the Rams tied with Roxbury, ending the winning streak, but the team remained unbeaten until Union stopped them in the finals, 24-14.

So, needless to say Randolph has a marvelous reputation. This year they were 4-0 heading into the game with Belleville.

Not many people expected the Bucs to win and when Randolph scored on its second offensive series, there wasn't much concern.

But Belleville found the going a little different than the past three weeks. They weren't playing the Notre Dame look-alikes in Hackensack, or the Miami Hurricane passing attack that Paramus Catholic has or the phenomenal passing and running attack that Bergen Catholic possessed. They were playing a good team, but a team that looked almost normal compared to the three previous entries.

The Bucs seemed a little tentative in the first half, but late in the half they drove to the Ram one before stalling. In the third quarter, the Bucs drove effectively again, but stalled near the end zone. This time, Mike Mundy kicked a field goal and it was 7-3.

There was a little apprehension, but after all this was Randolph and they don't lose at home. Right?

On Randolph's next series, they fumbled deep in their own territory. Belleville recovered and scored a few plays later. Suddenly it was 9-7 in favor of Belleville and you could see the shock on the opposing sideline.

It was the fourth quarter and Randolph was losing, at home. The fact that Randolph was losing at all was noteworthy. But to be losing at home? Something didn't seem right.

Could Randolph really lose? To the Bucs? On the vaunted home field? What about the Randolph mystique?

Don't worry guys, said those men in the striped shirts laughingly referred to as high school referees. We'll save you. Your streak will be in tact.

And for the next 10:30 of the fourth quarter, the officials took over the game. It was a farce in every sense of the word.

Let's hope it will never be seen again.

Questionable calls in 4th quarter

Zebras stampede at Randolph

By Mike Lamberti

On a brisk autumn evening in the beautiful Morris County town of Randolph, the Belleville Bucs football team was robbed. They were robbed in front of a large crowd, on a well lit field. They had a game taken away which they had every right to call theirs.

The Bucs lost to the Randolph Rams, ranked number five in the state, 21-9 last Friday night. For the record, the loss was the fourth straight for the Bucs after an opening night win. This was the fifth straight week that the Bucs played an opponent who was undefeated coming in. Randolph improved to 5-0 with the victory.

Belleville hopes to recover from this difficult loss on Saturday afternoon when the team heads to Paramus. Kickoff time is 1 p.m.

Getting back to last Friday's debacle, the Bucs played an inspired game against a powerful opponent. They would have won had it not been for a group of individuals on the field, wearing striped shirts, who felt they were a little more important than the game itself.

To say the officiating in this game was atrocious would be too much of a compliment to the men who called this game. What they did was take away a victory from a group of kids who truly earned the win and made sure the home team would prevail.

Buccaneer head coach John Senesky, in his usual classy manner, refused to blame the officiating for the loss. The coach, however, was much more animated than usual during the game, twice walking practically toward midfield to contest some very strange calls in crucial stretches of the fourth quarter.

"Randolph executes very well," Senesky said. "We felt coming into the game we could match up with them size wise. They run their offense in a very similar manner to ours, so we felt confident we could compete with them."

The football tradition in Randolph is well known. The Rams have put together a marvelous program, especially over the past ten years. The team has the longest winning streak and longest non losing streak in state history. The latter part of that streak was snapped in the state finals last December against Union.

The last time Randolph lost a game at home was sometime during the early stages of Ronald Reagan's second term as President. Over the past 60 or so games, Randolph has a mark of 58-1-1.

Part of Randolph's reputation is the ability to move the ball with a minimum of errors. Apparently the officials were so impressed with the Belleville players take a moment to gather their thoughts following game with Randolph last Friday.

Rams that when a flag was thrown against Randolph, it would be scooped up and with an apology, quickly forgotten.

The game started innocently enough. Randolph drove the field impressively on its second offensive series and scored first late in the first quarter on a ten yard scoring pass.

On the ensuing kickoff, Belleville's Sal Berardi broke down the sideline for a fine return. Unfortunately, he fumbled at the end of the run and Randolph recovered. Nonetheless, Berardi's run had given the Bucs some confidence that they could indeed move against Randolph.

The Buc defense, playing by far its best game of the season, met the challenge for the rest of the half and held Randolph scoreless. As the first half wore down, Buc quarterback Mike Mundy began gaining confidence and passed the ball effectively.

Late in the second quarter, Mundy hit split end Brian Harvey with a 25 yard pass. Two plays later, Berardi took a handoff from Mundy and raced down the Randolph sideline. He was stopped at the Ram nine, giving the Bucs a first and goal.

Belleville was not able to capitalize however. On fourth and goal from the 11, Mundy hit Berardi with a bullet, but he was tackled at the one and the drive stalled. The first half ended with the Bucs trailing 6-0.

With the exception of a questionable defensive holding call against the Bucs in the second quarter, the officiating was not a factor in the first half. The second half would be another story entirely.

Belleville took the second half kickoff and staged a steady drive downfield. Key running by Ricky Constantino, Anthony Caruso and Berardi, along with a fine reception by Harvey moved the ball from the Bucs 35 to the Randolph 10.

Once again, the Randolph defense stiffened, holding the Bucs at the seven. On fourth down, Senesky opted for the field goal and Mundy converted the kick from 27 yards out.

It was the second straight week that Mundy had kicked a field goal and the boot sticed the Ram lead to 7-3.

On Randolph's next offensive series, a fired up Belleville defense forced a fumble and the Bucs recovered deep in Ram territory. Mundy guided the offense downfield and the Bucs converted a touchdown when Caruso took a handoff from the one and broke the plane. The Bucs missed the point after attempt when the snap went wide, but Belleville was ahead 9-7 against a team that hadn't lost at home in at least eight years.

Here's where the fun starts. Randolph takes the ensuing kickoff and has a good return. The Rams start at their own 35. Three plays later, Randolph quarterback John Bauer 3d throws to his split end. The player catches the ball and is brought down by John Alvarado.

The Randolph player stopped short on Alvarado's tackle and the Buc defensive back was in an awkward position. He went to help the player up and the official threw a flag 15 yard penalty, unnecessary roughness.

It was at that point that the Belleville sideline knew something wasn't right. Randolph was now in Belleville territory. Two plays later, a screen pass netted 15 yards. A flag was thrown. The preliminary indication was holding on Randolph.

The Belleville players on the field had heard the call and made the signal to their sideline. Suddenly the officials gather at midfield. (You just know what's going to

Bucs gear for NNJIL showdown today

In spite of solid defense, the Belleville Soccer team, 12-0, in the quarter final round of the Essex County tournament.

Gino DePinto's team did have a good week overall, stopping Teaneck 6-0 and Paramus Catholic 6-1. The Bucs took a 12-2-1 record into this week's action.

The big game of the week is this afternoon, when league leader Don Bosco comes to town for a 4 p.m. kickoff. That's the final regular game of the 1992 campaign. That game could decide the NNJIL championship. The Bucs will begin play in the state tournament later next week.

"We played a good game against Montclair," DePinto said. "We just couldn't get the ball in the net. I can't say anything but good things about this team. Our kids have played very well this year."

The offense was in high gear against NNJIL rival Teaneck. Greg Groeling and Marcello Giorlando scored twice while Alex Alexandre and Giuseppe Manella had one each.

Alexandre also led the way with two assists.

In the Paramus Catholic game, the Bucs pulled away after a sluggish start.

"The game was tied at one before the halftime," DePinto said. "Paramus Catholic has a rather small field. It took a while for our team to get used to it."

The Bucs became more comfortable with the field in the second half and the result was a five goal explosion. In the game, Matt Kastner and Alexandre scored two goals each while Giorlando and Manella tallied one each.

Sophomore Ivan Martin had two assists in the game for the Bucs.

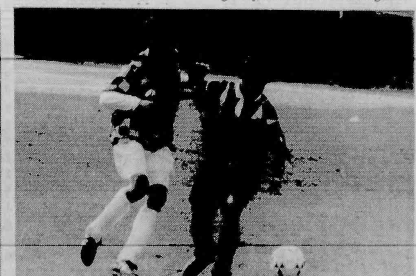

The JV team blanked Paramus Catholic 5-0. The freshman team improved its record to 5-4-2 with two victories last week. The Bucs defeated Teaneck 2-1 behind two goals from Salvino Aguiar.

Against Bloomfield, Belleville prevailed 5-0, with Eric Guevara and Hamilton Reyes scoring two goals each. Aguiar had one goal in the game.

Goalie Natale Guagliardi did a good job in both freshman games.

Bucs lose bitter battle happen next). The official steps to midfield and indicates no penalty. Instead of a first and 25 situation near midfield, Randolph has a first and ten at the Buc 33.

Needless to say, Senesky and assistant coach Joe D'Ambola were a little miffed at the call. The official offered an explanation, which did nothing to satisfy the coach's curiosity.

The Belleville defense was now coming unglued, and Randolph took advantage. Dave Plate ran 13 yards to the 20 and two plays later, Billy Williams went over from the one yard line, giving the Rams the lead back, 14-9.

Despite the questionable call on the Bucs and the very questionable non call against Randolph (a 30 yard differential), the Bucs were still up beat. There was six minutes left in regulation time and Belleville trailed by just five.

The Bucs took the kickoff and started at its 28. The Bucs got a first down, but a clipping penalty on the fifth play in the series moved the Bucs back 15 yards and forced the team into a third and long situation. Mundy hit Harvey with a pass, but it wasn't good enough for a first down and Alvarado came in to punt.

The Buc defense appeared to keep Randolph under wraps, but once again a questionable call gave the Rams new life. This time it was a 15 yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on a player who had no idea he had said anything out of the ordinary on a football field.

The penalty set up a second TD run by Williams, this time from nine yards out and the game was out of reach.

It was a sad ending for a team that had truly won the game on the field. The defense, paced by Mike Cinnella, Alvarado, Rich Romano, Billy Zigmund and Joe DePieri was excellent. They met every challenge given by the Rams on the field, they just weren't able to overcome the additional odds.

"We had scoring chances," Senesky said, referring to the drive that stalled on the one in the first half and the third quarter drive which got as close as the four yard line and netted a field goal. "It's a disappointing loss."

Perhaps one frustrated coach put it best as the Bucs headed to the bus. "Do you think they were going to let a 1-3 team win here?"

Enough said.

NOTES: Bucs get back to NNJIL business this weekend. Paramus and Belleville have had some memorable battles in the past, most notably in 1990. That year, the Bucs rallied from an 18-7 deficit in the fourth quarter to win 19-18.

Bucs won last years battle, 16-6 at Doc Ellis Field. In 1989, Paramus prevailed 26-17 at Paramus. In '88, Bucs won 12-7 at Paramus and in '87, it was Belleville 7-0 at Doc Ellis Field. In that game, Craig Jackowski scored the lone TD in the third quarter. This was also the game in which the home field was named Doc Ellis Field.

Paramus prevailed in 1986, 9-6. Bucs lead season series between the two teams 4-2 and have won three of the last four games.

After game this Saturday, Bucs travel to Teaneck on November 7 in final road game of season.

The combined record of the four teams that have defeated Belleville this year is 19-1. The only loss was by Hackensack to St. Joe's Montvale in week three.

quarter. Randolph? They were hit with a five yard penalty for delay of game. Maybe one of the officials watches broke down. Randolph couldn't have made a mistake, could they?

In what proved to be the game winning drive, Randolph was hit with an apparent holding penalty. The flag was thrown, the call was made, the Belleville players indicated the flag was against Randolph. Suddenly the zebras headed at midfield. They probably couldn't believe that Randolph could make such an error. They talked it over, maybe flipped a coin, and decided that's okay guys, there was no penalty there.

Belleville coach John Senesky, who rarely says boo during a game, was so incensed by the call that he decided to join the zebras meeting at midfield. If you know Senesky, you know that something has to be really wrong for him to walk halfway onto the field.

The article on the game appears in this weeks issue. The bottom line is very simple. The Bucs won it. They then had it taken away by a group of self centered men whose lives have reached such new lows that they apparently get a thrill about taking away something a group of 15 to 18 year old men had earned.

This game is not for Mike Lamberti to decide. It's not for John Senesky or John Bauer Jr. to decide. It's for those guys in the uniforms with the helmets on both sides of the line of scrimmage to decide.

When officials of a game decide they're a little too big for the game, they should not be allowed to officiate any further.

But they'll continue to get away with it. Sadly, these guys will be on some field this weekend, pretending to be high school game officials.

As for the Bucs, they got on the bus and made the hour long trip back to Belleville via Route 10, Route 287, Route 80 and the Garden State Parkway. As Senesky got on the bus, he looked at me and calmly said "they execute very well, don't they."

The coach was referring to Randolph's offensive game. He didn't mention the officials. That's Senesky's style. He won't lower himself to the level of men who have nothing better to do than ruin a high school game by providing a whole new level of ineptitude.

Senesky won't lower himself, but in this case, I have to. The kids took the bus ride home. When they got back to the friendly confines of Doc Ellis Field, they went to the lockerroom where coach Joe D'Ambola commended his players on a tremendous effort.

The coaches and players then took off into the night, pondering what might have been had fairness been the order of the game. There are about 60 million people who have no idea that Belleville and Randolph even played. But there are a group of kids in Belleville who will never forget this game.

And isn't it wonderful that ten years from now, these kids might have kids of their own and they can tell their little ones about the night in Randolph when they were railroaded.

It's a shame. The high school years are supposed to be fun and filled with good memories. It's not supposed to be memories of how their team should have won, but didn't because a group of officials decided it was their place to determine the winner.

Congratulations to the Belleville Bucs on a fine performance last Friday night. As parents and fans of these players, you should be proud of their performance. It took 11 Randolph players and five additional men on the field to beat our team.

The Electoral Vote

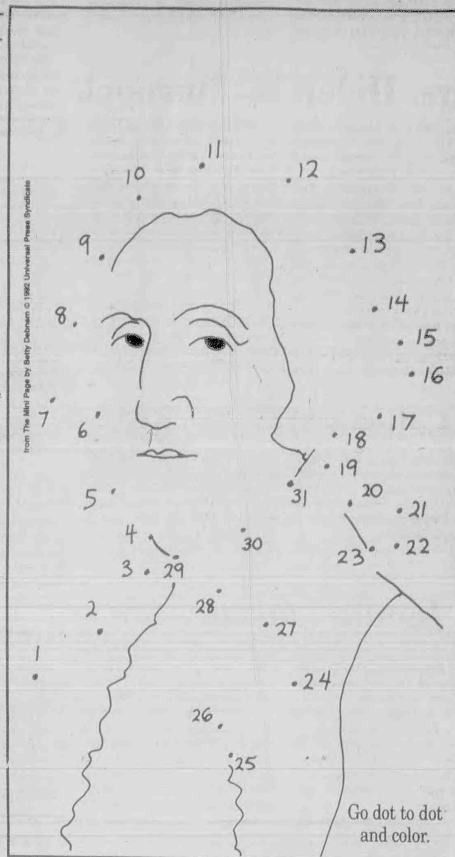

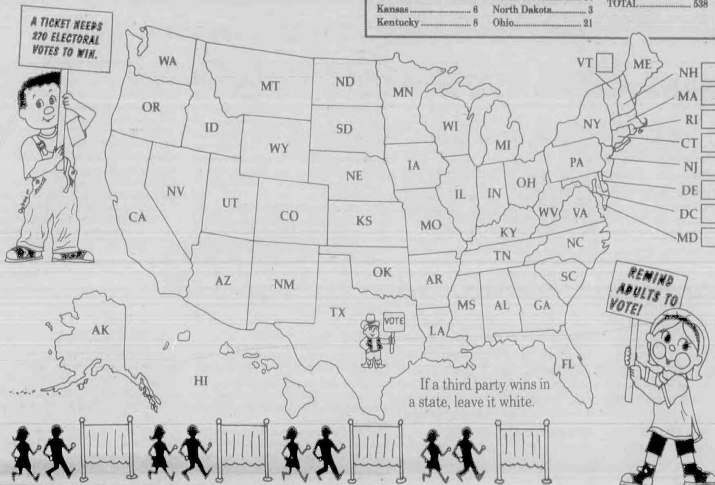

On Nov. 3, we will vote for either the Democratic or Republican Party's choice for president and vice president. The presidential and vice presidential candidates from each party run on the same "ticket" as a team.

According to the rules set down by the Constitution, each state is allotted a certain number of votes. Today, the total for the whole country is 538.

These votes are called electoral votes.

The winning ticket in each state wins all of that state's electoral votes.

Write the number of votes for each state on the map. Save the map. After the election, color the Democratic states blue. Color the Republican states red.

Do-It-Yourself Electoral Vote

Here's how you can vote in your school to understand how we elect our president.

ROOM 1	ROOM 2
15 Students 5 ELECTORAL VOTES	40 Students 10 ELECTORAL VOTES
HALLWAY
ROOM 3	ROOM 4
35 Students 9 ELECTORAL VOTES	23 Students 6 ELECTORAL VOTES

1. Assign a certain number of "electoral" votes to each classroom in your school. (The classrooms will stand for states.)

Each classroom gets two votes. Then allot another vote for every five students in the class. The classes with the most students will get the most electoral votes.

2. Divide each class into two groups, Republicans and Democrats. Elect a set of electors for each group equal to the number of electoral votes assigned to your classroom.

3. Hold the general election and count the vote.

4. The candidate who wins in your room gets all of the electoral votes assigned to your class.

5. Ask the electors from the winning party to cast their votes and seal the envelopes. (They should vote for their party's candidates.)

6. Carry the envelopes to a student council meeting. Open them and announce the winner.

My Pumpkin

Kristin in fourth grade at the Beatrice Gilmore School in West Paterson.

Dear Pumpkin,
All my wishes shining bright,
Like your candle in the night.
Every night I wish and pray,
My pumpkin stays lit through the day.
I've never seen your candle so bright,
Except for that Halloween night.

How We Elect Our U.S. Presidents

Electoral votes

We elect our president and vice president by what we call electoral votes.

There are a total of 538 electoral votes. This number is based on the total number of members of Congress:

Senators 100
Representatives 435
From D.C. 3
Total electors 538

Each state is allotted the number of electoral votes equal to the number of members that it has in the U.S. Congress.

The Electoral College

When we talk about this election process, we say that our president and vice president are elected by the Electoral College.

There is really no college with a campus and students. Another meaning for "college" is a group that meets and has special duties.

The Electoral College has the duty to elect the president of the United States.

But its vote is based on how the people in each state voted.

Montana 3 electoral votes

Montana has 2 senators and 1 representative, so it will have a total of 3 electoral votes.

The political party in each state nominates a set of electors equal to its number of members of Congress.

IF A STATE HAS 3 PEOPLE IN CONGRESS, IT WOULD HAVE:

3 Republican electors, who would be expected to vote for the Republican ticket.

3 Democratic electors, who would be expected to vote for the Democratic ticket.

Republican ticket

Democratic ticket

Bush

Gore

Independent parties would nominate a set of electors, too.

The Electoral College was set up more than 200 years ago when our Constitution was written in 1787. The writers of our Constitution had a hard time deciding just how our president and vice president were to be chosen.

How much did our largest president weigh? Find out this and more in our presidential fact-a-roonies story next week.

We vote on Nov. 3. The winning ticket in each state gets all of that state's electoral votes. This is called "winner takes all."

WE LOST OUR STATE ... WE ONLY HAD 200,000 VOTES.

WE WON OUR STATE ... WE HAD 200,340 VOTES!

We will all know who the winner is on the night of Nov. 3 by counting the electoral votes. However, there are other steps that make it official.

In December, the winning electors, or special voters from each state, meet in their state capitals and cast their votes.

They are expected to vote for the ticket that won the popular vote in their state. (However, in a very few cases, unfaithful electors haven't cast their vote for the winners, but this is very unusual.)

These electoral votes are put into sealed envelopes and sent to the president of the U.S. Senate. On Jan. 6, he opens the envelopes. He reads the results before a meeting of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives.

If there is a tie, or no one gets as many as 270 votes, the House of Representatives must decide who will be president. Each state has only one vote.

This does not happen very often. It has happened only twice in our history.
