'Lest we forget'

Parade of pride marks Veterans Day as Belleville recalls World War II

By Howard Klausner

The theme of this year's Veterans Day Parade was the remembering of World War II. From tiny twirlers to troops manning ponderous armored personnel carriers, the marchers let their love of country be known.

Organized by the Belleville Veterans Council, and co-ordinated by Barbara Tuck, the parade was led by World War II veteran John Freda, the Grand Marshal, stepping off from the American Legion Post on Grevelock Avenue and moving down Washington Avenue past the reviewing stand at the Municipal Building.

Veterans of the Korean War, the Vietnam War and Desert Storm also took part.

The parade marked the fact that more than 200 Belleville men died during World War II, and thousands served in the armed forces in the greatest conflict in American history, in terms of numbers of men. Only the Civil War was more costly in human life, and more than a hundred Belleville men had participated in that conflict.

Cuccio changes story twice

Suspension of Fire Chief surrounded by confusion

By Howard Klausner

"Things in Belleville are getting crazier and crazier."

That was the reaction of retired Police Chief George Lister to news that Belleville Fire Chief Walter Beresford has been suspended from duty without pay by Interim Manager Stephen Cuccio, on Thursday, Nov. 5.

Beresford has maintained silence since the event - which saw him escorted from his office by a policeman on Friday - while Cuccio and Mayor Marina Perna have been voluble with the out-of-town press.

On Friday, Cuccio told the Belleville Times, "The suspension arose from a single incident - a telephone call at 3 o'clock today

(Thursday)."

Cuccio would not elaborate, but Mayor Perna told an out-of-town newspaper that Beresford had "curse-d out" the Manager.

Other sources say that heated words were exchanged when Beresford asked for approval to purchase oxygen tanks for the fire trucks.

The request was denied, when Cuccio reportedly said the money was not available.

The Herald-News of Clifton-Passaic reported on Saturday that Cuccio said the suspension was because Beresford had overspent his budget and had made purchases of over $500 in violation of the Manager's orders.

The Star-Ledger then quoted both Perna and Cuccio, to the effect that Beresford had "attempted" to make these purchases, which would indicate that they had not occurred.

Deputy Chief Gabe Fusaro, a veteran of the Fire Department, was made Acting Chief by Cuccio.

"The whole thing is a surprise to me," Fusaro said. Fusaro stated that he was not at the Fire Headquarters when Beresford was escorted out by a policeman. Police Chief Ray Kimble said he was on vacation at the time. Neither Fusaro nor Kimble could say who had ordered the police action.

Mayor Perna has made no secret of her ill will toward Beresford, even before he signed affidavits to the effect that Mayor Perna had violated the Faulkner Act by interfering in Fire Department activities.

The affidavits, which are in the possession of the Belleville Times, give detailed accounts of Mayor Perna's efforts to reduce the budget requests of the department, despite Faulkner Act prohibition of such interference by an elected official.

Beresford has the right to seek a hearing before the Manager on his suspension and he can appeal any decision to Civil Service.

Belleville Transit cop cited for risking life

By Howard Klausner

New Jersey Transit Police Officer Frank A. Piserchia of Belleville received the Merit Award of the Italian-American Police Officers Association on Sunday at the Brownstone Manor in Paterson.

A member of the Transit Police for three years, Piserchia was cited for saving the life of a would-be suicide, wrestling with the much larger man in the midst of highway traffic, and subduing him.

The incident occurred on June 14 on Route 280 in Newark, when Piserchia was en route to Belmar to meet a riot emergency at the shore town.

He found traffic halted, with drivers and passengers crying. "They're dead! They're dead!"

Two teen-agers had been thrown from the back of a pick-up truck which had crashed into a road divider, and they lay dead on the roadway.

Piserchia then saw a man standing by the truck, apparently the driver, crying and moaning, "I'll kill myself!"

"The man flung himself over the concrete barrier and began to run toward oncoming traffic. Piserchia, a man of medium height, outsped him, trying to halt traffic and at the same time tackling the man, whom he succeeded in downing.

The man, an uncle of the two accident victims, was charged with vehicular homicide.

As a Transit Policeman, Piserchia is both a New Jersey and a New York State law enforcement officer, responsible for the safety of the railroad stations and the rail lines.

It is a job that entails travelling more than a hundred miles a day.

Piserchia served in the Army Reserve and is a 1986 graduate of Belleville High School.

His parents, Joseph and Adrienne, own Salerno Tailor Shop on Bloomfield Avenue.

Kiwanis holds installation

The Kiwanis Club of Belleville held its annual installation of officers recently at the Branch Brook Manor Restaurant.

Albert "Bucky" Cairo was installed as 1992-93 President by Penny D'Alessio, the Lt. Governor for the Kiwanis Division.

Retiring President Carlos Celica presented awards to members of the Club and was properly pinned as a Past President. Other officers for the new year are 1st vice president Mario Drozd, 2nd vice president Ed Carolan, secretary

Richard Bradley and treasurer Nino Bucciarelli, who was also presented with a life membership in Kiwanis.

Past President John Iannuzzi acted as master of ceremonies, and the affair was well attended by relatives and friends of the membership. Cairo very emphatically outlined his plans and goals for Kiwanis for his term in office.

The Club is open for new members. Call Nino Bucciarelli at 751-2110.

'Cap' spells disaster to township services

By Howard Klausner

A state-mandated budget cap of 1.5 percent will be damaging to the Township's services.

Finance Director Art Minsky said. Echoing the protests of other municipal officials across the state, Minsky said the cap was unreasonable.

Technically, it can be lifted to 5 percent if the Township Council votes to do so, but it seems unlikely that the present Council make-up would countenance the tax increases inherent in any lifting of the cap.

"What do we kill? Health clinics? Recreation?" Minsky asked. He said that some $7 million of the current budget of $27 million is outside the cap law. This includes debt servicing and the courts.

Acquisition of capital equipment, such as trucks, would come under bonding ordinances, and road and sewer improvements are also exempt from the cap rule.

"But insurance costs will go up, and salaries must take a 5 percent increase by contract," Minsky said.

The cap will provide the biggest headache to the Township Manager, who must draw up a budget for 1993.

"It won't reduce taxes. It will just reduce needed services," Minsky said.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

In December 1942, at the age of 17, Harry William Nyegaard Jr., a handsome blond six-foot-two youth enlisted in the United States Marine Corps with his friend, Anthony Melchione. The two had grown up in Belleville and along with their friends, they were eager to join up. Harry's younger brother, Vincent, recalled later how concerned Harry had been about his country's lack of preparedness. "He would sit around the kitchen table with our father and argue about it. Dad had been in the First World War, and he'd say, 'We did it before and we'll do it again!' Harry was worried we wouldn't be ready." ***** Harry was interested in the world in general, and politics in particular, even as a teen-ager. He was a natural leader, and his friends were always around him. When the Marines assigned Harry to communications, with the subsequent technical training involved, Vincent was surprised. "I was the one who always had my head under the hood of a car - the mechanic. Harry had never shown any interest in that sort of thing, but he learned and did well." Two years younger, Vincent joined the Navy in 1943. The younger brothers, Kenneth and Raymond idolized their big brother. "He was their whole life," Vincent said, ***** For much of his service, Harry was stationed on the West Coast, and then in 1944, he was sent to the Pacific Theater. On March 9, 1944, he wrote: "Dear Mom and Pop and Kids, Well, here we are on a different island, resting up, you know. It's swell here, good chow, not too hot to speak of. And at long last I can actually soak in fresh water. I took my first fresh water shower in almost a month and a half....I got 33 letters today, two from Curt, two from Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, one from Dave Martin, Valentine from Gram and Aunt Iva. All the rest from you and Alice....All but one of the wire section is in my tent here. Zeke is pretty sick, four of the guys are playing pinocchio and the rest are reading and writing. I guess you know I can play pinocchio also, took about four months to learn but I can sit in a game, even if I do lose...."

Harry Nyegaard was a Private First Class, qualified as a Field Lineman and Switchboard Operator, when the Fourth Marine Division landed on Saipan on June 15, 1944. It was a struggle that was to take the lives of 3,426 Americans, before the fighting ended on July 9. On June 19, Harry Nyegaard was laying telephone wire under heavy enemy fire, trying to connect a battalion command post with a company in the field. The citation for the Silver Star stated: "With complete disregard for his own personal safety, Pfc. Nyegaard crossed and recrossed the area to obtain sufficient wire. Although the company was pinned down by fierce, intense Japanese mortar, machine gun and small arms fire, he courageously carried out his vital tasks until mortally wounded while splicing wire." ***** A letter from his commanding officer, 1st Lt. Monroe R. Davis, stated, "Although it is of small consolation, you will be proud to know that your son was a brave man. He was a fine Marine."

The younger brothers had always known that about Harry. The youngest brother tattooed the name "Harry" on his arm, when he became old enough to do so. "We still talk about how Harry would have done something," Vincent said. "In our hearts, Harry never died." Vincent saw Harry's freshly dug grave in a military cemetery on Saipan on two occasions, when his ship was anchored off the blood-soaked island. Harry was brought back to America, and rests now in a Bloomfield cemetery, with Pop. Harry Nyegaard was one of some 200 Belleville residents who died in World War II.

His mother, May Ellen, is in her 90s, sharp and mentally alert, in a residence in Pennsylvania near Vincent, who lives in Gilbert, Pa. where he can be contacted at P.O. Box 416, Gilbert, Pa. 18331. When Tony Melchione asked us for any information about Harry, we printed the request in this column of Sept. 24. Someone sent the column to retired Fire Captain George (Skinny) Meyers, now living in Tennessee and Meyers sent it to retired Fire Captain Kenny Nyegaard, now living in Daytona, Florida, and Kenny forwarded to Vincent. Vincent gathered some biographical material about his older brother, and being a licensed pilot, he flew it to the Caldwell Airport where brother Ray took it the rest of the way to Belleville Police Headquarters, where we picked it up. War continues to touch the life of Vincent. His stepson, Gary Natolo, is a veteran of Vietnam undergoing treatment for cancer, traceable to exposure to Agent Orange.

Hundreds mourn Richard Gough

Richard Joseph Gough 4th, 28, an employee of the Township of Belleville who was well known in music circles in the area, died on Nov. 5 at Clara Maass Medical Center after a long illness.

Born in Belleville, he had been Water Meter Reader for the township for four years. He was also lead singer with a popular rock group, the Never Say Die Band.

Mr. Gough's father was Belleville Police Officer Richard Joseph Gough 3rd. He predeceased his son on Feb. 19, 1986. Mr. Gough's mother, Shirley, is Senior Clerk with the Finance Department of Belleville Township.

Surviving, besides his mother, are his sister, Mrs. Robyn L. Iannuzzi of Verona and his maternal grandparents, Emmanuel and Mildred Rose of Belleville.

Mourners included fellow workers, town officials, members of the Belleville Policemen's Benevolent Association, family friends, his band associates, and scores of young people who knew Mr. Gough as an accomplished singer.

A Funeral Mass was offered on Monday, Nov. 9, by the Rev. Mark O'Connell in St. Peter's Church in Belleville, following the funeral service from the Kiernan Funeral Home in Belleville.

Interment was at Glendale Cemetery in Bloomfield.

You could be at risk for "silent heart disease" - even if you have no symptoms.

A painful heart attack is hard to miss. But millions of Americans have heart disease, and don't even know it. They are the victims of "silent heart disease," or, as it's known by cardiologists, "silent ischemia."

If you have several of these risk factors - high cholesterol, high blood pressure, smoking, obesity, diabetes, or a family history of heart disease - you could be in serious danger.

At North Jersey Heart Center, we have the special-expertise and state-of-the-art equipment to detect "silent ischemia" and other heart diseases before they become a problem.

Our director is a board-certified cardiologist, and Fellow of the American College of Cardiology, with advanced training at Columbia University, Cornell University Medical College, and NYU Medical Center.

He has taught cardiology at Temple University, Downstate Medical Center, and Deborah Heart and Lung Center. But most of all, he makes sure you receive the attentive care you deserve.

Take the first step. Call 748-6181 today to schedule your FREE CARDIOVASCULAR RISK PROFILE. But please don't wait. Your heart is too important. Offer expires 11/2/92.

At North Jersey Heart Center, we offer you:

Cardiac risk factor analysis • Treadmill and nuclear stress testing
Cholesterol management • Echocardiograms (heart ultrasound) and EXG's • Individualized programs for diet, exercise, and medication • Warm, personal consultations with doctors and staff

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

After more than a year of a grueling campaign people around Bill Clinton are beginning to realize that their toughest days could lie ahead. Clinton's performance clinched the election, but that's no longer what worries serious advisers... one Clinton confidant says, "We are inheriting a terrible economic mess, worse than anyone understands." Far from entering a long-expected recovery, he points out, the economy is stuck in the mud and may be mired there deep into the first term of a Clinton presidency.

With the exception of modest increases in housing, there are no expansionary forces at work and there are none in sight. The vague hope that a surge in exports could spark a recovery is fast fading, as a crisis of confidence spreads across Europe and Japan struggles with problems of its own. Last week's economic figures, showing another drop in industrial production and the biggest plunge in exports in five years, only reinforced the gloom.

The political challenge facing Clinton is reminiscent of the one Richard Nixon smacked up against after winning election in 1968. Vietnam had been "Johnson's war" and drove the Democrats from the White House, however, it became "Nixon's war" - and almost destroyed him. Today's economy is the same kind of tar baby. It will probably drive George Bush from the White House, but is there any doubt that within a year it will become "Clinton's economy"?

Seven months after winning, Nixon saved himself by coming up with his Vietnamization plan, a strategy for extricating the United States from the war that also brought time with the public back home. Clinton won't have the luxury of waiting so long. His advisers know that he must present a long-term economic plan as soon as he comes to Washington - and it should go far beyond anything he has proposed in the campaign. There's the rub.

Short-term boost. In recent weeks, Clinton has toyed with the idea of using the debates to present a stronger package of short-term stimulants. The betting now is that Clinton will wait on any new proposal until after the election, but that he will then embrace a bigger public works program and bigger investment tax credits than he is currently espousing. As the first Democrat in the White House in a dozen years, he would face political ruin if he sat idly while layoffs continued to ripple across the land. Yet equal peril arises if Clinton stops there. He showed he understood the danger when he called former Federal Reserve Board Chairman Paul Volcker recently to ask how the financial markets would react to a short-term stimulus plan. Volcker believes the markets might welcome a little jouncing up next year, but he and nearly everyone else on Wall Street know that Clinton could easily spook the markets if his administration acts as if it doesn't really care about deficits as well. Wall Street has deep-seated skepticism about the financial discipline of Democratic presidents. Any hint of "irresponsibility in Clinton's policies would send interest rates up and bond prices down - and could wreck the dollar.

The answer, say some of Clinton's most serious advisers, is to accompany a short-term-stimulus package with a bold, long-term deficit-reduction package that would begin as the economy finally expands. But they know that the deficit reductions Clinton has proposed so far depend heavily on the chimera of a booming economy. In hushed voices, the Clintonites are wondering how they can reduce the deficit, given the promises of the campaign. Some of them privately favor increases in gasoline taxes or perhaps a value-added tax, but they haven't talked their boss into anything yet. Clinton tells them he is adamantly opposed to raising taxes on members of the middle class as long as their incomes are going down, and is very protective on entitlement programs such as Social Security. He is also not convinced that he has to propose deep deficit reductions right away.

Clinton's dilemma is painful. If he moves quickly with major deficit reductions, he will be forced to call for sacrifices that are both unpopular and exceed anything he has talked about in his campaign. If he waits too long, he may lose power to make anything happen. And if he ducks altogether, the economy could drag along so badly that four years from now he will face the same fate as George Bush.

Excerpted from David Gergen of Politics in U.S. News & World Report titled The Awful Dilemma Awaiting Clinton.

Bill of Rights discussion

Wilson Carey McWilliams, Vice-Chairperson for Undergraduate Studies, Department of Political Science, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, will lead the Bill of Rights Book Discussion at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, sponsored by a matching grant from the New Jersey Committee for the Humanities. A lecture and book discussion roundtable, the Bill of Rights discussion will be held at 1 p.m. on Nov. 16, 23 and 30. The program is modeled after a reading and discussion program developed by the Pennsylvania Humanities Council, which has been funded by an Exemplary Award from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

The first twenty people who register for the series will receive the book, "The Courage of Their Convictions: Sixteen Americans Who Fought Their Way to the Supreme Court," by Peter Irons and the 280 page manual "To Preserve These Rights." Any people registering after the initial twenty may attend the series, but will not receive books.

Shafter Branch activities

The Shafter Branch Library, located at 30 Magnolia Street in School Number Four, will feature children's programming around a Thanksgiving theme: Thanksgiving Bingo will be held on Nov. 20 from 3:25-3:45 p.m. This will be a special holiday bingo with new prizes.

Thanksgiving stories, games and a pie eating contest will be held Nov. 23 starting at 3:15 p.m. Children should be registered by Nov. 19.

The Read-A-Thon will be held on Nov. 16 from 3:15-5:00 p.m. This event gives children the opportunity to share part of their favorite book with other children. Short excerpts to be read in 2 or 3 minutes give children a chance to participate in a program of readings and to listen to many other children read favorite passages. Pre-registration by Nov. 12 will be helpful to Frederick Lewis, Branch Librarian and organizer of the Read-A-Thon. Refreshments will be served. Parents are encouraged to join their children at the Read-A-Thon.

Italian art lecture series

In honor of the Quincentennial Celebration, art historian Ann Day will deliver a lecture on Caravaggio on Nov. 18 at 1 p.m. Call the library at 450-3434 to register for the lectures.

OUR OPINION

CLINTON/GORE

America will be a better place because a majority of its voters used good judgment in electing Bill Clinton as our president and Al Gore as our Vice President.

With their election, there is the dawning of a new day in America. We must remember that Clinton never claimed to walk on water — and thus, don't expect him to solve all of our problems. Nevertheless, he has the ability, the determination and the good will of the people of our country — all together adding up to the potential for Clinton to keep his promises.

President George Bush simply ran out of gas. If ever he was a dreamer, in the past couple of years he has lost his ability to dream.

Hope is what the presidential election was all about. And we shouldn't forget that trust and character were added to the agenda by Bush. Frankly, I thought it was a bush thing for Bush to do — resorting to tearing down an opponent's character and reputation to win an election.

President Bush never appeared to be the mean-spirited person he turned out to be in the last two months of the campaign. We should not forget that Bush early on did say, "I will do anything I have to do to win." Unfortunately, he took the wrong turn in the road. If he had stayed on the high road through the campaign, Bush may have lost — but he would have lost with class and dignity.

But this space is not meant to criticize Bush and his campaign tactics — the past is over. We must look forward to the future with hope and good will.

We endorsed Bill Clinton for president — and we are certain our confidence is not misplaced.

May God bless Clinton as he struggles to resolve the problems facing the people of our country. There are too many people in America going to bed nights uncertain what tomorrow will bring. Some are deep in debt — facing bankruptcies. Others already have gone over the brink.

It was time for a change — and now we have it.

CONGRESSMAN HERB KLEIN

We endorsed Herb Klein, and we are happy that his campaign was successful. We have known Congressman-elect Klein on a personal basis for a decade. His integrity, personal courage and general character are of the highest order — his ability makes him ten feet tall.

With Klein, we are in good hands. He is a doer and will represent the best interests of our congressional district as he follows in the footsteps of that great American — retiring Congressman Bob Roe.

Get the ratables!

The angry comments of the taxpayers lining up in the Municipal Building are just another reminder of the price that Belleville is paying for decades of neglect.

It neglected its Washington Avenue business district by not providing shoppers' parking, and thereby lost millions in ratables.

It neglected the promotion of its industrial area, and lost tens of millions in ratables.

It has not come up with any ideas to restore those ratables, although a start can be made with the acquisition of parking lot land on Washington Avenue.

Making Belleville attractive again to investment is one of the reasons the Belleville Times has been pressing for federal recognition of Belleville as the historic town it is — the Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution.

One has to be very shortsighted indeed not to realize the incalculable effects of such recognition.

But even without it, Belleville can still improve its situation. If you don't think that shoppers' parking helps, look at the flourishing retail centers in our neighboring towns, and ask how much those stores contribute to the tax base.

YOUR OPINION

Into volunteerism

To the editor:

Why be a volunteer?

Because your life can be as wonderful as you choose to make it!

You can consciously create a difference in your life and in the lives of others.

Remember, deeds exceed words — allow yourself to experience real action.

Be a volunteer!

Take a vacation from habitual objections, doubts or hesitations — ignore barriers of fear and let your physical actions dictate to your thought process. We all can think up excuses, have worries, distress, suffering or problems. Turn away from these and unselfishly give of yourself — and shine like the rays of the sun!

Picture yourself empowered, joyous and satisfied as a volunteer. Use your imagination and envision how helpful your actions will be to others, as well as to yourself...

Go ahead and volunteer.

You will have taken one of the most rewarding and admirable steps a human being can take.

A true volunteer will hold fast to the vision of what needs to be accomplished, and will stave off contrary or diluting distractions. Your focus is the opportunity to contribute to your neighbors' wellness. Satisfaction and personal growth are the rewards for the volunteer.

I admire one of Oliver Wendell Holmes' most inspired stanzas, which develops this thought:

"Build the more stately mansions,

O my soul,

As the swift seasons roll!

Leave the low-vaulted past!

Let each new temple, nobler than the last,

Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,

Till thou at length art free,

Leaving thine outgrown shell

by life's unresting sea!"

Become a volunteer!

Your beginning may seem small or tentative, but the obvious benefits to you and others will be the catalyst that will encourage you to continue giving back to humankind. Build on that beginning and seek every opportunity to enlarge your sphere of useful experiences.

If you happen to be an active volunteer, I salute you. If you are considering a volunteer activity, I support you and commend your excellence of thought and urge you to bring your idea to fruition.

For those of you who may not have considered volunteerism, I say:

An unselfish deed is the noblest work of man. Do not trust in the future however pleasant the present may seem. Let the present slip with dignity into the past. Take action in the LIVING PRESENT, for the future grows ever near.

Know that your life has real value and be eager to enter its experiences on the credit side of the ledger. Your account can never have too many positive entries!

I have personally turned the lock and opened that door to a wondrous "otherness" of substance which far surpasses any artificial wealth. I am thankful that I may serve humankind, and have truly enriched my life through the power of volunteerism.

Elks help children

To the editor:

On Oct. 3 and 4, the Belleville Elks held their annual canister drive for handicapped children. Thanks to the citizens of Belleville, Nutley and neighboring towns, this drive was a huge success.

The money raised from this drive will assist in the purchase of wheelchairs, walkers and other surgical supplies for handicapped children and adults.

In addition, funds will help to provide campership for the handicapped children of Belleville to Elks Camp Moore in Haskell, NJ. The Belleville Elks sponsor a handicapped Boy Scout troop and is a steady supporter of many charity organizations.

Thank you for your continuing support in our efforts to help the handicapped.

PAYING, NOT PRAYING - A Belleville resident looks pensive as he pays his tax bill at the Municipal Building. Increased tax bills made no one happy. (Photo by Howard Klausner)

• THAT very special annual dinner dance is scheduled for Saturday evening, November 21, at the Cottillion in Garfield. I'm referring to the annual dinner dance sponsored by the Nutley Special Young Adults, also known by the acronym, SYA. The donation is $60 per person. Ticket Chairperson is Mrs. Margarita Pica, and anyone interested can make reservations and donations by calling 667-0115.

• AN advance billing: At the League of Municipalities Convention to be held in Atlantic City beginning Monday, November 16, a new president of the Municipal Court Administrators of New Jersey will be elected. The new leader is Miss Patricia Vargo of South Plainfield, a very engaging and competent public servant. The election will be held Wednesday, November 18, 10:30 am at the Sands Hotel.

• THE demise of Howard Savings Bank is costing taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars. One of its area headquarters is located at Franklin Avenue adjoining the property of the former Nutley Savings and Loan which went belly-up not too long ago. The virus which adversely affected Nutley Savings and Loan apparently reached out and affected its next door neighbor. The difference between the two is that the Nutley Savings and Loan was a mutual savings and loan — a form of institution that has no stockholders, whereas the Howard Savings Bank failure was a disaster for taxpayers who now have to pick up the bank's insolvency bill and the stockholders, one of whom I know very well, could use his $52,000 worth of stock certificates as wallpaper. In both cases, fine institutions were mismanaged.

• THE 1993 county municipal budgets will be faced with a 1.5% cap on increases in both spending and taxation — a big drop from the 4.5% of this year. The revised cap is based upon a formula that takes into account nationwide inflation and spending. The recession (and Bush says it doesn't exist) and low inflation rate have contributed to bringing the 1993 spending ceiling to an unprecedented low.

There is one loophole in the law. It permits county and local governments to increase budgets up to 5% — but this requires a separate vote of the governing body. Such a proposal would require an ordinance — and that in itself requires a public hearing. The requirement of a public hearing will probably be sufficient to influence elected officials to make every effort to keep a spending increase at 1.5%.

• A WEEK before Election Day, George Bush basked in sunshine in the announcement by his own Department of Commerce which published a statistic indicating a 2.5% growth in the economy for the third quarter of 1992. Let's take a look at some other statistics:

• Bankruptcies in New Jersey have increased to the point New Jersey has seven sitting bankruptcy judges. And since that number was insufficient to handle the bankruptcy load, a new judgeship was created under the Bankruptcy Act of 1992. Currently, there are two bankruptcy judges sitting in Trenton, three in Newark and two in Camden — and Bush tells us things are getting better.

• On Tuesday, October 28th, the U.S. Secretary of Labor Lynn Martin issued a statement to the effect, "High unemployment is likely to continue for several years." She cautioned that it would be a mistake for the federal government to raise taxes for job retraining. In her speech to 500 students at William Paterson College, she also spoke against raising the income tax on wealthy Americans. Martin told the crowd that the Labor Department expects 80% of all jobs created in the 1990s to be filled by women, minorities and immigrants. Left out, apparently, are white native males? One student commenting after the speech said, "Graduate from Harvard, and you get a job. Graduate from William Paterson, and you get to send resumes to 8,000 companies. What she said isn't comforting to someone who is going to graduate in May."

• New orders to U.S. factories in August posted their largest decline in the past eight months according to federal government analysis.

• The same analysis reported non-farm payrolls fell 57,000.

• Consumer sentiment registered a continuing drop in public confidence on the day that Bush praised statistics coming from his Commerce Department, with the stock market tumbling 53 points to its lowest level since April, registering its latest response to date on unemployment.

• The Wall Street Journal reported last week that "There hasn't been a presidential campaign in 40 years during which household debt has been bigger, relative to after-tax personal income. When voters were asked to "Like Ike" or follow John Kennedy into a "New Frontier," mortgage and consumer debts equaled less than 60% of disposable income. By comparison, George Bush was trying to sell himself to an electorate whose household debt topped 86% of income last year. And that may be one reason voters seem even more pessimistic today than they did in 1982, when the economy was in the throes of a much worse recession."

"I think personal debt is greatly underestimated as a source of political concern," says Robert Erickson, a University of Houston political scientist. "For individuals and families, it intensifies concerns about the economic consequences of an election."

• Health care cost carries a big number. More than 34 million Americans are unemployed, and health care spending has surpassed $800 Billion a year, more than two and a half times what the country spends on defense. After the economy, the second most important issue to Americans is the cost of health care.

• J. PETER GRACE recently apologized to New York Governor Mario Cuomo for referring to him as "Cuomo the homo." At a dedication ceremony for a new factory in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, attended by Wisconsin Governor Tommy Thompson, a Republican, Grace, a New York City resident, said, "Where I come from, we have 'Cuomo the homo,' and then in New York City, we have 'Dinkins the pinkies.' After sleeping on his speech overnight, the following day, Mr. Grace issued apologies to both Governor Cuomo and Mayor Dinkins. In the apology, Grace said his remarks were "unfortunate and inadvertent" — that is a lot of B.S.... Those remarks of Grace came from his mind and his heart and — they prompted laughter from his audience. The W.R. Grace & Co. headquarters were moved last year from New York to Boca Raton, Florida.

Schneider returns from Russia

By Jon Blake

When Mrs. Schneider returned to her classes two weeks ago she brought back with her a little taste of Russian life.

Schneider, who returned to eagerly awaiting pupils in her Belleville High School history classes from two weeks in Kirov, Russia, had many stories to tell.

She told students that it was fascinating to live and work with those who shared her profession in the long feared former superpower. During her two week visit, Schneider stayed with fellow teacher and now friend, Tatyana Melnikova, her husband, Vladimir, and their two sons.

Schneider noticed changes to the former USSR state from her last visit, twenty years ago. Among these, she noted, were the presence of more cars on the streets, the absence of portraits of Lenin and Marx, and the definite presence of peddlers on the streets, trying to sell knock knacks for American dollars.

Amidst these signs of movement away from the old, strict control of government, were still hints of old policies. This became evident when she found out that most of the mail received by Russian participants from their American counterparts in this teacher exchange program had been opened prior to its delivery.

Despite this, the trip was a fantastic success. Schneider met with the mayor of Kirov and went on several tours. She also visited the Pedagogical Institute, and met with its president and regional head of education. This gave the Americans and Russians an opportunity to exchange information about education.

Schneider also had an opportunity to interact with Russian students and give out the massive amounts of American items and pen-pal packets she had collected before the start of her trip. The students were both thrilled with the presents as well as the very presence of the Americans and greeted them like fans of rock stars.

She commented that the style of teaching that she likes to use, a very interactive style, is also very different in Russia. There, she says, it is for the teachers to know and the students to listen and learn, not to question and interact. She had the utmost respect for the teachers there, though and said she was "struck by how much we had in common with Russian teachers... They work hard and care very much about their students and had very few resources to do their jobs."

Schneider says this program has been a success all around, from fantastic support from administrators and students here, to being treated like a "princess" by her host family.

The Hands Across The Water program, based in Sewell, N.J., has made this possible. The program consists of seventy five American teachers paired with the same number of Russian teachers.

BELLEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

'Monad' is on sale

By Cathy Soccimarro

One of the most emotional moments in the life of a high school student is the graduation ceremony. The best way to remember all those important moments from school is to relive them through the pages of the BHS yearbook, The Monad. The Monad captures the unforgettable and memorable events of the entire year and freezes on its pages the faces, the games, the action, the emotions, and all that is the substance of high school life.

Yearbook orders are being taken now. The purchase price is $45. A $25 deposit is required. Orders can be placed in the cafeteria during lunch periods, or before and after school in room 154. A supplement to the book is also available for $5. The supplement consists of sixteen pages, eight of the prom, and eight of graduation. All orders must be placed before Dec. 15. Due to production schedules and ordering deadlines, the Dec. 15 order deadline is final. There will not be books available for purchase in June!

The Belleville High School News is a feature of the Belleville Times. It runs weekly, space allowing.

All stories are written by the students of Mr. Anthony Salese's journalism class. Their work is coordinated by student editor Cathy Soccimarro

Thanksgiving Dining Out

Fruits of Autumn Bisque

Cooler temperatures call for warm and satisfying meals. Few are more appealing than this unique recipe for a savory bisque that utilizes the fruits of the season—pumpkins, squash and sweet potatoes, to name a few. Also delightful is the fact that this healthful dish is quite low in calories, cholesterol and saturated fat and is so quick and easy to make. It makes a truly delightful meal at most any time of year.

FRUITS OF AUTUMN BISQUE
Yield: 8-12 servings
3 T. butter or margarine
1 c. minced onion
1/2 c. minced celery
1/2 c. minced carrot
1 clove of garlic, minced
1 (1 lb.) can pumpkin
1 (6 oz.) jar sweet potato baby food
1 (6 oz.) jar squash baby food
3/4 c. applesauce
3 (1/2 oz.) cans

This savory soup, which makes full use of the delicious fruits of the autumn season—pumpkin, squash and sweet potatoes, to name a few—can make a delicious meal at most any time of year.

SWEET SUE Chicken Broth
1 (12 oz.) can evaporated skimmed milk
Seasoning Mix:
1 t. salt
1 t. dry mustard
3/4 t. white pepper
3/4 t. onion powder
3/4 t. ground cinnamon
1/4 t. ground nutmeg
2 T. dark brown sugar
Directions:
Combine seasoning mix in a small bowl. Combine onion, celery, carrot, garlic and set aside. Melt butter in skillet and saute vegetables until soft. Stir in 3 tablespoons of seasoning mix. Cook for 3 to 4 minutes. Puree pumpkin, sweet potato, squash and applesauce in food processor; pour in large saucepan and add SWEET SUE Chicken Broth, remainder of seasoning mix, and minced, pureed vegetables. Bring to a boil then reduce to simmer for 40 minutes. Stir in evaporated milk and bring to boiling point; reduce heat and simmer uncovered for 15 minutes. Serve hot or may be refrigerated then reheated.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING FEASTING

SIMPLY SENSATIONAL

Pistachio
Microwave Fudge

(NAPS)—A holiday gift that's always in good taste is a delicious dessert you've baked yourself. Happily, making great desserts for gift-giving or holiday meals can be quick and easy with the help of that versatile nut, the pistachio.

An ordinary dish becomes something quite extraordinary when California pistachios are part of the recipe, many agree. They add a wonderfully delicate flavor, along with their unique color and texture.

Here's a thoroughly modern version of that traditional holiday favorite, fudge, made with pistachios. It cooks up in minutes in your microwave. Pack some in pretty tins and boxes for friends and family—and you'll likely want to save a few pieces for yourself!

For a free brochure with more recipes using pistachios, send a postcard to: California Pistachios, 1915 N. Fine Ave., Fresno, CA 93727.

PISTACHIO MICROWAVE FUDGE

- 1 box (1 pound) powdered sugar
- 2/3 cup cocoa
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup milk
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, sliced
- 1/2 cup chopped natural California pistachios

In large microwave-safe bowl, combine powdered sugar, cocoa, and salt. Stir in milk and vanilla; mix well. Place butter patties on top of mixture. Microwave at HIGH (100%) 3 minutes. Beat with mixer or wire whisk until smooth; stir in pistachios. Spread in foil-lined or buttered square baking pan. Sprinkle with 2 tablespoons finely chopped pistachios. Refrigerate at least 1 hour or until firm. Cut into squares and serve at room temperature.

Clinton came and conquered

By Bill Gruver

New Jersey was targeted both by Republicans and Democrats. New Jersey was the golden chalice both parties wanted to show that they can appeal to a broad-based electorate. New Jersey was the motherlode of the Eastern seaboard states' campaigns. It had a good mixture of working class and affluent voters plus a blend of many ethnic groups. Bush came to New Jersey seven times and Clinton made six visits.

There were no surprises in the election results. The Democrats did well in GOP-dominated areas, Republicans continued to control regional governments and return incumbent members of Congress.

But there was yet another element. In a late hour news advisory on election night which came from one of the major wire services, a list appeared (editors take note) of possible Clinton Cabinet appointees. That list included only one major Republican, former New Jersey Republican Governor Tom Kean. It was known to political insiders that Kean was thought to be a Reagan or later a Bush education secretary. But it never happened. The former governor's interest in education is well known as evidenced by his acceptance as president of Drew University. But Tom Kean would not want to be the Clinton administration's token Republican.

Governor James Florio basked in the Clinton victory which helps shore up his once-sagging political fortunes. Florio, in his election night statement, inferred that he will have major influence in the new Presidency.

Bill Clinton may play a large part in Florio's political rejuvenation if he gets more benefits for New Jersey from the new Democratic administration.

This weapon, for Florio, can serve as a buffer against a Republican-dominated and presently veto-proof state legislature. The Robert Roe Congressional seat, much coveted because it had been considered a safe Democratic seat for so many years, was a major prize. Democrat Herb Klein won in spite of a spirited and tough challenge by State Senator Joseph Bubba, a well-known Republican, who even won normally Democratic stronghold Paterson. But his Paterson win was not a sufficient margin to get elected.

It is clear from the election results that New Jersey voters draw a clear distinction between national and local candidates and issues. While New Jersey was moving into the Clinton column, Republicans were winning local and regional contests. However all candidates, whether freeholder or Congress, talked about the need for economic development and jobs. The state was all but consumed with the need to improve business conditions.

There was an undercurrent of rivalry between the Democrats, led by Governor Florio for Clinton, against Republican legislators hoping the Bush ticket would win to bolster their standing among voters. The result was still another split, leaving conditions almost the same after Nov. 3. In another sense, the 1992 Presidential campaign, New Jersey, set a backdrop for the statewide gubernatorial and state legislative races in 1993.

New Jersey did not disappoint the predictors. It was, and remains, the bellweather of American politics. This state is the mirror of the nation. The record turnout of voters reflected the attention given by Clinton and Bush. Polls taken showed that economic concerns transcended political loyalty. It should be noted that most incumbents were returned to office, in spite of what many saw as an anti-incumbent sentiment. The reason is that the voters cast their attacks on "other" representatives, not their own.

In addition, New Jersey voters voted their deep-seated sentiments for better economic conditions. In fact, the final election results show this Nov. 3 was not so much a Democratic victory or a Republican defeat as a demand for a change that would restore jobs and business opportunity.

Bill Clinton's victory was a different kind of mandate — to make good on those pledges about putting people back to work. Americans vote their pocketbooks. Clinton struck that nerve. Without the traditional coattails, the Presidential election swept throughout the New Jersey countryside.

Chamber honors four as outstanding Volunteers

By Howard Klausner

The 28th Annual Dinner and Dance of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce saw recognition given to two men and two women for extraordinary service to the community.

Chairman Paul Goodman called to the rostrum of the Branch Brook Manor Barbara A. Cicalese, Marlene Reed French, James J. Cozzarelli Jr. and Edward W. O'Neil.

Mrs. James Cicalese is a former member of the Belleville Board of Education. She has served as President of the Home and School Associations of School 10 and the Middle School, and was President of the Consolidated Association for the Belleville School District.

She was honored for her leadership of substance awareness education in Belleville, and is Chairperson of the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education. She has also been a leader in social awareness of other issues as well.

Mrs. Gaylord French is Manager of the Volunteer Services Department at Clara Maass Medical Center. She is an Elder of the Central Presbyterian Church, a Sunday School teacher and a member of the Women's Guild.

Last Saturday was the anniversary of a kidney transplant which, she told the audience, had restored her life to normality.

Ed O'Neil is a veteran of World War II and a retired longshoreman who has devoted his efforts to preserving the history of Belleville. He is married to the former Margaret Waischedel of Nutley.

Among his achievements was the posting of more than 100 historical signs guiding visitors to the historic sites of Belleville, and his efforts to restore the pre-Revolutionary churchyard and historic cemetery of the First Reformed Church.

He founded the Little League of Belleville and served 11 years as a coach and he was also founder of the Firemen's Museum, with Fire Chief Walter Beresford.

He is a member of Belleville Post 105, The American Legion, and a veteran of the 4th Armored Tank Battalion.

James Cozzarelli served as Grand Marshal of the Columbus Day Parade marking the 500th anniversary of the Discovery of America and was named Man of The Year by the Italian-American Club.

The Chamber honored him for his redesign of the Carnegie Reading Room of the Belleville Public Library, a work of nationwide recognition. The children's room of the library is now named The James Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room in honor of his efforts to foster reading and education.

He was also credited with revitalizing downtown Washington Avenue with the design of the new store facades there.

A bouquet was given to the Chamber's new Executive Secretary, Eileen Brown.

Assisting Goodman at the podium was Chamber President Lou Paraboschi.

Goldman was Chairman of the well-attended event.

Yearbook supplements

The 1992 yearbook supplement will be distributed to Belleville High School undergraduates throughout the week of Nov. 9. They will be distributed through first period classes. Supplements will be mailed directly to alumni of the class of 1992.

Local dentist receives international fellowship

The International Congress of Oral Implantologists ("I.C.O.I.") has bestowed its prestigious fellowship award on Dr. Harry Harsczark, a prominent Kearny dentist.

At the recent Chicago meeting, Dr. Harsczark was recognized for his achievements in surgical and restorative modalities as well as his contributions to maintaining excellence in dental implantology.

The I.C.O.I. is a worldwide non-profit, educational and professional organization dedicated to the improvement of general oral health care; the training and study of oral implantology; and the recognition of oral implantologists and implant prosthodontists. Fellowship degrees were conferred during the 1991-92 year.

Dr. Harsczark has been practicing in Kearny for over fifteen years and established The Implant Institute with Dr. Michael Klein in 1990 located at 837 Kearny Ave., Kearny. The Implant Institute offers "free" lectures and consultations on the benefits of dental implants. To attend one of our free seminars, please call The Implant Institute at 201-991-2676.

Senior Supper Club promotes good nutrition

Senior citizens have become frequent visitors to the Clara Maass Medical Center cafeteria, gathering for nutritious, well-balanced meals, lectures and social activity as part of the Clara Maass Senior Supper Club.

Through the CMMC Senior Supper Club, area residents age 62 or older, are issued a discount card by the medical center. The card entitles the senior citizen to dine in the Clara Maass cafeteria and receive reduced rates on meals. The cafeteria is open to the Senior Supper Club members on weekdays from 4:30 to 6:45 p.m. and on weekends from 6:30 a.m. to 6:45 p.m.

The Clara Maass program provides seniors with more than just a nutritious meal. The Senior Supper Club also:

- improves the nutritional status of the participants.

- provides social interaction.
- has registered dietitians available.
- sponsors lectures on nutritional issues.
- publishes a weekly newsletter, which includes a menu, tips on cooking for good health, news for senior citizens and speaker announcements.

Christine Cool to wed Anthony J. Wysocki

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cool of Bloomfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Christine, to Anthony Joseph Wysocki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony S. Wysocki of Bloomfield.

The troth was made known June 5. The wedding is planned for next winter.

Miss Cool, an alumna of Bloomfield High School, is a student at Berdan Institute where she is enrolled in the medical assistant course. She is a receptionist in a doctor's office.

Mr. Wysocki, a graduate of Bloomfield High School and RETS electronic school, is with a computer firm in Manhattan.

Clara Maass offers adults opportunities to volunteer

Clara Maass Medical Center has volunteer opportunities for adults who have good people skills, want to help others, and wish to work in a dynamic environment. Volunteers are needed weekdays, evenings and weekends. People with bilingual skills are also needed.

Volunteers are needed in clerical areas to file, answer phones and type, and to work at the patients' bedside, talking with patients or feeding them. Volunteers who like to walk are also needed to visit patients with the gift cart or library cart or to escort patients.

Volunteers may work two or more hours a week. Orientation and training are provided for all new volunteers. Men and women interested in the volunteer program may call the volunteer department at Clara Maass Medical Center at 450-2150 for an application or additional information.

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lambert

The Belleville cross country team concluded its 1992 season by competing in a tri meet and taking part in the sectional and county championships.

We'll have a wrap up of the team in an upcoming issue.

In a tri meet against West Essex and University, the girls' team swept the meet, defeating both rivals by scores of 15-50. The boys' team was defeated by both West Essex and University by scores of 15-50 and 22-36 respectively.

Rachel Anderson led the Lday Bucs by taking second place in the girls race. Her time of 22:41 was a personal best.

Christine Rykowski placed third in the race with a time of 23:18. Kim O'Mara and Reina Silva tied for seventh place overall with a time of 28:38. Jennifer Citarella was next, just two seconds behind O'Mara and Silva.

The two victories improved the girls record to 4-7 on the season. Head coach John Tosato was quite pleased with the girls' performance.

"They did a real good job. We lost a few close races and we had a few races where we weren't at full strength because of illnesses."

In the boys race, Mike Janicelli was the first Buc across, finishing eighth overall in a time of 19:09. Janicelli's time was a personal best for the season.

Next across the tape was Ketan Chauhan (20:09), John Carriaga (23:01), Nelson Pazzino (23:16) and Juvinal Rodriguez (24:47).

In the state sectionals, Anderson and Rykowski competed for the girls, finishing with times of 23:03 and 24:10 respectively. Anderson finished in the top 30 in the section.

For the boys team, Janicelli was the lone competitor, completing the course in 20:48.

In the county championships, the girls took 13th place overall. Anderson was first across the line for Belleville, in a time of 23:21. Following her were Rykowski (24:01), Citarella (26:29, a personal best), O'Mara (28:11) and Silva (28:39).

In the boys race, Chauhan led all Belleville runners with a time of 20:35. Janicelli (20:42), Chris Parada (21:22), Pazzino (23:45), Dan Rykowski (26:08) and Seth Adkins (26:28) rounded out the field in the very tough county race.

Seton Hall Prep won the county championship in the boys race.

"We had a lot of young runners on the team," Tosato said. "There was good progress in the program this fall, especially in the girls category."

Last season, the girls were unable to field a full team due to a lack of runners. With most of the girls expected back next fall, the future of the program does look promising.

GETTING BACK TO THAT RANDOLPH GAME...

A few weeks ago, I wrote about the Belleville-Randolph football game, expressing a great deal of disappointment about the officiating in that game. There was one line written in this column that needs a little explanation.

That line, in the October 29, 1992 issue read the following: "Could Randolph really lose? To the Bucs? On the vaunted home field? What about the Randolph mystique?"

Don't worry guys, said those men in the striped shirts laughingly referred to high school referees. We'll save you. Your streak will remain in tact."

In case there is any question, the officials did not say those lines to me. It was a statement, made by me, based on the actions on the field. The officials never said the streak "will remain in tact." You will also notice that in the original article, the phrase was not in quotes.

NFL PICKS

I was 8-5 last week, forgetting to pick the New Orleans-New England game.

For this week...

CINCINNATI AT JETS: Bengals pulled a surprise at Chicago last Sunday night. Jets are riding out string. Bengals 24-10.

GIANTS AT DENVER: If this were in Giants Stadium, the guys in blue would be favored. But it's in Mile High, and the men in orange get the edge here. Denver 20-17.

DETROIT AT PITTSBURGH: Lions are in a terrible slide while Steelers appear to be a playoff team this season. Pittsburgh 24-16.

HOUSTON AT MINNESOTA: What's wrong with Oilers? A loss here could take the air out of the balloon. Vikes are on a roll, but Houston is due to turn things around. Houston 24-21.

NEW ENGLAND AT INDIANAPOLIS: A few weeks ago, Colts looked like a powerhouse. But injuries have taken their toll. Patriots have to win at least one, don't they? New England 14-10.

PHILADELPHIA VS GREEN BAY: Back to the scene of the crime. Randall Cunningham tore up his knee at Green Bay last season. This year he returns to a QB controversy. Eagles 21-6.

PHOENIX AT ATLANTA: An upset prediction. Cards are playing well, Falcons are on a definite downward trend. Phoenix 28-14.

SAN DIEGO AT CLEVELAND: A battle of two up and coming teams with solid defenses. Home field rates edge. Cleveland 10-7.

WASHINGTON AT KANSAS CITY: Chiefs are about as unpredictable as they come. Skins can't seem to score points on offense. Kansas City 16-14.

L.A. RAMS AT DALLAS: Can anyone stop the Dallas express? Maybe, but not the Rams, and certainly not in Dallas. Cowboys 31-10.

CHICAGO AT TAMPA BAY: Bears aren't very good, ditto for Tampa Bay. Could be a sleeper. Bears 12-10.

NEW ORLEANS AT SAN FRANCISCO: Maybe the game of the day. Niners are one of the best teams in the league, if not the best. Saints are quietly playing solid ball. San Francisco 21-17.

SEATTLE AT L.A. RAIDERS: Wake up, wake up! Raiders 6-3.

BUFFALO AT MIAMI (ON MONDAY NIGHT): Should be a wide open game, with plenty of points. Buffalo 34-31.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

New Orleans first made the playoffs in 1987, putting together a 12-3 record in the strike season. In the first round of the playoffs, the Saints played host to Minnesota and lost 42-3. The Saints have never won a playoff game.

FOR THIS WEEK

In 1985, the Chicago Bears roared through the playoffs and won the Super Bowl. Who did the Bears defeat in the playoffs? What was the score of the Super Bowl? Who was the MVP of that Super Bowl?

Scores twice in 35-18 win

Alvarado excels in Buc win

By Mike Lambert

About five years from now, the Belleville Athletic Council will make a phone call to John Alvarado, informing him of his selection to the Belleville Hall of Fame. Among the reasons for his induction will be his tremendous football talents and his knack for making the big play while wearing the Buccaneer Blue and Gold.

That's five years from now. Getting back to the present, Alvarado was never better than last Saturday, when he scored two touchdowns and led the Bucs to a 35-18 NNJIL win over Teaneck.

It was the second straight win for John Senesky's team. Belleville returns home from a successful three game road trip, having won two games. (It should have been three straight, but we know about the disgrace at Randolph two weeks ago).

Belleville takes a 3-4 record (3-2 in the NNJIL Pacific Division) into a very tough game with St. Joe's of Montvale this Saturday afternoon at Doc Ellis Field. Kickoff time is set for 1 p.m.

The 35 points scored by the Bucs last Saturday were the most by a Belleville football team since 1984. On that occasion, the Bucs defeated Bloomfield 35-6 at Municipal Stadium. The last time the Bucs scored 35 or more points on the road was back in 1982, when Belleville upended Clifton 37-0.

It appeared last Saturday's game would be over early, but the Bucs had the annoying habit of keeping Teaneck in the ball game.

"We had some scoring opportunities which we didn't take advantage of," Senesky said. "But our kids showed a lot of character by not getting down. I think this type of game will do more for our team than a blowout victory would have accomplished."

The Bucs established the tempo early, blocking a Teaneck punt following the Highwaysmen's first possession. Belleville recovered deep in Teaneck territory and marched into the end zone on a scoring pass from quarterback

Mike Mundy to Alvarado, who was playing split end. Mundy then added the conversion and it was 7-0.

Teaneck came back to score on its next possession, but the conversion failed and the Bucs led 7-6.

Both teams failed to move on its next series, but Teaneck wasn't able to master the punting game and the Bucs blocked its second punt of the game. Belleville took advantage, moving downfield with key runs by Rick Constantino and a beautiful open field run by sophomore Sal Berardi.

Constantino gave the Bucs a 13-6 lead when he ran for the score. Mundy added the conversion.

Late in the first half, the Bucs did it again, blocking a Teaneck punt deep in Highwaysmen territory. On the play, Alvarado made a stinging hit that gave the Bucs excellent field position.

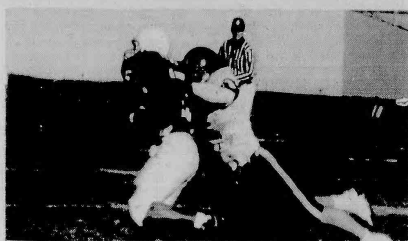

This time, Belleville could not capitalize, moving backward from the Highwaysmen nine to the Teaneck 17. When the drive stalled, Mundy came in to attempt a 35 yard field goal. The kick had the distance but sailed wide. Mundy was attempting his fourth field goal in as many games.

The game remained at 14-6 at halftime. At the start of the third quarter, Berardi returned the Teaneck kickoff deep into Highwaysmen territory. The Bucs running game took advantage, with Constantino, Berardi and Anthony Caruso running well. But once again, the drive stalled when Constantino, after a beautiful run to the Teaneck five yard line, fumbled and the Highwaysmen recovered in its end zone, thus causing a touchback.

The Belleville defense, which did a tremendous job all afternoon long, gave the ball back to the offense on an interception by Joe DePeri. But the Bucs could not capitalize and the game took an ominous turn when Mundy's second pass of the drive was intercepted and returned for a touchdown.

Suddenly, Teaneck trailed by just two points, 14-12, and the many scoring opportunities that went for

Groeling, Perez help Bucs advance

By Mike Lambert

Greg Groeling scored two goals and Redy Perez assisted on both, leading the Buccaneer soccer team to a 2-1 win over Newark Eastside last week in the quarterfinals of the Group IV, Section II tourney. The victory improved Belleville's record to 14-3-1 on the '92 season.

The victory moves the Bucs into the sectional semi. Belleville was to play host to Montclair earlier this week. Should the Bucs win, they would take on the winner of the Elizabeth-Columbia game tomorrow for the sectional title.

The victory over Eastside did not come easily.

"Eastside had a big team. They were a tough assignment," head coach Gino DePinto said. "It had rained for most of the game and the field was difficult. This was a good win for us."

The game was scoreless at the half. Eastside scored first early in the second half. Groeling answered that goal a few minutes later and then won the game with his second goal. As mentioned, both goals were assisted by Perez.

"We played a defensive game once we got the lead," DePinto said. Matt Kastner played a fine game on defense for Belleville.

The Bucs will be host to Montclair in the sectional semis because the Mounties upset powerful Westfield in the quarterfinals. Westfield went into the game with a 15-0-3 record.

"It's always better to play home," DePinto said. "But Montclair will be real tough. They beat us in the county tournament (2-0 at Clearmont Field). They have a real big team. It should be a physical game."

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Basketball leagues for grades 3-8

The Belleville Recreation Department is forming basketball leagues for children in grades 3-8 and applications are now available at the recreation office.

In preparation for the leagues, basketball clinics will be conducted at the Middle School boys' gym. Clinics will be held on Nov. 16 & 23 as follows: Grades 3-4 from 6-7 p.m.; grades 5-6 from 7-8 p.m.; and grades 7-8 from 8-9 p.m. Clinics will also be held on Nov. 17 & 24, at the same times listed for Mondays. Boys and girls shall attend these clinics together.

Interested players should pick up application forms at the Recreation House, 407 Joralemon Street, and return them with birth certificates before participating. The registration deadline for the basketball leagues is Nov. 25.

Basketball officials needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking adult men/women to officiate games in its Junior Basketball Leagues for children ages 8-14. No formal training or officiating experience is necessary, however, a knowledge of basketball rules is desirable. This paid position would be ideal for college students, as games are played on weeknights and Saturdays. If interested, call 450-3422 for more information.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Belleville Board of Education will meet in Private Executive Session on Tuesday, November 17, 1992, at 7 p.m. The meeting will convene at the Board Complex, 190 Cortland Street, Belleville, Illinois. Nov. 12, 1992. Fee: $2.82

No. 1092-508

Fall/winter programs

The Belleville Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs has announced its November, and December schedule of fall/winter programs, which has something for everyone.

There will be Adult Open Volleyball for Men and Women on Monday nights, 6 to 9 p.m. at the Friendly House. Participation will be restricted to Belleville residents only and proof of residency will be required by the gym supervisor in order to gain admission. Individual players interested in participating in a league may call 450-3422 to leave their name.

Wrestling for boys ages 6-14 will start on Nov. 9 at the High School Cafeteria. Ages 6-9 will meet from 6:15-7:15 p.m. while ages 10-14 will meet from 6:15-8:15 p.m. Wrestling is conducted on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, and participants must pre-register by completing an application at the Recreation office.

Both the Men's and Women's Volleyball Leagues are scheduled to begin on Nov. 10. Men's volleyball league will be from 6 to 10 p.m. on Tuesdays at the Friendly House. Women's volleyball league will run from 6:15 to 9:45 p.m. on Tuesdays at No. 3 School. There will also be a Men's League on Thursdays at the Friendly house, beginning Nov. 12.

The Men's Over 30 Basketball League is slated to begin on Nov. 11, and will play on Wednesday evenings at the Middle School, 6:30-9:30 p.m. The Men's Basketball League will play Thursdays 6:30-9:45 p.m. at the Middle School beginning Nov. 12. Adults who would like to play in the Men's & Women's Volleyball or Basketball Leagues could call the Recreation office to put their names on the waiting list.

The Junior Basketball Clinics will begin Nov. 16 and 17 at the Middle School - Boys' Gym. Grades 3-4 will meet at 6:00, grades 5-6 at 7:00, and grades 7-8 at 8:00. If there is sufficient interest, league play will be scheduled to begin in December on week nights and/or Saturdays. Interested participants should register by completing an application before participating in the Clinics. Clinics are for boys and girls. The league registration deadline is Nov. 25.

For more information on upcoming programs like gymnastics and men's open basketball on Saturdays, call 450-3422 between 8:30-4:00, Monday through Friday.

Registration for Rec wrestling

Applications for Recreation Wrestling are now available at the Belleville Recreation Department at 407 Joralemon Street between 8:30-12 and 12:30-4, Monday-Friday. The Belleville Recreation Wrestling Program introduces boys, ages 6-14, to the fundamentals of the sport. Basic techniques, moves and strategy are taught to beginners as well as to the more advanced wrestlers. In competition, the boys are matched up against opponents of the same weight class.

Recreation wrestling will be conducted on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:15-8:15 p.m. in the high school cafeteria, beginning Nov. 9. Ages 6-9 give basic instructions from 6:15-7:15 p.m., while the 10-14 year olds are prepared for league competition between 6:15-8:15 p.m.

Boys can register for the activity by completing an application at the recreation office before participating. Birth certificates are required for all applicants, who must be Belleville residents and cannot be above eighth grade. For further information, call 450-3422.

Richard Romano "could go all-the-way," and he will, as he scores the Bucs final touchdown off an interception in fourth quarter last Saturday.

DePeri, Romano score TD's

naught for Belleville were beginning to cause concern.

The Bucs took the kickoff and put together a fine drive, moving 65 yards in 11 plays. The drive was culminated by a pass from Mundy to DePeri, who is becoming a fine two way player. Mundy added the conversion and the Bucs led 21-12.

The drive seemed to take some steam out of the Teaneck express and Alvarado gave the Bucs more breathing room when he intercepted a pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown. Mundy added the fourth conversion and the Bucs lead increased to 28-12.

A frustrated Teaneck team attempted to pass its way downfield, but the Buc defense knew the blitz would be successful and forced the quarterback into some errant throws. The final Belleville tally came on a deflected pass which went into the arms of defensive lineman Richard Romano.

Romano took off downfield and went untouched into the Teaneck end zone. Mundy kicked his fifth straight conversion and the Bucs increased its lead to 35-12.

Teaneck added the final score of the afternoon late in regulation time on a long pass. The conversion failed and the Bucs led was 35-18.

The offensive line of center John Engdahl, guards Brian Den, Phil Avelo, Romano and Mike Citarrella and tackles Bill Zigmund and Robert Den were outstanding.

The defensive performances of Mike Citarrella, Joe Citarrella, Joe DeRiggi, Robert Den, Brian Den, DePeri and Alvarado were also outstanding.

DePeri had two interceptions in the game for the second straight week. He also had the touchdown on offense which gave the Bucs a nine point lead and the momentum after Teaneck had come within two points.

But it was Alvarado who was the star of the game. The senior made numerous tackles and came up with two big touchdowns in perhaps the best all around game of his high school career thus far.

NOTES: Bucs are 3-4 for the third straight year. Once again, they need to win its final two games of the year to insure a winning season. It won't be easy. St. Joe's comes to Belleville this Saturday with a 5-2 record and a very talented team.

"They have some tremendous defensive players and guys on offense who can break a game open," Senesky said.

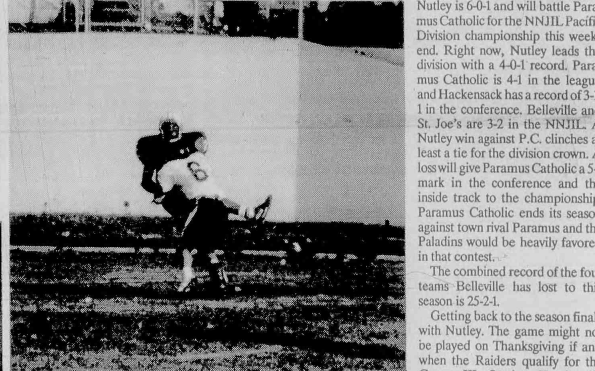

Bucs are 1-2 against St. Joe's. Belleville won in 1983, 30-6. St. Joe's won in 1990 and last year by scores of 19-0 and 13-0.

St. Joe's needs to win this game for playoff consideration.

Buc's final regular season game is with Nutley. The Raiders tied Hackensack last Saturday at 14. Nutley is 6-0-1 and will battle Paramus Catholic for the N.J.U.I. Pacific Division championship this weekend. Right now, Nutley leads the division with a 4-0-1 record. Paramus Catholic is 4-1 in the league and Hackensack has a record of 3-1-1 in the conference. Belleville and St. Joe's are 3-2 in the N.J.U.I. A Nutley win against P.C. clinches at least a tie for the division crown. A loss will give Paramus Catholic a 5-1 mark in the conference and the inside track to the championship. Paramus Catholic ends its season against town rival Paramus and the Paladins would be heavily favored in that contest.

The combined record of the four teams Belleville has lost to this season is 25-2-1.

Getting back to the season finale with Nutley, The game might not be played on Thanksgiving if and when the Raiders qualify for the Group III, Section II playoffs. We'll know about the format in next weeks issue.

John Alvarado applies a heavy hit on Teaneck punter, Alvarado's hit forced a fumble, which Bucs recovered deep in Teaneck territory.

ATTENTION BELLEVILLE CABLE CUSTOMERS

During the next few weeks, technicians representing Suburban Cablevision will be in your neighborhood inspecting cable television wiring. We are required to do this by the New Jersey Board of Regulatory Commissioners in order to conform to the current National Electric Code.

In many cases, our technicians will be able to complete the inspections outside of our customers' homes. There is, however, the possibility that we may need to inspect, and possibly upgrade, the wiring inside your home. If this is necessary, the technician will leave a message on your door. If you receive this message, please call us as soon as possible to schedule a convenient appointment. The inspection takes about 15 minutes to complete, and there is no cost.

All technicians working on this required inspection project carry proper identification. Please do not hesitate to ask to see the identification.

Thank you for your cooperation.

WHEN THERE'S MAGIC IN THE SKY
THERE'S POWER
IN BELIEVING.

There are few things stronger than a child's imagination. Children believe in all things magical and wishing on a shooting star can sometimes make great things happen.

This year, you can be that star in a special child's life.

First DeWitt Savings and The Make-A-Wish Foundation have joined forces once again this holiday season to work towards fulfilling the wishes of children afflicted with life threatening illnesses.

When you open a Holiday Club at First DeWitt Savings, we'll donate $2 to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and you'll play an important role in making a child's wish come true.

The work of the Make-A-Wish Foundation is made possible through concern and support of people like you. So this year instead of receiving a gift for opening a Holiday Club, you can give a gift—the gift of making a child's wish come true.

The 1992 Newbery Medal Winner

Phyllis Reynolds Naylor

Ms. Naylor with one of her two cats. She has a book, "The Grand Escape," coming out in the spring dedicated to them.

The Newbery Medal is given each year to the author of the most outstanding children's book.

This year's winner was Phyllis Reynolds Naylor for her book "Shiloh," the story of 11-year-old Marty Preston and a young beagle. It is set in West Virginia.

Her background

Phyllis Reynolds Naylor has had 73 children's books published since the first one came out in 1965. Most of her books are for readers from 8 to 12 years old.

"By the time I reached fifth grade, writing books was my favorite hobby," she told us.

She has two grown sons and two grandchildren.

Her husband, Rex, is a speech pathologist.

Favorite things:

Food: anything chocolate

Hobbies: swimming, hiking, singing and playing the piano

The idea for "Shiloh"

"I was visiting friends in West Virginia and came across this dog that followed me back to a friend's house."

"It sat out in the rain all day long with its head on its paws. It was very hungry and looked like it was mistreated."

"I was in tears wondering what was going to happen to that dog."

"I couldn't get it out of my mind, so I decided to write about it."

Happy ending: Ms. Naylor's friends have adopted the dog!

Shiloh in real life

Work habits

When she is working on a book, Ms. Naylor writes for about six hours a day. She also spends a lot of time answering mail and just thinking.

"I go for a three-mile walk every morning. I usually give myself a problem before I start." She does several drafts in longhand and then uses the word processor. She revises and revises.

Two other books

Beetles, Lightly Toasted by Phyllis Reynolds Naylor

"Beetles, Lightly Toasted" is about a contest fifth-grader Andy Moller enters. The recipes he makes and tests on his friends make for interesting reading.

"The Agony of Alice" is one of a very popular six-book series about the adventures of Alice McKinley.

National Children's Book Week is Nov. 16-22.

The Newbery and Caldecott medals are presented each year by the Association for Library Services to Children of the American Library Association.

MIGHTY FUNNY'S Mini Jokes

MICROCHIPS!

THAT'S MIGHTY FUNNY!

(Sent in by Chad Aeri)

Son: Dad, can I have another glass of water?
Dad: That is your 10th glass!
Son: Yes, but my room is on fire!
Q: What is ghostly and hops?
A: A boo-frog!

Save Time Remodeling

Manville ProPak™ Batts insulation saves homeowners time.

Save time on remodeling projects by handling them the way the pros do. Pros work on many of the same projects as homeowners, and selecting the right materials helps them save time.

For example, when pros insulate walls, they use pre-cut insulation that comes stacked, not rolled, in the bag. They save time because they don't have to unroll and cut it to install it.

Manville ProPak™ Batts gold fiber glass insulation comes pre-cut in 92-inch lengths—the size of the standard wall cavity. And the batts are stacked.

Distinctive black bags with R-value color coding make ProPak Batts easy to spot in the store. A Department of Energy map and zone chart on the bags help you determine the R-value you need for your job, and the totally-enclosed poly bags keep the insulation clean and protected until you use it.

ProPak Batts come in a variety of lengths, widths and thicknesses; with and without facing; and with R-values of R-11, R-13, R-19, and R-30.

Leading building supply dealers now stock Manville ProPak Batts. Or, for more information, contact the Production Information Center for Manville brand insulation, P.O. Box 5108, Denver, CO 80217. Or call, 800 654 3103.

WE SALUTE OUR NATION'S HEROES

Here's to the many veterans both past and present who have helped to make America great.

Without your courage, freedom would only be a dream. Without your sacrifice, democracy would only be a concept. But your spirit and dedication has made us an enlightened nation plus helped to set a good example for every future generation.

We appreciate your important contributions and are here to serve you in any way we can.
