25 homeless children attend schools, casualties of economy or child abuse

By Howard Klausner

The Board of Education reported Monday that 25 children attending the Belleville schools are homeless, residing in temporary hotel housing in East Orange, or living at the Safe House for Battered Wives at Clara Maass Medical Center.

Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello told the Board that 10 of the children are of families that reside legally in Belleville, but have lost their previous homes or apartments for economic reasons.

Under state law, the children have the right to be educated in their home town, and Belleville supplies bus transportation for them.

Another 15 children live with their mothers at the Safe House, and attend local schools.

The Essex County Services Committee has appropriated $75,000 for Belleville to provide after-school activities for the Safe House children at School 4.

The youngsters will be in the schools, with supervision and some educational services funded by the Committee, from 4 to 7 p.m.

Nardiello termed it "a great humanitarian effort" as he urged the Board to accept the program. The Board voted unanimously to do so.

The cost of bus transportation for the homeless children is funded by the State, Nardiello said.

The discussion of education for the homeless children, whose situation, hopefully, will be improved as the economy improves, was coupled with announcement of a proposed get-tough policy on weapons.

Nardiello presented an ordinance which will be put up to public hearing Dec. 21, in which first-time possession of a weapon could mean a 10-day suspension, and a second offense would mean expulsion.

School officials met on Friday with Police Chief Raymond Kimble, Deputy Chief Michael Petrillo and Essex County Acting Prosecutor Robert Mulvihill to discuss the grand rules for law enforcement in the schools.

Procedures for questioning students, and the legalities of search and inquiry, were laid out in detail by Petrillo, whose ability to clarify the law for the school officials brought praise from Nardiello.

"He really takes the cake," Nardiello said of Petrillo.

Board President Patricia Pisano

and Trustee Dr. Anthony D'Agostino went on record to protest the firing of a cafeteria worker by the food services contractor.

"A woman with 20 years of experience should not have been fired because of a mistake," Dr. D'Agostino said. The employee allegedly was responsible for distributing sour orange juice to grade school students. The Board has no control over the contractor's hiring or firing of an employee.

BHS teacher returns from Russia with calls for closer U.S. relations

The people of today's Russia want closer ties to America, Belleville High School teacher Ann Schneider reports, after a 15-day tour of that nation's schools.

"And the children - the children are beautiful!"

Ms. Schneider's trip was sponsored by Hands Across The Water 1993.

An American-Russian-Ukrainian Teacher Exchange in which teachers of each country live as guests of teachers in the host countries for a non-tourist trip at the nation.

Ms. Schneider's hosts were Vladimir and Tatyana Melnikov, in the provincial city of Kirov, a community of 500,000 population which had been off bounds to foreigners for more than half a century because of defense industries located there.

The people were delighted to meet their first American visitors, Ms. Schneider reported.

Aided by an excellent translator, Ms. Schneider taught classes in both a city school and in a rural school.

"It's hard to tell a Russian student from an American student," she said. But one difference was that the Russian students had just a few sets of clothing to wear, compared to the wardrobes of American teenagers.

The desire for more contacts between the nations was strong, Ms. Schneider said. She noted that English was the foreign language learned by most Russian students, followed by German.

The children appeared well fed and happy, but the economy was a constant problem. Uncertainty about the future made moral and material assistance from America vital, Ms. Schneider said.

Next April, she hopes to be host to one or both of the Melnikovs, and she wants to make sure that any visitor will be provided funds here to buy some of the goods in plentiful supply here.

In the meantime, the American teacher had a plentiful supply of pins, emblems and books from the new - and struggling - Russia, along with photographs of the people and the cities and the countryside.

"And lots of pictures of the children!" she said.

Two cops nab highjack suspect in Grafton Avenue foot chase

Police Officers Jim Corbo and Gerard Paterno sprinted from their patrol car, early Tuesday morning, to grab a fleeing truck hijack suspect.

The truck, loaded with cartons of Tropicana orange juice, had left Newark earlier that morning and was travelling through the south end of that city when three men halted it and entered the truck cab, taking the driver with them on an unscheduled side trip to Kearny, where the legitimate driver was dropped from the vehicle.

Kearny police put out a statewide alert for the stolen truck, and Corbo and Paterno spotted it on Mill Street.

Turning on the car's flashing lights, the police found themselves in a chase down Mill Street and into Grafton Avenue, where the truck hit a wall.

The driver leaped out of the cab and headed down Grafton Avenue, until the police caught up with him. He was found carrying a knife, but apparently put up no resistance.

Police took a 32-year-old Newark man into custody, and are on the lookout for two men who participated in the aborted hijacking.

How the hijackers planned to dispose of the truckload of orange juice was not known.

Corbo and Paterno are part of the Night Squad which has proved effective in keeping the stolen car rate to less than half of what it was a few months ago.

Joe Fornarotto gets town post

Former Commissioner Joseph Fornarotto has been named to the Senior Citizens Advisory Board, on the motion of Council President Dr. Frank Noonan.

Fornarotto will fill the unexpired term of the late Mrs. Eunice Conover.

The post is unsalaried.

The term expires on June 10, 1994. Fornarotto, newly elected President of Concerned Citizens of Belleville, is active in veterans affairs and senior citizen events.

Senatore-Ciccone has Dix Award

Rosemary Senatore-Ciccone of Belleville has received the 1992 Dorothea Dix Humanity Award for her efforts in behalf of the mentally handicapped of Essex County.

Ms. Senatore-Ciccone is Executive Director of the Community Development Block Grant and was instrumental in providing funds for Mt. Vista.

Mt. Vista, described as "a refuge for mentally handicapped citizens of Essex", is to open soon on Essex County property in Belleville, according to a statement released by Concerned Families for Improved Mental Health Services, of Orange.

Mental health experts report that community homes have proven highly beneficial to the handicapped, who are provided a more home-like atmosphere than would be obtained at an institution, and have been well accepted by the host communities.

Aside From That

By Howard Klausner

A number of people have asked: "How come you had eight votes counted on a seven-member Council?" We had stated that the $80,000-a-year contract given to Township Manager Stephen Cuccio had been passed by a 7-to-1 vote. What many people do not appear to realize is that the eighth vote was cast by the elusive Fifth Ward Councilman, Harry Zilch. Harry, you will recall, was elected on the promise, "Vote for Me, and The Public Gets Zilch!" Everyone knows the boundaries of the Fifth Ward, which run all over the place. While the public hasn't heard much of Councilman Zilch since his election, at least he has had more to say than Councilman Charles Cerami. One reason for Zilch's low key tenure is that he has had to spend a great deal of time in Superior Court, defending himself from challenges to his election. Since he was elected solely by absentee ballots, and all of those ballots were claimed by Kevin Kennedy and Richard Yanuzzi, he has had his hands full just staying elected. ●●●●● It is not altogether true that there was no one present in the audience when the Council voted the salary contract to Mr. Cuccio. (After all, could the Mayor help it if everyone went home just because she told them to?) Snuggled up on a seat was none other than Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten, hired some time ago to be the Town Hall Official Cat. Baldassaro has been a big help to Maintenance Supervisor Barbara Tuck, making sure that cushions and chairs are properly tested for resilience and comfort, and Baldassaro has also been a great help to the Belleville Times as he is an outstanding Copy Cat. ●●●●● Baldassaro was thus able to ascertain the details of the contract, even if the Township Administration did not want them made known to the public. Belleville Police are probably wondering who issued the order to unlock the outside cages where stray felines are held pending their pick-up by Animal Control. The memo was signed by B.D.V. Mitten. The invoice ordering two quarts of cream to be left at the Town Hall side entrance, every morning, was also initialed B.D.V.M. However, the Township Manager did intercept an order that four-hour siestas be made mandatory on sunny afternoons, much to Baldassaro's annoyance.

Richard Trauwinski is enthusiastic about the 1993 cars that will bear the Made in America label. "These are really state-of-the-art! People will be buying American again." As owner of The Brakeshop, he will also find it somewhat expensive, because the new cars are calling for brand new parts unknown to the industry. "Engines that will never need an oil change! Or a tune-up! America is back in the lead," he said. Anything that perks up the domestic auto industry will help the country, and Trauwinski, a graduate engineer, says that new technology will lead the way. "We've been asleep for a while, but that's all over now," he said. He's an expert, so he should know. ●●●●● Izzy Padula is back from Branson, Missouri, where Country Music has found a new home. Originally a home town for Mel Tillis and then for Andy Williams, it has become a major attraction to music lovers over the past 15 years. Willie Nelson has his own theater there - no more "On The Road, Again" for him - and Wayne Newton has left Las Vegas to build his own theater in Branson. "The town has 5,500 population in winter, and 55,000 in summer," says the travelling former Township Treasurer. "And it has just one main street. What traffic jams!" He estimates that there are more than a dozen theaters in the little town, each with seating capacities in the thousands. And they all seem to let their audiences out at the same time. Music lover, sports fan, motorcycle maniac - Izzy lives life to the fullest. ●●●●● Vinnie Masti is moving Belleville Travel Service into the newly refurbished stores on Washington Avenue, taking the prestigious location at the corner of Belleville and Washington Avenues. He says it is his vote of confidence in Downtown Belleville. "I feel I'm giving something back to the community," he said. Spinosa's Music Store is consolidating on the corner across the street on Belleville and Washington. There is a relationship between music and travel, and any number of musicians we have known have been advised by their neighbors to travel.

D'Alessio did it!

Chalk up another victory for Essex County Chairman Tom D'Alessio. At his request, Governor Jim Florio nominated Newark Presiding Judge Clifford J. Minor to the Office of Essex County Prosecutor. The State Bar Association turned in a negative report on Minor based upon Minor's alleged inadequate trial experience.

D'Alessio responded angrily. His research indicated Minor was well qualified for the job. D'Alessio refused to take no for an answer. As a result, the New Jersey Bar Association committee reconsidered Minor's credentials and subsequently gave its approval — another major victory for Tom D'Alessio. It just indicates that when one is right, it pays to be resolute.

Why the secrecy?

The appointing of Stephen Cuccio as Township Manager was no surprise.

His service as Acting Manager kept him in good repute with the Council majority, and indeed won him support from two of the three non-aligned Council members.

What is puzzling is the secrecy in which the Council acted. In what was otherwise an unremarkable evening session, Monday, Nov. 30, the Council enacted no ordinances, heard the public during the regularly scheduled hearing of citizens, and then went into a closed session.

Indeed, Council members stated that the public meeting was now over and the public — and press — could go home.

With the press and the public safely out of the room, the Council majority reconvened the public meeting and introduced the resolution hiring Mr. Cuccio at $80,000 a year and even went through the motions of "hearing the public" as was required by law.

Taking the Council's word that the meeting was over, the public had left.

Yet mayor Marina Perna actually called for a hearing of citizens in the empty Council chamber, closed off debate as if there were any debate, and put the resolution to a vote.

Was it the fact that the Council hired Mr. Cuccio at almost the same salary it had hired Bertrand Kendall that made the Council majority vote the resolution without benefit of public comment, or protest?

The contract does not call for the annual 5 percent increase that Mr. Kendall's contract had. Instead, there will be an annual "review" of the Manager's performance, followed by a decision about a salary increase.

It all lends credence to the claim that Mr. Kendall's forced resignation was not caused by the desire to save money, but by the desire to have someone in office who would do the Council majority's bidding.

And was all this subterfuge enough to prevent the Council from being called to account for violation of the Sunshine Law?

And as of press time, Township Attorney Robert Giordano and Township Manager Stephen Cuccio still have not responded to the Belleville Times' request to see a copy of the Manager's employment contract.

Lest we forget

Through the efforts of Joseph Fornarotto and Belleville-Nutley Chapter 22 of the Disabled American War Veterans, the names of 114 men who died in combat since Pearl Harbor have been recorded. The list includes those lost in Korea and Vietnam.

The number of those who died in military service from other causes than combat is not certain.

Non-combat deaths may match, or exceed the number of battlefield deaths, and there is not even a plausible way to count the deaths incurred after the war by illness, injury and wounds sustained during the war.

Nevertheless, anyone who served during that war, and everyone who gave up their lives in that war, in or out of combat, deserves to be memorialized.

They deserve more than the blank memorial on Union Avenue that does not carry the name of a single Belleville man or woman who served, or died, in World War II.

Those men and women saved the world from a barbarism that otherwise had every chance of succeeding.

How could Belleville have gone this long without memorializing every single man and woman, living or dead, who participated in the defense of the Nation?

Isn't it about time we did?

YOUR OPINION

Praise for coaches

To the editor:

I would like to congratulate the Belleville coaching staff: Mr. John Senesky, Mr. Joe D'Ambola, Mr. Gennaro Russo and the rest of the staff.

The '92 football season was the most exciting and well played football games I have ever seen. Their schedule was the toughest we've had and our team has stood tall and proud. Only parents and family members knew what degree of injuries our boys suffered from week to week, but you would have never known when it came time to "kick off."

To the Monday morning quarterbacks at the games who complained from week to week about the coaches' plays, I would like to see you put on a helmet, shoulder pads then go play in the game. I guess those were the fans that never played any sort of sports while in high school.

When you complain about the coaches, you complain about the team. Our sons feel it too. Those boys have the utmost respect for the coaching staff. There is a lot more taught on the field than football. As in unity, self respect, and discipline. Quite a few not only practiced until 7 p.m., but their studies were never neglected. Some even accomplished to make the honor roll.

The Belleville High School Varsity Football Team was one of the nicest teams I have seen in years. I wish all of you the best of luck in whatever you do. I will miss all my "senior boys" next year. Good luck in the future.

Theresa Pizzano

Ba-ad Klausner!

To the editor:

The "closing of the door" at Town Hall to Howard Klausner, editor of the Belleville Times, was long overdue. Anything he writes for the Times from now on we can be guaranteed is "pure fantasy" instead of "distortion" of the truth. The man is a "loose cannon" with his personal interpretation of facts, with the obvious attempt to destroy the reputation of our new manager, as well as the majority of the Town Council, with his inflammatory headlines. In the Nov. 19 issue he falsely reported "the court stops the firing of the Fire Chief," when in fact the Chief had been suspended for insubordination in connection with "unauthorized (over) spending." The Chief's own lawyer at a subsequent hearing agreed that his conduct was indeed grounds for suspension, and the case was resolved with a two week suspension without pay, and an apology statement that he "regretted the incident."

In the latest issue, Dec. 3rd, he accuses the Council of keeping the terms of the contract, hiring our new manager, a secret, when in fact the contract was voted and approved during a "public session." Then, in an obvious attempt to instill disapproval among the public at large, he creates the perception of an over-generous contract, with his "statement" that the contract in fact means an instant $20,000-salary raise, because the manager was paid $5,000-a month prior to his appointment, at a salary of $80,000. Isn't it logical that a manager's salary should be more than that of a "caretaker"? He also has the nerve to include that the "search committee" is "not known to have interviewed any other candidate"... But in the October 1 edition, Mr. Klausner reported that "the Council had narrowed down the field of applicants of a dozen or more to three possibilities and named them!" What is it Mr. Klausner, the Council did not make a serious effort to obtain the best possible replacement for Bertrand Kendall, the fired manager, currently the subject in a petition to the State Department of Community Affairs to investigate his administration.

Cornelis P. Vander Zwan

Ed. Note: Welcome back to the "letters" column, Cornelis. We missed you. HK

24-hour store

To the editor:

I was very disappointed to see that Walgreen's Shopping store will now be open 24 hours a day. I do not believe this will help Washington Avenue a bit.

I urge the Council to pass a town ordinance to require any store that wants to stay open after 12:00 a.m. to have at least 10 employees in the store. This ordinance would be modeled after a Florida ordinance. A town in Florida was having its convenience stores robbed and several clerks killed. Florida passed the employee ordinance and the robberies stopped. Most importantly, the business becomes responsible for this problem, not the taxpayers.

The Council should not wait until after a robbery occurs to act on this important issue.

Kevin G. Kennedy
3rd Ward Resident

And go-od Klausner!

To the editor:

I am pleased to advise you that the New Jersey Municipal Managers' Association (NJMMA) has voted for you to receive its Press Award. This is the first time this award has been given. The standards we use are objectivity, consistency and the commitment to factual reporting about local government. The NJMMA's Award Committee reviewed the stories regarding Mr. Kendall's departure from Belleville and unanimously agreed that you deserved this award.

I checked back with Mr. Salerno who said, indeed, there were 200 people at the reception for gubernatorial candidate, Chris Whittman — and that, indeed, he is the executive director of the Essex County Republican County Committee. If the spineless writer has any complaint with the report, I suggest he or she contact Ralph Salerno, Esq., Bloomfield.

• ONE of my favorite singers passed away last week, a gentleman by the name of Roy Acuff, who earned the title, "King of Country Music" during 54 years of zesty singing and fiddling on the Grand Ole Opry. Early on, I became a fan of western music, even to the extent of visiting the Grand Ole Opry. During his youth, President-elect Clinton said he listened to Acuff and his band, the Smoky Mountain Boys, playing on Opry broadcasts every Friday and Saturday night.

Mr. Acuff was the "troubadour of the American people" to former President Reagan. President Bush, a country music fan, observed that Mr. Acuff left behind "a touch of the American dream. We marveled at his talent." Acuff was a regular on the cornball TV show, "Hee Haw." A street on Nashville's Music Row and a theater at Opryland are named in his honor.

His letter also tells us that the late Walter Eiling's son (unnamed) is a leading citizen in Key Biscayne. George's recollection is that Eiling, Jr. was head of the Orange Bowl at one time and also is a friend of former President Richard Nixon.

Thanks, George, for writing as you did and your ideas to improve The Sun will be welcomed.

• IN a recent New Jersey Assembly vote on Bill 1309 that makes it a crime to publish the name of a victim of sexual assault, 45 members voted in favor, 9 against and 22 abstained. Area Assemblypersons voted as follows: Marion Crecco, yes; Paul DiGaetano, yes; John Kelly, yes; Gerald Zecker, yes; Monroe Lustbader, yes. The New Jersey Press Association was actively campaigning for a NO vote.

There is no Senate version of the bill, and unless the Senate adopts it into legislation, the action of the Assembly is null and void.

BHS insures a safe holiday

By Jon Blake

Picture this: You are sitting around the Christmas tree with your family on Christmas morning. Everyone is happily opening their presents and enjoying breakfast together. Suddenly, Dad trips on your little brother's new bike, cuts his foot, and falls, head first, into the Christmas tree giving himself multiple lacerations to the face while he spills his steaming hot coffee all over himself.

It's a good thing you got him a BHS Journalism first aid kit. Now he can treat his burns and bruises without leaving the living room. The easy to carry, all inclusive BHS Journalism first aid kit is attractively priced at just $6. With one of these in your home, office or car, you will be able to treat all your injuries this holiday season and all year round.

These affordable first aid kits make the perfect stocking stuffer for those accident prone relatives or other family members who are likely to injure themselves this holiday season. Most importantly, the first aid kit makes any home, office or car a safer place.

BHS Journalism students may be ringing your doorbell soon to present you with an opportunity to purchase this ideal gift. Buying two or three kits can insure your own continuous peace of mind knowing that first aid items are close at hand. Have a happy and safe holiday season.

Barry Bridges on sea duty

Navy Seaman Barry A. Bridges, son of Veronica Bridges of Belleville, recently deployed aboard the tank landing ship USS LaMoure County, homeported in Little Creek, Va., for six months to the Mediterranean Sea.

The USS County Amphibious Ready Group is composed of five ships: USS Guam, USS Austin, USS Gunston Hal, USS Sumner, and USS LaMoure County. The ARG, originally scheduled to deploy November 16, departed early to ensure the continued presence of an amphibious ready group in the Mediterranean. The schedule change is another example of the inherent flexibility of naval forces and their ability to respond when called upon.

The Guam ARG will carry Landing Craft Air Cushion assault craft, as well as other amphibious landing craft, and detachments of Naval Beach Group Two, Tactical Air Control Squadron 22, and Navy Special Warfare Group Two.

Additionally, the 22nd Marine Expeditionary Unit will be deployed aboard the ships. The 22nd MEU includes both USMC air and ground elements, as well as service support and command elements.

The 1986 graduate of Clifford J. Scott High School, East Orange, joined the Navy in April 1991.

Americans with Disabilities Act

The Belleville Public Library has added an important new book to its collection: Disability Law: A Legal Primer. The second edition of this useful book, which outlines the basic provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), is a publication of the New Jersey Bar Association and the Essex County Bar Association and its Committees on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

This new book is presently for in-library use only, as the library awaits additional copies it has ordered. In a clear question and answer form, people using this primer can determine the accessibility, employment and many legal portions of the ADA.

Please ask for this new publication at the reference desk.

R.P.I. graduates Amie Miller

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute has awarded an undergraduate degree to Amie Elizabeth Miller of Belleville; the bachelor of science in chemistry.

Founded in 1824, Rensselaer is the nation's oldest degree-granting technological university. The institute is known for its rigorous academic programs and for its strengths in aeronautics, robotics, and computer science, coupled with considerable depth in the sciences, management, architecture, and the humanities and social sciences.

Rensselaer is an independent, coeducational, nonsectarian university with approximately 4,100 undergraduate and 2,100 graduate students.

Handmade musical instruments

The Belleville Public Library is pleased to display the handmade and hand-painted musical instruments of John Stumpe. Each musical instrument is a work of art, in some cases made by Stumpe from wood cut from local trees. Living in town for the past 27 years, Stumpe attended Arts High School in Newark and is an accomplished guitarist. Combining his love of music and his skill as a designer, woodworker and painter, Stumpe's musical instruments represent beautiful craftsmanship.

This display will continue in the second floor exhibit case throughout December.

Radon information

Many New Jersey residents have concerns about radon levels in their homes. The New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection and Energy has published a new pamphlet, Information You Should Know About Radon, which is available at the Reference Desk of the Belleville Public Library. More copies of this brochure are on order for interested residents. For information about radon, call 1-800-648-0394. To arrange for a speaker for your community group, on the topic of radon, call Barbara Sergeant at 609-987-2101.

For information about health hazards, public safety and environmental concerns, the library is a good place to start your research.

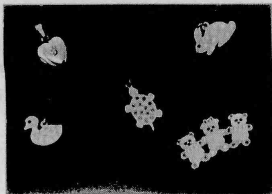

Library displays work of Sumliner

Mrs. Bebe Sumliner, a resident of New York City, began painting about 26 years ago when her husband, Bernard, bought her a set of oils and an easel as a holiday gift.

Sumliner has worked exclusively in oils using a great variety of subject matter and has recently become interested in water colors. She has exhibited at the Belleville Public Library in 1975 and in 1977 with her mother, Mrs. Essie Cohen, and her niece, Pamela Cohen, and again in 1983. Last June, she exhibited at The New Gallery of the Educational Alliance.

Sumliner enjoys painting with the soft lines and colors, such as those used by the Impressionists, and gets "great satisfaction in facing a blank canvas and creating something that wasn't there before."

It's never too early to give them a taste of the finer things in life.

Ballou children's jewelry is available in overlay, vermeil, and sterling, 14 and 10 karat gold, too. Always with genuine stones. So go ahead, spoil them.

YOUR OPINION

Employers to lose billions

To the editor:

This past week when our legislators in Trenton passed the Health Care Law, I guess they were not thinking of their constituents.

This Health Law will take effect January 1, 1993. I hope our legislators understand that the hospitals that provide most of the charity care, the final version of the law spreads the subsidy too thin to do much good.

They forget that in October, Labor Commissioner, Ray Brammucci, warned that the state's unemployment reserves had dropped by 25 percent and it was inadvisable to support action that could destroy the ability to cope with a poor economic future.

There is never any word mentioned about the cause of high hospital bills. The answer is easy — hospital officials are paid too much and there are too many.

In one hospital there are seven vice presidents, over 1,400 employees with less than half of these employees directly involved with patients.

Should these administrators earn more than the Governor? It's always the big guys getting more! I hope the State Health Committee checks into where the money really goes.

Revitalize Belleville!

To The Editor,

It is now a documented fact that Belleville has had a major impact on the industrial development of this country.

As you know, the steam engine was developed here, copper ore was discovered and mined here, whole governments contacted businesses within our borders.

Companies and inventors such as Thomas Edison, Westinghouse, Walter Kidde, Jergens Lotion, National Yeast, Pet Supply - and the list goes on and on - were located here.

Yet, in recent years, millions of dollars have been lost in revenues and jobs.

Belleville, with its great, great history, once established itself as a world class community in which to live and work and establish a business.

Somehow, we have strayed from the past to the detriment of us all.

Never again should we allow a company to relocate from Belleville to Texas unchallenged.

We must provide resources and opportunities for companies to move from Texas to Belleville, or New York to Belleville.

A program or economic development committee must be established to seek out companies, with incentives to invest here, in order to create opportunities for jobs and tax relief for all of us.

St. Joseph's Hospital visited by Santa and helpers

The raffle ticket for free Christmas merchandise was drawn at State Fair Halloween Outlet, Belleville, on Halloween Eve and the first place winner was St. Joseph's Hospital, Children's Ward, Paterson. The unusual thing about this raffle is that the hospital didn't enter the drawing; an anonymous person from Wayne wrote in the hospital's name on the winning ticket.

State Fair Halloween/Christmas Outlet added to the unexpected prize by delivering and setting up the merchandise for St. Joseph's Hospital.

When St. Joseph's Hospital was notified of the prize, the reaction was naturally surprise. John E.

Scaglione, Administrative Director of the Pediatrics Department, suspects that the donation was made by an employee of the hospital.

"I was very surprised that someone would actually give up the chance to win a prize, and write in the children's floor of a hospital on top of that," said David Thierer, Marketing Director for State Fair. "It's nice to know that there are still people out there who truly have the Christmas spirit."

Department leads the state in changing the way fires are fought

Belleville Fire Department is leading the state to new environmentally safe procedures of fire fighting with the purchase and use of the same product that extinguished 30 percent of the burning oil wells in Kuwait, and the only product that had the ability to extinguish the burning lakes of oil. What is this new and revolutionary product? Phirex Plus and our very own Belleville Fire Department is the first in the state to use it. Phirex Plus is a newly patented fire fighting foam, currently being marketed by 911 Voice, Inc., a New Jersey based firm with a focus on life safety.

Using current fire fighting procedures, hours often elapse and thousands of gallons of water are wasted before a fire can be extinguished. Even then reignition is possible — if not probable. With the addition of Phirex Plus fires can be put out in minutes with minimal water usage and no possibility of reignition. How? The agent is made of a combination of surfactants, which lower the surface tension of water allowing it to penetrate and permeate burning surfaces on contact, snuffing out flames at the source. Phirex Plus also minimizes water runoff, with the use of water alone the runoff due to waters high surface tension is 93 percent. Considering these facts, the water damage that can be avoided with the use of Phirex Plus is immeasurable.

These days it seems that everything is harmful to the environment. Conventional fire fighting foams are no exception. All of these conventional foams are based with chemicals which are dangerous to humans, animals and the environment. Additionally they are corrosive to anything they come in contact with. Phirex Plus, however, is totally comprised of organic materials, nontoxic and biodegradable. It is the only fire fighting agent in existence that is earth safe and E.P.A. approved. In addition when used on petroleum fires it emulsifies the petroleum and renders it harmless.

Consuela Pinto on dean's list

Consuela A. Pinto, a resident of Belleville, has recently been named to the dean's list at Boston University.

Boston University is the fifth largest institution of higher learning in the United States, with nearly 28,000 students enrolled in its 15 schools and colleges. Located along the banks of the Charles River, the University combines the resources of a major teaching and research institution with the rich cultural and historical attractions offered by the City of Boston.

ATTORNEY GENERAL Robert J. Del Tufo proudly displays one of the Partnership for a Drug-Free New Jersey's ads that will be distributed to newspapers and other media outlets throughout New Jersey. Along with Del Tufo are the partnership's co-chairmen, Joseph P. Miele, chairman of the Governor's Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse, and Jules Borshadel, president of Rickel Home Centers. The partnership is planning to organize and coordinate the largest public service media campaign in New Jersey's history, alerting the state's residents of the harmful effects of drug and alcohol abuse.

Hints on avoiding carjacks

Chief of Police Raymond Kimble, Acting Essex County Prosecutor James P. Mulvihill, speaking on behalf of the Essex County law enforcement community, suggest a few precautions that motorists should consider:

- Be alert and aware of your surroundings, especially at night and in isolated areas, don't become unduly alarmed or fearful.
- Be observant! If someone who appears suspicious approaches your car, quickly but carefully drive away.
- Keep your car doors locked and your windows closed.
- When using a parking lot, always leave yourself a way out in case you are approached by a stranger.
- Park in areas that will be well lighted when you return.
- Always check the rear seat and floorboard areas before getting inside your car.
- If you are being followed, don't drive into your own driveway or attempt to leave your car. Drive to the nearest police or fire station for help, or blow your horn to attract attention.

• Drive cautiously, allow at least one car length between your car and the car ahead of you; avoid being blocked into the curb lane at traffic lights and leave enough room to drive away.

• If another vehicle bumps your car from behind, exercise extreme caution, and if you are suspicious, don't stop but motion to the other driver to proceed to the nearest police station.

• If you observe someone lurking near your unoccupied car, keep walking and go to a safe place until the person leaves.

• Take well traveled and well lit routes, and only use busy facilities for gasoline or telephone stops.

• If you have car trouble, raise the hood and remain inside with the doors locked. If a stranger stops, ask him to notify the local police department.

• Keep your house and driveway well lit. Be aware of vehicles and pedestrians, and keep your horn to have a family member open garage doors.

• Do not keep house keys on the same key chain with car keys since carjacks also could gain easy entry to your home.

• Immediately notify police of an attack or an attempted attack. Carry a pencil and paper to note a description of an attacker or his vehicle. Carrying a pocket alarm is also advised.

Citizens should be the eyes and ears of the community. Report suspicious activity to the police immediately. Call police from your home, office or car. Emergency calls to 9-1-1 can be made on many cellular phones even after your cellular service has been suspended or terminated.

INSPECTING MODEL — From left are Family Court Judge Thomas Zampino, County Executive Thomas J. D'Alessio and Assignment Judge Burrell Ives Humphreys.

New Youth House planned

Essex County Executive Thomas J. D'Alessio announced plans for the construction of a new and enlarged county Youth House. The detention facility, which will be constructed on the site of the present building, is being described as "state of the art" in juvenile detention construction and is designed to meet both the present and future needs of the county's judicial system.

D'Alessio stated that the plans to improve and enlarge the present Essex County Youth House located on Sussex Avenue in Newark have been in the works for almost two years. The recent rash of auto theft arrests in Essex County have underscored the need for additional space to house youthful offenders.

The original Youth House structure was built in 1914. At that time, it was considered a major step forward in dealing with juveniles and was the first facility in the nation to separate juveniles from adult offenders. But the facility has long been overcrowded and cannot meet modern life and safety codes.

The County Executive said that the present Youth House is supposed to accommodate 89 juveniles, but the daily population often reaches 130 or more. The plans unveiled today for the new structure will provide space for 154 beds and will have expansion capabilities of up to 203 beds.

In addition to added bed space, the new facility is planned to provide improved educational, medical and social services to the juvenile population.

D'Alessio pointed out that since 1989, the Essex County Youth House has served an average of 2,600 to 3,000 juveniles a year, between the ages of eight to eighteen. The average length of stay for Essex juveniles is about 90 days.

The overall cost of the project is estimated to be $16.5 million dollars. The Essex County Improvement Authority has already raised the funds through bond sales. D'Alessio was optimistic about breaking ground for the project in early 1993 and construction is anticipated to take from 18 to 24 months.

The County Executive stated that his administration had weighed the possibility of making major repairs to the present facility, but decided it was more fiscally prudent to invest in a new structure designed to meet the county's long term needs.

"The new Essex County Youth House will fully meet all state and federal standards for juvenile detention facilities. It will provide a safe and secure place for our Division of Youth Services staff to maintain and serve the thousands of young people who are annually committed to our care," D'Alessio said.

"Recently the Attorney General announced plans to increase the number of judges in Family Court in Essex County to handle adult theft cases," said D'Alessio. "We need to be prepared to deal with a steadily increasing juvenile population and provide the services and programs needed to help these young people turn their lives around."

In addition to the added facility space, D'Alessio also announced the expansion of the Home Detention program supervised by the Youth House staff. Currently the program has 90 juveniles assigned by the courts to Home Detention.

The county plans to add another 50 juveniles to the Home Detention program which allows young offenders to remain at home and attend school. Monitors track the juveniles to make certain that they are only travelling outside the home to designated sites. If a juvenile violates the home detention rules, he is returned to the Youth House.

D'Alessio stated that the Home Detention program has a proven success record and very few juveniles have had to be remanded to the Youth House.

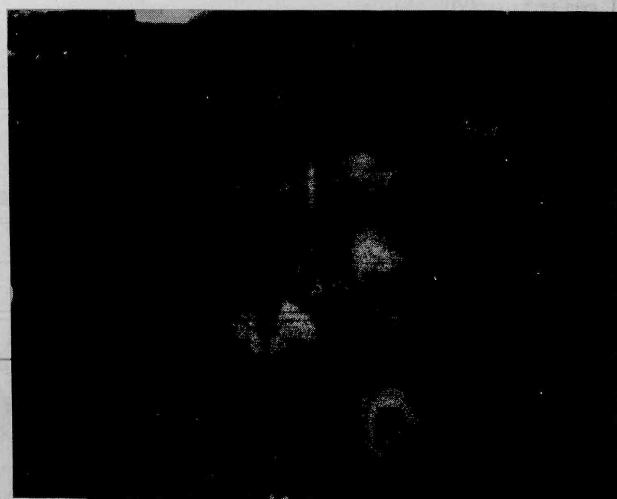

Along with the expanded detention facility, the county is also planning to increase the delivery of social services to both juvenile offenders and their families. Two additional social workers will be added to the Youth House staff to deal specifically with juveniles involved in auto theft cases.

With an anticipated caseload of 15-20 juveniles per worker, these added social service staffers will provide intensive case management in a family context.

"The problem we face with these young offenders is complex. There is no single or simple solution," said D'Alessio.

"In Essex County, we are attempting to intervene and address all the needs from increased enforcement and incarceration space to ongoing support services for young offenders and their families."

Toys for Tots program at State Fair Christmas Outlet

By David E. Thierer

With Christmas right around the corner, everyone is running around in a shopping frenzy: "What do I buy for Eddie?" or "Al would really like that!" What a lot of people do not realize is that there are thousands of kids out there who come from families that can't afford to have the toys that we take for granted.

Luckily for these children, there is hope that their Christmas dreams will come true. Many people have heard of the program "Toys for Tots," but many do not know exactly what it is or where they can donate their toys. This is one of the reasons that State Fair Christmas Outlet is a sponsor of the Toys for Tots program.

Toys for Tots was started by the Los Angeles Marine Reserve Unit two weeks before Christmas 1947. The wife of Marine Reserve Major Bill Hendricks, not having any children of her own, asked her husband to pass along a handmade Raggedy Ann doll that she made to a needy child in the neighborhood. Being that no agency was in existence to distribute this gift, Major Hendricks and the Los Angeles Marine Reserve Unit began collecting toys (a total of 5,000 that first year). The following year the Marine Corps Reserves adopted the program nationwide, and the Toys for Tots program was born.

Each year uniformed Marines collect and distribute over 8 million toys to more than 3 million children. Although these numbers seem very impressive, the difference between the number of children needing toys and the number of toys being donated is still very large.

When a person is trying to choose between charities at Christmas time, many say "What good will a toy do?" The simple joy of a toy can bring with it "hope." Beside bringing a smile to a child's face, and the grateful appreciation of the parents, this small gesture can make a big difference in the life of that child.

State Fair Christmas Outlet, 229 Main Street, Belleville is proud to be a collection site for the Toys for Tots program. You can support the program by donating a new, unwrapped toy. There is a box by our main entrance where you can make your donation. Make a child's Christmas as happy as your own by donating a toy by Dec. 15. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us at 201-450-1070.

Governor Florio takes aim at carjacking

By Jim Florio
Perhaps nothing angered and saddened all of us in New Jersey recently as much as the kidnapping and murder of Piscataway mother Gail Shollar. This senseless tragedy brought home to a lot of people the growing threat of a new and particularly violent crime — carjacking.

Carjacking is not just a handful of teenagers on a joy-ride in a stolen car. It's a crime that stalks our inner cities and our suburbs, threatens our communities, jeopardizes police and now has taken the lives of innocent people. Even those who have not experienced physical violence firsthand are suffering, in the form of fear that makes people feel like prisoners in their homes.

New Jersey hasn't seen the epidemic of carjackings that plague some other places, but we're not going to sit around and wait for carjacking to escalate into a full-scale war. We've got to stop it before it reaches that point. It's bad enough that carjacking has become a common word in our vocabulary. We refuse to let it become a common crime in our communities.

I recently joined federal, state and local officials in announcing a comprehensive plan to attack carjacking. Our plan is based on three elements: prevention, hard-line prosecution and public awareness.

The recent reduction of conventional car thefts in Union and Essex County shows what we can do when people and police work together to take back their communities. We're going to be marshalling that same team to fight carjacking.

Our best weapon against this

new breed of street terrorism is a well-informed public. So one of our top priorities will be giving people the information they need to protect themselves from carjacking. The right to feel secure in your own home and in your communities is the most basic right we have. Government has an absolute responsibility to guarantee that right.

We're sending a message to the thugs who commit these crimes that if you're going to commit a carjacking in New Jersey, there's going to be no leniency and no place to hide.

line the scope of carjacking crimes, identify areas in need of targeted enforcement and help police to spot carjacked vehicles.

Most important, law enforcement officials will be out spreading the word about what motorists can do to guard against carjackings.

- Safety tips like locking all doors and keeping your windows closed.
- Avoiding dimly lit and lightly traveled areas.

- Urging drivers to be especially alert in their surroundings, particularly when stopped in traffic or at red lights.

Brake Shop sponsors Toys for Tots campaign

The Brake Shop franchisees of Delaware, Maryland, Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey have been named Collection Sponsors of the 1992 U.S. Marines Corps Reserve Toys for Tots campaign.

The Toys for Tots program was created and continues to serve needy children in local communities by providing new, unwrapped toys during the Christmas season. Toys are new to reduce the feeling of charity and increase the excitement of receiving an unused gift. Toys are unwrapped so Marines can sort by age and gender.

In just five years The Brake Shop has grown from a single brake repair shop in a Detroit suburb to over 90 shops open or under development in 14 states. This Toys for Tots sponsorship represents the first regional charity sponsorship by The Brake Shop franchisees.

Twenty three area franchisees of The Brake Shop in this area will serve as drop-off points for the Toys for Tots program through Dec. 18.

Residents are invited to stop by The Brake Shop location nearby and drop-off a new, unwrapped toy. Participating shops include: 597 Washington Avenue, Belleville, 711 Rt. 17 North, Centerville.

The Brake Shop is the nation's fastest growing franchise in the brake repair industry, with their corporate office located in Clinton Township, MI. The company plans to exceed 200 franchises by the end of 1993.

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

The torch has been passed.
Sounds dramatic, doesn't it?

The proverbial torch has been passed, however, as Karen Fuccello has ended her long tenure as head girls' basketball coach at Belleville High. Her successor is a former player, Cheryl Marion, who was about three years old when Fuccello coached the first Belleville girls' basketball team back in 1971-72.

There are too many memories of the Fuccello basketball years to fill this column, but it would be interesting to look back on the 20 years "Coach Fu" roamed the Belleville sidelines.

I first met this lady back in 1974 as a sophomore at Belleville High. She was a gym teacher and was coach of a very successful girls' basketball team that posted a 12-4 record.

Each day in school during announcements, we would hear how the girls' basketball team had won another game, how the team had qualified for the prestigious state tournament.

Fuccello's first three years at BHS were quite successful. The program officially started in 1971-72. The team finished 10-2 that year and one of the key players was Debbie Meola, who would later be a key Fuccello assistant coach for 12 years.

The next two seasons produced back to back 12-4 campaigns. After three years, the program had put together a 34-10 mark but Fuccello wasn't 100 percent satisfied with her role as coach.

So she left. She took a one year leave of absence and Mike Cieri was named the new coach. Under Cieri's tenure the '74-75 team did well, jumping out to an 8-4 start before finishing 8-7.

The '75 club was a veteran team, led by Carol Jackson, Diane Amoscatto, Nancy Skrutskie, Fatima Anderson and Kathy Daniele. After that season, Fuccello opted to return to coaching. She returned to a very young team, short on varsity experience. In the meantime, girls basketball in the Essex County area was beginning to become very competitive.

Neighboring Nutley, coached by the now legendary Anna Melynik was putting together a dynasty. The Raiderettes of '76 and '77 won the county championship, with the '77 team also capturing state honors and finishing undefeated.

Fuccello knew the future of Belleville basketball would be through youth. So she began a feeder program in the elementary schools while coaching the varsity team.

The high school team struggled in '76 and '77, finishing 6-16 both years. But the program was picking up a great deal of interest in the lower levels and the early signs appeared in the '77-78 campaign.

Belleville struggled early that year but turned things around in January and finished 13-8 for the season. Young talents such as Karen Portuese, Karen Sica, Joyce Iacullo and Robin Giordano were giving the program credibility.

But it was one game late the '77-78 season that gave the entire program an immediate lift. It came in the state tournament and to this day, Fuccello still feels it was one of her favorite games of all time.

Belleville played host to defending state champion Nutley. The Raiderettes weren't the dominant team they were the previous year but they certainly had talent.

Nutley jumped out to a huge lead. At one stage of the first half, Nutley led by over 20 points and Fuccello had to be considering another leave of absence. But Belleville righted itself at the half and played a marvelous final two quarters. When it was all over, Belleville had rallied for a two point victory, and even though the team was stopped in the next round of the playoffs, the seed had been planted for future success.

The momentum carried over to '78-79 and Belleville, now known as the Lady Bucs, won a team high 16 games while losing just seven. The girls advanced to the semi finals of the county tournament before losing to Barringer. Iacullo, Portuese, Giordano, Rosie Leonidis and a freshman named Barbara Gundry all played well that year.

On February 1, 1979, the first Buc Shots column appeared in the Belleville Times and the subject, appropriately, was Karen Fuccello and her improving girls' basketball program. The headline read "Fuccello's first three years at BHS were quite successful."

It's the feeder system

Soccer team makes winning a habit

By Mike Lamberti

For the second straight year, the Belleville High School soccer program put out a marvelous product. Gino DePinto's team posted a 14-4-1 record, equaling the mark posted by the 1991 team.

"The team played very well," DePinto said. "At the beginning of the year, I didn't know how good this team would be. Last season, I had an idea of the talent. We were more of a veteran team. This year, we had a much younger team and we were able to do well."

"What I'm very happy about is that the program has developed a good feeder system. Our freshman and JV teams played very well this season. We have a good nucleus coming back on the varsity level. It's a good sign."

DePinto credits the feeder system to the tremendous development of the Belleville Soccer Association (BSA).

"A lot of the kids will be playing indoors in the BSA this winter, then playing outdoors in the spring. They'll be seeing a good deal of action through June, then we start preparing for the varsity season in August. The time goes by quickly."

The '92 Bucs lost to just two teams all season long. Don Bosco prevailed twice over Belleville in NNJIL play and Montclair defeated Belleville in the county and state tourney. The lone tie on the state was against NNJIL rival Hackensack.

It was indeed a team effort this fall. The post season accolades have been many and begin with DePinto, who was recognized by his peers in Essex County as the Coach of the Year.

They continue with NNJIL honors for a number of players.

On defense, Matt Kastner was named to the first team. In the midfield, Alex Alexandre was selected to the first team and at forward, Greg Groeling and Giuseppe Manella were first team honorees.

Groeling's season was unbelievable. Only a junior, the forward set team records with 29 goals this season and broke the school record for career goals. Groeling has 52 goals in his varsity career, eclipsing the old record of 47 set by Belleville Hall of Famer Santiago Borgia.

Groeling led the NNJIL and the county in scoring this fall.

Since Groeling has another year of varsity action ahead of him, it's safe to say he will be one of the key players in the state. County honors are surely ahead for him this fall.

and all state honors are also a very real possibility when the decisions are made late this week.

Second team NNJIL honors went to midfielder Marcello Gioclando and forward Rely Perez.

Goalkeeper Mike Percio was named Honorable Mention.

"Groeling and Kastner will be attending the state dinner (held last

Buc basketball season is lookin' good

By Mike Lamberti

A new basketball season is about to begin at Belleville High and boys coach Don Roll is optimistic that the campaign can meet or exceed last seasons output.

The Bucs tip off the regular season next Friday. Tentatively the game is supposed to be in Bloomfield, but Roll said it might be moved to Belleville if Bloomfield's gymnasium is not ready.

In the meantime, the Bucs are scrimaging. The team is at J.P. Stevens this afternoon at 4 p.m. Tomorrow, it's off to Lyndhurst and next Monday, Newark Central visits Belleville in the pre season finale. All scrimages commence at 4 p.m.

Roll, beginning his seventh year as coach, has a strong returning nucleus this winter.

"The kids have been practicing hard," Roll said. "We had over 80 kids come out just for varsity and JV. There has been plenty of competition for spots. We made the final cuts last weekend and we're pretty well set with our varsity lineup."

Belleville finished 14-10 last season. The program is trying for back to back winning seasons for the first time in nearly 30 years. Last season marked the second winning campaign in Roll's six fall seasons. The '87-88 club was 15-9. Prior to that, the last winning record was in 1974-75, when Dan Grasso's club posted a 13-10 mark.

The Bucs first scrimmage was last Friday against a strong Rutherford team.

"Rutherford has a 6'9" center," Roll said. "They're going to be a good team in Bergen County. It was a good test for our team."

Dennis DeWork and Ken Johansen are the co-captains. Both men are seniors and have three years of varsity experience.

DeWork, second on the team in scoring last year, should be the "go-to" guy this winter. The power forward has a good shooting touch and Roll is hoping DeWork attacks the basket with authority.

Johansen is the point guard this year. At 6'3" tall, Johansen provides a new dimension at the point.

"When was the last time you saw a Belleville team with a 6'3" point guard who can dunk the ball?" Roll asked. "Kenny is a smart player. We'll be relying on him to run the floor and make decisions. With his height, he will be able to drive the lane effectively and dish off or take the layup."

Other seniors who should contribute heavily include Kevin Johansen, Anthony Parzanese, Michael Christy and Westley Costa.

The junior class features Frank Means, Mike Mundy and Tyree Sumner. Sophomores SunBok Lee and Jim Landon should also see extended varsity time.

"Costa and Christy are strong players who can be effective in the paint," Roll said. "Parzanese gives us versatility by playing forward or guard. The same can be said of Kevin Johansen."

"Kevin is a smooth player who can score points. He doesn't make many mistakes."

Roll is very optimistic about the potential of Means. The junior can play the two guard or small forward and has good speed.

The coaching staff has a few new additions. Most notably, Ted Soc-haski is the JV coach. A 1988 graduate of Belleville High, Sochaski is the all time leading scorer in Belleville boys' basketball history.

After graduating from Belleville, Sochaski had a standout college basketball career at Bloomfield College and later, Caldwell College.

"Teddy is doing a tremendous coaching job," Roll said. "The kids really respect him and his knowledge of the game is a big plus. I'm really happy he is working with us."

From 1984-88, Sochaski amassed over 1700 points. In January of '88, he broke Abdel Anderson's scoring record. Anderson held the record for 13 years.

On the freshman level, John Crown is the new coach.

Richard "Don't Call Me Dick" Baker and John Fortunato return as volunteer coaches. Former Belleville player Dominick Straface is also providing some help on the coaching level.

Cheryl takes charge of girls' basketball

By Mike Lamberti

A new era in the history of Belleville girls' basketball has begun.

Cheryl Marion, a 1985 graduate of Belleville High School, is the new head coach of the Lady Bucs, replacing the legendary Karen Fuccello.

Fuccello, in her third year as the Director of Athletics at Belleville High, opted to give up the head coaching job after 21 years of coaching.

"I enjoyed every moment of coaching," Fuccello said. "But it's time for a change. With my responsibilities, I think it best to give someone new the opportunity."

While Marion is "new" as head coach, she is certainly not unfamiliar to those who know Lady Bucs basketball.

Ironically, it was a play by Marion in 1984 that provided Fuccello one of her best moments as a coach.

In February of 1984, Belleville battled Irvington in the semi finals of the Essex County championships at Belleville High. The game was tied late in regulation time. Belleville had the ball with time running down.

Marion, a junior forward, took a pass and launched a jump shot from 20 feet away. As Marion took the shot, Irvington's All American center Tannay Hammond attempted to block the shot. Marion got the shot away in time and the ball found the net.

Belleville won the game, 56-54 and a wild celebration broke out after the final horn.

We'll have more on the new coach in next weeks issue when we preview the 1992-93 Lady Bucs.

There is more about the marvelous coaching career of Karen Fuccello in this weeks Buc Shots.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Gymnastics program

The Belleville Recreation Department will again offer its always popular Gymnastics program for girls on Saturdays at the Friendly House. This activity is slated to begin on Dec. 5 and will continue through March. Girls in grades 1-6 will participate from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the Friendly House on Frederick Street. There is no fee required but girls must be Belleville residents. Interested participants should wear sneakers and sign up for the program with the instructors when they arrive. College and high school gymnasts will provide the supervision and will teach the basic fundamentals and routines.

Santa's Mailboxes

Belleville boys and girls are encouraged to get out their pens, pencils, crayons and start writing their lists to Santa Claus now.

Special mailboxes have been set up from now until Dec. 21 to accommodate the expected heavy mail. One is at Town Hall on Washington Avenue and the other is in front of the Silver Lake Fire House on Franklin Street.

Children can't miss the mailboxes. They're bright red and clearly marked Santa's Mail so no one has an excuse for not writing early.

By very special arrangements made between Mr. Claus and the Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs, all letter writers are guaranteed an answer. No stamp is necessary and this special mailbox is for Belleville residents only.

If children are too young to write, they are urged to draw a picture and Santa will get the message. Be sure to have someone print the child's name and address so that Santa can answer the letters.

Men's open basketball

The Men's Open Basketball program will begin on Dec. 5, 1 to 4 p.m. at the Middle School - Girls' Gym. Belleville resident men, over 18, can participate by showing the gym supervisor proof of residency. Non-residents will not be allowed in the gym.

Goalie Mike Percio was named to the NNJHL team.

Soccer team makes winning a habit weekend)," DePinto said. "Both should end up on the all state team." The team will lose five seniors. Kastner, Alexandre, Emanuel Arujo, Nicolai Castro and Perez all had outstanding careers.

Kastner played four years on the varsity and was one of the best defenders in school history. Alexandre contributed 14 assists this season and played three years of varsity soccer.

Arujo was a four year player and a hard nosed athlete. Castro played two years in the program and Perez played nearly two years and was a very valuable contributor this season. The junior class is led by Groeling, Manella, Percio, Giordano, Chris Imperatrice and Anthony Vitello.

Manella's offensive numbers were quite impressive. The junior tallied nine goals and tied Alexandre for the team lead in assists with 14.

The sophomore contingent is led by Joe Colucci, Steve Collett and Ivan Martin. Colucci and Collett were both starters on the team this fall.

The successful season continued on the JV level, where George Tortorello's club posted an 11-5-2 mark. The freshman team finished 5-5-3.

"This was the first time we had a freshman team play a complete schedule," DePinto said. "It was real good for those kids to play consistently."

It was a tremendous campaign for the Bucs. The past two seasons has produced a combined 28-8-2 mark and the reputation of a stand up program with a coach selected as the best in the county for 1992.

lo's girls out of the Shadows."

The glory years were getting closer. While the varsity posted winning seasons, the Suburban team for seventh and eighth graders dominated. In 1979-80, the Suburban team finished undefeated and won its championship. That team was paced by Jennifer Apicella, Dina DeAquino, Janine Renna and Loreli Wells.

In '79-80, Belleville jumped out to a 9-1 start. Fuccello missed a few weeks that season due to the flu, but Meola did a fine job filling in as head coach. The down turn in that season ironically came in Fuccello's first game back from illness.

Powerful East Orange came to town with an undefeated record and number one ranking in the state. Belleville played them very tough and appeared to have the game won. But some questionable officiating down the stretch turned the tide for the Panthers and East Orange held on for a two point win.

The victory should have been a moral one, but Belleville never got its momentum back after the game and struggled to a 12-10 record.

The glory years were now here, however. Starting from 1980, the next four years would be outstanding. Next week, we'll continue our look back at the Fuccello coaching tenure with a look at the four seasons which produced two seasons of 20 victories and two more campaigns that combined for a 32-13 record.

THIS WEEK'S QUIZ

College football is the big news now, with the major bowl games just three weeks away. With that in mind, Texas A & M will be playing Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl. These two teams did play each other in a previous Cotton Bowl. What year did that happen? Who won the game? One of those teams had a Heisman Trophy winner playing in the game. Who was he? Finally, who coached the two teams that year?

As a bonus question, when was the last time Alabama played for the national championship? Who coached the Tide that season? Who did Alabama play for the national championship?

The home has become the showpiece of the '90s

All the hard data might not be in yet, but the trend is clear: American Baby Boomers, who are the great majority of the consumer public, are trading in their nighttime designer duds for well-worn sweats and spending their evenings parked in a lounge chair instead of in a lounge.

The home is the showpiece of the '90s and the majority of today's consumers, the thirty and forty-something Baby Boomers, have transferred their interests from the conspicuous consumption of jewelry, expensive electronic toys and cars, to buying high-quality, high-value products for their homes.

Today's home is the central core of our lives — the place for raising children, recovering from the tensions of work, and entertaining our friends and family. These homes have to be both practical and beautiful," says Martha Stewart, entertaining expert and lifestyle consultant to Kmart.

Today's homemaker wants it all... the home, the job, the family, the garden. She's reworked the "superwoman" ideal to fit her new lifestyle. How can she accomplish this?

She demands the same high standards of the products and furnishings that she puts in her home — and of the retailers that sell them — that she demands of herself. She prizes convenience and time savings and she will only buy what she considers to be high quality and high value.

Stewart has made her contribution to help today's consumers with her line of beautiful — and affordable — bed and bath linens. They are produced with quality fabrics and workmanship exclusively for Kmart, one of the first American retailers to recognize and adapt to consumers' changing domestic needs.

Martha Stewart has created bedroom ensembles, bath accessories, and coordinating fabric packages for Kmart that all bear her distinctive, homey-yet-chic style. Her bed and bath products offer affordable elegance, high quality and ease of care — everything that spells value for today's consumers.

"I'm thrilled to be a part of Kmart," Stewart says. "It has been wonderfully challenging and exciting for me to work on such a large scale. To me, Kmart represents good value and quality for everyone."
