Mayor says she's 'delighted' at raid

SCI swoops down on Belleville's records; Noonan charged with having illegal office

Agents of the State Commission of Investigation took off 23 cartons of documents from the Municipal Building, the Department of Public Works, the Planning Board office and the Fire House, Friday. Town-ship Council President Dr. Frank Noonan announced, "I called

Dr. Noonan was scheduled to appear today in West Orange Municipal Court, charged with operating two medical offices in the same building in Belleville, in violation of the Zoning Law.

The charge was filed several weeks ago by Township Planner Robert Ringelheim, whose office was one of the prime targets of the SCI raid.

Ringelheim was "detained" in his office at 383 Washington Ave. amd then taken by police car to the Municipal Building, ostensibly to prevent his removing any docunents from his office.

The investigators also detained Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood in her office for most of the morning, as they removed files.

Both Ringelheim and Mrs. Hood expressed indignation at their detention.

Ringelheim's wife was told by a Department of Public Works employee, "Your husband has been arrested."

Fire Chief Walter Beresford was interviewed at the Fire House by an SCI investigator.

Two township officials, Chief Beresford and Township Manager Stephen Cuccio, were subpoenaed to appear yesterday (Wednesday) at an executive session of the SCI in

Conspicuously absent from the scene was Township Attorney Robert Giordano who was emphatic in stating he was not representing any official before the SCI.

A nervous Mayor Marina Perna announced Friday afternoon, "I am delighted at the investigation."

Dr. Noonan said he had sent a letter to the SCI charging discrep-ancies in pay given to fire depart-ment officials in 1990.

He said he had not informed the other members of the Council because he did not think they were

"I second that," Councilman Bill Cook said.

Cuccio insisted he had known nothing of the pending raid. Mayor Perna also said she had known nothing about it. Her response brought a demand from Messina for lie detector tests.

Two years ago, Dr. Noonan questioned the payments given to Fire officers in 1990, charging that "over-time" pay was excessive. At the time, administration officials replied that the payments reflected retroactive pay increases that had been ordered by a state arbitrator, after the previous commission gov-ernment had refused to negotiate with the Fire Department personnel on a labor contract.

Mayor Perna complained that the administration of Township Manager Bertrand Kendall had refused to investigate anonymous tips about alleged wrongdoing.

Messina and Cook both replied, "I throw unsigned letters away.

Neither Dr. Noonan nor Mayor Perna went so far as to say that criminal acts had been discovered, or even suspected. Dr. Noonan declined to be specific about the discrepancies he reportedly found. He admitted that the Essex County Prosecutor's office had dismissed his allegations, before he turned to the SCI.

Previously, the Concerned Cit-izens of Belleville had requested the Community Affairs Department to investigate Belleville, and had been turned down.

Feisty lady, 86, helps nab pickpocket suspects

Detective Captain William Escott reports that an 86-yearold Lyndhurst lady gave pursuit to a pickpocket suspect at the K-Mart, Friday, and alert store security personnel held three suspects and recovered two wallets.

The Lyndhurst lady was in the store at 3 p.m. when a woman asked her about the location of some products.

At the same time, the Lyndhurst lady told police, the questioner was withdrawing a wallet from the shopper's purse.

"Stop that woman! She has my wallet!" the lady shouted.

Two security guards, Rob Wasik and Sazm Vesicheili, went after the fleeing suspect and caught up with her as she was entering a car in the parking lot. Another woman and a man were in the car.

The security guards held all three spects until police arrived. Police Officers Pat Goldrick and Robert Capece arrived, as did Detective Ronald Edwards.

Police said that they recovered the Lyndhurst lady's wallet and found another wallet whose owner was unaware it had been taken. The second victim was still shopping in the K-Mart at the time.

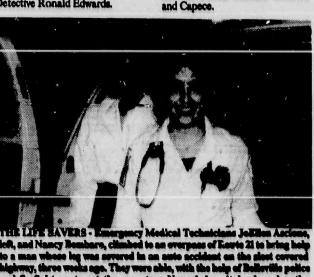

Denise Williams, 31, of Newark, the alleged wallet thief, was charged on two counts of theft and held in $1,000 bail.

Williams, 33, of Antoine Irvington, was charged with two counts of conspiracy, and was turned over to Middlesex County authorities, who had a warrant for his arrest.

Dolores Robinson, 34, of New-ark, was held in $1,000 bail on two counts of constillacy.

Captain Escott commended the K-Mart security guards for their said, "but that was the same day he was leaving." Cameron addressed the meeting from the audience in the new Council Chamber, following a talk by Boorman.

Boorman recently developed the Senior Citizen housing project in Rutherford, using Housing and Urban Development funding.

Boorman noted that only 20 percent of the apartments went to Rutherford residents, but he said that 80 percent of the apartments were occupied by people who had once lived in Rutherford, or had connections in Rutherford such as church attendance.

He said that using federal money meant that the town would have no control over who would get the apartments, but he said that by opening up the applications on a first come, first served basis, the tendency was for local applicants to

On Feb. 3, 1943, the troopship Dorchester was torpedoed by a German submarine 150 miles west of Cape Farewell, Greenland. Aboard was a complement of 904 people, including members of the crew, American soldiers en route to England, civilian workers and a group of Danish citizens. A cruiser assigned to protect the troopship had gone in pursuit of another submarine, and the ship had fallen behind the convoy to which it had been attached. • • • The attack occurred at 3:55 a.m. All aboard had undergone shipboard drills for emergencies, but the ship went down in 20 minutes, trapping most of those aboard. Lifejackets were distributed but four soldiers had none. At that point, four Chaplains gave their own lifejackets to the soldiers. They remained on the slanting deck of the sinking ship, their arms entwined, each in prayer. The final reported toll of lives was 675, including the men of God. They were the Reverend John P. Washington, a Roman Catholic priest who had served parishes in North Arlington amd Kearny; the Reverend Clark V. Poling, a Methodist minister; Rabbi Alexander D. Goode, and the Reverend George L. Fox, a minister of the Dutch Reformed Church. ● ● ● The act of Supreme Sacrifice of the four Chaplains has been memorialized in various ways. The Rev. Mr. Poling's father, a world famed clergyman, dedicated the Four Chaplains Chapel in his Methodist church in Philadelphia, in 1961. Interfaith observances of the chaplains' heroism take place throughout the country. Locally, the 50th Anniversary Mass for Father Washington will be offered on Sunday, February 7 at 11 a.m. in St. Stephen's Church in Kearny, where the priest had served before entering the Army of the United States during World War II. Ken Williams, who is New Jersey State Captain, Tin Can Sailors the organization of Navy veterans who served on the effective and highly dangerous Destroyers, will lead a contingent of Tin Can Sailors to the Church. The unit is participating in the next Belleville Veterans Day Parade and marched in last year's parade. Williams' ship served in the Pacific Theater. He notes that the German submarine which sank the Dorchester was tracked down and destroyed by the Navy several months later.

The connections between the Roosevelt Family and Belleville are underscored by the research of Ed O'Neil who confirms that in 1789, Nicholas J. Roosevelt, a great-uncle to both Franklin D. Roosevelt and Theodore Roosevelt, joined Brigadier General Philip Schuyler in forming the New Jersey Copper Mines Association in Belleville. Josiah Hornblower, who brought the first steam engine to America in 1753, was adviser to Schuyler and Roosevelt. Hornblower resuscitated the steam engine - which had been put out of action by a fire in 1768 - and put it back into operation to pump water from the copper mines here and in North Arlington. • • • Roosevelt decided that it was time to make steam engines in America, rather than wait for English imports to arrive. Accordingly, he formed the Belleville Engine Works, the first such foundry shop in America, and Roosevelt named the plant "Soho" after the engine factory in Birmingham, England. In the same way that the Industrial Revolution was being fostered in England, it was fostered independently in the United States, based on the engineering skills of both Hornblower and Roosevelt. Besides powering the Polacca, the first experimental steamboat ever sailed in America, Roosevelt's engines powered the early Philadelphia water works. Roosevelt later developed a steamboat that navigated the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, from Pittsburgh to New Orleans. He stayed on in Belleville for several decades. before moving to upstate New York. But the Roosevelt connections continued. James Roosevelt, son of F.D.R., served as President of the National Grain Yeast Corporation, which was founded in Belleville in 1927 for the manufacture of bakers' compressed yeast, and Franklin D. Rosoevelt, Jr. 20 worked as a salesman for the firm. Belleville hasn't forgotten the Koosevelts, either. Koosevelt Avenue is the first street you meet as you come south from Nutley on Main Street. And Roosevelt is still a magical name to Belleville people who survived the Depression and World War II.

When Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch heard that the State Commission of Investigation was carting away every piece of paper from the Municipal Building, he immediately rushed to the basement Men's Room, throwing his body across the doorway. "They'd never dare!" he shouted, defending his favorite refuge. Members of Zilch's organization, the Kool Kukumber Boys, confused the event with Spring Housecleaning, and accordingly brought along discarded paperwork of their own. Which is why even now the SCI is poring over records of four beer parties and the ill-fated attempt to rescue Zilch from the New York City Parking Violations Bureau by hiring an Army tank. The tank, of course, got through the Lincoln Tunnel toils, but the resulting damages make for wild reading. • • • Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten, our Copy Cat at Town Hall, got into an argument with Susan Whelan, acting-secretary to the Township Manager. "I am not signing or punching out any time card!" Baldassaro screamed. "But, it's the rule for everybody, even the Department Heads!" "Oh, yeah?" snarled Baldassaro. "Does that include Tommy Salzano, last seen going out for lunch with the Manager on December 5, 1992?" "As Township Assessor, he is very busy," Susan admonished Baldassaro. "And at least he does productive work." "If you call reducing taxes of the major landlords productive work, he's doing a great job," Baldassaro said. "In the meantime, I'm hustling cat food to some of the Senior Citizens who have to make up the shortfall. Furthermore, no cat has punched a time card since the First Dynasty in Egypt, and I'm not breaking with tradition!"

National Geography Bee Middle School winner

Jon-Paul Lewis, an eighth grader at Belleville Middle School, won the school's National Geography Bee held on Jan. 13. Runner-up was Jason Stauss, a seventh grader.

Thirty-five seventh and eighth graders participated in the first round of the National Geography

The school-level bee, at which students answered oral questions on geography, was the first round in the fifth annual National Geography Bee, which is sponsored by National Geographic WORLD, the Society's magazine children, and Amtrak.

The kick-off for this year's Bee was the week of Jan. 4, with thousands of schools around the United States, the District of Columbia, and five U.S. territories participating. The school winners, including Jon-Paul Louis, will now take a written test; up to 100 of the top scorers in each state and territory will be eligible to compete in an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C., for state champions and their teacher escorts to participate in the National Geography Bee national championship on May 25 and 26. The first-place national winner will receive a $25,000 college scholarship; the second-place winner, a $15,000 scholarship; and the third-place winner, a $10,000 scholarship.

Alex Trebek, host of "Jeopardy" will moderate the national finals, which will air as a prime-time special on the Public Broadcasting Service at 8 p.m. May 26.

The National Geographic Society developed the National Geography Bee in response to a growing concern about the lack of geographic knowledge among young people in the United States. A 10-country Gallup survey conducted for the Society in 1988 and 1989 found that people in the U.S. ages 18 to 24 — the youngest group surveyed - knew less about geography than young people in any of the other countries in the survey.

The National Geographic Society, with nearly 10 million members, has as its mission the "increase and diffusion of geographic knowledge." In addition to the National Geography Bee, the Society sponsors a number of other geography education initiatives, including the Summer Geography Institute for teachers, the National Geographic Society Education Foundation, and the Geographic Alliance Network, which is currently working in almost every state and Puerto Rico.

Belleville High School's computer science classes recently tried to lift the spirits of some of our U.S. cervice people during the holiday

Miss Kathy Partus' computer science classes wrote letters using their word processing skills to the service people in the Aleution Islands, on board ships in Korea, and Burope to show their apprecia-tion for their services. With the help of the printshop classes, they were able to make cards and signs. Students enclosed an item of interest with their letters such as: Christmas cards, NFL Standings, com-ics, news articles, pictures, and cross word puzzles.

The students were happy to take part in this assignment. Tom Popowich, a BHS student, said, "you have to remember that there are many people who care and do something about it. That is why my classes and I are writing. To show that we do care." Partus said, "I was proud to witness the students' enthusiasm and sensibility to our service people — especially at this holiday season!"

Math Club elects officers

BIRS Math Club advisors, Mr. Drode and Mr. Eccles, recently announced the new 1993 club officers as follows: President, Sandip Desai; Vice President, Jonathan Cummings; Secretary, Prashant Maddipatla; and Treasurer, Michael DeVivo. There are also four class representatives: Jose Padilla, senior class; Heba El-Monairy, junior class; Chinton Pancholi, sophomore class; and Bea Hu, freshman class.

The Math Club accepts any stu-dents who are interested in mathematics. The members will be competing in interscholastic competitions throughout the school year. The students involved in the Math Club will be tutoring others who may be having problems in their math classes. The club also works on mathematical projects, and members will be working with computers to enhance programming and language skills.

The Friendly Visitors Program, directed by Eloise Heacock, has been providing free services for the past fifteen years, to homebound senior citizens over sixty years of age in Belleville, Bloomfield, and

A professional staff, experienced in the fields of psychology, social work, nursing, education, and physical therapy, oversee a corps of volunteers who are trained to bring friendship and support to hom-ebound senior citizens. Volunteers visit and/or telephone homebound senior citizens on a regular basis, giving them access to their community. The program was designed to try to keep seniors in their homes rather than in institutions.

Volunteers, ranging in age from that of high school students, college students, full time employed men and women, to seniors themselves, participate in a training program and then are matched with a senior living near the volunteer's home.

First, referrals of homebound seniors are made to the Friendly Visitors Program from agencies, neighbors, friends, or relatives. Next, an initial interview takes place to see if that senior is appropriate for the service. The volunteer's first visit establishes the extent of the services to be provided and helps to build a rapport. Supervision is given to the volunteer / senior relationship through monthly volunteer meetings.

Anyone interested in spending one hour each week bringing friendship and understanding to a homebound senior in their community is urged to volunteer by calling the Friendly Visitors Program at 450-

UR OPINION

The Clock of Life

The clock of life is wound but once And no one has the power, To tell just where the hands will stop At late, or early hour.

To lose one's wealth is sad indeed, To lose one's health is more — To lose one's soul is such a loss As no one can restore.

The present only is our own To seek to do God's will, Tomorrow holds no promise, for The clock may then be still.

Let's really investigate

We suspect that the State Commission of Investigation had little choice but to investigate the charges of improper spending made by Mayor Marina Perna and Council President Dr. Frank Noonan.

With the vagueness that has endeared him to the public for years, Doc Noonan said the charges were based on salary statements issued to Fire Department officers back in 1990.

There were obvious "discrepancies" between what the officers received and what they were supposed to receive insofar as an alert listener could tell from the good doctor's statements to the press, Friday.

Doc Noonan frequently talks the same way he writes prescriptions, in the illegible tradition of the medical profession, so we base our surmises on what we think we heard.

So far as the Belleville Times can figure it, he is referring to payments of retroactive raises given to the Fire Officers at the order of a state arbitrator, back in 1990.

The arbitrator ordered parity between salaries paid officers of the Fire and Police Departments. He also ordered retroactive raises of 6 percent a year for 1989 and 1988.

As a result, 1990 pay forms would certainly indicate "discrepancies" because the Fire Officers received their regular pay plus the additional thousands of dollars owed them.

Doc Noonan was well aware of this, because he made an issue of the extra payments two years ago, when he apparently thought that overtime payments were involved.

If this is the discrepancy he reported to the SCI, then he was not being completely honest. Perhaps he had more genuine faults to find. We do not know.

Neither we nor the minority members of the Township Council believe that Mayor Perna or the Township Manager were unaware of the pending SCI action.

We think that Mayor Perna lent the prestige of her title to Doc Noonan's claims of improprieties, leaving the SCI with little choice but to investigate.

We believe that Mayor Perna and Doc Noonan threw in all the unsigned statements that have been floating around, charging improprieties. The Belleville Times has looked into most, if not all, of these charges and found them to be worth the signatures they carried.

We think that by taking the action they did, Mayor Perna and Doc Noonan added more damage to Belleville's reputation.

But since the SCI is now involved, perhaps it will include in its inquiries the strange and intimate relationship between the Rasmussen Insurance Company, Mayor Perna, Doc Noonan, Township Manager Stephen Cuccio, and Sam Papa, the grey eminence who appears to pull the strings on the Township Council and whose connections are not at all clear.

We do not welcome the SCI to Belleville, because of the notoriety its visit brings the good name of the Township. But since it is here, we hope it will not go away before collecting more substantial information than that provided by the Mayor, Doc Noonan and the anonymous letter writers.

OUR OPINION

Educational facts

Upon reading news reports purported to convey the results of resolutions voted upon at the December 21, 1992 Board of Education meeting, we the undersigned would like to offer clarification via a presentation of the facts.

Some time ago a committee at the Board of Education, composed of three Board members, negotiated the contract settlement with the secretary's association, resulting in a 6%/ 3% split guide increase for the 1992-93 school year. This equates to a 7 1/2 percent annual increase in salary

By past practice the central office non-unit secretaries would subsequently receive the same increase as the association group settlement.

Obviously, anyone familiar with this past practice would be confused, as are the undersigned, regarding the split voting of the Board that occurred on December 21st on the salary resolutions. This confusion is magnified by the fact that one of the Board members voting against all these salary resolutions was on the original negotiating committee that approved the 6%/3% split guide for the secretary's association

To clarify the administrative salary increases it is necessary to know the total negotiated settlement. Yes, the 1992-93 salary percentile increase of 4% for the top three administrators amounted to $3,748.00, $3,536.00 and $3,478.00 respectively. However, the net effect of reductions in perks reduced the dollar increase to a net of approximately 3.5%. Likewise, for the 1993-94 salary year the 3% increase, with the reduction in perks, reduced the dollar increase to a net of approximately 2.56%.

After approximately seven months of intense negotiating by the Board acting as a committee of the whole, the Board directed Board Counsel to present its final unanimously agreed upon contract offer at the above mentioned percentages to central office administrators. Throughout these negotiations it was continuously stressed by all Board members that it was imperative that our final offer be unanimous and this was confirmed by the unanimous signing at the final settlement by the entire Board.

After reading one of the letters to the editor, the undersigned realized how distorted the reports have become as to the salary resolution voting at the December 21st public meeting. Just for the record, once again, Board of Education members are not compensated and hence do not benefit from these resolutions. The undersigned are totally unaware of any "new furniture for Board of Education members." We are even more puzzled as to where we would put such furniture! In closing, we the undersigned would like to commend Howard Klausner for his editorial commenting in the December 30th issue of the Belleville Times where in he states "Belleville gets more education for its tax dollar than any other town in Essex County.'

Catches to HUD

At the recent public Town Council meeting of January 12th, Belleville taxpayers were committed to pay an initial $400,000 for 70 units as Senior Citizen housing. (Senior citizen is generally understood to be available to qualifying citizens at very low rental cost). The Ordinance for the $400,000-Bond issue to acquire 5 acres from Essex County for the project, was approved by the Council in spite of stiff opposition by citizens in attendance, wanting the purchase of the property to include the condition: "intended for Senior Citizen housing for Belleville residents only"... Mayor Marina Perna insisted that this wording could not be included in the transfer of the property (I can think of only one property of the property (I can think of only one property of the property o property. (I can think of only one reason, that it would be discriminatory")

Obviously the restriction also precludes qualification of Federal HUD money. Upon (my) questioning, the Mayor also stated that there is yet no plan who will build the units, or how, but she indicated that it probably will be private developers, with a resulting rental of between $550 and $800 pmonth. That factor will of course eliminate a very substantial number of the pool of some 8000 "eligible" residents in need of "Senior Citizen housing, so that the proposed 70 units (a number arrived at without study) may be quite adequate, but for the sad reason that those with the most need "for relief" won't be able to afford them..

So what will we have? We will still have seniors on fixed incomes with their backs to the walls because of disastrous annual property tax increases, partly due to exorbitant salary increases, and $2 prescription plans on top of most liberal health insurance packages. Did you know, for example, that the $2 prescription plan for the school system employees / administrators is costing the taxpayers some $400,000??!!

Rather than concentrating on creating 70 housing units for seniors (at what cost to the taxpayers?) a serious effort is in order to lower the property tax burden for everyone by some $400 to $500, like the most recent increase, by "cut backs and give backs" as is being done in the private sector.

A Minister's plea

To the editor:

Between Friday, Jan. 15 and Sunday morning Jan. 17, the two lamps attached to the main church building of the Belleville Reformed Church had been stolen. This is a tragedy since there is great historical significance concerning the church.

The church serves all the community and hopefully has a special place in this community. Several years ago a historical plaque was stolen and each time something like this occurs it damages not only the way the church looks but hurts the community as well. I hope we as a community can educate those around us concerning the importance of our roots and historic structures.

The Rev. Wm. Moheit Belleville Reformed Church

 ANYBODY interested in the work of historical societies might well plan to attend the quarterly meeting of the Nutley Historical Society on January 28, 8 pm, at 65 Church Street. Featured at the meeting is a presentation by Ms. Jeanne Van Steen who will speak on the origin of the Nutley Historical Society and present slides of "Nutley's Past". Readers are urged to attend the meeting and enjoy scenes of old Nutley, which in many cases, no longer exist. This year, the organization will also be celebrating its 50th anniversary. President Peter Balma is anxious to kick off the 50th Anniversary Membership Drive with a large attendance at the January 28th event.

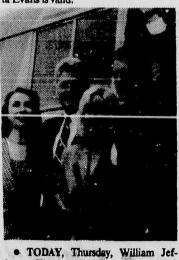

• LAST Saturday was a great day in Essex County for Republican Gubernatorial candidate, Chris Whitman. Reflecting all the trappings of a candidate for national office, Whitman utilized "advance men" to case the area before her appearance. Accompanied by a large entourage, Whitman made her appearance. Her supporting cast at a rally that drew several hundred people were Essex County Republican Committee Executive Ralph Salerno, State Senator John Scott, Assemblywoman Marion Crecco and former State Senator Dick Zimmer. Three aides completed the complement of Chris Whitman's personal staff. Essex Republican Chairman John Renna is supporting Chris Whitman's principal opponent, former New Jersey Attorney General Cary Edwards of Bergen County. A second Bergen County Senator, Dr. Gerald Cardinale, is campaigning for Whitman's election. There are seventy communities in Bergen County and a number of mayors are also supporting Whitman. With split support in Essex and Bergen Counties, the task of Cary Edwards to beat Whitman is made more difficult. Leaders of major Republican counties are reported to be behind Whitman including Monmouth, Union and Morris Counties.

• BELLEVILLE Fire Chief Walter Beresford and Belleville Municipal Town Manager, Stephen Cuccio, were requested to appear before the State Commission of Investigation. The Commission was created in 1968 as part of an effort to combat organized crime and official corruption. 27 boxes of municipal records were seized by agents of the SCI. The request for the state investigation was initiated by Dr. Frank Noonan, and the request received the resounding endorsement of Mayor Marina Perna. During the period that the SCI agents were in Town Hall, members of the Believille Police Department were dep-loyed to various offices where the workers, in effect, were held hostage. One female worker was requested by a policeman to open her purse, which she did. Who ordered the Gestapo tactics by the Police Department remains a mystery. The Town Manager reportedly has denied any knowlege of such action. Any one out there have any guess who the second suspect would be? I have to believe the Belleville Town Hall Civil Service employees are dedicated and honest, beginning with our Town Clerk, Mary Lou Hood.

The developments have raised cries of a Recall Election. A reported curiosity in the council members' voting pattern is a report that when the Rasmussen insurance plan was presented to the council recently, Mayor Marina Perna abstained from voting. When the action on the Rasmussen firm was taken at an earlier date, reportedly, Mayor Marina Perna voted in favor of the resolution?

• IN a deliberate effort to increase participation of women in municipal affairs, Nutley Mayor Carmen Orechio recently nominated and the Board of Commissioners approved Mrs. Yolanda Perrotta Evans as a member of the Board of Adjustment, commonly known as the "Zoning Board". The person Mrs. Evans was replacing was former board member, Pat Little, Jr. Early on, Mayor Orechio informed Mr. Little that he intended to replace him with a female. Soon thereafter, Mr. Little unleashed a campaign to retain his seat, even going so far as to say that only the Board of Adjustment had authority to nominate and elect its mem-

The record indicates that Mr. Little received his original appointment ess that has been in existence in the Nutley town Commission since the creation of the Board of Adjustment. Four years ago, he was nominated by then Mayor John Kelly and approved by the incumbent Board of Commissioners. Now, Mr. Little says the law doesn't permit such a procedure. Town Attorney Anthony Drollas upholds the system in place and has given his legal opinion that the appointment of Mrs. Yolanda Perrotta Evans is valid.

Hospital needs helping hands

Adult men and women are needed for volunteer jobs at Montclair Community Hospital.

Any day, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 9 a.m., the hospital needs patient transporters to move patients from one hospital area to another.

From 9 a.m. to noon, clerical helpers are needed in various departments.

Saturdays, 8:30 a.m. to noon, a people-oriented individual is needed to work with patients coming in for free health screenings. The volunteer will help the patients complete their paperwork and direct them to screening areas.

For further information, call the Volunteer Office at (201) 744-7300, Extension 4279.

Cancer Care offers 'For Men Only' support group

Cancer Care of NJ is sponsoring special eight-session "For Men Only" education and support group in its Millburn office at 241 Millburn Avenue, Millburn. The sessions are specifically designed to help male cancer patients gain emotional support and exchange ideas about coping with cancer. The group is open to all male cancer patients who want to use their cancer experience as a turning point to make changes in their lives. The group will meet on Thursday afternoons starting Feb. 4 and will be led by a professional social worker. The sessions are free of charge and advanced registration is required. More than cookies

e people in the community see the image of Girling as "cute little girls who sell cookies and go camping." Atthough there are two ongoing activities, there is much more of the Old Scout cookie sale than meets the eye.

nk your readers would be interested to know that the properation for the sale begins long before the public even sees the Scouts. In December and early January, girls and adults work in partnership to form goals that will enable them to participate in a wide range of Oirl Scout activities. While contribute their training for the 1993 sale, girls have learned to make a commitment to their troop and themselves, how to levelop a sense of responsibility, how to deal with customers as sense of measurement, and to practice the early these of money management. These are all skills that can be responsed to other management of the level of money management. ansferred to other parts of their lives as they grow older.
It is important to Greater Essex that the public understands the role of the cookie sale as a program activity. There are not many organizations that can make this statement.

Chet endorses Herb

On January 5, 1993, I had the distinct honor and privilege to attend the swearing in ceremony of Congressman Herbert Klein, Democrat 8th District in Washington, D.C. As I observed the ceremony that took place, I was given a chance to reflect and come to a strong opinion on our new Congressman.

It is my view the people of the 8th congressional district have made a very wise choice. Congressman Klein has valuable assets and inherit qualities that are not learned, but gifted to individuals. His honesty, sincerity and compassion for people will make him one of New Jersey's most well respected members in Congress. Congressman Klein campaigned on his qualifications and his record of representation of all the people, not just special interest groups. We the people who have elected Congressman Klein fully know he cannot perform this enormous task without our input and help. I wish to express to our new congressman a helping hand extended in the spirit of cooperation between myself and the Belleville Democratic County Committee. My hearty congratulations and further success to our shining star of the Democratic Party in Congress.

Worthy cause

To the editor:

This past Sunday evening, an affair was held to raise funds for someone who is in need of a van for transportation to school and other medical facilities.

Dr. Noonan, his office employees, and the family of Manny Edwards Brown did a tremendous job to raise about $10,000 in only two weeks.

Manny was only 12 years old Sunday and all who helped and worked to make this day a happy one for the Brown family did a fine job by donating their time and energy to collect monies for this worthy cause and for a local boy.

Many business, civic organizations, clubs, seniors, the Concerned Citizens for Belleville, came together to honor this fine Belleville child, who is in need. Many people came forward to help in this cause, no matter what. They did it together. Every religion, every color, Republicans, Democrats, it was beautiful.

Manny's grandmother did a fine job, also his mother should be blessed.

In Belleville, we can do it, together.

Manny still needs help. Those who didn't give to this fine cause, still can. Send your check to Rhonda Brown, co Dr. Noonan, 272 Holmes St., Belleville, NJ 07109.

I was glad to be part of this good cause.

Silver Lake wish list

The Silver Lake Business Council over the past several months has received many ideas and suggestions to add to our ever growing "wish list."

One of these proposals, concerning a Township Grantsman, was reviewed by our Government Affairs Committee.

It should be noted that the Townshipaleady has a grant coordinator in the position of Neighborhood Preservation Program Coordinator (Robert Shumayko). Grant coordination is a part of the responsibility of a gramtsman. It is based on this that we make the following recommendation.

• A Grants Committee be formed consisting of the Township

Manager, the Planning Director, and a Grant Coordinator. This committee would have the combined experience and qualifications superior to an outside consultant.

The Manager and the Planning Director would act in an advisory and consulting capacity with the Manager as overseer and the Planning Director setting priority needs in community development.

• The current NPP Coordinator position be expanded to Gramt Coordinator for the entire Township. The Coordinator would be responsible for the initiation, application and administration of the grants program. This expanded position would, of course, require additional compensation, but not equal to an outside consultant.

While an outsider spreads his loyalty among several towns, an in-house Gramt Coordinator would provide Belleville with a dedicated, hands-on mechanism for grant procurement.

Lawrence R. Walsh Acting Chairman

Silver Lake Business Council

Editor's Note: Mr. Walsh's letter reflects the well founded appreciation of the work performed by Bob Shumayko. The Township Council has voted to rehire the John Bruno Organization as Grantsman, at $29,000 a year. This should not preclude using the services of Mr. Shumayko as a grant coordinator, in view of the outstanding job he has been doing.

Folk art fish display

The library has mounted an exhibit of hand-carved fish and books about aquarium fish for the month of January. Joan Taub, in charge of the library exhibits, describes the display as "A very colorful break from the cold gray colors of January." Some of the fish are examples of Mexican folk art while others are contemporary American gallery pieces.

The library is always seeking displays of collectibles, the work of local artists, particularly carvings and small constructions, for its second floor display cases. Please contact Joan Taub, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. weekdays, to arrange an exhibit. If you draw, are a painter or photographer with a body of framed work, please contact David S. Is your child truly gifted Prosed parents think their child is the estest and smartest ever born. But have do they tell if the youngster is truly gifted?

Usually, a young child who knows in municess, learns the alphabet and is an early reader is considered bright. But these are not good indicators of the really gifted. Parents of gifted children report different attributes than parents of average children, especially conceening amemory and abstract thinking.

To illustrate memory, parents report that a child as young as three may bonember something that happenedia year ago, or he may recall where to turn to get to a friend's house, visited only once.

Advanced abstract thinking in children is marked by their vocabulary. For example, a pre-schooler who understands intangible words like by of saliness is showing giftedness. Such children are curious about the meaning of words and use them in new ways. Our research shows that parents who sense that their child is gifted are right at least half the time.

Parents can tell if their child is gifted very early. Before the age of one, these four signs can be detecCollege, Upper Montclair. She is employed as an artist.

Friendly Visitors meet Jan. 21 at Fewsmith Church

The Friendly Visitors Program of Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, will begin its series of volunteer meetings 2 p.m. Jan. 21 at Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, 444 Union Ave., Belleville.

Montclair attorney Constance Bourne, who is an elder law attorney, will speak on gift bequests which can be the answer when preparing a charitable donation from one's estate will.

Charitable donations as gift bequests may be directed towards a program such as the Friendly Visitors. The program has received gift contributions during its Friends of the Program drive, although the gift bequest may be presented at any time. Funding of the Friendly Visitors Program could move to a new level through gift bequests.

The volunteer meetings are open to the public to access information from scheduled speakers. Men and women interested in joining the volunteer group are always welcome at monthly volunteer meetings.

New volunteers are introduced to the program through a brief orientation session. Daytime and evening orientation appointments are available.

Friendly Visitors volunteers provide a friendly visit, grocery shop or a daily reassurance telephone call to the older adult population of Belleville, Bloomfield or Nutley. Anyone interested may contact the Friendly Visitors Program at 450-

Belleville !

The Cobras, a division one team in the Belleville Soccer Association and sponsored by Viola Brother's Lumber, battled one of the stronger teams in New Jersey and tied the Ironbound Strikers, 0-0.

The game came on the heels of Belleville's first win of the season, a 6-1 triumph over Jersey City. For the season, the Cobras are 1-1-3.

In the Jersey City game, the Cobras started slowly, with injuries slowing down the chemistry of the team. Belleville picked up steam as the game progressed and won with Stan Saja scoring the hat trick and adding two assists.

Matt Kastner and Rocco Constantino tallied two and one goal respectively. Nikolai Castro had three Although Belleville won by a comfortable margin, the team did not play especially well, and head coach Tim Cook advised his team accordingly after the game was over.

Against Ironbound, the result was much different even though the final decision was not a win. The Cobras displayed a great deal of intensity, effort and execution. A capacity crowd was pleased with Belleville's effort against one of the leagues highest scoring teams.

Goalkeeper Mike Percio played perhaps the best game of his soccer career in blanking Ironbound. Team captain Steve Vogel, Kastner and Saja played solid defense, double teaming the opponent at every opportunity and not allowing opposing forwards to get a clean shot on goal.

Belleville had chances to win with Greg Groeling and Redy Perez displaying speed and courage while blasting shots at the Ironbound goalie.

Although the game ended in a tie, the Cobras should be congratulated on a marvelous effort against a very good team.

JUNIOR BUC WRESTLERS IMPROVE TO 2-0 The Junior Buc wrestling team has posted big road wins agginst Glen Ridge and Millburn. The defending Essex County league champions blasted Glen Ridge by an 86-6 count and recording 12 pins in the process

Pinners included Dave Ilaria (2:40), Tim Hands (.20), Greg Ilaria (1:35), Anthony Conte (:53), Frank Zarro (1:30), Lou Scanzillo (:59), Mike Biase (:59), Mike Gonzalez (:59), Jim Palo (:40), John Fitzgibbon (:45), Chris Zarro (:51) and Joe Spina (1:40).

The Junior Bucs have put together a record of 46-1 over the past five years. Coaches Lou Riccardi and Mike Conte were looking forward to the tough Caldwell tourney and a quad scrimage in Clifton to prepare for the always tough Bloomfield team. That match is set for tonight, at Bloomfield.

The remaining home matches are against Livingston on January 28, Cedar Grove on January 30 and Maplewood on February 6. All matches are at Belleville High. The Livingston match starts at 7:30 p.m. while the Cedar Grove and Maplewood battles commence at 3:30 p.m.

Back to the Karen Fuccello era. When we last discussed Fuccello's coaching career, we were beginning the Jennifer Apicella, Dina DeAquino and Loreli Wells era.

After a 15-7 record in 1980-81, Fuccello had plenty of optimism that the '81-82 team could set a school record for most wins in a season by a girls' baske ball team. The old mark was 16, set back in the 1978-79 campaign.

If you were a fan of the Lady Bucs in the early 80's, you'll probably remember the 1981-82 season was a wild one. It was whacky because Belleville did not have a consistent home court on which to play on.

The gymnasium at Belleville High School had major leaks in the roof and every time it rained, the floor would become soaked and there was a big fear of the gymnasium floor buckling beyond repair.

Consequently, many of the games were moved to the Junior High School gym, and if you know that facility, you know that three dribbles down court is a fast break. You should also know that out of bounds in the junior high is two steps past the line.

Anyway, the fast breaking Lady Bucs enjoyed the pace of the junior high and were hard to beat there. Apicella was already closing in on 1,000 career points, having scored 457 in her freshman year over (continued on page 13)

annual dinner set for Friday, February 26 at the Chandelier.

It was noted in last weeks issue that seven individuals had been selected, but the Hall of Fame committee has advised the Belleville Times that there are eight inductees. The missing athlete from last weeks issue is Laura Caruso, a standout basketball and softball player at Belleville High from 1984-

Caruso joins Carolana Salerno, the late William Bennett, Dave Rothwell, Richard Ruffalo, Brian Cook, Desiree Johansen and Michael Gibbons in the class of '93.

The 1982 Belleville girls' crew team, which won a national championship for coaches Sam Gluffrida and Scott Fabian, will also be inducted. It's the second team to receive Belleville Hall of Fame honors. The 1976 boys' crew team, a senior eight shell, was inducted in

Last week, we began a profile of the inductees by looking back at the careers of Salerno, Ruffalo and Cook.

This week, the profile continues with Johansen.

A 1986 graduate of Belleville High School, Johansen defined the term "class act".

She was one of the hardest working athletes ever to grace the Blue and Gold of BHS. She was a fine tennis, basketball and softball player. As far as softball honors are concerned, she was a first team, NNJIL shortstop, an all county, all area and all state player and a four year starter for the Lady Buc softball team.

Not so coincedentally, the Lady Bucs put together a 97-21 record during Johansen's career from 1983-86. Johansen was a third baseman as a freshman and had a tough assignment at the hot corner.

Johansen was replacing an all state player in Nancy Coffey, who had been graduated after the 1982 campaign. As a freshman, she was named a starter at a difficult position by coach Carl Corino, and she came through with flying colors.

Johansen played the position flawlessly and helped the Lady Bucs to a second straight county championship. She moved to shortstop in her sophomore year and was marvelous. Belleville appeared in the county champion-ship game from 1984-86 and also competed for state sectional and conference titles.

As a basketball player, Johansen scored a career high of 30 points in a game against Passaic in January of 1985. She was the leading scorer on the '84-85 team and the team captain of the '85-86 team. Head coach Karen Fuccello often praised Johansen as one of the hardest working athletes she's ever seen.

Johansen made a big sacrifice in her senior year, moving to the point guard position to help stabilize a young team which needed leadership. Johansen's play at the point helped future Belleville stars Simmone Edwards and Laurie Don-darski learn the ropes of the varsity game. Edwards and Dondarski were freshman that year.

Johansen went on to play softball on the college level and attained an All American status in her senior year, 1990. A tremendous student, Johansen was in the top five per cent of her class at Belleville High. While nothing came easy for her, Desiree never met a challenge she wouldn't tackle. Parents of future Belleville athletes should have the opportunity to speak with Desiree Johansen. She is an All American in every sense of the word.

A phenominal athlete, Michael Gibbons starred at Belleville High School in football and wrestling. He was graduated in 1985.

Gibbons is probably best known for his wrestling prowess, but let's not forget his football career.

Gibbons was a running back for coach John Senesky. He played varsity in 1983 and '84 and was a study of speed and power.

Gibbons was a first team all county and area running back. He was also a standout nose guard on defense and earned post season honors there, too.

He played on the last Belleville football team, to date, to compete in the state playoffs. The 1984 Bucs jumped out to a 6-1 start and Gibbons was one of the main contributors. A rash of injuries slowed down that team, but it didn't take away from the fine season Gibbons produced.

On the mat, Gibbons was phenominal. He won two county championships, three district and two regional crowns, competing at 171 and 188 pounds. He finished fourth in the prestigious state tour-nament in his sersior year, While in high school, Gibbons won the AALI national champion on the AAU national championship in the junior olympic class.

On to college, records were broken quickly as Gibbons starred at Central Connecticut State University. His four year record was an eye popping 130-17. He was induc-ted into the "Who's Who in Col-lege Sports", 1989 edition.

He was an All American, Division! wrestler.

Also on the college level, Gib-bons was the New England, Division 1 champ four years in a row, a qualifier for the NCAA championship for four years, he was ranked ninth and tenth in the country at the 167 and 177 pound level and took sixth place in the Canada World Freestyle championships.

Gibbons competed for a spot in the 1988 Olympics and was defeated by the eventual gold medal.

ed by the eventual gold medal winner, Dave Schutz).

Gibbons is the all time leader in victories at Central Connecticut State. He will always have a place in the heart of Belleville, where he excelled for three years on the high

Next week, a continued look back at the Hall of Fame inductees. By the way, if any of the readers have pictures or further information they would like submitted, please do not hesistate to contact Mike Lamberti at 759-3200.

DeWork closing in on 1,000 milestone

The Bucs split two games last week, defeating Paramus Catholic 55-51 and falling to Teaneck 75-56. 55-31 and raining to Teaneck 75-30, Don Roll's team was 3-5 heading into last Tuesday's game at St. Joe's Tomorrow, the Bucs are host to Paramus, starting at 7:30 p.m. Next Tuesday, Hackensack travels to Buccaneer Garden for a 4 p.m.

DeWork, who needed 14 points to reach 1,000 last Tuesday at St. to reach 1,000 last Tuesday at St. Joe's, would become the seventh player in boys' basketball history to reach 1,000 and the eleventh in Belleville basketball history to do so. Currently, Ted Sochasid (1984-88), Abdel Anderson (1972-75), Wayne Bubet (1978-81), Phil Colalillo (1980-84), Leon Puentes (1984-88) and Troy Talmadge (1989-92) have cleared the barrier for the boys.

3,105 points.

DeWork moved closer to the mark by scoring 22 points in leading Belleville to a four point win at Paramus Catholic.

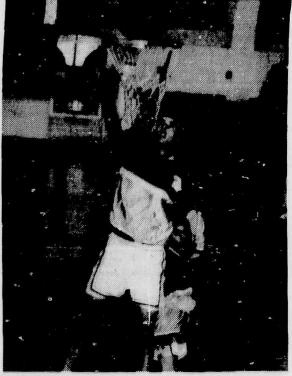

The Bucs, who were playing without coach Roll for the second game due to the coach being ejected from the Don Bosco contest, trailed entering the fourth quarter but railied back thanks to big scoring efforts from DeWork and Ken Johansso.

AC, Mannion, Ramirez lead Lady Bucs

By Mike Lamberti

Paramount toward the success of the Lady Buc basketball team is the performance of senior forward Colleen Mannion. After a slow start, which can be attributed to a shin injury and a bout with the flu, it appears that Mannion is returning to form.

That sigh of relief you heard ame from head coach Cheryl Marion, who is quite happy to have Mannion back in the groove. Last week, Mannion tallied 27 points in two games and not so coincendentally, Belleville split its last two games of the week, beating Teaneck and falling to Paramus Catholic.

The week started with a tough 45-42 loss at Columbia in an out of conference matchup.

Belleville will take a 3-6 record into tomorrow afternoon's contest at Paramus. Tip off time is 4 p.m. Next Tuesday, the road show continues at Hackensack, also at 4.

In the game at Columbia, Belleville started out slowly and trailed 14-6 after one quarter. The Lady Bucs narrowed the lead to 24-21 at the half, but Columbia came out strong in the third and reassumed a six point lead, 34-28 heading into the final eight minutes.

Belleville chipped away at the defecit and came within three points in the final seconds of regulation time. Mannion took a shot at the buzzer which circled the rim, but fell out

"We just haven't been playing well lately," Marion said. "We haven't been consistent offensively. (Liz) Ramirez and (Andrea) Curran have been consistent for most of the season, but we need more points from the foward and center position."

The game also marked the debut of freshman Marie Acuna at point guard.

"Marie did a good job," Marion said. "It's not easy for a freshman to run the point, especially taking over in the middle of a season. But she worked hard and did pretty well."

Ramirez continued her fine play with 20 points. Curran scored ten, Mannion had seven. Acuna tallied four and Adrienne Walsh had one point.

Against Paramus Catholic, Bel-leville fell behind early and was not able to make up the defecit.

P.C. led 16-10 after one quarter and 30-17 at the half. Any chance for a comeback in the second half was quickly rubbed out when P.C. outscored Belleville 23-10 in the third quarter. Belleville did stage a mini comeback in the final quarter, but it only lowered the final defecit to 20 points.

"We started off playing well," farion said, "but Paramus Marion said, Catholic shot the ball well and we weren't converting layups. We also did not score points in the paint, and we need that low post scoring."

Mannion had her best game of the season, tallying 18 points. Ramirez scored 14, Curran had six, Mary Campbell finished with three and Acuna had two.

Belleville snapped a four game losing streak last Thursday by winning at Teaneck for the second straight year. The final score was 33-30, and although the game wasn't very artistic, Marion will take the win.

"We should have won by more,"
the coach said. "We have more experience and we should have taken control. Their press bothered us and it shouldn't have. Teaneck has a young team which is rebuilding. The girls know they should Nonetheless, the Lady Bucs won, outscoring Teaneck 13-7 in the first quarter and 8-5 in the third. Teaneck outscored Belleville in the second and fourth frames, but key baskets down the stretch kept Belleville in front.

Ramirez, Curran and Mannion scored 31 of Believille's 33 points with 12, 10 and nine points respectively. Campbell scored the other two points.

"With Colleen playing better, we have three players who can score consistently," Marion said. "If we can get more points from the center position, I'm pretty sure we can be pretty competitive in the league."

Dennis DeWork pulls down rebound during game against Teaneck.

Preschool registration

The Belleville Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs is accepting registration for the pre-school play program for 4 year old children. The program consists of games, stories, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties especially designed for preschool children.

A session is from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. or 12:45-2:45 p.m., five days a week with class limited to a maximum of 23 students in each session. The cost of the 32 week session is $125. The mothers of the children accepted must participate by serving one duty day about every 8 or 9 days according to a published schedule. School will begin on Sept. 20, 1993 and will run through May 1994.

Children born between Oct. 1988-Sept. 1989 who will enter kindergarten in Sept. 1994 are eligible. Participants must be Belleville residents. Since there are just a limited number of openings, applications will be accepted on a first comefirst served basis only.

Children must be able to speak and understand English in order to participate. Children enrolled in the morning program cannot also be in the afternoon program or vice versa. A $25 deposit is required to hold your spot in the program.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 as soon as possible, Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m.

Softball clinic

The Belleville Recreation Department will again be sponsoring a Girls' Softball Clinic for resident Belleville girls who are students in grades 7-12. This program will be held on Fridays at Middle School Girls' Gym from 6 to 8 p.m. on the following dates: Jan. 22, 29; Feb. 5, 26; and March 5. The intent of this clinic is to prepare girls who plan to try out for the Suburban Girls' and or the High School Girls' Softball teams.

Each session will be supervised and an aspect of the game will be demonstrated and practiced. The focus will be on throwing, catching, running and pitching (no hitting). This clinic will provide all interested girls with an opportunity to better learn the game of softball. Participants must provide their own gloves and must wear sneak-ers. No advance registration is said afterward. "We challenged the kids to respond in the fourth quarter of a close game on the road and the kids came through. This was a big win for us."

Belleville returned home last Thursday to face the Highwaymen of Teaneck. It was also Roll's return to the sideline but the occasion was not a happy one was the Bucs fell behind early and lost by 19 points.
"We committed 17 turnovers in the first half," Roll said. "We didn't get second shots and we didn't adjust to their fast break game. They were releasing a guy on the break following a missed shot and we didn't adjust to it."

Teaneck led 19-13 after one and 38-23 by the half. The Bucs came out strong in the third quarter and scored more points (26) than they had the entire first half. But Teaneck met the challenge by scoring 24 and the Highwaymen were able to keep the lead in double digits.

In the fourth quarter, the Bucs managed just seven points and weren't able to narrow the defecit any more.

DeWork scored 19 to lead Belleville. Mundy had 12, Ken Johansen finished with 11, Kevin Johansen scored seven, Means tallied six and Christy scored one.

Teaneck was led by Corey Goodall, who scored 22 points. Giovanni Hernandez finished with

Despite some erratic play, Belleville has a chance to qualify for the state tourney. The Bucs must be at, or above, the .500 mark by the end of January. If the team can string some consistent performances together, there's no reason to believe the Bucs can't achieve that Inexperience. It's a word overused in athletics these days. Most fans and coaches attribute losses or bad performances to inexperience.

But every now and then, a team does pop up which suffers from a lack of experience, not from an abundance of excuses.

This year's edition of the wrestling team is stricken with the malady of inexperience. It shows in every dual meet and tournament. This week was no exception.

After beating Clifton 49-21, and Paramus 36-27, Belleville gave away a 33-29 heartbreaker to Elmwood Park. Belleville's powerful lower weights began each meet by giving BHS a large lead. Then the middle and upper weights start-ed giving it back with alarming generosity.

John Perna, Isaiah Cardinale and Josh Cardinale each added three wins to their respective records. But the rest of the lineup was inconsistent and shaky from the 125 pound class on up.

Mark Bianchini looked great against Clifton and Paramus, but lost a one point decision at Elmwood Park after surrendering three penalty points for false starts.

Luke Cardinale got his varsity baptism against Clifton and lost a two point decision. Then he lost another two pointer on Saturday against Elmwood Park. The youngest of the Cardinale family, Luke was just inches away from turning each bout around, but couldn't finish his moves against more experienced opposition.

Enrico Della Merced also lost two hard fought decisions at Clifton and Paramus. The personable junior had less than a half dozen varsity matches to his credit prior to the start of the season. It showed as he looked lost at times while attempting to escape or maneuvering for a takedown.

Anthony Frantantoni and Frank Jablonski, both JV wrestlers with no varsity time, were overpowered in their debuts by far more seasoned grapplers. Jabionski was especially at a disadvantage as he never stepped on a mat until this year.

Add to the lack of experience a puzzling and erratic performance by a few veterans, and you have all the reason you need to explain the 3-3 record.

Team captain Carlo Ritacco. while 7-4, has been solid one day, lethargic the next. Senior letterman Bob Gauthier has put up some gutsy matches, but has been making a ton of mistakes in his execu-

Even Joe McNish, a returning starter from last year's squad, has looked tired and winded in the second and third periods of every bout so far this season.

There is a great deal of work to be done with the 1992-93 team, but the coaching staff is still hopeful for an NNJIL title and possibly a district championship.

Head coach Joe Nisivoccia and assistants Mike Iuliano and Marc Paravecchio have been burning the candle until the wee hours, drilling and conditioning the team. Hopefully, it will all pay dividends by the end of February.

THIS & THAT: Wrestler of the Week goes to Joshua Cardinale. The team co-captain has hit his stride and flattened all three of his opponents last week. Now at 9-1 for the season, Josh has 70 career wins, placing him alone in ninth place on

Now a sophomore, Apicella was beginning to dominate. The first sign that she was a phenominal talent came in the championship game of the Essex County Holiday tournament in late December of Jenny scored 42 of Belleville's 48 points in a 64-48 loss to a good Bloomfield team. Belleville would get revenge against the Lady Bengals in the Essex County tournament in February, however.

In a game played at Bloomfield High, Belleville broke a tie game wide open in the third quarter by outscoring Bloomfield 16-0. The victory moved the Lady Bucs into the quarterfinals of the ECT, where the girls played eventual champion, Shabazz in

Prior to the matchup with Shabazz, Belleville played a game at Kearny. It turned out to be an easy win for the Lady Bucs, but in the first quarter, team captain Barbara Gundry went down with a badly sprained ankle. Gundry's injury would force her to miss the rest of the season as her foot was placed in a cast.

More importantly, Gundry's absence left a big void in the experience department heading into the game at Shabazz. Fuccello opted to start Donna Brooks, then a freshman, at the power forward position and Brooks responded with a good game.

Belleville played well at Shabazz, but the Lady Bulldogs had too much speed and pulled ahead to victory in the second half. It would be the first of three straight years that Belleville and Shabazz would play each other in the county tournament. Each year, the matchup would come deeper in the tournament.

On a personal level, Apicella reached and exceeded the 1,000 point plateau in an afternoon game against Nutley at Belleville High in late February. Apicella reached the magic plateau with two free throws in the third quarter.

It would be the first of many accolades Apicella would receive in her sophomore year and for the remainder of her high school career. Apicella scored 779 points in her sophomore year and entered her junior campaign with 1,236 points. At the end of the '81-82 season, there was already talk of Apicella breaking the state scoring record of 2,745 points.

On a team basis, the Lady Bucs finished with a 17-6 record. The team lost in the state tournament to Irvington at the Dunn Arena in Elizabeth. The 17-6 mark was the finest in team history, to date. The expectations were now building for the '82-83 season.

DeAquino and Wells played very well in '81-82. Also doing a good job that season were Marlene Talmadge and Theresa Critchley.

We'll continue our look back at the Fuccello era in next weeks issue.

The Belleville girls' Suburban basketball team placed third at the Nutley Christmas Tournament.

In the first round, Belleville breezed by Maplewood, 65-4. Deana Addis led all scorers with 24 points. She was followed by Chrissy Scassera with 11 points and Gennifer Piscatowski, who came off the bench to tally 11. Jessica Rotino and Addis both had 11 rebounds battled a tough Nutley team. It was a physical game, with Nutley winning 38-32

Coach Sherri Jamison attributed the loss to poor shot selection and ineffective team work. Foul trouble hampered the play of Scassera, Cathy Wengryn and Kim Mah-oney. Two quick fouls in the first offense and on to the bench.

Belleville rallied to vin in the onsolation consolation game, defeating Rutherford 33-21. Addis and Mahoney each scored 11 points, Piscatowski scored four and Nikki Lopreato and Scarera scored three each.
Assistant coach Nancy Haug attributed the win to good team-work and strong defense. Mahoney and Lopreato each pulled down six rebounds.

Addis was named to the all tournament team. She scored 49 points and pulled down 35 rebounds in the three games.

Belleville took a 4-1 record into

January conference play.

Christ Church dinner party

"Murder at the Prom," a mur-der mystery dinner will be present-ed at Christ Episcopal Church on March 12 hours in a Church on March 13, beginning at 7 p.m.

This evening of entertainment offers the five D's - Dancing, Dinner, Dessert, Death, and Doo-Wop. The theme for this event is a '50's style prom. Sometime during the dance, someone will be "murdered" and it will be up to everyone else to find the "killer."

The cost for this full evening of entertainment is $30 per person. You will dance to the music of the '50's, dine at a delicious buffet, meet new people, have a great time, and, who knows, you could even be the "victim." Reservations are required and space is limited, so do not delay. The deadline is Feb.

Attendees will receive a packet of information when their reservations are accepted. This packet will include information on costumes, contests, your character and clues to the evening's "crime." If you need more information about "Murder at the Prom," call the church at 751-0616.

Relatively new nonsedating prescription-only antihistamines have become quite popular among allergy sufferers because they do not cause drowsiness. However, a dangerous drug interaction has recently come to light that users of terfenadine (the generic name) should note. When taken along with the antibiotics erythromycin or troleandomycin, the amount of terfenadine can increase in the blood, This is due to the fact that the antibiotics miteriere with the livers ability to break down terfenadine for elimination. As a result of the raised levels of the antihistamine, lifethreatening abnormal heart rhythms may result. Those who experience fainting, dizziness or palpitations while taking terfenadine are advised to call their physicians.

Seven Basic Carpet Types Offer Buyers A Choice

There are seven basic types of carpet construction: velvets, saxonies or plushes, friezes, level loop, multi-level loop, tip sheared and cut/loop or trac-

Velvets are the ultimate in elegance. All the pile fibers blend together in these extra dense, cut pile carpets to give you an ultra-smooth sweep of rich luxurious color.

beauty in cut pile but are not as formal as velvets. The degree to which individual tufts are visible in the pile creates a wide range of subtly different appeals. This style shows footprints and shading as part of its styling effect.

Friezes (pronounced freeze ays) are the most casual and rugged of cut pile carpets. Tightly twisted heat-set varns curl back on themselves creating a distinctive nubby or pebbled texture look. They tend to wear very well and hide footprints and dust.

ed loops of the same height. It has a tight pebbly surface to take hard wear and hides footprints and furniture marks. Soil tends to stay on the surface for easy cleaning. The visibility of each loop and the way it reflects light from the surface makes level loop carpets most suitable for commercial ap-

Multi-level loop has variances in the height of the loops which create a wide range of styles in a sculptured or patterned surface. The carpet design can offer additional practicality in maintenance over a level loop texture due to the patterned effect.

Tip sheared carpets tend to be the most luxurious of the loop styles. Using loops of different height, a rich pattern is created by shearing the tips of the higher loops while maintaining the benefits of other loops.

Cut/loop combines the effect of a saxony carpet with a tracery loop patterned effect which is why these carpets are sometimes referred to as Traceries". This unique combination of cut pile and loop pile creates a carved, sculptured effect.

Top Advisors with Big Jobs

The President's Cabinet

Do you have some friends whom you turn to when you want some advice? The president of the United States does. He has a Cabinet.

The Cabinet

This Cabinet is not like the one you keep things in.

The word "cabinet" comes from an old English word meaning private meeting room.

In this case, it means a special group to help the president run the country. They give him advice and ideas and reports.

The secretaries

Most of the members of the Cabinet have the title of "secretary," but they probably can't type.

Secretary is a special title that is given to people who are in charge of big government departments.

They are nominated by the president but must be approved by the Senate

Look through your paper for problems the country is facing. Which Cabinet members do you think might help solve them?

A Cabinet meeting when George Bush was in office. The Cabinet meets in a room near the president's Oval Office in the White House. The members sit around a long table. The president sits in the middle at the widest part. The vice president and certain staff members with top jobs are also invited to attend.

Meetings

It is up to each president to decide when to call a Cabinet meeting. Some presidents hold more meetings than others

Cabinet members don't always meet as a group. Sometimes presidents meet only with those who are concerned with special problems.

History

The Cabinet is not set up by the Constitution.

But every president since Washington has had one.

There were only four members of Washington's Cabinet. The custom began when he met with them so often.

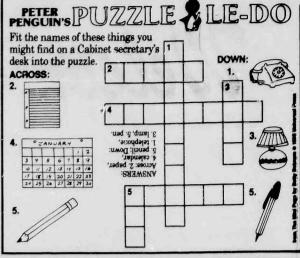

Each chair has a pane with the name of the member and his or her department

The chairs

Each Cabinet member sits in his or her own special chair at the meetings. Their chairs are always arranged in a certain order.

When members leave office, the people on their department staffs often buy the chairs and present them to the members as souvenirs.
