Echoes of Trade Towers inferno haunt hero

Belleville PA cop hauled victim from 50-ft. crater; executive led escape from 67th-floor Authority HQ

"It's the screaming that I remem-ber the most. The awful screaming." Michael McGarry of Joralemon Street, a Port Authority policeman, recalled the explosion at the World Trade Center on Friday, Feb. 26, and its aftermath, in which he risked his life to attempt to save one of the victims of the blast, one of the men whose screams he sought to

He was in the PATH subway station when the explosion hit, at 12:13 a.m.

From another vantage point, 67 stories above the street, Hugh Welsh of Belleville also experienced the shock and the horror of the ced the shock and the horror of the explosion, which quickly sent black clouds of billowing, choking smake up through the elevator shafts and into the highest offices.

Weigh, a native of Belleville, is Deputy General Counsel of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey.

At 12:13, he was looking out of an wandow at a light enow that was beginning to fall.

I thought it was lightning,"
Welsh said. "I saw a flash, and I felt back. Then the corridors began filling with smoke."

McGarry, 43. a mative of Flat-bush, Brooklyn, who had come to Belleville in 1980, was one of half a dozen Port Authority police on duty at the time in the huge World Trade Center station.

"A little old lady had come up to me to complain about graffiti she said she saw on the ceiling of the station, one level down. I went down the steps with her and went to the spot where the graffiti was supposed to be.

"I was just looking up at the ceiling, when it exploded down on McGarry, a solid six-footer with silvery white hair, was blown to the tracks, just missing the third rail. Debris rained all around him. The lights went out and black smoke covered everything.

He saw the little old lady make a safe retreat. "Those little legs of hers were really working. She got away all right," McGarry said. He climbed beck onto the platform and went up to the main level of the station, the one just below the shopping mali at the World Trade Center.

He found four other police officers and the lieutenant in charge. They were putting on smoke gear and air tanks. And they heard the screams, coming from below.

On the 67th floor, the evacuation plan drawn for fires and other disasters wemt into effect. Using the elevators was out of the ques tion. Elevator cars were stalled all through the office towers, with scores of people trapped in the smoke and blackness.

The office workers followed Welsh to the stairways. There, two lawyers on the PA staff, Don Burke and Mike Driscoll, helped a third lawyer. Kathy Collins was a Thal-idomide baby, born without arms

Burke and Driscoll carried her down the stairs to the 48th floor.

There, they met Stanley Berezenoff, the Executive Director of the Port Authority, and they set up a command post at that point.

By telephoning LaGuardia Airport, a patch could be made to the Port Authority offices on the ground floor, and communications were established.

In one elevator, four PA engine-ers and two lawyers found them-selves between floors.

The engineers knew the layout of the building. Using the light from a beeper, and a door key, they forced open the elevator door and scraped their way through a cinder block wall to a men's room, and escaped.

Welsh finally made his way down the 48 floors to the outside, his face the 48 moors to the outside, his face blackened with soot, and with all his associates safely with him, including one man carried in a wheel chair the entire way.

His legal duties were set aside as he worked with other executives to keep the Port Authority in operation.

Closing times for the bridge

The New Jersey Department of Transportation has announced that the Rutgers Street Bridge over the Passaic River will be closed on weekends for repairs and repainting.

The bridge was closed over the past weekend, and will close tomorrow (Friday) at 8 p.m., reopening on Monday, March 15, at 6 a.m.

It will be closed on Friday, March 19, at 8 p.m. and reopen on Tuesday, March 22, at 6 a.m.

Further closings are:
Friday, March 26, at 8 p.m. to Monday, March 29, at 6 a.m.

Friday, April 2, at 8 p.m. to Monday, April 2, at 8 p.m. to Monday, April 5, at 6 a.m.

"Few government organizations could have reorganized themselves as quickly to meet the emergency," Welsh said. "Everyone was amazingly calm and cooperative."

He had celebrated his birthday

In the PATH station, McGarry and the others went down into the lower levels of the station, determined to find the trapped workers whose cries for help could be heard. It was like exploring some vast undeground cavern. Freezing water cascaded down from a shattered main. Debris and twisted girders were everywhere. In the floors of the overhead garage, where scores of Secret Service cars had been parked, rescue workers smashed the windows of the cars and turned on the headlights.

The resulting light revealed a huge crater, 50 feet deep, from whose depths the cries of the injured men were coming.

"I was trained for this," McGarry said. "So I took some emergency rope that we had, and I rappelled down into the crater."

It was a mountain climbing technique that he put to use in the bowels of Manhattan, dropping himself into a darkness of smoke, falling water and unreal shapes.

He found a fallen man, obviously badly hurt by flying debris that had smashed his chest. McGarry found a footing, tied a rope to the victim, and saw him hauled up from the pit. "I don't know if he lived, or not," McGarry said. "We kept on look for the injured."

Other police found another four or five injured men. The 45-minute supply of air gave out, but McGarry was able to breathe as the dust in crater settled.

At 4:30, more than four hours after the explosion, McGarry was ordered to leave. Outside, he was rushed to St. Vincent's Hospital where he was treated for houses. where he was treated for bruises, smoke inhalation and hypothermia.

"The cold water caused the hypothermia," he said.
McGarry had a close brush with death in 1968, when a deranged woman plunged a knife into his bullet proof jacket. "It penetrated to the final two layers, just over my heart," McGarry said.

In 1960, he had been at Kennedy.

In 1980, he had been at Kennedy International Airport when a Scandinavian airliner went off the tar-mac. Miraculously, no one was killed.

Michael McGarry

It was also lucky that he had opted to use a staircase to go with the little old lady to look for the graffiti. Had he taken the newly installed escalator, he would have been caught under tons of debris that took one life.

"Just one person was on that escalator. There could have been a hundred," McGarry said.

Esther McGarry made new secret of her wish for her husband. to get into some other line of work, but he intends to complete his six years before retirement. McGarry is working on his Ph. D. in labor relations, the field he would like to enter when he leaves the PA.

"The only problem I have right now is sleeping. I still hear those screams, those piercing screams, from those poor trapped men."

Four juveniles and a 19-year-old were arrested Friday night, March 5, as they prepared to poun-ce on what they thought was a man delivering Chinese take-out food. Police said the five, who ranged in age from 13 to 16 and 19, had worked the same operation on Feb. 25, using an empty apartment at 221 Branch Brook Drive which they STORAPS CALLING CARD - This downed tree in Relieville was one of a dozen that were felled in last week's serve windstorm. Winds gusted to hurricane force, and power lines were downed in many neighborhoods.

Aside From That

On Feb. 11, some 200 people gathered at Biase's Restaurant in Newark to pay tribute to a man who had spent a lifetime in law enforcement and had won a reputation as a man of compassion who had touched the lives of thousands of people during his career. Now, ill health was forcing Angelo Centanni to retire at the age of 55, with the rank of Lieutenant in the Essex County Sheriff's Office. The native of Newark had lived in Belleville for the past 22 years. He had been a Newark policeman, and at 23 was one of the youngest men ever to be made a Detective. He was a Detective for 10 years, and then had joined the Sheriff's Office. • • • At the close of his career he headed the Juvenile Squad. But he had become an expert in such fields as finding missing persons, fighting narcotics - and marksmanship. He was an artist, and he recently designed the emblem used to mark the anniversary of Newark's founding. He was interested in the welfare of fellow officers, and he was interested in his heritage. He served as a very active President of the Columbian Association of Italian-American police officers. ● ● ● He was a modest man, and his own family had to learn about two times he had risked his own life to save that of another person. Once he dove into a park lake to bring in a woman who was trying to drown herself. Another time he brought someone out of a burning building. He risked his life in his day-to-day work and he rarely if ever spoke about it. ● ● Angelo Centanni found time to give love to his family. With his wife, the former Grace D'Angelo of Kearny he raised three sons. Gerard is with Essex County; Nicholas is a Social Service worker, and Angelo, Jr. is a fireman. The seven grandchildren were the light of his life. His wife spoke of him as a "low key" person who was a private man but still had concern for others. "The love he gave out in his lifetime came back a thousandfold," she said. The County Executive and the County Administrator had words of praise for him. An old friend, Hank Martinez spoke of him, and ill as he was, he managed to say a few words. He paid tribute to his family, and bade farewell to his friends. On Feb. 22, Angelo Centanni entered his final rest. His was a life of which a thousand epic tales might have been made. Most will remain his silent legacy.

Michael Rosamilia was also a man who touched many lives. As an educator and as a mentor, he probably changed the course of more lives than even he could have known. Councilman Tom Spillane was one of the hundreds who mourned him at the Memorial Service held at St. Mary's Church last Saturday. • • • • Spillane had been a student of Dr. Rosamilia at Belleville High School and he remembered that the teacher had taken his students into his confidence as he discussed the idea of his becoming an administrator. "I had never had a teacher who talked like that to the students," Spillane said. "It really amazed me." Years later, when Spillane was thinking about marrying Barbara, he wondered what he could do with his own future. He went back to see his former teacher, and Dr. Rosamilia persuaded him to take college courses. "He convinced me I could do it. I had a job with the telephone company, and every night, I went to class. It took me seven years to get the degree, but I did." It also furthered his career with the telephone company, until he rose to an executive job before retiring last year. Dr. Rosamilia had convinced him of his own potential, and he considered his advice from the educator as a turning point in his life. He joined the mourners in his own heartfelt tribute. • A reader reminds us that New York Times columnist Russell Baker spent some of his growing years in Belleville. In his autobiography, Mr. Baker told of living across the street from School 8. Those were in the Depression years, but Baker remembered them fondly, possibly because he had seen harder times in other places, as his widowed mother struggled to raise her family. Baker, of course, has been selected to be the next host of the erudite and distinguished Masterplece Theater, and it is somewhat like Mark Twain being asked to succeed Charles Dickens as writer-in-residence for the British Empire. Why the British want a homespun American humorist to succeed the British-American sophistication of Alastair Cooke is something we leave to the experts to decide. In all probability, the British Broadcasting Corporation just wanted someone with a sane outlook on life and a reasonable wit to handle the show, which, sadly enough, appears to be running into its final seasons. • • • Our prime Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten has been pussy footing his way into a number of closed executive meetings in the Municipal Building. "There's Township Manager Steve Cuccio actually announcing that the Fire Department had never overspent its budget, and all the claims that Fire Chief Walter Beresford had exceeded his budget were untrue. When someone asked if Mr. Cuccio would make this public, he said he wasn't prepared to go that far. Maybe he figured the State Commission of Investigation agents would overhear him. They've been in town so often they may run for office." Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says his political organization, the Kool Kukumber Boys, is announcing its monthly awards. "They're all going to the SCI," Zilch said. "They get the Award for the Greatest Number of Belleville Ladies' Pocketbooks Opened in a Single Raid; for the Longest Detention Time of Hapless Officials in a Given

Morning, and for the Largest Number of Unsigned Accusations Given Credence by Investigators since the Soviet Union. We call it the Little Adolph Medal."

OUR OPINION

Against the Public

The three Republican representatives from this 36th Legislative District cozied up to the special interests resulting in a disservice to the public

State Senator John Scott and Assemblymen John Kelly and Paul DiGaetano want to repeal one of the toughest gun control laws in the country. The National Rifle Association is leading the effort to overturn the gun control law. The assault weapons are large semi-automatic fire power guns that, almost without exception, law enforcement agents are convinced are too deadly to be legal. One of the provisions of the law requires owners of the banned weapons to register them with the state or give them up. Republicans complain that the ban makes criminals out of citizens that possessed weapons before the ban. Legislation to meet this objection is bottled up in a Republican controlled legislative committee. This proposed amendment is vigorously opposed by the NRA, an action that reveals the true character that drives NRA's opposition.

The Assembly voted to repeal the law. Voting in favor of the repeal are two local Assemblymen, Republican John Kelly of Nutley and Republican Paul DiGaetano of Passaic. Assemblyman John Kelly is also Nutley's Public Safety Director. We would hazard a guess that Kelly may be the only Public Safety Director in New Jersey who wants to repeal the toughest gun control law in the nation. The events in Waco, Texas, speak loudly against repeal.

Republican Senator John Scott of Lyndhurst who represents Nutley and Belleville is in favor of repealing the ban. The NRA treasury patronizes all three Republican officeholders, Scott, DiGaetano and Kelly. Some observers say their opposition to the ban is paid for by contributions from the National Rifle Association. At issue is the safety of the people of New Jersey. We believe the NRA is working against the interests of the people of our state. We believe the New Jersey Senate should give a loud NO to the repeal effort.

Girl Scout Week

March 12, 1993 is the 81st anniversary of the Girl Scouts the world's largest voluntary organization for girls. Since 1912, millions of girls have had the opportunity to make new friends, learn new skills, and become confident individuals through Girl Scouting.

As the world changes and becomes more complex, Girl Scouting moves with the times. The organization continues to find new ways to help girls and young women develop a sense of values and make meaningful contributions to society. The all-girl experience of Girl Scouting presents girls with a world where they can take the leadership position. It provides an environment - maybe the only such environment a girl will encounter during her formative years - where the special needs and interests of girls are first.

CARACTER STATE OF THE STATE OF

Through Girl Scouting, girls learn to overcome obstacles and are challenged to develop their full potential. Girl Scouts have traveled to Antarctica and Australia to study ecology and geology. Girls from the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County visited the Franklin Museum in Philadelphia to explore the world of math and science. And, last summer Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts throughout the county volunteered at the council's OVAL Outdoor Program Center teaching outdoor skills to younger Girl Scouts.

Thank you, Girl Scouts, for the way you make a difference in the lives of girls. Hats off to you during Girl Scout Week,

March 6-13, and all year round.

No more funny ballots

In view of everything that Superior Court Judge Alvin Weiss said about the way Belleville elections operate, it is to be hoped that the old tradition of gathering in absentee ballots will be a thing of the past.

However, this may be too much for which to hope.

Judge Weiss changed the outcome of an election for Council because he questioned the validity of absentee ballots - all of them cast for the same candidate - which had been brought in by the usual collectors.

The collectors argued that they were providing a public service. Judge Weiss ruled that what they were doing to the public was no service.

The problem is that if questionable absentee ballots turn up again, the voters themselves may be called to account.

We therefor urge all those who intend to cast absentee ballots to do it in the normal way - that is, by mail, and not through some friendly intermediary. And have a genuine reason for casting an absentee ballot, either by reason of physical incapacity or by being out of town on Election Day.

Belleville is a haven

As a follow-up on my recent letter of February 11, with regards to the recent bombing tragedy of the World Trade Center: This is an opportune time to promote Belleville's prime location to corporations which are now rethinking the idea of remaining in the World Trade Center or New York

The relocation of corporations within Belleville would have the benefit to the Township of increased ratables, renovation and upgrading of the commercial areas and the aproved image to other communities.

The advantages to a corporation to move here are.

 Access to mass transportation
 Access to Newark International Airport

 Access to shopping areas/restaurants
 Corporate relocation to Belleville also benefit all areas of he town including the Washington Avenue, Main Street, Union and Franklin avenues and Silver Lake commercial

A prime example is the Nutley Shopping Center which has for years benefitted from the lunchtime employees from ITT and Hoffmann La Roche

Now is the time to launch a campaign advertising these advantages. We know the advantages of the Belleville location. But, what good does it do us if no one else knows?

The limit to guns

I believe responsible, adult Americans have a right to own a gun for hunting and protecting of self, family and neighbor. That means a shot-gun, rifle or pistol. I don't approve availability to citizens of assault, multi-kill, combat weapons.

They belong in the military.

I am a Democrat who respects Republicans despite we disagree on issues and what is best for the American people. But when our Republican state Assembly and Senate vote to approve multi-kill automatic weapons for the general public, I am appalled.

am appalled.
One lobbyist can contribute $1,000 to a politician and try to influence that elected official to introduce a law and vote on a special issue. If the voting public feel that particular bill is detrimental to New Jersey citizens, then at least 1,000 letters must be sent to our elected officials.

I wonder how many letters will be written by readers who oppose multi-kill weapons in New Jersey.

If you print this letter, please include name and address of state congressmen for our district.

A vote for Molinaro

To the editor:

I'm supporting Robert Molinaro for a seat on the Belleville Board of Education. Although Rob has lived in Belleville his entire life, he is a new face on the Belleville political scene, seeking townwide for the first time. This is a fact I consider a significant plus.

Rob is the parent of a Belleville Middle School student and a husinessman who has his CPA. He is also the annual manual a businessman who has his CPA. He is also the son of two of Belleville's seniors. He knows the needs of our children and our taxpayers. His presence on the Board would bring a refreshing and welcome change. I urge everyone to consider supporting his candidacy on April 20.

Patti has vision!

To the editor:

I am a senior citizen, and a resident of Belleville for a very long time. I am writing this letter in support of Patti Pisano. Patti has brought three hats to the board of education. I. a mother. 2. a taxpayer and 3. an experienced board member of six years. As a mother, she wants our children to gain high values and self esteem. As a taxpayer, she wants education at a minimal cost. As an experienced board member, she thinks we have to mold children to become problem solvers. Also, she feels these thinking skills will have to be brought to the work place. Patti has the vision and it starts with vision because tomorrow's successes rely on the tools we choose to educate our children. I feel Patti votes on issues not people, she's a fighter. One who stands up and can be counted. She cares deeply about our children and the taxpayer. She believes that the needs of the children and taxpayer should be more compelling than the desires of politicians to be elected. I hope you will join me and my family in supporting Patti for the board of education on April 20th.

A RECENT issue of the New Jersey Law Journal listed hundreds of bankruptcies — and this is not unusual it happens every week. Things are tough. And with Bill Clinton having his principal focus on gays in the service, it doesn't look like the national government plans to do much in the near future to create jobs. The bankruptcies have touched very close to home. Bankrupticies were filed for individuals in Nutley, Belleville and Bloomfield. I have to believe this bad news will continue. Regardless what Bill Clinton does or doesn't do, the country may not get that "good feeling" for another year, if then.

OUR OPINION

Vander Zwan warns

Attention property taxpayers of Belleville... A couple of ars from now, will you be able to fork over an additional $1,000 or so in property takes to keep your home? Think about it, because that will be the case unless we act now. Last year your taxes increased between $400 and $500, even more for some of you. Remember?

Your pleading for mercy to the Board of Education fell on deaf ears. While your employer demanded "give backs" and gave no, or miniscule raises, they awarded their charges a $2 prescription benefit, which alone is costing you some $400,000 and last year a 7 1/2% pay raise, "so the children will learn

The Concerned Citizens of Belleville will hold a membership meeting on March 3. At that meeting, as member in good standing, I will make a motion from the floor, "to solicit the support of at least 2,000 taxpayers by joining us for $2 per year."

After you have joined us, we will "petition" the Town Council and the Board of Education to reduce their budgets, to return the $400 they took from us last year. Of course, if you don't join, we will have to assume you are quite happy with the customary, annual tax increases, bringing property values down. But even if you are happy, consider the many, many senior residents in Belleville on fixed incomes who are really hurting. In addition, you no doubt have read that our water rates are considered "woefully low". Increased rates in effect is an additional tax, as are the many proposed "fees". You can join our cause (and yours) by mailing your $2 to: Concerned Citizens of Belleville, P.O. Box 353, Belleville, N.J. 07109.

The membership fee will allow us to keep you informed on the progress of our "petition" and to advise you on "who is on our side" and "who isn't"...

Belleville people do care housing or the land on Franklin Avenue at no charge?

To the editor:

Last Wednesday evening, Belleville residents came out to a meeting with our Township Council, our school officials and our County officials.

When, in Belleville, was there an important problem in our Township that so many officials and town residents appeared at a one week planned meeting? Never! We have been to many parties, meetings and political affairs and we must say with an important problem coming to the people in the No. 10 area, everyone was there.

With over 350 residents at the meeting Wednesday evening, March 3, 1993 at 7 p.m., the attendance shows we, in Belleville, that have a problem, will stick together and get results.

A flyer that was sent only three days before to 500 homes in A fiyer that was sent only three days before to 500 nomes in this area brought people to this meeting who have a right to know what is coming on the corner of Franklin Avenue and Belleville Avenue. Many questions were asked and many people were not satisfied with the answers they received.

All of the officials of the Board of Education must be complimented for their approval of No. 10 School to be opened for this important meeting for the residents of the area and, most of all, because it is in the best interest of the children to get honest answers.

This meeting was called Wednesday, February 24th, for the same place. Friday, February 29th, the meeting was cancelled. In a few days, with the permission of the Board of Education, we had a fruitful meeting with all the officials - county, township and our school board.

With only about 4 committee people, all of the above was accomplished. Many more important questions shall be looked into, like:

1. Who is going to pay for a new water service that is needed on the county property

2. Is the county going to give our seniors two buildings for Honesty is thanked

To the editor:

To the honest couple who returned my belongings.

I would like to say thank you to the honest couple who found and returned my bank book and gloves at the K-Mart Shopping Center in Belleville on February 25, 1993. It is very heartwarming to know that there are still some honest people in this world. Lucky for me!!

Millicent Micchelli

3. With so many people walking off the grounds at Ancora, Greystone, Trenton and Mariboro, will we have more than ten security people to care for them 24 hours?

4. Mariboro has 820 patients now — a projected census will reduce its population by 232. Where will they go? Hopefully, not head.

5. All of the Board of Freeholders passed a resolution January 29, 1992 to approve the site at 570 Belleville Avenue, N.J. for housing for mental patients. The people of the No. 10 area had a right to know of this coming into their area yet they were never notified. Why?

Our Township Council people knew about this on Decem-

Again, there is a Right to Know Law. Why was this hidden? The people in the No. 10 area found out from the newspapers, February 12, 1993 - 14 months later.

Meetings will be held with a committee of residents and parents of No. 10 area soon.

Flyers will be sent out on what is happening and we will meet with an attorney.

Now, let us get to the Cancer Research that is coming to the former Essex County Geriatrics Building

I believe a hearing will be held before the plans are presented and many, many answers are needed for the safety of health in the No. 10 area.

Committee of Residents and Parents of School No. 10 area Names withheld

Budget faulted

To the editor:

I am appalled to find out at the last school board meeting when a question was asked by President Pisano, how negotiations were going, to find out that Board members Nazziola, Mazzucca and DelGuercio, presented a three year contract for 9-9-9 and a hidden 1 1/2 point side deal in 1993.

I said to myself why such a fantastic contract when everyone is being laid off, fired and some had to make givebacks? I then find out Mr. Nazziola has two kids teaching, Mr. DelGuercio is a school principal and his daughter is a substitute. Mr. Mazzucca is a supervisor and his wife is a teacher for Belleville. I sat there as Moe, Larry and Curly admitted they did not know about the 1 1/2 percent was in the contract. They must have never applied for a mortgage because if it had a 112 increase hidden, I'd bet they would have found it. Now us taxpayers have to pay 11/2 just on top of a 27 percent raise. I was appalled when Mr. Nazziola said they (teachers) pulled the wool over the board's eyes, well not everyone's eyes. Mrs. Pisano voted no in 1990. As I sat in the back on the right hand side, I found this contract and Mr. Nazziola's statements amazing. I now know how it must feel to be in Oz and Gabe was the Wizard. Also, Mr. Nazziola, where is the $700,000 from your campaign promise?

The history of Girl Scout Week

Girl Scout Week is celebrated ed to the week of March 12. annually and commemorates the beginning of the Girl Scout Move-ment in the United States. On March 12, 1912, Juliette Gordon Low met with 18 girls in Savannah, Georgia, and formed the first Girl Scout troop. Girl Scout Week was originally celebrated in conjunc-tion with the birthday of founder Juliette Gordon Low on Oct. 31. In 1954, the event was officially chang-

During the week of March 12, Girl Scouts participate in special activities and events. Girl Scout troops frequently conduct cer-emonies in schools or in public buildings, tracing the history of Giri Scouting or demonstrating what Girl Scouts are doing today. Some Girl Scout troops have Girl Scout birthday parties while others perform community service projects.

Each day of the week represents a specific theme which does not change from year to year. In 1993 Girl Scout Week runs from March 6 through March 13. The themes for each day are as follows: March 6-Girl Scout Sabbath; March 7-Girl Scout Sunday; March 8-flomemak-ing Day; March 9-Citizenship Day; March 10-Health and Safety Day; March 11-International Friendship Day; March 12-the Girl Scout Birthday and the Arts Day; and March 13-Out-of-Doors Day.
What started with a dream and 18

girls in 1912 has since grown to more than three million members nationally and internationally making Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. the largest voluntary organization for girls

These facts should be looked into!

To the editor:

Dr. David Goldenberg is trying to purchase the Essex County Geriatrics Center in Belleville for use by the Center for Molecular Medicine and Immunology (CMMI). He has a 30 million dollar grant to pursue his project of research involving radiation and isotopes. He is trying to come here from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of NJ in Newark. There are a few questions that should be asked by our town officials and answers given to the community prior to granting approval and answers given to the community prior to granting approval

Is it true that Dr. Goldenberg instructs Radiation Safety Officers NOT to talk to his employees regarding radiation safety or answer questions regarding their concerns related to radiation exposure?

ion exposure?

Is it true that because Dr. Goldenberg did not want to conform to Institutional Review Board (IRB) recommendations regarding protocols and procedures, he decided to develop his own IRB naming himself as the head? Wouldn't this be a conflict of interest?

Is it true that Dr. Goldenberg finds ways of running out of money for salaries for those employees that express concerns regarding radiation or isotope exposure?

Is it true that Dr. Goldenberg has had a ZERO treatment response rate over the past 10 years?

Is it true that Dr. Goldenberg has been asked to leave the University of Medicine & Dentistry due to the cost of his program to the hospital? What does he use his millions in grant

Is it true that Dr. Goldenberg is currently in litigation with UMDNJ because of the above factors?

Is it true that Dr. Goldenberg and his CMMI (Center for Molecular Medicine & Immunology) has been refused by St. Joseph's Medical Center in Paterson and Mornistown Memorial Hospital?

Is it true that Dr. Goldenberg and/or CMMI have been cited by OSHA for unsafe radiation practices?

Is this the type of upstanding citizen we want in our community???

Eating for a healthy heart

Despite the fact that Americans appear to be more health con-scious, the public's understanding of nutrition remains deficient, says Pat Ortlieb, clinical nutrition manager at Clara Maass Medical Center, Belleville.

Clara Mass Medical Center is addressing nutritional needs in the community during National Nutri-tion Month by highlighting programs such as Senior Supper Club. Ortlieb urges individuals of all ages to be aware that the risks associated with coronary heart discase can be minimized by consum-ing a low fat and fiber rich diet. "Modifying one's diet is an essential step in controlling the blood cholesterol level. This along with lowering blood pressure and avoid-ing smoking reduces the risk of coronary heart disease," says Ortlieb. "Regular exercise and weight maintenance are also recommended by the American Heart Association (AHA)."

According to AHA, an ideal reading for total blood cholesterol is 200 or below; 200-238 is borderline and 240 or more is high. "A person with a cholesterol reading of 200 or more should be examined every five years; a reading of bor-derline / high should be checked until it is lowered, and then rechecked once every year," says Ortlieb, adding that medication is available if a high cholesterol level cannot be lowered by dietary intervention

It is best to limit intake of saturated fats such as fatty meats, butter, cheese, ice cream or com-mercially baked goods and snack foods that contain palm or coconut oils. Food labels should be read carefully. Excellent substitutes for saturated fats include oils made from corn, olive, safflower, soybean, sunflower and sesame seeds.

Adding high fiber foods to the diet is also important and can lower blood cholesterol levels by five to 15 percent," says Ortlieb. High fiber foods include whole grain cereals and breads, as well as fresh fruits and vegetables.

Plastic surgery can repair eyelids

Eyelids sometimes need help. Whether hit by flying glass, damaged by the sun or stretched by age the moveable fold of skin that covers the eyeball may at some time require corrective plastic sur-

Injuries to the eyelid are common. They are often the result of automobile accidents, particularly when glass is shattered. In sports, they can be caused by an errant tennis ball or a basketball opponent's finger.

If eyelids suffer damage, such as by surgery. The goal is to retain the essential function of the lid - its ability to open and close property as well as to restore its appearance.

Tumors can occur on the eyelid and often must be removed surgically. The most common kind of tumor is a basal cell carcinoma, a limited, curable skin cancer usually caused by the sun.

As the result of years of sun worship, we are finding younger and younger people, some in their 30s, with these cancers. In some cases, part or all of the eyelid must be removed and a lid reconstructed from the person's own healthy skin.

Other eye problems that may require plastic surgery to correct are ptosis, or drooping upper lid, and the inward or outward turning of the lower lid. Children who have congenital ptosis compensate for the condition by tilting their head back to see better. Drooping lids also may occur as the result of aging. In many cases, surgery can improve vision and appearance. To correct the problem, the eye surgeon strengthens or reattaches the muscle that opens the eyelid. When the lower lid turns out, it can cause dryness of the eyes, tearing, redness and sensitivity to light. When it turns inward, eyelashes and skin can rub against the eye, irritating the surface and,

Cosmetic eye surgery often per-forms a dual purpose, both improving appearance and function. The excess skin of the upper lid, which can obscure your field of vision and add years to your appearance, can be removed. Lower lid "bags" can be removed at the same time. Most eyelid surgery can be performed on an outpatient basis using local anesthesia. Ophthalmologists who specialize in reconstructive surgery are trained to repair eyelid conditions, as well as the eye damage caused by injuries or tumors. (This column, written by Dr. Jeffrey D. Belleville SINO

The indoor track season is now over for Jennifer Citarella. The Belleville High School senior competed in the Eastern girls championship in Boston, Massachusets last weekend. She took seventh place overall, running the 300 yards in 39.97.

"She did a real good job," head coach John Tosato said. "She missed sixth place by 3/100 of a second. There were 24 entries in the event. The first and second place finishers were from New Jersey, then the next three runners came from Boston."

According to Tosato, runners from Washington D.C. to New Hampshire competed in the champion-Citarella won her heat in 39.97, with that time good for seventh overall.

Congratulations to Jennifer on her outstanding season. We'll have a complete wrap up of the indoor track season in an upcoming issue.

LITTLE LEAGUE TRYOUTS

The warm weather will be here soon, and with it, baseball is taking center stage. Not to be outdone, the future stars of Belleville baseball will begin action in little league.

Tryouts begin next Monday, March 15, at 6:15 p.m. at the Belleville High School gymnasium. Those tryouts are for 9 and 11 year olds.

On March 17, tryouts will once again be held at the high school gym for 10 and 12 year olds.

On Saturday, March 20, the tryouts go outdoors at the little league field for all age groups. The time of those tryouts will be announced at the gym on March 15 and 17.

Tryouts continue on March 22 and the 24th, both times at the BHS gym. On the 22nd, 9 and 11 year olds will work out. On the 24th, 10 and 12 year olds will compete. The times for those tryouts are 6:15 p.m.

In order to tryout, all applicants must bring a baseball glove, a birth certificate and two safety pins. If you need more information, contact Ken Spera at 759-9248.

ESSEX COUNTY BASEBALL LEAGUE

It's official! Belleville is back in the Essex County Baseball League after a seven year hiatus. Belleville's last entry in the league, named the Braves, played for two seasons in the mid 1980's.

In the late 70's, Belleville had a team in the ECBL called the Bruins and that club won two championships. Incidentally, the coach of that Bruin team some 15 years ago was Dennis Sasso, currently the head baseball coach at FDU.

This years team, according to Emil Nardachone, will also be called the Bruins. Starting next week, I'll have a lot more information about sponsorship, tryouts and when the season will begin.

SPRING SPORTS BEGIN PRACTICE

The long, cold winter of 1993 should soon be end. With that in mind, the spring sports at Belleville High have begun action. The baseball, softball, track, tennis, golf and crew teams started practice last Monday. The teams will open the regular season in early April.

We'll have complete schedules in next weeks issue, and we'll also begin previews of the sports. In addition, we will begin wrap ups of the winter season, beginning with girls and boys' basketball.

Our wrestlers are still competing, with the state tourney set for this weekend in Atlantic City. Belleville has a chance of having three wrestlers win state titles, which is almost unprecedented. For sure, it would be a first in BHS history.

Past state wrestling champs from Belleville High include Chris Musmanno (1980), Armondo Nardone (1988) and Emilio "Junior" Nardone (1991 and '92).

This year, Isaiah Cardinale, Joshua Cardinale and John Perna enter the states having won the district and regional crowns. Also, Carlo Ritacco is competing in the states. He advanced to the regional finals.

There is plenty of coverage on the wrestlers in this

Four wrestlers advance to states

Joshua, Isaiah, Perna are champs

By Joe Plegaro
All season long, the heart and soul of the Belleville wrestling team has been the first four weight divisions. Three of those four members continued the heartbeat this past weekend as they each won

Region 4 championships.
John Perna (103), Isaiah Cardinale (112), and Joshua Cardinale (119) won gold medals in this year's tournament. Each wrestler made his own niche in BHS history as they prep for the state tournament in Atlantic City.

Perna was the first champ for Belleville and he was easily the most dominant wrestler in Region John pinned Lucas Guarino of Cedar Grove in the quarterfinal round, using only 58 seconds of the opening period.

The semifinals matched Terry Tennant of Palisades Park against Perna, but Tennant didn't have the firepower to compete with Belleville's winningest wrestler. Perna scored a fall at 5:03 of the final period to set up the championship bout against Clifton's Eric Perez.

Perez, a senior, was a two time district champ, and had lost an 11-2 decision to Perna earlier in the year. Proving that win was no fluke, John hammered Perez by a 14-2 margin to win his first Region 4 crown and extend his season's record to an amazing 28-0.

For his superb performance, Perna was named the Outstanding Wrestler for Region 4.

Perna's outstanding regionals also gave him a number of personal marks in the Belleville record book. How's this for a list of accomplishments: most wins in a season by a 103-pounder - 28; most wins in a season by a sophomore - 28; most consecutive wins starting a varsity career - 28; most pins in a season by a 103 pounder - 20. Truly, thus far for John, but the best is yet to come. The state tournament starts tonight and Perna has drawn the No. 3 seed. With any luck, BHS could have its fourth state cham-

Following Perna in the lineup was 112 pound junior, Isaiah Cardinale. A Region 4 runnerup last season, Isaiah put away his first region championship as he ran his record for the year to 27-0 with 19

Cardinale wasted no time in the quarterfinals as he stopped Anthony Barboza dead in his tracks with a pin in only 30 seconds. Dennis Hock of Harrison was the victim in the semis, but he lasted only 1:20 before hitting the showers. That set up the finals against Bloomfield's Anthony Frezza in the championship bout. Isaiah and Frezza have had six previous wars, with Cardinale winning all of them. Unfortunately for Isaiah, each win over Frezza got less and less recognition instead of more and more attention.

Bloomfield's all time win leader, Frezza happens to be a three time state qualifier, a two time Dover Xmas tournament champ, a three time place winner in the counties, districts and regionals. A victory over this kid is quite an accomplishment. Cardinale had six straight wins over Frezza, but no one knew about it. The finals was more of the Belleville's 112 pound whiz withstood a five point move from Frezza (a Japanese whizzer to be exact) and squeaked out a 6-5 decision. With seven straight wins over the Bloomfield ace, Isaiah Cardinale won his first Region 4 crown, but no one outside of Belleville seemed to notice. Perhaps the state will notice if Cardinale, seeded No. 5, makes some noise in the state tournament in Convention Hall.

The third, and final, 1992-93 Region 4 champ for Belleville was team co-captain Joshua Cardinale.

Josh, sixth in the state last year at 103 pounds, improved his record to 27-1 with 18 pins. It was the second

Baker, Fortunato, Appruzzese provide invaluable assistance to Buc basketball

By Mike Lamberti

They stay out of the spotlight, but without them, the season would have never been a success.

For the Belleville boys' basketball team, three people made a big impact on the program, and they did it strictly for the love of the game.

"Without them, there's no way we're a .500 team this season," head coach Don Roll said last week. "Without them, the season would not have been nearly as enjoyable

If this was a game show, you could call it "What's My Line". At Buccaneer Garden, the three have names, and they are Rich Baker, John Fortunato and Jennifer

All three are Belleville High School grads. All three dedicated many hours toward the program this winter. And all three were invaluble toward the 11-11 campaign turned in by Roll's team.

Baker, a 1977 graduate of Bellev-ille High School, is a successful businessman today. He has been married for ten years and in 1992, his lovely wife presented him with the couples first child, a boy. (You can bet the first words out of the newest Baker's mouth will be something like "foul line extended", or "fast break").
"Rich made just about every practice, and he hardly ever miseed a game," Roll said. "He also provided so many scouting reports and, on his own time, would print up the reports for all of us to review at practices.'

Baker, known around the school as "Rich (Don't call me Dick) Baker", was a fine forward and guard for the Bellboys from 1975-77. In January of 1977, he had the game of his life at Nutley, leading the Bellboys to a come from behind win by scoring 32 points.

In that particular game, Belleville trailed by 16 points in the third quarter, then staged the comeback with Baker leading the way.

During his playing days, Baker had a younger teammate named Don Roll.

"He's a year older than me," Roll said. "We both played for Danny (Grasso) and we learned a lot about basketball. We didn't win many games back then, but we always played hard. We were up against the tough Big 10 teams like Orange, East Orange, Montclair, Bloomfield, Irvington and Essex Catholic. Those games were wars. Rich and I never forgot those times.

"Coach Baker is a volunteer assistant for the program. I don't know where we would have been without him."

Fortunato was graduated from Belleville in 1987. An avid sports fan and knowledgable coach, he has been involved with the boys team for three years now.

"Johnny was the freshman coach a few years ago," Roll said. "But he is now working for NBC Sports as an intern and finishing school. But once again, this guy never missed a practice or a game. "He did a great job in scouting ames. I don't think anyone took When we played them, there were no surprises. He did a tremendous job in scouting the game." Fortunato, as mentioned, is working with NBC Sports. Last summer, he traveled to Barcelona, Spain for the Summer Olympics.

'This guy will make a tremendous head coach in basketball if he pursues that field," Roll said. "He's great with the kids and is so involved with all facets of the game. Johnny is one of the hardest working coaches I've ever been associated with."

Appruzzese was a standout cheerleader at Belleville for three years. In her senior year, she was the co-captain and helped the team do well in cheerleading competition. She was also the manager of the boys' basketball team.

Jennifer worked the clock for the JV games at home this season,' Roll said. "Without her, I don't know if we would have been able to play the JV games and have them run as smoothly as they did. Jen

Bucs drop tourney game to Bengals, finish 11-11

The Belleville boys' basketball team overcame a slow start, but couldn't overcome a bad third quarter and lost to Bloomfield 65-59 last week in the state tourna-

The season is now over for the Bucs and head coach Don Roll. Belleville finished 11-11 this year. Combined with last years 14-10 record, this is the first time in nearly 30 years that the program has had back to back .500 or better seasons. We'll have a wrap up of the season in an upcoming issue. It was the third straight victory for Bloomfield over Belleville dating back to February of 1992. Ironically, the Bucs started this season by losing to the Bengals at Buccaneer 'We played a good game," Roll said after last weeks finale. "We struggled at the beginning and again in the third quarter. But our kids never quit. I was happy with the effort. This team overcame a lot of obstacles this year and put together a strong season."

The Bengals jumped out to a 16-7 first quarter lead, but the Bucs roared back in the second frame and took a 24-22 lead into the half. Bloomfield regained the mom-spring. Belleville defeated Nutley three times in four chances last year, but most of the players from the Blue and Gold remember the last inning of the state contest, when Nutley rallied for a 4-3 victory.

Belleville, which advanced to the county semis before losing to Livingston last season, came back to clinch the league championship. It was quite an accomplishment for the young team. The NNJIL Pacific Division features some good teams in Paramus, Paramus Catholic, Nutley and Immaculate

As for Corino, this is his 13th season as head coach at Belleville. His teams have averaged 24 wins a season for the first 12 years. The 1987 team won the Group IV, Section II title and set a school record for most wins in a season by a varsity club with 28.

The 1982, '83 and '89 clubs won the county championship. The girls also advanced to the county championship game in 1980 and then from 1984 through '88.

This is the tenth anniversary of the 1983 Lady Bucs, who won a second straight county championship and also garnered the NNJIL Essex-Passaic crown.

> Much has been written on the '82 team, but the '83 team also deserves recognition. That team, with a freshman named Desiree Johanses at third base and super Kim Indiero at shortstop, finished 23-4. Dina DeAquino, then a junior, was outstanding on the mound. Tracey Buono continued her dominance at, and behind, the plate.

> We'll be discussing the '83 team more during the upcoming softball season.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ In 1976, the New York Nets, Indiana Pacers, San Antonio Spurs and Denver Nuggets joined the NBA from the ABA. The Nets won the '74 and '76 ABA crowns while the Nuggets won the '75 championship. In the '75 playoffs, the New York Nets, then the defending champs, were sturned in the playoffs by the Spirit of St. Louis, 4 games to 1. Marvin Barnes and Moses Malone played for that Spirit team.

7th graders to be offered foreign language courses

A proposal to introduce the study of foreign languages to seventh graders was presented to the Board of Education on Jan. 26, 1993. The approval by the board of education of this new program may be understood in light of the enhancement that it will bring to our foreign language program.

foreign language program.

Current national and state trends, in addition to educational research, indicate that the acquisition of a foreign language is faciliat-ed by early exposure. Recently, programs on educational television have demonstrated that children on the kindergarten and first grade levels are capable of interacting in classroom situations while utilizing a foreign language. Our own dis-trict, aware of these trends and the need to expose our students to a foreign language before the eighth grade level, began an experimental program two years ago. Fourth, fifth and sixth grade students were given the opportunity to learn fundamental aspects of French, Italian and Spanish through the efforts of our fourth and fifth year high school foreign language students and teachers. Missing from the program, however, was the essential link of foreign language exposure at the seventh grade level. The need to bring foreign languages to the seventh grade is evident and was, in fact, a specific recommendation of the 1980s Middle States Evaluation Committee. Now that we have Board approval to begin formal foreign language study in the seventh grade we wish to organize the program in the most effinize the program in the most effi-

GETTING BETTER COMPLIANCE

If prescription medications were imited to a single daily dose, it is more likely that patients would comply with their doctors orders. So says a study from Washington University in which volunteers' compliance with laking blood pressure medication was monitored. Researchers found that only 59 percent of those ordered to take their medication three times send any actually took all three of the prescribed doses. Those who were supposed to take two daily doses enjoyed a 75 percent compliancy rate. Yet, 84 percent of the patients who needed only to get a single daily dose followed instructions. These results should lead patients to ask in single daily doses if it is at all possible. It is important to follow instruc-tions when taking any medication. If you don't understand the directions ask your doctor or our pharmacist at ROSSMO ORE PITABMACY 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We have been servine this area for many years. Greating cards, Russell Stover candies and gift items are carried. Open: Rom-10am daily. Own-9pm Sundays Have a happy St. Patrick's Day.

HINT: In some cases, time-release formulations enable patients to take a single daily dose of certain medica-tions.

Re-Roofing D-I-Y Guide Can Help

Handy, pocket-size guide provides quick, easy-to-follow steps for roofing or re-roofing.

Every homeowner knows that a new roof will add to the beauty and value of their home. Now there's a guide that can help make the re-roofing job go smoothly The makers of Manville fiber glass shingles have published an illustrated. pocket-size guide that provides quick. easy-to-follow steps for re-roofing, as well as putting a roof on a new home. The guide lists the tools and matehow to prepare the roof before the shingles are applied. With simple sketches, it shows how to install the new shingles, types of fastening methods, and how to handle flashing, valleys and even dormers.

You can obtain a free copy of "How to Apply Manville Fiber Glass Shin-gles." No. RF-270B. from your building supply dealer, or by writing to Manville Roofing Systems, a Division of Schuller International. Inc., (Inquiry Dept.). 1601 Park Ave. West. Denver CO 80216.

Tips On Home Insulation

By installing the right amount of insulation in your house, you'll be more comfortable; you'll also be getting the most value from your heating and cooling dollar, according to the Edison Electric Institute and the National Rural Electric Cooperative Associa tion, two national electric utility trade associations.

On average, 60% of your home's on average, out of your nones monthly energy bill goes for heating and cooling. The right amount of insulation—in the right places—can cut these costs in half. Your electric utility can offer free advice on how much insulation your house needs.

Where in your house should you in-sulate? The attic and basement (over and unheated crawl space) are two essential areas for insulation. If you are building a new house, or adding siding, the exterior walls should be considered also. Heating and air-conditioning ducts. if located in the attic or an unheated crawl space, can also be insulated for energy savings. And don't forget an insulating blanket for the water heater. After home heating and cooling, water heating is your largest energy expense. Many of the new water heaters already are insulated; check add additional insulation.

straight Region 4 crown for Cardin-ale, as well as his third straight visit to the states in his quest for a state

Cardinale pinned in the first two rounds, a 3:58 fall over West Orange's John Selpe, and a 1:44 decimation of St. Peter's Prep senior Joe Petrecca. Although Josh dominated Darren Torsone of West Essex in the finals, he won the title with a 4-3 decision, a score clearly not indicative of how one sided a bout it really was.

Seeded No. 3 in the state's pairings, Josh has set a few marks of his own in the BHS record book. An abbreviated list of his accomplishments: One of only three Belleville wrestlers to be a district finalist four consecutive years; 88 career wins, tied with Danny Hywel for fifth place, all time. John Stampone is in fourth place with 89 wins, a spot Josh should occupy when the states are completed; Cardinale has 55 lifetime pins on the varsity, second only to Hywel's record of 58; coup-led with brother Isaiah's victory at 112, the Cardinale family can now boast the only brother act to win regional titles in the same year.

Belleville also had one second place medal winner, team co-captain Carlo Ritacco. The senior 145 pounder won his opening bout by pinning Everett Bell of Becton in only 1:15. In the semis, Ritacco eked out a 5-4 decision over Palisades Park's Bob Bradley. Carlo's dream of a Region 4 title was ended by P.J. DeVito of West Essex as he came out on the short end of a 12-5 decision. With a 21-7 record and 50 career wins, Ritacco will compete in the states this Wednesday at Union High School. His first round opponent will be Mike Biernat of Parsippany. If he passes that test, he will face Region 3 champ Pat McCafferty of Roselle Park.

The Buccaneer squad had five other wrestlers in the regions, none of whom advanced beyond the quarterfinal round. Junior Mark Bianchini won a preliminary bout over Germaine Brown of Paterson East Side by a 12-0 margin. Then he lost an 11-2 decision to eventual 125 pound champ Moammar Gaber of Don Bosco Tech. Bianchini closed out his second varsity season with a 20-7 record and seven pins.

John Spina, a sophomore, lost in the preliminary round to Jamie Falcone of Verona. The score was 11-6 and concluded Spina's first varsity campaign with a record of 2-3, with one pin.

Next up was soph Jorge Hernandez at 135 pounds. He was pinned in the quarterfinals by Kearny's Willy Cordoba, 1:28 into the first period. Cordoba was the runnerup to John Paladino of Ridgefield Park, while Hernandez wound up with a 15-6 record and six piins.

Senior Bob Gauthier ended his BHS career with a 12-15 record. Gauthier lost a 5-2 preliminary round decision to Hilton Cruz of Don Bosco Tech at 160 pounds. Finally, Tom Haverick, wres-tling at 189 pounds, was pinned by Hasbrouck Height's Mike Russo at 1:47 of the opening round. Haverick finished the season with a 4-10 record and three pins.

THIS & THAT: Nutley's Joe

Zarra was voted the Region 4 Coach of the Year... Belleville was crowned the Region 4 team cham-pion, despite head to head iomes versus Bloomfield and West Essex. Sometimes it does pay to wrestle a tough schedule. 11 of the 16 teams on BHS's 10-6 schedule made the State Sectional Championships... Sympathies are extended to Joey Perna. The 1987 grad from Bellevil le had all his records, established as a senior, broken by his little brother John, a sophomore. Now Joey's only claim to fame is his status as the best looking Perna... The com-plete list of 1992-93 Region 4 win-

A Mini Page Visit

Schools in Taiwan

Taiwan is a small island very far away, in Asia. The Mini Page visited there to find out about Taiwan's kids and schools. Education is very important to children and their families. Parents are willing to make many sacrifices to help their children. Scholars are greatly respected by everyone.

If children want to honor their parents, they will do well in school.

When the students get to the ninth grade, they will take a test that will decide if they are to go on to high school and which one they will attend. Competition to be accepted into the best schools is very strong.

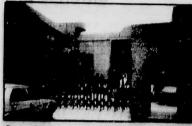

Getting off to a good start in the early grades matters a great deal. Many students go to tutors after school.

Big city

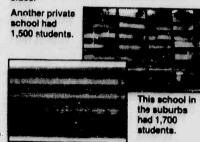

We visited schools in Taipei, the capital. Taipei is a crowded city. Most of the people live in apartments.

Big schools

school was in the middle of town. It had 16,000 students. Most schools have outside walkways and rooms with windows on two

The school year starts in February. Kids go to school 240 days a year. Kids go to school six days a week, Monday through Saturday. They go to school half a day on Wednesday and Saturday. Big classes

Like most classrooms, this one has more than 45 students. The teacher is using a microphone. There is a great deal of pressure to do well.

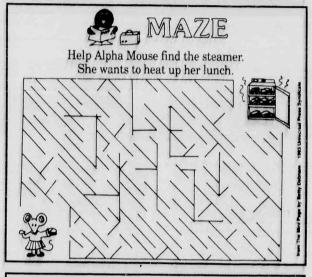

Many kids wear uniforms. Every student is assigned a number. Some wear them sewn on their uniforms. This girl's number shows her grade, room and seat number.

Big assembly

ore than 1,000 kids are in this assembly in a very big room. They don't sit down. This assembly has just ended. Kids usually stand with their hands at their sides and listen very carefully to the program. Most school kids are very well-behaved.

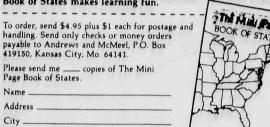

Mighty Mimi Jokes MY MOM PUT SO MUCH MOUSSE IN HER HAIR, YOU KNOW WHAT HAPPENED? SHE OREW ANTLERS! (sent in by Rachael Duckett) THAT'S MIGHTY Q: Why do soccer players get good grades? A: Because they use their heads! (sent in by Onkar Kapoor) Q: What kind of cheese do dogs like? A: Mutts-arella!

Attention, Students, Teachers and Parents! Take a state-by-state tour with The Mini Page gang and learn

The Mini Page Book of States is packed with helpful information on every state: capitals, birds, flowers, trees, industry and crops, geographical and historical facts, and more.
