Less than 20 percent of the voters turn out

Cicalese, Notari win seats on Board of Education; budget goes down 2-to-1; Pisano makes close race

By Howard Klausner

With 3,027 Belleville voters going to the polls, a political unknown and a former School Trustee were elected to the Board of Education, Tuesday, and the school budget was decisively rejected.

Mrs. Barbara Cicalese was top vote getter with 1,278 votes. School teacher John Notari was second, with 1,174. Board President Mrs. Patricia Pisano received 1,105. Challenger Robert Molinaro had 1,075. Trustee Vincent Marrone received 574.

The budget, which called for a 19-point tax increase, was defeated 1,769 to 852.

Winner Notari, a teacher at Clifton High School and an Adjunct Professor at Stevens Institute of Technology, said, "I'm tired. I'm happy. It's been six months of hard effort. It was my family and good friends who did it. No politicians helped me."

Barbara Cicalese

John Notari

Notari, a victor in his first attempt at elective office, promised, "I'm going to do the best, fairest job I can."

Mrs. Cicalese, well known for her chairmanship of B.A.S.E. -

Belleville Association for Substance Education - and long active in both parent-teacher organizations and Board of Education programs - will return to the Board on which she served one term previously.

"I'm extremely happy," Mrs. Cicalese said. "I'll give the best I can for the children of Belleville."

She accepted the defeat of the budget philosophically. "It's up to the Council now to do the cutting," she said.

Mrs. Pisano was considered by some observers as being the victim of the budget defeat, even though she had disassociated herself from it, as had Trustee Marrone.

Even with that handicap, Mrs. Pisano trailed by only 69 votes, in the unofficial tally.

Marrone accepted defeat as quietly as he had come on the scene, three years earlier. His defeat meant the loss of a conciliator on a frequently divided Board. He had posted few campaign signs, and had no organizational backing.

Molinaro made a creditable showing in his first experience as a campaigner.

He had received support from Trustee Joseph DelGuercio and he led the voting at the High School and the Rec House.

Mrs. Cicalese made particularly strong showings at School 4, School 7, School 8, School 9, School 10 and the Little League Field. Notari led at School 3. Pisano took the Middle School.

Notari, who had the strong backing of Trustee Gabe Nazzola, may have overwhelmed his rivals with sheer weight of academic degrees. He holds two Master's degrees and is working on his third.

Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, who had backed both his colleagues in their re-election efforts, congratulated the winners, and expressed regret over the loss of Mrs. Pisano and Marrone.

Possibly the biggest winner in the election was Trustee Nazzola, who was the loner and outsider on the Board two years ago and now may be closer to the Presidency of the Board than ever before in his career.

The budget now goes to the Township Council, whose majority has vowed to trim it drastically.

Scott promises aid to provide parking

By Howard Klausner

The Washington Avenue Merchants Association met with State Senator John Scott last week to discuss the problem of parking in the shopping area.

Robert Reiser, President of the association, said the primary need was not improved facades for stores but off-street shopper parking.

"The merchants are being choked out of business," Reiser said. "Every day, business gets worse."

Scott said he would give what assistance he could in providing funds.

He said that the state was offering community improvement grants.

Reiser said the primary need was additional parking. Part could be provided by allowing angle parking on Washington Avenue, which is a state highway.

So far, the New Jersey Department of Education has declined to permit angle parking, because it would reduce the amount of road available for traffic.

Currently, the Township Council is awaiting the outcome of discussions with the owners of two buildings on Washington Avenue, sought for demolition, to make way for 50 parking spaces.

Additional spaces at the municipal lot adjacent to the Town Hall are also being studied.

Those in attendance at Three Guys from Italy Restaurant expressed disappointment that Township Manager Stephen Cuccio did not attend the meeting.

Belleville to receive $270M

The Essex County Division of Housing and Community Development has awarded $270,000 in Block Grant Community Development Funds to Belleville. Essex County Executive Thomas D'Alesio has announced.

The projects include:

Fire hydrant replacement, to meet the need for satisfactory water pressure - $40,000.

Fifty percent matching grants for improvement of business facades - $20,000.

Replacement of sanitary sewers along Heckel and Kimball Streets - $70,000.

Total reconstruction of Linden Avenue from Little Street to Greylock Avenue; Valley Street from Belleville Avenue to William Street; Lloyd Place from Hornblower Avenue to DeWitt Avenue, and Brook Street, from Heckel Street to Newark border - $50,000.

Installation of new ramps at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center to provide access for handicapped persons - $30,000.

Little Zion Church celebrates 106th

Little Zion U.A.M.E. Church, 154 Stephens Street, Belleville, will celebrate its 106th anniversary on Sunday, April 25. The pastor Rev. Julius Bryant will officiate at the 11 a.m. worship service.

The day will conclude with a worship service at 3:30 p.m. Five children will be confirmed by the Rt. Rev. Earl L. Huff, Pontiff of the Union American Methodist Episcopal (U.A.M.E.) second and third districts.

The community is cordially invited to share this day with the congregation.

CHERRY BLOSSOM MOMENT - A traditional Japanese tea ceremony was held at the Cherry Blossom Festival, Saturday, attended by more than 200 people.

CHOLESTEROL TEST - Joe Grasso, center, of Belleville receives a cholesterol-lipid profile blood test at Mountsinai Hospital in Glen Ridge. Colleen Morris, left, Health Promotion Manager, and Phlebotomist Yvonne Harris attend. The next screening will be held Saturday, from 7 to 10:30 a.m. For registration or information, call (201) 429-6856.

Aside From That

By: Howard Kleiner

A man of creativity and imagination who added a new dimension to the expression, The Golden Years, left our midst recently. Dominick Bonfante was 88 at his passing, and he spent most of his life in Belleville. He arrived here at the age of seven from his birthplace in Caltanissetta, Sicily with his parents, Nicholas and Vincenza Piazza Bonfante, and he worked for more than 37 years as a technician with the National Yeast Corporation here. At 68, he retired from the firm and went to work for a family-owned business, Equipment Sales and Service, in Bloomfield where he remained active for another 15 years. ●●●●● At the age of 72, Mr. Bonfante suddenly developed a new career. According to daughter Connie De Palma, his "penchant for creative art and building luxury liners manifested itself. He produced a collection of ocean liners such as the Andrea Doria, Michelangelo, Atlantis, Oceanic, Leonardo Da Vinci, Titanic the Pacific Island Princess - to name a few. He created a few warships earlier. His collection was viewed . . . at Belleville, Bloomfield, Nutley and Caldwell Libraries. There were TV shows and many newspaper articles." His policy was simple. "He would see a ship he wanted to build from a travel brochure, gouge it out and created it all by hand." The models were usually three feet long. And he made every item from scratch. Once, a cruise line sent up a helicopter to photograph a ship for him, so that he could get more detail. ●●●●● While he virtually recreated the Italian Merchant Marine, he did not set foot aboard a ship from the time he left the St. John, the ship that brought him to America to the time he was 85, and finally boarded the Oceanic for a Senior Citizen outing to Bermuda. The trip here from Italy had been so horrendous that he and his then four-year-old brother, Samuel once kept themselves from being washed overboard by wedging themselves underneath a lifeboat. To stay tightly inside, they extended their stomachs. Samuel is happily alive in Bloomfield, and he has never been crazy about sea travel, either. ●●●●● Dominick Bonfante painted in oils, cross-pollinated flowers, laid cement walks, made furniture of iron and steel and repaired anything that turned a cogwheel. They needed four people to replace him at National Yeast. At the age of 85, Dominick decided to add to his formal education, which had ended at the seventh grade. He enrolled in night school for three nights a week, for a year. His classmates held a party for him at the end of the year. His wife, the former Frances Fiscella, predeceased him. He is survived by his children, Connie and Nicholas; brother Samuel and sister Mary Gammaro; nine grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Albert and Gail Paoli are back from a visit to Puerto Rico where they were treated like royalty. In the island Commonwealth, they ARE royalty. That is because Albert Paoli is the grandson of one of the greatest operatic tenors of the 20th Century, Antonio Paoli, who rivalled, and some say surpassed, Enrico Caruso. In his birthplace city of Ponce, streets and monuments are named after him, and when the Paolis entered any public place, such as a restaurant, he would be introduced simply as "the grandson of Antonio!" and people would rise to applaud. ●●●●● A year ago, the Commonwealth turned Antonio Paoli's home into a museum, the Casa Paoli and created an institution both to preserve his memory and provide scholarships for future singers. An editor of the San Juan Star Magazine, Connie Underhill, wrote of Antonio Paoli, "A giant of a man with brown curly hair and beard who waxed the edges of his mustache, he never entered a room, he made an entrance. His favorite dress offstage was impeccable white from hat to shoes but we was no slouch onstage either. For a performance of 'Lohengrin' before Emperor Franz Josef of Austria, he had a costume made of real silver mail, at a cost of $5,000. He married twice, to women considered among the great beauties of Europe and his own appearance was so striking that his most famous roles were tailored not only to his voice but also to his physique. His most famous was 'Otello,' a role he sang no less than 575 times." With blue eyes and a height of six feet three inches, he made an impression before he even sang.

He sang in practically every major opera house in the world. He never appeared at the New York Metropolitan Opera, for reasons that are still unclear. Caruso shared the stage with him on several occasions, elsewhere, and while he was performing at La Scala in Milan, his only child, Arnold was born to his first wife, Amalia. In his lifetime, he reportedly earned more than $3.5 million, but he was a man of incredible generosity and the grand gesture, one time giving someone a $100 bill which Antonio's wife had given him to buy food, their last $100. The singer's father was a native of Corsica who had settled in Ponce. His son, Arnold, moved to New York City in 1920, and he became a prominent teacher of music. "I remember people coming to our home who spoke many different languages. They came to get my father's opinion of their singing," Albert Paoli recalled. "He could speak French, Italian, Spanish and German." ●●●●● Antonio Paoli died in 1946 and Albert never saw him in life, but he has heard his voice through recordings. Albert is one of Antonio's three grandchildren. His brother and sister-in-law, Robert and Diane visited Ponce to attend the opening of Casa Paoli, and made the trip again with Albert and his wife. "It was my first trip," Albert said, "but I plan to go again."

Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten, visited the Cherry Blossom Festival at Branch Brook Park and was happy to see so many township officials on their best behavior. "First they had the Tea Ceremony, followed by the Get Lost Ceremony, with Essex County Executive Tom D'Alessio crossing off Doc Noonan's name from the Guest List. They closed with the singing of 'My Buddy'." ●●●●● Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says the loudmouths at the Township Council and Board of Education meetings must have organized their own cult. "But this one is different. In this cult, they drive everyone else to suicide."

Kennedy forgoes Freeholder race, endorses Imperiale and Gehring

Kevin G. Kennedy announced last week that he is foregoing the race for the First District Freeholder primary in June and is going to seek a Belleville-at-large Council seat in the May, 1994 election.

"I had been planning to run in the June primary for first district Freeholder, but I want to concentrate on getting Anthony Imperiale and Yolanda Reigada Gehring elected to the Freeholder Board in November," Kennedy said. "After the June primary, I will make it clear who I support for the First District race."

"As many people in Belleville know, I support the person, not the party affiliation. Too many people have asked me to run for the Council in May and you can say this is it. I am officially running for the at-large seat on the Council," Kennedy added.

"I want all my Republican friends in Belleville to know I am supporting Christine Todd Whitman for Governor, John Scott for Senate, Anthony Imperiale and Yolanda Reigada Gehring for Freeholder-at-Large, and I encourage everyone to go out to vote on June 8," he said.

Students lobby for state aid

Essex County College students from the towns of Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield will rally in Trenton on April 27 for affordable tuition and increased state funding for community colleges. Essex County College will join their fellow community college students from around New Jersey on the State House steps in a show of support for their institutions.

The second annual "Community College Awareness Day" enables students to visit with their local legislators and discuss current higher educational issues that are now being deliberated before both houses of the legislature. Last year, Community College Awareness Day drew hundreds of students to the State Capitol. Organizers of the event are anticipating the student turnout to be in the thousands this year.

Community College Awareness Day was first begun two years ago to make legislators aware that community colleges are an integral part of New Jersey's higher education system.

"There is great sentiment in Legislature to recognize the importance of education," said Assemblyman David Wolfe at last year's rally. "I have spent my entire professional life working in a community college and I know there is a need to organize — to inform the Legislature and the Governor on how important our mission is."

This year, students will be advocating that the Legislature adopt the proposed Tuition Stabilization Incentive Program (TSIP) which would keep tuition increases at 5 percent or below. TSIP would provide $10.4 million in new state funding for community colleges and would assist the colleges in keeping tuition low.

Also on the student lobbyists' agenda is support for keeping the community colleges' base budgets intact. Last year, community colleges lost $4.3 million due to cuts in the base budget.

Finally, students will be recommending that the "Jobs of the Future" Bond and Equipment Fund be approved by the Legislature. The $200 million "Jobs of the Future" bond will be used for state-of-the-art instructional, laboratory, communication, and research facilities for the state's colleges and universities. An additional $100 million Equipment Fund has been proposed for instructional, computing, and research equipment.

"I think it's time the Legislature lives up to its responsibility and fully funds higher education, since it is they who keep saying how important education is to our state's future," said Mustapha Sandi, President of the Student Government Association at Essex County College.

S. akers representing different colleges will address the crowd beginning at 10:30 a.m.; students will march to the State House at 11 a.m., rally for about an hour, then meet with legislators until 1:30 p.m.

For more information about Community College Awareness Day April 27, or to sign up to attend, call the Essex County College Office of Student Life & Activities at 877-3208 or 403-2551.

Walkathon helps girl in Nutley

The local chapter of the Dystonia Medical Research Foundation has announced they are having the first of what we hope will be an annual Walkathon, May 16. All Walkathon proceeds go to medical research for dystonia.

Dystonia is a progressive neurological disorder that affects one or many parts of the body. Severe spasms cause distortion and can be debilitating.

The walkathon is the first of several planned activities for this year. Co-chairperson, Tony Buscema, indicated there is a great deal of excitement about this. Sponsors have already given some incentives to the chapter.

All children participating will receive a Mattel "Hot Wheels" collectors car. Anyone participating will receive a dystonia walkathon t-shirt. As a participant and/or volunteer, each person's name will automatically be entered in a special "free" drawing for a (pre-owned) car. No one can buy a ticket for this drawing, it is only for walkathon participants and/or volunteers. The drawing will take place at the conclusion of the walkathon at DeMuro Park Track.

There will be refreshments and entertainment. The main raffle for a trip for two to the South Hampton Princess in Bermuda (air fare included) will cost $1 donation. This trip, the car, the hot wheels and the t-shirts were all donated to the walkathon.

A young Nutley girl feels the excitement. She knows many people walking in this event, will be walking for her. Melissa Centrella is afflicted with dystonia. Melissa was in grammar school when dystonia hit her. She is now 16 years old and has generalized dystonia. Generalized dystonia affects many parts of the body. Melissa has difficulty eating, speaking, writing and doing any activities with her limbs. She is wheelchair bound. This disorder has also had a profound affect on her family.

Melissa's dream is to dance. With help from friends and family, we may be able to make this dream come true. Medical research has not been able to find the cause of dystonia, there is no known cure and medical treatment is minimal.

This very active New Jersey local chapter hopes people from all over the area and especially people in Nutley will join them this year for a day of good work and a lot of fun. They hope to raise the much needed funds for continuing research.

Local stores in Nutley and the surrounding towns will have the forms and information to sign up as volunteers and walkers. You may call the following numbers to secure the information by mail: 342-6643, 661-3978, 997-0488.

Put a smile on Melissa's face and make her dream come true. Any donations may be sent to Dystonia Medical Research Foundation, 133 Spatz Avenue, Nutley, NJ 07110.

The walkathon will be held rain or shine.

Students at School No. 3 read 368 books and raised $1,083.85 during the Multiple Sclerosis Readathon. This reading campaign was supervised by Betty Johnson, librarian, and supported by Raffaella Saulino, principal. Top readers were Vanessa Brooks, Matthew Haight, Michele Haight, Edward A. Roberts was the top fundraiser. Mrs. Janik's third grade class read the most books, 98, and raised the most money, $339.95. They won a banner, which they proudly displayed in their classroom. Miss Johnson, encouraged the reading campaign and thanks the parents for their commitment and support.

OUR OPINION

Another copout

The burden of cutting the Board of Education budget falls on the Township Council, in the event of its defeat by the public.

The Council looks forward to reducing the 19-point tax increase embodied in the budget, but it does not really want the job.

Fortunately for the school system, the State of New Jersey has the authority to rewrite the budget cuts that will come from the Township Council.

Unfortunately, secure in the knowledge that whatever idiocies are committed in cutting the budget will be remedied by the Department of Education in Trenton, the Council will do its grandstanding best to show how brutal it can be with the schools.

The result is a waste of time for the Council and the public at large. Some reduction may be allowed to stand, but not as much as the diehard school haters would like, and not enough to avoid some damage to the schools.

Until the parents of the youngsters attending our schools take an interest in the school elections, the welfare of their children will remain at risk.

Taking it out on the children is not the best way to insure the future of Belleville.

Before it becomes a path

Washington Avenue businesspeople have been promised shopper parking for the past three years, but the process remains painfully slow.

The acquisition of two adjoining buildings, in order to replace them with parking lots, is moving slowly. The possibility of multi-level parking on the present Township-owned lot adjoining the Municipal Building is not even under discussion.

The lack of parking is choking business.

At least one new retail store with a promising future now faces a closing. There is just no place for the customers to park.

The more established businesses continue to see their revenues decline and a report circulated among the local banks shows that there was no business growth last year.

That is equivalent to stagnation and worse.

A loss of retail business will be reflected in increased property taxes, and every homeowner has a stake in the business health of the community.

At least 50 additional parking spaces are needed, and the number should really be 250.

The traffic flow - more than 14,000 cars a day - is there. We simply do not take advantage of it.

Who are we kidding?

Some veterans of World War II recall that they never encountered many Nazis - that is, card-carrying members of the National Socialist party - as they fought through Europe. But they did get shot at by a lot of guys in Wehrmacht uniforms.

Yet, according to today's television commentators and the press, it is always the "Nazis" who fought us, and committed all those atrocities.

And on V-E Day, they vanished into thin air.

Perhaps this kind of fiction is necessary to achieve reconciliation. But friendship should be based on truth, and not on wishful fantasy.

This detachment from truth allows for a strange set of values. Recently, there were German protests against an English statue of Royal Air Force General "Bomber" Harris, because his bombers destroyed German cities. At the same time, there was a formal celebration of the anniversary of the launching of the first German V-1 rocket, which was aimed at British cities.

People are entitled to their own mythology. But let us beware of the myths that lead us to Waco, Jonestown, the Bataan Death March and Auschwitz.

Hospice thanks volunteers

To the Editor:

April 18 to 24 is National Volunteer Week, and I want to publicly acknowledge 209 unique individuals who offer our patients and families a special kind of caring.

Volunteers are so important to Hospice that Medicare regulations require that part of our work hours be provided on a volunteer basis. This makes Hospice unique. Nationally, almost 70,000 of the total of about 90,000 Hospice workers are volunteers. Last year, they gave well over 5 million hours of their precious spare time to serve the dying and their families. That's 5 million points of light.

No task is too big or too small for our volunteers, but often the most important thing they can do is just "be there" for patients, to reassure them they are not alone, to hold a hand, to offer a smile, or to share a "good cry." The volunteers who help in the office and those who work tirelessly to raise funds to enable Hospice to care for patients regardless of ability to pay enrich the program enormously.

This type of volunteer work is not easy but the personal rewards are great. The strength and courage of patients provide a constant source of inspiration, and volunteers usually feel they gain more than they have been able to give.

The Hospice, Inc. is growing as more and more persons in Essex and West Hudson counties seek our help. For this reason, we have a constant need for new volunteers. If you would like to learn more about Hospice volunteering, I invite you to call 201-429-0300.

In the meantime, we should all be grateful to the volunteers of Hospice, Inc. for the wealth of time and compassion they give for the betterment of our community.

Honi Weiss, Sr. Director of Volunteers
The Hospice, Inc., Glen Ridge

Strange bedfellows?

To the editor:

What's the old saying? Politics make strange bedfellows! Boy that old saying sure is true in Belleville even though Board of Education elections are supposed to be a non-partisan election. It looks like we have all the old political hacks involved in this one. If you are wondering why this one more than any of the other elections lately, it is because certain political "hopefuls" are making it known that political job patronage is a bargaining chip in this election. You even have incumbent politicians getting involved with hopes of getting certain family members jobs in our educational systems. Since I have worked in many political elections I heard about these things happening, but I never thought anyone would stoop so low as to promise jobs to people in our schools just to get elected when the kids are going to suffer for it.

Ann Brave

Blaming the schools

To the editor:

Please stop using the children as excuses for the raising of more taxes for the people of Belleville. Mr. Nardiello says cuts would be damaging to schools but how about the taxpayers which some can't keep up their homes. What is the reason that New Jersey is the top state for foreclosures. I believe the schools get enough and they should also cut down in these times.

Vito J. Cardinale

DPW is thanked

To the editor:

I want to thank the Department of Public Works for being prompt in shoveling the snow on Franklin Avenue between Continental & Joralemon Street during the heavy snow storm especially the seniors who have to walk along there.

Pre-school program praised

To The Editor,

My daughter has been attending the Belleville Recreation Department's Afternoon Pre-school Play Program since September. I have been so pleased with this program that I wanted to publicly commend two people who have made it so successful.

Mr. Dennis Buckley, who runs this program, has created a well rounded environment where the children get a variety of activities from play time, games, songs and learning, to field trips, parties and other special events. Thank you, Dennis.

Although it is primarily a play program, the children have learned a great deal and are well prepared for Kindergarten, thanks to the teacher of this group, Marlene Cetruolo, affectionately known as Mrs. "C". There are not enough words of praise to bestow upon this woman. Her dedication and patience in creating a loving and fun filled atmosphere has made this pre-school year educational as well as exciting for the children. She has gone above and beyond her duties and has treated each child with the same measure of kindness and understanding.

Thank you Mrs. "C" for all you have done to make this year a most memorable one. You are a wonderful person and an outstanding teacher. We love you and God bless you!

• A HAPPENING on Friday, April 16th at Delray Beach, Florida, City Hall reminded me of a similar incident not too long ago at Nutley's Town Hall. A news account follows:

"Delray City Hall robbed. Clocks, radios, telephones, staplers, a bottle of hand lotion and an empty candy box were taken late Thursday or early Friday from the Delray Beach Finance Department office, according to police. There was no sign of forced entry into the office, which is on the second floor of City Hall, police said."

Not too long ago, Nutley's Revenue and Finance Department first floor office, was entered into, no sign of forced entry, and money was taken from the surface of an office desk. It represented tax receipts ready to be deposited.

• WHEN I'm at my Highland Beach, Florida, home, weather permitting, (which means 95% of the time) I take a daily walk - two miles each way, which brings me past the quaint Highland Beach Town Hall-Library-Police and Fire departments (all in one complex). And - I can't help noticing a memorial marker honoring the memory of former town council person, Betty Jean Stewart. The path in front of town hall was dedicated in her honor.

In rejecting the Greco suggestion, Commissioner Cocchiola stated he had another memorial in mind to perpetuate the memory of the late Commissioner/Assemblyman Orechio. Cocchiola went one step further. He conferred with Carl's widow, Elizabeth Orechio, and assured her a suitable memorial will be dedicated by Commissioner Cocchiola at an early date. Well - Carl died December 28, 1991, seventeen months ago - and not another peep from Commissioner Cocchiola. Wonder why?

• THE Essex County Democratic Organization announced its scheduled April 20th reception honoring Governor Jim Florio is rescheduled for the Fall.

Essex County Democratic Chairman Tom D'Alessio explained that the purse was going to be turned over to the Florio Primary Election Campaign Committee, but since Florio has no meaningful Primary opposition, D'Alessio decided a Fall fundraiser would better aid the cause for Florio's re-election.

Tom D'Alessio

• WHEN the Serbs marched into the Bosnian town of Srebrenica, it marked a day of infamy for the Free World and its leader - the United States of America.

England's noble Margaret Thatcher had it right when she labelled European leaders sitting in the bleachers observing the mayhem as "accomplices to massacre." She rightfully called for aggressive air strikes against Serbian military targets. "We cannot remain bystanders, this is evil," she insisted. There has been too much double speak from the Clinton Administration. When Clinton was on the campaign trail, he was charging then President George Bush with failure to take the offensive against Serbia.

• I MOURN the passing of two family friends that go way back into time. Elizabeth Gualberto, widow of Ralph Gualberto, died Saturday - the same day her brother, Tony D'Ambola was buried.

Our family friendship - the Gualbertos and the Orechios - goes back to the old country. The late Ralph Gualberto and my father were from the same Italian province. In better days, they and a few friends would gather every Saturday afternoon in our basement recreation room, playing cards in the company of the then popular, quarter keg of beer. Each game ended up with the selection of a "boss" who would decide which player - including the odd man out - would gulp down eight glasses of wine or beer. The "boss" at times, would stick it to any "enemy" by forcing him to drink all eight glasses - or - decide to punish one of more players by denying them a drink.

Ralph Gualberto was probably my father's best friend, and ended up being my best friend. Elizabeth was a wonderful wife and mother.

I recommended Tony D'Ambola, an expert heavy duty electrician, for the position he held at the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission. He brought much expertise to the job. He didn't have an enemy in the world. Everybody liked him.

Both Elizabeth and Tony will be missed.

• IF you are in the Delray-Boca Raton area of Florida and want to enjoy a good Italian meal and delicious pizza - no worry - The Cafe Roma, owned and operated by Ernesto and Donna DiMeo, in Delray Beach serves excellent food. In Boca Raton's 5th Avenue Shopping Mall, Ernesto serves a delicious and very satisfying pizza. He serves them thin or thick. I like the half inch pizza. The Roma Pizzeria in the 5th Avenue Shopping Mall also serves lunch and dinner.

• TOM INFUSINO, Wakefern (Shop-Rite) Supermarket Chain president, would remember Tony Barletta, customer passenger agent of Eastern Airlines at the Fort Lauderdale International Airport. To my surprise, after many years, I met Tony at the Palm Beach International Airport. He was waiting to meet a friend due on an incoming plane. Tony is now an agent for Allstate Insurance Co. in Stuart. He was quite a guy. Friendly, decent and efficient, Tony was one of a kind. He was a great asset to Eastern.

TOWN OF HIGHLAND BEACH

Shortly after my brother Carl died, civic leader Tony Greco, voluntarily appeared before the Town Commission and suggested Carl's public service in behalf of the town people merited a worthy memorial and he went on to suggest that the Park Avenue Recreation Center be named in Carl's memory.

The facility is in the jurisdiction of Nutley Parks & Public Property Commissioner Frank Cocchiola, a blood cousin of Carl Orechio.

Officials install security system

Essex County officials unveiled a new state of the art security system designed to upgrade security procedures in the Court Complex which is the largest and busiest in New Jersey. Features of the new system include bomb detecting x-ray machines and magnetometers.

Essex County Sheriff Armando Fontoura, whose department is responsible for security in the three buildings, provided details of the initiative which became operational recently, along with County Executive Thomas D'Alessio and Superior Court Assignment Judge Burrell Ives Humphreys.

"Court security can no longer be operated in a laissez-faire manner," said the Sheriff. "No jurisdiction in the nation is immune from the potential threats that exist from emotional or frustrated litigants, desperate or dangerous criminals, and even terrorist attacks. Current social and economic conditions have also added to the likelihood of courts being the object of attack. Our new system is designed to minimize this growing risk by utilizing the most up to date technology available so that the integrity of the system and those who use it are better protected."

The security upgrade, which will cost in excess of $500,000, restructures, how, when and where the public and county employees gain access to the Court Complex which includes, the Old Court House, Hall of Records, and the New Courts Building. The Essex County court system is the largest and busiest Superior Court Vicinage in New Jersey and one of the largest in the Nation. It is home to 67 Judges.

The security upgrade includes identification cards that have been issued to all county employees and court personnel, along with attorneys who work in the County which must be visibly worn at all times while within the complex. Each building in the complex now has one employee entrance, and another for the general public who will be required to pass through the screening system before being permitted to enter the facility.

Persons must walk through an overhead Magnetometer and all packages must pass through X-Ray apparatus both designed to detect the presence of any weapons or explosive devices much like the equipment commonly used in airports. Hand held magnetometers will also be used at various check points.

The intricate system also will eventually include closed circuit surveillance cameras that will monitor the interior and exterior of the complex, a duress alarm system to be installed in all courtrooms and judges suites, and spontaneous alarms for all doors in the complex. Such alarms will be installed at over 260 different locations within the three buildings. The self monitoring system will check itself for problems or glitches on an hourly basis. Alarms will be recorded in the Sheriff's Department's Bureau of Criminal Identification which is manned by Sheriff's Officers 24 hours a day.

Sheriff Fontoura stated that the system has proven capability since similar systems are effectively working in Union County and at a U.S. Army terminal in Bayonne. Addressing the sophisticated screening system, the Sheriff pointed out that it is sensitivity adjustable to control most false alarms, and some of the screening machines are equipped with color enhancers to help firmly identify the identity of an object.

The Sheriff also indicated that the system was both expandable and portable and will therefore be able to keep pace with future needs.

County Executive Thomas D'Alessio pointed out that the buildings comprising the sprawling court complex were not particularly designed with security in mind and over the years security threats have grown. "I am pleased that we have been able to work together with the Sheriff's Department and the Judiciary to implement this important improvement. The safety of all those who work and conduct business here is of utmost concern and importance," he said.

Officials explained in 1985 the State Supreme Court mandated that all counties upgrade security and established system models for the counties to utilize. The Essex County plan was reviewed and approved by the State Administrative Offices of the Courts, and the Essex County Assignment Judge. Financing for the massive project was approved by the Board of Freeholders last Spring.

"While this project has been planned for quite some time, the bombing incident at the World Trade Center has obviously heightened our awareness and concern regarding the threat of violence in public facilities," said Sheriff Fontoura, whose department employs a Bomb Unit with specially trained technicians and bomb sniffing canines. "Our new system will put us into a better preventive position to deal with this growing problem," the Sheriff concluded thanking both County Executive D'Alessio and Judge Humphreys for their cooperation and support.

Calendar of Events

Photography Exhibit: A Photography Exhibit of the North American Rockies by Frederick Dammont will be on exhibit during library hours at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center through April 30.

Displays: A "Doll Collection" by Virginia Heldon of Glen Rock will be on display in the large exhibit case.

"Postcards" by Paula Dorival of Belleville will be on exhibit in the library's small exhibit case.

April 22 — The film "Arch of Triumph" will be shown at 1 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Avenue.

April 23 — A Secret Movie will be shown at 2 p.m. in the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room.

April 26 — A Young Teen Discussion will be held from 3:15-4:00 p.m. at the Shafter Branch Library, 30 Magnolia Street.

April 28 — A lecture and book discussion of "All the King's Men" by Dr. Jane Brown, Professor of English, Trenton State College, will take place at 1 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Avenue.

April 29 — The film "Plaza Suite" will be shown at 1 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Avenue.

Library Board of Trustee Member Kenneth R. Broo will be honored at 7:30 p.m. for his 32 years of service to the Library, at which time a special lecture will be delivered by noted scholar and performer Dr. Elliot Engel, who will speak on the topic, "The Dickens Nobody Knows."

Young Teen Book Discussion

A Young Teen Book Discussion will take place on April 26 from 3:15-4:00 p.m., followed by refreshments at the Shafter Branch Library, 30 Magnolia Street. Discuss a recent book that you have read in an informal atmosphere. Please register by April 22 and let us know what book you will be discussing.

Materials for handicapped adults

Large type and talking books are available for adults that are handicapped with special needs. "Anyone having visual impairment is encouraged to visit the library's large-type collection of new books in the lobby of the library," Frederick Lewis, chairperson for handicapped services at the library, has commented. "Those seeking previous best sellers and popular non-fiction in large type can visit the large type collection of the second floor," Lewis has added.

In addition, the library has a collection of talking books, such as "Ben Hur," "Dances With Wolves," "Dazzle," "The Eagles and the Raven," and "Final Dictation: A Medical Mystery," to name a few. You can request the complete list on your next library visit.

Any handicapped adult wishing to receive services from the N.J. Library for the Blind and Handicapped may obtain an application from the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, at the Library's Circulation Desk.

Lecture and book discussion

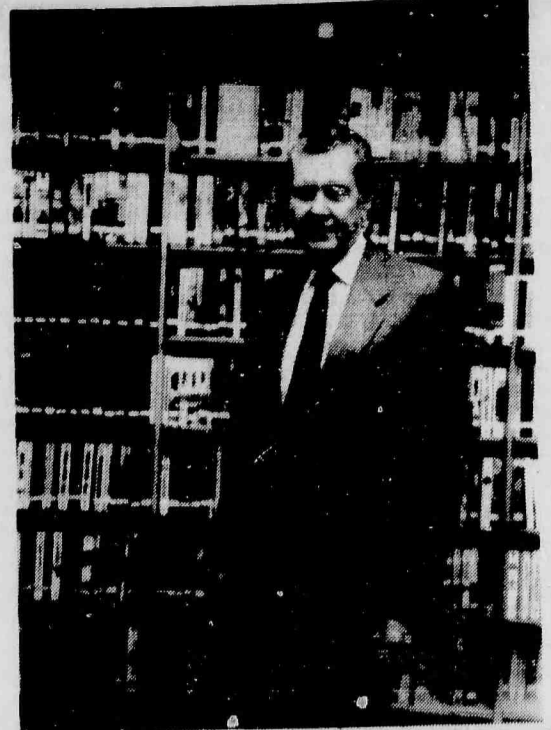

The Belleville Public Library and Information Center Lecture and Book Discussion Series for 1993, provided by a Matching Grant from the New Jersey Committee for the Humanities, continues on April 28 at 1 p.m. with a lecture by Dr. Jane Brown, Professor of English, Trenton State College, on "All the King's Men," Robert Penn Warren's story of a 30's politician, resembling Huey Long. Warren probes the paradox of the moral necessity, that in an imperfect world, change for good only comes from evil.

To register for the lecture and the series, call the Circulation Desk at 450-3434 or Adrea Cohen, Project Coordinator.

New Jersey references

Recently added to the collection of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center from the office of Jim Florio, Governor, is the "State of New Jersey Fiscal Year 1993-1994" and "Disability Law; A Legal Primer," prepared by the Essex County Bar Association Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and provided by the office of John V. Kelly, Assemblyman, 36th District.

Please ask your reference librarian for help in locating these references in the library.

MAN OF HONOR — For his 32 years of service as Library Board of Trustee Member, Kenneth R. Broo will be honored on April 29 at 7:30 p.m. with a special lecture in his honor by Dr. Elliot Engel, a scholar and performer, who will speak on the topic: "The Dickens Nobody Knows."

Trustee to be honored

Library Board of Trustee Member, Kenneth R. Broo, who has served faithfully on the Library Board for 32 years and is serving his seventh term since his appointment by George R. Kiernan in April, 1960, will be honored on April 29 at 7:30 p.m. with a special lecture in his honor by Dr. Elliot Engel, a scholar and performer, who will speak on the topic: "The Dickens Nobody Knows."

In his more than three decades as a trustee, Broo has held the position of president, treasurer and secretary of the Library Board of Trustees.

Broo has served with such dignity that five mayors have reappointed him after the end of each of his five year terms.

If you plan to attend the celebration and lecture, call the library at 450-3434.

Art League sponsors outdoor show

On May 8, the Township of Bloomfield will host the 42nd annual "Town Paints," one of the oldest outdoor art shows in the state. The annual "Town Paints" is sponsored by the Bloomfield Art League and the Bloomfield Recreation Commission and this will be the 42nd year exhibiting on the Town Green. The exhibit, which is open to the public, is a great opportunity for both amateur and professional artists to show their work.

There will be categories in oil, watercolor, graphics and other media for both amateur and professional artists and a special category for children and teens up to 18 years of age.

The rain date for this outdoor show is May 15. Receiving for the show is 8:30 to 10 a.m. on the day of the show with a $5 entry fee per painting for adults only. There is no fee for children. All paintings must be framed and wired for hanging. Wet paintings will not be accepted.

The judging for "Town Paints" will be done by renowned artists Louis Panagini and Al Fartunato. There will be over $1,000 in cash and merchandise prizes awarded.

The "Town Paints" is held on "The Green" opposite the Bloomfield Civic Center, 84, Broad Street. For further information, daytime and evenings until 8 p.m., call 201-893-0191 or 201-736-4923, or pick up a brochure at the Civic Center.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Essex County Division of Employment Training/Private Industry Council is preparing to entertain offers for provision of employment and training activities to be funded under the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) during Program Year 1993 (70193 - 63094). PY 1993 Request for Proposal (RFP) packages will be available April 23, 1993, and may be obtained from Robin Guarino, Senior Program Planner, at Division offices, 15 South Munn Avenue, 4th floor, East Orange, New Jersey 07018. RFP packages will not be mailed; interested offerors must pick up packages or arrange for pick up. Further, all proposals for funding consideration must be submitted per format and directions contained in PY 1993 RFP packages. Activities and services for which the Division / PIC will entertain proposals are as follows:

1. Class-Size Occupational Training for Out-of-School Youth and/or Adults: Vocational training in occupational areas specified in the RFP package. Programs may address specific or general client populations.
2. Class-Size Occupational Training/On-the-Job-Training for Out-of-School Youth and Adults: Vocational training in occupational areas specified in the RFP package and combined with a training area-specified OJT component.
3. Individual Referral Occupational Classroom Training for Out-of-School Youth and Adults: Vocational training in areas specified in the RFP in instances where the Division/PIC will enroll clients on a case-by-case basis. The Division / PIC will place all schools/programs approved by the PIC in a referral pool to be activated on an as-needed basis throughout the year.
4. On-the-Job-Training: Partially subsidized employment whereby individuals are hired by employers and trained while working. Only employers may place offers for this activity.
5. English-as-a-Second-Language (ESL) for Out-of-School Youth and/or Adults: ESL training which must be combined with job development and job placement activities.
6. Programs for Disabled / Handicapped Out-of-School Youth and/or Adults: Vocational training or OJT programs in any combination of single activity type designed specifically for a handicapped / disabled population. Programs must enroll exclusively NJDVR-certified handicapped/disabled individuals and be proposed by offerors which traditionally serve such populations.
7. Job Seeking Skills/Job Development/Job Placement for 5% Older Workers: Indicated services to assist economically disadvantaged individuals over 55 years of age to obtain and retain employment. This activity may not include vocational training. Training for clients requiring occupational skill development may be submitted per item No. 1.

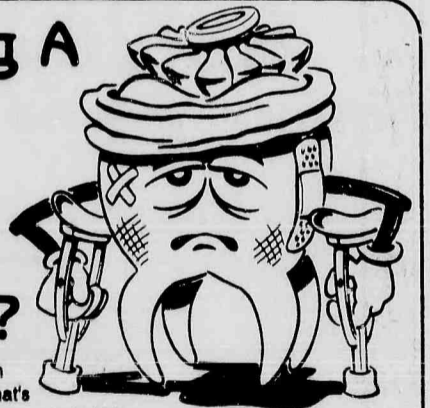

Complete descriptions of contract formats, proposal requirements, application procedures, schedules and other pertinent information are contained in the RFP document.

SEEKS BOARD - John Notari, who is both a high school teacher and a college professor, seeks a place on the Belleville Board of Education.

LaMonica named communications director with United Way

Joseph G. LaMonica of Belleville has been named communications director with the United Way - Princeton Area Communities. He will be responsible for public relations and publications for the agency. Last year the Princeton United Way raised $3.1 million and provided funding for 37 human and social service agencies throughout the region.

LaMonica most recently served as a consultant with The Writing Company in Newark. He has previously worked as communications director with the Metro Newark Chamber of Commerce, as senior communications specialist with Blue Cross and Blue Shield of New Jersey, and as communications director with the United Way in Newark, where he later served as a volunteer. LaMonica was named in

"Who's Who in Business and Professions - 1992." He is a graduate of Temple University in Philadelphia and a candidate for his M.A. in Corporate Communications at Seton Hall University in South Orange.

"We are very happy to add Mr. LaMonica to our professional staff," said Richard Grigos, executive director of United Way - Princeton Area Communities. "He has a wide range of experience in both the private and non-profit sectors. Equally important, he has worked for United Way as a staff person and as a volunteer. He understands the issues that face the United Way movement as we strive to renew ourselves as the best way people in the community can care for one another."

Jennifer Fernicola wins DAR Award

By Danielle Disporto

In the State of New Jersey, one student from each school was picked to win the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Award. Jennifer Fernicola was the student picked from Belleville High School.

DAR is a women's organization of descendants of people who fought in the American Revolution. This is also the criteria for eligibility for an award.

In Belleville, three school leaders were nominated. From the three, teachers picked the student whom they thought was most qualified. Jennifer went to Rutgers University on March 16 to receive her award at a luncheon. The award was a pin and certificate which represents good citizenship.

Jennifer worked very hard to achieve this award. Belleville is very proud of her outstanding leadership qualities and her achievements, including this honor.

Clara Maass sponsoring domestic violence forum

Domestic violence is a serious crime against society, affecting thousands of people each year. During 1991, females were victims in 47,140 domestic violence offenses in the State of New Jersey.

To address this problem, Friends

Montclair Police Dept.; the Rev. Jill C. Fenske, pastor, Franklin Reformed Church, Nutley and Associate Staff, Regional Synod of the Mid-Atlantic Reformed Church in America; Marilyn Savioia, Esq., managing attorney, Newark Essex Legal Services; Patty Lue Boff, director, The Safe House, Clara Maass Medical Center; and a survivor of domestic violence.

The seminar, although designed for school, social service personnel and police officers, is open to anyone with a special interest in domestic violence issues. Designed to increase awareness, the seminar will address the dynamics of family Belleville, Bloomfield or Nutley. Assistance is given in grocery shopping. Companionship and telephone reassurance are also available. All three services are available free of charge through the volunteer program.

Division on Aging and United Way funding are the resources that enable this program to operate at no cost to seniors.

Once a month volunteer meetings are scheduled. Interested men and women are invited to attend 2 to 4 p.m. April 22 at Fewsmith Presbyterian Church, 444 Union Ave., Belleville. Guest speaker is an A.A.R.P. representative who will present AARP's Health Care Reform package that will be presented to President Clinton.

Steve Aduato Jr.

of The Safe House will present a program, "Every Third Woman: Violence in the American Home," 8:30 to 11 a.m. May 19 at the Sheraton Meadowlands, East Rutherford.

The program will consist of a panel discussion moderated by Steve Aduato Jr., WWOR-TV, WNET-TV and PBS. Speakers will include Detective John Gilligan,

Glenn VanBenschoten — Andrea Cammarato

Andrea Cammarato to wed Glenn VanBenschoten

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cammarato of Belleville announce the engagement of their daughter, Andrea Lyn, to Glenn VanBenschoten.

Miss Cammarato, an alumna of Belleville High School and Seton Hall University, cum laude, is an assistant art director with Advocate Publishing Corp.

Mr. VanBenschoten, a graduate of Elmwood Park High School and William Paterson College, summa cum laude, is the elementary band director with the Belleville school system.

The wedding is planned for August 1994.

Greater Essex Girl Scout Council seeking adult volunteers

Do you have special skills or interests you'd like to share with girls which would help them develop to their fullest potential? The Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County is seeking adult volunteers in the Belleville area to lead troops, conduct trainings, act as chaperones and be consultants for a variety of programs ranging from the arts to sciences, health and safety, camping and outdoor skills and leadership development.

Time commitments vary for the volunteer position that is held. Typically, leading a troop requires two to three hours a week of preparation/ activity time. However, scheduling meetings is up to the volunteer so length and frequency are flexible. Troops meet weekly, bi-monthly or monthly and many Greater Essex troops meet at night or on weekends. All volunteers receive thorough training appropriate to the age level or activity they will be involved in.

If you are interested in volunteering your time to Girl Scouts, call the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County at 746-8200.

Bereavement support group starts this month at Hospice

The Hospice, Inc. is forming a bereavement group which will meet 7 to 8:30 p.m. Wednesdays at its headquarters, 3 High St., Glen Ridge.

The group will begin at the end of April and run for 10 weeks, offering bereavement education and support. Hospice professionals will conduct the sessions.

There will also be a parent / children's group forming for those who have lost a loved one to AIDS. This group will begin in May and meet 6 to 7 p.m. Tuesdays. There is no charge for either of these community outreach programs.

To register for either group, call the social service department at Hospice, 429-0300.

GENTLE GIANT — Joey is a four-month-old bright, friendly puppy who needs a loving home. He is in a foster home where he is being housebroken and obedience trained. Joey and many other dogs and cats will be at the April 25 People for Animals adoption event, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Chatham Animal Hospital, 14 Watchung Ave., Chatham. To adopt Joey, call (908) 241-4954 or 355-6374.

Stork Club

Matthew David Vitiello

A first child, a son, Matthew David, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vitiello of Bloomfield Dec. 29 at Mountsinai Hospital, Montclair.

Mrs. Vitiello is the former Suzanne Roseme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roseme of Closter. Mr. Vitiello is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vitiello Sr. of Belleville.

Local Knights of Columbus campaigning for the retarded

The Belleville Knights of Columbus will participate in the Knights of Columbus National Retarded Citizens Drive, April 22, 23, 24 and 25.

Knights, their ladies and other volunteers will collect donations for adults and children who are mentally handicapped. Organizing the event are Joe Wolf and Frank Corbo, past grand knights and Grand Knight Tom Doefferinger.

Persons wishing to donate by mail may send contributions to Knights of Columbus Council 835, Retarded Citizens Fund, 94 Bridge St., Belleville, 07109.

Last year alone, the Knights of Columbus donated $95 million to worldwide charities. Sixty three percent of all charitable donations were made by the Knights who also provided 70 percent of the manpower donated by fraternal organizations.

Advanced directives available in Spanish and English

The Friendly Visitors Program has Spanish and English advanced directives available.

An advanced directive is a written statement you prepare in advance about what kind of medical care you want in the event you become unable to make decisions for yourself.

The Friendly Visitors program is a volunteer program that provides assistance for older adults. Volunteers are matched to a senior living in violence, identification of primary and secondary victims, strategies for intervention, legal remedies available and services available for victims and their families.

There is no admission charge to the seminar. However, registration by phone is required. For more information or to register, contact The Safe House at 759-2154.

The Safe House, an emergency shelter for victims of domestic violence and their children, is an affiliate of Clara Maass Medical Center. Since its opening in 1986, over 2,000 women and children have sought refuge in the shelter. A 24-hour hotline — for shelter admission, crisis counseling, referral and advocacy — has processed over 9,000 calls since its inception in 1986.

Within New Jersey, Essex County has three times the rate of domestic violence of any other county. The Safe House is one of two shelters serving all of Essex County and the only shelter affiliated with a hospital. Friends of the Safe House is a support group of the shelter which provides educational and fundraising activities.

CHORISTERS — Laura Perrone and Lynn Santos are two of the choristers who will be appearing in Cole Porter's musical, "Anything Goes," to be presented April 23, 24 and 25 at Bloomfield Middle School, Huck Road. It is sponsored by the Bloomfield Recreation Commission and features the Bloomfield Civic Chorus. It will be conducted by Dominick Ferrara IV with direction and staging by Lila Gage. Tickets at $10 for adults, $8 for students and seniors, are on sale at the Bloomfield Civic Center or by calling 338-7574.

Corino gives credit to players, coaches 300!

By Mike Lambert

"I'm honored, but the kids deserve the credit."

Those words, coming from Lady Buc softball coach Carl Corino, describe the feelings of the coach following Belleville's 3-1 win over Clifton last week that gave Corino his 300th coaching victory.

Belleville had a solid week, also downing Bloomfield 8-3 at Pulaski Park last Saturday afternoon.

Belleville was 6-1 entering a game with Eastside yesterday. This morning, it's off to Columbia for a 10:30 a.m. game. Tomorrow, Hackensack comes to Clearmon Field for an 11 a.m. contest.

On Saturday, Belleville will travel to Whippany Park for the Wildcat Softball Classic. Belleville will join Whippany Park, Lenape Valley and Morris Catholic in the annual tourney. This is Belleville's first appearance in the tournament, which has been held for the past four years.

Belleville will play one of the three referenced teams in the first round at 10 a.m. Winners and losers of the first round will then meet at 1 p.m. for the consolation and championship games.

The busy schedule continues next Monday with a game at Paramus and next Wednesday, when Teaneck comes to town. Both of those games will commence at 4 p.m.

Corino, who has been downplaying the inevitable 300 win milestone for the past few weeks, was relieved that the win was accomplished and reflected back on the days when he first took over the program.

"Let me tell you, many people are responsible for this victory," he said. "Beginning in my first season (1980), I've had the support of so many coaches, fans and of course, the players. We've had some great kids here throughout the years, and this years team is no exception."

"In my first few years, my wife Eve continued to help with the program. (Eve Corino had been the head coach of the team from 1973-79). Then, of course, I've had great assistant coaches like Tony DeAquino, Marilyn McCaffrey, Sherri Jamison, Denise Zarra, Tony Sorrentino, Rich Caravetta, Frank DeLorenzo and Donna Brooks.

"And of course, my current coaching staff, with Cheryl Marion, Don Roll, Angela Chimento and Doug Stone are tremendous. Doug has been a volunteer assistant for quite some time. He is really a big help with the team."

Corino earned his first victory in April of 1980 and later led the '80 Lady Bucs to the Essex County tournament championship game.

Carl Corino heads to third base coaches box.

Kim Piscatowski winds up during game at Bloomfield. Piscatowski was very effective on the hill, leading Lady Bucs to sixth victory of the year against one defeat.

Puleo, Mundy, Johansen's lead Bucs

By Mike Lambert

Perhaps Nick Grande should run a fire drill pre season in upcoming years. The 1993 Buc baseball team is off to a 5-1 start despite losing practically the entire month of March because of terrible weather.

Last week, the Bucs stopped NNJL Atlantic Division foes Ridgewood 11-6, Clifton 5-1 and Bloomfield 8-6. There was little time to rest on the victories, however, as a difficult week of action looms.

The team faced Don Bosco and St. Joe's of Montvale earlier this week. Tomorrow, it's off to Hackensack and next Monday, Paramus comes to town. Next Wednesday, the Bucs are at Teaneck. All of those games commence at 4 p.m.

"We're off to a good start, and considering the fact we had little or no batting practice, or any scrimmages, the kids are doing very well," Grande said. "Our defense, which was a little sloppy in the earlier games, has begun to improve, and that's my biggest concern now. The bats are coming around and the pitching has been consistent."

The week started with an impressive victory at Ridgewood. The Bucs jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the top of the first inning and never looked back.

The beneficiary of the offensive onslaught was senior pitcher Kevin Johansen, who improved his season mark to 2-0. Johansen pitched a complete game, allowing just one earned run while fanning six and walking one.

In the first inning, Anthony Caruso drew a walk, stole second and went to third on a ground out.

Caruso scored on a single by Jim Landon. Grande had the Bucs running early in this game and Landon stole second base. Ken Johansen singled home Landon for the second run. Johansen promptly stole second base and ended up scoring when Mike Morgan reached base safely on a throwing error.

Ridgewood scored once in the last of the first and the game remained 3-1 until the top of the third, when the Bucs scored two more. Ken Johansen doubled and went to third when Morgan again reached safely on an error. Kevin Johansen hit a sac fly to score his brother. Robert Dena singled Morgan to third and Mike Mundy singled Morgan home with the fifth Buc run.

In the fourth, Caruso walked, went to second on a ground out and scored on a Ken Johansen single. Ridgewood closed the lead to 6-3 in the fourth, but the Bucs answered with a run in the fifth and four more in the sixth.

In the fifth, Mundy drilled a triple and scored on a wild pitch. In the sixth, the Bucs scored four more

Harvey, Alvarado lead 'visiting' track team

By Mike Lambert

After a tough season opener, the Belleville boys' track team came back to perform well against Paramus and Teaneck in a tri meet last week.

John Tosato's team, which will be racing all of its meets on the road this year, battled Hackensack earlier this week. This afternoon, the team travels to St. Joe's for a 4 p.m. start. On Saturday, it's off to Millburn for the Millburn Relays, beginning at 9 a.m. The team will then be off until the Essex County relays, on April 30.

Belleville opened the season at Nutley and lost by a wide margin.

"It was a combination of Nutley running real well and our team not performing up to our ability," Tosato said. "Nutley has a real good team. I was just happy that we came back and improved our times in the next meet."

In the Nutley race, John Alvarado took second place in the shot put and discus (131'11").

Joe Colucci placed second in the mile (5:03) and Brian Harvey was second in the 800 meters (2:18.9).

Chir Parado closed out the scoring with a second place finish in the 400 meters (58.5).

In the tri meet against Paramus and Teaneck, Belleville lost by scores of 85-41 and 98-48 respectively.

Colucci won the mile against both teams, with a time of 5:01.2. Harvey won the 800 meters against Paramus and was second versus Teaneck. His time was 2:16.7.

Parada was victorious in the 400 meters in a time of 60.0 against Paramus.

Mike Janicelli captured the 3200 meter run (12:21.4) and Alvarado swept the triple jump (37'5 1/4").

After winning the triple jump against both teams, Alvarado took second in the shot and discus, with respective throws of 46'4 1/2" and 125'7".

Denny Hoogendyke won the high jump against Paramus, with a leap of 5'2". Other second place finishers included Harvey in the long jump (16'9 1/2") and 400 meter hurdles (69.5) and Dan Rykowski in the 3200 meters (14:04).

Taking third place were Parada in the 100 and 200 meters (12.7 and 26.3 respectively), Rich Romano in the discus (100'5") and Rudy Espiritu (triple jump, 31'2 1/2").

"Hackensack is probably the class of our league (NNJL Pacific Division) this spring," Tosato said. "We'll be racing them this week, so we'll find out pretty quick how good they are."

As far as the traveling accommodations are concerned, this is the third season in the past six years that the Bucs have had a road only set up.

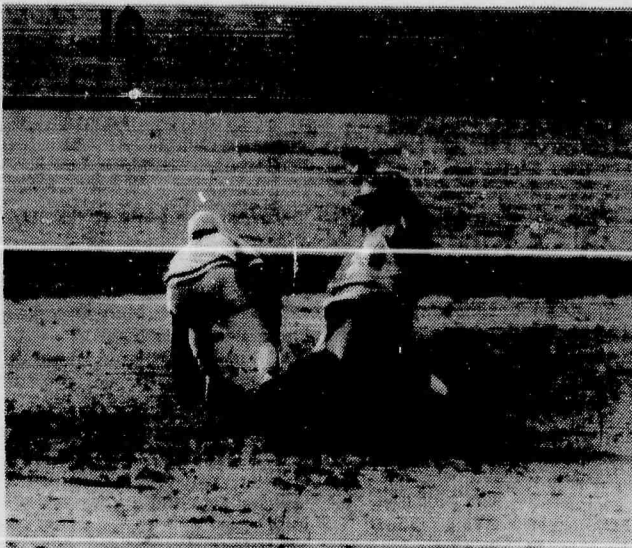

"We're not the only school in that regard," Tosato said. "There are three other teams in our conference who don't have a home track. That's the reason for the tri meets, because the teams like us, Teaneck, Don Bosco and Immaculate Heart don't have the facilities."

As is the case with the tennis team, this means the track team must pack up the bus (sometimes two busses) and head north. Since the track team has a lot more people than the tennis team and since the races are co-ed, it is usually necessary for the team to take two busses to accommodate the athletes, coaches and the equipment.

It's a situation that needs addressing. Once again, it's a shame that the facilities have been left to deteriorate, thus forcing the young athletes to pay the price by competing outside the township limits during the Spring of 1993.

Ken Johansen delivers pitch during game with Bloomfield Bengals last Saturday. Bucs rallied to win, 8-6.

Robert Dena slides into third base after crushing long triple at Bloomfield's Foley Field.

Don't forget that the Belleville Bruins will continue tryouts for the upcoming Essex County Baseball League season on Sunday at the Belleville High School varsity baseball field.

Tryouts are from noon to 3 p.m. As you know, Belleville has rejoined the ECBL after not competing in the league for the past seven years.

Those interested in trying out for the team should contact Emil Nardaccone at 450-8883 during business hours and at 751-5478 in the evening. Players should come to the tryouts with their own equipment.

Belleville will open ECBL play on May 23 at Verona.

The new team is also soliciting donations from local merchants and individuals to help support it in its initial season.

If anyone is interested in donating to the team, he, or she, should contact Nardaccone.

CARL CORINO

I have known Carl Corino for about 15 years, and have known his brother Mark for close to 20 years. Carl, Mark and oldest brother, Jimmy are all products of the Belleville school system and they have worked hard to be a success in life today.

Jimmy and Carl are members of the Belleville High School Hall of Fame and Mark should be a member one day. But this week is Carl Corino's week and rightfully so.

The softball coach at Belleville High, Corino won his 300th game last week, when Belleville downed a good Clifton team, 3-1.

I have many memories of Corino over the years. He's a pretty quiet guy, but a very intense competitor.

"All three brothers will battle you," close friend George Zanfanti said. "They are all competitive people and that's why they are so successful today."

Perhaps the thing I remember most about Corino occurred last May when the 1982 Lady Buc team held its tenyear reunion.

As a point of information, the '82 Lady Bucs were a marvelous team. The girls finished 24-2-2 and won the Essex County championship. 1982 was Corino's third year as varsity coach and that club was the springboard to the great teams that followed.

Anyway, most of the players on that team got together last May for the reunion at the Italian Fiorente Club. Everyone had a good time and after a few hours, Corino decided to make a speech.

The speech wasn't prepared, rather it was a talk from the heart. For a moment, it was like the coach was talking to his team in the heat of a game. It was 1982 all over again.

"You did something that was very special," Corino said to the team. "You were champions, you overcame the odds. We lost that tough game in the states, but we came back and beat Livingston for the county championship. It was a very special moment."

Corino, looking at his team which was now women in their mid to late 20's, continued by telling the players about the significance of the victory to the respective parents.

"I remember what that win meant to the parents," Corino told them.

He then stopped talking for a moment. The rush of the speech had caught up to him, and Corino had a moment to reflect on parenthood.

Because it was Corino's parents which came to mind and the emotion of the moment was nearly overwhelming. Corino's parents had seen the Lady Bucs win the 1982 county championship, but during the ten years since that victory, Carl's mom had passed away.

His voice, now filled with emotion, formed the next few sentences. "I remember the joy we had, but most of all, I remember your parents coming to me and saying what a big win this was. I'll never forget that."

Carl Corino's commitment to family and to his players is something that I'll never forget. This man continues to have a tremendous following from former players and that's because of his ability to treat people fairly and with integrity.

Winning is what Carl Corino is all about.

He has the unique ability to win on the field, and then, most importantly, to win in life by being a strong family man and a person who doesn't forget the people who have made his life so successful.

And, I know that Carl's mom is equally as proud.

KAREN SCIACCA

Just a quick note about Karen Sciacca. A 1978 graduate of Belleville High, she has been an integral part of the softball program during the past ten years.

In this weeks article about Corino's 300th win, I accidentally forgot to mention her name. Sorry about that, Karen.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

This is always a painful one, because the '85 Cardinals were robbed in the World Series.

Jorge Orta was the batter who started the controversial ninth inning for Kansas City. Todd Worrell was the Cardinals pitcher. Don Denkinger was the umpire who blew the call at first base. Whitey Herzog was the Cardinals manager. Dick Howser was the Royals' manager.

FOR THIS WEEK

The 1983 Lady Buc softball team won the Essex County championship. Who did the girls defeat in the championship game? What was the final score? Who pitched for Belleville? Name the starting infield for the '83 Lady Bucs.

Bucs rally past Bengals

runs on a barrage of singles and a few walks.

The Bucs pounded out 15 hits in the contest. Ken Johansen was 4 for 4 with three ribbies. Morgan was 1 for 3 and drove in two runs. Kevin Johansen had two hits and three RBI's and Mundy collected three hits and drove in two runs.

The next game against Clifton was the home opener for the Bucs and the team celebrated with an impressive win.

Mike Mundy threw a complete game and was in complete control. The junior allowed one earned run on seven hits while striking out seven and walking none.

Belleville established control early, tallying twice in the first inning. Mike Puleo singled and went to second when Landon walked. Ken Johansen walked to load the bases and Kevin Johansen drove in Puleo with a sac fly. Mundy then singled to drive in Landon.

In the third, Mundy gave Belleville a 3-0 lead when he smacked a long homerun. Mundy is off to a tremendous start this season, both at the plate and in the field. When he's not pitching, he is playing third base and doing a good job.

The Bucs extended to a 5-0 lead in the sixth inning. Morgan walked and Joe DePeri singled. Caruso walked to load the bases and Puleo singled to score two runs.

Clifton scored its only run in the top of the seventh.

Puleo and Mundy led the offensive attack. Both men had two hits and two runs driven in.

"We played a good defensive game against Clifton," Grande said. "I was real happy with the way we performed. It was good being home, the field was in good shape and the kids were happy to be playing at their place."

It was back to the road last Saturday, for a game at Bloomfield. This was a wild contest in which the Bucs had to rally in the late innings to win.

"We gave up three unearned runs early in the game," Grande said. "We were behind the eight ball pretty quickly and I told the kids that they can't take anything for granted. It's a matter of playing with intensity all the time."

"I was proud of their effort because they didn't get down on themselves and battled back."

The Bengals scored once in the first and two more in the second off Ken Johansen, who was making his first start of the season after success in the bullpen. Errors led to the Bengal lead, but after the second inning, the Belleville defense settled down and played well.

The score remained 3-0 until the sixth, when Belleville finally broke through to score four times.

Puleo singled and was sacrificed to second. Ken Johansen singled to score Puleo and Johansen went to second on an error. Mundy singled home Johansen to narrow the lead to 3-2. Matt McGough came in to pinch run for Mundy and went to second on a Kevin Johansen single.

With two runners on base, Dena hit a ballistic shot to deep center field. The hit was good for a triple and, of course, drove home two runs to give Belleville a 4-3 lead.

A note on Dena's hit. It came on a changeup and Dena didn't get all of his power into the ball. It still went some 300 plus feet and if Dena did connect on balance, there's no telling where the ball would have landed.

To Bloomfield's credit, they did not let down. The Bengals tied it in the last of the sixth, setting up a wild seventh and final frame.

With the game tied at four, Jim Napolitano reached safely on an error. He then stole second, and that steal proved to be pivotal toward the big inning. Napolitano appeared to be caught at second, but he made an outstanding slide and caught the base with his left arm before he was tagged.

Mike Puleo singled Napolitano to third. Anthony DeMaio came in to pinch run for Puleo and stole second without a throw. With runners now at second and third, Ken Johansen helped his own cause with a long triple that cleared the bases and gave Belleville a 6-4 lead. Kevin Johansen walked and stole second base, putting runners on second and third once again.

Morgan extended Belleville's lead to four runs when he hit a key single that drove in both Johansens. The hit gave Belleville an 8-4 lead, but the Bucs would have to endure another Bloomfield rally before finally winning.

Bloomfield came back in the last of the seventh to score two runs and the Bengals had the winning run at the plate with just one out. At that point, Grande took the ball from Ken Johansen and brought Kevin Johansen in to finish the game.

Kevin was outstanding, striking out the final two batters with two men on base to save the game for his brother.

"That was a wild one," Grande said. "We really needed to win a game like that."

Ken Johansen was the winning pitcher, hurling 6 1/3 innings and allowing three earned runs and five hits. He struck out five and walked three.

Offensively, Puleo, Ken and Kevin Johansen had two hits each. Mundy was 1 for 3 and drove in a key run in the sixth inning. Dena had the triple in the sixth that gave Belleville its first lead.

NOTES: The Bucs came through with clutch hitting in the Bloomfield game. Dena's hit was with two outs and the Bucs down by one run. In the seventh, Ken Johansen tripled to break up a four all tie and Morgan's single drove in two runs that essentially won the game.

Bucs began NNJL Pacific Division play yesterday with game against powerful St. Joe's of Montvale.

"There aren't any breaks in the schedule," Napolitano said after the Bloomfield game. "St. Joe's is ranked sixth in the state. Bergen Catholic is going to be tough. There are a lot of good teams in the league."

LadyBucs gear for tourney

4-0, but Belleville had set itself up for a marvelous run in the county tournament during the 1990's.

The '81 team was stopped early in the ECT, but the '82 and '83 squads won the county championship, beating Livingston and Bloomfield respectively. From 1984-88, the team advanced to the championship game but lost to Cedar Grove, Livingston and Caldwell three straight times respectively.

In 1989, the county championship returned to Belleville as the Lady Bucs downed Livingston 1-0 in an extra inning thriller at Pulaski Park.

The '90 and '92 teams have advanced to the county semis and this years team should be a high seed when the pairings are announced this week.

Corino's 1986 team set a school record for most wins by a team with 26. That record lasted exactly one season. The '87 team won 28 games and lost just four. The team also captured the first Group IV, Section II championship in Belleville girls' softball history.

Last years team posted a 25-5 record and won the NNJL championship. Most of the players from last years team are back on the '93 squad.

"I'm happy with the defense and our pitching has been good, but we need to get the bats going," Corino said. "We're not hitting the ball with enough consistency."

In last weeks games, Belleville received two outstanding performances from pitcher Kim Piscatowski. A 20 game winner last year, Piscatowski has looked impressive in this, her junior year. She kept Clifton and Bloomfield off balance throughout and in the few instances in which Piscatowski got into trouble, she worked out of the jams with key pitches. Her control has also been excellent.

"Kimmy has done a good job," Corino said. "I'm also happy with Liz Ramirez and Nicole Gibbons at first base, Jen Citarella at second, Lynn Giachetti at short and Andrea Curran at third."

"Andrea has also picked it up at the plate. She had a key hit in the Clifton game, she just needs to get a little more consistent and that should happen as the games continue."

"Having (Colleen) Mannion in centerfield really stabilizes the outfield. It lets us use Kristin (Galioto) in leftfield and we have Christine (Sansano) in right."

"Also, Gina Conte has been doing a good job as the designated hitter."

Corino is also quite optimistic about the play of freshman catcher Danielle Brodo.

"As she continues to play, she gains confidence," Corino said of Brodo. "She threw out her first base runner in the Bloomfield game. She has a lot of potential."

So while Corino remembers the good times of the past, he is most concerned with the immediate future.

"We have a lot of big games coming up," the coach said. "We haven't even played some of the big teams in our conference, such as Nutley, Immaculate Heart, Paramus and Paramus Catholic."

"This weekend, we should get a good test at Whippany Park. We'll play two games and the other teams in the tournament are strong. Then, we have to play at Paramus the following Monday. And on top of that, I'll be attending the county tournament seeding meeting on (last) Monday."

"The counties begin sometime this week. There's plenty of games coming up."

But this is a week to remember and pay accolades to a tremendous coach who has now won over 300 softball games at Belleville High.

"It's something I'll never forget," Corino said. "But now it's time to concentrate on the season."

NOTES: Entering this weeks action, Corino now has a career coaching record of 301-79.

Gina Conte slides into second base ahead of throw in fourth inning of game with Bloomfield.

Gina Conte is caught in run down between third base and home plate. Conte was out on the play, but Belleville won the game, 8-3.

Lynn Giachetti lines hit during game with Bloomfield Bengals last Saturday. Giachetti, a shortstop, has played well for the Lady Bucs.

Buc player is safe at second on close play. Bucs rallied in late innings to win, 8-6.

Meet Your Mayor

News, talk and information is what OBC-TV is all about; and we are hot, hot, hot! If you are interested in what's going on around you; if you want to know what the issues are, and have a lot of questions; watch Meet Your Mayor with Lee Spinelli. OBC-TV is Channel 20; TCI of North Jersey and Channel 36 Suburban Cable.

In recent months Belleville has had its share of controversy, loss of jobs, and money problems. The town has also managed to win some. This week on Meet Your Mayor, Mayor Marina Perna answers some of the hard questions concerning the town of Belleville.

The issues of concern include: crackdowns on crime, clean-ups and repairs throughout the township, and declaring the township as a national historic site. Also in the works for Belleville is senior housing.

Mayor Perna also updates us on the progress of other important topics. To find out about the issues involving the township of Belleville, tune in to Meet Your Mayor with Lee Spinelli on OBC-TV, Channel 36, Suburban Cable and Channel 20, TCI of North Jersey on: April 22 at 7 p.m.; April 25 at noon.

The hottest shows on TV today are those with news, talk, and information, and OBC-TV 2036 has all of that — and more! We have Lee Spinelli. She takes national and state issues and translates them into what's happening in our viewing area. For local news that's hot, hot, hot, watch Front Page Edition.

Pat Royer of Clifton is running for State Senator on the Democratic ticket in the 34th District. This week Lee speaks to Pat Royer and finds out just what makes her qualified to run in the Senatorial race. She will fill us in on her political career and how she feels about women in politics.

Currently, Pat Royer is heavily involved in her career in consumer affairs. She tells us about some of the work she has done in this field for the best interest of consumers.

To find out more about Pat Royer, tune into this episode of Front Page Edition on OBC-TV, Channel 36, Suburban Cable and Channel 20, TCI of North Jersey on: April 23, at 8 p.m.; April 24 at 10:30 a.m.; April 26 at 8 p.m.

Steven Hywell on Navy duty

Navy Airman Recruit Steven M. Hywell, son of Walter and Virginia Hywell of Belleville, recently returned aboard the aircraft carrier USS Theodore Roosevelt, homeported in Norfolk, Va. from Fleet Exercise 2-93 as part of the aircraft carrier USS Theodore Roosevelt Battle Group.

The purpose of the exercise was to test the ability of the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps, supported by U.S. Air Force and Canadian units, to conduct integrated operations from the sea. The exercise also served as a dress rehearsal for the battle group's upcoming deployment to the Mediterranean, and stressed command and control, anti-submarine warfare, and amphibious warfare and strike support. In addition, the exercise included the simulated evacuation of civilians, choke point transit training, and drills to defend against shallow-water mines, fast patrol boats, low-flying aircraft and terrorist tactics.

A unique feature of the exercise was the 600 Marines embarked aboard the Roosevelt forming a Special Purpose Marine Air Ground Task Force. These Marines are capable of performing civilian evacuations, aircraft and personnel recovery, and maritime interdiction operations.

He joined the Navy in September, 1992.

Clay urges Attorney General to keep Chertoff in post

Freeholder Arthur L. Clay (R-NJ) has written to U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno urging her to retain U.S. Attorney Michael Chertoff in his post. Reno announced recently that she was seeking the resignation of all the U.S. Attorneys.

"I understand your desire to fill these positions with individuals you have had the opportunity to choose, but I do hope you consider retaining U.S. Attorney Michael Chertoff of New Jersey at least until the end of his term," Clay said in his letter. "Mr. Chertoff's job performance has been excellent in our district and I know the citizens of Essex County are counting on his continuing efforts to fight for justice."

"I can not imagine a better qualified candidate for this post than Michael Chertoff," Clay added. "Justice has been well served by Mr. Chertoff and his staff."

"Mr. Chertoff was especially helpful when I realized that the County was going to pay over $5 million for a 5-year lease at a building that had been recently purchased for a little over $1 million. I fought this lease and, fortunately, the U.S. Attorneys stepped in and assisted me when they subpoenaed all the records," he said. "Understandably, the administration withdrew the lease after the records were seized."

The D'Alessio administration had attempted to sub-lease a Frelinghuysen Avenue, Newark, facility for over $5 million from Ad-Mar Industries last year. The building had been purchased for $1.2 million just 2 days before the Board of Freeholders was scheduled to approve the lease.

"Without the U.S. Attorney's assistance, I doubt I would have been able to prevent this scandalous transaction," Clay added. "I considered this a tremendous victory for the people of Essex County."

Clay said he will also call on other elected leaders to support Chertoff as the district's U.S. Attorney. He has written to Senators Lautenberg and Bradley and is planning to contact the Essex delegation to the State legislature. He said he also plans to introduce a resolution next week in the Board of Freeholders and circulate a petition throughout the area.

"I am confident that my colleagues on the Freeholder Board will vote to endorse Chertoff's remaining in his position," Clay said. "I will then encourage other Freeholder Boards in New Jersey to approve similar resolutions of endorsement. If we work together on this, I am sure Attorney General Reno will listen to us."

"Michael Chertoff has been the enemy of the criminal here in Essex County and throughout New Jersey, and I hope he is allowed to continue to serve as a U.S. Attorney," Clay said. "If the Justice Department is really interested in serving justice, Michael Chertoff will remain in his post for a long time to come."

Pharmacy Footnotes

Vincent Cozzarelli
Reg. Ph.

KEEPING THE PHARMACIST'S COUNSEL

The pharmacist plays an increasingly important role in counseling those who take prescription and/or over-the-counter (OTC) medications. The importance of this counseling role is reflected in the fact that consumers can presently avail themselves of more than 400 OTC products that make use of ingredients and dosage strengths that were only available by prescription 15 years ago. This move from prescription to OTC shifts much of the risk and responsibility associated with using these products from the doctor to the consumer. In light of the pharmacist's expansive knowledge of medications and their effects, an ongoing relationship with the pharmacist may be one of the consumer's best health benefits when making medication decisions.

We're always happy to consult with you concerning medications. Call 759-1956 or 759-1968, ROSS-MORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave. to talk to our pharmacist, Walkers, wheel chairs, crutches, canes and other convalescent aids are available for sale or rent. We also handle cosmetics, toiletries, baby needs, cameras and film. Open: Mon-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

HINT: In 1990, Congress mandated that pharmacists counsel Medicaid recipients who have prescriptions filled.

Singles Can-Do Kitchen

According to home economists from Whirlpool Corporation, a kitchen designed for today's busy singles should have simple lines, easy-care materials and modern appliances with features that offer convenient use and maximum cleanliness.

How do you design a kitchen for "singles"? "That's a timely question for the 1990s," say home economists from Whirlpool Corporation who note that recent census data show that near 25 percent of the 93 million households in the U.S. have only one person in them. Clearly, there's a real need for efficient kitchens for "singles."

To help in planning kitchens for singles, Whirlpool home economists offer these practical suggestions: Keep the design simple, stick to the basics, plan for convenient use and select quality products and materials that are easy to clean and maintain.

For example, this Whirlpool kitchen for one uses a simple "L" shape with a center island, includes basic appliances and incorporates a stylish black and white color scheme with red accents. The end of the island serves as a table for one, conveniently located next to the Whirlpool gas cooktop. This white-on-white cooking appliance sports sealed gas burners for easy surface clean-up, even if there's a boil-over.

Adjacent to the sink and across from the cooking and eating island is an ultra-quiet Whirlpool dishwasher. This white-on-white unit is not only stylish and easy to operate, it also offers multiple cycles and such convenience features as silverware basket in the door, adjustable upper rack and air drying.

The wall oven is a 27-inch Whirlpool self-cleaning electric model that includes an automatic electronic clock with oven controls and minute timer. The sleek white-on-white oven has an oven light and window in the door to allow a novice cook to peek during cooking.

Not shown, but to the left of the oven and at the end of the kitchen "L" is an all-white 18-cu. ft. Whirlpool no-frost refrigerator with a top freezer that has a time- and work-saving automatic icemaker. Installed under the upper cabinet between the refrigerator and wall oven is a mid-size white-on-white Whirlpool microwave oven. This speedy cooking appliance is one that singles (and most everyone else) consider to be essential in today's kitchen.

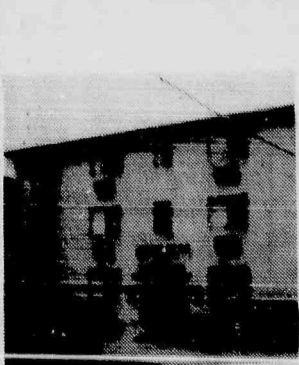

"While this design is very simple and basic, it's highly effective as an efficient "can-do" kitchen for one.

PETER PENGUIN'S PUZZLE & LE-DO

Fit these words into the puzzle.

The Mini Page Presidents Poster and Book of Presidents are a great combination — and the best way to learn about each president — including Bill Clinton!

Illustrated with reproductions of engraved portraits, the 22 1/2-by-28 1/2-inch Presidents Poster shows each of the presidents with the dates that each held office.

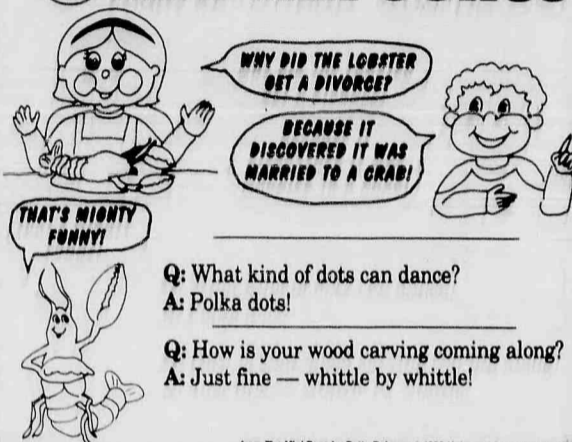

The Book of Presidents (5 1/2-by-8 1/2-inch, 96 pages) features a photo of each president, as well as information such as dates of birth and death, dates served as president, political party, signature, glossary of political terms, a visit to the White House and important achievements.

MIGHTY FUNNY'S Mini Jokes

Rookie Cookie's Recipe

Microwave Tomato Beef Patties

You'll need:

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1/4 onion, chopped
- 1/4 green pepper, finely chopped
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 8-ounce can tomato sauce
- 1/2 cup water

What to do:

1. Combine ground beef, onion, green pepper and Worcestershire sauce in a large bowl. Mix well.
2. Form into 4 patties about 1 inch thick.
3. Place in a microwave-safe, 8-by-8-inch baking dish.
4. Microwave following your microwave's directions for 4 patties. Drain.
5. In a medium bowl, combine tomato sauce and water. Mix well.
6. Microwave sauce on HIGH 2 minutes, or until heated. Stir at 1 minute.
7. Pour sauce over patties.
