'Tough' policy set for disrupters

Nazziola, Mazzuca head Board of Education; Cicalese and Notari promise a 'new beginning'

By Howard Klausner

After seven years as a member of the Belleville Board of Education, Gabe Nazziola accepted the presidency and promised stern action against those who acted in an "uncivil" manner when they addressed the Board.

The remark brought muffled boos from some members of the audience, and applause from the majority present at the reorganization of the Board.

Ralph Mazzuca remained as Vice President. Barbara Cicalese and John Notari took their oaths of office as they succeeded Patricia Pisano and Vincent Marrone in three-year terms.

Nazziola and Mazzuca were elected without opposition in a show of unanimity.

Both Notari and Mrs. Cicalese spoke of new efforts to involve the parents and public in the schools. Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello spoke of the occasion as a "new beginning".

Voices from the audience spoke of the defeat of the school budget, which now goes to the Township Council for adjustment. The Council has hired the consulting firm of McCormick and Co. in Woodbridge to analyze the school budget and suggest changes, a fee of $5,000.

As speakers at the public hearing section of the meeting grew more heated in their remarks, Nazziola grew obviously more annoyed.

At the end of the meeting, Nazziola said, in measured tones, that he had read the statutes governing public readings. "Nowhere did I read that a contribution by the citizens is required. Allowing citizens to speak is a courtesy."

Anyone who abused this courtesy by being "uncivil or insulting to persons" would be told to leave the podium, and would be removed if the speaker refused to leave.

He stated in his opening remarks that for the seven years he had served on the Board, "I, and my family, have endured harassment and transgressions that no other Board member has had to endure. But, it has made me stronger and more willing to persevere to succeed.

Gabe Nazziola
President, at last

He said he would use all his efforts to "give your children as good an education as my children got from this Belleville School District."

Nazziola also warned, "The vote of 1,915 to 665 against our school budget was an impassioned appeal to us based on pure economics.

"They want us to know that they cannot afford, and they will not tolerate the past rate of growth of what it costs to run our school district."

Cicalese offered a resolution to revive the Curriculum Committee, which would work with the school administration to develop courses for the students.

Notari said he would seek attendance at Board Meetings of teachers and parents. "I will personally invite you, if I do not hear from you," Notari said.

The Board members each extended their greetings to the new School Trustees.

Trustee Angie Paserchia stated, "We, as a Board, must work to trim our expenditures, not from the 20 percent of the budget which goes directly to our children, but from the 80 percent which goes directly to salaries and benefits.

"With five contracts up for renewal this year, we have a golden opportunity to bring about meaningful and responsible change."

Mazzuca spoke briefly, thanking the Board for re-electing him as Vice President, and urging a consensus on Board actions.

Ethics probe reported underway; complaints made against officials

While the Ethical Standards Commission will reveal no information, rumors are persistent that the first complaints to newly organized body involve Mayor Marina Perna and Councilman Dr. Frank Noonan.

In the case of Dr. Noonan, sources in the Belleville Chamber of Commerce say that expenditures for the 1992 Cherry Blossom Festival have raised questions.

About $10,000 was raised for Belleville's participation in the event, which was rained out. Some $8,000 reportedly was paid to Essex County, and the remaining $2,000 was promised to the 1993 Cherry Blossom Festival event.

Chamber sources say that Dr. Noonan had charge of the money.

A Chamber source said he informed the Chamber that he had given the $2,000 to the Italian Festival held last summer.

Chamber sources said he declined to discuss the matter further with Chamber officials.

In the case of Mayor Perna, sources indicate that a question had been raised about her being paid by the City of Garfield for work which a former Garfield City official said was occasioned by her alleged relationship with the Rasmussen Insurance Agency.

Mayor Perna has denied any business connections with Rasmussen, which has acted as insurer for Belleville in the past.

Former Garfield City Manager Angelo Checki Jr. has insisted that Mayor Perna told him she represented Rasmussen when she asked for assignment of two accident cases. She was paid some $10,000 for her services.

'Streetscape' vs. parking issue raised by merchants

The Washington Avenue Merchants Association scheduled a meeting last night with Essex County Executive Thomas D'Alessio and Township Manager Stephen Cuccio over the question of priorities for the rebirth of downtown shopping.

Bob Reiser, President of the Association, said he had learned that the Township had approved a streetscape plan and expected to appropriate $30,000 for its execution.

"It will mean closing streets while sidewalks are repaved," Reiser said. "It would kill business."

Reiser said he had been told by Deputy Mayor Mario Drozd that plans to provide off street shopper parking had been shelved, for the time being.

Reiser said this violated a promise to acquire two adjoining frame buildings on Washington Avenue for demolition and replacement with a 50-space parking lot.

Some $300,000 would have been raised through a bond sale, Reiser said.

"What good is fancy sidewalks if there is no one to walk on them?" Reiser said.

"The number one priority we must address is parking on Washington Avenue," Reiser said.

"Unless we are able to deal with this issue, the Avenue will remain in the economic condition it is now.

"We commend the State and the County for their continuing effort in helping with the facade and streetscaping. But unless we take care of the parking problem, I feel these efforts are only putting a Bandaid on the situation.

"Every time we lose a merchant, a business or a corporation, we are inviting an economic disaster.

"I implore the State, the County, the Township governing body to help resolve the parking problem facing the town.

Landmark dining coming to an end

"We tried every way we could, but we had to give it up."

Don Lozzi, owner of the Branch Brook Manor, said that as of Sunday, the a la carte portion of the business, and the bar, will be closed.

The restaurant will be open for catering, he said, but not for other casual dining.

Opened more than 40 years ago by the Cappel family, the Branch Brook Manor became a familiar gathering place for local residents, particularly on weekends and on evenings late in the week.

Lozzi bought the restaurant two years ago.

"In two years, we have seen no change in the a la carte business," Lozzi said. "We tried everything - Early Birds, specials, entertainment - nothing helped."

Lozzi said that since he announced his plans to close out the daily restaurant operation, old customers have turned up, and tried to talk him out of it. "But it looks different, when you're on this side of the bar," Lozzi said.

Unlike the closeout for the television bar, Cheers, there will be no celebration to mark the closing event.

"I won't even be here," Lozzi said. "That's how excited I am about it."

Montagna loses bid for refund of costs

A court-appointed referee has denied a demand by Frank Montagna that Belleville pay $3,400 in legal fees he said were paid by him to defend against an election law violation charge.

In 1992, when Montagna sought election to the Board of Education, he put campaign posters on trees.

The Township charged him with using public property illegally, on the grounds that the trees were owned by the Township. Montagna said he had the Constitutional right to put up the posters.

When the case was heard by Municipal Judge Frank Zinna, the charge was dismissed.

After the hearing, Montagna presented a claim for $3,400 which he said he had spent in legal fees.

He issued subpoenas to scores of Belleville residents to appear at the hearing on his claim in Newark.

According to sources who attended the hearing, Montagna had heated exchanges with Township Attorney Robert Giordano, at one time stating that Giordano "was drinking too much."

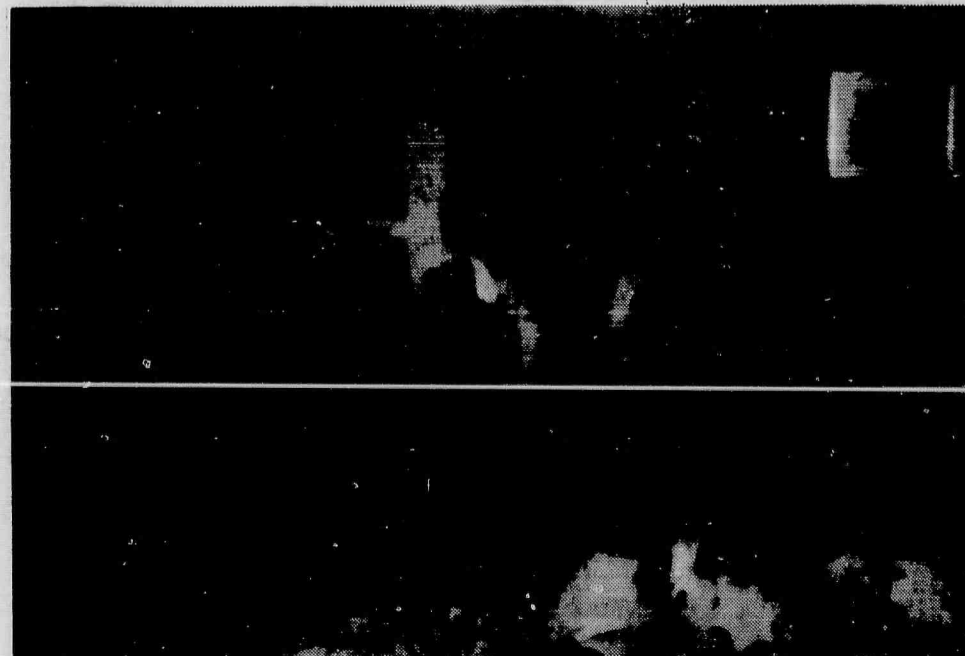

The referee, who was appointed by Superior Court to hear the case, ruled there was no basis for Montagna's claim.

Montagna also announced he was filing harassment charges against Giordano.

Giordano was not available for comment.

Breast cancer is the second major cause of cancer deaths in women, according to ACS. Although incidence rates are increasing, early detection and improved treatment have kept mortality rates stable during the last 50 years, according to ACS statistics.

Early detection is the best weapon against breast cancer. "If you are a woman 40 years of age and older and have not had a recent breast examination performed, or if you have noticed a change in the appearance of your breasts, such as asymmetry, dimpling, a lump or any other physical changes, you should have a mammography," Dr.

Registration is mandatory for the screening. For more information about the reduced rate mammography program or to register for the screening, call Monique Davis, MFH, health educator at (201) 450-2213. Registration deadline is May 6, 12 noon.

Democratic organization presents at-large freeholders

Declaring that Essex County government has held the line on taxes and introduced efficiencies in county government, at-large Freeholders Joseph Di Vincenzo, Sara Bost, Patricia Sebold and James Cavanaugh, announced their bids for re-election recently.

The four Democrats will be running on the Essex County Democratic Organization line in the June 8 Primary Election. DiVincenzo is a Nutley resident, Bost is from Irvington while Sebold and Cavanaugh are both Livingston residents.

In a joint statement the incumbent freeholders noted that under its present Democratic leadership, Essex County has faced some of the most difficult problems in its history and has made great strides in overcoming them.

They cited county tax stabilization as one of the hallmarks of the present freeholder administration.

DiVincenzo noted that in just three years the county has turned a $33 million deficit into a $500,000 surplus.

In reaction to their primary challenge, Freeholder Bost said "without a doubt this is the most experienced, most talented ticket representing the Democratic Party."

DiVincenzo was sworn in as an at-large freeholder in May 1990 and won election to a three year term in November of that year. He is coordinator of athletics for the Newark Board of Education. A graduate of Jersey City State College, he is an inductee into the College Athletic Hall of Fame.

As a freeholder, he has served on the Budget Committee, Health Benefits Committee and as chairman of the Law Enforcement Committee.

Bost was elected to the freeholder board in 1987 and re-elected in 1990. She was chosen president of the board in 1992. She also serves on the Oversight Committee for the Essex County Improvement Authority.

A graduate of New York University with a degree in accounting, Bost currently works as assistant vice president of Chemical Bank. She is a former president of the Irvington Township Council and a former member of the Essex County College Board of Trustees.

Sebold, who was appointed to the board last month to fill the unexpired term of Freeholder Linda Lordi Cavanaugh, is a West Orange High School English teacher. She holds a bachelor's degree in English and education from Upsala College and has done graduate work at Montclair State College.

OUR OPINION

There Is No Time Like Spring

The beauty that God placed on earth
Is fairest in the spring,
When all the trees and buds turn green
And birds their sweet notes sing.
It seems an artist took a brush
And palette in his hand,
And with a few deft strokes erased
The starkness of the land.
God gave us other seasons too
But none I think so fair,
As that of spring when all the earth
Is clothed in beauty rare.

Harold F. Mohr

One good idea, anyway

With more wisdom than we might have expected, the Township Council reportedly will hire an outside consultant to analyze the defeated school budget.

This was the proposal made last year, before the School Election of 1992, but the unexpected passage of that budget made the hiring of an expert unnecessary.

This year, the electorate reverted to form, and the school budget is on its way to the Council for modification or worse.

Under the best of circumstances, a two-week crash course in school economics would be difficult for a Council.

This year, two of the wiser minds of the Council will excuse themselves because they have spouses who are employed by the Board of Education. Losing the services of Council Members Bill Cook and Tom Spillane will not help the Council achieve a fair assessment of the budget.

The outside consultant may have some valuable suggestions, but the probability is that the Council majority has its eyes on only one aspect of the budget - the 19 tax point rise that it embodies.

The Council majority will do everything it can to show the public that it is for the taxpayer. Hopefully, it will try to make its point without forgetting the welfare of the school children.

In any event, the budget will go back to the same County Superintendent of Schools who approved the original version.

Until we realize how important the quality of education is to the future of our children and the community, we will continue to leave the children and the community in jeopardy.

Why it didn't happen here

A few weeks ago, when there was a well founded report of a large cache of weapons - some of them illegal - in the home of a Belleville resident, Detective Captain Bill Escott and a unit of Belleville police went with a group of federal Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agents to the home in question, surprised the resident and rounded up the weaponry.

We do not suggest that the suspect would have offered armed resistance if he had not been surprised, but we will not have to find out because of the efficient police action.

The parallel to what happened in Waco, Texas, is that ATF and Federal Bureau of Investigation agents went to the looney bin occupied by the cultists for the same reason our police went to the home of the gun collector.

They went to round up illegal weapons.

Something went wrong, and the madmen in Waco opened fire on the law officers, and killed four good men. A number of the cultists were also slain.

We have heard arguments that the federal agents were invading the rights of the cultists, or were interfering with their religious freedom.

Some argue that no weapons should be considered illegal.

We do not understand the connection between religion and assault rifles.

We can accept the right of people to bear weapons, but not if they are irresponsible people. We do not allow drunks to drive cars.

If we can prevent a drunk from having a driver's license, we should at least be able to prevent a patently insane person from possessing weapons.

And people who proclaim themselves to be Napoleon Bonaparte or Julius Caesar or Jesus are insane if they are sincere, and charlatans if they are not.

YOUR OPINION

Clintonomics critique

To the editor:

President Clinton thinks that he can tax the U.S. into prosperity; however, throughout all of history such an "economic" plan has never succeeded. In reality, only the opposite approach works, let us learn from the facts of the eighties.

The history of the 80's has been rewritten. Democrats claim it was a time of greed and selfishness when the rich got richer and the poor got poorer. However, the prosperity of the 80's cannot be denied. It was the conservative policies of Ronald Reagan that caused tremendous economic growth. This growth occurred simply because people had more money in their pockets to spend and invest. The capital gains tax was lowered, the top marginal tax rate was reduced to 28%, and defense spending was increased to make it possible for the military to do what it did in Desert Storm. The decreased taxes encouraged investing and increased incentive to work. Those who succeeded were not penalized for their success. Trickle down economics? More like Niagara Falls economics. Whatever you call it, the bottom line is that it worked.

The liberals of today try to blame Ronald Reagan for the deficit, but they fail to realize that after the 1986 Budget Deal (which dropped the highest rate to 28%) was passed, the deficit actually decreased over the subsequent years (until 1990) due to great economic growth. Furthermore, this budget stated that for every dollar Congress received in new taxes, Congress had to decrease spending by two dollars. But they didn't. Instead, they spent $1.59 for every $1 they received. Now who caused the deficit? In 1986 it was a law to cut spending. If Congress couldn't cut back then, why does anyone think they will do it now?

The bottom line is this: we have a deficit because Congress spends too much on worthless causes, not because we Americans are undertaxed. As one can see from the 1990 Budget Deal (a compromise George Bush was pressured into by a Democratically controlled Congress) which got George Bush in trouble, raising taxes did not decrease the deficit, but rather it caused a recession. Combine the recession incited by higher taxes in 1990 with the broken promises of spending cuts by Democrats in Congress subsequent to 1986 and you have the perfect formula for a high deficit. President Clinton's plan, if ratified, will slow or even halt the economic growth we are now beginning to experience and your guess is as good as mine on Congress' ability to cut spending.

Eric Faragi

Ed. Note: George and Ron left us with the biggest deficit in history, with Japan holding our best real estate, our deregulated airlines in chaos and one percent of the population making 20 percent of the income. HK

• AMERICAN LEGION POST 70 NUTLEY has rescheduled a post installation for May 8th.

• CONGRATULATIONS to the Nutley Board of Education winners, Sam Battaglia, Bob Rusignuolo and Rosalie Scheckel. The challengers Maria Russo and George Hayes gave a good accounting of themselves. Post election reports suggest there was a perception that both Russo and Hayes opposed the administration of School Superintendent Dr. Jim Fadule.

I think one of the best things that happened to Nutley in my lifetime of 76 years is the luck to have Jim Fadule as the administrative leader of our school system.

Rosalie, Bob and Sam earned reelection.

• THE original Nutley Savings & Loan office on Chestnut Street adjacent to the Elks Club is going the way of the Nutley Savings Bank - it's up for auction.

• CONGRATULATIONS to Lisheth DeCotiis nee Delahunt, wife of attorney Al DeCotiis, upon her victorious campaign to become a member of the Harding Township Board of Education. Lisheth is a Democrat, and to win in an area that Bush carried by 15-1 is quite a compliment to her individual standing in the community.

• IF personal wealth determines the winner of the Republican Gubernatorial campaign, candidate Christy Whitman wins it hands down. Tuesday's daily newspapers reported that Whitman and her husband had an income last year of $3.7 Million - none of which came from salaries. The money rolled in from royalties, rents, dividends, interest, etc. The Whitmans paid $1 Million federal and $255,000 state income taxes. Cary Edwards reported $370,000 from legal practice, and Jim Wallwork reported income of $186,000. Mr. Wallwork's money came from interest, rents and sale of his share of a family business.

Gov. Jim Florio

In contrast, Governor Florio drew an annual salary of $85,000 as Governor with the reported total income of $165,000 - the lowest earnings of any of the four major candidates. The disclosure forms indicate that the Florios have between $100,000 and $250,000 in bank accounts, between $5,000 and $25,000 in real estate interests and between $50,000 and $100,000 in pension funds and household effects. The interesting deduction that can be made from Florio's disclosure is that after serving most of his life in government as a member of the New Jersey Assembly, the United States Congress and as Governor - and at some points as a practicing attorney - the wealth reported by the Florios is very minimal and indicates the accumulation of no wealth by reason of his political connections - that he earned every penny he owns. I would say there is ample proof that Florio's record is one of an honest public official.

• ESSEX COUNTY EXECUTIVE TOM D'ALESSIO has announced the appointment of Angela Phipps, a career administrator with a B.A. from New York University and a Master's Degree in Administration from Rutgers University to the Essex County College Board of Trustees. A music teacher for the Newark Board of Education for 24 years, she recently retired. Her impressive academic background will serve her well in her new appointment.

Grace Cunningham, an executive with AT&T Network Systems and West Orange resident, upon the recommendation of Essex County Executive Tom D'Alessio, was appointed by Governor Jim Florio to a three-year term as a member of the Essex County Board of Elections. Cunningham has had a leadership role in Irish-American activities in Essex County. Both Phipps and Cunningham are examples of the quality appointments that D'Alessio has made or recommended since he became Essex County Executive. With these two appointments, clearly, the quality of government has moved up a notch.

• MY brother, Carmen, is to be awarded the Dr. Virginius D. Mattia Public Service Award at the committee's annual dinner May 6th at the Elk's Club at a sold-out dinner.

• A BLACK "religious" leader is distributing mimeographed material making race an issue in the Democrat Primary. The unsigned mimeographed four-page letter outlining a plan of action which includes "an educational insert, designed to inform the electorate in each church in each bulletin each week for every parishioner." Additionally, "Each pastor will be asked to encourage voters to vote." Obviously, the pastors will be instructed to vote against one of their own, Orange Mayor Bob Brown, a union who is candidate for senator in the district that extends from Montclair to South Orange. Bob Brown is a member of the New Jersey Assembly as well as the Mayor of Orange, and his record clearly indicates a dedication to help the underprivileged and particularly, the members of his community. Bob Brown and I serve together at the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission - he as an assistant counsel and I as a member of the commission. Brown is an intelligent, dedicated, decent public official and has earned his right to be a member of the New Jersey Senate from his district.

New CD ROM technology

The Belleville Public Library and Information Center has installed a freestanding computer, containing new CD-ROM programs. These programs include "The Grolier Multimedia Encyclopedia," which in addition to text, has pictures, sound and motion pictures of famous people, events, and other information. The library has also acquired DISCovering authors, a CD-ROM program, which has biographies and criticisms of famous authors and their works.

For additional help and information in the use of the new technology, ask the reference librarians on the second floor, who will be happy to assist you.

Amazonas Exotic Floral Designs

Amazonas, located at 58 Main Street in Little Falls, is not your ordinary florist. Both in the types of flowers available (primarily tropicals imported from Hawaii, Peru, and Central America), and in the unusual design of the arrangements created by the owner, Lucia Rapier, it is different.

For over three years, Amazonas has been serving as house florist for some of the finest restaurants and businesses in the area. This includes restaurants in New York City and catering facilities such as Mayfair Farms.

Increase in the public's demand for the unique style of Amazonas's work, prompted the recent move from West Caldwell, to the newly renovated, larger shop in Little Falls.

Seize the Day

The lecture and book discussion series, sponsored in part from a grant from the New Jersey Committee for the Humanities, continues on May 5 at 1 p.m. with lecturer Frank De Lisi, former English Department Head, Newark Public Schools, and Adjunct English professor for 24 years, Rutgers University. In "Seize the Day," Tom Wilhelm, who has lost his selling job, whose marriage is on the rocks, and who has entrusted his savings to a Dr. Tamkin to invest, provides through his characterization an opportunity for the reader to examine human frailty and relationships, in the library's literary series, the "Cutting Edge: Ethics in Literature." Call the library at 450-3434 to register.

Programs in Children's Room

Many programs for children have been planned on Saturdays in the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room. On May 8, children will create a Mother's Day present day at 10:30 a.m., while on May 15, there will be a secret movie held at 2 p.m. On May 22, there will be a special Garden Party, with stories and crafts about gardens. For further information, call the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room at 450-3434.

Calendar of Events

Photography Exhibit: A Photography Exhibit of the North American Rockies by Frederick Dammont will be on exhibit during library hours at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center.

Displays: A "Doll Collection" by Virginia Heldon of Glen Rock will be on display in the large exhibit case.

"Postcards" by Paula Dorival of Belleville will be on exhibit in the library's small exhibit case.

April 28 — A lecture and book discussion of "All the King's Men" by Dr. Jane Brown, Professor of English, Trenton State College, will take place at 1 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Avenue.

April 29 — The film "Plaza Suite" will be shown at 1 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Avenue.

Library Board of Trustee Member Kenneth R. Broo will be honored at 7:30 p.m. for his 32 years of service to the Library, at which time a special lecture will be delivered by noted scholar and performer Dr. Elliot Engel, who will speak on the topic, "The Dickens Nobody Knows."

Opera film class

The Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Avenue, will offer a film class in May and June on Tuesdays at 12:30 p.m. at the suggestion of Frank Senatore, who will provide some of the films for the series. "La Traviata" will be shown on May 4, while "La Boheme" will be shown on May 11. On May 18, "Carmen" will be shown, while on May 25, "Tosca" will be shown. On June 1, "Il Trovatore" will be featured, while on June 8, "Lucia di Lammermoor" will be shown. The series will conclude with "Cavalleria Rusticana" on June 15 and "Pagliacci" on June 22.

Trustee to be honored

For his 32 years of service as a Library Board of Trustee Member, Kenneth R. Broo, will be honored this evening at 7:30 p.m. with a special lecture in his honor by Dr. Elliot Engel, a scholar and performer, who will speak on the topic: "The Dickens Nobody Knows."

In his lecture Dr. Engel presents a lively visit to the exuberant world of Charles Dickens, the man acclaimed by critics and readers alike as perhaps the greatest novelist in the English language. He bares the surprising roots of Dickens' unique imagination and demonstrates that the author's life was far more astonishing than any of its novels. Please join us tonight!

Programs at Shafter Branch

During the month of May, several programs have been planned for children and young people on Mondays at the Shafter Branch Library. On May 10, there will be Checkers from 3:15-4:00 p.m., while on May 17, from 3:15-4:00 p.m., there will be a secret movie. Arm wrestling will take place on May 24, from 3:15-4:00 p.m.

For further information, call Fred Lewis at the Shafter Branch Library at 450-3438.

INSIGHT OFFERED — Frank De Lisi, pictured, will be providing a lecture and book discussion on the book, "Seize the Day," in the series, entitled "The Cutting Edge: Ethics in Literature," provided by a matching grant from the New Jersey Committee for the Humanities. Call the library at 450-3434 to register for the discussion and series.

Employment search service

Currently available at the library is a microfiche service for job seekers, entitled, "Help Wanted U.S.A.," which arrives each Saturday and contains reprints of Sunday's classified employment advertising for 64 cities in 36 states. The employment advertising in the 64 newspapers includes over 100,000 jobs each week with a wide range of occupations covered.

The microfiche is available in the Reference Department on the second floor of the library.

Showdown with Nutley on Monday

Lady Bucs host MSD today

By Mike Lambert

With the frenzy of Carl Corino's 300th coaching victory now safely stored in the history books, the Belleville softball team resumed the 1993 season and fared well in a busy week.

The Lady Bucs downed Eastside and Irvington in a unique double header, then stopped Hackensack 11-1 in the first NNJIL Pacific Division game of the season. The girls then played another doubleheader last Saturday, competing in the Wildcat Classic in Whippany Park and splitting two games.

Entering this week, the girls were 10-2. Belleville battled powerful Paramus last Tuesday and faced Teaneck yesterday. This afternoon, a very good Mt. St. Dominic team will be at Clearmon Field in the quarterfinal round of the Essex County tournament. Game time is 4 p.m.

Tomorrow, Paramus Catholic is at Belleville, also at 4 p.m. Next Monday, it's off to Nutley and next Wednesday, the girls play at Immaculate Heart. Both Nutley and I.H. are outstanding teams that are ranked highly in the state.

The busy and extremely competitive schedule that Belleville faces this week and next was paramount on Corino's mind.

"There are no more breaks," the coach said. "Mt. St. Dominic is a quick team with a lot of talent. Paramus is outstanding. They beat Nutley last week. Nutley has a solid team, with excellent pitching. Immaculate Heart is real strong. We just have to battle each game. We'll get a good idea in the next week of what kind of season we're going to have."

Last week, Belleville downed Eastside 12-2, then played later in the day against Irvington in the first round of the county tournament and won that game, 6-1.

Against Eastside, Keri Wendling pitched a complete game and improved her record to 2-0. The junior allowed six hits, fanned three and walked three.

Nicole Gibbons and Jennifer Citarella were both 4 for 4. Citarella had four ribbies and Gibbons, three.

A few hours later, the girls battled Irvington and came away with a five run victory.

Belleville, seeded second in this year's ECT, scored twice in the first and once in the second to help Kim Piscatowski win her sixth game of the year.

In the first, Citarella singled and stole second. Lynn Giachetti hit a triple to score Citarella and Giachetti came around to score on a throwing error.

In the second inning, Christine Sansano walked, stole second and scored on a hit by Daniele Brodo.

Irvington narrowed the lead to 3-1 in the fourth, but Belleville came back with two runs in the last of that inning to take control. Andrea Curran walked and Sansano was hit by a pitch. Both runners advanced one base on a passed ball, setting the stage for Liz Ramirez who singled in both runners.

Belleville added one more run in the sixth to seal the win.

Piscatowski hurled a complete game, allowing four hits, striking out two and walking two.

Gina Conte prepares to bunt. Conte has good speed and since she is a lefty, her ability to get to first base is even better.

Liz Ramirez catches pop up to end a Bloomfield rally. Ramirez and Nicole Gibbons have been working at first base this season.

Kevin Johansen leads Bucs past BC

By Mike Lambert

After running its winning streak to four games, the Belleville baseball team hit some rough road last week and dropped two games. The Bucs defeated Bergen Catholic 6-2, then fell to St. Joe's 4-1 and Hackensack, 4-3.

Nick Grande's team (6-3 overall, 0-2 in the NNJIL Pacific Division) battled Essex Catholic and Teaneck earlier this week. Tomorrow, it's off to Paramus Catholic and next Monday, Nutley comes to town. Next Wednesday, the Bucs play host to Don Bosco. All of those games commence at 4 p.m.

The week started with a convincing win over a good Bergen Catholic squad. The victory boosted the Bucs record to 6-1 and featured an outstanding performance by senior Kevin Johansen.

"We played a good game there,"

Grande said. "Kevin was at his best. He kept them off balance throughout the game and we came through with key hits."

Belleville scored first in the third inning. Jim Napolitano singled, stole second and scored on a hit by Jimmy Landon.

In the fourth, B.C. responded with its only two runs off Johansen. But the Buccaneers answered quickly, tying the game in the last of the fourth on a single by Johansen, a stolen base and a hit by Mike Morgan that drove Johansen in from second.

In the fifth, the Bucs broke it open with four runs. Mike Puleo and Landon singled. With two outs, Mike Mundy singled to load the bases. That set the stage for Johansen, who blasted a triple that clear-Taking a lead at first base is Joe DePeri. A junior, DePeri has a good bat and can play either in the outfield or at shortstop.

Jim Napolitano (10) races down first base line, but he is out by a step during game at Bloomfield. "Jimmy Nap" is an aggressive second baseman and a key to the Bucs success this season.

'Real Season' begins Sunday for crew

By Mike Lambert

The Belleville crew team prepared for its "real" season by racing well at Upper Merion and the New Jersey State championships last weekend.

Dennis Villano's team will take part in the City Championships this Sunday at Philadelphia. This Sunday's races officially begin what Villano terms his second season, and essentially, the real crew season. After the city championships, the Bucs will race in the Mid Hudson Regatta, the Stotesbury Regatta and finally, the nationals on Memorial Day weekend in Delaware.

"I was real pleased with the way we raced last weekend at the states," Villano said. "The kids are coming along well, and I'm glad to say we haven't peaked yet. I'm really looking forward to the start of the regatta season."

The Bucs raced Upper Merion in a dual race two weeks ago and fared well. Four shells, the mens' senior eight, the mens' senior four, the mens' junior four and the mens' novice four took first place.

"The kids were happy with the performances, but they know they can race better," said Villano.

At the states last weekend, the team responded well. Nine boats competed and seven earned berths in the finals.

The womens' junior four took second place. That boat consists of Boa Tran, Mindy Schmidt, Caren Villano, Vivian DellaVecchia and Michele Scanzillo.

"Boa and Mindy rowed in three different events at the states," Villano said. "Those kids battle so hard and it's hard to keep them down. I also want to give credit to Nikki Marinelli, ToniAnn Zoppi and Adella Llumto, along with coxswain Donna Driggers. They also raced in three different events and were outstanding."

The womens' lightweight four and the novice eight took third place. The mens' senior four finished fourth and the womens' novice four and the mens' novice four each finished fifth in the finals.

The mens' pairs team of Matt Kastner and Darren Pierson took a second place in the finals.

The team was affected by illness. Joe O'Connell, a key rower in the mens' junior four and Vera Godleski, an excellent athlete for the womens' junior four, missed the states.

"They should be okay for this weekend," Villano said. "You know they're hurting when they can't race. Those kids never let down."

Villano credited his coaching staff, namely Todd Torrence and Maureen Russo for preparing the novice shells. Also, coach Bob Cassin did an excellent job with the pairs team.

"We're getting the eighth graders ready to race at Poughkeepsie (in the Mid Hudson Regatta)," Villano said. "It should be a good experience for them."

Villano also expressed thanks to Belleville resident and businessman John Frade.

"Mr. Frade donated a launch and motor to the crew program," the coach said. "I can't begin to express our gratitude to him for his help."

Starting in next week's issue, we'll begin interviews with current and former professional athletes. The idea will be two fold. First off, the interviews will focus on the dedication that is necessary to achieve professional status and secondly, you'll be able to get some in depth information that perhaps you missed in the daily box scores.

Next week's interview will be with Rick Horton, a relief pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers. Horton pitched from 1984-90 in the majors and had two stints with my Cardinals during his major league tenure.

Horton is a good example of an athlete who made the most of his opportunities. He did not possess a blazing fast ball, rather he had good control and excellent location on his pitches. Horton's ability and hard work ethic gave him the opportunity to play on the major league level and he made the most of his opportunity.

Rick played in three World Series during his career, two with St. Louis (1985 and '87) and one with Los Angeles (1988). Next week, we'll look back at his career in the majors and hear what it takes to make it to the top of the baseball profession.

We'll also have some insight from Horton's manager in St. Louis, Whitey Herzog, who today is the top executive in the California Angels system.

It promises to be an interesting article. In future weeks, I'll try and provide interviews with other sports figures who have, or currently, compete on a top level in sports.

These interviews will not take the place of any local sports coverage, rather it should give the sports section a little more depth.

TENNIS TEAM IS 3-3

Tony Salese's traveling racketmen invaded Barringer, Passaic, Nutley and Don Bosco over the past two weeks and came away with a 3-3 record overall.

The Bucs downed Barringer 5-0 and lost to Passaic and Don Bosco by 4-1 decisions and to Nutley, 3-2.

Against Barringer, Seymon Kogan won via a forfeit at first singles. At second singles, Tomas Wozniak dominated his match and won without dropping a set. The final scores were 6-0, 6-0.

At third singles, Jomar Gomez won in straight sets, 6-1, 6-

The first doubles team of Oscar Benavides and Tuan Bai won 6-3, 6-0 and the second doubles team of Wesley Tahsir and Pete Przulovic were victorious without playing a set, winning by forfeit.

In the Passaic defeat, Gomez was the lone Buc winner, capturing the third singles match by scores of 3-6, 7-5 and 6-0. Against Nutley, Gomez won a tough match, 3-6, 6-0 and 7-6 (9-7 in the tie breaker) and Kogan captured the first singles match in straight sets, 6-2, 6-0.

Gomez was also victorious against Don Bosco, winning another wild match in three sets, 1-6, 7-6 (9-7) and 6-1.

"The kids played real well in the 4-1 losses," Salese said. "The effort was very good. They hung in there. We also played very well against Nutley. As I said before the start of the year, I think we'll be a very competitive team."

Needless to say, they're all on the road.

ENG EXCELS AT NJIT

Kathy Eng of Belleville was honored by NJIT as the female outstanding senior athlete of the year at the University's annual Athletic Awards Banquet, held at the Ramada Hotel in East Hanover last week.

Eng guided the womens volleyball team to second place finishes in both the IAC and the Womens Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. A three time New Jersey Tech womens' volleyball MVP, Eng was a first team all IAC and all WIAA pick in 1992. This past fall, the 5'7" outside hitter led the Highlanders in kills, hitting percentage and service aces.

She also was the University's representative for NCAA Woman of the Year.

Eng was an outstanding volleyball player during her days at Belleville High School. She played on some excellent teams and was coached, of course, by Hall of Famer, Grace Worley.

I'm sure we'll see Eng in the Belleville Hall of Fame one day.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The 1983 Lady Buc softball team defeated Bloomfield for the county championship, 3-1. Diana DeAquino was the winning pitcher for Belleville. The starting infield in that game was Lela DeLaetia at first, Lorraine Bini at second, Kim Indlere at shortstop and Desiree Johansen at third. The catcher was Tracey Buono.

FOR THIS WEEK

Let's focus on the NBA playoffs. Who did the Knicks defeat for its last NBA championship? What year did they last play for the crown? Who was the Knicks coach? How did the Knicks do the year after they won that championship?

Bucs fall to St. Joseph's, Hack.

ed the bases.

Morgan then singled home Johansen with the sixth Belleville run of the game.

Puleo, Johansen, Morgan and Landon had two hits each. Johansen drove in three runs while Morgan had two ribbies and Landon drove in one.

On the mound, Johansen hurled a complete game, allowing two earned runs and six hits. He fanned seven and walked only two.

The winning streak was halted in the next game when St. Joe's, ranked sixth in the state, defeated Belleville 4-1 in a tough game at Belleville.

"It was a real good game," Grande said. "They've got a real good club. And their shortstop is legit. He's one of the best I've seen in a long time."

St. Joe's scored two in the first and one in the second off Mundy to gain the early advantage. The Bucs narrowed the lead to 3-1 in the fourth on a walk to Mundy and back to back singles by Johansen and Morgan, Morgan's hit driving home Mundy.

"We had our chances," Grande said. "We loaded the bases in one inning and we hit the ball hard. Unfortunately, we hit it right at people."

Mundy took the loss despite a solid effort on the hill. The junior pitched seven innings, allowing only four hits and fanning eight. His control was somewhat shaky, however, allowing seven walks.

Johansen led the Belleville offense with two hits.

The game with Hackensack was a close one from the outset. Each time the Bucs scored, the Comets countered in the same frame. Belleville scored once in the first when Landon walked and went to second on a walk by Johansen. Both men executed a double steal and with runners on second and third, Ken Johansen singled in Landon to give the Bucs a one zip lead.

Hackensack tied it in the last of the first off Ken Johansen and the game remained tied at one until the top of the fourth, when Belleville tallied two runs.

Ken Johansen singled and Morgan walked. Bob Dena then hit one a long double that cleared the bases and gave Belleville a 3-1 edge.

Hackensack came right back in the last of the fourth to tie the game and in the sixth, the Comets pushed across a run on a double, a fly out and a misjudged ball in deep left field.

"We were hurt by some fluke plays," Grande said. "What can you say? It happens and we just have to move on and not dwell on one loss. It's a game we should have won, but there will be more opportunities."

Ken Johansen pitched well, allowing just two hits and fanning five while giving up two earned runs. Johansen walked two batters.

He was also the leading hitter, collecting two hits in three at bats.

NOTES: The seeding committee for the annual Greater Newark Tournament met early last week to determine the set up for the 1993 tourney.

Belleville last won the title in 1981, when George Zanfini's squad downed Glen Ridge 10-4 in the championship round.

The Bucs last played in the championship game in '86, losing to Columbia in a wild game, 9-8. Ralph LaConte was the head coach for Belleville then.

Jennifer Citarella throws to first base to complete put out. Citarella has been red hot at the plate and is very steady at second base.

Liz Ramirez handles ground ball and tags out Bloomfield runner in fourth inning of game at Pulaski Park.

Giachetti, Citarella hitting well

Against Hackensack, Belleville broke open a close game with a nine run fourth inning. For a while, the game was close, with the Lady Bucs scoring a run in the second and Hackensack countering in the top of the third.

In the Belleville second, Kristin Galioto walked and advanced to second on a passed ball. She then scored on a Sansano single.

Hackensack tied the game in the third on a home run by sophomore Jamie Montenegro. The Comets have a very talented player in Montenegro and she should be a tough competitor in the Pacific Division.

In the last of the fourth, the Lady Bucs took control of the game with Colleen Mannion, Galioto and Sansano all contributing two run singles. Belleville dominated the inning without benefit of an extra base hit.

On the day, Mannion and Sansano were both 2 for 3.

Piscatowski moved to 7-1 on the year by pitching a complete game and allowing just three hits. She walked one batter.

Last Saturday, Belleville traveled to Whippany Park and played in the Cougar Softball classic. In the first round, the team faced a good Lenape Valley squad and lost a 3-2 decision.

"It was a good experience playing there," Corino said. "Lenape Valley had a real good pitcher. We had our chances and overall, I felt we played pretty well."

Lenape Valley took a 3-0 lead into the fifth inning before Belleville rallied for two runs. Sansano tripled and scored on a single by Gibbons, who was pinch hitting. Brodo came into pinch run and scored the second Belleville run on a triple by Citarella.

With one out and a runner on third, Belleville had a key opportunity to tie the game, but Citarella was stranded at third and Lenape Valley held on to a one run lead.

In the sixth inning, Belleville loaded the bases with two outs but couldn't push in the tying run.

Piscatowski took the loss, pitching a complete game and giving up three runs on six hits. She had one strike out and one walk.

Citarella and Sansano each had two hits.

In the consolation game, Belleville stopped Morris Catholic 5-1. Once again, Piscatowski pitched and the junior responded with a complete game, four hitter.

Belleville tallied once in the first on back to back doubles by Citarella and Giachetti. In the third, with the game tied at one, Belleville went ahead for good. Mannion singled and scored on a Piscatowski double. Piscatowski then stole third and scored on a Giachetti single.

Belleville scored its final two runs in the sixth inning. Curran and Galioto reached safely on errors.

Gina Conte singled home Curran and Citarella singled to score Galioto.

Once again, Citarella was outstanding at the plate. The senior collected four hits in five at bats. Piscatowski and Giachetti also excelled, with two hits each.

NOTES: Piscatowski improved to 8-2 with the win over Morris Catholic. She struck out four and walked one. If Belleville wins today's quarterfinal game, the girls will be in the county semi finals for the eleventh time in the past 13 years. Last years team lost to Livingston in the semis after beating Nutley in the quarterfinals.

Belleville last appeared in the championship game in 1989. That year, the team defeated Livingston 1-0 for the crown in extra innings. Junior Stacey Johansen hurled the complete game. Johansen is a star shortstop for the Brown University softball team today. She is currently a junior at the Ivy League school.

Nick Grande (back turned) gives his team instruction in between innings of recent game. Listening closely is Jim Napolitano, Kevin Johansen, Mike Morgan and Ken Johansen.

Head coach Nick Grande gives his team encouragement from third base coaching box. Grande is happy with his teams performance thus far in 1993.

A Letter Would Be Special!

Dear Mom

Mothers like letters.

In each block, put an example of the punctuation marks. Count the number you see in the letter. Put that number in each little box.

comma	quotation marks	question mark	period	exclamation mark	apostrophe
-------	-----------------	---------------	--------	------------------	------------

How to address a letter

The return address

1. The sender's name
2. His or her address
3. The city, state and ZIP code

The destination address

1. The person to whom it goes
2. His or her street, post office box or rural route number
3. The city, state and ZIP code

You can just hand the letter to your mom, but it is fun addressing letters. You might even mail it!

Rookie Cookie's Recipe

Mother's Day Muffins

You'll need:

- 1 2/3 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup oats
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/4 cups buttermilk
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted

What to do:

1. Combine all ingredients except buttermilk and butter or margarine in a large bowl. Mix well.
2. Add buttermilk and butter or margarine. Mix lightly until mixture is just moistened.
3. Fill cups in a greased muffin pan about 3/4 full with batter.
4. Bake in a preheated, 400-degree oven 20 minutes or until done. Makes about 10.

See and Say

Make up your own Mother's Day story. Older kids can write their story.

Mini Spy . . .

Mini Spy is giving her mom breakfast in bed for Mother's Day. See if you can find:

- pumpkin
- spoon
- sailboat
- ruler
- net
- bell
- leaf
- rolling pin
- kite
- word MINI
- hot dog
- pencil
- canoe
- tooth

How to make an envelope

- Use a ruler to measure 1-inch strips down the long side of a 8 1/2-by-11-inch sheet of paper.

- Fold the sheet the long way into three equal blocks.

- Using the folds as a guide, cut away the 1-inch strips on each corner.

- Fold in the middle flaps. Put paste along the flap edges.

- Fold up the bottom flap.

- Trim about an inch off the tip flap. Add paste to seal.

How to make postcards

The standard size postcard measures 3 1/2 by 5 inches.

- Cut this size out of lightweight poster paper or heavy construction paper.
- Paste a photo on the front or draw a special picture.

- Divide the back in half. Put your mom's address on one side. The message goes on the other.

Dear Mom,
Happy Mother's Day!
I love you so much!
Thank you for everything you do!

Mother's Day cards

Your own special designs are the most important. Here are some ideas you might consider.

- Draw a door on the front with your house number.
- Fold a piece of construction paper this way.

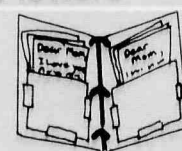

- Open the door for a pretty picture and a message.

Make Mom a place to keep letters

The letters Mom saves now will become treasures for you both in later years.

- Cover a box with construction paper or gift-wrapping paper.

- Decorate a notebook cover. Make special pockets for her to slip in the letters.

The post office asks that letter writers include the complete addresses. Do you know what these post-office abbreviations stand for?

Mom's love tokens

You might want to include tokens. Cut these out and color, or you might want to make your own. You can decide how many of each of these treats you want to give away.

Hints for good writing

Since this is such a special letter, you might want to follow these writing steps.

- Think about what you want to say.
- Organize your thoughts.
- Write a draft.
- Read and revise.
- Check and copy.
- Share with Mom.

Look through your newspaper for signs that Mother's Day will be here soon.

TWO AT A TIME

Whenever patients take more than one medication, they open themselves to the possibility that the drugs (including over-the-counter medications) will interact. Whether this drug interaction is harmful or beneficial, the drugs in combination may produce an effect that is different from the ones that each produces alone. For instance, antacids taken with antibiotics from the tetracycline family may diminish the antibiotics' effect by interfering with their absorption into the bloodstream. Certain blood-thinning medications (anti-coagulants) are broken down more quickly when used with certain more quickly acting pills. Other drug interactions may cause rapid elimination of a drug from the body, a counteraction of the effects of each, or increased levels of one medication in the bloodstream.

Part of a pharmacist's responsibility is giving information on drug interactions. If you have a question don't hesitate to call us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. "Your Doctor Knows Us, Your Doctor Trusts Us". Be sure to stop by and see our selection of greeting cards, cameras, Times watches, gifts and greeting cards for Mother's Day. Hours: 9am-10pm, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HINT: The prescription anti-histamine terfenadine may cause abnormal heartbeats when used concurrently with ketoconazole or erythromycin.
