'We won't be public spectacle' - Nazziola

Board of Education says Council will not negotiate budget seriously

By Howard Klausner

The Belleville Board of Education declined an invitation by Mayor Marina Perna to attend Monday night's work session of the Township Council to discuss the school budget, defeated in the recent election.

According to Board President Gabe Nazziola, the issue was over making it a public meeting, rather than a private committee meeting as requested by the Board.

"We will not be made part of some public spectacle," Nazziola said.

"Since the Council has already hired an auditor to look at the school budget, what need is there to hold a public meeting on it, except to provide Mayor Perna with a grandstand act for her campaign for the Assembly?" Nazziola said.

His position was endorsed by Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello who said that holding a public session in which members of the audience could be vociferous was akin to "hauling the Christians into the Coliseum, with the same kind of crowd participating."

When word went out that the Board would not attend the work session, public participation dwindled to three - Joseph Celfo of the Concerned Citizens of Belleville, and Richard and Patricia Pisano.

Mrs. Pisano, the former President of the Board, told the Council that she had been denied information about the budget as it was being prepared.

She had campaigned against the budget in her campaign.

Mayor Perna said the Board had asked for a committee meeting, rather than a private meeting. "The taxpayers have a right to know about the budget," she said.

Nardiello said it was always the policy in previous years to have committee meetings rather than public meetings on the budget.

Nazziola said that under the previous Commission government, public hearings had been held and were "disastrous".

The Council has hired the firm of McCormick and Co. at a fee of $5,000 to analyze the budget and make recommendations.

One report was circulated that Township officials had found "a million dollar surplus" in the school budget.

Nazziola said the budget included a surplus of $410,000, of which $150,000 was dedicated to reducing the tax rate to an increase of 19 points, instead of 30 points.

The Council has been invited by Essex County Superintendent of Schools Peter Carter to attend a meeting at his office in Cedar Grove, tomorrow (Friday) at 5:30 p.m.

Nazziola said he would attend this meeting, if the Council did.

Mayor Perna said that a list of 12 requests for information had been submitted to the Board, and Board officials said they were working to provide the requested information.

Parking - is it or ain't it?

Merchants and officials confused about shoppers' parking projects

By Howard Klausner

Downtown merchants who had hoped for early action to provide off-street parking in the Town Hall vicinity had their hopes dashed, then raised, and finally, befuddled, this week.

Township officials said that the prospect of acquiring two adjoining buildings on Washington Avenue, to be razed for a 50-space parking lot, is dim to the point of being non-existent.

The projected cost of $17,000 a space made the Township Council put the idea on hold, although an ordinance had been passed previously for a $300,000 bond issue.

Negotiations with the property owner indicate that the total costs will be far more than $300,000.

The only immediate prospect for off-street parking is in the municipal lot adjoining the Municipal Building on Washington Avenue.

Township Manager Stephen Cuccio told the Council on Monday that when parking facilities are completed for township employees on Valley Street, the Municipal lot will be open to shoppers on an unrestricted basis.

Officials estimated that 60 spaces would be made available.

At the suggestion of Councilman Bill Cook, Cuccio said he would investigate the cost of a multi-level garage on the lot, or a deck for additional parking.

The planning firm of Maser Soslinski of Matawan has been given the assignment of creating plans for a "streetscape" for downtown Washington Avenue. Essex County's Economic Development Commission will not provide funding until the plans are completed.

At the same time, members of the Washington Avenue Merchants Association argued that parking should take precedence over a streetscape.

Mary Senatore-Ciccone, Executive Director of the EDC, said that $97,000 had been allocated for parking in 1989, but had not been used.

Cuccio said that the money is being spent to provide Valley Street parking, which will free up parking in the Municipal Lot.

With an estimated traffic flow of 14,000 cars a day, Washington Avenue is considered a major source of shopping traffic, if off-street spaces were available.

In the meantime, the Township has no specific plan for off-street parking.

Ruse costs supermarket $10,000 in stolen cash

Belleville police report that a "flim-flam" was pulled on the Grand Union supermarket on Main Street, a week ago. It resulted in the loss of $10,000 in cash.

At 5:37 p.m. a clerk was counting receipts in the Courtesy Desk booth when a woman, in her late 20s or early 30s, approached and asked for the location of a sugar substitute.

The woman, who spoke with a foreign accent, became insistent and then abusive, and the clerk set aside the cash and left the booth to accompany her to the shelf where the item was displayed.

The clerk said later that the booth was deserted for no more than two minutes. But within that time span, someone entered the booth and made off with the receipts.

The complaining customer also had disappeared.

Police said no one saw the thief enter the booth.

The "customer" was described as a white woman with light brown hair.

Detective Mack Craig has been assigned to the case. So far, police said, there are no suspects.

Joe Celfo, Samaritan

A lady and her charitable organization were saved hundreds, and possibly thousands of dollars, recently.

The lady had put several hundred dollars in cash and checks in larger amounts in her purse, the proceeds of a charity drive.

Then, she lost the purse on a Belleville street.

Fortunately, the first person to come upon it was Joseph Celfo, civic activist who is active in Concerned Citizens of Belleville.

He opened the purse, blinked at the amount of cash in it and then looked for identification. He found it, and notified the lady.

She had not been aware that she had lost the purse, when Celfo called.

Silver Lakers, assemble!

Marie Strumolo Burke and Sebastian Papa have announced the first meeting of the newly-formed Silver Lake Civic Association will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 19, at the Moose Hall on Horiss Street.

Nomination of officers will be accepted at the meeting.

Attorney Vincent Socca has donated his legal services to help prepare the by-laws of the organization.

ON THE RUN - The three-legged race at the Rec House Olympics saw the girls make it to the finish line a little more easily than the boys, which is the way it is in life.

SIGN OF SPRING - Store owner Gerry Pastore took advantage of a sunny Spring day to put some of his wicker furniture out on Washington Avenue so the customers could have a closer look. The outdoors are great for wicker furniture.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

When Bob Reiser gets a call for the use of Reiser's Courier Service at any time he never knows quite what to expect. One of his specialties is the servicing of hospitals and laboratories, transporting organs needed in life saving operations. There are also more mundane assignments from lawyers and printers and other organizations, and there is also the livery service which services just about everything. The telephone call he received last Thursday at 1:30 a.m. was a hurry call from Newark International Airport where four surgeon specialists had just arrived from Pittsburgh and needed rush transportation to Newark Beth Israel Hospital. Bob got them there, and waited until they were ready for the rush back to the airport. He waited in his van until 6:30 a.m. The surgeons came out bearing a human liver and a human heart. From the North Terminal of the airport, special air transports were waiting for the surgeons. Two were on their way to the Pittsburgh Transplant Center where a boy awaited a liver transplant. Two were on their way to Atlanta where someone awaited a heart transplant. "There I was, involved in trying to save two lives," Bob recalled. "It's one of the things that makes the job worthwhile." ● ● ● ● There are various ways for an overworked business person to relax. James Vincent Serio likes to do his relaxing at 140 miles an hour, on a Harley-Davidson Sportster motorcycle. The owner of Ultra Spec garage and service station, Serio is making his first actual entry May 16 at Budds Creek, Maryland on his 1991 model. He hopes to race at Englishtown Raceway on Aug. 22. ● ● ● ● With one other biker on the track, he will make a race against time, zooming down the quarter-mile track with one wheel firmly in the air as he tries to accumulate enough speed points to qualify for the final and deciding run. His father, Vincent James Serio, was a stock car driver who competed on the circuit from Roosevelt Raceway through South Jersey. When not racing, he was a construction worker. James Vincent says his father seems to approve the son's reversion to two-wheel transportation. Jim's first bike was an English job, picked up when he was 17. However, he likes the Harley as an expression of American macho culture. He immediately entered "informal" races on the New Jersey highways. ● ● ● ● He has a sponsor, the owner of Spencer Performance, who will only work with Harleys and they get along so well they may join forces when Ultra Spec moves to Greylock Avenue in August. Half the shop will be for bikes, and half will be for the four-wheeled types. Another biking buddy is Bucky Nicoletti, the prominent Kiwanian who "Polar Bears" with him. This involves going down to Cape May in winter and driving in sub-zero temperatures. "It's a lot of fun," says Jim, who is 45. He belongs to the East Coast Racing Association in Galloway Township, which will sponsor the final championship race on Sept. 19 at Atco Raceway near Burlington. Bearing up under all this is his wife, the former Harriet Sisbarro and daughter Tracy who plans to make Jim a grandfather in July. That will be the real championship award.

They call him Moje (Mo'-jay) on the streets of North Newark where Spanish and Haitian Creole are common tongues, but Miguel Matias is a Belleville man who tries his best to bring youngsters off those streets as a one-man rehabilitation program. "Out there, it's just me, and the kid, and the street." A native New Yorker whose father came from Puerto Rico, Matias said, "The black Spanish speaking person has special problems in our society, perhaps more than the blacks and the Hispanics alone." He says he was a street kid, himself. "But I straightened myself out. I didn't like being shot at, or chased by the cops. You might call that excitement, but I didn't." He tried to make a career off the streets. He found work, operated a grocery for a while - "We went broke" - and finally found steady work as a furniture mover and set-up man for banks and business offices. He became a martial arts expert, and was State champion in karate and kick boxing. He married, and his daughter has won a scholarship to New Jersey Institute of Technology where she will major in Music. ● ● ● ● Having made a life for himself, he felt he had to go back to the streets to "straighten out the bad guys". Sometimes it meant just providing a handout for a meal or a movie, and then a further meeting to encourage the youngster to stop stealing cars and breaking into homes. It meant getting the youngster into a gymnasium or a library, or getting him or her back to school. ● ● ● ● "They need a place down there, a building, where they can learn trades, or find a friend - anything to get them off the streets. Often, all they need is someone to take an interest in them. Often, their parents can't, or won't, help them." He said he was working with Ernesto Irlzarry of Passaic to fund such an institution. In the mean time, he does what he can - "I'm only one guy, but I'm trying."

Bonafacchio the Church Cat said about the recent tragic events in Waco, "It proves one thing. Physically, it's a lot safer to stick with the old Parish or the Church Around the Corner. Although I did hear about a Pastor who said if he found the guy who was tossing I.O.U.'s into the Sunday Collection, he'd shoot him." ● ● ● ● Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch said the new Public Safety Building is costing so much over estimate that it should be named "The Contractor's Delight; or, Nobody Knows the Doubles I've Seen."

Historian to speak at Kingsland Manor

Robert McFadyen of Rutherford will give a lecture on May 16 at an Open House, starting at 2 p.m. at Kingsland Manor, corner of Lakeside Drive and Kingsland Street, Nutley.

The subject of his lecture will be "The Kingsland Family of Barbadoes Neck."

A Bergen County radio dispatcher, he is also president of the Belleville Historical Society. His interest in the history of this section of New Jersey was sparked as a teenager living in North Arlington. He has written many histories of the area starting when he was 19 years old with "The History of Lyndhurst and North Arlington," which was published in 1971.

Other published works are "A History of the Schuyler Copper Mines and the First Steam Engine in America"; 1974; "History of Rutherford", 1981; "Tri-Centennial History of Bergen County", 1983.

McFadyen also wrote "Josiah Hornblower and The History of the Steam Engine in America", in conjunction with Joseph Hatch of Belleville, a direct descendant of Josiah Hornblower. This history was the focal point of Josiah Hornblower Day, celebrated August 13, 1992, as "Operation Uplift" by the Belleville Renaissance Committee.

McFadyen will be available to answer any questions you may have after the lecture.

Perna gets Assembly endorsement

By Howard Klausner

Belleville Mayor Marina Perna has the Essex Democratic Organization's designation for Assembly in the June primary, in the 36th Legislative District.

She will be on the Organization slate with Ozzie Maldonado of Passaic, candidate for the Assembly, and former Senator Gabe Ambrosio of Lyndhurst, seeking election to the New Jersey Senate.

Maldonado and Perna face opposition from another Democrat, James Dombrowski of Lyndhurst, running as "Middle Class Democrat".

Ambrosio will be opposed in his Senate nomination bid by Michael Matthews of Rutherford, whose slogan is "Let's build our community together".

On the Republican side, Senator John Scott of Lyndhurst, Assemblyman John V. Kelly of Nutley, and Assemblyman Paul DiGaetano of Passaic are unopposed for their party's nomination. All have the endorsement of the Essex Republican Party Organization.

Mayor Perna overcame initial opposition from local Democratic leaders when she announced her plans to seek the Assembly nomination.

Belleville Democratic Chairman Chester Prosperi has announced his support of Mayor Perna in the Assembly race.

Other Belleville Democrats are expected to follow suit.

Interest in the November election will be heightened by the fact that the Governorship is at stake. Jim Florio is expected to head the Democratic ticket. Republicans will choose among Carey Edwards, James Wallwork and Christie Todd Whitman to head their ticket.

Football Giants shine

By Victor Kokos

On March 31, members of the Giants football team played an exhibition basketball game for Gary Johnson's family. Johnson was a Belleville fireman who died in 1992 of a heart attack. Proceeds from the game will go to help pay for medical and funeral expenses.

The firemen and Giants played to a large crowd at Belleville High School gym. Members of the Giants who participated included Dave Meggett, Pepper Johnson, Chris Calloway, Rodney Hampton and Konaves Maggee. The Giants beat the firemen by 50 points in this event. However, everyone who played had fun, which was the real objective.

Giants outside linebacker, Konaves Maggee, said, "It is important as a role model to give back something to the public, and such events as this are a good way of doing this while also keeping physically fit for the upcoming season!"

The game was a terrific experience for all involved. It was wonderful to see so many people supporting members of their community.

Visit to a rain forest

By Maria Zigarelli

In April and May of 1993, BHS Biology teacher, Bruce Kemnitz will present five two hour sessions on rain forest, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. at the High School.

Last summer, Kemnitz went on a safari in the Peruvian rain forest and he is eager to share the knowledge he gained on his trip. Kemnitz hopes teachers interested in neotropical rain forest will attend.

Slides and tapes will be shown demonstrating plant and animal life of rain forest, functioning of rain forest, economic and political pressures, the climate and geology of the Amazon Basin. Attending staff can earn one in service credit upon completion of this ten hour course.

Kemnitz said he hopes to "impart an awareness of how and why the forest is important, and the usefulness of the plants for medicines and as cures for diseases."

Eating 'Autentico'

By Stephanie Ferruggia

On April 29, members and advisors of the Foreign Language Club visited the Spanish restaurant, Costa del Sol for a delightful dinner.

Every year the Foreign Language Club visits a different restaurant for a cultural experience. The students enjoy trying the different types of food.

Each student paid $18.50 for the buffet. There was a $3.50 discount for those students who sold all of their fundraising cookies. The discount came from the club dues.

The dinner was attended by 30 club members, the two advisors, Ms. Kirsh and Mrs. Richter, and three other chaperones.

Trust Company splits

Siggi B. Wilzig, Chairman and President of the Trustcompany Bancorporation (NASDAQ), parent company of The Trust Company of New Jersey, announced at the annual shareholders' meeting that the Board of Directors approved a two-for-one split of the common stock of the Company. This action follows a four-for-one stock split in 1988 and a two-for-one stock split in 1990. On June 18, 1993 shareholders will receive one additional share for each share held on the record date of May 14, 1993.

Wilzig further announced that based on the Bank's continued strong earnings, the yearly dividend will be reviewed at the next Board of Directors meeting. During the last six years the dividend has been increased 300 percent.

This stock split was prompted by the strong performance of Trustcompany stock, which has increased in market value 2000 percent over the last 10 years.

The Trustcompany is the only major commercial bank in New Jersey with nine consecutive years of record earnings.

BELLEVILLE SCHOOL NEWS

Musmanno to retire from high school post

The end of an era? No, says Ernest Musmanno, who at 64 is retiring as the Belleville High School Supervisor of Business Education. "This is just the beginning of a new and exciting era in education."

Musmanno is retiring on July 1, 1993, after serving for 35 years as an educator. Thirty-one years in Belleville.

Born in New Cumberland, West Virginia, he came to New Jersey in 1949. After several years as a men's clothing salesman, he entered the U.S. Army in 1951 for two years. Upon discharge, he entered Montclair State College where he met his wife Rosalind, and was married in 1959. "Our decision to move to Belleville and start a family was the best decision we ever made," said Musmanno.

Christopher was born in 1962 and Donna in 1967. Both attended Belleville High School and were active academically and in sports. Christopher attended the University of Virginia and Seton Hall Law School and is married with two children. Donna is also married. She attended the University of Delaware and Rutgers University. She is currently completing her master's degree at Seton Hall University, while working as a research scientist for a major drug firm.

tion after marriage and completed course work for a master's degree in administration and supervision plus 32 credits beyond in education and business.

He served as a teacher at Passaic Valley High School for four years before coming to Belleville in 1962.

He was Director of the Summer School for twelve years and Supervisor of Business Education for seventeen. He was active with the Adult School and the Vocational Council.

There will be a retirement dinner in honor of Musmanno on June 10 at the Chandelier. Anyone interested in attending can contact Rose Ann Cortese at 450-3439. Tickets cost $35.

Environmental hiking

By Michael Sobanko

The Belleville High School Environmental Club, advised by Mrs. Pasterchick, held a Gas Free Day on April 14. Club officers, Amita Parekh (president), Jill Bernisky (vice president), Ginny Rajnes (secretary), and Jen Femicola (treasurer), decided to honor Earth Day by asking faculty, staff, and students to walk, bike or car pool to the school.

The club is trying to save the atmosphere, and most importantly, the planet. The Environmental Club had this Gas Free Day, not only to save gas, but to make sure that the air we breathe is a little cleaner.

OUR OPINION

Spring, with a splash

One of the things that makes Belleville special is the appearance of the Belleville High School crew on the Passaic River, one of the few public school rowing teams in the entire country.

Crew has usually been in the domain of the private schools which have had the funding and the facilities for the sport.

It has also had the advantage of snob appeal. But Belleville and its neighboring towns have made it into a sport for all. It is carrying on the tradition of the Nereid Club, which put crews on the river for decades.

Like the arrival of the cherry blossoms, the appearance of the shells and the skulls and the coxswains with their megaphones, are a herald of Spring peculiar to Belleville.

And now that Jackie's Ices is open, Spring is officially here.

There's a reason for tenure

Occasionally, some good and worthy people come up with the idea of eliminating tenure for School Superintendents.

The theory is that if the schools are not functioning up to standard, it must be the Super's fault, and the Board of Education should have the right to bounce him or her without worrying about contractual agreements.

There may well be communities somewhere in the United States where the Board of Education knows more about the administration of schools and the education of youngsters than the professionals.

Over the years, we just have not run into any of them in New Jersey.

But we have run into communities where having the Superintendent's job on the patronage list would be too juicy an item to ignore, except that State law prohibits it.

A sterling example of what happens when boards have free rein in selecting administrators is District 12, New York City, where board members were auctioning off principalships.

This, of course, could never happen in Belleville.

And it won't, so long as administrators have tenure.

We can so ban terrorists

At this moment, one of the world's most celebrated authors is hiding out under the protection of the British government.

Salman Rushdie, an Indian-born Moslem, had a price put on his head by the Ayatollah Khomeini, the late religious leader and political dictator of Iran.

Rushdie's crime was to write a book which the Ayatollah found sacrilegious.

Unfortunately for Rushdie, there were enough members of Khomeini's sect alive and active in Great Britain, and committed to carrying out the Ayatollah's orders, to make Rushdie a prisoner in a free country.

In the case of the World Trade Towers explosion, the evidence has laid a trail to a mosque in Jersey City and a religious fundamentalist who is wanted by Egypt as a terrorist.

The right of the people who attend the Jersey City mosque to worship as they wish is not disputed.

But the United States Constitution is very specific about immigrants to the United States knowing no allegiance to any foreign ruler or foreign power.

For this reason, any immigrant who can be proved to maintain such an allegiance is subject to deportation and loss of citizenship, or immigrant alien status. This has nothing to do with sentimental attachments to other lands, even when those attachments are translated into normal political activity.

But it has everything to do with making war on the United States.

Immigrants should understand that when they take an oath of allegiance to the United States of America, they are doing so without mental reservations.

We have the right to know the political affiliations of visitors to this country, and of those who would be immigrants here.

We do not have to sit by idly in the face of terror. It is still our country.

YOUR OPINION

Mazzuca on budget

To the editor:

This letter has not been written sooner because I did not wish to add to the negativities that a small group of people constantly display to surrounding towns, via the media.

It is time that the reasonable and dedicated citizens of our beautiful town know the truth about the Board of Education school budget. The original committee chairperson was former Board of Education president, Mrs. Patricia Pisano. A memorandum, dated January 26, 1993, substantiates this fact. Please note that no budget meetings took place while she was chairperson.

On February 22, 1993, during a private board session, Mrs. Pisano decided to relinquish her position on the budget committee. It is my personal opinion that Mrs. Pisano was planning her strategy for the ensuing election. Mr. Marrone, also a budget committee member, decided to resign from his position. Mrs. Pisano asked yours truly to chair the budget committee. I graciously accepted the responsibility. Budget meetings took place on February 23rd and 28th, March 1st, 8th, and 11th. After each meeting correspondence was sent to each board member apprising them of actions the committee took to reduce the budget and for recommendations for further construction of the budget. Only Mr. Del Guercio and Dr. D'Agostino responded. The budget committee comprised of myself as chairman, Mr. Nazzola, Mrs. Paserchia and the Board Administration. On March 8th and 11th we invited six volunteers from the public to attend our budget meeting. They were understanding and satisfied as we reviewed each line item. All of their recommendations were considered and some were implemented.

We developed an educationally and financially responsible budget for the 1993-94 school year. The budget is more than $400,000 below cap and the total increase is 3.2% over last year's budget.

The committee has held the line financially without disrupting academic, sports, and music programs.

On April 5, 1993 the finalized budget was presented to the public. The only surprise to me was the extent of questioning by Mrs. Pisano. Where was she when I asked, in writing, for recommendations. Mrs. Pisano is certainly a professional when it comes to grandstanding before the public. I take my responsibilities and oath to serving the public very seriously. There are occasions when people may not agree with what I say, but surely they know I speak from the heart. Unfortunately, in my opinion, this cannot be said of Mrs. Pisano and other disgruntled former board members, commissioners and losing candidates for various public positions.

Mrs. Pisano was quoted in the Star Ledger, April 28, 1993, that the school budget has a lot of fat in it. I repeat, where was she when the opportunity to make recommendations was presented to her after each budget meeting?

Good people of Belleville, open your eyes, time is running out. Each one of you are so important to the improvement of our town. You, your friends and family, together, can change the tide of events. You are hard workers, honest, God loving, trying daily to provide for your families. Get involved now by coming to board and town meetings. You, by far outnumber the few cynical and devious residents of our town. See you at the next Board of Education meeting.

Ralph B. Mazzuca

Pat thanks public

To the editor:

I am writing to tell the citizens of Belleville how much I appreciated the opportunity of serving you on the Board of Education. I appreciate all the support during these years a great deal and more so than words can adequately express. I take this occasion to thank you most sincerely.

I also would like to take this opportunity to convey my appreciation to the many individuals that have supported me in the recent Board of Education election. To all that devoted time, energy and worked diligently, I cannot express my gratitude into words, because it would not express my true feelings.

It is unusual in that not in recent memory has there been 5 candidates for 2 seats. I think this is healthy and I hope demonstrates a new vitality in Belleville for public service in an area of importance to all residents and students. It is significant in that this position, if done well, requires a commitment of much time to attend all committee and general board meetings, much intensity of thought in the impartial consideration of all the issues, however often rewarded only with criticism, and rarely appreciation. To the two newly elected board members, I wish you the best.

Patricia Pisano

• MY friend, Andy Andriola, president of the New Jersey Amvets, sent me the following which I would like to share with our readers:

WHOSE JOB WAS IT? — There is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done, and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Nobody did it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done. That's a little confusing to say the least, BUT, that doesn't concern our chapter. The very big job that we just undertook with that very large mailing was completed by our numerous volunteers and everything went according to schedule. It was no easy task and we owe our volunteers a big, THANK YOU.

A FREELOADERS LAST REQUEST — Once upon a time there was a veteran who never joined any organization. All his life, he took benefits and entitlements won for him by veterans' service organizations. He had ten point preference, a G.I. Home Loan, he had gone to school on the G.I. Education Bill, veterans employment even got him a job, among other things, but still he refused to join. On his deathbed, he told his wife, "Please do something for me...I want to be buried in a national cemetery, have a military marker and I want a veterans' organization to provide an Honor Guard and be my pallbearers." "But you never belonged to any veterans organizations," his wife exclaimed. "Why do you want them for pallbearers?" "Dear," he replied, "They've carried me this far, they might as well carry me the rest of the way!" Never a truer word was ever spoken!

• NUTLEY BOARD OF EDUCATION members maintained the quality of its leadership by re-electing President Sam Battaglia in an uncontested election and choosing Trustee Frank Hermo as Vice President to succeed retiring Vice President Charlie Piro. But — the end result did not come easy. At one point the vote for Vice President stood at four for Trustee Hermo and four for Trustee John Griwert, an attorney associated with the firm headed by G.O.P. Chairman Jim Piro. Nominations were almost closed when Trustee Bob Rusignuolo, high votegetter in the recent election and senior member of the Board, nominated himself for the Vice President spot. On the next go around, Griwert voted for Hermo and the final tally was Hermo 5, Griwert 3, Rusignuolo 1. Thirty supporters of Rusignuolo stormed out of the meeting room but not before Rusignuolo and Trustee Charles Kucinski exchanged some rather uncomplimentary remarks.

• THE fabulous Connie Francis — New Jersey's most famous theatrical personality is a big hit in Germany and England. She is booked for a return engagement — and why not — as there is only one Frank Sinatra, there is only one Connie Francis.

• RESIDENTS bordering Nutley's "Creative Playground" located at the town's northwest corner at Bloomfield Avenue and Kingsland Street are heading for the courts. Nutley Park Commissioner Frank Cocchiola defiantly fingerpointing at the audience at a recent Town Commission meeting, said the playground is not moving! Area towns should take notice that it could happen in their backyards. Legislation should be introduced in Trenton requiring — at the very least — an environmental study, and a variance since the purpose of the park takes on an entirely new dimension — adversely affecting the health of neighboring people, property values of homes, tax appeals that may be granted thus adding a new tax burden to property owners throughout town.

• ESSEX COUNTY EXECUTIVE TOM D'ALESSIO'S Counsel went to court last week with a motion to dismiss the flimsy charge that D'Alessio committed a mail fraud when "Friends of D'Alessio" sponsored a party in his honor, and turned over the purse to D'Alessio. The judge's comments made D'Alessio's lawyers feel optimistic over the outcome. The judge reserved decision. While all this was taking place, the Assistant U. S. Attorney advised the judge that the department was planning to indict D'Alessio in June on an unrelated charge. That's reaching pretty far to poison the atmosphere.

• FOR my money, Continental Airlines is the airline of choice for trips to Palm Beach, Frankfurt, Germany and Dallas, Texas. My most recent trip from Newark to Palm Beach was enhanced because of a friendly stewardess, Newark-based Janet Fowler. I was impressed with her efficient service and passenger-friendly disposition. What made the trip an added pleasure was the presence in the adjacent seat of businesswoman Stephanie Mannino of Westfield. She was on her way to a business meeting in southern Florida — a dynamite lady.

Essex County Executive Thomas J. D'Alessio presents a proclamation declaring "Bone Marrow Donor Awareness Day" in Essex County. Accepting on behalf of the North Jersey Blood Center in East Orange are Medical Director Dr. Ranie Koshy and Program Coordinator Laura Sodano.

Officials proclaim 'National Marrow Donor Awareness Day'

County Executive Thomas J. D'Alessio joined with the staff of the North Jersey Blood Center in proclaiming "National Marrow Donor Awareness Day" in Essex County. The event highlighted the drive to add to the 800,000 volunteers who have "given the gift of life" by participating in the marrow donor program nationwide.

Joining the County Executive were Dr. Ranie Koshy, Medical Director for the North Jersey Blood Center, which is located at 45 South Grove Street in East Orange and Laura Sodano, who coordinates the local bone marrow donor effort.

According to Dr. Koshy, marrow transplantation from unrelated donors is a relatively new and viable medical therapy for patients with fatal blood diseases such as leukemia and aplastic anemia. The national donor effort has been in existence since 1987 and has been responsible for more than 1,500 transplants. There is a constant need for new donors, with a special need for donors with non-Caucasian backgrounds.

D'Alessio stated that plans are underway for a blood drive at the county Hall of Records complex to be supervised by the North Jersey Blood Center in the near future.

"Essex County government is proud to support the North Jersey Blood Center's effort to serve all patients seeking lifesaving bone marrow transplants. We will join in the work of educating and recruiting citizens from all segments of our population to help reach the goal of one million ethnically and racially diverse volunteer donors by 1995," said the County Executive.

Anyone interested in assisting with the bone marrow donor drive can contact the North Jersey Blood Center at (201) 676-4700.

The New Jersey Scholarship Pro-

The Senior and Junior Division award winners will receive college scholarships and a trip to the famous Opryland theme park in Nashville, Tennessee, this August where they will compete for national prizes, which include a $10,000 and $5,000 cash scholarship, trips to Hawaii and tour the United States. Each state award winner will also be eligible to audition for Opryland, U.S.A.

Entrants will be judged on scholastic achievement, leadership abilities, poise, personality and appearance. There is no swimsuit category. Talent may be presented at the option of the participant or an oral essay on the subject of "What's Right About America."

Teenagers wishing to enter the competition should call Vonda Barbour at 800-547-2477 or 813-360-5849.

Due to the scholarship nature of the program, the foundation does not have an educational 501C-3 charitable status with the IRS which allows us to fundraise through large foundations for scholarships.

A specialist in American literature, Dr. Schmidtberger joined the English Department at Saint Peter's College in Jan. 1955, and served as its chairman from 1971 to 1978, and 1981 to 1984. From 1991-92, he was elected the Durant Professor of Humanities at Saint Peter's College. His scholarship has appeared in premiere journals, including American Literature, The Mississippi Quarterly, Thought, and Cross Currents.

The bulk of his scholarship has been directed toward the teaching of undergraduates at Saint Peter's College, teaching in new areas such as "The Literature of Black America," when the Afro-American program was founded, "The Business Novel," in response to requests from students at Englewood Cliffs campus, and "Darwinism in Literature."

May art exhibit

"The work I do," comments Norman Cloutier, the May artist at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, "can best be described as minimalist and abstract. I enjoy painting, drawing, and sculpture and have always had a strong interest in architecture, which I think reflects itself in a great deal of my work. Most of my work is linear and geometric in form," he continues.

A graduate of Boston University School of Fine Art, Cloutier has been a self-employed interior designer for 25 years, specializing in corporate offices in Manhattan. He began painting seriously this year after his youngest daughter graduated from college.

This is his "debut," his first official exhibit, although he has been in a group show at the Montclair Art Museum. His artwork has been included in the permanent collections of Mitsui and Company, U.S.A., and the Peoples Bank, Caldwell.

The exhibit can be viewed during regular hours during the month of May. The reception for the art opening will take place on May 8, from 1 to 3 p.m.

Letters to the Editor

No Social Security tax

To the editor:

I am a member of The Seniors Coalition and I oppose the Clinton tax on Social Security. I have written my U.S. Senators and my Congressman urging them to sign The Seniors Coalition "Congressional Pledge" that says: "I pledge to oppose any new taxes or cuts in Social Security."

I would like you to write a story informing your readers whether our representatives have signed this important pledge to seniors. Social Security is not adding to the federal deficit — it's running a surplus. It's unfair to balance the budget on the backs of seniors. For more information, please call The Seniors Coalition's Washington office at 703-273-5449.

Thanks to volunteers

To the editor:

Recently, about 18 members of The Concerned Citizens of Belleville gave of their time to hand deliver facts about waste and high cost of education with a flyer to most of the homes.

At our last Membership Meeting it was voted that we get involved to try to get the 1993-1994 budget of the Board of Education with a zero increase. The Board of Education members refused — 4 to 3.

We hope our Township Council will make the increase zero. As a liaison between Belleville citizens and taxpayers, state and local groups, we thank our volunteers again.

Grassroots supports Edwards

To the editor:

This letter is to inform you that the leadership of America's Grassroots has met with James Wallwork and Cary Edwards.

And tried to meet with Christine Whitman through every source. I personally spoke to Senator John Scott three times; Congressman Dick Zimmer's office four times (who we endorsed last year); Dave Murray two times; Simone, Whitman's scheduler countless times, but with no success. So nobody can say we didn't try.

Why Edwards not Whitman?

Mr. Edwards' background and focus on our state problems left us feeling that he was the most qualified Republican candidate. As Attorney General, he proved that he was tough on crime. He started "Drug Free School Zones."

Cary Edwards comes from a working class, one parent household. He understands how difficult it can be in the real world, living on a fixed budget.

Mr. Edwards pledged to protect the Homestead Rebate. When it comes to education, Cary believes in returning much of the real decision-making back to the local school boards so that districts can tailor their programs to meet the needs of their community. He also proposed a package of tax cuts that will help attract new businesses. He proposed a middle class income tax cut.

Overall, we felt Cary Edwards has so much more knowledge and experience than either of the other two candidates.

It is our recommendation that on June 8th, you vote for Cary Edwards in the Republican gubernatorial primary.

We feel Christine Todd Whitman is not qualified to run for Governor. She is trying to portray herself as an outsider to politics. The fact is that she comes from one of the most politically connected families in New Jersey.

As far as qualifications go, we were unimpressed. Her only experience is as a Freeholder in Somerset County and a 500,000-a-year patronage job. No business experience. She carries far too much political baggage in such a short political career. We feel through her calculated lowering of her property taxes by taking advantage of a farm land assessment for her personal home demonstrates specific knowledge of tax loopholes. Between not paying full property taxes on her home and not paying taxes owed for employing illegal aliens, Whitman showed that she will use every means, legal or illegal, to avoid paying taxes. She has abused her position and plays by a different set of rules than we do.

Again we are supporting Cary Edwards in the Republican gubernatorial primary election.

Palagano pledges hard work for District Five

Pledging to put her professional and government experience to work for Essex County residents Bloomfield resident and councilwoman Louise Palagano declared her candidacy for freeholder recently.

Palagano, seeking her party's nomination for the Fifth District Freeholder seat, is running on the Essex County Democratic Organization Line B in the June 8 Primary Election.

"The residents and public officials in this district are desperately seeking active representation on the county Freeholder Board," Palagano said. "After 12 years, people have grown tired of the self-serving, ineffective rhetoric of their present district freeholders. They want effective representation."

Palagano, a four term councilwoman, pledged to use my municipal government experience and a tireless commitment to constituent service to better represent the people of District Five."

A Corporations / Foundations specialist for the Easter Seals Society of New Jersey, Palagano said her government and private sector experience will help her better represent the district than the district's current freeholder, Arthur

Louise Palagano

Clay who has held the post since 1981.

Palagano holds a degree in Public Administration from the New York University School of Public Administration. She has served as a grant's consultant and recycling coordinator for several municipalities in the state, including the Borough of North Arlington, Union City and South Amboy.

She is also a former securities broker and a former administrative aide to the vice president for Academic Affairs at Essex County College.

Palagano currently serves as the council liaison to the Bloomfield Library Board of Trustees, member of the Local Assistance League and is the former chairwoman of the Bloomfield Rent Leveling Board. She is presently the president of the township's safety council.

A life-long Bloomfield resident, Palagano is married and has a 2-year-old son.

District Five is composed of Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Essex Fells, Glen Ridge, Montclair, North Caldwell, Nutley and portions of Belleville.

Local firm helps students

ISP Van Dyk Inc., a specialty chemicals company located in Belleville, provided sponsorship funding for Richard Chang and Rupa Shah from Bloomfield High School to attend the 31st annual Chemical Careers Conference. They were among the 350 outstanding high school science students throughout the State learning about careers in the chemical and allied products industry during this event.

The program was organized and sponsored by the 105 member companies of the Chemical Industry Council of New Jersey. CICONJ conducted two events in Northern and Southern New Jersey to better accommodate students. The Chemical Careers Conference Northern New Jersey program was held on March 16 at the New Jersey Institute of Technology in Newark, and the Southern New Jersey event was held on March 19 at Rowan College of New Jersey in Glassboro.

The Northern New Jersey program gave students the opportunity to meet professionals working in the chemical and allied products industry and hear from college professors and college students majoring in the sciences. Professors from NJIT, Stevens Institute and Montclair State College explained the college chemistry, chemical engineering and biochemistry curricula. A special workshop session allowed the students to hear from NJIT science students and professionals from the industry.

Francis Bullock, Senior Vice President of Research Operations at Schering-Plough Research Institute, gave the keynote luncheon address.

Mom's the Word

Mixing a career and mothering

It's not so unusual. Women who have spent years in the workplace to establish themselves and climb the corporate ladder find that extended time off for mothering can be costly. Since many companies in the United States have not yet instituted any kind of leave program — the time off can affect their bank balance as well as having a large impact on their work experience.

Years at home may mean years during which they lose earning power, contacts and seniority. And new employers are not likely to accept years old references, no matter how glowing resumes might be.

Unfortunately, when a woman takes an extended leave to raise a family, there often is a societal prejudice that she is not dedicated to her work. There are still many people who feel that women are just building a career to pass the time while they are waiting to begin a family or to have something to fall back on once the chicks have left the nest.

A new beginning

So, when a mother returns to the workforce, she may have to be more qualified and competent than someone currently employed. And she may have to begin proving herself all over again with a new employer or new co-workers.

Time, experience and the 75 percent of young mothers now in the workplace, will surely overcome the reticence of employers, but patience may be the best guide to progress.

The perfect way to express your love...

Tell mother how special she is with a very special gift. Each glistening 14K gold design will reveal all your love...and all are at a price that you can easily afford.

• NaVy Body Lotion — Refreshing for after bathing or any time skin needs a touch of luxury, this 3.9 fl. oz. NaVy Body Lotion soothes as it scents.

• NaVy Eau de Parfum — The delightful .6 fl. oz. NaVy Eau de Parfum is longer-lasting than our classic cologne...and it's perfectly portable for mom's special night out!

Mom delights in all that's stylish and feminine, so put her in a fashion frame of mind this Mother's Day, with beautifully scented products from NaVy by Cover Girl.

NEW LEGISLATION FOR NEW PARENTS

For many would-be-parents, the thought of having a child but not being able to take the time off from work to care for their newborn can lead to some hard and painful decisions.

It's taken a long time, but now it's the law of the land that new parents can take unpaid leave for up to twelve weeks to get their newborns started on the right path to maturity.

But we still have a way to go. Many countries in Europe already guarantee ongoing compensation to working parents, some for as many as 18 months.

But a new Congress and a new administration have finally taken parents into consideration and made a start toward "world equality" for new parents.

Great gift ideas for your mom

Mother's Day is all about love, emotion, gratitude and caring — all the things that mothers have stood for all these years. So, on Mother's Day, make sure that she gets an extra dollop of love from you and all those all around her. But, if you want to underscore that love with something tangible she can enjoy all year long, there's a long list of options that cover the spectrum, from what to wear to where to go!

The favored gift option, by a wide margin, is something to wear. This runs the gamut from intimate to extravagant — the choice is yours, and your cue will come from knowing your mom and what will strike her fancy.

And to match today's lifestyles, you can get dizzy trying to decide which of a myriad of casual clothes will dazzle her fancy: slacks and shorts for warm weather, sweaters in wool, cotton and exotic blends, jackets for active sports, jackets for a dressy evening stroll or a romp at the club. The choice is almost endless.

And something to wear embraces the ubiquitous assortment of jewelry, both costume and fine (often difficult to distinguish between, now that top designers have gotten into the act).

Perfume is a lovely option if you have deep pockets, eau de cologne or toilet water if you must be more modest. Or consider a beauty treatment to make her feel beautiful. Or how about a treat to a make-up lesson to give her the added sophistication of knowing how to make the most of everything nature has given her.

Considering how many working moms there are today (75 percent of those with children under 18 are now in the workforce), a "less work for mother" appliance could be your cue to just the right kind of gift that would please her and help get her housekeeping chores out of the way with less drudgery and more speed.

If she doesn't already own a microwave oven, there's hardly a better place to start — prices have dropped dramatically over the years. Then there's today's craze: the juicer — especially if she's an eating-for-better-health devotee. But the gamut from automatic coffee brewers to yogurt makers is so vast you can even take a flight into fancy to find something she doesn't already have, and yet would find useful.

A favored gift, always in demand and much appreciated, is a photograph of you and the family or of you alone. Or, if your imagination fails, or if she really does have everything, there are always flowers and plants — very popular as Mother's Day gifts. You don't even have to go to the florist — you can order by phone. Call in your order and you're home free.

A gift of a pocket radio will give her music wherever she goes, and if she's a music buff what could be better? What about a CD player, tape recorder, or even a personal fax machine — you both can keep in touch faster. And while we're thinking of the exotic, a personal computer will get you rave notices. (Have you seen how much prices have come down recently?)

Well that's a round-up, but the final selection has to be made by you. So, get to it. Time's running out. Mother's Day is Sunday, May 9 this year!

TO MOM WITH LOVE. Pins of all shapes and sizes make practical and cherished Mother's Day gifts.

Pins make gifts that win with mom on Mother's Day

There is a special bond between mother and child. Thus it's no surprise that 95 percent of all people in this country observe Mother's Day in some fashion. Mother's Day, conceived by Miss Anna Reeves Jarvis, has definitely come a long way since it was first commemorated in Grafton, West Virginia in 1908 as a religious observance for Miss Jarvis' deceased mother.

According to the Mother's Day Council, which is based in New York City, annual sales are now projected at $8.5 billion, with the favored gift option being "something to wear." The favorite gift is something which has beauty, holds a sentiment of love, and lasts a lifetime and beyond — like real jewelry.

What jewelry pieces are perfect for mom? Jewelers of America (JA), the national organization dedicated to consumer information and education about fine jewelry, suggests a popular, affordable item when shopping for Mother's Day: pins.

Pins make a great gift because they can be worn with what mom already has. They can be mixed and matched with any fashion style, and are a great value — and they are unique, as well. The most popular pins for this season are those accented with colored gemstones or enamel to complement spring suits. Gold or silver pins of different shapes and sizes add a special flair, and pins with pearls can also give a dressy touch to any outfit.

One of the special and practical qualities of pins is that they can help create a different look each time they're worn. They are a distinctive way to show mom that you love her — and they won't leave your pockets empty.

THE ORIGINS OF MOTHER'S DAY

We all have mothers, which makes mothers as universal as the air we breathe! But it took Ms. Anna Reeves Jarvis, a Philadelphia school teacher, to come up with the idea of the modern Mother's Day as a celebration to mark the universality of mothering.

That's how it is, now, but here's how it was:

Ms. Jarvis and her family, came from rural West Virginia. At the turn of the 20th century, the family migrated to Philadelphia. It was there that the thought of a universal Mother's Day came to her, first expressed to a group of friends in 1907. So persuasive was her concept, so diligent was her dedication, that by 1908 she marshaled the support to carry out the first observance of Mother's Day in May 1908, back in her familiar surroundings of Grafton, West Virginia.

It was a simple sermon in a rural church, which is still standing and now revered as a historical link to an idea whose time had come.

That was proved by the proclamation of Mother's Day as a state holiday just two years later by then-Governor William Glassman. And, behold, just three years later, Congress proclaimed that Mother's Day should henceforth be a national holiday, marked by a Presidential Proclamation. The first was issued by President Woodrow Wilson in 1914.

But the first Mother's Day required the interest and support of civic organizations in Philadelphia, and the persuasiveness of John Wanamaker, a Philadelphia department store magnate, to jump-start the observance. His interest and support galvanized other local influentials, and so it was that Mother's Day dawned on the world in May 1908!

Today, some 85 years after its founding, Mother's Day observance is universal throughout the United States (celebrated by 95 percent of all people old enough to celebrate) and in more than 100 countries around the world.

Mammography Center of Clifton celebrates six-month anniversary

The Mammography Center of Clifton is marking its six-month anniversary. The center is a dedicated mammography facility focusing on early detection of breast disease when it is most treatable.

With experts recommending a baseline mammogram for women over 35 and regular screenings for women 40 and up, the center prides itself on making women more comfortable during this safe and easy exam.

Beautifully decorated, the Mammography Center of Clifton has spacious dressing rooms and comfortable waiting rooms that just add to the state-of-the-art equipment and pleasant staff that allow a patient's visit to be comfortable as well as reassuring and informative.

The staff, consisting of Dr. Romolo Maurizi, medical director and board certified radiologist, Dr. Paul Verona, staff radiologist, Dr. John Baratta, administrative director, MaryBeth Stolzenberg, registered technologist certified in mammography and Grace Di Nicola, office manager, hope to educate the community on breast disease and self-breast exams as part of a patient's routine mammography exam.

The center accepts Medicare and most major insurances so there is no need to make payment at the time of an exam. The results of the mammogram are sent to the patient's physician within 24-48 hours of the test. An open invitation is extended to the public to tour the gracious facility and ask any questions that may put your mind at ease.

The Mammography Center of Clifton is located at 1115 Clifton Ave. Evening hours accommodate today's working women. Call 777-4288 today for an appointment because early detection is your best protection.

Clara Maass sponsoring domestic violence forum

Domestic violence is a serious crime against society, affecting thousands of people each year. During 1991, females were victims in 47,140 domestic violence offenses in the State of New Jersey.

To address this problem, Friends of The Safe House will present a program, "Every Third Woman: Violence in the American Home," Church in America; Marilyn Savola, Esq., managing attorney, Newark Essex Legal Services; Patty Lue Boff, director, The Safe House, Clara Maass Medical Center; and a survivor of domestic violence.

The seminar, although designed for school, social service personnel and police officers, is open to anyone with a special interest in domestic violence issues. Designed to increase awareness, the seminar will address the dynamics of family violence, identification of primary and secondary victims, strategies for intervention, legal remedies available and services available for victims and their families.

There is no admission charge to the seminar. However, registration by phone is required. For more information or to register, contact The Safe House at 759-2154.

The Safe House, an emergency shelter for victims of domestic violence and their children, is an affiliate of Clara Maass Medical Center. Since its opening in 1986, over 2,000 women and children have sought refuge in the shelter. A 24-hour hotline — for shelter admission, crisis counseling, referral and advocacy — has processed over 9,000 calls since its inception in 1986.

Within New Jersey, Essex County has three times the rate of domestic violence of any other county. The Safe House is one of two shelters serving all of Essex County and the only shelter affiliated with a hospital. Friends of the Safe House is a support group of the shelter which provides educational and fundraising activities.

Steve Aduato Jr.

8:30 to 11 a.m. May 19 at the Sheraton Meadowlands, East Rutherford.

The program will consist of a panel discussion moderated by Steve Aduato Jr., WWOR-TV, WNET-TV and PBS. Speakers will include Detective John Gilligan, Montclair Police Dept.; the Rev. Jill C. Fenske, pastor, Franklin Reformed Church, Nutley and Associate Staff, Regional Synod of the Mid-Atlantic Reformed

Health Hint

Breast cancer is one of the most commonly diagnosed cancers today. One out of every 9 women will develop breast cancer during her lifetime. It is very important to familiarize yourself with your own body.

Self examination is the best way to learn what is normal and abnormal for your body. One theory states that estrogen, a hormone produced by women, may be linked to the development of breast cancer. Maintaining a diet low in fat and high in fiber is believed to decrease the body's production of estrogen, therefore lowering the risk.

Another form of prevention is reducing body fat by regular exercise. Alcohol, consumed in excess of 2 drinks a day, may increase the risk of cancer, as reported by recent studies.

Regularly scheduled mammograms recommended for women 35 and over, can detect tiny lumps that may be missed by examination. Researchers are hopeful that a cure may be developed sometime in the future. Until a cure is proven, your best protection is early detection.

Lady Bucs reach 'Final Four'

By Mike Lambert

For the 11th time in the past 13 seasons, the Belleville softball team is back to the Final Four of the county tournament. The Lady Bucs will play at Pulaski Park this Saturday afternoon following a 2-0 win over Mt. St. Dominic in the quarterfinals last week at Clearmon Field.

Carl Corino's team had a busy week, defeating Teaneck 17-1 and Paramus Catholic 4-2 in NNJIL play. The girls lost two games in the conference, falling to Paramus 6-5 in a wild game and losing at Nutley last Monday 6-0.

The girls were 13-4 entering yesterday's game at Immaculate Heart. Tomorrow, it's off to Ridgewood and on Saturday, the team plays a talented Newark Academy team at Pulaski Park in Bloomfield, starting at 5 p.m. Nutley and Cedar Grove battle in the second semi final at 7:30 p.m.

Next Monday, the team is at Hackensack and next Wednesday, Paramus will be at Clearmon Field. Both of those games start at 4 p.m.

"It doesn't get much tougher, does it?" Corino said. "Immaculate Heart, Ridgewood, Newark Academy, Hackensack and Paramus. They're all very good teams. I saw Newark Academy play at Livingston last Saturday (in the quarterfinals) and Newark Academy was outstanding. They hit the ball all over the place and beat the defending county champs."

"I'm happy that we have a chance to play at Pulaski once again. But we have to start hitting the ball with authority. We've been struggling at the plate."

The girls did hit well in beating Teaneck last week. Belleville scored four in the first and added five in the second and seven in the third to pull away to a 16 run victory.

In the first, Jennifer Citarella doubled and scored on a hit by Colleen Mannion. Kim Piscatowski reached on a throwing error with Mannion scoring on the play. Christine Sansano walked and a double steal put runners on second and third. Nicole Gibbons doubled to score Piscatowski and Sansano.

Citarella led the scoring attack with four hits. Danielle Brodo was 3 for 3 and Piscatowski was 2 for 3 with four ribbies including a three run homer in the second inning.

Keri Wendling was the winning pitcher, improving her record to 3-0. Wendling pitched a complete game, giving up four hits and striking out three. She walked two.

The game at Paramus was a back and forth contest that Paramus eventually won in extra innings.

Belleville took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first. Citarella doubled and scored on a hit by Mannion. Paramus tied it in the last of the first, but Belleville went ahead 3-1 in the second.

Kristin Galioto singled and went to second on a but single by Gina Conte. Citarella then doubled to score two runs.

In the fourth, Galioto singled and went to third on two passed balls. She scored on a Gibbons single.

Paramus scored a run in the last of the fourth to cut the lead to 4-2, but Belleville answered with a run in the fifth. Lynn Giachetti doubled and scored on a Sansano single.

Belleville led 5-2, but Paramus, one of the better teams in Bergen County, rallied with solo runs in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings to tie the game at five.

The tying run in the seventh was somewhat questionable. After a triple, Paramus tied it on a sac fly, but there was some question as to whether the runner at third base tagged up or left too soon.

The umpires didn't see the play and consequently could not rule on whether the runner left too soon, thus the run counted.

Paramus won it in the eighth and Belleville left town with a tough defeat. It was also Belleville's first loss in the NNJIL Pacific Division.

Piscatowski was the losing pitcher, falling to 8-3. She struck out five and walked two in seven plus innings.

Citarella had three hits and Galioto and Gibbons had two hits each.

Belleville rebounded from the loss with a solid effort against a good Mt. St. Dominic team last Thursday. Piscatowski hurled a complete game shutout and Belleville scored two runs in the third inning to seal the win.

In the third, Mannion walked and stole second base. Giachetti walked and a double steal put runners on second and third. Piscatowski hit a sac fly that scored Mannion. Gibbons grounded out, moving Giachetti to third. However, a throwing error on the ground out allowed Giachetti to score the second run.

That was all Piscatowski (9-3) needed to help her team advance to the county semis. Piscatowski struck out five and walked two while giving up just three hits.

Belleville was held to two hits, but the Lady Bucs had enough to win this important contest.

Last Friday, the girls beat Paramus Catholic 4-2 as Piscatowski won her tenth game of the season.

Belleville broke a scoreless tie

Enough is enough!

That's the sentiment shared among sports fans and the general public alike following the stabbing of tennis star Monica Seles last week in Germany.

Something has to be done. People cannot be allowed to reach over a set of stands and plunge a knife into the back of an unsuspecting person who is in the middle of an athletic event.

The pictures of Seles going into shock following the incident were blood curdling. Fortunately, she will be okay, physically, and should be able to play tennis again in a few weeks.

But emotionally, it could take the 19 year old phenom a while to adjust following this near tragic episode. The wound is an inch deep and missed her spinal column by a few inches.

That's the good news.

How she will feel when she steps back onto the court for upcoming tourneys in the months and years to come, is another story in itself. One can only hope that she will not carry this baggage around for too long.

As for the creep (I can think of more descriptive adjectives to call this guy) who perpetrated the attack, he is in custody for attempted murder and is considered unstable.

This guy has to be held accountable. Forget the garbage that he's unstable or psychologically unable to stand trial. This stuff has to stop and this jerk should receive a life sentence, without parole, for this.

Did you hear why he attacked Seles?

He said he was a fan of Seles' rival, Steffi Graf and that he wanted Graf to win the Federation Cup tournament which Seles was competing in. He didn't want to kill Seles, he just wanted to injure her so that she cannot play against Graf.

So he decides to stab Seles in order to prove his point.

Fine, in order for society to prove its point in this case, throw this slime into the nearest jail cell for the next 100 years or so.

And let's hope security measures will be increased for future tennis events throughout the world. The sad thing is, security has to be heightened because a small amount of "fans" feel it is their place to make news that is in no way associated with the final result of the event they are supposidly there to watch.

In the case of Seles, the man who attacked her was nothing more than a gutless punk who stabbed someone in the back. And since his worth to society is something about four levels lower than pig slime, he should be treated with the same dignity that he treated Seles.

Let's hope she's okay and by the time Wimbledon is held in July, she will once again be the top seed and tennis will once again be the top story.

LITTLE LEAGUE MEMORIES

How does that saying go?

The more things change, the more they stay the same.

Last Saturday, I took a ride down to the Belleville Little League field to watch some of the games. The '93 season is underway and there were four games that encompassed most of the day.

I got there in time to see PBA stage a late rally against J.P. Cleaners. PBA trailed 7-0 in the last of the sixth inning. They were down to their final three

Timely hitting eludes Grande's Bucs

By Mike Lambert

Despite hitting the ball well, the Belleville baseball team was unable to get the key hit and the result was three losses in four games last week.

Nick Grande's team fell to 7-6 on the '93 campaign. The Bucs will be at St. Joseph's tomorrow at 4 p.m. On Saturday, Belleville plays host to Verona in the first round of the Greater Newark Tournament. Game time is 11 a.m. at the varsity baseball field.

Next Monday, Hackensack comes to town and next Wednesday, it's off to Paramus. Both of those games commence at 4 p.m.

Last week, the Bucs downed Teaneck 8-3, then lost to Paramus 1-0, Paramus Catholic 4-2 and Nutley, 6-0.

"We're in a funk, we're just not getting the timely hit," Grande said. "We had nine hits against Paramus Catholic, seven against Paramus, but we couldn't get the runs across. Nutley had their big guy on the hill (Larry Mohs). He throws real well, but we didn't help ourselves with the way we approached the game."

"We worked most of the week-end in getting ready for Nutley, because we knew Mohs has tremendous stuff. But we weren't as aggressive as we should have been and we made his job that much easier."

Against Teaneck, Belleville never trailed. The Bucs led 1-0 in the first, Teaneck tied it in the second and then Belleville regained the lead for good in the fifth inning with two runs.

In the first, Jim Landon walked, stole second and went to third on a Kevin Johansen single. Grande then ordered a double steal, with Landon stealing home for the first run.

In the fifth, the Bucs scored two after two were out. Ken Johansen singled and Mike Morgan reached on an error. Bob Dena then doubled to score two runs.

The Bucs put the game out of reach in the sixth inning with three runs. Landon singled and Mike Puleo walked. Kevin Johansen singled to load the bases and Mike Mundy singled to score Landon. Morgan then hit a single to score two runs and increase the Buc lead to 6-1.

In the seventh, Landon was hit by a pitch. He stole second and went to third when Dan Brunello reached safely on an error. A passed ball allowed Landon to score and moved Brunello to second. Kevin Johansen hit into a fielders choice, and with Brunello running on the play, he scored all the way from second.

Kevin Johansen was the winning pitcher. In improving his record to 4-0, Johansen threw a complete game, allowing five hits and five walks. He struck out four and gave up three earned runs.

Offensively, Johansen, Mundy and Morgan had two hits each. Dena drove in two runs and Landon scored three times.

Against Paramus, the Bucs received a tremendous pitching performance from Mundy, but Paramus shortstop Gerard Nisivoccia wouldn't let his team lose.

"I told Nisivoccia after the game that he was the difference," Grande said. "He made some great plays and kept us off the scoreboard."

Paramus scored the games only run in the first inning. Mundy fanned the games first hitter, then allowed a single. With two outs and a runner on second, Mundy gave up a ground ball which was mishandled and led to the first and only run of the game.

"Mundy was fantastic," Grande said. "We just didn't get him any help."

The Bucs had runners in scoring position on three different occasions, but the Paramus defense responded with two double plays and good defense throughout the game.

Mundy pitched a complete game, allowing seven hits. He struck out nine and walked two.

Belleville had seven hits in the game and left seven men on base. Landon and Jim Napolitano had two hits each to lead the Bucs.

Versus Paramus Catholic, the results were pretty much the same. Belleville had nine hits and left 12 men on base. The result was one run scored and that was three short of P.C.'s total.

Paramus Catholic took a 2-0 lead into the sixth. There, Ken Johansen singled and Morgan walked. Johansen eventually scored the Bucs only run on a ground out.

Landon led the Bucs with three hits. Kevin Johansen, Mundy and Ken Johansen had two hits a piece.

NOTES: As for this Saturday's Greater Newark Tournament contest, the Bucs were seeded seventh. If Belleville defeats Verona on Saturday, the Bucs would face the winner of Nutley-Millburn in the next round.

Seton Hall Prep is the number one seed in the tournament.

Coach optimistic about '93 varsity golf team

By Mike Lambert

It's been one of the most successful varsity teams at Belleville over the past 12 years. And once again, the Belleville golf team is sure to be competitive during the Spring of 1993.

Gene D'Allesandro's team is off to a 3-6 start, with wins over Kearny, Barringer and Passaic. The team is 0-2 in the league so far.

"We're a young team, we have no seniors this year," D'Allesandro said. "In the past, we usually have that one dominant golfer that sets the stage for us. This year, we have some talented young kids and I feel a few of them can be that dominant golfer in coming years. But right now, experience is needed and the kids will learn from the matches."

Last year, the Bucs were led by P.J. Taibi, one of the best golfers in the NNJIL. Taibi has been graduated and this years team is led by a host of sophomores and juniors, along with one freshman.

The sophomores are Tom Escott, Sean Mahoney and Joe Constanza. The juniors are Roger Hanos, David Luongo and Jason Mohren. Freshman Jeff Sheridan also figures to be a solid varsity candidate with continued experience.

"We have about 20 matches this season," D'Allesandro said. "We're going to key on more practice time this year, however. It's important for the players to go out on the course and work on their game. I think it would be more to their advantage to do that without having to compete in a high school match four days a week."

The coach noted his team has been inconsistent in scoring.

"It's the sign of a young team. We've shot as low as 201 and as high as 226. As the kids continue to play, we'll improve on that."

Girls at 'Ridge tomorrow

with three runs in the third. Citarella walked and stole second base. Conte reached on an error and Mannion singled to score Citarella and move Conte to third. Giachetti singled to score two runs.

In the fourth, Citarella reached on an error and scored when Conte was safe on an error.

Paramus Catholic scored twice in the sixth to cut the lead in half. But Piscatowski pitched well in the seventh and Belleville gained a hard earned victory.

Piscatowski struck out four and walked one while allowing three hits. Mannion was 2 for 4 to pace the Belleville offense.

Last Monday, Belleville faced Nutley for the first time since last May's state sectional final when Colleen Mannion hauls in fly ball during game at Pulaski Park. Mannion will be back at Pulaski this Saturday for county semi final game.

Nutley rallied for a 4-3 win at Clearmon Field.

This time the game was at Nutley and the Raiderettes, the top seed in this years county tournament, broke the game open early with four runs in the last of the first.

Nutley scored two more in the fifth and Raider pitcher Kim Higgins did a tremendous job in keeping Belleville off balance. Higgins did not walk a batter and improved her record to 9-2. She allowed four hits.

Belleville hurt itself with three errors that led to four unearned Nutley runs.

It was the first time Belleville was shutout since April of 1992, when Clifton beat the Lady Bucs 8-0.

Despite the loss on Monday, Belleville has little time to look back. It's a big week, culminated by this Saturday's county semi final.

"It's a big week, but their all big weeks at this point," said Giachetti, the starting shortstop. "Nutley is the big game for us, but we have to concentrate on the conference and the county."

Piscatowski feels the team is beginning to jell.

"It takes a while for a team to play really well," the pitcher said. "I think we're starting to get it together. We'll face a real tough team this Saturday in Newark Academy."

NOTES: Cedar Grove last won the county title in 1984, beating Belleville 8-5. Nutley and Newark Academy have never won the county crown.

Belleville's last county title came in 1989, when the girls stopped Livingston 1-0 in extra innings.

A HOT NEW ARTHRITIS TREATMENT

Arthritis sufferers rely, primarily, upon nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs for relief from joint pain. Long-term use of these drugs, however, can sometimes bring on such unwanted side effects as gastrointestinal problems. Now, a new drug therapy shows promise in relieving arthritic pain without significant side effects. This new treatment comes in the form of a non-prescription cream that contains capsaicin, the chemical that puts the "fire" in hot chili peppers. Studies in medical centers across the U.S. have shown that use of capsaicin cream significantly reduces joint pain by stimulating nerve cells to release substance P, a chemical that transmits pain. Repeated use depletes the cells' supply of substance P, resulting in fewer pain signals to the brain.

May 1-31 is National Arthritis Month. For information of capsaicin, or other new drugs, talk to your doctor or our pharmacist at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We handle the sale and rental of walkers, wheel chairs, crutches, canes and other convalescent aids. Russell Stover candies, greeting cards, cosmetics and gift items are available for Mother's Day. Open: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays. Have a very happy Mother's Day.

HINT: Capsaicin cream may produce only a mild burning sensation as a side effect, which gradually disappears with repeated use.

Clara Maass physician presents new technique

Vincent C. Giampapa, M.D., F.A.C.S., board certified plastic surgeon and attending physician at Clara Maass Medical Center and Barry E. DiBernardo, M.D., also of the Medical Center are the co-authors of a paper on a new surgical technique that virtually provides the results of facelift surgery with a much less complex procedure.

Vincent C. Giampapa, M.D.

The paper, featured at the 26th Annual Scientific Meeting of the American Society of Aesthetic Plastic Surgery outlines the procedure known as suture suspension of the neck. Through this procedure a surgeon is able to suture the platysma muscle through tiny incisions underneath the chin and behind the ears. Prior to this, the muscle could only be tightened this extensively during a facelift procedure.

Giampapa, who developed the procedure, is following 42 patients post-operatively. "After two years of follow-up, the results have been excellent and patient satisfaction is very high," said Giampapa.

According to Drs. Giampapa and DiBernardo, a tiny incision is made under the chin. Using liposuction, the excess fat is removed via this incision. Next, smaller incisions, one behind each ear, are made in such a position that the incision is unnoticeable. The suture is then passed through the 34" openings underneath the chin and over the platysma muscle on either side of the neck. When tightened, the muscle is held in a more youthful position, thus redefining the neck and jaw line and re-contouring the face overall.

"This procedure is most attractive to male patients who do not care to have a full facelift yet desire a youthful chin, jaw and neckline," said Giampapa. "Since the recovery time is about five days, they're back to work sooner than they would be following a facelift."

outs. All appeared lost. But PBA staged a stunning rally and went on to defeat J.P., 8-7.

It was an exciting baseball game. There was no talk of contract extensions, or off the field problems. This was baseball, in its purest form.

It brought back a lot of memories for me, too. Some 22 years ago, I was a rightfielder for my Belleville little league team, Biancardi. I remember my first game at the field, when we played Rotary.

It was a great feeling, stepping onto the field for the first time. It looked, and still looks, like a major league field. Centerfield is 205 feet away and as a 12 year old, it looked like a 400 foot blast does to an adult.

Standing by the dugout last Saturday taking pictures, I remembered vividly all of the good times I had playing little league ball. We finished 7-7 that year and just missed a playoff berth in the second half of the '71 campaign.

I remember my final game that year, in early July of '71. We were playing Riefolo's and the game went into extra innings. The game had started at 10 a.m. and by the time the game hit the ninth inning, it was nearing noon time.

I stepped to the plate in the top of the ninth. I had struck out my first time out that day, grounded out the second time, then hit a double down the left field line in my third at bat in the sixth inning. That double gave us a chance to win, but I was stranded at third base.

Now in the ninth, with the game still tied at four, I stepped in. The pitcher threw a fast ball and I connected with my favorite aluminum bat. I heard the ball connect and I felt it was a good shot.

I dropped the bat and looked up to see the ball heading on a fly to the deepest part of centerfield. Riefolo's centerfielder went back to the fence and made an attempt to catch the ball.

The ball hit the top of the centerfield fence and bounced off. I ended up at second with my second double of the game. Once again I was stranded at third and we ended up losing the game in the last of that inning when Riefolo's scored and won, 5-4.

Another foot and the ball would have gone over the fence for a homer. It would have been my only homer of the season and it certainly would have capped off a great time I had playing little league ball in Belleville.

But nonetheless, the memories still are vivid and pleasant. I remember all 14 games like it was yesterday.

And the current group of little leaguers will have similar stories some 20 years from now.

The disappointment of missing a homer fades with time. The good memories of growing up should never fade.

It's great to see the Belleville little league doing so well. And it's also great to see the field in such great condition.

It's baseball like it should be. Thank goodness we have that in our township.

Now, if we could only get a tennis court and track that is decent....

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The Knicks beat the Los Angeles Lakers for their last NBA crown in 1972-73. That was also the last year the Knicks played for the championship. Red Holzman was the Knicks' coach. The Knicks lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern finals the year after they won that championship.

FOR THIS WEEK

How many NBA titles did the Boston Celtics win in the 1970's? Who coached the Celtics to those championships? Name at least three starters on the respective teams. Name the coach of the teams the Celtics beat for NBA crowns during the 70's.

(d) An aggregate amount not exceeding $20,000 for items of expense listed in and permitted under N.J.S.A. 40A:2-20 is included in the estimated costs indicated herein for the purposes or improvements.

A Way of Understanding Math

What Math Thinkers Do

Your grandfather has a surprise for you. He will give you the four coins he is holding if you will tell him what they are. The total value is 17 cents.

Can you name the coins?

All around the country, people are thinking hard about math and how and what is being taught.

We all realize that in today's world, we all need to understand a lot more about math.

Because of new information about how students learn, many kids are studying different math strategies.

Much of what they are doing is based on a set of standards, or guides, set up by math teachers.

These experts feel students should learn math facts, but they also should learn strategies to help them think through problems.

Some kids even come up with different but correct answers to the same problem!

New technology makes our world change quickly. When kids learn skills they can apply to any math situation, they can keep up with these changes.

The standards were established by the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

The Mini Page thanks consultant Dr. Tom Rowan, co-director, project IMPACT; Dr. Honi Bamberger, math specialist, project IMPACT; and Dr. Brenda Hammond and Joseph Robles, math specialists, Montgomery County (Md.) Public Schools.

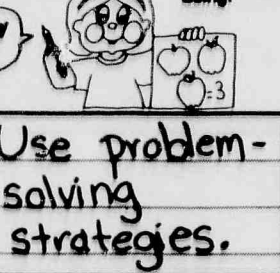

Math thinkers often work in groups so they learn both cooperation and math.

Math thinkers often use objects to help them understand the strategies they are using.

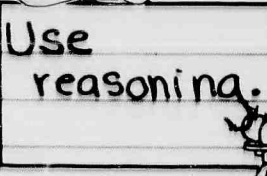

I WILL DRAW A PICTURE.

A GRAPH HELPED ME SOLVE THIS PROBLEM.

Communicate or talk about the problem.

Use reasoning.

See the math connection in everyday life.

Can you guess how many pages there are in today's paper? Check and see.

Pick a short paragraph from the front page of your newspaper. Guess how many words are in it. Check and see.

PETER PENGUIN'S PUZZLE & LE-DO

Math thinkers look for patterns. Draw the object or write the number that comes next.

TWELVE — ONE FOR EVERY SECOND DAY OF EACH MONTH!

Q: Why was 6 afraid of 7?

A: Because 7 ate 9!

Illustrated with reproductions of engraved portraits, the 22 1/2-by-28 1/2-inch Presidents Poster shows each of the presidents with the dates that each held office.

The Book of Presidents (5 1/2-by-8 1/2-inch, 96 pages) features a photo of each president, as well as information such as dates of birth and death, dates served as president, political party, signature, glossary of political terms, a visit to the White House and important achievements.

MATH TRY 'N FIND

Words that remind us of math are hidden in the block below. Some words are hidden backward or diagonally. See if you can find: ESTIMATE, PROBLEM, SOLVING, STRATEGY, TALK, EVERYDAY, SENSE, REASON, PLAN, FACTS, PATTERN, NUMBERS, MODEL, LIST, GUESS, SOLVE, CHECK, THINK.

BSNRETTAPRTALKH
MOFSKCEHCCOLILN
OLAOTHINKDJBIMO
DVCLYADYREVELSE
EITVNUMBERSFKET
LNSEGUSSSESNESE
GGPLANQUESTIMATE

The editor wants to know which vowel is used most often in this puzzle. Math thinkers might use a graph to find the answer.

Mini Spy . . .

Mini Spy is a designer. Like all math thinkers, she looks for shapes in art. See if you can find at least:

- 8 circles
- 3 rectangles
- 9 triangles
- 3 half-circles
- 9 squares

See who can find the most of each shape.

What Math Thinkers Do

Solve problems

Math thinkers think solving problems is fun.

1. Fill in the pattern using numbers cut from your newspaper.

4     7     10

2. How many different number sentences can you make using three 4's?

4 x 4 - 4 = 12

3. The answer is 15. What is the problem? Make up six number sentences with that answer.

4. What different designs can you make using triangles and squares?

5. Count the number of windows and doors in your house. Which is more?

6. If you measure with your feet (heel to toe), how many steps is it from your front door to your bed?

Number generator

Make your own generator to help you come up with numbers for your problems.

Stick the pencil through the paperclip in the center of the wheel. Twist the clip. Where it stops is your number.

With a partner, after three spins, try to see who can get:

1. the highest total.
2. the lowest total.
3. the greatest number.

Math Wheel (strategies to use)

1. Understand the problem.

- Decide what the question is.
- Get the facts.

2. Use strategies.

- Make a list.
- Look for a pattern.
- Use numbers.
- Build a model.
- Act it out.
- Make a graph or chart.
- Work backward.
- Write a number sentence.
- Guess and check.

3. Solve the problem.

4. Check yourself.

- Did I check all the facts?
- Is my math correct?
- Does this make sense?

Provident introduces special mortgage for first time home buyers

Provident, New Jersey's oldest mutual savings bank, will offer first time home buyers special rates and other advantages if they apply for a mortgage during the month of April. Applicants may choose from a wide variety of mortgage products offered by the bank. The desirable 3 Year Adjustable Rate Mortgage and the ever popular 30 Year Fixed Rate Mortgage are included in the Provident's mortgage menu.

In addition to the low April rates, David Frye, Senior Lending Officer, said The Provident will grant the mortgages with as little as 5 percent down for qualified applicants and will also waive the usual $150 Bank Attorney Review fee and also the $85 Tax-Service fee. The Provident has long been a provider of mortgages in the state. "This first time home buyers program is our way of making home ownership even more affordable," Frye said.

Mortgages at Provident are for 1 to 4 family, owner-occupied primary residences and the First Time Home Buyers program is limited to new applications only.

For complete information, interested buyers may call toll free in New Jersey, 1-800-448-PROV. Provident has offices throughout the state and is a member of the FDIC. Provident is an Equal Housing and Equal Opportunity Lender.
