Times asks polygraph, drug tests for Township Manager, Assessor

By Howard Klausner

The Belleville Times is requesting Township Manager Stephen Cuccio and Assessor Thomas Salzano to take polygraph and drug tests, in the wake of accusations made against the Times by Cuccio.

Cuccio informed the Belleville Times that he had seen Editor Howard Klausner "rummaging through papers" on the desk of Township Clerk, Mary Lou Hood, on Wednesday afternoon.

Cuccio is quoted by a Times employee as stating that if any township documents were missing, he would have to assume they were taken by the Belleville Times and would report that to the State Commission of Investigation.

Cuccio has closed the Township Clerk's office to the press, or at least to the Belleville Times, claiming that it is a "restricted area".

Salzano was present in the Township Clerk's office while Klausner was visiting it, and summoned Cuccio.

Township Clerk Mary Lou

Hood was on vacation. In the office was Assistant Clerk Kelly Nash.

Klausner was looking through a stack of newspapers on the floor, a few feet from the Clerk's desk, when Cuccio demanded to know what he was doing in the office.

Klausner replied that he was looking for a newspaper.

Cuccio then told Klausner he had no business in the office and ordered him to leave.

Klausner did so, and a half hour later, Cuccio telephoned the Nutley office of Orechio Publications, and spoke with Business Manager Arnold Ziem.

At that point, Ziem quoted Cuccio as saying that the editor was seen by him going through papers on Mrs. Hood's desk.

In view of these accusations, Editor Klausner has requested a polygraph test be taken by himself, Cuccio and Salzano, as to the facts, and that drug tests be given the participants as well, to ensure that the polygraph tests are untainted.

A day of remembrance observed in Belleville as tribute is paid to our nation's war dead

By Howard Klausner

Under gray skies, reflecting the somberness of the occasion, the community paid its tribute to the fallen of the nation's wars.

To Belleville, whose citizens have participated in every war since the American Revolution, the observances began near the Reformed Church Cemetery where the remains of 62 Revolutionary War soldiers are at rest.

The Rev. Richard Moheit, Pastor of the Reformed Church, offered the opening prayers on the Rutgers Street Bridge, itself named after a prestigious Belleville family.

The services then moved to the Municipal Building, where tribute was paid to the deceased firefighters and Police of Belleville, a tradition going back more than half a century.

At 9:45 a.m., a separate ceremony was held at the Disabled American Veterans Post on Washington Avenue, where a plaque bearing the names of World War II dead was dedicated.

Finally, at 10 a.m., the traditional ceremony was held at the Veterans Memorial on Union Avenue, where the Reverend Gary Ward of St. Stephens Church in Kearny delivered a eulogy for the four Chaplains who lost their lives in the sinking of the troopship Dorchester, having given their lifejackets to others as the ship went down off Greenland in 1943.

One of the Chaplains, the Rev. John Washington, had served at St. Stephen's before entering military service.

Among the dignitaries present were Representative Herbert Klein, Essex County Executive Thomas D'Alessio, Assemblyman John Kelly, Mayor Marina Perna and members of the Belleville Township Council.

Taps were sounded by Belleville High School student Jason Waldron, to close the ceremonies.

OPENING CEREMONY - A Massing of Colors on the Rutgers Street Bridge marked the beginning of Memorial Day observances. Spire of historic Reformed Church is in background, nearby.

Chamber of Commerce will be host

Congressman Herb Klein in town today for tour of Washington Avenue stores

Representative Herb Klein is visiting downtown Belleville today, for a walking tour of the Belleville Business District.

Klein announced he plans to get acquainted with the businesses here, first hand, as he seeks solutions to the economic problems besetting the towns and cities of New Jersey.

He was scheduled to arrive at 9 a.m. and walk the area between Academy Street and William Street.

His visit comes as he pursues support of his Congressional Bill to have Belleville recognized by the President and Congress as Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution.

He planned to meet with business people directly, to discuss their problems, during a two-hour visit.

His hosts are Lou Paraboschia, President of the Chamber; Eileen Brown, Secretary; Mayor Marina Perna, and Third Ward Council Member Thomas Spillane.

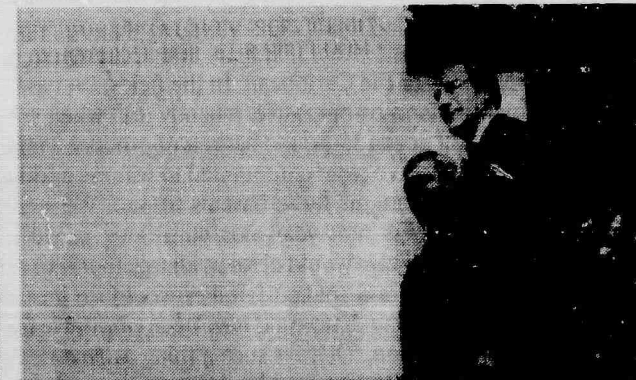

He was also greeted by Robert Reiser, President of the Washington Avenue Merchants Association; Louis Cienia, owner of Charles Jewelers and Chairman of the Belleville Renaissance Committee; Township Manager Stephen Cuccio; Township Assessor Thomas Salzano; Arnold Ziem, Business Manager of Orechio Publications; Bruce Morgan, President of the Union Avenue Merchants Association, and Larry Walsh, President of the Silver Lake Business Council.

Representative Klein made an informal visit on Tuesday to the offices of Orechio Publications to confer with Publisher Frank A. Orechio.

OFFERING BENEDICTION - The Rev. William Moheit, Pastor of Belleville Reformed Church, offers closing prayer at Memorial Day Service.

AT DAV MEMORIAL - Essex County Executive Tom D'Alessio and Representative Herbert Klein attended unveiling of new plaque bearing names of War Dead, erected by the Belleville-Nutley Disabled American Veterans Post.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

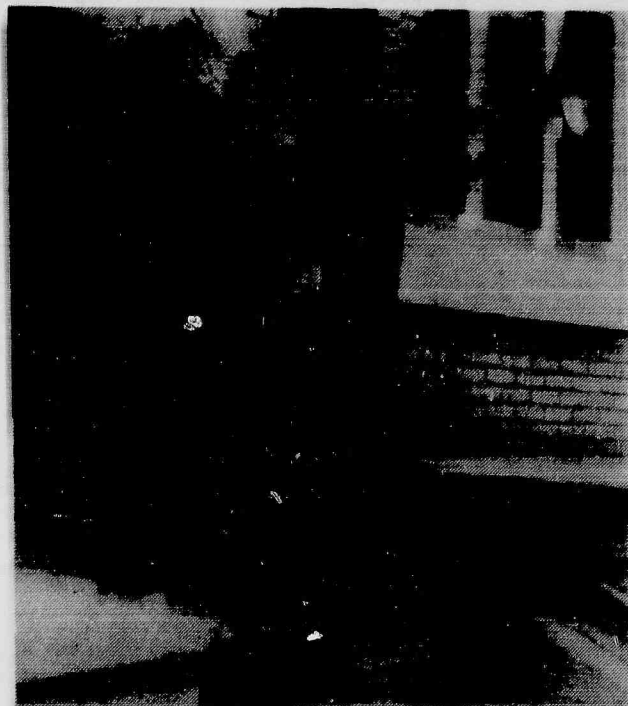

We are informed of more Belleville men whose names should have been listed among the War Dead that appeared in the Memorial Day edition of the Belleville Times. United States Marine Corps Sergeant Rene Flory, Jr. was the first Belleville man to fall in the Korean War. Sergeant Flory is memorialized with a plaque on the grounds of School Seven. Bernard O'Conner and Kevin Kennedy annually place a Flag at the monument. ●●●● Among those who fell in World War II is Lieutenant Roger Melonke, an Army Air Force Pilot, who was the victim of an airplane crash. The Hebrew School of Congregation Ahavath Achim is named in his memory. ●●●● Army Air Force Sergeant Frank H. Metzler, Tail Gunner aboard a bomber was lost on a mission over Europe. His cousin, Mrs. Irene Sullivan of Belleville, reports that Sgt. Metzler's younger brother, Charles was reported Missing in Action in the Battle of The Bulge but was found hospitalized, and sent home because of battle injuries. ●●●● Army Air Force Lieutenant James O'Neill, a Navigator aboard a bomber, was shot down on his 23rd mission over Europe. His brother, Ed O'Neill, is Town Historian. ●●●● Joseph Zecker was an Infantryman who fell in Italy. His boyhood neighbor, retired Township Treasurer Isadore Padula brought his name to the attention of the Times.

While the list was gathered painstakingly by Joseph Fornarotto from records made available by the Department of Defense, it is our assumption that the record keeping may not be absolutely perfect, and we suspect that other names are missing, as well. Izzy recalled that his older brother, Joseph was reported Missing in Action at a time he was actually in a military hospital. Fortunately, Joe Padula had been able to make a telephone call home before the telegram arrived. Joe spent a year in the hospital, and he still carries shrapnel fragments from a German mortar shell that wiped out the patrol in which he was serving at St. Lo. ●●●● Joe Padula, incidentally, entered Clara Maass Medical Center last week for treatment of a recurring heart condition dating back to his military service. For him, it has been a long war. ●●●● We are informed that Federal Bureau of Investigation Agent Jim Lamb is heading the unit investigating the death of the late James Randazzo in which a couple of Belleville men are alleged to be prime suspects. One of the last times the FBI was in town was to issue subpoenas to the Belleville Public Library to obtain a look at the library cards. The idea was to find out who had been taking out books on bomb making, high explosives and other exciting reading. Because state law prohibits the library from giving out this sort of information, the FBI had to go to court to get into the files. We do not know if any arrests resulted, although there is a rumor the Library asked for help in tracking down some delinquent borrowers.

Kim Lui, a Registered Nurse who recently moved into Belleville with her husband, was asking for information about jogging tracks, bicycle paths and ice skating rinks, recently. Nurse Lui, a tall, attractive blonde with the lean physique of a long distance runner, hails from a part of the country dear to our memories - Madison County, State of New York, By The Grace of God, Free and Independent. The "free and independent" phrase comes from the terminology used in salutations, proclamations and other legal documents issued by the State. ●●●● We recall Madison County because as a teen-ager, we went up from our Brooklyn, New York homestead with other students to pick peas and beans there. Not for us were the fly-blown barracks of the migrant workers who actually made their livings up there. We were housed among the good folk of Morrisville who usually provided winter lodging for students of the Morrisville Agricultural and Technical School. That meant cozy feather beds in meticulously clean homes, and a ready supply of home baked cakes, crullers and pies from our friendly landlords and landladies. They taught us square dancing and how to judge the incoming weather from sighting the moon, and they were - and are - the salt of the earth, looking after the ill and the homesick with genuine concern. ●●●● While we busily destroyed the local crops, the pickers who came from other parts provided the real farm production. We met migrants - white and black - from the Deep South, and we met Barbadians who said they made more money doing crop work there than they did as teachers, lawyers and accountants in their native islands of the Caribbean. In the fields, everyone was good natured and co-operative, a handy trait when you were pulling a half dozen 35-pound baskets of produce a mile back to the weigher. We were confounded to witness middle aged women outpicking us three baskets to one. We were confounded to witness nine-year-olds outpicking us three baskets to one. When rain would drive us all together into an available barn, these rain soaked families would do group singing and even dancing that would have been creditable for a Hollywood production. There is such a thing as American and Caribbean work song, folk song and Gospel that make up a treasure which we hope has not vanished, but today's pickers carry CD players with them now. ●●●● In any event, Mrs. Lui comes from the same stock that beat the Redcoats at Saratoga and the Confederates at Gettysburg and left us with a great respect for the York Staters who lived then and live y that wonderful motto - "By The Grace of God, Free and Independent". ●●●● A recent report on the Silver Lake Association left out a bit of information on how to join the organization. The telephone number is (201) 759-2102 - we hope.

Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten went down to the Library to see what the new Library Board member was reading. "It can't be books from the Belleville Library," Baldassaro said. "The new Board Member has never had a library card. We don't know what kind of books they'll be ordering from now on, but we can see a big run on Captain Marvel Comics." ●●●● Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says the ongoing investigation of the Township records by the State Commission of Investigation has saved the Township at least $7 million. "They've taken so many papers out of Town Hall that we don't need the new building addition any more," Zilch said. His political supporters, the Kool Kukumber Boys don't like the unemployment caused by firing a dozen innocent Department of Public Works people. Zilch says, "The KKB wants to put them back to work, building summer homes for Council Majority members."

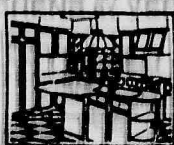

NOTES OF REMEMBRANCE - Bugler Jason Waldron sounds Taps at ceremonies held at Municipal Building for deceased Firefighters and Police.

OUR OPINION

Whitman, Edwards, Wallwork

Tuesday, Republican Party members will have the opportunity to select one of three candidates as their gubernatorial nominee. Former Attorney General Cary Edwards, former State Senator James Wallwork and former Somerset County Freeholder Christine Whitman are seeking the honor of representing their party.

Professional politicians following the election have the perception that Wallwork is a blip on the horizon with Whitman and Edwards in a tight race for the nomination.

We like all three candidates. Each in her or his own way has something to contribute to the General Election dialogue with incumbent Governor Jim Florio.

Regardless of who wins the Republican nomination, that person will not have an easy time defeating Governor Florio.

Usually, only a small number of voters take the time and trouble to vote in a Primary Election. For the most part, voters do not like to commit themselves to a particular party which is the case when one votes in a Primary Election.

Among the three, perhaps, the person best qualified by reason of experience is Cary Edwards. Of the three, Whitman would appear to be the most liberal. We think a Whitman-Florio contest would give voters a clear choice between Whitman, a Liberal, and Florio, the Moderate.

Three cheers for Herb Klein!

Praise the Lord — our Congressman Herb Klein voted against President Bill Clinton's tax package. Klein believes we are taxed enough — that it is time to reduce the cost of government.

In breaking with his party — and his president, Klein risks being placed on a black list. He probably will never receive an invitation to dine at Bill Clinton's temporary abode. So be it. Klein — in voting against a tax package, did what his constituents expected. He has the courage of his convictions.

'We are all Americans'

(The Belleville Times is pleased to reprint the remarks of the Rev. Gary Ward, delivered at the Belleville Memorial Day Observance, 1993.)

"I, myself, am from this town of Belleville. I grew up here; I went to school here; my family still lives here.

"I am here this morning to speak about four individuals, four men who offered their lives for their country in World War II. They are known as the Four Chaplains.

"I am here to represent them on this, the 50th anniversary of their deaths, because one of them, Father John Washington, answered the call to serve his nation during World War II, and left to be an Army Chaplain from the same Parish where I now serve, St. Stephen's in Kearny.

"Father Washington found himself on board the troopship, the U.S.A.T. Dorchester along with three other Chaplains, the Rev. George Fox, a Methodist minister from Virginia, Rabbi Alexander Goode from Pennsylvania and the Rev. Charles Poling, who was from a Dutch Reformed Church in New York. Also on board were 904 service people from the various armed services.

"On Feb. 1, 1943, the Dorchester sailed from Staten Island to Boston en route to Greenland. In the early morning hours of Feb. 3, 1943, near St. John's, Newfoundland, the Dorchester was torpedoed by a German U-boat. The Dorchester sank in a matter of 20 minutes.

"In that time, however, amidst all the turbulence, the four Chaplains assumed positions of responsibility and service as they helped the crew members on board to procure life jackets and helped them off the ship into waiting life boats.

"When all the life jackets had run out, the four Chaplains took their own life jackets off their very own backs and gave them for the safety of others.

"The Chaplains went down with the ship in the cold dark icy waters of the North Atlantic.

"Of the 904 people aboard, 678 lost their lives. The Four Chaplains freely surrendered their lives out of love and service for the one God they served, the one Nation they served.

"This is the lesson which they leave us.

"When they were helping with the life jackets, they did not ask others to which race they belonged or what their ethnic background was or what their religion was. They were serving people in need.

"There is an invaluable lesson in this for all of us to learn from to grow from and to be inspired by.

"We can make our homes, our town, our nation all better places in which to live by the respect and dignity that we show to all people. Though we have difference, we are all Americans! We all inhabit the world together!

"In St. Stephen's Church there is a stained glass window depicting the memory of Father John Washington. On it there is a picture of the sinking of the U.S.A.T. Dorchester and there is a quote from the Gospel of St. John:

"Greater love than this no one has than to lay down his life for a friend. (John 15:13).

"This quote applies to all the brave men and women who have offered their lives in war — not only for friends — but also for strangers so that all of us could continue to enjoy the blessings which are ours in this great Nation.

"The Four Chaplains stand as an enduring testimony to the words of a song which we sing so often:

"America, America, God shed His Grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from Sea to shining Sea."

YOUR OPINION

Unhappy with teachers

To the editor:

And so it goes — another round of negotiations with more raises, more benefits, more time off and the lowly taxpayer bows to the inevitable. Am I negative — you betcha — I would like to have some of those super dooper benefits and health care they enjoy at our expense, which we cannot afford — and they complain.

What bothers me most is the $41,000 average teacher's pay, approximately $10,000 or better in benefits, prescription plan of $2.00, stipends of $400 or better for all teachers, mandated by contract tenure whether they be good or bad, perks galore. Just browse through the agendas for kicks and pick and choose. They always win — we always lose.

Do you remember open house on Sept. 24, 1990 when the teachers were unhappy with the pending negotiations — do you remember that 90 parents were at School No. 4 to admire their kids' handiwork but the teachers were not minus and there was a no show — I was shameful in the least. The theory is simple — dollars first and kids second — a big switch from the board of ed's hand wringing enunciations that kids come first. Give me a break, please?

I'll bet many taxpayers would like to have some of the goodies they enjoy, paid for lock-stock-and-barrel, like Blue Cross, Blue Shield with Rider "I" and carve out medicare dependents benefits — major medical — 80%-90% dental program — 60%-40% prostodontic and as of March 1, 1992 the board provided "family dental expense coverage" with the taxpayers blessings. Of course, insult upon injury.

I could go on and on like accumulated sick days, personal days, religious observance days, their tuition that we pay, and they are upgraded and we pay again. But what tickled my fancy was the gimmick pulled at the 1990/91 negotiations with an increase of 7%, 1991/92 6%-3% split like 6% for the first half year and 9% for the second half year, likewise years 1992/93, but hush, hush, that the 1 1/2% of the preceeding years 3% was included in the subsequent year as a starting salary — how about those bananas, a work of art.

Deception seems to be the word and the lowly taxpayers mocked and belittled and they elated with their wheedling and dealing and for the kids of course. Maybe we should all break bread that the negotiations be fair and equitable — that all can survive — that all can have steak and potatoes. Let's live together and let mutual respect be the key — just a passing thought.

Dan Ippolito

A parent's complaint

To the editor:

As the incoming president of the Belleville Wrestling Parents and Friends Association for 1993-94, I find it distressing that one of my first duties is to write this letter.

On this April 16 past, our association sponsored our 18th annual awards dinner. Each year, the student-athletes from BHS culminate their season as honorees for the hard work they went through as wrestlers.

This year was one of the most distinctive seasons in all of the 31 years wrestling has existed in Belleville.

On the freshman level, our town was proud to father two state champs, Luke Cardinale and Rob Caputo. There was also a third place finisher, Dave Paladino.

The varsity had two wrestlers place second in the states, John Perna and Josh Cardinale, and one more placed fourth, Isaiah Cardinale.

Even in college, 1988 graduate Armando Nardone placed third in the nation and earned All-America honors for the third consecutive year.

So outstanding were these achievements that Deputy Mayor Drozd presented proclamations to Perna, the Cardinales and Head Coach Joe Nisivocchia.

Do you know how many members of the Board of Education were present to honor such excellence?

None, that's how many.

Do you know how many members of the High School Administrative Staff were present to honor such excellence?

None, that's how many.

Do you know how many members of the Supervisor of Schools' office were present to honor such excellence?

None, that's how many.

Let us also not forget that outside of Mr. Drozd, not one town commissioner graced the affair with their presence.

All of the above mentioned were invited by our association. Not one gave us the courtesy of a reply, never mind attendance.

What have these boys done to earn such a cruel and callous snub on the day they are to be honored for their splendid achievements?

All of you should be ashamed of yourselves. As members of the educational community, it is paramount on your list of responsibilities to acknowledge student success when it occurs.

When you are chasing votes, you sure know how to lay on the lard. Well, remember one thing: some of us have long memories, and we'll recall quite clearly how much attention you paid to the youth of our town when we're in the voting booth next year.

Joseph L. Piegario Jr.
President, BWP & FA

Flight #198

• NEXT Tuesday is a day that we all should remember to visit the neighborhood polling place and cast a ballot for the person of our choice. Republicans have a choice. The Democrats have the good fortune to have an incumbent Democrat as governor and the opportunity to visit the polls on Primary Day as an expression of confidence in the performance of their governor.

As a young man approaching voting age, I was induced to be a Republican not because of philosophy, but because former Republican Congressman Fred Hartley and former Republican Governor Harold G. Hoffman did favors at my request for people in my Avondale Big Tree neighborhood.

With Fred Hartley, it was a case of opening the door to immigrant Italians who wanted to become citizens of the United States. Many was the time that I personally picked up Congressman Hartley at his Kearny home with the prospective citizen and went on to the U. S. Immigration office in Newark where Fred Hartley appeared as a witness for the immigrant.

Former Governor Harold Hoffman came through with jobs for our constituents. An important one that I remember is a job that our former Republican leader, Fiori Stabile, obtained — of all places — at the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission — and that was back in 1935. So — I came to the Republican Party because its elected representatives were good to me and my friends.

• I WAS sorry to see Governor Florio's Chief of Staff Joe Salema resign. Salema is one of the most competent persons to hold down the job. However, his resignation permits Florio to address the issues confronting the people of our state without being encumbered with anticipated attacks upon a staff member whose honesty has never been in doubt.

Florio's Chief Counsel, Bob DeCotiis, continues in the job and probably will assume some of the patronage files formerly handled by Salema. It's well that Florio put this matter behind him by reluctantly accepting the resignation of his former Chief of Staff. Replacing Salema is Richard Wright who formerly served as Associate Treasurer. The baggage that Wright brings to the office is the fact that he is a protégé of former State Treasurer Douglas Berman who was responsible for the worse happening of Florio's incumbency — the $2.8 billion tax package. Now that his staff problem is resolved, Florio can move on to center stage and defend his record.

BLOOMFIELD Mayor Jim Norton had an appropriate answer for members of the Bloomfield Public Library Board who expressed concern over Norton's request that library funding remain at last year's level of $875,000. The Library Trustees had asked for an additional $68,000. To the suggestion that the Library Board may be required to close the popular Children's Library from June 30 to Labor Day, the Mayor said, "It makes no sense for the Trustees to shut down this facility at a time when our children have no access to the school libraries." The Mayor contends that the Library Trustees could cut expenses further as well as raise revenues. In pressing his point, Norton said, "It's a time of austerity, and the Library Trustees will have to learn to live within their means just as every other township department has done. I'd be happy to meet with them at any time to discuss cost-cutting measures." Mayor Norton is on the right track. All he is doing is attempting to keep his campaign promises which includes keeping down the cost of government — a noble objective.

• THE Belleville Department of Public Works laid off ten full time and two part time employees. They were laid off as a part of a move to reduce operating expenses by $185,000. It won't be easy for the laid-off workers to find another job in these depressed times.

On another level, the school budget was cut by $865,000 which provoked Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Lally to observe, "Disaster! It will cripple the education process." School Superintendent Michael Nardiello was visibly angered as he criticized the budget cuts. School authorities have appealed the cut with the State Department of Education which has the authority to restore all or part of the cuts.

• RALPH SALERNO is still beating the bushes in Essex County getting votes for Christie Whitman while Essex County Republican chairman, John Renna, is doing all he can to insure a victory for Cary Edwards.

Ralph Salerno

• THE League of Women Voters held its annual meeting Wednesday, May 26th. Nominated for a second term were Paula Brill, 2nd Vice President; Joanna Conrad, 3rd vice President; Joyce Timm, Treasurer; Mary Appel, Mary Ann Lamber, Vicki Ray, Anne Lynne Eisenfelder, Maureen Politi, Directors. Chairman of the Nominating Committee was Chuck Appel.

Remaining in office through May 1994 were Ann Freeh, President; Mary Dowd, 1st Vice President; Pat Williams, Secretary; Edwina Connell, Margaret Farabaugh, Violet DePanis, Mary Jane Emde, Directors.

Students offer help to residents

The students at Belleville Middle School once again will use their time to assist town residents, especially senior citizens, with springtime chores.

The program is a yearly activity which has worked out very well in the past, reports Student Council Advisor, Bill Hollis.

By performing such tasks as baby sitting, lawn mowing, yard and basement cleanup, shopping, raking leaves and other such jobs, the students find that they can actually maintain jobs for their customers during the summer months also.

Many residents ask the students to return all summer long to help out some more. In this way, the students learn responsibility, and make a little extra spending money also.

The service is available only until the end of the school year, while the weather is nice, and while the students are available to be reached at school. Callers may leave their names, telephone numbers, and addresses and type of work they need to be done, and a student will get back to them. Call Belleville Middle School at 450-3532, and leave your message with one of the secretaries.

Cartoons on exhibit

Currently on exhibit during the month of June are the cartoons and drawings of retired Belleville artist, Wil Black. As supervisor of the Art Section of Marketing Services for The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, he had a hand in mblife, initiating a cartoon character, "Mutual Benny," who ran for a number of years in the company paper, and eventually was drawn by several different people. He also took photos for the paper for a time in the late 40's.

Black joined the Mutual Benefit after service in the Army Medical Corps. Prior to his military service, he worked as a freelance commercial artist in New York and as an illustrator for Liberty Magazine and a number of "pulp" magazines that were popular at the time. He also worked for a time as a cartoonist for the Newark Star-Eagle, forerunner of the Star Ledger.

A student for four years at the Art Students League and for two years at Pratt Institute, he studied under Marshall Franz, a well-known illustrator, and was assistant instructor of Franz's class for three years.

Famous men and their wives

A program, part lecture and part discussion of famous American couples in the fascinating worlds of politics and the arts will be discussed by humanities scholar Frank De Lisi on June 16 at 1 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center. Their times and their worlds will span the historical periods from George and Martha Washington to Bill and Hillary Clinton.

Call the library at 450-3434 if you wish to register for this discussion.

Pressed flowers exhibit

Linda Villa's appreciation of gardening and crafts are the inspiration for her pressed flower creations that are currently on exhibit at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center. In her Nutley garden Linda grows wildflowers, annuals and perennials which she presses and preserves for her unusual creations.

During the month of June, her pressed flowers can be viewed at the library.

Although Villa places her flower designs on black textured paper for dramatic contrast, she also uses a white background. Using a special glue, she attaches the plant material to the paper and carefully chooses her frames. The artist's favorites are her Victorian-style pins and pendants, decorated with wildflowers and other plant material.

Pre-retirement seminar

A pre-retirement seminar will be held on June 7 from 7 to 8:45 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Avenue, given by Financial Management Services of Nutley. To register, call the circulation desk at 450-3434. In the seminar, the insurance consultants will try to answer the following questions: 1. How much will retirement cost? 2. Helping children understand forests as natural resources

Did you know that it takes over 500,000 trees, an entire forest, to supply Americans with their newspapers every week? While working or playing outdoors this spring, help children understand the importance of trees as a natural resource.

The value of trees cannot be overestimated. Trees produce oxygen and filter our air, thus reducing air pollution. Trees growing around our roads, highways and buildings reduce noise. Forests provide homes, shelter and food for animals and recreation areas for people. They are important in preventing erosion and filtering water back into underground water supplies. Through decomposition (natural breakdown of dead material) trees provide nutrients to the soil.

While you work, ask your children to name all of the products they can think of that come from forests; name the animals that depend upon forests for food and shelter; relate ways they use forest areas for recreation. Think about sitting under a tree on a very hot day. Would you feel cooler? Plant a tree together.

While you rake winter leaves, talk about the life cycle of leaves and plan a picture story of how the leaves turned from green to brown and then fell to the ground. When you have accumulated a pile of decomposing leaves, spread them out on newspaper and examine them together. Look for fungus, bugs or worms. Explain how the leaves decompose, provide food for small animals and add humus (decaying material releasing nutrients) to the soil, which then provides the nutrients to new plants.

A fun and productive activity is to prepare a compost pile in your back yard using soil, yard waste and leftover vegetable matter. The resulting compost can be used for fertilizer for your garden. Many homeowners make compost piles in their yards. You can obtain information and directions on composting from your local Rutgers Cooperative Extension office.

Defeat Nutley, 13-3, Mundy drives in five

Bucs finish year above .500

By Mike Lamberti
Character.

In sports, that word can be interpreted in two ways. A team can be made up of characters, or it can exhibit character.

Sometimes, it takes a group of characters to make up team character. Sometimes, characters without direction constitute disarray.

The Belleville baseball team found its character following a 16-0 rout at the hands of Nutley two weeks ago in the quarterfinal round of the Greater Newark Tournament.

The Bucs were struggling mightily against Nutley ace Larry Mohs. Their problems at the plate transcended mediocrity in the field, and by the sixth inning, the game was a fiasco if you were on the blue and gold side. Every ball Nutley hit found a gap and when the ball was hit to a Belleville player, it was with crossed fingers that the locals could make a play and just get out of Verona Park before it got worst.

As Belleville came off the field after the sixth inning, head coach Nick Grande met his troops. The subsequent conversation was not all together pleasant and certainly would not be appropriate to print in a family newspaper.

Grande questioned his teams work ethic, and in general, welcomed any player to hand in his uniform if they were not going to play hard and with aggressiveness.

An inning later, the game ended mercifully and the Bucs went home and pondered what was left of their season.

There were two ways to go, give up and mail in the season, or rally and make something out of the last three weeks.

Grande's troops chose the later alternative, and the result was a tremendous finish. The Bucs won two games last week, defeating Don Bosco 4-3 and then rumpaging past Nutley, of all teams, 13-3 in the season finale.

The two victories gave Belleville a 13-12 record for the 1993 campaign, the first winning record for Belleville baseball in a few years.

"The kids did a real nice job," Grande said last weekend. "We weren't feeling too good about ourselves after the Nutley game in the GNT. We knew we were a better team than that."

The Bucs knew their fate entering the Don Bosco tilt. The team was 11-12 with two games left, both against league opponents. Win them both and the final record would eclipse .500. Lose one, or both, and the team would conclude the year under .500.

Against Don Bosco, Belleville took a 4-0 lead into the fifth inning, before Don Bosco rallied for three runs to narrow the deficit. Key relief pitching kept D.B. off the board for the rest of the game. Tremendous defense in the early innings negated three possible D.B. runs.

Chris Imperatrice started for the Bucs and was the winning pitcher. Imperatrice hurled the first 4 1/3 innings, allowing seven hits and two earned runs. He struck out one and walked two.

Robert Dena came and and pitched 1 2/3 innings of solid relief.

He didn't allow a run and fanned two while giving up three hits.

In the seventh, Dena got into some trouble. Don Bosco had runners on first and second with no one out. Grande went to the bullpen, calling senior Kevin Johansen to extinguish the fire.

Johansen got the first batter to ground out, with the base runners advancing one base. Now, with one out and runners on second and third, Johansen's task was simple, but certainly not easy.

He had to battle the heart of Don Bosco's batting order and somehow keep the opponent from scoring with just one out. Johansen answered the call, and then some. He struck out the three and four hitters in the lineup to finish the game and seal the Buccaneer win.

"Tremendous job," Grande said afterward. "Dena and Johansen, both were excellent in relief. Johansen striking out the final two hitters was outstanding. We were hoping for a pop up or ground out with the infield in. Kevin made our life easier when he struck out the last two batters."

Belleville scored two in the first. Jim Landon and Mike Puleo singled, but on a muffed hit and run attempt, Landon was thrown out at

Lady Bucs finish third in Pacific

By Mike Lamberti

Prior to beating Immaculate Heart in the season finale, the Belleville softball team split two league games, beating Paramus Catholic 11-7 and falling to Nutley, 4-1.

Since we were short on space last week, the victory over I.H. was reported last week. This week, we'll look back on the P.C. and Nutley games.

As you know, Belleville finished the season 19-9, 8-4 in the Pacific Division of the NNJIL. The 8-4 record was good for third place in the league, with Nutley winning the crown (10-2) and Immaculate Heart, which won the Parochial A North title, taking second (9-3).

Against Paramus Catholic, Belleville jumped out to a 5-0 lead and never trailed.

In the first, Jennifer Citarella walked and Lynn Giachetti was hit by a pitch. Colleen Mannion singled to load the bases and Kim Piscatowski's double cleared the bases. Piscatowski was thrown out trying to extend her hit to a triple.

Nicole Gibbons walked and Liz Ramirez reached on an error, scoring Gibbons. Kristin Galioto also reached safely on a miscue and Ramirez scored.

P.C. closed the deficit to 5-4 in the third. In the fourth, Belleville extended its lead to 6-4 when Galioto walked, went to second on a sac bunt by Andrea Curran, stole third and scored on a throwing error.

Paramus Catholic stayed close, scoring a run in the fifth to close the lead to 6-5. However, Belleville put the game out of reach with another five run inning, this time in the sixth. The key hit in that rally came from Mannion, who launched a triple with the bases loaded.

Piscatowski earned the win, her 14th with a complete game effort. The junior struck out four and walked just one.

Mannion led the Lady Bucs with two hits and three ribbies.

Belleville and Nutley had another tense battle in the final game between the two teams this season. Once again, Nutley had the upper hand, beating Belleville with a seventh inning rally.

Piscatowski and Nutley hurler Kim Higgins waged a mound dual similar to the one they had in the county championship game. In that game, Nutley scored twice early, then held off a Belleville rally in the late innings.

This time, the game was scoreless through four innings. Nutley scored once in the fifth and Belleville answered with a run in the last of the fifth.

Citarella singled and went to second on a Giachetti sac bunt. Piscatowski hit a fly ball to left field that was misplayed and Citarella Nicole Gibbons connects for base hit in season finale against Immaculate Heart. Gibbons is one of many Lady Bucs who will be back in 1994. This year, Gibbons did well at first base and in the outfield.

Lady Bucs celebrate with head coach Carl Corino (he's in the middle of the huddle) shortly after final out against Immaculate Heart. Girls ended season on a good note, beating the number five ranked team in the state convincingly.

Take care, Rich

I lost a friend last week.

He was a friend to many who worked for him, or just knew him.

At National Community Bank, where I work full time, we reluctantly said good bye to Rich Cavallero, who departed this life at the untimely age of 41 last week.

While many of you, I'm sure, never knew Rich, you might know someone like him, who left this earth much too soon.

Life is always full of regrets, even though we say it shouldn't be. Why did someone so young have to pass away? Wouldn't it have been nice to have known him a little better?

The questions can go on and on. But fate has a way of stepping in and determining how life will be led.

Rich Cavallero was a talented businessman. He was a senior vice president and my immediate supervisor for the past four years. We did a lot of things together in the banking business.

Rich was a big sports fan, an avid hunter and fisherman. When he first joined our bank back in 1989, he was a Dallas Cowboys fan when it wasn't very popular to root for the Cowboys. Back then, Dallas was in the long rebuilding process and finished 1-15.

Rich took plenty of abuse from us back then. He would get the last laugh four years later.

This past January, Dallas won the Super Bowl. Along the way, they defeated my Philadelphia Eagles in the playoffs. We had a bet for that game. The loser would buy the winner lunch and have to profess his love for the winning team at that lunch.

Obviously, I lost that bet.

The opportunity to pay Rich back for that bet never materialized. He became ill a week or so after the Super Bowl and would not return to work.

The morning after Rich passed away, a co-worker, Jeff Hama, made a comment which best epitomized the Rich Cavallero days.

"We had a lot fun back then, didn't we," Jeff said.

In a business that sometimes can be strenuous and quite busy, Rich made the time enjoyable.

But time went by too fast. And, suddenly, we are left to try and figure out why a friend has passed away.

He was a class guy. He was a good friend.

And I'll miss him.

A lot.

Take care, Rich. And thanks for all the good times we had over the past four years.

I only wish you could have had more time to drive us crazy.

To Rich's wife, Carolyn, my deepest condolences.

To Rich's family, ditto.

As Rich will join his mother in eternal peace, I offer one final thought.

Dallas won't win the Super Bowl next year!

Go Eagles!

TID BITS

The Yankees are off to a good start, and in the wild American League East, they have a tremendous chance to steal the division. I picked them at the beginning of the year, and unless Toronto catches fire, I think the Yanks can do it.

One thing, however. To manager Buck Showalter, lighten up!

Buck gives the appearance of a very intense person. He gets to the ballpark six hours before the game on most instances and studies film until the wee hours of the morning after the game is over.

He goes by the book, lives off statistics.

Paul O'Neill, perhaps the Yanks best hitter this year, doesn't hit much against lefty pitching because the stats say he isn't good against lefties.

Buck, let the guy play. O'Neill's a pro. It's early June and already you're using him as a platoon player. This is a guy who should be playing everyday and has been an established hitter over the past few years in the majors.

One more thing, Buck. The Yankee uniform is one of tradition and is still considered the best looking uniform in sports.

Why do you insist on wearing that silly warm up jacket game in and game out? If it's early April and it's 40 degrees, fine. In late May, with temperatures in the high 70's, it looks ridiculous. And enjoy the game. Did you ever hear Buck interviewed?

He's barely audible. You don't have to be a loud mouth, just talk so people don't think you're nearing coma status. This is baseball, Buck. Not nuclear physics. Not cancer research.

It's baseball. Have fun with it. Be intense once in a while. But relax and enjoy managing the highest profile baseball team in the world. It should be an enjoyable experience.

And you probably will walk away with a pennant this fall.

The joke of the week has to be Andre Agassi's comments about Pete Sampras looking like someone who swings from trees.

Andre, take a look in the mirror sometime. After that, shut your mouth and play tennis. You've won one grand slam in your career and you think you're the next coming of Jimmy Connors.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The Seattle Supersonics last appeared in the NBA finals in 1979. There, the Sonics beat the Washington Bullets in five games. Lenny Wilkens was the coach of the Sonics. Seattle was led by Dennis Johnson and Freddie Brown that year.

FOR THIS WEEK

Who was the last woman, other than Martina Navratilova or Steffi Graf to win Wimbledon? What year did it happen. Who did that player beat in the finals? Who won the mens finals that year?

Bruins split first four, LaRose, Mirabella star

The Belleville Bruins have opened the 1993 Essex County Baseball League season on a good note.

Bill Ingraham's team is 2-2, with wins over Millburn 5-3 and the Nugent Black Sox, 7-1.

Belleville battled the Crescent Eagles yesterday at home. West Orange will be in town this evening for a 6 p.m. game. This Saturday, it's off to Millburn and on Sunday, the Crescent Eagles come to town for a doubleheader. All home games are played at Belleville High School.

In the season opener, the Bruins halted Millburn 5-3. The game was played in Verona and was a battle between the two new teams in the ECBL.

Ingraham, in addition to managing the team, was also the winning pitcher in the opener. The save went to Paul Mirabella, the former major league pitcher who once pitched for the New York Yankees in the mid 1980's.

Glen Agens had started for the Bruins and pitched until the third inning, when Ingraham came in.

Belleville scored in the first inning on a double by Mike DeBiase and a single from James LaRose.

In the fourth, the Bruins tallied three more runs on a series of hits and errors. The Bruins scored its fifth run in the sixth. Carmen Spina, the former BHS standout, singled and stole second and third. He scored on a sac fly by Ingraham.

LaRose led Belleville with two hits. DeBiase, Michael Salvanto, Spina, Jason Nardachone and Francesco Ortiz had one hit each.

Against the Black Sox, Mike Chirichello earned the victory and Mirabella picked up his second save.

Chirichello hurled the first five innings, giving up one run. He left the game with a 2-1 lead.

Ortiz led off the contest with a homer. It was the second time in as many games that Ortiz had led a game off with a home run. He did it against Cranford, a game the Bruins eventually lost, 6-4.

Belleville scored a solo run in the second when Spina singled and later scored on a wild throw.

In the fifth, DeBiase singled home two runs. Chris Martin hit a two run triple in the sixth to seal the victory.

NOTES: Mirabella will be available to sign autographs this Sunday at 2 p.m. Those interested should arrive at the game at 1 p.m.

Strong nucleus back in '94

came around to score the tying run. In the seventh, Nutley tallied three runs. They staged the rally after two were out and no one was on base.

It was the second year in a row that Nutley had come to Clearmon Field and won a game against Belleville in its final at bat. In the 1992 sectional championship game, Nutley rallied from a 3-2 deficit in the last inning to win 4-3. That game propelled Nutley to the '92 state title in Group III and the momentum carried over to this season, where Nutley was ranked among the states best for most of the year.

For Belleville, the season is now complete. A 19-9 record, a number two ranking in the county and a third place finish in the tough NNJIL Pacific Division.

We'll have a wrap up of the season in an upcoming issue.

NOTES: Citarella led Belleville in the Nutley game, collecting two hits. Belleville and Nutley both had five hits in the game at Clearmon last week.

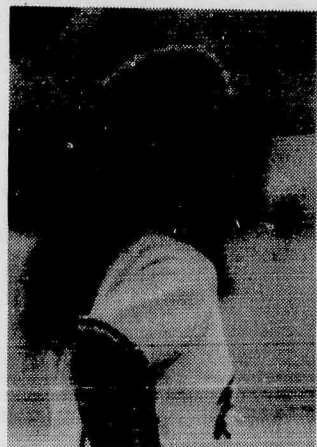

Kim Piscatowski, a 15 game winner this spring, delivers fast ball against Immaculate Heart. The junior pitcher has won 35 games the past two years.

Kim Piscatowski rounds second and heads to third with what would be a stand-up triple in the third inning.

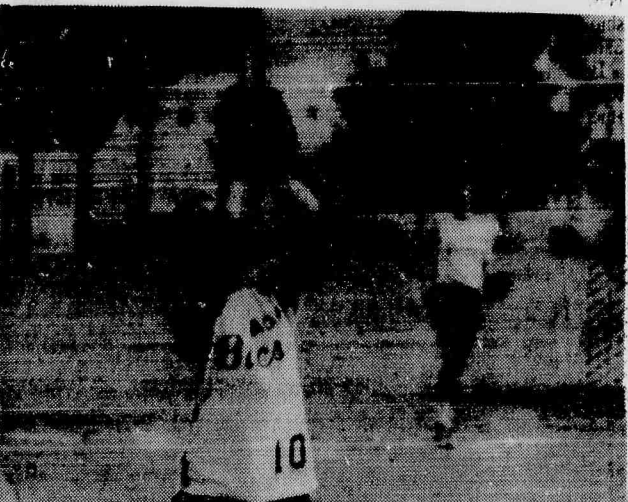

Jackie Cerami is on her way to third base after hitting triple against Immaculate Heart.

Christine Sansano gets instruction from coach Carl Corino in first inning of game with Immaculate Heart.

Andrea Curran hauls in pop fly in second inning. "A.C." completed her sophomore year at third base and should be one of the leaders on the 1994 team.

Lynn Glachetti is about to catch a ball at shortstop. Glachetti, a junior, had solid year at plate and is a talented fielder.

Bucs jolt Raiders, defeat Don Bosco, end 13-12 third. Mike Mundy singled and moved Puleo to second. Ken Johansen hit into a fielders choice, erasing Mundy at second, Puleo moving to third.

Kevin Johansen singled home Puleo and Mike Morgan singled to bring in Ken Johansen.

In the third, Puleo and Mundy walked. Kevin Johansen then singled to score Puleo with the third Belleville run.

In the fourth, Anthony Caruso doubled and went to third on a single by Landon. Puleo hit a sacrifice fly to score Caruso.

Belleville's defense was excellent, throwing out three Don Bosco runners at home plate. In the first, Morgan threw from rightfield to home plate, where Landon applied the tag.

In the second, Ken Johansen threw a bullet to the plate and Landon once again finished the play by tagging out the runner.

The fourth inning provided the most dramatic home plate tag. Ken Johansen fielded a ball in center and threw to Kevin Johansen, who was the cutoff man. Kevin then threw to Landon who slapped the tag on the runner despite a major collision.

Kevin Johansen led the way for Belleville with three hits. Caruso and Landon had two hits each and Puleo scored two runs, had one hit and drove home a run.

Now at 12-12, the Bucs ventured to Nutley for another crack at the Raiders. In two previous games, Nutley had outscored Belleville 22-0, with Mohs winning both games.

This time, Mohs did not pitch, his turn being saved for the Greater Newark Tournament championship game which was played last Saturday against West Essex.

Belleville brought the hot bats this time and never trailed. The Bucs scored one in the first and after Nutley tied it in the last of the first, Belleville answered with two in the third and never looked back.

In the first, Landon reached on an error and Puleo doubled him to third. Ken Johansen reached on a second Nutley error and Landon scored.

In the third, Joe DePeri and Landon singled. Puleo laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt, moving both base runners. With men on second and third, Mundy singled home DePeri and a ground out by Ken Johansen brought in Landon.

The Bucs led 3-2 in the top of the fourth. There, Morgan doubled and Caruso singled him home. DePeri reached on an error, but Landon hit into a fielders choice, erasing DePeri at second and moving Caruso to third. Puleo was hit by a pitch to load the bases and Mundy drilled a long triple that cleared the bases and extended the Buccaneer lead to 7-2.

Belleville scored three runs in the sixth. Caruso singled, DePeri walked and Landon singled to load the bases. Puleo singled home two runs and Mundy grounded out to bring home Landon.

Leading 10-2 in the seventh, the Bucs finished a super day by scoring three more runs. With two outs, Dena walked and Matt McGough came in to pinch run. Jerry Turi singled and Puleo walked to load the bases.

This time, pinch hitter Dan Brunello came through with a key hit, drilling a triple that cleared the bases and gave Belleville a 13-2 advantage.

Nutley scored once in the last of the seventh off winning pitcher Ken Johansen (3-3).

Johansen hurled a complete game, allowing just four hits and two earned runs. He fanned seven and walked five.

Offensively, there were plenty of heroes. Landon had two hits and scored four runs. Puleo had two hits, scored two and drove home two more. Mundy had two hit and drove in five runs. Caruso was 2 for 4 and scored two while Brunello had the triple that scored three runs.

It was a perfect ending to a season that a few weeks ago, didn't look too promising.

What was that word again? Character.

NOTES: Congratulations to Nutley, who won the GNT title last Saturday, beating West Essex. It was Nutley's first GNT championship.

Nutley had a fine year in sports. The baseball and softball team won the county titles, the girls' track team won a sectional crown, the football team garnered the Group III, Section II title and the girls' soccer team won a county crown.

Mundy, Kevin Johansen, Ken Johansen and Morgan were named to the NNJIL team. Mundy was second team as a pitcher, Kevin Johansen was second team shortstop, Ken Johansen second team outfield and Morgan was named Honorable Mention.

Ken Johansen swings away and delivers hit against Don Bosco. Johansen pitched Bucs past Nutley in season finale.

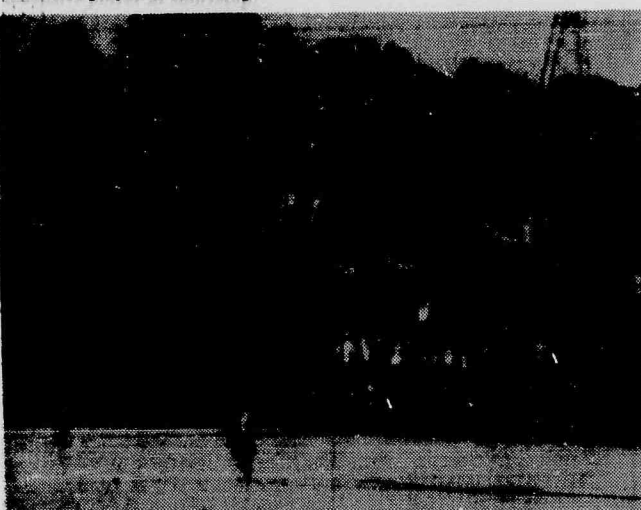

Bob Dena did an excellent job in relief last week against Don Bosco. He pitched two innings of scoreless ball, helping Bucs win 4-3.

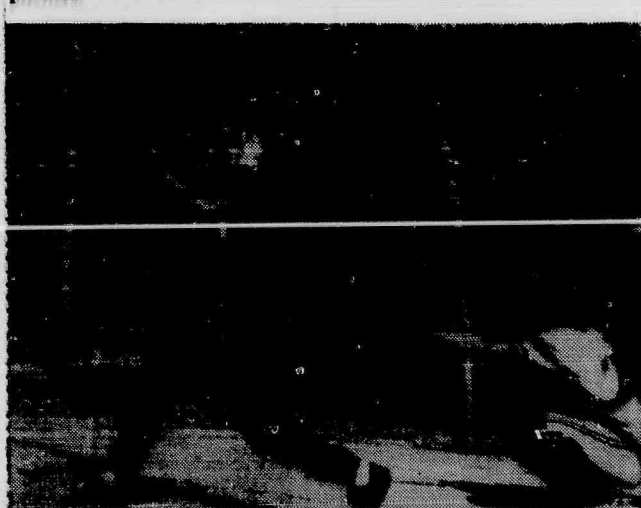

Kevin Johansen baffles Don Bosco hitter in seventh inning. Johansen did a marvelous job in relief, pitching out of trouble and leading Bucs to win.

Kevin Johansen heads into third after banging triple against Don Bosco. Johansen, in addition to pitching well, was an outstanding defensive player at shortstop.

Mike Mundy gets off his feet to make throw to first base. Mundy had five RBIs in win against Nutley last week. He was also one of Bucs leading pitchers.

Mike Morgan, who is developing into a good power hitter, takes cut in recent game at Belleville against Don Bosco. Morgan did a good job in rightfield and will be one of the key players on next years team.

• The Clara Maass Community Focus Group met last week at Clara Maass to discuss community health issues and programs for area residents. The group is comprised of individuals from the Medical Center, representatives of the Belleville and Nutley Health Departments, Belleville Chamber of Commerce, Belleville Rotary Club and clergy members. The group meets frequently during the year to talk about new community health concerns and how Clara Maass Medical Center can help its neighboring residents with these concerns. A major issue being focused on is the selection and administration of a health needs assessment. This will allow the focus group to determine the actual health needs and desires of the communities involved.

• The Friends of The Safe House, Clara Maass' confidential domestic violence shelter, held a free educational seminar for school personnel, police officers, social workers and those with special interest in domestic violence issues on Wednesday, May 19 at the Sheraton Meadowlands in East Rutherford. The program entitled "Every Third Woman: Violence in the American Home," was very successful and attended by officials from many local communities.

• Clara Maass Medical Center, in cooperation with the American Cancer Society, held its annual Breast Cancer Detection Awareness Program recently in the Medical Center's Same Day Surgery Center. Over 50 area women came to Clara Maass to take advantage of the program, which included an educational session on breast health, instruction on breast self-examination, a physical examination by a qualified physician and a reduced rate mammogram. THE PHARMACIST'S ROLE AS COUNSELOR

The Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1990 (OBRA '90), which took effect in January of 1993, largely legislates a practice that pharmacists have been following for years. OBRA '90 recognizes that, as health professionals with particular expertise in the administration of medicines, pharmacists should counsel patients at the time they fill their prescriptions. OBRA '90 calls for pharmacists to review the use of drugs with Medicaid patients, but all patients who come to the pharmacist receive similar counseling. That is, they are made aware of the name and description of their medication, its dosage form, route of administration, duration of use, special precautions regarding its use, side effects associated with its use, proper storage, refill information, and directions regarding missed doses. We have always been happy to give advice concerning medications. If you have any questions give us a call at 759-1968 or 759-1956. ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave. We're Medicare and Blue Cross approved. Cameras, Timex watches, transistor radios and many other gift items are available for Father's Day and Graduations. Open: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HINT: OBRA '90 also mandates that pharmacists maintain written records and medical profiles of Medicaid patients.

Maximum Amount of Bonds or Notes: $53,200
Period or Average Period of Usefulness: 20 years

The excess of the appropriation made for the improvement or purposes aforesaid over the estimated maximum amount of bonds or notes to be issued therefor, as above stated, is the amount of the down payment for each purpose.

Section 4. All bond anticipation notes issued hereunder shall mature at such times as may be determined by the chief financial officer; provided that no note shall mature later than one year from its date. The notes shall bear interest at such rate or rates and be in such form as may be determined by the chief financial officer. The chief financial officer shall determine all matters in connection with notes issued pursuant to this ordinance, and the chief financial officer's signature upon the notes shall be conclusive evidence as to all such determinations. All notes issued hereunder may be renewed from time to time subject to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 40A:2-8(a). The chief financial officer is hereby authorized to sell part or all of the notes from time to time at public or private sale and to deliver them to the purchasers thereof upon receipt of payment of the purchase price plus accrued interest from their dates to the date of delivery thereof. The chief financial officer is directed to report in writing to the governing body at the meeting next succeeding the date when any sale or delivery of the notes pursuant to this ordinance is made. Such report must include the amount, the description, the interest rate and the maturity schedule of the notes sold, the price obtained and the name of the purchaser.

Section 5. The capital budget of the Township of Belleville is hereby amended to conform with the provisions of this ordinance to the extent of any inconsistency herewith. The resolution in the form promulgated by the Local Finance Board showing full detail of the amended capital budget and capital program as approved by the Director of the Division of Local Government Services is on file with the Clerk and available there for public inspection.

Section 6. The following additional matters are hereby determined, declared, recited and stated:

(a) The purposes described in Section 3 of this bond ordinance are not current expenses. They are all improvements that the Township may lawfully undertake as general improvements, and no part of the costs thereof has been or shall be specially assessed on property specially benefited thereby.

(b) The average period of usefulness, computed on the basis of the respective amounts of obligations authorized for each purpose and the reasonable life thereof within the limitations of the Local Bond Law, is 20 years.

(c) The Supplemental Debt Statement required by the Local Bond Law has been duly prepared and filed in the office of the Clerk, and a complete executed duplicate thereof has been filed in the office of the Director of the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs of the State of New Jersey. Such statement shows that the gross debt of the Township as defined in the Local Bond Law is increased by the authorization of the bonds and notes provided for in this bond ordinance by $53,200, and the obligations authorized herein will be within all debt limitations prescribed by that Law.

(d) An aggregate amount not exceeding $20,000 for items of expense listed in and permitted under N.J.S.A. 40A:2-20 is included in the estimated costs indicated herein for the purposes or improvements.

Section 7. Section 9. This ordinance shall constitute the official declaration of the Township for the purposes of Section 1.103-18 of the Internal Revenue Service Regulations of the Township's intention to reimburse the expenditures approved herein from the proceeds of obligations to be issued by the Township the interest on which will be excludable from the gross income of the holders thereof under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Section 10. This bond ordinance shall take effect 20 days after the first publication thereof after final adoption, as provided by the Local Bond Law.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY (30)

Born 6-6-63 - Died 1-25-93

*I often lie awake at night when the world is fast asleep, and think about the Love I Lost with tears upon my cheeks.
I hide my heartache with a smile and make no outward show, for what it meant to lose you Bobby,
no one will ever know.
Forgive me Lord if I still weep,
for a friend I loved and could not keep.
Perhaps someday you'll tell me why you broke my heart and let him die.

School's Out! Learning at Home is In!

Fun Family To-Dos

FAMILY LEARNING IS COOL AND FUN!

Here are some activities to do with your family this summer. Keeping sharp is fun when families make learning a part of their everyday lives! Practicing will help you keep the skills you learned during the school year.

Do a family newspaper

- Include news of the family and neighborhood, jokes and puzzles.

Do family interviews

- Interview your grandparents and parents about what being a kid was like when they were growing up. Write down or tape their answers.

Do read, write and discuss!

Do keep a family journal

Here is your 1993 summer calendar. Paste it on the front of a notebook.

JUNE	JULY	AUGUST
SMTWTFSS	SMTWTFSS	SMTWTFSS
1 2 3 4 5	1 2 3	1 2 3 4 5 6 7
6 7 8 9 10 11 12	4 5 6 7 8 9 10	8 9 10 11 12 13 14
13 14 15 16 17 18 19	11 12 13 14 15 16 17	15 16 17 18 19 20 21
20 21 22 23 24 25 26	18 19 20 21 22 23 24	22 23 24 25 26 27 28
27 28 29 30	25 26 27 28 29 30 31	29 30 31

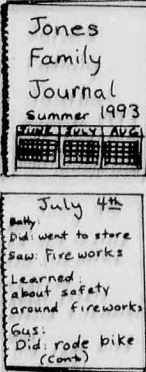

Each day, put the date at the top of the page.

Each night, hold a family meeting. Ask family members to take turns writing the most interesting thing they:

- did
 - saw
 - learned
- (Younger kids can dictate their interesting things.)

- Scan through your newspaper. After a family discussion, cut out and paste in the most interesting headline.

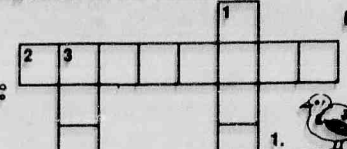

PETER PENGUIN'S PUZZLE & LE-DO

Fit into the puzzle the names of these things families can have fun learning about at the beach.

MIGHTY FUNNY'S Mini Jokes

THAT'S MIGHTY FUNNY!

- (sent in by Laurie Anne Consoli)
- Q: What is long and skinny and short and round?
- A: Spaghetti and meatballs!
- (sent in by April Leigh Potts)
- Q: Why do Thanksgiving turkeys always turn down dessert?
- A: They are stuffed!
- (sent in by Amy Foss)

The Mini Page Presidents Poster and Book of Presidents are a great combination — and the best way to learn about each president — including Bill Clinton!

Illustrated with reproductions of engraved portraits, the 22 1/2-by-28 1/2-inch Presidents Poster shows each of the presidents with the dates that each held office.

The Book of Presidents (5 1/2-by-8 1/2-inch, 96 pages) features a photo of each president, as well as information such as dates of birth and death, dates served as president, political party, signature, glossary of political terms, a visit to the White House and important achievements.

Mail order to: The Mini Page, P.O. Box 419150, Kansas City, Mo. 64141

Please send _____ copies of the Presidents of the United States Poster at $3.00 plus 50¢ each postage and handling and _____ copies of the Book of Presidents at $4.95 plus $1.00 each postage and handling. (Make check or money order payable to Andrews and McMeel.) Total amount enclosed _____

Fun Family To-Dos

Do keep family reading records!

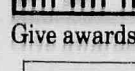

Newspaper records:

Each family member puts a check when he or she has read the paper for at least 20 minutes that day.

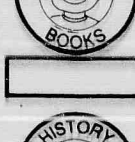

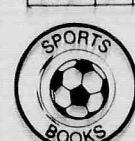

Book records:

Draw a line in a box each time you read a book of that type. Use a different color mark for each member of the family.

Give awards for who reads the most!

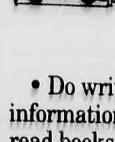

June	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Mom	✓	✓
Dad	✓
Bill	✓	✓
Liz	✓	✓

Do know where you go!

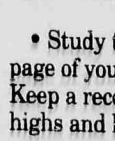

- Do keep a scrapbook of places you visit. Share it with your class next year.

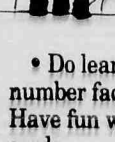

Do math and science!

- Do write for information, and also read books on places you are planning to visit.
- Do plant a family garden. Keep records in your journal. Measure the growth. Find out about soil and growing conditions.

- Study the weather page of your paper. Keep a record of daily highs and lows.
- Do count your parents' change each night. Keep a record.

- Do learn your number facts. Have fun with flash cards.

- Do give awards!

- Do give awards!

- Do give awards!

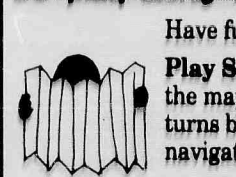

Do get exercised!

- Keep in shape and remember your safety rules.

Every family member has on a helmet. Good for them!

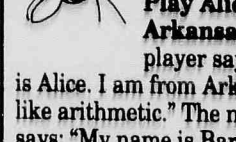

Do play along the way!

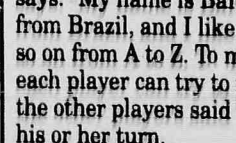

- Have fun on trips! Play Scout: Study the map and take turns being the navigator.

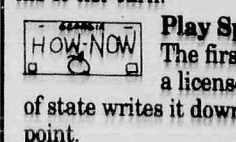

- MY NAME IS WILLIE. I AM FROM MAINE AND I LIKE MINI PAGES.

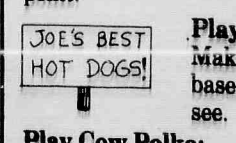

- Play Alice from Arkansas: The first player says: "My name is Alice. I am from Arkansas, and I like arithmetic." The next player says: "My name is Barbara, I am from Brazil, and I like baseball." And so on from A to Z. To make it harder, each player can try to repeat what the other players said before taking his or her turn.

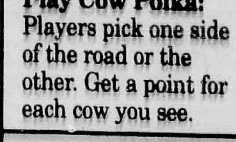

- Play Spot the Plates: The first person to spot a license plate from out of state writes it down and gets a point.

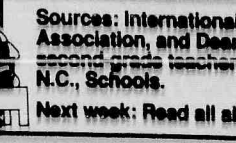

- Play Rhyme Time: Make up rhymes based on signs you see.

- Play Cow Polka: Players pick one side of the road or the other. Get a point for each cow you see.
