Police arrest six suspects, hunt three, solving at least 24 house burglaries

By Howard Klausner

Two dozen burglaries, half of them in Belleville, have been solved with the arrest of two adults and four juveniles. Detective Captain William Escott has announced.

Three others are being sought. Captain Escott said that two burglary rings, operating separately but known to each other, broke into Belleville homes from Feb. 28 until June 18, when the first suspect was arrested.

The break-ins were usually made in daylight. The burglar would ring the door bell, find no one at home, and break in.

Vast amounts of jewelry were taken, along with some appliances.

"Very little has been recovered," Escott said. "The jewelry was sold to fences immediately, for just a small portion of their value. The money went right into drugs."

In addition to Belleville, the towns hit by the two rings included Harrison, Kearny, East Newark and Montclair, Escott said.

"It was great police work that solved it," Escott said.

On June 16, a suspicious look juvenile was spotted by a neighbor near 8 Lake St. Detective Raymond Kimble went to the area, and arrested a 16-year-old who began giving up his accomplices, Escott said.

On June 21, Captain Joseph Simonetti caught a suspect after a short foot chase, near 85 Rossmore Place, where a neighbor had found the intruder.

The suspect, Charles Settles of Newark, was linked to the other burglaries.

Police also arrested Nelson Ocasio of Newark, and three more juveniles ranging in age from 15 to 17.

The homes burglarized included 30 Lloyd Place on Feb. 28; 324 Joralemon Ave., March 1; 74 DeWitt Ave., April 1; 374 DeWitt Ave., May 19; 50 Lake St., June 14; 181 Belleville Ave., June 15; 8 Lake St., June 16; 86 Magnolia St., June 16; 131 DeWitt Ave., June 17, and 11 Church Terrace and 9 Lawrence St., June 18.

Fair Lawn ignores slurs, appoints Kendall manager

The Fair Lawn Borough Council voted 5-to-0 last week to appoint former Belleville Township Manager Bertrand Kendall to become the next Borough Manager of the 30,000-population community in Bergen County.

The vote came after a Fair Lawn resident read derogatory statements about Kendall taken from out-of-town newspapers.

The Council, made up of four Democrats and one Republican, had interviewed Kendall twice before deciding on the appointment.

Kendall succeeds Joseph Garger, a 25-year veteran municipal administrator who won fame in the 1970s as originator of Grandfather's Day, a suggestion happily seized upon by the Hallmark Card Co. and the United States Congress.

Garger gave his own personal endorsement to Kendall's appointment, citing him as a "man of integrity."

Fair Lawn has long been known as a progressive community. The planned neighborhood known as Radburn, one of the first planned residential communities in America, continues to draw visitors from around the world.

The objection to Kendall's appointment stated that "information" had been sent to him from unnamed persons in Belleville. The statements alleged that the State Commission of Investigation inquiry into Belleville affairs was aimed at Kendall, who was first Manager under the Council-Manager form of government that came into effect in July 1990.

Kendall resigned as Manager last Fall, under pressure from the four-member Council majority. The Belleville Times has maintained that Kendall opposed violations of the Faulkner Act on the part of some elected officials, and this led to his departure from Belleville.

$11,000 raise for Assessor angers Council

'You pulled the wool over our eyes' Councilman Cerami tells Manager

By Howard Klausner

A proposed pay raise for Township Assessor Thomas Salzano that would bring his salary from $41,000 to $52,000 a year brought angry reactions from members of the Township Council, last week.

The angriest response came from Councilman Charles Cerami, a long time luncheon companion of Township Manager Stephen Cuccio and one of his strongest supporters.

At the introduction of the Municipal Budget, Councilman William Cook raised the question of the raise for Salzano.

Cerami then stated to Cuccio, "Saturday, after Saturday, after Saturday, we have sat down with you and you have told us how we were cutting this and cutting that. Then, within five seconds of the introduction of the budget, somebody finds a raise like this."

"For six months, you have been pulling the wool over our eyes!"

Cuccio responded that Salzano term is up this month and the $11,000 raise was intended as an inducement to the Assessor to remain on the job.

"If he refuses, we have no Assessor," Cuccio said.

Dissatisfaction with the budget resulted in a near-failure to introduce it at all. The Council even declined, at first, to introduce a temporary one month budget.

Cuccio warned, "The State will send agents tomorrow to take over the town" if the temporary budget were not passed.

Finally, the Council relented, and approved the temporary budget while introducing the regular budget.

Final passage of the budget will depend on when the State decides how much money will be distributed to the municipalities.

Cops identify holdup suspect

Belleville detective work has led to the arrest of a suspect in the armed robbery last Friday of a Hess service station on Franklin Street.

Acting on information from Belleville, Newark police picked up Omar Shabazz, 32, of McCarter Highway, Newark, Tuesday.

The holdup of the service station occurred at 9:30 p.m. Friday.

The suspect reportedly drove into the station, asked for gasoline and then produced what appeared to be a handgun, covered by a rag.

He reportedly took $498 from the attendant.

Detective James DelGrasso located an abandoned car in Newark, just over the Belleville line, and this led him to identifying the suspect.

The suspect is being held in $25,000 bail.

Rejection of Parking bond angers business community

By Howard Klausner

The vote by the Township Council to defeat a proposed bonding ordinance for shopper's parking brought an angry response from local business people this week.

"I told my landlord to start looking for another tenant," the owner of one store said. "He asked me why, and I said - No parking!"

The owner of the Motorcycle Mall, John Resciniti, stated his intention to move to a highway location and cited lack of parking as the main reason.

Louis Cienia, owner of Charles Jewelers, said he owns his own property but he could not predict how long his business could survive without shopper parking available.

Resentment was expressed by the owners of Three Guys from Italy Restaurant over comments reported at the Council meeting suggesting that it was the responsibility of the restaurant to provide more parking for its customers.

The restaurant is one of the magnets that brings customers to the area.

"We pay our taxes. How can we be held to account for the parking situation?" a member of the family said.

Opposition to the bond issue was expressed by Councilman Jim Messina, who objected to the $1 million outlay which was to result in a parking deck on the present municipal parking lot next to Town Hall on Washington Avenue.

The deck was expected to provide parking for 50 to 60 cars.

Messina said the lot now has room for almost that many cars. "What would we gain?" he asked.

Messina said he preferred a smaller outlay to knock down a frame building on Washington Avenue and provide space for 50 cars. "Then, if business warrants, we could build a larger garage elsewhere. We should crawl before we walk," Messina said.

Cienia protested that the proposal was made without alerting the business people who might have attended the meeting to support the bond issue proposal.

"We have had no real input into the proposal," Cienia said. "Township Manager (Stephen) Cuccio told us that something was being planned, but we never heard about what was involved."

The vote left the future of shopper parking in downtown Belleville uncertain. Business people said they would seek further information from Township officials as to what they could expect.

READY TO RECYCLE - Pupils of School No. 11 became the first in Belleville to promote the new recycling program begun by Essex County. Among the second team from the six elementary schools were Michael Lally, Superintendent Michael Nardiello, Essex County Executive Tom D'Alesio, Planning Director Joseph Floridiano, Seymour Grossman, Director of Recycling who hosted the event, and Principal Pat Forte. (Photo by Howard Klausner)

Klein to hold Town Meeting

Representative Herbert Klein will host a Town Meeting in Belleville on July 12, the Board of Education has announced.

Klein asked the Board for permission to use School 7 as the site of the meeting, which will be held from 6 to 10 p.m.

Klein said it was a way for him to meet the public directly and gain information.

When Trustee Angelina Paserchia asked about the use of the school for "political purposes", Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello said it was school policy to bring in speakers of national and international importance whenever the opportunity was offered.

The Board voted unanimously to approve Klein's request.

Hero officer is ticketed

Sheriff's Officer Ralph Rizzolo received a parking ticket while lying wounded in a hospital, neighbors report.

Rizzolo was nearly killed by the same gunman who reportedly assassinated Newark Detective John Sczyrek, Jr. of Belleville in the Essex County Courthouse June 3.

Hearing the shots fired on the 11th floor of the Courthouse, the 23-year-old officer entered the hallway and was immediately shot.

Rizzolo was taken to United Hospital in Newark with neck and chest wounds.

While he was hospitalized, his parents could not obtain his car keys, and the car remained parked in the street in front of the family home.

Neighbors say that despite their telling the traffic officer of the situation, a ticket was placed on the car for blocking street cleaning and for being on the wrong side of the street on cleaning day.

Rizzolo returned home a week ago, Monday. The car was moved.

Sources in the Belleville Police Department suggested that Rizzolo appeal the ticket in Municipal Court, hoping that Judge Frank Zima might dismiss the ticket.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

The passing of Pat Nixon last week touched a chord of memory for Jackie Rega, owner of the landmark Jackie's Lees. Her husband still owes Jackie $2.87. It all came about when Pat and Dick Nixon were making their closing bid for victory against Hubert Humphrey in 1968. It was late Fall, now, and Rega had switched as usual from selling frozen confections to selling Halloween pumpkins. Suddenly, the intersection of Union and Bellevue Avenues was jammed with State Trooper cars, Belleville police cars and an entourage of limousines. Mr. Nixon emerged from one of the limos and lumbered over to Jackie's. ●●●●● "My father was in the same business," the man from California said. "You have to make sure you get every cent you are owed." Being a good Republican, Rega agree heartily and handed the future President a pumpkin. Pat stayed out of the cold and in the car. ●●●●● That night, Mr. Rega watched a television broadcast in which Mr. Nixon said he had spent part of the day in Belleville and had even bought a pumpkin from Jackie Rega. "How much did you pay?" the interviewer asked. "Two dollars and 87 cents," Mr. Nixon said, apparently picking the number out of thin air. You don't get to be elected President for nothing, you know. After the GOP victory, it occurred to Jackie that he could develop a little publicity if he could get the President to pay the $2.87. Accordingly, he sent a letter to the White House which stated in warm tones his support of Mr. Nixon's candidacy and his best wishes for the Administration's success. And he added, "Now, as for the matter of $2.87 you owe me for the pumpkin." The President's staff didn't see the humor or the public relations boost in Jackie Rega's letter. It was never answered. ●●●●● "I could have saved him from Watergate," Jackie reminisced, "but he never listened to me." What Pat did with the pumpkin, we do not know.

It seems that attorneys representing Superman and Batman are in the courts, suing a newcomer to the world of comics, a creature known as Spawn. It seems that Image Comics, which owns Spawn, has been using the Man of Steel and the Pride of Gotham City as characters - albeit, reluctant ones - in their own Spawn books. "You see," according to comics maven Benjamin Parrilla, "since Superman died, he has come back, sort of, and is living in Limbo, and Spawn controls Limbo." Right. And so Superman appear as unwilling guests of Spawn in his private realm and the people who developed Superman from the time he was a tyke from Krypton are good and sore. But, of course, what did they expect when they killed him off? ●●●●● Well, one thing they didn't expect was that Superman's death would touch off the biggest rebirth in interest in comics in history. Even doddering adults too old to enjoy the rides at the New York World's Fair (The 1939, or real, Fair, that is) are not too old to hunt Number One issue copies of Superman, Man of Steel, or Spiderman, or whatever. The books that sold for a nickel now sell for thousands of dollars. Parrilla is a 20 years student at Upsala College who manages The Realms of Comics, a new store on Belleville Avenue. Parrilla is an earnest young man who grew up in Jersey City and then served with the 25th Infantry in Desert Storm before returning to civilian life a year ago. Fluent in French and Spanish, he is studying the Humanities. "I had enlisted in the first place so I could be assigned to Germany, and visit France," he said. He found that Arabic would have been a better language to know. ●●●●● At Upsala, he met Wilton Negron, and Orlando Lugardo, two boyhood buddies who had decided to turn their love of comics - they had about 10,000 books between them - to profit, or to anything that would get it out of their houses. Orlando had served with the 82nd Airborne in Lebanon and was injured, leaving the Army with a medical discharge. ●●●●● They invested some $10,000 in the store, which sells all sorts of cards as well as comic books. "We don't have the erotic stuff," Parrilla said. "This is a family business. But we can fill special orders." One of the prize properties of the store is an autographed Superman cover - autographed by the artist, Breeden, and priced at $450. A friend, Roberto Montalvo, sort of helps around the store because he loves comics. It was he who noted that the death of Superman suddenly brought new life to the industry. Not to be outdone, the owners of Batman had his back broken, leaving him paralyzed. So another public spirited citizen has become Batman. Apparently, this has not hurt business, either. Comic Book heroes now have to keep a wary eye on their publishers. Since the death - and semi-return - of the original Superman, there have been five Superman entries in the field - a Black Superman, a Robo-type Superman, a Superman with no inhibitions against killing people, a would-be Superman, and a couple of others. The readers just eat it up.

Says Montalvo, "Grandfathers come in to buy for grandchildren. Mothers buy them for their children. They ask which ones will become the valuable ones. Everyone buys them." The cards range from simple four-color jobs to holograms that leap out of the paper. Women are not neglected. There are books featuring CatWoman, Storm, Phoenix and even Static, a little Afro-American girl who can control electricity.

Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says his organization, The Kool Kucumber Boys, is getting ready for Summer Vacation business. "We have our own Country Club up in the mountains, Casa Cuccio," Zilch said. "The menus are locked in the office safe. The phones are tapped, and it costs five dollars to join and a hundred to get out." ●●●●● Our Copy Cat, Baldassare DiVincenzo Mitten, says there is no fear that Doc Noonan or Mario Dreads will ever give up interest in Belleville municipal government. "The murderer always returns to the scene of his crime."

Valley National Bancorp completes merger with Peoples

Gerald H. Lipkin, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Valley National Bancorp (NASDAQ:VNBP), announced June 18 the completion of the previously announced merger with Peoples Bancorp, based in Fairfield, NJ.

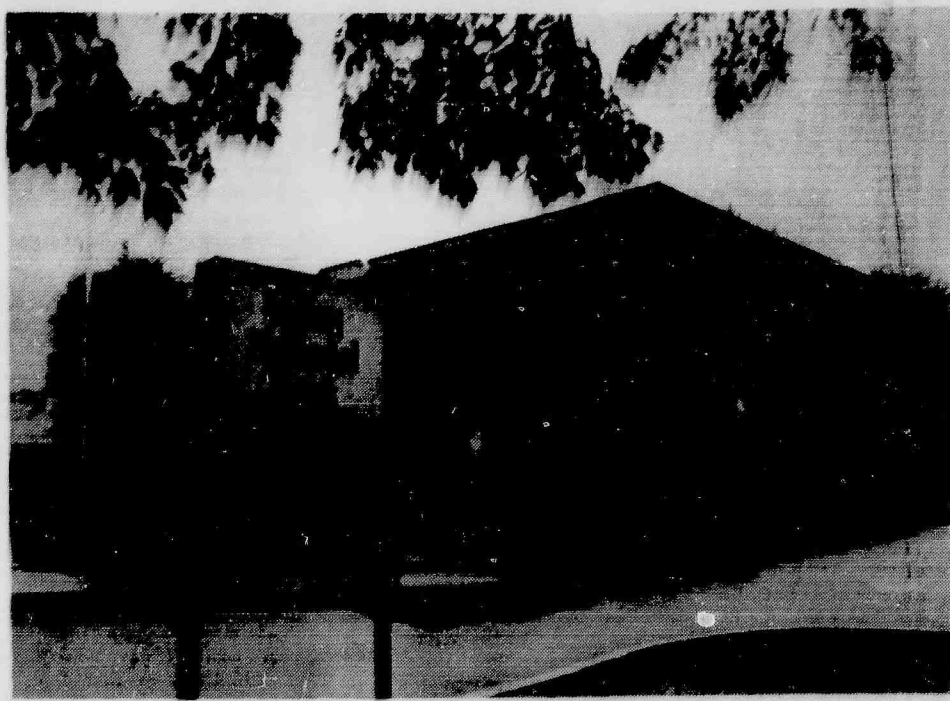

As a result of the merger, Peoples shareholders received approximately .64 shares of Valley stock for each share of Peoples common stock they own, which translates into 421,500 shares of Valley stock or $10,960,000. Peoples has approximately 661,000 common share equivalents outstanding.

In commenting on the merger, Mr. Lipkin said, "Valley National continues to add attractive communities to its growing branch system in Northern New Jersey. Peoples represents a perfect fit with our current banking operations in the region."

The $223 million assets Peoples Bancorp has six additional branches; three in Belleville, two in Bloomfield, and one in Caldwell.

The merger increases Valley National's total assets to approximately $3.5 billion and its branch total to 60.

Valley operates 60 branches in 37 communities in Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Morris and Passaic counties.

THE MERGER OF PEOPLES BANK - with Valley National Bank became official with the changing of signage at each of the seven Peoples branches in Essex County. Here the work is being completed at 1422 Broad Street in Bloomfield. The Valley name also graces the former Peoples branch at 548 Broad Street, Bloomfield. The merger increased Valley National's total assets to approximately $3.5 billion. Valley now has 60 branches in Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Morris and Passaic counties.

'Dalmatian' will protect Belleville's new arrivals

Infants who live in Belleville and are born at Clara Maass Medical Center now have a guard dog. Smoke detectors designed to look like a Dalmatian are being given out by the Medical Center in cooperation with the Belleville Fire Department and the National S.A.F.E. Home Foundation.

In addition to the smoke detector, parents will receive a child locator window sticker, and a certificate. "The purpose of the program is to increase fire safety," said Nicholas Kafasiz, vice president of Support Services at Clara Maass Medical Center. "If children grow up with smoke detectors, they will develop a better understanding of fire safety."

Installing the detector in the baby's room gives families the incentive to develop and use a fire safety plan.

National statistics indicate that residential fires cause 7,300 burn injuries to children under four years of age every year and that 90 percent of child fire deaths occur in homes without working smoke detectors.

In addition to the detector, certificates and window sticker, the Belleville Fire Department also provides fire safety prevention tips and will also install the smoke detector if requested.

Clara Maass Medical Center is a nonprofit, 475 bed acute care facility located in Belleville. Among the Clara Maass family of health care services are a Family Center for Maternal Child Health, Medical Oncology Care, Cardiac Rehabilitation, Same Day Surgery, and Community Services.

FOR SAFE BABIES — On hand to kick-off the fire safety awareness program are Nicholas Kafasiz, vice president, Support Services, Clara Maass Medical Center; Captain William Hands, and Chief Walter Beresford, Belleville Fire Department; and new mom and dad Kristine and Ralph Benacquista of Belleville.

OUR OPINION

Washington was here in Belleville

The members of Belleville American Legion Post 105 have planted a cherry tree in the historic cemetery of the Belleville Reformed Church. It is a living memorial to all the War Dead and to the Revolutionary War soldiers who rest there in particular.

We do not know if the cherry tree was selected because of the connotation of honest young George Washington telling his father, "I cannot tell a lie, I cut down the cherry tree."

That was the Parson Weems story told to generations of young Americans to illustrate the virtues of honesty and the greatness of Washington.

History tells us that General Washington led his Continental Army down the west side of the Passaic River, splitting it into two groups just around here.

The British followed Washington, marching on the east side of the river.

One part of the army marched south to Elizabeth. The other turned west to Morristown. British cannon balls fired from across the Passaic River were still being found embedded here, well into the 20th century.

It is conceivable that Washington paid other visits here during the Revolution.

Certainly, Second River, as the village and its environs were known into the 1790s, was a strong base of support for the American cause.

More than 60 men left Second River to fight with the Essex Regiment or with other units. Joseph Hornblower, the oldest son of Engineer-Patriot Josiah Hornblower, was killed in battle.

Battles were fought here on two occasions, as the British and their Loyalist allies made forays into the area. Josiah Hornblower, who served in the Continental Congress, barely escaped from a group of Loyalist raiders who had come across the Passaic River to seize him.

Belleville had a very real role in the American Revolution, and in all the history that followed.

The descendants of the first settlers and immigrants barely off the boat have shared this nation's battles, and all have a rightful claim to share its glory.

And By George, Belleville has every right to be a proud on the Glorious Fourth.

Baying after Bert is an obsession

The people who hounded former Township Manager Bertrand Kendall out of Belleville have never been content to let him alone.

When he was being considered for a post in Millburn, his enemies wrote letters to the local paper denouncing him.

When he was considered for a post in Fair Lawn, his pursuers sent misinformation to Fair Lawn residents in an attempt to discredit him.

The Fair Lawn Borough Council voted unanimously to approve his appointment as Borough Manager, despite his enemies.

The actions of these vicious and small minded people are a commentary on them, and an explanation of why they are enemies of good government.

They contributed, we believe, to the departure of Library Director David Bryant from our midst, and while we consider Adrea Cohen to be a wonderful leader of the library who deserves permanent appointment, we also consider the loss of Mr. Bryant to be a sad one for the community.

It also explains the present chaos that governs the Township. Chaotic minds produce the kind of paralysis and lack of imagination that results in breadwinners being fired, outrageous salary increases for a handpicked few, and a failure to bring in vitally needed ratables to ease the tax burden.

Fair Lawn's gain is our loss, in more ways than one.

YOUR OPINION

Superintendent Nardiello reports on budget

To the editor:

The development of the 1993-93 Board of Education Budget, its defeat at the polls and the resulting actions taken by the Belleville Board of Education and the Council of the Township of Belleville have been reported to the public in many fashions, some of them incorrectly.

The school budget was developed by the School Business Administrator, the Superintendent of Schools and the Assistant Superintendent of Schools with the considerable assistance of school principals, directors, supervisors and staff members. The original budget which was presented to the Finance Committee of the Belleville Board of Education was modest and if allowed to remain in place would have provided the basic educational ingredients for the school district. This was a budget that met the State CAP restrictions. The tax increase was 30 points. After 30 hours of detailed explanations and review the budget was drastically reduced by the Budget Committee of the Belleville Board of Education. Although administration thought it was a very restrictive budget it gave its support because of difficult economic times. The budget which was presented to the electorate was approximately $450,000 below CAP, showed a 3.2% increase over the 1992-93 budget and resulted in a 19 tax point increase. To dispel rumors and inaccurate statements I provide the following statistics for your review:

Per pupil expenditures 1992-93: Belleville $7,035; State $7,665; County $8,089; Enrollment Group (3,000 to 6,000 students) $8,446.

Teacher Salaries (per pupil): Belleville $2,532; State $2,598; County $2,626; Enrollment Group $3,057.

Principals Salaries (per pupil): Belleville $227; State $213; County $250; Enrollment Group $245.

Custodial / Maintenance Salaries (per pupil): Belleville $363; State $382; County $486; Enrollment Group $430.

Teaching Supplies (per pupil): Belleville $79; State $94; County $58; Enrollment Group $89.

Basic Skills (per pupil): Belleville $194; State $146; County $139; Enrollment Group $104.

Please note: Our basic skills enrollment is increasing quite rapidly.

When you study these statistics you will agree the Belleville School District is controlling spending.

The Township Council reduced the Belleville Board of Education's budget by $865,600. Of necessity this drastic reduction has been appealed to the Commissioner of Education. If monies are not restored the continuance of music, athletic and instructional programs may be placed in jeopardy.

It's true that our enrollments have shown a steady decrease through the 1990-1991 school year but over the past two years our enrollments have increased. Based on the ethnic and demographic changes in the community I project that our enrollments will continue to increase.

Our instructional staff has been reduced over the past 10 years. State mandated programs such as E.S.L. and Basic Skills have caused us to add staff in these areas. In addition we have opened many special classes in district, resulting in great savings to our community. If a goodly number of these special needs students were sent out of district the tuition budget would increase dramatically.

As a life long resident of Belleville and one who has been part of the educational program for many years I caution you about becoming a party to the dismantling of an excellent school system. The image of the Township of Belleville and its residents is at stake.

Michael D. Nardiello
Superintendent of Schools

Thanks to B.A.S.E.

To the editor:

This is a letter of thank you to the Belleville Board of Education, Belleville High School, and B.A.S.E. for the wonderful job that was done for the graduation of the Class of '93.

Mother Nature did not cooperate at all for this big day for parents and especially for the children, however every official did an outstanding job under the circumstances. It was very organized considering they only had one half hour to pull it all together. It was unfortunate that all could not fit in the auditorium, but the two most important people in the children's life were there (Mom and Dad).

After the ceremony it was very special for the kids to have time with their classmates, and parents. My daughter went on the cruise, and was very impressed with how beautiful it all was. It is a day that will last in our minds and hearts.

B.A.S.E. is a wonderful group of people that have worked very hard to keep our children safe on the most important day of their life, and I want to say "Thank you for letting us have our children safe the day after."

Again I say "Thanks to each and every one of you."

God Bless.

• MORRIS COUNTY Senator John Dorsey is trying to line up fellow Republican Senators to replace Senate President Don DiFrancesco as Senate President. There is a perception out there that Dorsey is a cruel politician and DiFrancesco is a compassionate politician. For my Republican money, I would prefer compassionate DiFrancesco as Senate President.

• IF President Clinton's proposed energy tax becomes law, the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission would be hit with an additional $650,000 expense. This expense will be passed onto municipal users including Nutley, Belleville and Bloomfield.

• THE USA weekend publication featured on its cover a picture of Cokie Roberts, one of the journalists on Dave Brinkley's Sunday program, This Week. When Dan Rather and Connie Chung at CBS met to announce their co-anchorship, Rather kissed Chung on the cheek. Cokie Roberts thinks "it was humiliating." Her father was the late Congressional Majority Leader Hale Boggs who disappeared in a 1972 airplane crash over Alaska. Her mother, Linda Boggs, was elected to her husband's seat in Congress after his death. Cokie Roberts knows politics like few people do. The television personalities I like best are David Brinkley, Sam Donaldson, Cokie Roberts and Ted Koppel.

• THE Association of Racing Commissioners International has volunteered to work with member jurisdictions toward providing a national license for owners of horses and greyhounds who compete at pari-mutuel tracks in North America and the Caribbean. A smart idea.

• LAST week, I made an overnight trip to Florida. The flight crew aboard Continental 541 was Newark-based. In the first class cabin, passengers were served by three sharp Continental employees: Bobbi Bender, Dottie Hawker and David Hemken. There were no empty seats which required the cabin crew to hustle, especially the members serving the coach passengers. The heavy-duty employees looking after coach passengers were Barbara Wechsler, Ada Gehman, Rosemary Tongish, Kim Olivar and Kindall Deal.

Tuesday night, at 7:00, I was surprised to visit Palm Beach International Airport to see 95 percent of the shops closed. I don't remember the last time that shops were closed in the early evening. Therefore, I should not have been surprised when the plane I came back on had eight first class passengers and fourteen empty seats. The coach section had about forty passengers and about sixty empty seats. So — when we read stories of how the airlines are losing millions of dollars, it's easily understandable. The normal two hour, twenty minute trip from Palm Beach to Newark was cut in half because of the amiable and interesting individual who sat in the adjacent seat. She was Amy Pogacnik, an off-duty Continental stewardess returning home to Willoughby Hill, Ohio, to visit with her parents. She just completed her freshman year as a stewardess and is very boastful of her employer. She thinks Continental is just great — so do I!

On the flight home was off-duty Stewardess Malorino who is one of the regulars I meet frequently. The thing that I like about Continental is all the employees at the ticket counter, cabin personnel, departure gate — they all make you feel like they appreciate your business. Recently, I received the acknowledgment of their good service from Nutley's Fire Department Executive Officer Charlie Kucinski, who is another Continental booster.

• IN a recent news item from Buenos Aires, hundreds of thousands of residents were accused of illegally tapping into the company's power system.

I recall during the Depression days of the 30's there were quite a few owners in our Avondale Big Tree neighborhood who jumped a meter with a piece of wire, thus keeping down the electric expense. I do not believe the company ever caught up with any one. If it did, it never became neighborhood gossip.

• LAST week, I read a newspaper account that Ed Gaulkin, a former senior judge of New Jersey's appellate court died at age 90.

I believe it is the same Ed Gaulkin who asked me in 1948 to get a couple of passes for his two young sons who were anxious to attend the Republican National Convention in Philadelphia. As the Harold Stassen campaign manager for the state, I was in a position to deliver. Gaulkin impressed me as a decent, honorable, humble individual. He served with distinction as a member of the New Jersey judicial system.

Funding cut closes camp for Cerebral Palsy kids

The Summer Day Camp operated by the Cerebral Palsy of Essex and West Hudson will not be in operation, Director Phyllis Burgess reported this week.

Some 40 to 45 youngsters have been accommodated at the all-day, five-day camp in recent years.

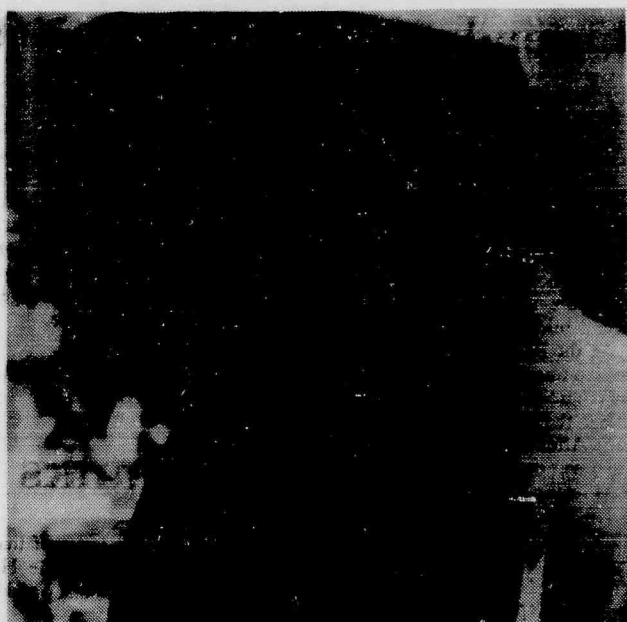

"This summer, it looks like the kids will have to stay home," Ms. Burgess said.

The $25,000 budget has received its largest contribution from United Way, but this year the fund raising group was not able to meet its goal. One of the victims of the shortfall is the Summer Camp, operated on the campus of Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville.

The CP Center will be open throughout the summer, as usual, to serve nearly 600 clients in Essex and West Hudson Counties.

The camp provided a special service to the youngsters who enjoyed camp activities away from their homes during the summer heat.

"It's not the fault of United Way," Ms. Burgess said. "It's just the economy, I guess."

CHOLESTEROL READINGS AT HOME
In recent years, the public has been made increasingly aware that high blood-cholesterol levels are linked with an elevated risk for heart disease. Until now, an accurate reading of one's cholesterol level could only be attained through a laboratory test or a sophisticated analytical device. With the recent approval of the first over-the-counter cholesterol test for home use, people can now get a cholesterol reading on their own in about 15 minutes. The at-home test requires only a pin prick to draw blood, which is squeezed into a container with a test strip. Cholesterol level is indicated by a change of color on the strip. In clinical trials, the at-home cholesterol test was shown to be as accurate as those used by physicians and medical laboratories.
If you are interested in the at-home cholesterol test come in and talk to our pharmacist at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. We are Medicare and Blue Cross approved. Cosmetics, toiletries, baby needs, greeting cards and many other items are stocked. Hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.
HINT: The new at-home cholesterol test does not measure HDL ("good") cholesterol or LDL ("bad") cholesterol levels.

Varsity club honors '93 BHS senior athletes

Senior members of the Belleville crew team get together with coach Dennis Villano (center) after trophies were presented at Varsity Club dinner. Villano is quite optimistic about the future of the crew program.

Jennifer Citarella and indoor track coach John Tosato at the Chandelier following Varsity Club dinner. Citarella had marvelous season, advancing to the Eastern Championships in Boston, Mass. in early March.

Crew coach Dennis Villano is flanked by seniors Alix Lynch and Frank Koch at Varsity Club dinner, which was held on June 9 at the Chandelier.

Boys' track team hams it up a bit after formal photo at Varsity Club dinner. Anything relating to craziness begins and ends with Rich Romano (front and center in this photo, giving the thumbs up sign).

Cardinale, Batista, Koch among V.C. honorees

Quick! Which one of these people is head coach Don Roll? Give up? Tune in next week for the answer. In any case, Roll and the 1993 boys' basketball team gather for picture at Varsity Club dinner, held at the Chandelier.

Varsity tennis coach Tony Salese (second from right) and his traveling tennis team gather for photo at Chandelier. We'll have wrap up of the '93 tennis season in next weeks issue. The tennis and track teams had to compete on the road this year, and we all know why.

Wrestling coach Joe Nisvoccia and standout wrestler Joshua Cardinale get together at Varsity Club dinner. Cardinale was one of the finest wrestlers ever to compete at BHS, and that's saying something considering the tremendous talent at Belleville High over the years.

The senior wrestlers, class of 1993, were honored at Varsity Club dinner held at Chandelier on June 9. Once again, the wrestlers had a standout season.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Fourth of July activities

As many flock to the shore to escape the heat and chaos of city life at holiday time, many other Bellevillites will stay home to experience the traditional ceremonies of the Independence Day celebration here in town.

To begin the festivities on July 4, the Recreation Department will hold its annual field day for youngsters in grades K-8 at the Municipal Stadium starting at 10 a.m.

The events, which will be open to all young Belleville residents, will be divided into three categories. There is a junior division for kindergarten to second graders, an intermediate division for third to fifth graders, and a senior division for the 6th to 8th graders.

Events will include the 50 and 100 yard dashes, an agility race, a three-legged race, sack races, a girl's relay race and a boy's tug-of-war.

All activities will be supervised by the members of the Belleville Recreation playground staff under the supervision of Recreation Director Dennis Buckley. Ribbons will be awarded to the first, second and third-place finishers and all will share in slices of watermelon.

On Sunday night, July 4, a spectacular fireworks display will be presented at the stadium starting at sundown (approximately 9:15 p.m.) The rain date for these events will be Monday, July 5. In all, it promises to be an exciting holiday and Bellevillites young and old are invited to share in the glitter of our country's historic day.

On July 4, there will also be a pre-fireworks show beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Municipal Stadium. This year's entertainment will include clowns, a magician, and music by a disc jockey. The July 4th program promises to be enjoyable for the entire family.

Voluntary donations of $1 per person are requested for admission to the show. Proceeds will benefit the Recreation Baseball and Softball programs.

(Drug Abuse Resistance Education) program. D.A.R.E. has already taught more than 20 million students worldwide; and is now in the Bloomfield school system.

Lee Spinelli took a camera crew to Berkeley Elementary School, where Bloomfield Sergeant Michael Behre and Officer Robert Stango teach the students all about drug prevention. This program has been highly acclaimed nationwide by parents and students and has been well received right here in Bloomfield.

So tune in to this very special edition of Front Page Edition on OBC-TV, Channel 36, Suburban Cable and Channel 20, TCI of North Jersey on: July 2 at 8 p.m.; July 3 at 10:30 a.m.; July 5 at 8 p.m.

TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE
EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The 1993 Municipal Budget presented herewith, indicates an estimated 1993 Local Tax Rate of $3.77 per $100.00 of assessed valuations, as compared to the 1992 Local Tax Rate of $3.61 per $100.00 of assessed valuations, an increase of .16 points.

The following schedule compares the estimated components of the 1993 levy with those of the 1992 for Township purposes only:

	Local Tax Levies			Local Tax Rates
	1993 Estimated	1992 Actual	Increase (Decrease)	1993 Estimated	1992 Actual	Increase (Decrease)
For All Municipal Purposes	$14,397,915.28	$14,030,818.20	$ 367,097.08	$ 3.21	$ 3.12	$ 0.09
For Reserve for Uncollected Taxes	2,505,000.00	2,212,337.49	292,662.51	0.56	0.49	0.07
Total Local Tax for
Municipal Purposes	$16,902,915.28	$16,243,155.69	$659,759.59	$3.77	$3.61	$0.16
Assessed Valuations	$448,055,600.00	$450,757,800.00	$(2,702,200.00)

The above comparisons deal only with Municipal Purposes. County and School tax levies, however are used in establishing the "Reserve for Uncollected Taxes" or the so-called "Cash Basis Overlay," which conform to mandatory provisions governing the preparation of the Local Municipal Budget.

As indicated above, the 1993 assessed valuations have decreased by the sum of $2,702,200.00. It should be noted that this reduction is attributable to a $.02 point increase in the 1993 tax rate.

Chapter 68, Public Laws of 1976, as amended by Chapter 49, Public Laws of 1983, places limits on certain municipal expenditures. The limit for 1993 is 1.5%. The following schedule, subject to review and approval by the Division of Local Government Services in the State Department of Community Affairs, shows the computation of the maximum amount of increase allowable in the Budget of 1993 over that of the 1992 Adopted Budget for the Appropriations:

Total 1993 Allowable General Appropriations for Municipal Purposes Within "CAPS" $21,589,823.85
Total General Appropriations for Municipal Purposes Within "CAPS" as indicated on Sheet 19, is the sum of $21,589,774.03, which is $49.82 under the statutory "CAP" limitation.

After deliberations on the details of departmental requests, operating appropriations have been set at minimum levels to continue to provide needed services. In this connection it is pointed out that a substantial portion of operating expenses is determined by contractual obligations for both salary and other expense elements, over which the Governing Body has little or no control.

The Mayor and Council urge all taxpayers to attend the hearing on the budget for the year 1993 to be held at Town Hall. The Mayor and Council shall be pleased to respond to any questions at that time.

Buc Shots

Solid pitching, timely hitting and steady defense will usually lead to success on the baseball diamond and such was the case last week for the Belleville senior legion team.

Jim Landon's group won three straight last week, downing Nutley 6-5, Cedar Grove 11-3 and Millburn 9-0. The victories improved Belleville's record to 6-4-1 on the '93 season.

The Bucs face a tough week. The team battled Livingston and Caldwell earlier this week. Tomorrow, it's off to West Orange for a 5:45 p.m. game. Next Monday, Verona comes to town for a 5:45 p.m. contest. All homes games are at Belleville High School.

"The kids are playing well," Landon said after the Millburn victory last Sunday. "We're hitting the ball well. We got 37 hits in three games last week. And we're getting production from everyone in the lineup."

Landon made some subtle changes in the lineup recently and the results are quite obvious. Jerry Turi has been inserted as the everyday shortstop, Sam Marino is now the starting second baseman and Jim Napolitano, the "veteran" of the team, was moved to centerfield.

"Having Nap in center really boosts our defense," Landon said. "He has excellent speed. Along with Matt McGough and Ivan Martin, we have a very fast outfield."

Landon is also quite pleased with the play of Marino, who will be a senior at BHS this fall.

"Sammy is hitting the ball. I felt he had the capability to play this game well and so did he. Sammy's getting the chance and making the most of it."

In the victory over Nutley, Belleville held a commanding 6-1 lead entering the last inning, but, in a Belleville-Nutley contest of any sort, nothing is guaranteed until the last out is recorded.

Nutley came back to score four runs, narrowing the lead to 6-5. The Bucs made a key defensive play in the last inning, however, to seal the win. Nutley had the tying run on second, with two outs. A Raider batter singled and the runner at second attempted to score. McGough fielded the hit in right field and threw a strike to cut-off man Carl Piscatowski. In turn, Piscatowski threw to catcher Jim Landon, who applied the tag on the Raider runner in a very close play at the plate.

Turi, Dan Brunello, Landon and Anthony Pace led the offense. Brunello was the starting and winning pitcher, hurling a complete game.

Versus Cedar Grove, Belleville took a first inning, 3-0 lead. Turi and Brunello singled and Landon doubled to score both runners. Pace hit a sacrifice fly that brought home Landon.

"The top of our lineup has been doing the job," Landon, Sr. said. "Jerry (Turi), Brunello, Jimmy and Pace have been hitting well."

Kevin Davis started and pitched the first five innings to gain the victory. Pace hurled the final two frames.

Belleville tallied three runs in the third and five in the sixth to clinch the win. Landon led the Bucs with three hits. Turi, Brunello and Pace all had two hits.

Against Millburn, McGough was in excellent form, hurling a complete game shutout. McGough's off speed pitches, along with an effective fast ball, kept Millburn off balance all morning.

Landon, Pace and Marino all had two hits in the victory. Brunello supplied one of the key hits, a grand slam homer in the fourth inning that gave Belleville a 7-0 lead.

Get It Right The First Time

Get it right the first time, that's the main thing. . . This line from a Billy Joel song is a good thing to remember when you are thinking of re-siding your home.

Installation mistakes are responsible for the majority of siding problems that occur. The answer to avoiding application problems is very simple. You just follow the instructions supplied with your siding. If the application instructions are, for some reason, missing, ask for a copy. Or, call the manufacturer.

Below are some basics to hardboard siding application as supplied by Masonite Corporation, the nation's leading manufacturer of hardboard siding. The suggestions can help you avoid some of the most common and expensive mistakes.

Proper application calls for a galvanized box head nail, with a minimum 1/2 inch head diameter. Length depends on the thickness of the siding and sheathing being used. Nails must be long enough to penetrate 1 1/2 inches into the studs.

That means if you are using one inch foam sheathing and half-inch thick siding material, you are up to one and a half inches. You would need a three inch nail to penetrate siding, sheathing and stud for sufficient holding power.

Do not use staples or T-nails for siding application because they lack the necessary holding power.

Power driven fastening systems can be used to apply siding. However, you should consult with your fastener supplier for fasteners of equivalent holding power to meet the manufacturer's requirements.

Another common application problem, according to Masonite Corporation, also relates to nailing and the framing to which the siding is attached.

Vertical framing members to which hardboard siding is to be applied are to be spaced no more than 16 inches on-center. The number of nails to be used depends on the particular product being applied, so you should again refer to the manufacturer's application instructions for the product you are using.

If you don't follow the instructions and use improper stud spacing, nail size and nail spacing, movement of the siding could result because of insufficient fastening.

Nailing to framing members is important at the butt joints, where two pieces of siding meet. The ends must meet at studs. Each piece must be nailed at the top and bottom of the joint.

Corner treatment is another area that causes difficulties for the inexperienced applicator.

When applying lap siding, you want the courses to match like a pattern in a floor. If you haven't leveled or installed the first course correctly, and if you aren't using a self-aligning lap siding, you are likely to end up with off-set corners. So, it is very important to check levels all the way through the job.

Just as important as checking for level is leaving a proper gap between the end of siding pieces and where the siding adjoins house trim. Without the gap, natural expansion of the siding could cause a major problem later.

Proper application calls for a 3/8" gap between the siding and house trim, which then must be caulked. If preformed metal joint moldings are used at butt joints on lap siding a 3/8" gap is required. If moldings are not used, leave a 3/8" gap at butt joints. Hardboard siding manufacturers provide preformed metal joint molders for most lap siding materials.

Yearly Inspections

Homeowners can protect the major investment in their home by a yearly inspection. A short walk-around check of the home's exterior can prevent minor problems from becoming serious ones.

For most people, a home is the single largest investment they will make. It is a sign that they have attained a certain standard of living. It makes good sense therefore to protect this investment so that its value will grow.

Quite simply, there is no such thing as a totally maintenance free home.

When any exterior wood or wood-based cladding material is installed, finished and maintained according to its product instructions, the material will perform in all climatic conditions.

A yearly, 20-minute walk around inspection will help you diagnose and prevent many of the problems caused by weather and improper installation. A homeowner's checklist should include checks for dirt build up, mildew, loose or cracked caulking and condition of the paint.

Homeowner maintenance will pay dividends. It must include checking for loose or cracked caulking, mildew and dirt build up, and condition of the paint film. Many of these problems, such as mildew, algae growth, caulking and painting can be easily taken care of by the homeowner using common household tools.

Many problems in exterior wood products are caused by design and construction defects and lack of proper maintenance. A wood or wood-based product manufacturer is not responsible for deficiencies in architecture, workmanship and/or lack of ordinary maintenance. Where wood on a home is found rotted, severely mildewed and discolored, there is usually a root cause that involves water entry behind the exterior siding and/or trim of the home.

If you are installing a Masonite® brand siding product, a copy of Masonite Corporation's Siding Application Instructions booklet is available by writing: Masonite Corporation, c/o MarketCom, 69 Main Street, Binghamton, New York 13901.
