

Roosevelt Library sends document proving Belleville's claim to fame

By Howard Klausner
A little known document sent by the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library in Hyde Park, New York, to Lou Cicenia, Chairman of the Belleville Renaissance Committee, shows that Nicholas Roosevelt held the first patent for a modern steam engine which he put into production in Belleville.

The steam engine factory operated by Nicholas Roosevelt in Soho was actually in operation several years before the patent was granted, in 1798.

The patent was signed by President John Adams and Secretary of State Timothy Pickens.

Its importance is that it provides documented proof that the first practical steam engines were made in Belleville, in Roosevelt's Soho plant, and that this was the practical beginning of the American Industrial Revolution.

No other steam engine factory existed in America.

From the plant came the engine that powered the experimental steam boat, Polacca, which sailed the Passaic River on Oct. 21, 1798, and engines which powered the Philadelphia waterworks and other operations.

From this plant came the beginnings of the American steamboat industry, the American railroad industry and the entire steam engine industry that was to revolutionize the American economy.

Essential to this development was Josiah Hornblower, who arrived in America in 1753 with the first steam engine, a Newcomen engine developed in England. It was Hornblower's engine that led to Roosevelt's creation of the Soho works.

The document had been in the possession of President Franklin D. Roosevelt since 1939, when a manuscript dealer presented it to him as a birthday gift.

President Roosevelt had been well aware of his Nicholas Roosevelt's accomplishments even before receiving the document.

On July 8, 1938, he made a speech in Covington, Kentucky, in which he stated, "You live on a great river, the Ohio. And, by the way, the first steamboat which navigated this river was built and run by old Nicholas Roosevelt, my great-grandfather's cousin."

Nicholas Roosevelt was also a great uncle to President Theodore Roosevelt, and Eleanor Roosevelt.

A copy of the document was sent to Mr. Cicenia by Raymond Teichman, Supervisory Archivist. The original, of course, remains in Hyde Park.

"This is further definite proof that Belleville was indeed the Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution," Cicenia said.

Cicenia presented a copy of the document to Congressman Herb Klein, who stated, "I trust it (Belleville) will receive the appropriate recognition it deserves." Klein introduced the Bill in Congress to obtain Federal recognition for Belleville.

'Open mind' on proposed flood tunnel

Congressman Herb Klein meets the people; 'Invest so that we can compete with world'

By Howard Klausner
Representative Herb Klein (D-8th Dist.) told a Belleville audience in the steamy auditorium of School 7 that the National Competitiveness Act, which he has co-authored, is designed to encourage the kind of investment that would revitalize American industry.

"We've got to invest more than we have in the past so that we can compete with the rest of the world," Klein said, in response to questions - and complaints - about the state of the local economy.

Klein acted as his own Town Meeting Chairman, fielding questions from anyone who cared to put a query to him, and frequently listening to questions which were more tirade than substance.

He was introduced by Mayor Marina Perna, and he noted that he was holding town meetings of this kind in every one of the 21 municipalities in his Congressional district.

Mayor Perna noted that Klein had visited Belleville more frequently in his first six months in office than any previous Representative had in their entire careers.

Among the issues raised were:

- The Passaic River Flood Tunnel. "If anyone can show me a better answer to the problem than that which is now under way, I will gladly back it."
- Immigration, legal and illegal. "The problem is not with the policy, but with the enforcement. We don't have the resources to do the job."

- Space Station. "I voted against the $12 billion appropriation for the Space Station because we have so many more pressing needs - health care, affordable housing - and we have a serious problem of the budget deficit."
- The local economy. "Some environmental restrictions have to be modified. The National Competitiveness Act would specifically give aid to North Jersey."
- English as the sole official language. "Any American who wants to make a better life for himself or his children should recognize that English is the primary language. But it is custom rather than legislation which should enforce that."
- Abuse of political asylum. "I would want to see a stricter enforcement, but I would not abolish political asylum. We, all of us, are descended from people who fled political persecution, religious persecution, economic persecution. I would not change that which has made this country great."

Klein said he had voted against two Bills proposed by the Democratic Administration, because both would have hurt the middle income taxpayer, in his opinion. He voted against the Budget Reconciliation Act and the Energy Tax, for that reason.

After going through the questions to the point of permitting second questions by some, Klein noted it was a hot night, and asked that the meeting be adjourned. Host Robert Reiser acceded.

100 days of community service

Papa pleads not guilty to vote fraud, enters Pre-trial Intervention program

By Howard Klausner
Sebastian (Sam) Papa, Jr., Chairman of the Belleville Planning Board, was admitted to a Pre-trial Intervention program last Thursday, by order of Essex County Judge Felix A. Martino, thus avoiding a trial for voter fraud.

Papa earlier pleaded not guilty to the charge, which involved allegations of tampering with absentee ballots during the April 1991 Board of Education election.

Under the terms of an agreement between Papa, the Court and the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, Papa will perform 100 hours of community service and pay a $50 fee to the State Violent Crime Compensation Board - although there was no charge of violent crime involved in Papa's case.

On April 29, 1993, Lieutenant Joseph A. Clark, an Investigator for the Prosecutor's Office, signed an information against Papa, based on an investigation made into charges brought to the Essex County Board of Elections by Gabriel Nazzola, now President of the Belleville Board of Education.

Nazzola said that he had found tampering with more than 40 paper ballots, and he pressed for a criminal investigation for more than two years.

Nazzola had named four persons as involved in the vote fraud, but only Papa was charged by the Prosecutor's Office.

Papa, represented by Nutley attorney Thomas DiBiase, denied the charge.

He asked for admission to the Pre-Trial Intervention program. Admission avoids the jeopardy of a trial, in which a conviction could mean prison time and loss of voting rights.

Admission required the consent of the Prosecutor and the Courts.

Entering the program does not imply guilt, and satisfactory completion of the program means the dismissal of the charge.

It does not affect Papa's right to hold public office and completion leaves his record clear of any criminal complaint.

The location of the community service is usually not made public.

Neighbor's cries save homeowner from fire

By Howard Klausner
"It was a great stop."

Fire Captain Carmen Vicari so described the quick action of fire fighters in putting out a blaze at 21 Van Ruyter Place, Saturday, despite smoke and heat that overcame two of them.

Fire Captain Vincent Sorrentino and Fire Fighter George Royston had to be taken to Clara Maas Medical Center to be treated for exhaustion and smoke inhalation. Royston was held overnight. Both have been released.

The fire was attributed to the electrical system in the basement laundry of the house, which is a two-story frame and brick building owned by Mrs. Adeline Brehm.

Mrs. Brehm, a descendant of the Colonial Kingsland Family, has resided at the address for some 40 years.

She was in her second floor bedroom, getting ready for a meeting with members of the Belleville Historical Society, when she heard shouts from her side yard which she shares with the DiPopolo Family.

A neighbor, Remo DiPopolo, 16, shouted to her, "Addie, get out of the house immediately. Your house is on fire!"

Mrs. Brehm responded immediately.

"Five more minutes and the smoke would have gotten me," she said later.

The DiPopolos had heard what they thought was a small explosion, and when they looked out, they saw smoke coming from the basement of the Brehm house.

While Remo rushed to warn Mrs. Brehm, his mother telephoned the Fire Department.

Seventeen fire fighters arrived, led by Deputy Chief Robert Caruso.

School enrollment fraud charged to out-of-towner

A Passaic resident was expected to plead guilty yesterday in Belleville Municipal Court to a charge of providing a public official with false information, according to Board of Education Attorney Frank Pomaco.

Anna Morera reportedly gave a false affidavit of residence to the Principal of the Middle School in an effort to have her child enrolled there.

Pomaco said that she produced a "rent receipt" for a Belleville residence.

The receipt was supposedly signed by Richard Pisano, husband of then Board of Education President Patricia Pisano.

The Pisanos said that they had no knowledge of Mrs. Morera, and that the signature was forged.

Pomaco said that Mrs. Morera stopped her efforts to enroll her child when she became aware of the investigation.

Pomaco said he pressed the charges in order to make an example of Mrs. Morera, in view of reports of "many" illegal registrations in the Belleville school system. The Morera case was the first one uncovered so far.

Initially, the charges against Mrs. Morera were sent to the Essex County Grand Jury as indictable offenses, but the Grand Jury downgraded the charge to a disorderly person offense.

Pomaco said that Mrs. Morera's attorney, Anthony Russo of Passaic, had stated that his client would plead guilty.

Pomaco said it was his hope that Municipal Court Judge Frank Zinna would impose a fine to discourage others from attempting illegal registrations.

State honors recycling unit

Belleville's recycling contractor, The First Occupational Center of New Jersey, was recently awarded the New Jersey Recycling Forum's Annual Industry Award for significant contributions made toward meeting New Jersey's recycling goals.

John R. Hanly, World War II hero

John R. "Bud" Hanly, 71, a retired Police Officer and holder of the Bronze Star Medal for heroism during World War II, died on July 5 in the home of his nephew, Paul McNish, in Caldwell.

Born in Belleville, Mr. Hanly was a lifelong resident here.

He served as Police Officer for Belleville Township for 25 years until his retirement in 1972.

He was active in many civic activities, most recently the restoration of the graveyard of the historic Belleville Reformed Church, where the remains of some 65 Revolutionary War soldiers rest.

Mr. Hanly served in the Army of the United States in World War II, and was decorated for courage.

He was a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 273 of Belleville, American Legion Post 105 of Belleville and the Policemen's Benevolent Association Local 28 of Belleville.

Surviving are his brothers, Michael F. Hanly and the Rev. Joseph Hanly.

A Funeral Mass was offered on Saturday, July 10, at St. Peter's Church in Belleville following the funeral service from the Kiernan Funeral Home in Belleville.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

To the motorist heading into the rush hour logjam of cars, or the home maker keeping occupied with preserving her sanity, the voice on the radio becomes a part of the accepted structure of life. After you've decided to leave the dial set for a specific station, you have set the course of the day - contemporary-folk-talk-rap, ethnic-instrumental-classic-rock, high-brow-outrageous-innuendo-schlock, or whatever, you depend on the particular voice or set of voices to play the counterpoint to the office, the factory or the hospital bedlam. One of the most admired voices heard in the metropolitan area is that of Marianne Laird, a life long resident of Belleville whose parents, Harry and Dorothy Tierney Laird are both born and bred in Belleville. ●●●● Each morning, Miss Laird leaves the family frame house on Greylock Avenue, casting a loving look upon her beloved gardens, and then heading out to Morristown and the studios of WMTR-AM which has been broadcasting since December 1945 and is now almost the only MOR - Middle of the Road - music and talk station in the metropolitan area. On its frequency, 1250, one can still hear Frank Sinatra, Nat King Cole and Carly Simon and little or nothing of INXS or Guns 'N Roses. It is music of the 50s, with some popular exceptions, and a holdout against the sea of rock and country that surrounds us. ●●●● "I have over 100,000 miles on my little car, which I bought new in 1987," Miss Laird said. She is called frequently from the station to officiate at musical events, or - in her role of Community Affairs Director - to go to places such as the Chatham Township Police Department to receive a public service award for her efforts to promote the use of seat belts and safe driving. Her clear, friendly voice is heard during drive time, when drivers are most apt to plunge into madness, and no one knows how many lives her calming tones have saved.

In a sense, she is a late comer to the radio scene. After graduation from Belleville High School she held various office jobs until she decided, at the age of 26, to go back to school. She continued to work, but she enrolled at William Paterson College where she majored in communications in general, and radio in particular. Four five years, she studied and worked on the college radio station, until her graduation in 1983. Within a few months, she was hired by WMTR, but not actually put to work for nine months. Finally, she was on the air, and she found the career she had sought. "It's a great life," she said. "We have six lines open to the listeners, and we play their requests." Some of the listeners, smitten by her voice, tried to move into the studio, but for the most part the WMTR audience is a staid and responsible one. Listeners find a rapport with the radio voice that they sometimes lack in their lives. Sometimes, their reactions can be heartbreaking ly touching. One lady asked for a record in memory of her son, and after it was played, she sent Marianne an expensive piece of Belleek china. Marianne didn't think she should accept so valuable a gift, but the Station Manager thought otherwise, mounting it in his office. "You touched her life," he told the radio personality. Thinking about it, Miss Laird said, "I enjoy that, knowing that I am reaching people, touching their lives."

Yet another fraud via mail is being aimed at elderly folks among us. This pitch comes from something called Future Forecasters with an address at 133 S. Livingston Ave., Suite 303, Livingston. It purports to be signed by a "Professor H. P. Wellington, President" and it offers the recipient the promise of $9,777 in cash, if $20 is sent immediately to defray expenses. ●●●● The angle on this one depends on the target's faith in occult phenomena. We quote: "Last Tuesday, seven of our researchers were conducting a controversial experiment (Project X711) in psychic phenomena. The seven psychics joined their subconscious minds through mental telepathy. Their aim was to focus on a single individual (unknown to any of them)....While each was sitting in their own private cubicle, they were instructed to write down the name of the individual they had focused on. The end result was amazing! The name that was written down was your name!" United States Postal Inspectors are now trying to locate Professor Wellington. ●●●● It doesn't take a psychic to locate Eric Buechel, the President and Founder of Advance Recovery, the Belleville firm that takes discarded computers and turns them into valuable scrap. Mr. Buechel, 35, estimates that his firm has been written up in 360 newspapers and magazines over the past 14 months, and this includes Page One of The New York Times, Dun and Bradstreet, and Details, a high-fashion magazine. And that does not even consider the television shows and radio broadcasts that have featured him. It is an outburst of publicity that would even give Madonna pause, or Al Sharpton, but Buechel credits it all to the agonizing need to do something about all those electronic wonder devices that are now outdated and discarded and are piling up with no place to go. "The bulk debris in the New York area alone is three times as high as the Empire State Building, and the landfills that have been taking it don't want it any more. Something has to be done."

What he has done about it is to figure ways of prying the equipment apart, pulling out the valuable metals and setting aside the PCBS, the lead and the mercury which are dangerous to the environment, and making a profit on the results. He has half a dozen workers helping him in Belleville, and he has about 50 people working for him in China, where it apparently is easier for him to ship the stuff for disassembly than to do it here. However, he would like to change that, he says, and build a disassembly plant in Belleville, because of its location near New York, railroads, highways and sea lanes.

An Orechio Publication

What he needs to accomplish it is $5 million in federal money and $750,000 from Essex County. "From being an exporter of garbage, New Jersey will become an importer, and recovery will be a billion dollar industry!" And so say we all.

Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten, said the recent heat spell had Township officials concerned about the health of the employees. "There was a suggestion that the Township Manager invite everyone out to lunch with him in his air conditioned restaurant, but that meant closing down Town Hall for six hours." ●●●● Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch said that his organization, the Kool Kuikumber Boys, is planning to form a Youth Group. "They're calling it the Hair Heads and the idea is to dress neatly and not batter old ladies. We hope every member will grow up to be a Designated Driver and not a throwback who goes around pushing over headstones to show his manhood."

All around the Township, summer recreation thrives

By Lizbeth Scordo

Started over 30 years ago, the Belleville Summer Playground Program is still going strong.

With five different playgrounds located at School Nine, the Municipal Stadium, Clerman Field, Friendly House and the Rec House, the children of Belleville have their choice of where they want to play.

Every playground is open to all Belleville residents, ages six to 16, free of charge, with parental permission.

The playground program has supervisors at each location. Most supervisors are either teachers or young people who want to be involved in education later in life.

Belleville Summer Playground Program Supervisor Bob Serio said, "The program is very loosely structured. The kids can come for the whole summer, or for just one day."

Ping pong, board games, and kick ball are frequent activities at the playground. Special events include olympics, whiffle ball tournaments, pizza parties, a spelling bee and ice cream day.

Arts and Crafts director Cheryl Marion visits all five playgrounds with special projects in which the children participate.

All playground locations are open from 9 a.m. to Noon and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. The program ends Aug. 6.

Library supporters launch campaign to battle crippling budget reduction

By Lizbeth Scordo

A letter writing campaign has been started as an attempt to save the library from the impending budget cut.

"Since the article about the library has been published, (in the Belleville Times) the library has had many residents come in angered about what's happening," James J. Cozzarelli, Jr., President of the Board of Trustees for the Belleville Public Library said.

The object of the letter writing campaign is to make town politicians and the township manager aware that the taxpayers care about their library and do not want to see the cuts go through.

Cozzarelli said, "We must ask all patrons to come to the library and pick up a form to send to local politicians urging them to come to their senses."

The form letter is addressed to local politicians asking them "to restore the cuts so that we can preserve and maintain one of the town's greatest treasures."

The letter also explains that if there are no cuts in the library budget, it would only total 33 cents a month or $4 per year in taxes for each household in Belleville.

"We also intend on contacting political figures from all over New Jersey including the Governor, to make them aware of the plight of the library," Cozzarelli said,

"Assembly members and Congressmen have all acknowledged the library before."

"People are very angry and very disappointed with their elected officials," Cozzarelli said, "They feel they are getting nothing for their tax dollars and the politicians are going to take something very important away from them. We have to remember this whole thing is all about 33 cents a month."

Forms for the letter writing campaign can be picked up in the Belleville Public Library.

Local firm marks annual Earth Day

Earth Day rolls around once a year for most of us, but for the S.W. Brown & Son Funeral Home of Nutley, it is a year 'round event. Through their membership in the Lofty Oaks Association, New Hampshire, this firm has been planting young trees on their state's public lands in memory of those they have served. They have contributed to the planting of over 5,500 trees on New Jersey's public lands.

The S.W. Brown & Son Funeral Home is one of more than 380 funeral homes all over the country who are devoted to replenishing their state's forest lands. Each tree they plant reinforces their bonds with their families, and adds something to the world that is vital, full of life and shared by all.

OUR OPINION

Time Wasted

*So many times we hurry and don't take the time to care,
when others feel so lonely and just need a simple prayer;
It's easy to say "I love you,"
and "hope you have a nice day,
is there something I can do for you,
I'll be glad to stop and pray."
But we get in such a rush
To fill our lives with things, and never take a little time to feel the brush of angels' wings;
The Lord must feel such sorrow
when we hurt the ones we love, so easily we could have told them,
"You're my gift from heaven above!"*

Shirley McDonald

The Roosevelt legacy

Franklin D. Roosevelt and Theodore Roosevelt were both quite proud of their ancestry - the Dutch and French Huguenot strain that pioneered the Hudson Valley. They also had a sense of humor about it.

Teddy Roosevelt liked to refer to the first Roosevelt in America as "our very common ancestor."

Nicholas Roosevelt was not a direct ancestor of either President, but a collateral ancestor - a cousin of their grandparents and great-grandparents.

Nicholas lived many years in Belleville, attracted here by Josiah Hornblower's steam engine.

He improved upon it, and he manufactured the improved version in the Soho works in Belleville. It was this steam engine factory that fueled the American Industrial Revolution.

He received a patent for his engine, and it was granted by President John Adams, who signed it personally, as did Secretary of State Timothy Pickens.

The original patent apparently wandered through history, until in 1939 a manuscript collector gave it as a birthday gift to FDR.

Now, a copy of that patent has been sent to Belleville by the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library in Hyde Park, and it is a momentous arrival - documentary proof of Belleville's place as Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution.

Can we detect a sign of that famous Roosevelt grin, or an echo of Teddy's "Bully!" as Belleville nears Congressional recognition of its role in history?

Reaching out to us

The visit to Belleville, at his own suggestion, by Representative Herbert Klein was an important event.

So far as we know, no Congressman in Belleville's history has ever come here for a Town Meeting, to hear the citizens directly.

Mr. Klein is planning to do the same in all 21 municipalities that make up the Eighth Congressional District.

He selected a date and was given a location which was not the most propitious one, considering the heat spell and the lack of air conditioning at School 7.

A fair size turnout did come, despite the heat, and it is the loss of those who did not come that they did not take advantage of this unique opportunity to meet a Congressman.

The Congress of the United States is the most important deliberative and legislative body in the world. Its decisions affect history, not only for us, but for every other people.

Congressman Klein offered us the opportunity to ask about our futures. A relatively small number of persons accepted the invitation.

Among those who did were persons with their own agendas, and persons who had genuine questions about the state of the nation.

Hopefully, Mr. Klein will continue this custom, and hopefully, more of our citizens will make the best of the opportunity.

It is a wonderful example of democracy in action. We thank Mr. Klein for providing it.

YOUR OPINION

Some questions for Christie

To the Editor:

I am writing to express my feelings of alarm and dismay at gubernatorial candidate Christine Whitman's stance on the gun control issue. New Jersey has a crime problem. It is a problem that the current governor, Jim Florio, has addressed consistently and effectively. His stance on gun control has led to a ban on 37 types of firearms as well as a significant 6% drop in the overall crime rate. The governor exhibited the type of leadership and determination necessary to get something done and obtained positive results.

The current Republican candidate is something else again. Though she has expressed concern about the crime-ridden state of New Jersey's urban areas, nowhere does she allow this concern to taint her gun-happy policies. Ms. Whitman expounds the belief that if only business would help out a little in the projects, the problems of the poor would be solved. What she conveniently ignores is the fact that impoverished people are threatened not only economically, but, more immediately, physically. Urban violence is a real danger. People get shot and killed. It happened outside my friend Ainsley's apartment in East Orange; it happened at the public high school in my town a few years back. Business can not help with this problem; the protection of the people is a duty that the government must assume and that Whitman reneges.

What Ms. Whitman promotes is a not-so-veiled policy of NRA support and guns-for-everyone legislation. After visiting Jersey City last week where she "wanted to learn specifically what challenges the police face everyday," (Stan H. Eason, The Jersey Journal (June 24, 1993)), Whitman went on to lobby for votes at the local GUN-A-RAMA, a store that contains a large variety of those selfsame challenges. Whitman went on to talk about some possible revisions on Florio's gun ban, "There are... several weapons that shouldn't be included in the (law)." Might one of these weapons be an automatic machine gun? If Ms. Whitman were elected would business like Caso's GUN-

A-RAMA be encouraged to help the poor by providing them with weapons? Or would Whitman simply give the NRA the run of the State House to legislate the way to a higher crime rate?

Unanswered, troubling questions like these need not be answered if New Jersey residents simply realize the problem and vote to eliminate it. The general problem is violent crime, the more specific problem is Ms. Whitman, and the solution is to vote for someone who addresses the problem, Jim Florio.

Palagano's thanks

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my family, friends and my loyal campaign workers for sacrificing their precious time to help with my successful bid for the Democratic 5th District Freeholder nomination. All of your hard work is greatly appreciated and will not be forgotten.

To all 5th District Democrats residing in Belleville, I appreciate your taking time out to exercise your right to vote on June 8.

This victory merely affords me the opportunity to represent the Democratic Party in the General Election. I want all of you to know that the race in November will not be an easy one to win. I realize that much hard work lies ahead and I will not stop campaigning until 8 p.m. on Nov. 2, 1993.

I want all residents of the 5th Freeholder District to know, whether you are Republican, Democrat or Independent, if I am fortunate enough to be elected in November, I will work as hard to represent your best interest on the Freeholder Board as I have worked while campaigning. During my 10 years as a Councilwoman in the Township of Bloomfield, I have been very accessible to my constituents and I plan on being just as accessible to the residents of the 5th District.

Again, I thank all of you for your support in the Primary and I am looking forward to your continued support during the General Election. If anyone would like to contact me, I can be reached at 893-0235 or you can write to me at 542 East Passaic Ave., Bloomfield, NJ 07003.

• CHALK one up for Governor Jim Florio. A national task force empowered with authority to recommend welfare reform has embraced welfare reforms instituted by New Jersey Governor Jim Florio. The welfare reform package encourages work over dependence, stresses education, family unity, parental responsibility and makes clear the transitional nature of welfare.

Jim Florio

• NEWLY elected Essex County Democrat Chairman Tom Giblin is losing no time exerting a measure of leadership. He held a meeting of party leaders yesterday, Wednesday, to obtain input from municipal chairmen who he must depend upon to deliver Democrat votes in November. A follow up meeting is scheduled for August 17th, and a third on September 14th.

Another Giblin effort will concentrate on organizing Young Democrats. Giblin's efforts this summer and fall will yield dividends for Jim Florio in November.

• BELLEVILLE Chamber of Commerce President Lou Paraboschi is upset that a majority of Belleville public officials ignore what he perceives as a priority problem for Belleville residents, merchants and taxpayers. "Thousands of cars travel along Washington Avenue every day. But if they can't park, they don't shop," said Mr. Paraboschi. Supporting his view are Deputy Mayor Mario Drozd and Third Ward Councilman Tom Spillane. Lou Ciconia, owner of Charles Jewelers located opposite Belleville Town Hall, says, "I'm paying $1,000 a month in taxes, and my customers and I can't even park. It's ridiculous." Ralph Spinoso who owns a music store in the same neighborhood put the parking problem very plainly, "It stinks."

• WHILE I'm on the subject of illness, my special prayers for the recovery of Mary Ryan who recently had a bone marrow transplant. Her son, Kevin, advises that she is making a surprisingly fine recovery, and may God bless her.

• AND a person dear to us, a family friend, Lyndhurst publisher, Carmine Savino, has been in and out of the hospital during the past month. Saturday, I had a chat with him over the phone, and Carmine I'm happy to report seems like his old self. Unfortunately, this hot weather doesn't help the health of us seniors. But sooner or later, more comfortable weather will come our way, and we will soon see an energized Carmine Savino bouncing down the steps to our office overseeing our two production staffs busily engaged producing his string of Leader newspapers as well as our own three. The Savino family is a Lyndhurst treasure.

• IF Essex County Republican Chairman John Renna's shirt buttons are popping off, that would be an expected development as he is the proud father of Dru Renna Rich, who was recently promoted to Senior Vice President of one of New Jersey's most prestigious public relations firms, Keyes Martin. Mrs. Rich is a ten-year employee of the firm.

• IF Renna is looking for a peacemaker to strengthen the Republican Party, we could well recommend Nutley's Bob Rusignuolo, if and when he decides Art Clay is not a viable Freeholder candidate.

• OF all the places I least expected to read about a Santini was in the sports pages of the Newark Ledger. A recent article has promoter Don King acquiring the IBF junior middleweight champion Gianfranco Rosi. And who do you think Rosi's advisor is, Nutley's own Piero Santini of the Gondola Restaurant, who acts as Don King's official European link. When I see him, I'm going to ask Piero why he keeps his boxing activity such a deep secret!

• ESSEX GOP Chairman John Renna is anticipating poor health will force Essex County Freeholder Art Clay to drop his candidacy for re-election as a District Freeholder.

Mayor Kevin O'Toole of Cedar Grove currently has the inside track for the organization to replace Freeholder Clay for the November election. Also being looked at is Bloomfield Councilman John Crecco. The Democrat candidate is the popular Bloomfield Councilwoman Louise Palagano.

Health Department programs combat rabies, lead poison

The Belleville Health Department offers a wide variety of services and programs aimed at promoting health and health education to the community.

Recently, the Department addressed the problem of childhood lead poisoning by holding a lead screening clinic. For a nominal cost of $12, children from ages six months to six years were screened by venipuncture for lead levels. All participants received information on lead poisoning prevention.

Lead can cause serious damage to children even in very small amounts. Exposure to lead dust is the number one cause of lead poisoning in children. The risk is greatest in homes built before 1978, before lead was banned from household paints. The Health Department will offer another lead screening program in the Fall. Dates for the upcoming program will be advertised in the Belleville Times.

The annual rabies clinic was held on April 30 and May 1. Offered in this program were free rabies vaccines to cats and dogs. Three hundred dogs and 125 cats were vaccinated against the rabies virus.

Rabies is a virus which can affect all warm blooded animals. The rabies hazard is the greatest when the infected animal is a bat, raccoon, fox, skunk or dog.

To prevent rabies:

- All dogs and cats should be vaccinated against rabies.

- Protect your pets from stray animals by preventing them from running loose.

- Report all stray animals to the Health Department.

- Report all animal bites to the Health Department.

- Do not feed or handle wild or stray animals.

- If bitten by a dog or cat, obtain as much information as possible about the animal.

- Cleanse any bite with soap and water and seek medical attention.

Clara Maass wins honors

Clara Maass Medical Center was one of 10 hospitals in New Jersey honored for an outstanding volunteer program at the New Jersey Hospital Association's annual Applause awards ceremony.

The Applause awards were established in 1992 to recognize the challenging opportunities in volunteering in today's hospitals and honor the accomplishments of New Jersey hospital volunteer programs.

The Clara Maass program which received the recognition was "One-New-Jersey", which provides cultural exchange through a mentor approach by bringing together suburban high school-aged hospital volunteers with inner city eighth graders, new to the volunteer arena.

For more information on this Clara Maass volunteer program, contact Marlene French, manager, Volunteer Services Department, (201) 450-2150.

Look good and improve your vision with new lenses

A prescription for bifocals can be as unwelcome as the onset of gray hair or wrinkles. But, just as cosmetics and exercise can help keep a person looking young, so can corrective eye wear that is fashionable and seemingly ageless.

For years eye care professionals have been prescribing bi and trifocal lenses for patients who have trouble seeing objects up close and at a distance. This condition, medically known as "presbyopia," usually occurs in people over the age of 40 when the eye's crystalline lens begins to harden and focusing becomes difficult.

Bi and trifocal lenses correct presbyopia by placing multiple prescriptions on the same lens. While this design eliminates the need to interchange glasses for reading and distances, many lament that thick lenses and unsightly lines create an unattractive "granny glasses" look. Kodak recently introduced a progressive lens that offers a good looking and comfortable alternative to bi and trifocals.

Progressives look and feel like regular eye wear because prescription areas are blended into the lens without lines. The Kodak Progressive Lens is thin, lightweight and constructed of scratch-resistant plastic, and designed to ease the eye's transition between prescriptions for clearer, more natural vision.

Progressive lenses can make wearing corrective eye wear less bothersome, and most people diagnosed with presbyopia can wear them. A reputable eye care professional can explain the differences among lenses and assist in selecting face-flattering frames.

MAKE YOUR "granny glasses" a thing of the past with Kodak Progressive Lens.

How to be a good sport...with allergies

You can be a good sport, even with allergies. Consult the following list to determine which activities are best for you.

• Bowling - Although not an endurance sport, bowling requires skill and is a popular group activity.

• Billiards/Pool - These are also activities in which skill, not strength, is the key to success.

• Aerobics - Aerobics — high or low-impact — builds strength, cardiovascular endurance and burns fat.

• Weight Training - With a carefully set program, you can increase your muscle-to-fat ratio and contour your body.

Water sports

Water sports are ideal for allergy-prone athletes; they involve virtually no exposure to plant allergens.

• Swimming - Laps, water volleyball, or just splashing around all provide a total body workout; as a bonus, there's no stress on the joints.

• Sailing/Power Boating - The primary value is to get away from it all, although sailing — especially racing — does build arm muscles.

• Water-Skiing - Here's a sport that improves balance and tones leg muscles.

• Canoeing/Kayaking/Rowing - All of these build upper body strength and aerobic endurance.

• Windsurfing - A great endurance-building sport that offers good all-over body strengthening.

• Fishing - Try this favorite get-away-from-it-all sport — go deep-sea fishing, or just cast a line from a rowboat.

• Snorkeling - This sport provides the same total body workout as swimming, plus a great view.

Sports to enjoy...with special precautions

• Running - Running outdoors exposes you to allergens. Use an indoor track, or switch to swimming, April-September and resume running outside from October-March. If you crave an occasional outdoor run during pollen season, avoid running in the morning (5-10 a.m.) when pollen counts are highest.

• Tennis - Clay courts can be dusty and, along with hard courts, are often surrounded by greenery which is menacing for allergy sufferers. Locate indoor courts in your area.

• Bicycling - The best alternative for cycling enthusiasts is to set up a stationary bike in the house. Save your outdoor trips for the fall.

Sports to avoid

• Camping/Hiking - Nature is nice, but camping means 24-hour exposure to all types of allergens — from pollens to molds.

• Horseback Riding - Horseback riding is difficult for people who are sensitive to animal dander. In addition, hay and products used to groom horses and maintain stables can be irritants to allergy-prone individuals.

• Football/Golf/Baseball/Soccer - Played on grass fields/courses, all of these sports can leave you sneezing and wheezing.

Sports medicine

Whether you're a weekend jogger or an aerobicizing wiz, you can still lace up those running shoes, don the leotard, and hit the gym by following this checklist for allergy-free workouts.

• Visit your family doctor or allergy specialist. He or she can determine the type of allergy you have and can map out the best course of treatment.

• There are many allergy medications (prescription and over the counter) available. Depending on the frequency and severity of your symptoms, your family physician or allergy specialist can prescribe medications, such as cromolyn sodium, which can prevent symptoms from occurring, antihistamines and/or steroids. These products can help alleviate your discomfort.

• Avoid early morning exercise (5 - 10 a.m.); this is the time when plants produce the most pollen.

• Wear a surgical mask or bandanna over your mouth and wear glasses or sunglasses while working out to keep exposure to allergens at a minimum.

• Breathe through your nose, not your mouth. The nose warms, humidifies and filters outside air. Mouth breathing can draw irritants to the bronchial tubes and lungs, making your exercise program less effective.

• If you're running, stick to pavement or a dirt path. Running near freshly cut lawns can be an allergy sufferer's nightmare. Also avoid areas where there is a lot of traffic — exhaust fumes from cars can cause allergic reactions too.

• If you work out at a gym or follow along with a videotape at home, stay away from open windows and doors. Make sure air conditioner filters are changed frequently.

• If you take aerobics at a studio with hardwood floors, wipe the area around your space with a damp cloth to remove dust. If the floors are carpeted, use a mat for floor work — carpeting is a haven for dust mites, animal dander and dust, all key allergy triggers.

• When you're done with your workout, wash your hair and hands and rinse your eyes with cool water to remove clinging pollen or other allergens.

• If you're having an allergy attack — or the pollen counts are especially high — take it easy.

For additional information about allergies, including a new brochure, How To Be A Good Sport...With Allergies, call: The Allergy Information Center and Hotline, (800) 727-5400. The hotline is available 24 hours a day.

Vampires, garlic... heart disease? Recent clinical studies indicate that garlic may protect against heart disease and lower blood pressure and cholesterol.

REVOLUTIONARY NEW CONTACT LENSES FOR PEOPLE WITH PRESBYOPIA AVAILABLE FROM DR. WALTER J. SHURMINSKY OF NUTLEY

Bausch & Lomb has introduced a revolutionary concept in contact lens wear called "occasional wear." They've developed contacts called Occasions™ Multifocal contact lenses, designed specifically for people with presbyopia as a complement to bifocal eyeglasses.

Presbyopia is a normal condition that almost everyone develops around the age of 40. The lens of the eye loses some of its elasticity, and that makes it more difficult for the eye to focus on objects that are close. The vast majority of people with presbyopia wear bifocal eyeglasses — with the corrective glass for distant vision at the top of the lenses and the corrective for near vision at the bottom of the lenses.

However, most people who wear bifocals have times when they don't want to wear them, like a formal dinner party, a big business presentation, a round of golf, or even a day of shopping. The problem is that without glasses they probably sacrifice their vision for a frame-free appearance. Now when people leave their bifocals home, they don't have to leave their vision home.

With Occasions Multifocal contact lenses, people can wear contacts instead of bifocal glasses on any occasion. This gives them more comfort than eyeglasses, and a frame-free appearance. It also eliminates distracting bifocal "lines."

Occasions Multifocal contacts also offers advantages for sports, from walking to competitive sports. They don't fog up, bounce around, slide down your nose, or interfere with peripheral (side) vision like eyeglasses.

It's a new idea: contacts in addition to bifocal glasses, for occasional wear. Every person's eyes are different, so only an eye care professional can determine how often a patient can wear the lenses or how often the contacts should be replaced. Currently Bausch & Lomb is offering a free trial pair of Occasions Multifocal contacts through practitioners. Patients can try the lenses with no obligation — all they pay for is the eye exam and professional fees:

AAA offers traveling tips for the whole family

It's that time of year again — the kids are off for the summer and your two-week vacation is fast approaching. The most economical way to travel to your vacation destination is by car. But how do you get there with nerves intact?

According to the AAA New Jersey Automobile Club, all it takes is a little imagination and planning to make traveling with children an enjoyable experience:

- Pack the right stuff — toys, a first-aid kit, a box of wet wipes, tissues, trash bags, children's sunglasses and window shade to keep the hot sun off small faces.
- Bring along your child's favorite music. Audio cassettes are easy to pack in a purse, pocket, carry-all bag or glove compartment.
- Encourage your children to keep a journal or make a tape recorded diary of the trip.
- Purchase postcards at rest stops and suggest that your children send postcards to grandparents and friends. (Don't forget the stamps.)
- Prevent boredom by stocking up on inexpensive travel books and games that teach children about the areas they're visiting.

- Hand-held computer games and drawing boards keep kids occupied for hours. When interest wanes, get the entire family involved in car games such as Twenty Questions or I Spy.

- Take along plenty of nutritious, low sugar snacks like popcorn, raisins, pretzels and dried fruit in individual containers. Avoid excessive soda drinking.

- Stop frequently and let the kids run while you gas up, eat and make the necessary trip to the restroom. Opt for rest stops and parks over fast-food restaurants; they offer a safe place to play away from traffic.

- Don't drive until you drop. Plan overnight stays ahead of time and make reservations to guarantee accommodations. Many hotels, which cater to families, now offer in-room VCRs as a courtesy or for a nominal rental fee. Bring along your kids' favorite videos to entertain them at night.

Bruins win 5 of 6, protest could remove loss

Gallagher 1 hitter stops S. O.

By Mike Lambert

You could call it a productive week for the Belleville Bruins. Bill Ingraham's team won five straight games. The streak ended in the second game of a double header last Sunday, but the team protested the game and there is a good possibility the protest will be upheld and the Bruins could earn a victory there as well.

In any event, Belleville was officially 17-13 entering this weeks action, although the team could be 18-12 pending the result of the protest. Tomorrow, the team plays at Hillside and on Sunday, it's off to West Orange. Both of those games commence at 5 p.m. Next Wednesday, the team plays at powerful Verona.

The Bruins took a 12-12 mark into last weeks action and combined solid pitching and good hitting to win five of six. The team stopped the Nugent Black Sox 3-1, South Orange, the second place team in the ECBL, 4-1, Nugents again, this time 13-5, Cranford 2-0 and last Sunday, split a double header with Nugents, winning 18-5 and falling 8-7.

The 8-7 defeat which resulted in a protest lodged by the Bruins bears some explanation. It seems the home plate umpire had arrived a little late for the start of the game. Consequently, he was not aware of the ground rule which stipulated the difference between live and dead ball territory.

In the second inning, the Bruins had jumped out to a 7-0 lead and were threatening for more. A Nugents player threw wildly and the ball ventured into the aforementioned "dead ball" territory.

The umpire ruled the ball dead and returned the Bruins runner to third base. Had the ball been called live, which it was according to the ground rules set prior to the start of the game, then the Bruins player would have easily scored what would have been the eighth run.

Oh, by the way, the Bruins lost by one run, since Nugents erupted for eight runs in the bottom of the third to erase the 7-0 Belleville lead.

Last Monday, it was reported that the Commissioner of the ECBL and the lead umpire of the league were leaning toward granting the protest, which would give Belleville its 7-0 lead back and the game would have to be continued at that point. If the protest is upheld, the game will be continued at a later date and Belleville will have a loss, temporarily, taken off its record.

In the first game of last Sunday's doubleheader, Belleville won 18-5 as Mike Chirichello, a 1992 Belleville High School grad, hurled a complete game. He was backed by the solid hitting of Mike Salvanto (5 for 5, three ribbies) and Mike Mike Chirichello throws to second base during recent game. Chirichello hurled complete game last Sunday.

DeBiase (3 for 4, four runs driven in).

Salvanto and Anthony Mielnicki blasted homers and the Belleville defense contributed two double plays. Everyone in the Bruin lineup had at least one hit.

Sal Tremel and Paul Mirabella combined for a three hit shutout as Belleville stopped Cranford 2-0 in a key ECBL matchup last week. Tremel hurled the first 5 2/3 innings, giving up just two hits. He gave way to Mirabella in the sixth and the former major league pitcher went the rest of the way to record a save, allowing one hit.

Belleville scored the games only two runs in the fourth. Jim LaRose singled and went to second on an error. Salvanto doubled to score LaRose. Francisco Ortiz singled Salvanto to third and Mike King hit into a fielders choice, scoring Salvanto with the second run.

The win was especially important because it keeps the Bruins in third place, one game ahead of Cranford.

In the 13-5 victory over Nugents, Belleville took control early, scoring five times in the first and three more in the third. Tremel and Joe Delanza both had three hits and Ortiz blasted a two run homer. Once again, everyone in the Bruin

Summer hoops at Linden

By Mike Lambert

While the varsity basketball season is still four months away, the athletes who hope to make up the Belleville High School roster are hard at work in the Linden summer league.

Prior to starting the league, the team took part in the FDU basketball camp. Head coach Don Roll and assistant John Fortunato were on hand as the Bucs played in a week long camp against a number of teams from the NNJIL.

"It went pretty well," Roll said of the camp. "It was good because we got the chance to play against some of the teams we'll see this season."

"Don't forget, we have a lot of new faces this year. We don't have Ken Johansen or Dennis DeWork to provide offense and stability like last year. We have some kids who can play, it's just a matter of gaining experience and confidence."

The Bucs finished 11-11 last season, finishing the year strong after a slow start. Combined with the 14-10 record put together by the '91-92 team, it's the first time in 25 years that a Belleville boys' basketball program has put together back to back .500 or better seasons.

So, with momentum starting to build toward a winning program, the prospective players for '93-94 are tackling an ambitious schedule.

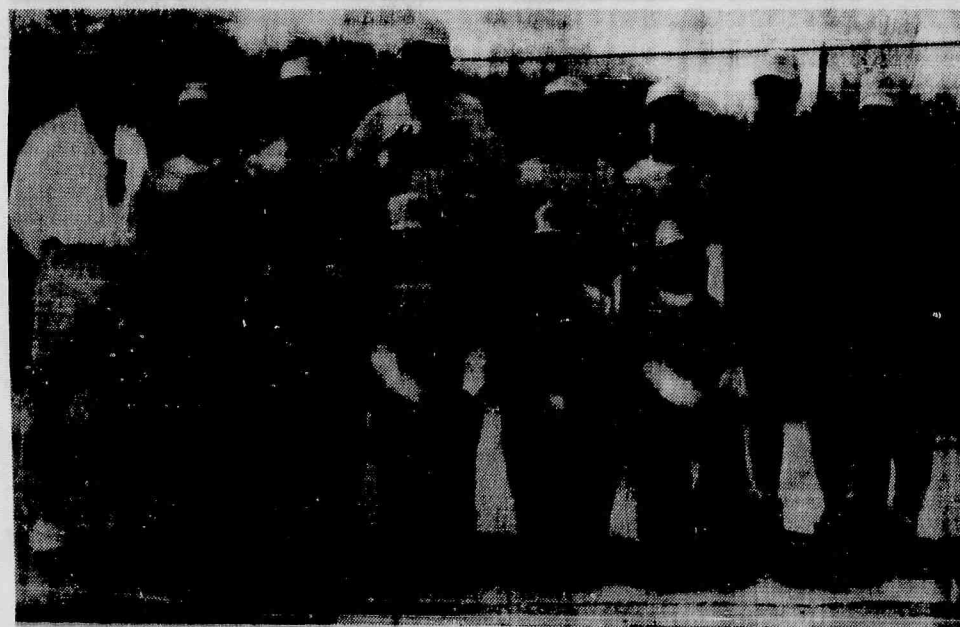

The Bucs will face some strong competition in the Linden league this year, taking on teams from Newark Eastside, East Orange, Scotch Plains and Bridgewater.

Belleville will be coached by Troy Talmadge, a 1992 graduate of BHS and a member of the 1,000 point scoring club at Belleville High.

"Troy will do a good job with the team," Roll said. "He knows the game and our system and the kids will enjoy playing for him."

Roll is hoping for an aggressive

B. I. H. wins Sr. league title, 11 - 8

Anthony Albanese went three for three and drove in six runs, leading Belleville Industrial Hardware to the Senior League championship, 11-8 over Russo Family Chiropractic.

Eddie Pagan went 4 for 4 and scored four times and Natale Guagliardi pitched five innings, striking out 13. Albanese hurled the final two innings to record the save.

T.J. Esposito scored three runs and played well at shortstop. Ernie Capurano and Anthony Armondo also scored runs for Belleville Industrial.

Troise, Frantantoni lead Aces to crown

The Aces captured the Pee Wee championship, finishing the year with six straight wins.

It was the fifth straight season that the Aces have won the title. During that span, the team has put together a very impressive 38-11 record.

The '93 team was led by shortstop Melanie Troise, who hit .829 with 21 runs scored and two homers.

Other key players were short fielder Phyllis Ann Frantantoni, who hit .828 with 16 runs scored, second baseman Gianna Immers, who hit .809 with 31 runs scored and three homers, pitcher Gina Valente, (.793, 16 runs, one homer), first baseman Rebecca Rotino, (.780, 20 runs and two homers), third baseman Lucia Trumble, (.729, 22 runs and four homers), outfielder Danielle Silletti (.606, 15 runs scored), outfielder Sharon Medina (.692, 11 runs), outfielder Valerie Concepcion (.651, 22 runs), outfielder Ashley Schaeffer (.621, five runs), outfielder Jamie Sell (.593, 13 runs scored), catcher Melissa Amorel (.447, seven runs) and catcher Jennifer McNanus, (.432 with seven runs scored).

The coaching staff of Frank, John and Jennifer were very pleased with the performance of the entire team.

A few years ago, success wasn't synonymous with Belleville High School soccer. True, there were a few successful teams during the programs history, most notably in 1983 when Tony DeAquino led the Bucs to the state sectional semis and a record ten games over .500.

Some of DeAquino's other teams in the early and mid 1980's were also solid entries as the coach looked to establish the program. While surrounding neighborhoods have had high school soccer for decades, Belleville High School is relatively new to the sport of hitting a ball into a net without benefit of ones hands.

Tony Cahill was the first Belleville High School soccer coach, in the Fall of 1974. Back then, the team was a JV entry and was led by senior Fred Lardardo and a sophomore, Hernan Borja, aka "Chico. The program would not enter the varsity ranks until the following autumn (which was also the autumn of my senior year at BHS, but I ran cross country).

Since Belleville was a Big 10 entry back in the mid 1970's, that meant games against powerhouses like Kearny, Columbia, Nutley, Irvington, Essex Catholic and Montclair, to name a few. While the Belleville soccer play of the early days was the typical athlete, hard nosed and determined, soccer is a game that requires a great deal of skill, and that skill can only be refined through years of practice and playing.

As the 70's turned to the 80's, the township got involved in a big way. The Belleville Soccer Association began to take effect, as players as young as six years of age began learning the game of soccer at its most fundamental roots.

Meanwhile, Giants Stadium was abuzz with excitement as the Cosmos of the North American Soccer League were drawing huge crowds for games, both against league opponents and foreign powers. With the arrival of Pele to the Cosmos in the Spring of 1975, soccer in the United States became very popular, very quickly.

I covered the Cosmos on the Giants Stadium turf from 1979 through '83 and saw just about every game at the stadium during those years. I remember the sellout crowds in '79 and '80. (When you're on the field and look up and see 76,000 fans going nuts, it's quite a scene). I remember when Hernan Borja was signed by the Cosmos in 1981 and made his debut at Giants Stadium before 45,000 fans. And I remember the beginning of the demise of the NASL in 1982 that eventually signalled the end of the league in 1984.

While the professional game surged, then faded away, the sport of soccer was catching on with the American youth. It caught on so much so that today, in my opinion, soccer has now passed baseball as the most popular sport for children to play. And that popularity has led to the arrival of the World Cup in the United States in 1994. Tickets have already been soon in the various venues, and the games are practically sold out a year in advance.

So, while the Cosmos might have finally failed, succumbed to an overall league structure that got a little greedy, the NASL had a hand in building up the sport. A word on the Cosmos and the NASL. The games were very exciting for quite a while. Anyone who attended games at Giants Stadium during those hey days will remember the tremendous electricity. But the league was not prepared for the sudden success and expanded too much. Before you knew it, the season was too long and the games were suddenly watered down.

What also didn't help the NASL was its idea to form an indoor league in the winter of 1981. While the American market might have preferred the indoor game, it didn't fare well for the Cosmos and it added to the demise of the franchise, and consequently, the entire league.

Anyway, getting back to our township, the varsity soccer program endured growing pains. After DeAquino stepped down in the mid 80's, Gino DePinto, who was the JV coach for six years, rose to the rank of head coach. DePinto's teams in the late 80's struggled, but with the youth in the BSA excelling, it wasn't long before the tide would turn.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Recreation soccer and touch football applications

Applications for the Belleville Recreation 1993 sports programs are now available in the schools and at the Recreation office. Boys and girls ages 7-14 may participate in recreation soccer. Belleville resident children who will be 7 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 14 on Dec. 31, 1993 are eligible. Nobody above 8th grade can play, and all returning players must re-apply.

Boys ages 8-10 can play touch football if they so choose. Belleville boys who will be 8 by Dec. 31 and who will be no older than 10 on Dec. 31, 1993 are eligible. All returning players must re-apply.

For both soccer and touch football, all completed applications must be returned to the Recreation Department, 407 Joralemon Street, with birth certificates. The registration deadline for soccer is Aug. 6 and the deadline for touch football will be Aug. 27. Children are advised not to register for more than one fall sport since football, soccer and touch football games and practice schedules conflict.

Jr. Bucs football registration — 1993

There will be registration for the Belleville Recreation Department's 1993 "Jr. Bucs" Tackle Football Program at the Recreation House, 407 Joralemon St., now through Aug. 6. Boys who will be eight years old before Sept. 1 and who will not be 14 before Sept. are eligible. Those wishing to play tackle football must weigh a minimum of 60 pounds and a maximum of 135 pounds, and no one above 8th grade can play. Players will be broken down into three teams according to specific AGE / WEIGHT requirements as set by the Suburban Twin County Football League.

To register, players must obtain an application from their school or the Recreation Department office. All completed applications with parent approval must be brought to the Recreation House by Aug. 6 with two passport-size photos of the player and a copy of his birth certificate. All returning players from last year's team must re-apply. Practices will begin around Aug. 16. Players who choose to participate in tackle football cannot also play soccer or touch football in the same season.

1993 playgrounds open

The Belleville Recreation Department's summer playground program began June 30 and will continue through Aug. 6.

The five playground sites are located at School No. 9, the Municipal Stadium, the Recreation House, Clearman Field and the Friendly House. The special education playground is set up at the Belleville Little League Field.

The playgrounds will be open daily to all Belleville residents in grades kindergarten through nine from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Playgrounds are closed noon to 1 p.m. for lunch and when it rains.

An adult director will be on hand at each playground to organize games, parties and other activities and an arts and crafts supervisor will travel from site to site.

Tentatively, tennis lessons, "Open Swim" and special tournaments are planned throughout the summer. These programs are all pending the hiring of qualified instructors/supervisors.

Applications for all summer program participants must be completed and signed by a parent. Registration forms are available at the Recreation House office and at all playgrounds.

Tennis lessons — 1993

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that tennis lessons will be provided free of charge to all Belleville youngsters ages 8 to 16. Tennis lessons will be given at the Belleville Municipal Stadium on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. Lessons began July 7 and will continue for five weeks. Participants must wear sneakers and provide own racquet and balls.

The schedule is as follows:

Ages 8-11: 9 to 10 a.m.

Ages 12-16: 10 to 11 a.m.

Registration will take place at the courts. There will be no lessons when there is rain.

Head coach Bill Ingraham fires one home during relief stint. The coach was the winning pitcher in a game last week.

style of play from the Bucs. He would like the team to employ a lot of trapping and pressing.

Mike Molina has been doing a good job at point guard. Frank Means and Mike Mundy are working at the two guard spot while the forwards figure to be Mike Looney, Kevin Davies and Jason Albert.

The reserves are Danny Cohen, Dennis Caprigione, Denny Hoogendyke and Omar Rios. Of course, at this time of year, there isn't a great deal that separates the starters from the reserves.

"The positions are wide open," Roll said. "The league will be a test to see how hard the kids want to work. Having been at the FDU camp, we saw Paramus Catholic, Bloomfield, St. Joe's, Don Bosco and Nutley. They all had good turnovers and they all looked pretty good."

"If we hope to be competitive this winter, the kids have to play hard this summer and play a lot. You know for sure the neighboring teams will be doing the same thing."

The Linden summer league will be held on Monday and Wednesday evenings. It is played outdoors. We'll have coverage of league play starting in next week's issue.

Perhaps Belleville's biggest win of the season came early last week when the team stopped second place South Orange, 4-1. The Bruins are in third place, two games behind the hard hitting South Orange team.

Fran Gallagher pitched a tremendous game for the Bruins, allowing just one hit and fanning six. He also struck out the leagues leading hitter three times in the contest.

Belleville scored once in the second when Tremel walked, stole second and scored on a wild throw.

It stayed that way until the sixth, when the Bruins added three runs. King doubled and scored on a Mielnicki double. Rich Quine doubled home Mielnicki and then stole third. Jason Nardachone executed a perfect suicide squeeze and drove home Quine with the fourth run.

This was more than enough for Gallagher, who was in control throughout the game. Belleville, which had just four hits, benefitted from two double plays.

In the victory at the beginning of the week over Nugents, Rusty Pace fired a one hitter in a 3-1 Bruin win. Pace struck out nine batters in the victory.

All of Belleville's scoring came in the fourth inning when Ortiz hit a three run homer with DeBiase and LaRose on base. Once again, the Bruins benefitted from the double play, turning two over at opportune times.

NOTES: For the week, the Bruins hit .376 as a team, collecting 65 hits. The top six teams qualify for the playoffs, so the Bruins are in good shape there, with just ten games left in the regular season.

Buc Shots

In 1991, the Bucs finished 14-4, with mostly a veteran team. In the past, that would have meant rebuilding for the next two or three years. That was the past, however. The present and future has a different plan. The '92 Bucs were once again 14-4 and, while some seniors were graduated from last fall's team, there is plenty of optimism for this fall.

Last week, no less than three Belleville High School soccer players took part in the very prestigious Garden State Games and all three were outstanding.

"We've had maybe one player try out for the games in a season prior to this," DePinto said. "This year, we had three kids try out and all three not only made the team, but played important roles."

Greg Groeling, Giuseppe Mennella and Mike Percio competed in the Garden State Games, playing against the best in the state. Competing in the Northwest bracket, Percio turned in solid goal tending, Groeling was a force in front of the net and Mennella was outstanding in his overall game.

All three men will be key to Belleville's success this fall. The Garden State Games are for upcoming high school seniors and underclassmen, so the three got a chance to compete against other players who could be all state calibre.

"I'm real happy with the way the kids played," DePinto said. "Last week was extremely hot, and those kids played four games. It's a great experience for them."

The high school season is still two months away, but the players who will make up the '93 Bucs are beginning to get ready for another big season. Between competing in the Garden State Games and the various BSA games at Belleville High, the players should be in good shape when the NNJL campaign kicks off.

Congratulations to Groeling, Mennella and Percio on an outstanding accomplishment.

THIS WEEK'S QUIZ

Let's talk about the Major League All Star Game. Who were the starters in the 1988 All Star Game? Where was the game played? Who was the MVP of that game? Who were the managers of the respective teams?

SECTION 1. The improvement described in Section 3 of this bond ordinance is hereby authorized as a general improvement to be undertaken by the Township of Belleville, in the County of Essex, State of New Jersey (the "Township"). For the said improvement or purpose stated in Section 3, there is hereby appropriated the sum of $700,000, said sum being inclusive of all appropriations heretofore made thereof and including the sum of $34,000 as the amount of down payment for said improvement or purpose required by law and now available therefor by virtue of provision in a previously adopted budget or budgets of the Township for down payment or for capital improvement purposes and including a $210,000 loan expected to be received by the Township from the State of New Jersey pursuant to the Municipal and City Infrastructure Loan Program.

The proceeds of any bonds or notes authorized herein used to reimburse the Township for any expenditures toward the costs of the improvement or purpose described in Section 3 hereof will not be used directly or indirectly (i) to "refund" an issue of governmental obligations within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code, (ii) to create or increase the balance of a "sinking fund" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.103-13(g) with respect to any obligation of the Township, or to replace funds that have been, are being or will be used for sinking fund purposes, (iii) to create or increase the balance in a "reserve or replacement fund" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.103-14(d) with respect to any obligation of the Township or to replace funds that have been, are being or will be so used for reserve or replacement fund purposes, or (iv) to reimburse the Township for any expenditure or payment that was originally paid with the proceeds of any obligation of the Township (other than borrowing by the Township from one of its own funds or the funds of a member of the same "controlled group" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.150-1(f). The bonds or notes authorized herein to reimburse the Township for any expenditures toward the costs of the improvement or purpose described in Section 3 hereof will be issued in an amount not to exceed $666,000. The costs to be reimbursed with the proceeds of the bonds or notes authorized herein will be "capital expenditures" in accordance with the meaning of Section 150 of the Code. This provision will take effect immediately, but will be of no effect with regard to expenditures for costs paid outside the permitted reimbursement period set forth in Treasury Regulations Section 1.103-18(c)(4).

BELLEVILLE RESIDENTS

As of July 1, 1993, the Belleville Fire Department's minimum manning level was reduced to 10 men per shift as a cost saving measure "to save hundreds of thousands of dollars a year", according to Township Manager Stephen Cuccio. What ten men per shift equates to is the following:

1. Two men riding out of Silver Lake Fire Station: a Pump Operator and a Captain. Lack of proper coverage in this district.
2. Three men at Fire Headquarters: a Deputy Chief, a Dispatcher, and One Firefighter on Truck #1!! Lack of proper coverage in this district.
3. Five men at Washington Avenue Fire Station: Two Firefighters on the Ambulance, Two Firefighters and a Captain on Engine #2.
4. A loss of services to You the Taxpayer; Four years ago the BFD manned two ambulances for EMS runs, now we run just one on a full time basis.
5. REDUCED fire and EMS protection for the Township residents.
6. Conditions where peoples lives will be in jeopardy!
7. Poor ISO rating which will cause increase in your homeowners insurance due to reductions in the Fire Department.

Since 1985, the manpower of th BFD has steadily decreased from 82 to 68 men, but yet our services to the Township residents have increased, from providing Hazardous Materials response to expanding our Emergency Medical Services to include the use of Engine Companies as First Responders when our ambulance is preoccupied. The Township Manager and Council has ignored past complaints from the two Fire Unions in Belleville, FMBA Locals 29 & 229, concerning the severe undermanning of the BELLEVILLE FIRE DEPARTMENT. The Manager and Council has decided to play Russian roulette not only with the lives of its Firefighters, but also with the lives of YOU and YOUR LOVED ONES !!

Contact YOUR Council Members and let them know you count more than these so called tax savings

YOUR HOME HEALTH CARE SPECIALISTS

Home health care usually requires the use of specialized medical equipment that is not readily available to the average person. This is why the local pharmacy with an extensive array of home health care equipment stands to play a major role in the health maintenance and rehabilitative process of its customers. Not only can the pharmacy avail the patient of such apparatus as a wheelchair, but it can be delivered and leased on a short-term basis. The last thing a non-ambulatory patient wants to do is begin a hunt for an affordable wheelchair that is readily available and easily acquired. What is a patient in this predicament to do? A good idea is to turn to the home care department of the local pharmacy.

You'll find it's a good idea to turn to your pharmacist if you have any questions on medications, as well as home care equipment. For all your needs you can depend on us at ROSS-MORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. We handle the sale and rental of convalescent aids including walkers, wheel chairs, crutches and canes. Open: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

HINT: Familiarize yourself with the wide variety of equipment available for bed-bound patients.

BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED BY THE TOWNSHIP COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX, STATE OF NEW JERSEY (not less than two-thirds of all the members thereof affirmatively concurring), AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. The improvement described in section 3 of this bond ordinance is hereby authorized as a general improvement to be undertaken by the Township of Belleville, in the County of Essex, State of New Jersey (the "Township"). For the said improvement or purpose stated in Section 3, there is hereby appropriated the sum of $700,000, said sum being inclusive of all appropriations made heretofore made therefor and including the sum of $34,000 as the amount of down payment for said improvement or purpose required by law and now available therefor by virtue of provision in a previously adopted budget or budgets of the Township for down payment or for capital improvement purposes and including a $210,000 loan expected to be received by the Township from the State of New Jersey pursuant to the Municipal and City Infrastructure Loan Program.

SECTION 2. For the financing of said improvement or purpose and to meet the part of said $700,000 appropriation not provided for by application hereunder of said down payment, negotiable bonds of the Township are hereby authorized to be issued in the principal amount of $666,000 pursuant to the Local Bond Law of the State of New Jersey (the "Local Bond Law"). In anticipation of the issuance of said bonds and to temporarily finance said improvement or purpose, negotiable notes of the Township in a principal amount not exceeding $666,000 are hereby authorized to be issued pursuant to and within the limitations prescribed by said Local Bond Law.

SECTION 3. The improvement hereby authorized and purpose for the financing of which said obligations are to be issued is a seal and point restoration to the brick and masonry exterior of Township Hall and the installation of energy efficient windows, and the purchase and installation of all equipment, structures and appurtenances necessary therefor and all work or materials useful, convenient or incident to aforesaid purpose.

b. The estimated cost of said purpose is $700,000, the excess thereof over the said estimated maximum amount of bonds or notes to be issued therefore, being the amount of $34,000, is the down payment for said purpose.

SECTION 4. In the event the United States of America, the State of New Jersey, and/or the County of Essex make a contribution or grant in aid to the Township for improvement and purpose authorized hereby and the same shall be received by the Township prior to the issuance of the bonds or notes authorized in Section 2 hereof, then the amount of such bonds or notes to be issued shall be reduced by the amount so received from the United States of America, the State of New Jersey, and/or the County of Essex. In the event, however, that any amount so contributed or granted by the United States of America, the State of New Jersey, and/or the County of Essex shall be received by the Township after the issuance of the bonds or notes authorized in Section 2 hereof, then such funds shall be applied to payment of the bonds or notes so issued and shall be used for no other purpose.

SECTION 5. The notes shall bear interest at such rate or rates and be in such form as may be determined by the Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer of the Township shall determine all matters in connection with the notes issued pursuant to this bond ordinance, and the signature of the Chief Financial Officer upon the notes shall be conclusive evidence as to all such determinations. All notes issued hereunder may be renewed from time to time in accordance with the provisions of N.J.S.A. 40A:2-8 (a). The Chief Financial Officer is hereby authorized to sell part or all of the notes from time to time at public or private sale and to deliver them to the purchaser thereof upon receipt of payment of the purchase price and accrued interest thereon from their dates to the date of delivery thereof. The Chief Financial Officer is directed to report in writing to the governing body at the meeting next succeeding the date when any sale or delivery of the notes pursuant to this bond ordinance is made. Such report must include the principal amount, the description, the interest rate, and the maturity schedule of the notes so sold, the price obtained and the name of the purchaser.

SECTION 6. The capital budget of the Township is hereby amended to conform with provisions of this bond ordinance to the extent of any inconsistency herewith. In the event of any such inconsistency, a resolution in the form promulgated by the Local Finance showing full detail of the amended capital budget and capital programs as approved by the Director of the Division of Local Government Services will be on file in the office of the Clerk and will be available for public inspection.

SECTION 7. The following additional matters are hereby determined, declared, recited and stated:

a. The purpose described in Section 3 of this bond ordinance is not a current expense and is an improvement which the Township may lawfully undertake as a general improvement, and no part of the cost thereof has been or shall be specially assessed on property specially benefitted thereby.

b. The period of usefulness of said purpose within the limitations of said Local Bond Law, according to the reasonable life thereof computed from the date of said bonds authorized by this bond ordinance, is twenty (20) years.

c. The supplemental debt statement required by the Local Bond Law has been duly made and filed in the office of the Clerk of the Township and a complete executed duplicate thereof has been filed in the office of the Director of the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs of the State of New Jersey, and such statement shows that the gross debt of the Township as defined in the Local Bond Law is increased by the authorization of the bonds or notes provided for in this bond ordinance by $666,000, and the said obligations authorized by this bond ordinance will be within all debt limitations prescribed by said Local Bond Law.

d. An amount not exceeding $25,000 for items of expense listed in and permitted under N.J.S.A. 40A: 2-20 is included in the estimated cost indicated herein for the purpose or improvement before described.

SECTION 8. The full faith and credit of the Township are hereby pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and the interest on the obligations authorized by this bond ordinance. The obligations shall be direct, unlimited obligations of the Township and the Township shall be obligated to levy ad valorem taxes upon all the taxable real property within the Township for the payment of the obligations and the interest thereon without limitation as to rate or amount.

SECTION 9. The Township reasonably expects to reimburse any expenditures towards the costs of the improvement or purpose described in Section 3 of this bond ordinance and paid prior to the issuance of any bonds or notes authorized by this bond ordinance with the proceeds of such bonds or notes. No funds from sources other than the bonds or notes authorized herein has been or is reasonably expected to be reserved, allocated on a long-term basis or otherwise set aside by the Township, or any member of the same "control group" as the Township, within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.150-1 (f), pursuant to their budget or financial policies with respect to any expenditures to be reimbursed. This Section 9 is intended to be and hereby is a declaration of the Township's official intent to reimburse any expenditures toward the cost of the improvement or purpose described in section 3 hereof to be incurred and paid prior to the issuance of bonds or notes authorized herein in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.103-18, and no further action (or inaction) will be an artifice or device in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.103-13 (j) or 1.148-9 (g) to avoid, in whole or in part, arbitrage yield restrictions or arbitrage rebate requirements. The proceeds of any bonds or notes authorized herein used to reimburse the Township for any expenditures toward the cost of the improvement or purpose described in Section 3 hereof will not be used directly or indirectly (i) to "refund" an issue of governmental obligations within the meaning of Section 148 of the code, (ii) to create or increase the balance of a "sinking fund" within meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.103-1 (g) with respect to any obligation of the Township, or to replace funds that have been, are being or will be used for sinking fund purposes, (iii) to create or increase the balance in a "reserve or replacement fund" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.103-14 (d) with respect to any obligation of the Township or to place funds that have been, are being or will be so used for reserve or replacement fund purposes, or (iv) to reimburse the Township for any expenditure or payment that was originally paid with the proceeds of any obligation of the Township (other than borrowing by the Township from one of its own funds or the funds of a member of the same "controlled group" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.150-1 (f)). The bonds or notes authorized herein to reimburse the Township for any expenditures towards the cost of the improvement or purpose described in Section 3 hereof will be issued in an amount not to exceed $666,000. The costs to be reimbursed with the proceeds of the bonds or notes authorized herein will be "capital expenditures" in accordance with the meaning of Section 150 of the code. This provision will take effect immediately, but will be of no effect with regard to expenditures for costs paid outside the permitted reimbursement period set forth in Treasury Regulations Section 1.103-18 (c) (ii).

SECTION 10. This bond ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after the first publication thereof after final adoption, as provided by the Local Bond Law.

Back-Seat Geography

Capitals and Capitols

This is the second in a three-part series about U.S. geography. Take these issues with you on your travels. When you spot a license plate, color in the state on the map in this issue. Read about the state's nickname, capital, capital population and capitol building.

Homophones are words that sound alike, but have different spellings and meanings.

- capital: a city serving as a seat of government.
- capitol: a building in which a legislature meets.

The Mini Page Presidents Poster and Book of Presidents are a great combination — and the best way to learn about each president — including Bill Clinton!

Illustrated with reproductions of engraved portraits, the 22 1/2-by-28 1/2-inch Presidents Poster shows each of the presidents with the dates that each held office.

The Book of Presidents (5 1/2-by-8 1/2-inch, 96 pages) features a photo of each president, as well as information such as dates of birth and death, dates served as president, political party, signature, glossary of political terms, a visit to the White House and important achievements.

Convertible Dishwashers Save Time, Money

This Whirlpool convertible/portable dishwasher model offers the ultimate in flexibility. For families with limited funds or kitchen space, or families on the move, it can be used like a portable dishwasher. Just roll it up to the sink and connect.

Looking for a good way to add some free time to your busy schedule — and save some money, too?

"If so, a new convertible dishwasher may be your answer," suggest home economists from Whirlpool Corporation.

"Two recent national surveys of dishwasher owners report that, by washing their dishes automatically rather than by hand, they save close to four hours per week," the home economists add.

Dishwasher owners in the Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers (AHAM) survey said they saved 3.8 hours a week, or about 200 hours a year — the equivalent of a bonus vacation.

And, as if to confirm the first study, a second survey by Working Mother magazine and AHAM determined that doing without a dishwasher would add up to four hours a week to a family's work load — and greatly reduce its free time.

Since dishwashers save so much time, why do only about half (52%) of America's households have one?

"A scarcity of space and the cost of installing one at the time of purchase are the two major reasons given by would-be dishwasher owners," report Whirlpool's home economists.

Recognizing that many families need a dishwasher right now, even though permanent installation may have to wait, Whirlpool product designers developed the convertible/portable dishwasher.

The concept is amazingly simple. To use it right out of the carton, just roll it to the kitchen sink, hook it up and turn it on.

But, when it's time for permanent installation, converting it to a conventional undercounter dishwasher is a quick and simple process.

In addition to its dual-use capabilities, the new Whirlpool convertible/portable model DP8700XY offers a long list of convenience features including 5 automatic cycles with a total of 15 cycle and option combinations; silverware basket in the door; three-level washing system; quiet operation; high-side racks; hide-away hoses and power cord; and a wood-look top.

Equipped at the factory for original use as a portable, this comes with a full set of instructions for easy conversion to an undercounter unit when permanent installation becomes an option.

Mayor Fred Kuren has been the interim Mayor because of the indictment, conviction, and subsequent incarceration of former Mayor Joseph Lipari. Find out how Mayor Kuren restored hope in Passaic, and how he was able to clean up Passaic City Hall.

Other issues concerning Passaic include: the city towing contract scam; the Racketeering Influenced Corrupt Organizations Act, the Passaic Board of Education, and the recent murder of a 7-year-old Passaic girl. Mayor Kuren will also tell us some advice he will give to Passaic's new mayor, Marge Semler.

To see the last interview with former Interim Mayor Fred Kuren, tune in to Meet Your Mayor with Lee Spinelli on OBC-TV, Channel 36, Suburban Cable and Channel 20, TCI of North Jersey on: July 15 at 7 p.m.; July 18 at noon.
