Ethics Board clears Perna; cautions her on future votes

By Howard Klausner

The Belleville Ethical Standards Board has dismissed a charge of violation of the Township Code of Ethics made against Mayor Marina Perna by Councilman William Cook. At the same time, it advised her not to vote on matters involving the Rasmussen Insurance Agency, or insurance matters.

Cook based his charge on articles that appeared in the Belleville Times in March and April, in which former Garfield City Manager Angelo Checki stated that while serving as Belleville's mayor, Miss Perna sought the assignment of defending the City of Garfield against two accident claims, saying that she had represented Rasmussen Insurance Agency in these cases.

She quoted the statement as saying the following:

"This is to advise you that the Ethics Board has received and investigated the complaint filed against you alleging violations of the Township's Code of Ethical Standards.

"As a result of its investigation, the Board has determined that no violation of the code has been established."

Mayor Perna said the letter then cited "Section D read in connection with Section I of the Code."

"This decision should not however be construed as the Board's endorsement of voting on such matters.

"Rather, we concur wholeheartedly with your subsequent decision to abstain from future votes on such matters.

"With this letter and with that understanding, the Board's investigation of this complaint is complete."

Checki said on Tuesday he had answered a questionnaire mailed to him by the Board of Ethical Standards but that he had declined to make a personal appearance before it. "I don't want the reputation of being a trouble maker," he said.

He said, "I told them there is a paper trail connecting Mayor Perna with Rasmussen and they should investigate it."

Last week, after the State Commission of Investigation released its report on its investigation of Belleville affairs, James E. Kellett, Chairman of the Ethical Standards Board, faxed this message to Mayor Perna, the Mayor reported.

He said the facility was now offering patients "better value for their dollars while maintaining a high quality care."

Curtis said that the resulting higher productivity brought about the work reduction program.

"It is our belief that the redirection of the goals and efforts of Clara Mass Health System, Inc. will enable us to provide projects for the community which will result in improving health status, addressing health problems and containing the growth of health care costs in the future."

Clara Maass fires staffers in a belt-tightening effort

Clara Maass Medical Center has announced the across-the-board layoff of 50 employees, including several Practical Nurses, in an economy move. The hospital has some 1,500 employees, many of them Belleville residents.

The layoffs were announced by Clara Maass Health System, Inc., which operates the hospital.

Robert Curtis, President and Chief Executive Officer, said that more emphasis would be placed on preventive treatments that would reduce hospital stay time for patients.

The move would make the hospital more efficient, he said.

"As a result of changes occurring in health care reform on the national and state level, Clara Maass Health System can no longer continue to operate as it has in the past," Curtis stated.

"Responding to the community's needs has led to a new emphasis on wellness, in addition to traditional acuter care, which in turn has resulted in a leaner and more cost conscious facility."

Murder suspect arrested after chase into Newark

A man wanted for murder tore through Belleville the night of Sept. 1 with East Orange police in pursuit. Belleville police joined the chase and helped bring him under arrest in Newark.

Michael Faison, 21, of Newark, is accused of having slain a 21-year-old East Orange man on July 20.

He and two other suspects in the slaying were being sought by East Orange police when Faison was spotted in a 1990 Ford Mustang.

The chase that followed came down Route 280 to Route 21, and then into Belleville at Mill Street. Faison reportedly rammed the East Orange police car of Joaquin Martinez, who continued the pursuit despite personal injury.

Belleville Police Officer Matthew Bernardo joined the chase and caught up with Faison at Grafton Avenue west of Broadway in Newark.

Bernardo and Martinez struggled to handcuff Faison, who grabbed at Martinez' handgun, causing it to be discharged. No one was hit, and the arrest was completed.

A high powered .357 Magnum pistol was found in Faison's car, police said.

Faison was turned over to Newark police.

Belleville firm aids transplant

A team of five doctors from the Pittsburgh Transplant Foundation who were taking part in a liver transplant operation were taken to Hackensack Medical Center from Teterboro Airport by the Reiser Courier Service, Tuesday morning.

Bob Reiser was notified of their arrival at 12:30 a.m.

He waited for the team at the hospital until 7 a.m., when he got them back to the airport, and the flight back to Pittsburgh.

He was called to the assignment by Mary Ellen McClann of the Organ and Tissue Sharing Network of Springfield. The Belleville firm specializes in organ transplant missions.

Cops arrest suspect in Petaccio murder

By Howard Klausner

"It was an outstanding achievement," Belleville Detective Captain William Escott said Tuesday, announcing the arrest of a suspect in the July 3, 1990 murder of Belleville businessman Anthony Petaccio, 57.

Detective Sergeant Edgar Panier shared the credit for the arrest with Investigators Patrick DeFrancisci and Louis Portella of the Essex County Prosecutor's Homicide Squad.

They charged the slaying to James Lawson, 38, formerly of Newark.

Lawson has been in Essex County Jail since February awaiting trial on robbery and weapons charges.

Panier formally charged Lawson with the murder last week, and announcement of the arrest was made on Tuesday by Escott and the Essex County Prosecutor's office.

Mr. Petaccio was found lying in a parking lot of the Peoples Savings Bank at 235 Washington Ave., with a knife blade in his chest.

The body was discovered at 8:14 a.m. Panier led the investigation from the outset.

Mr. Petaccio, owner of a publishing and printing business, had rented a parking space from the bank. He had parked his Jaguar in the spot, and apparently had been locking the door of the car when he was confronted with his assailant.

He dropped his watch, some jewelry and his wallet in a trail from the door of the car to the rear of the vehicle.

There, apparently, he was fatally stabbed.

Mr. Petaccio, who was more than six feet tall, may have struggled with the murderer. Police described Lawson as being of average height, with a strong physique.

No arrests came in the following weeks and months, but Panier and the Essex County investigators continued following leads.

Panier was seen so often in North Newark, in the neighborhood where Lawson lived on Grafton Avenue, that residents may have assumed he was a Newark detective, he reported.

Panier said the exact information that led to the arrest of Lawson would not be made public before the Essex County Grand Jury heard it.

Escott called the investigation "an example of good, solid police work, and an outstanding achievement."

Lawson was arraigned Wednesday morning in Belleville Municipal Court before Judge Frank Zinna on charges of homicide, robbery while armed, possession of a weapon and possession of a weapon for unlawful purposes.

Fire Chief Beresford suspended in wake of allegations by SCI

By Howard Klausner

Acting Township Manager Raymond Kimble ordered the suspension without pay of Fire Chief Walter Beresford the day after the State Commission of Investigation issued a report on its study of Township affairs.

Kimble, who was visibly upset as he took the action, issued a statement explaining it.

"As a result of the allegations regarding Fire Chief Walter Beresford and the report's recommendations that disciplinary action be taken against the Chief (he) suspended Chief Beresford without pay effective Thursday, Sept. 2.

"Further comment regarding the allegations would be improper at this time due to the pending litigation.

"A formal hearing is scheduled for Chief Beresford on Sept. 24,

"Deputy Fire Chief Robert Caruso has been appointed acting Fire Chief."

Associates of Chief Beresford called the suspension "unusual" in that the SCI recommendation has no legal weight, such as a recommendation by a Grand Jury or a governmental body might have.

Beresford's friends also noted that the hearing would be conducted by Acting Manager Kimble, who had drawn up the charges and suspension order.

The SCI charges allege that Chief Beresford made overtime payments to members of the Fire Department when the pay was actually for work done in repairing the fire houses.

He was also charged with failing to follow bidding laws when selling off old equipment. Beresford has denied the charges.

While the main target of the investigation was apparently former Township Manager Bertrand Kendall, the SCI found no grounds for charges against him. The charges against Beresford followed complaints by the Fire Chief that Mayor Marina Perna violated the Faulkner Act by directly demanding that he make budget reductions. Elected officials are required to approach employees only through the Township Manager.

According to Township sources, the argument for suspending Chief Beresford was that improper actions were charged to him, and the best way to halt further improper actions was to remove him from office.

Beresford's associates said it was a matter of finding the Chief guilty before there was a trial.

Bergen robberies solved here

Belleville police cleaned up a series of Bergen County robberies last week with the arrest of a suspect who was asleep in his stolen car.

Police Officer Joseph Richiuso was on routine patrol at Bridge Street and William Street when he noticed a parked car with the brake light on.

He found Frank Pierro, 33, of Newark asleep in the car with his foot on the brake.

When Richiuso checked the license plate, he learned it was a stolen car.

With the aid of back-up, Richiuso found jewelry in the value of thousands of dollars in the car, along with a number of appliances.

Some of the items were traced to a burglarized home in Harrington Park, Ridgefield Park, Dumont and other Bergen County towns also claimed some of the stolen items.

Pierro is currently in Essex County Jail in $25,000 bail, awaiting trial for possession of stolen property.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

Some people are getting famouser and famouser. Belleville's own Susan Narucki has become known as the "singer of choice" by a growing number of composers - meaning that they are writing their works with her voice and presence in mind. And it is more than just her being beautiful. Her ability to interpret the composer's work, and make him really look good, has put her on stages throughout Europe and the United States. The composers who have selected her to introduce their works to the musical world may not be household names in North Jersey, but to music lovers, the modern compositions of Olly Wilson, Aaron Kernis, David Rakowski and Mario Davidovsky rank higher than the batting averages of the Yankee infield. And they've all chosen Ms. Narucki to give the premiere rendition of their works. ● ● ● ● European composers have gotten into the act. Rob Zuidam, a Netherlands composer, has selected her to perform the role of Tania, in an opera based on the adventures of Patricia Hearst, the heiress who was kidnapped into the ranks of the so-called Symbionese Liberation Army, turned into a bank robber and finally jailed, even though she had acted under coercion. Tania was the name given her by her captors. The world premiere will be in April, in Munich with later performances in Braunschweig and at the Holland Festival. At the same time, she has developed her own program of music, "The American Bel Canto" which includes music by Duke Ellington, Charles Ives, Scott Joplin and Amy Beach, among others. ● ● ● ● If you can't afford to get over to Strasbourg, Amsterdam, London, Vienna or Spain over the next six months, and catch some of her concerts in those locations, you can hear her on a record with Zubin Mehta and the New York Philharmonic on New World's release of "Haddock's Eyes" by David Del Tredici. And a lot of her career came out of the Belleville High School music program, folks.

Karen Cressman left the cozy confines of Schwenksville, Pennsylvania a few years ago to work in North Jersey to sell the computerservices of Western Union to businesses in the area. On Sept. 11, she will be at Gaffney Hall next to the Englewood Cliffs campus of St. Peter's College in her debut as star - and sole performer - of The Belle of Amherst in which she portrays the role of Emily Dickinson, the 19th Century New England poetess. It is a role which helped Julle Harris win a Tony Award. Ms. Cressman will be happy if it wins her an agent. The play will be taken to Off Broadway on Oct. 10, at the Actors Institute Theater 48 West 21st Street, Manhattan. All told, she will give a dozen performances of the work, six in New Jersey and six across the river. "It's an hour and 40 minutes alone, on stage, with 87 pages to learn, including 35 poems," Ms. Cressman said. The five-foot-two auburn-haired actress says she is ready for the challenge. ● ● ● ● Life was simpler in her home town, where she was one of five children in a family that was seventh generation 100 percent German - "Not Amish, but quite like it." The Cressmans did not wander far from the hearth, at least not until Karen came along. She attended Drexel University in Philadelphia and took majors in Human Behavior and the teaching of Home Economics. Western Union was not so much interested in her cooking abilities as in her capacity for salesmanship and after a few years, she won a job promotion which made North Jersey her territory. She selected Belleville for her home because of its location. "It's centrally located, affordable, my apartment is full of character with a great location near a park, and Belleville has a lot of advantages." ● ● ● ● Here she was, peddling telecommunications services, satellite broadcasting time, computer software, electronic equipment and a lot of other high-tech items, all of which was a long way from the peaceful Plattdeutsche countryside of her childhood. Then she left the firm to sell computer tapes and equipment to certify the tapes. Certify? "That is the measuring of the magnetic force in the tape to tell how many errors there are." She then came to a personal decision. "I decided to pursue theater." ● I ● ● To support herself, she has a thriving commission business selling janitorial supplies. But her heart is in theatre work, particularly with Act I, a repertory company which is currently headquartered at Gaffney Hall and creates a variety of stage productions. Act I is basically the brainchild and project of Isaac Dostis and Diana Sunrise. They are sponsoring Karen in The Belle of Amherst, pushing it, hopefully, towards Broadway. ● ● ● ● Ms. Cressman has performed on stage in Shakespeare as Ophelia and in lead roles in such American classics as You Can't Take It with You, Barefoot in The Park and Arthur Miller's Chapter Two - which was performed in London. ● ● ● ● Ms. Cressman has been invited to enter the modeling field for print advertising, and she has endured the buffets of the business world. Hopefully, there is the possibility of television and films, and to get an idea of the lady, in person, or Act I, call (201) 299-1675 for tickets. It beats watching the Mets take another pasting. ● ● ● ● In last week's report on John Grande, the high school dropout who is now financial adviser to millionaires, we stated that he has a client an association of physicians, which we misnamed. The organization is the American Psychiatry Association. Boy, would they have a field day in Belleville politics!

Mrs. Michael Porcello, whose efforts to provide a home for a severely handicapped son were featured in the Times last month, received this letter from a lady who also knows problems. "I know you from being a patient at Clara Maass. You have been my Nurse's Aide many times. My heart must go out to you and your family, especially your son. I know how hard you work, then go home to care for your son. I may be able to help you in a small way. I'm deaf, but I do read lips very well, and I know that if you saw me you would remember me as a patient, I have been there so many times. ● ● ● ● "In 1972, the man I was going with was very ill and Dr. Rich let me take care of him, even when he was in Intensive Care Unit for eight long months. I went every day to care for him. So I know something about care. Even though I'm not a nurse, I love to do that kind of work. Now, I'm not working any more. I'm retired, age 68, and I could give some free time to you. I don't want money, just to lend a hand to you and your family. Julle Matzer, Belleville."

Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten, says he heard Assessor Tommy Salzano taking credit for calling the cops on Belleville. "It's all part of his plan to reduce taxes by lowering property values in town, and it's working! The selling price of a house here has dropped by at least $5,000 in the past three months." ● ● ● ● Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says that his organization, the Kool Kukumber Boys, thinks the State Commission of Investigation had the right idea when it left the investigation of the Mayor for alleged Faulkner Act violations in the hands of the Board of Ethical Standards. "It's certainly a lot cheaper than having the SCI do it, and it opens up a lot of possibilities. For example, if there's a report that Adolf Hitler has been found in Montevideo, they could ask the local Sodality to check it out. And to investigate Organized Crime, there are always the Girl Scouts."

Guitarist Lou Pallo at Church

The evening will include a complete Chicken Cordon Bleu dinner, from salad to dessert and coffee, dancing, and the classic guitar stylings of Lou Pallo. The cost for this evening of entertainment is $35 per person.

Reservations for the evening are required and seating is limited. For information or to make reservations, call the church at 751-0616.

Parade committee seeks Belleville, Nutley representative

The Belleville-Nutley Columbus Day Parade Committee is seeking a "Bella Signorina" for the annual Columbus Day Ball and Parade. One Bella Signorina from Belleville and one from Nutley will be chosen. In addition, two ladies-in-waiting from each town will be selected. The young ladies that are selected will represent the towns at the ball on Oct. 2, and will ride on the parade float on Oct. 10.

To be eligible, the young ladies must be between the ages of 16-20 and have one parent of Italian heritage. For additional information and application, in Belleville contact General Chairman Mario Drozd at 751-2277, and in Nutley contact Mary Romagnoli at 667-1473. Applications must be completed and returned by Sept. 20, along with a recent photo and resume.

Drug bust jails two

Belleville police had to chase an escaping heroin pusher suspect up and down Route 21 before finally nabbing him, Wednesday night of last week.

Police said that Rolando Maldonado, 20, of Newark, and a companion, Aida Santiago, 19, of Newark, were boxed in by three police cars at Mill Street and Washington Avenue when the chase began.

The police had a tip that Maldonado would be arriving in town with a shipment of heroin. When stopped, Maldonado reportedly stepped on the gas, rammed one of the police cars and attempted to run down Bloomfield Police Officer Joseph Velez, who had been brought along to be an interpreter. Velez fired three shots at the car as it went past him.

Maldonado drove south on Route 21, then made a U-turn at Chester Avenue, and was heading north when he ran into the back of a pick-up truck in the center lane of the highway.

During the chase, Maldonado reportedly threw bags of heroin out of the car. The drugs reportedly were located by dogs of the Essex County Sheriff's K-9 unit.

Some 150 packets of heroin with a street value of $2,500 were found, police said.

Maldonado faces charges of aggravated assault on a police officer and possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, as well as attempting to elude police.

The arrest of Maldonado is part of an ongoing investigation into drug activities, and Detective Sergeant Edgar Panier is in charge of the police operation.

OUR OPINION

We're for Mary Lou

If there is any one thing that should discredit the State Commission of Investigation report on Belleville is its unwarranted and unfactual assault on the office management of Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood.

Anyone with an inkling of understanding would see in a moment how well organized Mary Lou Hood is, and how efficient she is in the face of an utter lack of personnel or mechanical aids.

Kearny has the same population as Belleville, and its Clerk has a staff of five or more full time workers.

Mary Lou Hood handles an equally large volume of business with just herself and the redoubtable young Kelly Nash for aid. Papers spill over onto desks and pile on floors because there is neither the room nor the cabinet space for them.

That is not the doing of Mrs. Hood. It is the doing of the short-changers who have hobbled the Administration of Belleville for the past half century, and beyond.

If anything proves the lack of judgment or fairness of the SCI investigation, it is its characterisations of Mary Lou Hood and her operation of the office. The investigators should have a fraction of her efficiency and an iota of her integrity. They might have come up with less than a sheer waste of public funds and an exercise in lynch justice.

Making the best of it

The return to school this week of our youngsters is proof that the world goes on.

The nice thing to report is that we do not face a teachers' strike - at least not yet. There is little or no known threat of asbestos deterioration to threaten the health of the youngsters.

And faculty and administration are there to make the best of the situation, in the face of the $865,000 budget cut exacted by the Township Council.

The athletic and music programs will continue, on a tighter basis.

Some of the clubs will not meet. Some extra-curricular activities will be curtailed.

Shortchanged again, the youngsters will do their best to make their grades and enjoy those wonderful, bittersweet moments of being a teen-ager.

The problem is that while a growing percentage of our youngsters have been going on to college in recent years, it will be just a bit harder for them to do so, now.

There will be a little less guidance, a little less attention to the individual, and possibly, an individual here and there will not get that added boost that would have meant a college education and a better paying career.

But the schools will go on - moving not quite as fast as they might in the face of the world competition for trained talent. But we'll make the best of it.

Making the most of it

Nearby Rutherford was the scene of a street fair that apparently heralded the beginning of the gubernatorial and legislative campaigns.

A few Belleville stalwarts, among them Richard Yanuzzi, were spotted on television, voicing their political messages - in this case for Christie Whitman and against Jim Florio.

There will be a growing trend for these demonstrations, which attract the television cameras more than the simple sayings of the random voters.

Richie may be on to something, and in time demonstrations for the sake of television camera attention may become a fine art.

After all, there is the dopey television crew which has no more idea of the political facts than any other group of recent kindergartners, and the event that attracts their attention is the one which they shall video tape.

We think Belleville activists are second to none in their ability to gain attention, the more outrageously the better.

The theory is - the TV camera is there. Let's make the most of it.

YOUR OPINION

Cheers for Mary Lou

To the editor:

On behalf of the Washington Avenue Merchants Association, we would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood. She has continually performed an outstanding job (150%) as a public servant as well as an active member of the community.

Washington Ave. Merchants Assoc.

Union gives position

To the editor:

The International Union of Electrical Workers, Local 370 has represented the production and maintenance employees at Wallace & Tiernan's Belleville facility since the 1960's. Over the years, the Company and the Union have negotiated numerous collective bargaining agreements and resolved thousands of grievances, all in the spirit of good faith and cooperation. Local 370 expects its relationship with Wallace & Tiernan, and its parent corporation, North West Water, to remain on these terms.

The Union and the Company are parties to a collective bargaining agreement which is binding upon both sides until May 1994. Approximately three weeks ago, management approached Local Union leadership and told them that North West Water had expressed a willingness to commit up to $13 million for upgrading the Belleville facility, provided the Union would be willing to negotiate changes in work rules which would enhance what it called efficiency and profitability. At no time prior to this had management come forward and told the Union that the present system was not working. Nonetheless, the Union agreed to discuss these proposed changes with the Company.

This past week, Local 370 received the initial set of company proposals. Management kept its word; it did not propose wage or benefit reductions. It did propose that all of the practices the parties have developed over the years, whether or not they present operational problems, be eliminated. It completely also removed the Local's right to provide any input into the Company's operation. In fact, the Company will retain the right to create employee involvement programs which do not permit Union participation. More significantly, the Company's proposals would effectively render an employee's seniority meaningless, vesting with the Company the right to change production standards, job skill requirements and work assignments at will. Such moves go to the heart of a Union's relationship with its members.

Local 370 has a great interest in maintaining the viability of Wallace & Tiernan's Belleville facility. As in the past, we remain willing to cooperate with the Company to achieve its goals. It will not, however, agree to compromise its rights as a bargaining agent, nor those accumulated by its members through their many years of service.

Nicholas Scurello
President, IUE Local 370

The Rec in ruins

To the editor:

Our family has lived on Garden Avenue across from the recreation department for 14 years. Through the years we have seen the "rec" go through many changes, some good; lately mostly bad. When our children were little, the basketball courts were littered with broken glass and debris, swings were broken and missing, and there was little else in the way of equipment for the children to play with.

When our children were too old to play with swings, slides and other things in playgrounds, much work and money was put toward the playground around the rec, and although our children no longer wanted to use the swings, slides, etc., we were happy to see the improvements - especially because now they could play basketball with the newly lined and paved courts complete with hoops and nets.

Wrong! Since that time, we have seen a whole new crowd inhabit the courts (all hours of the day and night), many not from the area and not from town. We have witnessed dressing and undressing, foul language loud enough to hear down the block, garbage strewn all over despite the many garbage cans around the area, and have seen several incidents of boys urinating right in the middle of the courts in full view of anyone walking by. Just a few weeks ago, a boy decided to urinate facing Garden Avenue as I approached the side of my house. When he saw me watching him, he and his friends had a good laugh.

The Belleville Police Department tells us this is happening all over town and that they do not have the manpower or the time to do anything about it. The Recreation Department tells us that the Town Officials do not want to take the basketball courts down because they will deprive the youth of recreation and will perpetuate the problem of kids hanging around the courts doing nothing. Instead, Town Officials are recommending ID cards to be issued and checked and court times regulated. This was done last year and our children got cards. The cards were never checked. Balls continued and continue to bounce as late as 1 a.m. and as early as 7 a.m. Once again, neighborhood kids were unable to play ball because if they did try to play, when older boys who wanted to play came along, they just started to play on the courts our kids were playing on.

The I.D. program will not take effect until next year - and it won't work - it's just another tactic to sweep the problem under the rug and let more time - another year pass. We, (I speak for myself and many area residents who have been frustrated by the condition of our neighborhood) want the basketball hoops taken down! In any event, we are willing to deprive our children (they can't play anyway) to save our neighborhood.

We have enclosed pictures taken by a concerned neighbor of the fence on Garden Avenue and the debris that is found along it at any given time. We want this situation resolved NOW! We are tired of being given excuses and sympathy and NO ACTION!

• NOW don't line up for a handout after you learn that I have just been advised by Time Magazine Million Dollar Sweepstakes Dream Division that "Frank Orechio has been declared the big $1,666,675 winner." But, read on - in smaller type at the bottom of the page is the qualifier, "The first $66,667 check will be mailed directly to the address at right (800 Bloomfield Ave., Nutley), provided you return your entry with the enclosed Grand Prize Validation Seal attached and it includes the grand prize winning number. If you fail to respond, we will be forced to direct payment of the $1,666,675 to someone else - even if you hold the winning entry." So what do I do - I will do as I am asked.

In the same mail, I was invited by Readers' Digest to participate in a $2 Million Sweepstakes. Included on the envelope was a "Final Stage" sticker to be affixed to the return envelope.

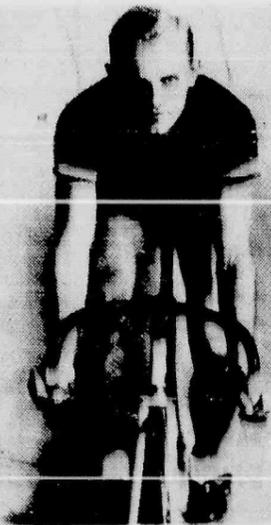

I'm almost certain that by returning the entry forms, I probably am competing with most of our readers for the same multi-million dollar prize.

• FORMER Chief of First Fidelity Bank, Bob Ferguson, has a son of whom he can be justly proud. Bob Ferguson, Jr. is president of Continental Airlines - proof that the apple doesn't fall far from the tree. Ferguson, Sr. displayed remarkable talent as a leader both in the banking industry and in the public arena. Bob Ferguson, Sr. for many years was a member of the New Jersey Sports Authority and did an outstanding job at that facility.

• THE Nutley High School Class of 1934 should be planning soon for its 60th anniversary next year. Among the graduates are Alice Ames Bimbi, Yolanda Loloia Perrotta, Frank Baldino and Sally Smith. The late Pat Sannara quarterbacked the 50th anniversary. Since that time, Pat was summoned to meet his Maker.

• NUTLEY natives, John and Lee Renn, moved to Tucson, Arizona, some time ago. All six of the Renn boys excelled in golf. John Renn is no exception. A regular low 80's golfer, once in a while, he breaks into the 70's - with his wife, Lee, close behind. This week, I received an interesting note from a prominent cyclist in the old days when the Nutley Velodrome played an important part in the life of our community. One of the contestants was Frank Keating, who at the age of 81, writes to advise me that his daily routine is 15-20 miles, followed by 18 holes of golf. Frank complains about the weather problems this year when the area suffered severe weather conditions - for example, 14 days of rain - something unheard of in Tucson, Arizona. Additionally, that community experienced 21 consecutive days of 100 heat - somewhat upsetting Keating's schedule. In his note to me, Keating says, "You have no idea of the many happy and thrilling memories I have of racing in Nutley, people I met, Alf Goulet, who is still with us, his fruitless effort to restore cycling in Nutley." Pictured below is Frank Keating at age 21 at the Nutley Velodrome. A contrasting photo is Frank straddling his equipment at age 81. God bless him and his friends, Lee and John Renn.

• IF your plans take you to Palm Beach International Airport, avoid a Metro cab. Recently, I had the misfortune of selecting a Metro cab to take me from the airport to Highland Beach - an 18-mile trip. The cab was held together by baling wire and scotch tape! The passenger cab was dirty. The bumpers were banged up, and the motor sounded like it was looking for a funeral home. Regardless which cab you take, there is a fixed rate for our trip emanating from the Palm Beach International Airport. In times past, the cab driver would ask you whether you wanted to pay by the meter or by the flat rate. It's been a long time since I was asked the question.

• BILL CLINTON, at different times, was known as "Slick Willy". After his speech claiming an overwhelming victory for the approval of his budget by Congress and Senate by a one and two-vote margin, he is now known as "Landslide Willy". I wonder what people will call him after he calls for taxes to fund his health care program? Together with many Democrat congressmen and senators as well as Republican members of both houses, I believe the Clinton Budget Package is bad for the country - and it is bad for the people of our nation.

Clinton was elected because he promised the people of our country he would do what was necessary to create new jobs. The Clinton Budget Package did not address this most crucial problem confronting our nation. Clinton would be better advised if he chaired a meeting of the nation's commercial, industrial and financial leaders and obtained from them recommendations that would lead to the creation of jobs in the private sector. Creating government jobs is not the way to go. Economists familiar with the small print of the budget document conclude that it will do irrevocable harm to the economy.

Police warn residents of fraudulent solicitations

The North Jersey Volunteer Fire Association is composed of more than 130 fire companies in the counties of Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Morris and Passaic. Membership also includes Emergency Management (formerly Civil Defense) fire rescue units and industrial fire brigades. Founded in 1928, the regional group has operated its own fire training center in Wayne since 1952.

During the past several years, there has been a dramatic increase in telephone soliciting by fire-and-police-type groups. Although many are legitimate organizations, they may not include or benefit the local agencies protecting the lives and property of those being called to donate. Some are also totally fraudulent. North Jersey Volunteer Fire Association President John T. Hunt stated the organization has issued an advisory cautioning residents and businesses to first check with their local fire and emergency services before giving any money to groups asking for donations on the phone.

Doctor leads medical team delivering medicine to Baku

Dr. Stefan Semchysyn, a Belleville physician, recently led a 14-member perinatal team on a humanitarian mission to Baku, Azerbaijan. This effort was organized by Americare, a non-profit organization, and co-sponsored by Amoco Caspian Sea Petroleum Co. Close to 30,000 pounds of medicine, supplies, and state-of-the-art equipment worth over $5 million (donated by Amoco Co.) were airlifted to Baku.

The need for aid in this region is overwhelming, according to Dr. Guseinov Ragim Mamed, Azerbaijan Minister of Health. Infant mortality, in particular, is unacceptably high. Dr. Semchysyn, who has pioneered successful programs to save babies from miscarriage, stillbirth and premature birth expressed that many tragedies, such as losing a child, can now be prevented.

"By providing knowledge through education we can attain successful results despite limited access to technology. Through the sharing of our ideas, as well as our technology, we hope to alleviate some of the widespread suffering which is so prevalent in Azerbaijan," Dr. Semchysyn said.

BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED BY THE TOWNSHIP COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX, STATE OF NEW JERSEY (not less than two-thirds of all the members thereof affirmatively concurring), AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. The improvement described in Section 3 of this bond ordinance is hereby authorized as a general improvement to be undertaken by the Township of Belleville, in the County of Essex, State of New Jersey (the "Township"). For the said improvement or purpose stated in Section 3, there is hereby appropriated the sum of $150,000, said sum being inclusive of all appropriations heretofore made therefor and including the sum of $7,500 as the amount of down payment for said improvement or purpose required by law and now available therefor by virtue of provision in a previously adopted budget or budgets of the Township for down payment or for capital improvement purposes.

SECTION 2. In anticipation of the issuance of said bonds and to temporarily finance said improvement or purpose, negotiable notes of the Township in a principal amount not exceeding $142,500 are hereby authorized to be issued pursuant to and within the limitations prescribed by said Local Bond Law.

SECTION 3. The improvement hereby authorized and purposes for the financing of which said obligations are to be issued is the undertaking of general roadway improvements to Greylock Parkway (Section II) and all work and materials necessary therefor and incidental thereto.

a. The estimated maximum amount of bonds or notes to be issued for said purpose is $142,500.

b. The estimated cost of said purpose is $150,000, the excess thereof over the said estimated maximum amount of bonds or notes to be issued therefor, being the amount of $7,500, is the down payment for said improvement.

SECTION 4. In the event the United States of America, the State of New Jersey, and/or the County of Essex make a contribution or grant in aid to the Township for the improvement and purpose authorized hereby and the same shall be received by the Township prior to the issuance of the bonds or notes authorized in Section 2 hereof, then the amount of such bonds or notes to be issued shall be reduced by the amount so received. In the event, however, that any amount so contributed or granted by the United States of America, the State of New Jersey, and/or the County of Essex shall be received by the Township after the issuance of the bonds or notes authorized in Section 2 hereof, then such funds shall be applied to the payment of the bonds or notes so issued and shall be used for no other purpose.

SECTION 5. All bond anticipation notes issued hereunder shall mature at such times as may be determined by the Chief Financial Officer of the Township, provided that no note shall mature later than one (1) year from its date. The notes shall bear interest at such rate or rates and be in such form as may be determined by the Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer of the Township shall determine all matters in connection with notes issued pursuant to this bond ordinance, and the signature of the Chief Financial Officer upon the notes shall be conclusive evidence as to all such determinations. All notes issued hereunder may be renewed from time to time in accordance with the provisions of N.J.S.A. 40A:2-8(a). The Chief Financial Officer is hereby authorized to sell part or all of the notes from time to time at public or private sale and to deliver them to the purchasers thereof upon receipt of payment of the purchase price and accrued interest thereon from their dates to the date of delivery thereof. The Chief Financial Officer is directed to report in writing to the governing body at the meeting next succeeding the date when any sale or delivery of the notes pursuant to this bond ordinance is made. Such report must include the principal amount, the description, the interest rate and the maturity schedule of the notes so sold, the price obtained and the name of the purchaser.

SECTION 6. The capital budget of the Township is hereby amended to conform with the provisions of this bond ordinance to the extent of any inconsistency herewith. In the event of any such inconsistency, a resolution in the form promulgated by the Local Finance Board showing full detail of the amended capital budget and capital programs as approved by the Director of the Division of Local Government Services will be on file in the office of the Clerk and will be available for public inspection.

SECTION 7. The following additional matters are hereby determined, declared, recited and stated:

(a) The purpose described in Section 3 of this bond ordinance is not a current expense and is an improvement which the Township may lawfully undertake as a general improvement, and no part of the cost thereof has been or shall be specially assessed on property specially benefited thereby.

(b) The period of usefulness of the improvement within the limitations of said Local Bond Law, according to the reasonable life thereof computed from the date of the bonds authorized by this bond ordinance, is 20 years.

(c) The supplemental debt statement required by the Local Bond Law has been duly made and filed in the Office of the Township Clerk and a complete executed duplicate thereof has been filed in the Office of the Director of the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs of the State of New Jersey, and such statement shows that the gross debt of the Township as defined in the Local Bond Law is increased by the authorization of the bonds or notes provided for in this bond ordinance by $142,500, and the said obligations authorized by this bond ordinance will be within all debt limitations prescribed by said Local Bond Law.

(d) An aggregate amount not exceeding $20,000 for items of expense listed in and permitted under N.J.S.A. 40A:2-20 is included in the estimated cost indicated herein for the purpose or improvement herein before described.

SECTION 8. The full faith and credit of the Township are hereby pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and the interest on the obligations authorized by this bond ordinance. The obligations shall be direct, unlimited obligations of the Township, and the Township shall be obligated to levy ad valorem taxes upon all the taxable real property within the Township for the payment of the obligations and the interest thereon without limitation as to rate or amount.

SECTION 9. This bond ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after the first publication thereof after final adoption, as provided by the Local Bond Law.

HAVING TROUBLE SLEEPING?
Half of the 35 percent of adults in this country who have trouble sleeping at night believe their problem to be serious. When looking for the cause of insomnia and other sleep problems, people may believe that the only drug that warrants investigation is caffeine. The fact is, however, that there are a number of common prescription medications that can interfere with sleep. Among them are: anticholinergics (used to relieve stomach cramps or intestinal cramps); anti-depressants; anti-hypertensives; antineoplastics (used for cancer chemotherapy); corticosteroids; decongestants; diuretics; and histamine2 blockers (used in treating ulcers). Patients may get a better night's sleep by either cutting down or substituting other medications for those that keep them awake.
If you think a medication may be keeping you awake check with our pharmacist at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968 "Your Doctor Knows Us - Your Doctor Trusts Us". We handle greeting cards, Russell Stover candies, cosmetics, toiletries and baby needs. Open: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

'No' on the Budget

To the editor:
With Mayor Marina Perna voting "yes", the Belleville Municipal Budget was adopted at approximately 9 p.m. on Tuesday, August 31st '93.

For an hour prior to the vote, numerous Belleville citizens implored the Council to adopt several amendments, aimed at minimizing the tax increase we will suffer again, as we have, year after year.

The Mayor and her Council listened to you when you defeated the School budget and chopped $865,000 in expenditures, deemed not necessary to provide a "thorough and efficient" education.

With her final and affirmative vote, the Mayor effectively slammed the door on any possible motion to amend the budget and reduce the increase!! Some $200,000 included in the budget was identified by the citizens prior to the vote. By identifying the items as "inappropriate" the citizens in effect voted "NO" on the budget as presented. If you regard us as YOUR representative, YOUR voice at these public meetings, then YOU in effect defeated the budget as proposed, demanding the "inappropriate" items be deleted. Apparently the Mayor, with her deciding vote doesn't see it that way... Are our tax dollars funding the Municipal budget any different from the tax dollars to fund the school system?

Prior to the budget hearing, the Council engaged in a "work session," discussing items which may have to be acted on in the future. I understand the Council is still receptive to the idea of paying Essex County Executive Thomas D'Alessio and his Freeholders some $400,000 for a piece of "Essex County" property. Belleville and the other towns ARE Essex County, and therefore own this property, "for their use and enjoyment." Belleville's taxpayers are in effect told to enrich the Board of Freeholders in exchange for use of property already ours... Did you ever???

Now why should we fall all over each other and approve these shenanigans? So a private developer can build an apartment complex for some 70 senior citizens, as "senior housing," renting for an estimated $700 to $800 per mo! If there is need for affordable senior citizen housing, this will be an ideal solution... in the eyes of Belleville's Mayor and Council. No disagreement was voiced at the "work session," I understand.

Misuse of town funds

To the editor:

In the light of the SCI's findings after looking into the Township of Belleville's books, a trio of the town's public officials were singled out for approving, bidding and misuse of overtime and sick leave pay. The report was critical of the Fire Chief, Walter Beresford, for bidding abuses, for incompetence and shoddy bookkeeping and for his disregard of township regulations.

The SCI has suggested the Township take disciplinary action in regards to Beresford's conduct in his present job. Action should be taken against the Council also. Beresford should be relieved of his duties. Some penalty of sorts should be imposed on Kendall, possibly a payback of some of the money he received when he was forced to vacate the premises.

Beresford provided his department with all the comforts of home besides misuse of sick leave and overtime pay. His disregard and indifference and abuse of taxpayers' money should not go unpunished.

Much credit should go to Councilman Frank Noonan for calling the SCI for an investigation. He saw through the Kendall veneer all along. Pray tell, the rest of his colleagues and the mayor must have been asleep all along.

Kendall, the former Township Manager, who was given the boot, came into Belleville as the "egg head" counted on to cure many of Belleville's ills. Instead he turned out to be a 24 carat dud who only contributed to the town's woes. Constant battering by taxpayers in the press led to his exit.

Our township council should press charges on every person who broke the law and recoup the taxpayers monies.

The fire engine that was sold without a proper bid should hold our Fire Captain and the Chief who are responsible for getting only $1,000 for a fire truck that was worth between $20,000 and $40,000 to our township.

Fire Consultant, Dennis Meehan of Vehicle Maintenance, Inc. said, if advertised, our township would have received somewhere around $40,000 to $50,000.

I believe, between the false overtime, phony payments of materials that were purchased, monies that were received by persons for selling town equipment and used hose couplings is a criminal offense.

The Fire Chief is liable for the above.

The Township Manager, Mr. Kendall, was responsible for letting this happen.

Our Council was responsible when they approved everything Mr. Kendall asked for.

Can we afford more of the above with our trusted officials not watching our monies?

The time is now for a change.

Every department should have an honest and reliable director who is there and represents the taxpayer — not themselves.

Petitions should be started to change this bad government and a committee should be picked to see if it is better to have a strong mayor/council or return to the commission form of government. The council said the government we have was the best. Don't believe it!

Our taxes - County, 7 points; School, 19 points and Municipal up 16 points — with corrupted people running our Township. "We need a change."

Seven players clear plateau in decathlon

Miranda leads 1,000 pt. club

By Mike Lambert

If pre season results are any indication, the 1993 football season at Belleville High is off to an excellent beginning.

John Senesky's team took part in the annual decathlon last week, the final stage of summer camp and the prelude to issuing of equipment and the beginning of fall practice.

The decathlon, which Senesky has instituted since taking over as head coach in 1977, is a series of ten events which tests a player's endurance, flexibility, durability and overall fitness.

The ten events are the vertical jump, the "Husker" drill, solum jumps, quarter mile run, 20 yard shuttle run, one mile run and four weight lifting events (clean, push press, squat and bench press).

Players are scored on their performance in each event, and an overall tally determines how well, or not well, the player fared in relation to conditioning. A score of 1,000 or more is considered outstanding.

There have been seasons when not a single player reached 1,000, or perhaps just one player eclipsed the mark. This year, no less than seven Buccaneers scored 1,000 or more, with four more players scoring 900 or more points.

"We were very pleased with the results," Senesky said of behalf of his coaching staff. "This might be the best scores we've had since the beginning of the decathlon. It's a good start."

The results indicate that the players utilized the off season to full capacity, working diligently in the weight room and pounding the cinders for extra miles in the hot, muggy weather.

There was quite a race for the top score, with 15 points separating the top five performers. Ed Miranda led the way, with 1045 points. He was followed by John Spina and Anthony Caruso, both of whom scored 1035, Dave Chululandana and Spencer Schwed (1030 points each), Art Settembrino (1005) and Jason Christy (1000).

Angelo Gabriel just missed out on the 1000 point plateau, scoring 988. Sal Berardi tallied 980, Anthony Frantantoni finished with 930 points and Mike Mundy rounded out the prestigious 900 point club with 905.

Seven more players scored 800 or more in the decathlon.

"Any player with 800 or more points should be very pleased with their performance," Senesky said. "Those are excellent scores. All the kids did well."

The four weight lifting events in the decathlon help determine a player's power index. A score of 5.0 or better indicates an outstanding performance, meaning the player lifted five times his weight.

Once again, Miranda was the top performer, with an incredible score of 6.5. Miranda cleaned 210 pounds, push pressed 245, squatted an unconscious 405 and bench pressed 185. Thus, Miranda, who weighs 160 pounds, lifted a total weight of 1045 pounds. (Ironically, Miranda's total weight lifted was the same number as his team leading decathlon score).

The other member of the 6.0

Senior Robert Dena squats 405 pounds for 3 reps while being spotted and encouraged by teammates Frank Marrera, Ed Molina and Ed Miranda.

club was Schwed, who scored an even 6. A host of players finished at 5.0 or better. Leading the way there was Spina (5.8). Others who scored 5 or better include Gabriel (5.7), Caruso (5.6), Settembrino, Amir Darwish, Chululandana and Frantantoni (5.5), Christy (5.3), Berardi (5.2) and sophomore Tyrone Fitts (5.0).

The 1,000 pound club for total weight lifted was led by Robert Dena. The senior lifted 1,180 total pounds, cleaning 220, push pressing 300, squatting 405 and bench pressing 255. Dena, who will be an offensive and defensive lineman, weighs 263 pounds.

Frank Marrero lifted a total of 1,090 pounds, Miranda finished with 1,045 and Ray Kuebler lifted 1,030 pounds.

As for the pre season "two-a-days", Senesky reported a busy week.

"It was a long week," the coach said. "The weather was hot and the kids worked really hard. We gave them the weekend off and we'll continue practice on Tuesday (September 7)."

The Bucs began the pre season games yesterday when they traveled to Scotch Plains. On Saturday, it's off to West Orange for a 10 a.m. tri-scrimmage with West Orange and Columbia. Next Wednesday, the Bucs play at Bloomfield and the pre season concludes next Saturday morning, when the Bucs travel to Livingston. Game time for Bloomfield is 4 p.m. and Livingston, 10 a.m.

The regular season begins on Friday evening, September 24 with a game at Don Bosco.

"We're encouraged by the conditioning program and the size we have on the line this year," Senesky said. "We have a number of players who weigh 250 pounds or more. Right now, we need to develop good footwork and movement for the lineman and that will come with the scrimmages."

"We didn't have a big turnout this year, so while the talent level is good, we need to develop depth at certain key positions."

More will be known in next week's issue, after the Scotch Plains and Columbia pre season games. In the meantime, the players continue working toward the big goal, opening day at Don Bosco on September 24.

Junior Frank Marrera spots senior teammate Robert Dena with a 285 pound push press. Robert later set a decathlon record for the Bucs with a 305 pound effort.

Senior and junior Bucs run a shuttle drill to develop foot quickness.

Two junior Bucs coaches give encouragement as young players develop agility by stepping laterally over bags.

The Belleville Bruins made a very successful return to the Essex County Baseball League this summer, compiling a record of 27-18 and advancing to the semi finals of the ECBL playoffs.

The ECBL has been in existence for over 30 years. In the mid 1970's, the Belleville Bruins (Part I), dominated the league, winning two league championships over a three year period.

The team folded after the 1979 season and Belleville was not represented in the league until the mid 1980's, when Sal Garilli formed the Belleville Braves.

That team played in the ECBL in 1985 and '86 and did fairly well, earning a playoff berth in its second year of existence.

However, Belleville was once again a no-show in the league for the next six years before Emil Nardachone led a group who helped return Belleville to competition.

When Belleville was granted a franchise for the '93 campaign, it was decided to name the team the Bruins. And once again, the Bruins have brought Belleville a great deal of success.

Coached by Bill Ingraham, Belleville was 25-15 in the regular season, which was good for fourth place in the nine team league. Verona won the regular season divisional title, followed by South Orange, Cranford and then Belleville. The Crescent Eagles were fifth and West Orange earned the final playoff berth, taking sixth.

In the playoffs, Belleville battled the Eagles in the first round. After losing the first game in the best of three series, the Bruins returned home to play a doubleheader. The team needed to sweep the twinbill if it hoped to advance to the semis and the Bruins pulled through, winning two wild ball games.

The Bruins season eventually ended when Verona, who won the ECBL title over South Orange, defeated Belleville in two straight games.

Belleville struggled in the early stages of the '93 season. One of the breakthrough games came on June 19, when the team rallied to defeat West Orange in extra innings. Shortly thereafter, the team embarked on an eight game winning streak, moving from 12-12 to 20-12. During the streak, Belleville stopped some of the best teams in the league, including Verona, South Orange and Cranford.

The Bruins continued playing well after the winning streak ended, taking five of its last eight games.

During the winning streak, Ingraham made some changes in the infield, moving Anthony Mielnicki to third, Mike King to shortstop, Jason Nardachone to second and Mike Salvanto to first.

As a team, the Bruins hit a robust .342. The team hit 26 homers and a number of players put up impressive stats.

Mike DiBiase, a Belleville High School grad, hit .410 and did a tremendous job behind the plate. He drove in 36 runs while hitting 13 doubles and five triples. He also stole 19 bases and compiled an on base percentage of .479.

Joe Delanza hit .310 and drove in eight runs. Delanza had six doubles and collected 22 hits.

Sal Tremmel finished with a .330 average, collecting 36 hits and hitting one homer while driving in 20 more.

Jim LaRose, the assistant coach, hit .383 and provided steady power. LaRose hit four homers, drove in 22 runs and collected ten doubles.

Pat Grady had a marvelous season, hitting .455 with six homers and 26 runs driven in. Grady, a veteran of the baseball wars, was one of the best clutch hitters on the team.

Francisco Ortiz also supplied a good deal of power, hitting six homers and driving in 20. Ortiz hit .250 and collected seven doubles.

Nardachone, a 1991 BHS grad, hit .344 and drove in 23 runs while hitting one homer. The second baseman had five doubles and three triples.

A '92 Belleville High School grad, Rich Quine hit .296 and drove in 17 runs. Quine had six doubles and stole ten bases.

King hit a solid .302 in a team leading 38 games, with two homers and 21 ribbies. He also had eight doubles, two triples and stole 16 bases while compiling an on base percentage of .393.

Salvanto hit .342 and played in 37 games. He collected 46 hits, 13 doubles, two triples, three homers and 31 RBI's. Salvanto's on base percentage was a very impressive .414.

Milenicki hit .361 and came on strong in the second half of the season. The Nutley native had 35 hits, eight doubles, three triples, two homers and 23 ribbies. He also had 12 stolen bases and was a solid defensive performer.

Shawn Harris hit .400 with 14 hits, one homer and ten ribbies. Harris had an on base percentage of .447 and stole seven bases.

Bill Wheeler hit .318 with seven hits and four stolen bases. Carmen Spina, a 1991 BHS grad, hit .306 with ten ribbies, five stolen bases and four doubles.

Anthony Cavarella batted .263 and drove in four runs. Chris Martin hit .304 in 15 games, including a homer and seven runs driven in.

Ingraham hit .379, with seven ribbies and an on base percentage of .526. The manager played in 15 regular season games.

The pitching staff was led by a host of players. Mike Chirichello, a '92 BHS grad, was 2-3. Tremmel finished 3-0 while ex major leaguer Paul Mirabella solidified the bullpen with a 4-2 record and 15 saves.

LaRose was 3-2 and recorded two saves. Robert Pace was 3-2, Fran Gallagher posted a 4-3 mark and excelled in the post season. Gallagher pitched a complete game in the first game of the doubleheader against Crescent, then came back to hurl four plus solid innings in the second game of the twinbill.

Bob Johnson was 1-1, Glen Agens did a super job on the mound, compiling a 4-1 record and two saves and Ingraham was 1-1 with two saves.

As for 1994, the Bruins will return with momentum and a full years experience in the ECBL. If this past summer was any indication, there's no reason to believe that Belleville will not be a contender for the title next season.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

In 1968, the Oakland Raiders and Kansas City Chiefs both finished 12-2 in the AFL West. Thus, the two teams had to play a one game playoff to determine the divisional champion. Oakland drew the home field and blasted the Chiefs, 41-6. The Raiders then went to New York for the AFL title game and lost to the Jets, 27-22.

The Raiders quarterback in 1968 was Darryl Lamonica while the head coach was Johnny Rausch.

Good Marks for Young Writers

A Punctuation Guide

from The Mini Page by Betty Debnam © 1993 Universal Press Syndicate

Sept. 8 is International Literacy Day. This special day is set aside to call attention to how important it is to be literate. When we are literate, we can think, read, write and speak well. The Mini Page celebrates this day with a guide to punctuation for kids. Getting our thoughts down on paper is an important part of being literate. Adding the correct punctuation marks makes our writing clearer. Punctuation marks dress up our thoughts so they are easier for our readers to understand. There are certain rules that you will learn for when and how to use these marks. You don't want to use too many, but you also don't want to leave them out when they are needed.

The Mini Page asked punctuation marks to speak for themselves. We have given you an example as well as a chance for you to practice. Then make up your own examples.

Period

I am a period, just a small black dot. At the end of a sentence, forget me not!

EXAMPLE

We will go. Sam likes milk.

We periods will do just great. When you want to abbreviate.

EXAMPLE

United States — U.S. Virginia — Va

Question mark

I am a question mark and you use me. When you are as curious as you can be.

EXAMPLE

What time is it? Did you bring it?

Exclamation mark

Use an exclamation mark when very glad, thrilled or upset, frightened or mad!

EXAMPLE

I am so sick! Look out!

Q: There were two morons sitting on a ledge. One was a big moron, and the other was a little moron. The big moron fell off the ledge. Why didn't the little moron?

A: Because he was a little more on!

The Mini Page Presidents Poster and Book of Presidents are a great combination — and the best way to learn about each president — including Bill Clinton!

Illustrated with reproductions of engraved portraits, the 22 1/2-by-28 1/2-inch Presidents Poster shows each of the presidents with the dates that each held office. The Book of Presidents (5 1/2-by-8 1/2-inch, 96 pages) features a photo of each president, as well as information such as dates of birth and death, dates served as president, political party, signature, glossary of political terms, a visit to the White House and important achievements.

Comma

The busy comma is useful because it tells us when we want to pause. The comma has many uses, it is true, but we will give you only a few. Use a comma, please, please, please, when listing things in a series!

EXAMPLE
Alpha Betty saw trees, flowers, plants and bugs.
Rookie cooks cakes, candy, muffins and bread.
(If you use the word "and," you don't need the comma.)

Always use a comma, my dear,
Between the date and the year!

EXAMPLE
May 23, 1965
Oct. 24 1929

The comma is also great,
Between a city and a state.

EXAMPLE
Richmond, Va.
Dallas, Texas

Use a comma at the beginning and end,
When writing a letter to a friend.

EXAMPLE
Dear Sue, Dear Betty
Love, Love
Sam, Dick

Apostrophe

An apostrophe hangs up there, see it floating in the air! This is an important apostrophe tip, use one and an "s" to show ownership.

Note: A noun is a word used to name a person, place or thing. Some nouns are singular, or name only one. Some nouns are plural and name more than one.

- To show ownership when one person, place or thing owns something, add an 's.
- To show ownership when more than one person, place or thing own something, add the ' after the s.

EXAMPLE
a girl's dress
a boys' shirt

EXAMPLE
the girls' cat
the boys' dog

- To show ownership when a word all by itself means more than one, add the 's.

EXAMPLE
the children's faces
the women's children

A contraction is two words put together, made shorter by leaving out a letter. Use the up-in-the-air apostrophe, to show where the letter used to be!

EXAMPLE
Cannot — can't do not — don't

Capital letters

While capital letters are not punctuation marks, they are an important key to clear writing. It is important and you had better, begin each sentence with a capital letter. You certainly would get the blame, if you forgot to capitalize a name!

GO ON A PUNCTUATION MARK HUNT. CIRCLE THEM IN YOUR MINI PAGE AND LOCAL PAPER. WHY NOT HAVE A RACE WITH A PARTNER TO SEE WHO CAN FIND THE MOST!

There are other marks, too. Here is a list for you!

Colon :	Parentheses ()
Dash —	Semicolon ;
Hyphen -

Quotation marks

Quotation marks are the best way, to give credit for what we say!

EXAMPLE
She said, "I will not go."
Bill said, "We are here"

- What someone says is set off from the rest of the sentence by commas.
- Commas and periods are always inside the closing quotation marks.

DRIVE SAFELY - SCHOOL'S OPEN

School's back in session and in the excitement of the new school year, many school-age children, especially the young ones, may forget to look both ways when crossing the street or exiting the school bus.

That leaves it up to you as a driver, to be extra careful around the schoolyards, neighborhood play areas, and departing school buses.

So remember... when you see yellow, be sure to see red — as in red alert. Let's all slow down and give our children the chance they deserve.

Doing It Right Maximizes Performance When Installing Today's Door Entry Systems

Homeowners often think that their use of exterior doors is their only line of defense in the battle to save energy dollars. The principle involved is the same as the use of an oven. Every time the door is opened energy is lost. Short of a science fiction transporter, there is no way during intemperate weather that a door can be opened without the loss of energy. So, homeowners are right when they conclude that the less time involved in opening and closing an exterior door the better, when running indoor energy systems.

But, the homeowner's first line of defense with any exterior door product comes with the home's initial design and later with correct installation and finishing of all the exterior doors. "Doing it right" at the outset will maximize the door's energy performance as well as its life expectancy.

There are four basic exterior door products on the market—wood, metal, molded wood fiber, and fiberglass—in a wide range of styles and designs, from single doors to elaborate entry systems.

As different as these products may seem, they have more in common than most homeowners would think. Correct installation is the key to maximizing energy efficiency and correct finishing and maintenance are the key to extending the "life" of the product.

Energy Control At The Design Phase

Energy control begins at the design phase in which entrances to homes are placed in the protective presence of a porch or overhang and key entrances are placed away from prevailing "bad weather winds."

The existence of a protective overhang is recommended to prolong the finish on any exterior door and to minimize the amount of moisture tracked into the house each time the door is opened. Shown is the Clermont from Nord Door Co.

Installation

For the most part, air tends to travel around an object rather than through it—a process called "air infiltration." Air infiltration is controlled best at the time of installation.

This simply means that all points where the door frame meets the framework of the house should be caulked and sealed with high quality products. Further caulking is recommended with all exterior moldings.

Then, once the door and its frame are in place, a quality weatherstripping system must be installed. A quality bottom sweep must also be installed for the same reason.

The door itself could be made of the most fantastic insulating material ever devised, but the energy-efficiency will be severely lessened if the door's frame remains uncaulked or an inadequate weatherstripping system has been installed carelessly.

The control of air infiltration at the time of installation is the key.

Finishing and Maintenance

While many doors are pre-primed, most need finishing according to manufacturer recommendations. Following those recommendations will keep warranties in effect. Door warranties typically range from 1-5 years.

Homeowners are wise to remember that a door has six surfaces that need finishing—the front and back, the two sides, as well as the top and bottom edges.

Finishing should be completed after the door and frame are installed and before the weatherstripping and bottom sweep are put into place.

Any fresh cuts made into the door for trimming or for installing hardware must also be sealed.

Long Life And Good Performance

Any exterior door on today's market that is made by a quality manufacturer will perform well when installed and finished according to the manufacturer's recommendations.

Jeld-Wen, inc., a major manufacturer of exterior door products, has just completed a free consumer brochure, including a comparison chart of the characteristics and performance of all exterior door products available. To obtain call 1 800 877 9482, extension 100.
