Tuesday vote may hold clues to national political trends

FIRST LADY ENDORSES PERNA - Belleville Mayor Marina Perna receiving the endorsement of President Bill Clinton's wife, Hillary, during a recent visit to New Jersey.

By Howard Klausner

Belleville voters will have a say in the outcome of the vote for Governor and Legislature of New Jersey Tuesday, and the political future of Belleville's Mayor hangs in the balance.

Mayor Marina Perna's candidacy for State Assembly in the 36th Legislative District may depend more on the outcomes of other races than on her own merits.

Should Governor James Florio win strong - as he did in Belleville in 1989, when he garnered 5,597 votes to 3,225 for Republican James Courter - then Mayor Perna's chances for election will be enhanced.

If former Senator Gabriel Ambrosio does well in his effort to dislodge the man who defeated him three years ago, Senator John Scott, it will also help Miss Perna. In the last election, Ambrosio took Belleville 1,023 to 487.

In the Assembly race, Republicans have fielded two strong candidates, incumbents John Kelly of Nutley and Paul DiGaetano of Passaic. Running mate for Mayor Perna is political newcomer Oswald Maldonado of Passaic.

In Washington, D.C., President Bill Clinton is keeping a weather eye on New Jersey, because a win for Florio would indicate a willingness of the public to accept the hardship of increased taxes in return for the prospect of an improved economy.

Republican Christie Whitman has belabored Florio as the man who increased the state's taxes by $2 billion a year, and thereby - she says - cost the state more than 200,000 jobs.

In Essex County, Belleville voters will choose a Surrogate, four Freeholders-at-Large and two District Freeholders.

For Surrogate, Republican Jane Burgio faces Democrat Maria Vizcarrondo. Ms. Burgio has a long record of public service, including the State Assembly and Secretary of State. Ms. Vizcarrondo is a newcomer to county politics, from Newark.

The Democratic Freeholder-at-Large candidates, all incumbents, are Joseph DiVincenzo Jr., Sara Boet, Patricia Sebold and James A. Cavanaugh. The Republicans are Frank W. Long, Bill Calabrese, Timothy J. Kane and Yolanda Reigada Gehring. Robert E. Lowrie is running on the New Party line.

In the 1st District, incumbent Democrat Joseph C. Parlavecchio faces Republican challenger Efraim Alameda of Newark.

The 1st Freeholder District includes 11 voting districts in Belleville. In the First Ward, they are Districts 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. There are none in the Second Ward. In the Third Ward, they are Districts 1, 2, 3 and 4. In the Fourth Ward, they are Districts 1 and 2.

The other Belleville districts are in the Fifth Freeholder District. Here incumbent Republican Arthur L. Clay of Glen Ridge faces Democratic challenger Louise M. Palagano of Bloomfield.

Democrats have been making an issue of Freeholder Clay's health. The popular politician has been seeking to allay those fears by frequent public appearances.

There are 17 minor party candidates seeking election as Governor.

They are: Michael Zinuolo - Better Affordable Government; Tom Fuscaldo - Zero Sales Tax; Pat Daly - Abortion Is Murder; Mark J. Rahn - Socialist Workers Party; Pete Di Lauro - Common Sense Government, and Alene S. Ammond - For The People.

Also, Jerry T. Grant - You and I; Kenneth R. Kaplan - Libertarian Party; Tim Feeney - The Independent Choice; John L. Kucsek - Populist Party; Marilyn Arons - Maximum Citizen Involvement; Michael R. Scully - Fresh Start, and Andrea Lippi - People Purpose Progress.

Also, Tom Blomquist - N.J. Conservative Party; Andrew J. Zemel - Integrity-Common Sense; Richard J. Lynch - Independents 4 Change, and Joseph Marion - Independent Party.

The polls will open at 7 a.m., and close at 8 p.m.

36,000 gallons could have exploded

Safety valve prevents disaster as gas pump bursts into flames

By Howard Klausner

A disaster that could have leveled several square blocks of homes in Belleville was prevented by a simple safety device - a valve in a gasoline service pump that blocked flames from reaching a 36,000-gallon tank of highly volatile gasoline.

Employees of the Getty Service Station on Belleville Avenue could also thank their good fortune that they were not the immediate victims of the potential blast. Experts compare the detonation power of even a hundred gallons of gasoline to a hundred pounds of dynamite.

The event began on Friday morning, when employee Dan Crescenzi was supplying gas to a passenger car.

"The guy had the windows rolled all the way up, and he may not have heard me when I yelled to him to stop," Crescenzi said. He was yelling because the car was driving off while the nozzle of the gasoline hose was still in the filter pipe of the car.

The entire hose was yanked loose, and a spark occurred in the pump, which suddenly exploded. The flame went 10 feet high, Crescenzi estimated.

While he tensed for what he expected to be the next - and far worse - explosion, the pump fire burned itself out.

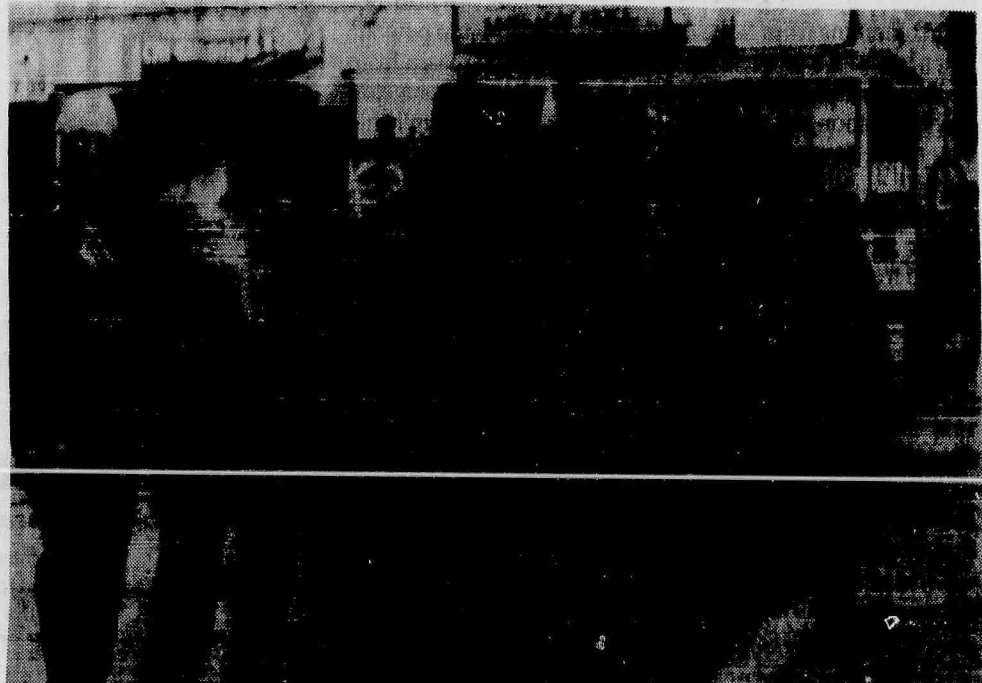

Examination showed that a safety valve at the base of the pump had prevented a flashback that could have reached and detonated the storage tank underneath.

Jim Bohny, a trouble shooter for Tyree Maintenance, which does repair and installation work for Getty, pointed out the safety valve.

"It worked," he said. Station owner Joe Salerno was one of those who breathed a sigh of relief in agreement.

On Monday, three homes on Mt. Prospect Avenue, two streets away from the service station, were evacuated for several hours after gasoline fumes were detected in their basements. Deputy Fire Chief Charles Aughenbaugh conducted an investigation, but no connection between the escaping fumes and the service station was established, as of press time.

THE EXPLOSION THAT WASN'T - Employees of the Getty Service Station on Belleville Avenue gather around the burned out gasoline pump that sat on top of 36,000 gallons of volatile fuel. A spark set the pump ablaze, but a safety valve prevented it from becoming a major disaster - equivalent to several tons of high explosive igniting. From left are Jim Bohny of Tyree Maintenance, Ralph Masucci, Proprietor Joe Salerno, Al Salerno and Dan Crescenzi. (Photo by Howard Klausner)

State restores $639,835 to Belleville's school budget

The State Commissioner of Education, M. L. Fitzgerald has ordered the restoration of most of the school budget cut ordered by the Belleville Township Council.

Fitzgerald put $639,835 back into the budget, after $865,000 was cut by the Council in the wake of the budget's defeat by a two-to-one margin in April.

The Commissioner did not restore any funds for courtesy busing, but did restore $250,000 to the surplus account of the general fund.

Also restored were: $100,000 to teachers' salaries, which had been reduced by $150,000.

$80,000 to Social Security contributions, which the Council had eliminated entirely.

$73,365 to other employee benefits, which had been reduced by $100,000.

$31,870 to general supplies, which had been reduced by $45,000.

$15,000 to secretary salaries, which had been reduced by that amount.

$11,000 to other retirement benefits, which had been reduced by $23,000.

$5,000 was restored to supplies and materials, which had been reduced by that amount.

Lesser amounts were restored to other accounts.

The Commissioner declined to restore $50,000 for textbooks,

$30,000 to pay the salary of an athletic trainer, and $10,000 to pay salaries for grounds and maintenance.

The amount of money to be raised by taxes increased to $21,076,171, for a 13 point increase in the tax rate.

While the Township may appeal the Commissioner's decision, the School District may operate under the increased budget.

Board of Education President Gabriel Nazziola had called the $865,000 cut the largest ever made in the past 21 years, and he charged that it was damaging the school system.

Aside From That

Lou Cienia has not lived in Belleville for some years, now, since taking up residence in neighboring Nutley, but he has been a driving force in the community for at least 15 years. That was when he arrived at the Charles Jewelers store on Washington Avenue, with about $3,000 in his pocket, and with the help of a loan from the proprietor, started in business. Since that time, he has become a successful businessman, and unlike many businesspeople, he has also stuck out his neck to take on community issues. ●●●● Lou has long realized that what is good for the community is good for business. In building up a million dollar retail jewelry trade, combined with a pawn business, he has drawn customers from all over the tri-state area. Literally thousands of people have come to Belleville to do business with Lou Cienia. Once here, they have virtually no place to park. And there are few other retail stores to patronize, at least in the neighborhood of Town Hall, an area that once was a thriving commercial street. Lou has fought hard and long for municipal parking, and there have only recently been some glimmerings of Township action to provide that parking. ●●●● Lou fought successfully to prevent the entire downtown area from being given a "blight" designation. The idea behind the proposal may have been based on good intentions. If the neighborhood were declared blighted, federal money might come in to restore it. Lou and other business people were less optimistic. "Once they give this place the name of blight, it will always be blighted," he said. He fought an attempt to move the Police Headquarters to another part of town. "That would kill this neighborhood altogether," he said. ●●●● One thing he supported was Mayor Mike Marotti's attempt to create a Municipal Building that would anchor a parking garage and shopping district. Critics called it the Taj Mahal, unaware apparently that the Taj Mahal is one of the world's most beautiful buildings. So Lou and Mike Marotti lost that fight, and so did the Township.

Belleville has been struggling against a declining tax base and Lou was one of those who fought to restore that tax base. That is why he became Chairman of the Belleville Renaissance Committee, and organized the celebration of Josiah Hornblower Day in 1992. He knew that Belleville needed a restoration of pride in itself, and that being recognized as Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution would be a step toward revitalizing the economy here. Indeed, if the Congress does recognize Belleville, it will be in good part because of Lou Cienia's efforts. ●●●● This Saturday night, the Chamber of Commerce will honor Lou Cienia and Anne Lopreato for their efforts to restore pride to Belleville. Mrs. Lopreato has done her work in the schools, working with the parents to keep them involved in their children's education. Lou has worked in the business community, to get people involved in their community. ●●●● The award comes at a bittersweet moment. This week, Lou Cienia sold the business he had built up over the past 15 years. He sold it to Frank Valvano, a boyhood friend in the old North Ward of Newark. Years ago, they both went to work for Rich's Jewelers in Newark. Valvano is now President of Rich's, promising to make Charles Jewelers bigger and better than ever. ●●●● Lou did not leave the business a poor man, but he left a wealthy man - rich in friends, rich in the respect he has won, rich in the achievement he attained for himself, his family and his good name.

Marielena Sargentelli is 14 and so accomplished as a violinist that she has been named to the New Jersey Youth Symphony as its First Violinist, traditionally the role given to the leading musician of the orchestra. The Youth Symphony is sponsored by the New Jersey Symphony and gives a number of challenging performances each year. She comes from a family of musicians, and adds to the cultural life of our community. ●●●● We had the pleasure of hearing Susan Narucki in concert at Fisher Hall on the campus of Columbia University in New York. With pianist Alan Feinberg, she has created a program called "American Bel Canto" in which she takes a rich variety of American composers and poets, and performs some rarely heard renditions of their work. Ms. Narucki is a singer in the classical tradition, and to hear her sing something from Scott Joplin or Duke Ellington puts the listener into a new dimension. She has selected pieces from Robert Burns, Edgar Allen Poe and black poet Langston Hughes, among many, and made them into an uplifting experience. Surely, there is some audience here in New Jersey to enjoy it, before Ms. Narucki heads back to Europe where she is establishing a growing career.

Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten says he turned for advice on the election to his old friend, Bonafacchio the Church Cat. "Bonafacchio said that Jim Florio is half Italian and half Irish. If he has the luck of the Irish and the financial genius of the Italians, he's a shoo-in. If, on the other hand, he has the luck of the Italians and the financial genius of the Irish, he may have a problem." ●●●● Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says his supporters, the Kool Kukumber Boys, are off to a seminar on the HOWEVER rule in government. "It's a great way to operate. The Ethical Standards Board lives by the HOWEVER Rule. You can violate the Faulkner Act, and that is bad and you can be put out of office. HOWEVER, if they can't prove you profited from it financially, they won't touch you."

Is he or ain't he?

Manager names Assessor as 'Assistant Manager'

Township Manager Stephen Cuccio informed the Township Council last week that he had appointed Township Assessor to be Assistant Township Manager, at no salary, and was immediately informed the appointment was illegal.

The Township Attorney, Robert Giordano, gave his opinion that no one could be appointed to a title that doesn't exist. The Township Council has never created the post of Assistant Manager.

News of the appointment was broken to Township employees in a memorandum issued on Oct. 18.

It stated: "Be advised that effective immediately, Mr. Tom Sal-zano is appointed as Assistant to the Manager in addition to fulfilling the duties of his regular position of Tax Assessor of Belleville.

"Mr. Salzano will act in behalf of the Manager and will carry out the responses to complaints and personnel functions of the Manager with the approval of the Manager. Mr. Salzano will not receive additional compensation for his effort and will give first priority to the function of the Tax Assessor's office."

Members of the Council said they were uncertain as to the validity of the appointment. Cuccio reportedly said he would rescind it, but has not done so officially.

Rotary honors auxiliary cops

Belleville Rotary has presented its Club Service Awards for the 1992-1993 term to two Belleville Auxiliary Police Officers, Chief Rocco Landolfi and Captain William Hoey.

Chief Landolfi has served as Auxiliary Policeman for 38 years, and has been Chief since 1972.

Captain Hoey has served as Auxiliary Policeman for 44 years. He was promoted to Captain in 1972.

In citing the officers, Rotary stated: "Many of their invaluable hours of volunteer service to the Township were during major storms and at fire scenes. They also provided crowd control at parades and athletic events."

Safety program set for Halloween night

Belleville Police Lieutenant Joseph Rotonda has announced that a Halloween Safety Program has been underway in the Belleville school system.

Pupils in Kindergarten through Grade 3 have been met by Detective Mark Minichini of the Crime Prevention Bureau who has instructed them in safety procedures as they go trick-or-treating.

Through the courtesy of Belleville Policeman's Benevolent Association Local 28, trick or treat bags with safety tips in them have been distributed.

Lieutenant Rotonda asks parents to follow these safety rules:

- Don't allow young children to go out alone.
- Let parents inspect all treats before the children eat them.
- Have the children wear white or reflective clothing.
- Make sure the children Watch For Cars.
- Have the children stay away from unfamiliar neighborhoods.

While the Police Department will take precautions for the welfare of the children, the parents' cooperation is still needed, police cautioned.

1,000 receive shots for flu

Belleville Health Officer Thomas J. Longo has reported that almost 1,000 Belleville residents took part in the Annual Flu Clinic - Health Fair, conducted by the Department of Health and Human Services.

They came to receive inoculations against influenza, and - if they wished - screenings for blood pressure, diabetes, oral cancer and podiatry problems.

The event, held Oct. 13, ran between the hours of 9 a.m. and 1 p.m., and between 6 to 8 p.m.

Longo said, "Although the number of people responding to this service was so tremendous, the clinic ran very smoothly. There was no crucial delay or inconvenience experienced by any of the participants."

"This was made possible through the cooperation and coordination between the Health Department staff and the generous volunteers who came to serve their community."

"These volunteers we would like to thank publicly are Tom Spillane, Bill Cook, Lou Messano, Jacqueline Rockaway, Shirley Sherman, Laura Debonis and Reni Gabbai."

More crossing protection set

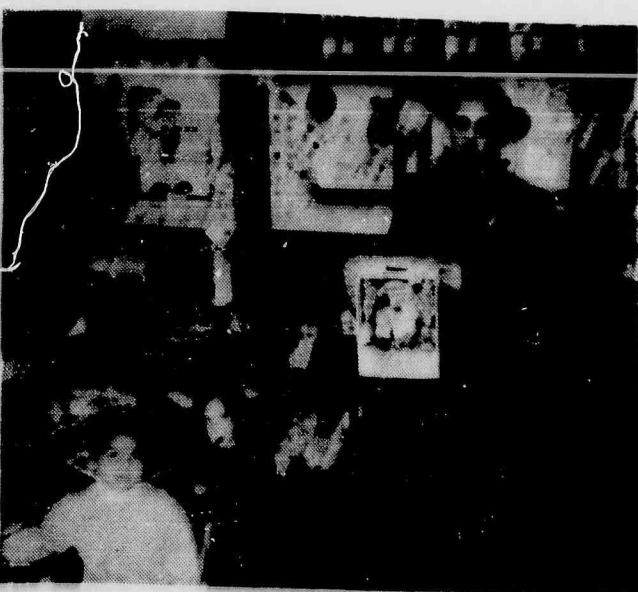

An additional Crossing Guard has been hired to protect children traversing Washington Avenue at Joralemon Street, Police Officer Greg McDonald has announced.

McDonald said the Crossing Guard will be in addition to the Guard at William Street and Washington Avenue.

"It should be sufficient to meet the needs of the very young children who are coming from the Valley to attend School 8," he said.

OUR OPINION

We're for Florio

The national and international recessions have raised the stakes in the election of governor to manage our state through the next four years.

The conditions require the election of a governor who will tell us the bad news as well as the good news. Conditions confronting the next governor provide no opportunity for someone requiring on-the-job training. As the chief executive officer, Florio has had four years' experience as governor of our great state. Mrs. Whitman has had no comparable experience. She lists herself as a businesswoman. And one could construe that to mean running for office is a business for Whitman. Her experience as a member of the Board of Freeholders of Somerset County does little to qualify Mrs. Whitman to be governor of New Jersey. Throughout the campaign, her judgment has come into question. Whitman has had four different campaign managers. One was her brother who was fired by Whitman. The act alone suggests a Whitman without compassion. Instead of firing her brother, she could have appointed a campaign coordinator without embarrassing her brother who came from the far west to help his kid sister.

The question of credibility is critical in this election. Four years ago, candidate Florio, despite the claim of Mrs. Whitman, never made a "read my lips" promise about taxes. Based upon information received from the incumbent Republican administration, Florio said he could not foresee the need to raise taxes. Before he was sworn into office, Florio discovered a Republican shortfall in excess of $600 Million. Before he was able to digest that information, the New Jersey Supreme Court issued a ruling requiring additional funding for education that almost reached $2 Billion.

Ambrosio for Senate

Former State Senator Gabe Ambrosio of Lyndhurst is making an attempt to recapture his old seat in the Senate now held by Republican John Scott.

We have been able to evaluate the abilities of Mr. Ambrosio at close range. He is Counsel for the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission, and I am a member of that body. Ambrosio has some remarkable personal traits. As an attorney, he undoubtedly developed investigative skills which stand him in good stead when attempting to analyze the problems of the state.

Ambrosio is a fighter for the principles in which he believes. He is Pro-Choice. During his term as Senator, he was great in constituent services. Former Senator Ambrosio singlehandedly saw that legisla-

Chris Whitman promises to reduce taxes thirty percent. Newspapers across the state, financial and industrial leaders have ridiculed Whitman's thirty percent tax cut proposal. When asked what services she would eliminate or reduce to make up the thirty percent reduction in taxes, Whitman replied, "After I'm elected governor, a study will be made to determine what services should be eliminated or reduced." — hardly an answer that would increase her credibility.

Another disturbing thing about Whitman is that her candidacy is supported by the National Rifle Association, the organization that is vigorously opposing Florio because of his tough stand on semi-automatic weapons. It takes courage to oppose the National Rifle Association, and Florio's courage and character already have been tested and not found wanting.

Neighboring New York, Pennsylvania and Delaware all are suffering from the effects of the national recession — New Jersey less than the others.

Governor Florio's toughness on gun control, Florio's brave stand on taking on the National Rifle Association, Florio's four years' experience as chief executive officer all point to a public official worthy of being the governor of a great state. The Whitman incredible promise to reduce taxes thirty percent — Whitman's desire to weaken Governor Florio's tough gun control law, Whitman's limited elective experience as a member of the Somerset Board of Freeholders are no qualifications to be governor of our great state.

What New Jersey needs is a chief executive officer who has the experience and knowhow to lead our great state through these economically difficult times.

For all of the above reasons, we support the re-election of Jim Florio.

tion was adopted creating a living will law that allows terminally ill patients to make the decision to terminate life extending contraptions. It is a model that has been copied throughout the nation.

Senator Scott is not only a leading member of the Conservative Party, but his ideology in Trenton has also reflected a Conservative mind. For instance, he opposed the ban on assault weapons. Scott also opposes abortions. His positions are the customary positions of the Conservative Party. Scott would be out of character to adopt any other philosophy.

Former Senator Ambrosio is our choice to represent the residents of the 36th Legislative District. F.A.O.

Burgio for Surrogate

We repeat our editorial endorsement of Nutley native Jane Burgio as our choice for Essex County Surrogate. She served as Governor Tom Kean's Secretary of State from 1982 to 1992. Recently, Tom Kean made a personal visit to Nutley for the specific purpose of urging voters to elect Jane Burgio — the only political endorsement Governor Kean has made since retiring from office.

No on Proposition 1

Voters are being asked to vote on a proposed amendment to Article I, Paragraph 2 of the Constitution of the State of New Jersey that would permit voters to remove elected officials by recall elections. This proposal should be defeated. If we don't like the record of a public official, it's easy to oust that person in the next election.

Palagano for freeholder

Bloomfield Councilwoman Louise Palagano is a candidate for the Fifth District Freeholder seat.

She holds an Undergraduate Degree from Fairleigh Dickinson University and a Masters Degree from New York University School of Public Administration. She is employed as a Corporations Specialist for the Easter Seals Society of New Jersey. Her civic work includes a term as President of the Bloomfield-Glen Ridge Branch of the American Association of University Women; member of the League of Women Voters of the Montclair area; Board member for the League of Family Service for Bloomfield-Glen Ridge; and a member of the American Society for Public Administration.

Her opponent is incumbent Republican Freeholder Arthur Clay, a person we have supported in the past. Unfortunately, Mr. Clay suffers from serious long term physical problems, so much so that his wife, Mrs. Heather Clay, filed a petition to the New Jersey Superior Court on April 18, 1993 stating that "Mr. Clay was unable to govern himself and manage his affairs, is mentally incompetent and is incapable of safeguarding his physical well-being. It is the plaintiff's (Mrs. Clay) request to be appointed the guardian of Arthur Clay so as to insure his personal health as well as maintain his current financial estate."

No higher authority than a man's wife is required for any voter to understand that Mr. Clay's name should not be on the ballot. Mrs. Clay has been officially appointed by a Superior Court Judge to be "Guardian of Arthur Clay so as to insure his personal health as well as maintain his current financial estate." We feel sorry for Mr. Clay, and our sympathy also goes out to Mrs. Clay. During the years he was in complete control of his faculties and enjoying good health, Mr. Clay served well. Such is not the case today. In view of the present circumstances, voters are fortunate to have an extremely well qualified Louise Palagano to replace Mr. Clay as the Fifth District Freeholder.

Kelly and Perna for Assembly

Two members of the State Assembly will be elected on November 2nd to represent Nutley and Belleville. Nutley Commissioner Republican John Kelly is running for re-election as well as Republican Paul DiGaetano of Passaic. The Democrat candidates are Belleville Mayor Marina Perna and Passaic City resident Ozzie "what's his name" Maldonado.

History indicates that members of the New Jersey Legislature not only vote on matters affecting the state, but also on very important items pertaining to county government that affect county taxes. Assemblyman DiGaetano resides in Passaic, and thus, his prime interest at the county level would be what is best for Passaic County. What is best for Passaic County may not necessarily be best for Essex County.

And there comes the rub.

We believe Nutley and Belleville should be represented in the New Jersey Assembly with two qualified representatives that live within Essex County; thus, we endorse incumbent Republican Assemblyman John V. Kelly and Democrat Marina C. Perna, a practicing attorney. Perna's municipal experience demonstrates she has the ability to walk through a maze of legal red tape to get things done. Kelly has given us fiscally responsible government in Trenton. In Nutley, John Kelly's recent reservation on whether or not the transfer of township workers' health benefits to a self-insurance program would be detrimental to the more than two hundred municipal workers demonstrates his ability to delay action when in doubt. A stampede led by Walter Smith to adopt the plan simply based upon promises of benefits by Smith were not convincing enough to Kelly. Assemblyman Kelly's legislative experience in Trenton no doubt contributes to a better understanding of the impact of municipal regulations. With his knowledge of municipal government, he serves well the communities of Nutley and Belleville. DeGaetano's Passaic County is a second class county — the classification determined by population. Many of the laws adopted by legislators are based upon their impact on first class counties and their taxpayers.

We endorse Kelly and Perna for the New Jersey State Assembly.

Re-elect the Freeholders

Incumbent Freeholders Sara Bost, Patricia Sebold, James Cavanaugh and Nutley's Joseph DiVincenzo are seeking re-election.

These are able, experienced public servants whose voting records indicate a belief in a no frills government.

They have given us honest economic government and deserve re-election.

• CHRIS WHITMAN favors the use of vouchers for school tuition. This would divert money from public schools into vouchers for youngsters already attending public school. In addition, youngsters will be moving from public to private schools possessing vouchers from the public school system. This is about as anti-public school system as one could get. Granted that Chris Whitman attended exclusive schools like all rich kids do. Those of us that are products of public schools haven't done too badly. What we really need is a shoring up of support from the public school system — making it better. Whitman's idea of giving students vouchers to attend the private schools of their choice will destroy the public school system as we know it.

• THE Essex County Democrat Committee Hall of Fame Awards is scheduled for today, Thursday, October 28th at the West Orange Town and Campus Restaurant. The Candidates Dinner Gala starts at 6:30 and the cost is $150 per person. Tickets are available from Essex County Chairman Tom Giblin at 622-8300.

• THE Nutley Elks Lodge No. 1290 Handicapped Children's Committee will hold this year's annual party on Saturday, December 4th at the club's newly redesigned lodge banquet room. At $50 a couple, Charity Ball reservations can be made through Co-Chairman John Kapp at 694-4538, or Ed Smolen at 935-4162. $5 raffle tickets are also available for a chance at a first prize of $1,000 and a second prize of $250.

• RECENTLY, U. S. Labor Secretary Robert Reich said unemployment is dropping and one million new jobs have been created in the last eight months. Despite those facts, he also said that 18 percent of full-time workers are not earning enough to keep a family out of poverty. He noted a growing gap between jobs for college graduates and for everyone else. This should be a warning for youngsters deciding that a high school education is all one needs in life. the world competition is so that college graduates become priority hires.

• I RECEIVED my notice from the New York Friars Club that a special tribute to Barbara Walters is scheduled to celebrate the club's 90th Anniversary on Saturday evening May 7, 1994. The club is asking all members to hold that date open. I'll bet the place will be sold out before the end of 1993. The Saturday evening event sponsored by the New York Friars Club is a very unique occasion. Fun, food, laughter and good fellowship pretty much explain an evening at the Friars Club.

• LAST Sunday's annual Nutley Democrat Breakfast at the Gondola Restaurant was a huge success.

• A RARE event occurred this week. I took a photo of the two loves of my life, my wife, Edith, and our schnauzer, Noel.

November photography exhibit features Tom Babich

The photography of Tom Babich of Fair Lawn is currently on exhibit during November in the Trustees Gallery of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Ave. during Library winter hours.

Mr. Babich first became interested in photography in 1961, beginning as so many photographers with a simple plastic box camera, working his way up to a Polaroid Land Camera in 1965 and a 35mm camera around 1970. In the 70's, he worked with medium and large formats. Today, he works almost exclusively with large cameras.

In 1972, he joined the Camera Club of Fair Lawn, where he learned about the use of the darkroom and black and white printing. This training was augmented over the years by workshops with George Tice of the New School in New York City, Maine photographic workshops with John Sexton, many lectures and seminars and his own constant efforts to refine and improve his craft.

The photographer has had a solo exhibition at the Pondhole Gallery in 1989 in Pompton Lakes and has been in group shows at Nathan's Gallery, Paterson, in 1986, and the Ringwood Manor Arts Association in 1990. With the Camera Club of Fair Lawn, he has exhibited several years at the Fair Lawn Public Library and at the Ringwood Manor West Wing Gallery in 1978 and 1979.

With the Camera Arts Group, he has exhibited at the Pondhole

Gallery in Pompton Lakes in 1990, the Paterson Museum in 1991, the Nabisco Galleries in 1992 in East Hanover, and the Barron Arts Center in 1992 in Woodbridge. Currently, he is a member of The Friends of Photography, San Francisco, and the Camera Arts Group, Rutherford, New Jersey.

The exhibit can be viewed on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. and on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. If you are coming from a distance to view the exhibit, please call ahead at 201-450-3434 to ensure that the gallery is not being utilized for a program.

Compare the records:

Ambrosio's performance vs. Scott's promises

Empty promises or solid performances? What do you want in a Senator? That's what former State Senator Gabe Ambrosio is hoping voters will be asking themselves when they go out to vote Tuesday, November 2.

"John Scott is promising the world — on the eve of election night. He's a blatant hypocrite? He's now promising he's going to reverse his damaging record," said former Senator Ambrosio, who's seeking to take back the seat Scott won from him by a narrow margin in 1991. "It's obvious, he's desperate and looking to grasp votes any way he can."

Ambrosio points to Lyndhurst as a prime example. "For the past two years he bashed Lyndhurst and demanded that the $1.5 million in state aid be returned," Ambrosio said. "Now he's saying Lyndhurst should keep the money and he's promising them that they will."

"He's also toying with the borough of North Arlington. For two years he ignored them and their historical mine shaft problems," Ambrosio said. "Now, barely a week before election night, he's bending over backwards to be of assistance."

Ambrosio also emphasizes that Scott is misleading senior citizens. "He voted to increase the cost of prescriptions for senior citizens 150%," Ambrosio said. "Suddenly, he realizes he may lose the senior vote and is pledging to roll the increase back."

If voters want a clear choice on who to vote for, Ambrosio said all they have to do is compare his record against Scott's.

When Gabe Ambrosio served as Senator, he listened to the people and worked hard to build a solid performance record, one that he is proud of and can stand firmly on. His accomplishments are many:

Ambrosio brought back $83 million dollars in state aid that was used to offset high real estate taxes. In fact, if Ambrosio wasn't senator from 1987 to 1991, real estate taxes today would be much higher.

Ambrosio wrote the "Living Will" law that allows people to make their own health care decisions and guarantees those decisions will be followed.

Ambrosio co-sponsored the State Health Plan law that was designed to control hospital costs.

Ambrosio chaired a special committee that forced the Parkway to roll back toll increases from 25 to 10 cents.

Ambrosio stood up to the National Rifle Association and co-sponsored a law to ban assault weapons.

What has John Scott done?

Scott lines his pockets with money from the NRA and then fought to repeal the assault weapon ban.

Scott sponsored legislation to gut the Living Will Law.

Scott went to the bank with $50,000 in campaign contributions from the medical lobby and sponsored a bill to kill the State Health Plan.

Scott voted to virtually destroy the Homestead Rebate Program.

"I'm proud of my record as State Senator. If given the chance to serve the 36th District again, I'll listen to my constituents and make my record once again reflect their concerns," said Ambrosio. "Can John Scott say the same? Sure he can. By saying and doing are two different games. Scott can talk a good game. But his record shows that he does nothing but what's best for himself."

TO BE HONORED - Michael Scoppetuolo, M.D., an oncologist with a private practice in Belleville, will be honored by the American Cancer Society, Essex Unit, at its annual Diamond Ball on Sunday, Nov. 21, at The Parsippany Hilton. His citation states, 'Dr. Scoppetuolo's tireless efforts and numerous contributions to the field of oncology make him the ideal recipient of this honor.'

"Tips For A Safe Halloween"

Hi boys and ghouls! I'm back again this week to talk to you about safety while you are out trick or treating. With Halloween upon us, everyone is looking forward to fun and festivities, but it is also important to be concerned about being safe. The following is a list of some tips. The order doesn't mean anything; they are all equally important:

1. Have a parent or older brother or sister go trick or treating with the kids.
2. Try to trick or treat while it is still light out.
3. If you go out at night, wear reflective clothing or carry reflective or white items.
4. Always carry a flashlight so you can see and be seen.
5. Stay on the sidewalks. If there are no sidewalks, walk facing traffic.
6. Cross street only at corners. Never cross between parked cars, or in the middle of the block.
7. If you are wearing a mask, remove the mask before you cross the street so you can see better.
8. Always trick or treat in a group whenever possible.
9. Carry a trick or treat bag that isn't so big you can trip on it.
10. Pick your trick or treating route ahead of time, and let your parents know the streets you will be on. Pick streets that are well-lighted.
11. Never go inside a stranger's house.
12. Don't run from house to house; they will still be there when you reach the door!
13. Beware of dogs and other stray animals. Do not pet or feed them.
14. Wait until you get home to sort, check and eat your treat. Always have your parents look over your treats first.
15. Never eat any open foods, or foods where the wrappers are torn or loose.

Adults also have to be safe when they are out driving on Halloween. Keep an eye out for kids running about. Halloween is one of the most exciting nights for children, and they don't always see you driving down the street towards them.

Parents should take an active role in Halloween preparation; discuss these safety rules with their children and stress the importance of safe trick or treating.

I hope everyone has enjoyed Big Al's Halloween Corner! I had fun talking to you all about Halloween! Look for me again next year! Until then... have a happy Halloween and a very happy Christmastide!

Letters to the Editor

Sam Papa raps Scott

To the Editor:

It's sad. Every time I turn around, someone else I know is being laid off. Companies call it "streamlining," "downsizing," "economizing," or "restructuring." So many different terms, yet they all amount to the same thing: loss of income.

When John Scott was elected to be the Senator for the 36th District, he said he would make jobs his number one priority. But did he live up to that promise? No! In fact, Scott has one of the most anti-job records in the N.J. Senate!

Why should we let John Scott keep his job when he's done absolutely nothing to help other people keep theirs? As Senator, he's got a solid job, a good salary and excellent benefits. He even gave himself a nice pay raise as soon as he stepped into office. Well, maybe it's just that his own good fortune blinded him to the needs of others — his constituents — the people he pledged to help.

John Scott failed to vote on a number of employment bills that would've helped to give our district a desperately-needed jump start. He ignored quality programs that were endorsed by the New Jersey Business and Industry Association. He also voted to roll back the minimum raise increase from $5.05 to $4.65 per hour.

It's no wonder that NEW JOBS, the oldest and largest pro-business organization in New Jersey and AFL-CIO of N.J. and its affiliated organized labor groups did not endorse John Scott.

We can't afford to give John Scott another four years in office. There's no way the economy will improve unless the issue of jobs is pushed into the forefront and kept there until results are evident. John Scott had his chance and he blew it. We can't afford to give him another go of it.

Veteran mad as hell

This past week another good deed from our politicians in Washington went sour, at our expense and sadness.

Most of our veterans from all wars and are good citizens are very angry about what has happened in Somalia.

Our president has said, "We have obligations elsewhere." With many families in our country out of work and some hungry without money to survive, our country's people should be first before sending any aid to help people who are killing our servicemen and servicewomen.

I have spoken to many servicemen who fought in WWII, Vietnam, and Korea. They all feel as I do. My brother was in Korea, and I remember when he told me they knew men were being killed every day by snipers and when they would see the Korean enemy they were told to hold their fire and let them pass.

In Somalia, it will be the same as in Korea. It seems no matter who hurts us in any country, we help them. Then they hate us.

I believe with so many crimes in our major cities, our servicemen and women should be used to help prevent crime. We should have priorities to help our people in America—not overseas.

Letters to the Editor

Torricelli for Marina

To the editor:

This year's election for the 36th Legislative District Assembly seat presents a special person, with a unique ability, intellect and energy to serve the citizens of her community.

Marina Perna knows the problems faced by her constituency and will work to improve the quality of life in the 36th District.

I first met Marina Perna when she ran for mayor of Belleville. I was especially impressed by her devotion to hard work, her concern for individuals and her conscientious approach to completing the tasks at hand. Marina understands the intricate details within different levels of government and can therefore be an effective assemblywoman working towards a bright future for the 36th District.

The citizens of District 36 are fortunate to have such a skilled and experienced person willing to devote her time to the state Assembly. Marina has been a lifelong citizen of Belleville, where she has served as mayor for three consecutive terms. She is a practicing attorney in a solo practice.

Among the unique issues she will address forcefully are stabilization of taxes, preservation of the state of New Jersey's stringent gun control laws, excellence in education, increased benefits for senior citizens and return of the homestead rebate. Marina is one person I know with an unselfish desire to devote her time and energy to public service. She will be an effective advocate for the 36th District and will address the concerns of District 36 citizens in the state Assembly.

I have enjoyed working with Marina over the years and have a great respect for her ability in local and state government affairs. Her election should be important to each resident, regardless of party affiliation.

Marina is committed to District 36. I urge you to vote for Marina Perna for assemblywoman for District 36 in November.

Help vets memorial

To the editor:

The New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation is seeking support from New Jersey's municipalities and counties to raise the $2.8 million needed to complete the Memorial and Vietnam Era Educational Center in Holmdel. So far, 72 of the state's 567 municipalities have donated $32,350 toward construction of the Memorial that will honor New Jersey's servicemen and women who served in the war in Southeast Asia. Of the 21 counties, eight have given $62,200.

The Foundation's goal is to have the Memorial completed in time for Veteran's Day, 1994. However, work which was halted in January cannot resume until the money to complete the $5.6 million project is raised.

This is an important memorial and it should not be ignored. People should ask their town councils, committees or commissions and county freeholders to examine the part they can play in this effort. If every county and municipality participates, the Memorial could be finished in time for Veteran's Day 1994. It would be a very sad commentary on our towns and counties and ourselves as residents, if we failed to support this very important Memorial.

For information, call 1-800-648-VETS, or write to the NJVVMF, 150 West State St., Trenton, 08606.

Doc questions Chet

To the editor:

The millions that Lyndhurst is being sued by the state for, did Ambrosio bring the money to our district?

If Senator Scott wins will I be able to purchase a 105 mm recoilless cannon?

If Senator Ambrosio won, would the Parkway tolls still be 25 cents?

Mr. Prosperi, you are like all the rest of us: you control one vote, and that is your own.

No matter what your or any other organization supports, it stops at the voting booth. When the citizen closes that curtain, he holds the destiny of our state in his hands. Thank God, most of the time he votes for the person he feels is the most qualified. Most of the time the truth of the ballot gives us good leaders.

"Vox populi, vox Dei."

"The voice of the people is the voice of God."

Palagano for Freeholder

For the Future. For a Change.

"The future of our children, the future of our communities, depends on what we do today. It's time for commitment. It's time for new ideas. And now after 12 years, it's time for a change in county government representation for our area.

"We know taxes are too high and something must be done about it. We know confidence in government is low. We must find ways to deliver government services more efficiently. That's important.

"It's time we had a Freeholder who will listen to people instead of dictate. It's time we thought about the future.

"If you agree that after 12 years, a change in county government would be welcome, then I'm counting on your support. On November 2, let's vote like our future depends on it."

VOTERS BEWARE:

Mayor John Kelly refused to give Nutley Police Officer Stoffers benefits when Officer Stoffers was shot during the course of duty for the Nutley townspeople.

John Kelly gave us his word that his Nutley Savings and Loan was in excellent fiscal shape. John Kelly knew that his bank was 20 million dollars in debt and going deeper.

John Kelly said he would do everything possible to hold our industrial base.

John Kelly knew that his Trenton pals were forcing the closure of Hoffman La-Roche and ITT, sacrificing hundreds of jobs in our community.

John Kelly said he would do nothing for his own enrichment.

John Kelly knew he had set up (at the depositors and taxpayers expense) his $200,000 per year golden parachute as a reward for driving the bank to the ground.

John Kelly said he was behind senior citizens.

John Kelly knew he voted to strip them of the Homestead Rebates and voted to increase the costs of prescription drugs for seniors by 150%.

Mayor and Assemblyman John Kelly said he would fight to lower taxes locally and at the state level. Check your empty wallet - John is still up to his old tricks.

Paul DiGaetano, Council President in Passaic sat around while the store was being robbed in Passaic by the former Mayor. The former Mayor of Passaic is currently in jail for stealing from the city coffers. Where was the Council President when all of this was going on?

MAYOR PERNA fought against crime and corruption by seeking out evidence against felons and turning it over to the State Commission of Investigation and Essex County Prosecutor.

Paul DiGaetano voted to strip landowners and senior citizens of their Homestead Rebates.

MAYOR PERNA secured the land for which the first senior citizen housing complex in Belleville will be built and is now leading the way in the construction and design of the building.

Paul DiGaetano voted to increase the PAAD prescription plan by 150%.

MAYOR PERNA wants the costs of prescriptions to be zero for seniors.

Paul DiGaetano refuses to take a stance to help senior citizens by adding State Medicaid to Federal Medicare so that seniors will not be able to get the benefit of the new federal program.

MAYOR PERNA wants to supplement all of the Medicare recipients with State Medicaid to zero out costs.

John Kelly and Paul DiGaetano owe their souls to political pacs and big money groups.

"As Vice-President of the Board of Freeholders, my priorities have been to legislate matters of concern to all citizens of Essex County.

"I am pledged to continue the fight for the completion of Eisenhower Parkway and was recently successful in acquiring $125,000 in funds for a feasibility study for this project.

"We successfully led the fight for the state takeover of court costs, representing a savings to the county taxpayer of $69 million. Valley earnings a record

Valley National Bancorp has reported a record net income of 13.5 million, or $.56 per share, for the third quarter ended Sept. 30, 28 percent above the 10.6 million, or $.44 per share, earned in the 1992 third quarter.

For the nine-month period ended Sept. 30, Valley earned a record $40.9 million, or $1.70 per share, a 29.5 percent increase from the 31.5 million, or $1.33 per share earned for the first nine months of 1992. Earnings per share figures have been adjusted for the 5:4 stock split effected in April of this year.

Valley's results for the first nine months of 1993 produced an annualized return on average assets of 1.7 percent and a return on average equity of 22.7 percent, both of which keep Valley as one of the top performing banks in the country.

Gerald H. Lipkin, chairman of the board and chief executive officer, said Valley experienced increased net interest income due to continued growth in its consumer loan portfolio and strong residential mortgage loan demand, coupled with lower interest expense on deposits. Continued growth in non-interest fee income from Valley's expanded operations, plus gains on securities transactions due to portfolio adjustments helped to offset increased non-interest expenses, thereby contributing to the strong performance.

Total shareholder's equity was 256.1 million at Sept. 30, equivalent to a book value of $10.50 per share and a tier one leverage ratio of 7.39 percent.

Valley National Bancorp is a regional bank holding company whose principal subsidiary, Valley National Bank, operates 59 offices in Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Morris and Passaic counties in New Jersey.

Sheriff speaks on guns

Contacted by the White House to provide testimony on gun violence in America, Essex County Sheriff Armando Fontoura shared the stage with President Bill Clinton at a forum held recently at the Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital in New Brunswick, where Clinton called for an end to what he described as society's "culture of violence" and urged passage of his health care reform and anti-crime packages.

Fontoura, a 23-year veteran of the Newark Police Department who served as undersheriff before becoming sheriff in 1991, said he was greatly honored to have been asked by the White House to discuss the increased impact of guns and violence from his perspective as a law enforcement official over his long professional career.

During the visit, Clinton expressed his support for bans on semi-automatic weapons and stricter gun control, positions held by Gov. Jim Florio, who toured the hospital's trauma center with the president and spoke to victims of violent crimes that had been treated there. Florio and Fontoura called New Jersey's ban on assault weapons a model for the rest of the nation.

The sheriff went on to deliver a plea to "stop the madness" of gun violence.

"There has not been a national policy on gun control, and until there is, the public will continue to be under siege," he said.

Thursday, October 28, 1993

Fontoura detailed how police officers deal with the increased level of violence on a daily basis, provided an inside look at its effects and its incredible cost to society before an audience of doctors, nurses, administrators, and local and national media, who gathered in the hospital's atrium.

The president, apparently

impressed with the sheriff's speech, remarked "I hope he doesn't decide to run for president anytime soon. He gave a fine talk."

The president's anti-crime proposal also includes federal funding for $50,000 additional police officers around the country and grants for community youth activity programs.

Fontoura said he was encouraged by the Clinton Administration's proposal to fight crime.

SPORTS

Giorlando goal stuns #1 seed

By Mike Lambert

Soccer first made the scene at Belleville High School back in the Fall of 1974. As is the case with any new sport, growing pains were associated with the development of the program. There were some good teams in the early 80's, highlighted by Tony DeAquino's 1983 team.

But success didn't become consistent at BHS until 1991, when Gino DePinto's club finished 14-4-2. When the team repeated that record last fall, heads began to turn. If the heads turned last year, they must have done a 360 degree spin after last Sunday's stunning contest in the Essex County tournament.

The Bucs defeated the number one seed in the ECT, Millburn, 2-1 in a quarterfinal shootout thriller at Millburn. The win moves Belleville into the county semi finals this Sunday afternoon. It's the first time that the Belleville soccer program has advanced this far in the county tournament. The victory also improved Belleville's season record to 9-3-3.

How big was this win? Well, Millburn, in addition to being the top seed in the ECT, was undefeated coming in (12-0-2) and held a lofty seventh ranking in the state.

How big was this win? Just ask

DePinto.

"I think it's the biggest win in the history of the program," an ecstatic DePinto said. "Everyone on our team played great. It was just a tremendous effort. Millburn is a great team, and to beat them at their place in the county tournament is just a huge step in the development of this team and the program."

The first half was scoreless. The Bucs went ahead 27 minutes into the second half on a free kick by Giuseppe Mennella.

The lead held until just :35 were left in the game. There, Millburn converted a goal past goalie Mike Percio, who was brilliant all afternoon. The game went into overtime tied at one.

"When they scored, it took a lot out of us," DePinto said. "But our kids didn't quit. They never stopped believing in themselves."

The OT was scoreless, thus setting up a shootout. The rules of the shootout are simple. Each team gets five chances to shoot the ball past the goalie. The ball is placed 15 yards from the net and the goalie cannot move until the ball is kicked.

Greg Groeling, Jim Berg and Frank Toledo converted for Belleville. Millburn answered with three tallies of its own. The game came down to Marcelo Giorlando. If he converts his kick, the game is over. If he missed, the shootout would continue.

Giorlando didn't disappoint, converting the kick and sending the Belleville sideline into a frenzy.

"It was unbelievable," DePinto said. "The place went crazy. Our fans were tremendous. They were so supportive."

Percio recorded two saves in the shootout and made some marvelous plays in regulation time and OT.

"It was Percio's best game, ever," DePinto said. "He was great."

The Bucs, the number eight seed, will play the winner of Montclair-West Orange this Sunday, at West Essex. The game will probably be played at 2 p.m. since the Bucs beat the top seed. Columbia plays Bloomfield at West Essex, probably at noon time.

Ironically, the victory came at the end of a disappointing week for Belleville. The Bucs were upset by Paramus 2-1 in a league game and tied Hackensack at one in a key Pacific Division contest. Belleville will take a 5-2-3 league record into this week's action.

Against Paramus, Belleville jumped out to a 1-0 lead on a goal by Groeling, assisted by Mennella. But the Bucs allowed two goals in the second half and ended up on the losing end.

"We were flat," the coach said. "It happens. It's tough to lose in the league, but we still have a chance if we can beat Don Bosco."

In the Hackensack game, Groeling scored late in the second half to tie the contest.

"We played a good game against Hackensack," said DePinto. "They're the league leaders, and we stayed with them."

The JV team posted two victories last week, downing Paramus and Hackensack by 3-1 scores. For the year, the JV team is 9-1. They will compete in the JV county tournament, this Saturday, at Newark Academy.

NOTES: In the league race, Hackensack and Don Bosco have one loss each and Belleville has two losses. Hackensack still has to play Don Bosco again and Belleville has another game with Don Bosco.

Bucs will face Paramus Catholic this afternoon at Clearmon Field, with the kickoff set for 4 p.m. Next Tuesday, Nutley will be in town for a 4 p.m. contest.

1993 Sam Giuffrida run a big success

By Mike Lambert

When the Farmer's Almanac publishes its next edition, it might want to check with the organizers of the Sam Giuffrida Run to determine what the weather will be like for Belleville in October.

For the fourth straight year, the weather was absolutely beautiful for the fourth annual race, which was held at Belleville High School last Sunday morning.

We'll have a listing of the winners in the various age categories in an upcoming issue.

But this week, a quick look back at the race, which attracted over 175 runners. The race epitomized all that is good in Belleville. The enthusiasm by all involved, whether it be a runner, course marshal, cheerleader, chiropractor or refreshment supervisor, made this a simply perfect morning.

With the temperature in the high 50's and not a cloud in sight, the one mile fun run/walk commenced at 9:30 a.m. Without question, the highlight of the race was the performance of a very young girl, who ran the course with her teddy bear close by for support. (There's a picture of her in this week's issue).

The five mile run was set to begin at 10 a.m. but didn't commence until 10:20 because of a fire in the township that could have altered the course. The fire department did a great job in taking care of the incident and the race went on without interruption.

The Belleville cheerleaders donated their time and effort in helping at the finish line and encouraging all the runners.

The pictures in this week's issue tell the story much better than an article could ever do.

The little girl who ran the one mile race with her teddy bear might have been the story of the day, however. She was a very determined person who didn't give up until she hit the finish line.

Sam Giuffrida would have been proud of the entire event.

It was a morning of love and community involvement.

It was Belleville at its finest.

Bucs lose to Randolph, 34-14

By Mike Lambert

One year ago, the Belleville Bucs football team played a game at Randolph and nearly pulled off a major upset. The Bucs led 9-7 in the fourth quarter before the Rams, a state powerhouse for the past ten years, rallied in the last six minutes and won.

Fast forward to last Friday and the return match, this time in the friendly confines of Doc Ellis Field. This was a game the Bucs felt they could win, a game they had looked forward to for quite some time.

It didn't quite work out to the Bucs' expectations. Randolph, the 16th ranked team in the state this year and owners of a 3-0-1 mark coming into last Friday night, dominated from the opening kickoff and ran away to a 34-14 victory.

The Bucs fell to 2-3 with the defeat. On a more positive note, the team is 2-1 in the NNJIL Pacific Division, which is good for a second place tie. The Bucs, who lost the last two weeks to non division opponents, will continue their run at the Pacific Division by taking on Paramus tomorrow night. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. This will also be the final night game of the season.

Head coach John Senesky attributed the loss to two factors.

"I think Randolph played its best game of the season and we definitely didn't play one of our better games. The intensity factor was down. Maybe we underestimated Randolph. We knew that they weren't as big as some of the teams we had played this year and we felt we matched up well against them."

"But the key to the game was their execution. They didn't make mistakes, we made too many mistakes, and that was the game."

There isn't much to talk about when it comes to last Friday evening's game. Randolph scored on its first offensive possession, moving the ball 80 yards in a very workmanlike 8:30. In the second quarter, Randolph scored three more touchdowns, benefitting from three Bucs' turnovers.

The ultimate downer for the Bucs came late in the first half. The Rams already led 27-0 and had the ball deep in Belleville territory, threatening to score again. Ram head coach John Bauer Jr. pulled his entire starting offensive team from the field with 1:07 left and replaced them with his second team. The Bucs were able to hold the Rams and the half ended 27-0.

Belleville's only scores came in the fourth quarter. Sal Berardi ran in from one yard out to cut the lead to 27-6. Randolph answered with a score of its own four minutes later, extending the lead to 34-6. The Bucs finished the scoring when Mundy ran in from 11 yards out. Mundy then passed to Joe DePeri for the two point conversion.

"The next two games are important," Senesky said. "We have Paramus and Teaneck coming to our place, and if we hope to have a winning season, we need to get back on track."

NOTES: Bucs are 5-2 against Paramus and have won the past three games and five of the last six. Belleville won last year's game 24-8 and beat Paramus 16-6 at Doc Ellis

Volleyball team busy

By Steve Patchett

The Belleville girls' volleyball team has had its share of exhausting matches lately.

After beating Hackensack in three games last Monday, the Belleville varsity team traveled to Bloomfield on Tuesday where they lost a grueling three-game affair.

"The Bloomfield match was horrendously long. Most of the games went to 15-13, and the girls were exhausted. We didn't get out of there until a quarter to seven," said head coach Grace Worley.

But if the Bucs thought that was bad, the very next day they visited Nutley where they encountered a 20-18 first game in a 2-0 loss to the Raiders.

The first game looked like it would be an easy Nutley victory until Andrea Curran took matters into her own hands.

With Nutley serving and holding a 14-9 lead, Curran hit a winner at the net to get the serve back for Belleville (7-11). She then tallied six straight points behind a strong serve, to give the Bucs a 15-14 lead.

Nutley was able to re-capture the serve, and then the roller coaster ride began.

The two teams jockeyed back and forth, as Curran, Marie Acuna, and Jessica Gonzalez all had nice plays for the Bucs. Unfortunately for Belleville, Nutley was able to recapture the serve at 18-18, and two powerful serves later, the Raiders walked off with the first game.

By the time the second game rolled around, the Bucs were clearly drained.

Michele Pszonka and Acuna provided the only Belleville points, as Nutley jumped out to an early lead, and then exploded for a 15-2 win.

"In the second game, the varsity didn't play their offense, and they

Members of the Belleville cheerleading squad perform during last Friday's football game against Randolph. The Bucs lost, 34-14.

The Sam Giuffrida run was held last Sunday at Belleville High School. Once again, the weather was tremendous and the event was well attended and met with enthusiasm.

I would like to personally thank the race committee for the plaque given to me at the end of the race. Believe me, it was not difficult to be supportive of this cause. As I have said over the past two months and in previous years as well, Sam Giuffrida was a very good friend to me and during my high school days, he was one of my best teachers.

Anyway, special congratulations also to Charles Auriemma of Auriemma Electric for being the main sponsor of the race and the man who paid for the tee shirts. The shirts were beautiful, with the event name on the front and the key sponsors of the race on the back of the shirt.

It was good to see my friend Mike Davis at the race. Davis, who rowed for Giuffrida from 1974-76 and was a member of the '76 Hall of Fame boat, is a successful businessman in South Orange today and has been a key sponsor of the race for the past four years.

Dr. Len Russo provided free chiropractic care for the runners before and after the race. Russo, like Davis, is a Belleville High School graduate, class of 1983. He was a fine athlete at BHS and today is working hard to establish a practice in Belleville.

"I really enjoy this town," Russo told me last Sunday. "People say try a different area, but I grew up here and I hope to be a success here."

Russo will be successful in just about anything he tries. He works hard and gives an honest effort. You can't ask for much more than that.

William Hollis once again provided music and entertainment before, during and after the race. Hollis, a Belleville High School teacher, had them literally dancing in the streets.

A little something about Hollis, which I'm sure he doesn't want me to mention. I was a student in his eighth grade spanish class, way back in 1972 in the junior high school. When I told him that during last years race, he denied he was old enough to be a teacher 20 years ago. But I have witnesses who remember him.

All kidding aside, Hollis is one of the real good guys, a man who has devoted his professional life to the students of our township.

Michael Lemongello was once again one of the marshalls at the finish line. Lemongello has been assisting in the race since its inception back in 1990.

Speaking of Lemongello, I've known this guy longer than Hollis. When I was in the sixth grade, in 1969, I attended school number seven. One of my teachers, Miss Corbo, was about to be married to a man who taught at the junior high school. All we knew back then was that his name was Mr. Lemongello.

Anyway, I was invited to the wedding in December of '69 and when I see Mike, I always like to remind him that I was there.

A special note to the Belleville High School cheerleaders. The girls also assisted at the finish line. Last years captain, SueAnne Batista ran in the race. Batista has been an active participant since the inception of the run. A few of the current cheerleaders also ran in the one miler.

Tonia Moore, perhaps the main coordinator of the race, did a tremendous job in keeping things together. I would also like to congratulate Lorraine Leming, who has been a big part of the race for the past four years. Leming is another person who you can't help but like. She is active in our township and is a pleasure to know and work with.

All of the runners who competed did a tremendous job. But I have to say that the most memorable runners were the man who ran the five miler juggling three balls the entire course and the little girl who ran the one mile with her teddy bear.

The girl, who couldn't be older than four, crossed the line with a very determined look on her face, the bear huddled close to her as she chugged along the course. It was quite a scene.

Everyone at the race was there for one common purpose. To pay homage to Sam Giuffrida and to have some fun. That was the Giuffrida way. Enjoy life, because it goes by very quickly.

Sam would have been pretty proud of last Sunday's event.

LETS GO JETS

If the Jets don't get rid of Bruce Coslet and company after this season, then they are destined for mediocrity for the next ten years. Once again, the Jets have a losing product on the field. They haven't passed the .500 plateau during Coslet's reign, and except for the '88 Jets, which finished 8-7-1, the organization hasn't seen a winner in eight seasons.

Last Sunday's game with Buffalo was typical of the Jets. They are close, but don't clear the hurdle. They blew a 21 point lead against the Eagles, at home, a few weeks ago, then surrendered a 17 point advantage at Los Angeles. Last Sunday, they battled the Buffalo Bills but couldn't take Field, rallying from a 6-3 fourth quarter deficit to win.

In 1990, Belleville staged one of its more famous rallies, beating Paramus 19-18 on the road after trailing 18-7 in the fourth quarter. Paramus last won in this series in 1989, 26-17 at Paramus. Bucs won in '88 and '87 by scores of 12-7 and 7-0 respectively. In 1986, Paramus won 9-6. Belleville is 2-0 at home against Paramus. Because of some scheduling quirk, five of the seven games of this series have been played at Paramus.

Anthony Caruso returned to the Belleville lineup last Friday night. He had missed two games because of a knee injury.

Getting back to the NNJIL Pacific Division race, Bucs are 2-1 in the league and are tied for second with Hackensack. St. Joe's of Montvale leads the division with a 4-0 mark.

Paramus is 0-3-2 so far this year. They are coached by former Nutley mentor Pete LaBarbariera.

"Pete's a fine coach," Senesky said. "He'll have them ready, this is a big game for them too. Paramus has some big play players on offense, and they can strike quickly."

didn't play their defense. But they tried hard, and that's all you can ask," said coach Worley.

The pleasant surprise for Belleville volleyball lately has been their junior varsity squad, particularly their freshmen.

Belleville's JV had a strong win against Bloomfield on Tuesday, and also looked impressive by knocking off Nutley, 13-15, 15-7, 15-10, last Wednesday.

"The freshmen are really coming along. They're actually starting to block at the net, and when they do — boy, are they excited! Chris (Scassera) had a few blocks yesterday (against Bloomfield)," said the coach.

coach.

In the JV games, coach Worley starts a mixed group of sophomores and juniors in the first game. In the second game she starts all freshmen, and then lets the winning group play the third game, if a third game is necessary.

Lately, that winning group has been the freshmen.

On Wednesday against Nutley, the sophomores and juniors jumped out to an 11-5 lead in the first game behind the play of Jessica Nicosia, Lisa Jablonski, and Jackie Cerami. Nutley rallied to take the game, however, behind a booming serve.

Luckily, Belleville's freshmen then came through to dominate the second game. Tojaera Terry blasted four quick points for the Bucs behind her serve. Kim Mahoney also served well, and Chris Scassera seemed to surprise herself with her mastery at the net.

After taking the second game, the freshmen continued their winning ways, jumping out to a 10-2 lead in the final game. Nutley made a run at the lead, but Deanna Addis served out the match for Belleville.

"The JV came alive at the net. They did well; they have a lot of enthusiasm and self-confidence. Everyone can serve fairly well, and now they're getting their timing at the net. All in all, I was pleased," said coach Worley.

Members of the Sam Giuffrida race committee get together with various sponsors after the completion of the five mile run.

Carol Giuffrida presents her son Mike with his medal for his performance in the one mile run.

advantage, even though the game was at Giants Stadium.

I think the Jets will upset the Giants this weekend, mainly because no one is giving the Jets much of a chance. But overall, this team will probably be lucky to finish at .500.

As for the Buffalo Bills, give this team a lot of credit. For the past three years, they have advanced to the Super Bowl, only to lose. They are then given little chance to return. But once again, the Bills are on top of the division and have to be considered favorites to repeat as AFC champs. The only team that has a good shot at stopping them is Kansas City, and that's only if Joe Montana stays healthy.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The Blue Jays have been to the playoffs in 1985, '89, '91, '92 and '93. The team lost the ALCS in '85, '89 and '91 and won the World Series in '92 and '93. Bobby Cox managed Toronto in '85 and Cito Gaston led the team in '89 and '91-93.

FOR THIS WEEK

The Toronto Blue Jays have won back to back titles for the first time since the Yankees in '77 and '78. Who managed those Yankee teams? Which team won back to back crowns prior to those Yankees? Who did the Yankees beat in the ALCS in '77 and '78? Who managed the team the Yankees beat in the ALCS?

Mother and son both earned medals at the Gluffrida race last Sunday.

The winner of the five mile run in the female category nears the finish line.

YOUR DEDICATED PHARMACIST

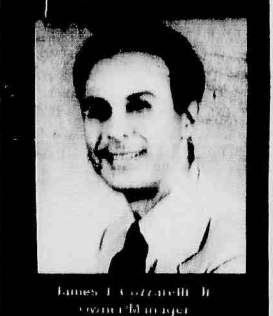

Consumers are variously warned that their best interests do not automatically rest with choosing products or services solely on the basis of price. Many large-scale retailers with incorporated pharmacies may offer "bargain" prices, but what do they offer beyond price? Do big operations such as these recognize their customers by sight and share a concern for their health needs? The "neighborhood" pharmacy does just that. The local pharmacist knows his or her customers, can advise them about their medication needs without being asked, and stands ready to perform services and niceties that neighbors usually reserve for their friends. As many business interests become larger and more centralized, the neighborhood pharmacy retains its dedication to the customers it serves.

We're dedicated to handling all your pharmacy needs. Prescription, and non-prescription medications, convalescent aids, cosmetics, toiletries, baby needs and gifts are available when you come to us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. Free prescription delivery is provided. Hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

HINT: It does not necessarily hold true that a chain-store pharmacy can beat the price at a neighborhood pharmacy.

YOU HAVE THE POWER

Children wish for simple things...magical castles, fanciful characters, lively parades. For a child with a life threatening illness, their wish may go no further than their crayon.

This year, you have the power to make a special child's dream come true. When you open a Holiday Club from October 25 through December 25, we'll donate $2 to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of New Jersey.

You may open a Holiday Club for $5, $10, $20, or $40. It's completely up to you. What's more, you can now have your club payment automatically deducted from any First Dewitt Savings Bank checking account.

The work of the Make-A-Wish Foundation is made possible through the concern and support of people like you. So this year instead of receiving a gift for opening a Holiday Club, you can give a gift—the gift of making a child's wish come true.

Dear Senior Support,

By: Nancy I. Kuss

"A helping community voice for senior citizens and their families..."

Nancy I. Kuss has been a Registered Nurse for over 25 years. For most of her professional life she has worked with senior citizens, either directly caring for this segment of the population, directing nursing staff in the care of the elderly, or teaching student nurses health care delivery skills.

Ms. Kuss is an associate member of the American Health Care Association and the New Jersey Association of Health Care Facilities. Her professional career has permitted her to interface with the elderly and their families in all settings. She functions as an advocate for the elderly and the long term care community. Ms. Kuss has the experience and expertise to assist the elderly in meeting the challenges of their senior years.

Dear Senior Support,

I've just hit 50 and already I've received a package in the mail from the AARP - the Association for retired persons. But I'm not retired. I don't feel a day over 30 and have no intentions of giving up my job for another 20 years. If then. Why are they sending me this information now and do I have to join? Is there anything in it for me if I do?

Not Ready for Retirement

Dear Not Ready for Retirement,

You are eligible to join the AARP, American Association of Retired Person, at age 50, whether you're retired, semi-retired or still actively employed.

AARP is known nationally and provides a number of services for their members. For example, many establishments throughout the United States provide food, lodging and service discounts medication and is user-friendly. Additionally, AARP offers supplemental medicare insurance coverage, and publishes magazines and literature that covers a wide variety of issues. Local Community AARP chapters provide support and referral services. One of their newest support services is to assist grandparents who are placed in the role of being parents again. The AARP is a well respected organization that helps protect the rights and interests of everyone, because we're all growing older.

Dear Senior Support,

I'm only 54 but my husband just died and I have two teenagers to raise alone. I have a part-time job, but there's not much insurance money. We never thought anything like this could happen to us. Am I entitled to any benefits through his social security contributions?

Mrs. R.K., Detroit, MI

Dear Mrs. R.K.,

Survivors benefits are very much a part of your Social Security Package. When a worker dies, benefits can go to certain family members as monthly payments. A widow or a surviving divorced spouse can receive benefits equal to 75 percent of their spouses if they are caring for children. Additionally, a lump sum benefit is usually payable to the surviving spouse.

Receipt of your Social Security benefits is not automatic. If you believe you are eligible, you should file an application by mail or in person at the nearest Social Security Administration district office. Some claims have time limitations so be sure to act as quickly as possible.

Dear Senior Support,

My husband and I are newly retired and on a fixed income. We've owned our car for three years and its paid for, but we're wondering whether we should buy another now, or wait a bit longer. Our auto isn't giving us much trouble but it's gone 50,000 miles and we plan to do a lot more traveling in the next few years. What's your advice? Buy new, buy used or forget car payments for a while longer.

Aging wheels

Dear Aging wheels,

If you plan to travel, you should first consider the current mechanical condition of your car. Automobile and travel associations, found in most states, can provide a comprehensive diagnostic evaluation of your car's condition and repair requirements. This service is available to members and non-members for a small fee.

Just because a car has gone 50,000 miles is no reason to feel you must buy another car. According to a recent national study sponsored by the Federal Highway Administration, the average age of the cars on the highways is approaching eight years.

Do you have a question or a comment on these or any related subjects concerning senior citizens? Please write to "Dear Senior Support" care of Belleville Times, Box 95, Gwynedd, Penn. 19436-095.

Belleville Kiwanis hails Home-coming Day

Scholarship and achievement crowned the King and Queen of Home-coming Day, and the Attendants, as Belleville Kiwanis sponsored its annual parade event.

Vanessa Rodriguez was named Queen, and Joe De Peri was King. Attendants were Lavina Sanchez, Christin Jacobs, Robert Dena and Anthony Caruso.

The parade began at Town Hall and went to the Municipal Stadium, where at half time in the football game between Belleville High School and Paramus Catholic, the winners of the pageant contest received their awards.

The King and Queen each received bouquets of roses and a $100 Savings Bond. The Attendants each received flowers and a $50 Savings Bond.

Entrants had to provide a brief essay of 30 words or less on "Why I Think I Should Be Selected", submit photographs of themselves and the recommendations of two teachers, each.

They were also required to maintain a grade average of C or better.

Then, Finalists were selected by vote of the Senior Class, and the winners were selected by the vote of the entire student body.

The festivities were followed by refreshments served in the school cafeteria by Kiwanis.

The Club thanked the Marching Band, the Police, the Fire Department, the Auxiliary Police, the cheerleaders and the school administration, including the Board of Education, for helping to make the event a success.

Winterize Your Home—An Insulation Contractor Can Recommend The Amount

Now is a good time to begin preparing your home for the colder winter months ahead.

One easy way to begin—especially if you'd rather spend your weekends with your family or at a ball game—is to call an insulation contractor to conduct an energy audit of your home. To find a qualified insulation contractor, look in your local Yellow Pages, call the local insulation contractor's association, or ask friends or neighbors for suggestions.

An insulation contractor can examine your entire home and locate possible heat loss areas then make suggestions for improvement.

Typically, in homes built before the late 80's, an energy audit might suggest:

- Upgrading the insulation level in your attic. An insulation contractor will recommend the amount needed based on where you live and suggest the best material for the job like CertainTeed's Insul-Safe III® Fiber Glass Blown-In Insulation. Insul-Safe is thermally efficient, noncombustible and noncorrosive and offers completely uniform coverage, especially in hard-to-reach areas. It can be installed in any thickness to achieve practically any desired R-value. Because coverage is so complete, blown-in materials become an excellent thermal blanket, leaving no nook or cranny exposed for heat to escape. Insul-Safe will maintain its R-value for the life of a home.

- Sidewalls might also need to be reinsulated. Blown-in insulations are used here as well. Typically, a contractor will remove some of the siding, drill two holes per stud space and blow insulation into the wall cavity with a special sidewall nozzle. The siding is then replaced.

- Insulating crawl spaces to the recommended level is important as well. A contractor can suggest the best method for installation based on the type of crawl space your home has.

For all homes, it's important to consider the following before cold weather hits:

- Clean gutters and downspouts to protect homes from poor drainage, otherwise it's possible for siding and insulation to get wet.
- Inspect and service the heating system.
- Insulate water pipes, the water heater and heating ducts.
- Have the chimney professionally swept.
- Check wood stoves to make sure they're in proper working order.
- Have exposed air ducts inspected and cleaned.
- Drain exposed pipes before cold weather arrives to prevent freezing.

For a free brochure on blown-in insulation, write to the CertainTeed Home Institute, P.O. Box 860, Valley Forge, PA 19482, or call toll-free 1-800-782-8777.

Window Energy Efficiency Targeted, Year-Round Insulation Can Upgrade

Home energy efficiency is receiving increased attention, thanks to the National Energy Policy Act and some companion measures. Windows are a special target of the Act, which will help create a national window rating program.

Many single-pane windows are not much better at stopping heat transfer when they're closed than when they're open. The average window will defeat any other insulating or energy saving work in a home. Even double-pane windows aren't much better.

What homeowners need is the high-tech protection of today's new windows, but they cost so much that it takes the life of the mortgage before you save enough to pay for them. The alternative is a simple addition to existing windows. It's available today and it can pay for itself in just a couple of years.

Window insulation comes in handy rolls. But be careful when you buy. Get the year-round "Low-E" treatment. It looks like the tinting materials that have been around for years and, while they will cut solar glare, they won't do much more.

Low-E window insulation, particularly the treatment from Gila Energy Products, offers year-round protection for single or double pane windows. It will not only reduce glare, but cut the heat transfer through the glass by more than half and stop over 90 percent of the damaging ultraviolet radiation that fades drapes, carpets, and almost everything else inside the window.

The coating material contains a combination of metallic alloys that can reflect heat back toward its source, so it works as well in bouncing heat back inside during winter as it does in keeping the heat outside in the summer.

Easy installation—Gila window coating can be applied directly by consumers to save time and expense. After applying a soapy solution to a clean window, the material can be easily maneuvered into position. Once in place, can be squeegeed and trimmed. Full instructions are included in each film package.

Gila Energy Products has a free information packet on the insulation and what it can mean to you in creating a truly energy efficient home as well as one that is more comfortable. Call 800-528-4481 for your copy. When it comes to saving energy, window protection is a must.

A Picket Fence To Charm The Tom Sawyer In You

This is a picket fence that even Tom Sawyer would have loved. It is Jerith's Aluminum Picket Fence that gives a lifetime of care-free service. Throw down your paint brush—this fence is guaranteed for as long as you own it and never needs costly repairs!

Jerith's popular picket is a classic beauty in the true romantic tradition, featuring safe, rounded gothic peaks. The exclusive SAF-T-Rib design makes the picket fence exceptionally rigid. Its charming style adds a warm, inviting appearance to any home, while its maintenance-free benefits allow you to paint the town rather than painting your fence!

Jerith fences keep their maintenance-free good looks for a lifetime. The long-lasting finish is incredibly resistant to chipping, peeling, cracking, and blistering. Once a Jerith aluminum fence is installed it can be virtually ignored.

During the past 40 years as a manufacturer of aluminum products, Jerith has perfected the use of aluminum as a fencing material. Aluminum is stronger and more durable than wood, and it is able to withstand constant exposure to extreme weather conditions and heavy use. It also has the added advantages of a beauty and structural integrity that remain intact during a lifetime of service. It is this unique combination of qualities, plus the company's own high standards, that has allowed Jerith to create a handsome line of maintenance-free fences for homeowners who desire beauty and permanent protection. And the company stands behind its products with a Lifetime Warranty.

For a free color brochure displaying Jerith's full line of maintenance-free aluminum fences, write to Jerith Manufacturing Company, Dept. HTP3, 3901 G Street, Philadelphia, PA 19124.

TIPS ON — HOW TO WRITE A CLASSIFIED AD THAT SELLS

REFRIGERATOR/FREEZER, General Electric, 10 cu. ft., three years old, gold, automatic ice maker, automatic defrost, like-new condition. $400 or best offer! Moving, must sell immediately. Call Saturday between 8AM and 9PM. 000-0000

1. Use a KEYWORD. This immediately tells the reader exactly what it is you have to sell.
2. Make your description CLEAR and FACTUAL. State the year, make, model, color, size, and tell what condition the item is. Also state the special features.
3. State the PRICE. Successful Classified advertisers have learned that the price in an ad helps increase the chances for results.
4. If there's a genuine sense of URGENCY, say so. The words, "We're Moving" or "Must Sell Fast" suggests that readers respond immediately.
5. Include your PHONE NUMBER. Classifieds get results fast and often generate immediate sales. If you cannot be available to answer the phone at all times, be sure to specify special calling times such as "after 6 PM" or "Before 11 AM".

If you need assistance ask one of our friendly AD-VISORS to help you word your ad.
