NJT wants acreage here for subway base facility

Officials of New Jersey Transit are scheduled to visit the Municipal Building today for several hours' discussion of a proposed facility Silver Lake.

Dr. Jerome M. Lutin, Senior Director of the Newark-Elizabeth Rail Link Division, is seeking local support to the idea of a Newark City Subway yard at Belmont Avenue and Franklin Street, taking 15 acres, half in Bloomfield and half in Belleville.

In meetings held with the Silver Lake Civic Association and the Silver Lake Partnership, Dr. Lutin outlined the plans for a final assembly plant for modern subway cars and the extension of the City Subway to the Conrail right of way that crosses Franklin Street.

The utility would pay no taxes to the municipalities.

Immediate responses were unfavorable. Some residents said it would only bring in crime from Newark.

Dennis Walsh of the Partnership took another viewpoint, asking if it would be possible to develop the location as both a repair facility and a commuter parking area.

Dr. Lutin said it was a possibility that some local commercial development could be included in any NJT project.

Dr. Lutin was scheduled to be at the Municipal Building from 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m., and from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. today, Thursday.

Belleville residents in Mainstream U.S.A.

Two Belleville residents have joined Mainstream, U.S.A., a theatrical group that integrates individuals with disabilities with on-disabled individuals in stage productions.

Nicole Lamberti and Patricia Reedy will be part of the troupe, which seeks to educate audiences to the individualities of all people, regardless of their differences.

Miss Lamberti is a junior at Belleville High School, with interests in acting, karate, dancing, drawing and writing poetry. "I know that what I will be doing is important," she stated.

Miss Reedy is with the New Jersey Department of Personnel in Newark, and stated that she joined Mainstream, U.S.A. to "interact with able-bodied people and work on positive goals."

Miss Reedy is a Catholic Daughter trustee and lectures at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church in Newark. She is interested in photography, collecting baseball cards and swimming.

U.S.A. stands for United Special Artists.

'I'll never forgive them': Spillane

Spillane wins Third Ward election, denounces Kennedy campaign tactics

By Howard Klausner

"I will never forgive those people as long as I live for the hell they put me and my family through in the past few weeks!"

Third Ward Councilman Tom Spillane poured out his anger in the wake of his election victory in Tuesday's Third Ward Recall vote.

With a voter turnout of 26.4 percent, the voters went against recall 483 to 434, and supported Spillane for re-election with 495 votes to 459 for challenger Kevin Kennedy.

A small turnout had been expected to help Kennedy, who had mounted a strong campaign to which Spillane responded in only the last days before the vote.

The vote against recall actually made the vote for candidates academic. In effect, Spillane won with the rejection of the recall proposal.

Supporters of Spillane gathered at the Knights of Columbus Hall to hear the results. Among them were Mayor Marina Perna and Council Members Bill Cook, Jim Messina, Charles Cerami, Mario Drozd and Belleville Democratic Chairman Chester Prosperi.

Spillane's wife, Barbara, and his father were also there, along with Attorney Emil Nardachone, who represented Spillane in the lawsuit that invalidated Kennedy's election last year, when more than 40 absentee ballots were thrown out by Superior Court Judge Alvin Weiss.

Also present were former Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni, who had thrown his support to Spillane, and Jackie Rega, a Republican.

Friends of Spillane said that the negative campaigning was among the worst ever experienced in Belleville.

Spillane told the audience, "You don't print attacks on somebody's wife or family or friends. To put these people through that kind of hell is indecent."

Many said the Kennedy campaign publication's attack on Spil-lane's daughter for obtaining a substitute teacher's job with the Community Health Service did much to cost Kennedy the election.

By District, the vote was: District 1 - 34 for recall, 69 against, 70 for Spillane, 42 for Kennedy; District 2 - 102 for recall, 72 against, 75 for Spillane, 108 for Kennedy; District 3 - 89 for recall, 55 against, 59 for Spillane, 92 for Kennedy; District 4 - 63 for recall, 71 against, 73 for Spillane, 62 for Kennedy; District 5 - 64 for recall, 129 against, 131 for Spillane, 66 for Kennedy; District 6 - 66 for recall, 82 against, 83 for Spillane, 71 for Kennedy; absentee - 16 for recall, 5 against, 4 for Spillane, 18 for Kennedy.

'A load off my shoulders'

Belleville man innocent of aggravated assaults

By Howard Klausner

Gerard Maccioli, 32, of Belleville was found innocent of three charges of aggravated assault Tuesday after a two-day trial before Superior Court Judge Thomas Brown in Newark.

Maccioli and James DiGiacomo, 33, of Newark had been charged with beating three poll workers in Newark, on Nov. 5, 1991, Election Day.

Maccioli and DiGiacomo were working for the campaign of Republican Freeholder Arthur Clay for Essex County Sheriff.

The incident allegedly occurred at the Elliot Street School when two men allegedly leaped out of a van and began beating the Democratic poll workers.

Later that day, Maccioli was visiting a critically ill cousin at Clara Maass Medical Center when he was "identified" by the injured poll workers as one of those who assaulted them.

Maccioli vigorously denied the accusations, saying he was not at the scene, and he produced a number of witnesses who corroborated his claim.

Judge Brown dismissed one of the charges after hearing the state's case, and then found Maccioli not guilty on the other two charges after hearing several witnesses for the defense.

Maccioli was represented by Attorney Peter J. Willis of Jersey City.

"My lawyer led the prosecution witnesses through a lot of contradictions in their testimony," Maccioli said.

Maccioli was seriously injured in an automobile accident two years ago that required replacement of several bones and joints. "I was physically unable to assault those people," he said.

A professional actor, Maccioli had to take on odd jobs in order to meet more than $20,000 in legal bills.

"This has been a great weight off my shoulders," he said, after the judge's ruling. "Now I can get back to my career."

Maccioli said that Clay had declined to return his telephone calls, when he sought Clay's support in the case. "Fortunately, I had a very great lawyer," he said.

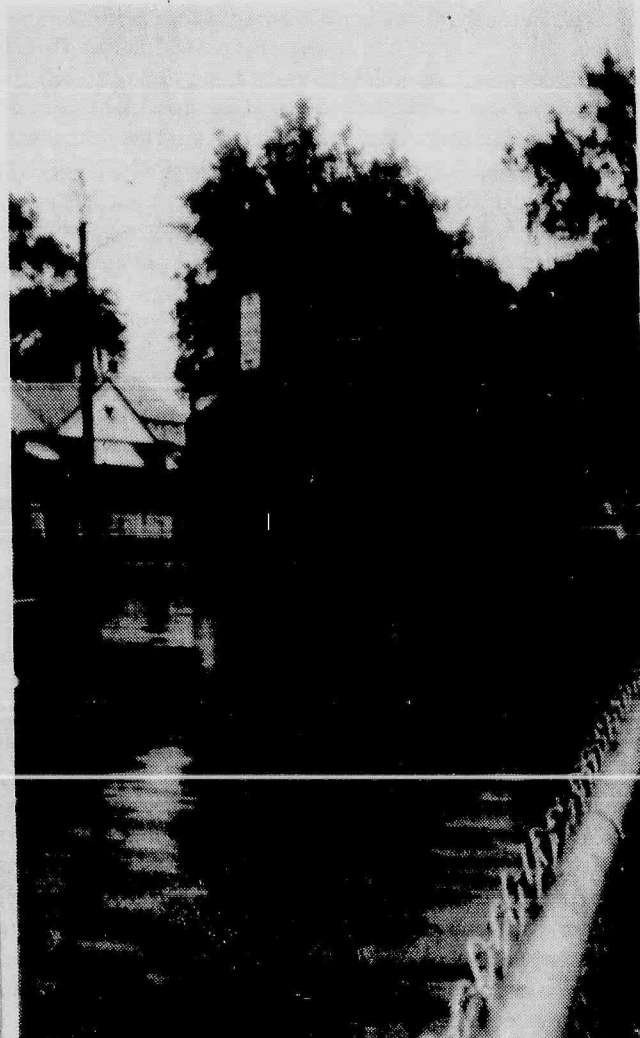

Maccioli said he had been offered plea bargains by the prosecution, but had refused them. "Why should I plead guilty to something I did not do?" he asked.

WHERE PROBLEM LIES - A 12-inch storm sewer line will be replaced by 36-inch cement pipes on this Silver Lake street, to end a flood problem that has been an annual event in the community for more than half a century.

AN END TO THIS? - This was Jeraldo and Lake Streets during a 1988 flood, but even worse ones have occurred since then. Newark and Belleville now have joint sewer project under way to solve the problem.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

Barbara Simonetti was the recipient of a liver transplant in June. It gave her a new lease on life. "I had been in bed for a year, waiting for a donor," she recalled. Since then, she has been on the upswing, and now, in her job at Meyers Bakery, at 382 Washington Ave., she is involved in a food drive. Anyone who brings two cans of food to the bakery will have their name entered in a drawing for the gingerbread house that is now in the display window of the bakery. "It's the Christmas Food Drive, and our store is participating with the Belleville Department of Welfare, which will distribute the food." The bakery's proprietor, Karen Meyers, is working with Welfare Director Carol Ann Russo on the project. For more information, call (201) 759-1673 and ask for either Barbara or Terry. ● ● ● ● Barbara's father, Dennis Simonetti, had a recent successful showing of his photography at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center. The elder Simonetti is one of the world's outstanding professional photographers and printmakers, and he is a teacher of thousands of professionals. Many of his students turned up from as far away as Florida and the West Coast to view the show and catch up with their old mentor, who has been out of action in recent years, fighting the Parkinson's Disease which has reduced his physical dexterity, but not his mental abilities. He is now scheduled for another showing of his work in Caldwell, and a long dormant book project seems to be reviving. Barbara's daughter is the graphic artist Dawn Cox whose design expertise is surpassed only by her beauty. Her husband is pretty talented, too. ● ● ● ● A visitor settled down on Washington Avenue, last week, peering plaintively through the glass front door of the Motorcycle Mall. It was a demure homing pigeon or racer, described as a brown hen with silver bars, and Isadore Padula took pity on it. The former Township Treasurer puts in some time each day at the Mall, using his own considerable expertise with motorcycles to sell the bikes to an eager public. He also likes animals and strays, and he knew that former Commissioner Joe Fornarotto is a pigeon fancier, so Izzy called Joe and he came. ● ● ● ● After cleaning and comforting the bird, Joe placed her with his own considerable family of pigeons in the pigeon cote behind his house on Union Avenue. "It seems to have been owned by somebody, and it may have hurt its wing in some way," Joe said. "She's feeling much better now." Joe is one of perhaps a half dozen pigeon raisers in Belleville, and he has copious supplies of pedigree sheets on his birds, some of which come from France, Belgium and Germany. He also has some impressive trophies for the feats of some of the birds he owns. He has won first and second place trophies for his racers. A third place winner he owns clocked 411.9 miles at a speed of 1,362.2 yards per minute, which is close to three-quarters of a mile a minute. Joe has a great deal of lore about the pigeon, which is obviously one of the most remarkable of all creatures. "The bird has telescopic vision, and can see objects that are five miles distant. It has a photographic memory, and that is how it spots landmarks for guidance. Its ears can be affected by radio transmissions that can make it lose its sense of direction. If lost, it may fly its heart out until it falls." They are also beautiful creatures with delicate shadings of color that have an iridescent quality. Joe picked up the hobby from an older brother, and the gentle warbling sound of a pigeon is music to his ears. Izzy prefers the roar of his Gold Wing, himself. ● ● ● ● A friend in need is a friend indeed, and the Friendly Visitors are a group whose services range from life saving.

The Friendly Visitors are a group whose services range from life serving to life saving. Take Mrs. Selma Howell Hollahan who is genuinely 75 years young, going among the "old folks" as she likes to say, making sure that the homebound of our community are not left to fend for themselves. A few days ago, she encountered an emergency situation in which an elderly man who requires leg braces was left sitting helplessly in his bathrobe because the nursing aide who was scheduled to care for him had taken ill and was hospitalized. Selma simply pitched in and got him dressed and into his braces so that he could prepare something to eat, and they even shared a pizza. "It was just back to doing what I did for my husband when he got sick," Selma said, and she stayed until an aide could arrive. For this kind of volunteer service - "I get there if I have to go through snow and ice" - she was one of 10 Friendly Visitors among 1,750 to be given a special citation for service this year.

A farm girl from Wayne County, Pennsylvania, bordering the Delaware River, she was a spinster most of her life, marrying Albert Hollahan in 1980 and moving to Belleville from Newark. She lost Albert to illness 10 years ago, but she has stayed on in Belleville. A friendly lady at Block's Tax Service saw that she seemed at loose ends and suggested that she join the Friendly Visitors. And she has had a wonderful time ever since. "Between Holy Family Church and this, it all keeps me going," she said. She is also into jigsaw puzzles, making Christmas decorations, writing poetry and painting. "I'm a home person. I don't look for amusement outside the house." But her regret is that she ever left the farm. "I loved the cows. And I have never drunk coffee or tea to this day. Only milk. It sure provides me with calcium!" As one of nine children and a set of "highly talented parents", she has always liked action and joint activities, and the Friendly Visitors satisfy her needs. ● ● ● ● The parent organization of the Friendly Visitors is the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, housed in a building on the old Geriatrics Center, and now marking its 35th anniversary. Executive Director Alice Ricci estimates that 600 individuals and family units in Belleville are touched each year by one or more of the services provided. These include the Friendly Visitors Program, under the direction of Ms. Erni Goldstein, the Child Guidance Program, under the direction of Ruth Cowell, the Outpatient Program, the Preschool and Nursery Program, the Family Services Program for abused wives and children; the Partial Care Program for persons discharged from mental institutions and needing help in fitting back into society and the Vocational Counseling Program. There is also the Peer Support Program, in which elderly clients make contact with other elderly persons, and keep in touch with them. ● ● ● ● Some 2,000 people in the three towns make use of the Services, and there are about 66 full and part time workers to service them, assisted by the hundreds of volunteers such as Mrs. Hollahan, or a Lena Branca or a Frances Gerino, Belleville residents who keep up constant telephone contacts with the elderly homebound. Ms. Cowell noted, "Foster parents are the real heroes." These are the families which accept disturbed children, or abused children, and give them a sense of security until the time comes that their own families can function together again. ● ● ● ● "This is all a relic of the Great Society program that President Lyndon Johnson started in the 1960s," Ms. Ricci said. "Mayor Harry Chenoweth of Nutley was very instrumental in starting the Services here. Now we serve all three towns, with Belleville receiving a large share of our services."

A non-political organization, supported by federal, state and municipal funds, and by the contributions of private donors, the Services does for the people of the community what they cannot do for themselves, a living conscience for our society.

BEA salutes fund restoration

Despite attempts by Belleville's mayor and council to undermine the education system of our community, State Commissioner of Education Mary Lee Fitzgerald has ordered the restoration of most of the monies cut from the school budget.

"The future seems brighter for Belleville's children with the restoration of these sorely needed dollars," reported Belleville Education Association president Jack Ayres. "We had hoped that the Township Council would not put our school district through another agonizing appeal of this decision and would allow the board to formulate spending plans for the future. Unfortunately, this did not happen."

The Township Council severely cut the school budget by $865,000 in April. The Commissioner's ruling, however, restores $639,835 because it "was necessary for a thorough and efficient education," Fitzgerald pointed out. The same Council chose to institute this appeal even while awaiting a State Board of Education decision regarding the restoration of the funds to the 1991-92 school budget.

"The legal actions taken by the Township Council have cost Belleville's taxpayers untold amounts of precious dollars," Ayres revealed. "The hourly rates paid to an attorney and an 'expert' hired to guide the first appeal of the 1991-92 school budget must reach into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. Taxpayer dollars are being wasted by a Council that seems to have a total disregard for the education of children."

OUR OPINION

Give Praise

Give praise to God for autumn, for gold-splashed maple trees,
For gorgeous crimson sunsets, for woodland tapestries,
For dappled paths a-winding around a peaceful hill
Where redbirds in the distance glad songs of rapture spill.
Give praise to God for autumn, for yellow, ripened days,
For bounty of the harvest — oh, let us sing God's praise!
For all of autumn's blessings are gifts from God above
Who fashioned golden autumn and blest it with His love.

When the NJT bears gifts

New Jersey Transit is in town, sounding out the locals on the idea of creating a glorified car barn for the rolling stock of the Newark City Subway.

The NJT specifically is looking at seven and a half acres adjoining Belmont Avenue and Franklin Street in Silver Lake.

The carrot in the proposition is the possibility of creating a commuter parking area and a complex of office buildings and stores that would take advantage of an extension of the subway line to the proposed Light Rail Transit Vehicle Base Facility, as the project is titled.

It could go beyond that, if the subway is extended along the right of way of the Conrail track that now exists. An extension of that sort could bring a lot of passengers in from the outer suburbs, some of whom might find their way to Silver Lake.

Without this sort of development, the Facility in itself will not be much help to the community. It will not pay taxes, and it probably will not employ many local residents. And it would preclude other commercial development which the community sorely needs.

Many in Silver Lake are of two minds about having the subway extended deeper into their neighborhood. They fear that it would bring in crime.

The fact is that there is ample way today for crime to arrive here from Newark. Today's lawbreaker doesn't take the subway when a car can be stolen so easily.

We look forward eagerly to see what proposals may be developed that would help Silver Lake's economy and Belleville's tax base. It does have its interesting possibilities.

So much for monorails

In discussing why it is not feasible to extend the proposed monorail line between Newark International Airport and Penn Station to points further out, a New Jersey Transit official stated:

"The proposed cars will have four seats and room for seven standees. The top speed of the cars will be 29 miles an hour, and it will cost $350 million to build the two mile link between the station and the airport."

We were under the impression that the monorail ride at Disney World in Florida had cars of larger size than four-seaters. In fact, we do not recall that standees were allowed in the Disney monorail cars.

It would seem that instead of getting a Disney World monorail, we are getting something designed by Mickey Mouse. Anyone for jogging?

The passing of Mr. Charles

The loss to the community of Mr. John L. Charles, the former Marine who was a fixture at Township Council meetings, and meetings of the old Township Commission before that, lies much in the fact that he could always be counted on for a pithy remark.

By pithy, we mean the dictionary definition of the word - brief, forceful and full of substance.

If the others in the audience could mold their remarks to the point the same way Mr. Charles did, the sessions of our governing bodies would be both mercifully shortened and far more enlightened.

He was a man of dignity, sharp wit and an interest in the welfare of the community. He will be missed.

YOUR OPINION

On Wallace & Tiernan

To the editor:

Although the management of Wallace & Tiernan has officially withdrawn its "last, best and final offer" to the members of Local 370, it remains necessary to respond to some of the comments contained in the Nov. 3 article about the company.

Contrary to the headlines, Wallace & Tiernan consistently made it clear to the members of Local 370 that there was no guarantee that the company would remain in Belleville for any length of time even if the members accepted the company's proposals. Also, the $13.56 to $15.76 plus 3% plus $1000 for the first year is not so.

While employees' seniority and salaries may not immediately have been effected by the company's offer, an employee's seniority could have been rendered meaningless by other language changes proposed by the Company. Further, an employee's pay rate could have been reduced if he was unable to keep pace with the Company's changes to the job, performance standards or if the Company's reduction in force language was implemented.

The fact that the company even made an economic proposal, let alone a "last, best and final" economic proposal is inexcusable. Whether or not the increases offered were "fair," placing them before our membership without ever having discussed them with the Executive Committee does not say much for the Company's motives in then discussing.

Management's subsequent efforts to divide our membership by initiating and encouraging a petition drive calling for a new vote on the offer was both illegal and unsuccessful. The failure to generate sufficient support for the petition indicates that the hand vote held at the Local's Oct. 25 meeting was not a "sham" as Mr. Rufenacht stated, but accurately reflected the opinions of a fully informed membership.

We are sorry that the company felt it necessary to act as it did. Had it made such a concerted effort to resolve the issues most important to this Local and its membership, the article would not have been necessary.

Despite these actions, Local 370 remains willing to reach a mutually acceptable agreement which would make Wallace & Tiernan's Belleville facility a world-class operation. However, it cannot do so if the result would be to eliminate those protections our members value so highly.

Nicholas Sicurello
President, IUE Local 370
and
Executive Committee

Perna's accusation

To the editor:

After completion of my first BA in business administration in 1984, I began in the Belleville School System as a modestly paid substitute teacher, a position I maintained until the fall of 1987 when I returned to college as a fully-matriculated music education major.

After receiving my second BA in 1990, I returned to the same school system, this time as a contracted vocal music teacher, filling in for a faculty member on a one-year maternity leave after which I resumed my status as a day-to-day substitute until recently when an existing full-time music position, previously held by Mrs. Lisa Mallick, became available.

I applied for the position and because of my past experience and favorable evaluation from administrators, students and parents, was offered the job.

My father was elected to the Board of Education from 1983 through 1986, then from 1989 through 1992, then again as its chairman from 1992 to the present.

Superficially, it is easy (and politically expedient) to charge nepotism, except that the Board has nothing to do with the hiring of teachers aside from the final approval, which, discounting the single abstention of its chairman, the Board unanimously did in my case.

It is also easy to overlook the two college degrees, the current hard work and the nine years it has taken me to attain this current position.

Having my father (and my sister, Janice Nazzola-Shuhan who joined the faculty before my father was elected to the Board and who has received the STEVENS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY TOP TEN MATH TEACHERS IN NJ award and THE TANDY CORPORATIONS TOP 7 MATH & SCIENCE TEACHERS IN THE USA award) in the educational system has created a situation for me wherein it is necessary to not only surmount factionally motivated scrutiny, but to also-more-importantly excell.

Having great examples to go by, I'm honored to be a part of the Township of Belleville's excellent and ever-improving educational system.

Gabriel R. Nazzola
Belleville

Town procrastinates

To the editor:

In the past 10 years, the Township of Belleville has experienced a windfall in tax revenue due to the construction of condominiums and the conversion of apartment complexes into condominiums. Yet, with such increase in revenue, the Township of Belleville cannot give the condominium homeowner what the law mandates.

Each condominium owner pays taxes comparable to a residential homeowner, yet does not receive some of the same benefits as the residential homeowner. The Kelly Bill enacted in January 1993, would alleviate this injustice to the condominium owner.

It clearly states that the municipality must either provide the same services to the condominium owner as a residential homeowner or reimburse the condominium association for such services. These services would include snow plowing, street lighting, removal of leaves, recyclables and garbage.

Approximately a year has passed since the enactment of the law and the Township of Belleville procrastinates in their performances according to the law.

Perhaps the township feels that this statute can be ignored and that the condominium owner will disappear. This is a fantasy on their part because the condominium owners of Belleville will pursue "what the law entitles." Condominium owners will not wait indefinitely.

If the township does not respond quickly to this matter, there will only be the recourse "of the black robe," with the Township of Belleville incurring legal fees and damages. The condominium owners expect their town to do "what is morally right."

Condominium owners are urged to join forces to attain what is rightfully due to them under the law.

N.J. Nets visit middle school

On Nov. 5, three professional basketball players and a coach of the New Jersey Nets visited Belleville Middle School.

As part of the National Basketball Association Stay in School Awareness Day, Tate George, Chris Morris, David Wesley and Coach Rick Carlisle presented a motivational assembly to the student body.

Through personal anecdotes, the players gave the "Stay in School" using the 3 As — attendance, attitude and achievement. At the end of the 30-minute presentation, players gave out book covers, cards, hats and then signed autographs.

The assembly was not only enjoyed by the students of Belleville Middle School but delivered an important message, "Stay in School."

Belleville Middle School collects for UNICEF

Students at Belleville Middle School collected for UNICEF this Halloween. Volunteers solicited contributions while enjoying trick or treating.

The project was conducted through the student council and advisor William Hollis and social studies teacher Barbara Spillane.

Over $300 was collected by the students. This was sent to UNICEF to help the children in the world who are less fortunate than American children in terms of nutrition and medical care.

"This worthwhile project gives the student the opportunity to think globally and make a significant contribution to less fortunate children," said Spillane.

December Art Exhibit features Gladyce Sherman

On exhibit during the month of December in the Trustees Gallery during library hours is the Visionary Art of Gladyce Black Sherman of Belleville.

Born in Shelton, Connecticut, Gladyce Black Sherman is a graduate of the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art where she taught at the college level for 20 years. She studied art at the Art Students League in New York City for a number of years, and in 1975 became a life member. For several years, Sherman worked in New York City as a textile designer and painter on toleware, later developing the art of batik and designing works on fabric with wax and dye.

For 28 years, she instructed adults and children in painting and various art and craft techniques at the Treasure Gallery in her hometown of Belleville. She has exhibited in local juried shows, such as the Montclair Art Museum, the Newark

Museum, the Jersey City Annual Show, and the Art Center of the Oranges. She has had one-woman showings at the Newark and Belleville public libraries, Korby Gallery in Caldwell, Fairleigh Dickinson University, the Riverview Gallery and the Knickerbocker Annual Show, both in New York. Sherman has won various awards as the outcomes of these showings.

In 1965, Sherman exhibited a series of paintings at the World Fair African Pavilion in New York City under the pen name of "Gadem." She has demonstrated wet-on-wet technique for several art groups and has judged many art shows, and more recently, craft shows.

In 1991, Sherman retired from the Newark School of Fine Arts as Registrar, Consultant and Faculty Coordinator, and she closed the Treasure Gallery to continue her art at home.

Presently, she continues to paint, create artistic treasures and is a consultant to many of her former students. She is a charter member of Women in the Arts, based in Washington, D.C.

Bell Ringers Dec. 13

The Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center will provide a unique program, featuring the Rainbow Ringers, the senior bell ringers of the Ridgewood United Methodist Church, at 7:45 p.m. at the library. Call Carrie Stahl and Barbara Dombrowski of the Circulation Department at 450-3434 to register for the program.

Longo warns on AIDS

Thomas Longo, director of Health and Human Services, calls the attention of Belleville residents to an item on the subject of AIDS in the current issue of "Health Wire," a newsletter of West Hudson Hospital.

According to Dr. Karen Klein, director of the Adolescent AIDS program at Montefiore Hospital, today's teenagers are America's first AIDS generation. Children born when the disease was first noticed are now 13 years of age. She said that, in the last two years, the number of young people between the ages of 13 and 21 who have HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus) has risen by 77%. In this age group, half contract the disease through heterosexual relations.

Dr. Heim also points out that, even though the number of teens infected with HIV is not yet great, the rate of increase is alarming. Teen-agers now have the highest rate of all sexually transmitted diseases of any age group, and these diseases will soon include HIV. The problem is indeed a very grave one.

Celebrate safely this holiday season

As families look forward to Christmas and New Year celebrations, the New Jersey State Safety Council and New Jersey SAFE KIDS offer the following tips to help keep the holidays bright, merry and safe.

DECORATIONS: Select a fresh tree by looking for very green needles which are hard to pull from the branches and do not fall off when the tree is bounced on the ground. To prevent drying out, cut two inches off the trunk and keep in a stand filled with water and away from radiators, televisions and other sources of heat. Keep breakable ornaments or those with small detachable parts off of lower tree branches and out of areas where young children can reach them. Use flame-resistant decorations whenever possible. Keep holly, mistletoe and other poisonous holiday plants away from children and pets.

HOLIDAY LIGHTS: Use only UL (Underwriters Laboratories) approved lights and extension cords. To prevent fires, examine for frayed cords, broken sockets and loose or exposed wires. Never use more than three strings of lights on one extension cord. Never use lights rated "indoors" outdoors. Turn off and unplug tree lights and other decorations before leaving the house or going to bed. Keep children and flammable items away from lit candles and fireplaces.

GIFTS: When selecting children's gifts, look for items that are well-constructed, durable, safe and which suit the age and skill level of your child. After opening gifts, dispose of wrappings immediately as they may be toxic or present choking hazards if chewed by a small child.

ENTERTAINING: At holiday parties, serve high protein and carbohydrate foods like cheese and meat when alcohol is offered. Provide non-alcoholic beverages as well. Stop serving alcohol an hour or two before the party is over. Above all, DO NOT DRINK AND DRIVE! Use the designated driver system to ensure that all guests arrive home safely.

Whatever you do to celebrate, have a safe and happy holiday season!

Acuna, Walsh among returnees

Ramirez, A.C. lead Lady Bucs

By Mike Lambert

In her second year as girls' varsity basketball coach, Cheryl Marion is leaning toward the optimistic gage after early season practices.

The team will host Verona next Tuesday in the final scrimmage prior to the season opener, which is scheduled for next Friday at Montclair. Tip off time for both the Verona scrimmage and the Montclair opener is 4 p.m.

Marion, who led the '92-93 Lady Bucs to an 8-13 record, is pleased with the play of her troops during the early going.

"We had an excellent turnout this season," the coach said. "The freshman class was very well represented. Unfortunately, due to budget cuts, we will not be able to field a freshman team. Consequently, we had to cut ten players from the roster."

Marion feels that some of the freshman will be able to make an impact on the varsity in the early going. If that be the case, the '93-94 Lady Bucs could resemble a Lady Buc team of a decade and a half ago, when the '80-81 team had three freshman, Loreli Wells, Dina DeAquino and Jennifer Apicella, who made significant contributions right away and went on to stellar careers on the varsity level.

"Certainly, you can't compare our current group of players to those freshman," said Marion, who was in the eighth grade back in '80-81. "But there is some good talent on the freshman level and we're looking forward to mixing that talent with some of our returning varsity players."

Leading the returnees is senior Liz Ramirez. Over the first three years of her career, Ramirez has improved steadily, both in scoring prowess and rebounding.

This year, Ramirez should be the key to the Lady Bucs success. She's an outstanding athlete with outstanding skills.

"Liz can score consistently and will help us under the boards," Marion said. "This is her fourth year on the varsity, she's been working hard for this year."

Junior Andrea Curran appears to be in excellent condition after a good year on the volleyball court. One of the more versatile athletes on the roster, A.C. can play the small forward, two guard and even the power forward position.

Sophomore Marie Acuna should be the point guard after an impressive freshman campaign. Jessica Nicosia is also considered a key player in Marion's program.

Senior Adrienne Walsh, a co-captain along with Ramirez, should provide scoring and good rebounding this year.

"Leadership on this team is very important," Marion said. "We're looking to Adrienne and Liz for that, as much as anything else. We have a good group of players this year and if the leadership role is filled, we can do some good things." The aforementioned freshman class is led by Deanna Addis, Christie Scassera and Kim Mahoney.

"All three girls have good size and know the game," Marion said. "They played well in the Suburban League and could help us right away. Karen (Portuese, the assistant coach) and I are very pleased with the way they've responded to the varsity program so far."

Marion is optimistic, but is also quick to note the youth of the team.

"We're still very young, especially with the freshman," the coach said. "But with the loss of the freshman program, the younger kids will see more action between JV and varsity."

Marion should have a better barometer on the teams progress after this weeks scrimmages.

It's been 20 seasons since Dan Grasso was coach of the boys' basketball team at Belleville High School. 20 seasons since the 1974-75 squad was 13-10 and gave basketball fans at BHS a very special winter.

Over the next couple of weeks, we're going to look back at that season, when the Bellboys put together a winning season and qualified for the Essex County tournament, which back then was a prestigious accomplishment.

To give you a little flavor of what was going on back then, Gerald Ford had just taken over as President of the United States, after the resignation of Richard Nixon.

The Pittsburgh Steelers were en route to their first Super Bowl victory. The Raiders played in Oakland, the Jets played at Shea Stadium (more on that later), the Colts were in Baltimore and the Cardinals played football in St. Louis.

Belleville was a member of the Big 10 Conference, which meant two games each in basketball against powerhouse schools like Bloomfield, Montclair, Orange, East Orange and Irvington.

At Belleville High, the football team was 5-4, having defeated Hillside in the season finale on Thanksgiving. Tom Testa was the head coach then. Karen Fucello took a years leave of absence as coach of the girls' basketball team, turning the reigns over to Mike Cleri. The baseball team, which had been coached by Charlie Travers was now going to be under the control of George Zanfini, and we all know the success of the program during the Zanfini era.

I was a junior at Belleville High School that year. And I'll tell you, the basketball season that winter was something special.

It was the season of Abdel Anderson, Michael Meagher, Pat Hogan, Alan Amlano, Joe Dunn, Doug Jackson, John Megna, Bob Tosi and Clyde Robinson. A player named Don Roll was a starting forward on the Belleville freshman basketball team.

We'll look back on those 23 games in the next few weeks, remembering Abdel's All American season, the win over Irvington, the game against East Orange at Bloomfield.

Has it really been 20 seasons?

REMEMBERING THE JETS HERITAGE

Did you see the Jets-Colts game last Sunday?

It wasn't exactly a rematch of Super Bowl III some 25 years ago, was it? As I'm sure you know by now, the Jets lost, 9-6 and with the defeat, their playoff hopes took a stumble, although by no means are they out of contention.

The Jets have been playing at Giants Stadium since 1984. Prior to that, their home games were played at Shea Stadium. The Jets decided to move to Giants Stadium because, supposedly, it's a better football facility and Giants Stadium does have more seats, and we all know that more seats equals more revenue.

I was a big Jets fan from the late 1960's, when Joe Namath took the Jets to the Super Bowl and pulled the biggest upset, perhaps in the history of sports, when New York beat Baltimore 16-7 in the aforementioned Super Bowl III at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

In 1977, the year Namath left the Jets, I got season tickets for the Jets and remained a ticket holder at Shea from '77 until '83. For seven seasons, we would pack up the car and head to Shea Stadium. It didn't matter whether the Jets were a 3-11 team, or a playoff team. The Jets playing at Shea Stadium was a natural. It was their stadium.

The fans at Shea epitomized the Jets from their early days through 1983. Most of the fans had been season ticket holders for 20 years and were probably at Shea when the Jets beat the Oakland Raiders in the AFL title game in 1968. These were the same fans who would have wild tailgate parties in the parking lot before the game (before it became fashionable to tailgate) and the same fans who staged some great football games in the parking lot before the main event.

Those were the days of booing Richard Todd mercilessly, of the Air It Out Matty Fan Club, in honor of Jets backup quarterback Matt Robinson, and of Let it Loose Bruce, in honor of Jets running back Bruce Harper.

Shea Stadium had real grass. It was a little rickety, but that was part of the charm of that stadium. In late November and December, there was nothing like it. The wind swirling in from Flushing Bay. Scraps of paper flying all over the field. Airplanes constantly flying over the Stadium as they departed from LaGuardia Airport.

This was the Jets Stadium. And the personality of the team was of the green and white uniforms and the crazy fans.

Back in the late 70's and early 80's, the Jets weren't always dominant. The team was 3-11, 8-8, 8-8 and 4-12 from '77 until '80, but the fans would always turn out. After some success in '81 and '82, the Jets stumbled to 7-9 in '83. But the fans always turned out.

There weren't 31,000 plus no shows like there were last weekend at Giants Stadium. On the business side, I'm sure the Jets made a good decision by moving to Giants Stadium. They've sold more tickets than they ever could at Shea.

But the Jets at Giants Stadium do not mix. It's a plastic atmosphere there, and the games usually take on a boring effect. Giants Stadium belongs to the New York Giants. Period. Jets games belong somewhere in New York, preferably back on Flushing Bay. But that's not going to happen, because the Jets have a lease until well past the year 2000.

And one more thing. Those uniforms have to go. The green helmets and the green pants on the road uniforms make the team look more like Jets University, instead of an NFL team. The Jets had great uniforms in the 60's and 70's, with the white helmets and green jerseys with white patches where the numbers were.

This used to be a fun team to watch. Now, despite the 7-5 record this year and hopes for the playoffs, last Sunday's contest appears to be more the norm than an exception.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

Actually, this is the answer from two weeks ago. The question was, who was Belleville's MVP's in the Thanksgiving Day game with Nutley from 1984-92. The answer, starting in '84 is Mark Walsh, Dave Long, Jim Dunphy, John Cerza, Nick Turano, Rui Andre, Carmen Spina, J.V. Fallvemo and John Alvarado.

Dunphy scored a touchdown in the '86 game, Turano returned a kickoff for a touchdown in '88 and Spina scored in the '90 contest. As you probably know, Anthony Caruso earned MVP honors in the '93 game. He scored two touchdowns in the second half to help the Bucs tie Nutley at 14.

FOR THIS WEEK

Nebraska has had tremendous success in college football over the past 24 seasons. However, the team has not fared well in bowl games. When was the last time the Huskers won a bowl game? Who did they defeat? When was the last time the team did not play on New Years Day? When was the last time Nebraska won the national championship?

Kristin Zarillo is the only cheerleader left standing during routine in recent football game. We'll have a feature on the entire '93-'94 cheerleading squad in next week's issue.

Boys' basketball team rebuilding

By Mike Lambert

There is potential.

Don Roll will be quick to remind you of that, especially during the early stages of the 1993-94 boys' basketball season at Belleville High School.

There is potential.

"I have to be honest with you," Roll said last weekend. "We are very, very, very inexperienced. I mean, we're inexperienced."

Another words, the team does not have a lot of experienced players, right?

"There's a lot of potential (there's that word again)," Roll said. "I really feel with the talent we have, these kids can really develop into good players, if not by the middle to end of this year, by the start of next season, for sure."

This isn't to say that the coach is writing off the '93-94 campaign all together.

"No way, I'm not writing anything off, I'm just saying that these kids will be up against a tough schedule and they are going to be learning a new system. I doesn't happen overnight, but if they keep up the work ethic they've shown in practice so far, I feel they can improve steadily."

The boys' basketball program at Belleville is in the midst of one of its most successful stints in at least 25 years. Last years team was 11-11. More notably, the team was 10-6 after a slow start.

In 1991-92, the Bucs finished 14-10 and advanced in both the county and state tournaments. It's the first time since the mid 1960's that the program has put together back to back .500 or better seasons.

"I'm not concerned about records at this point," Roll said. "I've got sophomores who will see a lot of action and right now, Rich (Baker, the assistant varsity coach) and I are in the teaching phase with the players. They are anxious to learn. They're a good bunch of kids to work with. They're pushing each other in practice, but they are still learning the game and that takes time."

The Bucs, who open the regular season next Friday at Bloomfield (4 p.m. tip off) are busy with the pre season. The team is home to J.P. Stevens tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 p.m. This Saturday, the Bucs will host 13th Street Tech starting at 3:30 p.m. (Continued on page 15)

Gradually, the soccer program has become one of the most successful varsity entries at Belleville High School.

The 1993 team continued the trend set by the '91 and '92 squads. Gino DePinto's team was 12-5-4 this year, finishing third in the NNJIL Pacific Division. The Bucs lost out on the conference title by just 1 1/2 games.

"We played very well," DePinto said. "The team started out slowly, but we came around during the season and played our best soccer at the start of the Essex County tournament."

The Bucs, who finished with 14-4-2 records in 1991 and '92, started out the '93 campaign with just one victory in their first five games (1-2-2). But the team righted the ship in early October and won seven of its next eight games to move up in the conference and county standings.

"When we started out 1-2-2," DePinto said, "we made some adjustments in the lineup. Our kids knew they were better than the record indicated, but it was up to them to prove that on the field."

The highlight of the season came in the second round of the county tournament. The Bucs traveled to Millburn to face the number one seed and the seventh ranked team in the state.

"Millburn was undefeated and first in the county," recalled DePinto. "We went to their place and played a great game. It was the best win of the year, by far."

The Bucs won the game in the shootout, 2-1. Belleville held a 1-0 lead for most of the second half, but Millburn tied it in the waning seconds. Undaunted, the Bucs played hard in overtime and prevailed in the nailbiting shootout.

Senior Greg Groeling was once again outstanding. As a junior, he led the county and conference in scoring. This year, despite being double and triple teamed, he finished with a team high 22 goals and earned first team, NNJIL honors. Groeling was selected to the third team, Essex County.

"I was disappointed with the county selections," DePinto said. "Two of our kids were selected to the team, but should have been rated higher. I don't think our team got the respect it deserved from the county selection committee."

Another senior, Giuseppe Mennella, finished with 15 goals and also earned first team, NNJIL and third team, Essex County, honors.

Mennella was perhaps the Bucs most consistent player in 1993. When he wasn't scoring a goal, he was usually assisting on another player's goal.

Groeling and Mennella were also selected to the 1993 All State team.

Joe Colucci was outstanding this season. The junior earned first team, NNJIL honors for his defensive play. He was also selected Honorable Mention in the county poll.

"Joe will be a key player on next year's team," DePinto said. "He was solid in every game this season. I don't think he had one sub par game all season long."

Marcelo Giorlando was the team's top midfielder and was another first team, NNJIL, selection. Like Colucci, he was selected Honorable Mention by the Essex County committee.

Giorlando was the man who scored the winning goal in the shootout against Millburn.

Senior goalie Mike Percio earned second team, NNJIL honors.

"Mike was excellent," DePinto said. "He was the second best goalie in the league, behind the player from Don Bosco. He made some great plays all year long."

Percio also was selected third team, Essex County.

Chris Imperatrice was selected Honorable Mention by both the league and county. Another consistent performer, Imperatrice was a key member of the '93 Bucs and a main reason for the team's success this fall.

DePinto was also happy with the play of juniors Anthony Raszynski, Mike Guzman, Frank Tafur and Jim Berg.

"We'll obviously be relying on some of the juniors, along with the JV players for next year," the coach said. "The JV team finished 12-2 overall, 11-1 in the league. Although the league doesn't calculate JV standings, we had the best JV record this season."

"Also, our JV team advanced to the county finals, before losing to St. Benedict's."

DePinto is optimistic that the program will continue in the same positive direction that the last three years have provided.

"Our kids want to get better. They're already playing for traveling teams and are working out. They know the only way to improve is to keep playing."

With the Belleville Soccer Association providing a great feeder program, it's no surprise that the future of the JV and varsity is excellent. The team has compiled a 40-13-8 mark over the past three seasons. The next three years could be even better.

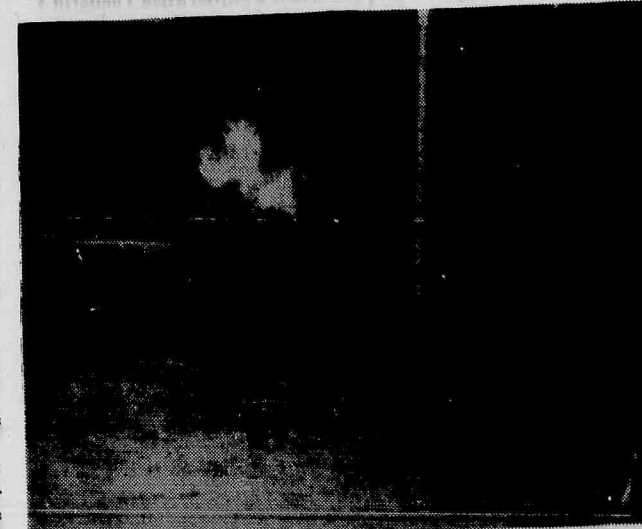

Marcelo Giorlando chases after the ball during the Bucs' final game of the season.

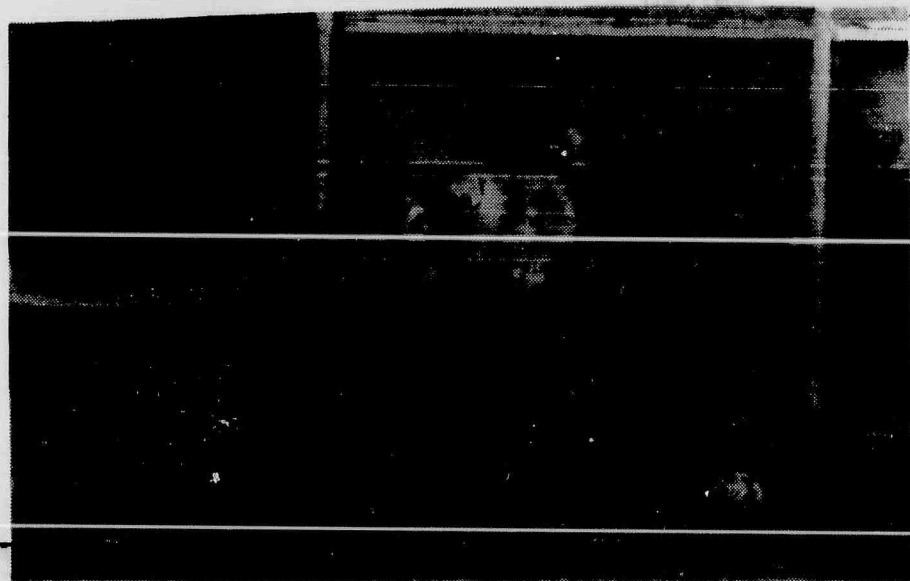

Up and over...Frank Toledo crashes into a rival player at the Bucs last home game of the season.

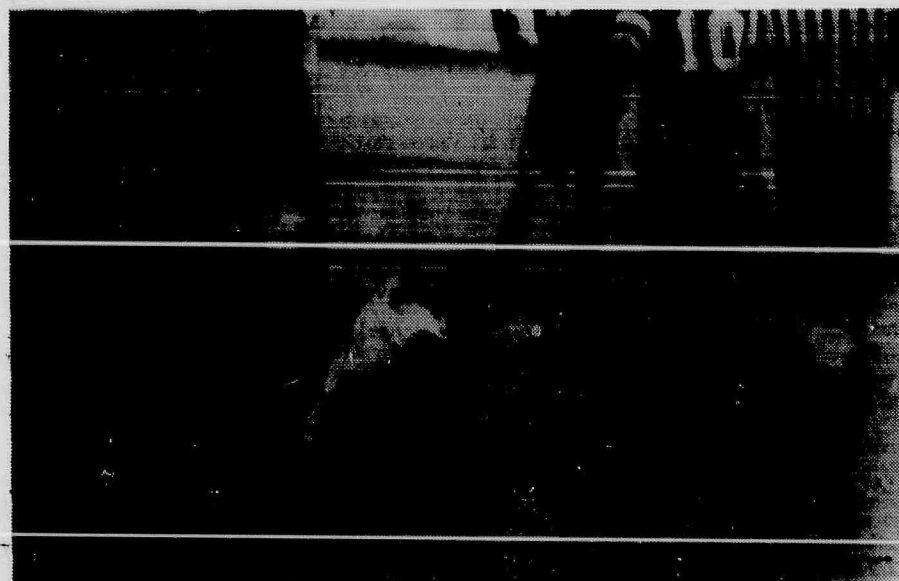

Christian Castro battles a Don Bosco player for possession of the ball.

Goalkeeper Mike Percio makes a save in heavy traffic and covers up, while Chris Imperatrice comes in for good measure.

Greg Groeling drives hard to the net with a Nutley player bearing down on him.

Groeling is tripped and ends up on the ground, but a penalty kick awaits the Belleville Bucs.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

GYMNASTICS PROGRAM:

The Belleville Recreation Department will again offer its always popular gymnastics program for girls on Saturday at the Friendly House. This activity is slated to begin on Saturday, December 4 and will continue through March. Girls in grades 1-6 will participate from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the Friendly House on Frederick Street. There is no fee, but girls must be Belleville residents. Interested participants should wear sneakers and sign up for the program with the instructors when they arrive. College and high school gymnasts will provide the supervision and teach the basic fundamentals and routines.

MEN'S OPEN BASKETBALL: The men's open basketball program will begin on Saturday, Dec. 4, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Middle School Girls' Gym. Belleville resident men, over 18, can participate by showing the gym supervisor or proof of residency. Non-residents will not be allowed in the gym.

SANTA'S MAILBOXES: Belleville boys and girls are encouraged to get out their pens, pencils, crayons, and start writing their lists to Santa Claus now. Special mailboxes are set up from November 24 to December 21 to accommodate the expected heavy mail. One is at Town Hall on Washington Avenue and the other is in front of the Silver Lake Fire House on Franklin Street. Children can't miss the mailboxes. They're bright red and clearly marked 'Santa's Mail' so no one has an excuse for not writing early.

By very special arrangement made between Mr. Claus and the Department of Recreation and Cultural Affairs, all letters are guaranteed an answer. No stamp is necessary and this special mail box is for Belleville residents only.

If children are too young to write, they are urged to draw a picture and Santa will get the message. Be sure to have someone print the child's name and address so that Santa can answer the letters.

Boys' basketball

10 a.m. Next Tuesday, it's off to Montville for the final pre season tuneup.

The senior class is led by Frank Means, Mike Jones and Tyree Sumter. Returning juniors are Jason Albert and Mike Molina while sophomore Michael Loney figures to see extensive action on the varsity.

Roll was hoping that guard Mike Mundy would be back for his senior year, but Mundy has indicated that he will concentrate on baseball this winter and forego his senior year on the hardwood.

"We'll miss Mike," Roll said. "But he has dedicated himself to baseball and I wish him well."

Roll's coaching staff consists of Baker, John Fortunato, John Crown and Frank Tortorella.

"We have a good staff," Roll said. "The kids will learn a lot this year. But I have confidence that they can develop into a good team as the year progresses."

Duffers schedule events

The Ancient Order of Duffers, a senior golf fraternity for golfers 55 years and over, issued its 1994 proposed schedule of events.

The schedule will be presented to the group's Board of Governors at the meeting to be held at Pal's Cabin, Thursday, December 16 at 7:30 p.m.

According to Bob Schultz, founder and honorable secretary of the new organization, a dozen new membership applications will also be submitted to the governing body.

"We are a unique fraternity of golfers, most ex-caddies and now-retired senior citizens, who enjoy the camaraderie of the game as well as playing public courses a few times a week," said Schultz.

"The majority of our members shoot between 90 and 120 plus. Once in a while a guy gets into the 80's, which is a call for celebration at the 19th hole," he added.

The organization is independent and is in no way affiliated with any golf association, public or private.

"There has been talk of affiliating with the United States Golf Association and New Jersey State Golf Association, but since they service private golf clubs we would be of little value to their limited program," said Schultz.

The Ancient Order of Duffers is presently drafting a set of its own rules including the 'Mulligan Rule' which allows a member to re-hit a tee shot on one of the 18 tees during a round.

Membership is limited to 100 Duffers and each new member must be sponsored by a member of the organization. The list is strictly confidential. A quarterly newsletter is now keeping members informed on the organization's activities.

ASPIRIN'S ORIGINS

As research uncovers ever more uses for aspirin, it may be time to recall how this amazing drug was developed. About 100 years ago, the young pharmaceutical firm Friedrich Bayer and Co. prevailed upon a young chemist, Felix Hoffman, to come up with a new pain reliever. For inspiration, Hoffman drew upon the experience of people who had drunk the soothing teas brewed from willow bark and from the flowers of the meadowsweet plant. Hoffman was able to isolate the naturally occurring pain reliever salicin as the effective ingredient of both plants. By reproducing salicin synthetically in the lab (from a 40-year-old recipe accidentally discovered by another chemist), Hoffman was able to produce "aspirin." The new product was named after spiro, the flowers on the meadowsweet plant.

Tips From Fire Experts On Safe Hearth and Home

News USA

(NU) - In an effort to stem the high number of residential fire deaths and injuries that occur every year during cold weather months, the United States Fire Administration (USFA) and the Sleep Products Safety Council (SPSC) have issued recommendations for making homes safer.

"It's ironic that so many fire deaths occur when people think they are the safest — at night and in their own homes," says Assistant USFA Administrator James Coyle. "Most incidents are during the months between October and February, and most can be prevented."

"When it comes to fire safety and bedding, what is common knowledge to one family may be a secret to others," says SPSC Chairman Paul Dillion. "This is particularly disturbing since most of the steps to preventing fires at night are very simple."

Each year, fire kills close to 5,500 Americans — more than all other natural disasters combined, including floods, hurricanes, tornadoes and earthquakes. The recommendations issued by the USFA and SPSC are:

Smoke Detectors

- Place at least one on every floor of the house.
- Test batteries monthly and change them twice a year.

Alternative Heaters

- Use space heaters in well-ventilated rooms.
- Place heaters where they will not be knocked over, away from curtains and furniture.
- Plug space heaters directly into wall sockets, not into extension cords; unplug when not in use.

Kerosene Heaters

- Be sure they are legal in your area.
- Use K-1 Kerosene only; never use gasoline or camp stove fuel.

Woodstoves and Fireplaces

- Use seasoned wood and a protective screen at all times.
- Clean interiors, hearths and chimneys yearly.

Sleep Safety Practices

- Never smoke in bed.
- Discard mattresses made before the 1973 Mattress Flammability Standard, which requires cigarette ignition resistance.
- Use only electric blankets approved by testing labs.
- Don't run cords under beds or trap them against walls.

Safe Cooking Practices

- Don't leave the stove unattended while cooking.
- Keep clothing, curtains and other combustibles away from the stove.
- Make sure the stove is off and small appliances are unplugged before going to bed.

Child Fire Safety

- Keep lighters and matches out of reach of children.
- Teach children how to call for emergency assistance.
- Use safety plugs in electrical outlets.

Home Fire Escape Plans

- Plan an escape route and practice it often. Everyone should know at least two ways out of every room.
- Keep emergency numbers by the phone and know how to call for assistance.
- Identify an outside meeting place and never return to a burning building for any reason.

Virgin (Never known to
