Leaky roof knocks out half of Belleville's offices

OUT OF ACTION - More than half the Township of Belleville offices were closed Tuesday when water from a leaking roof formed ice on office floors and furniture. As listed, 383 Washington Ave. houses the Departments of Health and Human Services, the Department of Public Works and Engineering and the Department of Planning Development.

CLOSED FOR BUSINESS - Plastic coverings protect Belleville Township office furniture from water that came through the ceiling of this office, photographed from the outside of the building after 383 Washington Ave. was ordered closed, Tuesday. Services from Dial-A-Ride to the issuance of building permits and death certificates were halted indefinitely. (Photos By Howard Klausner)

Belleville man fatally shot in Newark, woman companion, 23, also wounded

By Howard Klausner

The life of Joseph Bliss ended violently on the streets of Newark, early Monday morning. The native of Silver Lake was shot in the back by an unknown gunman on Grafton Avenue near Broadway. Mr. Bliss was 20.

Also wounded by the same gunman was Antoinette Francillo, 23.

Her mother was Bliss' landlady, at 25 Heckel St.

Newark Detective Daniel Collins said on Tuesday that the investigation was continuing, but could reveal few facts.

All that could be reported was that the couple were in a car at about 3 a.m. when they stopped to speak with a man. Neighbors heard shots and police found both victims in their car.

Mr. Bliss was shot in the back. He was pronounced dead at University Hospital at 9 a.m.

Miss Francillo was wounded in the leg. She was reported in stable condition at University Hospital.

Neighbors described Mr. Bliss as coming from a family afflicted with tragedy, including the untimely death of his mother and a sister.

New team of investigators probes child sex ring case

By Howard Klausner

A new team of investigators is now handling the probe into an alleged child sex ring which has centered on School Five.

The investigation, which resulted last Sept. 23 in the arrest of School Five Principal Frank Catrambone, has gone low key since November, when the Essex County Grand Jury which had been scheduled to hear evidence was dismissed.

No jury sessions on the case have been reported since then.

However, the investigation continued, with a series of arrests that included that of a prominent Newark pediatrician, an elderly Vietnamese immigrant, two school custodians, and the boy friend of the mother of the two young girls who allegedly were used in the sex ring.

The mother of the children has been released on bail, and is reported to be under house arrest.

The landlord of the house where the children lived was found dead by hanging in his jail cell, the night he was arrested. Ronald Puttorak, 43, left no suicide note.

The Belleville Board of Education has been asked for information about a number of School Five employees, as well as persons who may have been visitors to School Five.

Information of Principal Catrambone's past, including business dealings as long as 20 years ago, has also been asked.

There has been no explanation as to the change of personnel involved in the investigation.

Hearing decision orders Chief restored to office with backpay

By Howard Klausner

Superior Court Judge Bruno Leopizzi, retired, acting as Hearing Officer for the Belleville Township Manager, has ruled that the indefinite suspension of Fire Chief Walter Beresford without pay on Sept. 1, 1993 was unjustified.

He ordered that Beresford be restored to his post and given back pay that accrued since the suspension.

The ruling was a partial one, dealing only with the suspension of the Fire Chief.

He will hold a hearing in February on the validity of the charges made against Beresford in the State Commission of Investigation report issued last August.

The report alleged unauthorized expenditures by Chief Beresford, among them overtime payments to firefighters for doing repair work on the Silver Lake Firehouse.

The report urged "disciplinary action" against the Fire Chief, but did not specify what the disciplinary action should be.

'Unsubstantiated charges'

Acting Township Manager Raymond Kimble, serving in the absence due to illness of Stephen Cuccio, ordered the suspension without pay.

Kimble said that while a hearing would normally be held before a suspension was ordered, said that he had the authority to preserve good order in the Fire Department, and therefore took immediate action.

Judge Leopizzi disputed this contention in his decision report.

"It does not appear that there are pending criminal charges against the Chief."

"The State Commission of Investigations report is not evidence per se because . . . it is predicated on unsworn hearsay statements, and the allegations contained therein have not been tested by cross-examination."

"There does not appear to be any indication that the Chief profited monetarily from any of the alleged practices."

"As a matter of fact, the State Commission of Investigations, while it does not condone his methods, indicates that the chief's desire to make improvements might be admired."

Council criticized

Judge Leopizzi turned to the role of the Council in the matter.

"It would appear the suspension was either an effort to camouflage the Council's own embarrassment resulting from the criticism in the State Commission of Investigations report, or perhaps, there were ulterior motives or political motivation for the suspension."

"These unsubstantiated charges do not justify a suspension."

Judge Leopizzi stated: "I must conclude that the Chief's suspension without a Hearing, based solely on the unsubstantiated allegations contained in the State Commission of Investigations' Report was arbitrary and unreasonable."

"He is to be reinstated to his employment, with full back pay and benefits, pending final resolution of the matter."

Judge Leopizzi cautioned, "Neither side should interpret this Opinion as any indication as to what the decision might be after the matter has been fully explored at said Hearing."

(Capitalization his) "THE CHIPS WILL FALL AS THEY MAY!"

Some Council Members have responded that the Acting Manager rather than the Council ordered the suspension. Beresford blames the Council majority.

Congressman does his bit for Belleville

By Howard Klausner

Representative Herb Klein (D.-8th Dist.) held his second Town Meeting in six months in Belleville, at School Seven.

He also announced the start of the push to win Congressional approval of his Bill to have Belleville recognized as Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

A letter to every member of the House of Representatives was sent on Tuesday.

A copy of the letter appears on Page 7 of this edition.

Klein told the audience of his efforts to win high-tech industries for New Jersey, as the best antidote to unemployment and loss of industry.

When a questioner brought up the need of unskilled labor for jobs, Klein replied, "When you bring in industry, there are jobs for the unskilled as well."

Klein fielded questions ranging from Congressional salaries to gun control.

"There are 200 million guns out in the streets now," Klein said. "They are not all for hunting or target practice. Twenty-five percent of the injuries in any emergency hospital today are from gunshot wounds."

He urged a ban on automatic weapons, and stiffer controls of gun sales.

He supported the right of a woman to choose abortion, adding that he personally opposed abortion, but the courts upheld it.

He promised to do what he could to stem illegal immigration. "The problem is not lack of laws, it's the difficulty of enforcement of those laws," he said.

Belleville Mayor Marina Perna hosted the meeting, which was attended by about 100 residents.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

So many people will be speaking at retired Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello's testimonial dinner tonight that a very special group of well-wishers will not have the opportunity to say their piece. Nutley Police Officer Aaron Morrison had hoped to be their spokesman. These were the men and women who were part of his Special Education classes, particularly the earliest pioneered by Mr. Nardiello in 1955, 1956 and 1957. "He was a man who went far beyond any requirements to bring us into the mainstream. We cannot say enough for him. But we wanted to try," Morrison said. ● ● ● There were youngsters who were slow learners, and youngsters who were retarded. These were pupils who were withdrawn into their own shells, previously ignored by the system, or simply discarded by it. "He drew boys out of their shells," Morrison said. "I was a slow reader. At 15, I could barely read. He had me read a newspaper every day, looking at the photos so I could check the captions with what was in the pictures. And I learned to read." ● ● ● ● Sometimes, Mike Nardiello reached into his own pocket to give youngsters food money, or carfare. "One boy fainted in school. He was anemic, and his family was too poor to give him a sandwich to bring to school. So Mr. Nardiello told each of us to have our parents make an extra sandwich and in no time the boy was swimming in sandwiches. He was eating better than the rest of us!" ● ● ● ● Mr. Nardiello's method was that he would gain the student's confidence, and then start teaching. "He was a stern disciplinarian," Morrison said, "and he won our respect by getting through to us." One approach was to take the class out to a ball field for a game. "There he was, rolling up his sleeves, confidently stepping up to the plate, and wearing that straw hat of his. And he was good," Morrison recalled. Mr. Nardiello took youngsters to the shop class where some learned skills that served them well in later life. "I remember one fellow who became an expert carpenter, and made a very good living later on." But, more than trades, they learned self respect, and they learned the basics of education that had eluded them most of their lives. ● ● ● ● "I can't tell you how grateful we are to Mike Nardiello," Morrison said. "I have stayed in touch with him ever since I left school, even after I moved to Nutley. People don't know how great a man he is, but we know, and we think the public should know what kind of man they had as a teacher, and a principal, and a builder of men."

Our favorite school dropout, John Grande, was in the news recently. Grande, who now is a financial planner for multi-millionaires, was tossed out of high school at the age of 18, where he had progressed no further than the Freshman class. He did not have the benefits of Mike Nardiello's teachings, because Mr. Nardiello had moved on to administrative posts by that time. Grande is also chairman of the volunteer committee of the International Federation of Eye Banks which has helped restore vision to thousands of people around the world. Grande and his wife, Traude were on hand in Baltimore recently to present a plaque to Dr. A. Edward Maumenee on the latter's 80th birthday. Dr. Maumenee, who has a building named after him at Johns Hopkins University is the man who pioneered the corneal transplant procedure. The Grandes have been devoting their available efforts to promoting eye banks as a way of saving the sight of at least 10 million people, most of them in underdeveloped nations, but many in leading nations of Europe. The eye saving program is under the auspices of Tissue Banks International, 815 Park Avenue, Baltimore, Md. 21201, or 1-800-727-3843.

Nino Lupi has been a soccer player since boyhood, and his prowess was such that Fairleigh Dickinson University gave him a soccer scholarship that put him through college. Now a successful manufacturer of computer parts, operating out of Clifton, he wants to bring professional soccer to Belleville. He is President of the Stallions, a team in the Northeast Super Soccer League which currently has eight teams, and is expanding. Founded five years ago, the Stallions team has been playing its home games at Hinchcliff Stadium in Paterson. The team has also been conducting a soccer clinic which Mr. Lupi says has a thousand youngsters signed for attendance. He has asked the Belleville Township Council for permission to use the Municipal Stadium as home field this year. The season starts in April and will last until July, when the Soccer World Cup matches begin at Giants Stadium. Games would be played on Saturday nights, and Lupi expects crowds to be 400 to 800, at least at the outset. "It is making a bigger impact, and we would hold clinics for Belleville youngsters. There is growing interest among the young people." ● ● ● ● He says the Stallions are an ethnic mix, while many teams seem to represent one nationality or another. "Our philosophy is to develop local talent and build on that," Lupi said. The Council is taking the proposal under consideration.

"Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten, was back at the Health Bar, nervously quaffing a stiff measure of cream, after another eerie experience in the dark halls of the old Town Hall. "The phone rings, and the voice of the late former Commissioner Joe McGreevy comes over. He is saying how we should push for Senior Citizen housing. Sure, it could have been somebody playing a tape. Otherwise, it was one heck of a long distance call!" ● ● ● ● Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch said that Third Ward Councilman Tom Spillane's suggestion that pensions be eliminated for the Township Physician, Judge, Prosecutor, Assistant Prosecutor and Public Defender has been having repercussions. "Every night, Tom has been followed home by a Mercedes, a Cadillac, a Buick, a Ford and a VW," Zilch said. ● ● ● ● Zilch's supporters, the Kool Kukumber Boys, are promoting a Thank You, Public Service Electric and Gas Party. "Turning off the power during the cold spell revived the market for whale oil lamps," Zilch said, "and the Boys have been trying to peddle them for years."

Narcotics squad arrests suspect

A two-month investigation of narcotics sales in town resulted in an arrest on Rossmore Place, last Friday.

The investigation was conducted by Detectives Michael Giuliano and Robert Capece, who traced the drugs to an apartment at 47 Rossmore Place, police said.

Detectives Giuliano and James DelGrosso, and Police Officer Thomas Gazzo, entered the apartment at 7:25 p.m.

Detective Captain William Escott said the police found 91 packets of heroin in the apartment, along with packing materials and other paraphernalia.

They arrested Daniel Pabone, 29, who now faces charges of possession of drugs, distribution of drugs, and possession of drugs within 1,000 feet of School Three.

The suspect is now being held in $100,000 bail.

The self-caught

Police said that the man who drove into the Hess Station on Franklin Street the night of Jan. 18 was his own worst enemy.

After buying a pack of cigarettes, he allegedly pulled a handgun and demanded cash from the attendant, who obliged, handing over some $80.

The attendant also noted the license plate on the holdup man's car.

Soon enough, Police Officer John Martucci and Detective Craig Mack noticed the car in the neighborhood, and found Anthony Brotschol, 27, of Belleville at the wheel, along with $80 in cash and a starter pistol.

DeWitt reports profits

First State Financial Services, Inc., parent holding company for First DeWitt Savings Bank, F.S.B., reported net income of $906,000, or 29 cents per share, for the quarter ended Dec. 31, 1993, compared to net income of $706,000, or 22 cents per share, for the comparable 1992 period.

Income before taxes increased to $1.3 million in the 1993 quarter compared to $739,000 in the comparable 1992 quarter. These results come after earnings of $2.3 million for the 12 months ended Sept. 30,

Michael J. Quigley, III, chairman and chief executive officer of First State, noting the healthy earnings and dividend reinstatement, said he was quite pleased to begin the corporation's fiscal year in such a manner. First State's Board of Directors had declared a quarterly cash dividend of 5 cents per share on Dec. 15, 1993. The primary reasons for the increased earnings were increased net interest income and decreased problem asset expenses. Quigley added that First State decreased its real estate owned balances by $3.6 million over the past three months.

Quigley also commented that First DeWitt continues to exceed all federal capital requirements on both a current and fully phased-in basis. The bank is categorized as "well capitalized" under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 definitions.

First State reported assets of $442.1 million at Dec. 31, 1993. Deposit and loan totals at that date were $406.3 million and $349.1 million, respectively.

OUR OPINION

Judge Leopizzi's ruling

The ruling by Superior Court Judge Bruno Leopizzi - acting as a Hearing Officer in the case of suspended Fire Chief Walter Beresford - is clear and uncompromising.

"He is to be reinstated to his employment, with full back pay and benefits, pending final resolution of the matter."

Chief Beresford was suspended from office without pay on Sept. 1, 1993 by then Acting Township Manager Raymond Kimble who said he acted on the advice of Township Attorney Robert Giordano.

The suspension was in response to the report of the State Commission of Investigation which stated that "disciplinary action" should be taken against the Fire Chief.

Judge Leopizzi ruled that suspending the Chief without a hearing was in violation of Civil Service statutes.

The Judge did not rule on the allegations that had been made against Beresford, and said he would hold a hearing on that aspect of the case early next month.

However, he dismissed the claim that the suspension was justified because Mr. Beresford allegedly constituted a threat to good order and the operation of the department. Judge Leopizzi noted that no criminal charges were ever placed against Chief Beresford, and "There is no showing of urgency of a hazard and lack of fitness or public necessity for immediate suspension."

Furthermore, in his conclusions, Judge Leopizzi stated that "perhaps there were other ulterior motives or political motivation for the suspension".

The Belleville Times has long expressed the same opinion.

The Hearing Officer cautioned both sides of the case that his finding about the unjustification for the suspension would not have a bearing on his hearing of the merits of the charges against Chief Beresford.

The only tangible results of any benefit to Chief Beresford would be the restoration of his job and his back pay.

The same elements on the Township Council which sought his ouster now oppose acceptance of Judge Leopizzi's ruling.

It is true that the Hearing Officer's opinion is only an advisory one, and the Township Manager does not have to accept it.

But not to accept the decision is to worsen the injustice.

It would also increase the damages that Chief Beresford would in all probability collect if the matter has to go to litigation.

And this would hold true, even if Judge Leopizzi should find that the charges leveled against Chief Beresford warranted his suspension or dismissal.

The Township acted without legal basis in suspending the Chief, and then leaving him dangling for months without a hearing.

Judge Leopizzi has expressed strong suspicions about the motives of the Township Council in this case.

He is not quite fair to the Council minority which has steadfastly supported Chief Beresford, but Bruno Leopizzi is known to be a man of strong opinions and great moral indignation.

We cannot predict the outcome of his hearings, but we doubt that he will be overawed by the flawed findings of the SCI report.

We hope he will take a close look both at the charges made against Chief Beresford and the persons making those charges.

We think that Truth will prevail.

Bringing down the roof

"Government by crisis" is the way one Belleville resident describes the closing down of 383 Washington Avenue, where such services as Welfare, Public Works, Recreation, Planning and Recreation are headquartered.

The shutdown was ordered in the wake of a flood condition which brought down ceilings and left a coating of ice on floors. The water came through the roof, and for two years, workers in the office building have warned about the dangerous condition of the roof.

The severest cold weather in 20 years hastened the demise of the roof.

But no one seems to know why the roof was not repaired long ago.

One reason is that the Township Council majority thought it was poor public relations to spend money to repair Township offices when other projects, more visible to the public, needed repair.

Or it may just be another example of the paralysis that has gripped Town Hall for the past two years.

We think that Township Manager Stephen Cuccio is trying too hard to divine what is on the Council majority's mind.

The fact seems to be that the Council majority is of four different minds, but united on only one issue - not looking as if it is spending money.

Unfortunately, the Township of Belleville is in such dire need of repair to its roads and utilities - what the dailies like to describe as the "infra-structure" - that there is no way to avoid spending money.

What happens when you don't spend the money is that it costs a great deal more to repair the damage that false economy caused.

It took courage for Building Inspector Robert Domenick to issue the order to close the building.

He probably realizes that the Council Majority will try to blame him for the situation.

But right now, everything from Dial-A-Ride to the issuance of building permits and death certificates is on hold.

And all because of a leaky roof that should have been repaired long ago.

Primary Immune Deficiency

To the editor:

As Congress reconvenes in Washington this month to consider health care reform, the United States Senate will vote on legislation to declare April 10-16 as National Primary Immune Deficiency Awareness Week.

Primary Immune Deficiency is a disease resulting from inherited defects in the immune system. It affects over 500,000 Americans, mostly children. The condition, which is not related to AIDS, weakens the immune system, leaving a person susceptible to common infections and can cause damage to vital organs.

We want your readers to know that if their child is having recurring illnesses, there may be an underlying immune deficiency. The "warning signs" are: eight ear infections; two or more sinus infections; two or more months on antibiotics with little effect; two or more bouts of pneumonia; failure to gain weight or grow normally; or thrush.

The Jeffrey Modell Foundation, named for our son who died at the age of 15, operates a toll-free confidential hotline offering free information and referrals to medical centers across the nation. The hotline can be reached at 1-800-JEFF-844.

Our hope is that together we can reach the thousands of children and their families that might be affected by this disease, leading to earlier and more accurate diagnoses, and better utilization of our nation's healthcare dollars.

Chapter grateful

To the editor:

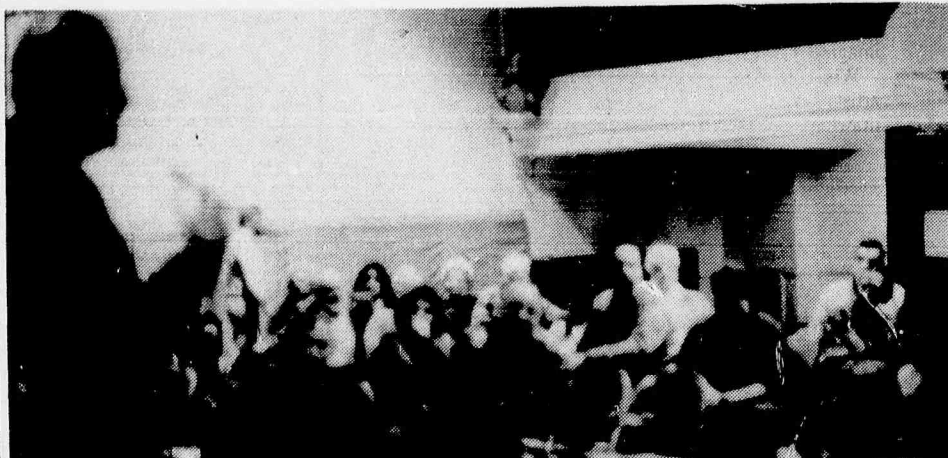

On behalf of the Arthritis Foundation, New Jersey Chapter, I would like to thank the hundreds of people in central and northern New Jersey who shared their time this past holiday season to volunteer at our gift wrap booths at Bridgewater Commons, Garden State Plaza, and Willowbrook Mall.

Our very special thanks also to the management and staff of Bridgewater Commons, Garden State Plaza, and Willowbrook Mall for hosting the wraps, to the many businesses who generously donated supplies, and to the thousands of people who had their packages wrapped. Because of their combined help, nearly $30,000 was raised to help support both programs and services for people with arthritis and their families, and fund crucial research to find the cause and cure for this serious disease.

We at the New Jersey Chapter are grateful to the people of Central and North Jersey. Their enthusiastic and generous support for this important fund-raising project means so much to the more than one million people in our state who suffer from arthritis.

John J. Reck, Chairman
Arthritis Foundation
New Jersey Chapter

• I don't know how many of Bloomfield's 45,000 residents have met the members of their Town Council, but however many, they, no doubt, are happy people. Seven elected officials with diverse backgrounds and members of two different parties, it amazes me how gentle and civil they can be among themselves and with each other. Without a doubt, the most gregarious one is Gary Jacobacci, a Republican who was opposed for re-election by Republican Mayor Jim Norton but won a smashing victory last November. This is a guy who is disciplined, focused, knows the difference between right and wrong, and perhaps more important, knows government like the back of his hand. Democrat Councilwoman/Freeholder Louise Palagano is just a sweetheart. Adored and respected by many, she is a competent legislator. Councilman John Crecco, a former mayor, is one of the most popular guys Bloomfield has produced. I doubt that John, a Republican, has one enemy. Newly elected Councilmen John Stefanelli and Henry Tuorto are very unusual. Neither one fits the mold of a politician — and that is because they aren't. They are common folk — sort of like a next door neighbor — interested in the direction of town government, and both are concerned in keeping real estate taxes down and improving the quality of life for the community's residents.

• SCHOOL Board member, Angie Paserchia, is a candidate-at-large for Belleville's May Council Election. Senator John Scott indicates that Governor Whitman has promised to appear at a fundraiser in behalf of Paserchia. Incumbent-at-large Councilpersons are Mayor Marina Perna, Councilmen Dr. John Noonan and Mario Drozd.

Sen. John Scott

• PRESIDENT Frank J. Costenbader of the Nutley Chamber of Commerce was re-elected at the organization's annual meeting last Monday. Costenbader conducted his usually efficient meeting. His main speaker for the meeting was Congressman Herb Klein who remarked about the difficulties facing the Congress, primarily involving money matters. Under Costenbader's leadership, the Chamber is sound financially with a five-figure cash balance on hand — a tribute to the frugality of the administration and the members who realize paying dues is the life blood of the Chamber. The Chamber's balance sheet as of 12-31-93 shows a 60 percent increase in assets.

• THE Nutley Italian American Civic Association's new president is Anthony Cassie. Voted the Italian of the Year was Angelo Cassieri — a worthy selection. He was selected for his dedication and loyalty throughout his years of service. A Super Bowl Party is scheduled at the club's Franklin Avenue headquarters for Sunday, January 30. At $15 a head, viewers can see the event on a large screen.

• SENATE President Donald DiFrancesco will devote his next two years to laying the foundation for Governor Whitman's four-year program. At the end of the two years, DiFrancesco will have served the customary four years as Senate President. Coincidental with the expiration of his Senate Presidency term is the end of Sports Authority General Manager Bob Mulcahy's employment contract which recently was extended to 1996.

Some Republican leaders expect DiFrancesco to succeed Bob Mulcahy as General Manager of the Sports Authority in 1996. DiFrancesco would certainly be a good choice. During the reign of Bob Mulcahy, the Sports Authority Complex has brought world fame to the State of New Jersey. It is truly a state jewel — and much of the credit for its status goes to the leadership of Bob Mulcahy.

• GOVERNOR CHRIS WHITMAN has made some excellent cabinet choices. Among the three best are Department of Environmental Protection and Energy Commission Robert Shin, Jr.; Essex County's Herb Tate, Jr. is head of the Board of Regulatory Commissioners; Middlesex Assemblywoman Harriet Durman to head the Department of Community Affairs. Durman receives high marks from Essex County Chairman John Renna.

Pencil drawings by Winick featured in February exhibit

The pencil drawings of Jerry Winick will be on exhibit in the Trustees Gallery Feb. 2 to Feb. 28 during library hours.

Winick was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1942. His interest in pencil drawing began at the age of eight. As a child, he would draw portraits of his friends and relatives and by the age of 12, he had already sold many of his drawings.

During his teen years, Winick attended classes at the Art Students League in New York City. However, he considers himself a self-taught artist.

At the age of 21, Winick moved to northern New Jersey where he now resides. He is married and has four children.

After many years of doing commercial art work, Winick began exhibiting his drawings on the "art show circuit." His success has been outstanding. During the 1992 and 1993 seasons, he won 17 "first place" awards and three "best in show" awards. What makes this achievement even more spectacular is that his black and white drawings were in competition with oil paintings, watercolors and pastels.

In addition to the art shows, Winick has had "one man" exhibitions at the Hebrew Tabernacle in New York and the Jewish Federation in Clifton. His work was selected by the Salmagundi Club in New York to be shown in its annual National Art Exhibit of 1993. He has also participated in many other national juried exhibitions.

Winick considers himself a pioneer for a very old medium — pencil. He feels that pencil drawings are not given the respect and recognition that they deserve. Pencil drawing has traditionally been used as the preliminary ground work for other media such as painting, pastels, etc. But Winick has taken pencil drawing to new heights. It is not unusual for him to spend three months on a single drawing, constantly building and developing it to its conclusion.

His style of "photo realism" is so unique that most people, when viewing his work for the first time, find it difficult to imagine that the drawings were done with a pencil.

Winick feels that pencil drawing is a lost art and that very few artists have the patience and ability to create these types of drawings. All of his drawings are done with an HB grade pencil. Instead of using many different grades of pencils, he uses only one, which gives him more artistic control of the light and dark values in his drawings.

The subject matter that Winick selects for his drawings is well thought out and based mainly on how well it works for his medium.

The sharp point of a pencil is ideally suited for the exacting detail that Winick desires in his drawings. Most of his drawings are done from life and with the aid of photographic reference material.

Winick's work is now available as originals or signed and numbered limited edition prints in various galleries in northern New Jersey and the New York metropolitan area.

Library displays in February

In honor of Black History Month, the library will be providing a display of Belleville pictures and artifacts. Also on display during February will be a special display of art provided by Gladys Sherman and Arnold Brown of Belleville. The displays may be viewed during regular library hours on the second floor of the library.

New Year's Resolution ? DIET BREAKTHROUGH

Overnight Amino Acid Plan Sweeping The Country

Researchers have located a specific hormone that can cause fat cells to be burned. Researchers have reported that this FAT BURNING HORMONE, the HUMAN GROWTH HORMONE, or HGH, is dormant in many overweight people, but can be activated by an amino acid combination of arginine and ornithine.

Consumers reported when given the Growth Hormone alone, they were able to eat their regular foods, yet still lose weight, in addition to the burning of fat cells, many credible researchers believe a HGH released may help improve muscle tone, convert cellulite to leaner muscle and produce a more youthful, shapely physique.

Available at pharmacies and health food stores under brand name of OVERNIGHT DIET, it is not a drug and requires no prescription. OVERNIGHT contains only natural ingredients found to be safe and effective.

Films, lectures scheduled for American History Month

Films and lectures have been planned at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center to commemorate the celebration of American History Month in February.

On Wed., Feb. 2 at 1 p.m., in celebration of Norman Rockwell's 100 years, a special film entitled, "Norman Rockwell: An American Portrait," will be shown at 1 p.m. In this film, as we examine the illustrations of Norman Rockwell, famous American illustrator, we learn something about him and ourselves. The works of America's most popular artist continue to inspire illustrators who want to capture his technique, and they also inspire the unartistic among us, who simply want to enjoy his great artistic gift.

In this film, we learn that Rockwell painted over 300 covers for the "Saturday Evening Post" and became known as the "Dean of Cover Artists."

On Wed., Feb. 16 at 1 p.m., in celebration of Presidents' Month, the films, "Inside the White House" and "Abraham Lincoln" will be shown. "Inside the White House," narrated by George and Barbara Bush, Sam Donaldson and Diane Sawyer, teaches us about how the White House was constructed, shows us the Lincoln bedroom where the Emancipation Proclamation was signed, and shows us some of the priceless treasures and artifacts contained in the historical hallways.

Hosted and narrated by James McPherson, the film, "Abraham Lincoln" reveals the complex man who became our sixteenth president and takes the viewer to many of the major landmarks in Lincoln's life.

On Thurs., Feb. 17, beginning at 7 p.m., the Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center will present two lecturers in the Annual Lecture on Belleville History for American History Month. At 7 p.m., Edward O'Neil will discuss 62 Revolutionary War soldiers from Belleville and at 7:30 p.m., Robert McFadyen, Belleville historian, will discuss generals of the Revolutionary War from Belleville. Call the library at 450-3434 to register for the lectures.

On Wed., Feb. 9 at 1 p.m., the film, "The Real Malcolm X" will be shown. This film examines the facts of Malcolm X's life to discover the man behind the myth. The film also shows footage and excerpts from his speeches.

On Wed., Feb. 23 at 1 p.m., Act One Presentations will present the play, "Stand Up and Be Counted." This film brings to life those famous and unknown individuals of the white community who helped Dr. King during the civil rights movement.

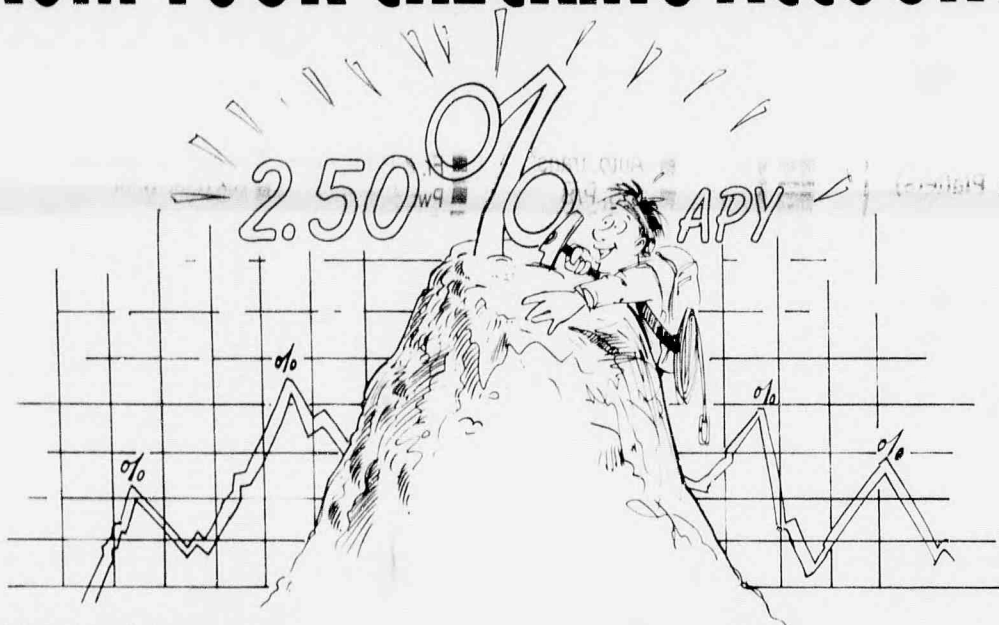

Also in February for Black History Month, there will be a Black Film Festival honoring Sidney Poitier. On Thurs., Feb. 3 at 1 p.m., the film, "In the Heat of the Night" will be shown, starring Poitier as the northern detective who joins forces with Rod Steiger, a rural southern sheriff, to solve a crime, but racial tension is created. On Feb. 10 at 1 p.m., the film, "For the Love of Ivy," a comedy-drama with Poitier and Abbey Lincoln, will be shown. On Feb. 17, also at 1 p.m., "A Raisin in the Sun," the story of a black family trying to escape their crowded apartment life by moving to an all-white neighborhood, will be shown to the Thursday Film Class. It stars Poitier, Claudia McNeil, Ruby Dee, Diana Sands, Ivan Dixon and Lou Gossett, Jr.

The last film in the Black History Month Film Series, "A Celebration of the Art of Sidney Poitier," is "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," starring Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Poitier, Katharine Houghton and Cecil Kellaway. This film is one of the first to deal with interracial marriage and marks the final film pairing of Tracy and Hepburn.

Cosponsor H.Con.Res. 35

Josiah Hornblower, an engineer, assembled the Western Hemisphere's first functioning steam engine in Belleville, New Jersey in 1753. This led directly to the manufacture of the first steam engine in the United States at a foundry located in Belleville. As historians generally agree that the invention of the steam engine heralded the beginning of the industrialized economy, these events were the spark that ignited the American Industrial Revolution.

The achievement of Josiah Hornblower attracted other scientists, engineers and entrepreneurs to Belleville. Over the years, there have been many important developments that have resulted from this process. For example: Samuel Morse sent his first message to Washington over copper wire made in Belleville; George Eastman developed the first photographic plate; and Thomas Edison created the voltaic battery.

In recognition of these momentous occurrences and the many other significant historic events in which Belleville has taken part, this town can truly be called the Birthplace of the American Revolution. For this reason, I have introduced H. Con. Res. 35, which designates Belleville, New Jersey as the Birthplace of the American Revolution.

Please examine the enclosed documents, which highlight much of the distinct history of Belleville. If you are interested in cosponsoring H.Con.Res. 35 and commemorating the remarkable contribution of Belleville to our nation's history, please contact P  ter Cohen of my staff at x55751.

With best wishes,

Herb Klein, M.C.

Informational seminars on the new S.A.T.

One of the nation's leading test preparation organizations will provide free SAT preparation seminars throughout February and March for college-bound high school juniors who are getting ready to take the new SAT-I this spring.

The purpose of the seminar is to show students and parents how the

Cummings to work with Essex businesses

Traci L. Cummings, of Garfield, was recently promoted to the position of Job Developer for Project HIRE, a project of The Arc of New Jersey.

Cummings will work with businesses in Essex and Union counties to find jobs for employees with mental retardation. Her office will work with people with mental retardation to determine what sort of positions they would like, and how Project HIRE can help them find those jobs. Then, her office will provide on-the-job training, and ongoing support for the employee.

Project HIRE is a project of The Arc of New Jersey providing employment services for people with mental retardation. Clients of Project HIRE receive a regular paycheck from their employers and perform the same work as other employees. Statewide, more than 300 employees receive support from Project HIRE.

Prior to working with The Arc of New Jersey, Cummings operated a small business and was a volunteer for Turning Point in Cedar Grove, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation facility for the indigent population in Essex County.

For more information about employment for people with mental retardation, call The Arc of New Jersey at (908) 246-2525.

SAT is put together, and how to use knowledge of its structure and format for maximum time efficiency when taking the test. The seminar also demonstrates powerful techniques and methods for solving specific types of problems that appear frequently on the test. The role of the SAT in the college admissions process is also addressed, and students and their parents have an opportunity to ask questions.

The Kaplan Educational Centers provide the individual sessions as an introduction to their comprehensive SAT preparation program. However, the seminar is packed with information and test-taking strategy that is beneficial to everyone taking the test.

A free seminar will be conducted at the Kaplan Center in East Hanover, at 188 Route 10 West, on Feb. 13 at 2 p.m. For more information or for other locations, call 1-800-KAP-TEST.

Autism awareness a focus this week

Autism is a lifelong developmental disability that occurs in approximately five to 15 out of every 10,000 births. It usually occurs within the first three years of life and is four times more prevalent in boys than in girls. Autism knows no racial, ethnic or social boundaries and is not caused by psychological factors in the child's environment. Children with autism typically show uneven development and have marked speech and language impairment.

However, many individuals with autism have distinct skills (splinter skills), often in music, math, mechanics and spatial concepts.

About one third of all autistic individuals develop seizure disorders leaving researchers to believe the disease is a biologically-based disorder. There are no medical tests to diagnose autism except behavior observations by a trained diagnostician along with a family history review.

The New Jersey Center for Outreach and Services for the Autism Community (COSAC) is a non-profit corporation that assists families, individuals and agencies concerned with autism. The organization sponsors a annual statewide conference every spring that is open to the public. For more information call 1-800-4-AUTISM in New Jersey or (609) 895-0190.

County OKs ash contract

At its most recent meeting, the Essex County Utilities Authority unanimously approved a contract with Waste Management of Pennsylvania, Inc. to transport and dispose residual ash generated at the Essex County Resource Recovery Facility.

A condition of the contract, which will commence on March 1, requires Waste Management to withdraw pending litigation against the county. Waste Management's claim against the county began during the previous administration.

Essex County Executive Thomas J. D'Alessio said, "The new ash disposal contract is a major success, not only for the ECUA, but for Essex County taxpayers. Through the considerable insight and negotiation skills of the ECUA, the county is relieved of an obligation that would have cost the county millions. This is an excellent example of the problem solving capabilities I envisioned for the ECUA when I proposed its formation."

Pending State Department of Environmental Protection and Energy approval, the new ash disposal contract will replace the current contract with Bergen County, which will expire on Feb. 28.

ECUA Secretary/Treasurer Donald V. Biase explained the benefits and terms of the new contract.

"Currently the county is paying approximately $15 million a year to dispose of ash," he said. "Under the new agreement, we will pay approximately $10.5 million, a reduction of $4.5 million in the first year alone. The contract runs over an eight-year term and offers extremely competitive pricing. The price per ton for disposal is $39, which compares favorably to other proposals that we analyzed closely.

"All services relating to the transportation of the ash from the resource recovery facility to landfills owned and operated by Waste Management will not exceed $15.50 per ton. The ash will be transported by rail directly from the facility. This will greatly reduce traffic impact to the area surrounding the facility," Biase said.

ECUA Chairman Stephen Edelstein said, "This is another in a line of ECUA accomplishments that really does two things. It maintains an economic tipping fee at the resource recovery facility as far into the future as possible. Secondly, this is the latest in a series of negotiations that have, in my view, stabilized the county's financial status within the framework of its complex waste disposal issues.

"Long-term planning is truly in evidence here, something that I am committed that the ECUA employ in all disposal issues so that we can protect our financial and environmental interests in the years to come," Edelstein said.

The resource recovery facility, operated by American Ref-Fuel, Inc. uses modern mass-burn technology to convert household solid waste into electrical energy sufficient for the needs of the plant itself and more than 50,000 average homes. Waste processed at the facility is reduced to 10 percent of its original volume in the form of residual ash. Recyclable ferrous metals are recovered from the ash before the ash is disposed.

Approximately 240,000 tons of ash are generated at the facility each year.

‘Essex Digest’ features winter advice

Commenting on the potential of hazards of extreme winter weather on the February edition of the television show, “Essex Digest,” Julius N. Coltre, director of the Essex County Office of Emergency Management, advises area residents that “preparedness is the key to surviving the dangers of winter emergencies such as blizzards, ice storms and power outages.”

Speaking with program host Rich Leonard of the Essex County Office of Public Information, Coltre recommended, “Based upon the extreme winter we have experienced during the past few weeks, every Essex County family should be prepared for a worst-case storm scenario. Continuous sub-freezing temperatures and icy road conditions could lead to instances of isolation or power failures. Families can protect themselves by preparing an emergency ‘getaway’ bag containing prescription medicines, food, warm clothing, flashlights and a radio. This is a common-sense approach to any potential emergency.”

During the interview, Coltre also advised motorists to carry tire chains, jumper cables and blankets in the trunk of their cars.

The director stated that the Office of Emergency Management will provide emergency preparedness plans and assistance to all interested Essex County residents by contacting his office at 857-3925.

“Essex Digest” for February also features a segment on Riker Hill Art Park in Livingston. Detailing the many diverse music, drama, crafts and cultural programs at this thriving West Essex, artists-in-residence community are Ben Schaffer, project coordinator for the Essex County Department of Parks and Cultural Affairs and Don Thieberger, an award-winning craftsman and potter.

Rounding out the program’s half-hour is an interview with Irvington’s Janet Keeler, director of the Essex County-sponsored 4-H Seeing Eye Puppy Raising Project.

Joining director Keeler is Jacky Smith of West Orange, one of the many young volunteers who participate in this humanitarian program which offers the hope of freedom and mobility to the blind.

“Essex Digest” is a community outreach, public affairs presentation of the Office of the Essex County Executive. The program airs every Sunday at 3:30 p.m. on Suburban Cablevision, every Wednesday at 9:30 p.m. on Cablevision of Newark and every Thursday at 6:30 p.m. and every Sunday at 10:30 a.m. on Orechio Broadcasting.

The Royal Scam tricks your ears

The Royal Scam, A tribute to Steely Dan, a band for Steely Dan junkies created by Belleville musicians, Michael Caputo and Gino Amato, has been preparing to hit the area music scene in April.

The compilation of local musicians scheduled its next area show April 2 at the Burdorff Cultural Center, 10 Durand Road, Maplewood.

“If you close your eyes, your ears will ‘scam’ you into believing that Donald (Fagan) is before you, hunched behind the piano with sneering Fagenesque vocals, as Becker stands inanimately by, with guitar in hand,” said band agent, James Cotugno.

“Together with a group of truly fantastic musicians and vocalists, Michael and Gino have created ‘The Royal Scam’, epitomizing a live Steely Dan performance,” Cotugno said.

Tickets to the April 2 show are $10. For more information call 450-4508 or write to Royal Scam, P.O. Box 338, Belleville, NJ 07109.

Paramus Catholic visits tomorrow at 5 p.m.

Bucs stay unbeaten in conference

By Joe Piegaro

This past week, Belleville's mighty matmen went to 8-1 on the season with two very easy victories. On Wednesday, our Bucs smashed Hackensack, 54-12, at home. Then on Saturday, BHS traveled to Ramsey and beat up on Don Bosco Prep by a 57-12 score. The two wins gave Belleville a 3-0 record in the NNJIL Pacific Division, tied with St. Joseph's of Montvale for first place.

So dominant were the good guys that only three head-to-head matches resulted in losses. All the other 20 bouts resulted in Buc victories. It was a week for padding personal records as seven starters won both their respective bouts. Even Jim Palo, a freshman, got a chance on the varsity and won an 8-7 thriller over Don Bosco's 112-pounder, Ivan Rodriguez.

Now half way through the season, it might be a good time to evaluate the team's progress while they are on an upbeat tone.

103: Keith Hands will no longer be in this division as he has been out for medical reasons and can no longer make the weight. Senior Sandip Desai is now the starter, but has been at practice only sporadically in the past few weeks. John Landosca will become eligible February 1, but he too has been on again, off again, as far as practice is concerned. Once counted on as a strength in the lineup, this division is now a major problem for head coach Joe Nisiovicia.

112: No such problem here. John Perna is 11-0 with eight pins, won the Bloomfield Tourney, and is rounding into shape to challenge for a state title in March. He really is that good!

119: Luke Cardinale is recovering from a strepped throat infection and should be ready this week for Nutley and Elmwood Park. A 9-2 record with five pins might get him seeded in the top four when the counties roll around next week.

125: How does 12-0 with 10 pins strike you? That's Isaiah Cardinale's record so far this year with victories in three different weight classes (125, 130, 135-pounds), the only Buc with such credentials. If this kid isn't the leader of this squad, I don't know who is.

130: Junior John Spina has been a pleasant surprise for the Bucs, forming a record of 9-2 with five pins. Right now, he has put himself in the favorite's position for a District 14 title.

135: Jorge Hernandez is 7-5 so far this season with three pins. While he hasn't been as formidable as he was last year in his sophomore season, he is still a solid member of the middle weight divisions. Hopefully, he will regain his form of a season ago and make a stretch run.

140: A slow starter this year, Mark Bianchini has really blossomed the past two weeks into a complete wrestler. His 10-1 record with two pins is outstanding. He has made such strides this year in his poise, mat sense and footwork, it is hard to imagine him missing out on a district title late in February.

145: Another outstanding middleweight for BHS is Joe McNish, the proud owner of an 11-1 record with three pins. The lanky senior, along with Bianchini, has turned the middle divisions into one of the major strengths on this year's squad.

152: It appears as if Pete Isip is winning the challenge issued by Chris Zarro for this division. After an 0-3 start, Isip has won his last two bouts, and appears noticeably more confident in his ability. Zarro is 1-3 and appears just a bit shy of varsity credentials, but he is so aggressive and hard-working that he could still take this spot away if Isip lets up even a little bit.

160: So far, the year's most improved wrestler has been Aris Cruz. His 8-3 record with eight pins has bridged the gap between the solid middle weights and the inexperienced upper divisions. Aris won pressure bouts versus Passaic Valley and Paramus to ensure victories which otherwise may not have happened.

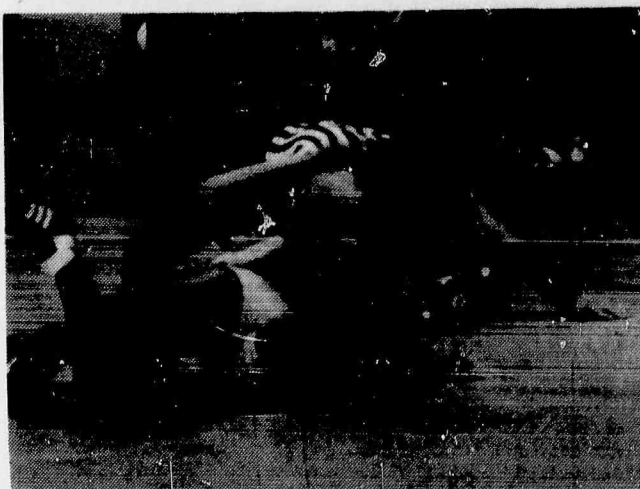

171: Mark Sharon has held down this spot, but has been put through the ringer to do so. Weighing in at between 159 and 162 pounds, Mark has been overpowered in many of his bouts. He has also had to fight through a minor injury against Paramus to form his 2-7 record. He owns the team's fastest pin this year; 14 seconds versus John Grady of Cranford.

189: After waiting two years to show his stuff, junior Tom Haverick seems to have locked up this division, fighting off a strong challenge from Tom D'Elia. He has won his last four matches and has improved his record to 5-2 with four pins.

275: Heavyweight Brian Pasterchick is getting better and better, week by week. He still has tons to learn, but his 4-6 record with three pins shows he has enough potential to be an outstanding anchorman. Not bad for a kid who started wrestling only eight weeks ago!

Joe McNish takes down Fred Mitchell of Hackensack en route to a 17-1 technical fall victory.

Isalah Cardinale overpowers Hackensack's Anthony Giafrancesco. Cardinale pinned his opponent late in the first period.

BUC NOTES: Wrestler of the Week goes to Isaiah Cardinale and Aris Cruz. They were the only Buc grapplers to record two pins apiece this past week. Between the pair, Bucs have been the recipient of 18 falls this year.

Latest watch on Isaiah Cardinale's rise on all-time lists — 70 career wins, 10th all-time. Next in line is Mike Gibbons with 72. He also has 42 career pins, tied for 7th all-time with Mike Gibbons. Next in line is Junior Nardone with 45.

Today we wrestle Nutley away at 5 p.m. Friday we host Paramus Catholic, also at 5 p.m. Saturday we travel to Elmwood Park for a 1 p.m. showdown. See ya next week!

Before we continue the series on the '74-75 Belleville High School boys' basketball team, some general comments.

First of all, in case you didn't notice, last Tuesday was a holiday of significant proportions. It was L.R.'s birthday. Who is L.R., you might wonder? Stay tuned. Another saga in my increasing soap opera personal life is about to commence. Just one hint about L.R. She's extremely interesting. And I mean extremely.

Moving on to professional football, did you see the conference championship games last weekend? Would somebody please teach the Kansas City Chiefs' wide receivers how to catch a football. Please!

Late in the first half, the Chiefs trailed Buffalo 20-6. The master, Joe Montana, leads Kaycee on an 80 yard drive, a la Super Bowl XXIII, a la so many other rallies. In a minute twenty, he drives them practically the length of the field. A touchdown, and the Chiefs (yes I called them the Chiefs) trail by just a TD going into the half.

From the five, Joe throws a pass into the end zone. The ball lands right on the numbers of a Chief receiver. The ball bounces off the receivers pads and lands into the hands of a Buffalo defender. Rally over. Game, in essence, over, because Kansas City, in addition to failing to catch a pass, couldn't play defense worth a darn.

Then, in the third quarter, Montana is injured when he is hit after completing a 20 yard pass. Joe doesn't return, and although Dave Kregg did a good job in his place, the air came completely out of the balloon.

Kansas City did everything it could to ensure it would not win this football game. And, still, the Chiefs could have won, and probably would have if Montana didn't get hurt. Give Joe the ball in the fourth quarter with a touchdown, or less, deficit, and he'll somehow get the job done.

As for Dallas, they dominated the Niners, which didn't surprise too many people. Thus, my pick of a Kansas City-San Francisco Super Bowl will have to wait another year.

I really think Buffalo will finally get over the hump. So, the pick here is, Buffalo 31, Dallas 26.

74-75 BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM Part 5 in a Series

The Bellboys returned home to play Bloomfield on a Tuesday afternoon. The team was 6-5, having won an emotional game the previous Friday. The next game would be against Bloomfield, a team the Bellboys lost to by two points in late December when a Bob Tosi layup was nullified by the officials because of traveling.

This was now going to be revenge time. The Bellboys would find a way to win, beat the legend, Bloomfield coach George Cella, and continue the march to the Essex County tournament.

Not all plans work out that well. Belleville did start out well, but by the third quarter, the Bengals were in complete control. The Bellboy offense never got started. Abdel Anderson was held in check, at least for him, by scoring 20 points. Belleville was held to 45 points in the game and the Bengals won by a convincing 16 points.

Now 6-6, the team stayed home for what would be a pivotal game on January 24 against Irvington. In game two of the season, Belleville lost at Irinvton, 56-45. Irvington had an excellent team that year and came to Belleville with a 9-3 record. They were the obvious favorites and a loss would put Belleville under the .500 mark for the first time since they were 2-3 in late December.

More importantly, a loss would have been the teams fourth in the past five games and you know how momentum can factor into ones confidence level, whether it be good, or bad.

Before another big Friday night crowd, Belleville played a masterful game. Anderson was dominant. He controlled the boards, and Belleville head coach Dan Grasso had his team play a more controlled offensive game.

In the fourth quarter, Belleville's lead ballooned to 45-25. There were just six minutes left in the game. It was at that point that Anderson fouled out and suddenly, the momentum shifted. To put it into better perspective, the momentum caromed the Campers way.

Irvington went crazy, and suddenly a 20 point lead was down to six. Joe Dunn and Doug Jackson converted some key free throws in the last minute and John Megna along with Wayne Riche controlled the ball in the backcourt and Belleville came away with a hard fought 49-47 victory.

Irvington had outscored Belleville 22-4 in the last five plus minutes, but when it was over, Belleville had won a critical Big 10 game and the team was now 7-6 heading into a game with Nutley the following Tuesday.

Afterward, Grasso knew his team had just pulled out a must needed victory.

"Just a huge win for us," Grasso said in an elated lockerroom. "We needed it, big time."

Grasso was a little annoyed with his team for letting a big lead evaporate in the last five minutes and he let them know that they couldn't fold if Abdel wasn't in the lineup.

But the win was important, because it began Belleville's best stretch of basketball for that season.

Next week, a look back at some big victories in late January and early February, and some remembrances of Abdel Anderson, off the court, especially his love for music, mainly Barry White.

THIS WEEKS QUIZ

When did Florida State last lose a bowl game on New Years Day? Who did the Seminoles play that year? What was the score?

For a Super Bowl quiz, when was the last time Dallas appeared in back to back Super Bowls? How did the Cowboys fare in those games? Who was the MVP of those Super Bowls? Who was the starting quarterback for the teams that Dallas played in those last back to back Super Bowls?

Buc basketball drops two games

By Mike Lambert

The frustration level is rapidly approaching the boiling plateau.

Boys' basketball coach Don Roll saw his team drop games to Hackensack 80-59 and Paramus, 57-49. The Bucs fell to 3-8 on the season with the setbacks, which all but eliminated the team from the state tournament.

Belleville battled Don Bosco last Tuesday. This afternoon, the team is host to Nutley, commencing at 4 p.m. Next Tuesday, it's off to Paramus Catholic for a rare 7:30 p.m. tip off.

Roll, who is in his eighth year as varsity head coach at Belleville, expressed disappointment with last weeks results.

"We've had teams over the years without the talent level this team has," Roll said. "It's no problem to have a losing season when the kids don't have the experience or talent level, especially against the calibre of teams we play against."

"But that isn't the case this year. These kids can play. I know we're young, and I expected mistakes when the season began, but we're not playing well and our level of intensity is not nearly where it should be. We're losing games because the other team is out hustling us and out positioning us for rebounds."

Against Hackensack, the game was, in essence, over after the first quarter. The Comets led 25-7 after one frame and extended the margin to an uncontrollable 47-18 at the half.

"We weren't in the game in the first half," said Roll in an understatement. "No execution, no second shots. Don't get me wrong, Hackensack has a very good team. They're 9-3 and should be tough in their county tournament. But we played this team pretty tough earlier in the season at our place. This time, we're down nearly 30 at the half."

The Bucs did narrow the margin in the second half, outscoring Hackensack 16-13 in the third and 25-20 in the fourth quarter to finish on the short end of an 80-59 score.

Jason Albert, who was injured in the third quarter of the game, led the Bucs with 16 points. Albert suffered what appeared to be a mild concussion and was questionable for last Saturday's game at Paramus.

Tyree Sumter and Dan Montalvo each had 12 points. Frank Means scored eight, Kevin Davies tallied six and Mike Molina closed out the scoring with five points.

Last Saturday afternoon, the Bucs played at Paramus and the results weren't very positive.

"This was a game we expected to win," Roll said. "But the level of intensity once again wasn't strong. We went into their place and trailed by ten points after one quarter. Once again, it was an uphill struggle and we're not good enough to try and come from behind."

Paramus led 19-9 after one. The Bucs cut the lead to 27-22 at the half, but Paramus increased its lead to eight points, 36-28 after three. Both teams scored 21 in the last quarter, with the home team prevailing by a final count of 57-49.

Albert did play despite being hurt at Hackensack and scored 18 points to lead Belleville. Molina had nine, Means finished with eight, Michael Loney scored five, Sumter scored four, Montalvo and SungBok Lee scored two each and Davies had one.

The Bucs faced a tough week, with games against NNJIL opponents Don Bosco and Nutley, along with a preliminary Essex County tournament contest that will probably be played this weekend. The opponent and site of that game was unknown as of last Monday.

Recreation Softball Clinic: The Belleville Recreation Department will again be sponsoring a Girls' Softball Clinic for resident Belleville girls who are students in grades 7-12. This program will be held on Fridays at the Middle School Girls' Gym from 6 to 8 p.m. on the following dates: January 7, 14, 21, 28; February 4, 18; and March 4. The intent of this clinic is to prepare girls who plan to try out for the Suburban Girls' and/or the high school girls' softball teams.

Each session will be supervised and an aspect of the game will be demonstrated and practiced. The focus will be on throwing, catching, running and pitching (No hitting). This clinic will provide all interested girls with an opportunity to better learn the game of softball. Participants must provide their own gloves and must wear sneakers. No advance registration is required.

Baseball/Softball Applications: The Belleville Recreation Department is proud to announce that applications for all Recreation baseball and softball programs are available in all public and parochial school offices and at the Recreation Department office, as of February 1, 1994.

Boys ages 8-9 can play Peanut League Baseball; 10-12 year old boys can play Junior League Baseball; and 13-15 year old boys are eligible for Senior League Baseball. Children ages 9-12 who wish to play Little League Baseball must try out. Boys and girls ages 6-7 can sign up for Tee-Ball. Girls ages 8-14 can apply for all levels of Recreation Softball, including the Suburban Team. All applications must be returned to the Rec House with photo copies of their birth certificates by Friday, February 25, 1994. In all cases, the applications must be completed in full and signed by a parent, and all returning players must re-apply. Applications accepted after February 25 will be considered late and will be treated accordingly. Late applications cannot be guaranteed entry into the league. The Rec House (407 Joralemon Street) hours for registration are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The office will also be open on Thursday nights, 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. for registration. Mahoney sparks Lady Bucs' victory

By Mike Lamberti

After an early case of the "icks", the Belleville girls' basketball team came back with two victories in NNJIL action, stopping Hackensack 55-36 and Paramus, 45-41.

Belleville took a 7-5 mark into last Tuesday's game at Immaculate Heart. This afternoon, the team is at Nutley for a 4 p.m. contest. This Saturday, Belleville plays host to West Orange in a preliminary Essex County tournament game. Tip off time, from Belleville, is 4 p.m. Next Tuesday, Paramus Catholic comes to town for a 4 p.m. game.

Lady Buc head coach Cheryl Marion, who perfected the "Ick" and "Aahhh" words in last weeks issue, was pleased with her teams performance, especially the game against Hackensack.

"We played real well there," Marion said. "We played with intensity, shot the ball well, made our layups and executed on offense. It goes to show that when we play to our ability, we can be effective."

The Lady Bucs were never headed after a 13-5 first quarter lead. Belleville increased the margin to 24-14 at intermission, and after Hackensack narrowed it to 32-26 after three, Belleville went on a 23-10 fourth quarter run and ended up winning the game by 19 points, Belleville's biggest margin of victory so far this year.

Liz Ramirez, who is playing at an all county pace, led all scorers with 23 points. Andrea Curran, suffering from a case of the flu, did score 14 while Kim Mahoney had six. Maria Acuna, Deanna Addis and Chris Scassera scored four points each.

The key in the game was a lineup change in which Mahoney, a freshman, was inserted into the starting five.

"Mahoney helped us up front with some scoring and rebounding," Marion said. "She has talent, as do our other freshman, Addis and Scassera. The team needed a lift and she was able to help us out."

Belleville struggled against Paramus last Saturday morning, but did have enough for a three point victory.

"It wasn't easy," Marion said, "but it was one of those situations where we played on Friday against Hackensack, then had to come back the next morning to play a noon time game with Paramus. But our kids found a way to win, and that was encouraging."

Paramus led 9-8 after one, but Belleville came back to forge a 24-20 lead at the half. Paramus rallied in the third and took a 33-29 advantage into the final eight minutes. There, the Lady Bucs regained control, outscoring Paramus 16-8 and winning by four points, 45-41.

Ramirez led Belleville with 18 points. Curran and Mahoney had 12 and 10 points respectively and Addis finished with five.

"Liz played a good game," Marion said. "And we got offense from Mahoney. I'm also encouraged with Curran's offensive game of late. She scored 30 points in the last two games and we need her in double figures if we're going to be competitive."

Competitive was not the word to describe Belleville's effort at Paramus Catholic last week. The Lady Bucs finished on the very short end of a 69-35 decision.

"It was 41-7 by halftime," Marion said. "File that one under the ick category."

Ramirez scored more than half her teams points, finishing with 18. Addis scored seven, Scassera and Mahoney tallied four each while Acuna had two.

Belleville was without the services of Curran, who was battling the flu.

"Not having Andrea in the lineup didn't help," Marion said. "But that was no excuse. We didn't play well. When you lose by 30 some odd points, you write it off as a bad game."

NOTES: If Belleville wins this Saturday's game with West Orange in the county tournament, the Lady Bucs would travel to Bloomfield for the next round.

Bloomfield won the county championship in 1988 and 1989, beating University and Montclair Immaculate respectively in the title games. Both of those championship games were played at Belleville High School.

Clifford Scott has won the past two county championships. The Scotties stopped Livingston in the county title game last season. The ECT for girls' basketball began in 1975, with Glen Ridge winning the title game. Nutley won the next two years and then Columbia won the championship in 1978 and '79. East Orange won in 1980, Scott was victorious in '81, then Shabazz began a string of four straight titles from '82-85. Irvington won the crown in '86 and University prevailed in '87. After Bloomfield's run in '88 and '89, Montclair Immaculate won in '90. Shabazz won the '91 title over Scott. The last two titles, as mentioned, were won by Scott.

Belleville last appeared in the county finals in 1984, losing the title game to Shabazz.

Tri-captains Anthony Conte, Dave Ilaria and Lawrence Martin lead the team to Maplewood on Thursday, January 27 and back home at the Middle School on Saturday (9:30 a.m.) January 29 versus Bloomfield. Look for the team in a big home match in the high school gym versus the Caldwell Jr. Chiefs on Wednesday, February 2 (7:30 p.m.) following the Belleville High School match.

Tournament Notes: On January 16, the Junior Bucs entered the frozen snowbound Caldwell Tournament and typically Belleville impressed the crowd with its "heavy medal" look. Gold medalists were Mike Palo, Frank Zarro and Mike Biase. Second place honors went to Anthony Malanga. Bronze medal winners were Anthony Conte, Dave Ilaria, Ken Sweetman, and Joe Spina. Taking fourth place were Lawrence Martin and Chris Ranucci.

Cobras snap slide, win 3-0

This past weekend, the Belleville Cobras, the Division I entry of the Belleville Soccer Association, took their second game of the year, beating the first place and previously unbeaten team from Clifton, 3-0.

Belleville's win snapped a two-game losing streak and raised their record to 2-2. Belleville is sponsored by Viola Brothers' Hardware.

In the two losses, Belleville was beaten in a close contest by Bloomfield, 1-0, and looked flat losing to Jersey City, 2-0. In the Bloomfield game, Belleville controlled the ball for three quarters of the game but were unable to get the ball past the opposing goalkeeper. Bloomfield scored the lone goal off a deflection with 10 minutes to play.

Against Jersey City, Belleville never got on track, and although both of Jersey City's goals also came off deflections, Belleville never mounted a serious offensive attack.

In an attempt to shake up the offense, Belleville coach Tim Cook made an unusual switch in the Clifton game. Goalie Mike Percio and forward Stan Saja switched positions. The move paid off on both ends as Percio collected an assist, and Saja made four saves for the shutout. Due to Red Card ejections early in the game both teams were forced to play with only six players on the field. This loss of people on the field helped Belleville, who are a team that looks to pass the ball more in order to get an open shot.

Belleville's first goal came as the result of a penalty shot. After a flagrant foul in the penalty area, Guiseppe Mennella converted a free kick, putting a powerful shot into the right side of the goal. Mennella would later collect another goal off of Percio's assist. Belleville's third goal came as the result of a Frank Tafur headball that eluded the Clifton goalie.

In front of Saja, Diego Paredes and Santini Salme played a strong defensive end, not allowing many free shots on goal. Marcello Girolando played an excellent game in the midfield, taking his offensive opportunities when they were there, but not neglecting his defensive responsibilities either. Due to the parity in the league, the win helped keep Belleville in the race for the league championship with only two games remaining in the season.

Valentine's Day

How did Valentine's Day start? Some people think it started in Rome hundreds of years ago. During a special festival, young single men would choose their girlfriends by drawing names out of a box. They would exchange gifts.

Another belief is that there were two St. Valentines from Rome. One loved children. He was jailed for not worshipping Roman gods. Children sent him loving notes.

The other saint married couples against the wishes of the Roman ruler.
