Violent crime is down 19 percent...

Belleville's crime rate decreasing

By Richard Dickon
and Lizabeth Scordo

Police Chief Raymond Kimble attributes the significant drop in crime in Belleville to quality police work and the support of the Township Mayor and Council.

Overall crime has decreased by 8.7 percent in Belleville from 1992 to 1993, while crime increased in Nutley and remained virtually the same in Bloomfield, according to the state's latest Uniform Crime Report.

1993 Uniform Crime Report for Belleville

"Crime is going down nationwide," Kimble said. "I attribute the drop here to our posture of aggressive patrols. Our patrol does a good job. We have dropped in stolen cars and in the most categories."

Kimble also credited the Council. "Naturally, with the Council providing us with maximum strength, that has been a big help," he said. "All these factors have to be considered."

The report shows that Belleville's crime index total dropped from 1,737 in 1992 to 1586 in 1993. Nutley rose by 71 cases, from 684 to 755, while Bloomfield had three less cases, 2,182 to 2,179.

Violent crime decreased drastically in Belleville by 19.2 percent. Dropping from 213 violent crimes in 1992 to 172 in 1993. The only violent crime that was up from 1992 was murder, with one reported last year.

In Nutley, violent crimes increased by 10, from 67 to 77, a nearly 15 percent increase. Bloomfield had four less violent crimes reported, from 197 to 193.

Non-violent crimes were down 7.2 percent, mainly due to decreases in larceny and motor vehicle theft. Burglaries, however increased by 4.5 percent.

In Nutley, non-violent crime increased by 61, up from 617 to 678, a nearly 10 percent increase. The rate remained stable in Bloomfield increasing by one, from 1,985 to 1,986.

Domestic violence was the one crime which increased dramatically last year in Belleville. Reports jumped from 165 to 200, a 21 percent increase. In Nutley, domestic violence rose 27 percent, from 114 to 145, an increase of 31 reports.

Domestic violence was the one area of increase in Bloomfield, up 13 percent, with 32 more reports, from 246 to 278.

Belleville's decrease in crime did not reflect the decrease of crime in Essex County overall, which was down only one percent.

Violent crime in Essex County was up six percent, while nonviolent crime decreased by three percent.

Total crime in the state New Jersey decreased by four percent overall in 1993.

Domicile investigator's job described; interviews next

By Richard Dickon

School Board officials have prepared a job description and a 77 residency policy as the Board of Education moves closer to naming a part-time "domicile investigator" to track students illegally attending Belleville schools.

Board member Thomas Fuscaldo reported progress of the Residency Review Committee's two most recent meetings.

"We have a job description that is being posted and advertised," Fuscaldo said. "We will begin reviewing candidates this week."

At the August 8 school board meeting, Fuscaldo said the committee, which he chairs, has reviewed the residency policy requirements, including the non-resident form that new students and their families must complete.

Describing the domicile investigator's duties, Fuscaldo said "The person will assist Mr. (Wayne) Worley (the district's attendance officer), provide a written report on a bi-monthly basis and suggest ways to improve the system."

Fuscaldo thanked the public for making "valid points" about the illegal student problem.

School Board Vice President Barbara Cicalese has disagreed with School Superintendent Michael A. Lally and other school board members about who should recommend the person to take on

DARE students enjoy football

By Richard Dickon

A jubilant crowd of more than 100 grade school students from Belleville joined students from every Essex County municipality and the DARE officers who invited them at a gala tailgate party and then the Giants/Jets football game at Giants Stadium last August 20.

The students, all of whom attended the Drug Abuse and Resistance Education (DARE) classes, were selected by their local DARE officers who had taught them in their local schools.

The party began in the stadium parking lot with hot dogs, hamburgers and other barbecue favorites. Rocco Malanga, Chairman of the county Police Benevolent Association (PBA) Conference, arranged the party and purchased the tickets to honor DARE officers.

Police Officer Grover Lewis of Belleville was joined by his son G.J. and daughter Dana at the event, which featured free gifts and raffled footballs.

Officers were praised for volunteering for intensive two-week training program and then spending one day each week for 17 weeks. They instructed students in public and private schools throughout the county about the evils of drug abuse.

B.A.S.E., Library unite to fight substance abuse

By Richard Dickon

A partnership is being formed "to create a Substance Free Belleville Community" by the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education (BASE) and the Belleville Public Library.

Seven separate cooperative activities are included in the partnership.

B.A.S.E. will be offering Preventing Workshops to mothers of pre-schoolers at the library, while their children are participating in the library's Pre-School Program.

A literature rack of free drug/alcohol information and pamphlets will be placed in the library for use by the community.

A complete bibliography of all drug/alcohol resources will be shared by the two agencies.

Applications for grants will be cooperatively written to enhance and supplement the collection of drug/alcohol information available to the community at the library, schools and the C.H.A.S.E. Center.

B.A.S.E. will offer a one-night seminar on substance abuse as part of library's Fall Program Series.

Ms. Adrea Cohen, Director of the library, has agreed to serve on the B.A.S.E. Executive Board.

Literature, newsletters, and programs at the library will be displayed at the C.H.A.S.E. Center.

The Belleville Alliance for Substance Education is a Township-sponsored non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and providing a substance-free Belleville community. Anyone interested in learning more about B.A.S.E. may contact the organization at 751-0809 or stop by the C.H.A.S.E. Center at 527 Joralemon Street.

Town Hall renovation bids are being sought

By Richard Dickon

The bid process for accepting a contractor to complete the renovation of Town Hall's interior and exterior has begun after the Township Mayor and Council approved a resolution to go ahead with the work.

The bid process will open September 1, with a mandatory pre-bid meeting scheduled for September 6 for all interested contractors, according to officials.

Bids specifications will then be modified, if necessary, before sent out on Sept. 20 with a return date of Sept. 27, at which time the Council will discuss the bids received.

A bond ordinance to renovate the exterior of town hall was reduced from $700,000 to $500,000 and passed after a public hearing in June. A $500,000 bonding ordinance for the renovation of the interior has also been approved.

Mayor Jim Messina has said the total amount bonded did not have to be completely spent, but the amount was necessary since the restoration may entail more than is currently expected.

Township Manager Stephen Cuccio, who was vacationing the week of August 22, had been working with state officials regarding Economic Development Loans to try to rectify questions about the loans.

Township officials have now been told they must have a contract by Nov. 1 to keep from losing low-interest, long-term state loans to help fund the restoration of the interior and exterior of Town Hall.

The council has approved the $500,000 bonding ordinance for the exterior restoration of the town hall building, parts of which are crumbling, despite protests from a handful of residents about the amount being bonded.

The architect needed to provide a time frame, including a schedule for when bid specifications could be put out to bid to ensure the loans would not be rescinded, Cuccio said.

The loans would cover 30 percent of the costs of the renovations, at 1.5 percent interest over 20 years.

Comito Associates has been hired as architect for $20,000, less than the $40,500 originally allocated.

Council to pick town insurance

By Richard Dickon

An insurance carrier for the Township will be chosen August 30, after a Council committee recommendation.

The Council committee of Deputy Mayor Thomas Spillane and Councilmen Bill Cook and Victor Canning will look at amending proposals on August 29.

"We had been comparing apples and oranges," Cook said, explaining that the three proposals made had different deductibles and coverages, so the council asked each

School board endorses bill to fund mandates

By Richard Dickon

The School Board plans to send a resolution to state Legislators supporting a bill that would compel the state to provide funding for any new program mandated to school districts.

State Assembly bill ACR7740 would enact a constitutional amendment basically requiring that if the state mandates, the state pays.

Board member Robert Molinaro initiated the resolution, saying the measure "could save the district large sums of money."

"This bill would help our beleaguered taxpayers. Hundreds of thousands are spent each year on mandates, many having nothing to do with educational programs," Molinaro said.

As an example, Molinaro cited the replacement of underground oil tanks. "We should go on record as supporting this bill," he said.

Board President Gabe Nazzola

had criticized a state Assembly resolution that would require the state to pay for any program it mandates to municipalities because it failed to cover school spending.

"This is certainly a topic that has been discussed in the press and by boards of education across the state," Nazzola said. "This is a much-needed correction."

He had said previously the state probably mandates more per dollar for school programs than for county or municipal programs, and providing funding for mandated school programs is one reason school budgets are not passed.

School Superintendent Michael A. Lally said "I certainly this resolution. I will be only to happy to comply and send it to Trenton."

Board member Ralph Mazzuca told Molinaro, "I'm sure you have the full support of the board. I urge parents to remember this bill and write your legislators. We will strive to get all mandates paid for."

Take Time

Take time to smell the flowers,
And hear the bird's sweet song;
Take time to watch a rippling stream,
And the coming of the dawn.

Take time to watch the bluebird
Flash his colors on the wing;
Take time to hear the crickets
In the evening as they sing.

Take time to see the rainbow
Stretch across the sky;
Take time to say "I love you"
Before another day goes by.

Take time to watch the sunset
At the closing of the day,
And then take time to thank the Lord
As you kneel to pray.

Ruth Moyer Gilmour

Assemblyman Paul DiGaetano was guest speaker at the August 17 meeting of the Belleville Senior Citizen Tuesday Club Inc. He answered questions on the topics of the day and assured the seniors that they will receive their rebate some time in October. He also provided living wills and literature on several topics of interest to seniors. More than 250 members were present and they bombarded Paul with numerous questions that he tried to answer. I think he did a remarkable job in answering the questions. I want to thank Paul's secretary, Diane Bowen and Toni Marone, who worked with me to set up this meeting!

The Tuesday Club also held a pizza party on Saturday night, August 20 at the club and the capacity crowd enjoyed themselves.

Welcome back to Jim Morris and Adeline Coeyman. Condolences to Lee Carlo on losing her brother and one week later her brother-in-law. Dorothy Babbig also lost her brother-in-law.

Get well wishes to Joe Dillon and Millie Genevise, who are at Clara Maass Hospital.

The Tuesday club ride to Atlantic City will be held on September 14. See Josephine and Pat Rotenda for reservations.

Happy birthday to Adeline Coeyman, Dot Barbig and Sam Graziano, of Nutley, who is going to Las Vegas with his wife, Loretta, to celebrate. Hit the Jackpot, Sam!

Happy birthday to Adeline Coeyman, Dot Barbig and Sam Graziano, of Nutley, who is going to Las Vegas with his wife, Loretta, to celebrate. Hit the Jackpot, Sam!

Get well also to Maria Lunetti and Frank Ursi.

You may have read in the newspapers that the Township of Belleville appointed the first women police officer in its history on July 28. The female officer, Kimberly Santana, is the granddaughter of long-time member and trustee Yvette Santana of the Tuesday Senior Club. Congratulations to the both of you and I know that Kimberly will make you proud of her!

You're invited!

I received a call from Marie VanderZwan to remind the public about the Family Health Fair to be held at Clara Maass Hospital on September 11th from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The fair will have more than 75 Healthy Living Information Booths, Diabetes Education Information, Child Safety, Health Career Information, giveaways and more. ## Domicile investigator job described the part-time domicile investigator position.

Cicalese previously had said her committee should recommend a person to be voted on by the board, while Lally, Board President Gabe Nazzola and Board member Ralph Mazzuca all said the recommendation should come from the "central office personnel" of the Board of Education.

Lally responded that the committee's role was to "establish policy" while the central office personnel's role was to make a recommendation.

Cicalese has said she was concerned that the board not hire "someone who will sit on their rump and do nothing and then say 'see there is no problem with illegal students.' I want to make sure we hire a good person."

Fuscaldo agreed with Cicalese and vowed that someone would be hired who will work to find illegal students.

The committee comprises Cicalese, Fuscaldo, Board member

John Notari, Dr. Joseph Ciccone, the former high school principal who is now assistant school superintendent, and one resident.

Resident Frank Montagna has continued to call for the board to find 400 non-resident students he said are attending district schools.

In June, school attendance officer Wayne Worley said the problem is not as widespread as some have alleged saying a total of 37 students had been found during the school year that were illegally in school for several reasons.

He has said that if everyone down the line, including secretaries, guidance counselors, administrators, are not letting in students without proper credentials, there is no problem, but if it is done haphazardly, he might need 10 people.

School Superintendent Michael A. Lally confirmed that two illegal students were pursued vigorously through the courts.

One case is still pending, he said, while "the board accepted the recommendation of counsel" to settle the other.

Board Attorney Frank Pomaco said the district is recovering money from families of illegal students and he is authorized to pursue criminal complaints to recover tuition.

Lally has said there are illegal students, but not 400 of them.

Worley said if a second attendance officer is hired, it would likely be a retired police officer.

Fuscaldo has called illegal students his number one campaign issue, saying the district should show backbone and take the impetus in stringently enforcing a residence requirement and finding illegal students and pursuing the matter to conclusion.

Montagna said he and others "walked the town" and observed students exiting buses from Newark. He has called on the board to have more people walking the streets, more truant officers.

OUR OPINION

Drop in violent crime, resurrected anti-crime bill signal positive turn

The state's uniform Crime Report for 1993 shows Belleville's overall crime has decreased by 8.7 percent, with violent crimes down more than 19 percent. These numbers are not reproduced in adjoining towns like Bloomfield and Nutley, where crime has remained virtually the same and risen, respectively.

Still, such sharp drops are encouraging, and should be credited somewhat to the fine police work being by the Township's patrolling police officers.

More encouraging still is the resurrection of the seemingly-dead, multi-million dollar federal anti-crime bill. The bill's passage comes days after a 21-year-old Newark man wounded a Nutley wife and mother and was shot dead while trying to shoot police and others. The chase led through Belleville and it was the luck of the draw that the gunfire took place across the town border.

With two lives permanently altered by guns, it is both comforting and promising that the U.S. Congress is providing a strong voice opposing gun use, despite vocal opposition, particularly from the gun-lobbying National Rifle Association.

The use of guns in committing crimes breeds violence both from the perpetrator as well as from the potential victim in self-defense.

Automatic weapons, 19 varieties of which are banned in the crime bill, are widely used in all violent crimes, not just inner-city drug wars but also in quiet bedroom communities. Local law enforcement officers face life-threatening situations daily, and banning assault weapons will have an effect nationwide in decreasing violence.

The desperate need for gun legislation was shown when a $50 gun exchange removed mostly antiques and few, if any, assault weapons from area streets.

Banning assault weapons was a key to the crime bill, but other provisions, including providing money for crime prevention programs, represent the most positive, forward-thinking action by federal legislators in recent memory.

Perhaps the passage of the bill will ensure a continued decrease in violent crime inside and outside of Belleville. With most people citing fear of violent crime as one of their top concerns, decreasing violence must continue to be at the top of the national, state, county and local agendas for the foreseeable future.

Schools must not let mandate bill die

Belleville schools would benefit more than most districts from bill ACR7740 in the state legislature. The bill would require that the state provide funding for any school program it mandates.

School Board member Robert Molinaro correctly brought the bill to the Board of Education's attention earlier this month, getting the School Board to send a resolution to legislators urging the bill's swift passage.

With taxpayers, particularly older residents, awaiting relief from ever-escalating property tax bills, state pay for state mandates would eliminate the spending included in school budgets for programs that has little to do with education. Molinaro cited the example of replacing underground oil storage tanks as a mandate that costs thousands of taxpayer dollars but is not directly connected to students' education.

With the current school board and school administrators vowing to enact a school budget that voters can pass, passing bill ACR7740 would greatly assist this process. This legislation must be kept in the public eye, and residents should write their legislators supporting the bill's passage. If it does not pass this legislative session, it must be kept alive for the next.

School officials deserve every chance to present a fair, representative budget to the voters. Bill ACR7740 goes a long way toward helping school officials provide a thorough and efficient education in the most economic manner possible.

Car thieves move to the suburbs

Earlier this month, law enforcement officials were aglow over a statewide decline in auto thefts they said was attributable to stepped-up police efforts.

Uniform Crime Report figures for 1993, released on Aug. 2, showed that 56,245 cars were stolen in New Jersey, an 11 percent drop from the previous year's figure of 63,533.

Well, Newark is no longer the car theft capital of America -- that dubious distinction now belongs to Commerce, Calif. And while the police efforts have clearly made inroads in Newark and other New Jersey cities, there is plenty of work yet to be done in the suburbs, where the car thieves have apparently shifted their operations.

The UCR figures show that Essex County experienced a 12 percent decline in auto thefts in 1993, from nearly 22,000 thefts the previous year to slightly more than 19,000. That's well and good, but a closer look reveals that almost all of the decline was due to fewer thefts in the large urban municipalities of Newark, East Orange, Orange and Irvington.

The breakdown further shows that, last year, car thefts actually increased in 16 of the county's 22 towns. And in 10 of those towns -- all suburbs -- the number of incidents rose by 25 percent or more.

Belleville was one of the few suburban towns to experience a drop in car thefts, although it was slight. There were 464 auto thefts reported in the township in 1993, down from the previous year's figure of 494.

There may be other factors in the overall decline in car thefts statewide, such as the motorists' use of anti-theft devices and stiffer sentences for offenders. But if law enforcement people are going to pat themselves on the back for lowering the number of car thefts in the cities, they must also be aware that whatever they're doing in the suburbs isn't working.

If the Essex/Union Auto Task Force is truly to be considered a successful venture, it must make a dent in the number of stolen vehicles in most of the towns in those counties, and not just a few. When that happens, we will be the first to applaud its work.

YOUR OPINION

'Life in Silver Lake' remembered from 3,000 miles, 30 years later

With Marie Strumolo Burke enjoying a week's vacation, the following letter addressed to her is being reprinted. James R. Trotto lived in the Silver Lake District some 30 years ago, before moving to Vacaville, California. He reflects on the differences in the two coasts and recalls his days in the Lake with fondness.

Marie Strumolo Burke, how are you? I get the Belleville Times out here in California and enjoy your column. I am from Belleville and have some ties with Silver Lake. Born in the Lake in 1946 on 118 Heckel Street, my father then bought a two-family house on 218 North Belmont Ave. I lived there until I was about 7 or 8, then I moved out of Silver Lake to the area near #7 School, on the corner of Joralemon and Wilber Street.

Belleville sure has gone through some changes. I moved from Belleville in 1975 for a job here in California. California is very overrated. The freeways are very crowded and traffic can be a nightmare, just to go 50 miles. I work at the San Francisco airport and live about 70 miles away. Everyone commutes long distances out here.

I am looking at the Belleville Times, dated July 7, 1994. Well, it has been 30 years since I graduated. Yep, I was in the class of 1964. We had our graduation outside. My father took some 8 millimeter movies of the graduation and I turned them into video. Even after 30 years it still looks good.

My recollections of the Lake were these. In the summer, going under the fire hydrant on the corner of North Belmont Avenue. Also, I can recall the trainees crossing the tracks over Franklin Avenue, near St. Anthony's Church. I did attend School #4 for a few years. I can't recall any of the teachers but do remember my great-Aunt Josie Sertella worked for the school.

My wife and I get back to New Jersey about twice a year. After all those years, I just wonder how many teachers are still there from 1964 and also, whatever happened to all of my classmates after they left BHS. I never made it to a class reunion. Maybe next time. After I graduated, I worked for awhile, went into the service for more than four years, spent a few years overseas, in Guam and Vietnam. I came home, went to school, landed a job in California and have been here since.

Our weather is good here, with no change in seasons, and we do have a lack of rain. Out here the food, to me, coming from the east, is all garbage. The only time I have good pizza is when I am back in New Jersey. Deli's out here are a joke, and there are no diners. I used to go to the Arlington Diner a lot.

Well, that's all I have to say. I enjoy the paper and it reminds me of times where you didn't have to worry about anything. Glad to see the Silver Lake section of Belleville is alive and well. Do you still have the feast? Other things I can recall: DelVope's Market, the factory where the Pathmark is, Zippo's Market (deli and chicken market), the bakery on Franklin Avenue right behind my house, the city subway (near Heller Parkway), the hot dog man in the park...On and On...

Count our blessings

To the editor:

This letter isn't about any special event or any special subject in a recent newspaper. It's about sharing. I recently had a personal experience with having a loved one being diagnosed with cancer. I know that without God, family and friends I would not have made it through the last months.

I know there are many people in the world without any of these things and I'd like to encourage them, let them know that they are not alone. It's so hard to deal with any problem when you don't think anyone else cares. This is not true. God loves all his children, no matter what religion we are. He's always with us and is always willing to hear our prayers. With God all things are possible. Miracles don't just happen in biblical times, they happen every day, just read the newspapers or listen to the news.

After surgery and months of treatment, my daughter is now cancer-free. I feel so good that I had to share my blessings with you and let you know that blessings fall on all of us every day, sometimes they are small, so we don't think of them as blessings, but none-the-less that's exactly what they are and we should rejoice for what we have.

Of All Things

By Frank Orechio
A feature of the Nutley Sun, Bloomfield Life and Belleville Times

RECENTLY, Belleville former Town Councilman Jim Golden died at the age of 80, and two weeks later, his wife, Lillian, answered her last call. Jim Golden was a unique asset to Belleville for two decades. He was basically a town critic. He was against waste in government and expected every public official to establish a high standard of integrity that was his own standard. In 1961, he was one of the principal leaders in government change from the commission to the council form. He won election and served with distinction. Semi-monthly, his voice resonated throughout the Belleville Council chamber with calls for decreased spending and cutback on personnel. As the town critic of that day, he made more sense than some of the current crop. Underneath Jim's tough exterior, he was a warm and caring person. As the aging process took over, Jim's golden voice became dimmer - and then there came a time when he no longer had the energy to continue writing his column for the Belleville Times. Although more often than not, he held contrary views, we enjoyed a good relationship and respected each other. In the passing of Jim Golden, we have lost a friend and associate. May God bless his soul and that of his wife, Lillian. His son, State Police Lt. James Golden, has made his own mark in public life, enjoying the trust and confidence of his superiors in the New Jersey State Police Department, and a proud daughter and sister, Jeanne Cappel, shares her brother's grief.

WE also mourn the passing of Nutley's Carol Greco - at age 55 - much too young to die. A former executive secretary at ITT Avionics in Nutley, Carol received both her bachelor's and master's degrees at Montclair State University. A Brownie leader and a Little League mother-worker in Nutley she was a past president and since 1973 a member of the executive board of the Nutley Family Service Bureau Auxiliary. She also served as president of the Community Mental Health Auxiliary. In the passing of Carol Greco, Nutley has lost a community treasure and the Orechio family has lost a best friend.

A STUDY of thousands of British youths has found that obese teenage girls and teenage boys make less money when they become young adults than others their age.

The study does not indicate whether the culprit is discrimination or some internal factor like low self-esteem but it does suggest that parents can have a big effect on teenagers' transition from school to work. These findings were reported in the July issue of the Archives of Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine.

BLOOMFIELD residents recently packed the Town Council chamber to voice concern about a rent control ordinance, a redevelopment project and a rail link project that would cause two train stations to be shut down.

A DATE TO REMEMBER - the Nutley Family Service Bureau's 1994 Charity Ball at Nanina's in the Park Friday, November 4th. The event is chaired by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Paterson. If the past is any indication of the future, the event should be a standing-room-only success.

NUTLEY LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS' Peggy Farabaugh informed members in a July mailing that the organization registers over 200 voters annually. Judging by the attachment which accompanied a cover letter to members, Peggy is quite an organized individual!

IDEAL THOUGHTS:

If it weren't for the last minute, nothing would ever get done.

A hug is a great gift. One size fits all. And it's easy to exchange.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

Most Americans do not own automatic assault weapons. Very few even want to own them.

Yet there is a tremendous pressure upon Congress to permit possession and distribution of these highly lethal weapons which are intended not for target practice or deer hunting, but to kill humans.

One argument against banning the weapons is that while law-abiding people will be denied access to Uzis and Browning Automatic Rifles - and who hasn't wanted to have a BAR over the fireplace? - criminals will gather them in as usual.

However, while an automatic pistol may be concealed under your raincoat, the heavier weapons are more difficult to pass off as Toys R Us samples. The proposed national anti-crime bill would make possession a crime, regardless of how you obtained the weapon.

According to New York Mayor Rudolph Giuliani, 90 percent of the weapons in his city come from out-of-town, which is a major reason that the Republican mayor is supporting the Democratic President on the bill.

In Belleville, a couple of years ago, enough weapons and ammunition were found piled in a private home to outfit a small army. It required a task force of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agents and local police - armed with search warrants - to uncover the cache.

Several machine guns were among the items. What the owner had in mind was never made public.

But under the proposed bill, police could simply have followed a weapon through the mails and made an arrest on the spot.

Doesn't this violate the Constitutional right of citizens to bear arms?

Perhaps the Supreme Court will find that to be the case, in which case the states will have to turn to such Constitutionally-approved laws as the Sullivan Law, in New York, which prohibits the carrying of concealed weapons.

But the Court may also rule that there is a difference between owning a weapon and forming an illegal para-military organization, which is what many of the automatic gun fanciers are doing.

At Jonestown, fanatics held several hundred people hostage and murdered a United States Congressman - and ultimately forced more than 400 people to commit suicide - convinced that they were threatened by the outside world.

At Waco, federal agents carrying legal search warrants were fired upon and slain by fanatics who decided to abrogate the rule of American law.

Unfortunately, there is a strain of the Jonestown-Waco virus among many who oppose the ban on automatic weapons. Some use the excuse of crime as a reason for arming to the hilt. Others talk - some with over eagerness - of a coming race war in this country. Some just want to be Storm Troopers.

All of these true believers want to discard the Constitutional guarantees which have made this the greatest nation on earth.

And like the unlamented Students for a Democratic Society of the 1960s, they call for the overthrow of law with no suggestion of a decent alternative.

Thomas Jefferson said we would always have among us those who would prefer tyranny. "Let them stand as monuments," he said, monuments to their discredited beliefs.

But let the rest of us continue to believe in, and enjoy, liberty under law.

Belleville woman joins the Navy

Joselyn Coronel recently enlisted in the United States Navy for guaranteed training at the Navy's Seaman Apprentice School.

Coronel, the daughter of Fernando and Amelia Coronel of Belleville, is a 1988 graduate of Torres School in the Philippines. Enlisting under the Delayed Entry Program, she will report to Recruit Training Center Great Lakes, in Illinois for active duty, where she will undergo basic training.

Following basic training, Coronel will begin four weeks of schooling at Great Lakes, in the Seaman Apprentice field. Under the Seaman Apprentice Program, persons who have not chosen a specific career field receive general shipboard and nautical training prior to being assigned to a Navy ship.

Register for Fall Storytime

Beginning Sept. 7, parents of all preschool children interested in having their children attend fall storytime at the Main or Shafter Branch libraries, should register.

Parents of toddlers, ages 2 1/2-3 1/2 years of age, remain and participate in the storytime activity. Their child should readily demonstrate a strong interest in stories, crafts, dances, and in the skills of listening and of reading.

At the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room, the storytime will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 9:30 a.m. for toddlers, starting Sept. 20, 21 and 22. Fall storytime for toddlers will be held at 9:30 a.m. at the Shafter Branch Library on Wednesdays, starting Sept. 21.

Preschoolers, ages 3 1/2 to five years of age can attend a program designed to foster early learning and reading concepts. Their parents separate and attend a program of their own, prepared by reference librarian, Joan Taub or Frederick Lewis. These parents are required to remain on the library premises while their children attend the preschool program.

The fall storytime for preschoolers will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 10:30 a.m. in the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room starting Sept. 20 and 22.

At the Shafter Branch Library, fall storytime for preschoolers will be held on Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. starting Sept. 21.

Call the Belleville Public Library at 450-3434 or 3436, or the Shafter Branch Library at 450-3438, for further details.

Local doctor selected counselor at camp for children with cancer

By Richard Dickon

Dr. Tina Concetta Zecca, a Belleville resident, said she looked forward to volunteering this month at The Valerie Fund's Camp Happy Times, a week-long camping experience for New Jersey children with cancer.

The camp, offered at no charge to campers is operated by The Valerie Fund, a non-profit organization supporting a network of five New Jersey hospital-based centers for children with cancer and blood disorders.

The Valerie Fund Centers treat approximately 2,500 children annually, according to center officials.

Dr. Zecca, a pediatric resident at Children's Hospital of NJ/United Hospitals Medical Center in Newark, is returning for her second year as camp pediatrician.

"This has been such a wonderful experience for me because I get to see the children running around and having a great time, instead of being poked and prodded in the hospital!" Dr. Zecca said.

She will be chief resident of pediatrics, following the completion of her residency in June 1995, and she said she plans to pursue an allergy/immunology fellowship.

Camp Happy Times is open to any child between the ages of 5 and 16 who has, or has had cancer, and who lives in New Jersey. Older teens, between 17 and 20 years old, are enrolled in a junior counselor program.

For further information about Camp Happy Times or the Valerie Fund, call 1-800-8Valerie.

YOUTH LEARNING DISASTER AWARENESS - As part of the Belleville Office of Emergency Management's (OEM) public education program and an effort to provide disaster awareness to children in Belleville, the OEM is providing 10 family disaster commuter kits to the Belleville Recreation Department, as part of an opportunity to reach out to the youth of the community, such as those seen playing recently at the Recreation House on Joralemon Avenue, and familiarize them with disaster awareness. ## Bids being sought for Town Hall renovation insurance carrier to provide prices based on several alternatives.

The alternates were due August 26.

Kevin Barry of Gallagher Basset Insurance Company, the current municipal insurance carrier, met with the Council August 9 to present that company's proposals. Spectrum Insurance and Emar Insurance had made proposals earlier in August.

The Council has approved extending the existing town insurance coverage for up to 60 days to provide sufficient time to decide what insurance policy to choose to renew coverage.

The council also discussed whether or not to seek proposals for two years, in addition to the one-year policies the town has had in recent years.

The Council had rejected a resolution to appoint Paul D. Molle as an insurance broker at the July 19 work session citing negative experiences with a previous broker that were deemed counterproductive.

The Council has also discussed self-insurance, paying on a claims basis, with minimum administrative costs to Blue Cross/Blue Shield, but officials said the method was too risky.

Send your daughter, and her essentials, off to school in style

Preparing for school can be a great way to spend "quality" time with your daughter. Whether she is going back to high school or getting ready for her first year in college, daughters look to their moms for help in finding the perfect essentials.

To make shopping a little easier for mom, following are suggested "must haves" for back-to-school:

For high school:

• Always a must for the first day of school — a new outfit. Since first impressions are always important in high school, buying a new outfit will bring a smile to any daughter's face.

• A new supply of makeup is key and, most important, something to keep it in. A Sassaby cosmetics organizer is perfect to store all her beauty accessories at home and will simplify her morning routine so she can get to school on time.

• A sturdy backpack with plenty of compartments for folders, pencils and paper is important. Sassaby's Compact Organizer, small enough for her to keep in her backpack, is ideal for holding a lipstick, keys and other personal items.

For college:

• To combat homesickness, put together a framed picture collage of all her friends and family to hang in her dorm room.

• Special keepsakes will cheer up your daughter during stressful times. Tuck away a pair of your favorite earrings, a personal letter and a bottle of expensive perfume in a Sassaby Soft Cosmetics Organizer. This organizer has extra-soft padding to care for valuable jewelry and personal items.

• Make your daughter's dorm room feel like home with new towels and bedding in her favorite patterns and colors. An alarm clock, answering machine (just in case she misses your calls) and a bulletin board add the finishing touches.

• Take your daughter shopping for all her bathroom essentials. Sassaby's Ultimate Organizer is perfect to store shampoo, soap, lotion, toothpaste and even a blowdryer — extremely handy especially if she has to go across the hall to the dorm bathroom.

• Personalized stationery, a pen and pencil set and an address book filled with family and friends' addresses will make it easy for your daughter to write home.

REMINISCENT of an earlier era, yet modern in style and design, the Sassaby Soft Cosmetics Organizer has padded interior compartments with specially designed pouches and zippered pockets to protect and store cosmetics, jewelry and other treasures. For information about where to purchase a Sassaby, call 1-800-468-SASS.

Network of active minds helps students to succeed

Michelle Presta is a math whiz, so she was happy to help Gabe Flippin with his algebra homework. Not unusual, right? But there is something unique about their studies: Michelle has never met Gabe, and they don't even live in the same city. They connected through an online network that links their computers by telephone.

Once the domain of computer hobbyists, online networks are becoming social and educational mainstays for teens and preteens, and are fast approaching the telephone in popularity. For example, the PRODIGY service, which is one of the largest online networks, estimates that there are more than 300,000 people 18 and under who use its bulletin boards and educational features.

Kids use online services for a lot more than math homework. Today you're as likely to see high schoolers from Texas discussing cheerleading routines with friends from Florida and Minnesota, or sharing last-minute training advice before a cross-country race in New England.

Online services also help kids grow up. They offer a way to get advice from peers about — for example — what college to go to, how to dress or how to approach the opposite sex. One advantage of communicating by computer is that it offers a degree of anonymity. Many students find it easier to ask their peers for advice about such problems as acne, being overweight or how to dress for popularity on a screen rather than face to face with their friends. And, of course, it's better than asking grownups.

Another reason kids find online services so fascinating is that they can talk to others from anywhere in the country. That's a real advantage for high-schoolers thinking about college. They can actually talk to students at the colleges they are interested in.

Their online questions and answers cover everything about college life: which courses and professors to seek out or avoid, whether it's better to live on campus or off and information about scholarships. Other questions address opportunities for minorities. There are also online bulletin boards for parents who want to ask the same questions, but who want answers from adults instead of kids.

The popularity of online communication is steadily growing as the price of computers continues to drop and as more kids and grownups learn that it's easy and fun to go online. You can get more information from the Information Industry Association in Washington, DC, or from the Prodigy service at 1-800-PRODIGY.

'79 Bucs stop S.Hall 14-13 in "game of decade"

Part Five in a Series

We continue this week on a series which celebrates the 15th anniversary of the 1979 Belleville Buccaneer football team.

The Bucs posted an 8-2 mark in '79 and earned Belleville's first post season football bid.

This week, we look back at games seven and eight of the season. Belleville was 5-1 entering the biggest game of the decade against powerful Seton Hall Prep. The Pirates also came in with a 5-1 mark and were stinging somewhat from a 7-0 defeat at the hands of Bergen Catholic the previous week. That loss, the disappointment of the Buccaneer players, ended the longest winning streak in the state. Belleville wanted a chance to play Seton Hall Prep with the streak still in tact.

Nonetheless, it promised to be a monumental battle. Seton Hall and its highly regarded football program against Belleville, whom the Pirates had beaten by a combined score of 91-6 the previous two seasons. Seton Hall's defense was so good that Belleville's only score in that lopsided tally came on a fumble recovery in the '78 battle. Could Belleville finally compete at the highest level? Read on.

The hype was steady and by Friday afternoon, the Belleville players were tired of talking. It was just 24 hours until kickoff and the Bucs were confident, but quiet, when it came to talking about the Pirates.

Not only did Belleville want to beat Seton Hall because of the prestige, it was also quite necessary because a playoff berth was on the line and a second loss would eliminate the Bucs from contention in Group IV, Section II.

An early morning rain storm was good enough to cancel the game a day, so the contest kicked off at the unusual time of 1 p.m. on Sunday afternoon. The change of venue also gave more fans from neighboring towns the chance to see this game, and needless to say, Municipal Stadium was packed.

Before the game, injured senior running back Mike Nicosia gave an emotional speech to his teammates in the lockerroom. While Nicosia couldn't play because of a knee injury, his presence was vital, especially to the younger players. Nicosia reminded everyone of the 63-0 pasting Seton Hall gave Belleville the last time the Pirates were in Belleville and reminded the seniors of all the hard work that went into setting up this moment.

Belleville's defense would not disappoint in the early going. They would face a dangerous offensive team, led by senior running back John Merklinger, a running back who was small in stature (5'8" tall), but a man with bulldozer strength and tremendous speed, especially in the open field.

The Bucs halted Seton Hall on three downs on the Pirates first possession, but Tony Verducci's team would strike first early in the second quarter. It was Merklinger who did the job, scoring from three yards out.

The Bucs answered on an Ed Aulisi to Jerry DiGori 31 yard touchdown pass later in the second quarter. Ralph DePasquale converted the all important point after attempt and the Bucs led 7-6.

Late in the first half, the Belleville defense, paced by Joe Garofolo, Rick Racioppi, Phil Cerza, Dan Amadeo and Frank Fazzini provided a key play, stopping Merklinger at the Belleville one on fourth down. The defensive series ended the half and the Bucs led 7-6.

Fazzini, who of course would go on to be one of the greatest athletes in BHS history, committed a key turnover late in the third quarter.

Then a sophomore, Fazzini fumbled a punt and Seton Hall recovered deep in Belleville territory. Three plays later, Merklinger scored for Seton Hall and the Bucs trailed 13-7.

Fazzini was devastated by his mistake, but his teammates quickly reminded him there was still plenty of time left in the game.

Instead of getting down, Fazzini proved to be a key player in the Bucs eventual comeback. He hit a 70 yard punt and later provided a 33 yard run on Belleville's eventual scoring drive.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Bucs drove deep into Seton Hall territory, thanks to great running from Lenny Mendola and Bob LaBruzza.

Belleville got to the Pirate six, where Aulisi finished the job with a TD strike to Mendola, who found a seam in the Pirate defense and was open in the end zone, directly in front of the goal post.

While the Belleville players went crazy, everyone quickly remembered that the point after attempt was still necessary. While the place went crazy, DePasquale, known as "The Bear" stayed relaxed. Seconds later, he kicked the PAT and the Bucs led 14-13.

On the ensuing kickoff, Gabe DeFabrizio grounded a kick that the Pirates could not handle. The Bucs were quick to converge and, ironically, Fazzini recovered the ball to clinch the victory.

It was a victory of monumental proportions for Belleville. By far, it was the victory of the decade for the Belleville football program, and it proved to all the followers of high school football that Belleville was indeed on the map.

The Bucs were 6-1 and needed to beat Clark the next week to clinch a playoff berth. It seemed an easy assignment, considering Clark was 2-5 heading into that game. The Bucs were big favorites, but Clark would not go down without a struggle.

Three times, the Union county school held leads in the game. Clark led, 7-0, 10-7 and 17-13 before the Buc running game finally took control. In fact, Clark held the 10-7 and 17-13 leads in the fourth quarter before the Bucs righted the ship.

The game was played in a steady rain at Municipal Stadium, but the rain didn't dampen the fans enthusiasm. It was also Homecoming Day, and I remember Aulisi, the Homecoming King in 1979, telling me as he walked off the field at halftime that "we're going to win, no

Nardachone, Powers, Nieman, Jaworowcz, Quine excel DeLanza pleased with Bruins

By Mike Lamberti

Commitment, as defined in Webster's unabridged dictionary, is the act of pledging or engaging oneself; also the state of being pledged or engaged.

In sports, commitment to a team means playing for a team from beginning to end, and not giving up on a team so that a person can go play for another team.

It was that type of summer for the Belleville Bruins in the Essex County Baseball League (ECBL), as certain Bruins who were on the opening day roster in May chose to take their talents to other teams in other leagues.

The result was a depleted group of Bruins, but to the credit of manager Joe DeLanza, the team, what was left of it, never stopped playing.

Belleville finished 15-19-1 this summer. The Bruins won five of their last seven games and missed out on the final ECBL playoff berth by one point. To make matters worst, the Bruins 40 game schedule was cut back to 35 games due to the steady rain that affected our area in late July and early August.

Had Belleville been able to play those remaining five games, they almost surely would have gained a playoff berth.

Nonetheless, DeLanza is optimistic about the future of the team.

"I really would like to thank the guys that stuck out the entire season and kept the team together. There were some tough times, especially in the middle of the season. We had a lot of guys playing out of position, and on many instances, there were just enough guys to field a team with no one on the bench.

"Offensively, it didn't hurt us as badly, but the lack of depth in the pitching area was a problem. But by using the players we had at different spots, we got some pleasant surprises."

DeLanza noted the fine pitching performances of Jason Nardachone, normally a second baseman, who also did well in left-field when called upon.

There was also good pitching from Rich Quine, the regular centerfielder who took the hill for a few games down the stretch and was very impressive.

"We made some roster changes with about three weeks left in the season," DeLanza said, "and the guys we picked up were great. We got back into the playoff hunt and I'm pretty sure we would have gained a berth had we been able to play our full allotment of games."

Belleville started the season impressively. Coming off a 27-18 mark in 1993 that included advancement to the ECBL semi finals, Belleville was a confident group when the '94 campaign started.

The Bruins were 9-6 after the first 15 games, but then things went down drastically. There was an embarrassing doubleheader sweep at the hands of the Crescent Yanks in June.

Then, a number of players bailed out, either to play for other teams in a different league, or a desire to just not play for Belleville.

A 9-6 mark turned into a 10-17 record, but to Belleville's credit, the team did not fold. They didn't forfeit a game and there was no dissension, despite some one sided defeats.

The low point of the season came in July when Verona, the defending ECBL champs, administered a 27-7 battering on the Bruins.

From that point on, Belleville went 5-2 and avenged the loss to Verona two weeks later with a 5-3 win at Montclair State College.

In that game, Nardachone hurled a complete game and the Belleville defense was solid.

"It was our best win of the season, no doubt," DeLanza said. "They were the best team in the league during the regular season and it was a big comeback for us."

The addition of Pete Malave as the starting catcher added stability to the pitching staff. Suddenly, Belleville began winning games, and if the team had made it to the playoffs, there's no telling how well they would have done in short play-off series with good pitching.

Travis Fryzowicz shows the form that provided him a one hitter in Bruins victory over Newark two weeks ago. The Bruins are hoping Fryzowicz will be a member of the Bruins in 1995.

Pigtail All-Stars split with Lyndhurst

The newly formed Girls Softball Commission continued their progress by entering a Pigtail League All-Star team into a two-game friendly series with an All-Star team from Lyndhurst.

The first game was played in Belleville and the home team emerged victorious, defeating Lyndhurst, 27-11. Christine Varacallo was the starting pitcher and she also provided some powerful offense with a triple and a double in that game.

Christina Kirwin also saw pitching time and pitched in with a couple of hits. Kristin Wilson was the third pitcher for Belleville and the three girls proved to be effective leaders both on the mound and with the bat.

Angie Cavallo patrolled the first base line and snagged two hot grounders that came her way. Janelle Romano and Gina Gamaro shared the hot corner at third base while Danielle Green and Katie Dunn shared time at second base. Gianna Lopreato and Colleen Spano platooned at short-fielder and Nicole Andreola and Dana Jusino shared the shortstop position.

Tiffany Bolivar and Gina Barbosa both saw action in the field and were key contributors at the plate, with each hitting the long ball. Perhaps the most unselfish player on the team was Shauna McGowan, who played the catcher's spot in both games. Shauna had been an outstanding pitcher for the Yankees during the season, but the team was loaded with pitchers and Shauna volunteered behind the plate. Shauna had two tag-outs at home, one thrown from Gianna Lopreato in short field, and one thrown by Dana Jusino in left.

The second game was much more competitive. The Lyndhurst team appeared much more confident on their home field. The Belleville girls rallied for four quick runs in the top of the first. Colleen Spano got things started with a quick single, followed by back-to-back hits from Christine Varacallo and Christina Kirwin.

Once in the field, Varacallo blanked Lyndhurst in the first, but Belleville had trouble scoring again in the second and third. Lyndhurst rallied for three runs in the third, and Belleville hung on to a one-run lead. In the fifth, Belleville scored three more runs and held on to a 7-4 lead with Lyndhurst coming to bat in the bottom of the seventh. Lyndhurst, confident on their home field, rallied for four runs and took the victory, 8-7.

Coached by Paul Varacallo, Vic Andreola, Joanne Cavallo, and Barry Sant'Angelo, these talented 10 and 11 year-olds gained valuable experience.

The coaches from both leagues also exchanged ideas about the structure and rules of the league. This game led to a 12 year-old All-Star match-up between Belleville and Lyndhurst as well as a friendly coaches team between the two towns. Updates on those games will follow.

13 year-old all stars compete in tourney

For the first time in the history of the Belleville Recreation Department, a girls' All-Star softball team was sent into tournament play.

A team of 13-14 year-olds was selected from the Junior League. Coaches Pat Cordasco, Rita Todd, and Tina Porcelli held try-outs based on the players selected by their respective coaches.

The girls entered a four-team tourney in Berkeley Heights and gained some valuable experience. In the first day of play, the girls were 1-1. They lost two games the second day, and then Watchung Hills defeated Berkeley Heights which allowed Belleville to play Watchung Hills again.

The winner advanced to the finals, and unfortunately, Belleville was outplayed. The key to this tournament was pitching. The lefty ace from Watchung Hills proved too formidable for even good hitters like Mary Ann Bravette, Dawn Mullen, and Jen Stone.

Starting on the mound for Belleville was Nicole Russell with Vincny Donatiello behind the plate. In the second game, Dawn Mullen came away with Belleville's only win in the tournament. Unfortunately, Vincny went down to injury and Dawn Mullen unselfishly volunteered to call the shots from behind the plate. Coach Cordasco could not praise Mullen enough for her valiant effort behind the plate. Dara Bocchino also pitched for this All-Star team.

First base was guarded by Lauren Rosenfeld. Lauren is a very talented and smart athlete who will look to make her mark at the high school next year, both as an athlete and a scholar. Angela Marino played second and made several good plays during the tournament.

Mary Anne Bravette captained the infield from shortstop. Unfortunately for Belleville, this outstanding athlete will not attend Belleville High, but will bring her talents to Lacordaire Academy. Third base was the hot spot for Jen Stone. She made some really nice plays and learned how to cover the bunt effectively.

Gina Sant'Angelo covered a lot of ground in shortfield. She also was very effective with the bat in this tournament. The outfield was shared by a number of players. India Bowers, who never played softball before, not only was a stellar outfielder for KFC during the season, but was a key contributor to this All-Star team. With a little more patience at the bat, India can make things happen. Melissa Porcelli, Nicole Cordasco, and Tina Porcelli provided a tight defense in the outfield.

Tina Porcelli was one of the most instrumental coaches in the league in guiding this Junior League to play by ASA rules and in bringing the girls forward in their level of play. Pat Cordasco was also very helpful and dedicated to the program. Rita Todd was the balance on this All-Star team and the girls and the league are very thankful to these three dedicated individuals for their time and effort.

Never before were Belleville girls playing recreation ball in August, but these three helped the program take giant steps in its effort to bring the Belleville program out of the dark ages!

League director needed

The Belleville Department of Recreation and Cultural Affairs is seeking one adult to serve as League Director for its Boys' Touch Football League.

The part-time position entails supervision of League games/personnel and re-scheduling rainouts. The League begins in early September.

Anyone interested would preferably reside in Belleville and must be available Saturdays and some Sundays. Qualified applicants must be sports-minded, responsible, and must work well with people.

This position would also be good experience for a college student majoring in recreation/physical education.

For further information, or to apply, please contact the Recreation Department at 450-3422.

Ramos, Landon pace Bruins

DeLanza said. "Our offensive statistics were excellent. We just couldn't get any consistency with our pitching."

But, as the season wound down, the pitching of Nardachone, Quine, Travis Fryzowicz, Rich Johnson, Frank Orrei and DeLanza, kept Belleville in games and gave the offense a chance to regroup.

Offensively, Scott Jaworowicz was outstanding, hitting .417. Mike Powers hit .352, Quine finished at .413, Jim Landon batted .323, DeLanza hit .340, Tom Nieman batted .332, Nardachone finished at .372 and Mario Ramos, a very consistent player at shortstop, was a solid .284 hitter at the plate and led the team in doubles.

Chris Cantarella joined the team in the late stages of the season and provided an immediate impact. Overall, it was a pretty good season for the team and DeLanza feels good about 1995.

"All of the players who played the entire season this year are welcome to come back next year," said DeLanza. "They are owed that after what they did for us this year."

"We'll have some new guys on the team, and with the nucleus we developed late this season, I think we'll be in good shape next year."

12 year-old All-Stars sweep Lyndhurst

In addition to a friendly series among the Pigtail League, the Junior League selected a 12 year-old All-Star team to compete against Lyndhurst. This talented group blew away the opposition in all three games.

The infield was patrolled by Christina DeMayo at first base, Jackie Fuchs at second, Danielle Smeraldo at shortstop, and Dana Lopreato at third. Christine Wengryn went the full distance from the mound in the first game.

The outfield was led by Alicia Zagami in left, Erminia Donatiello in center, Jennifer Constantino in shortfield, and Jessica Touw in right. Calling all the shots behind the plate was Anabel Rodriguez, a multi-talented athlete whose name you will hear repeatedly in the future.

Game one was played at Clearmont Field, with Belleville taking the victory by a wide margin, 23-7. Wengryn pitched the full game, and hitting stars included Jackie Fuchs, Anabel Rodriguez, and Danielle Smeraldo.

Game two was played in Lyndhurst, and the girls were very excited to play under the lights at the Little League Field. Lyndhurst appeared more confident on their home field, and Belleville squeaked by, 25-20.

Alicia Zagami had the hot bat in the contest, hitting a single, two doubles, and a triple. Ariel Peldunas was also a contributor to the team, playing both the outfield and pitching. Ariel hit the ball with consistency in the series. Lauren Maliszewski and Nicole Rosa also saw time in the outfield, and Rosa came in to relieve an extremely tired Christine Wengryn.

Game three was even more exciting for the Belleville youngsters. The Belleville Little League organization opened their field to the girls and the atmosphere was one of pride and excitement. Jessica Palumbo started on the mound and pitched three innings of shutout ball. Dana Lopreato and Jackie Fuchs each collected five walks, and scored each time.

Coaches Rich Fuchs, Ed Smeraldo, and Phil DeMayo had hoped to take this talented group into tournament play, but were unable to find the right venue for the girls. Coach Fuchs expressed his sincerest thanks to the Little League organization, especially Dennis Sheridan, Joe Marino, and Bruce Morgan for allowing the girls the opportunity to play at the complex. Pride certainly runs parallel with success!

Soccer coaches needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking persons interested in coaching its 7-14 year-old soccer league. The league is separated into several divisions according to specific age groups.

The children learn the basics of soccer and all those attending regular practices play in all games. Games are played on Saturday and Sunday afternoons beginning in late September.

All volunteer coaches will be required to attend a certification clinic by the NYSCA before the season begins.

Those interested in coaching may call the Recreation Department at 450-3422 weekdays before 4 p.m.

Playground Program in full swing

The Department of Recreation's Summer Playground Program is in full swing with various activities taking place at the five sites.

The beautiful weather lately has really been helpful in bringing out the children. At the Rec building, Charlie Giachetti and Donna Del Guercio are keeping the children very busy. Kickball is very popular as is Nok-hockey. The champions so far are: Emily Gencarelli, Avery Gabat, Dave Roselli and John Ciallrella.

The Friendly House enjoyed high attendance for the first two weeks. Games of choice are: ping-pong, wiffleball, and pool. The ping-pong tournament champion was Dave Vargas and the bumper pool champion was Mike Williams.

And speaking of pool, the swimming pool at the Friendly House is now open and the turnout has been fantastic. Chris Spina, the life-guard, had to divide the children into age groups to accommodate the huge demand.

At School #8 and the Stadium, the children have been busy with various tournaments such as ping-pong, Nok-hockey, kalah, and arts and crafts activities. Luigi DePinto, Chris Cantarella, and Karen Russo have had pizza and ice cream parties for the children. Both playgrounds are planning other parties and events in the future.

Charity Run proceeds donated

Essex County Prosecutor Clifford Minor has presented a check for $5,500 to the American Cancer Society, representing the proceeds of the 1994 Charity Run sponsored by the Prosecutor's Office.

Minor said the donation was primarily raised through the generosity of the 570 men, women and young people who participated as runners and/or contributors in the sixth annual Essex County Prosecutor's Office Charity Run, held June 4, at the Deer Paddock area of the South Mountain Reservation. Contributions by the participants, many of whom are members of the Prosecutor's Office, were enhanced by organizational gifts which included a gift of $1,500 from the Essex County Prosecutor's Office Detectives and Investigators Association and private corporate sponsors namely Tuscan Dairy, Village Supermarkets, Inc. and Peerless Beverage Company.

As he presented the check to William Saller, chairman of the board of the American Cancer Society, Essex County Unit, Minor said: "Speaking on behalf of the men and women of the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, their families and friends, it is with great pride that once again we make a substantial gift to the Cancer Society's fight against the terrible scourge that kills so many people and tears families apart with such sadness and economic impact."

Saller accepted the contribution and said: "The American Cancer Society is very appreciative of the efforts of all the individuals who were involved in the annual Essex County Prosecutor's Charity Run. This donation will help support our important programs of Research, Education and Patient Services."

First Assistant Prosecutor Peter Francese, who has been the "Charity Run" race chairman for each of the six annual races, said the overwhelming success of this charity event was due in large part to the willing and dedicated participation of all race committee members and volunteers who unselfishly gave of their time.

Finally, Francese stated that next year's event, the seventh annual 1995 Essex County Prosecutor's Office Charity Run, will be held on Saturday, June 3, 1995.

Essex County Prosecutor Clifford Minor, second from left, presents check for $5,500 to the American Cancer Society, representing the proceeds of the 1994 "Charity Run" sponsored by the Prosecutor's Office. Others from left are, Gerald Hannon, executive director, American Cancer Society, Essex Unit; William Saller, chairman of the board, American Cancer Society, Essex Unit, and Peter Francese, first assistant prosecutor and race chairman.

Symbol and Surprise

About Apples

It's apple-harvesting season ... time to enjoy apples fresh from the orchards.

Today, we buy beautiful, well-shaped apples in many stores and even by the side of the road.

It wasn't always that way. Many years ago, when most kids went to one-room schoolhouses, apples were real treats. It was hard to find perfect apples.

When they did find pretty apples, kids often presented them to their teachers.

There is an old song that goes ...

"An apple for the teacher will always do the trick When you don't know your lesson in arithmetic!"

Apples became a symbol of teaching. They also became a symbol of back-to-school. They are harvested in the fall. Be on the lookout!

An apple story with a surprise ending

Here's a fun story to read to your friends. You'll need an apple. Before you start, ask an adult to cut it in half, horizontally (across). Be certain that your apple has a stem. Ask the adult to put it back together. Do not peek inside. Keep it by your side as you tell the story or read it.

Once upon a time, there was a little star in the sky. This little star was not happy. It wanted to have a home with no windows and no doors and a little brown chimney.

The star came down to earth and went into the woods. It met a bear.

"Do you know where I can find a home with no windows, no doors, and a little brown chimney?" it asked.

Mr. Bear said, "No, but why don't you ask Mr. Fox?"

An apple has five seed pockets. An apple blossom also has five petals.

Look through your newspaper for signs that school starts soon. Do you see any apples in the ads?

So the star asked Mr. Fox. "Do you know where I can find a home with no windows, no doors, and a little brown chimney?"

Mr. Fox said no, but told the star to ask Mr. Owl.

So the star asked Mr. Owl. "Do you know where I can find a house with no windows, no doors, and a little brown chimney?"

Mr. Owl said, "Don't you know, little star, of the perfect place you are looking for?"

Now, separate the two halves of the apple. What do you see? Surprise! (The chimney is the stem.)

More About Apples

The unusual apple tree

Many plants have seeds that grow the same type of fruit. The apple tree is different. Each apple seed will grow a fruit that will taste and look somewhat different from the fruit of the parent plant.

To get the kind of fruit they want, farmers join a cutting, bud or twig from a tree bearing a fruit they like to another apple tree. This is called grafting or budding.

Cutting

Several types of apples can grow on the same tree. Tree

Apples grow only in areas where there are both warm and cold seasons. The seven leading apple-growing states are listed below.

Shade in the seven states.

Number of bushels grown in 1993:
Washington	119,000,000
Michigan	24,000,000
New York	21,000,000
California	20,000,000
Pennsylvania	14,000,000
Virginia	8,000,000
North Carolina	7,000,000

Total U.S. production: 253,000,000

There are about 42 pounds of apples in a bushel (about 126 medium-size apples).

Apple trees through the year

Fall harvest

Apples are handpicked.

Fall is the busy season for apple growers. They must pick the apples at just the right time, before the frost.

Some apples are shipped to market right away. Others are stored in big crates in specially air-conditioned rooms. They are stored at just the right temperature to keep them from spoiling.

THESE APPLES WERE PICKED IN OCTOBER!

Winter sleep

While the tree is asleep, or dormant, farmers must cut off the unwanted branches so the sun will shine in. This is called pruning.

Next week The Mini Page celebrates Labor Day with a story about careers.

Spring blossoming

Pink flower petals come out of the buds.

Bees carry pollen from flower to flower.

Tiny apples begin to form after the blossom petals fall.

Summer growing

Sunny days and rain help the small green apples grow big enough to eat.

Apple products

About half the apples grown in this country are eaten fresh. Unscramble these other uses of apples. Draw a line to the matching art.

Designing A Distinctive Kitchen

Great design starts with learning what makes a distinguishing kitchen. For example, these Meadow Oak II cabinets, with their clean lines, help give this kitchen an uncluttered, relaxed prairie style. Moreover, the addition of leaded, beveled glass cabinet doors create a beautiful focal point.

Decorating Border Posters Reflect Individual's Interest

A decorating project can be exciting. But at times, it can also be frustrating. Take walls for example.

When you were expecting your first child, you carefully selected and decorated the nursery with wallpaper. It featured teddy bears and your infant was fascinated. Later, you shared the pride as your child recited the alphabet that was depicted on the wallpaper border that ran around the room. But now that your child is older, what can you do to keep that room special?

Unlike a living room, kitchen, or family room, where the choices are almost limitless, this type of room presents a more difficult challenge. A space such as a child's bedroom, den, or home office, should be decorated in a way which reflects that individual's tastes and interests.

Individual's Interest

One manufacturer is offering some decorating alternatives for this type of room. Environmental Graphics, Inc., always an innovator in wall fashions, has a line of wallpaper borders called Border Posters™. As the name implies, these are not your ordinary borders.

Most borders on the market are printed on small printing presses which limit the design and require the pattern to be repeated every 3 to 6 inches. Environmental Graphics, on the other hand, uses a process called sheet-fed lithography to print their Border Poster line. It's a process which allows unlimited design freedom in terms of color, clarity, and scale. Border Posters™ extend up to 24 feet without a pattern repeat. This allows the designers at Environmental Graphics to carry through an en-

It's bad enough being unhappy with the kitchen you've got. It's worse being unhappy with the kitchen you've just remodeled.

Designing a distinctive kitchen requires planning. This applies to both the do-it-yourselfer and the person hiring someone else to do the work. Only the homeowner knows the problem elements of the old kitchen, so it stands to reason that the homeowner must be involved with the design process.

In order to make designing a kitchen easier, Merillat Industries offers the Kitchen Design & Planning Kit. This step-by-step guide covers all the components including cabinets, countertops, sinks, appliances, flooring, lighting and wall coverings.

"Remodeling a kitchen means more than just putting in new cabinets," explained Bill Ficken, Vice-President of Marketing For Merillat Industries. "Good kitchen design involves looking at the entire kitchen, and that is precisely what the Kitchen Design and Planning Kit helps homeowners to do."

The first step is to survey the kitchen to assess current needs and deficiencies. Once the scope of the project is decided, the budget needs to be determined. A good rule of thumb is to spend less than 20 percent of the home's value on the kitchen remodeling project, so as not to over improve the home compared to others in the marketplace.

In an effort to control costs, homeowners can choose ready-to-install cabinets.

"Creating a 'custom' kitchen designed to satisfy your personal lifestyle and taste does not necessarily mean you have to buy expensive custom cabinetry," says Paul Radoy, Manager of Design Services for Merillat. "Ready-to-install cabinets can be combined to produce a distinctive kitchen that is uniquely yours."

Going beyond deciding on the type of cabinets and where the refrigerator, sink and stove should go, good kitchen design requires concern for the overall look and feel of the kitchen. The Kitchen Design & Planning Kit addresses these aesthetics by drawing attention to the lines, shapes, colors, textures and patterns which make each kitchen unique.

In addition, this comprehensive kit includes templates and drawing tools for completing the kitchen layout.

Merillat Industries is the nation's largest manufacturer of cabinetry for the kitchen, bath and home. To order the Kitchen Design & Planning Kit, call 1 800 624 1250 ext. 4345, or send a check for $8.00 (payable to Merillat Industries) to Kitchen Design & Planning Kit, Dept. 4345, P.O. Box 1946, Adrian, MI 49221.

ing nearly 18 feet in a schematic blueprint style, it portrays 26 historic sailing ships spanning 2000 years. These authentic ships are beautifully detailed and include such famous vessels as the U.S.S. Constitution and the Mayflower.

"We recently received a letter from a gentleman in California whose hobby involves collecting everything he can about old ships," notes Madsen.

"He purchased our 'Sails of Time' Border Poster in a store that specializes in sailing paraphernalia. When he got home and laid it out, he found that one of the ships we show was one he had spent over 10 years looking for... Comments like that make the research we did all the more worthwhile!"

Dinos

"Dinos" is a recent addition to the Border Poster line. For most of us, it took a popular motion picture to bring dinosaurs back from extinction. Not so, for kids.

"Thanks to Hollywood, dinosaurs are 'hot' right now. But really, they've always appealed to children. Especially after they've studied them in school," explains Madsen. "They're not a fad like so many things in our kids' culture."

"Dinos" realistically depicts, complete with scientific designations, the 80 major species of dinosaurs. They are shown in a single scale that allows for size comparisons.

"They're a great room accent for any child who enjoys science and nature," notes Madsen.

"Sails of Time" and "Dinos" are just two of the designs that make up the dynamic Border Poster line. Ranging in length from 12 to 24 feet, they come packaged in 4-foot sections for easy application. They are pre-trimmed, pre-pasted, washable and strippable. Other themes include music, jet aircraft, and wildlife. Their newest design features flags from 25 countries and could be used to complement the giant, 8' by 13', "World Map" mural, also produced by Environmental Graphics.

Wallpaper borders are an easy and inexpensive way to add interest to walls. If you want something beyond the ordinary when decorating that special room, take a look at Border Posters from Environmental Graphics.

For more information on the current line of Border Posters, or the location of your nearest dealer, contact: Environmental Graphics, 11571 K-Tel Drive, Minnetonka, MN 55343. Or call 800 328 3869.
