Council supports sex offender registry law

By Richard Dickon

Reacting to the recent slayings of two young girls in suburban New Jersey towns, the Township Council has pledged support for legislation requiring convicted sex offenders to register their residency with the Police Department.

The Council has unanimously approved a resolution that "requires persons convicted of sexual offenses against children to be required to register upon obtaining permanent residence... and that registry made available to the public."

A Township ordinance may enact requiring registry, according to Deputy Mayor Thomas Spillane. A letter was received from former Deputy Mayor Mario Drodz requesting action on the matter.

The resolution mentions the murders in Manalapan and Hamilton as "underscoring the imminent danger to children... from violent offenders who prey upon children."

In both those instances, a previously convicted sex offender has been charged, and neighbors said they were unaware that the convicted offenders had been living on their streets.

"Persons convicted of sexual assault upon children are, in the opinion of many, incapable of being cured and are in any event high risks for recidivism" the resolution states, adding that "It is necessary and vital to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the Township's children."

Bloomfield has passed an ordinance that requires those guilty of sex offenses against children under age 18 to supply the police with their names, addresses, Social Security and driver's license numbers, information about motor vehicles in his or her possession, and information regarding the offenses.

The information is to be kept in a registry at police headquarters, and a copy would be sent to the Board of Education. The information would be available to residents upon request. Maximum penalty for failing to register is $5,000.

Local doctors tutor students to deal with stress, anxiety

By Richard Dickon

Dr. Lori Ippolito, the 1994 Belleville/Nutley Columbus Day Parade Grand Marshal, has co-founded the Philmore Associates, a leading tutoring and counseling center, with her husband, Dr. Michael Ippolito.

Lori, a lifelong Belleville resident, has maintained strong community ties through a personal and professional commitment to the Township through community sponsorship, in addition to her tutoring and counseling.

Michael said "We have developed a successful tutoring concept, for students dealing with stress and anxiety."

A key, according to Lori, is "working one-on-one. I supervise

CONGRESSMAN SALUTES GRAND MARSHAL - Congressman Herb Klein (D-NJ8) offers congratulations to Columbus Day Parade Grand Marshal Dr. Lori Ippolito and her husband, Dr. Michael Ippolito. The Ippolitos co-founded Philmore Associates, a leading tutoring and counseling center, while Klein successfully passed a House resolution designating Belleville Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

U.S. Congress names Belleville Industrial Revolution birthplace

By Richard Dickon

Belleville is the birth of the American Industrial Revolution.

Congressman Herb Klein's cosponsored bill, House Concurrent Resolution 35 to "Commemorate the Birth of the American Revolution" unanimously passed on Oct. 7.

As Klein and historian Lou Cicienia have championed, many key events in the Industrial Revolution directly involved Third River, now known as Belleville.

Josiah Hornblower, an engineer, assembled the Western Hemisphere's first functioning steam engine in Belleville in 1753. His designs led to the first steam engines being manufactured at a Belleville foundry. Hornblower is remembered with a Belleville street named for him.

Hornblower's achievement brought other scientists, engineers and entrepreneurs of the day to Belleville. Samuel Morse's first Morse Code message travelled on copper wire made in the Township.

Also, George Eastman, founder of Eastman Kodak, developed his first photographic plate here.

Famous New Jersey inventor Thomas Edison created the voltaic battery in Belleville.

Historians generally agree that the invention of the steam engine ushered in the beginning of America's industrialized economy. Klein wrote in a letter persuading his colleagues in Washington, D.C., about "these momentous occurrences and the many other significant events... in the distinct history of Belleville."

The invention of the steam engine, Klein said, "was the spark that ignited the American Revolution."

"This is wonderful news for Belleville," Klein said, "For too long, Belleville, a town which has significantly contributed to our nation's history, has not received the recognition it deserves. This legislation will finally give Belleville the appropriate national recognition it deserves." (An open letter from Klein appears on page 4.)

The Township Council was preparing to commemorate the historical designation at press time.

Applying for Green Acres funding...

Recreational planners judging stadium needs

By Richard Dickon

Councilman Jerry Digori announced that officials are walking Municipal Stadium with two recreational planners while he and other council members are preparing an application for state Green Acres funding.

The recreational planners are being asked to suggest plans for long-term renovation of the sub-standard stadium facilities, while the Green Acres low-interest loans and grants would fund any major renovations.

Digori was to report on the Green Acres application at the Oct. 11 public council meeting. The deadline for submitting an application is Oct. 31.

Digori and others walked the stadium on Oct. 6 with a recreational planner who helped design the sports facilities at William Paterson College. A second planner, who designed West Orange's sports facilities, was to walk the stadium this week.

"We walked the site, and (the planner) liked the project, and saw lots of possibilities," Digori said, "This will not be restrictive. We have told the planners 'We need ideas from you.'"

Digori and the Council Committee on stadium renovations met with the School Board's Buildings and Grounds Committee and "We kicked around ideas. The lines of communication have been opened. We're in the very early stages, but this is the first time the lines of communication have been open for all four groups."

As for the Green Acres application, Digori said the Township needs only to supply "very basic plans. We're not locked into anything long-term."

Department of Public Works Director Charles Cerami and the Township Council have decided to perform necessary maintenance while long-term renovation plans are completed.

Council members have instructed Cerami to repair immediate problems, such as scraping, possibly sand blasting and then painting the three exterior stadium walls, interior restrooms and the concession stands, repairing broken windows, and paving both the Norton Street access area and the tennis courts.

The Council has agreed that such temporary repairs were necessary since any state Green Acres funding was at least 18 months away.

Digori, Canning, School Board Vice President Barbara Cicalese, Board members Ralph Mazzuca and John Notari and school administration officials have walked the stadium facilities and discussed long-term renovations.

Digori has repeatedly said ideas that spending any significant money might be a waste of time if the entire stadium is redone.

Mayor Jim Messina has opposed Digori's call for drastic changes to the overall stadium complex that Digori said are needed, with a recreational planner and state Green Acres officials as part of a total redevelopment of the facility.

The Mayor said he favors following the detailed architectural drawings of local architect Jim London, that call for repairing the existing facilities in phases.

Officials have suggested that the new DPW director be told to provide a maintenance plan, to be

MARCHES ON - The Belleville Alliance for Substance Education (B.A.S.E.) was recently honored as one of 17 communities nationwide to host leaders from other communities as a model program. ## B.A.S.E. honored as a national leader in substance education

By Richard Dickon

The Belleville Alliance for Substance Education (B.A.S.E.) has been chosen by Join Together, a national group helping communities fight substance abuse, to host leaders from similar communities as a model substance education program.

Belleville was selected for their exemplary work from more than 100 applicants nationwide, and B.A.S.E. will host a series of exchange events next March to help other communities build on their effectiveness in preventing and reducing the harm from substance abuse. The exchanges are designed to expand the long-term participation of their local businesses, schools, parents, police, churches and the media in communities' anti-drug strategies.

B.A.S.E. brings together D.A.R.E., C.H.A.S.E. and every business, church and other organization concerned with the welfare of Belleville's youth, according to officials.

Councilman Bill Cook, an avid B.A.S.E. supporter, said "This is a great honor for everyone involved in this important program."

Barbara Cicalese, school board vice president and B.A.S.E. chairperson, said "It's hard to believe how much we have accomplished. Although we're proud, we know the real winners are the citizens of Belleville, who now have an alliance supporting their efforts to live in a drug-free community."

"Parents have a place to turn when they have questions about raising drug-free kids; kids have a place to turn when they're faced with negative peer pressure; senior citizens can learn about what's right and wrong when taking medication," Cicalese said, "The township now has a highly visible, dependable support resource for the battle against substance abuse. We are making a difference."

Even with these honors, Cicalese said B.A.S.E. is "a work in progress" and the alliance plans to push forward.

"The communities participating in these Exchanges are being recognized for their outstanding achievements in mobilizing their local leaders to get involved in solutions to the harms that illicit drugs, excessive alcohol and tobacco use impose on our communities," said David L. Rosenbloom, the director of Join Together, which is funded by a grant from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to the Boston University School of Public Health.

B.A.S.E.'s concept, since its inception in 1988, has been to provide a drug-free community to everyone, from pre-school children to senior citizens.

Bradley Tire suit denied; clears way for CVS mall

By Richard Dickon

Bradley Tire Service's suit against the developer of the CVS strip mall, proposed for the former Mead Ford automobile dealership on Washington Avenue has been denied, and plans for the mall are moving forward.

Bradley Tire had sue over access to the tire company from an adjacent lot that would be part of the new mall.

Emil W. Nardachone, attorney for Bradley Tire, said "The court determined that Bradley had no claim for adverse usage, so the order staying control of the property has been lifted."

The suit asked that George H. Mead, the previous owner, and Belleville Rose should be compelled to convey title to the property by adverse usage, because the owner had not claimed title to a property for 20 years. The claim said that under state statute the property belongs to whoever has been using it, in this case Bradley Tire, Nardachone had said.

Bradley had uninterrupted use, as well as the maintenance and cleaning, of the property at 521 Washington Avenue for 20 years, Nardachone said.

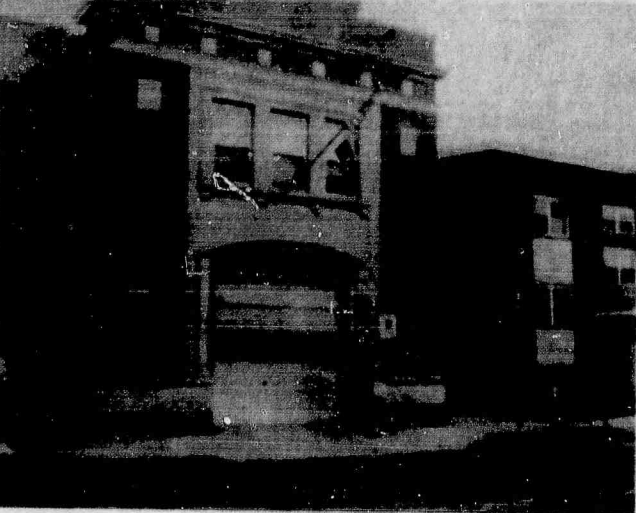

The CVS mall plans were approved in late May, after the developer agreed to include parking islands landscaped with shrubbery called for by then-mayor Marina Perna, who said the mall would not be aesthetically pleasing without the changes.

The Planning Board granted variances for the number of parking spaces allowed, 62, as well as allowing the spaces to be slightly smaller than normally required.

A right turn only is to be allowed as an egress onto Little Street while stores can be open only from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., while truck delivery times were also limited.

ited as part of the conditions of approval.

Also, waste receptacles have to be placed where odor and garbage will not bother patrons.

The planning board approved a Taco Bell restaurant for old Chevrolet dealership across the street in a separate action last February.

The CVS mall would have a bank and smaller boutique-type shops.

The site plan calls for the existing building on the right to be expanded and renovated, while the existing building on the left will be renovated and a new building constructed in the middle, with all three facing the street.

Allowing parking in front allowed for seven more parking spaces, while the state Department of Transportation required front parking for technical reasons.

The Places We Used to Go

Where are the boys whom I used to know?
With whom I walked with on summer nights.
Boys whom I dated and used to go
Dancing at parties with dimming lights.

Children they were when they'd their kites
Baseball and football and all the games.
Kicking and punching their way through fights
Now I've forgotten most of their names.
Faces are blurry and far away.
Places we went to they still are here.
Holding the echoes of days so gay.
Filling with the hollows of laughs and cheer.

Far from this country they bleed and die.
Fighting a people they cannot know,
Trying to figure out how and why,
They out of so many just had to go.

Shoot for them straight, O you deadly guns,
Save them from dying so far away.
Bring home the fathers and all the sons.
Keep them alive till their returning day.

On Sept. 24, the Belleville Senior Citizen Social Club held their annual Banjo Nite Party. At this party the seniors had for their dancing and listening pleasure Poppy's Banjo Band. This band consists of eight banjo players and one accordion player. The music they played was the most enjoyable I have heard in quite some time. They played a variety of tunes that made everyone happy - line dances, waltzes, jitterbug, peabody, you name it, they played it. It was a very enjoyable evening.

Chairlady Betty Barr and co-chairladies Maria Troiano and Teresa Leonardis and all the volunteers that helped should be proud of the results of their planning. Very well done!

Belleville filmmaker screening documentary about breast cancer

By Richard Dickon

Joanne Santiglia, a Belleville resident, will introduce her documentary, "Silent No Longer" at the Seton Hall University on Thursday, Oct. 20, to mark National Breast Cancer Month. The program is free to the public and will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the faculty lounge of the Bishop Dougherty Student Center on the South Orange campus.

Santiglia will be on hand to answer questions about the film. The documentary follows a group of New Jersey breast cancer survivors to a national protest rally in Washington, D.C. where they called for breast cancer to be declared an epidemic.

The half-hour film was aired on Channel 13, WNEW-TV, and New Jersey Network, and was nominated for a 1993 New York Emmy Award in the category of outstanding coverage of societal concerns. It received a 1993 Cable Award for Programming Excellence (CAPE) from Cable Television Network of New Jersey.

Santiglia anchors the Channel 10 News of Vision Cable in Bergen County. She received several CAPE awards for her work as moderator of the public affairs show "Women's Issues," which has aired on both the New Jersey Network and the Cable Television Network of New Jersey.

Santiglia graduated magna cum laude from Seton Hall with a B.A. in communication. She began her journalism career at WSOU-FM, Seton Hall's radio station. She was selected as a 1991 "Pioneer Woman of the '90s" by Bergen County Executive William "Pat" Schuber for her coverage of women in the state.

Santiglia wrote and narrated, as well as produced, "Silent No Longer." Her most recent documentary, "Diagnosis Cancer, What Next?" aired on the New Jersey Network in August.

The early detection of breast cancer and breast self-examination will be discussed at the program by a representative of Corporate Dimensions Inc. of West Orange. The company is a portable, medical diagnostic service specializing in mammography screenings for business and industry.

Concerned Citizen group meeting

The Concerned Citizens of Belleville will hold a general membership meeting on Thursday, Oct. 13, at the Elks Club, 254 Washington Ave. at 8 p.m.

All members are urged to attend this very important meeting. New members are welcome and invited to join the organization.

Members who cannot attend the meeting may send their 1993 dues of $2 per member to CCB, P.O. Box 353, Belleville, N.J. 07109. Refreshments will be served.

ARTISTS HAVE THEIR DAY - The School Three kindergarten classes of Mrs. Mary Ann Bush and Ms. Karen Kirk were treated to a display of art work by two parents of a kindergarten student. Mr. Fen Chen and Mrs. Sabrina Chen, parents of Teresa, are accomplished artists in print-making and oil painting. Mr. and Mrs. Chen requested an opportunity to share information about their endeavors with the youngsters in the kindergarten class. Mrs. Raffaella Saulino, Principal, granted the permission with great enthusiasm. The lesson was coordinated by Mrs. Driskill, Art Teacher at School Three; the parents brought in various works of art to show the students in an effort to share the print-making concept. All the children enjoyed the presentation, according to school officials.

Summer workshops attended by middle school teachers

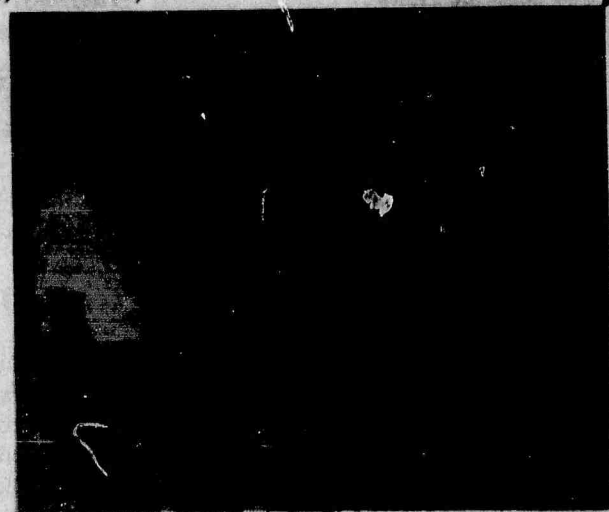

Several teachers of Belleville Middle School took advantage of professional programs to improve their expertise.

Edwin C. Black, a music teacher, recently became president of the American String Teachers' Association; New Jersey Chapter. Black also attended the week long course of Rowan College this August. The conference was attended by 400 students in grades seven through twelve, members of three student orchestras, and one also of adult orchestra.

Martha Schoene completed a workshop on the Coral Reef hosted by Jenkinson's Aquarium in Point Pleasant. The classes covered the setting up of a saltwater aquarium; collecting living samples; and how to reproduce hard and soft corals.

Classes met for Saturdays in August. "I gained how complex it is to stimulate and maintain a tropical environment at home," stated Schoene.

Three Middle School teachers attended the Teacher Outreach Program sponsored by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship at William Paterson College. Eileen Albrecht, a reading teacher, Miriam Chesner, school librarian, and Barbara Spillane, Social Studies teacher participated in the 1994 United States History Institute this July. The course stressed non-traditional ways of presenting multicultural topics to students. Later in the year, these teachers will present a workshop for interested staff members.

The primary source of funds for the alliance has been the Municipal Alliance Grant. Since 1991, the alliance has received at least $80,000 annually for programs such as the continuation of the CHASE center, Graduation Celebration, support for the DARE program and increasing overall community awareness. New programs include helping businesses establish drug-free workplaces and the development of B.A.S.E. puppet theatre.

Fundraising is done through a community softball tournament, a 50/50 raffle, a flea market, a township-wide picnic and a Fall Educational Journal/Ad Book.

For the future, B.A.S.E. looks to reach every household in town with information about substance abuse and the availability of resources and options; provide on-going substance education to every school student; maintain cooperative relationships with community resources and treatment centers; continue its role as a support system and secure increased funding from external grants and foundations to expand programs.

National substance abuse fight calls Belleville its home-‘B.A.S.E.’

The Belleville Alliance for Substance Education (B.A.S.E.) is a model program, and now they have had a national organization officially recognize that. Joining such large, metropolitan areas as Milwaukee, Wisconsin and New Orleans, Louisiana, B.A.S.E. is one of 17 communities nationwide that have been chosen as 1994-95 Community Exchange sites put together by Join Together, a national group helping communities fight substance abuse.

Belleville was selected for their exemplary work from more than 100 applicants nationwide, and B.A.S.E. will host a series of exchange events next March with visiting community leaders from similar areas around the nation to build on their effectiveness in preventing and reducing the harm from substance abuse. The exchanges are designed to expand the long-term participation of their local businesses, schools, parents, police, churches and the media in communities' anti-drug strategies.

With many older residents considering leaving Belleville because of high property tax bills and a general dissatisfaction with the way things are run here, this honor should serve as a reminder that not everything in town emanates from Town Hall or the Board of Education to drain their tax dollars. B.A.S.E. is a success because it brings together D.A.R.E., C.H.A.S.E. and every business, church and other organization concerned with the welfare of Belleville's youth.

The Council, the School Board and Board of Education and all governing bodies in town should take a lesson from B.A.S.E.'s success. Cooperation and inclusion breed success, and all who contribute their time, talent and finances to the group should be proud of their accomplishments.

Council support of sex offender registry law is quick and correct

The Council has made an important gesture, pledging support for legislation that requires convicted sex offenders to register their residency with the Police Department, and possibly passing a municipal ordinance before the state hands down a statute.

In the recent slayings of two young girls in suburban New Jersey towns, a previously convicted sex offender has been charged, and neighbors said they were unaware that the convicted offenders had been living on their streets.

Officials of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) may find fault with the practice of registering those convicted of sex offenses against children under 18, and allowing that information to be available to the public. However, a greater risk than the violation of civil rights takes precedence in this case.

Children under the age of 18 cannot be expected to be developmentally, emotionally or otherwise mature enough to legally consent to sexual behavior. The physical and emotional scars left on such innocent victims can be devastating.

The positive gains that can be made in protecting our youth outweigh the invasion of pride and potential public shame inflicted on convicted sex offenders. The statistics about repeat offenses are overwhelming, as the grieving families in Manalapan and Hamilton Townships can attest.

Those offenders who have served their time and are rehabilitated have little to fear. Families who unknowingly are endangered by the potential of convicted sex offenders' high risks for recidivism have much more to lose.

Whether the state mandates registry by statute or the Council passes their own ordinance, the decision is sound. America was built on the Bill of Rights, but protecting our children from harm would have been championed by our founding fathers.

Balancing the safety of America's youth with the sanctity of our Civil Rights is a dangerous and murky proposition, but in this limited and specific instance such a change must be supported. The Council, and former Deputy Mayor Mario Drozd, all deserve credit for swiftly and decisively acting on behalf of parents and families in Belleville.

Klein keeps his promise to bring historical recognition to Belleville

Congressman Herb Klein is directly responsible for the U.S. House of Representatives' unanimous passage of Resolution 35 to "Commemorate the Birth of the American Revolution" in Belleville.

For the past several years, Klein has trumpeted the accomplishments of Josiah Hornblower, for making Belleville the place where steam engine was born, as well as the accomplishments of Samuel Morse, George Eastman and Thomas Edison that are directly linked to the Township.

As Belleville's governing bodies attempt to move forward and improve the quality of life for residents, the rich historical heritage that Klein has gained recognition for in town serves as an impetus for future scientists, inventors and entrepreneurs such as H-Power Corp. and the Garden State Cancer Center. H-Corp. is developing clean-air fuel cell technology and the Garden State Cancer Center continues to develop breakthrough technologies and modalities to fight the scourge of cancer.

Klein had an important role in each of those companies thriving in Belleville, as well. Belleville's Congressman continues to work to bring recognition of the past and technologies of the future to the Township.

Education is the way up

To the editor:

New Jersey's "Education Senator," the late Matthew Feldman wrote, "there is no greater investment in the future than to provide quality public education for each child, regardless of family or community income." That statement sums up this country's unique philosophy toward education. We have always regarded the provision of an education as the basic responsibility of government and the right of every citizen. We have embraced the idea that to provide educational opportunity - regardless of income or social standing - is to ensure a more promising future for all.

Despite the best efforts of several administrations, legislatures, and the courts, New Jersey has not been successful in providing a quality education to all our children. The approach has been to disperse state aid in such a way as to equalize spending per pupil across districts. We have found, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that equal spending will not guarantee an equal outcome.

Frankly, we disagree with the court's ruling that a constitutional education can only be achieved if every school district spends the same amount as every other district. The educational logic of this is dangerous and nonsensical, to wit: Because Princeton spends more than Paterson, students in Paterson are deprived of a quality education.

We think the Governor and Legislature should seek a solution which guarantees a minimally acceptable education for every New Jersey student and which defines the guarantee both in terms of inputs, like safe, clean facilities and teacher/pupil ratios along with performance criteria such as academic achievement.

Our goal, for every child, should be an education that will leave him or her, first and foremost, with a certain level of academic proficiency, certain attitudes and skills that are essential to achieving success in school and in life, and with a life-long desire to learn.

We do not refer to religious or moral values, but to attributes such as personal integrity, a strong work ethic, a healthy respect for persons and property, and a dedication to community, - all of which contribute to the creation of a responsible, productive citizen.

We have learned that there are essential components that are common to successful schools. They include safe, clean, and well-kept building; classrooms with up-to-date books and computers; a challenging and relevant curriculum; fully equipped science labs; educated, dedicated teachers; reasonable student/teacher ratios; and leadership at the school building level where the majority of resources are devoted to educational pursuits, not to overhead.

When additional dollars are used to create opportunities for the central office staff and administrators or to support cost of living raises and benefit packages for teachers that far outstrip those awarded in the private sector instead of for programmatic enhancement, students derive no benefit. Successful schools invest dollars in the essential inputs listed above which guarantee improved academic results.

Many of the State's schools provide all these essentials to their students and the results are extremely positive, including high attendance and graduation rates, improved test result, and a large percentage of students prepared to enter college or the workforce. These results are often unrelated to the amount of state aid a district received. Experience has demonstrated that there is no consistent correlation between the amount of money spent and the resulting educational outcome. What is going on in those districts that spend above average dollars per pupil but are unable to raise their student performance standards?

We must require specific investments be made which will guarantee positive results. These schools need an infusion of capital to improve their facilities, to buy the materials needed to support updated curriculum, to finance before and after school programs, and to entice excellent teachers and management personnel into working in a difficult district.

A school financing formula that requires investment in specific programmatic improvements, the result of which can be measured quantitatively, will ensure accountability. Taxpayers deserve proof that our money is not being squandered. We have to monitor the progress of each of these schools and demand immediate positive steps be undertaken and successfully completed. We can no longer afford to let semesters, or years, or decades pass us by. We have already failed several generations of students by being patient with inefficient, unresponsive, irresponsible school officials who, obviously, have not had the best interests of students at heart.

The belief that education is the way up - the way to a better life - has always been embraced in this country of immigrants. That is how so many of us, our parents and our grandparents were able to buy a piece of the American dream. That we should fail to offer that avenue to all our children, especially to our neediest children, should be anathema to us all.

• IT'S never too late to comment on a storied sports career - especially when it involves a star like Phil Rizzuto who played on eight Yankee championship clubs and was MVP of the American League in 1950. For whatever reason, it took him 33 years before voted into the Baseball Hall of Fame. Rizzuto, as decent a fellow as you would ever want to meet, never lost the common touch. I have met the Scooter a number of times and shared dinner a few times. I have found him to be a man of humility and nobility.

• LAWYERS for the Lyndhurst School Superintendent plan to seek dismissal of charges that officials lied on budget documents in 1992 to secure $1.5 Million in state aid. The matter is expected to be argued before the Superior Court on November 18th.

Surprisingly, the officials were not charged by the federal government with mail fraud.

• THE October 1st issue of the Bottom Line publication tells us a lot about some of the people we deal with. The cover subject was "Boors". Dr. Martin Groder, the author, states that boors are people who behave in ways that break the rules of civilized behavior. They are seldom dangerous but are frequently infuriating. There are three types of boors. One - people who do not intend to be rude and would be shocked to learn they offended you. Two - boors who don't set out to offend you but they do. Three - Boors who deliberately set out to bother or harass. Dr.

Groder observes "that these are psychologically troubled people". There are social boors who are verbally aggressive. Our Bloomfield readers probably would be able to fit this description to one person who has a prominence in the community. Guess who?

• FOR more creativity, it is suggested that we read widely. One cannot think on an empty mind. And we're also coached not to censor our ideas; and equally, one is obliged to put ideas into action. Otherwise, your boast of being an idea person is just an empty slogan.

• IT angers me to receive invitations from campaign chairmen of candidates inviting me to attend a fundraiser and then for an extra few thousand dollars, I'm permitted to have a photo opportunity with the principal speaker. The invitation for a photo-opportunity with President Clinton or United States Senator Dole who wants to replace Clinton at a cost of $5,000 or more is insulting. There are more voters at the $10 or $50 level than there are at the $5,000 level. If the sponsors of such events are smart, they will try to broaden the base to include the average voter and not the guy or girl with the bucks. My invitation is going in the round file.

• BELLEVILLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is holding its 30th annual dinner dance Saturday, November 19th at the Branch Brook Manor in Belleville honoring Belleville teachers who were recently recognized by the Governor's Convocation on Excellence in Teaching at Princeton University. The tab is $65 per person and the event is worthy of support.

• MANY senior citizens have one thing in common - decreased income and higher real estate taxes. One senior citizen we know has an annual reduced income of $12,000 less state and federal taxes and she's asked to pay $6,000 in real estate. There is something wrong with the government when this condition is permitted to exist.

I have a recommendation. If a senior citizen was earning say, $30,000 a year during her or his economically productive years and real estate taxes were $3,000 or 10% of the gross income, I suggest the same ratio should apply when a person retires. In the above case, the senior citizen earning $12,000 should not pay more than $1,200 in real estate taxes. If the actual tax levy is $6,000, the difference should be made up by the state. If our lawmakers claim to have a social conscience, then this wrong should be righted. A senior citizen who has lived in Nutley, Belleville or Bloomfield for 25 years or more should not be asked during her or his decreased economic status to gather up her or his belongings, leave lifetime roots behind and be uprooted to a community miles away from home just because the real estate tax is too great a burden.

As a matter of act, a good share of the real estate tax is needed to raise funds for education. Legislators with a conscience living in the real world should study alternative methods of raising money for education. I would start with the possibility of raising the sales tax a penny or two - eliminating the sales tax on the day-to-day necessities. There may be better ideas out there; and if there are, the people should come forward and offer suggestions to our lawmakers.

From 'Birthplace of the Industrial Revolution,' to leading the fight against substance abuse...

That's All in Belleville

By Richard Dickon

For any non-believers out there who still don't believe that it is 'All in Belleville,' I offer you proof that it was all in Belleville -- the birth of the American Industrial Revolution that is.

Congressman Herb Klein's persistence paid off this week as the U.S. House of Representatives unanimously passed Resolution 35 to "Commemorate the Birth of the American Revolution" right here in Belleville. For those skeptical of this designation, consider these examples:

Belleville Native son Josiah Hornblower, an engineer, assembled the Western Hemisphere's first functioning steam engine in Belleville in 1753, leading directly to the first steam engines, manufactured at a Belleville foundry. Hornblower's achievement brought scientists, engineers and entrepreneurs to Belleville, including Samuel Morse's first Morse Code message, which travelled on copper wire made here; George Eastman, founder of Eastman Kodak, developed his first photographic plate here; and Thomas Edison, who created the voltaic battery.

Historians generally agree that the invention of the steam engine ushered in the beginning of America's industrialized economy. As Klein himself wrote in persuading his colleagues in Washington, D.C., these events were the sparks that ignited the Industrial Revolution.

In 1994, these 'sparks' should ignite pride in their town for current Bellevillites. Whether or not you or your family has lived here for generations, or if you are a recent addition to the Township, spread the word. The American Industrial Revolution's began on your streets!

While the past should be a source of great pride, the present and future are looking much brighter for Belleville's youth, thanks to the efforts of all the people and organizations that fall under the umbrella of the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education (B.A.S.E.).

As one of 17 communities chosen nationwide, out of more than 100 applicants, B.A.S.E. has been chosen by the national group Join Together to serve as a model for other communities fighting substance abuse.

B.A.S.E. was selected for exemplary work, and will host other town leaders from similar areas across America, sharing their knowledge in an effort to increase their successes in preventing and reducing the harm that comes when youths abuse alcohol or drugs. B.A.S.E. continues to expand the participation of all parts of the community, from businesses and schools to parents, police, churches and the media in spreading the anti-drug and alcohol message.

In the six months or so that I have been in Belleville, B.A.S.E., D.A.R.E., C.H.A.S.E. and other groups have been seen throughout the Township, and the fruits of their efforts are equally visible among the town's young people.

This honor can only help spread B.A.S.E.'s 'base' of operations further. Raising a family in 1994 is difficult, and thanks to the efforts of Belleville's concerned volunteers, young men and women have places to go and things to do as alternatives to experimenting with, and abusing, drugs and alcohol.

So spread the word and be proud. Whether its 1794 or 1994, Belleville is taking the lead in the most important issues of the day.

If you know of someone, or are yourself responsible for some of the many small but important good deeds done everyday and worthy of recognition in this town, let me know, because, as the this column states,, when it comes to good people, doing good things, "That's All in Belleville."

POLICE HIT LINKS FOR GOLF OUTING - The Belleville P.B.A. held its annual Golf Outing at Great Gorge Country Club in McAfee, N.J. on Sept. 13. The event, which raises funds for the Belleville P.B.A. Sick and Relief Fund, turned out to be an enjoyable day for all who attended. A buffet reception was held later that day at the Chandelier Restaurant. Pictured above out on the links at Great Gorge are P.B.A. President Mark Minichini (left) and Vice President James Giuliano. Below, Lou Pallante of the Belleville Baseball Commission, presents Minichini with a plaque, in appreciation of the Belleville P.B.A. for its continued support. Standing to the left is Giuliano. The plaque was presented at the Chandelier reception.

Life in Silver Lake

Before I write another word, I have to correct last week's article. You heard me right ... I made a mistake ... I thought I would never admit it but I made an error. Ouch, I said it error ... Remember the story about the clothesline, well I got most of it right except for the fact that I had the wrong John. It was not John (T) Pico, it was John Delli Santi of Heckel Street, who so graciously gave Mike Diglia the clothesline. I had to set the record straight, guys. By the way John Delli Santi is a good guy and a good Silverlaker...

In August a number of our SLCA members attended an Area Blockwatch Meeting along with Bloomfield, East Orange and North Newark, at the Civic Center in Bloomfield hosted by the Ampere Coalition. The purpose of the meeting was to bring together the Neighborhood Watch Group Leaders, Law Enforcement Agencies and Officers and Trustees of various civic associations. In attendance were the P.A.C.T. Officers from Newark and Bloomfield. If you don't know what P.A.C.T. means, I will tell you. It is Police Against Crime Team. The PACT officers explained how successful this team was in patrolling the borders of these municipalities. The 'Bloomfield Bike Patrol Officers' were there to explain what their role was. The majority of the SLCA members agreed that Belleville should join in the PACT as well as contemplating a Bike Patrol in the Lake. Belleville Detective Pete Fraone was in attendance and shared some of his ideas.

Marie Strumolo Burke

He will be setting up the Silver Lake Association Block Watch.

Remember, as I told you all before, if you want to become a Block Watcher, please call Joseph Marra at 759-6397. You will be trained and given identification cards from the police. Signs will be posted in the neighborhoods to coincide with this watch. Be assured, block watching helps to alleviate crime.

Our youngest SLCA member in attendance was Thomas Cappitelli of Heckel Street, a 5th grade student at School No. 4. I think he deserves the award for patience since he sat through 2 1/2 hours of speeches. He kept himself occupied by munching on a few donuts. Did I say a few. All kidding aside, with all he learned at this meeting maybe someday he will be a Belleville policeman and patrol Silver Lake.

Don't laugh, it may be so. By the way, I fondly call him "Dennis," since he is a dead ringer for "Dennis the Menace," blonde hair and all. He affectionately calls my husband Charlie, Mr. Wilson, and me Mrs. Wilson. Again let me say, we have everything in Silver Lake even a "Dennis the Menace." But really guys, he is a great kid. His mother Debbie and father Tom are extremely proud of this young lad.

Condolences to the Gammara family of Lake Street on the passing of their brother Carmine. He was a great guy and he will be missed by all. I will especially miss seeing him at the Moose Club in Silver Lake. He would set up our SLCA meetings and do it with a smile. It was an honor to consider him my brother-in-law, and I know he is in heaven. Condolences are also in order to the Renna family on the passing of Marie Elena (Montalbano) Renna of Alva Street.

Please take note that our SLCA meeting will be held on Monday, October 17, 1994, at the Moose Club on Honiss Street at 7:30 p.m. We will have Det. Peter Fraone in attendance to speak about our block watch. At our November meeting Rosemary Senatore-Ciccone, director of the Division of Housing and Community Development, was invited to talk on what grants are available to the residents of Silver Lake to fix their homes. As always, the SLCA is always on the job.

REMEMBER, WE LOVE SILVER LAKE.

Local doctors offer tutoring

all the tutoring. We are looking to build confidence and self-esteem to help students reach their goals."

The two use a "psycho-educational approach," to help students build on success and find the best ways to perform well on tests, with the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SATs) being a specialty.

"Too many students experience failure and are afraid to try again," Lori said. "We find the best channel for them to learn in, whether it be auditory or visual, and we help them build on that."

Michael said developing successful tutoring concepts has come from actual field experience.

"The two years of internship and residency, learning to diagnose and treat disorders, that is where we have developed our techniques," he said.

"The bottom line is that we love people and we love kids," Lori said.

Lori has initiated a scholarship program for handicapped graduating students of Belleville High School and received a 1989 Certificate of Recognition by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce for Community Pride among Young Business Owners.

She has taught at Rutgers University Graduate School, participated in a statewide research project dealing with children's services, and co-authored an instruction manual for new professors.

Among many community sponsorships are boys and girls softball and the upcoming Sam Giuffrida Annual 5-Mile Run.

Lori has co-produced a curriculum, including a film, dealing with anti-auto theft, in conjunction with the Newark Police Department. An accomplished artist, Lori was commissioned to present her paintings to the French Consulate and the Mayor of Lavagna, Italy, Belleville's "sister city." Her paintings also hang at local public facilities.

Stadium recreational planners coming

Messina said the maintenance would begin on November 25th, the day after the football season ends, as would maintenance to baseball fields, including putting down clay.

Cicalese, Mazzuca and Board member John Notari are part of a newly-formulated school board Buildings and Grounds Committee, while Digori, Canning and Nick Cerami comprise a council committee on stadium renovations.

Cicalese has focused on the locker rooms, calling them "abominable," while agreeing with council officials that a long-range plan is needed.

Mazzuca has called for officials not to place blame but to work together.

Digori and Canning have agreed that "cosmetic" improvements such as seeding, the patching of grass and weeding out for the football field can only provide some immediate help.

Nick Cerami, the third committee member, has disagreed, saying the stadium is structurally sound and can be the centerpiece of town with renovations.

School Board President Gabe Nazzola has suggested that the Council give control of the stadium facilities to the Board of Education, along with the average amount, based on the previous five years, funded for maintenance and operation of the stadium by the Council.

Board member Robert Molinaro supported Nazzola's plan, while other board members did not comment.

BUC SHOTS

Rich, don't be surprised! Council doesn't give a hoot.

I walked into the newspaper offices last Thursday. Shortly after arriving, I saw Belleville Times Editor Richard Dickon at his desk, with a somewhat frustrated look on his face as he worked on a story. Dickon looked at me and shook his head.

"What's the matter," I asked him, figuring he didn't like the last episode of "All My Children".

"The Council," Dickon said. "I went to a workshop the other day regarding the stadium and everyone talked about a number of things, but not once did anyone there say anything about the JV soccer team and the poor condition of their field."

"So, what's the problem," I asked him, somewhat sarcastically. "Did you actually expect them to take an interest? This is just a game to them. They like to look concerned, but, in the end, nothing is going to happen."

Dickon, who has taken a very active role in the subject of Municipal Stadium, admitted naivete when it comes to the Belleville Township Council.

Richard must understand that the poor conditions at Municipal Stadium have been a conversation piece for at least 20 years. But it's only recent that the place has become such a pigsty that athletes can no longer compete there.

Back in 1975, I was a junior at Belleville High School and a member of the track team. Our track was never in the best condition, and we often asked why we couldn't have a track comparable to the one Nutley has.

We were told a various array of reasons, mainly the water table, the lack of funds, etc, etc.

Jim Beck, one of the best two milers ever at Belleville High School and a classmate/teammate of mine, wrote a letter to the Belleville Times in May of '75, saying, in essence, that the track needed attention.

Now, bear in mind, that while the track needed attention 19 springs ago, it was still good enough to compete on and to have Big 10 meets held there.

A few days after the letter appeared in the paper, then Mayor Michael Marotti showed up at our practice and tried to assure us that the track would receive attention.

Marotti took the time to speak to a group of 15, 16 and 17 year old high school students and to try and explain why the track was the way it was and that efforts would be placed to make it better.

Needless to say, Marotti kept his word, because we were able to compete there in 1976, and after I graduated, the track was still usable from 1977 to 1986.

Now, fast forward to the present. If you read last weeks issue of Buc Shots, then you know the story of the JV soccer field. If you've read this column over the past six months, you know the story of the track and tennis teams.

Based on this, you can play multiple choice when it comes to our Council's desire to make the stadium a better place.

A. The Council could care less about the stadium and won't even blink when, in a few years from now, every varsity sport at Belleville High School will be competing on the road only because of lousy and neglected facilities at home.

B. The Council is made up of totally incompetent people who don't have a clue as to what to do and will never understand.

C. All of the Above.

I'll take letter A, because the Council, in my opinion, is made up of intelligent men and women who realize the problems exist and, if they ever decided to get together, could come up with some feasible ideas.

Another person who has been very interested in this issue is the current Athletic Director, Karen Fuccello.

Unfortunately, Fuccello subscribes to the "common sense" theory of doing business. She had the nerve to think that the Jim Landon plan, the architectural drawings Landon drew up in 1991, made very good sense.

Fuccello can't understand why it takes a rocket scientist to get the tennis courts fixed. She can't understand why East Oranges' Martens Stadium could be completely re-done in one year while the bureaucrats in Belleville can't decide on how big the craters on the JV field should be before something is done.

"Right now, there could be some very basic things done," Fuccello said. "Let's get the dirt on the JV field now, so it settles before the winter. Let's smooth out the tennis courts. Everyone is making such a big deal about this. There's a possibility we can do something about the track, if ever the restraining wall issue can be resolved. That would give us back the sixth lane which is necessary for varsity track meets."

"Once that's done, we can get the track prepped for next spring. At least the kids can practice there, maybe even get a few meets there."

Fuccello, like most people in Belleville in really do care about this issue, mourns the day Bertrand Kendall stepped down as Council Manager a few years back.

"The guy really cared," Fuccello said. "If he had stayed, something could have been done by now."

If work did commence on the JV field, now, then the JV baseball team would have a good chance of competing at home next spring. It would mean the return home of the JV soccer team next fall.

"You have to understand," Fuccello said. "Sometimes facilities deteriorate and teams have to spend a year on the road."

True, but here in Belleville, nothing, and I mean nothing, is done about repairing them, and what should be a one year hiatus turns into a seven or eight year sentence. (There are, however, great pictures of Council members pointing to the stadium that appear in local papers. It's especially amusing when you hear that the members are going to take their "walk-through" of the facility. Makes for great theatre if nothing else.)

Turnovers lead to 28 first half points

Stumbling Bucs fall to St. Joe's

By Mike Lamberti

Just :20 into last Friday night's Belleville-St. Joseph's football game, the tone had been set.

Unfortunately for John Senesky's Bucs, the tone was off pitch. Way off pitch.

Belleville fumbled the opening kickoff, St. Joe's recovered and scored on its first offensive play. The Bucs fell behind the eight ball and never recovered, eventually falling 47-6 in Montvale.

The 0-3 Bucs will look to get on the right track this Saturday afternoon at Paramus Catholic. (Kickoff at 1 p.m.) It won't be an easy task as P.C. boasts a potent offense, similar to the '92 team that went to the Parochial A championship game.

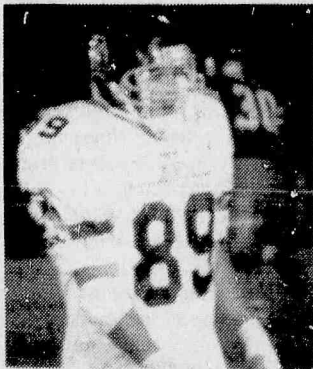

The final tally says it all. Belleville turned the ball over four times in the first half and St. Joe's capitalized on all four miscues by scoring touchdowns. Three of the turnovers came inside the Belleville 15, while the fourth turnover was in the more conventional area of the Buc 40.

"No way can you turn the ball over to a team like that and expect to be competitive," Senesky said. "We knew they were a typical St. Joe's team, bruising fullback, speedy tailback, a quarterback that can run well and throw deep and a tough defense."

"But we never gave ourselves a chance to really test them. Our defense hit pretty well tonight, but they were constantly in a position of trying to hold St. Joe's deep in our territory. It's just not going to work that way, not against a team as talented as they are."

The Bucs did have a few chances, especially in the first half. After falling behind 6-0, Belleville got a break when Anthony Frantantoni recovered a fumble deep in St. Joe's territory.

But, unlike the home team, the Bucs were unable to take advantage of the turnover. A holding penalty on third down proved to be costly and the Bucs had to punt a down later.

Artie Settembrino gets defensive instructions from sideline during game with St. Joe's last Friday. Settembrino and Co. were hampered by turnovers and lost game, 47-6.

A second Belleville turnover led to St. Joe's second touchdown, and after the Green Knights hit the two point conversion, it was 14-0.

Soon thereafter, the score ballooned to 20-0 following a third Belleville turnover, but the Bucs showed some guile on their following offensive series.

Quarterback Ram Parekh completed some impressive passes on an 86 yard, 12 play drive midway through the second quarter.

He hit Michael Loney, then found Tom Escott at the St. Joe's 44.

Parekh completed a 26 yard strike to Loney, moving the ball to the Green Knight 18. Dave Paladino ran five yards to the 13 and then Parekh hit Loney with a 13 yard touchdown pass. The ball was deflected by a Belleville receiver and the pass ended safely in Loney's hands.

The PAT failed, but the Bucs were within two touchdowns, 20-6, and the defense, which had played well when it didn't face adversity, gave hope that the game would remain close.

Escott made a beautiful interception of a Green Knight pass at the Buc one late in the first half to negate a rally, but Buc turnover number four would be a crusher.

Following Escott's interception, the Bucs started on their own one with less than a minute left in the half. On the first play, Belleville fumbled, St. Joe's recovered, and one play later, it was 28-6.

"We played one of our best halves of defensive football," said defensive coordinator Joe D'Ambola. "But we're still down 28-6. Our kids were doing some good hitting out there, but we dug a big hole with the turnovers."

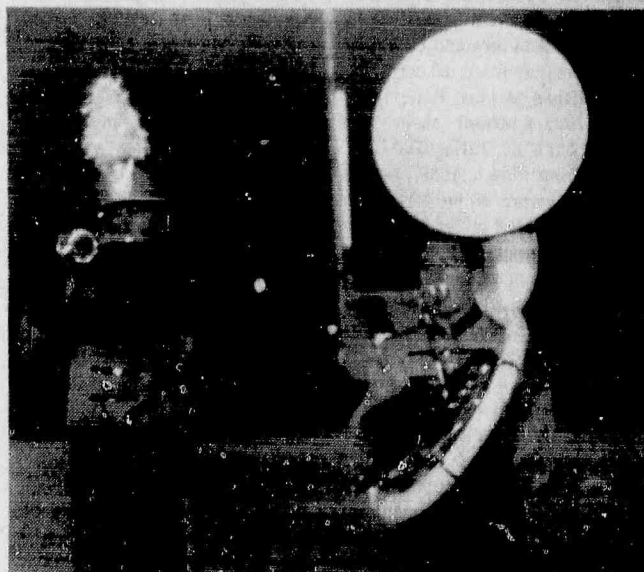

St. Joe's first sustained drive of the game came at the outset of the third quarter and resulted in their fifth touchdown of the contest. The kick failed, but the score was now 34-6.

Belleville did threaten midway through the third quarter but couldn't capitalize. Parekh completed a pass to Frantantoni in the drive and runs by Tyrone Fitts and Dino Durante got the ball to the Knight 35, but the drive stalled and the Bucs were forced to punt.

St. Joe's scored twice more, the second score coming with just :28 left in the game following an interception of a Buccaneer pass.

"I can't remember a game where a Belleville team made that many mistakes," said Senesky. "We just didn't do anything right. Our lack of speed makes it difficult for us to come back from big deficits and we tried to compensate by making a big play and the result was more turnovers."

Senesky hopes the poor performance won't carry over to the next

Members of the Belleville High School band perform during halftime of last Friday night's football game at St. Joe's. There will be more photo coverage of the band as the football season progresses.

Cheerleading captain Lisa DeSimone leads teammates through halftime routine during Buc football game at St. Joe's last Friday. We'll have feature on '94-95 cheerleading squad in an upcoming issue.

game.

"We didn't play well, and we were beaten decisively. But it's one game, and there are still six games left in the season. We've got a real tough game this weekend and we can't dwell on this game."

"Hopefully, we got the mistakes out of our system and we can move on from here."

As for Paramus Catholic, Senesky expects plenty of offensive fireworks.

"They've got so many weapons," the coach said. "Size wise, they're comparable to us. But they have a great deal of speed and that offense is well drilled. There won't be many surprises in this game. Our secondary will get plenty of work, because they throw the ball, and do it well."

NOTES: Bucs and Paramus Catholic have staged a pretty good rivalry since the two began playing each other in 1988. P.C. won the initial contest, 10-0. Since then, the Bucs won in '89 and '90 by scores of 21-0 and 21-6 respectively. In '91 and '92, P.C. prevailed, by tallies of 21-14 and 34-14 respectively. Last year, in a wild shootout, Belleville rallied from a 19-6 second quarter deficit to win, 40-25.

After this Saturday's game, Bucs will continue road trip with a game at Mendham next Saturday, October 22. That game will conclude a four game road trip. Bucs then return home to play Don Bosco, then go back on the road for a night game at Hackensack on November 4. The final two games are at home, November 11 against Paramus and Thanksgiving versus Nutley.

The 47 points allowed by Belleville last Friday were the most allowed since 1977, when Seton Hall scored 63 in that infamous 63-0 contest at Municipal Stadium. The 41 point differential in last Friday's game was the widest loss in a regular season game for a Belleville team since that aforementioned game with Seton Hall Prep.

On the injury front, senior quarterback Sal Berardi did not see action last Friday night. He is ques-

Guzman, Guagliardi lead soccer team

By Mike Lamberti

Gino DePinto has come up with the corporate line when it comes to summarizing his teams effort each week.

"It wasn't bad. We're not expecting much, I'll take it."

Sort of reminds you of that "Flintstones" commercial when Fred played "J.L. Gottrocks" and said the same three lines throughout the entire episode.

In this case, DePinto has a few things to say, but, basically, he's just going with the flow when it comes to the '94 Bucs.

Belleville was tied by Teaneck at three last week, then blanked Paramus Catholic. The team was 4-1-3 heading into this weeks action.

Belleville battled Nutley earlier this week and will be at powerful Don Bosco this afternoon at 4 p.m.

Heading into this week, Don Bosco was undefeated and led the NNJIL Pacific Division. This Sunday, Belleville will begin first round, Essex County tournament action. The opponent and sight for the game was unknown as of last weekend. Next Tuesday, St. Joe's comes to town for a 4 p.m. kickoff.

Last week, the Bucs were able to find the net with a little more accuracy, scoring three goals in two consecutive games.

Surprisingly, the defense, which had allowed just three goals in the first six games, led Teaneck back into the contest after the Bucs had built a 3-1 second half lead.

"It was one of those things," DePinto said. "It was a good game. Teaneck scored a quick goal which took us by surprise. It's part of the game."

Teaneck took a 1-0 lead in the first half, but Belleville tied it before halftime on a goal by Steve Collett.

The Bucs went ahead 2-1 on Mike Guzman's goal and increased the lead to 3-1 on a tally by Joe Colucci.

Teaneck rallied in the late stages of regulation time, and for the third time this season, the Bucs ended a game tied.

Jim Berg and Joe Cotugno contributed assists in the game.

Versus Paramus Catholic, Collett, Cotugno and Guzman scored goals, with assists going to Berg, Robin Guevara and Joe Colucci.

Goalkeeper Natale Guagliardi was outstanding in recording his fourth shutout of the season. He has allowed just six goals in eight games this season.

"Not bad, we're not expecting much, I'll take it," said DePinto, echoing the "line".

"This week, we'll have some real tough games coming up. And the county tournament begins on Sunday. It should be a good test for us."

NOTES: Nick Colucci, who was injured two weeks ago, should be back in the lineup this week. He is recovering from a concussion.

The freshman team, coached by Mike Popovich, won two games last week, downing Teaneck 3-0 and Paramus Catholic, 5-1.

"The freshman have looked very good," DePinto said. "There's a lot of talent there."

Sam Giuffrida five mile run

By Mike Lamberti

The fifth annual Sam Giuffrida Run will be held on Sunday, October 23 at 9:30 a.m. at Belleville High School.

The race, in honor and memory of Sam Giuffrida, will feature a one mile "fun run," which commences at 9:30 a.m., followed by the five mile, which kicks off at 10 a.m.

The past four races have been quite enjoyable. First and foremost, the weather has been marvelous for the event from 1990-93. Warm temperatures and clear blue skies have dominated the event.

Giuffrida, as most Bellevillites know, was a school teacher and crew coach at Belleville High School from 1964 to 1989. He is a charter member of the Belleville High School Hall of Fame and was a beloved teacher, first at the junior high and later at the senior high.

"G," as he was known to the students at BHS, suffered a heart attack in 1986, but made what appeared to be a full recovery and returned to school a year later.

Sadly, Giuffrida suffered a second heart attack late in the 1988-89 school year and that attack took his life. He passed away at the untimely age of 47 and his spirit and vitality was, and is, sorely missed at Belleville High School.

In 1990, friends of Giuffrida formed a road race in his memory, and every year since, hundreds of runners have competed in the event. It's a full morning of activity, with music, and prizes awarded to the top runners in each age category.

This year, Dr. Len Russo, owner and operator of Russo Chiropractic Center will be the major sponsor and will be funding the T-shirts which the runners will receive on race day.

Other key sponsors include: Philmore Associates, Arctic Falls, Councilman Bill Cook, Karl's Appliance, First DeWitt, "Friends of Pa.", Martinique of Pa., the Remodeling Group, which is owned by Mike Davis, a former rower for Giuffrida, and Lincoln Technical Institute.

You can sign up for the race at Belleville High School, in the main office or at the Belleville High School library. Application fee is $10 and that includes the T-shirt.

Any applications received after October 17 will be $12. You can register the day of the event.

Proceeds from the event will fund the Sam Giuffrida Scholarship, which is awarded to outstanding BHS seniors every spring.

This is always a very enjoyable event, and it can continue with everyone taking part in the race in one form or another.

If you have any questions, please call Tonia Moore at 744-0408 or Lorraine Leming at 751-6251.

JV Soccer team prevails, 1-0

By Rocco Constantino
(Editors Note: Rocco Constantino is the newest member of the Belleville Times sports staff.)

He will be covering JV sports at Belleville High School this fall, and hopefully, will be with us throughout the school year.)

The Belleville JV Bucs relied on old tricks last Tuesday to defeat the Teaneck Highwaymen.

Defense.

For the third time this year, the defense, along with goalie Remo Iannitelli, shutout their opponent and beat Teaneck, 1-0.

The game was played in Teaneck because the craters and rocks on the JV field have not been properly maintained and the playing surface was finally deemed unsafe.

Every game will be ### played on the road this year.

Coach George Tortoriello obviously credited the defense with playing well, but added that by controlling the midfield, Belleville had more offensive opportunities. Paul Rodriguez converted the Bucs only goal. Strong defensive efforts were turned in by all players especially Nick Thatcher. Belleville's record on the year is 4-3.

This week, Belleville is on the road at Nutley and Don Bosco. The Nutley game is the closest the Bucs will be to home this year. They will be trying to avenge a 2-1 loss earlier in the year. Belleville also is seeking revenge against Don Bosco, perhaps the strongest team in the NNJIL JV conference this year.

Lady Buc soccer team falls to West Orange in inaugural game, 1-0

By Rocco Constantino

If the size of the crowd was any indication of just how popular the girls' soccer program is going to be, then they should be in pretty good shape. With the stands filled and fans lined along the fence and sidelines at Clearmon Field, the Lady Bucs dropped their first game to West Orange, 1-0.

Arlene Muller's squad came out of the lockerroom with tremendous enthusiasm and was able to maintain that through the entire game.

The Lady Bucs had numerous scoring chances, but just couldn't seem to punch one through. West Orange scored the only goal of the game about halfway through the second half. It came on a rebound after the Lady Bucs were unable to clear the goal area.

Other than that minor breakdown, the defense played remarkably well. Tracey Gibson played the first half in goal for Belleville and thwarted many early chances by West Orange. Kim Carillo was in the pipes for the second half and withstood some tough West Orange attacks before allowing the deciding goal.

The Lady Bucs took on Bloomfield yesterday at Clearmon Field.

Zarro, Biase lead "A" team

The Belleville Junior Buc "A" team improved its record to 4-1 on the '94 campaign with an impressive 38-12 win over Livingston last Sunday.

Bill Abram's team will face a big test this Sunday, at Paterson, beginning at 3 p.m. That game is preceded by the "C" game at noon and the "B" game at 1:30 p.m.

Frank Zarro had a big day for the Bucs, scoring three touchdowns. His first score, a 30 yard run, put Belleville ahead 6-0. Zarro's second score, from one yard out, put Belleville ahead by two scores. Mike Biase added the two point conversion.

Herb Bolante scored the third Belleville TD on a 65 yard run. Once again, Biase added the two point conversion.

In the second half, Biase scored off a 53 yard draw play, then kicked his third two point conversion, giving Belleville 30 points. The scoring concluded in the fourth quarter when Frank Zarro caught an 18 yard shuffle pass from quarterback Marquis Talmadge. Biase added yet another kick, sealing Belleville's win.

Offensively, Bolante rushed for 113 yards on just three carries, Biase had 107 on eight carries and Zarro picked up 67 yards on eight carries while catching two passes for 30 yards.

The offensive line was outstanding. Center Chris Gammara, guards J.R. Renna, Joe Chesser and Ryan McGowan, tackles Lance Bowers, Anthony Marcantuono and ends Joe Morgan and Gene Pizzaro all contributed to the victory.

Defensively, Marcantuono, Bolante (eight tackles), Renna and Mike Calia did well. Mike Fusco and Renna had fumble recoveries.

Abrams also expressed accolades to his coaching staff, consisting of Vinnie Strumolo, Bob Biase and Mark Renna.

"C" Team falls, 18-6

The Belleville "C" team lost a tough game to Livingston, 18-6 last Sunday.

The Bucs scored first, on a 60 yard run by James Leake.

Livingston began to wear Belleville down with a solid running game. The Buc defense played well, led by David Sheridan, Lawrence Fusco, John Pello and Steve Soriano, but Livingston eventually got the breaks it needed.

Belleville's offense, paced by David Bell, Al Roberts, Nick Galante and Leake, moved the ball effectively, but couldn't put the ball in the end zone.

Joe Parisi, Joe Pieroni, Shawn Trainer and Frank Cerza led the Belleville defense.

Pirate "B" team wins, 27-0

The Junior Buc Pirate "B" team remained undefeated with a sound thrashing of Bloomfield, 27-0.

Belleville took control quickly. Hector Mendosa returned the opening kickoff 73 yards for a touchdown. Jason Mondorff had a 25 yard touchdown and in the second quarter, quarterback James Risoli tossed a five yard TD pass to Mendosa.

The final score came in the late stages of the second quarter. Mondorff forced a fumble on a Bengal punt return, picked up the loose ball and ran 40 yards for a touchdown.

Overall, the offense played its best game of the season. Spike Williams and Eric Ferriol made outstanding over-the-shoulder catches.

The running game, which accumulated over 200 yards, was led by Ryan Sheridan, Gary McDonald, Mondorff and Ferriol.

Defensively, Robert Wunder, Gary Ferruggia, Joey Kowalick, George Chumas, Bryan Pearson, Lonnie Lawson, David Williams and Paul Lembo helped the Bucs to a shutout victory.

Head coach Dennis Sheridan also thanked the Belleville cheerleaders for their enthusiasm and dedication.

Fuccello recently arranged for the girls' tennis team to use the courts at Brookdale Park for their "home" meets this fall. This way, the kids at least get a chance to practice consistently and avoid some of the monotonous bus rides to upper Bergen County.

"As for the JV soccer team, I would have liked to let them play and practice at Belleville Park," Fuccello said. "But I can't get permits there. Can you believe it? The park is in Belleville, but our kids can't practice there because other high schools have first priority."

The situation at Belleville Park is no fault of our Council's. The park is a county property, but it would make a tad bit of sense for Belleville kids to be able to use facilities in Belleville for practice and games.

As Dickon continues to cover township meetings, he will understand what many in this township have known for years.

It is politics are usual.

And here, in Belleville, N.J., it's a game that is becoming very worn out.

Think about that the next time there are elections in town and a new set of candidates issue their campaign promises for the betterment of our town.

Perhaps the situation will be worked out. Perhaps people like Fuccello will prevail.

But it has to make you wonder. Why, in a township that supposedly has a government, can't anyone in that government make a decision or say, 'let's get it done, and do it now'?

It's simple.

They just don't give a hoot.

And, finally, when you get your next property tax bill and the rates have gone up (again), you can, once again, wonder where your monies are going.

tionable for Saturday's game at Paramus Catholic as he continues rehabbing a knee injury.

The news isn't good for senior lineman Brian Pasterchick. After playing against Clifton two weeks ago, his injured knee got worst, prompting arthroscopic surgery last Friday. He will almost definitely miss the remainder of the '94 season.

X-country team wins 3rd

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville cross country team continued its impressive performance this fall with a win over Manchester last week while competing in a tri meet at West Essex.

John Tosato's Bucs lost to West Essex, 22-35 and fell to Paramus earlier last week, 22-33.

Nonetheless, the Bucs were 3-4 heading into last Tuesday's meet against Paramus Catholic and Teaneck. The 3-4 record is by far Belleville's best mark after seven cross country meets in at least a dozen seasons.

"The kids have been working hard," Tosato said. "They've gained some confidence and continue to improve."

In the loss to Paramus, Belleville received some excellent performances.

"That was probably our best effort against Paramus in a number of years," Tosato said.

Phong Nguyen finished second overall in a time of 17:49. Carlos Sagbay was fourth in 18:45 and Brad Koch placed eighth in 19:40. Anthony Marchione (20:31), Mike Matos (21:06) and Peter Santoro (22:47) rounded out the Belleville lineup.

Rachel Anderson finished sixth in the girls race with a time of 25:09.

In the West Essex/Manchester match, Belleville won 27-28 over Manchester and lost by 13 to West Essex.

Sagbay (4th place, 18:04) led Belleville. Nguyen (7th, 18:17), Koch (20:06, 18th overall), Marchione (21:04, 25th), Matos (21:22, 26th), Santoro (23:59) and Vera Chulanandana (28:57) led the Belleville attack.

NOTES: Tosato noted that in the Immaculate Heart race two weeks ago at home, a new course record in the womens category was set.

The Bucs will compete in the NNJIL championships at Garret Mountain next Tuesday, beginning at 3 p.m.

"I think we should be pretty competitive there," Tosato said. "The kids are looking forward to it."

At the Essex Catholic Invitational last weekend, Santoro did a good job in the freshman race. He ran 2.1 miles in 14:23.

Sagbay and Nguyen have formed a solid 1-2 combination for the Bucs this fall.

"They both push each other in each race," Tosato said. "It makes for some good competition, both in the meets and in practice."

How to Make Your Wedding Memories Picture Perfect

If you're getting married this year, you're in good company. According to Wedding Photographers International, more than 2.3 million weddings will take place in the United States in 1994. Multiply that figure by the 200 to 300 photographs — and three rolls of video film — that are taken at the average wedding, and you have a lot of wedding images!

That's why it's so important to remember that bridal beauty isn't limited to your wedding day...it's an image that lasts a lifetime. After all, you'll be showing those photos and videos to your grandchildren someday. That's why choosing make-up that looks great in person, on film and on videotape is so important. Below are some tips from Cover Girl Cosmetics on how to make sure you'll look radiantly beautiful both on the "day of days" and in those treasured albums and tapes:

- For a face that dreams are made of, it's essential that you wear foundation and powder. Why? Bare skin or skin with just foundation can look blechy on film. Powder sets make-up, helps it last and gives skin a smooth, velvety finish — the perfect backdrop to highlight your eyes and lips. For a clean, fresh, naturally beautiful look, try new Cover Girl Clean Fragrance Free Liquid Make-Up and its matching Pressed Powder. It's 100-percent fragrance-free and will never clog your pores — plus, with 10 shades to choose from, you're sure to find the one that's right.

- Keep those under-eye circles at bay, both in person and in your photos, with a good concealer product. Choose a concealer in a shade that's slightly lighter than your skin tone and foundation — but don't go too light or you'll highlight instead of hide. Before you apply foundation and powder, dot concealer on the under-eye area and gently blend.

- What makes eyes truly memorable? Long, thick lashes, of course! To make sure your eyes stand out, apply several coats of mascara, while letting each coat dry before applying the next. And, because weddings and tears of happiness naturally go together, make sure your mascara is waterproof — or you'll be sporting "streaked cheeks." Here's where Cover Girl Remarkable Washable Waterproof Mascara really fills the bill — it actually repels tears! Furthermore, it provides perfect length and fullness without ever smudging or clumping. And, best of all, after the reception, you'll be able to wash it off easily with soap and water.

- Lips complete the picture. Beautiful lips are a wedding — and wedding album — must, and for this special day, you'll need a really long-lasting lip product. Cover Girl Continuous Color Lipstick is just that! It's a blend of creamy color and rich emollients that stays fresh and true hour after hour. And Continuous Color Lipstick gives you 38 gorgeous shades to choose from.

Some final words of wisdom. Check out how you'll look before the wedding by applying your make-up and having someone take your photo in lighting that is similar to that of your reception. If you don't like what you see, work with different make-up shades and try again until you're happy with the results.

COVER GIRL SUPERMODEL Rachel Hunter looks radiantly beautiful and embodies the clean, fresh and natural look that's "picture perfect" for the wedding day.

1995 LINCOLN-MERCURY HIGHLIGHTS

High levels of quality, design, performance and safety encompass the entire line of Lincoln-Mercury Division 1995 models. Yet each of the eight cars and one minivan in the Lincoln-Mercury family has its own distinct personality, its own purpose, its own appeal.

"We are really pleased with the depth of our 1995 line," says Keith Magee, Ford Motor Company vice president and Lincoln-Mercury Division general manager. "The addition of the all-new Mercury Mystique makes us a significant player in the fast-growing mid-size sedan market for the first time."

With safety a major purchase consideration, the eight cars and the Mercury Villager have a driver's air bag supplemental restraint system (SRS) as standard equipment. And a passenger-side air bag is standard on all eight car lines.

Lincoln-Mercury customers also get another important advantage — complimentary 24-hour Roadside Assistance.

By dialing a toll-free number, they can get help in changing a flat tire, jump-starting a dead battery, obtaining fuel for an empty tank, getting into their locked car, and, if necessary, being towed.

Here is a summary review of 1995 Lincoln and Mercury vehicles:

Mercury Tracer

The compact Tracer, available in four-door sedan and wagon versions adds a passenger-side air bag supplemental restraint system (SRS) to its standard safety package for 1995. A driver's air bag became standard in 1994. Interior appearance changes are highlighted by a color-keyed instrument panel and steering wheel.

Mercury Cougar XR7

Its distinctive styling and refined stance reflect its Lincoln-Mercury heritage, but Cougar XR7 has its own unique combination of ride, handling and performance. It is available with an advanced-technology 4.6-liter V-8 engine.

Mercury Sable

A sporty new LTS model is on tap for the Mercury Sable line for 1995. It has dual leather sport bucket seats with six-way power, cast aluminum wheels, and distinctive bodyside cladding.

All new Sables have a smoother-shifting four-speed automatic transmission, and their windshields have Solar Tint glass, which blocks out more of the sun's heat and ultraviolet rays than regular tinted glass. The new glass is also used in the rear windows of Sable sedans.

Lincoln Town Car

The Lincoln Town Car has an all-new interior, plus significant exterior and functional changes for 1995. The new Town Car has more than 20 new or improved features, including driver-adjustable steering effort and an anti-theft system.

New seats, a new instrument panel, new door-trim panels, and a new two-spoke steering wheel with center-blow horn give the interior a more contemporary appearance. For added convenience, all new Town Cars have lighted switches for the power windows, locks and seats.

The Signature and Cartier series also have auxiliary controls for the audio and climate control systems in

Mercury Grand Marquis

The full-size Mercury Grand Marquis has new front and rear treatment for 1995 — and major changes to the interior. There are luxurious new seats, a handsome new instrument panel with woodtone applique and built-in cupholders, new door trim panels, and lighted power-control switches.

Grand Marquis' radio antenna wires are embedded in the rear window along with the defroster heating elements. Heat-reducing Solar Tint glass is standard in all windows. The 4.6-liter overhead cam V-8 engine is paired with an improved electronically controlled automatic transmission with wide-ratio gears.

Mercury Mystique

The all-new mid-size Mercury Mystique combines customer-oriented technology, comfort, convenience and safety with luxury appointments and superior driving characteristics.

The five-passenger front-wheel-drive sedan comes with a choice of two advanced-technology power plants — a 2.0-liter 16-valve DOHC four-cylinder engine or an all-aluminum low-maintenance 2.5-liter 24-valve DOHC V-6 that is the heart of the new Duratec V-6 System. The Duratec engine can be driven 100,000 miles before its first scheduled tune-up.

Local KofC's collect goods for free store

St. Mary's Knights of Columbus conducts a clothing/monetary drive benefiting the Catholic Free Store in eastern Kentucky. Deacon John Tohil of St. Peter's Catholic Church in Easter travelled to St. Mary's Church of Nutley during the summer and spoke to parishioners of the hardships the people of this region endure, especially during the winter months. Many homes are little more than shacks and many people do not even have that little shelter. They live in cars or trailers.

Therefore, St. Mary's Knights of Columbus are seeking donations of any size clothing, coats, boots, baby blankets - new or used in good condition.

Items may be dropped off at St. Mary's Knights of Columbus Hall, 150 Chestnut Street between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on each Saturday through Oct. 15. If pick-up is required, you may telephone Vincent Musiz at 751-5446.

Contributors do not have to be parishioners at St. Mary's Church. For contributions, make checks payable to Appalachian Charity, EK/K of C 2346 and mail to St. Mary's Knights of Columbus, 150 Chestnut Street, Nutley, N.J. 07110.

Chief investigator sought

Essex County Prosecutor Clifford J. Minor has announced the creation of a Search Committee, established to assist him in his selection of a new chief of investigators for the Essex County Prosecutor's Office.

Named to this committee was Charles Knox, director of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey Police Department since 1991.

Knox is the head law enforcement officer for a force of approximately 1,500 sworn law enforcement police officers and civilian employers. Knox will chair the committee.

The Port Authority is a bi-state governmental agency created by an interstate compact between the State of New York and New Jersey.

Essex County Prosecutor
Clifford Minor

The Port Authority maintains jurisdiction over the various terminal operations within the port district including railroad stations, ports, and airports, tunnels, bridges and the World Trade Center.

Also named to the committee was Thomas Dugan, chief of the Glen Ridge Police Department. Dugan, entering his 32nd year in law enforcement, has served as Glen Ridge chief since 1985. Currently, Dugan holds the office of president for the Essex County Chiefs of Police Association, which includes 23 municipal and county law enforcement agencies.

Minor has selected a member of his own immediate staff, Deputy First Assistant Prosecutor Frederic R. McDaniel as the third member of the Search Committee.

McDaniel has served as Deputy First Assistant Prosecutor since 1986. He is in charge of administrative budget matters including personnel for the Prosecutor's Office which has some 450 employees, including 174 investigative personnel and 133 assistant prosecutors.

Former chief of investigators Louis E. Greenleaf retired from his position on June 1, after serving as chief since 1988.

Minor has named Deputy Chief of Investigators Kenneth E. Reed as acting chief during this interim period.

Minor stressed the importance of this selection as a person assuming the position of chief of investigators must be looked upon as a perennial leader in the law enforcement community. Minor said "the position of chief of investigators for the Essex County Prosecutor's Office requires a person with strong recognizable leadership qualities, one who can be looked upon by all the law enforcement executives, directors, and chiefs as a builder of bridges between the various municipal police departments. He must also be a positive and shining example for our community of what a law enforcement dignitary should be."

Minor said that he has talked to each of the three members of the Search Committee and anticipates that they will begin work immediately. He has directed the search committee to cover a large geographic area and expects the committee to take several months to complete its task.

NEW TREATMENT FOR ULCERS

There has been a recent switch in the treatment strategy that physicians employ to treat ulcers. If ulcer patients have not been apprised of this updated option, they may want to consult with their doctors. In the past, an over-production of stomach acid was thought to be the culprit in ulcer formation. Accordingly, medications were used and diets were altered in an effort to neutralize acid or limit its production. Recently, however, research has uncovered a bacteria (helicobacter pylori) to be the cause of most ulcers. With this new information in hand, physicians have undertaken to treat ulcers with antibiotics. Prescription medications that stop acid production are also used to help ulcers heal.

For all your prescription needs stop by at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1968, 759-1956). "Your Doctor Knows Us-Your Doctor Trust Us." We are Medicare and Blue Cross approved and have a wide selection of convalescent aids for sale or rent. These include walkers, wheelchairs, crutches and canes. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HINT: Milk can, in fact, contribute to ulcer formation because foods rich in protein and calcium stimulate acid secretion.

Tips For Easier Drywall Sanding

Nobody ever claimed that sanding drywall joint and patching compounds was an enjoyable experience.

Most do-it-yourselfers know the process is a rather tedious and oftentimes messy chore. But there are a couple of ways to make the job a little easier.

One method is to try "wet" sanding. To wet sand, use a damp sponge instead of sandpaper to smooth the finish. A high density, small-celled polyurethane sponge moistened with lukewarm water works best. For touch-ups a smooth soft cloth will do.

Unlike dry sanding, wet sanding creates no dust. You won't need to wear a mask, use a dust collector and you won't have to clean up fine powder off the floor and near-by furnishings after the job is completed.

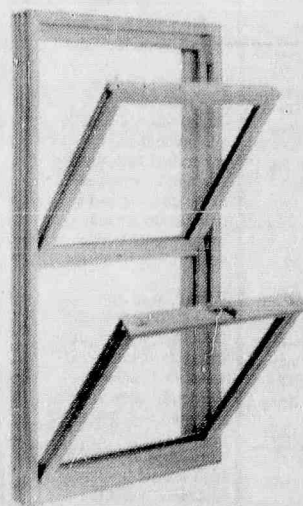

Additionally, wet sanding will not scuff or otherwise damage wallboard face paper, as sandpaper sometimes does.

Unfortunately, wet sanding is usually a bit more time-consuming than conventional sanding and is usually only practical for small repairs.

For larger repairs and for new wall-board installations, try using one of the new lightweight ready-mixed compounds, such as Sheetrock Lightweight All Purpose Joint Compound (also called Plus 3) from United States Gypsum Company. Plus 3 weighs up to 35% less than conventional compounds and comes ready-mixed in containers as small as one gallon. It sands easier and quicker than conventional compounds, yet still provides excellent adhesion and crack resistance. All in all, it helps make a tedious job a little easier to handle.

For more information on lightweight joint compounds, contact United States Gypsum Company, Dept. 147-4, P.O. Box 806278, Chicago, IL 60680-4124.

Double-Hung Replacement Window Ideal For Remodeling

easily adjusted for maximum ventilation. For added protection, the sash lock directly into the check rail. Two night latches are standard for secure night ventilation.

Like all Visions 2000 products, the double-hung window is constructed with tough unplasticized polyvinylchloride (uPVC) frames, a new generation in window technology that provides highly efficient insulation. The thick, multi-chambered frame design eliminates uncontrolled expansion and contraction, and provides superior insulation.

All Visions 2000 sash and frame components are produced from uPVC with a nominal wall thickness of .067 inches. The frame and sash corners are fusion welded for maximum stability, and then carefully smoothed to remove any burrs.

Available in Painter's White or Tan, the Visions 2000 vinyl windows are attractive to consumers from an energy efficiency as well as a maintenance perspective. The vinyl never needs to be finished, and it will not peel, rust or corrode. All that's required for cleaning is a damp cloth. And vinyl windows never need painting, which also cuts down on installation costs.

All sash and frame parts are silicone glazed to eliminate water and air infiltration. Available glazing options include insul, insul Low E and insul Low E with argon. The Visions 2000 double-hung also includes a standard full-screen.

Weather Shield Mfg., Inc. is headquartered in Medford, Wisconsin. The company also operates plants in Ladysmith and Greenwood, Wisconsin; Logan, Utah; Loveland, Colorado and Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. For more information concerning Weather Shield products, contact your local Weather Shield dealer or call 1 800 477 6808.
