Catrambone "happy to have his life back"; Jeffers thankful, defends custodian Sista

By Richard Dickon

After being reinstated by the Board of Education the night before, School #5 Principal Frank Catrambone and custodian Walter Jeffers said they were happy to be back, while Jeffers defended fellow custodian Mario V. Sista, charged in the 16-month-old alleged sex ring case.

Catrambone, Jeffers and six others had charges dismissed against them Oct. 18 after the County Prosecutor's Office determined that "the investigation has not produced at this time, sufficient corroborated credible evidence to warrant criminal prosecution. Four suspects were charged, including Sista, the mother of two daughters who were allegedly the victims in a "sex ring", the mother's live-in boyfriend, and another male friend of the mother."

"I can't express how happy I am to have my life back," Catrambone said, adding that he will not pursue wrongful prosecution charges against the County Prosecutor's Office because "I would have to prove they did this with knowing I was innocent, but they were just overzealous."

Jeffers said he was "very emotional about the show of support I have gotten from everyone. I look forward to getting the school back in the shape where it should be." (Jeffers full statement appears on page 6.)

Jeffers defended Sista, charged with two counts of first degree aggravated sexual assault among several charges. He said that Sista was a special education student in school. "I feel in my heart that when he goes to trial, it should be dismissed, because then they (his defense lawyers) will be able to use his school records to defend him," Jeffers said.

Catrambone described himself as "an optimist." "I'm not angry or bitter. I think, ultimately, they did the right thing administratively. I just don't understand why it took 13 months."

Catrambone said the time was "a horror" for his wife, who teaches in Parsippany, and their children. "The support I was getting, and the absurdity of the charges are what helped me get through this," he said.

As for those who still may question his innocence, Catrambone said "Anybody who knows me knows I was innocent, and knew that from the beginning, and rational people, if they were following the papers, would see I was innocent. I don't really care about those people (who question his innocence). This is a horrible way to find out who your friends are."

At the Oct. 24 School Board meeting, Catrambone and Jeffers reinstatement was applauded enthusiastically by audience members, including School #5 secretary Clara Wojciak, who spoke emotionally of the 13-month ordeal, thanking the administration, and acting Principal Rocco Cafone.

Board President Gabe Nazzola quoted the Bible commandment about "bearing false witness" and said he and his wife cut the yellow ribbon from around their tree on Oct. 21. The ribbon was tied in support of Catrambone.

"We welcome you back, as promised 13 months ago," Nazzola said, "We are whole again."

Board Vice President Barbara Cicalese said "I am glad the nightmare is over, both for Mr. Catrambone and Mr. Jeffers."

Board member Ralph Mazzuca referred to "the silent majority" of parents, teachers, secretaries and school personnel. "I thank you for your efforts," he said.

Board member Robert Molinaro, who was absent to attend a school board training conference, sent a note saying to Catrambone, "My wife and I have known you for 30 years, and you have always been an outstanding, fine educator. Unfortunately, it took 13 months for everyone to know what we knew in our hearts, that you were innocent. I fully, unequivocally support your reinstatement."

Among those not charged in the sex ring case was Ronald Puttorak, whose Linden Avenue three-family house is where the incidents allegedly

BASE provides funds, talk on crisis counselors

By Richard Dickon

The Belleville Alliance for Substance Education (BASE) presented a check for $1,500 to continue conflict mediation training as well as a presentation by Dr. Michael Ippolito at the Oct. 24 school board meeting, in support of the hiring of crisis counselors.

School Board Vice President Barbara Cicalese, BASE chairperson, introduced Patty Taibi, BASE vice chairperson, who presented the check to the Board of Education.

Ippolito talked about the need for conflict mediation and crisis counselors in the schools, saying "Teachers are now the only true therapists for children, and sometimes provide the only structured, consistent role models."

He said many teachers suffer "burnout" from being forced to deal with crisis on a daily basis, and that everyone from guidance counselors on down suffer the "ripple effects" of stressors.

Crisis counselors can help through early intervention, along with social work, psychology and related professionals, Ippolito said, adding that one hour of crisis intervention equals 10 hours of therapy, because intervention takes place right away.

"This is not solely a problem of the schools, but also takes in the community and families," Ippolito said, calling for a joint effort to combat problems.

The goal of crisis counseling, he said, is to provide immediate services in dealing with issues, developing strategies and providing referrals if applicable along with follow-up services.

"Crises are occurring more and more, and the family and community can no longer support them alone," Ippolito said, "We need to take a proactive stand and allocate more money. I realize there is a tightening of budgets, but denying the problem only exacerbates it and it explodes down the road. Please support the effort to hire crisis counselors, and produce meaningful change."

Board member John Notari, a

"A request was made by the Superintendent for BASE to continue its assistance in providing conflict mediation training for Belleville teachers," Cicalese said, "It is our pleasure to present Mr. Lally and the Board of Education with a check for $1,500 to be used for this purpose."

Dr. Ippolito and his wife, Dr. Lori Ippolito, co-founded Philmore Associates, a leading tutoring and counseling center that helps students deal with stress and anxiety.

Illegal students being caught

By Richard Dickon

Five students have been identified as illegally attending classes and two others were prevented from illegally attending Belleville schools in September, according to a report by School Board member Thomas Fuscaldo.

"We will be vigorously pursuing receipt of tuition reimbursement from the families of these students," Fuscaldo said at the Oct. 18 school board meeting.

Domicile investigator William Hicks and Attendance Officer Wayne Worley submitted two reports each for September, and Fuscaldo said "Mr. Hicks is working out very well. He's doing a good job."

Hicks and Worley have been inspecting residences and making contacts with families to verify residency.

CVS strip mall 90 percent full; groundbreaking soon

By Richard Dickon

The CVS strip mall is close to leasing tenants to fill the entire square footage, and groundbreaking may take place within two weeks, before winter sets in, according to developer Ed Rosenbloom.

The mall, to be at the former

Mead Ford automobile dealership on Washington Avenue, will include a 5,500-square-foot Palmer Video store and a 3,200-square-foot Quik Chek convenience store, in addition to the 1,500-square-foot CVS Pharmacy.

Town hall price tag of $2.4 Mil to be approved despite protests

By Richard Dickon

The Mayor and Council were scheduled to approve a $2.4 million bond ordinance for renovations to the interior and exterior of Town Hall on Oct. 25, despite protests from residents that the specifications are too general and the roof does not need replacing.

The ordinance would more than double the amount, from $1 million to $2.4 million, under revised price estimates recommended by a Township Council committee at a recent work session.

The increase would amend two bond ordinances to renovate the exterior and interior of town hall, both passed at $500,000 each.

Residents, including Vincent Frantantoni, Dan Ippolito and Second Ward Council candidate Henry Chazewski have criticized the revised specifications.

Mayor Jim Messina, Deputy Mayor Thomas Spillane and Councilman Bill Cook all sat on a committee with the Comito Associates architectural firm, and all agreed that the increased costs were unavoidable.

Daryl Alvarez, a partner in the Comito firm, has said nothing is really salvageable in the existing interior electrical, mechanical and plumbing structures, and that one third of the costs of the interior renovations were to bring the systems up to standard for the building constructed in 1913.

About another $200,000 is for flooring, painting and similar expenses, while half the exterior costs are for masonry and replacing

Police, Fire, BMEA salary contract approval expected

By Richard Dickon

The Township Council was expected to approve salary contracts for the Police, Fire and municipal employees at the Oct. 25 Council meeting.

While officials declined to discuss specific numbers until the Council's approval, sources said the police and fire salary increases were in the 4 percent range why the municipal employees would receive increases in the 3 percent range.

Award-winning school band hosts competition

The Belleville High School Marching Band has won two recent competitive honors, taking first place, Group 1, at the Morris Knolls Band Competition on October 23. Also the Band took honors for best percussion and best band front guard.

Superintendent of Schools Michael A. Lally lauded the band's accomplishments at the Oct. 24 school board meeting.

Belleville Music Parents Association President Patricia Calabrese has announced that the organization will sponsor a marching band competition, "Under the Stars," on Saturday, Oct. 29, at Belleville Municipal Stadium, beginning at 6 p.m.

"We are really looking forward to the competition," said Calabrese. "This is a great opportunity to showcase our kids and the kids from all over New Jersey. It's also a great fundraising event for us." Fifteen bands are expected to perform, including the Belleville Marching Band. The list of bands includes Cedar Grove, Dunellen, Ocean Township, Piscataway, Rutherford and Westfield. The size of the bands range from as small as 30 musicians to as large as over 150.

"This will be an exciting evening that will feature some of the most talented musicians in the state," said Calabrese. "We hope that the people of Belleville will come out to enjoy the show, support the kids, and help the B.M.P.A."

The B.M.P.A. is an organization that supports the music program in the Belleville schools, kindergarten through grade 12. Its members are parents of music students, former students, and anyone who encourages children and their music.

teacher in Clifton, urged support for hiring crisis counselors, and pledged to support the hirings as a school budget committee member.

"Teachers are often first to see the signs," Notari said, "A week before graduation at Clifton High School last June, a senior shot himself. Crisis counselors helped us get through that."

Cicalese vowed to fight to keep the hiring of crisis counselors in next year's budget.

Areas of concern in crisis counseling listed included suicide, child abuse, substance abuse, divorce, anorexia nervosa, bulimia, violence, dating violence, teenage pregnancy, death, health crisis and handicaps.

Board member Robert Molinaro, who was absent from the meeting to attend a school board workshop, has called for the hiring of crisis counselors.

I agree with a prosecutor who wants to reveal the names of certain juveniles who commit brutal crimes and those who are repeat offenders. Isn't it time we revealed to the public who these juveniles are. I think the public has a right to know if our neighbor's children are criminals so we can be on guard.

I am wondering why when I go to the supermarket and buy low fat items, low salt items and sugar free items that I have to pay more for these items. It doesn't make sense. If I get less I should pay less.

School #7 parents group aims to inform public on educational issues

By Richard Dickon

The School #7 Organization of Parent Educator's Board of Education Committee has begun attending School Board meetings with the intent of informing their fellow parents about the educational issues being discussed at public meetings.

Parents from School #7 made their first appearance at the Oct. 18 Board of Education meeting. Board member Robert Molinaro welcomed the committee, as well as representatives from other schools.

Carol Garilli, who chairs the School #7 OPE's Board of Education committee, is Molinaro's sister, and said she got the idea of attending meetings after hearing her brother's accounts of what goes on a typical board meeting.

"Most parents are not exposed to what's going on at Board of Education meetings," Garilli said, "We're going to report back to the Executive Board on Oct. 24th. We want to encourage parents, from all schools, to come out and give us more representation."

The other committee members are Frank Tartaglia, Marge Franco and Ellen DeRogatis.

Garilli, who has three young children in school, said that after witnessing her first school board meeting, "There's nothing like being there."

"We are making a plea for all the schools to show up and air their complaints and gripes," Garilli said, "We're not the ones who are putting our houses up for sale. We should be there."

Any parent interested can contact Garilli through School #7.

Nine local teachers recognized by National Who's Who in America

Nine local teachers have been chosen as a select group of America's teachers being honored by their toughest critics, their former students, in the third edition of Who's Who Among America's Teachers, 1994.

In alphabetical order, the honorees are: Martha Worthington Carson, School #7; Carl Corino, Belleville High School; Robert William Leffelbine, the high school; Patricia Maucione Pugliese, the high school; Lucille Francis Raniszewski, St. Peter's School; Irene Bernardo Richter, the high school; Alina C. Selva, the high school; Janice Lynn Nazzola Shuhan, the high school; and George Francis Turturiello, the high school.

All of the 66,500 teachers being honored were selected by their former students, who themselves are currently listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students or the National Dean's List. These publications recognize the top five percent of America's high school and college students, respectively.

Officials of Who's Who said there is no greater honor teachers can receive than to be recognized by former students for their excellence and dedication, with the best teachers in the country selected by the best students.

The students were requested to nominate teachers who "made a difference in their lives" by helping to shape their values, inspiring interest in a particular subject and/or challenging them to strive for excellence, according to Who's Who officials.

Many of the students commented about the enthusiasm and knowledge their teachers demonstrated in the classroom, and many praised their teachers for their ability to relate to youngsters on a personal as well as a professional level.

OUR OPINION

Catrambone took adversity with class; he deserves chance to get his life back

Class is a word used too often and too easily. Frank Catrambone deserves to have the word class used in describing his handling of the events in the last 13 months. After enduring the humiliation of being arrested in front of his students, being accused of sexual misconduct against young children, and finally not being charged, Catrambone could be forgiven for giving into the negativity and seeking retribution against his accusers.

Instead, Frank Catrambone talks about being an optimist, not being bitter or angry, just wanting his life back and how happy that will make him. Rather than broadcast his own pain, he chooses to talk about the toll taken on his wife, a teacher who worked throughout this nightmare, and his children.

In 1994, when nuisance lawsuits and litigation are begun at the drop of a hat, Catrambone's positive attitude and forgiving public stance is all the more admirable.

There will still be those who question Catrambone's innocence, and he is right to state that he cannot concern himself about that element. This may have been, as he said, "A horrible way to find out who your friends are," but until and unless someone can produce facts that have not come to light in 13 long months, Catrambone deserves the benefit of the doubt.

The wheels of justice ground far too slow and far too long for him, but as he said, at least they got it right in the end. Let's let Frank Catrambone do what he has done best for decades, serve the public as an educator and administrator. That is justice.

Fontoura endorsed for Sheriff

Belleville voters have an opportunity to re-elect an Essex County's Sheriff who has faced the greatest challenges in New Jersey. Armando Fontoura as successfully managed the largest department, supporting the largest court system, successfully for more than three years.

With the Township facing increased fears about violent crime, they can turn to Fontoura, who has proven ability and training that has served him - and Essex County - well throughout his 25 year career in police work. His strength, foresight and innovative ideas reflect the know-how he has gained while working for law enforcement offices at all levels, municipal through federal government.

He is a graduate from the F.B.I.'s National Academy and continues a relationship with this national agency. He is a veteran of the Newark Police Department where he served in several supervisory positions, including Chief Assistant to the Police Director.

While working in the Sheriff's Department, Fontoura expanded the Bomb

Detection, K-9 and Public Education Units while keeping economics a top priority.

As sheriff, he has boldly taken innovative steps to save costs by merging the Bureau of Narcotics with the Prosecutor's Office and local agencies and by cutting down on the number of officers on his staff. He has been responsible for raids and more arrests of drug peddlers than any sheriff before him.

Fontoura's commitment to his work in law enforcement is evidenced by his many hours of volunteer work for charitable activities, such as the Greater Newark Fresh Air Fund and the United Way of Essex and West Hudson.

Challenger Robert Malanga is a well-qualified candidate for the position whose skills would be welcomed by the county. He has been very visible in Belleville, taking youngsters to Giants pre-season football game as part of the county's DARE Program. But Fontoura has a proven record of success that warrants a second term, therefore, we endorse his re-election.

Ballot question #1 provides life with dignity

Marie Phillips of Community Mental Services tells the story of Charley, a chronic schizophrenic who is stabilized on medication, and attends a special program at the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley. The program has helped him improve his functioning, and he has learned how to take care of his own needs, but he will always need some supervision.

Charley is also 40 years old, living with elderly parents who are worried about how he will live when they are gone. Charley and others like him can benefit from entering a residential group home setting where he can live with people who have similar problems, and supportive counselors assist the residents with their daily living activities, supervise their medication and help them attend their special daily programs.

Charley and others like him can be kept in their communities rather than in large, distant institutions if Question #1, on the ballot for November 8th, passes. The N.J. Department of Human Services Bond Issue, (Question #1), will provide long-term federal funding to provide supported housing. Thousands of people living with frail, aging parents would be able to live with dignity in their own communities.

Those of us who volunteer our times at group homes in our own communities know that citizens like Charley are a boost to any community. On November 8th, let's all say "Yes" to improving the quality of life for this special section of our communities.

Price of skipping crisis counseling too high

Suicide, child abuse, substance abuse, divorce, anorexia nervosa, bulimia, the threat of violence, dating violence, teenage pregnancy, death, health crises and dealing with handicaps: All of these are part of life for young people growing up.

The merits of hiring of crisis counselors and the continuation and expansion of conflict mediation are obvious. The Belleville Alliance for Substance Education (BASE) continues to show why it is recognized as a national model, providing funding and an expert speaker, Dr. Michael Ippolito, at the most recent school board meeting.

Regardless of whether or not next year's school budget is defeated, the Board of Education must find funding for more than one crisis counselor. A cost cannot be placed on the negative effects of ignoring the needs for crisis counseling. It is an expense that must be paid, for the good of everyone's children.

YOUR OPINION

Senator thanked for Belleville honor as Industrial Revolution birthplace

To the Editor,

Senator Lautenberg, let us express the gratitude of the people of Belleville for your sponsorship of the Resolution granting federal recognition to Belleville as Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

This is a most opportune time to prompt passage of the Resolution. It gives the 25,000 voters of Belleville the opportunity to express their appreciation for this singular service to their community.

To Belleville, it means the recognition of 239 years of stirring history.

We hope and expect that official recognition will mean the preservation of some remarkable historic sites -- for example, the burial ground of 64 Revolutionary War soldiers, the site of the first plant to manufacture steam engines in America, the sites where Thomas Edison developed the voltaic battery, the site where Samuel F.B. Morse sent the first telegraphed message to Washington, D.C. over copper wire made in Belleville.

It was here that the historic Hendricks family made the copper that sheathed the hulls of the Union Navy, where Abolitionists had their major safe house for the "Underground Railroad" that carried escaped slaves to freedom, where the Knights of Labor organized their first units -- and a host of other events.

We hope and anticipate that seminars on America's industrial history will be held here, where it all began.

We hope that centers of education will be established here to foster understanding of America's industrial history -- setting up guideposts to the future.

It will mean that Belleville will become the focal point of world interest.

It was former Governor James Florio who told a

Belleville audience, "You people do not realize the unique place you have in history -- not just in America but in the world."

Klausner's work given due credit

To the editor:

I should like to commend you for reporting so swiftly on the Congressional recognition of Belleville as the birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

Unfortunately, you neglected to mention the fact that Howard Klausner, the former editor of the Belleville Times, was the engine behind this event; it was he who did most of the research in primary and secondary sources, wrote letters to state and national representatives including Klein, corresponded with the Roosevelts, wrote the stories, and set in motion the state recognition which led them to then Governor Jim Florio's appearance, and, the state recognition of that long ago accomplishment.

Howard's was a class act, for I should add that he recognized the possibilities that could follow such Congressional recognition; namely, the opportunity for the township to become a research center focusing on something akin to the study of Early American Industry.

To achieve that, to locate the knowledgeable people, the resources, the agencies, and finances is a challenge beyond the capacity of those now involved in township government. And that is sad.

To the editor,

I would just like to take this opportunity to thank the Belleville Emergency Squad for their arrival and care when my mother fell last week. Your arrival within approximately 5 minutes of the call was very reassuring. Again, Thank you.

Recently, he was endorsed by Newark Democrat Councilman Anthony Carrino, Newark Democrat Councilman Luis Quintana, Verona Democrat Councilwoman Cathy Tamasik, Orange Democrat Councilwoman Sandi Accomando, Orange Democrat Councilwoman Marion Silvestri, Belleville Democrat Mayor Jim Messina and Caldwell Democrat Councilman Paul Jemas. That's a very impressive array of powerful Democrats. Jim Treffinger gets two for one. "Democrats for Treffinger" will hold a fundraiser at Il Tulipano Restaurant, Pompton Avenue, Cedar Grove, October 25th at 7:00 PM. The cocktail hour will cost only $150 per person. That will be followed by a private reception at 9:00 PM, and the tab for that will be $500. The notice has a postscript advising county employees to disregard the notice if one was received. Schools getting better; Klein works for citizens

The School #7 Organization of Parent Educator's Board of Education Committee has begun attending School Board meetings with the intent of informing their fellow parents about the educational issues being discussed at public meetings.

The idea is to bring back news from meetings directly to OPE parents, many of whom cannot attend meetings. More direct involvement in the educational decision process by parents benefits everyone. If you can get to school board meetings, listen to Carol Garilli, who chairs the School #7 OPE's Board of Education committee. She put it plainly, "We're not the ones selling our homes. We've got to be there." Amen....

For those who need further proof that good things are happening in Belleville school, check out the eight teachers selected for the National Who's Who, along with the nine other educators being cited for Excellence in Education by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce. Look for more information about these and other accomplishments happening in Belleville schools, such as beginning foreign language instruction in grammar schools, increased Family Math and Reading programs, and the misunderstood Multi-cultural programs, all happening this school year. I will be highlighting all these in the coming weeks. For those who complain about high teacher salaries, this is an illustration that you get what you pay for....

National Bosses Week may have past, but it's never too late to honor a great boss, and the School #3 faculty and staff would like me to do just that for Principal Raffaella Saulino, whose enthusiasm and talents have proven to be a gift to the students and staff at her school. Administrator, teacher, good citizen, wife, mother, and grandmother, Principal Saulino truly deserves the title "Best Boss."

In my seven months covering Belleville, I have seen Congressman Herb Klein spend an entire day to help a Belleville family get help with their crumbling stone wall that brought their backyard within one storm of falling into the Second River. I have seen him support vital new technologies, jobs and commerce by fighting to bring the Garden State Cancer Center to the old, empty Geriatric Hospital and bring millions in research to H-Power Corp. to perfect clean-air, fuel cell bus technology. He has literally been visible at every major Belleville function, from parades to fund raisers to picnics. Some things to remember when you cast your vote come November 8th...

If you know of someone, or are yourself responsible for some of the many big or small, important good deeds done everyday and worthy of recognition in this town, let me know, because, as the this column states,, when it comes to good people, doing good things, "That's All in Belleville."

Drozdz endorses Klein re-election

To the Editor,

I would like to take this opportunity to call upon my friends and neighbors in Belleville to vote for a dear friend and a staunch supporter of Belleville, Congressman Herb Klein, on Nov. 8th.

During my tenure as a council person for the Township of Belleville, I came to see, firsthand, the importance that Herb Klein placed on Belleville's needs. I witnessed Herb personally sit down with townspeople on a group and individual level. He was never too busy to listen to a Bellevillite who had an issue with the federal government.

All too often, the hectic pace of Washington and federal policy issues can totally absorb a Congressperson's agenda. But, Herb Klein always seemed to remember that he is the representative of the people and it those people, specifically the people of Belleville, whom Herb Klein has been most interested in. He has fought for Belleville's many key issues and will continue to do so when re-elected.

I wholeheartedly ask for your support to allow Herb to continue serving us.

Adult residences give life dignity

To the Editor,

Charley is a chronic schizophrenic who is stabilized on medication, and he attends a special program at the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley which has helped him improve his functioning. He has learned how to take care of his own needs, but he will always need some supervision.

Charley is 40 years old, and he lives with his elderly parents who are worried about how he will live when they are gone. His counselor recommended that Charley enter a residential setting where he can live with people who have similar problems. These residences provide supportive counselors who assist the residents with their daily living activities, supervise their medication and help them attend their special daily programs. For Charley that means getting him to and from his program at CMHS. However, these residences have long waiting lists and many more are needed.

This year we have an opportunity to help people like Charley and others with disabilities, keeping them in their communities rather than in large, distant institutions.

On our ballots this November 8th, we will have a chance to vote on the N.J. Department of Human Services Bond Issue. It appears as Question #1. It will provide long-term federal funding to provide supported housing. Thousands of people living with frail, aging parents would be able to live with dignity in their own communities.

Jeffers speaks directly to citizens

The following is a statement by Walter J. Jeffers, who was not charged in the alleged "sex ring" case that recently went to the grand jury. Jeffers was reinstated by the Board of Education Oct. 24 to his previous position as custodian at School #5.

My family and I are very relieved that the ordeal we were put through for the past 13 months is finally over.

I would like to thank God, my wife and family, and all our neighbors and friends, for all their support and prayers.

I also thank the Belleville Board of Education members, the past and present Superintendents, and the rest of the administration for believing in us, and in the fact that you are innocent until proven guilty.

A special thanks to all my friends at School #5. The faculty, staff, P.T.A. President, officers and members, and all of the kids and parents, who, with all their prayers and support helped my family and I get through the past 13 months. I now believe I have larger family that includes all of them in it.

As for my lawyer, what can I say? Her name is Ms. Laurie M. Fierro, and she is a very special person in my eyes, and in the eyes of my family.

Again, as we try to put our lives back together, I thank all for their support.

Investigator nabbing illegal students to go along with catching illegal students.

"We have had very good communication with Mr. Dominick, and we hope to save tax dollars and move forward with this," Fuscaldo said. "We want to let it be known throughout the town that illegal multi-residence homes, and illegal students, will not be tolerated here."

School Board President Gabe Nazzola said "I have met with Mr. Hicks and he as a gentleman, astute and smart. If anyone can do this job, certainly he can. This committee is to be commended."

School Board Vice President Barbara Cicalese, an illegal student committee member, said directly to Nazzola, "I guess we did a pretty good job, didn't we?"

Fuscaldo has said the committee will be meeting on a regular basis and will be available to the public for any suggestions to tighten up the boundaries of detecting illegal students to alleviate illegal students and save taxpayers money.

Hicks has been hired as a part-time domicile investigator to help the district locate students illegally attending school in Belleville.

Hicks will be paid $15 per hour and cannot exceed 20 hours per week.

The hiring ended months of meetings between citizens and school officials that helped the board prepared a job description for the domicile investigator, the District's attendance officer, and an updated residency policy and residency form.

Hicks is assisting Worley, and both are to provide a written report on a bi-monthly basis along with suggesting ways to improve the system.

The illegal student committee comprises School Board Vice President Barbara Cicalese, Fuscaldo, Board member John Notari, Dr. Joseph Ciccone, the former high school principal who is now assistant school superintendent, and several residents, including Angela Conte, Frank Montagna and his wife, and other residents.

Montagna has continued to call for the board to hire additional personnel to find non-resident students attending district schools. He said he and others "walked the town" and observed students exiting buses from Newark.

Municipalities join in parks celebration

Volunteer members of the Essex County Parks Centennial Celebration are formulating a wide range of special events to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the creation of the Essex County park system. Plans include cultural performances, historical displays and athletic events to celebrate the oldest county park system in the United States.

The governor of New Jersey signed a law establishing the Essex county parks March 1895. Beginning with only 60 acres in what is now Branch Brook Park in Newark, the Essex park system now covers nearly 6,000 acres. The system provides three golf courses, four reservations, 17 developed parks, 68 tennis courts, six senior citizen facilities, two community centers, an environmental center, an ice skating complex and the state's largest zoo.

A century ago, Essex County officials enlisted the firm of world-renowned Frederick Law Olmsted, designer of New York's Central Park, to design 20 of Essex County's current parks and reservations.

The Centennial Committee is developing a year-long series of events in all county parks that will highlight the park system's rich historical heritage. The Committee is still in formation and additional members are being sought from historical societies, service clubs and civic groups, churches and school groups as well as local recreation departments.

Anthony Burke, Director of the Essex County Department of Parks, stated that input and direction is needed from municipal groups who wish to be involved in planning special activities to take place in their local county park. Committee members are busy researching historical documents, photos and artifacts dealing with the hundred year history of the park system.

Anyone interested in joining the Centennial Committee or taking part in the 100th anniversary events should contact the Essex County Department at 857-8530.

Life in Silver Lake

'Pony Joe' still riding

Personalities of the Week

Silver Lake has so much to offer their residents. Great restaurants, bakeries, good neighbors, and even a pony. What a place. The name of our Silver Lake Pony is Goldie. Joe Sica, otherwise referred to as "Pony Joe," of Honiss Street, is the proud owner, cowboy hat and all. Now, let me tell you a little about Pony Joe and his buddy. Goldie is a gelding and is about 19 years old. There was a Goldie II, but he was sold to the highest bidder.

'Pony Joe' Sica and Goldie

This all started back in the 1930's when Joe Sica's father, Luigi, had a horse and wagon. Luigi gave his son Joe a pony, and boy did that start the ball rolling. Over the years, he had a number of other ponies called Gerry, Red, and Midnight, to name a few.

He stables his 'pride and joy' on Honiss Street and transports him to various functions with his trailer. Everyone knows Pony Joe and Goldie. Joe is a 2nd World War veteran and a member of the American Legion and Amvets of Silver Lake. He donated his services to both the 'Blossomfest' and the Silver Lake Clean Up and Block Party. His services are available for birthday parties at a reasonable fee. Give them a try ... You won't be sorry ... Joe has been a resident of Silver Lake for over 70 years. That's dedication to The Lake.

Let me be the first to congratulate Pony Joe & Goldie on being inducted into the Personalities' Hall of Fame for Silver Lake. Hip, Hip, Hooray to Pony Joe and Heeeeeeeeee to Goldie.

Sue and Dennis Forlenzo hosted a 3rd birthday party at McDonald's for their daughter, Jamie. Sister Danielle, Kristen and brother D.J., along with many friends had a fantastic time. Now is a good time to tell you about the father of this family. He is a great guy and is the vice president of the Silver Lake Civic Association. He is always there to help out and is a very civic-minded young man. As the president of the SLCA I have to deal with him on numerous occasions and let me tell you it is a distinct pleasure to do so.

In last week's issue Florence

Marie Strumolo Burke

Nicastro of Heckel Street thanked the Silver Lake Firemen for the great job they did in extinguishing a fire in her yard. But she forgot to say thank you to another man who "took the bull by the horns." This unknown gentleman was coming home from Columbus Hospital where his wife just had a baby. He saw the fire from his car and, literally, jumped out of his car and ran in her yard, grabbed a hose and started putting the fire out. Without the help of this gentleman, God knows what would have happened. Florence is hoping that, through this column, we get lucky and find out who this gentleman is so that we can properly thank him.

So come on all you "amateur detectives," get on the case and find out who this "good samaritan" is.

REMEMBER, WE LOVE SILVER LAKE.

Catrambone, Jeffers are reinstated took place. Puttorak was found dead in the Essex County Jail of an apparent suicide by hanging in August 1993 and his death prompted an independent criminal investigation after his surviving family members claimed he was executed.

Catrambone, Jeffers and Sista had continued to be paid while under suspension. Sista was suspended, without pay, at the Oct. 24 school board meeting.

The others who had all charges dropped were: Dr. Marc P. Roberts; Felix Cabera-Montas; Loi Duc Chu; Diego Gonzalez; Charlene G. Sonn and Anivar Torres.

Betty Enger, 37, was originally charged with conspiracy and endangering the welfare of two of her daughters, nine and 11, stemming from reports of "sex parties" that were allegedly held in the children's home. She is charged with two counts of second degree endangering the welfare of a child, and two counts of third degree endangering the welfare of a child.

Martin Antonio Torres, 29, Enger's live-in boyfriend, is charged with one count of second degree conspiracy; eight counts of first degree aggravated assault; two counts of second degree sexual assault by sexual contact; two counts of second degree endangering the welfare of a child.

Ferdinand Galletto, 31, is charged with one count of second degree conspiracy; two counts of first degree aggravated sexual assault; two counts of third degree endangering the welfare of a child and two counts of fourth degree endangering the welfare of a child.

Each first degree count carries a maximum sentence of up to 20 years, second degree counts carry up to 10 years, third degree a maximum of five years and fourth degree a maximum of 18 months.

Aside From That

By: Howard Klausner

All of us - Democrats, Republicans and whatever - owe a vote of thanks to the United States House of Representatives and Congressman Herb Klein, in particular, for voting unanimously to recognize Belleville as Birthplace of The American Industrial Revolution.

Special mention should go to Joe Hatch, fifth generation descendant of Josiah Hornblower who tenaciously nurtured the memory of his ancestor and told us of how the first steam engine was brought to America and erected in New Barbadoes by the Engineer-Patriot. New Barbadoes became Second River, and then Belleville.

It was on the basis of this information, and the further fact that the experimental steamboat Polacca was launched from Belleville in 1798, that led us to urge recognition of Belleville as the cradle of American industrial might.

It was Lou Cicenía, Chairman of the Belleville Renaissance Committee, who threw himself into the study of Hornblower's achievement and uncovered a treasure trove of information.

It was Mr. Cicenía who pieced together the remarkable story of how Nicholas Roosevelt joined with Hornblower, Signer of the Declaration of Independence Robert Livingston, General Philip Schuyler and George Washington's Quartermaster General Robert Stevens to manufacture America's first steam engines.

The 17 or more engines made in Soho went on to pump water for the reservoirs of Philadelphia and New York, and to power factories and mills across the new nation.

The Industrial Revolution did not begin in America, but in Scotland, with the development first of Newcomen's single cylinder engine and then the reciprocating twin cylinder credited to both James Watt and the Hornblower family.

Belleville's significance is that it made America independent of England in the development of steam power. Stevens and his brothers went on to pioneer the American railroad industry. Roosevelt and Livingston pioneered the steamboat industry.

The engines shipped out of Belleville between 1798 and 1805 were each a spark that ignited enthusiasm for the revolutionary new form of energy.

At our urging, recognition of Belleville's place in history was voted by the Township Council, the Essex County Board of Freeholders and the New Jersey Legislature, and was then formally proclaimed by Governor Jim Florio.

Armed with a mountain of information provided by Mr. Cicenía, Congressman Robert A. Roe introduced a bill for recognition in the House of Representatives. It was re-introduced by Congressman Herb Klein, and passed unanimously by the House of Representatives.

It was only through the efforts of the Belleville Renaissance Committee and the Belleville Historical Society that this achievement was realized.

When the United States Senate and the President formally endorse the recognition bill, the credit will have to go to the Renaissance Committee and the Historical Society.

In truth, only perfunctory support was provided by the Township Council and other organizations which should have been in the forefront of the effort. Nor does our Council yet have any idea at all of what to do with recognition when it comes.

The Belleville Renaissance Committee, backed by the resources of the Belleville Historical Society, is the logical agency to develop a program to benefit Belleville - untainted by politics and self-interest.

It is important that the Belleville Times continue to publicize the effort to achieve recognition. The attitude of the rest of the press has been either indifference or outright hostility.

And these facts are not debatable:

There was an American industrial revolution.

It was made possible by the steam engine.

Belleville is where it happened.

CVS strip mall to break ground soon tenants, and we have gotten the preliminary curb cut from the state for Route 7 (Washington Avenue)," Rosenbloom said, "We have applied for a building permit."

The CVS mall plans were approved in late May, after the developer agreed to include parking islands landscaped with shrubbery called for by then-mayor Marina Perna, who said the mall would not be aesthetically pleasing without the changes.

The Planning Board granted variances for the number of parking spaces allowed, 62, as well as allowing the spaces to be slightly smaller than normally required.

A right turn only is to be allowed as an egress onto Little Street while stores can be open only from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., while truck delivery times were also limited as part of the conditions of approval.

Also, waste receptacles have to be placed where odor and garbage will not bother patrons.

The planning board approved a Taco Bell restaurant, now nearly completed, for the old Chevrolet dealership across the street in a separate action last February.

The site plan calls for the existing building on the right to be expanded and renovated, while the existing building on the left will be renovated and a new building constructed in the middle, with all three facing the street.

Allowing parking in front allowed for seven more parking spaces, while the state Department of Transportation required front parking for technical reasons.

Town hall renovations to be approved windows, some original to the structure.

The Council plans to have artist renderings of the plans within a few weeks, along with detailed explanations of the spending, for the public to examine.

Messina has said he expected the costs would be about where they are now, and that the plans have all the contingencies built in.

Messina has said the $2.4 million price tag for the old building, which is to house at least four departments, including Code Enforcement, the Township Clerk's Offices, and Code Enforcement, compares favorably with the $7 million spent for the new building, which houses one department, the police.

Cook has said since the renovations are for a 50-year building, the costs are about $40,000 per year for 50 years, and would cost taxpayers about one and one half tax points, while this is an optimum time to borrow, and the town will be getting EDA (Economic Development Authority) funding.

Cook said the scope of the work had not been determined in June, and the council had to have a bond ordinance passed to satisfy EDA requirements.

Township Attorney Robert Giordano has said the town would have lost $300,000 in EDA grants if they had not passed the bond ordinances in June.

Spillane said the committee looked for substantial reductions of at least $50,000 to $100,000, but any cuts that could have been made would not have made a significant difference.

Cook said the reductions they were looking were all $5,000 or less.

Messina said the original structure cost $60,000 in 1913, while the land cost $10,000, and the town got a good return on investment, but the work has to be addressed on what he called "an historical landmark in Belleville."

The Council has received permission from Board of Education officials to possibly use the vacant School #1 for about the six months it would take to complete renovations.

A Statement of Commitment by the Township has been sent to the state proclaiming that the town will proceed under the New Jersey Municipal/County Infrastructure Loan Program. The statement is for the two separate projects, the interior and exterior of Town Hall.

Bids are being accepted for the renovations, and Messina has all along that the total amount bonded did not have to be completely spent, but the amount was necessary since the restoration may entail more than is currently expected.

The council had approved the first $500,000 bonding ordinance for the exterior restoration of the town hall building, parts of which are crumbling, despite protests from a handful of residents about the amount being bonded.

The architect needed to provide a time frame, including a schedule for when bid specifications could be put out to bid.

The loans would be paid back at 1.5 percent interest over 20 years.

Comito Associates has been hired as architect for $20,000, less than the $40,500 originally allocated.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Cook - nee Diane Williams

Diane Williams bride of Craig C. Cook

Diana Joyce Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Williams of Belleville, was married July 2 to Craig Charles Cook of O'Fallon, Illinois, son of Carl R. Cook of Prescott, Arizona and the late Patricia R. Grant.

The Rev. Walter LaBatt performed the ceremony in St. Michael's Episcopal Church, O'Fallon. A reception followed at Knights of Columbus Hall, O'Fallon.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a princess-style gown of organza over satin, fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline and wrist-length balloon sleeves. It featured a chapel train of layered chantilly lace and was accented with Alencon lace, pearls, crystal sequins and beads.

A Juliet cap held her veil and she carried a cascade of white roses, carnations, daisies and lilies with babies breath, variegated greenery, myrtle and rosemary.

Becky Miller of Newport News, Virginia, was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was the groom's daughter, Christina Cook of O'Fallon.

They were in tea-length sleeveless gowns of turquoise moire, wore small silk-flowered headpieces of miniature coral and blue carnations and carried white daisies and coral and blue miniature carnations.

The groom's father served as his son's best man. Groomsman was the bride's brother, Raymond D. Williams, Sr., of Belleville. Sean and Paul Cahill of O'Fallon seated the guests.

Mrs. Williams chose a dusty rose and cream suit dress with rhinestone buttons.

Mrs. Cook, an alumna of Belleville High School, retired as a technical sergeant in the U.S. Air Force this June. She attends Belleville Area College, Belleville, Illinois.

Mr. Cook, a graduate of the University of the Philippines, Clark Air Base, Philippines, retired as a captain from the U.S. Air Force in 1991. He is a senior systems analyst with I-NET, Inc., O'Fallon.

The couple honeymooned in Lake of the Ozarks, Missouri. They have made their home in O'Fallon.

In Re: Municipal Stadium

Want the same old garbage? Just vote for Nick Cerami

Under the category of "you can't make this stuff up" comes the latest from our brilliant Council members regarding the never ending story of that pigsty called Municipal Stadium in Belleville, N.J.

In the October 20, 1994 issue of the Belleville Times, Nick Cerami, along with Henry Charzewski, Ralph DiPasquale and Joseph Scaperrotta were interviewed by Belleville Times editor Richard Dickon.

The purpose of the interview was to discuss issues pertinent to the Second Ward council seat, which is up for election next month. As most of you know, Cerami is the "incumbent", although he wasn't originally elected by the people to the seat. He took over the seat when his brother, Charles, was selected to head the DPW in Belleville.

Anyway, Cerami, a Belleville High School graduate and member of the Buccaneer football team from 1983 to '85, was asked by Dickon about the stadium. All of the candidates were questioned on a series of issues, with the stadium a prime concern.

Cerami, in discussing the stadium, said, "I agree the stadium needs to be better than it is, but it is not our most pressing issue."

He went on to say that issues such as the town's infrastructure and the educational system are more pressing.

Cerami apparently is running for the wrong seat. If education is his chief concern as a council member, he should be looking into the Board of Education election. The last I checked, there were seven pretty qualified individuals sitting on that Board, not to mention the Superintendent of Schools, Michael Lailly and the new Assistant Superintendent, Dr. Joseph Ciccone, the former principal of Belleville High School.

It's amazing that with all the educational background possessed by the board members and the administrators that Cerami needs to worry about the educational system.

Bear in mind, education is a very important issue. Our kids deserve the best education possible and nothing less should be tolerated.

But the Board of Education is in the business of doing just that. The townships infrastructure was also a concern of Cerami's. Isn't the upgrading and improving of Municipal Stadium the number one way to improve the infrastructure?

If the place was a showplace instead of a disgrace, the pride of the community would be enhanced and, consequently, the aforementioned infrastructure would also benefit.

Cerami commented that "the stadium should be better than it is." How should it be better, Nick?

Better than a quagmire? Should the crevices on the JV soccer and baseball field be bigger and better than they are now? Or should the cracks on the tennis courts be larger? Or how about the cat litter on the track? Should that be re-sifted to give the place a better look?

I know, maybe the sprinkler system on the baseball field should explode better, so that the field will be totally under water next spring and the baseball team won't be able to play at home, too.

Nick, the stadium doesn't need to be "better than it is." It needs a lot of attention, a lot of work and the more you and your colleagues procrastinate on this issue, the more the stadium is going to deteriorate.

If simple maintenance had been followed years ago, the place might be a lot nicer now with less cost necessary to rebuild the place. But that's another issue.

Every town surrounding Belleville has fifty times better facilities than Belleville. Every time the varsity football team travels, it's embarrassing to see the differences in the way other towns maintain their facilities. When Mendham comes to Belleville next fall, they'll probably end up laughing at the mess we call Municipal Stadium.

Cerami also said, in the October 20 issue, that his appointment, which was criticized by many, was gotten because the sitting council knew him and they had similar philosophies. If anyone questions his autonomy, they can vote for someone else.

The statement that the council selected him because of similar philosophies should tell all of the taxpayers in this township that the stadium will never be improved upon, and that this issue will be ignored until, hopefully, it is forgotten.

Don't forget, our previous Mayor, Marina Perna, called Jim Landon's architectural plans to rehab Municipal Stadium "a wish list". Considering that Landon's plan called for no major renovations, it just goes to prove that the Council, at least in its present form, will take no interest in the stadium. If anyone had taken the time to carefully review those plans, which were originally submitted in 1991, the place could look ten times better today.

Cerami's philosophies seem to join the rest of the council who plan to continue posturing on this issue.

In the last election, Jerry DiGori, another BHS grad and former Buccaneer football player, received the highest amount of votes. Not so coincidentally, one of his main platforms for running was the issue of Municipal Stadium.

If DiGori does plan on doing something about the stadium (and I'm not talking about knocking down the stadium and starting all over again), will he receive any help from his colleagues? Based on Cerami's statement, the stadium is not a major concern. How many of the other members share Cerami's view?

You, the taxpayers and citizens of the Township of Belleville, have the opportunity to go to the polls in a few weeks and make some decisions. This column will not be endorsing a candidate. The choice you make behind the curtain is yours and yours alone.

But if you have an interest in Municipal Stadium, you might want to wonder what the Council plans on doing about the place, outside of having their pictures taken while pointing to the stadium.

You at least have a very clear picture of why nothing has been

First winning season in 20 years on line

Tosato's runners nearing goal

By Mike Lamberti

For nearly two decades, the Belleville cross country program has taken a back seat to some of the other fall varsity sports.

In 1994, the program has begun to take center stage.

John Tosato's team closed out its season last Tuesday with a meet against rival Bloomfield, and on the line was a winning season.

The Bucs were 5-5 heading into that meet, and a victory, obviously, would cinch a 6-5 campaign.

If the Bucs won, it would mark the first time since 1974 that a Belleville cross country team has posted a record above .500.

The five victories posted by the team, thus far, is the most by a cross country team at BHS in at least 15 years.

The '74 Bellboys, were coached by Rich Ruffalo, who was in his first year at the helm of the program. The team finished with a 7-5 record and were led by Mike Fortino, Walt Siubus, Jim Beck, Nelson Seda, Jim Bradley, John Matera, Joe Vincenti and Brian Wood. (A junior named Mike Lamberti also competed on that team).

Anyway, the '94 team put itself in a position for a winning campaign by defeating Teaneck and University last week.

Versus Teaneck, the Bucs won 22-33, capturing their third league victory in the process.

It was a tri meet, which also included league power Paramus Catholic. P.C. blanked Belleville and Teaneck by 15-50 counts.

Carlos Sagbay placed eighth overall in the race in a time of 18:01. Phong Nguyen was 11th (18:48), Brad Koch, 13th (19:28, his best race of the year to date), Anthony Marchione was 17th in 20:10, Mike Matos was 20th (20:37) and Pete Santora finished 28th overall in 21:51. It was Santora's best time of the '94 campaign thus far.

"The kids did a good job," Tosato said. "We got a good effort in beating Teaneck. Paramus Catholic has a tremendous team. They eventually won the league championships at Garret Mountain."

Against University, the Bucs were shutout winners, 15-50.

Nguyen won the race in 18:58. He was followed by Koch (19:39, second overall), Marchione (20:07, fourth overall), Matos (20:13, fifth) and Santora (23:24, ninth).

Rachel Anderson won the girls race with a time of 26:18.

Sagbay did not compete in the race because of illness. Tosato was hopeful that Sagbay would be back in action for last Tuesday's race with Bloomfield.

At the league championships, the Bucs placed eighth in the league.

"We didn't run as well as we could have," Tosato said. "Hopefully, we'll do better in the county championships."

Santora ran the freshman two mile at the leagues and ran in 13:44.

In the varsity race, Sagbay was 28th (19:55), Nguyen was 29th (20:23), Marchione finished 44th (21:55), Koch was 48th (23:08) and Matos placed 59th (23:13).

The Bucs will compete in the state sectionals this weekend, at 11 a.m. in Warnacko Park in Elizabeth.

Anthony Marchione races to finish line during the Sam Glaffrida run last Sunday morning. Marchione and his teammates closed out regular season last Tuesday.

On November 4, the team will be at Branch Brook Park for the county championships.

Bucs drop fifth straight to Mendham, 24-6

By Mike Lamberti

A clinic on fundamental football was given at Mendham High School last Saturday.

Unfortunately for the Belleville Bucs, they were the recipient of the clinic.

Undefeated Mendham scored on its first offensive series and never looked back, beating winless Belleville 24-6.

The Bucs will finally return home this week after four straight games on the road. John Senesky's team will be host to Don Bosco, tomorrow evening, in what will also be Homecoming Night. Kickoff is 7 p.m., with the homecoming festivities at halftime. (See related article on Homecoming Night).

"We were physically over-matched with them," Senesky said after the game. "They are not a very big team, but they make very few mistakes and hit hard on every play. We're working with a lot of young players, and they got a lesson on playing physical football."

"We tried to make some adjustments heading into the game defensively. Our ends, Brian McIntosh and Tom Dyer, are sophomores and are still learning the game. They're playing well, but we were hoping to get a seven man front to contain the running game somewhat. Our defensive backs, who have pretty good speed, would then be able to help on the line, but Mendham's blocking schemes were good and they were able to sweep pretty effectively."

Despite that, the Bucs were still in the game throughout the first half. After Mendham scored on its first drive, the Buc defense did pretty well, keeping its opponent off the board until the waning stages of the second quarter, when the Minutemen added a field goal.

A key play in the first half came when Berardi intercepted a Mendham pass deep in Belleville territory to negate a possible Minutemen score.

The Bucs best offensive drive came in the second quarter and was spearheaded by a 30 yard run by Berardi after the quarterback escaped a near sack.

But the drive stalled when Berardi's pass was intercepted two plays later. Mendham returned the interception to its own 40 and eventually tallied the field goal to make it 10-0 at the half.

The third quarter was all downhill for Belleville. The Bucs went three and out after the kickoff and Mendham quickly added its second touchdown to increase its lead to 17-0.

Offensively, the Bucs were limited, scoring their only touchdown late in the fourth quarter on a pass from Ram Parekh to sophomore wideout Tyree Huffin.

Junior Tyrone Fitts made some good runs in the second half to give the Buc running game a boost.

"We're thinking about making some adjustments on offense to the 'I' formation," Senesky said. "Tyrone can do some good things

A.C., Montalto among Homecoming candidates

By Mike Lamberti

It will be an extra special evening at Municipal Stadium tomorrow evening.

In addition to the Belleville-Don Bosco football team, it's also Homecoming Night, with halftime ceremonies that will crown the new King and Queen for 1994.

The Homecoming event is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Belleville and the Belleville High School Key Club.

The King and Queen from last year will be on hand to help with this year's ceremonies. Joe DePeri and Vanessa Rodriguez will hand over their "thrones" to this year's winner.

There are three candidates each for the '94 King and Queen.

The Queen candidates are seniors Fran Montalto, Lisa DeSimone and Andrea Curran.

The King candidates include seniors Jim Berg, Dan Brunello and Brian Dena.

"They're all good students and are active in a number of school functions," said BHS teacher Carol Russo, who helps coordinate the event.

Montalto is a member of the Belleville High School crew team.

DeSimone is a cheerleading captain while Curran, known by most in the school simply as A.C., is a standout athlete competing for the volleyball, girls' basketball and softball teams.

Berg is a member of the very successful Belleville soccer team. Brunello is a pitcher and outfielder for the varsity baseball team and is expected to be one of the better players in the NNJL this year.

Dena is also a member of the varsity baseball team, playing third base and pitching. Last year, he was outstanding, earning all county honors. He made a tremendous recovery from a major knee injury incurred during the football season in 1992. Dena and Brunello figure to pace the '95 Buc baseball team.

According to Russo, the evening will start with the Homecoming Parade, which begins at 5 p.m. from Town Hall. The parade will make its way to the high school.

The football game commences at 7 p.m. Then, at halftime, the ceremonies will take place. None of the candidates will know who the winner is until the announcement is held at halftime.

"The kids do the voting which will be held on Thursday (today)," Russo said. "After the voting, the computer tabulates the results and I'm the only one who will know the result before it's announced."

"The Key Club also has a representative at the tabulation to verify that all the ballots are counted properly."

This is a very enjoyable event and tomorrow night will be no exception.

Cheerleading captain Lisa DeSimone (center) performs "dance" routine during halftime of recent Buc football game. DeSimone is one of three finalists for 1994 Homecoming Queen. The "King" and "Queen" will be announced during halftime of tomorrow night's game at Municipal Stadium.

Giuffrida run: Belleville at its finest

By Mike Lamberti

From 1990-93, the Sam Giuffrida Memorial Run has stood for all that is good in the Township of Belleville.

Despite not-so-perfect weather last Sunday, the 1994 version was well attended and, without question, had the most enthusiastic following since the inception of the race four years ago.

"The weather wasn't so great, but it was certainly a wonderful time," said race coordinator Tonia Moore, who has been very involved in this event since 1990.

And it was a marvelous day, both on the road and in the eyes of the people who volunteered to help.

A little rain would not dampen the spirits of the many people who worked long and hard to make the race a big success.

"It's a good turnout," said Michael Giuffrida, Sam's son and a runner in the one mile "fun run."

"Every year, it seems to get better," Michael continued.

"Hopefully, more people in the town will continue to get involved."

Michael and Lori Ippolito, owners of Philmore Associates and sponsors of the race since its inception, were once again in attendance and very visible in helping to make the day a success.

Lori Ippolito, the former Lori Giordano, was the grand marshal in the recent Belleville-Nutley Columbus Day Parade. She is a 1976 graduate of Belleville High School (a classmate of mine) and today, runs a very successful business with her husband Mike.

During the race, Mike spoke with pride of his wife's successes, and most importantly, of the success of their marriage, which is currently in its 11th year.

"We have a great relationship," Mike said. "We're friends, business associates and husband and wife. Most of all, we have great respect for each other."

These are high quality people and their influence in the race just makes it an even better event.

Lorraine Leming, a soon-to-be grandmother, has been an active participant in the race since its inception. Along with her husband, Gus, the Leming's are hard working people who have done a great job in raising a family and making Belleville a better place.

Once again, Bill Hollis entertained everyone with his tremendous audio system. Hollis, who was my Spanish teacher in the eighth grade (I won't tell you the year) is a super guy who has been involved in this event for four years.

The Belleville High School cheerleading squad was in attendance, led by captains Jeanine Mazucca and Lisa DeSimone.

The girls helped out at the finish line and the reception table. One of the cheerleaders, freshman Jen Spano, ran in the one mile and became the first cheerleader to run in the Sam Giuffrida race in uniform.

Another first time event in this race was a wheelchair athlete competing in the five mile run.

Roy Sabbath finished the race with an impressive time. He was helped a little in the race with the hills by some other runners.

"It was great," said John Tosato, the cross country and track coach at Belleville High School who assists ever year with the race. "Those hills were tough, and a few of the runners were there to make sure Roy had no problem with them."

Sabbath, in receiving his award, also thanked the people for their help.

Hopefully, more wheelchair athletes will take part in this race next year.

The "juggler" ran the five mile run and never missed a ball while doing so.

My friend, Sue Castano, along with her husband Jack, ran both the one and five mile races.

The Castano's son, David, who is six years old, competed in the one mile run and finished in 12 minutes. Daughter Lauren, 4, was a willing cheerleader on the sidelines.

Speaking of young runners, the story of the race was the absolutely marvelous performance of Leisha Jackucewicz. Just eight years old, Leisha ran the five mile run in 38:23.2.

She was the second overall female to finish the race, and by far, the top runner in her age group.

Jackucewicz resides in Farmingdale. Perhaps Tosato should find out if she's interested in moving to Belleville, hopefully in about six years when it's time for high school.

Remember the name Leisha Jackucewicz. For an eight year old to run five miles in 38 minutes plus is an awesome accomplishment. Her average mile was 7:47.

"She's something else," said Joe Pizzi, a Belleville fireman who finished right behind her in the race.

Pizzi, another Belleville High School class of 1976 grad, and his wife Linda have a beautiful family. (Linda was a '76 BHS grad, too. It was a great class.)

In the five mile run, Brian Thomas was the first Belleville resident to finish, placing fourth overall in a great time of 29:16.9.

(A complete list of finishers and award winners will be in this week's issue.)

In the one mile run, Mike Matos was the first Bellevilleite across, with a time of 5:49. Matos is a member of the Buc cross country team.

My friend Megan Talbot did a good job in the one mile run, with a time of 12:17.2. Her mom Joyce was there to root her on.

One of the best athletes ever to attend Belleville High School, Michael Gibbons, ran the five mile in an impressive 39:59.

A 1993 member of the Belleville Hall of Fame, Gibbons, an all state wrestler in high school and an All American grappler in college, is today the assistant wrestling coach at Seton Hall University.

While everyone remembers Mike for his wrestling exploits, don't forget that he was also a solid football player for the Bucs from 1982-84.

"We're getting ready for a big season," Gibbons said of his Seton Hall troops. "I've got two Belleville wrestlers on the team, Junior Nardone and Vinnie DeSimone."

(By the way, DeSimone is the brother of Lisa DeSimone, the cheerleading captain and candidate for '94 Homecoming Queen.)

Lets not forget the work of Dr. Len Russo. A 1983 graduate of BHS, Russo has been a contributor to the Sam Giuffrida race since its inception.

This year, he was the major sponsor. Lenny, a former standout Buccaneer basketball player, has practically guaranteed that if the three point rule were in effect when he played, he would have broken Jennifer Apicella's scoring record.

"I'd shoot the ball from anywhere," Russo joked. "High school was a lot of fun. I can't believe it's been 12 years."

Russo is a hard working man who has made a success of his professional life. He has given back to his community in a number of ways and his work in the Giuffrida race is just another example.

It was great to see Sam's wife, Carol, his daughter Carolyn and Sam's parents. Sam's day, Samuel, Sr. once again competed in the one mile run.

By the way, Carolyn Giuffrida is engaged, with an October 1995 wedding date. (She better be back from her honeymoon in time for the '95 run. Congratulations to her.)

Overall, it was a great event. The weather was damp, but very good for runners.

And, in the end, it was what Belleville should be about. No politics today, no arguments about the stadium, etc.

Councilman Bill Cook, a key contributor to the race, was on hand to distribute awards and to help with runners crossing the finish line.

School Board president Gabe Nazzola took part in the one mile run. But on this day, those men were citizens of the town, and they enjoyed taking part in the race and honoring a great man, Sam Giuffrida.

And, that was what it's really about, anyway. Saying thank you to Sam Giuffrida and saying that we, as a township, will never forget him.

"Next year, it will be sunny again," Moore said while handing out the awards.

The sun doesn't have to shine for it to be sunny for the Sam Giuffrida run.

This was Belleville at its finest. It was a wonderful day.

Girls' soccer team battling hard in first yr.

By Rocco Constantino

The Belleville Lady Bucs soccer program continues to show signs of success, even though they have come up empty in three games.

The same attitude and enthusiasm the Lady Bucs displayed on opening day has been maintained through the season, and that has kept them in the games they have played so far. However, defensive breakdowns, and not enough offensive support from the midfield has been their downfall. Those mistakes can all be attributed to the lack of experience, as was expected at the beginning of the year.

Belleville recently lost to Mt. St. Dominic's and Bloomfield, 6-0 and 3-0, respectively.

In the Bloomfield game, Belleville had its best chance for a goal when they were awarded a penalty kick. Captain Christina Killian shot to the left of the keeper, who guessed correctly and blocked the shot. Killian hustled for the rebound, but the keeper corralled the ball before she could make a second shot.

Kim Parillo played the first half in goal against Bloomfield and came up big on a couple of early saves. Tracie Gibson was in the goal for the second half, and only allowed one goal. Both girls also play the field when they are not in goal.

Nicole Fomarratto and Killian both had numerous offensive rushes, but could not convert. They have been the most consistent players on Arlene Muller's squad this season.

Volleyball team nearing state tourney

By Mike Lamberti

Three victories in four attempts last week have just about clinched a state playoff berth for the Lady Buc volleyball team.

Grace Worley's team took a 9-9 record into this week's action. The team had three matches this week, and needed to win two of them to seal a spot in the states.

"We've had good teams over the years, but we've peaked earlier in the year," Worley said. "This team is just starting to come around, and that's a good sign with the states around the corner."

In the one loss last week against powerful Paramus Catholic, Worley was impressed with her team's effort.

"We took them to the wire in both sets," the coach said. "In wins against University and Nutley, we played very consistently and with intensity."

Worley noted the continued solid play of junior Marie Acuna.

"She's made some great middle blocks, especially against Paramus Catholic."

Acuna was at her very best in the recent Bloomfield Volley tournament. She was named MVP in that tourney, where Belleville placed third overall. The Lady Bucs beat Passaic and avenged an earlier season loss to Bloomfield before falling to Passaic Valley in the semi finals.

Jessica Nicosia continues her good blocking and defensive efforts. Mary Lapas has provided consistent back line play and Pasent Elhelw has filled in very well for the injured Jackie Cerami. Cerami has a severely sprained ankle and will not play again this fall.

The always reliable Andrea Curran has been a standout performer who has impressed opposing coaches as well as her own team.

NOTES: The JV team will compete in a tournament this afternoon at Ridgewood. If the varsity team makes the state tourney, play will begin around November 10. It will be Belleville's first appearance in the states in two years.

"We'll get some time to prepare for the states," Worley said. "Our last match is October 26, so there will be about two weeks to get ready."

But the Belleville pass blocking was not effective and it made for a long afternoon for senior quarterback Sal Berardi.

"Sal was able to make some plays, but most of them were on broken plays when he had to run out of the pocket," Senesky explained. "He tried to make things happen, but we couldn't sustain a drive until late in the game."

Mendham, a state finalist last year with a 10-1 mark, improved to 5-0 this year with an impressive running game mixed in with effective passing.

It was a basic stop-us-if-you-can scenario, and the Bucs were unable to contain their Morris County opponent.

Rob Caputo saw extended time at linebacker as the Buc coaching staff continues to work with younger players.

It was a bad day for senior defensive back/running back Ed Miranda. He suffered a broken leg in the second quarter of the game and was to undergo surgery last Sunday.

Needless to say, he's gone for the season.

"We all hope he'll be okay and fully recovered in time," Senesky said. "He's a tough kid."

Junior defensive back Jeff DePeri separated his shoulder in the early stages of the first quarter. He was able to return to the game later and is listed as hopeful for tomorrow night's game.

As for Don Bosco, the Bucs expect a typical NNJIL game.

"They have a talented quarterback and good tailback," Senesky said. "At this stage, every team is good. We need to continue to improve our own game and to hang in there. The kids need to believe they will get better."

NOTES: Bucs have fared well with Don Bosco over the years. They are 6-2 against the Ironmen lifetime.

Belleville has won four straight against Don Bosco and five of the last six. The series began in 1984, with the Bucs winning 14-0. In '85, D.B. won, 8-2.

The teams resumed the rivalry in 1988, with Belleville winning 7-0. Don Bosco came back in '89 and won, 18-12. Since then, it's been all Belleville, with the Bucs winning from '90-93 by scores of 13-6, 26-14, 12-0 and 14-13 respectively.

Last years one point victory came on opening night at Don Bosco.

Buc Shots

done over the past four years. Bruce Morgan has said it repeatedly and I have written it on numerous occasions.

THIS COUNCIL DOESN'T GIVE A HOOT! IT'S POLITICS AS USUAL AND THE LOSER IN ALL THIS IS OUR ATHLETES.

The loser is also you, the taxpayer, because while you're paying an average of $4,500 for property taxes, your "infrastructure" is crumbling and members of our governing body are running around like chickens without heads, some arguing over what to do with the stadium (knock it down, resurface, etc) while others admit that it's not that big an issue.

As long as we, the citizens of this township, continue to allow this "business as usual" philosophy, then Belleville will continue to lose the "infrastructure" and other neighboring, comparable towns will continue to be a place of beauty while our "home" will continue to be the laughing stock of Northern New Jersey.

J.V. football team tied by P.C. on late score

By Rocco Constantino

Solid but not flashy play on both sides of the ball has been the key for John Apicella's JV Bucs football squad.

For the second time this year, the Bucs played strong all-around football, and came away with a tie. Belleville held the lead over Paramus Catholic for most of the game, but yielded a touchdown with less than a minute left to allow the Paladins to salvage a tie.

Belleville took an early lead when Donnel Graham broke through the line and out-ran the secondary for a 60-yard touchdown. Rob Romano ran in the two-point conversion to give Belleville an 8-0 lead.

Paramus Catholic, which runs the same run-and-shoot offense as their much-heralded varsity team, marched down the field on the ensuing drive and countered the Bucs touchdown with one of their own. The two point conversion tied the score at 8-8.

With the half winding down, P.C. had possession on their own four yard line. Their coach elected to try the two-minute drill, but was foiled when Rob Romano and Jim Cotugno combined for a safety to put Belleville up at the half, 10-8.

Belleville extended their lead when Ram Parekh hit Romano with a 10-yard scoring pass. The same combination hooked up in the varsity game for a score on Saturday.

With a 16-8 advantage, and a hot defense, Belleville appeared to have the game wrapped up. But his was P.C., and their potent offense could erupt at any time. It did just that with their final drive. In a race against the clock, P.C. marched 65 yards and capped their drive on a five yard scoring pass with 40 seconds left. On the play, the quarterback was nearly sacked, but shook off two pass rushers and completed the spectacular play. The conversion was good and the game ended at 16-16.

JV Notes: Belleville also gave up a late score to allow Clifton a tie earlier in the season.

Parekh, who started two games as the varsity quarterback in the absence of Sal Berardi, is back on JV and should provide them with a big lift in the second half of the season if he stays.

Belleville (1-1-2) played the Mendham Minutemen on Monday. Coverage will be in next week's issue.

Jr. Bucs 'A' Team wins, 14-0

The Junior Bucs "A" football team (5-2) clinched a playoff spot last weekend as they defeated a much larger Clifton squad, 14-0, in the rain.

The Belleville defense was punishing all day long, holding Clifton to 50 total yards on offense. The Junior Bucs forced three fumbles on the day, as Mike Fusco, Mike Cassella, and Herb Bolante each recovered a loose ball. Bolante's recovery produced the game's first points, as he picked up a fumble in the second quarter and rambled 70 yards for the score. Mike Biase kicked the two-point conversion for an 8-0 Belleville lead.

The Jr. Bucs added their final points of the game in the third quarter as they drove 65 yards. Marquis Talmadge hit Frank Zarro with a 30-yard pass play down to the 10 yard line, and then Zarro scored on a 10-yard run on the very next play. Zarro finished the day with 70 yards rushing.

Joe Morgan, Zarro, and Biase kept the Clifton Jr. Mustangs off the scoreboard for the remainder of the game to secure the shutout.

The Jr. Bucs "A" Team will be home this Sunday to take on the Nutley Jr. Raiders.

Department is taking names of people who would be interested in playing in the Women's Volleyball League on Tuesday nights at School number 3. Urologic surgery makes strides Recent investments in technology, enhanced facilities and specialized staff support have helped make Columbus Hospital in Newark a top choice for urologic surgery and treatment.

"Columbus Hospital offers the most comprehensive and ultra-modern services available today in the field of urology ... if the procedure or treatment exists, it is available at Columbus Hospital," said Dr. Patrick Manze, staff urologist at the hospital.

Foremost among the services offered by Columbus are a full array of laser surgery capabilities, possible due to the purchase of two state-of-the-art lasers, the Candela MDL 2000 and the SLT 100 YAG laser. The lasers permit a complete range of the most modern urologic surgical procedures to be performed at the hospital.

The Candela laser is used to remove kidney and ureteral stones, while the YAG laser is used in treating a number of prostate conditions, all without using traditional invasive surgery. Special equipment, like a ureteroscope, for diagnosing and examining urologic problems, adds to the effectiveness of treatment by allowing doctors to do extremely close, thorough examinations of the area in question.

Laser procedures have helped cut down hospital stays and improve recovery times dramatically. Noted Dr. Manze, "Laser technology for kidney, ureter and prostate problems is significantly safer, effective and more convenient than traditional surgical procedures. Most laser treatments can be performed on an out-patient basis, in 24 hours or less — compared to a several day stay in the hospital and weeks of recovery time, as was necessary in the past."

Columbus has also enhanced its facilities and staff support to increase comfort and convenience for patients — and contribute to more effective overall treatment. A special surgery room equipped to perform fluoroscopy procedures in one, convenient setting and a dedicated nursing staff with expertise specifically in the area of urologic surgery — are some of the "extras" available in the hospital's urology area.

Columbus Hospital is committed to keeping pace with the rapid advances in the field of urologic treatment. "The field of urology is one of the most quickly evolving fields in medicine — changes in just the last few years alone have been monumental. Overall, those changes translate into better quality care and more convenience for patients," Dr. Manze said.

Virtually all types of adult and pediatric urologic surgeries, including treatment for most types of urologic cancers, are performed at Columbus Hospital. Most procedures require a 24 hour or less hospital stay.

For more information, contact Carmen Palomino, director of public relations/marketing, at 268-3674 or Ralph Vellon, director of surgical services, at 268-1481.

New Jersey requires seat belts for children on school buses

The New Jersey Parent Teachers Association (PTA), in cooperation with the Division of Highway Traffic Safety, are reminding the public that children must now wear seat belts on school buses equipped with them.

"New Jersey is the first state in the nation to require the use of seat belts in school buses," said Col. Peter J. O'Hagan, USMC Ret., director of the Division of Highway Traffic Safety, at a recent news conference.

"This is an important step in ensuring the safety of our youngsters."

"New Jersey should be proud of becoming the first state in the nation to require not only the installation of, but also the use of, seat belts on school buses," said Dr. Arthur Yeager, national coordinator of the National Coalition for School Bus Safety.

George Roberts Sr., 77

Services for George A. Roberts Sr., 77, of Upper Greenwood Lake, formerly of Belleville, were held Oct. 21 in the Irvine-Cozzarelli Memorial Home, Belleville.

both in Belleville.

Born in Belleville, Mr. Roberts lived in Upper Greenwood Lake for seven years.

Surviving are his wife, Charlotte A.; two daughters, Mrs. Roberts Cushman and Mrs. Charlotte A. Ban Duyn; two sons, George A. Jr. and Roy E.; four sisters, Mrs. Shirley Zeiss, Mrs. Anna Garron, Mrs. Mildred Rose and Mrs. Norma Salada; a brother, Alvin, and eight grandchildren.

Josephine Anastasio

Miss Josephine Anastasio, 72, of Belleville died Oct. 20 in the Summer Hills Nursing Home, Old Bridge.

A Mass was offered Oct. 24 in St. Lucy's Church, Newark. The funeral was from the Megaro Memorial Home, Belleville.

Miss Anastasio was an assembler for many years with the Charms Candy Co. in Bloomfield before retiring 20 years ago.

Born in Newark, she moved to Belleville many years ago.

Hospitals explore merger

The boards of trustees of Morristown Memorial, Mountainside and Overlook hospitals have announced that they have agreed to proceed with formal discussions regarding a possible consolidation of the three institutions.

"We have been having preliminary discussions about the potential benefits of such a partnership for several months," said Michael J. Sniffen, president and chief executive officer of Overlook, in Summit. "A consolidation may enable the three hospitals to deliver higher quality health care to our communities in a far more effective manner than could be done by each hospital individually."

Discussions will go on for the next three months, concluding in early 1995 with a decision on whether or not to sign a letter of intent to consolidate.

Richard P. Oths, president and chief executive officer of Morristown Memorial, in Morristown, noted that marketplace dynamics have played a role in bringing about the discussion as well. "Regardless of what is happening in Congress or on the state level, health care reform is moving forward in our region now, and will necessitate changes in the way health care is delivered well into the next century. It is in everyone's interest for us to find ways of adapting to this environment."

The objectives of a consolidation, the hospitals say, are to:

- Improve quality and patient and customer satisfaction;
- Increase efficiency;
- Draw on the clinical strengths of each institution to optimize the health status of community residents;
- Create a more integrated approach to care; and,

- Offer broader geographic coverage.

"Our vision," said Bernard G. Koval, president and CEO of Mountainside Hospital, in Glen Ridge, "is to create a high-quality, low-cost, patient-focused organization that will be responsive to the needs of the people in our communities — helping them to keep well, and taking care of them when they are sick. We believe that this consolidation has the potential to enhance health services."

The hospitals will now appoint task forces to explore various community health service, medical staff and economic issues. If ratified, the consolidation will create a new health system serving northern and central New Jersey that will have the human and financial resources to maintain a commitment to the underserved, optimize the talents of a network of high caliber physicians, and take advantage of new technologies in a cost-effective way.

One of the most demanding aspects of health care today is utilization review and outcomes management, the hospitals said. Technologically, an integrated medical records and patient management information system will streamline utilization analysis and provide a larger data base to measure and evaluate how patients have fared.

Morristown, Memorial, Mountainside and Overlook are among the leading community hospitals in New Jersey, with a combined total of 1,600 licensed beds. Their emergency rooms served more than 100,000 people in 1993, and three-quarters of a million visits were made to the hospitals' outpatient services.

ASPIRIN'S CLOT-DISSOLVING ABILITY

Recent studies of heart attack patients reveal that aspirin is very nearly as effective in saving lives as vastly more expensive clot-dissolving medications. In fact, giving a patient an aspirin tablet within 24 hours of heart attack onset (as well as a tablet daily 30 days thereafter) reduced the risk of death by 23 percent. This compares to the 25 percent reduction in heart attack mortality experienced by heart attack patients who took clot-dissolving medications. However, the researchers went on to point out that aspirin given in conjunction with clot-dissolving medications had a complementary effect, reducing heart attack deaths by 42 percent (according to one study). The trouble is that not everyone is a candidate for clot-dissolving medications.

You will have no trouble finding the medications you need when you depend on our experienced staff at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1956, 759-1968). We have a camera and film department and stock Times watches and transistor radios. Free prescription delivery is available. Hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm. An adult should always accompany any children when they are out trick or treating. Make this a safe and happy Halloween for your family.

P.S. Despite its well-publicized benefits, only about 75 percent of heart attack patients receive aspirin within the first 24 hours.

Board of Realtors attends family safety open house

The Board of Realtors was on hand at the Family Safety Open House held at the Nutley Public Safety Building at 228 Chestnut Street on Friday, October 14th. The Board of Realtors supported the efforts of the Nutley Fire Department in observance of National Fire Prevention Week.

A special treat was offered to all our young residents. One of our local "Fire Dogs" stopped in and posed with our youngsters.

Approximately 250 photos were given out, courtesy of the Board of Realtors. This annual event sponsored by the Nutley Fire department was a huge success.
