

Scaperrotta wins 2nd Ward; GOP sweeps Belleville

Joseph Scaperrotta

By Richard Dickon
Joseph Scaperrotta, a recent Zoning Board of Adjustment appointee and lifetime resident, won the Second Ward Council seat with an unofficial total of 787 votes, 220 votes more than Nick Cerami's 567, while Ralph DiPasquale garnered 448 and Henry Chazewski 331. All totals are unofficial.

show of confidence given to me by the voters of the Second Ward. I am proud that issues decided this election.
'This election was about economics, not politics,' Scaperrotta added, 'This shows that no one person can have total access to our tax dollars.'

tor.
'This election is about restoring faith in government, after nepotism and back room deals have destroyed the faith of the Second Ward,' Scaperrotta said.
Scaperrotta said Second Ward taxpayers were 'saddled' with property tax increases ranging between $300 and $600 per year while the township services and attention to the Second Ward were lacking.
He said repairing Municipal Stadium must be a top priority, and that the Council and the Board of (continued on page 3)

PROWLING THE HALLS - Five-year-old Christopher Long of Belleville beams upon meeting the Exxon Tiger, left, and the Lion King. Rejected $2.4M town hall bond voids state $300G EDA loans

By Richard Dickon
While some residents continue to criticize a Town Hall renovation plan, and the Mayor and Council cannot get the necessary five votes to approve a $2.4 million bond ordinance for renovations to the interior and exterior of Town Hall, the state has pulled the plug on about $300,000 in state Economic Development Authority (EDA) loans because of the Council's failure to act.
Township officials were told in June they may lose low-interest, long-term state loans to help fund the restoration because of "inaction," while Township Attorney Robert Giordano told the council it had to hire an architect by June 1 to qualify for a state EDA loan.
The architect needed to provide a time frame, including a schedule for when bid specifications could be put out to bid.
Officials were told that the state did not have all the information needed, including a full bonding ordinance passed on public hearing for the exterior renovations.
The loans would have covered about $300,000 of the renovations, at 1.5 percent interest over 20 years.
'EDA is dead,' Mayor Jim Messina said, expressing frustration that three Council members voted against passing the $2.4 million bond but did not raise questions before the vote. Councilmen Victor Canning and Jerry Digori and Councilwoman Angie Paserchia voted against the bond on Oct. 25.
Residents continue to criticize the spending plan, questioning whether the specifications are too general, how to do the pointing of the exterior stone, how to replace windows, and if the warrantied roof needs replacing.

Messina has blamed the previous commissioner form of government for destroying the building's historical character by linking it to the new building, so no historic funding can be obtained, adding that the building's state of disrepair needs to be addressed.
Documents obtained from the buildings recent past show that a new roof was installed in 1978 and again in 1988, with the 1988 roof still being under limited warranty.
Messina said "The warrantee covers only materials, and it's the parapets that are in disrepair. If we're going to do extensive repairs to the masonry, and we're re-flashing the roof, we have to do replace (continued on page 7)

Lautenberg re-elected to Senate, Martini goes to Congress, Treffinger is new Executive, Fontoura Sheriff, Graves register

By Richard Dickon
Every Republican won in Belleville, and the momentum did help Bill Martini unseat Democratic incumbent Congressman Herb Klein, but not Republican Assembly Speaker Chuck Haytaian, who lost to Democratic incumbent Senator Frank Lautenberg.
In Belleville, Republicans won every race, with the best Democratic showings coming Lautenberg and Klein, who lost by less than 500 and 1,000 votes, respectively.
Lautenberg held off the challenge of Republican Assembly Speaker Haytaian, by a statewide vote of 936,874 to 875,499, with 97 percent of the vote counted. Lautenberg begins his third term, after 12 years as Senator. He is pro-choice on abortion and opposes the death penalty.
In Belleville, Haytaian won with 3,933 votes to Lautenberg's 3518.
Republican Passaic County Freeholder Bill Martini unseated incumbent Congressman Herb Klein in a close race. Klein had 41,328 votes to Martini's 37,829 with 60 percent of the vote counted district wide, but Klein had conceded victory to Martini. In Belleville, Martini and Klein received 3,957 and 3049 votes respectively.
A major campaign issue was Martini attacking Klein for his support of the $2 billion flood tunnel, and Klein responding that the issue is dead since Governor Christine Todd Whitman has killed the project.

Gov. Whitman and New York Mayor Rudolf Giuliani endorsed Martini while Vice President Al Gore campaigned for Klein.
Republican Verona Mayor and Freeholder Jim Treffinger bested Democratic East Orange Mayor Cardell Cooper in the race for County Executive. Treffinger got 80,654 votes, while Cooper got 78,672.
In Belleville, Treffinger won big, 5,132 to Cooper's 1918.
Treffinger is a Fulbright Scholar who worked his way through college as a factory worker and warehousemen. He is a law partner in a Wall Street law firm. Cooper has been twice elected East Orange Mayor.
Incumbent Democratic Essex County Sheriff Armando Fontoura easily outdistanced Republican challenger Rocco Malanga. Fontoura has expanded the Bomb Detection, K-9 and Public Education Units while Sheriff. Wilburt Kornegay got 3,740 votes.
Democratic candidate Carole Graves, President of the Newark Teachers Union took the race for County Register, beating attorney Patricia Hurt, a Republican, by a vote of 83,143 to 69,866. In Belleville, Hurt nearly doubled Graves, getting 4,314 to 2,283.
Voter turnout was less than last year, and less than 50 percent of registered voters cast ballots.

Designating five-acres is next step for senior citizen housing project

By Richard Dickon
With Catholic Community Services named as non-profit sponsor for the senior housing complex, Mayor Jim Messina said he would like an engineer to designate "the best parcel of land" as the five acres of land for the project.
To keep the time frame as quick as possible, Messina said he would like to see an engineer hired to a preliminary study of the land to "decide the means and bounds. Let's see what makes most sense for a 1,000-square foot by 1,000 square foot parcel."

The Mayor wants to close title on the land, at the former Geriatric hospital site on Franklin and Belleville Avenues. The land would be examined, to find out where utility lines for PSE&G and settling other underground issues, such as locating underground storage tanks.
'I want us to have input on the design so we can set how we want it designed,' Messina said.
Council members have promised to continue to fight for the waiving of a $400,000 payment to the County Board of Chosen Freeholders for the five acres adjacent to the new site of the Garden State Cancer Center, vowing to fight for leasing the five acres of land for $1.
The Township plans to have the administration of the proposed 75 to 100 housing units, including selecting residents through a fair lottery process, the rent collecting and maintenance of the senior housing, be done by a non-profit, third-party organization.
The Reverend Monsignor Nicholas DiMarzio, executive director of Catholic Community

Services for the Newark Archdiocese, has said CCS does have suburban experience, and is in the process of developing another, similar plan in a suburban community.
As for waiving the $400,000 cost for the county land, the freeholders need to agree by consensus to give five acres of former Geriatric hospital property to the Township for $1 rather than the $400,000 price tag previously set for the land that is earmarked for senior citizens housing.
Waiving the fee has had the continued support by Freeholders Joseph Palvecchio and Louis Palagano.
Canning and Councilwoman Angie Paserchia have said they plan to meet with Freeholders to push for paying a nominal fee for the land.
The Council has been told that the units would be given mortgages by the New Jersey Housing Finance Agency. Half the mortgages would be sold to the AFL/CIO with rent being 30 percent of an occupant's income, and half would be low income, with the rents "skewed," and the top rent being $550. People in town will be given preference and only if all the units are not filled will the units be (continued on page 6)

Local veterans parade honors all who served

By Richard Dickon
On Sunday, Nov. 6, the Belleville Veterans Council hosted the Belleville Veterans Day Parade along Washington Avenue.
The parade proceeded from Greylock Parkway to a reviewing stand at Town Hall, with seven Divisions, eight bands, including an Army, Navy, Air Force, Airborne Special Forces, the Hillside High School and Union High School Rote Jr. Units and a host of Fraternal Organizations, Veterans Organizations, Tin Can Sailors and others.
Chairman of the Parade this year was Barry Hodgon, a well-known businessman from Belleville. Hodgon said the parade is very important "to try and keep our future generations remembering what this day is all about."

Grand Marshal for this year's parade was Sol Khin, "93 years young," who was born in 1901 and is still serving the community as a 45-year member of the American Legion.
Khin served in World War II from 1942 through 1945 as a corporal in the U.S. Army Air Force 12th Fighter Command. He was Commander American Legion 189 for 20 years, Essex County Boy Scout Chairman for 27 years, county Commander for Essex County 4018 Voiture #127 for 1986-87 and a member of the Newark Elk Lodge #21, where he was Elk of the Year in 1979.

VETERANS SALUTED - Sol Khin, "93 years young," was Grand Marshal of the 1994 Belleville Veterans Day Parade on Nov. 6. Look for pictures of the parade in next week's Belleville Times.

Belleville Senior News

By Joseph Restaino

Senior Citizens

We think it's a bonus, if just once more
We can get up and put our feet on the floor.
Can't stand the pain of the arthritis or gout,
But the pains disappear if we're going out.
By bus on trips or to casinos we go,
To spend our quarters, eat, or see a show.
When we get on the dance floor, we strut our stuff.
We do our line-dancing, though sometimes we puff.
A.A.R.P. or Golden Agers, whatever the name,
We're recycled teenagers playing the game.
That's why we're so thankful, if just once more
We can get up and put our feet on the floor.

Betty Barr, chairlady of the Belleville Senior Citizen advisory board, stated that Dial-A-Ride will pick up seniors who need a ride to the Senior Center on Fridays. You must call 450-3402 to be picked up. Also the Senior Center is to get two more handicap parking spaces.

Welcome back to Mary Dillon and Pauline Danderone and also Jean De Capra.

Get well wishes to Mildred and Theresa Genovese, Jean Tiromeo, Pat Coppola and Margaret Rosanio.

Two weeks ago, my wife and I had the pleasure of attending a cocktail buffet at the Westmont Country Club. It was given by Orechio Publishing to celebrate the 100th anniversary of The Nutley Sun. The word "fantastic" is about the only word I can use to describe the occasion. The culinary tid bits were magnificent.

Anthony Iannarone was the M.C. and his introduction of the speakers was a masterpiece. Speakers were Robert Gorlin, Phil White, Juliann Walsh, Mrs. Ann Rabinowitz, Harry Chenoweth (Nutley mayor for life) and Carmen Orechio, the present Nutley mayor.

Frank Orechio also gave out service awards to some of The Nutley Sun employees: William Bray, 14 years; Barbara Conti, 6 years; Celeste Federico, 13 years; Mike Lamberti, 15 years; Diane Lombardy, 13 years; Helen Maguire, 28 years; Tony Mauriello, 9 years; Shirley Reid, 27 years; Phyllis Riccardelli, 22 years; Dave Salata, 23 years; Carmela Senesky, 10 years; Patty Theodore, 15 years; Michelle West, 5 years; Phil White, 35 years.

Congratulations to my grandson, Alan Restaino Jr., on his confirmation. He was confirmed at Holy Family Church in Nutley. Bishop Francis conducted the ceremony and gave an inspiring talk to the large number of girls and boys being confirmed.

I read in the paper that former Governor Kean stated that a new gasoline tax is one source the state could consider to pump up school funding. He said that if the state would license self service gas stations it would drop the price of gas and then a tax would be added to absorb the savings. Imagine some of us seniors trying to pump our own gas. What are they going to come up with next?

Tid bit: I'm not saying her fiance is cheap, whispered the office gossip, but everytime I get close to her engagement ring, I have an overwhelming desire for Cracker Jacks.

School #9 student wins essay contest

Katie Dunn of Belleville School #9 won an essay contest sponsored by Mount Vernon, the historic home of George Washington, and a group of supporters from New Jersey.

Each winning student received a special certificate of achievement and a pin bearing George Washington's initials, taken from a map drawn by Washington when he was 16 years old.

A total of 26 fifth grade students in New Jersey were winners in the statewide essay contest, in which the youngsters were asked to write an essay explaining "Why I would vote for George Washington as first president." Teachers of winning students received a special certificate of classroom achievement and a copy of the special George Washington issue of "Cobblestone" magazine.

The essay contest was part of the George Washington Biography Lesson, which included a complete lesson as well as a variety of classroom materials. The educational program was developed by scholars at Mount Vernon for fifth grade classes.

Students also were to review Washington's life, read excerpts from his journals, and conduct an agricultural experiment similar to one carried out by Washington at Mount Vernon. The special lesson was provided at no cost to New Jersey fifth grade students in both public and private schools.

The educational program was made possible by financial support from several foundations and other patriotic citizens of New Jersey, according to officials.

School guidance dept. hosting annual career night Nov. 22

The Belleville High School Guidance Department will host more than 80 universities, business, trade and technical schools as well as representatives from the military, at its 16th annual Career Night on Tuesday, Nov. 22 from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Career Night gives students, alumni and other members of the community an excellent opportunity to explore the variety of options available to further their education. Each representative has a table where students and parents can come by very informally and ask questions about the school or career, according to Dr.

Richard E. Benniger, Director of Student Personnel Services.

The representatives from the colleges and schools of nursing will be located in the gym. For the people in attendance who are not planning on going to college, there will be business, trade and technical schools, along with military representatives set up in the cafeteria.

For further information about Career Night, call the Guidance Office at 450-3518 or 3519 and ask for Mr. Esposito, Career Night Coordinator.

Scaperrotta

Education should put aside any personal differences and work together for the betterment of the community. He said he will urge the Council to work with state legislators to help secure state grants to help implement stadium renovations.

Scaperrotta campaigned as the only candidate with both business and government experience, having operated his own business in Belleville for more than one year.

Ralph DiPasquale is a 32-year-old lifelong resident and political newcomer who just became a new homeowner, and he and his wife expect their first child in December.

"I still have a house here and it's not going up for sale," DiPasquale said, "I'm going to make sure Joe gets a nice playground for my kid."

DiPasquale had made a lack of playground space a central campaign issue.

Henry Charzewski is a fixture at Council and School Board meetings and a proponent of cutting salaries and other government costs. "Even though I lost, it will not refrain me from attending town meetings. I am dedicated to the people of this town," Charzewski said.

Cerami was unavailable for comment.

Town hall, stadium renovations, senior housing all in sight if arguing's settled

Last week, a $2.4 million bond ordinance to renovate and restore Town Hall, a non-profit sponsor to administrate senior citizens housing and a $5 million application for state Green Acres funding were all on the table for the Council's approval. The Town Hall bond ordinance did not get the five necessary votes, and questions about the specifications, including why a roof still under warrantee for several years is to be replaced, are still being discussed. In the meantime, low-interest EDA loans totalling about $300,000 have been lost.

Catholic Community Services was chosen to be the non-profit sponsor for senior housing, despite questions from two of the newer council members and one standing council member. The Green Acres application went through without serious debate, since the application does not yet have to be specific.

These three projects are all of vital importance in Belleville, yet all have been, or are in danger of being, held up endlessly by the Council's own infighting. This is not to say that questions about the Town Hall specifications or the viability of the non-profit sponsor for senior housing should not be raised.

After years of wrangling, however, the time is right now for answers. Ground must be broken as soon as possible on all three of these projects, if the Council wants to be perceived by the public as caring about improving the quality of life in Belleville. Factions exist, disagreeing about several of the elements in all three of these undertakings.

On the Town Hall renovations, the plans are as cost-effective as the should be. The Council promised weeks ago to better inform the public of the exact nature of the renovations, and the time for better communication is at hand.

Senior housing has been kicked around for decades, and the most recent attempts to acquire the five acres of old Geriatric hospital land have been bogged down by questions over the $400,000 price tag from the county and who to pick as non-profit sponsor. The Council cannot allow efforts to erase the $400,000 cost to delay groundbreaking on the project.

With Municipal Stadium, some Council members favor knocking down existing structures and starting again, with the help of a recreational planner, while the others favor renovating the existing structures in phases, as put forth in the sketches by local architect Jim Landon. Whatever plan is chosen, the Council needs to present a united front so that taxpayers can get behind the project. A less expensive plan, obviously, would be easier to sell, but the plans need to be presented before anyone makes a final judgement.

So three projects have a chance to finally get off the ground in the months ahead. The sitting Council deserves to be judged on their ability to bring these projects to fruition, along with other pressing matters such as sewer and road repairs, and maintaining recreation and playground areas. Time will tell the tale of this Council, and success or failure of their tenure will be clearly visible in Belleville's infrastructure in the next 18 months to two years.

Lower police, fire, town worker raises must start downward trend in salaries

Many Belleville residents will be unhappy with the salary increases granted to the Police, Firefighter and township employee unions. Police are getting 4, 4.5 and 4.75 percent salary increases, with the still-to-be-negotiated Fire Department increases likely to be similar. Town employees get 4, 3.75 and 3.5 percent increases.

While all of these increases are likely to be above cost of living increases over the time of the contracts, the raises are much closer to those numbers and much more reasonable than recent salary contract history. This has several potential effects, most importantly on the Board of Education's next salary negotiations with teachers, administrators and staff.

The best case scenario has teachers and staff getting slightly less than police, fire and town employees just received, and the trend continuing to spiral downward to increases more reflective of what is being handed out in the private sector.

So before anyone cries foul at the new town salary contracts, take a look at the bigger picture. These increases may be the start of a positive trend that can stabilize property taxes and improve everyone's quality of life in the very near future.

YOUR OPINION

Prosecutor's office misguided

To the editor:

It was disappointing the way your newspaper headlined the dismissal of all charges against highly respected citizens, based on charges of two young children with no corroborating testimony or evidence. Your headline read in small print covered by a mailing label "Catrambone, 7 others not charged..." The large headline was "Four indicted in alleged sex ring" over the picture of the cleared principal - creating the mistaken impression that he was indicted.

On the other hand, your competing newspaper headlined: "Belleville principal found innocent after year delay." It is time we had positive reporting.

It is hoped that your newspaper will go after the prosecutor's office, which tried to ruin careers and family life for many upstanding citizens and spent hundreds of thousands of dollars of our tax money in the process. This office disregarded the Constitution's admonition for a speedy trial. How long does it take to interview those involved?

In another case, Clifford Minor, our prosecutor, according to "60 Minutes" spent over $5 million prosecuting Margaret Kelly Michaels. She was placed in prison for five years for child abuse, until Superior Court found that the evidence was tainted by the prosecutor's investigators, who promised the children rewards for giving them what they wanted. Not satisfied, Mr. Minor is now retrying the case.

It would seem that Mr. Minor should direct his energies to cases with substantial evidence and not to hearsay.

In addition, it is hoped that the prosecutor's office would use confiscated funds from criminals for improving the lives of our children with recreational programs, to keep them out of trouble rather than apparently bloating its budget with apparent overtime on these fruitless "witch hunts."

It is time for a new prosecutor, Gov. Whitman.

Thanks for renovations

To the editor:

A very heartfelt and sincere thanks to Mr. Vincent Fiscella and his entire maintenance crew for the fine job they did on the girls' bathroom at School Four! This renovation, along with the many repairs to School Four, have made going to school for our children more enjoyable. Again, many thanks from the Home and School of Number Four for all your hard work!

Empathizes with plight

To the editor:

Now that the charges against Mr. Catrambone and the custodian were dropped, now they are to go back to living a normal life? How hard it is to do, and how easy it is to bring charges on someone. In fact at one time a county prosecutor told me that they could indict an apple if they wanted to. My heart goes out to these men and what they went through. I speak from experience. I had false charges brought against me, and they found no basis for it but a former commissioner had my name, ran, and used it against me in an election. The I had it used again in the re-call election. I had an ex-friend who was out of work more than a year with no pay because of the county prosecutor and the friend was found not guilty. He could have lost his home, family, car, etc. and they call this justice?

No one can explain what it's like to know that you're innocent and to be charged with a crime. How can people who you thought were your friends all of a sudden leave you? Nor Mr. Catrambone and the custodian will have to pay to have their records expunged out of their own pockets. And may I just suggest they do it soon because some people in Belleville like to run things and then use them, true or untrue. All I can say is, remember the people who stood by you. They are your true friends and nothing in the world can give you that true friendship. God bless all of you.

Schools thank BASE

To the editor:

On behalf of the Belleville public school district, I would like to thank the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education for the $1,500 presentation to Mr. Michael Lally, superintendent of schools. The funds will be utilized to further enhance our Conflict Mediation Program in the Belleville schools.

I would also like to thank the BASE committee members for realizing the need for crisis counselors in our school district. Children bring their problems to schools. These problems seem unsurmountable to them and rightfully so. Due to the disintegration of the family unit, school personnel deal with these issues on a daily basis.

The need for certified, clinical professionals in the school district is more and more apparent. A troubled child becomes a troubled adult, without help. As adults we need to realize our children's needs, the future of America.

Thank you.

• THERE was a mystifying silence in the campaign for Essex County Executive from veteran Essex County Republican Chairman John Renna. The perception among a few political pros is that the Essex County Republican leadership is going to hell in a handbasket. Is it time for a change? John Renna is my friend, but I think it's time he stepped aside and bring in new blood. A win of the Essex County Executive position by Jim Treffinger may bring about the change.

• THE League of Women Voters performed a great service in providing voters with a "1994 Voters Guide".

Today, Thursday, the L.W.V. in the Nutley area has a meeting scheduled to discuss the status of health care reform in New Jersey. It is scheduled at 8:00 pm in the home of Marilyn Craine. This is what I call the highest degree of public service.

• SENATOR JOHN

SCOTT is against the school voucher program. Scott warns that religious schools would be jeopardizing their very existence by accepting government funds. "The government is eventually going to tell them what to do." The New Jersey Education Association also opposes the voucher system - and so do I.

• NUTLEY Amvets Post 30 Auxiliary scheduled a delicious roast beef fundraiser at $20 a head for Saturday, November 12th to raise money for its scholarship fund. Reservations can be made through Fay Fulcoli at 235-9385.

• THE Handicapped Children Committee and the Drug Awareness Committee of the Nutley Elks have a very busy schedule. This is no surprise. The Nutley Elks Lodge 1290 is among the most active in the nation.

• NUTLEY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE has scheduled a general membership meeting for November 14th at Meyer's Bakery and Cafe, 7:45 am. For the Chamber, this is a switch from luncheon meetings to breakfast. Years ago, like 35-40 years, I found that merchants turned out in greater numbers for a breakfast meeting than the turnouts for luncheon.

Santa, courtesy of Nutley Chamber of Commerce, will arrive in town by helicopter at the Frank Tangorra Field in the Nutley Park oval. This is the Chamber's 33rd year for sponsoring the program. Sponsors can sign up for $50 per.

The October 20th Business After Hours was very successful, and Co-chairman Tom Buchanan and Dr. Steven Clarke thanked those who made it possible.

Sunday, November 13th is declared Harry W. Chenoweth Day by Mayor Carmen Orechio. At 2:00 pm on that day, the Nutley Town Hall will be designated the Harry W. Chenoweth Municipal Building. What a beautiful way to recognize the contributions of Harry Chenoweth to the quality of life that makes Nutley so attractive to the outside world. Nutley residents have an open invitation to attend the commemorative ceremony in the Commission Chamber, Town Hall, One Kennedy Drive. Following the ceremony, refreshments will be served at the Parks and Recreation Building, 44 Park Avenue.

That's All in Belleville

By Richard Dickon

Teaching excellence, substance education, volunteerism recognized

Education is the key to a better future for all Bellevillites, and students at all grade levels are learning from some of the best teachers in New Jersey.

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce 30th Annual Dinner/Dance's theme this year is, "Excellence in Education," honoring teachers recognized by the Governor's Convocation on Excellence in Teaching.

The honorees are: Jules Palmieri, the high school; Louis Scanzillo, the middle school; Nancy Finetti, School #3; Maria DeLuisa, School #4; Michele Capriglione, School #5; Francine D'Agostino, School #7; Celeste Bruccalero, School #8; Eugene Morriello, School #9 and Anna Jamicelli, School #10.

The dinner/dance is Saturday, Nov. 19th at the Branch Brook Manor, 13 Washington Ave. Tickets are $65 each and can be purchased by calling 759-4848. The Belleville Chamber should be commended for focusing deserved attention on these standout educators...

Volunteer work can truly be a "labor of love," making life better for the volunteer as well as the people they help. Alexandra Perez, an employee of Elizabethtown Gas, was honored for her "Labors of Love" by the Union-based company.

Alexandra is involved with the Lions Club, where she raises funds for the blind, prepares food baskets for the elderly and needy that are distributed through local churches, and she collects toys for children with AIDS.

Too many residents choose too often to blame the problems of Belleville on politicians and public employees. Citizens like Alexandra Perez choose to do something for others, rather than complain that nothing gets done. More Bellevillites should make the decision to "light a candle, rather than curse the darkness." Volunteerism is a tangible way to improve the quality of life in this Township. So, the next time you hear someone badmouthing life in Belleville, or find yourself naysaying your town, turn the tables and ask what you or someone else can do to make the quality of life a little better. As this column shows every week, there are places and people willing to show any resident where and how to make a difference. Be part of the solutions...

In listing the many wonderful contributions made by the Clara Maass Hospital Auxiliary last week, I neglected to mention that they also distribute Christmas gifts to senior citizens in the Continuing Care Ward. Other auxiliary members will also be mentioned in coming weeks. The list of their fine work grows ever longer...

Look for the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education (BASE) Educational Journal/Ad Book, coming soon. The book is one of the latest efforts by the nationally recognized model of substance education to bring their message about avoiding substance use and abuse to the public. Orechio Publications is proud to be a part of the book, and wishes BASE continued success as the Alliance continues to expand its efforts...

Finally, Clara Ryan of Davidson Street was nice enough to offer seasonal greetings to all with the following poem:

"October to April"

May the Harvest feed you through winter,
May your family come together for warmth you need,

May you plant the good seed in Beauty of fresh fallen snow,

May you flower and grow come Springtime and,

May you show unto others
the good seed you've sown.

If you know of someone, or are yourself responsible for some of the many big or small, important good deeds done everyday and worthy of recognition in this town, let me know, because, as the this column states,, when it comes to good people, doing good things, "That's All in Belleville."

open to the outside.

Councilman Bill Cook has said the county "renege" on an agreement that would allow the town to use the land for junior league soccer as long as a "hold harmless agreement" was received, the Assistant Essex County Counsel has said the land could not be used until Belleville purchased title of the property.

The council is seeking a non-profit sponsor to take the project out of the control of the council so that seniors who meet the necessary criteria would apply political infighting would be removed.

Telephone responses from about 250 senior citizens on housing needs are being analyzed to determine the number of housing units, while an environmental agency has begun inspecting the property.

The council renewed efforts to obtain five acres of former Geriatric hospital property following the county's approval of funding for a cancer research center to be completed by the Center for Molecular Medicine and Immunology (CMMI).

Contained in that agreement is the use of eight acres of property surrounding the former hospital, which is being purchased by CMMI for $5 million.

Council officials have said the agreement between the county and CMMI opens the door for the township acquiring the land for a nominal fee.

Estimates of $70,000 to $75,000 per unit have been mentioned by officials.

Life in Silver Lake

William Street resident lends a hand to district

A big, big, thank you to Frank Citarella of William Street for preventing a robbery on Heckel Street.

Let me tell you what happened. When I came home from work, my husband Charlie told me that a man came into his tavern and told him that he was an employee of Flowerama on Washington Avenue and while making a delivery on Heckel Street, he saw two young boys trying to steal a bike. So, of course, my husband and his bartender, Jimmy, followed the man out to see how they could help. (I would be disappointed if they didn't.) The two boys noticed them running towards them and started to run away into Newark. But their efforts helped save a kid's bicycle.

Not too many people would get involved in this day and age. They would rather 'mind their own business' than to help someone. But that was not the case for this gentleman. He took out time from his job to try to help. When I came home from work my husband told me the story.

Marie Strumolo Burke

I immediately tried to find out the name of this man who helped deter this crime. I called Flowerama and alas I came up with the name of Frank Citarella. In speaking with him, I was pleased to find out that he, too, was a Belleville resident.

So the Silver Lake award for heroism and 'giving a damn' goes to Frank Citarella of William Street. I am sending you out a twenty gun salute, Frank ... You deserve it.

Welcome back to the neighborhood, Raymond Spencer and family. After 10 years, Roy couldn't stay away from Silver Lake any longer and moved back to Florence Avenue. It's great to have you back. What a place the Lake is, they move out and then they move back in. I have to commend Ray Strumolo and Joe Guarino of the Belleville Public Works Department. They are always courteous and they try to help resolve any problems that arise in the Lake. Accolades to these caring workers.

A big hello to Officers Masi and Richuso. These men in blue are always on the job and they do it with a smile. It's a pleasure to have them patrol Silver Lake.

Do you believe that Theresa DiMeo of Lake Street has become a great grandmother. A bundle of joy named Amanda Writz was born to her granddaughter Angela and Dave Writz. Jerry and Ann Volpe are the proud grandparents of this little baby girl.

Come on people. Don't forget the SLCA Holiday Party on Friday, November 25 at the Branch Brook Manor at 7:30 p.m.

A family style dinner will be served along with dessert, beer, wine and soda. Music will be provided by DJ's Pete Strumolo and Lou Raniero and an enjoyable program is planned. Tickets are priced at $25 by calling chairperson, Angela Cuozzo Zarro at 759-2703. Co-chairperson is Sebastian (Sam) Papa.

Remember, Silverlakers, we can all join in for a fun-filled evening with fellow Silverlakers, former Silverlakers, and people who want to associate with Silverlakers.

REMEMBER, WE LOVE SILVER LAKE.

Rejected $2.4M town hall bond

on the roof, I think the word restoration means putting things back the way they were."

A copy of the proposal made by Springfield Roofing to complete the municipal building roof in March of 1988 states that a 10-year warranty exists, and it states that "during the first two years of this warranty, Nord Bitumi shall be responsible for defects in material only..." and "shall be responsible solely for any and all costs to correct any roof water leak caused by defective workmanship or installation for the first two years or any damage caused...For the remaining eight years of this warranty...will correct roof water leaks caused by defective material or workmanship... and will pay the costs of repairs necessary to correct roof water leaks caused by ordinary wear and tear by the elements."

Work was also done on the concrete and stone exterior in 1983.

Records from March 1983 show Mulrenan Roofing Corp. of Newark recommending "corrective measures" for the Terra-Cotta stone uncovered beneath the asphalt coating on the exterior of Town Hall, at a cost of $6,076. The contractor said they "found a dangerous state of decay... very hazardous to pedestrians below...throughout the entire perimeter of the building. To disregard the situation would leave the town open to legal action in the event of an accident."

The ordinance would more than double the amount, from $1 million to $2.4 million, under revised price estimates recommended by a Township Council committee at a recent work session.

The increase would amend two bond ordinances to renovate the exterior and interior of town hall, both passed at $500,000 each.

Mayor Jim Messina, Deputy Mayor Thomas Spillane and Councilman Bill Cook all sat on a committee with the Comito Associates architectural firm, and all agreed that the increased costs were unavoidable.

Belleville Historical Society presents 'Old Belleville' film

The Belleville Historical Society has had their eleven reels of film of "Old Belleville," taken by Neil Horne in the 1930s, taped into a two-hour program onto the videocassette format by Marilyn McCabe of WBHS Cablevision, Channel 34, and her students. She was assisted by Rocco Constantino and Ken Constantino.

The Belleville Historical Society is very grateful for the transfer of the film onto videocassette, because the film was very brittle and beginning to fall apart.

WBHS will be showing the film of "Old Belleville" about twice a week. Watch the program schedule for the day and the time.

In addition, the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Avenue, will be showing the Belleville films on Monday, Nov. 28, at 1 p.m.; Wednesday, Dec. 7, at 1 p.m., and on Thursday, Dec. 8, at 6:45 p.m.

Edward O'Neil, president of the Belleville Historical Society, worked on this project and saw it come to fruition, because of the cooperation between the Belleville High School's Media Specialist, Marilyn McCabe, and the Belleville Historical Society.

Players on the field, critics on sidelines?

Mr. Cerami: Some Belleville players have been on sidelines for 7 years

This week, I am responding to a Letter to the Editor written by Councilman Nick Cerami that appeared on Page 5 of the November 3, 1994 issue of the Belleville Times. Mr. Cerami was responding to my column of October 20, 1994, in which I was critical of his dealing with Municipal Stadium. If you did not read the Councilman's letter, I will highlight it in my response.

Keep in mind, this column is being written three days prior to the November 8 general election, in which Mr. Cerami's seat is up for election. Thus, when this column appears in this week's issue, it is written with absolutely no idea of who won the election.

The first line in Mr. Cerami's letter says, "It has been some time since I have seen my name on the sports page of the Belleville Times, but as I recall, the articles used to be much more positive."

Mr. Cerami refers to the fact that from 1983 to '85, he was a football player for the Belleville Buccaneers.

I will say without question or hesitation that if Mr. Cerami had to play every varsity game in his career, on the road, because the township in which he lived could not, or would not, provide a decent place to compete, then Mr. Cerami would never forget that.

Mr. Cerami, since you were a freshman in college, the Belleville girls and boys' tennis teams and the Belleville track teams have had to compete on the road, only, because we haven't been able to give those kids a place to compete in their home township.

This, of course, is not your fault. You were not a part of the Commission in the late 1980's, nor were you a part of that Marina Perna fiasco from 1990 to 1993.

But it is not fair that hundreds of Belleville High School athletes have not been able to compete at home for the past seven years. And I guarantee that you, if you had suffered that indignity, would be talking long and loud about that today. If you could never compete at Municipal Stadium in front of your family and friends, it would be something you, as a competitive athlete, would have felt badly about.

I also know that if the football, baseball or wrestling teams had to play its entire schedule on the road, for one year, not to mention seven, the outcry would be long and loud from this community.

Mr. Cerami then goes on to express his disappointment at the "tone" my column "manifests".

This tone, although it has not been directed completely at you in the past, has been heard from this column since March of this year, and has been echoed, not as frequently, since 1991.

Mr. Cerami then goes on to say, "call me crazy, but I really believe that having a police station in our high school or the drug paraphernalia found near the open fields in my neighborhood to be a much more serious problem. Do you agree?"

I had the opportunity to speak with Belleville High School principal Joseph Petrillo last week, because I was interested in knowing when the "police station" was going to be finalized in his school.

"What police station?" Petrillo asked. "He (Cerami) is misinformed. First off, there won't be a police station (in the high school) as long as I'm principal.

"Secondly, we have a program which is part of the conflict mediation process. The program is designed to give the kids in our school the chance to deal with a policeman on a friendly basis and give the police a chance to know the kids better.

"We have a policeman come around to the school once in a while. It's a program that is funded by the Board of Education. We don't plan on adding a police station here."

As far as the drug issue is concerned, let me be very clear on this.

Mr. Cerami: there is absolutely no place in today's society, especially in a township where you and I live, for drugs. Furthermore, I hope the police have procured some leads regarding the paraphernalia found in your neighborhood.

While drugs are certainly a terrible problem, it should also be known that they are a terrible problem in other, surrounding, neighborhoods, but somehow, those neighborhoods seem to find the time to give their young athletes a decent place in which to compete.

Mr. Cerami is one hundred percent correct when he says in point two of his letter, "But as long as I am a councilman and until the school board collects their own taxes, I'll be concerned with the educational system."

I said in the October 20, 1994 column that education is and must be a paramount concern. I also said we have some very talented people on our Board of Education whose only concern is the educational system.

But a councilman, and I want it understood that I feel that Mr. Cerami is a fine, talented and dedicated Councilman, should have a handle on the educational system in the event budgetary concerns are passed his way down the road.

(When Mr. Cerami first responded to Belleville Times Editor Richard Dickon on the subject of Municipal Stadium on October 13, 1994, he said that the stadium was not "our most pressing issue" and cited the educational problem as one that is more pressing.)

In point three of Mr. Cerami's letter, he says, "pride comes from within, and whether you spend $5,000 or $5,000,000 to repair a stadium, that doesn't put pride into a community."

Mr. Cerami is correct with regard to the fact that money doesn't necessarily constitute pride. He called my interpretation of pride "smoke and mirrors." Let's examine what he says about pride coming "from within."

It is my opinion, and I'm sure an opinion shared by most townspeople, that a councilman or councilwoman, is a "leader" of the community. With that definition understood, let's examine how our "leaders" have handled the mess at Municipal Stadium.

The "leaders" have done, basically, nothing for the past four years of the council administration. (This, despite committees that were formed by truly concerned people that wanted to do something to

Frantantoni, Escott provide key receptions

Bucs' gallant effort falls short

By Mike Lamberti

Two weeks ago, the Cincinnati Bengals took the Dallas Cowboys into overtime and came within a field goal of pulling off the upset of the decade in professional sports.

Last Friday evening, on a different level but nonetheless just as monumental to those who played in it, the Belleville Bucs came within six points of pulling off the upset of the 90's in New Jersey high school football.

Unfortunately for Buc fans, the Hackensack Comets, undefeated, ranked third in the state and two time defending state sectional champs, rallied for a 28-22 victory at Hackensack High School.

John Senesky's Bucs (1-6) return home disappointed but proud. The team will be host to Paramus tomorrow evening at 7 p.m.

"The kids did a very good job," Senesky said. "They were a little tight at first, but once the game started, they realized they could play with those guys."

It was a stirring performance by a group of players who had been much maligned for their performance thus far. This team had started the year 0-5, were embarrassed at Mendham in week five, and appeared destined for a possible winless season.

But on Homecoming Night two weeks ago, the Bucs showed character and beat a good Don Bosco club for its first victory.

And last Friday night, Belleville played against a powerful team, a club known for being physically dominant, fast and talented at all the skill positions.

The Bucs had been dominated by the Comets in recent seasons, so much so that they did not have a lead in a game against Hackensack since 1983 (which was also the year Belleville last beat the Comets).

"The kids were being told in school all week that they didn't have a chance," Senesky said.

"They heard how great Rashidi (Brown, Hackensack's All American running back) was. But we told the kids, 'it's not what you achieve, it's what you overcome'."

Not many teams are able to overcome Brown, Hackensack's phenomenal halfback. He stands 5'7" and weighs about 175 pounds. He reminds many of Emmitt Smith and Barry Sanders.

Possessed with tremendous leg strength and marvelous speed, Brown is the best running back Senesky has seen on this level, and that includes current NFL running back Craig "Ironhead" Heyward and current CFL standout Tony Stewart, who was a tremendous runner at Union High School.

With that in mind, the Belleville defense, which has been giving up an average of 30 points a game, handled the assignment with vigor.

Brown got his yardage and his touchdowns. The state's leading scorer so far this fall, Brown tallied three touchdowns and scored a two point conversion.

But three of Hackensack's touchdowns came on broken plays, runs from the line of scrimmage following a Belleville punt or kickoff. The Buc defense held Hackensack to just one sustained drive, that coming in the fourth quarter.

"Frank Marrero and Artie Settembrino were outstanding on defense," Senesky said. "And credit our secondary. Hackensack has a tremendous core of receivers, and we were able to keep the big pass under control."

"Tom Escott, Anthony Frantantoni and Jeff DePeri did a real good job."

Senesky also praised the play of sophomore defensive end Brian McIntosh, who continues to improve with each game.

"Brian did a good job on defensive reads," Senesky said. "And don't forget the play of (linebacker) Rob Caputo. Before he got hurt, he Buc punter Dave Paladino launches one during recent game. Paladino had a tremendous game last Friday at Hackensack when the Bucs came within six points of pulling a major upset.

Buc defenders Artie Settembrino (89), Brian McIntosh (40) and Robert Caputo get ready for play during game at Hackensack last Friday night. Bucs are home to Paramus tomorrow evening at 7 p.m.

was doing a tremendous job."

Caputo, a junior, missed the fourth quarter with a shoulder injury. He's listed as hopeful for tomorrow night's game.

The Buccaneer offense, which has been inconsistent for most of the year, showed signs of coming around against Don Bosco. Last Friday, led by quarterback Sal Berardi, the offense took another big step forward.

The Bucs won the toss and took the opening kickoff last Friday. Berardi directed the offense, both with his running and effective passing.

Belleville immediately set the tone by gaining two first downs on the first series. The running of Tyrone Fitts, Dino Durante and Dave Paladino, spearheaded by the blocking of Dave Chulanandana

Cotungo goal leads Bucs past Comets

By Mike Lamberti

Joe Cotungo scored off an assist from Frank Tafur with six minutes left in regulation time, leading the Buc soccer team to a thrilling 2-1 victory over Hackensack last Monday afternoon.

The victory improved Belleville's record to 11-2-5 (9-1-4 in the Pacific Division). More importantly, it should give the Bucs a share of the NNJIL championship for 1994. It would be the Bucs first league championship in team history.

The Bucs put themselves into a position for winning the league title by beating Paramus Catholic 9-0 last week.

Gino DePinto's team also advanced to the state sectional semi finals with a 2-0 victory over Montclair at Clearmon Field.

The Bucs battled Westfield last Wednesday in the sectional semis. A victory there would move the Bucs to the finals, probably at top seeded Columbia.

It was a week of firsts for the Bucs last week. Beating Montclair was something the Bucs have not done this decade. In winning at Hackensack, the Bucs broke a long winless streak there.

"Montclair has had our number for a couple of years," DePinto said.

"It was a tough game, and we are glad to get past them and move on."

The Bucs and Mounties were scoreless at halftime. In the second half, Frank Tafur put Belleville ahead, with an assist from Joe Colucci. Minutes later, Cotungo sealed the victory with a goal, assisted by Jim Berg.

Natale Guagliardi, who has been outstanding all year long, recorded another shutout.

The Paramus Catholic game was one sided.

The Bucs received two goals from Anthony Raczky and Nick Colucci.

Mike Guzman, Cotungo, Berg, Steve Collett and Eric Guevara scored one goal each.

Once again, Guagliardi posted a shutout.

Last Monday, the Bucs traveled

Penalty kicks cost JV Bucs as season comes to a close

By Rocco Constantino

The Belleville junior varsity soccer season came to a somewhat disappointing end last week when they were unable to convert on a couple of penalty kicks.

They lost, 2-0, against Seton Hall in the semifinals of the Essex County Tournament when they missed three of five penalty kicks in the shootout. The Bucs also tied Hackensack in their season finale, 0-0. In the game, a late penalty kick was also missed.

Against Seton Hall Prep, Belleville was looking to advance into the finals of the JV E.C.T. for the second straight year. Their chances looked good when freshman Danny Almedia gave the Bucs a 2-0 lead with two goals.

However, the Pirates climbed right back into the game and tied it up late in the second half. Junior goalie Remo Iannitelli held the Seton Hall team scoreless in two 10 minute overtimes to bring the game to the shootout for the second straight week.

Belleville, which has enjoyed success in recent shootouts, took an early lead when Mike Brown scored on the first attempt. After the Hall tied it up, Lawrence Martin gave Belleville the lead back. Subsequent misses by both teams and a conversion by Seton Hall swung the advantage back to the Pirates. Belleville missed its final kick and Seton Hall advanced to the finals.

In the Hackensack game, George Turturiello's team missed numerous chances offensively, but played a strong defensive game to tie Hackensack, 0-0. Belleville had an opportunity for the win, but Dan Bartosiewicz' attempt at a penalty kick sailed over the net.

Remo Iannitelli posted the shutout for the Bucs. Iannitelli played every minute of every game in goal for the Bucs and proved to be a valuable asset. Coach Turturiello also credited his defense for playing extremely well. Hackensack was one of the elite teams in the junior varsity NNJIL Pacific Division this year.

Loney, Durante, Settembrino pace Buc effort

softened up the Hackensack defense enough for Berardi to hit the air waves.

And when Berardi went deep, he found Michael Loney with a 30 yard TD pass. Loney, a junior, had found a seam behind the Hackensack coverage, and the pass was right on target.

"Because Sal can run, he gives us a second dimension," Senesky said. "Hackensack had to respect his speed, and when he threw deep, it definitely surprised them."

The Bucs converted the two point conversion when Durante ran in from three yards out.

Suddenly, Belleville was ahead 8-0 and the fans on the Buc side were adding some electricity to the effort.

Following the ensuing kickoff, Hackensack quickly responded. On its second play from scrimmage, Brown took a handoff and ran, practically untouched, 60 yards into the end zone.

A possible holding call on DePeri, who had a shot at the tackle, was missed by the officials on the play, but the score quickly proved how fast and elusive Brown is.

Hackensack could not convert the two point conversion, and the Bucs held on to an 8-6 lead.

Despite the sudden score, Belleville's defense would not crumble. The Bucs stayed tough, and provided some key hits on Brown and the Hackensack offense.

"The quick score didn't get our kids down," Senesky said. "They stayed in and played well."

The team also played smart. Plagued by turnovers and costly penalties most of the season, the Bucs were a different group last Friday. They did not commit a turnover and were penalized for just 25 yards on the night.

Neither team mounted a serious threat for the remainder of the half, and the Bucs took an 8-6 lead into the lockerroom.

As expected, the Comets came out with renewed intensity in the third quarter. Realizing they were in a game and that their perfect season was in jeopardy, Hackensack regained the lead midway through the quarter on a beautiful 46 yard run by Joe Dawkins. The Comets added the two point conversion on a Brown run and, for the first time in the game, Hackensack led, 14-8.

Once again, the resilient Bucs came back. Berardi drove the team downfield, with Frantantoni keying the drive with two outstanding receptions, in heavy traffic.

"Anthony took a few good hits on the receptions," Senesky said. "But he hung in there."

Fitts and Durante provided some good plays on the offense and Belleville moved to the Comet seven as the third quarter ended.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Berardi made a tremendous play. Taking the snap, he rolled out, and under extreme pressure, threw a perfect pass to Escott. The Belleville sideline erupted as the Bucs tied the game at 14, pending the extra point which would provide Belleville a one point lead, in the fourth quarter, over the number three team in the state.

The PAT was wide, however and on the ensuing kickoff, Hackensack put together its first, and only, sustained drive of the night.

"They definitely blew us off the line of scrimmage on that series," said assistant coach Joe D'Ambola.

"Hey, their a very physical team. You don't get that good by being able to control the line of scrimmage."

Hackensack drove 66 yards in 3:41, taking the lead for good on a short run by Brown. The point after kick was good, and Hackensack led, 21-14.

Belleville was not able to gain a first down on its next series, and following a punt, Brown put the game, for all intents and purposes, out of reach with a 61 yard run up the middle. The PAT was good, extending Hackensack's lead to 28-14.

The proud Bucs would not go down without a struggle. Berardi led the team downfield, with Fitts providing some good runs and the wide receivers coming through with key receptions.

Berardi was able to sneak the ball over with :34 left in the game and then, Berardi hit Paladino with the two point conversion, cutting the lead to 28-22.

Belleville's last gasp came on the ensuing on-side kick. The ball took some favorable bounces, but it went out of bounds before possession was maintained.

Hackensack took a knee for the final possession and a game group of Bucs headed for the buses, with the fans providing a long and loud ovation for the gutsy effort.

"If anything, this should be a confidence booster for our kids," Senesky said. "It tells them they can play with just about anyone on this level if they cut down on the mistakes and penalties."

Loney was outstanding on both sides of the ball. In addition to scoring the first touchdown of the game, he added some key catches down the stretch, and on defense, some of his hits were resounding.

As for Paramus, Senesky expects to see a team which mirrors his club.

"They've got some tough kids," the coach said. "Over the years, we've had some tough game with them. This Friday should be no different."

NOTES: No major injuries from last Friday nights game. There was one injury prior to the game, that coming when senior cheerleading captain Lisa DeSimone re-injured her knee during warmups.

Being a tough competitor, DeSimone cheered anyway, but decided against any routines that would require jumping. She's listed as questionable for tomorrow nights game.

Paramus is 2-5 heading into tomorrow nights game. Bucs hold 6-2 lead in season series with Paramus.

Tyrone Fitts heads upfield for yardage. The junior halfback has been outstanding for the Bucs this season.

Risoli leads Pirate 'B' team to 40-6 triumph over Clifton

Belleville rallied back.

From its 30, the Bucs drove downfield thanks to the passing combination of Billy Bretzger to Danny Lally. The two connected on four straight plays, moving the ball to the Raider 20.

From there, Bretzger hit Duffy with a 15 yard strike to the five, and then, Bo Bernard scored on a run to tie the game. The conversion failed, the game was tied, and that's how it ended.

Pirate "B" team stops Clifton
The Pirates improved their season record to 4-1-1 with a resounding 40-6 triumph over Clifton.

Jim Risoli started the scoring with a 40 yard TD pass to Hector Mendosa. The extra point was converted on a Risoli to Spike Williams pass.

The running game took over after the first score. Jason Mundorf scored from 40 yards out, Eric Feriol had an outstanding game, including a 45 yard run up the middle for a score.

Other offensive highlights included a quarterback bootleg of 35 yards by Risoli which set up a four yard touchdown by Mundorf, and Kevin Caputo, playing his first game in the backfield, scored on a 40 yard run.

Extra points were scored by Risoli and Ryan Sheridan.

Defensively, the Pirates were outstanding, holding Clifton to 30 yards of total offense and one first down in the first half.

Leading the defense were Paul Lembo, Arron Cervaus, Mike Fararra, Robert Wonder and Brian Pierson. Linebackers Lou Auchechio and David Bambrick and safety David James also played well.

NNJIL title within reach for Bucs after win at Hackensack

to Hackensack and rallied from a 1-0 deficit with two second half goals.

"I thought the game would be called because of darkness," DePinto said. "It was getting close. But our kids never gave up."

Guzman tied the game in the second half, off a pass from Nick Colucci. A minute later, Cotugno converted the game winner off a pass from Tafur.

"It was a big win," an elated DePinto said. "I'm hoping we can win the conference title, or at least have a shot for a share of the title. We should at least have a share of the crown."

NOTES: Bucs had 22 points in the league. Don Bosco, who was tied with Belleville for the league lead, still had one game left to play in league competition.

The win over Hackensack is even more impressive when you consider the Comets defeated powerful Kearny last Friday night in the state playoffs. Kearny was undefeated and ranked third in the state heading into that game.

Belleville and Hackensack could conceivably play in the state Group IV semi finals. The Bucs would have to win in Group IV, Section II and Hackensack would have to capture Group IV, Section I for that showdown. Hackensack, of course, took a big step in that regard by beating Kearny.

COMING UP EMPTY

Some prescription medications come with the instruction that they be taken on an empty stomach. What are the specifics surrounding such an admonition? Each dose should be timed so that it is taken two hours after the last meal eaten or at least one hour before the next meal is to be taken. This timing ensures that food will not interfere with the absorption of medicine through the lining of the stomach and the small intestine. What about the people who "graze" instead of eating three distinct meals? The answer is that most medications that are to be taken on an empty stomach will not be seriously hampered by a cup of soup, a piece of fruit, or a bagel.

Feel free to call on us whenever you have a question concerning instructions on taking a medication. This is just one of many services available at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1968, 759-1956). We handle the sale and rental of convalescent aids including walkers, wheelchairs, crutches and canes. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HINT: Whether you graze or eat full meals, take antibiotics that call for an empty stomach only when your stomach is truly empty.

Award-Winning Carol Tangorra joins Burgdorff, Realtor's Montclair Office

Carol Tangorra, a Nutley native and top-selling Realtor, has joined the Montclair Office of Burgdorff, Realtors. Carol is a well-known and hard working broker/sales representative who compiled more than $5 million in sales in 1993, earning her the prestigious Silver Award in the NJAR Million Dollar Sales Club—the only 1993 Silver-level member from Nutley.

A licensed Realtor since 1977, Carol was born to a family with a tradition of public service that goes back to the 1800's in Nutley. Carol continues the family tradition by involving herself in the community and serving as Secretary to the Nutley Planning Board.

Following her graduation from Fairleigh Dickinson University with a B.A. degree in English Literature, Carol immersed herself in a successful career she continually finds satisfying and exciting. "Buying a home is one of the most important decisions someone makes," says Carol. "I love being a part of that process, helping people find the home of their dreams. Talking to discover what they are looking for, and sharing their pleasure when they are ready to move in—those are the things that make my job rewarding."

Carol is a member of the West Essex, Montclair, Garden State, and Passaic County Boards of Realtors. Her active pursuits include the opera, politics, reading, and gardening.

Waste-to-Energy News

Fall 1994

Essex, Morris Agree to Trash Pact

The Essex County Utilities Authority (ECUA) and Morris County Municipal Utilities Authority (MUA) have agreed to a 25-year deal that will help reduce New Jersey's dependence on out-of-state landfills for solid waste disposal.

Under the terms of the agreement, Morris County will direct 225,000 tons of garbage a year from Morris County to the Essex County Resource Recovery Facility.

Essex County currently sends about 575,000 tons annually — about enough to fill Giants Stadium two-and-a-half times — to the plant, which has a capacity of over 900,000 tons. The tonnage from Morris County will help bridge that gap. Currently, Passaic and Hudson counties are sending trash to the Essex facility under an emergency state order that expires at the end of the year.

"We're happy to see this agreement between the two counties, because it helps stabilize the trash flow situation at the facility for the long term," said Plant Manager Curt Hurst. "It also is in line with the regional approach to solid waste management and in-state disposal that the state advocates, so New Jersey will become self-sufficient in managing its solid waste. Our facility has the advantage of being able to recover the energy in the waste and to turn it into enough electricity to power 50,000 homes. This is far better than simply burying the trash."

Plant Controller Tim McEvoy noted that processing the waste at the Essex facility has several beneficial effects. "First off, the heat from burning the garbage produces electricity, so we're recapturing the energy that's in the waste. Secondly, handling the waste here helps reduce the number of trucks on the road," he said. "If the garbage we burn here had to be sent to landfills in Pennsylvania via Route 80, for instance, there would be 29,490 additional trips by transfer trailers making the 120 mile round trip from Newark to the Delaware Water Gap, plus whatever mileage they would have to drive in Pennsylvania. That's more than 3.5 million truck miles saved so far this year.

"Reducing the number of vehicles on the road is a priority in New Jersey, where we're working to comply with the 1990 Federal Clean Air Act. Having that many less diesel trucks crossing the state is a major step toward reducing emissions in this region. Also, the remaining ash only takes up one tenth of the landfill space that raw garbage would."

Tim reported that the Essex County Resource Recovery Facility processed 589,800 tons of municipal household waste from January 1 through August 31.

This is slightly less than the amount processed during the same period last year. "We're off from last year's number by less than two percent," Tim added. "The slight dropoff is attributable to the severe winter weather and a lag we experienced when we stopped receiving Bergen County trash and began to accept trash from Hudson and

CAPTIVE AUDIENCE — Control room operator Alfredo Austin (seated) explains operation of the console to visiting Morris County dignitaries MUA Commissioner Ted Eppel, Freeholder Frank Druetzler, County Administrator James Rosenberg, MUA Executive Director Alex Slavin, Freeholder John Bramhall, Freeholder Cecilia Laureys, MUA Commissioner Frank Markewicz and MUA Commissioner Hy Nadel.

Passaic counties. All in all, this is very good, considering the obstacles we faced."

Tim added that the plant experienced a major increase in the amount of scrap iron and steel recovered because of the installation of a new ferrous recovery system last October. "We've practically tripled our tonnage of iron and steel scrap, from 5,461 tons through August 31 of 1993 to 15,389 tons for the same period this year," he said. "Recycling this metal saves landfill space and helps Essex County meet its state recycling mandate. We expected the county's ferrous tonnage to increase by 10,000 tons this year. We've almost reached that level with nearly three months to go."

Final terms of the Morris-Essex pact must still be negotiated and the contract has to be approved by both Boards of Freeholders. The contract is tentatively set to take effect January 1.

Essex County is working on a similar agreement with Passaic County to help make full use of the facility's capacity.

If There's a Plume, It's Getting Cold

As the days get shorter and the air gets colder, our vapor "plume" will be making its annual fall reappearance at the top of our stack. The white cloud you see is just water vapor condensing in the cold air.

During the warmer weather, there is less temperature difference between the gases coming out the stack and the outside air. There is just as much water content, but you can't see it. In the colder weather, the hot flue gases cool more quickly. Water vapor condenses into droplets that appear as a white cloud at the top of the stack — a "plume" is what we call it. This is essentially what happens when you can "see your breath" on a cold day.

There is nothing harmful about this and you can use it as a thermometer to estimate the outside temperature. The larger the plume appears, the colder it is outside.

Waste-to-Energy At the Crossroads

Curt Hurst

Until a few weeks ago, few people outside the waste industry and government had ever heard the term "flow control," much less understood it. It came to public attention when the U.S. Supreme Court issued a decision in a case involving the town of Clarkstown, NY, and its use of flow control — governmental direction of how and where waste is transported and disposed of — to assure waste flow for its municipal transfer station.

This action, called the "Carbone decision," was one of several important recent developments that have thrust the waste industry, and our facility, into the public spotlight. Judging from the questions we get from our tour groups, there is a lot of interest in these events. I'd like to try to explain, briefly and simply, what each of them means.

Clarkstown had been using a local flow control ordinance to direct waste to its municipally-owned transfer station. The High Court ruled that this unconstitutionally interfered with interstate commerce and ruled Clarkstown's law invalid.

Several New Jersey towns have since brought suit asking the federal courts to overturn New Jersey's flow control ordinances. The case is currently in the U.S. Third Circuit Court of Appeals. New Jersey's position is that flow control is a necessary part of its statewide solid waste management plan and is not used just to assure the financial stability of government-owned trash facilities, such as landfills, transfer stations or resource recovery plants.

Meanwhile, legislation is making its way through Congress that would restore the ability of governments to impose flow control on solid waste. At the same time another bill is being considered that would allow states to ban imported garbage from other states. However, Congress adjourned without taking action on the measures. Depending on the outcome of these measures, solid waste disposal as we know it could change radically in a very short time.

From American Ref-Fuel's perspective, we're here for the long term. We have operated successfully with flow control in New Jersey. Our company also has successfully operated plants in areas with only partial or no flow control. Whatever the final outcome of the action in the courts and in Congress, we believe we can be competitive, effective, and successful. We are here to serve the citizens of Essex County and New Jersey and will continue to do so.

The Supreme Court issued another ruling that ash from plants like ours must be tested before it is declared non-hazardous. Previously, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) had granted a waiver that ash was rated as non-hazardous without testing since the garbage it came from was non-hazardous. This is not a problem for us, because New Jersey has always required testing, regardless of the EPA waiver. Our ash was extensively tested for an eight-week period at start-up and has been tested monthly ever since. These test results have always shown ash from our plant to be non-hazardous.

We will continue to test our ash as New Jersey requires and to operate our plant in the most environmentally sound way possible. We anticipate no problems with ash.

We are here to serve the citizens of Essex County and New Jersey and will continue to do so.

A very positive recent development is a long term agreement with Morris County, detailed in a separate story in this newsletter.

While this agreement must still be approved by the freeholders in both counties, and may be affected by flow control decisions, we feel this is beneficial to both counties and it also helps advance the state's objective of regional solid waste management.

Joe Alston

Is It Garbage?

Summer's over, and, like falling leaves, the inquiries come in about what is acceptable household garbage and what isn't.

Leaves, grass clippings and other yard waste don't belong with your regular garbage. If your collectors spot it, they won't take it.

"Every town has its own procedure for collecting leaves and yard waste," said Operations Supervisor Joe Alston. "The best thing to do is call your town and ask."

Another area of confusion is in dealing with the remnants of that home fix-up project. "Scraps of lumber or wallboard can't go in household waste," Joe said. "The homeowner must make arrangements to have them hauled away. If you use a contractor, make sure that disposal of any waste is included in the contract. An empty paint can is garbage. A half-full paint can is household hazardous waste."

By the time the last leaves get raked, the holiday season will be upon us, and that produces its own waste problems. "Regular gift wrapping and ribbons can go in the household garbage," Joe said. "However, corrugated cardboard boxes should be flattened and baled separately for recycling. For Christmas trees, again it's best to call your municipality and ask what the rules are for disposing of them."

Youngster "Scouts" Up Old Batteries

Working with his fellow Scouts from Troop 5 at the Maplewood recycling center, Chris Casciano frequently had to turn away disappointed residents who came with containers of used batteries, hoping to recycle them.

When it came time to plan the community service project he needs to become an Eagle Scout, Chris decided to set up a battery recycling demonstration project. A speaker from American Ref-Fuel had visited Chris's troop a couple of years ago and talked about the importance of getting batteries out of the waste stream. "Batteries contain mercury or other heavy elements or harmful materials that don't belong in a landfill or in the atmosphere," Chris said. "American Ref-Fuel doesn't want them coming to their plant, and the best way to prevent that is to separate them from the waste stream in the first place."

Remembering that, Chris approached Ref-Fuel to help support his project, and the company was happy to oblige.

Once his project proposal was approved by Scout officials, Chris presented it to the Maplewood Recycling Advisory Committee, which endorsed it. He recruited Scouts, other friends and adults to help conduct the program.

Chris ran the collection drive on four Saturdays in September and October. Residents of Maplewood and neighboring South Orange were encouraged to bring in mercury, nickel-cadmium and alkaline batteries. Stories about the drive appeared in the News-Record of South Orange and Maplewood and the Star-Ledger. Fliers were posted in public places around the two towns and inserted in the weekly paper.

By the drive's end, nearly 200 people had brought more than 9,400 batteries in to be recycled, including over 8,800 alkaline, 240 mercury, 100 nickel-cadmium and 270 in other categories. Ref-Fuel supplied storage drums for the batteries and arranged for their removal by a company that will reuse all the elements of the batteries.

Environmental Engineer Marty Suchan worked closely with Chris on the project. "American Ref-Fuel was very happy to support this project and we're extremely proud of Chris for completing this task," Marty said. "He's taken a big responsibility on himself and seen it through. We should all follow his example."

Chris plans to turn over his project report to Essex County officials so they can use the information as they design a countywide program for recycling batteries.

Chris, a 17-year-old senior at Columbia High School, plans to study science or engineering, possibly environmental engineering, in college.

Opportunity NOx For Lower Emissions

American Ref-Fuel engineers are busy installing and testing a new emissions control system that will lower the amount of NOx emissions at the facility. NOx is a term for a group of nitrogen oxide compounds that are associated with the production of ground-level ozone and other environmental problems.

Marty Suchan

"We're installing this system as part of our commitment to achieving the lowest possible nitrogen oxide emissions, now and into the future," said Environmental Engineer Marty Suchan. "NOx contributes to ground-level ozone, which can worsen certain respiratory problems."

The new system is expected to be brought on line in November. There is a shake-out and testing period which lasts for about one year. "We'll be fine-tuning the system during that period to make certain we get absolutely the best possible performance from it," he said.

Where to Get Recycling Information

Recycling programs vary greatly among Essex County municipalities. While virtually all localities offer curbside residential recycling, schedules, materials collected and separation requirements differ from town to town. Some municipalities also have drop-off centers.

You can get general information about recycling and solid waste management in Essex County by calling the Essex County Utilities Authority, (201) 857-2350. For information about recycling specific to your community, call your municipal recycling coordinator:

Alban Chosen for Ref-Fuel Scholarship

Stacy Alban is enjoying her first few weeks of college life, exploring the campus of Douglass College at Rutgers and settling into the routine of her classes. The accounting major from Newark is the 1994 recipient of the American Ref-Fuel East Side High School Scholarship.

Stacy was selected for the award based on her academic record, references and an autobiographical statement. She is the fourth East Side graduate to be awarded a scholarship since the program began in 1991.

The scholarship grant is for $1,000 a year, renewable for each of Stacy's four years in college, based on continued enrollment and good grades.

American Ref-Fuel Controller Tim McEvoy, who coordinates the scholarship program, noted that Stacy was an outstanding student in high school. She received the Presidential Award for Academic Excellence, which requires a 3.7 average. She was also named a Garden State Urban Scholar.

At East Side, she was a member of the cheerleading squad, the honor society and the math club, and competed in the citywide Math Olympics. In her three years of competition, her teams placed first in geometry, second in trigonometry and first in calculus.

After she was awarded the scholarship, Stacy and her parents visited the plant for a tour and meeting with Ref-Fuel officials.

Applications for the 1995 Ref-Fuel scholarship will be available through the East Side Guidance Department in the spring.

For the third consecutive summer, American Ref-Fuel was the principal sponsor of the Summer Youth Academic and Soccer Camp program at New Jersey Institute of Technology. This year, more than 40 youngsters participated in the program under direction of NJIT's new head soccer coach, Dan Kilday.

At the American Ref-Fuel/NJIT Summer Youth Academic and Soccer Camp, Curt Hurst (rear) visits a class taught by Jim Catalano, acting director of athletics and physical education at NJIT. Seated, left to right, are: Mackenson Dieuguste, Dexter Haynes, Samuel Jerome and Aman Tsehage.

Morning sessions are devoted to academics, with students using soccer-related information to improve reading, math, spelling, geography and other basic skills. For instance, math problems might involve the size and area of the soccer field. In the afternoon, they move outdoors to work on improving their soccer skills under the eyes of an expert staff.

"This camp is unique," Dan said. "I think the kids were very receptive. It's a good experience for them to come in and use the university's facilities."

In the afternoon, the youngsters moved out to the soccer field and NJIT's new Head Soccer Coach, Dan Kilday, demonstrated ball handling skills for Jean Voltaire, Widlor Dorcilhomme, Jimmy Belcher and (back to camera) Carl McAllister.
