SCOTT CHAMPIONS SUBSTATION - State Senator John P. Scott (R-Dist. 36), is introducing legislation to allocate $500,000 to help develop a "mini" police substation in the Silver Lake district. Scott (third from left), announced the plan at the April 23 Township Council public meeting. to provide them with assistance they so greatly deserve," Scott added. "We need your help. We will plant a seed, and you can help it become a reality."

Scott said the bill was "the first and only supplemental appropriation I've ever asked for," adding that he proposed the funds to send the message, "Crime will not tolerated in Belleville."

Citizens need to sign petitions Scott will circulate in Belleville the next few months to help convince Gov. Christine Todd Whitman to sign the bill after a legislative vote takes it through both houses in June, Scott said.

Quoting crime statistics that say the Newark precinct 212 bordering Silver Lake is the fifth busiest in the country, Scott told Belleville residents at the April 23 Council meeting, "Crime knows no borders, and unfortunately, the fact is that crime has flowed over into Belleville and is now affecting the safety of our residents, and most importantly, the safety of our children."

The measure, if passed by the full legislature, would provide grant money for a station and pay for salaries to employ two police officers and one counselor. The officers' duties would include working with the neighborhood to Pomaco chastises Fuscaldo for remarks... School board greets Notari, Piscatowski

Cook, Scaperrotta, Digori propose cuts...

Council aims to trim $200+ budget increase

By Richard Dickon
A three-person Council committee has agreed on reductions to the $31.9 million municipal budget that would reduce an initial tax increase of 43 tax points or more than $200 for a home assessed at slightly less than $40,000, the township average.

get to a zero tax levy increase, including reductions to the Police, Fire, Department of Public Works, Health Department and library.

Councilman Joseph Scaperrotta, one of the three Council members, is proposing more than $330,000 in additional cuts to those discussed by fellow Council committee members Bill Cook and Jerry Digori.

Further reductions proposed by Scaperrotta would include making the Tax Assessor's office part-time, as well as providing less for municipal insurance, uncollected taxes and various operating expenses.

The three have agreed on reductions that would trim the increase to about 28 points, or $140.

"The Council must accept the fact that our taxpayers cannot afford a tax increase," Scaperrotta said. "The original budget called for a 43-point tax increase that is totally unacceptable. After reviewing the budget, I see no reason to raise taxes, and I will not support any budget that raises local taxes."

Scaperrotta has proposed enough reductions to bring the bud-

Contested races in 2nd, 3rd, 4th Wards, Messina unopposed

By Richard Dickon
Two-women races are set in Council Wards Two, Three and four, with Mayor Jim Messina is running unopposed in the First Ward. Incumbents Joseph Scaperrotta in the Second Ward, and Bill Cook in the Fourth Ward face challenges from Arnaldo Carrera and Mario Drozd, respectively, while Kevin Kennedy and William Escott will battle for the retiring Deputy Mayor Thomas Spillane's Third Ward seat. This week, candidates offer biographical information and their Council qualifications. Next week look for interviews with each candidate on pertinent issues as well as The Belleville Times' Ward endorsements.

Arnaldo Carrera
Second Ward
Carrera is a Belleville resident since 1981 and is Vice President of a major New York Bank.
His qualifications for Council include being "a seasoned executive, having worked for two of the world's largest banks," Carrera said.
"I am experienced with cost-cutting and streamlining operations," he said. "Also, I am an effective negotiator and team builder." The latter qualities would make him an asset in negotiating employee salary contracts and working on Council committees.
In the township, Carrera is a member of the O.P.E. at School #7 and is an Athletic Council appointee.
His business experience includes being director of the International Trade Data Users Group, Inc. and the Form Director of the New Jersey Export Development Council. Also, he is a member of both the American Management Association and the

Joseph Scaperrotta
Second Ward
Councilman Joseph Scaperrotta seeks re-election to the post he won in November 1994.
During his first term, Scaperrotta said he has successfully championed the need to improve township streets and playgrounds. "Many streets are now being paved, and new, state-of-the-art playground equipment will be reality this summer," he said.
Scaperrotta said he has also worked to repair the tennis courts at Municipal Stadium and many other projects of concern to Second Ward voters.
Stabilizing taxes has also been a large part of Scaperrotta's work, he said, and he has offered budget proposals which held taxes in line for two consecutive years.
"I will continue, if re-elected, to work at bringing about meaningful tax relief, and I hope the Township Council will finally recognize the need to stabilize taxes before our citizens are taxed out of town," he said.
Scaperrotta, 30, a lifelong resi-

Bill Escott
Third Ward
Bill Escott has resided in Belleville 27 years, and is a retired Police Captain and Commander of the Detective Division of the Police Department.
He is a former president of Belleville PBA Local #28 for six years and Chairman of the Essex County PBA Conference.
Escott lists several goals and objectives as Third Ward Council. He supports renovation of Town Hall, and is looking to attract new businesses and retailables to the Washington Avenue business center.
He also plans to "address illegal housing issues" and "ensure construction of senior citizen housing."
As a former coach in the Recreation "Peanut League" in football, Escott said he wants to "enhance recreation facilities and programs."
On the budget and taxes, Escott pledges to "ensure value for your tax dollar."
Escott and his wife, Cell, are the

Kevin G. Kennedy
Third Ward
Kevin G. Kennedy is a lifelong resident, a product of the school system and still resides in a home his grandfather built in the early 1900's.
Kennedy said he is seeking the Third Ward Council seat because he "firmly believes that our area needs a strong voice, and I can make a positive difference for the Third Ward. Citizens need solutions to their concerns."
Some of the goals and ideas he said he will address begin with businesses moving out of the township. As an example, Kennedy cites Wallace and Tiernan.
"I have the foresight and the answers to get replaced revenue," he said.
Included in his "answers" is getting proposed senior citizens housing "acted upon and not just talked about." He also plans to strictly enforce housing codes to get rid of illegal dwellings and ensure that property values do not go downward.
He would like to form a com-

William P. Cook
Fourth Ward
William F. Cook, a lifelong resident, has four children with his wife, Gail, all of whom attended the Belleville school system.
A licensed professional engineer, Cook has been employed for 22 years with Hoffman LaRoche, Nutley, where he is currently Senior Manager of Operations, responsible for plant utilities.
He has served on the Planning and Zoning boards before joining the Council in 1980.
His future goals include completing the renovation of 383 Washington Ave. as a Community Center. Cook said he wants to establish Belleville as an Urban Enterprise Zone "to improve existing businesses and attract new commercial and professional retailable properties."
He has promoted the purchase of the Newark reservoir property for use as a passive recreational area, utilizing federal funding.
Overall, Cook said he wants to "pursue the mission of an improved quality of life for all our residents."

To combat crime, Cook has been a participant and honorary township chairman for "National Night Out Against Crime." He was responsible for dealing with state officials to get Route 21 resurfaced.

Cook has chaired the Council budget committee which he said "has stabilized municipal taxes."

He has participated in upgrading Washington Avenue with new facades and additional parking, as well as advocating and championing curbside recycling.

Cook's development of bid analysis procedures for Township insurance have resulted in lower liability costs. He has developed performance review plan outlines for township administrators to promote better planning and responsibility.

In 1991, Drozd helped establish fund raising efforts to purchase new scoreboards at Municipal Stadium. He is a past chairperson of the Belleville/Nutley Columbus Day Parade Committee and a Middle School Home and School Association member.

During his time on Council, Drozd said 35 streets were paved, two major flooding problems were resolved, and he voted against tax increases in 1991 and 1993 while voting for zero increases in 1992 and 1994.

"Only when we work together can we spread a positive image, and the key to success is hard work," Drozd said.

OUR OPINION

The birth of a destiny

End of an era

The public retirement announced by Essex County Republican Chairman John Renna marks the end of an era so reminiscent of Essex Republican politics in 1937 and 1967. The results are the same, only the process changed. It seems history is destined to repeat itself with Essex County Republican leaders every thirty years.

1937 gave birth to the Essex County Clean Government Republican organization which toppled the leadership of Jesse Salmon, Essex County Republican Chairman. In 1967, the Essex leadership consisted of County Chairman Bill Yeomans and his behind-the-scenes mentor, attorney Herman Blank. Unlike the current change initiated by Jim Treffinger, the 1967 leadership battle was hard-fought at the voting booths with opposing slates of candidates ranging from at-large State Senate candidates to 12 District Assembly slots. The Reform Republican organization trounced the incumbent leadership candidates. A public relations director for the upstart Reform Republicans was Bill Safire, the renowned Washington, D.C. political columnist for the New York Times. He was p-a-i-d (slow money $15,000). The Reform

Republicans swept five of the six Senate seats and all twelve of the Assembly spots. That action ended the leadership of Bill Yeomans and attorney, Herman Blank.

In 1996, Jim Treffinger did it the easy way. He turned on the charm with 17 of the 21 G.O.P. chairpersons and all five Newark ward chairmen. Treffinger's overwhelming county committee support led the highly respected G.O.P. Chairman John Renna to announce his retirement. Renna, like Yeomans before him, also had a behind-the-scenes partner - a Nutley attorney, Jim Piro. The tidal wave that is sweeping Renna out of office was designed by a resourceful Jim Treffinger. Based upon the record, it seems history is destined to repeat itself in Essex County Republican leadership every thirty years. So - Jim Treffinger, prepare your troops for a thirty-year reign of power. You have earned it - and without the party shedding one drop of blood - a miracle of miracles - Jim Treffinger - a miracle man if there ever was one - and he's only begun to climb the heights of his destiny. Treffinger is primed to take his peerless leadership to the next level. - F.A.O. -

25¢ meters won't drive shoppers out if businesses become viable

After hearing concerns from some residents that the change will hurt local merchants, the Township Council voted to spend $96,000 to install parking meters along Washington Avenue and in the new 27-space parking lot for shoppers on Washington Ave., across from the Belleville Pub. The Council passed the bond ordinance despite complaints that the meters, updated on Washington Avenue from a minimum of 5 cents to 25 cents an hour for a maximum of two hours, would weaken the recent improvements at both ends of the town's business center.

The new shoppers' parking lot will also now receive 25-cent-per-hour meters, allowing the township to collect revenue offsetting the more than $375,000 paid out to demolish existing structures and build the lot. Councilman Bill Cook, who always checks the facts where taxpayers are concerned, reports that the cost of the new meters will have a one-year pay back, based on current parking meter revenues.

Residents concerned about driving away businesses are well-intended, but right next door in Nutley, the Franklin Avenue hub of commerce continues to thrive, with 25-cent meters. If only more expensive meters were the only obstacle to a healthier, more profitable downtown area. Reality tells us that competition from malls, where shoppers will walk miles yet still feel like they have saved money on parking, is the biggest threat to Belleville's businesses.

Unfortunately, there may be no long-term solution to the demise of "mom and pop" stores in Belleville and elsewhere. The last several years have shown, however, that chain, franchise operations such as Taco Bell and video rental outfits can survive well on Washington Avenue. The new strip mall at the north end of town illustrates that if merchants provide an attractive shopping atmosphere with on-site parking, than concerns over meters become a relatively moot point.

One suggestion to the Council about the new meters must be made. If a parking authority is established, pay senior citizens or part-time employees a low salary to collect fees, or risk incurring the wrath of cost-conscious taxpayers. Councilman Cook should be credited for already discussing the use a lower-paid employee to perform this task.

All in all, however, we agree that the Council should charge a fair rate for parking, in anticipation of better days for merchants around Washington Avenue. We do not see the 25-cent fees driving anyone away from a worthwhile shopping experience. What now must follow are stores more likely to entice shoppers.

'Honestly Belleville'

By Richard Dickon

Vicious campaign literature, rumors have no place in voters' choices in ward elections

With all the political maneuvering going on this week, one comment brought me back to the central issue of the School Board and Ward Council elections. Someone whose opinion I respect commented that I am not objective about School Board Trustee Frank Montagna, and therefore should stop writing about him.

This could have gotten me to question my motives in writing about the political shenanigans that rule in Belleville, but instead it crystallized my stand on the township's politics: Don't believe the hype. Yes, I have felt it necessary to chronicle Montagna's litany of classless, antisocial behavior at public meetings and sporting events, and I did print a long, detailed letter by two of his previous supporters outlining allegations of a series of lies Montagna perpetrated on them. When one person so outrageously oversteps the boundaries of decency and publicly slanders people on a whim, this should be noted.

So now, with the Ward election political machinery heating up, I offer this stern warning to voters in all Wards. Don't believe the accusations about any of the candidates in campaign literature and scandal sheets that will be circulating. Specifically, Montagna will be reprinting half truths and out-and-out lies about Second Ward Councilman Joseph Scaperrotta. Scaperrotta may choose to circulate information about his Second Ward rival, Arnaldo Carrera's failure to vote in elections and the "for sale" sign he had on his lawn earlier. That information is pertinent to the race, and has been confirmed.

Also, I have obtained a copy of an incident report where manure was tossed on the property of Carrera and his neighbors. Montagna would presume that Scaperrotta and his friends were behind this, despite absolutely no proof. The possibility exists that it was random act, since other laws were also affected.

Rather than trying to sift through this morass of innuendo, I suggest that voters look at more tangible information. Scaperrotta has a degree in government, and Carrera's career in banking and other financial affiliations qualifies him to decide the fate of taxpayers' money. Make your decision based on those qualifications, and less on impossible-to-prove intentions of tossing manure or selling a home.

A choice based on measurable abilities, not perceived character flaws, will better serve the township and its voters. If the politicians get the impression that decisions are not being made from their attempted negative campaigns, perhaps this ugliness will slowly begin to ebb. It's worth a try...

Elsewhere, Board Attorney Frank Pomaco had every right to defend his character as an attorney. I never have, and never would intimate in this column that his legal advice is politically motivated. His employment may be subject to the vote of the majority of the School Board, but his record shows him to be a fine legal mind, and I do not believe he would ever render an opinion based on pleasing a majority.

That said, his legal opinion, and the decision of the Prosecutor's office, do not change one very important fact in this whole mess. I was at the meeting where a Board majority was alleged to have warned Tom Fuscaldo and Barbara Cicalese not to meet with Scaperrotta. That never happened, yet this phantom fact was used as the basis for dismissing these two hard-working, sincere Board members from the residency committee.

I still take issue with the removal of the two from the residency committee, and I am still convinced it was done by Ralph Mazzuca, Frank Montagna and the Board majority to punish three political enemies. The Prosecutor's clearing them of criminal charges does not make this any less wrong, unethical and sleazy. A sitting Council member should not be denied inclusion in as important a matter as removing illegal students simply because he is not popular with certain School Board members. That remains a black mark on this school board...

The name of this column has changed, necessitated by on-going events involving local politicians. It is the intent of this column to continue highlighting those who do good things in Belleville, but with elections around the corner, it has become necessary to separate fact from fiction virtually every week.

• SENATOR JOHN SCOTT introduced a bill that provides for a grant award of $2,484,364 to the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission. The money is available through the Stormwater Management and Combined Sewer Overflow Abatement Bond Act of 1989. If Scott's bill becomes law, Nutley, Belleville, Bloomfield and Glen Ridge are among the communities that will benefit.

• I WAS one of several hundred men and women who enjoyed "An Evening with the Champ", Muhammad Ali, Sponsored by the Newark Star Ledger, it was a real tribute to one of the great heroes of our time.

• NUTLEY'S Don Francello of Nutley recently answered his last call. He had established Don's 21 Restaurant in Newark as the place where public officials, elected and appointed, could be joined almost any night in the week. His restaurant was very popular with newswriters and was the meeting place for New Jersey Boxing Writers Association meetings and dinners. His pre-Lenten Carnival feasts were standing-room-only affairs. Before opening up his restaurant, Don was a performer's agent and booked major entertainers like Ella Fitzgerald, Nat King Cole and the Mills Brothers.

• DON was an easy-going guy - a friend to all, he didn't have one enemy in the world. He was a big man, and he matched his size with his heart. Don loved people. He was a man of great affection and an equal amount of loyalty. He had a reputation for helping the helpless, extending a hand to the needy and comforting those in sorrow. To know him,

• CITY OF PASSAIC candidates are battling over bilingual education problems.

Bilingual education is not what America is all about. When foreigners from distant shores came to America, they learned and used the language - my parents among the multitudes of immigrants. I believe that when you come to our country, you should adopt our language and not expect us to learn yours.

• DON was an easy-going guy - a friend to all, he didn't have one enemy in the world. He was a big man, and he matched his size with his heart. Don loved people. He was a man of great affection and an equal amount of loyalty. He had a reputation for helping the helpless, extending a hand to the needy and comforting those in sorrow. To know him, was to love him. Don Francello was a man of character and wisdom. Every politician of every sort sought out Don's advice which he gave freely to the public officials who enjoyed his respect and trust. A Nutley resident, Don was known more by the people of the greater Essex County than his own home town. A long-lasting friendship existed between Don Francello and the Orechio Brothers - a most cherished relationship. In the demise of Don Francello, his wife, daughter, son and brother have lost a loved one. The Orechios have lost a friend. And now at rest, may God bless his soul.

• IN case you missed it, Presidential candidate Pat Buchanan has agreed to pay a $20,000 fine to the Federal Election Commission for improper contributions to his 1992 campaign. The campaign committee had already paid the Treasury amounts of $3,166 representing corporate contributions, $53,759 for contributions exceeding the $1,000 per person limit, and $53,251 in campaign expenses not reimbursed in a timely way.

• I HAVE always maintained if one looks for gratitude in politics, the only thing one can do is buy a dog. Newark's North Ward Councilman Anthony Carrino is betrayed by a man he was responsible for electing, Councilman-at-Large Luis Quintana who won office in 1994. Without Carrino's support, Councilman Quintana would have been an also-ran.

Quintana is initiating a recall of Councilman Anthony Carrino because Carrino accepted a full time job as Director of the Essex County Police. Carrino accepted the police post in an effort to reduce crime in Newark. His principal opponent is Quintana who is mobilizing the black and Latino communities against Carrino. It will be denied, but many North Ward observers think the racial card is playing an important part in the opposition to Carrino.

YOUR OPINION

Pleased Drozdz is running

To the editor:
I was extremely pleased to hear that Mario Drozdz had decided to run for election to the council once again.

Our community needs a man who is dedicated and capable of making Belleville a better community in which to live. He has the drive and the ability to get the job done.

Mario is a dedicated and loving husband, father, homeowner, and taxpayer of Belleville who cares a great deal in the betterment of Belleville not only for himself, but for his young son and daughter who are growing up within this community. Mario is always available and willing to hear from the people of Belleville and discuss the things that need to be done, and inevitably, he will attempt to correct the situation as quickly as possible, with a great deal of past success.

We need a man like Mario Drozdz on the council in Belleville. Please, show your support on Election Day. Elect Mario Drozdz. Help to make Belleville the best place to live!

Conway family is grateful

To the editor:
My family and I would like to thank you for the outpouring of concern and well wishes that we have received.

I had a wonderful time at the benefit party and would like to thank all who came or made donations. Your kindness is truly appreciated.

Special thanks to Pat Dunn and the Belleville Fire Department for sponsoring my benefit.

Also, a big thank you to Maria

Lombardi and Lynda Morgan for taking on this whole party. They did a wonderful job and we really appreciate all the time and effort that went into my benefit. It's great to have such good friends and it's wonderful to have so many people that care.

Thanks for helping me and my family take another step towards a full recovery.

Janie Conway and family

Pepe family endorses Drozdz

To the editor:
I am writing this letter to give our support to council candidate Mario Drozdz.

We are homeowners in Belleville for over twelve years. For the last five years we have been fighting to have the retaining wall of the Third River, which runs along our property, repaired.

The man who answered my many phone calls and listened to all my complaints and started the ball rolling was Mario Drozdz.

Mario is running for councilman of the Fourth Ward. I can truly attest to his ability. He is the right man for the job. To my many friends in the Fourth Ward now is the time to make a change.

Make the right choice, come out and vote for Mario Drozdz on May 14.

Mario and Gail Pepe

A thank you from 'Big A'

To the editor:
On behalf of the family of Anthony Pravata Sr. ('Big A'), we would like to express our appreciation and sincere gratitude to the Belleville Police Department for the outstanding services they provided on the day of his funeral.

In addition to all of the other responsibilities the Belleville Police Department has in our community, they still made it a priority to show their support and sympathy.

Anthony was a life-long resident of Belleville and had many friends he truly cared for. The support and love shown by his many friends was a great comfort to his family and will always be remembered.

Mrs. Anthony Pravata and Anthony Pravata Jr.

Viscel strongly endorses Escot

To the editor:
As a long-time friend of Bill Escot, I can vouch for the fact that he has been an excellent police officer, as well as a great father and husband.

Going back as far as my football-playing days, I have always looked up to Bill as a role model. I believe he will make a great Third Ward Councilman. I would urge all voters in the ward to consider casting their vote for Bill, Line 1A, on May 14th.

“Mulholland Falls” now playing at the Clairidge

By Kelly Tahaney
“Mulholland Falls” is a suspenseful, dark and sometimes funny movie.

Director Lee Tamahori “Once Were Warriors” brings a surprisingly delicate touch to this film.

Considering that he is known for his violent in your face style of directing, Tamahori switches into low gear speed with high brow dialogue (if you can understand that then...)

Nick “gravel voice” Nolte plays the leader of the legendary, 50’s L.A. police “Hat Squad.” His crew consists of Michael Madsen (cool as usual), Chris Penn (looks like he hates his brother Sean) and Chazz Palminteri (funny and he gives the best performance in the movie).

These L.A. cops are a throwback to the Elliot Ness’ “Untouchable” types.

They have the task of keeping gangster type out of Los Angeles by any means necessary.

Jennifer Connelly of “Hot Spot” (unbelievably healthy looking) plays the seductive dead girl that lives only in flashbacks throughout the movie.

The married Nolte had a thing with her and he now wants to find out her murderer.

Eventually, his buddies help him find out the mystery killers but not without some sacrifices.

One funny scene is when Palminteri attempts to subdue an unruly gangster type during a police raid.

“Hey, you gotta warrant or something?” the gangster said. “You sound like you’re from New York,” Palminteri said. He smacks the guy with a telephone and says, “I’m from Jersey!”

This film deals with the question of police brutality and governmental misuse of force. Both important topics and perhaps too big to be covered in two hours.

Overall, with some lags in the film “Falls” comes through with unexpected action, snappy dialogue and one very intense climactic scene in an airplane.

This Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Release is now playing at the Clairidge Triple Cinema located at 486 Bloomfield Avenue in Montclair.

HOROSCOPES

May 5-11

ARIES - March 21/April 20
If you're up against a work deadline this week, discipline is the key to success. Put your social life to the side and focus on the job at hand. Don't be afraid to say "no" to an unreasonable boss. On the romantic front, a relationship that seemed to be going nowhere could take a serious turn.

TAURUS - April 21/May 21
Creative thinking will get you far this week. Look for a new approach to an old problem. You'll be surprised and pleased — with the outcome. New projects will pique your interest. Losing yourself in a hobby will prove both stimulating and relaxing. Keep an open mind on Tuesday.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21
Early in the week, details will be more important than the big picture. Be sure to dot your "i"s and cross every "t". A triumph in the workplace will put you in the spotlight. Be sure to credit those who helped you along. In the financial arena, look for a happy balance between spending and saving.

CANCER - June 22/July 22
With just a small effort on your part, you can make a family member very happy. A few kind words or gestures will go a long way. Feeling overly tired lately? If so, stress may be the culprit. Meditation could help recharge your batteries. A complicated question will be posed Friday.

LEO - July 23/August 23
Second thoughts may interfere with upcoming plans. Think things through carefully and figure out what you really want. Someone's act of kindness will restore your faith in human nature. A spontaneous moment this week will revive a tired romance. Single Leos find new love.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22
You may have to sit patiently on the sidelines and let a loved one take the spotlight this week. Avoid domestic conflicts by keeping a low profile and keeping control of your temper. Plans for an upcoming trip may need some refinement. Use your keen eyes to spot any potential problems.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23
Use your time wisely, Libra. There is no room for procrastinating when you have so much to do. Make a plan and stick to it. You'll see that you can accomplish a great deal when you take an organized approach. If your finances seem to be in order, it may be time to treat yourself to something special. A dream provides special insight.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22
Looking for new employment? If so, this could be a promising week. Remember though, don't jump at the first opportunity that comes along. Make sure it's what you really want. If you're in a position to do so, it would be wise to hold out for everything you want. Believe in yourself.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21
Try not to beat yourself up over a mistake you've made. Instead, focus on the positive. You can't change the past, but you can make the future better. A night out with an old friend will make you realize how far you've come in the past few years. Be proud of your accomplishments.

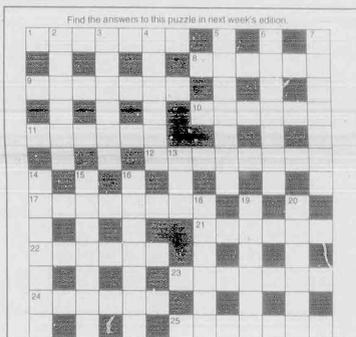

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20
A love relationship will reach a new, more serious stage. Don't be afraid to express your true feelings. Now you can wear your heart on your sleeve. This time it won't be broken. Don't let stress in the workplace get the better of you. If you're overloaded, don't be afraid to delegate.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18
Because of a friend in high places, an exciting opportunity may come your way. Be prepared to make an important decision. Later in the week, an old friend will have a surprise for you. You'll feel grateful for such a good companion. In a love relationship, find a balance between give and take.

PISCES - Feb 19/March 20
Taking loved ones for granted will only lead to resentment. Show your appreciation. News of a wedding or engagement may take you by surprise. Matters of the heart will never cease to amaze you. If your present living situation is getting you down, it may be time to seek out some new digs.

Mountainside lab employee receives Schumann award

Mountainside Hospital in Glen Ridge honored 41-year laboratory employee and volunteer Erika Carlson by bestowing on her the 1995 Florence F. Schumann Award during a ceremony held recently at the hospital.

The award, established in 1988 by the benefactor for whom it is named, recognizes an employee, volunteer or auxiliary who has performed his or her duties "in a manner that exceeds expectation."

At the time of her retirement in 1994, Carlson was supervisor of the histology section of Mountainside Hospital's laboratories and was program director of its School of Histotechnology.

Citing a promise she made to two students who had one year left to finish their education at the school, Carlson continued to serve as a volunteer in the position of program director and faculty member until they graduated in August 1995. She still continues to work in the lab as needed.

"Erika's commitment to the school and to the laboratories has been overwhelming," said Dr. Stephen Kimler, M.D., a pathologist and medical director of laboratories.

"Staying an extra year as a volunteer is simply a reflection of the tremendous dedication she has shown this hospital over the years. As for her technical expertise--I've never seen anyone better," he said.

Histology technologists prepare biopsy and cell specimens that pathologists use to confirm or exclude a diagnosis of cancer.

"Obviously the work is technically demanding: Everything is riding on that diagnosis," said Dr. Kimler.

Carlson began her career at Mountainside Hospital in 1954 when she joined the laboratory after graduating from Upsala College in East Orange. The following year she enrolled as a member of the School of Medical Technology, graduating in 1956 as a medical technologist. She accepted a position in the histology section.

In 1970, she was promoted to assistant section chief of histology and in 1984 to supervisor. For many years she served on the faculty of the School of Histotechnology, and in 1984 became its program coordinator and subsequently its director.

Erika Carlson, right, receives the Florence F. Schumann Award from Robert A. Silver, president and CEO of Mountainside Hospital.

"I never planned to teach," she remarked, "but I always felt I must prepare the next generation."

She added that the students and laboratory employees "have been my family" and her work has helped her overcome several devastating events in her life, including the early death of her husband when her two sons were just 16 and 10.

According to Frank Siarrett, administrative director of the laboratories, Carlson applied the same meticulous details used in her laboratory work to her teaching.

"In addition to being a warm, generous person, she has a lot of patience. She was always willing to share her knowledge with all of us and to take time to make sure the students were well prepared for future careers in the lab, in research and in patient care," Siarrett said.

Carlson immigrated to the United States with her parents after World War II, and settled first in Connecticut then in East Orange. She now resides in Cedar Grove. Her plans for retirement include traveling to her native Estonia.

Previous winners of Mountainside Hospital's Florence F. Schumann Award include Johnnie Mae Johnson in 1988, Agnethe Swanson in 1989, Margaret Boucher in 1990, Gloria Corbo in 1991, the Rev. John Conway in 1993 and Delia Earley in 1994.

A four-footed visitor

Job Haines welcomes Liza

The Job Haines Home at 250 Bloomfield Avenue, Bloomfield, has a new visitor -- of the four-footed variety.

Liza, a standard poodle, delights both residents and staff alike with her regular visits.

Liza is recognized by Therapy Dogs International and has received training through the American Kennel Club as an official companion dog. In addition, she has earned a number of obedience training awards, including the AKC's Canine Good Citizen's Test.

"Liza's visits make a big difference to our residents," says Anita Merrill, assistant administrator.

"Often, choosing an alternative housing option means giving up access to pets. Her visits provide an opportunity for the residents to pet, play and share unconditional friendship. It is evident that Liza enjoys the visits as well. Frequently, when with the residents, she will lift a paw to shake, gently asking for more attention," she said.

Medical treatments using botulism

A deadly substance is the source of an effective treatment for people suffering from uncommon, but debilitating neurological disorders.

The drug, botulinum toxin, also known as Botox, is derived from the bacteria that causes botulism, a serious form of food poisoning. But when refined and injected into affected areas, the toxin effectively controls involuntary muscle spasms or contractions associated with certain neuromuscular disorders.

Botox represents the first effective nonsurgical treatment for conditions known as focal dystonia. The Botox can also be used to relieve pain in muscles that are chronically in spasm.

Focal dystonias are a group of rare neurological disorders that cause involuntary movements and abnormal postures. An estimated 75,000 Americans are affected.

In 1989, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration approved Botox for the treatment of blepharospasm. Blepharospasm is a focal dystonia characterized by involuntary rapid eye-blinking. When severe, it can result in functional blindness.

An assessment by the American Academy of Neurology indicated it is also safe and effective for cervical dystonia, painful twisting of the head and neck; laryngeal dystonia, vocal muscle spasms causing hoarse or broken speech; oro-mandibular dystonia, spasms in the jaw, tongue and lower facial muscles characterized by twitching and spasms.

While not a cure, the new treatment is a marked therapeutic advance and has proved beneficial to many patients with focal dystonia. It offers relief from pain and allows patients to return to their jobs and regain pleasure in living.

Dr. Junger is one of five neurologists in New Jersey using this sophisticated treatment. He moved his practice to New Jersey in 1989 and to Essex County in the past year. Dr. Junger runs the Pain and Headache Treatment Center of North Central Neurology located in Belleville and can be reached at 586-8555.

SAFETY SENSE

Boating Safety

(NAPS)—Last year, some 790 people died in recreational boating-related accidents nationally and more than 300,000 others suffered injuries. Boating safety experts believe most of these deaths and injuries would likely have been prevented if a few basic precautions had been taken.

Boating safety has become a greater challenge during the past decade with the increasing popularity of water sports. Craft that didn't exist or had few enthusiasts 15 years ago—such as windsurfers, kayaks and personal watercraft like Jet Skis—have attracted many more people to the country's lakes, rivers and coastal waterways. There were an estimated 12 million boats and water craft of all types in the United States in 1980. Today, there are 17 million.

The Coast Guard and other agencies have established standards to help boaters protect themselves and their passengers. But, as with most activities, it comes down to the participants taking some simple precautions and paying attention to make boating safe. For those unsure of their responsibilities, there are organizations such as the National Safe Boating Council available to help.

Elaine Dickinson of the NSBC points out that 80 percent of all boating fatalities are by drowning and 85 percent of these drowning victims were not wearing life jackets. So most deaths caused by boating mishaps could be prevented with the proper use of personal flotation devices, more commonly known as life jackets. She added that other simple precautions, such as checking out weather reports, having fire extinguishers and distress signals readily available, and making sure horns, whistles and bells are working properly, can help assure a safe outing.

After that, it's up to the person operating the boat or other craft to do so responsibly. Many of the common rules of the road are also good rules for the water. Adjusting speed to match conditions and awareness of other boats on the water can keep boaters out of trouble. Operators impaired from drinking alcoholic beverages or from using legal or illegal drugs are putting themselves, their passengers/swimmers and other boaters at great risk. But it is also important to recognize there is a difference between driving and boating because the sun, wind, waves and vibrations from an outing on the water increase fatigue and can also affect the judgement of everyone on board.

"Most of what we are encouraging boaters to do comes down to common sense," said Dickinson. "And the best way to be a smart boater is to take a boating safety class for yourself."

Statistics indicate that about 75 percent of boating accidents involve operators who have not taken a safety class. Dickinson said classes are available in most areas, usually at little or no cost.

In 1994, the NSBC, in partnership with Coors Brewing Company, launched the Boating Education Advancement Awards to recognize individuals and organizations that develop and implement innovative safety programs. The program has generated nominations from across the country. To help share the best ideas with other boating safety advocates, the four regional winners each year are invited to present their programs at a national conference.

More information about boating safety and the education awards program is available by contacting state agencies that administer boating laws and the National Safe Boating Council at 602-278-6146.

Mr. and Mrs. Benny De Jackmo and the Hon. and Mrs. John V. Kelly

Praise to their parents

Dr. and Mrs. John V. Kelly, Jr.: Dedicated to their family and to your Family's Care

Dr. and Mrs. John V. Kelly, Jr. believe his medical practice at 382 West Passaic Avenue in Bloomfield grew so successfully because of the input of their parents.

The Honorable and Mrs. John V. Kelly of Nutley have been very active in the community for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Benny De Jackmo have been lifelong community residents as well.

The two sets of parents have acted as bookends for the joined family. As John Jr. and Cynthia grew up, strong "old fashioned" morals and values were instilled in them by parents who believed that example taught better than words.

Dr. and Mrs. Kelly are very thankful to them, try to live their lives by these values and to teach their children what they know and hold so dear. They hope to pass down to the younger generation the wisdom and traditions of their grandparents.

Dr. Kelly is pleased to take these ideals to his medical practice. He combines the caring and dedication of a small town doctor of years gone by with the medical knowledge and technology of the 21st century. His patients are assured of receiving the highest level of quality and professional health care as he continues to practice, without association, in Bloomfield.

"I'm still here for my family and for your Family's Care," said Dr. Kelly. Same man, same doctor, same location. Same dedication and integrity that his family and yours have come to know and trust.

Dr. Kelly can be reached for an appointment at 338-1900. Walk-ins are welcome. The office is open 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday; 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday; and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday.

BREAKING THE CYCLE OF PAIN

Latest Study Findings Link Chromium Picolinate To Osteoporosis Prevention

(NAPS)—Chromium is an essential nutrient required for normal carbohydrate, protein, and fat metabolism and for normal functioning of insulin. Yet, it's in short supply in the typical American diet. Ninety percent of adult Americans do not get even the minimum recommended daily allowance.

Results of a recent study presented at the annual Experimental Biology meeting in Atlanta show that chromium picolinate may have a positive effect on bone metabolism in postmenopausal women.

In a group of postmenopausal women taking chromium picolinate, urinary loss of calcium declined by 19 percent. Further, the urinary hydroxyproline/creatinine ratio (a measure of the rate of bone breakdown) showed a 23 percent decrease. When the same women switched tablets, this time taking a placebo, no significant changes were noted. These study findings suggest that supplemental chromium picolinate not only can slow the loss of bone density, but improve calcium retention in postmenopausal women.

At the end of the controlled study, the women were given chromium picolinate in combination with calcium (800 milligrams calcium per day). Under these conditions, the urinary hydroxyproline/creatinine ratio declined 47 percent from its initial value. This substantial reduction in the rate of bone breakdown is indicative of greater effectiveness when chromium picolinate and calcium are combined.

Scientist and chief investigator, Dr. Gary Evans, noted that lowered insulin and glucose levels were also found in the women who took the chromium picolinate, adding further evidence to studies already completed, that chromium picolinate helps the body utilize insulin more effectively.

The National Academy of Sciences (the organization that sets the standards for Recommended Daily Allowances) recommends 50 to 200 micrograms of chromium daily. Chromium picolinate, a biologically active form of chromium, is widely available as a dietary supplement.

To those people who like to kiss, it is a nightmare. To vampires, it means death. But, to you, it may mean better health.

Garlic is being tested in many studies to see what it is about garlic that is healthy and what garlic may actually do for you.

The December issue of Environmental Nutrition contained a lengthy report on the benefits of garlic.

Garlic has many natural chemical compounds in it that are being implicated in improving the health of one who already eats a healthy diet and lives a healthy lifestyle.

Allicin is the most well known and implicated chemicals in garlic that helps to benefit a persons health.

Garlic has been found to actually lower LDL, and total cholesterol. It has been concluded that 300-900 milligrams of garlic powder supplements can actually cause this beneficial health effect.

In China, it is a common practice to use garlic to fight infections, either bacteria or fungal. There have been no human trials as researchers are trying to understand how to harness the garlic's power that fights infection.

China also uses garlic to prevent colon cancer. Research has shown that garlic shows the strongest association with reduced risk of colon cancer. Animal studies have shown that garlic may actually increase the carcinogenic fighting enzymes in the liver thus bolstering the fighting capacity of the body.

However, none of the research can give definitive statements about the usefulness of garlic.

There are two ways to include garlic into your lifestyle. These are through supplements of garlic powder or cooking with garlic.

If you choose to use supplements, be sure you know what the active ingredients are such as alliin which is naturally in garlic. The benefit of the supplement is that there is little or no odor to the supplement.

If you choose to cook with garlic, both the dry and fresh forms will work. Garlic can be used in sauces, vegetables, dressings, or as a sprinkled seasoning.

So, most researchers agree that garlic may well be a tasteful, healthy part of a good meal and healthier you!

Newark Beth Israel physician aids Peruvian girl via Internet

The power of the Internet has opened channels of communication around the world that previously did not exist.

A pediatric cardiologist at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center discovered recently that this relatively new technology also can be used to save lives.

After learning that one-year-old Andrea Horna of Lima, Peru was suffering from a congenital heart defect and needed specialized medical care, Dr. D. Scott Alenick, M.D., of Englewood, began to work on finding treatment for the child.

Because Newark Beth Israel Medical Center does not perform invasive cardiac surgery on children, Dr. Alenick placed a call for assistance via an e-mail discussion group (the PediHeart group) on the Internet. Andrea's parents, Ivan and Cary Horna, contacted Dr. Alenick through a family friend, Omays Madera of West New York.

According to Dr. Alenick, Andrea had been diagnosed with a ventricular septal defect, a hole in the lower portion of the heart, which resulted in her inability to gain weight. The family turned to Dr. Alenick for help because hospitals in their native Peru were not certified to perform the open heart procedure needed to correct the condition.

Shortly after sending the e-mail message, Dr. Alenick received several offers to help Andrea from throughout the United States and Canada. Eventually, Andrea was treated by Dr. William Novick, M.D., at the LeBonheur Medical Center's International Children's Heart Foundation in Memphis, Tenn. Novick performed the complex open heart procedure and corrected the defect.

"In recent months, there has been much negative press about the Internet and abuses that occur on it," Dr. Alenick noted.

"However, I believe the Horna's story is a prime example of how its power can be channeled to do something positive. In this case, the Internet allowed me to reach a wide range of physicians specializing in pediatric cardiology throughout the nation in a short period of time," he said.

After the Hornas met Alenick for the first time, Ivan Horna expressed his gratitude through an interpreter.

"We can't thank the doctor enough," he said. "He is very caring and giving."

With medical and nursing specialists in more than 20 pediatric specialties, the Children's Center at the Beth includes a pediatric and young adult Same Day Surgery Unit for children able to recover from treatment at home. There is also an inpatient unit for tertiary care and general medical and surgical cases, a young adult unit, a pediatric intensive care unit, as well as an ambulatory special care center for treatment of children on an outpatient basis.

For information about the Children's Center, call 926-7328.

Newark Beth Israel Medical Center is a 607-bed regional-care, teaching hospital affiliated with the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. It is the only hospital in New Jersey where heart and lung transplants are performed.

For a referral to a physician affiliated with Newark Beth Israel Medical Center, call 1-800-THE-BETH, weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

A T.E.A.M. Approach

Blood Drive was a success

A T.E.A.M. Approach Chiropractic & Physical Therapy Center and the Blood Center of New Jersey held a blood drive April 13 to help refill the rapidly depleting supply of blood. The event was a success! Many of Dr. Robert Ruffalo's patients, family and friends showed their support and helped to raise the community's blood level.

"Every drop counts as far as we're concerned," stated a spokesperson from the Blood Center of New Jersey, "whether we gain one pint of 20 pints, the blood donated will be valuable to the recipients who use the Blood Center's supply."

"I was glad to see the participation and community spirit for such a good cause," commented Dr. Ruffalo, Director of A T.E.A.M. Approach Chiropractic & Physical Therapy Center located at 265 Broad Street in Bloomfield. "I'd like to thank all those who donated and supported the drive," he further commented.

Health Fact: Colon Cancer Screening Saves Lives

Screening For More Security

(NAPS)—Staying healthy means using preventive medicine. Many routine screening tests are available that can save lives. They can detect serious conditions at their earliest, most treatable stages.

Every American over the age of 50, for example, should get screening for colorectal cancer, according to the American College of Gastroenterology (ACG). Colorectal cancer is the second leading cancer killer in the country, causing an estimated 55,000 deaths a year.

Certainly if you experience any of the following symptoms you should see your doctor immediately.

- Rectal bleeding/the presence of blood in the stool.
- Feeling that the bowel does not empty completely.
- Recent change in the normal pattern of bowel habits, especially in persons over 40.

However, colon cancer may be present in the absence of any symptoms.

Techniques for diagnosing colorectal cancer are varied and numerous. The American Cancer Society recommends that every American over the age of 50 should receive:

- An annual stool blood test.
- A flexible sigmoidoscopy once every 3 to 5 years.

Experts recommend that people with prior cancer, strong family history, or other predisposing factors get a colonoscopy.

"Almost all colon cancers come from polyps," said ACG president, Dr. Joel Richter. "If we can identify and remove polyps before they turn into cancer, we can virtually eliminate colon cancer." The National Polyp Study published in the New England Journal of Medicine in 1993 estimated that over 90 percent of lives could be saved through early detection of colorectal cancer. In 1995 there will be an estimated 138,000 new colorectal cancer cases diagnosed.

Belleville SPORTS

BUG SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Second in a series celebrating 20th anniversary of '76 Belleville baseball team

Following opening day loss, '76 team took off

I always said it was mind over matter for the 1976 Belleville baseball team when it came to playing Irvington. The Bellboys had lost twice to the Campers in '75, including the epic 14 inning battle that seemed to take the life out of both teams for the remainder of that year.

So, when the Bellboys traveled to Irvington for the opening game of the '76 campaign, somehow you knew the team would struggle.

Sure enough, they did, dropping a 1-0 decision, the only run coming in the last inning and it was unearned at that.

"We gave the game away," recalled then coach Gregory Zanfini the other day. "We made an error in the last of the seventh and they score off it. Gregory (Petite), the Bellboys starting pitcher was tremendous. He allowed just two hits. We just didn't hit enough. We only had four hits."

Zanfini dismisses my theory that the Bellboys had a bit of a mental block when it came to playing Irvington.

"They had a great team in '75," Zanfini said. "And we knew they would be tough in '76. I don't think we were under the impression we couldn't beat them. We just didn't get any breaks.

"In a way, that game was maybe a blessing in disguise. The kids were upset that they lost that game. It got us going."

The Bellboys came back to win its next game, 5-1 over a surprisingly tough East Orange team.

"They gave us a battle that day," Zanfini said. "Anthony Gammaro pitched a real good game. It was a competitive game. We needed to win a game like that."

The next game, against Kearny, was also a tough outing, but one the Bellboys were ready for.

Belleville won 6-2 behind the pitching of Ricky Loma and the unbelievable hitting of senior outfielder John Guarino.

On a team loaded with offensive stars, there was no bigger star in the early going than Guarino that season.

"He hit the ball a ton," Zanfini said. "He was 2 for 4 in the Kearny game but as the season continued, he put up some tremendous numbers."

Senior catcher Greg Dunleavy was 2 for 2 in the game as the Bellboys won their second straight Big 10 Conference game.

The Big 10 Conference was one of the best baseball leagues in Northern New Jersey. In 1976, the "Big 10" had nine teams, East Orange, Orange, Bloomfield, Irvington, Montclair, Belleville, Columbia, Kearny and Nutley.

In '77, Essex Catholic would join the conference as the tenth team, but just a few years later, the conference would be disbanded.

Anyway, the Bellboys won a key game over Bloomfield, 9-0 and that was a contest Zanfini felt his team really began to show offensive prowess.

Petite was the winning pitcher. Nick Cancelliere hit a homer, was 3 for 4 and drove in five runs. Guarino was 2 for 4 with a homer and he drove in two runs.

Bobby Giordano pitched the Bellboys past Passaic 13-4 in Belleville's fifth game of the '76 season. Guarino was 3 for 5. He drove in three runs and clouted two more homers.

"We got some good performances from (Joe) Gelpi (1 for 2, 3 ribbies) and Anthony Marino (2 for 3, 3 ribbies)," said Zanfini. "That was the special thing about that team, we got contributions from just about everyone."

Zanfini says that the next game, against Nutley, was the catalyst game of the early stages of the season. The Bellboys won 18-3, pounding out 21 hits and hitting seven homers at the Oval.

Guarino had two more homers, giving him five in the early going. He drove in five runs.

Dunleavy, Rocco Balsamo, Michael Cancelliere and Nick Cancelliere also hit homers. Mike Cancelliere was 3 for 3 in the game.

"It was an unbelievable hitting display," Zanfini said of the win against Nutley. "You just didn't do that to a team like Nutley. Everyone got into the action. We weren't trying to run up the score. Everyone just hit that day."

Anthony Speer, John Clarizio, Fred Racioppi and Marino also had good hitting days as the Bellboys improved to 4-1 in the season.

The offensive barrage continued in the next game, a 17-0 win over Orange. Guarino was 3 for 4 (4 ribbies), Frank Mozellka was 2 for 3, Nick Cancelliere was 2 for 3 with three RBI's and Scott Osche had two hits.

With the team 5-1 and hitting the ball at a marvelous clip in late April, the local newspapers began to take notice. The Bellboys moved to fourth in the state in the Star Ledger, trailing only Union, Irvington and Piscataway. The Daily News had the team ranked eighth in its Top 15.

Next week, we'll continue this series, beginning with a double header against West Essex on Saturday, April 24, 1976.

"That was a big game for us," Zanfini said. "It was an out-of-conference game against a good team and I felt that those two games with West Essex were really important to us."

We'll continue this series next week. Once again, if anyone has photos from that season, please give me a call at 759-3200.

Lady Bucs capture 2 crowns

By Kolleen Myers

The Belleville varsity crew team entered nine boats in the state championships and garnered two state titles this past weekend, against shells from New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

The girls junior 4 shell, which consisted of Danielle Line, Kolleen Myers, Brienne Kvetkus, Christa Delano and Chris Adamo, started the day off by taking first place in their qualifying and advancing to the finals.

In the finals, the girls junior 4 shell met stiff competition from Agnes Irwin, Holy Spirit, Harrison, Hun and Episcopal, but the Bucs pulled ahead with a sixth second lead for the victory. The team, which is coached by Scott Fabian, were awarded gold medals along with the Hun Cup.

The girls novice 4A shell, which is undefeated for the season, is rostered by Tracy Starkle, Emily Schmitt, Ariel Lane, Lisa Berendt and Jon Pisano. The girls novice 4A team, which is coached by Maureen Russo, garnered the Bennett Cup and gold medals for a first place performance.

Adamo and Pisano, who were the coxswains of the junior and novice shells, were tossed into the water by the celebrating teams.

The remainder of the Lady Bucs crew squads also fared well.

The lightweight 4 shell placed fourth in the finals, while the Novice 4B shell rowed a tough heat and missed qualifying for the finals. The senior 4 boat also rowed a solid race by missed qualifying by a narrow .6 seconds.

The boys' lightweight 4, who had only a straight final, fell short of a state and placed second behind rival Kearny.

The midweight 4 shell finished fifth in their final, while the junior 4 shell cruised to a fourth place in their qualifying heat and narrowly missed making the semifinals. The novice 4 team earned a fifth place in their competition.

The Belleville crew team head to Philadelphia next weekend to compete in the City Championships, one of the most competitive events of the spring season.

Team to play at Verona this Saturday

Lenzi leads Bucs past N. Tech in G.N.T.

By Mike Lamberti

Reality set in last week for the Buccaner baseball team.

Chuck Martin's club, after a 4-2 start, hit some hard times last week, losing to Bloomfield 18-5, St. Joe's 12-5 and Don Bosco, 8-2.

The Bucs did have a win last week, beating Newark Tech last Saturday in the preliminary round of the Greater Newark Tournament.

The Bucs won a 7-0 decision behind the pitching of Anthony Lenzi to advance to the first round, set for this weekend at Verona. Game time is 2 p.m.

The Bucs (5-5 heading into this weeks action) will take on Teaneck tomorrow afternoon at 4 p.m. from B.H.S. Next Monday, Paramus Catholic visits at 4 and next Wednesday, it's off to Nutley for a 4 p.m. contest.

"We walked 14 players in the Bloomfield game," Martin said. "You tell me, how many games are we going to win when we pitch like that?"

The Bucs actually held a 5-2 lead heading into the top of the fifth inning. There, the roof caved in as the Bengals scored nine times. They followed that effort with six more runs in the sixth.

"When you're in the field for 45 minutes at a stretch," Martin said, "your concentration level will diminish. I'm not making excuses for our kids, but we just lost control of the game in the fifth and sixth innings."

In the Don Bosco game, the Bucs were up against a good opponent in their first NNJL Pacific Division game of the '96 season.

"They had their best pitcher on the mound and we didn't hit," Martin said. "We got hurt in a few innings and that was the ball game."

The same was pretty much true in the loss to St. Joe's last Friday.

"They have a real spring outfield," Martin said. "We took extra batting practice before the game with the hope the kids can get used to playing the hop. But we didn't make the plays defensively, and balls hit to the outfield turned out to be homers because we didn't stay in front of the ball."

Last Saturday, the Bucs broke a three game losing streak with a 7-0 victory over Newark Tech. Lenzi hurled five innings of shut out ball before giving way to Greg Sheridan.

Sheridan, who pitched well in the Bloomfield game earlier in the week, pitched the final two innings to preserve the shut out.

Martin gave credit to Sal Vitale, Ram Parekh and Lenzi for hitting well. He has been particularly pleased with the effort of Sheridan.

"For a sophomore to step in and play well on the varsity level is quite a step," the coach said. "He's pitched well and played defense pretty good at second base."

NOTES: Martin is 6-2 in G.N.T. competition as head coach of the Bucs. This weekend, the team will look to play in the quarterfinals for the fourth straight year. The '93 Bucs were beaten by eventual champion Nutley in the quarterfinals.

In '94, the Bucs stopped Seton Hall in the quarterfinal round, 5-2 behind a marvelous pitching performance by Mike Mundy.

Last year, the team defeated Glenn Ridge in the quarters, 3-0 as Dan Brunello pitched a complete game.

This year, the team will need a victory at Verona to advance to the quarterfinals.

Martin planned on starting Ed Pagan in the Verona game.

Carl Piscatowski takes swing during game with Bloomfield last week. "Pisco" will be one of the key ingredients to '96 team as the Bucs look to advance in the Greater Newark Tournament.

Parillo ties Graham mark, Kvetkus excels

Track team places 3 at Millburn Relays

By Mike Lamberti

A 15 year old record was tied last week in the girls high jump as senior Kim Parillo cleared 5'2" at the Millburn Relays.

Parillo's performance helped the girls high jump relay team take second place at Millburn.

The boys track team was defeated by Hackensack in an NNJL meet last week. The boys also competed in the Millburn Relays last weekend.

The team will compete in the county relays tomorrow evening at Livingston. Next Wednesday is the freshman league championships at Don Bosco.

Head coach John Tosato noted his team was over matched in its meet against powerful Hackensack.

"They're loaded," Tosato said of the Comets. "We knew we would have our hands full going into that match. They were getting ready for the Penn Relays and have tremendous depth at just about every position."

The Bucs only winner was Jose Moreno, who continues to be outstanding in his first year of varsity competition. Moreno, who has excelled in the two mile and hurdle events, won the 1600 meters in a time of 5:05.5.

Second place finishes were turned in by Mike Dribnak (2:27.1 in the 800 meters), Moreno (1:25.1 in the two mile), Trisynn Kvetkus (long jump, 17'5 3/4", high jump, 5'8" and 200 meters, 23.9).

Nick Muscara took second place in the discus with a throw of 95'8".

Kvetkus' performance against Hackensack was particularly noteworthy. The junior stands a good chance of nearing the 6' mark in the high jump, which would be a major accomplishment in Belleville track.

"He is doing a real good job for us," Tosato said of Kvetkus. "He gives us a great deal of versatility."

Third place finishes were turned in by Nick Colucci (66.3 in the 400 meter hurdles), Pete Santora (24.3 in the 200 meters) and Ernie Compusano (35'9 3/4" in the shot put).

Last weekend, the Bucs traveled to Millburn and did well in the relays.

The big story, of course, was Parillo's tying Cecelia Graham's high jump record. She cleared 5'2" and teamed with Ariel Pellunas (4'6") the girls high jump relay team finished with a combined jump of 9'8", good for second place overall.

Graham set her record in May, 1981, when she won the Essex County championship at Columbia High School.

Parillo, who was two years old when Graham set the record, has been very aware of the record since the indoor track campaign.

"I'd really like to break the record," Parillo said in a television interview this past winter. "I know how long it's lasted." Parillo has a month to eclipse the mark and with the warmer weather approaching, should have an excellent chance of re-writing the record books at B.H.S.

For the boys, the sprint medley team finished fourth overall. The team of Kvetkus, Santora, Colucci and Dribnak finished with a time of 4:04.9. Kvetkus led the way in that relay with a time of 24.3 in the 200 meters.

The 4 x 400 team of Kvetkus, Randy Herrera, Dribnak and Angelo Chavez took fifth place with a time of 4:02. Once again, Kvetkus was outstanding, turning in a time of 56.4 in the 400 meters.

"That's a really good time, especially when you consider that Tristin doesn't normally run the 400," Tosato said. "He usually runs the sprints, jumps and hurdles."

The 4 x 100 team of Kvetkus (11.2 in the 100 meters), Santora, Colucci and Herb Bolante did a good job.

Compusano and Muscara competed in the both the shot put and discus relay. The two combined for a throw of 73'2" in the shot and 153'7" in the disc.

In the high jump relay, Colucci (5'2") and Kvetkus (5'6") excelled. The 400 hurdle relay team of Colucci, Chavez and Moreno finished in 3:20.9 and the 4 x 200 relay team of Bolante, Israel Seggara, Mark Lorig and Chavez finished in 1:58.9.

GET WELL NOTE: Tosato wanted to wish Bob Hutchinson the best following hospitalization.

"He's one of Belleville's best fans," Tosato said. "He's home from the hospital. I hope he's doing better."

Bucs will be getting ready for the NNJIL and county championships, set for the early part of May.

Integrity House sponsors 11th annual 'Run for Freedom'

This Mother's Day, May 12, marks the 11th annual "Run for Freedom" event organized and promoted by Integrity House in Newark.

The Five-mile race begins and ends in front of Integrity House at Lincoln Park and takes runners through historic areas of downtown Newark. In addition, a one-mile health walk-run and a 100 yard Kid's Course will be available.

All participants will have an opportunity to win a trophy or medal and can relax and enjoy a delicious pancake breakfast with family members and fellow runners after the race.

It is very fitting that proceeds from the race benefit the programs of Integrity House. The idea for the "Run for Freedom" came from people recovering from drug and alcohol abuse and from counselors working with these recovering people who wanted to promote healthy, drug-free lifestyles. They believed that a race was a good way to demonstrate the benefits of healthy lifestyles.

"We hold the event on Mother's Day because we want this to be a 'family-oriented' event. We encourage the participation of all family members, not just the competitive runners," said Robert Budsock, Director at Integrity House and Race Coordinator. In addition to refreshments, children of all ages will be entertained by clowns performing magic and painting faces as well as a DJ, on site.

David Kerr of Glen Ridge, President of Integrity, says, "Our 'Run for Freedom' is famous for the approximately 200 courteous volunteers along the course and at the finish line. We are proud of the fact that all volunteers are Integrity House members."

Mary Foster, a program member of Integrity and a mother of four says, "Running is a very important part of my life. I'm happy I'll be doing something with my children on Mother's Day that we can all enjoy!"

This event is open to all. All registered participants will receive a 100% cotton heavyweight T-shirt and children in the Kid's Course will also receive participation medals.

Check-in time begins at 7 a.m. For pre-registration information please contact Susan Lyons at 623-7246, or Robert Budsock at 974-7314.

Integrity House has been providing substance abuse treatment for individuals and families since 1968. Its programs range from residential substance abuse treatment programs, to prevention, to intervention and education programs for adolescents, to the Mother Goose program for addicted mothers with young children, and to many other community-oriented services.

Integrity maintains treatment centers in Newark and in Secaucus.

Prestiani, Lawton, LaMorte and Palumbo assist Lady Deacon efforts

Four hometown players helped out the Bloomfield College softball team compile a 13-10 regular-season record. The Lady Deacons are now preparing for the Central Atlantic Collegiate Athletic Conference tournament to be played at Georgian Court this weekend.

Missy Prestianni, Joanna Lawton, Sally Ann LaMorte and Kristen Palumbo -- all graduates of Bloomfield High School -- played various roles on the team this season.

Prestianni, a junior third baseman, had 12 hits, seven runs scored and five RBIs. The criminal justice major played three sports at Bloomfield High and earned tournament MVP honors for the college's volleyball team.

fielder, had a .273 batting average in limited action. A two-sport star at the high school, the English communications major has excelled in the classroom at Bloomfield, reaching the Dean's List two consecutive semesters. Lawton also captained the Lady Deacons' soccer team the past two seasons.

LaMorte, a senior catcher, posted a .250 average with six walks in 10 games. She also has a fielding percentage of .951, including four assists. She is a criminal justice major and was a member of the 1994 CACC All-Tournament team.

Palumbo, a junior, has seen limited action at second base. The criminal justice major earned all-area, all-county and all-state recognition in high school.

Council budget hike

sonnel would have to be approved by the Council and the appropriate township department.

Scaperotta explained each budget cut at an April 29 media briefing.

The most complicated and probably the most controversial reduction comes in not hiring the 10 new firefighters requested by Fire Chief Robert Caruso at a cost of $350,000.

Cook said he has agreed to support hiring six new firefighters to assure proper coverage of a second ambulance. "I think it's worth $20 a year to have a working second ambulance."

Scaperotta proposes hiring two civilian dispatchers at $10,000 each, while the four uniform firefighters now manning the dispatch duties would be put into ambulance duty, and two new firefighters would be hired.

Either plan would allow for a second ambulance to be manned, probably from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m., considered the peak hours, Scaperotta said.

"If civilian dispatchers are hired in place of uniform dispatchers, the existing dispatchers could be used for ambulance duty, and only two additional firefighters need to be hired," Scaperotta said.

Also, $450,000 more would be used from surplus, leaving the all but $50,000 of the $2.5 million used to reduce the tax levy. Scaperotta said he believed "surplus should always go back to taxpayers."

Cook said he basically supports using the extra surplus, since the Council left $50,000 in surplus last year and ended up with $2.5 million. He said the Township

Attorney and Tax Assessor should be queried about the status of tax appeals, however, since heavy pay outs could necessitate a refunding bond ordinance.

Elsewhere in the budget, there would be $245,000 less for insurance based on savings from Crawford Insurance last year.

Reductions proposed for the Health Department include not hiring one new nurse at $36,000, and $82,000 in reductions, including revenue for the dental clinic based on last year's expenditures, not the amount requested by the Health Department. Also, a "Dial-A-Ride" vehicle will be purchased through a bond ordinance.

The DPW's $84,500 to $95,000 in reductions have been approved by DPW Director Charles Cerami, according to Scaperotta, and include purchasing new vehicles and other new equipment through capital outlay, which does not increase the tax levy. Services would be not be affected, Scaperotta said.

Cook agreed that Cerami said he "could squeak by" with those reductions.

A $55,000 cut in utilities reflects recent past history and usage, while one new DPW clerk would not be hired, saving $24,000.

The purchase of one new Fire Department vehicle for $19,000 would also be handled out of capital outlay, while 12 new police cars would not be purchased since Scaperotta said the current fleet is "young enough and in fine condition."

The library budget would be cut by approximately $35,000, with the money to be made up by state funding.

Scaperotta's own reductions, not endorsed by the rest of the committee, would trim $44,000 by making the Tax Assessor's office part time and eliminating one clerk from the township.

"The township no longer has a need for a full-time Assessor. Many other municipalities have already downsized in this area, and it's about time for the Council to accept this fact, and do what is right by taxpayers," Scaperotta said.

The $40,000 donation to the Community Mental Health Center, which allows residents to be treated in Belleville rather than Newark, is also to be cut.

Previous efforts to make the Assessor's office part-time have failed.

Scaperotta said no new employees should be hired, except for the fire personnel to run the second ambulance.

An additional $43,000 would be taken from the operating expenses of the Health, Planning, Tax Assessor, Tax Collector, Treasurer, Law Zoning and Construction Code official offices.

The budget would include between $37,000 and $42,000 less for uncollected taxes, depending on whether the Council agrees to the committees cuts or the a'so agrees to Scaperotta's additional cuts.

Scaperotta said the committee did excellent work, but should have had the budget at least one month earlier from Township Manager Stephen Cuccio.

Hearty Knicks are back in the playoffs

By Kelly Tahaney

What happened to the Knicks? What happened to the desire? That's all you heard all season.

The Knicks were sick of it, the fans were too and the beat reporters wanted the season over with as soon as possible.

So what do the Knicks do? They manhandle pesky Cleveland in the first two games of the best of five first round series.

They stepped up big-time and beat the most boring team in the NBA.

The low point of the season came two weeks ago.

At the Knicks-Charlotte game (April 19) the Knicks lost a game and their chances of holding home-court advantage in the first round.

Almost every fan gave up on the Knicks. Many times this season, the Knicks have lost their fans and the media. However, they always seemed to win back the fans (the New York/New Jersey media gave them a snowball's chance in Hell).

The consensus in the press room after the game at Madison Square Garden was that the Knickerbockers were old, broken and good for one round. The Knicks looked shocked and bewildered after the loss.

No more trademark smiles on Pat Ewing's face. Instead Patrick looked like he was waiting for his parents to come home and give him a whoopie!

John Starks left the lockerroom early and looked somber and disappointed. Hubert Davis (still looking like he should be studying for finals like me) held the party line and offered some hope to anyone who would listen let alone believe him.

Teams have found their niche in the playoffs," Davis said. "It has to be done and it can be done."

It is being done. The Knicks have proven to have one last gasp of pride and playoff ambition.

The local media said no one could have predicted this. But if you know anything about the Knicks, you know they have heart.

That's something that doesn't show up on a stat sheet. That's something that the Knicks thrive off of and Bulls dream of attaining. "Nuff said."

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING?

When first introduced, antibiotics were hailed as a miracle of modern medicine. Lately, however, health experts are wondering if we are overusing antibiotics. It is estimated that as much as half of all antibiotics prescribed are not even necessary. The most common example of antibiotic misuse is seen when these powerful drugs are used to treat colds or influenza, neither of which respond to antibiotics. The only microorganisms that antibiotics kill are bacteria. Too many doctors, however, prescribe antibiotics inappropriately because of patient pressure. This practice runs the risk of allowing bacteria to mutate into forms that resist antibiotics. In fact, a report presented at the 1994 meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science estimated that many bacteria are increasing their resistance to many kinds of antibiotics, resulting in such results as the disturbing superbug tuberculosis. To keep antibiotic resistance from spreading, antibiotics should only be used when necessary.

Antibiotics and other medications are quickly available when your prescription order is brought to us at ROSSMORNE PHARMACY, 238 Washington Avenue (759-1964, 759-1965). We have a complete prescription department and a friendly, helpful staff. Plan to stop by today for greeting cards, cosmetics. These waxes and other gift items for Mother's Day. Open Mon-Thurs 10am-8pm, Sun-Open Saturdays.

NOTE: When antibiotics are prescribed, be sure to take the entire course of treatment to insure that all the bacteria are killed and no mutant strains survive to come further, more serious infections.

Pomaco said Fuscaldò's "groundless allegations" were "less-than-objectively carried by the press," and that press coverage of the suit was "excessive."

Fuscaldò did not respond to Pomaco's comments, instead wishing the new board well, saying, "It's a new year and I offer my assistance and cooperation. Let's get some good things done for the children."

Notari thanked his supporters and Piscatowski, saying "I worked closely with Judy during this election. She will be an asset to the board."

"I would like us all to remember why we're here," Notari said, "At times we'll disagree. It's healthy to disagree, as long as it's about issues and not personalities, and we do not hold grudges. Let's continue with our productivity."

Mazzuca also thanked his supporters, saying, "We take our responsibility very seriously. We will make decisions that are fair and honest. With that, how can you go wrong?"

Board Trustee Robert Molinaro, chairman of the budget committee, said "We worked hard to present a fair and frugal budget, and your votes validated some of our choices. We are at a crossroads, and education is the key to a safe, viable town."

Voters passed the budget by a 54-vote margin, 1064 to 1,010. The budget raises taxes $70 on a home assessed at just less than $40,000, the township average.

Life in Silver Lake

By Marie Strumolo Burke

School musicians impress

Happy anniversary to us. Us is me and Charlie. . . The date, May 1. . . And the years. . . 8. Hey, this is better than a card. I love you hon. . .

Again I boo-boo. I forgot to mention Greg Grant of Alva Street when I wrote about the Belmont. How could I forget one of the most valuable assets at the Belmont. Sorry Greg, I won't let it happen again.

One of the best kept secrets in Belleville—I think it's time to write about our Belleville Music Program within the public school system and let everyone know how great it is. It's time to tell and I'm telling. Instructor Gene Moriello says that the elementary music enrollment has nearly doubled from a year ago.

If you're a fifth and sixth grader, you can get familiar with musical instruments and continue all the way through grade 12. Every elementary school has a Choral group. Mrs. Jackie Iozzi teaches the basics.

Let's continue on to the middle school where students have an opportunity to be part of a Jazz ensemble and a concert band. Director Glenn Van Bensehoeten arranges for performances at shopping malls, hospitals and schools during the holidays and then on to competitive performances in the spring. Last spring, both groups received "superior" ratings from the judges in South Jersey. The students also have the opportunity to join the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Ed Black. Belleville even has seventh and eighth grade vocal groups guided by Mr. Gizzi and Mr. Hacking.

When you finally reach the H.S., you can join the Marching Band, Concert Band, Jazz Band and Orchestra. The head of the marching band is Mark Fabio. The Marching Band performs at football games, parades and participates in four competitions each fall. This year they finished first in their size group twice. Yes, I said twice. The Concert and Jazz bands is the place where the real musical talent can be developed. Silver Lake can boast that they have 5 children from the area in the Marching Band. They are Genise Gatto, Vincent Pipitone, Jasmijn Areco, Jorge Vincenty, and Damay's Guadalupe. And oh, what a marching band it is!

Now does that sound like negatives to you? After a while you get a little tired of hearing some people complain. Enough already. I know we have a good school system. It doesn't matter what school you go to, it's the student. It just seems that some ignorant people who move out of town use the excuse that they don't want their children to fraternize with a number of students who were selected to attend the prestigious Oxford School or go to a school that was chosen the Top Ten H.S. in the State of New Jersey. Beats me.

Listen to what Angela Cuozzo Zarro of Salter Pl. told me. She was asked to speak to some classes at BHS by Mrs. DiMaggio. The subject was "Women Who Have Succeeded in Business." Angela spoke to the History and Sociology students who ranged from freshmen to the senior class. She told me that the children listened intently, asked a number of questions and were on their best behavior. She asked me to relay to all of you, and this is a quote, "I saw none of the negative remarks that we hear people talk about. . . the students really impressed me."

Elementary Instrumental Festival

On Wednesday, May 8, the Elementary Instrumental Music Spring Festival will be held at the Belleville High School gym. All elementary students who participate in the music program will be performing a wide variety of band and orchestra selections.

The music reflects the multicultural make-up of our town. The students have a wonderful opportunity to learn about people from other cultures through learning and performing music from different parts of the world.

The Spring Festival unites all music students, beginners and advanced, affording them the opportunity to "show their stuff." It also brings them together to work toward a goal in which all play an important part.

Our music program in Belleville is one of the finest in the State. Please come and support the musicians in this, their finest hour.

The Festival will begin at 7:30 p.m. There will be a one dollar donation for ticket holders.

Funds allotted for pothole repairs

Assembly Majority Leader Paul DiGaetano (R-36th L.D.) and Assemblyman John V. Kelly (R-36th L.D.) announced that Bergen, Essex and Passaic counties will receive thousands of dollars in aid for pothole repairs. The funds were made available by the Legislature through the creation of an emergency fund signed by Governor Whitman.

The new law authorizes the transfer of $25 million from the Transportation Trust Fund to finance all statewide repair projects.

According to DiGaetano, $15 million would be allocated for state highway repairs, while $10 million would be distributed to counties and municipalities for local road repair projects.

"The severity and frequency of this year's winter storms have left local roadways in horrendous and dangerous conditions," said DiGaetano. "It's not unusual to see streets riddled with potholes and large cracks."

Assemblyman John Kelly said, "Local governments are in desperate need of financial assistance to repair their roads. The assistance provided through this legislation will provide much needed relief to counties and municipalities that are dealing with the aftermath of a hard winter. Without this assistance, the cost of these repairs would fall on local taxpayers—and that is a burden they should not be asked to bear."

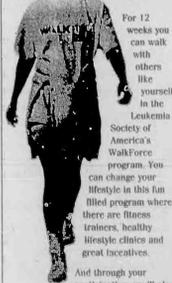

Under the new law Bergen County will receive $295,676.14, Essex County will receive $241,958.78 and Passaic County will receive $196,236.24. The county governments will use these funds to supplement road repair and maintenance projects.

The following is a list of those towns in their respective counties, and the aid they will receive.

Bergen County — Carlstadt, $6,673.48; East Rutherford, $9,061.19; Lyndhurst, $11,359.32; North Arlington, $9,263.92; Rutherford, $11,375.61; Wallington, $7,772.57.
Essex County — Belleville, $16,764.82; Nutley, $14,829.50.

Weichert Realtors posts record first quarter

First-quarter home sales surged sharply at Weichert Realtors, which closed out the opening quarter of 1996 with record activity.

James M. Weichert, president, reported that the first quarter was "our best ever," with the number of transactions running a vigorous 12 percent ahead of last year and surpassing by three percent the previous company record set in the same quarter of 1994.

The Weichert president pointed out that the record-setting performance came "despite the snowiest winter on record," which he said "only underscores" both "the solid strength of the real estate market and the inherent desire of Americans to own their own home."

Low interest rates, the ready availability of mortgage money, and stable home prices were cited as the key economic factors spurring sales.

Just as significantly, the Weichert president also attributed the first quarter results to Weichert Realtors' "continuous emphasis on personal service."

He stated, "At a time when our industry and the world increasingly look to new technologies to facilitate and enhance every aspect of life, the public's need for face-to-face, person-to-person service remains as critical as ever. In our Open Houses, our extended office hours, and in every contact with the public, the thrust of our company is to provide responsive personal service at the highest possible level. We see a direct and undeniable correlation between our sales growth and our ability to anticipate and satisfy the service needs of today's homebuyers and home-sellers."

Weichert Realtors has 7,500 sales associates in 200 offices in Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. Weichert handles both residential and commercial real estate and offers a full array of time-efficient, one-stop shopping services, including mortgages, insurance, rentals, relocation, new homes and land, estate marketing, title services, property management, and moving services.
