Students ready to cruise NY

By Joe Brennan

For the sixth straight year, Belleville Alliance for Substance Abuse (BASE) is sponsoring Graduation Celebration with a cruise around the New York Harbor.

A large percentage of seniors from Belleville High School will take part in the cruise, scheduled to circle the city's harbor from 11 p.m. tomorrow evening, after graduation, until 3:30 a.m. Saturday morning.

Barbara Cialese, chairman of BASE, said the event allows the students to participate in a risk free environment, while still enjoying the festivities.

"The kids would go party first, then come here and they would be drinking. On the boat they are contained, but they end up enjoying themselves," Cialese said.

After graduation ceremonies, that begin at 7:00, students will board the school bus at 10 p.m. for their venture to New York and a trip on the Skyline Princess.

Eileen Brown, corresponding secretary for BASE and executive secretary for the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, said the cruise enables the children to view some of the most historic sites around the city.

"Students get to see the South Street Seaport, the Intrepid, the Statue of Liberty, and the Brooklyn Bridge," Brown said.

Debbie Perri, substance abuse coordinator for the high school, said giving students an alternative on graduation night is only advantageous for the students' "health and well being." She added that the cruise allows them to be supervised, while still having a good time.

"The graduation evening is the most high risk night for students. It's vitally important to have activities where they are chaperoned," said Perri.

Perri added there will be a disc jockey spinning tunes for those who want to dance and a comedian to add a comic element to the cruise.

"One of the finest things is the kids get to travel around the harbor," she said.

The BASE organization began with a group of volunteers in 1989 without any funds, but a lot of enthusiasm, said Perri, a co-founder of the group.

The organization's monetary breakthrough came when they were able to obtain the Municipal Alliance Grant, which the council approved in 1991, Perri said.

Cialese said the funds are subsidized by the state, then transferred to Essex County government for distribution to municipalities.

She added that the money is accumulated after the state government auctions off cars and homes that were seized in drug related arrests.

Brown said the main objective of the organization is, "to try and create a substance free community and to educate, not only children and adults, on substance abuse and other social issues or the day."

Carrying the tradition

Olympic fervor runs through town

By Joe Brennan

Thousands of residents filled the sidewalks along Washington Avenue near Town Hall to see an Olympic tradition, on Tuesday.

The 1996 Olympic Torch Relay, sponsored by Coca-Cola, designated Belleville as the location for four torch exchanges before the flame is placed inside its destination in Atlanta, Ga. on July, 19.

Kathy Riccardelli of Wanaque carried the symbolic flame along Belleville Avenue, and at 12:30 p.m., ignited another torch held by Jack O'Connell of Rochelle Park, who was waiting at the intersection of Washington and Belleville Avenues with the $275 device he purchased for the event.

O'Connell then carried the torch from Belleville Avenue to Union Avenue where it was exchanged with another runner. The torch was then exchanged at two more locations in Belleville, at Cottage Place and Fairway Avenue, before being carried through Bloomfield.

After signing the shorts of an excited resident who approached her, Riccardelli said, "I feel exhilarated. Belleville is a wonderful place."

O'Connell also commented on the historic occasion before he received his chance to carry the torch.

"I'm very excited. I can't be anymore excited," he said.

Mayor James Messina said Belleville was the first town in Essex County to receive the torch.

"I think it's a great event. We are very excited. A lot of credit goes to Donna Caruso (mayor's secretary) and Coca Cola for their banners and sponsoring the

Enrico Tamburri Memorial Foundation helps patients and their families

By Sarah Treffinger

"Today is Enrico's birthday," said Gina Tamburri. "He would have been 33 years old."

Enrico Tamburri suffered from cancer for six months prior to his passing on May 14, 1991. He was just one month shy of his 28th birthday.

In 1992, Gina, her husband, Alex, her daughter, Joanna Heaton, and her son-in-law, Tony Heaton, established a foundation in memory of Enrico. The Enrico Tamburri Memorial Foundation was established in an effort to keep his memory alive and help other cancer patients and their families.

The foundation is a non-profit organization which assists children in the community who are stricken with serious illnesses. It has also donated to the pediatric units of Mountsinai Hospital, Glen Ridge/Montclair, and The Children's Hospital, Newark, at Christmastime. In addition, the foundation has set up a scholarship program. The scholarship is given annually to a Nutley High School student who plans to continue his education at Seton Hall University, Enrico's alma mater.

The motto of the foundation,

"faith, family, friends," is something that guides Gina Tamburri in her everyday life. "If it wasn't for my faith, I don't think I could function," she said.

The foundation holds two main fundraisers each year: a garage sale and a picnic. The garage sale takes place at the Tamburri home and the picnic, in Nutley's Kingsland Park. This year's picnic was, according to Tamburri, "a huge success."

"Many people donated their time and effort," she said. "I want to thank them from the bottom of my heart. This is a beautiful thing that

Essex Republicans gain new leaders

After fifteen years of leading the Essex County Republican Committee as its chairman, John Renna did not seek re-election this year.

At the committee meeting held on June 11 at Bloomfield High School, Jeanne Parke, of Livingston, was unanimously elected to the chairperson seat.

The meeting was called to order at ten minutes to eight by County Executive James Treffinger, who introduced Renna to say a few words.

Renna thanked all of his supporters and explained that his service to the organization was over. His remarks, coupled with his dedication to the committee for so many years, earned him a standing ovation by the hundreds of committee members seated in the hot auditorium. He then introduced the first order of business - electing a new chairperson - but not until after Treffinger spoke.

Treffinger began with a description of the Republican Party, calling it a party of openness and of democracy.

"I can tell you that the Democratic Party is the party of the politicians," he said. "The Republican Party is the party of the people."

Highlighting Renna's involvement in the Republican party over the years and thanking him for his Jeanne Parke, the new chairperson of the Essex County Republican Committee, is congratulated by County Executive James Treffinger after her June 11 victory.

Concerns include security, parking...

Planning board moves slowly on Macy's mall

By Richard Dickon

The Planning Board is taking a slow approach to hearing plans for the re-development of the former Macy's industrial warehouse property on Franklin Street, as three or four large bargain retail stores began presenting testimony on the site plans on June 13.

Planning Board Chairman Sebastian "Sam" Papa said the board wants to make sure all the township's concerns about the re-development are addressed.

"Strategically, Bloomfield gets the most benefit from this, and Belleville inherits most of the problems," Papa said. "We want to make absolutely sure that we do what is in the best interests of the people of Belleville."

"We're not going to take any nonsense, and we will not leave any stone unturned," Papa added. "We want to be sure this job is part of the good job this board is doing."

The project received positive responses from the Township Council and residents at a hearing during a November Council meeting. The main concern expressed was that only about 10 percent of the retail development would be on the Belleville side of the town line dividing the property with Bloomfield. Some residents said the township should ask for more rateable property on the Belleville portion of the land.

At the June 13 meeting, criticisms were made of the lack of trees and landscaping at the site, as well as the placement of some underground pipes.

Dennis Forlenzo of the Silver Lake Civic Association (SLCA) said the district is looking for the jobs that will be brought in, but repeated worries that vital parking spaces and commerce will be taken from small businesses in the area.

'The World is Growing Smaller' at School #9

By Sarah Treffinger

Newark students were in for a treat on June 11 when they visited their Belleville pen pals at School #9.

Not only did the students get to socialize with their new friends, they had the opportunity to see the historic sites of Belleville as well as watch a multicultural program performed by their peers.

The historic site tour was an important field trip, according to School #9 Principal Pat Forte. "The Belleville community has much to offer in the area of American history," he said.

The multicultural performance, entitled, "The World is Growing Smaller," culminated the day's program.

Students from School #9 dressed in traditional costumes of the many cultures that make up the world. They learned songs and dances relating to the particular country that they represented and were able to put on a play.

The performance, which was divided into three parts, began with the second grade students singing songs such as "Getting to Know You" and "It's a Small World." Their rendition of the popular Disney tune was performed in both English and Spanish.

The second graders also emphasized life lessons during their performance. These morals are best summarized by the statement made by one student dressed like a king from a faraway land, "We should all treat one another like sisters and like brothers."

The second portion of the performance was a play that was performed by the third grade students. Songs such as "Everybody Has a Way of Saying Hello" were sung and activities like the pinata game were enjoyed by all.

The main theme of the play was a simple one, "Just think how boring the world would be if we were all the same."

After the performance by the students from School #9, Forte introduced the Belleville Middle School Gospel Singers, who completed the third portion of the multicultural program. These students performed two songs as a group and were followed by a duet.

All in all, the multicultural program, coupled with the pen pal exchange was a success. These events contribute to the fact that #9's school year is ending on the right note.

Foundation aides those affected by cancer

we do and I hope they'll continue to help in the future."

In addition to the two main fundraisers, the foundation will hold a Halloween party this year, which will take place sometime in October and will be run by Joana Heaton and several cousins.

The foundation has helped many families and sick children over the past four years. Tamburri has a scrapbook filled with letters and photos from these patients thanking her and the foundation for their help and support.

"They say I'm their guardian angel," Tamburri explained. "When people thank me, I say, 'Don't thank me, I thank you for keeping me going.' I feel good to help them."

Tamburri has proven herself in so many ways to be a real-life guardian angel. Not only does she work with the foundation, she volunteers at Holy Family Church in Nutley, where she is involved with the society in honor of Maria Santissima Addolorato, mother of the sorrow. She also works as the leader of Compassionate Friends, a group for grieving parents.

"I feel that I never lost contact with my son," Tamburri said. "We were inseparable and I feel that he is with me all of the time, in my heart and in my soul."

"After the loss of my son, I was blessed with two wonderful grandchildren, Anthony Enrico and Alexandro Kenneth, who fill my heart with joy," Tamburri said.

Tamburri, who refers to her son as Henry, has a strong sense of faith. "I always tell people at Compassionate Friends that their loved ones are not gone forever. If you keep them alive, they are with you for the rest of your life," she said.

Compassionate Friends meets the third Monday of every month at 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph's Center, Holy Family Church, 28 Brookline Ave., Nutley. Tamburri and Anita O'Mara took over three years ago, but the group is not a new one.

Started 30 years ago in England, Compassionate Friends is meant to help parents who have lost their children through the grieving process.

"I can tell you one thing," Tamburri said. "Losing your parents is reality. Losing a child is a tragedy. Thank God for Compassionate Friends."

Tamburri goes to the Upper Montclair cemetery in which her son rests every day and has done so for the past five years.

"If I don't go, I feel very guilty and I think I'm neglecting him. If I go away, I ask my sister to go. I always bring a rose to him and spend time talking and praying. This is a part of the healing process," she said.

Referring to a workshop held in Pennsylvania for Compassionate Friends, Tamburri explained how she has worked through her pain.

"You have to set aside so much time to pray, to cry, to think and to be with your family each day," she said. "I think about Henry day and night. You have to do that. Cry when you want to cry but function when it's time to function."

Enrico Tamburri was a successful banker with a promising future ahead of him when he passed away five years ago.

"God takes the best flowers, the best people," his mother said. "I'm proud to have had him for 27 years and I will never forget him."

Checks to the Enrico Tamburri Memorial Fund will be gratefully accepted and should be mailed to 93 Rotan Road, Belleville. For help and further information, please call Gina Tamburri at 751-4187.

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

Silver Lake can celebrate again. This time we have a brother-and-sister team, Jon Vincent Faliveno II and Karleen Faliveno. Their Mom and Pop, Josephine and John Faliveno (a.k.a. "Johnny Pats"), and their grandmother, Yolanda Bivona, all hail from Lake Street, Silver Lake, USA.

Now let me get to why we're celebrating. The first-born, Karleen, attended Belleville High School and graduated in June of 1988. She attended Wheelock College in Boston for 2 1/2 years and then graduated Kean College in 1992 with honors. She is now attending Rutgers for her master's.

The good news is that she was just voted the Teacher of the Year at Phoenix Center in West Paterson, a school for autistic children. And the best news of all is that she plans to be married in July to Joseph Lunetta, also a Belleville H.S. graduate who is a teacher at E. Hanover Regional High School.

Now let's get to the second-son. Jon Vincent Faliveno II (a.k.a. J.V. Faliveno), attended the Belleville Middle School as well as Belleville H.S., where he was captain of the football team 1991-1992. He is attending Sacred Heart University in Connecticut, where he will graduate in May. He was inducted into the national honor society for criminal justice and made the dean's list. He plans to pursue a career in law enforcement.

I must commend John and Josephine for raising such great kids. Let's send out a thunderous applause to Jon Vincent Faliveno and Karleen Faliveno, our Silver Lake treasures. And just remember, people, where they attended school. Good ol' Belleville High.

I can always count on Joyce and Barney Risoli of Lake St. to keep me abreast of things for my column.

First I will give you a one-question quiz. Here goes. The question is "What do Mr. and Mrs. Michael DelRusso and Mr. and Mrs. Pete D'Alessio have in common?"

What do you mean, you don't know? Well, I guess I'll have to tell you. First, they were both Lake Street residents, second, they both have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, and third, they were each other's best man at their weddings.

An anniversary Mass was celebrated on April 28 at the Sacred Heart Basilica in Newark with 100 other couples. Afterwards, Mr. and Mrs. D'Alessio were surprised with a party at their daughters house in Nutley.

Board delays vote on mall

Verona, representing Newell Realty Co. of Connecticut, has presented plans for a 146,000-square-foot retail mall and a parking lot in front of that would accommodate 780 cars. The retail stores would run from Maionara Place past the Belleville border near Naples Avenue through Watessing Avenue in Bloomfield.

The site plan hearing is to resume on July 11.

The Planning Board has recommended to the Council that the area be rezoned from industrial usage to retail usage to allow for the redevelopment, and the Council unanimously approved the change, expressing reservations that only about 10 percent of the rateable property will be in the township.

Councilman Victor Canning, a Planning Board member, has said the matter was brought before the Planning Board for public hearings, and that several Zoning Board members were contacted about the change, with several giving recommendations.

Councilwoman Angie Pasercchia, who lives just blocks from the proposed site, said "I am voting for this because it will give us more rateables. Don't make me sorry," an apparent warning to the Planning Board.

Councilman Joseph Scaperrotta said he voted for the project after being assured that "New Jersey Transit has nothing to do with it."

NJ Transit is considering planning a rail yard and light rail train station in the same area, that could possibly abut and expand Maionara Place.

Salerno said the plan is to bring in three or four larger discount retail stores, rather than the traditional one anchor store and many small boutique-type shops.

The Council and Planning Board also agreed to waive the normal 5-acre requirement for such a development, since only 3.8 acres lie in Belleville but the actual development is much larger.

OUR OPINION

Turtle Back is back

All's well that ends well when it comes to zoos

Just a few months ago it appeared that Turtle Back Zoo would close due to dwindling funds and a lack of interest by the public.

Essex County Executive Jim Treffinger planned to cut off county funding for the zoo on March 31, saying that taxpayers should not have to foot the bill for the animal habitat. He said that an independent agency could better manage the facility. But a sudden uproar over the plan caused Treffinger and other county officials to reconsider.

Treffinger was then faced with a brewing dilemma: School children by the thousands were writing him, begging that the zoo not be closed. Angry animal lovers were also making their sentiments known. It seemed that Treffinger and zoo proponents were well on their way to harboring ill feelings toward each another.

Despite the apparent differing views expressed by both sides, each was voicing a legitimate argument.

The county executive could not help but notice that the zoo was routinely running a $1 million annual deficit. With dwindling attendance, the zoo was also receiving low grades from visitors. It was reasonable for Treffinger to determine that the zoo's best days were behind it, or that the county could not efficiently run the animal habitat.

On the other hand, zoo officials said that Turtle Back still had potential if the county would modestly invest in the zoo.

The battle lines appeared firmly drawn, but the battle never really took place. The ongoing debate on the subject quickly attracted the attention of the television and print news media. Subsequently, maybe miraculously, each side began to understand the other's viewpoint.

As a result, zoo officials began a crusade to attract corporate sponsors to help ease the burden to taxpayers. While the county, under Treffinger's leadership, began an all-out effort to spruce up the zoo, directing the Parks Department to substantially upgrade the zoo facilities.

In just a few weeks, the effort has already paid off. The zoo's mini train for kids has been refurbished; a petting zoo has begun; picturesque flowers and shrubbery have been planted; old zoo buildings and fences are getting a fresh coat of paint, and the food concession stand is doing a booming business.

The recent debate on whether or not to close the zoo has actually helped attract many new patrons. Attendance has suddenly gone up, even grade school classes are again touring the zoo.

Treffinger has also vowed to help bring in corporate sponsors. Indeed, he says the entire debate over closing the zoo was somewhat of a misunderstanding. He said he never intended to close the facility, but simply wanted to attract an outside agency to manage the zoo, hoping to save Essex taxpayers $1 million-plus.

Certainly, Treffinger never anticipated the uproar caused by his plans. But in the end, whether by fate or grand design, it all paid off.

Today, zoo officials are ecstatic as they enjoy Turtle Back's apparent rebirth. While Treffinger has reason to hope that the zoo may be well on its way to becoming a bright spot for the county.

All's well that ends well. Sometimes the real world is indeed stranger than fiction.

Planning Board's slow road will ensure best decision on Macy's

The Planning Board's slow approach to hearing plans for the re-development of the former Macy's industrial warehouse property on Franklin Street, as three or four large bargain retail stores, is the latest example of the local Planning and Zoning Boards not allowing any development plans to slip through without a thorough hearing.

Planning Board Chairman Sebastian "Sam" Papa, as he has since taking over the chairmanship of the board, sent the loud and clear message that the board will take as long as needed to ensure that all the township's concerns about the re-development are addressed. Papa is aware that Bloomfield gets the most ratable property benefit from the plan, while Belleville gets only about 10 percent of the ratable property, and he and the board want to make absolutely sure that the best interests of the people of Belleville are served in areas like security and aesthetic quality.

The project has received reluctant, but mostly positive responses from the Township Council and residents, most of whom wish the township could attain more ratable property on the Belleville portion of the land. More specific criticisms have been made about the lack of trees and landscaping at the site, as well as the placement of some underground pipes.

The Silver Lake Civic Association (SLCA) continues to offer mixed reviews of the project, looking forward to the jobs that will be brought in, but repeating worries that vital parking spaces and commerce will be taken from small businesses in the area.

Newel Realty Co. of Connecticut, has presented plans for a 146,000-square-foot retail mall and a parking lot in front that would accommodate 780 cars. The plan is to bring in three or four larger discount retail stores, rather than the traditional one anchor store and many small boutique-type shops.

With NJ Transit considering placing a rail yard and light rail train station in the same area that could abut and expand Maioran Place, a lot of questions need to be answered about the project and its possible effects on the area.

We applaud Papa and the Planning Board for not letting Bloomfield's rapid approval of the plan dissuade them from taking a slow, careful approach. For the good of Silver Lake and Belleville, the time will be well-spent.

United Way stands for children

To the editor:

Our nation's children are in jeopardy. Every day, in America, 15 children are killed by firearms. 2,660 babies are born in poverty, 2,833 children drop out of school, 8,493 children are abused or neglected.

Despite our #1 ranking in global power, we rank 12th among 15 nations in mathematics among 13 year olds, 18th among industrialized nations with an ever widening gap between rich and poor children, 18th in infant mortality, 16th in living standards amongst our poorest children.

The enemy? Neglect. Benign or otherwise.

On June 1, we made a "Stand for Children" by participating in a bi-partisan event held at the Lincoln Memorial. United Way of Essex and West Hudson was a co-sponsor of the day long rally and provided transportation for a group of staff and community health and human service agencies so that they could re-affirm their commitment to children.

The local health and human service agencies that planned to send representation on the United Way of Essex and West Hudson bus to participate in the events of this national day of renewal included: The Coqui Boxing Club, Newark, Early Childhood Learning Center, Newark, St. Ann's Day Care Center, Newark, Vailsburg Child Development Center, Newark, and Valley Settlement House, West Orange.

For those who were unable to attend the D.C. event but who wanted to make their own "Stand for Children," the United Way of Essex and West Hudson is hosting a series of activities throughout the month of June aimed to "Celebrate Children: Our Greatest Resource." On June 14, at 5 p.m., United Way of Essex and West Hudson asked everyone in the Essex and West Hudson area to honk their horns to illustrate our commitment to our future, our children.

For more information on these or other United Way programs or volunteer opportunities, please call 1-800-ENABLE-96. Imagine the difference we can make together.

Elks say thanks for comic relief

To the editor:

As exalted ruler of the Belleville Elks Lodge #1123, it is my sincere honor and privilege to take this opportunity to thank the citizens of Belleville and the businesses of Belleville for their support in making our second annual Comic Relief Night a success.

The purpose of the Comic Relief Night is to express our appreciation to you and our community at large, for sharing our Elksdom commitments and efforts, on behalf of our many communal causes. Without your continual support it would be impossible for us to continue our ever expanding work on behalf of the infirmed, the veterans, the youth programs and those deserving students in need of our scholarship assistance.

The Belleville Elks of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is honored to service these many causes. We are honored that you, our friends, neighbors and businessmen throughout the community, are both compassionate and generous in helping us make our expanded services available to all those in need of them.

Once again, on behalf of myself and the Belleville Elks Lodge and the many causes we serve, we are most grateful for your friendship and support.

A sixth grader's day to remember

To the editor:

On June 6, the Belleville D.A.R.E. program sponsored their first annual D.A.R.E. picnic for all the sixth graders in Belleville. Four hours of fun, sun and lots of food accompanied a great day! Thanks to all that donated their time and food to make it special for all the children.

Unfortunately, Jackie's Lemon Ice bailed out the day of the picnic, but all was still terrific. Special thanks to D.J. Michael Chieffo for donating his time and talent, and making this picnic a "Day to Remember."

Not only was it obvious that the children enjoyed themselves, but I myself and those parents who attended, had a fabulous time.

Great Job D.A.R.E. Committee!

Of All Things

A feature of the Nutley Sun, Bloomfield Life and Belleville Times

• SAVE Saturday evening, June 29th, for a very special occasion - a birthday party, if you wish. Nutley's Junior Chamber of Commerce, otherwise known as the Nutley Jayces, involved in "Building a Better Tomorrow - Today" will be gathering to celebrate forty years of unselfish service dedicated to improving the quality of life in Nutley. At $35 per person, it appears to be a bargain even in these tough times. Mike Paolino can be reached at 667-7315 or 161 Ohlson Avenue, Nutley, NJ 07110.

• THE Belleville Planning Board, under the leadership of veteran Chairman Sam Papa, is to be complimented for the deliberate way it is going about evaluating an application involving a 150,000 square foot shopping center at the former R. H. Macy warehouse site. The property bridges the Belleville-Bloomfield line. As a result, the shopping center promoter has been obliged to appeal to the Bloomfield Planning Board as well as Belleville's.

The application to the Bloomfield Planning Board was put on the fast-track, and before one could say George Washington, a proposal entailing a demolition of existing buildings and construction of a mall for at least three big tenants and parking for 728 cars was approved. And mind you - it took only one hearing for the Bloomfield Planning Board to approve this gigantic proposal.

Fortunately for Belleville, Sam Papa said his Board isn't going to treat the application in a flippant manner. The plan's potential impact upon traffic is awesome. But that didn't deter Bloomfield planners from giving a fast O.K.

The Belleville Planning Board must weigh the impact that such a shopping center will have upon the small store owners in the area. And what about the traffic through Silver Lake. It is almost predictable and inevitable that Silver Lake will never be the same if this 150,000 square foot shopping center is approved.

• NUTLEY'S Carl Johnson, a Habitat for Humanity volunteer, is participating in a large project with the Habitat for Humanity International in Francistown, Botswana (Africa) where he will be one of many volunteers who will assist in building homes for low-income families. Johnson tells us that the three-week trip includes 600 miles of cycling! Johnson is not a newcomer to Habitat projects. He has participated in projects in Newark and Paterson and says the experience "makes me enjoy a feeling of community with fellow volunteers and the families awaiting new homes. This rewarding experience has given me the inspiration to extend my involvement to an international level." Carl Johnson is a Belleville High School teacher and believes that sharing an African travel experience with his students will "add to their knowledge of other cultures and help instill a sense of global community - and in the process the experience will translate to more tolerance of those nearby."

In addition to his physical donation, Johnson has also been asked to raise a minimum of $2,000 to defray construction costs. Anyone wishing to make a tax deductible contribution can send checks made payable to "Habitat for Humanity International" c/o Carl Johnson, 221 Harrison St., Apartment A14, Nutley, NJ 07110. We live in a "One World" envisioned by the late Wendell Wilkie. With television and the Internet, the world, indeed, has shrunk, and people living thousands of miles apart have become neighbors. So - as a neighbor, you may want to throw a few bucks toward Carl Johnson's way.

• NORTH WARD Democrats, under the leadership of Steve Adubato, Sr., were dancing in the streets a couple of weeks ago having won an overwhelming victory over a tough Hispanic slate led by Newark Councilman-at-large Luis Quintana whose $100,000 kitty was no match for Adubato's 300 troops. Adubato was betrayed by Quintana who was elected with the support of Adubato's North Ward organization. Essex County Freeholder Director, Nutley's Joseph DiVincenzo, hailed the victory by the Adubato forces and happily observed, "This victory shows money can't do it; people vote!"

• NUTLEY'S Bob Rusignuolo and his wife, Marie, attended Governor Christie Whitman's annual bash in Edison, N.J. Rusignuolo used the occasion to greet old friends and extend his network.

Olympics," said Messina.

Councilman Jerry Digori was on hand for the festivities and explained what the event meant to the community.

"It's a great day for us. It's any kids dream. I think everyone dreamt about being an Olympic athlete when they were young," said Digori.

And for some of the youngsters on hand for the event, the carrying of the Olympic torch is synonymous with patriotism.

"I'm very excited. This stands for supporting our country," said Nicole Scorsone, a sixth-grade student at School 7.

Linda Bove, a teacher at School 7, agreed that the day was filled with "unity" and "patriotic spirit."

Joe Barisse, branch manager and vice president of the Fleet Bank at 144 Washington Avenue, said the event also showed unity between communities and individual organizations throughout the town.

"I think it shows the togetherness of all the people, the kids, the parents, and you have people coming in from other towns. It shows how united everyone is and how great the Olympics can be," Barisse said.

Also on hand at the torch relay were all of the elementary and middle schools, the Belleville High School Marching Band, business leaders, Town Council and Board of Education members and several representatives of the Belleville Police Department.

The 1996 Olympic Torch Relay team started their excursion across the United States on April 27 in Los Angeles. By the time they reach Atlanta, they will have traveled 15,000 plus-miles; with approximately one-third is running at up to one kilometer per torchbearer.

Historians suggest the flame was born in a temple erected by the ancient Greeks to honor Hera, powerful queen of the mythological gods.

Pain may be eliminated for millions

(SPECIAL) — A new drug has been approved that is exciting researchers in the treatment of pain. This material has been formulated into a new product known as "Arthur Itis..." and is being called a "Medical Miracle" by some, in the treatment of debilitating conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism, painful muscle aches, joint aches, simple backache, bruises, and more. [Although the mechanism of action is unclear, experiments indicate that Arthur Itis... relieves pain by first selectively attracting, and then destroying the messenger chemical which carries pain sensations to the brain, thus eliminating pain in the affected area. Arthur Itis... is an odorless, greasless, non-staining cream and is available immediately without a prescription and is guaranteed to work. Use only as directed.]

THE LIMITS OF HMO CARE

Health maintenance organizations (HMOs) often limit which drugs doctors can prescribe in an effort to control costs. By some estimates, three HMOs out of four place limits on medications that their physicians can prescribe without special authorization. Until recently, there had been little examination of the effects of this restriction and others. Now, a new study published in the American Journal of Managed Care takes a look at drug formularies and other cost-control methods, such as per-visit fees and restricted access to specialists, among 13,000 subscribers of six HMOs. Among the things that the study found was that, as it concerned patients with arthritis, asthma, high blood pressure, and stomach ulcers, the greater limitations on drugs imposed by the HMOs were associated with more doctor visits, emergency room use, and hospitalizations. While some question the study, others find it to be thought-provoking.

Patients with arthritis, asthma, high blood pressure, stomach ulcers, and other problems will find their prescriptions are filled promptly when they come to us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1956, 759-1956). We are Blue Cross and Medicare approved, carry baby needs, transistor radios, and many other items. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HINT: According to the HMO study mentioned above, prescribing restrictions ends up costing more than they save.

There's nothing magical about American Savings' Below Prime Rate home equity credit line. Except, of course, for the rate itself.

Your hometown bank, American Savings Bank, is still the first and only bank in New Jersey to offer Below Prime Rate home equity credit lines for the life of the loan. There are no application fees, no closing costs, no teaser rates, no gimmicks.

Look at what other banks are offering. Some have home equity loans below the prime rate, but the rates are only good for a short period of time. Then they jump above prime. And, of course, they may also charge you application fees and closing costs to boot. Others may not charge these fees but their rates are above prime for the duration.

Call us today. You can apply by phone and we often provide an answer the same day! Find out what many of your neighbors already know about our home equity credit line. It's clearly the best in the business.

Now you can bank without a crystal ball.

Nutrition On-line

By Michael A. DeAngelis

A feature of The Nutley Sun, Belleville Times, Bloomfield Life and Glen Ridge Voice

The buzz word in the food industry these days is convenience. In our quest to eat healthily and quickly, many people are eating frozen dinners.

In its early beginning it was seen as a fad, but frozen dinners are still very popular. The classic Salisbury steak, chicken, and turkey dinners are still enjoyed by many.

In fact, now there is a whole line of frozen dinners that are aimed at weight control and healthy eating.

The classic Salisbury steak, chicken parmigiana, and lasagna have been modified over the years to become low in fat and high in taste.

However, these meals are not without their problems. One of their greatest problems is the fact that they are often not complete meals despite their advertising.

For example, most meals lack a fruit source, and the apple crumb cake included does not count as a fruit.

Also, these dinners lack milk or dairy sources which can be a concern if teenagers consume most of their meals from frozen entrees. The only exception to this problem is macaroni and cheese.

Lastly, these dinners are often slim on the Bread, Cereals and Grains group. The serving size of the pasta or rice is often small.

Another problem that frozen "diets" of healthy dinners have is that they often prevent people from learning how to eat on their own.

The most important part of all the nutrition advice is that people must learn to eat and make healthy choices instead of depending on some profit seeking food manufacturer.

Frozen dinners, while they are convenient and appetizing can also be high in sodium. This is always a concern in the American diet.

Instead of healthy frozen dinners bought from the store, you can prepare meals at the beginning of the week when you have time and these can be frozen and reheated during the week.

The advantage is that you can save time, money, and can control the food more easily.

Healthy frozen dinners can be truly healthy if you add food to them to complete the meal or if you decide to make your own. Try it!

Newark Beth Israel using innovative procedure on newborns

Neonatologists at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center's Extracorporeal Life Support Center (ELSC) have completed the successful treatment of a newborn infant with severe respiratory failure by using veno-venous extracorporeal membrane oxygenation (ECMO).

The patient was transferred from the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at Schneider Children's Hospital in Long Island, N.Y., because she had failed to respond to standard medical treatment upon reaching five days of age. The infant is the first patient in New Jersey to be treated with this new ECMO technique, which does not interfere with the blood flow.

ECMO is a form of cardiopulmonary bypass for newborns with life-threatening respiratory failure. ECMO uses an artificial lung to oxygenate the newborn's blood and keeps the newborn alive for up to two weeks, allowing the underlying lung problem time to resolve.

Currently, the medical center's ELSC is the only one of its kind in New Jersey that can provide this life-saving treatment for newborns, children and adults. It boasts a 94 percent survival rate for the 33 newborns it has treated since January 1992.

The conventional ECMO technique requires placing cannulae (tubes) in the right carotid artery and right jugular vein. Because the right carotid artery supplies half the blood flow to the brain, this procedure carries a risk of brain injury.

According to Dr. Morris Cohen, the medical center's director of Neonatal Medicine, veno-venous ECMO involves placing a single double lumen cannula into the jugular vein and does not require an arterial cannula.

"This new procedure helps us protect and preserve the health of a baby's brain by maintaining good blood flow to both the left and right side of the brain," explained Dr. Bhaktaraj Chelliah, co-director of the ECMO program and director of Neonatal Transport for the medical center's Division of Neonatology.

"And, while we do repair the arteries following arterial, or conventional ECMO, there is a chance that the procedure may impact the artery later in life should scar tissue develop causing it to narrow. The new method also decreases any future potential damage to the artery," he said.

The medical center is the first facility in New Jersey to provide Extra Corporeal Membrane Oxygenation, an extreme life-support system for babies with severe respiratory failure. As a modification of cardiopulmonary bypass, ECMO aids newborns who have not responded to usual therapies such as mechanical ventilation, drugs or surgery. For information about ECMO or other neonatal services, call 926-7203.

The medical center's Neonatal Intensive Care Unit provides highly specialized treatment to more than 600 newborns each year from Essex, Hudson, Union and Middlesex counties. Constant monitoring and intervention are provided by a multidisciplinary team, including neonatologists, nurses, respiratory therapists and social workers.

The Division of Neonatology is part of the medical center's Children's Center at The Beth. With medical and nursing specialists in more than 20 pediatric areas, The Children's Center at The Beth includes a pediatric and young adult Same Surgery Unit for children able to recover from treatment at home.

There is also an inpatient unit for tertiary care and general medical and surgical cases, a young adult unit, a Pediatric Intensive Care Unit, as well as an Ambulatory Special Care Center for treatment of children on an outpatient basis. For information, call 926-7328.

Newark Beth Israel Medical Center is a 607-bed, regional-care, teaching hospital affiliated with the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. It is the only hospital in New Jersey where heart and lung transplants are performed.

Founded in 1901, the medical center is a member agency of the United Jewish Federation of MetroWest. For a referral to a physician affiliated with Newark Beth Israel Medical Center, call 1-800-THE BETH, weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

- The Outpatient Building — the new, 60,000-square-foot facility houses a wide range and full complement of outpatient services, including the Center For Geriatric Health Care, the Pediatric Health Center, the Women's Health Center, and the Adult Health Center.
- The Lester M. Bornstein Center for Emergency Services — the newly expanded, 18,500-square-foot facility features separate waiting areas for infectious patients, a screening area, a pediatric emergency room, a psychiatric emergency services unit, and a cardiac/trauma resuscitation room.

West Hudson Hospital volunteers feted for dedicated service

West Hudson Hospital in Kearny recently recognized nearly 200 of its volunteers for their years of service at the hospital during a ceremony and reception in their honor.

"Our volunteers play an important role in our hospital," said Carmen Alecci, chief executive officer. "Collectively they contributed more than 34,000 hours of volunteer service last year. We are very appreciative of their efforts."

"We are proud of our volunteers for their distinguished record of service and for the impact they have on enhancing our services," said Rosemarie Dressler, director of public relations and volunteer services.

"West Hudson Hospital volunteers generously give of themselves to help others in need. They care about others and contribute — no matter how small or large — to improve services for our patients. In doing so, they distinguish themselves above the rest," she said.

Volunteers honored include Rae Frolich, Helen Greenhalgh, Doris Hodges and Rena Stoll, 43 years; Vera Bever, 41 years; Phyllis Adams and Charlotte Kintner, 20 years; Vi Hopkins, Eleanor Romanoczek, Ethel Vieth, 21 years; Josephine Triano, 22 years; Marion Youngmans, 23 years; Doris Balatos, Jean Barry and Rose Carchidi, 24 years; Dorothy Rider, 25 years; Celeste Byrne, 27 years; Ceil Jones, 30 years and Bobe Subhara, 34 years.

The West Hudson Hospital

Auxiliary was also recognized during the ceremony including officers of the auxiliary board, President Rena Stoll, Charlotte Kintner, Pat Henderson, Rose Carchidi, Mary Jane McGrath, Nancy Gioia, Mary Jane Lutz, Josephine Triano and Ellen McLaren.

Members of the clergy, Father Patrick and Father Desmond, celebrated their silver anniversaries of providing pastoral services and Rev. Frank Benson was congratulated upon his retirement.

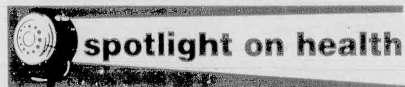

Relatives of deceased volunteers, Margaret Broderick, Betty Caravella, Margaret Gross, Arthur Lambertson, Herbert Prestup and Eve Sussman, accepted clocks in their memories. "Although their loss has changed our lives, their influence is timeless," said Dressler.

Volunteers graduating from high school were also acknowledged including Donna Orpilla, Diane Trivic, Maria Vila, Heidy Belo, Anna Matos, Monica Maza, Kelly Perritt, Irene Sowa, Kathleen Almeida, Elizabeth Aviles, Robert Jeffords, Elysa Pawlowicz, Jeffrey Roessler, Diane Oliveira and Wendy Marouquin.

The auxiliary awarded Aviles a $1,000 scholarship. Oliveira received the $1,000 Margaret Broderick scholarship and Kelly Perritt won the West Hudson Foundation $1,000 scholarship. The $1,000 Susan Picillo scholarship from the Ladies of UNICO went to Matos.

Drug To Boost Immune System

(NAPS)—Imagine if a drug existed that could treat life-threatening diseases that are currently non-treatable. Diseases like AIDS, certain cancers, and hepatitis B and C would no longer be feared—and we all could live healthier and happier lives.

That's the prognosis on the horizon for some of the world's most promising pharmaceutical companies. SciClone Pharmaceuticals, founded in 1989 and publicly traded since March 1992, acquires proprietary products and technologies in late-stage development, as well as established products that have growth potential within and outside their current markets.

The company is developing ZADAXIN® thymosin alpha 1, (thymalfasin) an immunomodulator, to treat hepatitis B (HBV) a serious viral illness. It has been estimated that over 300 million people—five percent of the world's population—may be carriers of HBV, with over 300,000 new acute cases each year. This disease is estimated to be up to 100 times more infectious than AIDS and much more prevalent. Infection by HBV is the most common cause of acute and chronic liver disease worldwide.

Data suggest that ZADAXIN may also be useful in conditions where alterations of the immune system may play a role in the progression of disease, such as hepatitis B and C, AIDS and certain cancers. The company develops, manufactures and markets the drug virtually worldwide. The drug is commercially approved in Singapore, for chronic hepatitis B, and commercial registration has been filed in Hong Kong, China, India, and Mexico. SciClone is currently conducting a phase III clinical trial with ZADAXIN for chronic HBV in Taiwan, and is co-sponsoring a U.S. phase III combination trial using ZADAXIN and alpha interferon for chronic hepatitis C. For further information about the company, please call 1-800-SCICLONE.

Center for Women's Health Care opens

Health care dedicated to the essence of woman has arrived in Nutley.

Patients seeking female physicians in a variety of specialties can now turn to the Center for Women's Health Care at 500 Franklin Avenue to receive comprehensive health care services in the areas of internal medicine, obstetrics/gynecology, cardiology, gastroenterology, hematology/oncology and pulmonology.

The center features an all-female staff of physicians who pride themselves on understanding the special needs of female patients.

"Some women are naturally more comfortable with female physicians," said Dr. Sharlene M. Watts, the center's cardiologist. "They find it easier to connect on a more personal level and find comfort in the fact that they may share something in common."

The center's physicians realize the importance of this connection and use their past experiences as both physicians and women to treat patients and help them understand and actively participate in their treatment plans. And because of the diversity of specialties available within the practice, a patient requiring more specialized care can be treated by one of the center's physicians rather than being referred to another physician at a different location. This allows the patient and her physicians to continue interacting within the same setting.

While centers specializing in women's health care are not new, the concept of one totally staffed by female physicians is a welcome find in the Essex County area. The Center for Women's Health Care participates in a variety of managed care programs and accepts most major insurances.

Jim Carrey stars in Columbia Pictures, "The Cable Guy" with Matthew Broderick.

By Kelly Tahaney

Rating: PG for language and situations. Grade: 1/2

What is the only thing that can sabotage a Jim Carrey movie? The Ebola virus and Ben Stiller's direction.

Although "The Cable Guy" is very funny for most of the hour and half long flick, some bad direction of Carrey's talent makes the film a nearniss for a blockbuster hit.

Matthew Broderick plays Steven, a possessive boyfriend of pretty newcomer, Leslie Mann.

Carrey installs Broderick's cable for free and latches on as an unwanted friend.

The film spoofs a lot of movies and television shows successfully. Particularly, the Medieval Times/Star Trek episode where Spock and Kirk fight to the death is pretty funny.

One hilarious scene (depending on your taste or lack thereof) is when Carrey makes Broderick play Porno Password with family (see picture above).

Now playing at the Lincoln and the Bellevue (see timetable right).

Production to benefit theater

Neil Simon's comedy "Plaza Suite" will be presented on Saturday, June 22, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, June 23, at 5 p.m. at the Studio Playhouse, 14 Alvin Place, Montclair.

The production is a fundraiser by the Studio Players, a non-profit community theater founded in 1937, to benefit its building fund.

The playhouse is located off Valley Road in Montclair. All tickets are $10 and the box office number is 744-9752.

Also to benefit the building fund, the Studio Players have planned a rummage and bake sale on Sunday, June 30, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the playhouse. Books, bric-a-brac, exercise equipment, household goods and more are expected to be available.

The sale will be held rain or shine.

HOROSCOPES

June 23-29

ARIES — March 21/April 20 You'll be at your most productive the first part of the week, so try to get important tasks out of the way early on. A loved one will need your support with a sensitive problem. If you feel compelled to give honest advice, do it without sounding like you're giving a lecture.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21 The simple things in life will give you the most pleasure — especially if you're a parent. You won't need anything fancy to keep you happy. At work a lesson may be learned the hard way. Think of it as a learning experience, not as a failure. A loved one needs your support.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21 Release your hidden talents and you will have much to gain. Don't be afraid to show off a little bit. It will only work in your favor. Seek professional advice before entering into any long-term financial agreements. There may be some important facts you need to know. Keep alert.

CANCER — June 22/July 22 When it comes to work decisions, take your own advice. Watch what you say when you're around sensitive loved ones. Something that starts off as a joke could end up being the cause of a fight. Work out the wrinkles before initiating a large project. Keep an eye on details.

LEO — July 23/August 23 An untraditional approach to an upcoming social event will work best. You'll realize that a little creativity can work wonders. Be cautious to whom you divulge important information — especially in the workplace. A new friend does something to turn you off.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22 Feeling a little burnt out lately? A change of scenery may bring back your enthusiasm. Even if it's a short trip, new environs will work wonders for your psyche. Go for quality rather than quantity when shopping later in the week. Take a Scorpio's advice.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23 Forgetfulness could cause you to do some backtracking and could lead to double work. Avoid it by making a "to-do" list for yourself. Your imagination and creativity will give a project some extra flair. Put in the extra time so you can really work some magic. A romantic weekend will put you in a relaxed frame of mind.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22 Don't give in to your emotions, especially if they are feelings of jealousy. Be reasonable and look at the big picture. A lucky break will finally put an ongoing situation to an end. You'll feel a weight off your shoulders. A problem at work offers an interesting challenge.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21 Look at lessons from the past to help with a decision for your future. Try to cheer up — rather than crying with — a friend who's down in the dumps. At home, you'll find you have more time than usual. Take advantage of it and tackle some household projects.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20 Keep track of valuables or something you cherish could be gone for good. A problem with a love interest could be solved easily if you're willing to listen. Keep an open mind. An upcoming trip gives you a lot to look forward to. Think ahead for creative ways to make the best of it.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18 Another Aquarian may be the cause of aggravation this week — especially if (s)he is a romantic partner. If you're trying to win a battle, it's best to start up again next week when you'll have more energy to deal with problems. If your body is telling you to relax, listen up!

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20 Don't accept invitations unless you know you can go. Your reputation for being unreliable will only prove true once again. A little extra time later in the week will give you a chance to relax. Enjoy it while you can. A Taurus may try to influence you in a negative way. Stand your ground!

Carter named 'Coach of the Year'

Quad-town baseball all-star team

Cline tabbed Quad-town 'Player of the Year'

Selected by the Orechio Publications Sports Staff

Nutley's Carlos Cline has been selected as the 1996 Quad-town baseball "Player of the Year," while Bloomfield's skipper Mike Carter has been chosen as "Coach of the Year."

The purpose of the All-Orechio Baseball Team is to recognize the achievements of the area's best baseball players and highlight their achievements from this past spring season. Four towns comprise the All-Orechio Publications baseball team, which consists of players from Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge and Nutley.

Cline's performance this spring was simply head and shoulders above most throughout the state. The four-year varsity letter winner has occupied first base in Nutley for three years. His stats simply speak for themselves. He led the Raiders in eight offensive categories and was impeccable in the field with a .968 fielding average.

When Cline swung his bat this spring, he averaged .522 and posted a slugging percentage of 1.033. He stepped on home plate 41 times, laced 48 hits and drove in 40 runs. Cline also smacked 10 round trippers and 13 two baggers.

Carter was chosen as "Coach of the Year," for leading the Bengals to three championship titles this spring. Bloomfield brought home the first Greater Newark Tournament in 44 years, won the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League - Atlantic Division outright, and garnered the first NJSIAA North Jersey Group IV, Section 2 title since 1980.

The 1996 Bloomfield baseball team received the Frank Sayre Memorial Award in recognition of outstanding achievement and sportsmanship by the New Jersey Umpires Association. The winner of this award is taken from teams nominated in Essex, Union, Morris, Sussex, Passaic and Somerset counties.

The baseball competition in the Quad-town area was unbelievable this spring, as Nutley garnered the NNJIL-Pacific Division title and the NJSIAA North Jersey Group III, Section 2 crown, while Glen Ridge earned the Colonial Hills Conference championship. Both Nutley and Bloomfield advanced to the finals of the Group championships.

Explanation of Appropriations for "Other Expenses"
The amounts appropriated under the title of "Other Expenses" are for operating costs other than "Salaries & Wages".
Some of the items included in "Other Expenses" are:
Materials, supplies and non-bondable equipment;
Repairs and maintenance of buildings, equipment, roads, etc.;
Contractual services for garbage and trash removal, fire hydrant service, aid to volunteer fire companies, etc.
Printing and advertising, utility services, insurance and many other items essential to the services rendered by municipal government.

The 1996 Municipal Budget presented herewith, indicates an estimated 1996 Local Tax Rate of $3.94 per $100.00 of assessed valuations, as compared to the 1995 Local Tax Rate of $3.82 per $100 of assessed valuations, an increase of .12 points. The following schedule compares the estimated components of the 1996 levy with those of 1995 for Township purposes only:

	Local Tax Levies			Local Tax Rates
	1996 Estimated	1995 Actual	Increase (Decrease)	1996 Estimated	1995 Actual	Increase (Decrease)
For All Municipal Purposes	14,939,177.40	14,101,378.78	837,798.62	3.43	3.22	.21
For Reserve for Uncollected Taxes	2,208,000.00	2,603,000.00	(395,000.00)	0.51	0.50	(0.09)
Total Local Tax for Municipal Purposes	17,147,177.40	16,704,378.78	442,798.62	3.94	3.82	0.12
Assessed Valuations	435,707,500.00	438,011,800.00	(2,304,300.00)

The above comparisons deal only with Municipal Purposes. County and School tax levies, however are used in establishing the "Reserve for Uncollected Taxes" or the so called "Cash Basis Overlay", which conform to mandatory provisions governing the preparation of the Local Municipal Budget.

As indicated above, the 1996 assessed valuations have decreased by the sum of $2,304,300.00. It should be noted that this reduction is attributable to a $0.02 point increase in the 1996 tax rate.

Ch. 68, P.L. 1977, as amended by Ch. 49, P.L. 1983 ch.203, pt. 1986 and Ch. 89 and 95, P.L. 1990, places limits on certain municipal expenditures. The limit for 1996 is 9.5%, however, the Township of Belleville adopted an index rate ordinance increasing their allowable spending limitation to 5%. This limit, generally referred to as a "CAP", is calculated by methods established by law. The following schedule, subject to review and approval by the Division of Local Government Services in the State Department of Community Affairs, shows the computation of the maximum amount of increase allowable in the Budget for 1996 over that of 1995 Adopted Budget for the Appropriations subject to the 5% CAP.

After deliberations on the details of departmental requests, operating appropriations have been set at minimum levels to continue to provide needed services. In this connection it is pointed out that a substantial portion of operating expenses is determined by contractual obligations for both salary and other expense elements, over which the Governing Body has little or no control.

The Mayor and Council urge all taxpayers to attend the hearing on the Budget for the year 1996 to be held at Town Hall on July 9, 1996. The Mayor and Council shall be pleased to respond to any questions at that time.

CAPITAL BUDGET AND CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

This section is included with the Annual Budget pursuant to N.J.A.C. 5:30-4. It does not in itself confer any authorization to raise or expend funds. Rather is it a document used as part of the local unit's planning and management program. Specific authorization to expend funds for purposes described in this section must be granted elsewhere, by a separate bond ordinance, by inclusion of a line item in the Capital Improvement Section of this budget, by an ordinance taking the money from the Capital Improvement Fund, or other lawful means.

NARRATIVE FOR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

The Capital Improvement Program for the Township of Belleville is presented herein. Capital projects for the year 1996 are detailed on sheet 40b. The Township of Belleville, exclusive of the Board of Education does not contemplate any capital projects beyond 1996. Should the need arise, the Capital Budget can and will be revised accordingly.

The Mayor and Council
Township of Belleville
