Rejects shopping center proposal against the proposal, while Rick Dombrowski, James Hogendyk and Sam Papa voted in favor.

In the public session, residents' testimony in favor of the development was not enough to change the board's opinion.

"I lived across the street from the site for 43 years, and it makes me sick to look at it," said resident Grace Dondalski.

Marie Strumulo Burke, president of the Silver Lake Civic Association, said the Silver Lake Civic Association took a poll on the Macy's project, and said that about 90 percent of the people said they were worried about the traffic generated from the mall.

Spokesperson from Newel's Michael Turner said he could not comment on the firm's next step.

"I was disappointed because we worked hard to accommodate the board with their requests in the community by diligently hearing and addressing the concerns of residents and business owners on Franklin Street," he said.

A motion was proposed by Dombrowski after two-and-a-half hours of discussing traffic concerns.

The board questioned Newel's attorney Ralph Salerno and traffic expert Albert T. Rinaldi.

The board's independent traffic engineer, Raymond J. DiPasquale of Maser Sosinski and Associates, said he found higher traffic counts than Rinaldi's and he said the timed traffic light system would "work 22 hours out of 24 hours-a-day."

Dombrowski's motion to accept the application set conditions that Newel's limit its free standing sign at 15 feet high, set the length of vehicles on Mairon Place to 26 feet and prevent vehicles from making left hand turns in and out of the site on Franklin Street.

He also included that they get their security plan approved by both Belleville and Bloomfield police, install modern traffic controls before the site is finished, close its stores at 10 p.m., get the town engineers approval for drainage, landscaping plans, stripe Belmont Avenue, and come before the board if there are three or more tenants.

Councilwoman Angie Paserchia said she was not happy with the decision.

Six Edward J. Bloustein Distinguished Scholars were honored at the Board of Education's Monday night evening.

This prestigious honor is awarded to students who have a 1260 SAT and are in the top ten percent of their class.

These students were Anthony Corino, Larell Dunn, Daniel Kirk, Robert Molinaro, Louis Pallante and Amy Tesdesco.

"I went through the Belleville education system and so did my son. (Robert) I think this shows the board's commitment to keeping up to all of its standards," said Board member Robert Molinaro.

"I couldn't be prouder that we have six scholars, and one of those is my son," said Board member Louis Pallante.

In other business, Athletic Director Karen Fuccello announced the NNJIL's Dec. 5 decision that the league will be realigned geographically with all sports with the exception of football, which will be based according to the football records over the past five years.

"It used to be based on population, and now it is based on geography," Fuccello said.

This change is anticipated to start in September of 1998. The proposed football schedule will be completed within the next couple of months.

Included in the league is Barringer High School, Bergen Catholic High School, Bloomfield High School, Clifton High School, Don Bosco High School, East Side High School (Paterson), Hackensack High School, Immaculate Heart High School, Kennedy High School (Paterson), Montclair High School, Nutley High School, Paramus High School, Paramus Catholic High

Charlie Cerami gave a presentation on the town's recycling efforts. He supported the town doing its own recycling versus an occupational center-staffed by people with various handicaps.

He said that 1991 Belleville was ranked 20th and it was third in 1995.

"I am very proud of the township's recycling efforts," said Mayor Victor Canning.

Due to the delays of the hockey rink at Public School No. 9 Township Council agreed to pay $2,500 to start up the hockey league.

"This is to start us off by buying the kids jerseys, paying for a referee and the initiations fee to join the North Jersey Hockey League," said Leo Povinelli, assistant administrator of the Belleville Hockey League.

The rink was used last Sunday when the league had its first game against Lodi.

"The high school team won 8-4 against Lodi and the junior team lost," Povinelli said.

The Township Council also passed a resolution agreeing to share the legal advertising between the Belleville Times, the Star Ledger and the other Belleville publication.

Down In My Heart
 Bright as a blue sky,
 Light as a cloud,
 Joyful within me
 I sing aloud.
 Life is so precious
 I want to express
 Love to my Father
 For each happiness.
 Sorrows? I know them,
 Cheeks course with tears.
 But, Oh! God has blessed me
 All through the years.
 The beautiful Spirit
 Has lifted my soul.
 Though aging and faulted
 I'm young and I'm whole!
 Shafts of His splendor
 Pierce every dark cloud.
 Happy within me
 I sing aloud!

Get well wishes to Fred Behan who was in Clara Maass Medical Center. Also to Anthony Aramecki and Betty Barr who are in the Welcome back to Irene Goglia and Edith DeFeo who was out for a fall for many weeks.

Happy birthday to Lucy and Carmen Urso. Jeanne Bjugan, a member of the Tuesday and Friday senior clubs has a special birthday coming up. It falls on Dec. 25 so she will have a double celebration. Christmas and a birthday at the same time. Enjoy it, Jeanne.

My wife and I with a group of seniors attended the concert given by the Bloomfield Mandolin Orchestra with soloist Dana Longo on Dec. 8 at the Bloomfield Middle School on Huck Road. Three of our members, Ralph Galle, Jeanne Bjugan and Mike Stellatella are members of this orchestra. With the sing-a-long of Christmas carols, the audience had one great time. Santa Claus appeared and with his helpers, passed out candy canes to the audience. Director Gabe L. Nevola and the orchestra are to be commended for the wonderful concert and the audience appreciated their efforts and gave them a standing ovation.

Later that same evening, at the Nutley Park Oval, the Nutley Township, under the direction of Mayor Garry Furnari, held its tree lighting celebration. At 7 p.m., Mayor Furnari's grandmother, Mildred Sarrecchia, age 94, threw the switch to light up the tree. Present were Mrs. Sarrecchia's children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. It was a celebration worth seeing. To top it off, my grandson, Alan Restaino, Jr. was Santa Claus and I understand that he really enjoyed himself. The many volunteers who make this a successful event should be proud of their efforts.

Hey, before I forget, Angelo (John) and Frances Iracane celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. So did Irma and Don Mastro. Congratulations to all.

T.V. Masses can be seen on WLNY-Ch. 55 at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. on Sunday; Faith and Value Channel at 9 a.m. Sunday through Friday; VNYW-TV Ch. 5 5:30 a.m. on Sunday; and WSOU Radio 89.5 FM at 11 a.m. Sunday.

The Concerned Citizens of Belleville held its annual Christmas party at the Branch Brook Manor on Saturday, Dec. 7.

President Edith DeFeo greeted the guests and Joseph Restaino said the blessing. The successful affair was due to the efforts of the party committee: Chairman Vincent Frantantoni, Phyllis Frantantoni, President Edith DeFeo, Florence Pentol, Louise Cordasco and Joe Celso. The CCB presented a check for $200 to Ray Sobanko, a trustee of the Belleville Elks, for the Elks Children's Welfare Fund. Also present were Board of Education Trustee Lou Fuscaldo, Councilwoman Angie Paserchia, Assemblymen John Kelly and Paul DiGaetano and Freeholder Louise Palagano.

Tony Donato's Trio provided the beautiful dance music and the Branch Brook Manor management plenty of good food and refreshments.

Belleville Middle School celebrates the holidays

The students and faculty of Belleville Middle School participated in many holiday activities this December.

An evening program for parents and a daytime performance for students was presented by the school's chorus, orchestra and band.

The seventh grade chorus, directed by Robert Gizzi sang "Let It Snow" and "South of the Border," while the eighth grade chorus, led by Ronald Hackling, did "Because It's Christmas" and "Candles, Candles."

Edwin Black led the orchestra in the "Ukrainian Bell Carol" and "Rock-a-Bell Jingle." The band, directed by Glenn Van Benschoten, performed "Joyous Yuletide" and "Reindeer."

A holiday assembly was presented to the middle school by the high school orchestra under Edwin Black and the chorus directed by Dr. Thomas Finetti.

The International Relations Club, with advisor Lauren Cooper, decorated the classroom doors using multicultural themes such as Happy New Year in different languages, the Menorah and the celebration of Ramadan.

The students and faculty extend to everyone best wishes for a happy holiday season.

Springer said "as long as school finance in New Jersey is so dependent on property taxes, it would be inequitable to impose the financial burden of educating the children on the citizens of Belleville while the citizens of Newark enjoy the benefit of tax revenues derived from their living arrangements. Incidental items, such as where the nearest post office happens to be or which local police or fire department is summoned to answer an emergency call, should not be the deciding factor."

Springer determined that tuition should be paid for the time that the parents of the children were aware that their residence was in Newark.

It was estimated that tuition for a child attending the Belleville elementary school in 1995-96 was $5,565 and for the high school $7,923. Elementary school tuition calculated through the date of the hearing was $1,763 and $2,482 for the high school.

Books for Kids donations accepted at the Library

The Belleville Public Library and Information Center, cooperating with the Education Department of the Woman's Club of Belleville, is participating with libraries throughout the state in providing Books for Kids, from birth through 14.

Please bring your books to the Children's Room or to the Shafter Branch Library by Dec. 15. Carol Casale, the Woman's Club of Belleville, Library Director Adrea Cohen and Frederick Lewis, principal librarian, are coordinating this holiday season gift-giving program with Carol Ann Russo of the Belleville Welfare Dept. as well as the New Jersey Library Association.

Please bring your new books unwrapped to the Library. If you have any questions, please contact Lewis at 450-3434 in the mornings or at 450-3438 in the afternoon from 1-5 p.m. In 1995, with the help of 100 libraries, more than 6000 books were distributed to children across New Jersey.

Blast that chill away

Both adults and children will have the opportunity to participate in the Brain Blaster Show, a television-style game show, to be held Jan. 6, at 3:20 p.m. at the Shafter Branch Library, 30 Magnolia St.

Participants may elect to answer questions from each of the following Brain Blaster categories: American history, mathematics, miscellanea, music, science and sports.

All contestants must register by Friday, Jan. 3.

Late December activities for children

A Holiday Gift Surprise and Games Day will be featured in the Children's Room on Saturday, Dec. 21. At 11 a.m., enjoy a fun-filled craft experience as you make a holiday gift.

You can also have a happy experience when you attend Games Day on Friday, Dec. 27 at 2 p.m. in the Children's Room. Participants will join in playing several international games. Observers are welcome also.

Zonta International donates to literacy project

The Zonta International Club of the Paterson Area has donated $500 to the library for its Literacy Project, Teaching English to the Foreign Born.

This donation will allow the English class to continue into 1997, as monies from the state grant will be expended soon.

"We feel that this is a worthwhile project," states Margaret Puglia, president of the Zonta Club of the Paterson Area.

Zonta International is an international organization of women in business and the professions, dedicated to improving the conditions of women throughout the world and in improving the status of women.

Zonta works to retrain women throughout the world to enter into new jobs and professions. It also funds scholarships in aerospace and technology for women.

Any organization interested in funding the English project for the foreign born should contact Adrea Cohen at 450-3434. Monies are still needed to provide for the ESL coordinator and further classes.

"I am glad that this program will continue through donations in 1997," states Cohen, a past president of the Zonta International Club.

Library receives state grant for business collection development

A $12,000 grant for business collection development has been awarded to the Library by the New Jersey Department of Education and the New Jersey State Library.

The Library will use the funding to provide up-to-date business information to Belleville's business community, potential entrepreneurs, investors, and patrons needing business books for reference and for circulation.

Expansion of the collection will focus on accounting, advertising, business forms, careers in business, computer technology, directories of public and private companies, franchise information, job search materials, management, marketing, NJ and NY business resources, personnel books, business periodicals and sales.

The business information on these topics will be purchased in different types of format, such as reference books, circulating books, audiocassettes, videos, CD ROMS, and business periodicals.

The receipt of this grant focuses on the Library's efforts to achieve alternative sources of funding for the community, to achieve the best for the township.

Kristieanna's creations on exhibit

Currently on exhibition at the Library in the second floor display cases are the creations of Kristieanna, which provide a display of old lace, mixed with pearls and nostalgia.

Kristieanna Fitzpatrick is a one-of-the-kind unique artist selling to other shops throughout the country, and her background and training depict the care with which she creates.

Her education includes time at F.I.T. and at Jersey City State College, where she combined her creativity with business acumen. She is so enthusiastic about her work that it exudes beauty in every piece.

If you visit Kristieanna's store, which is located at 472 Kennedy Boulevard, Bayonne, you will enter a "pink palace," where surprises abound and where you have entered an enchanted palace. Magic is everywhere, and you are transported back to another age, another time. In the shop, cupids abound, decorated in every imaginable way, and it appears that they have been heaven sent.

Kristieanna's exhibition is on display through the end of December.

NOTE: All events unless otherwise listed, take place at the Belleville Public Library & Information Center, 221 Washington Ave.

Belleville Health Department offers healthful holiday tips

The Belleville Health Department offers some tips for reducing holiday stress. While the holidays can be fun, they can also be mixed with extra work and pressure which can contribute to high levels of stress. Stress can be physical as well as mental. Everyone experiences stress differently.

Some people look forward to holiday parties, and others view them as social obligations. You may need to set priorities for your time. It is O.K. to stop by a social gathering for a short time or decline an invitation altogether. Consider delegating some of your responsibilities if you are feeling overwhelmed.

Holidays encourage poor eating habits. Foods high in cholesterol, salt, and fat are common in holiday meals. Holiday feasts can be festive without being fattening. Include various fruits and vegetables and low calorie dips. Breads, pasta, poultry and lean meats are good choices.

Modify recipes — use margarine instead of butter, egg whites instead of whole eggs. Choose low fat dairy products such as skim milk, 1 percent milk or yogurt, and low fat cheeses. Use oils that have less saturated fat. These include canola, corn, safflower, sunflower seed, sesame seed, soybean and olive oil.

For desserts, serve more fresh fruits. To avoid gorging, don't fast before a feast. Eat a healthy snack between meals. Avoid eating every type of food to please the host. At office parties, offer to bring a large salad or fresh fruit instead of a high calorie dessert. Limit portion sizes.

Don't turn to unhealthy habits to cope with stress such as alcohol. Many people drink more alcohol than usual during holiday parties. If you drink, do so in moderation. Limit your daily intake to no more than one or two ounces of alcohol. An ounce of alcohol equals two ounces of whiskey 100 proof, 8 ounces of wine, or two 12 ounce beers. If you drink, don't drive.

Adequate rest and sleep are important during the busy holiday season. The ideal amount varies from person to person, but seven to eight hours is about right for most people. Exercise helps relieve stress for many. Try a brisk walk.

Keep gift giving simple. Many budgets are stretched during the holidays. Gift giving should be an expression of love and friendship. If this element is missing, consider limiting your list. Small tokens can communicate. "I'm thinking of you."

"Happy Holidays" from the Belleville Health Department.

Planning

"I am very disappointed because the developer did everything to accommodate us and they voted it down...I am very upset because about three or four years ago we lost Home Depot...We lost tens of thousands of dollars in rentals and now the burden falls on the taxpayer," she said.

Bloomfield's planning board approved the plan in one session last spring.

Bloomfield Mayor James Norton supports the shopping center, saying it would bring in more rentals.

But Bloomfield 3d Ward Councilman Gary Iacobucci said he agreed with the decision of the Belleville Planning Board.

"It is a victory for Belleville and Bloomfield, especially the Silver Lake section of Belleville and the Ampere and Berkely sections of Bloomfield," Iacobucci said.

"It would have been a traffic nightmare and would have fostered littering, loitering and increased crime in addition to putting a burden on both towns police and fire departments," he said.

"When Home Depot is in place and Orange Street is vacated, all that traffic will be diverted to Watsessing Avenue," he added.

Water commission adopts budgets

The North Jersey District Water Supply Commission on Nov. 15 unanimously adopted its 1997 budgets.

The budgets will reflect lower wholesale water rates for many municipalities, including Nutley and Bloomfield, while at the same time holding increases to less than a third of a percentage point for the remaining municipal participants in the state's largest water supply operation, commission officials said.

The water cost decrease will benefit municipalities drawing supplies from the Wanaque South Project which completed the Monksville Reservoir in 1987. Wholesale water costs for Nutley and Bloomfield will drop from the current $913.19 per million gallon rate to $911.98, beginning in January.

Besides Nutley and Bloomfield, the other Wanaque South municipalities where rates will drop include Bayonne, Kearny, Newark, Wayne and Cedar Grove. Bayonne won an additional advantage when the North Jersey Commission, under a new public water management contract offered as an alternative to privatization, pledged to freeze existing rates for the next several years.

An increase of .007 percent in wholesale water rates will be paid by those cities and towns which financed construction of the Wanaque Reservoir which was completed in 1930. With construction bonds now retired, the original partners in the Wanaque system by far pay the lowest water costs in New Jersey, with the new 1997 rate set at $422.02 per million gallons, up $3.32 from the current charge of $418.71, commission officials said.

The original municipalities which now contract with the Wanaque North project are Newark, Paterson, Passaic, Clifton, Kearny, Montclair, Bloomfield and Glen Ridge. Collectively, the participant which contract with the state regional agency distribute water to one of every four residents in New Jersey.

No one objected to the adoption of the commission's budgets at the public hearing, held in Wanaque. Michael Restaino, executive director of the commission, said a series of preliminary meetings were held with municipal finance officers and other officials as the budget figures were finalized.

"Numerous questions and issues were raised in these discussions, but there was complete consensus as we finalized the budget and projected expenditures for this year," Restaino told the hearing.

The budgets for both the Wanaque North and South projects total $33,704,558, up from last year's $33,523,201.

Two major capital improvement programs are underway at the commission include a $19 million facility now nearing completion which would convert residuals collected by water filters into environmentally safe construction materials. The second project slated for completion in 1998 is designed to add a corrosion control agent to help curb the leaching of lead from antiquated plumbing inside older buildings.

Salary accounts are up 3.9 percent, which includes a 4 percent increase negotiated by labor unions, commission officials said.

The commission, which by law is prohibited from making a profit, announced that surpluses from its 1995 budget are being returned to the municipalities.

Municipalities benefitting from the surplus return include Newark, $88,843; Paterson, $43,873; Passaic, $24,130; Clifton, $14,807; Kearny, $26,324; Montclair, $10,968; Bloomfield, $8,775, and Glen Ridge, $1,645.

Families learn science together

The first and second graders at School 4 recently completed a five-week program in Family Science.

The 16 families involved in the program attended class one night a week. During each session, the students and their families participated in hands-on activities involving scientific skills. Using the skills of observing, inferring, classifying, measuring, predicting and hypothesizing, the children learned while having fun.

They experimented with making ice cream, building structures, designing webs, and creating spacecrafts to land on an unknown surface.

OUR OPINION

Remembering an important pillar in Belleville's history: Edward O'Neil

Residents of Belleville should be grateful for the contributions that Edward O'Neil made to the township during his lifetime.

Citizens named O'Neil "Citizen of the Year" in 1957 because of his contributions to help make Belleville a "better place."

In 1950, he founded the Belleville Little League. Eddie was known to write each kid on his team a note telling them how great they were.

O'Neil was honored by the Belleville Public Library and Information Center for preserving and promoting Belleville history.

He devoted 28 years to the Belleville Historical Society, where he served as president for five years.

O'Neil worked on making the historical society's archives available for easy public access to students, researchers and library patrons. He also researched and copied articles for the Belleville files, ran historical tours of Belleville and placed 100 historical markers throughout town.

He worked on the writing of Belleville history, on lecturing on Belleville history to school children and adults, on seeing to it that historical markers were placed throughout Belleville to mark important locations in the history of Belleville, on placing historic pictures of Belleville and maps in the Belleville Public schools, and on remembering Belleville's veterans.

O'Neil also worked on getting Belleville recognized as the birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

In his spare time, he volunteered to help maintain the Belleville Reformed Church cemetery at the corner of Main and Rutgers streets. Those who knew him remember how he loved telling people about the history of the 62 Revolutionary War soldiers buried in the cemetery. He even bought a sign and chairs with his own money for the cemetery, and on Memorial Day he bought flags to put on the soldiers graves.

O'Neil was longshoreman for the I.T.O. Stevedoring Co., Port Newark, working on the waterfront in Newark for 50 years before retiring in 1986. He also served as a corporal in the 35th Tank Regiment, Fourth Armored Division of the Army during World War II.

He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus Council 835, the American Legion 105 and he was president of the historical society and the Renaissance Committee.

O'Neil will be greatly missed and most difficult to replace, because of his devotion to preserving the history of Belleville, and his deep concern for humanity.

It is no wonder than O'Neil was known as "Mr. Belleville." He truly loved Belleville and wanted others to keep it as close to their hearts as he did.

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

You know that old saying...neither rain nor sleet nor snow can stop your mail carriers. Well, I think our Silver Lake residents are a lot like them. You should have seen us Silverlakers at Silver Lake Day. For those who don't know what Silver Lake Day is, let me explain. The first Sunday after Thanksgiving is set aside for us to show appreciation to our area with our history and our people.

The President of the Historical Society, Edward O'Neil, took care of planning the details for this occasion. All we had to do was show up. But not this year. He died on Nov. 26, a few days before the event. So, we had to step in and do our own thing. As usual, it rained on our parade. But it didn't dampen our spirits. We met on the corner of Lake Street and Jeraldo where the historical marker was placed. There were about 25 residents there with umbrellas in hand.

The festivities were opened by our First Ward Councilman James Messina, who spoke about Silver Lake's history. He asked for a moment of silence for our late friend Eddie O'Neil. I read a piece that as published in another newspaper, titled "Silver Lake is our America," which went over very well. We weathered the weather and then marched on down to Pico's Tavern, where we partook of some of DiPaola's Sicilian Pizza, which I might add, was delicious. We found out too late about your passing, Eddie, but I hope this makes up for it.

A tribute to Silver Lake's friend, Edward O'Neil

What a sad time for Belleville when you lose a man who has contributed so much towards his town. Eddie, as his friends called him, was one of the kindest, dearest, giving human beings I knew. A community-oriented person, always wanting to do more and more.

He was a longshoreman for 50 years and retired in 1986. He served as a corporal in the 35th Tank Regiment, 4th Armored Division of the Army during World War II, as well as a member of the Knights of Columbus No. 835, American Legion Post No. 105, and was president of the Historical Society and the Renaissance Committee of Belleville. He founded the Belleville Little League in 1950 and won the Belleville Citizen of the Year Award. Need I say more...

If it wasn't for Ed O'Neil, there wouldn't be a Silver Lake Day. He founded this day as an appreciation of Silver Lake...its history...its people. This year marked its fifth birthday. I'll never forget the quote from Abraham Lincoln that he sent me, which went something like this: "I like a man proud of the place in which he lives; I like to see a man live so that his place will be proud of him." He said that the quote reminded him of me. I still have it hanging in my office and gaze at it each day.

Well, as we all noticed, this year something was distinctly missing from Silver Lake Day. It was you, Eddie O'Neil. So rest in peace, from all your Silver Lake gang.

Remember, we love Silver Lake.

YOUR OPINION

An appreciation of Ed O'Neil

To the editor:

Of the many tributes that were paid to Ed O'Neil in his lifetime, none touched on one of his greatest dreams, which was to see the citizens of Belleville truly appreciate the greatness of their community.

As Town Historian, he delved deep into the history of Belleville, and he recognized its unique place in American history. The son of immigrants, he had a deep love of America, and it was not an exclusionary kind of patriotism. The miracle of America was that it proved the success of freedom for all, and not for just a few.

He saw the ethnic makeup of Belleville change several times over the near-century that he lived here, and he saw that the end result was always the same - new Americans were created out of old strains, from whatever part of the world they came.

A proud Irish Catholic, he labored to preserve the resting places of Dutch and English settlers in the old Dutch Reformed Church yard. He worked to preserve the history of the Essex Regiment, which had stood guard at the Passaic River during the American Revolution. He laid out routes of historic interest in the community, from colonial times to the recent past.

He was particularly interested in the historic fact that it was in Belleville that the first American steam engines were manufactured, that one of the first American steamboats was launched and that the founders of American industry were partners here in the earliest development of steam, making Belleville the birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

He sought no personal glory. He sought only the glory of his community, his county and his state. And more important than that was his goal of instilling pride in our children and all our people that they lived in a place on this earth where the concept of individual worth and freedom was put into practice. In a world where tyranny had been the universal rule, Belleville, with all its faults, showed that democracy works.

If people want to honor the memory of Ed O'Neil, they can do so by carrying to fruition his dream that Belleville would be recognized as Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution. The United States House of Representatives did vote a resolution giving this recognition to Belleville, but it was not sent on to the Senate.

Let it be our New Year's Resolution to see recognition granted in 1997, in Ed's memory.

Howard Klausner

Thanks for helping with BHS reunion

To the editor:

On behalf of the Reunion Committee for the Class of 1946, I would like to express our sincere thanks to Councilman Jerry Digori for contacting Joseph Petrillo, principal of Belleville High School who allowed us to display our banner at the Belleville/Nutley Thanksgiving football game, celebrating our graduation 50 years ago from BHS.

We would also like to thank Charles Cerami, Superintendent of Public Works, who also offered to display our banner.

The reason we asked to have this banner displayed was because we were the first class to have their graduation ceremony at the stadium and our senior football squad was the first to play at the stadium.

Our class reunion was a huge success which was held Oct. 19 at San Carlo's Restaurant, Lyndhurst with a great turnout. Many of our classmates traveled from out of state but a great majority still reside in Belleville and neighboring towns.

Again we thank the above, plus the gentlemen who put up the banner, for helping us to celebrate this wonderful event. We would like to say how proud and honored we are to acknowledge that we are from Belleville ("beautiful village").

We hope that the youth of today can also say the same about our Alma Mater in the future.

Of All Things

By Frank Orechio

A feature of the Nutley Sun, Bloomfield Life and Belleville Times

• STATE Democrat Party leader, Tom Byrne, suggested his party avoid a contentious gubernatorial Primary by having county leaders throughout the state agree upon a consensus candidate.

This proposal was immediately rejected out of hand by state Senator Jim McGreevey of Middlesex who is a candidate and Cherry Hill Mayor Susan B. Levin who may be a candidate. The Essex County Democrat organization is listed as uncommitted. We think this is a mistake. It should be committed - and it should be committed to a person who not only is the leading Democrat in Essex County, but a major player at the state level who has broad appeal. He is Senator Richard Codey. The logical thing for Essex County Democrat Chairman Tom Giblin is to convene a meeting and obtain a unanimous vote for Dick Codey as Essex County's candidate for Governor.

Already there are about five declared or undeclared candidates. So - in the field of six or more, Codey's prominence on the state scene makes him a likely candidate for the party. He is knowledgeable. He knows the issues. He is a shrewd campaigner. He knows the weaknesses and strengths of Democrat positions as well as being well versed with the weaknesses and strengths of incumbent Governor Christie Whitman.

• THE 36th District Senate seat may be challenged both in the Primary Election and General Election as well. Currently, Lyndhurst's Republican Senator John Scott has held the seat for two terms defeating former Democrat Senator Gabe Ambrosio two times.

There is some discontent with Scott within the party, both on this side of the Passaic River and the Bergen-Hudson side.

On the Democrat side, former Senate President Carmen Orechio has been asked by leading Democrats to win back the 36th senatorial seat. Orechio, now Nutley Public Safety Commissioner, doesn't plan to make a decision before 1997.

• A SURPRISE entry in the 1998 Eighth Congressional race may well be Essex County Executive Jim Treffinger. The seat was lost last month to Paterson Mayor Bill Pascrell who defeated one-term incumbent, the popular Bill Martini. The 18,000 vote majority which Pascrell commanded out of his Paterson base overwhelmed Martini.

Jim Treffinger

• THE page one story of Tuesday's Bergen Record featured an attack by the highly popular and esteemed Passaic County Sheriff Eddie Englehardt who minced no words telling Ringwood school board president, Police Sgt. Joseph Walker, what he thought of him. Walker challenged Englehardt in the 1992 Republican Primary and was overwhelmed. Englehardt accused Walker of publicly mocking him behind his back and suggesting the Sheriff was dying of cancer. Three years ago, Englehardt beat a larynx cancer problem and is completely recovered. In the past, Walker has indicated that Englehardt may die in office. Englehardt took this as a personal offense. Anybody that tangles with Englehardt better be a heavy weight in his own right since Sheriff Englehardt takes no "prisoners".

Santa Claus is coming to town

By Stephanie Brunello
BHS reporter

You'd better watch out, you'd better not cry, and you'd better not pout because on Wednesday, Dec. 18, Santa Claus will be at the WBHS studio in Belleville High School.

"Be on T.V. With Santa," a program created and produced by Marilyn McCabe and the WBHS crew, will air from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. The entire community is welcome to come and visit Santa.

McCabe, the high school's mass communications teacher, states,

"Although it will be a difficult task, the crew is working hard to achieve this goal and make the program very successful."

Ernie Campusano, the student who will be dressed as Santa, is very excited to spend time with the children.

He says, "It's going to be great being Santa. I love children, and I can't wait to see the smiles on their faces."

In addition to seeing their children on Channel 34, parents can purchase photographs of their children and Santa.

'Cappy's Corner' returns to cable TV

"Cappy's Corner," America's first-ever gambling cablecast, is back from hiatus and stronger than ever.

The show can be seen on OBC-TV channels 20 and 36 on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 8:30 p.m.

Host Fred "Cappy" Capitani, who has been a guest on 27 different national television programs, said that he intends to cablecast his show on every cable system in New Jersey before the spring of 1997.

"I needed to take a break from performing," Capitani said. "My show has been on the air for almost 20 years and people kept asking me when I was going back on the air."

Capitani said he plans to cast the cable show with local and national celebrities, cutting-edge gambling tips, real-life hints and lots of comedy.

HOROSCOPES

December 23-30

ARIES — March 21/April 20

A family disappointment may hurt, but will come as no surprise. Try to curb your cynical nature if others are involved. Not everyone has such a thick protective outer shield as you. If romance is the source of stress, it may be time to take a look at the big picture. What do you really want?

TAURUS — April 21/May 21

While others may think of you as a rock, you know there's a very soft side that can be easily hurt. It's not so bad to show this part of you from time to time — especially to loved ones. Quiet times towards the end of the week give you a chance to clear your mind. Give meditation a try.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21

If your budget crisis is getting close to the U.S. national debt, it may be time to reassess the situation. Go ahead, and make a new financial plan for 1997. You really don't have to skimp; you just have to be smarter with your spending. A family gathering goes more smoothly than expected.

CANCER — June 22/July 22

Change is on the way, and now's the time to start planning for the new. If there's a chance you could be moving, this would be a good time to start laying out the groundwork. Don't be afraid to share your feelings with your partner. An upcoming trip gives you a lot to look forward to.

LEO — July 23/August 23

A simple misunderstanding with a family member could turn out to be a full-fledged battle if you let your temper take hold early this week. Be patient. Try to talk things out. Explain your side, but listen to the other, too. A creative outlet, like writing or painting, helps you get through.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22

It will be an emotionally draining week. A love relationship in need of change will reach a turning point. Even if it hurts, you will feel the decision was the right one. Spending time with family helps ease pain. Kids are an especially good diversion. You'll realize what's really important this week.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23

Procrastination will work in your favor this week — so don't feel guilty if you want to indulge. A dream early in the week will provide clues into a current problem. Think about it. An upcoming social event will require some extra effort. Be sure to dress your best if you're looking for new romance. A family event offers more than you may have expected.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22

Although you usually thrive on pressure, leaving too much to the last minute could work against you. An organized approach is what you need. Children and younger family members play a big role this week — especially if you're a parent yourself. Patience will be needed on Thursday. SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21 Teamwork will be much more effective than going solo this week. Don't be afraid to delegate responsibility and ask for a helping hand. A lucky break later in the week probably will have you counting your blessings. An event you were dreading turns out to be not so bad. SCORPIO is involved.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20

Don't announce bold plans unless you're sure you definitely will pursue them. You're good at talking the talk, but when it comes to walking the walk, it's a whole other story. Think about it. Be prepared to help out a friend in need later in the week. New romance looks promising.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18

Saying exactly what's on your mind could prove offensive this week — especially to sensitive family members. Do yourself a favor: Think before you speak. A compromise will have to be made with your partner in order to solve an ongoing battle. Give without giving too much.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20

Avoid arguments and conflict early in the week, especially if you are feeling particularly edgy. A creative surge makes you the hit of the party later in the week. Single? You may not be for long. A sexy Scorpio has an eye on you. A package you've been waiting for finally arrives.

BUG SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Coach, 'Boles' and 'Roos'

It seems like they've been on the sidelines at Belleville High School forever. In the case of the student class of B.H.S., it's been forever, because the three of them have been patrolling the sidelines for the Blue and Gold long before the current senior class was born.

As most of you now know, John Senesky tendered his resignation as head football coach at Belleville High School on December 2. With that resignation came the end of the Belleville coaching careers of two of Senesky's top assistants, Joe D'Ambola and Gennaro Russo.

D'Ambola, known to his friends at the school as "Boles", has been associated with the program since 1971 and has served as Senesky's defensive coordinator and top assistant since Senesky became head coach in 1977.

"You won't find a more loyal and dedicated professional," Senesky said recently of D'Ambola. "He has meant so much to these kids. I don't think people really understand the contribution he continues to make to the school system and to our program over the past 25 years."

I've known Joe since I began covering this team back in 1978. I probably remember him most for his somewhat gruff personality, but his always caring and heartfelt attitude to his players and coaches.

In a way, I'm glad that Joe will have his autumns to himself next fall. His wife Patty has lent Joe to us for a quarter century. Now she gets to listen to him every Saturday.

Joe has already said he plans on going to high school and college football games next fall. Now that his two daughters are out of high school, he should be able to do more leisurely things.

I always enjoyed Russo's sense of humor and somewhat dry wit. The three instances which best remind me of him occurred in the 80's.

The first instance was when he was talking about the Kearny High School football team and how it would be a difficult game on Thanksgiving. (This was before the Nutley game was moved to Thanksgiving). "They'll be wearing their red pants for that game, so they should be all fired up," Russo said.

Later in the same conversation, while talking about the assistant coaches who had served at B.H.S. over the past few years, he said "they come and go like gas station attendants."

Russo's best line at the opponent came in 1984, when the Bucs and Passaic Indians were playing at Municipal Stadium. Belleville was on the verge of a major 7-0 upset, and Russo, with seconds left in the game, screamed at the opposing team, "you wanted a war, you got a war", in reference to Passaic's pre game ritual of warming up and chanting "war".

Gennaro started coaching at B.H.S. in the Fall of 1980, the "glory days" if you will. He gave 17 solid years of production to the program. I'll miss not seeing him on the sidelines next fall.

As for Coach Senesky, what else can I say about this man than I haven't expounded upon for the past 20 years or so?

I first met him when I was in the seventh grade at Belleville Junior High School and he was my print shop teacher in 1971. He was then the B.H.S. freshman football coach. John would always take the time to talk to me about football and, generally, just be a friend.

As the years went on, I got to know John and his wife, Carmela pretty well. I watched his kids grow up. When John first started coaching, his sons Danny and Michael were still in grammar school. Both ended up playing for their father on the high school level.

What I will remember most about John, however, is his dry sense of humor and his ability to relate to the kids for 20 years. His deep sense of religion and faith served as an inspiration to his players.

John never got too fired up with a victory, but was too hard on himself when his team lost. He often said he was his own toughest critic.

His players always conducted themselves with class on the field, indicative of the coach. Because of the excellent coaching and teaching, his players might have been out-sized at times, but they knew the proper techniques, and thankfully, avoided serious injury.

I don't know who the next varsity football coach at Belleville High School will be. Whomever it is, he will have some big shoes to fill.

To John, Joe and Gennaro, it was indeed a pleasure to work with you all these years. Thanks for a ton of great memories.

Team opens tomorrow versus Montclair

Mahoney, Addis return for Lady Bucs

By Mike Lamberti

There are many who feel that the 1996-97 basketball season could be a break out one for the Lady Bucs.

One of those who shares in that optimism, albeit cautiously, is sixth year head coach Cheryl Marion.

Marion, a player for the Lady Bucs program from 1982-85, assumed the reigns of head coach before the 1991-92 season after then veteran coach Karen Fuccello moved up to the role of Athletic Director.

For Marion's first five seasons, the program has shown improvement, although the improvement has been slow, and at times, quite frustrating.

Quietly, Marion was gearing for this season, as far back as 1994, when the now seniors were sophomores gaining varsity experience.

1996 is now here, and the team will find out just where it stands tomorrow afternoon, when Montclair comes to town for a 4 p.m. tip off.

"We've shown signs of being a good team," Marion said. "But we're still making those mistakes that can cost us games, especially in this league. Too many turnovers, not aggressive enough in rebounding."

The team has scrimmaged Newark Eastside and Cedar Grove in preparation for what should be a good Montclair team.

"We did well against Eastside, but slept walked through the Cedar Grove scrimmage," Marion said. "It's that inconsistency that concerns me most."

While the coach does have some concerns, she also has reason for optimism. The reason is a talented senior class, with plenty of varsity experience and athleticism.

Leading the way is Dilma Hernandez. 1995-96 was a big season for her. After playing mostly in the utility role her sophomore year, Hernandez worked hard during the summer of '95 and not only earned a starting job, but also became the team leader in scoring and rebounding.

This, despite a bad ankle that should have placed her on the disabled list for some portions of last season.

Instead, she averaged nearly 20 points a game and pulled down eight boards per contest.

She returns for the center positions and will be flanked by seniors Kim Mahoney and Deanna Addis.

Mahoney's versatility could place her in either the two guard position, the small forward and even the big forward slot.

Addis, a three year starter, should be the big forward and could also see time at center.

Marion is working on a few possibilities for her starting lineup, including moving Kolleen Myers into a starting center or forward position.

Juniors Nikki Lopreato and Geanine Gianella could be starting at the point guard position.

Sophomore Melissa Brodo has been impressive in the pre season and freshman Annabelle Rodriguez could see time at forward.

Others who should see significant time in the lineup include senior Joelle DellaVolpe, junior Gennifer Piscatowski and sophomore Tessa Wyche.

DellaVolpe is just about recovered from a dislocated knee which hindered her play during the just concluded soccer season.

Marion is very happy with the addition of Kim Wilson as the J.V. coach.

A standout player in high school and also at Montclair State University, Wilson has provided excellent teaching since her arrival.

"There's a very positive attitude here," Marion said. "Kim has fit in very well. This is a great bunch of kids to work with."

NOTES: Following tomorrow's opener, Lady Bucs will be off until the Christmas Tournament, which commences on December 26 at Harrison High School. Belleville plays North Bergen in first round.

Team begins league play on January 7, when it travels to Paramus.

One for the ages

Roll begins 11th season as Buc varsity coach

By Mike Lamberti

With the resignation of John Senesky as Buccaneer football coach, Don Roll has moved up the ranks as one of the senior coaches at Belleville High School.

Roll, the boys head basketball coach, enters his 11th season in that capacity. Including his years as the J.V. coach, this will be his 14th year in the program. Let's not forget that he was a player for B.H.S. from 1975-78.

Roll has had his ups and downs as head coach. He has guided the program to two of the best seasons in recent memory (1988 and '92) and also endured a winless campaign in the '94-95 season.

This year, he has a strong senior class and will be up against a very tough schedule in the NNJIL Pacific Division.

"We should be half way decent," Roll said. "The problem in the scrimmages this year is the missed put backs, turnovers and inconsistency. We're not where we want to be and the opening game is quickly approaching."

That opener is tomorrow evening, at Ridgewood, beginning at 7:30 p.m. It's a tough assignment for the Bucs, and a little ironic for Roll, considering ten years ago, he began his head coaching career by playing Ridgewood.

There is little time to dwell on the Ridgewood game. The Bucs will be in action next Monday, playing at Morris Catholic in a 4 p.m. tip off. The team then competes in the Ft. Lee Christmas Tournament, then plays at St. Joe's on January 3.

"It's a tough schedule to start," Roll said. "We don't play our first home until January 7 (against Paramus). Our first five games are on the road and eight of our first ten are road games. We've got to get off to a good start."

Roll will rely on his tri captains, Tom Dyer, Ernie Sicari and Lou Pallante to lead the way. Unfortunately, Pallante has been hampered by mononucleosis and could miss some, or possibly, all of the season.

Damon Battle should be the point guard, with Sicari expected to start at the two guard.

Dyer should be the center, with junior transfer Renaldo Quinn the small forward and Dan Dribnak, a sophomore, the power forward.

Seniors Dave Vargas, Brian McIntosh, Raheem Jones and Joe Means are vying for playing time.

Junior Jack Bermeo is hoping for varsity time, as are sophomores Rich Otero and Jeff Larkins.

The Bucs have been very busy in the pre season, scrimmaging five teams prior to tomorrow's opener.

"We've played well at times in the pre season," Roll said. "We've had some good teams, like Weehawkin, Lincoln, J.P. Stevens. But with our league schedule, and playing teams like Teaneck, Hackensack and Don Bosco, we need to play a strong pre season schedule."

Santa's Mailboxes gearing for final rush

"Kindergym"

The Belleville Department of Recreation and Cultural Affairs is pleased to announce the start of its all-new "Kindergym" program for boys and girls in grades K-2. Beginning January 8, 1997, Kindergym will be held on Wednesday nights, 6:00-8:00 p.m., through March at School #4.

This program will feature organized games and activities for Belleville resident children in this age group, under the leadership of one or more college-age directors. All participants must currently be in grades K-2 only.

No pre-registration or fee is required. Children who are interested in taking part in this program may sign up with the activity leader at the School #4 gym on Wednesdays in January (parental permission is required). For further information, call the Recreation office at 450-3422.

Men's Open Basketball

The Belleville Recreation Department will offer a Men's Open Basketball program on Saturday afternoons at the Middle School, 1:00-4:00 p.m. Girls' Gym, beginning December 7, 1996.

Belleville resident men, over 18, can participate by showing the gym supervisor a Recreation Dept. Photo I.D. Card. Cards may be obtained from the Recreation office during regular weekday hours. Non-residents will not be allowed in the gym. Proof of residency and a $2.00 fee are required.

The Rec Office will also be open on Wednesday night, November 20, 6:00-8:00 p.m., for I.D. Cards.

Santa's Mailboxes-1996

Belleville boys and girls are encouraged to get out their pens, pencils, crayons and start writing their lists to Santa Claus now.

Special mailboxes are set up from November 25 until December 20 to accommodate the expected heavy mail. One is at Town Hall on Washington Avenue and the other is in front of the Silver Lake Fire House on Franklin Street.

Children can't miss the mailboxes. They're bright red and clearly marked Santa's Mail so no one has an excuse for not writing early.

By very special arrangements made between Mr. Claus and the Dept. of Recreation & Cultural Affairs, all letter writers are guaranteed an answer. A self-addressed, stamped envelope must be included with your letter to Santa so that he can write you back!

If children are too young to write, they are urged to draw a picture and Santa will get the message. Be sure to have someone print the child's name and address on your return envelope so that Santa can answer the letters.

Cancer is one of the leading causes of death in the United States. Recently, the American Cancer Society (ACS) issued its 1996 Dietary Guidelines.

These guidelines are formulated from recent research and are used to reduce the average Americans risk of developing cancer. However, many media sources over-exaggerated the guidelines making them out to be highly restrictive.

For example, some media personalities have stated that the ACS forbids consuming red meat and alcohol. This is not true.

The ACS has noted the link between a high red meat consumption and the increased chances of developing prostate cancer, but this is due to saturated fat content and not red meat per se.

The ACS does note that excessive alcohol consumption can be detrimental; however, moderate alcohol consumption can reduce risk of some cancer.

Here are the 1996 American Cancer Society Dietary Guidelines:

1. Choose most of your foods from plant sources.

This means increasing fruits, vegetables and breads, cereals, and grains.

2. Limit intake of high-fat foods, particularly animal sources.

This entails limiting high fat meats such as prime cuts of meat, luncheon meats, organ meats, and processed meats such as hot dogs.

3. Be physically active; achieve or maintain a healthy weight.

This can be achieved by being moderately active for 30 minute per day such as by taking a brisk walk.

4. Limit alcoholic beverages to 2 drinks per day for men and 1 drink per day for women.

These guidelines can help you reduce your risk of cancer.

Such guidelines should not be regarded as confining rules but as certain points in one's lifestyle that if modified can reduce cancer risk and increase one's enjoyment of life.

Reduce your risk! Try making some of these changes in your daily diet.

Astigmatism and contact lenses

This week's article is about contact lens wear if you have astigmatism and what options are available.

Last time, I wrote about the four modalities of soft lenses, so now it's appropriate to fit that into different visual requirements.

Astigmatism is when your visual correction is not spherical. Either due to the shape of the front surface or some internal reason, the visual correction is not round but more elongated. In other words, there is a cylinder or tonic component to your eyes.

Depending on the amount of astigmatism, there are three choices to be made when using contacts. The simplest and most commonly done is to use a standard spherical lens with the thought that the lens will give good enough vision to wear. This can be done with small amounts of astigmatism to a point and some lenses will by nature give better vision than others. The doctor can select one brand over another, based on optical quality.

Secondly, there are astigmatic or tonic soft lenses. These have the correction in the lens rather than relying on the optics of the lens. These become more specialized because they require more effort to fit, but the vision and contrast a patient gets usually are much better. There's more trial and error with these lenses because not all are equal and each individual is unique.

Lastly, the best vision will come from using a rigid gas permeable or hard lens. These will take longer to adjust to, but once done, will hands down give clearer, sharper vision. They correct better because the lenses are a hard plastic rather than a gel like soft lenses.

Depending on a patient's visual requirements or lifestyle, we might choose one type over another. It's important to consult your doctor as to what's best for you.

Next time, bifocal contacts will be the topic. In coming installments, other areas of eyecare will be explored. Please call or write with any feedback.

American Cancer Society offers variety of holiday programs

A variety of fundraising programs to benefit the American Cancer Society are in place this holiday season.

Holiday greeting cards, 1997 Entertainment Books, Love Lights A Tree and the Holiday Letters program are all being offered through the Essex Unit of the American Cancer Society.

A selection of holiday greeting cards, each of which carries the message, "This card represents a donation to the American Cancer Society," are still available.

The "Love Lights A Tree" program is an annual holiday program for the society. For a donation, a light or decoration is placed on a Christmas tree or a tag is attached to a light on the menorah, both of which are on display at the American Cancer Society office at 767 Northfield Ave., West Orange.

Donors may designate contributions "in honor of" or "in memory of" someone. All donors, honorees and families of persons memorialized receive acknowledgement cards from the society.

Donations for the "Love Lights A Tree" program range from $10 through $1,000.

The Holiday Letters program recognizes a donation made to the society in lieu of gifts during the holiday season. For a per-letter donation, a personalized letter or card will be mailed out to the donor's mailing list. A minimum of 25 letters is requested.

The 1997 Entertainment Book is also available through the American Cancer Society office. The Essex and Morris County books are in stock.

Are You Experiencing Any Of These Symptoms?

Some common vision conditions

Nearsightedness (Myopia). You see close objects more clearly than those at a distance.

Farsightedness (Hyperopia). You see far objects more clearly than close ones.

Astigmatism. You see blurry or distorted objects at all distances, because the front part of your eye (cornea) is slightly irregular in shape.

Presbyopia. A natural part of aging begins to blur your reading and near vision by about age 40-45 and gradually worsens.

Glaucoma. A build-up of excess fluid in your eye, causing internal pressure and damage to the optic nerve. Can result in severe vision loss and even blindness.

Cataracts. A clouding of the clear lens of your eye that distorts entering light, causing blurred or hazy vision. Can lead to blindness if not diagnosed and treated.

If so, you may need vision help.

MEDICAL RESEARCH

Age spots? New research project may help

Some news for people bothered by "age" or "liver spots".

People who work outdoors or sunbathe without sun protection can develop various skin problems. The sun can cause large freckles called "age spots" or "liver spots". These flat, brown spots are medically referred to as "lentigines". They have nothing to do with the liver, they are caused by the sun and usually appear on the face, arms and hands. Most commercial "fade" creams will not make lentigines disappear.

Dr. Manuel R. Morman of Rutherford is conducting a research study on a medication being developed to lighten these areas of sun damage.

Qualified participants receive the following at no charge: Physical exam and laboratory work; Study product; A stipend of $20 per visit for travel related expenses.

If you are at least 30 years of age (females must not be of child bearing potential) do not have a history of skin cancer and would like more information, please call the study coordinator at 460-7362

Trip to Europe more affordable

Europe, the number one destination on the travel "wish list" of millions of Americans, recently has become more affordable. More favorable foreign exchange rates are only part of the story, says the AAA New Jersey Automobile Club.

Government tourist offices, airlines, hotels and tour operators have become aware of the need to give travelers more value for their money. Package tours to Europe offer great value for the money because tour companies enjoy the purchasing power of volume buying. As a result, a day of touring — including sightseeing, the services of a tour director, motorcoach, driver, hotel, breakfast, and some dinners — usually costs the traveler less than the hotel room booked independently.

Tours often can be booked as air-inclusive packages that take advantage of unrestricted airfares available year-round on scheduled transatlantic flights. Transfers between European airports and the hotels where tours begin and end often are included in tour prices. Some tour operators, as well as some hotel groups, guarantee their prices in U.S. dollars.

Whether you take a tour or travel on your own, the savvy traveler can cut trip costs. Here are some tips to cut your European travel costs:

- Contact government tourist offices for free travel literature and maps.

- Avoid traveling during peak summer season; airline and tour prices usually are lowest in early spring, late fall and winter. Low season for hotels is November through March.

- Banks give better foreign exchange rates than hotels or shops, but the cost of commissions varies.

- European restaurants in all price ranges post menus outside. Naturally, renowned restaurants and cafes in prime tourist locations cost more than neighborhood spots frequented primarily by locals. Prix-fixe meals are cheaper than several courses ordered from an a la carte menu. For light lunches, try local specialties at cafes, tea rooms, pubs, stands, fast food and take-out spots instead of restaurants.

- An old saying urges, "When in Rome, do as the Romans do." By not insisting on imported food and drink and other amenities you enjoy at home, you'll save money. Following local customs also will help you learn more about the culture of the countries you visit.

GENERIC EXPLANATION

Once a drug company patents a new medication that it has developed, it has the right to sell it exclusively for 17 years. The patent is usually attained before the company gains FDA approval to sell the drug; therefore, if it takes 5 years to win approval, there are only 12 years before the patent runs out. After that, other manufacturers can produce copies of the drug. To be regarded as interchangeable with the original, these generics must have active ingredients that identically match those of the original. They must also be bio-equivalent (the active ingredients must be absorbed by the body at the same rate as the original, and with the same effects). Because a generic may have different inert ingredients, it is possible (but rare) that someone may suffer a minor side effect.

Quality generic medications are available from us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1956, 759-1968). If you have any questions concerning these drugs, just ask. Don't forget to see us for holiday greeting cards, gifts, cosmetics, toiletries, camera, and Times watches. Hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm. Our best wishes for a bright and happy holiday season.

HINT: It is increasingly common for drug companies to manufacture both the brand name drug and its generic equivalent.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT Oh, Holy Spirit, thou who are all knowing, who brightens every path that I may reach my ideal, thou who givest me this divine gift of forgiving and forgetting wrongs done unto me and who in every instance of my life art with me, I'd like in this short dialogue to affirm my gratitude for all your blessings and affirm once again that I never want to part from thee though the illusion of material things abound. My desire is to be with thee and all my loved ones in perpetual grace. Thank you for your mercy on me and mine. (Persons should pray 3 consecutive days without revealing petition. Within 3 days grace will be attained regardless of how difficult the petition may be). Publish this prayer once grace is attained. Grateful for grace attained.

Integrity House hosts holiday gospel concert

Integrity House and its gospel choir, the "Souls of Integrity," will sponsor a holiday gospel concert titled, "Make a Joyful Noise," on Saturday, Dec. 21 at 7:30 p.m. at Symphony Hall in Newark.

The event will feature six choirs and a dance ensemble.

The doors will open at 6:30 p.m. and admission is free.

The "Souls of Integrity" was formed five years ago by members of Integrity House, a program which has been providing substance-abuse treatment and social services in Newark and Secaucus since 1968.

The choir was born out of the pain and sufferings of drug and alcohol abuse. Today, there are 40 members of Integrity's award-winning choir who sing because they love to sing and because their counselors have seen what a positive effect their singing has, both on the members and on their community.

Bobby Bryant, founder and managing director of the "Souls of Integrity," said that the choir members are looking forward to this holiday gospel concert, which they hope will become an annual event.

"We believe this is a way for us to give something back to this community which has always been so supportive of Integrity," he said.

Bryant has been a member of the Integrity community since 1989. He came to Integrity because of his addiction to cocaine, heroin and other substances not generally accepted in polite society. He said he worked his program "religiously" and has been sober now for seven years.

As a kid, Bryant sang and performed in school plays and concerts. Then he started hanging out with a tougher crowd and singing and performing were not so important to him. But he never forgot the joy he felt when he lifted his voice in song.

When sobriety returned, the dreams Bryant had of becoming a musical producer came alive once more. He and fellow members of Integrity formed the gospel choir,

"Souls of Integrity," five years ago and he is now the managing director of the group, which has won numerous awards throughout the metropolitan area.

Other voices soon joined Bryant and his co-founders. Today there are 40 members of Integrity's award winning gospel choir.

David Kerr of Glen Ridge is the founder and director of Integrity House.

Santa holds Whiskey on his recent visit to Animal Instinct.

At Animal Instinct

Pets get their turn on Santa's lap

Good things come to those who believe . . . and at Animal Instinct, a Bloomfield pet supply store, that is especially true for your favorite four-legged friend!

Santa Claus recently made his annual appearance at this "little super store" to sit for photos and chat with a most unlikely bunch. Dogs, cats, rabbits, guinea pigs and even a fish or two lined up for their chance to chat with Santa.

Do their wishes come true? "Well, in a certain respect, they do," commented co-owner Anthony Ellenbogen. "Donations from our annual photo event go to help other animals in need."

This year, in just two photo sessions, Animal Instinct collected more than $400 in donations which will go to the Bloomfield/Glen Ridge Animal League. The league, headed by 91-year-old Marion Brown, has been assisting animals throughout the area for almost 30 years.

Since opening Animal Instinct at 21 Lackawanna Plaza, Bloomfield, three years ago, Kristina Mickelson and Ellenbogen have catered to pets and their owners . . . and the Christmas season is no exception.

"Photos of pets with Santa is our most popular event," said Mickelson. "Our customers talk about it all year long. It is really what the season is all about."

Bell Atlantic Nynex Mobile offers cellular phone service for as low as $19.99 per month for an annual contract. Bell is among the leaders in cellular, offering coverage from Maine to the Carolinas with no roaming fees.

Car Care Centers always offers a free cellular phone, free accessories, free oil change, and free car wash with activations and is there for you when you need them.

Car Care Centers is owned by Richie Black (longtime owner of Central Auto Body) and Stu Ritter who has been in business for 11 years at Newark Car Care. The Newark location at 313 Market St., also offers quick oil changes, a car wash and a top quality auto shop. The Caldwell location at 523 Bloomfield Ave., is also fully equipped with an auto shop, quick lube and of course, tires.

Car Care Centers' new promotion is nothing to pass by. They offer a free "authenticated" Motorola Teletac 250 which means you have a pin #, but it's built in so you don't have to dial it. Also included in the package is a free car wash and membership in the Goodyear Tire Discount Club, good at both locations.

Also, for existing customers, you'll be happy to hear that if you qualify and are tired of dialing pin #s and access codes, you can trade your old phone in and Car Care Centers of Newark and Caldwell will give you a new Motorola Teletac 250 for free. This phone will dial your pin # automatically for you.

To qualify, you must be a Bell Atlantic Nynex Mobile customer for at least 11 months, or if you're with another company, you must switch to Bell Atlantic Nynex Mobile and sign a new one-year contract.

For more information, stop by one of our convenient locations or call 622-8473 or 226-2273.

Visit the Bikery's new location in Caldwell

Ray Smith, owner of The Bikery in Montclair, has opened a new store in Caldwell at 340 Bloomfield Ave. This too will be called The Bikery.

By opening this second store, The Bikery has become the largest dealership in Essex County. In the Caldwells and Montclair, The Bikery is the area's only authorized Trek and Gary Fisher dealer. In addition to these two brands, the following lines are also sold at both locations: Klein, Bontrager, Merlin, Kestrel, Pinarello and Terry. Merlin and Kestrel are exclusive to The Bikery in Essex county.

The Bikery was begun in 1973 on Bloomfield Avenue in Montclair. The first location was in what was previously The Montclair Bakery. By simply switching the "a" for an "i," this first location required little effort in the way of signage. The store then moved to 127 Valley Road and the name was shortened to The Bikery. Today, the bicycle industry is vastly more sophisticated that it was 20 years ago and requires retailers to be far more knowledgeable about available products, bike and component design and to satisfy a greater diversity of customer needs.

The Bikery is a state-of-the-art, full-service bicycle shop, offering all aspects of repair work and wheelbuilding; and carrying a wide selection of clothing, shoes, helmets, parts and accessories. The staff at both stores is experienced and everyone employed by The Bikery is an avid cyclist, some having extensive racing experience, both road racing and mountain bike racing.

The Bikery in Caldwell is larger than the Montclair store, and is an effort on the part of Ray and his staff to create a place where the shopping environment is relaxed and not what you would normally expect from a bike shop. There is free coffee, a foosball table where you can play for a quarter a game, a diner booth and a sofa where you can take the weight off your feet. The area where these features are arranged includes all the merchandise you would expect in a bike store and more, like boomerangs which have in common with bikes one thing - fun.

The Bikery in Caldwell will be open by the time you read this and will have plenty of gift ideas for the holidays for all levels of cyclists, from children to casual riding adults to the cyclist seeking professional quality products and services.

The Bikery in Caldwell is located at 340 Bloomfield Ave., directly across from Small Avenue. The phone number is 364-7500.

ESSEX COUNTY'S LARGEST BICYCLE STORE,

WHERE BICYCLES ARE MADE FRESH DAILY!

The Bikery, now with two locations, is the biggest bike dealer in Essex County featuring Trek, Gary Fischer, Klein, Bontrager, Merlin, Kestrel, Pinarello, Terry and more. We carry helmets, shoes and accessories from Bell, Giro, Nike, Camac, Diadoro, Fox, Jandd, Blackburn and Pearl Izumi, to name a few. Our mechanical staff can fix any bike, build any wheel and keep you riding happily on a fine-tuned machine. Visit our newest location in Caldwell, the only bike shop with Foosball. It's right here where you smell the coffee brewing, near the Oakley display. Join us this holiday season in support of Pedals for Progress at our Peace on Earth Holiday Sale.
