Township mourns the loss of principal

By Natalie Waldron

Public School 8 principal Arthur Pico, 72, died on New Year's Eve at Pascack Valley Hospital, Westwood, of a heart attack.

Services were offered on Jan. 3 at Zarro Funeral Home, Bloomfield. Memorial services were held on Jan. 4 at St. Anthony's Church in Belleville.

Pico worked in the district for more than 35 years and he was a principal at Public School 8 for 16 years.

"We lost a fine person and administrator, when we lost Arthur Pico," said Superintendent of Schools, Michael A. Lally.

In Pico's early principal school years, he served as a dual principal for Public School 2 and 10.

Since 1980, Pico was named the principal for Public School 8, and at one time he served as an assistant superintendent of schools. He also served as a member of the 400 tons of salt purchased for this winter

By Natalie Waldron

After last year's blizzard the township of Belleville is ready for 'Old Man Winter'.

"We are ready for the snow: all the equipment is repaired and ready to go," said Charlie Cerami, director of the department of public works.

So far the township has purchased 400 tons of salt which Cerami said will be enough for three normal storms. He estimated the cost of the salt at $12,400 and added that it costs the township approximately $31 a ton for salt.

"We still have the availability of another 1,500 tons of salt if we require it," he said.

Cerami said, "last year's winter cost the township in the vicinity of approximately $120,000 for materials and labor excluding the purchase of two dump trucks."

"We used approximately 1,700 tons of salt for the entire winter which is estimated to cost about $52,700," he added.

Last year in January, the township purchased two GMC dump trucks, but they were not received until April, said Cerami, adding that the trucks are used for leaf removal and snow plowing.

Currently, the town has 21 plows and three bucket loaders and four salters, said Cerami.

Cerami described last year's blizzard: "It was a very long and a hard storm to fight, but I was happy with the outcome of it. Most of my men were out there for 50 hours. It would have been difficult to have asked anymore from

Moving the economy into the future: Belleville 2,000

Council sets a date to discuss financial goals

By Natalie Waldron

Councilman Arnaldo Carrera presented a preliminary draft setting up the framework of some major areas of discussion regarding the future of the township's plans for Belleville 2,000: An Architecture for Change at the Town Council's Jan. 6 work session.

After Carrera's presentation, the Township Council agreed to set up a meeting on Saturday Jan. 18 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the training room on the third floor of Town Hall which will be open to the public for discussion of Belleville's economic development.

"The whole idea is to have a comprehensive business plan for the next four years," Carrera said. "We need to start meeting regularly to solidify a document to identify what we should and should not do," he added.

Carrera said the purpose of his presentation is three-fold: the development of a strategy to achieve common goals, identify short, middle and long term goals and set forth objectives that will measure achievement.

The three areas that he discussed were government services, revenue taxation, education, planning and development, and public relations.

On the subject of planning and development he presented an idea on the behalf of Councilman Mario Drozd, who was in Washington D.C. for the inauguration of Councilman Bill Pascrell, suggesting that the township establish a

Council discusses increasing salaries

By Natalie Waldron

Increasing the salary of Township Council's salaries was discussed at Monday night's Township Council work session.

Currently, a Councilman in Belleville is paid the salary of $3,500, the mayor receives a salary of 4,000 and the deputy mayor gets a salary of $3,750, said Mary Lou Hood, township clerk.

Councilman Arnaldo Carrera said that he often is taking out money from his own pocket in his position and Councilman Bill Escott agreed.

Carrera said an increase in salary would allow him to break even.

Councilman Bill Escott suggested that the salaries be changed to the following: the mayor at $9,000, the deputy mayor at $8,000, and the council at 7,000.

"Ethically, as an elected official it is not the right thing to do to vote for a salary increase," said Mayor Victor Canning.

"They raise a lot of valid points because the functions can get very costly and other government functions that you partake in can be very expensive," Canning added.

Canning said he spent close to $12,000 last year just attending dif-

County road project brings concern to officials

By Natalie Waldron

Belleville officials are requesting that the county take another look at their proposed plans on the widening of the northeast corner of Jerusalem and Franklin streets.

Mayor Victor Canning said by widening the intersection they are taking away sidewalk space that pedestrians have to use "creating a hazard for pedestrians because the flow of traffic is close to the walking space of a pedestrian."

The Council sent a copy of a resolution to the County Engineer John Vitale. The resolution read, "It appears that the proposal calls for the northeast corner of the intersection to be widened and the sidewalk narrowed to such a degree that it would cause a safety hazard to pedestrians and both store patrons and schoolchildren may be placed in a potentially dangerous situation."

Dennis Sedaille, the assistant county engineer said that Vitale is "reviewing the township's concern."

Council also questioned when the township agreed to the plans.

Sedaille said, "he did not have the exact date of the endorsement from the township." He added that his department is trying to get the information from the Department of Transportation.

A 21-year-old Belleville man faces a charge of possession of a controlled dangerous substance for an incident on Jan. 2 near Washington Avenue and Howard Place, Belleville Police report.

Officers Cerreto and Piserchia observed two men walking at the above mentioned location, and reported that they appeared to be with fumbling with something they were handing, police report.

Police said that when they approached the two men that Joseph Rosynsky, 21, of Belleville threw to the ground something that appeared to be a marijuana cigarette.

The other man Richard Sobanko, 25 of Kearny was found to have outstanding warrants totaling $870 for contempt of court. He was turned over to Newark, police said.

A 39-year-old Newark man faces a charge of possession of a controlled dangerous substance for an incident on Jan. 2 on Main and Mill streets.

Officer Corbo observed a motorist and bicyclist arguing loudly. He reported that after the vehicle left the scene the cyclist, Barry Peele, threw a white wax fold containing a white powdery substance believed to be heroine marked "Nasty Life" with a skull and crossbones.

A 30-year-old Belleville man faces a charge of possession of a controlled dangerous substance for an incident on Jan. 2 at Belleville Park on Belleville Avenue, Belleville Police report.

Detectives Giuliano and Capece observed an unauthorized vehicle drive into Belleville Park on the pedestrian walkway.

They then followed Anthony Capaccio who entered the maintenance facility and was found to be sitting at a table with a straw and two wax folds containing what was believed to be heroine, police said.

Botanical gardens society returns contributions

By Natalie Waldron

After two years of waiting, President of the Belleville Botanical Garden Society Maria Messina decided to give back the $4,000 in fund raising for the Belleville Botanical Gardens.

She said the deciding factor was the Township Council's decision to have the site for the gardens at the intersection of Mill and Harrison streets appraised for sale.

A letter sent to all donors dated Dec. 7 by Messina said, "The Belleville Township has taken a different approach regarding the use of the property known as the Belleville Botanical Garden at the corner of Mill and Harrison streets. They would like to sell off that parcel to the public. While we are disheartened with the decision, we are returning your donation to you."

The letter explained that any left over funds will be donated to charity.

"As far as I am concerned it is definitely canceled. I am not going to hold on to people's money while the Council tries to make a decision," Messina said.

She added that the township also received a $2,500 CDBG grant for the gardens if they were placed at that site.

"This would have been a scientific treasure for our children... We had a world wind of community support and it is just a crying shame," Messina said.

meet Robert's Rules of Order.

Currently, the township types a close to verbatim record of what occurs at meetings.

Carrera said changing the way the minutes are recorded could save time and money.

There was also discussion on storing the tapes of the meetings for one year and keeping controversial meeting tapes for a longer time span.

them."

He asks that when the snow does arrive that residents cooperate with the department by removing their cars from the streets.

"We are out there when it starts and a few hours after it starts, and the fewer cars there are on the street the better it is for us," Cerami added.

Cerami admits that he is not looking forward to the snow, but he said that when it does hit that "his department is ready."

Sedaille said before the project was bidden upon the intersections were drawn and sent to Belleville municipalities for review and comment in May 1992 and feedback was given by the town in November of 1992 and April of 1993.

This money for the project is coming from a N.J. Department of Transportation grant for the North and East Topics Intersection Improvement Program, Sedaille said.

As part of the grant, in Belleville the county will install one new traffic signal and three modernization sites, Sedaille said.

The three modernization sites will be located at the intersections of Franklin Avenue and Joralemon Street, Main Street and Joralemon Street, Union Avenue and Joralemon Street along with a new traffic signal which will be installed at Hoover Avenue and Joralemon Street.

"Currently it is stop sign controlled and it meets the warrants for a traffic signal," Sedaille said.

He said the sites were originally selected by the municipalities, the county and the state.

"We are trying to improve safety for vehicles and pedestrians," Sedaille said.

At each of the sites the existing signal equipment will be replaced with new signal equipment which will meet current design standards, pedestrian signals will be added, and handicap pedestrian ramps will be installed all three intersections, he said.

The grant provides for the improvement of 18 intersections in Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair and Nutley. The cost of

Girl Scouts develop skills through annual cookie sale

Local Girl Scouts, members of the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County, will be developing and practicing marketing skills during their annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale, which will run from Saturday, Jan. 11 through Thursday, March 26, the council announced.

According to Jan Lilien, executive director of the council, the cookie sale presents an excellent opportunity for growth and learning.

"The cookie sale allows girls to develop self-confidence while teaching practical skills such as goal-setting, teamwork, the art of presentation and money management," Lilien said. "These are skills which are extremely valuable to girls now as well as later in life."

Lilien added that participation in the cookie sale is voluntary, but those who do take part in the program can increase their skills in dealing with a diverse public, keeping financial records, and following through on commitments.

In addition, the cookie sale provides benefits to Girl Scouts as a whole. According to Lilien, last year's sale helped to underwrite the cost of membership, handbooks, troop activities and day and resident camp fees for girls who exhibited financial need; training for volunteers and older girl scouts; and development of resource materials for troops and volunteers. The sale also helped to fund council programs to keep costs per girl affordable and provided funds for the maintenance and repair of properties, rented facilities and equipment.

Eight varieties of cookies will be offered during the 1997 sale, including the new LeChip, Chalet Cremes, Thin Mints, Samoas, Trefoils, Tagalongs, Do-si-dos, and Snaps. The cost per box is $3.

The Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County serves more than 11,000 girls and adults in Essex and Hudson counties, as well as Summit and New Providence in Union County.

UNICO presents scholarship plaques

Assembly Majority Leader Paul DiGaetano and Assemblyman John V. Kelly, both R-36, presented the UNICO Brian Piccolo and the Belleville UNICO/Nicholas Martini memorial Scholarship Plaques to Belleville Principal Joseph Petrillo.

Dr. Emanuele Alfano, president of Chapter of Unico National, and past president Gene Antonio said they were extremely honored to have the plaques presented to Belleville High School on behalf of the Chapter.

The Chapter will celebrate its Second Annual Awards Breakfast, April 1997. Those Belleville students of Italian decent interested in receiving the Belleville UNICO Nicholas Martini Memorial Scholarship should contact their school counselor for the necessary application and information.

The Brian Piccolo awardees will be selected by the athletic department and their coaches. This award is presented to an Italian-American student athlete who best exemplifies the spirit, ideals and accomplishments of the late Chicago Bears halfback Brian Piccolo.

This year's Awards Breakfast will be chaired by Gene Antonio. Those individuals interested in attending this event should contact Gene Antonio at 759-8111.

Belleville Senior News

By Joseph Restaino

A Prayer for Patience
 God, teach me to be patient —
 Teach me to go slow —
 Teach me how to "wait on You"
 When my way I do not know ...
 Teach me sweet forbearance
 When things do not go right
 So I remain unruffled
 When others grow up tight ...
 Teach me how to quiet
 My racing, rising heart
 So I may hear the answer
 You are trying to impart ...
 Teach me to let go, dear God,
 And pray undisturbed until
 My heart is filled with inner peace
 And I learn to know Your will.

Anthony Aranecki is out of the hospital and recuperating at home. Fred Behan is still recuperating at home. Due to the inclement weather, there are many seniors out ill with all types of ailments. Let's hope the weather takes a turn for the better so that the seniors can get out and join in the club activities.

Frank Candolara is back after recuperating from a couple of broken fingers. Not only that, but he and his wife are celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary. Hey, Frank, where has the time gone? I know because in August of 1996, my wife Mary and I celebrated our 55th anniversary and I just can't believe it's that long that we have been married. Life goes on.

I understand that Sylvia Paganelli is celebrating her birthday. How old are you now? Also happy birthday to Alice Montano, Vinnie Carlo, Vinnie Palo, Anthony Constantino and the sing-a-long specialist Frank Senatore.

I must not forget the anniversary of our Fire Chief George Sbarra and his wife, the Edmond Barbiers and Nick and Rose Mauncelle. I also express my best wishes to all the other seniors whose names I didn't get.

Again, I will stipulate that if you have any news of family activities, I will be happy to print it but you must present it to me with the names and dates of the events.

You seniors using the Senior Center have to thank Mary and Lou Melchione, Joe Cortese and Jim and Maria Troiano for the beautiful way the center was decorated. The center looked beautiful thanks to them. So when you see them, thank them. From experience, I know that a pat on the back makes you feel like a million bucks.

While on this subject, I want to take time out to thank a fellow club member. A couple of weeks ago when it was raining, I attended the club meeting and with the new rule that if you use your windshield wipers, you must use your lights, I forgot my lights and when I came out, my battery was dead. But to the rescue came Frank Carnevale. He, with the use of my cable, jump-started my car and we went on our merry way. Thanks a lot, Frank!

My condolences to Lea Swanhart who lost her sister after a long illness and to the Chiarelli family on the loss of their mother and grandmother, Mary Chiarelli. Mary was a member of the Tuesday and Friday Senior Citizen Clubs. She was also a neighbor and very dear friend of my family and she will be truly missed by all.

We now have some pleasant news. One of the members of both clubs, Gertrude Trimarco, informs that her niece, Dr. Adele Franke of Atlanta, Georgia, who is affiliated with the local Health Disease Control, was the recipient of the medal of honor. She was the only woman to have received this award for health and fitness. It was presented to her by the Surgeon General. She is the daughter of Selaian Seymour Franke of Livingston and her husband is Dr. Steve Jones.

Happy birthday to Anthony Aranecki.

A new scam to watch out for!! Persons get a message on their phone machine asking them to call a phone number with an 809 area code. When they call, they get a long recorded message and they wind up with a huge phone bill because 809 is the area code for many Caribbean countries. The crooks get kickbacks from the foreign phone calls. So don't fall for this scam!

Tid bit:

Life is what we are alive to. It is not length but breadth. Be alive to goodness, kindness, purity, love, history, music, flowers, stars, God and eternal hope. M. Babcock.

Beautiful Belleville. Keep it that way!

DiVincenzo elected president of the Freeholder Board

By James Zoccoli

Joseph DiVincenzo was unanimously elected president of the Essex County Freeholder Board for a third consecutive term last week, and immediately launched a verbal blast at Trenton for burdening the county with costly, state-mandated programs.

"Mandated costs are spread unequally across the state and Essex County is on the losing end," DiVincenzo said. "These costs are busting our budget."

The freeholder president — speaking at the Jan. 1 reorganization meeting, held at the Mary Burch Theater in Newark — said Essex residents pay more than any other county for services mandated by the state.

"Overall, in 1996, 60 percent of the county's budget was mandated by the state and federal governments; the majority being controlled by the state," DiVincenzo said. "They decide how these programs should be administered and take away our ability to control costs ... The problem is made even worse by the fact that the powers to implement a solution to this problem do not lie within the borders of this county, the powers of this board, or the powers of the county executive."

DiVincenzo, a Nutley resident, is asking the public to speak out on the issue and support his effort to make state leaders realize that Essex County has not been treated fairly.

DiVincenzo is the first Nutley resident to serve as freeholder president. He ran for re-election this year on a platform of seeking to offer county residents good government at a reduced cost.

Shortly after joining the board six years ago, the Democrat found himself facing a county government that was inefficiently run and deeply in debt.

DiVincenzo said he took immediate actions to remedy the situation, actions that are now widely credited for saving tax dollars.

He established a harmonious working relationship with Essex County Executive Jim Treffinger, a Republican. Next, DiVincenzo cut his own salary by 10 percent and influenced two fellow freeholders to take a 5 percent pay cut.

DiVincenzo reduced the cost of his aides by 50 percent, $40,000 to

Joseph DiVincenzo

$20,000. Aides to other freeholders were cut 33 percent — the number of aides was cut from 105 to 29.

He eliminated freeholder discretionary grants of $650,000, including the elimination of $125,000 grant to the North Ward Center, for which he serves as an officer.

DiVincenzo also helped reduce the freeholder budget by 69 percent; expenses were cut by 78 percent.

He reduced freeholder clerk overtime by 93 percent. Costs of trips and conventions was cut by 65 percent. Incidental expenses were reduced from $18,000 to $1,000.

The budget has decreased from $520 million to $485 million, a result of a carefully negotiated agreement between DiVincenzo and Treffinger.

Under DiVincenzo's leadership, freeholder meetings were also changed from day meetings to night meetings as a convenience to residents. And instead of holding the freeholder meetings in Newark, the meetings are now conducted on a rotating basis, being held in every Essex County municipality.

DiVincenzo said his policies have led directly to two consecutive years of no Essex County-initiated tax increases.

Sworn in to a new three-year term on Jan. 1 was Louise Palagano, who represents the Fifth Freeholder District which includes Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley, North Caldwell, Montclair, Cedar Grove, Essex Pells and about half of Belleville.

Palagano, a Democrat who also serves as Bloomfield's township clerk, defeated former state assemblyman Buddy Fortunato in the November election.

Democrats retained their 8-1 control of the board in the election.

cross-boundary Economic Development Committee — which would consist of seven members appointed by the township for a term of two years commencing on July 1 without compensation. The members would pick amongst themselves the officers.

The purpose of this committee would be to:

- Inquire into, survey, and publicize the extent, advantages and utility of vacant land of the township.

- Classify such vacant land according to its adaptability for the settlement thereon of various types of industrial enterprises.

- Study and analyze the various industries with a view to ascertaining the opportunities for industrial expansion in the township.

- Recommend to the Township Manager advertising the industrial advantages and opportunities, and the availability of real estate in the township, and encourage and accomplish industrial settlement within the township.

Other suggestions provided by Carrera were to develop an information technology plan to enhance services, improve communications and reduce operating costs and begin the planning process for a Capital Improvement Program in line with appropriate advisory committees.

Some short term ideas for government services that Carrera suggested were establishing a township hotline to monitor citizen's phone calls.

"We do not have a central point for citizen's complaints where they can be assured that they can talk to someone and be sure there complaint is assigned to the appropriate people," Carrera said, adding that the hotline would produce statistics for the township.

He also suggested defining departmental performance objective and to review and reorganize advisory committees.

Short term goals suggested by Carrera on the subject of revenue and taxation were streamlining departmental services, beginning to collaborate with the Board of Education to identify similar services, completing the collection of overdue fines and revising fees to reflect the cost of service.

On the topic of education he suggested that the Township Council communicate its expectations to the Board of Education counterparts, identify and initiate two projects in the areas of similar service increasing effectiveness, and join with the Board of Education to bring the township's funding concerns to state officials.

Public relations was another area of concern. Short term goals suggested by Carrera were to establish a working relationship with a public relations firm, identify a theme for Belleville such as "the beautiful village and team up with supporting organizations.

Council members were supportive of Carrera's efforts.

"It was an excellent presentation that took a long time to create," said Councilman Bill Escott.

"I appreciate the initiative that Carrera took on this project, said Mayor Victor Canning.

Belleville Board of Education.

Paula Cummis, acting principal of Public School 8, said the school is deeply saddened by the loss.

"The children the parents and the staff really loved him," Cummis added.

"Right now we have our crisis team for the staff, children and parents to help them through this difficult time," Cummis said.

Nick Petri, principal of Public School 10, spoke highly of Pico's efforts.

"He was an excellent principal and administrator who had great compassion for children," Petri said.

Frank Molinaro, the head custodian at Public School 8 for the past 14 years, described Pico as a "father figure."

"He taught me everything I could possibly need to know, and he was one of the greatest men I ever knew," Molinaro said.

A teacher who worked with Pico for 24 years, Angela Immersi, said he was a man of "warmth, integrity and compassion and will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him."

"He was a friend, a role model, mentor, an educator, a warm caring disciplinarian and a man of utmost integrity and professionalism," she said.

Pico's close friend of 16 years, Eileen Brown, described him as a "special man with many good characteristics."

"I will miss his guidance, openness, trust and friendship. Artie had a wealth of knowledge to share and he did just that, shared...I will greatly miss Artie as will the educational system and the town of Belleville," Brown said.

Pico received his bachelor's degree from Upsala College, a master's degree from Newark State College, and completed graduate studies at Rutgers University.

Pico served in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Born in Belleville, he resided in Parsippany and then moved to Montvale.

Surviving him are his three children, Deborah, David, and Mark.

Township begins tree planting

By Natalie Waldron

The township purchased 50 trees that will be planted throughout the township, said Charlie Cerami, director of public works.

Cerami anticipates the trees will be planted this month. The trees are Flowered Pears, Red October Morning Glory Maples, Pin Oaks and Popular Trees.

Cerami said that at the time it is hard to anticipate where the trees will be placed.

"We are going on a basis of people who were on the list over the past few years and wherever we believe they are needed," he said.

"We have enough to purchase 150 to 200 trees in the future," he added.

Cerami estimated the cost of the trees, which are approximately 15 feet tall, at $85 a piece.

Within the month all of the trees will be planted, he said.

Did the holidays wreak havoc on your home?

Did Aunt Mary drop gravy on your chair? Did Uncle John spill eggnog on the sofa? Did grandpa get excited watching the football game and spill his coffee on the loveseat?

If you can answer "yes" to any of these questions, or if for any other reason the holidays wreaked havoc on your furniture or floors, then maybe a company called Squeaky Clean can help.

Even though family and friends may not have meant it, some accidents may have occurred.

As careful as most people are, some spillages may have hit your upholstery, carpet and flooring. Squeaky Clean Carpet and Upholstery Cleaning is around to rid you of the mishaps.

Art Velotti, the owner, is an experienced carpet and upholstery cleaner. He is a dedicated and diligent technician, using the latest and best cleaners and methods available. He has flexible hours to suit all your needs.

Squeaky Clean offers an unconditional satisfaction guarantee. If you are not satisfied, he will come out and redo the job without additional cost to you.

Art started his business last April and has had more than 600 satisfied customers in such a short time. The best part about the whole business is that Art does all the work himself; therefore, a top-quality job is a given.

Art is happy to announce a new service that Squeaky Clean is offering. He can now strip and wax all types of floors. Vinyl, tile, stone and wood floors are first stripped, then waxed with a wet-look wax.

Art has been trained extensively in this type of cleaning and has many references to substantiate his work. So feel assured of a top-quality job, because his satisfaction guarantee is extended to all his work.

So if the holidays wreaked havoc on your home, especially on upholstery, carpets or other flooring, you will not go wrong in giving Art or his wife, Donna, a call at 743-1122.

If Cousin Tommy left his candy cane between the cushions or Daddy spilled the water out of the Christmas tree onto the carpet, Squeaky Clean is there to clean up the havoc the holidays wreaked.

Business referral group opening new chapter

Business Network International (BNI), a networking organization specializing in business referrals among members, is opening a new chapter in Bloomfield.

"The Business Network is a great way for businesses to experience growth by duplicating their marketing efforts through word-of-mouth," said Anna Banks, BNI director for northern New Jersey.

The organization presently has almost 650 chapters across the United States, Puerto Rico, Canada and the United Kingdom. Last year alone, BNI generated more than 379,000 referrals, resulting in more than $132 million worth of business for its members.

"This is the type of lead-generation we hope to bring to the area," said Banks.

BNI was founded in 1985 by Ivan Misner. "Our style of networking is based on the philosophy 'givers gain'; if I help you, then you'll help me and we'll all do better business," said Misner, who is the author of "The World's Best Known Marketing Secret" and "Seven-Second Marketing."

The Bloomfield Chapter of the BNI will meet Thursday, Jan. 16 at 7 a.m. at Nevada Diner and Restaurant, 293 Broad St., Bloomfield, 743-9303.

For information about BNI or to make reservations, call Banks at 673-3539 or BNI headquarters at 1-800-825-8286.

Volunteers sought by Hospice

The Center for Hospice Care, Inc., a non-profit organization, is offering volunteer training on Tuesdays, beginning Feb. 4, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at its offices in Glen Ridge.

Volunteers are part of the professional Hospice interdisciplinary team that provides physical, emotional and spiritual support to terminally ill patients and their families.

The award-winning volunteer program prepares individuals for all aspects of Hospice care. Volunteers who work directly with patients and their families provide necessary respite for caregivers, run errands and offer companionship. Some volunteers prefer to support the Hospice staff by answering phones, filing, typing, preparing mailings or entering data in the computer.

Anyone interested in learning more about Hospice services or volunteer opportunities, call the volunteer department at 429-0300.

Montclair Community Hospital plans extended care center

Montclair Community Hospital has announced the start of a capital campaign to raise $2.1 million to build a 22-bed extended care center at the hospital, in an effort to meet the changing health care needs of the community.

Plans for the new 6,700-square-foot facility, scheduled to open in June 1997, have been approved by the New Jersey State Dept. of Health and construction is expected to begin shortly, said Emilie Murphy, the hospital's chief executive officer.

A sizeable endowment plus several donations have already provided a substantial portion of the funding needed for the construction, and the nonprofit hospital is now turning to the community for help in funding the remainder of the project.

Murphy emphasized that the hospital "is remaining a viable/acute-care facility, and we are extending our abilities to meet the changing health care needs of the community."

"We are delighted to be able to offer the community this new additional service and we are hoping that the community responds by supporting our effort," she said.

The extended care center, to be built on the hospital's third floor, will provide care for patients who no longer require hospitalization but still require professional care.

The center will serve as a place for surgery and stroke patients to continue their recovery and receive rehabilitative services such as physical, speech and occupational therapy.

The center will also provide short and long term respite care for people whose primary caregiver may temporarily be unable to do so because of travel plans or other personal obligations.

The state-of-the-art center has been designed with the patient's comfort in mind, Murphy said, noting the decor will be "decidedly unhospital-like."

The two private rooms and 10 semi-private rooms will feature an elegant country decor and private bathrooms with vanities. A handsomely designed great room will be used for dining, socializing and recreational events by patients and their family members.

"The warm and comforting home-like atmosphere is designed to help ease the transition from acute care to early rehabilitation and recuperation," Murphy said.

A striking aspect of the new center is patient convenience — the fact that the patient who enters the hospital as an acute care patient, can "graduate" to the extended care facility without having to be transferred to a different institution. In addition, return to acute care, if needed, becomes a simple matter of relocation within the same facility without exposing patients to the trauma of being shifted back and forth.

Another feature of the program will be personalized nursing attention to help the patient regain independence quickly and become comfortable with lifestyle changes. This will be achieved through physical and occupational therapy programs developed specifically for each patient.

Families will be actively involved in planning the patient's care plan throughout their stay at the center and special meal plans will be available to accommodate dietary or religious requirements.

Hospital trustee Herbert New is chairing the capital campaign. A kick-off gala planned for April will be followed by a series of community events and fundraisers.

For more information about the capital campaign or to make a donation, contact Linda Sweeney, director of development, at Montclair Community Hospital, 744-7300, ext. 4252.

Montclair Community Hospital, located at 420 Harrison Ave., has been providing quality patient care to the residents of the greater Essex community since 1925.

More than 200 prominent doctors are affiliated with the non-profit hospital which provides a full range of services, including 24-hour emergency care, surgical units, same-day surgery, physical therapy, radiology, lab services and senior care services for the whole family. For more information about the hospital's programs and services, call 744-7300.

NJAWBO starts new year with goal-setting workshop

The Essex Chapter of the New Jersey Association of Women Business Owners will feature Diane Eade, founder and president of the Advanced Leadership Group in Denville, at its January meeting.

The meeting will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 28 at the Eagle Rock Club, 4 Becker Farm Road, Roseland.

The evening will begin with a networking session and cash bar at 6 p.m., followed by dinner at 7 p.m. and the program at 8 p.m.

Because entrepreneurs often have difficulty in setting goals, they may encounter problems in transforming their personal enterprises into larger, more successful businesses.

Eade will provide insight and practical solutions for setting and meeting realistic goals in business. Starting with a discussion of the four stages of a company's growth and a look at organizational communications, Eade will guide participants in an exploration and application of goal setting for both the business and its owner in 1997.

The program will be of value to all current and potential business owners, as well as to individuals who need a better sense of direction in their business life.

The program is open to members and non-members. Admission is $30 for members and their guests, and $40 for non-members and "at-the-door" registrants.

For reservations, call Lois Pressman at 822-2500.

The New Jersey Association of Women Business Owners, founded in 1978, is a statewide organization which represents the interests of the 221,000 women business owners in New Jersey.

In 1989, NJAWBO became a member of the National Association of Women Business Owners. With nearly 1,000 members in 17 chapters across the state, NJAWBO now is the largest of 50 NJAWBO chapters nationally.

NJAWBO's objectives are to support business ownership by women, provide a forum in which women business owners can make connections, provide a legislative voice and offer training and assistance. Membership information may be obtained by contacting the Essex Chapter hotline at 744-5533.

Library seeks alternative funding

As the costs have risen for books, periodicals, programs and books, the Belleville Public Library considers monetary donations and additional support for the mission of the Library to be especially important. Last year, there were donations for the ESL program and the piano, which has resulted in many cultural programs at the Library.

The Library is looking for donations for the continued support of the English Program for the Foreign Born in 1997, for computers to expand the Internet and the CD ROM technology for the patrons of Belleville, for concerts to continue the cultural mission of the Library, for monetary donations for a new circulation desk which will bring us into the 21st century and be disabled-accessible, and for book collections to provide the newest in materials for the people of Belleville.

With grants for which the Library consistently applies and with private donations from organizations and individuals, the Library can provide the best in services, in addition to the support from the Township of Belleville. Call Adrea Cohen at 450-3434 if you wish to make a donation to the Library or if your organization is going to help with a fundraising project.

In addition, the Library has developed a bequest brochure, which is available at the Library if you are interested in making a gift to the Library in your will. Ask for the brochure on your next Library visit.

Let's read and discuss

Is there a news or magazine article that has important information that you would like to read and discuss with others? If so, bring your news and magazine articles to the Library on Monday, Jan. 17 at 1 p.m. Everyone will get a chance to read portions of their article and to discuss it with the others present. This will give all the participants an opportunity to share important or humorous information with others.

The Library director developed the idea for this class on a ride home from Boston with her daughter. She was reading some interesting articles in the Beacon Hill newspaper to her daughter, Bonnie, and they developed a lively dialogue. Ms. Cohen hopes that this afternoon discussion, with coffee and refreshments too, will result in the sharing of knowledge and will provoke discussion as well.

This activity celebrates the goals and life of Martin Luther King, Jr. and will underlie how his achievements accomplished for all Americans a deeper appreciation of freedom.

January Storytime in the Children's Room

Chills, wintry travel and snow may be frightful, but the January storytimes in the Children's Room will be delightful. MEDICAL EQUIPMENT FOR HOME USE

As technology advances, the pharmacy is evolving from a provider of medicines and related products into an at-home medical equipment center. Where once only crutches and splints were available to help patients cope with sprains and fractures, now everything from life-sustaining oxygen machines to intravenous pumps are available to help patients deal with far more serious health problems in their own homes. The advantages of at-home treatment are obvious. To begin with, it is far less costly to care for patients in their homes than in the hospital. Secondly, patients are nearly unanimous in their agreement that receiving care in their homes is far more comfortable amidst the reassurance of their own surroundings. The pharmacist stands ready to provide all the equipment and assistance needed to help patients in this regard.

Our staff stands ready to provide convalescent aids for at-home use crutches, canes, wheelchairs, and walkers are available on a sale or rental basis at ROSS-MORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1968, 759-195660). We also carry greeting cards, cosmetics, toiletries, and gift items. Open: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

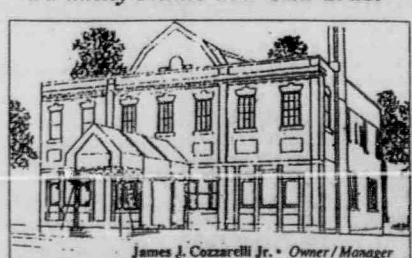

HINT: Today, there are more than 10,000 suppliers of home medical equipment in the U.S.

Astigmatism and contact lenses

This week's article is about contact lens wear if you have astigmatism and what options are available.

Last time, I wrote about the four modalities of soft lenses, so now it's appropriate to fit that into different visual requirements.

Astigmatism is when your visual correction is not spherical. Either due to the shape of the front surface or some internal reason, the visual correction is not round but more elongated. In other words, there is a cylinder or toric component to your eyes.

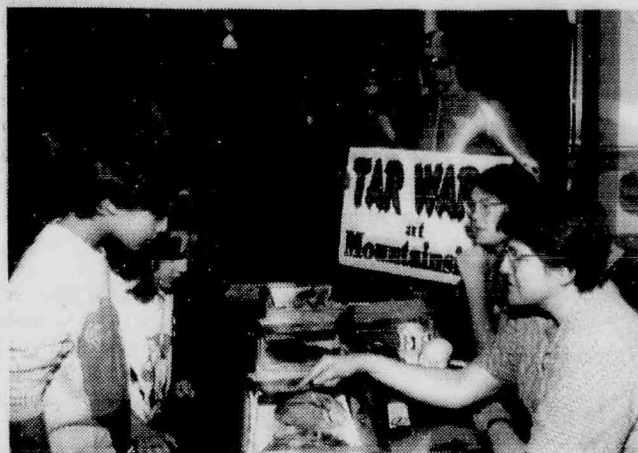

Depending on the amount of astigmatism, there are three choices to be made when using contacts. The simplest and most commonly done is to use a standard spherical lens with the thought that the lens will give good enough vision to wear. This can be done with small amounts of astigmatism to a point and some lenses will by nature give better vision than others. The doctor can select one brand over another, based on optical quality.

Secondly, there are astigmatic or toric soft lenses. These have the correction in the lens rather than relying on the optics of the lens. These become more specialized because they require more effort to fit, but the vision and contrast a patient gets usually are much better. There's more trial and error with these lenses because not all are equal and each individual is unique.

Lastly, the best vision will come from using a rigid gas permeable or hard lens. These will take longer to adjust to, but once done, will hands down give clearer, sharper vision. They correct better because the lenses are hard plastic rather than a gel like soft lenses.

Depending on a patient's visual requirements or lifestyle, we might choose one type over another. It's important to consult your doctor as to what's best for you.

Next time, bifocal contacts will be the topic. In coming installments, other areas of eyecare will be explored. Please call or write with any feedback.

LIVING HEALTHY - Atlantic Health System recently held its first joint health event at the Liberty Science Center in Jersey City. The interactive, entertaining program focused on healthy lifestyles and cancer prevention. Pictured on the right are Dr. Tracy Brobyn, M.D., top, and Dr. Lucille Buglisi, M.D. medical residents from the Department of Family Practice at Mountainside Hospital in Glen Ridge, who discussed with children the dangers of smoking and demonstrated its effect on actual heart and lungs.

Atlantic Home Care, Hospice begin animal-assisted therapy

Atlantic Home Care and Hospice recently joined with St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center in Madison to establish an animal-assisted therapy program for home-bound patients.

The program, designed to bring joy, love and compassion to the sick, will begin in the Morris County vicinity and then expand to Union and Essex counties, officials of the health system said.

"For many, nothing provides comfort like the unconditional love of a pet visitor," said Garnette Arledge, volunteer coordinator for Atlantic Home Care and Hospice.

"Animals give those patients who choose to participate in the program visits to look forward to, something new and pleasurable to talk about as well as nourishing touch experiences," she said.

Research has proven that animals can help people feel better - both physically and emotionally - and, from lowering blood pressure to boosting self-esteem, the benefits of animal companionship to human health are significant, officials said.

"For years, our dog and cat mascots have been reaching out to thousands of children and adults confined to local nursing homes and health care facilities," said Debra Freundlich, vice president of education at St. Hubert's. "However, this is the first time that we're visiting patients at their homes, so we're particularly excited about this initiative."

The animals that participate in the program have current inoculations, have successfully completed a health, skills and aptitude screening, and are clean, well-groomed and housebroken. In addition, the volunteers that accompany the pets on the visits have completed volunteer training requirements.

"There seems to be no end of intriguing stories about animals' therapeutic benefits," said Arledge. "For those who had pets as children to others who have no family nearby, pets often serve as something to love and a trigger for storytelling and fond memories. The interaction between pets and patients is truly heartwarming."

Atlantic Home Care and Hospice was derived from Overlook Hospital's well-established home care and hospice program of over 20 years. It is a new division of Atlantic Health System, the health care organization formed by the merger of three of New Jersey's premier hospitals - Morristown Memorial, Overlook in Summit and Mountainside in Glen Ridge.

St. Hubert's is a comprehensive animal welfare and education center dedicated to alleviating the suffering and neglect of animals and to strengthen the bond between animals and people. St. Hubert's has attended to the needs of animals and of the communities it serves for more than 50 years.

Are You Experiencing Any Of These Symptoms?

Some common vision conditions

Nearsightedness (Myopia). You see close objects more clearly than those at a distance.

Farsightedness (Hyperopia). You see far objects more clearly than close ones.

Astigmatism. You see blurry or distorted objects at all distances, because the front part of your eye (cornea) is slightly irregular in shape.

Presbyopia. A natural part of aging begins to blur your reading and near vision by about age 40-45 and gradually worsens.

Glaucoma. A build-up of excess fluid in your eye, causing internal pressure and damage to the optic nerve. Can result in severe vision loss and even blindness.

Cataracts. A clouding of the clear lens of your eye that distorts entering light, causing blurred or hazy vision. Can lead to blindness if not diagnosed and treated.

OUR OPINION

In memory of Arthur Pico

On New Year's Eve the district lost one of its priceless treasures: Principal of Public School 8 Arthur Pico.

Pico worked in the district for more than 35 years.

His concern and compassion for children and their education made him an outstanding asset to the district.

Fellow administrators and parents have fond memories of Pico greeting the children at Public School 8 with a smile.

He always made the time to get to know as many students as he could.

Pico had the reputation of truly caring about each and every student at the school. He was never too busy to listen to a student.

At 72-years of age, he showed true love for his career. He was always at work on time with the same level of energy and enthusiasm as his students. When asked what his secret was, he would answer "the kids keep me young."

Helping youth was at the center of Pico's life.

Children learned from Pico's kind and gentle nature in addition to his overall concern for the well-being of mankind.

At one time during his career Pico served as the assistant superintendent and he was a member of the Belleville Board of Education.

Pico will be greatly missed by students, parents, administrators, friends and family.

But his spirit will live on in each and everyone of the students who knew him and learned from him.

A Tribute to a Gentle Giant

Farewell my hero.

As the angels came to take you away,

Although with a heavy heart,

You knew you must go.

You have touched many, many lives on this earth

The angels have been with you since your birth

I have seen you wipe tears away,

A few words from you and the kids go play.

There was always time for a kid,

No matter what, you always did!

I've never met someone like you,

Rough at times, then the big heart comes through.

You were oh so gentle and kind,

Another person so full of love we won't ever find!

There was so much care in you,

You always did all you could do!

So, farewell my hero,

I know you must go.

I wrote this farewell with a heavy heart

I'm sad that you had to go

Thinking about all the lives you won't be a part.

But God has you now,

How could he take you?

He needed you! That is how!

He needed someone to guide his angel

Someone who is wise, lovable and gentle as well!

God, please take care of our Mr. Pico.

Give him the biggest halo!

Goodbye Mr. Pico,

I'm so sad you had to go.

A parent from Public School 8

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

To all my loyal fans out there...Buon Natale...Merry Christmas and Buon Anno a Tutti...Happy New Year to all of you.

Let me send out Silver Lake's condolences to a "great man and educator," one of Silver Lake's treasures...Arthur Pico, principal of Public School 8. What loss to Belleville, School #8 children, and his family. Rest in peace, Arthur.

There were so many birthdays in November and December, that I may have to dedicate this entire column to it. So, what the heck.

As we stroll on down to Pico's Tavern on Heckel Street, we come across a lot of birthday people. The first birthday girl is Carole Colasurdo, who celebrated her birthday on Dec. 2; Nov. 20 was Fran DelMauro's day; and Jim Sokolosky, better known as the Prince, had his big day on Nov. 10. Marilyn DiEdwardo's birthday was sometime in September but "happy belated." All are bartenders at the Pico establishment. Carole has been with my husband for many of moons and has to be the best bartender around. She missed her calling though. She probably could have starred with Tom Cruise in "Cocktail" because she mixes a mean drink. You should see her juggle glasses about five at a time.

If you're ever in the neighborhood, stop in and say hi to Ms. Personality, better known as "Nanny Franny." To recognize her, all you have to do is look for some bleach, ammonia, or windex, and she won't be far behind. The Prince right now is under the weather, but we pray he springs back. And Marilyn, always a loyal soul.

Let's now hold hands and promenade on down to Subs and Stuff on Franklin Street. The proprietor is one hell of fellow named Dante Pantalone. Dante celebrated his 39th birthday on Dec. 20. He shares his momentous day with the late Red Mullens, and George Sheridan, a retired Belleville policeman. In the Subs and Stuff establishment, you have Ross Muschio, who hit the 37th mark on Dec. 7. Ross shares his birthday with Dante's dog, a golden retriever named Markie, who is four years old in dog years.

Hey Dante, I bet you're wondering how I found out all this news. Don't look too far, it's the little bird who works for you. He was singing like a bird. This bird talked real good about George Sheridan, a retired police officer in town, who frequented your place often - off duty, of course. Silver Lake was lucky enough to have him patrol our streets for many years.

He was a friend to all Silverlakers. Ross recalls (oops, I guess you know who the little bird is now) when he was younger the boys would hang out. Instead of George chasing them, he would give them a talk and be a friend to them. Who would think that a man named Sheridan could get along with all the Italian boys? But he did and they loved him. I keep wondering, George, are you sure you're not Italian?

George never forgets Silver Lake and Subs and Stuff. He comes back to his stomping grounds often and I hear he looks better than ever. George, next time you're in the neighborhood, please stop by Heckel Street to say hello to me and Charlie. I had to agree with Ross when he said that George Sheridan was the best cop around. Hey, second that motion.

Happy Birthday to my friend, Theresa DiMeo. She is a former Heckel Street resident of 50 years, but she moved away. But don't fret, she didn't go to far. She went right around the corner to Lake Street. You know the old adage...once you live in the Lake, you can't live anywhere else.

And as Lawrence Welk said, "and a one and a two...Happy Birthday to all of you." And for Dante's golden retriever, Markie... "ruff, ruff."

Remember, we love Silver Lake.

YOUR OPINION

Questioning the planning board's decisions

To the editor:

Score one for the experts! Actually, score one for the "so-called" experts, those who cannot project what the future holds for our township. Why on earth would anyone want to invest in a township that has a planning board disagreeable to developers who want to improve our image?

I'm talking about the poor decision made regarding the Macy's project. Where are our priorities? How can I as a councilman who represents that area, and who has lived in that area for close to fifty years, try and understand what brand of logic those people sitting in responsible positions used in making their decision? That mentality escapes me.

To the experts I offer one thing. We live in the most densely populated state in America, and probably the second most densely populated county in the state. We have had traffic problems in the past, the present, and will continue to have them in the future. It is a fact of life. Go to Franklin Street on a Saturday or at rush hour in the morning or evening and see what it's like. It has been this way and will remain this way for years, yet we survive.

So called experts and engineers poorly designed the corner of Belmont Avenue and Franklin Street, and we have lived with it and will live with it until something is done about it.

Consumers need places to shop! Macy's offered an ideal place for that. I cringe to think what other deterrents our planning board will present in the future to perspective investors. Perhaps pre-qualifying people for these boards should be looked at by the council and not have someone appointed just because they have a political friend or cousin. Never have I been so incensed by a decision as I am of this one. Never have I voiced an opinion in any newspaper criticizing a board's decision - but I am now doing it to say that the members of the planning board have made an egregious error. Never foreclose on the future of an area - use as much information as needed to make your decisions. You don't need "all" the information because you will never have "all" the information regarding your decision.

There are more variables to this equation on decision-making than all of us together can think of. Use gut feeling and instinct. Never listen to people like Gary "I'm against it" Iacobacci, who was just defeated as a councilman in Bloomfield. The road for local politicians usually ends in defeat when an elected official cannot determine right from wrong or listen to their constituents.

Planning boards were created to assist developers. Suggestions made by local boards have been very useful in the past. But to completely close out a developer is, in my mind's eye, counterproductive.

At this point I would not blame the Newell Company if they moved the entire building into Bloomfield's land area and left Belleville with nothing but three acres of parking lot!

Multi-million dollar investments in towns like Belleville should never be taken lightly - they just don't appear on a daily basis.

Also, in closing, I would like to comment on an editorial in another publication - Angie Paserchia had every right to comment on that project to whomever she wanted. Since when does a councilperson, especially one who has grown up and lived in that area as long as she has, give up her right to voice her point of view?

My own poll of the residents of that area and the merchants along Franklin Street were completely in favor of this project.

Jim Messina, former mayor

Councilman, First Ward

Thanks for the treelighting ceremony

To the editor:

I would like to express my deepest thanks to the Belleville Holiday Celebration Committee for the beautiful tree lighting ceremony held at the recreation house on Dec. 20.

Special acknowledgement surely goes to Thomas Fuscaldo (Santa), Jude Longo, Angelo Paserchia, Francine Paserchia (Santa's helper), Grace and Russell Purdue, Joseph Scaperotta, Sen. John P. Scott and Rich Yanuzzi for their effort and hard work in creating a magical evening for Belleville's children.

I am very proud to be an educator of several essay winners who were selected to push the special button to light the tree that evening. The essay entailed a description of "your special gift to the world during this holiday season." Winners were selected from each elementary school and invited to be pictured with Santa, enjoy delicious refreshments, and meet fellow friends and neighbors.

This event will truly stay "lit" in the hearts and memories of many Belleville residents and contest winners for a lifetime!

Rose Tangorra is a member by virtue of being president of Nutley Teachers Association, Lucille Semonian as Town Clerk, John Ryder as Town Attorney, and Tom Buchanan as president of Nutley Chamber of Commerce. The committee is broad enough to represent different viewpoints - and that's a good start.

• CONGRATULATIONS

are due to Newark Councilman and North Jersey District Water Supply Commissioner Henry "Hank" Martinez for his election as a member of the Essex County Freeholder Board. Martinez is without peer in the business of government. Over the years, I have seen him in action as a member of North Jersey District Water Supply Commission, and every time he spoke - it was a time for everyone to listen - because every time Martinez speaks, he makes sense.

• JIM TREFFINGER is at it again. He made another effort to downsize the county budget by asking all non-Civil Service employees to prove their worth. Not a bad idea. Other executives in government should follow Treffinger's novel directive.

With the new year comes many new resolutions. Among them, the most popular is the ever resounding resolution to lose weight.

Sometimes, people come to a point at which they become obsessed with the notion of losing weight. Often when a resolution is made to lose weight, the challenge can become unhealthy.

When weight loss takes on the form of self-deprivation and constant torment the weight loss process becomes unhealthy to the individual.

The worse thing a person can do is to set a weight loss pound goal. This happens when a person will say, "I will lose ten pounds before the summer."

This kind of goal can be destructive because it wages the success or failure of the resolution on a number that is not the best indicator of one's health.

Fad diets such as the cabbage diet are all shots in the dark at losing weight and can be unhealthy as well as misleading.

A diet is not a "get thin quick scam." A diet is really a change in lifestyle. This means changing the way one eats and changing the amount of physical activity in which one participates.

The desire to loose weight is not a bad desire, but it is often how one approaches this goal that can be detrimental.

Here are a few New Year Weight Loss tips:

* Change from whole milk to lower fat milk to save calories

* Instead of cakes, pies, and doughnuts as desserts, try fresh fruits or non-fat frozen yogurt.

* Instead of frying your favorite foods, try baking, broiling, stewing, or grilling to save on added fat calories.

* Eat a diet that is varied, balanced and moderate; use the Food Guide Pyramid as a guide to healthy eating.

* Increase the amount of physical activity you do during the day.

This coming year, instead of focusing on the most popular diet or on the pounds of weight lost, focus on eating better and living a healthier lifestyle, and weight loss can happen naturally!

'Scream' is great, 'Beavis and Butthead' are O.K.

By Kelly Tahaney

Film: Scream
Rating: 1/2

Wes Craven has finally succeeded in making a follow-up hit to "Nightmare on Elm Street" with "Scream."

The film is best described as "Clueless" meets "Friday the 13th."

"Scream" has a lot of unknown actors and actresses but, surprisingly some of them have talent.

Drew Barrymore is the biggest name in this Gen-X horror/comedy film and she only has a cameo.

The girl from "Party of five" is the heroine of "Scream" and she does a fine job in her second film (her first was the dreadful "The Craft").

She is being stalked by a mad killer dressed in a ghost outfit. One by one, the townspeople are being sliced and diced and no one why.

Craven masterfully directs the audience into hysterics with well placed scares.

The dialogue is fast, funny and witty. The supporting cast really make a basic horror flick into a well-made movie.

Even Henry Winkler (Fonzie) puts in a good performance as the principal of the high school.

Take a friend, a date, a partner...just don't go alone. Or else...

Film: Beavis and Butthead
Do America
Rating: 1/2

Mike Judge, creator of Beavis and Butthead waited a little too long to release this movie.

Maybe four years ago when the show was new and funny.

Don't get me wrong, I liked Beavis and Butthead on MTV. However, now they're a little stale.

There are some funny moments in "B&B." You have to be under 18 to appreciate the humor in this one.

If you're a fan you might be a little disappointed. If you're not, you'll hate it.

HOROSCOPES

January 12-18

ARIES — March 21/April 20

A temporary change in routine gives you the diversion you've been craving. Take time to consider the changes you'd like to make in your life. A Pisces brings promising news on Thursday. A Leo's tale of woe provides food for thought. Soften your approach with Libra.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21

Before you pass judgment on others, take a good look at yourself. Remember, everyone has his or her strengths and weaknesses — even you. And, everyone's are different. Think about it. Watch your mouth on Thursday, or something you say could offend a close friend.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21

An unexpected turn of events early in the week disrupts long-standing plans. Although this may be frustrating, it will be what you have to do. Use exercise as a way to stave off frustrations. A Libra friend offers words of encouragement. Use any free time to promote self-awareness.

CANCER — June 22/July 22

Don't sell yourself short when it comes to business. Know your value, and be sure to present it in a beautifully wrapped package. You owe it to yourself. Discipline is the key to reaching fitness goals. A Leo has an unexpected surprise later in the week. A love relationship blossoms.

LEO — July 23/August 23

Leos tend to get what they want more easily than most other members of the zodiac. Your charms are usually hard to resist — usually, but not this week. Forget about using manipulative tricks, and try a down-to-earth approach — especially if you're dealing with Scorpio.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22

You may have to choose between helping a friend and helping yourself. Unless you're one of the more innovative Virgos out there, you probably won't find a reasonable compromise. At work, make use of downtime in a productive way. Plan for busier times ahead.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23

Tormented by yet another difficult decision, Libra? Instead of weighing the pros and cons over and over again, follow your heart. It's where you'll end up anyway, so why waste time? Just a few kind words will do wonders for a down-in-the-dumps friend. Make the effort. Be careful of what you say on Friday, or you could find your feet in your mouth.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22

Overstepping your bounds in a friendship could lead to hard feelings. Be aware of what you say and how you say it. An old friend comes to you for support on a personal matter. Try to put yourself in his or her place before offering advice. Health-related problems need to be addressed.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21

Quality time with your partner helps ease recent tensions. A special romantic effort goes a very long way. Young children play a big role later in the week. A little Leo may do something to win your heart. A Libra's good news gives you something to smile about.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20

Speak up, Capricorn, or you'll never get what you want. You can't expect others to read your mind. Be more assertive. On Thursday, an unpleasant reminder of your past makes you happy for what you have today. A Gemini friend helps put things into perspective.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18

Don't be afraid to swallow your pride if it means saving a valuable relationship. You'll be glad you did. Looking for a new job? If so, Tuesday could be an especially lucky day. Keep your eyes open for new opportunity. On Friday, remember, appearances can be deceiving.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20

Jumping to conclusions before you know all the facts will steer you in a totally wrong direction. Make an effort to look at the big picture. An old flame will be the focus of your thoughts midweek. Use past mistakes to create a brighter romantic future. A break comes Friday.

BUC SHOTS

Romano's dominate in Salad Bowl VII

Behind the passing of Rock Constantino and the MVP performance of Rich Romano, the Salad Bowl trophy went back to the Rome's for the first time in five years.

Rome's used a potent passing game and opportunistic defense to rout the Dave's, 63-21 on New Year's Eve at Doc Ellis Field. It was the first time the Rome's had won the Salad Bowl since the inaugural game in 1990. Dave's still holds a commanding lead in the series, 5-2.

While Rich Romano was named the games MVP for his two interceptions and three touchdowns, you have to credit Rob Cetrulo of Rome's for the "Comeback Player of the Game." Cetrulo missed last years game because, he "lost the love" for the contest.

But he found whatever he lost in '96 and played stellar defense. With the game tied at 21 and Dave's driving for what could have been the go-ahead score, Cetrulo forced a fumble on a tackle. Rome's recovered and the momentum of the game turned clearly for Rome's.

Compared to the '95 game, the '96 Salad Bowl was played in balmy conditions. It was cold and overcast throughout the afternoon, but it didn't take away from a tough effort from both teams.

For Rome's, Dan Constantino recovered a fumble and picked off a pass. Cetrulo had a good day on offense, too, catching four passes. He scored a touchdown and had an interception.

Brian Harvey caught four passes, had an interception and scored a touchdown. Damon Placenti caught two passes, picked off three passes and scored three touchdowns, two of which came directly from the interceptions.

John Engdahl was dominant on the line of scrimmage, recording four sacks.

Dave's was led by Keith Veltre, who scored once and caught nine passes. Kareem Ilewat had four catches, one touchdown and did well in the secondary, intercepting two passes.

Joe Clay and Mike Nicosia had one pass reception each and Kevin Johansen recorded two sacks.

Dave's passing game was led by Kevin Johansen (15 for 30, three touchdowns) and Ken Johansen, who was 5 for 18 and had a tough time reading the complicated Rome's defense.

So, Salad Bowl is history for another season. It was a good game, and both teams are already pointing for the '97 contest, which will probably be played on or around the Christmas holidays.

Junior Buc Wrestling

The Belleville Junior Bucs sent five wrestlers to the tough Middlesex Holiday tournament on December 29. Leading the way was 7 year old Matt Fusco, who, with a pin in his final match, won a gold medal.

State place finishers Angelo Dileo and Lawrence Fusco took home second place medals while competing in divisions that featured many state champions.

Louie Ritacco also had a strong afternoon with a silver medal.

Roller Hockey

The Belleville Cyclones lost a game to Ridgewood, 6-2. Belleville's two goals were scored by Jason Stauss. Anthony Armando assisted on both goals while Scott Horst and Gary Polukard were credited with one assist each.

Last weekend, the Cyclones won their first game of the season, stopping Carlstadt, 4-2. Belleville took a 2-0 lead off goals from Ryan McDonald and Gerard Povinelli.

Povinelli scored his second goal of the game to give Belleville a 3-1 lead in the third period. Carlstadt cut the lead to 3-2, but Belleville clinched the victory on a goal by Mark Horst, assisted by Martin Melacki. Gary McDonald got the win in goal and Dennis Caporaso played a strong game on defense.

The Midget Division team lost an exciting 4-2 decision. Bryan Flynn scored both Belleville goals while Mark Toledo was credited with two assists.

The senior team lost to Carlstadt 5-2. Jeff Falduto scored an unassisted goal and Henry Aro scored the second Belleville goal off an assist from Anthony Armando.

The team will host Glen Rock this weekend.

Conte, Zarro win Bloomfield tourney

Wrestling team begins league schedule

By Mike Lamberti

The quality is there, but Buccaneer wrestling coach Joe Nisivoccia wouldn't mind some quantity, as well.

Nisivoccia's Bucs are off to a strong start, posting a 3-1 mark and tying for fourth with Nutley in the Bloomfield Christmas Tournament during the recent holiday season.

The Bucs will compete in the Elizabeth Tournament this Saturday, beginning at 10 a.m.

"We have some talented kids," Nisivoccia, entering his 12th season as head coach, said. "But our numbers are down somewhat. We have as many wrestlers as we did last year, but we've been affected by injuries and the result is having kids who really aren't ready for varsity competition seeing action earlier than I had hoped."

The Bucs have posted wins over Clifton, Passaic Valley and last Saturday, against Teaneck. The lone loss came in an early quad meet against a strong West Essex team.

"Right now, we're about four or five wrestlers short of fielding the lineup we would like," Nisivoccia said. "I think that by February, the kids that have been competing will have a better understanding of what it takes. Right now, it's learn as you go."

At 103 pounds, senior Tim Hands is competing in his first year of varsity competition.

"He's going to do a nice job," the coach said. "It's hard to begin varsity wrestling in your senior year. But he's done well."

Hands took a 4-2 record into this weeks competition.

What more can you say about 112 pounder Anthony Conte? A state champ in his junior year last season at 103 pounds, Conte has moved up a weight class and has been overwhelming thus far.

"He's enjoying himself this year," Nisivoccia said of Conte. "At 112 pounds, he doesn't have to cut that much weight, if any. His natural body weight is 110. He's gained a lot of strength and has a great attitude."

"I think he's focussed more, because he doesn't have to worry about making weight. He's been lifting weights pretty consistently during the season."

Conte is off to a 6-0 start, with pins coming in all six of those matches. He won the Bloomfield Tournament and set a team record by pinning his Passaic Valley opponent in eight seconds.

Junior 119 pounder Lawrence Martin is 5-1, his lone loss coming in the final of the Bloomfield Tournament to the Bengals Rami Ratel.

"That's going to be a real tough competition all season," Nisivoccia said, referring to Martin and Ratel. "Lawrence is a tough kid. He continues to get better."

At 125 pounds, senior Jim Palo is undefeated in dual meets, posting a 4-0 mark. He took a third in the Bloomfield Tournament.

"Jimmy didn't wrestle last year," Nisivoccia said. "But he's off to a good start this season and we expect a strong year from him."

Nisivoccia has some work to do at the 130 pound class. Palo could move up to that slot or the coach could use sophomore Jim Costa.

"Jim saw a little action last year," said Nisivoccia. "He needs more time on the mat. That's pretty much the story for him."

Junior Mohammad Shama is also gaining experience as he competes in the 135 pound class. His coach feels that Shama could move up to as high as the 145 pound section, if needed. Like Costa, Shama needs more varsity competition.

Sophomore Frank Zarro, a 135 pounder last season, is the 140 pound starter this fall. Undefeated so far this season (6-0), he captured the Bloomfield Tournament championship, beating Dante Rosania of West Essex, 10-8, in the finals.

"He's wrestling at a good weight," Nisivoccia said of Zarro. "It's a natural for him, and that's why he's doing so well. He's in good shape and continuing to improve."

At 145 pounds, the class is pretty much open. Shama could move up in weight and be the starter there.

The Bucs suffered a setback at 152 pounds when junior Mike DiPrimio broke his hand. He'll be out for at least a month. During his time in the lineup, he was a .500 wrestler who took fourth in the Bloomfield tournament.

Replacing DiPrimio is sophomore Anthony Marcantuono, a natural athlete, according to his coach.

Marcantuono has some versatility, and could wrestle anywhere from 145 pounds to 160. He got his chance at the heavier weight, winning his 160 pound bout versus Teaneck last Saturday.

Sophomore Joe Lelinhio can also see time anywhere from 145 to 160 while freshman John Hamilton, a transfer student, is a candidate in the 135 to 140 pound class.

A shoulder injury has curtailed the progress of 160 pounder Tom Barbella.

Defending state champion Anthony Conte is in control of his match with Jay Jenkins at 112 pounds during Bloomfield Tournament. Conte was undefeated heading into this weeks action.

player this past fall, should be the starter at 171 pounds, although Nisivoccia hasn't ruled out the senior wrestling at 189 pounds.

Zarro advanced to the finals of the Bloomfield Tournament at 171 pounds, losing to T.J. Francisco of Bloomfield.

Sophomore Joe Spina gets the nod at 215 pounds. Spina has put together a 2-4 mark in the early going.

The Bucs, at present, do not have a heavy weight wrestler.

"I'd have liked for us to get at least a third in the Bloomfield Tournament," Nisivoccia said. "We felt we could achieve that."

"But the kids are continuing to improve and the Elizabeth Tournament this weekend will be a good test. We'll be up against some good teams there."

NOTES: Livingston won the Bloomfield tourney, with 188 points, followed by West Essex (164.5), Bloomfield (155) and then Belleville and Nutley, each with 137 points.

Bucs first NNJL Pacific Division match was against St. Joe's earlier this week. Nisivoccia expected a tough match with them.

Following the Elizabeth tourney, Bucs will be at Paramus next Wednesday, in a 7 p.m. start.

Team travels to Hackensack tomorrow

Basketball team falls to 1-4 following losses to Pascack Valley, Ft. Lee and St. Joe's

By Mike Lamberti

It could be one of those Rolaids seasons for Buc basketball coach Don Roll.

It started on opening night, when the Bucs rallied from an 11 point deficit in the final two minutes at Ridgewood to pull out an overtime victory.

Following a loss to Morris Catholic, the Bucs competed in the Ft. Lee Christmas Tournament and lost both games in overtime.

Then, last Friday evening, the team could not hold the momentum of a good start against St. Joe's and ended up losing a 55-38 decision.

The team (1-4 entering this weeks action) will be at Hackensack tomorrow evening, starting at 5:30 p.m. Next Tuesday, it's off to Don Bosco for a 7:30 p.m. tip off.

"I'd like to think we could be at least 3-2 right now," Roll said following the loss to St. Joe's. "But we're not playing smart out there. It's as simple as that. These kids have to realize that in this league, we're not going to get anything easy. We have to work for every shot, every rebound, every put back."

In the first round of the Ft. Lee Tournament, the Bucs battled a good team in Pascack Valley, losing a 70-68 overtime decision.

"23 turnovers, 18 missed put backs," Roll said. "That's what I'm talking about. Pascack Valley went on to win the tournament and they're undefeated (as of last Friday night)."

"It's the little things that separate a 1-4 team against a 5-0 club. Do I think we were better than they were? Yes. Did we get the job done? No."

The Bucs trailed 32-27 at half-time, but cut the lead to 48-47 after three quarters. Good shooting in the fourth quarter earned the Bucs a 63 all tie after regulation time, but in the O.T., Pascack Valley was able to pull out the win.

Dave Vargas led the Bucs with 18 points. Ernie Sacari had 17. Damon Battle scored 15. Tom Dyer tallied ten and Ray Quinn and Rich Otero had four points each.

In the consolation game against Ft. Lee the following day, the Bucs were flat against a team they felt they should defeat.

The result was Belleville trailing by five at the half and Roll pulling his starters in the third quarter.

"They were going through the motions, so I felt they shouldn't be playing," Roll said. "(Jeff) Larkins stepped up and did a good job on the boards. He also gave us some points. Otero also provided a spark for us."

The Bucs did rally in the final quarter to forge a 57-57 tie, heading into overtime.

But once again, the team did not have enough in the extra session, with Ft. Lee outscoring the Bucs 11-8 to win, 68-65.

Battle led the Bucs with 20 points. Larkins finished with 13. Dyer had 12, Otero tallied eight and Sacari and Quinn scored six each.

In the game against St. Joe's last Friday evening, the Bucs jumped out to a 7-0 lead and held a 14-12 advantage after one quarter. But St. Joe's took advantage of good three point shooting and the ability to score off offensive rebounds and led 24-19 at the half.

The Bucs were down 19-13 at the half, scoring just 19 points, six in the fourth quarter. Just four Belleville players scored in the game.

Battle led the Bucs with 19 points. Dyer had nine, Sacari scored eight and Quinn had two points.

"We've got some league games coming up that I knew we can be competitive in," Roll said. "But it's up to them. If they want, they can make this a good season. Or they can go through the motions. They know they can compete. They just have to be consistent and play with in the offense."

Hartuk stars

Jill Hartuk of Belleville is once again playing a leading role for the volleyball squad at Lacordaire Academy, located in Upper Montclair.

Hartuk, a junior, moves quickly and passes well. She is one of the reasons that the Lions are a strong serving team.

It was Hartuk who steadied the Lions in a recent victory over Saddle River Day with a marvelous serving game.

Hartuk made the varsity in her freshman year. She was recently part of a Lacordaire team that won in the Rutgers Prep Spikers Tournament.

Recreation Round up

The Belleville Department of Recreation and Cultural Affairs is accepting registration for the pre-school play program for 4 year old children. The program consists of games, stories, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties, especially designed for pre-school children.

A session is from 9 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. or 12:45 to 2:30 p.m., five days a week with class limited to a maximum of 23 students in each session. The cost of the 32 week program is $150.00. The mothers of the children accepted must participate by serving one duty day about every eight or nine days, according to a published schedule. School will begin on Monday, September 15, 1997 and will run through May, 1998.

Children born between October 1992 and September 1993 who will enter kindergarten in September 1998 are eligible. Participants must be Belleville residents. Since there are just a limited number of openings, applications will be accepted on a first come-first served basis only.

Children (and their parents) must be able to speak and understand english in order to participate. Children enrolled in the morning program cannot also be in the afternoon program, or vice versa. A $25.00 deposit is required to hold your spot in the program.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 as soon as possible, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Registration begins January 2, 1997.

"Kindergym"-1997

The Belleville Department of Recreation and Cultural Affairs is pleased to announce the start of its all new "Kindergym" program for boys and girls in grades K-2. Beginning January 8, 1997, Kindergym will be held on Wednesday nights, 6:00-8:00 p.m., through March at School #4.

This program will feature organized games and activities for Belleville resident children in this age group, under the leadership of one or more college-age directors. All participants must currently be in grades K-3 only.

No pre-registration or fee is required. Children who are interested in taking part in this program may sign up with the activity leader at the School #4 gym on Wednesdays in January (parental permission is required). For further information, call the Recreation office at 450-3422.

Men's Open Basketball

The Belleville Recreation Department will offer a Men's Open Basketball program on Saturday afternoons at the Middle School, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., girls' gym, beginning December 7, 1996. Belleville resident men, over 18, can participate by showing the gym supervisor a Recreation Dept. Photo I.D. Card. I.D. Cards may be obtained from the Recreation office during regular weekday hours. Non-residents will not be allowed in the gym. Proof of residency and a $2.00 fee are required.

Umpire candidates sought

Applications are now being accepted for candidates wishing to become baseball/softball umpires in the New Jersey State Baseball Umpires Association. Candidates must be physically fit and a minimum of 18 years of age to umpire. Successful candidates will be eligible to take the NJSIAA examination which will then qualify them to umpire high school varsity baseball/softball games.

Interested candidates may obtain an application by sending a self addressed envelope to: David R. Klein, 37 Bryant Avenue, Bloomfield, N.J. 07003.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Oh, Holy Spirit, thou who are all knowing, who brightens every path that I may reach my ideal, thou who givest me this divine gift of forgiving and forgetting wrongs done unto me and who in every instance of my life art with me, I'd like in this short dialogue to affirm my gratitude for all your blessings and affirm once again that I never want to part from thee though the illusion of material things abound. My desire is to be with thee and all my loved ones in perpetual grace. Thank you for your mercy on me and mine. (Persons should pray 3 consecutive days without revealing petition. Within 3 days grace will be attained regardless of how difficult the petition may be). Publish this prayer once grace is attained. Grateful for grace attained. M.P.
