Police crack heroine drug ring

After a 18-month investigation, Belleville Police believe that they have broken up a heroine drug ring after the raid of a Newark residence.

On Jan. 21 police raided a third floor residence at 225 Grafton Ave. which was the residence of the alleged ringleader, said Capt. Joseph Rotonda.

Rotonda said the ring distributed heroine to both Newark and Belleville.

Police with the assistance of the Essex County Sheriff's Bureau of Narcotics found $100,000 of heroin, about $4,430 in cash along with a large quantity of drug paraphernalia used in packaging heroin, said Rotonda.

Two hours before the raid, Belleville detectives Giuliano, Capece, Marotti and Pasquale arrested Lenin Ojeda, 23 of Newark on charges of possession of a controlled dangerous substance, possession with the intent to distribute and possession in a school zone. Rotonda said that Ojeda also lived at the Grafton Avenue residence.

Police said that Ojeda was found to be in possession of 10 wax folds with the word "Bingo" on them containing what was believed to be heroine. A warrant was then issued for a second suspect who is the ringleader and remains to be missing, Rotonda said.

An investigation continues Rotonda said.

Promoting multi-culturalism

St. Peter's International Day focuses on multi-cultural issues

Awareness of different cultures and languages was the theme of International Day activities at St. Peter's School on Tuesday.

Linda Arndt, director of International Day activities and an eighth grade teacher, said the learning experience has grown from a one-classroom presentation nine years ago to total school involvement this year.

Commenting on the 50 percent increase in Belleville's

Latino population since 1980, and aware that immigrants are newly arriving from Mexico, Egypt, Bolivia, Korea and the Philippines, Arndt said that the school has been challenged on how to bolster students' understanding and appreciation of each others' languages and cultures.

"The kids are proud to show us their parents, their native dress, and their foods," Arndt said.

"Their parents, who at first reluctantly — shyly — came to the gym to help set up a display about their homeland, became so involved that they stayed all day," she added.

Parents worked with the cafeteria staff preparing their special ethnic dishes, helped their children with projects like a puppet show that the youngsters had written and staged.

Students speak out on teacher contracts

By Natalie Waldron

Students voiced their concerns about how the teacher contract negotiations were impacting their education at the Board of Education meeting Monday night.

Students said they were concerned about the Belleville Education Association's decision to not volunteer any extra time that is not specified in their contract.

About 40 students illegally walked out of school on Monday without any permission and they are being reprimanded, said

Principal Joseph Petrillo Tuesday morning.

"They feel that the accessibility that the teachers always provided before and after school has presently been postponed due to the impasse in negotiations and these kids want that back," Petrillo said.

High school student Ariel Lane said that her teachers are no longer allowing her to make up tests before and after school. She said that she has to make up missed tests during class time. She also said that there was not going to be a sophomore dance.

"Someone has to budge. These contracting negotiations are hurting us," Lane said.

"We are doing this simply to make the board realize how important the time we previously donated was," said Jack Ayres, president of the Belleville Education Association Tuesday afternoon.

"Our whole point with this is to get the board to move," Ayres added.

Board members Louis Pallante and Frank Montagna said if any citizen had a question about the negotiations that they would try to vaguely answer it without attempting to get into specifics. Ayres made the same offer.

"We don't want board members or teachers talking to our kids about the negotiations. Settle it amongst yourselves," said MaryAnne Lopreato, president of the high school's Home and School Association.

Lopreato added, "I am concerned that the students are being caught in the crossfire."

Public school 9 program honors Martin Luther King Jr.

By Natalie Waldron

He had a dream to eliminate prejudice and promote peace and equality for all through nonviolent means.

Martin Luther King's legacy of hope continues to live on with the recognition of a day devoted to honoring him, which occurs on the third Monday in January.

To keep his memory alive with the children of today, a program was presented to students from Public School 9, teaching them about the significance of his life.

Adrea Cohen, director of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, discussed with the children how King, a civil rights leader, minister and advocate for peace and equality through non-violence, helped change "political and social views."

She discussed how in the 1950's King led the Montgomery bus boycott along with reading excerpts from King's "I Have a Dream"

$50M set aside for light-rail base facility

By Natalie Waldron

Money has been allocated for the light-rail maintenance facility and the trolley cars for the Newark City Subway, said NJ Transit spokeswoman Penny Bassett-Hackett Monday.

Fifty million dollars has been allocated for the proposed vehicle base facility in Belleville and Bloomfield, said Hackett. "The money is based on federal and state funds. Most of the funds will come from federal funds," she said.

For the Newark City Subway line, NJ Transit will purchase 16 vehicles for the Newark City Subway at $3 million a piece, totaling $48 million to be paid over a period of time.

The funding, which was appropriated this past October came under the Hudson/ Bergen Light Rail Project.

"The two projects were lumped together in order to save money," said Jerome Lutin, senior director of planning and development.

"Now it is up to NJ Transit to begin the design of the facility and begin acquiring the needed property."

"Since new cars were needed, a new maintenance facility needs to be constructed," Lutin added. "We can't continue to fix the cars in the present facility."

The new "longer" trolley cars will carry twice as many people as Father Dennis Coccozza of St. Anthony's Church blesses the tree dedicated for Joseph Zarro in December which was planted in St. Anthony's school yard on Franklin Street. Zarro, who passed away in November of 1995, was the funeral parlor owner and director of Zarro's Memorial Funeral Home in Bloomfield for 70 years. He contributed to the development of Silver Lake. Lena Zarro and family donated two benches at the site. The Silver Lake Civic Association bought the tree and paid for the landscaping.

Coccozza: making a difference in the community

By Natalie Waldron

Belleville is truly "blessed" to have a pastor like Dennis Coccozza at St. Anthony's Church, located at 64 Franklin St.

For the past three years, Coccozza has involved himself with the community surrounding the church.

Two years ago, he initiated St. Anthony's Feast on Heckel Street, which is held in June. Now St. Anthony's sponsors the feast every year.

"It has been a big community builder. People who have moved out of town return for the event," Coccozza said.

During his tenure, he has worked with the Silver Lake Civic Association on community events.

Coccozza also is the chaplain for the Belleville Police Department.

"I worked with them to establish the substation in our parking lot across from the church," Coccozza said.

Improving the number of residents, in the congregation is a major goal of Coccozza's.

"People are coming back to church at St. Anthony's. It's good to have so many people involved in the parish again," he said.

Coccozza worked on improving that situation with creating more church activities.

He has also opened the church for meeting space for local organizations.

"Residents of Belleville are willing to work together for the good of the community," said

Fire department holds prevention program for Burn Awareness Week

Belleville's Fire Department is holding a prevention program on Feb. 8 from 12 p.m. to 3 p.m. at 275 Franklin Ave. in honor of Burn Awareness Week which occurs from Feb. 2 to 8.

The department will have the St. Barnabas Fire Safety House Trailer come to fire headquarters.

The trailer has three rooms that display many potential fire and burn hazards. The audience will also learn how to exit a burning building.

Prevention and awareness are two important parts of National Burn Awareness Week.

More than 1.8 million people will suffer burns throughout North America, with over 60,000 requiring hospitalization.

Fire officials say that most burns are caused by scolding.

The fire department would like to remind everyone to be careful with items such as hot coffee, tea, soups and grease.

Another tip is to always check your hot water before bathing, showering or doing the dishes.

Debbie Cappitelli, St. Anthony's church secretary describes Cocozza as very involved in the parish and the community where the parish is located.

Cocozza was born in the Bronx and raised in Ridgewood.

After he was ordained, he was assigned to Upper Montclair where he taught part-time at Lacordaire Academy and Mount St. Dominick's in Caldwell.

He then went on to be a full-time teacher at Paramus Catholic Boys High School.

The rest of his 22 years in the priesthood were spent in parishes in the Diocese. He worked in parishes located in Montclair, Dumont, and Bayonne.

"I also spent some time in the Franciscan Order and there I worked on 31st Street in N.Y. city working with the homeless and AIDS ministry," he said.

Church celebrates 300 years

The Belleville Reformed Church will be celebrating 300 years of service to the community this year.

The church is one of the oldest in the state of New Jersey and is both a state and national historic site.

Many of the founding families of Belleville are buried in the church cemetery along with 62 Revolutionary War soldiers. The Township of Belleville was built around the church. The first school was started and taught by the church members for all the children in the community.

The church will hold the first of several programs planned for this year on Saturday, Feb. 22, at 6:30 p.m., a covered dish supper.

It will be followed by a display of historical artifacts of both the church and the Township of Belleville.

Call 750-4039 or 751-2262 if you plan to attend and number of people who are coming and what you will bring, as seating is limited, and also if you have any artifacts or pictures you would like to share. Feb. 18 is the deadline for responding.

Rutgers accountant for the public interest providing tax service

Bring your W-2 forms and any information that you need to fill out your tax forms. Having last year's return could also be helpful.

Answers To Questions About Taxes For Taxpayers Age 55 And Over

Provided by H&R Block

Question: I turn 65 on January 1, 1997. Is there any way I can claim a tax benefit for age on my 1996 income tax return?

Answer: Generally, you must turn 65 during the year for which you are filing a return. The law, however, recognizes you as being 65 on the day before your birthday. Since your birthday falls on January 1, if you do not itemize on your 1996 return you will be able to claim a standard deduction that is $1,000 ($800 if you are married or you are a qualifying widow(er)) higher than the usual standard deduction.

Question: I am thinking of retiring to a foreign country. How will such a move affect my income tax situation?

Answer: Assuming you intend to remain a U.S. citizen, your tax situation will remain relatively stable. U.S. citizens, regardless of where they reside, must report worldwide income on their U.S. income tax returns. If you pay taxes in the foreign country, you may be eligible for a special credit or deduction, whichever is more advantageous. If you were to earn money in the foreign country and if you meet the qualifications, you can exclude from U.S. taxation up to $70,000 of foreign-source earned income each year.

Belleville Senior News

By Joseph Restaino

Prescription for a Laugh
Just a line to say I'm living,
That I'm not among the dead,
Though I'm getting more forgetful,
And more mixed up in my head,
For sometimes I can't remember
When I stand at the foot of the stairs,
If I must go up for something,
Or I've just come down from there.
And before the fridge, so often,
My poor mind is filled with doubt.
Have I just put food away, or
Have I come to take food out?
And there are times when it is dark out,
With my night cap on my head,
I don't know if I'm retiring,
Or just getting out of bed.
So, if it's my turn to write you,
There's no need in getting sore.
I may have thought that I had written
And don't want to be a bore.
So, remember, I do love you!
And I wish that you were here.
But now it's nearly mail time
So I must say, "Goodbye my dear!"
There I stood beside the mailbox,
With a face so very red,
Instead of mailing you my letter,
I had opened it instead!

Due to having a bad cold, I haven't been able to attend the meetings at the Senior Center this past week, so I don't have any news of the latest events there. I do know that Phyllis Granger is out of the hospital and recuperating at home.

Also, the Belleville Old Guard swore in its new officers for 1997. John McGee, vice president in 1996, swore in the following members: President Joe Restaino; Vice President Anthony Lordi; Treasurer Nick Maunelle; Secretary and Acting Chaplain Hugo Antolini; Trustees George Sbarra, Joe Villaggio, Tom Palante and Past President Pat Rotonda. John Iracane was appointed sergeant at arms. Anthony Amici was appointed chaplain but due to an illness, Hugo Antolini will act as chaplain until Tony returns. Good luck to all the new officers. The Old Guard will be going to the Paramount Hotel from May 18 to May 23. This is a 6-day, 5-night trip to the Catskills for the price of $315, double occupancy. Any senior interested, call Nick Maunelle at 751-3229. You can't beat this deal. Buses will leave Senior Center parking lot at 12 noon May 18 and return at approximately 4 p.m. May 23. Make your reservations early.

How do you like this? Exxon Corp. said its 4th quarter earnings surged 3 percent because of lower costs and higher prices for crude oil and natural gas. This is a fabulous occasion, but I will go out on a limb and state that they will not lower their prices to the consumer, but they will most likely give fantastic bonuses to the big shots. When are we going to get a break?

The same thing is happening in Congress. Revenues are up but they are telling us seniors that our COLA is too large and it must be cut back. How about cutting their huge pay raises and the fabulous pensions and benefits they receive? We seniors worked our butts off to get where we are and now they want to balance the budget by reducing our benefits. When you read of the millions of dollars that some of the CEOs are getting (and some of these persons are not doing a good job), it makes you think that justice is blind. But the rich get richer and the poor get shafted.

A warning to seniors: Many scam artists are calling people and getting personal information over the phone that they can use for their own gain. For instance, one senior couple got a call about a security system for their home. They told the person calling that they didn't have one and were interested in getting one. The next night, their house was broken into, they were beat up and everything of value was stolen. Again, do not tell anyone anything about yourself over the phone. This goes for credit card numbers and bank account numbers. Play it safe.

Tid Bit: In good times and bad, we need friends who will pray for us, listen to us, and lend a comforting hand and an understanding ear when needed. Beverly LaHane.

Dreams can come true

County clerk brings services to Town Hall

At Town Hall on Feb. 4 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. residents will have the opportunity to apply for a passport, have a notary oath processed, obtain an ABC Identification card, apply for a veteran's license and file a physicians license.

"This is to bring residents the convenience of our services," said Patrick McNally, county clerk.

"Many people who need our services work during the day and this brings our office right to them," he added.

McNally said his office will try to visit each municipality in the county at least one time per year.

"We are always striving to be customer orientated and user friendly," he added.

Residents must bring the following to apply for a passport:

- a birth certificate with raised seal and date of registration from city or state of birth or naturalization papers.

- I.D. such as a driver's license, governmental I.D. card or a previous U.S. Passport not more than 12 years old.

If none of these are available, the applicant must be accompanied by an identifying witness, who has known him for at least 2 years and who is a U.S. citizen or resident alien. The witness must be able to establish his or her own identity by one of the above means.

- two passport photos 2 by 2.

A separate check or money order should be made out to Passport Services with $55 for an adult and $30 for a child. A processing fee will be $10 in cash per applicant.

To process a notary public oath the fee will be $7.50 cash.

For ABC Identification Cards issued to adults 21 years or older the requirements are:

- birth certificate or naturalization papers

- drivers license if available or proof of residence

- proof of signature (social security card or library card)

- two photos one and a half by one and a half

- women married need to provide their marriage certificate

The fee is $6 cash and a photo will be made available by a five dollar fee.

To apply for a veteran's license applicants must have a DD214 form (plus proof of residency).

Those interested in filing a physicians license have to pay the fee of $15 in check or cash.

Senior I.D.'s will not be processed at this location.

Students also entertained each other with music and dancing, explaining their songs and stories to the student body.

"Everyone is involved, not just the academically talented," she said.

If there are no students from a particular country seventh graders volunteer to take on another culture. These students create stick puppets, make up plays inclusive of a culture and thoroughly research their material so that it is authentic.

Some of the program was put on in the evening for parents who work during the day.

Other upcoming activities scheduled are as follows:

- On Jan. 30 the school will hold Students Day/Registration Day where the school celebrates the children with activities from 1-2:30 p.m. Proceeds will be given to a shelter for battered women and unwed mothers. Registration will be held from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. for new students.

- On Jan. 31 students will celebrate the gifts and abilities given in life with a program called Olympics of the Body and Mind.

- On Feb. 1 the school will hold a closing liturgy at 5:30 p.m. followed by family night where families can purchase supplies.

Youth group helps at habitat for humanity

The youth group from St. Peter's Church in Belleville recently spent the day working at the Habitat for Humanity project in Paterson.

Eight members of the youth group joined with three adults to assist in building homes for low-income families. The Paterson Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization that builds affordable housing. It has been in existence since 1984, and has built approximately 65 homes.

This experience was the first of its kind for the youth group organization. They arrived at the work site at 8 a.m. and worked until 3:30 p.m.

During the day they were asked to perform a variety of jobs such as painting, nailing, and moving lumber supplies.

The teens were especially impressed when they discovered future homeowners were working alongside them.

"It always makes a difference to young people when they are able to see the faces of those who they are helping," said Bob Emery, the moderator of the group.

"The teens really enjoyed the day and felt good about helping others. In fact, most of the young people are asking to go back and help again in the future," he added.

United Way of Essex seeks nominee for Ashby community service award

United Way of Essex and West Hudson is seeking nominees for the organization's William M. Ashby Community Service Award.

Established in 1990, the award is named in honor of William Ashby, noted author, civil rights leader and founder of the Newark affiliate of the Urban League.

It is presented each year at United Way's annual meeting.

According to United Way President and CEO Maria Vizcarrondo DeSoto, "In creating the Ashby Award, our United Way sought to honor Mr. Ashby's legacy of service, as well as to recognize those individuals whose contributions to our community reflect the ideals of the outstanding leader after whom the award is named."

"Each year, our organization looks to recognize individuals who have demonstrated outstanding leadership, commitment and dedication to the people of Essex and West Hudson, and whose contributions have made dramatic differences in the overall quality of life in our community," Vizcarrondo said.

Last year, the award was presented to Faye and Terry Zealand, the founders of the AIDS Resource Foundation For Children (ARFC).

It is a non-profit organization dedicated to meeting the needs of children and families who are dealing with the day-to-day realities of AIDS.

Each year, the recipient is determined by an independent selection committee chaired by Mary Ann Green, United Way Board of Trustee and Vice President of Public Affairs, MBL Life Assurance Corp.

In addition to the numerous community groups that are solicited for nominations, Vizcarrondo explained that nominations are open to the public "to help ensure a broad representation of nominees and to reflect the name diverse elements of our community."

Nomination forms and criteria for the Ashby Award can be obtained by contacting the United Way of Essex and West Hudson at 624-8300, extension 240. Deadline date is Feb. 6.

The award will be presented at the United Way of Essex and West Hudson's annual meeting in March.

United Way of Essex and West Hudson conducts an annual fund-raising campaign on behalf of more than 80 human service agencies located in 13 municipalities throughout Essex and West Hudson counties. In addition, the organization conducts a variety of year-round community service programs throughout the area.

JUST WHAT THE DOCTOR USED TO ORDER

Consumer desire for greater participation in their own health care has led the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to make many drugs that were once available only through a physician directly accessible to consumers as over-the-counter (OTC) medications. According to the Nonprescription Drug Manufacturers Association, more than 600 drugs requiring a doctor's prescription only 20 years ago are now available without a prescription. A good example of a drug that has achieved OTC status after being introduced as a prescription drug is the nicotine patch. About one year ago, it was available only by prescription. Then in July 1996, it achieved OTC status on the heels of the February 1996 OTC switch of nicotine gum. One month later, a second nicotine patch followed in predecessor over the counter.

If you have any questions on OTC drugs, talk to our pharmacist at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave. (759-1958, 759-1956). Many items are stocked including Times watches, transistor radios, cameras, greeting cards, and Russell Stover candies for Valentine's Day. Hours: Sun-1pm Daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

According to the 1995 Physician's Desk Reference for Nonprescription Drugs, the greater availability of OTC drugs saves about $20 billion each year.

the old cars, provide air conditioning in addition to provide wheelchair access to the cars.

Lutin said that there is no other suitable site for the facility and that the property is not a residential site.

"It's an industrial site, an abandoned GM plant partially burned and the remainder of the property is an unused parking lot," Lutin said, adding that Robert Allen Insurance owns most of the site.

But before NJ Transit could move to the next step they needed to get the Federal Transit Authority's approval. In December, the Federal Transit Administration reviewed the environmental assessment and issued their findings of no significant impact.

"Now it is up to NJ Transit to begin the design of the facility and begin acquiring the needed property," Hackett said.

Lutin said the two properties that NJ Transit intends to purchase is the existing rail line which crosses Franklin Street, which is owned by Conrail and the abandoned GM plant property.

"The Conrail Line is being used to deliver freight to the Hartz Mountain Plant in Bloomfield," Lutin said, adding that NJ Transit will still allow them to bring cars through at night to the plant.

Several residents of the Silver Lake Civic Association expressed their disapproval of the project and the council passed a resolution against the project.

"We think it is a project that will add value to the region, keep people riding mass transit that will save lives and be good for the environment. We want to work with the local community to be a good neighbor," Lutin said.

When questioned about the safety of the project, Lutin said that a team made up of local municipal officials, county officials, engineers, representatives from the Department of Transportation and NJ Transit will look at the safety of each crossing and develop signals to make the site as safe as possible.

He also said the cars taken to the maintenance facility will be trolley cars which operate at lower speeds than regular commuter trains.

Congressman Bill Pascrell (D-8) met with several members from the Silver Lake Civic Association and Mayor Victor Canning to listen to their concerns on the Light Rail Maintenance Facility on Jan. 24. at Public School 4 on Magnolia Street. Pascrell, who is on the transportation and infrastructure committee, said that he will look into where the money came from.

"They are not listening to our input. We feel the quality of life will be changed and they couldn't care less. We have had demonstrations and they don't listen to us," said Marie Strumolo Burke, president of the Silver Lake Civic Association.

The next step for the Silver Lake Civic Association will be a meeting with politicians and NJ Transit officials, Burke said, adding that she will try to get officials from Newark to discuss if there are other possible sites where the facility can go.

A public hearing will be held on Feb. 6 from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the North Jersey Transportation Planning Authority, One Newark Center at the corner of Raymond Boulevard and McCarter Highway, 17th floor Newark to review the Newark Elizabeth Rail Project and to solicit public comments.

speech which he gave to a crowd of 250,000 people on Aug. 23, 1963 at Lincoln Memorial in Washington D.C.

There was also discussion about the Civil Rights Movement and the rights of citizens. Students then watched a film on King's life.

"Students should know what he believed in and why," said Pat Forte, principal of Public School 9.

Cohen explained that on Dec. 10, 1964 King was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize and then donated the money to the Civil Rights Movement.

"He refused to spend the $54,000 reward on himself or his children's education," said Cohen.

Students questioned why the police were violent? Why did Martin Luther King Jr. have to die? Why were hoses used to stop the peace marches?

After the program commenced student Anna Rodriguez described King as "an important person."

"What he did was important and should be remembered," Rodriguez added.

After viewing the program sixth grade student Justin Muhammad said, "it shows how people became equal and why we shouldn't fight each other on our differences."

Student Judy Onque said that "Rosa Parks was right not to get up on the bus. She should have been able to sit wherever she wants."

And student Elena Fernandez agreed. "What they did to Rosa Parks was wrong because all people should be treated equally," she said.

OUR OPINION

Fire Department provides two important services to the township

Belleville's full-time paid fire department performs two important life-saving functions in the township, saving people from burning structures and operating the township's emergency medical services.

About 90 percent of the 72-man squad are certified EMT's in addition to their fire fighting certification requirements.

The department has three fire stations: the main headquarters at 275 Franklin Ave., Station Two at 434 Washington Ave. and Station Three at 132 Franklin St.

Also, the department has two fire engines, a ladder truck, a reserve truck, three ambulances and a special services unit — which carries portable lighting and extra air tanks. The department has an amkus unit, similar to the "Jaws of life" to extricate people from vehicles after motor vehicle accidents. There is also a battalion chief car, which responds to fires.

Additionally, the township's fire department has eight fire investigators which investigate every fire.

There is also a wide range of fire prevention programs offered by the department. For example, every October there is fire prevention open house, where the department educates the community on fire safety. Members also visit the schools and clubs in the township discussing fire safety education. The department provides inspections of buildings along with other informative workshops.

In 1996 the fire department responded to 4,006 ambulance calls total, including 1,892 engine runs which were not all fires; 46 building fires; 47 car fires and 92 miscellaneous fires.

Currently, the township's fire department is linked to the Division of Fire Safety in Trenton for incident reporting. This keeps a record of all the fire-related incidents in the state. They then compile statistics and studies from the data received from participating departments.

The department also has two investigators certified in the state juvenile "fire setters" program.

Therefore, the Belleville Fire Department provides essential services in both fire fighting and emergency services, providing a program that the township should be proud to have.

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

Oops, I goofed again. But that's usual.

Let me apologize to Councilman Mario Drozd, for omitting his name as one of the invited guests at Silver Lake's dedication/tree lighting ceremony. Even though he's the councilman for the 4th Ward, he's always there for Silver Lake. How can we forget him?

Well, another SLCA holiday dance has come and gone. But the memories still linger. How can you go wrong with music by Mike Chieffo, Silver Lake residents, friends, politicians, and delicious foods like salad, ziti, chicken francis, roast beef, dessert and coffee along with a few cocktails. I went to Giordano's Bakery and bought a loaf of crusty Italian bread for each table as my holiday gift. The tradition has come to be named "Breaking of the Bread." It adds to the ambience of the night. It makes my heart glow when I see everyone pass the bread to the person next to them as each takes a piece to savor.

Our "Silver Lake Beauties," who won the 1996 scholarship were also on hand. There was Tara Alamo of Heckel Street, Nicole Gammara of Newark Avenue, and Melissa Sena of Florence Avenue.

Each year, our so-called social director, Sebastian Papa, comes up with some type of contest or roast which usually is aimed at me. Not this year...we turned the tables on him. The "Angel," Angela Cuozzo Zarro, wrote a poem titled "An Ode to Sam," which I might add, captured his personality.

The people were on their feet tapping away to the music of D.J. Chieffo and dancing to the "Macarena" and the "Electric Slide." For those who couldn't make it, you missed a good time, but don't fret, there's always this year's.

The unsolved mystery:

Hey, all you detectives out there...we have quite a mystery going on. It seems that when it snows, someone shovels the walk outside of Pico's Tavern. If you're in the vicinity of Heckel Street and you see someone walking with a shovel, sound the alert. Maybe I'll even come up with some type of a reward to anyone who can solve the mystery. 'Cause I'd sure like to "close the case." Any by the way, thanks to the "good Samaritan," whoever you are.

Get well wishes to Lebro Charles of Naples Avenue, and our Heckel Street crew, Vivian Schiavo, Nancy Marra and Judy Bowers.

Did you know that Ann Marie (DePania) Sanabria of Heckel Street and her friend Noreen Gencarelli have opened a business called "Here's The Party" on Union Avenue? Why not have them plan your child's next birthday party. Just leave the details to them. The way I hear it, you won't be sorry. They're talented gals.

And the best for last: Sebastian (Sam) Papa has a new look. Let's see how perceptive you all are and come up with why he looks so different. He looks like a "young chap." No, I didn't say "old chap."

Remember, we love Silver Lake.

YOUR OPINION

The Final Report Card

The Final Report Card is in: Arthur M. Pico is promoted with highest honors to the highest grade; With stars for attendance to the quality of his duty paid.

A P is earned for the Principles which guided his deeds. Remember him for his high-held standards devised by his vision of people's needs.

P - another P - for Privacy, for his own and for others, Helping without asking for help for himself from others. And a P for Pride in his children, family, and the many he included as sisters and brothers.

So strong, forceful, mild, and a spirit defiant, That's Artie Pico, known fondly as the Gentle Giant. Taking time to chide or poke some fun, Whether it be with a first grader, secretary, parent, politician, teacher, or favorite custodian.

It's the end of an era, a torch is being passed, Though the passing seems to have come much too fast. Those who love the Gentle Giant must carry on from here, And persist in the causes and principles he held so dear.

Why is it so painful to accept what our Giant is due? It's because that which our heart is telling us is true; Multi-generations, Art Pico, are missing a special friend in you.

When the final grading is completed and our own term comes to an end, Wouldn't we be proud to have done as well as our good friend! Goodbye from all of us, your students; commencement day has begun. Thank you, Artie Pico, for all the things you've done.

Dedicated to Arthur M. Pico by Paula R. Zaccane-Tzannetakis January 4, 1997

Fighting against Whitman's $3.4 billion bond proposal

To the editor:

New Jersey taxpayers should be preparing to organize and attend another giant anti-tax rally in Trenton to denounce Gov. Christie Whitman's $3.4 billion bond proposal. The largest bond issue in New Jersey history is being proposed to close a whopping $623 million deficit in Whitman's 1997 budget.

Overburdened New Jersey residents will be forced to pay billions of dollars in interest and $35 million in underwriting fees to cover the greatest one-shot gimmick ever proposed to balance a state budget. Gov. Whitman's $16.9 billion budget sets a new record for New Jersey and her administration is desperately scrambling to generate the revenue to support her outlandish spending proposals.

For the next 30 years, New Jersey taxpayers will be paying off the "credit card debt" that Gov. Whitman incurred to artificially balance her 1997 budget. Whitman, over the past three years, has refused to balance her tax cuts with spending cuts. After raiding every trust account, refinancing the Transportation Trust Fund, and raising every fee imaginable, Whitman is depending on this $3.4 billion second mortgage on our future to secure her reelection this November.

New Jersey voters, still reeling from Jim Florio's $2.8 billion tax increase, will certainly see through the Whitman charade. Trenton merchants may soon prepare for a mini-boon in business as protesters line State Street once again.

The 120 legislative seats are also up for election this year, and a vote for Whitman's $3.4 billion bond will guarantee a defeat for many senators and Assembly members. The 121-member gang in Trenton has refused to get the message - "Cut spending!"

• PRESIDENT CLINTON recently took his oath to serve a second term, and with it, delivered a talk to the nation that told us very little about Clinton's agenda for the next four years. Will he break new ground on social issues? - very unlikely. He has already moved from left to the middle ground overlapping some Republican territory, which incidentally, contributed in large measure to his victory over Republican presidential candidate Bob Dole. Most pundits speculate that Clinton will be keeping his eye on how history will treat him as he governs the country for the next four years. His hands are somewhat tied because he is confronted with a Republican Senate and Congress which means, at best, no new legislative ground will be broken. There seems to be total commitment to a balanced budget by the year 2002. The first program to be cut back probably is Defense. That will mean a loss of jobs and increase in the unemployment rolls.

The President claims everything is rosy with the economy. It may be for the White House inhabitants, but I know many people who are unemployed and others about to get the axe. All we have to do is take a look across the street in Nutley at Roche where hundreds of employees have lost their jobs and more will do so in the months ahead. The financial pages of our daily newspapers tell us a story - with downsizing, corporate profits were never higher. Stock dividends and increased cash dividends are common occurrences. Clinton claims he is committed to improving the lot of the poor people, but all signs indicate the poor become poorer, and the rich will become richer.

President Bill Clinton

• NUTLEY'S Joe DiVincenzo, President of the Essex County Board of Freeholders was honored this week by his election as President of the New Jersey Association of Counties.

• GOVERNOR WHITMAN is about to announce her re-election plans. Currently, she has unfolded an auto insurance plan which experts state is so complex that in the end, to maintain the same coverage a person has today, it may cost more. Under Whitman's proposal, a person could buy less coverage and less protection. But some plans lead to a situation where people injured in an automobile crash may collect nothing from the offending party except the basic medical costs - and that up to a point. The last word on insurance "reform" will not be heard until the 1997 gubernatorial campaign reaches Election Day.

• REPUBLICAN Senator John Scott is the guest of "Campaign Kick Off '97" Cocktail Party sponsored by Senate President Don DeFrancesco, Majority Leader Senator John Bennett and Deputy Majority Leader Gerald Cardinale. The per person tab goes at $150, checks payable to "Friends of John P. Scott, Inc.". The event will be held at the Landmark II, Route 17 South, East Rutherford, on Tuesday, February 11th at 6:30. Interested Republicans, Democrats and Independents can obtain reservations and tickets by calling 939-9288.

Sally Diaz has been painting for over 50 years, since the time that her father took her for art lessons in New York City, where she painted in oils from models. She has continued painting after that and has not stopped.

Currently retired from St. Joseph's Medical Center, where she was a supervisor of environmental sciences, she is thrilled that she can devote her time to painting full time. Her works can also be seen at the Art Gallery on Halsey Street in Newark.

Sally has five children, four girls and a son, all of whom are married. Her daughter, Joanne, is a graphic designer in California, while Lynn Early, who lives in Belleville, is a textile designer. "My main focus is painting from live models. Her mother, who is deceased and was also a recognized artist, was her first teacher.

Ayres said "The BEA strongly supports writing college recommendations and strongly encourages our teachers to do so."

Lawrence Taylor A True Inspiration

Lawrence Taylor, "LT", considered by most to be the best defensive player ever to step on a football field, spoke from the heart about his struggles in dealing with cocaine abuse.

At Integrity House's invitation, Taylor spoke to an audience of close to 200 people, all members of four substance abuse treatment facilities in Newark: Integrity House, CURA, Renaissance, and Essex Clinical Management.

From the time LT took his place at the podium to the time he finished his speech, the audience was totally mesmerized by this superstar's presence and what he had to say.

Ed Lyons, Executive Vice President of Integrity, stated that "LT was a role model for his peers on the football field and is now a role model for people in recovery."

Taylor talked about taking responsibility for the mistakes he made. He also told his fans that "as bad as he was", drugs humbled him.

Charles Stucky, Executive Director of Honesty House was also a guest speaker that evening and emphasized to the listeners the importance of taking responsibilities for one's life in order to deal with their addiction.

Concluding his talk, LT emphasized that there are many people in the community suffering from addiction who would like to have the opportunity to deal with their problem, but because of the lack of available spaces, they cannot get treatment.

He told the audience, "if you aren't serious about getting your life together and dealing with your addiction, then give up your spot to someone who is."

HOROSCOPES

February 2-8

ARIES - March 21/April 20

It's an ideal week to ask for a salary increase or promotion. Don't be afraid to be your own cheerleader. You know your strengths; so should others. Social activities abound later in the week. Last-minute invitations prove to be the most enjoyable offerings. Hold your sarcastic tongue.

TAURUS - April 21/May 21

An organized approach in business is the best way to stay ahead. You may have to put in a few extra hours this week. You may be asked to attend a seminar of some sort. Be sure you know what you're getting yourself into before you commit to anything. A friend's odd behavior will surprise you.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21

A few days in bed may be in order. Don't ignore symptoms — they'll only worsen. If an unexpected change occurs in well-thought-out plans, don't panic. With a cool head, you'll be able to work things out. Romantic happiness is assured this weekend.

CANCER - June 22/July 22

Your busy schedule gets even more demanding this week. Even if this puts you in a bad mood, don't take stress out on loved ones. Keep priorities in order to keep on an even keel. A person you considered unreliable will surprise you and come through when you need help.

LEO - July 23/August 23

A creative project will consume much of your time this week. Try not to overlook more mundane — but equally important — responsibilities. A stubborn attitude could be the final straw in a rocky relationship. If it's valuable to you, you're going to have to keep an open mind.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22

Congratulations, Virgo! In a long-term battle of the wits, you'll come out the winner. What could possibly be better for Virgo than to be proven right? Later in the week, watch what you say in mixed company. Your sarcastic tongue could prove offensive. Use the weekend to catch up on chores.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23

Unrealistic expectations of a loved one is not fair to either party. Until you learn to accept people for who they are, you will always be in for disappointment. Resist the urge to spend money on unnecessary items. A bargain isn't really a bargain if it's something you don't really need. A new approach to an old problem is what you should seek in business.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

Go with your gut feelings when faced with an important decision. Everyone is willing to offer advice, but you're the only one who knows what's right for you. This weekend, your good time may be spoiled because of a friend's grumpy mood. Try to ignore it and enjoy yourself anyway.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

A spell of moodiness may hit you midweek. Combat it by using exercise as a weapon. Sweat out your aggressions on a treadmill, or exhaust your moodiness by pumping some iron. It will make a world of difference. Financial investments will be an issue later in the week.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20

Don't accuse anyone of wrongdoing until you know all the facts. Things aren't always as they seem. Social obligations will keep you busy throughout the week and weekend. Be sure to check your bank account before committing to expensive social propositions.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18

A last-minute offer to take a trip may come your way. Don't think you can do it? Be creative. With an organized approach, you'll be able to go away and fulfill your work obligations, too. A love relationship could be entering a new phase. Get in touch with your feelings on this matter.

PISCES - Feb 19/March 20

Don't rush into new agreements. Examine the fine print, and only sign contracts after careful consideration. At work, you'll have to rock the boat a little if you want things to go your way. Don't be afraid to show your assertive side. You'll find an object — or money — you lost some time ago.

BUG SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Wrestlers drop 39-35 decision to Hackensack

Last week's wrestling match between Belleville and Hackensack pretty much epitomized the type of season Joe Nisivoccia's team has gone through this winter.

The Bucs jumped out to a commanding 35-12 lead, but ended up losing the final five matches, four by the maximum six points, and finished on the short end of a 39-35 count.

Belleville dropped two matches the week before, to Paramus and Barringer in pretty much the same manner, taking commanding early leads, then faltering in the later bouts.

"We have to regroup," Nisivoccia said last Monday. "At this stage, we have to get the kids ready for the countys and districts and it's important to continue to have our younger kids improve their skills.

"Our numbers just aren't there this year. We've been forfeiting, three, sometimes four bouts per match, and that's 24 points without the other team even taking the mat. We have young kids who are giving a great effort, but they're not ready yet for the varsity competition. They've been thrown into it earlier than I had hoped."

The Bucs battled Don Bosco yesterday and will be home this Saturday, to Nutley, in a key NNJIL battle. The county tournament begins on February 6, so the "second season", in essence, is about to begin."

Nisivoccia noted that six wrestlers appear to be in good position to advance well into the regions, perhaps the state tournament.

In the loss to Hackensack, Tim Hands continued his good season with a pin at :55 of the first round in the 103 pound bout. A senior who did not wrestle the past two seasons, Hands is gaining confidence as the countys approach.

At 112 pounds, Anthony Conte has been outstanding. The defending state champ at 103 pounds, Conte, a junior, pinned his man in :46 of the first round to remain undefeated for the season.

Larry Martin earned a hard fought, 6-0 decision at the 119 pound spot. Martin has impressed his coach all season with his athletic ability and intelligence on the mat.

"Larry and Anthony are two kids that should advance well into the states," Nisivoccia said. "They've got tremendous talent."

When Jim Palo beat his man 11-5 at 125 pounds, the Bucs had taken a commanding 18-0 lead, but Belleville forfeits at 130 and 135 pounds moved Hackensack to within six points.

Jim Costa put Belleville back on the winning track with a pin in the 140 pound match.

"We expected Jimmy to wrestle well at 140," Nisivoccia said. "It was a jump in weight for him, and he responded well. Getting the pin was an extra bonus for us."

Mohammad Shama's technical fall of his man in the 145 pound division put Belleville ahead 29-12. Shama won the match, 17-1.

Frank Zarro was the final Belleville winner for the day, pinning his man in 1:43 of the first round in the 152 pound category.

Chris Zarro had a memorable bout with his man at 171 pounds, but Zarro lost a tough 5-2 decision.

"It was probably the bout of the day," Nisivoccia said. "You can call it a brawl. It was a hard fought match. Both kids did well."

Hackensack closed to 35-33 heading into the final heavyweight bout, but any suspense that could have developed was quickly dissipated when the Bucs forfeited the match, giving the Comets the win.

The Bucs competed in a novice tournament, with good results. Shama (145), Costa (140), Andre Cruz (112) and Joe Lelinho (140) took home gold medals. Silver medals were won by Jimmy Smith (103) and Jeremy Isip (140).

"It was important for the younger kids to do well in this tournament," Nisivoccia said. "They've been wrestling varsity this year, and learning as they go on. It's good to see that when they wrestle kids at their level of learning, they do very well."

The match with Nutley this weekend should be a good test for the entire Buccaneer varsity team.

Injuries mounting for L. Bucs

By Mike Lamberti

These days, the Lady Buc basketball team is having a difficult time even in winning.

Cheryl Marion's team broke a four game losing streak with a decisive 66-19 win over Barringer, but in the process, the Lady Bucs lost starting forward Kim Mahoney for at least two weeks.

Belleville dropped two league games last week as well, falling to Paramus Catholic 48-37 and Teaneck, 59-38.

The team took a 5-8 mark into Montclair earlier this week. Today, the team is host to Montclair Immaculate in the preliminary round of the Essex County tournament.

Tomorrow, Paramus comes to town for a 7:30 p.m. contest. Next Tuesday, it's off to Hackensack for a 4 p.m. tip off.

In the loss to Paramus Catholic, Belleville played a good game against the state ranked Paladins.

"Turnovers continue to hurt us," Marion said. "We've improved on our foul shooting, but we don't do ourselves any favors with the turnovers. Against the teams we play in the conference, you're not going to be successful unless you control the ball."

Belleville's downfall was the third quarter, when the team was limited to four points.

No Lady Buc player was able to score in double figures in the contest. Deana Addis scored nine, Mahoney had eight, Anabelle Rodriguez scored seven, Dilma Hernandez tallied six, Kolleen Myers had five and Nikki Lopreato finished with two.

Hernandez, the teams leading scorer and rebounder last season, has been hampered by a sprained back this year. While she has been in the starting lineup, she hasn't been able to have a sustained offensive game.

Against Barringer, Belleville won the game but unfortunately, lost a key player in the process.

In the second quarter, an altercation developed on the court, and in the ensuing moments, Mahoney suffered a badly sprained ankle.

"She'll probably miss at least two weeks, maybe more," Marion said of the senior. "It's one of those unfortunate things that happens once in a while. You don't like to see fights in a game."

"This was something that was initiated by them (Barringer). It put a damper on a good performance by our kids."

Rodriguez, a freshman, played the best game of her career, thus far, scoring 16 points to lead all scorers. Addis had 14, Mahoney finished with 12, Geanine Gialanella tallied nine, Myers had six and Artesa Wyche scored five.

"Artesa is doing a good job," Marion said of the sophomore forward/center. "She's gaining more confidence. We can use her play on the boards. It helps Kolleen in the five spot and with Dilma's back hurting and Kimmy out for a while, we need the size on the boards."

Hernandez started the game, but Marion kept her out for most of the contest because of the sore back.

Last Friday, the Lady Bucs lost a 21 point road decision to Teaneck.

"It's always a tough road game there," Marion said. "Addis stepped up and played well. We really need her to take the leadership role. Rodriguez has been doing a good job. She's just a freshman, but there's a lot of potential there."

Addis led Belleville with 15 points. Hernandez had ten, Wyche scored six, Rodriguez finished with five and Gennifer Piscatowski scored two.

NOTES: Should Belleville win today's Essex County tournament game, they will battle the top seed and defending champ, Columbia, sometime next week.

Spurs claim crown with perfect season

The "A" division Spurs became town soccer champs for the second straight year, rolling to a 9-0 record.

Coached by Frank Jablonski and Lou Nardiello, the Spurs used an effective passing game to out score their opponents. 36-7. Jablonski and Nardiello have a four year coaching mark of 24-6-5.

Team captains Carlo Maucione, Katie Dunn and Craig Rizzi led the team on the field. Maucione used his powerful shot to lead the league with 13 goals from his forward position. Dunn, a midfielder, scored seven goals and assisted on six others.

Rizzi, a sweeper, was a dominant player on defense. He scored one goal.

Chris Trust and Sharon Nardiello were forwards. Nardiello scored one goal and Trust connected on seven shots in his rookie year in the league.

The midfield was paced by Ricky Maucione, Nicole Drodowicz, Joe D'Alice and Chris Basista. D'Alice scored one goal and Basista tallied an assist. Maucione scored twice and finished with six assists and Drodowicz led the team with eight assists. She also had one goal in her first year on the team.

Jenna Junio, John Lopreato and Lionel Lim held the opposition's shots to a minimum on defense. Lopreato netted a goal and had an assist while Junio assisted on one and established herself as one of the best defenders in the area.

Gianna Lopreato turned away 77 of 82 shots from her goalie position.

She also recorded two shutouts.

The turning point of the season came in week two when the Spurs came up with a big 1-0 victory over their league rivals. Carlo Maucione scored a goal in the fourth quarter on a pass from Dunn.

The defense was paced by Gianna Lopreato.

With a 15 game winning streak spanning back-to-back championship seasons, the Spurs will look for a three-peat next year as ten of the 14 players will return.

Carlo Maucione, Dunn, Rizzi and Nardiello will continue their soccer careers for Belleville High School next fall.

Boys' basketball team stops P. Catholic

By Mike Lamberti

A strong team effort paced the Buccaneer basketball team to its third NNJIL Pacific Division win, a 58-49 victory over Paramus Catholic last week in Paramus.

Don Roll's team lost a 75-45 decision to Teaneck. Belleville was 4-7 (3-4 in the Pacific Division) heading into last Tuesday's game with St. Joe's.

Tomorrow, the Bucs are at Paramus in a 7:30 p.m. start. This Saturday, the Bucs travel to Lyndhurst for a noon time tip off. Next Tuesday, Hackensack comes to town for a 4 p.m. game.

"It was a good win," Roll said of the Paramus Catholic game. "Any league win on the road is important. We've had tough games there in the past. We've been able to play .500 ball in the league and hopefully, we'll be able to reverse some of the losses we had in the second half of the schedule."

The Bucs led at halftime and were able to sustain the margin in the second half.

"The kids played very well. It was a team effort, and that's encouraging," Roll said.

Last Friday, the Bucs lost a 75-45 decision to state ranked Teaneck in the Bucs first home night contest of the season.

"We hung in there for a while," Roll said. "But we didn't convert enough shots early and eventually, they wore us down. They're a solid team."

Damon Battle led the Bucs with 17 points. Dave Vargas and Tom Dyer scored eight points each and Rich Otero, Ernie Sicari and Lou Pallante finished with four points a piece.

"Battle and Vargas are playing real well," Roll said. "Otero is doing a good job in rebounding. We feel we have a chance to get to the .500 mark (overall) if we have a good week this week. The state cut off is February 8 and the kids are looking toward the opportunity to play in the states this year."

NOTES: Lyndhurst is coached by Chuck Martin, who, of course, is the head coach of the Buc baseball team in the spring.

Thunder captures in-town title, 1-0

The "Thunder", a Belleville Soccer Association Division 6 team, captured the in-town championship with a thrilling double overtime victory, 1-0.

In the semi finals and title game, the winning goal was scored by Jason Valentine. James Soprano, Jr. and Christopher Hemsley dominated the offense with strong performances.

Kacy Catanzaro, the teams main defender, was dominant. Erika Giangrande, Tara Rielly and Brian Height, all first year players, contributed heavily to the victory.

Goalie Jaclyn Giangrande allowed just five goals all season long. Michael Rizimini led the team in scoring for the season.

On Thursday, the children enjoyed a program, consisting of a play and songs performed by the students. There was a Home-and-School meeting for the parents at 7:30 p.m. and the program was repeated for the parents.

Friday was "Teacher Appreciation Day." The teachers enjoyed a special luncheon.

Pen pal program develops relations between elementary schools

The second grade classes of School Three, along with their teachers, Mary Ann Bush and Fedela Raimondo, recently hosted a holiday celebration at the school. They have been writing to pen pals from the second grade at School Four since September, and the students were anxious to meet their "writing buddies" from across town.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of the School Three students. Singing holiday songs and picture-taking were some activities the children participated in with their pen pals. Principals Raffaella Saulino and Michael Harvey agreed that this project would foster a spirit of cooperation and comradery between the two school.

All of the School Four students, along with their teachers, Lucille D'Ambola and Diane Galante, were delighted with the warm reception from School Three. Both groups of second graders had a great time getting acquainted with their fellow students. They are all looking forward to their next meeting in the spring. In the meantime, they will continue to write to their new friends across town.

Concentration

Middle school to perform 'Fiddler on the Roof'

On March 25 and 27, the Belleville Middle School Drama Club will perform the musical "Fiddler on the Roof," which is about a Jewish family in old Russia.

Over 140 seventh- and eighth-graders auditioned for the roles of the family and townspeople.

Some of the lead roles will be played by Brian Rosenfeld, Lisa Glassman, Tiffany Desmond, Christa Cerami, Rebecca Santiago and Charles Moran. The student directors will be Laura Mafucci and Christine Caputo.
