Four Board candidates vie for two open seats

By Howard Klausner

The Board of Education, now narrowly tilted by a 4-3 margin in support of the school administration, could be shifted the other way by the results of next Tuesday's School District election.

Board Member Tom Fuscaldo, who frequently has joined with Frank Montagna on crucial votes, is seeking re-election. Robert Molinaro, who has often clashed with Montagna, is also seeking re-election.

Should Molinaro be replaced by a Board Member favoring Montagna's positions which are often adverse to the administration, a board hostile to the administration could emerge.

The positions of contenders Alfonse De Meo and William Villano seem to place De Meo in a pro-education pattern. Villano's positions are less defined.

At the candidates night sponsored at School 7 by the Consolidated Association, representing the parent-teacher associations, De Meo and Villano underwent questioning on their positions.

The questions from the audience were read by Janet McManus, president of the Association.

On the matter of abstaining from votes, De Meo replied, "I will follow my conscience, and vote." Villano said, "I will vote on the facts."

The question of providing a positive image in the press brought these responses.

De Meo: "We must push the positive things that we accomplish."

Villano: "I would project the positive side of any issue."

Fuscaldo: "The newspapers have reported something positive every week. We should work with the Township Manager and have a representative at Council meetings, so we can work positively together."

Molinaro: "The Board issues press releases and positive stories include those on the Stock Market Club and Teacher Richard Ruffalo, for example."

All the candidates supported workshops for the faculty and administration to improve skills.

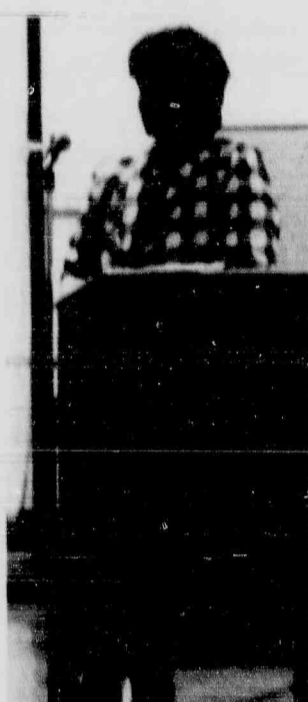

Villano: "All professionals have some sort of workshops. Teachers may need help in teaching students who may have problems."

Molinaro: "Music and art programs were supported by the candidates."

Fuscaldo: "I learned how to play the cello in third grade. Music helped me get a scholarship."

THE M.C. - Janet McManus was moderator of event at School 7.

Villano: "I am pro-art, pro-music."

De Meo: "My parents had the experience of suffering through my clarinet and trumpet practice."

Molinaro: "I, of course, believe it is very important."

Maintaining the sports program in the schools was also supported by all the candidates.

De Meo: "It is an opportunity for children to meet who might not do so, otherwise. But some programs could be co-ordinated better."

Computer education was a matter of interest.

Fuscaldo: "We have put $150,000 into computer programs. The State Departments of Labor and Education are working on a program - School Work - to increase computer education."

De Meo: "To survive, children will have to be computer literate. . . Perhaps there could be corporate sponsors of computer programs."

Villano: "Corporations want to know how it will benefit them. You have to go there with a plan."

Molinaro: "Corporate donations are only supplemental. Our children are so far behind other districts (in computer education), it is a sin."

The question was raised about improving the athletic fields.

Molinaro: "Co-operation between the Board, the parents and the town is needed."

Fuscaldo: "Athletic fields are in dire need. We have to act with the Township Council."

De Meo: "Both boards have to see what to do in the future. My teams play on everything from concrete to parking lots."

Villano: "Maybe volunteers might be used."

Summing up their reasons for seeking a place on the Board, the candidates cited experience and capability.

Villano: "My input to the Board will be in many ways." He cited his experience as a technical expert for Hoffmann-LaRoche, his service on the Planning and Rent Leveling Boards, and his business experience, as among his assets.

"And I will always be open to people. If there are questions, come to me."

De Meo: "I don't have a long record. I'm just asking the opportunity to share my skills with the school system."

De Meo is a practicing attorney who is active in promoting youth sports.

Fuscaldo: "I planned to be an advocate of Belleville, and I succeeded. I am proud of my achievements on the Board."

Fuscaldo is a financial officer for Essex County, and has business experience as a commercial printer.

Molinaro: "Our children are our greatest asset. I have worked to bring in more computers, new textbooks, financial responsibility. I am board member who has lived up to his responsibilities."

For financial restraint

Fuscaldo asks 2d term

By Howard Klausner

Thomas A. Fuscaldo is a product of the enrichment courses offered in the Belleville school system.

Elected to the Board of Education in 1994, he has been a staunch advocate of fiscal restraint, voting against two of the three budgets put forward by the board.

This year, he is a supporter of the school budget, which calls for no increase in the school tax.

"I was elected on a program of enforcing residency requirements," he said. He was first chairman of the residency committee, and he estimated that some 100 illegal residents have left the schools in the past three years.

A graduate of Belleville High School in 1982, he received a degree from Rutgers University in 1986.

He worked for his family business, Thomas Printing of Rutherford, before being appointed by Essex County Executive James Treffinger to be a fiscal operations officer for Essex County.

His department works to find jobs and training for displaced and disadvantaged employees, serving some 2,000 clients each year.

"There is a relationship between the Departments of Labor and Education which we promote," he said.

Fuscaldo is proud of the hiring of a crisis counselor in the school system, following the suicide of a student.

He is well known as bingo caller for St. Anthony's Church. "More people recognize me for that than for anything else."

His wife, the former Carla Benoit is a flight attendant for Continental Airlines. The couple has a daughter, Lea, and the young family will be moving into a new home on Overhill Road.

"It's an exciting time to be in education," he said.

Spokesman for progress

Molinaro is candidate

By Howard Klausner

Robert P. Molinaro, 44, is a graduate Certified Public Accountant who practices the ancient and respectable craft of shoemaking.

"It's an art," Molinaro said. "I like to deal with people."

He joined the business acquired by his father, Pompey, with a partner after the father's return from World War II. They bought the Noble Shoe Repair Shop in Nulley.

Since his father's death in 1995, Robert has operated the shop.

His business experience and his accountancy background have been assets in his service to the Board of Education, to which he was elected in 1994.

Speaking of the school system, he said, "We had to preserve it, make it better. Taxes were going crazy. We had to make it more efficient, and I have done so."

He found a shortcoming in the computer education of the students.

"We were so far behind, it was a sin." He has supported technology and higher education standards.

"We have a good school system," he said.

Molinaro's family has been in Belleville since 1927. His wife, the former Sandra Nyegaard, has family roots in Belleville going back to the turn of the century.

The couple has one son, Robert, 18, a senior at Belleville High School.

"I feel more than ever that the Belleville school system is the best near this town has and we better hang on to it, especially in these changing times."

"I want to make sure my technology program continues. My experience will be a valuable asset to the Board, to help it meet the problems we will face shortly."

Paper's error snafus bidding

By Howard Klausner

Construction of the Municipal Building was delayed indefinitely - with an unknown financial cost to the Township - by an error committed by a weekly publication in publishing a legal notice.

Correction

In the April 3 issue of the Belleville Times, under 'The Crime Watch,' it was reported that a Belleville man arrested as a drug suspect was in jail. It was not.

The police report indicates that the suspect was arrested in front of that address, but did not reside there.

The Times apologizes for any embarrassment caused by this error.

publishing a legal notice.

The notice was the $2 million bonding resolution required to fund the project. An important paragraph was left out of the notice, making it invalid.

It resulted in the Township Council voting a resolution Tuesday rejecting all bids for the job. Approval of a bid had been scheduled for next week.

The legal notice was placed in the Belleville Times, because a previous Council had made that publication an official newspaper.

Sources indicated that errors in legal notices in that paper had occurred several times.

In other business, the Township Council officially named Raymond Kimble as Township Manager.

No mention was made of the post of Public Safety Director, a job whose powers are supposed to be given to the Manager.

It is assumed that Kimble will continue to manage the Police Department, and will manage the Fire Department as well.

The Council paid tribute to John Senesky, who retired as high school football coach after 20 years.

Mayor Victor Canning noted that he had played on the Senesky team which had taken an undefeated Passaic High, and defeated it 3 to 2.

"He was an excellent leader," Canning said.

The Crime Watch: Caught!

Three of the four men who grabbed $60,000 in cash and checks from a bank messenger on Washington Avenue last week were caught almost immediately. A fourth suspect is still sought.

The messenger had picked up the money at Bigelow Motors and driven off to the bank when his car had a flat tire. He was a short distance from the auto showroom, and as he walked toward it, two men approached him, knocked him down and seized the bag.

They did so in view of Police Lieutenant Nicholas Krentz, who saw the suspects enter a black BMW and head south, and went after them in pursuit.

Three men jumped out of the car at McCarter Highway and Verona Avenue, one of them carrying the stolen bag.

Krentz caught two of the men and police later found the third hiding alongside the highway. Nearby was the bag.

Arrested were Jefferson Quintero, 35, and Jose Ruiz, 34,

Colombian citizens residing in Queens, and Luis Torres, 42, of Union City.

An 83-year-old man was charged with sexual assault by a woman on April 2.

The complainant said she was a tenant of the elderly man's house on Overlook Avenue. She told police that he fondled her against her will and that she then telephoned them for help.

The alleged assailant was held in $1,000 bail.

A 46-year-old Belleville man and a 16-year-old juvenile were arrested behind the Gold Coast Body Shop on Cortlandt Street last week, allegedly attempting to make off with six chrome bumpers.

Noises emanating from the building alerted the police.

On April 2, Police Officers Rory Scheumeister and Patrick Goldrick arrested Randall Graves, 36, of East Orange at the K-Mart Store on Main Street.

Police said the suspect tried to leave the store with a concealed answering machine, a car stereo and a Minolta camera.

Mr. Graves was held in $2,250 bail after it was learned that he had a warrant from Belleville outstanding against him.

ing against him.

On April 1, Police Officer Robert Klein arrested Constance McClinton, 33, of Newark at the Pathmark Store on Belmont Avenue, after store security claimed she had tried to make off with four packages of undershirts, with a value of $39.96.

A search by a police matron uncovered three vials of cocaine and a pipe on her person. Charges of possession of illegal drugs were

Pre-school registration

The Belleville Department of Recreation & Cultural Affairs is accepting registration for the pre-school play program for 4-year-old children. The program consists of games, stories, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties especially designed for pre-school children.

A session is from 9 to 10:45 a.m. or 12:45 to 2:30 p.m., five days a week with class limited to a maximum of 23 students in each session. The cost of the 32-week program is $150. The mothers of the children accepted must participate by serving one duty day about every eight or nine days according to a published schedule. School will begin on Monday, Sept. 15, 1997 and will run through May 1998.

Children born between October 1992 and September 1993 who will enter kindergarten in September 1998 are eligible. Participants must be Belleville residents! Since there are just a limited number of openings, applications will be accepted on a first come-first served basis only.

Children (and their parents) must be able to speak and understand English in order to participate.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Dept. at 450-3422 as soon as possible, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Varsity wrestling dinner on April 30

A dinner sponsored by the parents of the Belleville Varsity Wrestling Team will be held at 7 p.m., April 30, at the Chandelier Restaurant.

The dinner will be free to the wrestlers.

For ticket and price information, call Lou Conti, 751-7920, or Frank Zarro, 759-3806, after 5 p.m.

CURING THE BOO-BOOS - Dana Hochstaedter of Belleville, center, shows nurse Vivian Carringo her teddy bear during Project Teddy Bear Care at Clara Maass Medical Center. Any damage to the toy was repaired, and Dana received a Certificate of Cured Boo-Boos showing that she had a bill of good health.

Mobile police mini-station has its dedication

"Let's stick together, Silver Lake. Let's fight back!" Marie Strumolo Burke told an audience of more than 100 people at the dedication of the Silver Lake police sub-station at 58 Franklin St., Saturday.

To a crowd in which officials and visiting notables outnumbered the local citizens, the opening of the sub-station - actually a super-van - Mrs. Strumolo's words brought cheers.

"Don't move away," Mrs. Burke said. "Things are worse elsewhere."

The dedication of the police presence meant that things would be better, not worse, in Silver Lake, Belleville's most strongly individualistic neighborhood.

According to Police Captain Joseph P. Rotonda, who was master of ceremonies, the project started four years ago when he met with members of the Silver Lake Civic Association who asked for additional police protection.

Council Member Angie Paserchia went to her friend, State Senator John Scott, who put a request for $450,000 into the state budget.

Scott, a staunch fiscal conservative, told the audience, "I have only put in two appropriations, one of $50,000 for Camp Marcello, a camp for blind girls, and $450,000 for this sub-station, because it was needed."

He placed his hand on the van, and said, "I just wanted to make sure it was there. These things have a way of disappearing in committee."

The grant included funds for the van, for a four-wheel drive emergency vehicle, an electronic image processing device and crime prevention material.

The van contains a communications center, booking area, conference room with television and VCR, bathroom facilities and a kitchen.

Lieutenant Frank Manno will be commanding officer of the precinct. He may be contacted at 450-3444.

Belleville Senior News

By Joseph Restaino

One Night I Had A Dream . . .

I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the sky flashed scenes from my life. For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to me, the other to the Lord. When the last scene of my life flashed before us, I looked back at the footprints in the sand. I noticed that many times along the path of my life, there was only one set of footprints. I also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in my life. I questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, You said that once I decided to follow You, You would walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, in times when I needed You most, You would leave." The Lord replied, "My precious child, I would never leave you during your times of trial and suffering. When you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Condolences to Louise Bruno who lost her sister recently. Get well wishes to Anthony Belina who is still in the hospital. Vivian Riccio is out of the hospital and recuperating at home.

Happy birthday to Arthur Keenan, Ed Barbig, George Turtoriello, Art Fatarusso, Edmond Barbier and Joe Celso.

And a happy anniversary to the Keenans, the Barbiers, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Fioravanti and Mary and Lou Melchione.

Dan and Joy Tribune are celebrating their 66th wedding anniversary. Have a happy one to two of the nicest people I know.

I forgot a happy birthday to Frank Senatore. Frank leads the sing-a-long every Thursday at 11:30 a.m. at the Belleville Library. Good job, Frank.

Angie Marsiano is also out of the hospital and recuperating at home.

Don't forget the Kennedy Association breakfast this coming Sunday at 10 a.m. at the Branch Brook Manor.

Also, the Concerned Citizens of Belleville is having its scholarship dinner and dance, also at the Branch Brook Manor, on Saturday night, April 19 from 7 to 11:30 p.m. Tickets are still available by calling 759-1119 or 759-6934.

Ervia De Luca, who sings with the Bloomfield Civic Chorus, informs me that the Bloomfield Civic Band and Chorus are having a concert on April 20 at the Bloomfield Middle School at 3 p.m. Excerpts from "Pirates of Penzance," "Les Miserables," "Candide Overture," and many more will be sung by the chorus. For info, call 338-8140.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure — but when your safety is at stake, that ounce may be worth a lot more than that. Carjacking is a serious problem so we suggest the following safety hints:

- Do not stop to help a disabled motorist. Contact the police.
- When stopped at a traffic light, do not pull up too close to the car in front. Leave enough room to make an escape if necessary.
- If you are struck from behind under suspicious circumstances, shut your windows, lock your doors, go to a well-lighted area, a gas station or your nearest police station and report the incident.
- Try to park only in well-lighted areas near other vehicles and other people.
- Do not leave anything of value in plain sight inside your car.

This is probably a heck of a way to live, but some of the above suggestions might just keep you from being harmed, so play it safe and you won't be sorry.

Seniors, at 65, you get Medicare coverage; full Social Security benefits; pharmaceutical assistance programs (PAAD); Lifeline; $225 for utility or $225 cash to tenant whose utilities are included in their rent; Supplemental Security Income for people with very low incomes; Medicaid; reduction of $250 for homeowners on real estate taxes by municipalities; discounts at golf courses operated by Essex County Dept. of Parks.

Tid bit: Do unto others as you would they do unto you.

Keep Belleville beautiful!

Kennedy Association breakfast April 13

The fourth annual scholarship breakfast hosted by the Kevin G. Kennedy Civic Association will take place on Sunday, April 13, at the Branch Brook Manor, 13 Washington Ave., from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

This year, scholarships will be given in the memory of Esther Marotti and James Bartholomew. The Kevin G. Kennedy Civic Association will also honor Assemblyman John V. Kelly as the "Humanitarian of the Year."

The Kennedy Civic Association will also make a donation this year to the Deborah Heart and Lung Center. In addition, the association will award another scholarship in memory of Lt. Edward Kennedy, the standard bearer's brother who passed away this year. This will be an annual award.

Students interested in applying for the scholarship may pick up forms at the Belleville High School Guidance Department.

Tickets to this year's breakfast are priced at $14 per person. Anyone interested in purchasing tickets should call 751-2575 or send a check or money order to the Kevin G. Kennedy Civic Association, P.O. Box 192, Belleville, N.J. 07109.

Jazz concert on April 15

The Belleville Public Schools Music Department will be presenting its annual Big Band Bash on Tuesday, April 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Donation will be $2.

This concert will feature the Elementary Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Eugene Morriello, the Middle School Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Glenn VanBenschoten and the High School Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Mark S. Fabio.

The concert will feature traditional jazz and swing music from the '40s, '50s and '60s in addition to some more modern jazz-fusion, rock and blues numbers.

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

You know what, I'm tired after last Saturday. It was some momentous occasion. First, the dedication of Silver Lake's Mini Police Substation at 10 a.m. and, that same night, "An Evening with Bobby Byrne." Wow! All that in one day.

And to add to that, we had to change our clocks back and lost an hour of sleep. Oh, well, what can you do? Hopefully, maybe next week's issue will deal with the events of that momentous April 5.

But I do have some good news to report, anyway. Arthur, better known as Pete Branch of Honiss Street, tells me that the St. Anthony's Senior Citizen Club saved all their pennies and purchased a new American flag and presented it to Father Collins and St. Anthony's Church.

Did I tell you that Pete is the president of this "great" club along with Mabel Nolan, the vice president, Ida Iannuzzi of Jeraldo Street, the secretary, and Jean Nicastro of Heckel Street, who is the keeper of the monies, or shall I say the treasurer. They have a "healthy" contingent of 74 members.

On a sad note, condolences to the family of Donata Liberatore, a member of St. Anthony's Seniors, who recently passed away. There was no notice in the newspaper, but she has been buried in Pennsylvania.

Boy, I'm getting tired by the minute. Is there such a word as "tired?" I don't think so, but so what.

But don't fret, Eleanor Strollo of Chestnut Street, sent me this wonderful poem to fill in the blanks or I wouldn't have a column this week.

"Families are...

"One of God's greatest treasures and the embodiment of all that is important in life.

"Families are a refuge in good times and bad, a warm place of peace where acceptance reigns.

"It matters now what you do or where you are. One thing you never doubt is your family.

"The members are always there, arms ready, to embrace you with healing hugs, and hearts with unconditional love to share.

"A family is a gift that's never completely unwrapped, it is a present for which each member is eternally thankful."

Thanks, Eleanor, the saying was beautiful and came in handy.

Before I sign off, let me wish Concetta (Dolly) Romano of Heckel Street a get-well message. She's on the mend and will be back in the swing of things.

Wait, wait, I have more. Rita and Lebro Charles of Naples Avenue have celebrated their 30-something wedding anniversary on April-something.

Now, don't get mad, Rita, I remembered it was in April, didn't I, and I remembered it was 30-something, didn't I?

Well, that must mean something, don't you think? Good! But anyway, have a happy day and an anniversary waltz on me.

Remember, we love Silver Lake.

Rotary Club 75th anniversary

The Rotary Club of Belleville will begin its 75th year of service to the community on Tuesday, April 22.

To commemorate its anniversary, the first of two celebrations will be held on May 7 at 7 p.m. at the Belleville Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Ave. in the Carnegie Room on the second floor.

The program will open with introductions by Frank Cozzarelli, president; Adrea Cohen, a member of Rotary and library director; Rotary's contribution to the community, Anthony Chirico; Gift of Life history and Rotary's participation, Rene Gabbai and Shirlee Sherman; citation from Belleville Mayor Victor Canning; followed by a concert with Carolle-Ann Mochemuk and Paul Kueter, duopianists.

Rev. Nancy Moore will deliver the concluding prayer.

Free tickets for the duo piano concert can be obtained by calling the library at 450-3434.

The Taxpayer's Voice in Trenton

Senator John P.

SCOTT

- Conservative
- Republican
- For The People

Fighting For Taxpayers...

SENATOR SCOTT cut the sales tax from seven to six percent, reduced income tax rates by 30 percent, restored the property tax deduction for homeowners and fought increases in gasoline taxes and taxes on home heating fuel.

SENATOR SCOTT helped stop the proposed one percent payroll income tax on people who work in Jersey City and helped stop a similar tax on our residents who work in New York.

SENATOR SCOTT is a solid conservative who has voted against more spending and government giveaways than any other member of the legislature and has consistently voted against proposals to increase welfare benefits.

Defending Our Values...

SENATOR SCOTT is pro-Life and has introduced legislation to ban gruesome late-term "partial-birth" abortions that have been compared to infanticide. He is a sponsor of legislation that would outlaw same sex "marriages" in New Jersey.

SENATOR SCOTT opposes Affirmative Action and Quotas and has sponsored legislation to make it illegal to ask someone's race or ethnic background on a job application, college admissions form or government document.

SENATOR SCOTT has led the fight against state aid formulas that rip-off suburban towns like Belleville and Nutley to give more money to Newark and Paterson.

Getting Things Done...

SENATOR SCOTT wrote the law that stopped Jim Florio from closing St. Mary's Hospital in Passaic and Clara Maass Pediatric in Belleville.

SENATOR SCOTT is fighting the "Clifton Commons" project that will hurt local area businesses, and has sponsored legislation that would keep a percentage of local sales taxes in our towns.

SENATOR SCOTT is a tireless fighter for our neighborhoods. Whether it's helping Nutley homeowners get their homes removed from a flood zone or bringing a police substation to Silver Lake in Belleville, no one works harder for the people than Senator John Scott - The Taxpayer's Voice in Trenton.

Girl Scouts plan pasta fundraiser

Girl Scout Troop 908 will have a pasta dinner-dance fundraiser on Thursday, April 17 from 7 to 11 p.m. at Branch Brook Manor, Belleville.

Profits will go directly to the troop's trip to Washington D.C. fund.

Tickets are $15 and are available from Mari Ippolito, 759-3591. They may also be purchased at the door.

The evening will feature a family-style meal of salad, baked ziti, bread and butter, soda, coffee, tea and dessert.

A professional DJ will provide music for all generations and door prizes will be awarded.

The troop, which meets at St. Anthony's Church, has been together since 1990 when they were Brownies. The girls are Senior Scouts now and are looking forward to seeing the nation's capitol this summer.

Columbus Hospital Auxiliary slates dinner/fashion show

The Women's Auxiliary of Columbus Hospital in Newark will sponsor a dinner/fashion show on Tuesday, April 29, at 6:30 p.m. at Mayfair Farms, West Orange.

Tickets are $40.

The annual event, "Spring Fantasy," features designs by Debra Van Horn, a New York designer. A sit-down dinner, fashion show and opportunity for awards will be included in this major fundraiser.

"The dinner/fashion show is an event that everyone looks forward to every year. It gives people an opportunity to socialize and to win fabulous prizes, while helping the hospital," said Louise Stefanelli, auxiliary president.

We are very proud of this event. It raises a great deal of money to benefit the hospital's ongoing renovation and modernization project," she added.

"The Women's Auxiliary pledged $350,000 in 1996 towards renovation efforts, which it plans to realize in three years. This event will put us one step closer to achieving that goal," Stefanelli concluded.

For more information or for reservations, call 268-1409 or 268-1473.

Senesky testimonial dinner is next Friday

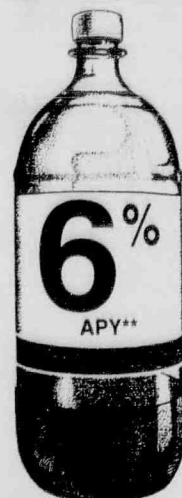

The John Senesky Testimonial Dinner is set for next Friday, April 11 at the Chandelier. The dinner will begin at 7 p.m., and, of course, honors John Senesky, who coached the Belleville varsity football team for 20 seasons and was a football coach in the Belleville system for 29 years.

Harry Flaherty will be the guest speaker at the dinner. Flaherty, who played in the National Football League and the U.S.F.L. in the 1980's, is a renown speaker and has worked with Senesky in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes for many years.

Tickets for the event is $35 per person. If you haven't already committed to the event, you can do so by mailing a check, made payable to the John Senesky Testimonial Dinner to: Mike Lamberti, 47 Washington Avenue, Nutley, N.J. 07110.

You can pay, by cash, the night of the event. Should you wish to pay the night of the event, please call Lamberti at (201) 661-0113 to confirm that.

OUR OPINION

The budget and the candidates

On April 15, the interested voters of the Belleville School District will be making a decision on the future of their schools.

It is the right of the voter to make that decision on whatever information and inclination the voter has.

Those who, in the past, have resolutely opposed any school budget placed before them may do so again. That is their right.

They see the budget as too high, and too intrusive on their own budgets.

Those who would support the budget probably outnumber those who vote against it. But, if they stay home, they also cast a vote, a vote against the budget.

As little as 15 percent of the registered voters takes part in the budget vote, or the candidates for the Board of Education.

As long as the only ones interested in voting are those who are opposed to school spending in general, rejection of the budget will continue.

This year, the budget proposed calls for no increase in the school tax. It has the unanimous support of the present Board of Education. In all likelihood, it should be passed. But its passage will still depend on the turnout of those voters whose support of the schools outweighs the turnout of those who vote instinctively against any school budget.

It is up to them.

As for the candidates, it is reassuring to know that the election of any of them to the two vacancies on the Board will be good for the schools.

Board Members Thomas Fuscald and Robert Molinaro deserve re-election. Both have served the School District well, and they will continue to do so if re-elected.

Contenders Alfonse De Meo and William Villano both deserve political office. If they are not on the school board, they are both worthy of Council seats.

Mr. De Meo, an attorney, represents the young families who want to remain in Belleville and make their homes here. He is attuned to their needs.

Mr. Villano is a man of heroic proportions who has served on Township boards with distinction, and whose personal courage makes him a welcome addition to politics. So be it.

Getting it right

When a governing body does something foolish, the penalty is usually paid by the citizen-taxpayer.

Come to think of it, that is the thumbnail history of Belleville.

A case in point is the extraordinary cost to the Township by a simple error in printing the $2 million bonding resolution for the renovation of the Municipal Building.

The failure to print the resolution with the proper legal paragraphs throws the whole bidding award into question, and could delay construction for months, and cost the taxpayers tens or hundreds of thousands of dollars, unnecessarily.

The problem is traced to a decision of a previous Council to put the township's legal notices into a publication whose competency was never examined before the decision was made.

At the time, the Council decided that politics took precedence over practicality, and disqualified the real official newspaper, the Belleville Times - a publication with many times the paid readership of the offending paper, and many times the local news coverage.

But it is also a newspaper that has specialized in publishing legals for many years.

What may have seemed to be a minor decision at the time turns out to be a very serious one.

That's the dark side of the picture.

The bright side is that the Township may have a longer time to study the entire question of renovation.

There is little doubt that the interior of the Municipal Building - which most of us call Town Hall - needs a real overhaul.

There are many who suspect the building of being a breeding ground for cancer - it being odd that three lives of young men should have been lost to that horror, although the cause has never been proven.

But since we all know how tempting a major construction job can be to those who are ethically challenged, and because the job is one that should carry us well into the next century, a study might be made of the whole idea.

There are agencies that provide that kind of service, and some of them are state and federal bodies that do not charge fees.

The printing mistake will be costly. A building mistake could cost even more.

Pipe those blossoms!

One thing that Belleville has is the glory of the cherry blossoms that are now in their full bloom.

Outside of Japan, no place on earth has so many of these examples of Nature's glory. And the whole scene is within walking distance for most of us, and a very short drive for the rest.

Like liberty and rule of law, it is something we take for granted. Fortunately, there were people who created Branch Brook Park, brought in the cherry blossoms and turned it all over to us. What a gift!

YOUR OPINION

'No' to the budget

To the editor:

As a parent and a taxpayer I understand the value of an excellent school system. Our children's future will be determined by the quality of the education they receive. Our township's property values are also determined by the quality of our school system and the cost of maintaining it.

On April 15, when we vote on our school budget, we should have all the facts. Our school trustees and administrators have proudly announced that this year's budget contains no tax rate increase. However, the actual dollar amount of this year's budget is up by over $2.3 million, or the equivalent of 50 tax points.

The increased spending without a tax increase is the result of an additional $2.7 million in state aid received by our district this year. Our trustees and administrators are telling us the additional aid must be spent as per new state mandates.

Ironically, this Board of Trustees passed a resolution last year opposing state mandates. One line item in the budget advertised in the March 20 issue of the Belleville Post is "Supplemental School Tax Reduction Aid" in the amount of $300,000, or six tax points. The word "reduction" was misspelled in the advertisement and may have been misinterpreted.

In September, School Superintendent Michael Lally presented a long list of accomplishments of our school district and he stated, "We are in an outstanding state of readiness for our new school year." I agree with Mr. Lally and commend him and his staff.

I urge them to continue with their prudent direction of the past several years. The large increase in state aid this year has finally provided the opportunity for tax relief. The portion of state aid earmarked for school tax reduction should be used for this relief. Belleville property values are declining and a slight reduction in taxes may be the catalyst to begin reversing this decline.

Our student enrollment of approximately 4,200 is dramatically lower than our 1970 enrollment of 5,939. If recent enrollment increases continue, and we don't tighten our belts, our tax rate and our spending will skyrocket, and property values will nosedive. Our children will suffer as they inherit the higher costs we incur today.

I urge a "no" vote on this year's budget to direct our school trustees to provide us with the property tax relief that the portion of state aid was intended for. Non of our programs will be in jeopardy. A "no" vote will simply direct the governing body to review this budget. I am confident the school trustees and the Council will find this small amount of tax relief that Belleville desperately needs.

Vincent J. Frantantoni

'Finger,' go home!

To the editor:

I have been following with varying degrees of amusement, embarrassment, disgust and exasperation the antics of Mr. Joseph Montagna, in his seemingly one-man crusade to make the Belleville Board of Education the laughingstock of this county, if not the entire state.

Beginning with his misdirected zeal to invalidate any real improvement to our school system under the guise of keeping our taxes down, through his opinion that newspapers disagreeing with his misbegotten dogma "burn to the ground," to his present obsession with displaying obscene gestures in incredible inappropriate circumstances, Mr. Montagna has proven to be a consistent embarrassment and nuisance to the board and the town as a whole.

What Mr. Montagna fails to understand is, that by demanding excellence from and investing in our school system, we may help stem the tide of citizens who are able to pay full shares of the tax burden from fleeing this town, and maybe even make this an attractive place to by a home for young people with good jobs and children to educate! (P.S. Mr. Montagna, perhaps our property values may even stop plummeting!)

I have two suggestions to help remedy the situation:

• First, the Board of Education needs to make a resolution to, at the very least, censure this loose cannon. More appropriately, they should remove him from the Board, by some wholly legal, yet swift and sure means.

• Second, Mr. Montagna, I beg you, for the good of the town, and to salvage any vestige of self-respect you may have left, resign. Go home. Let the Board of Education get on with the business of education, and stop having to waste their time and energies compensating for the damage you are wreaking on this town's reputation and school system. Please stop making them feel humiliated when they have to tell out-of-towners where they live, and what school system they attend.

Mr. Lally, I have respected you as an intelligent man of high principle for many years. Please lead the board to higher ground and do something about this horrific situation.

Of All Things

By Frank Orechio

A feature of the Nutley Sun, Bloomfield Life, Belleville Times and Glen Ridge Voice

• BLOOMFIELD Republican Chairman is Assemblywoman Marion Crecco. Since Crecco is a candidate for reelection to her Assembly seat, it behooves Crecco to give up the party chairmanship.

Crecco is meddling in the Bloomfield Board of Education election by supporting one candidate, Peter Strumulo, whose prime purpose for running is his known interest in retaining the expensive legal firm now representing the Bloomfield Board of Education. It would be interesting to check contributors' lists for both Crecco and Strumulo.

• THE Passaic County Republican organization is out to teach Big Joe Bubba a lesson he will never forget. Two years ago, Bubba tried to have his wife appointed as head of the Passaic County Adult Care Center. The freeholders told him it will not be done - and that's the point in time that Bubba suddenly - after being in "bed" with Chairman Peter Murphy's organization - discovered his playmates "are rotten-to-the-core, a corrupt group of people raping the taxpayers. I'm supposed to keep my mouth shut, but they got the wrong guy." Mr. Bubba, why don't you be truthful and tell the people if you had received the organization's support you would be saying that Passaic County government is among the best in New Jersey! Why did Bubba remain silent these past 15 years if he thought the organization of which he was a major player was corrupt, etc.

Bubba's opponent is the popular Freeholder, Attorney Norm Robertson.

Robertson was formerly associated with one of the nation's most prestigious law firms - Rogers and Wells, a New York City-based firm with offices across the nation. Rogers was a former U.S. Attorney General and Secretary of State during the reign of President Eisenhower.

Robertson served on Governor Whitman's Transition Team and her Urban Economic Development Task Force. He was also appointed by Governor Tom Kean as a Trustee of the New Jersey Historic Trust.

The Passaic County Republican Committee voted 44 to 3 for Robertson. One of the these votes cast against Robertson was Joe Bubba's.

• HENRY TUORTO is running for a seat on the Bloomfield Board of Education in the April 15 election, but he's not running alone.

It seems that every single press release he's sent out in this campaign has been sent to us directly from the office of Mayor James Norton.

What's peculiar, of course, is that Tuorto is a Democrat and Norton is a Republican. Tuorto and Norton, in fact, opposed each other in the 1995 mayoral race.

Bloomfield's politics is a strange animal.

• BLOOMFIELD'S School Superintendent reportedly gave nomination petitions to Board member Annette D'Angelo for candidate Henry Tuorto who recently lost a race for reelection to the Council. The candidate who received the other petition was Vinnie Biunno. D'Angelo is friendly to the Board of Education attorneys. The election of Tuorto and Biunno will mean continuing high fees for attorneys.

• WELL, it looks like Nutley Mayor Gary Furnari should get a pass in his quest for the 36th District Democrat State Senate seat - especially in view of the fact that the Bergen County Democrat Convention Delegates voted 3 to 1 in favor of Furnari - quite an astonishing result.

• ESSEX Democrats have serious problems to resolve by today, Thursday. The only county candidate who appears to enjoy unanimous support of city and county leaders is three term Sheriff Armando Fontoura. He should be nominated and elected by acclamation.

• THE Annual Meeting of the Van Riper House is to be held on Friday, April 11th at 6:30 at the Nutley Museum, 65 Church St., Nutley. Marie Greiner, president, invites everyone to attend. Guest speaker, Urie Ridgeway of the Lenni Lenape Council, will speak about the history of his Native American family.

Many upcoming events will be discussed including their September "Street Fair". Refreshments will be served, so contact Marie at 235-9461 if you wish to attend.

• IT'S almost a certainty that Assemblyman John Kelly and Paul DiGaetano will form a ticket to dump incumbent Republican Senator John Scott. It should be filed by today's deadline. This technique - last minute filing - is not invented by Kelly and DiGaetano - it's as old as politics. Reportedly, Scott is ready with his own slate - if necessary. A candidate must have a slate in order to be assigned a line on the ballot. Without a slate of candidates, Scott's name would have been listed about 8 rows down on the ballot.

Iannuzzi is also a member of Phi Sigma Pi, the university's honor fraternity and the Language Club.

She is pursuing a bachelor's degree in Spanish.

Belleville mother, daughter to be honored for volunteerism

Belleville residents Maria DeLeva and her daughter, Toni Anne, will be among the volunteers honored by Montclair Community Hospital during National Volunteer Week, April 13-19.

Since joining the volunteer staff nine years ago, the DeLevas have compiled nearly 2,000 hours of service and worked in a number of different departments.

"We help out where we're needed," said Toni Anne, who worked her first volunteer hour at the hospital as a 12-year-old and two years later, won the Governor's Award for teenage volunteerism.

"To describe being a volunteer, you can say words like fulfilling and rewarding," said Maria, "but it's all about the good feeling you get when you do something that's right, when you do something that's selfless. You know you're making a contribution that's important."

"Hospital volunteers like Maria and Toni Anne play an integral role in the day-to-day operation of our hospital," said Emilie Murphy, CEO of Montclair Community Hospital. She noted that 100 volunteers, ranging from teenagers to seniors, provide assistance in nearly 20 departments of the non-profit hospital. Murphy said last year, volunteers logged more than 11,000 hours. "The Governor's Office on Volunteerism estimates that a hospital volunteer, if paid, would earn $12.45 per hour. In 1996, that translated into a cost-savings of nearly $125,000 for us. The important role played by the volunteers allows the hospital to continue providing high quality patient care."

Playground to be opened

Belleville residents are invited to a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Saturday, April 12 at 10 a.m. for the new playground area at the Rec House on Joralemon Street.

The renovated playground features two separate units designated for children ages 2-5 and children ages 5-12. The renovation at the Rec House is one of seven that were completed in the late summer-early fall of 1996 by the Township. Already, Belleville children have been able to enjoy the new state-of-the-art equipment which is not only aesthetically pleasing but also meets all of the latest safety standards.

'Our Flag'

To the editor:

We ascribe to her characteristics that transcend human life,

Sovereign, Indivisible, Renewable,
Why do we do that?

Is it not that we are inseparable,
She is our accomplishments from

The Halls of Independence to the dust of Planets unknown,

She makes it possible for us to honor ourselves,

She is the wrappings of new strivings,

She is the drappings of deeds well done,

She is the mirror image reflected in Blue and Grey,

Navy, Khaki, White or Green Beret,

She represents our honor, our tears, and our love.

She has been to Congress

She has been to the Supreme Court,

Where she was declared to voice of the first amendment.

Saluted by school children

Their voices raised in unison

They gave you their pledge of allegiance.

The first time ever Columbus Day 1892,

Written just for them by Masons two

Upham and Bellamy.

The flag, the children and the pledge

Symbols that equate

Free education - a cornerstone of this Republic.

Citizens of these United States

She is what you want Her to be, colored red, white and blue

Three thousand miles east to west, eighteen hundred north to south.

Around the world she is our guard, home, our glory,

So dear One, we will fly you at half staff

Until noon this Memorial Day.

Red - White - Blue

A vote for Molinaro

To the editor:

On April 15 Belleville will be holding its annual school board election with two seats open. Among the candidates is incumbent Robert Molinaro, who is seeking a second term.

During his initial term, Mr. Molinaro has proven to have a strong ability to be a most effective board member with no personal agenda, no political favors owed nor does he grandstand to be in the limelight. He is a member committed to the children first while having the concerns of taxpayers, an important priority, which is evidenced by his being part of a board approving a zero increase in the school budget.

Mr. Molinaro is a lifelong Belleville resident, the parent of a son attending our school system and is the owner of his own business.

As a former school board member, I am extremely pleased to endorse the candidacy of Robert Molinaro and strongly urge all voters to keep our school system number one by voting number 1A Robert Molinaro on election day.

Support for Villano

To the editor:

We would like to take this opportunity to inform our constituents about our decision to support William Villano as a candidate for the Board of Education. A good trustee is one who is involved in making our township better for the citizens of Belleville.

We view William Villano as a person that has and will continue to work towards this goal. He is experienced in gathering information so his decisions will be based on fact, not opinion.

It is our hope that our friends, the citizens of Belleville, will cast one of their votes for William Villano.

Thanks from Andy

To the Editor:

We would like to write to you and the people of Belleville to inform you of a touching little story. Sadly, one of our young Bellevillites, Andy Idenden, age 14, has been afflicted with a serious illness called "neurofibromatosis." If this story ended here, each of you would feel a sense of sorrow and despair. However, sometimes tragedies induce feelings of strength, unity, and optimism.

The people of Belleville did not shy away from this problem in pity or sadness. Instead, they pulled together to fight against this horrible disease to raise funds to pay for medical bills.

A committee was formed and they held an "A.I.R. AID" (Andrew Idenden Run) in which people participated in a motorcycle run and family picnic on behalf of Andy. All donations and proceeds went to this young boy's family to help them with their ordeal.

Besides the common people coming together, Foodtown of Kearny donated food and beverages to this benefit. NO other local stores or establishments did so! We would like to give a very special thank you to the Foodtown on behalf of Andy, his family, and all of Belleville residents! Foodtown is now moving from Kearny to Main Street in Belleville.

We think actions speak louder than words and hope and encourage all Belleville residents to give their patronage to an establishment that shows concern for our community. It's a shame that other businesses don't share that good-hearted concern for the common people on a personal level like Foodtown did!

Answers To Your Questions About Business-Related Expenses

Provided by H&R Block

Question: I am a homemaker who is going back to work after about 10 years of being out of the job market. Can I deduct the cost of having some resumes printed?

Answer: No. If you have been unemployed for a long period of time (usually for more than one year), you cannot deduct the cost of job-hunting expenses.

Question: I run a children's day care center in my home. As part of the service, I provide snacks for the children. Am I subject to the rule limiting meal deductions to 50 percent of the cost?

Answer: No. When you provide food as part of your day-care business, you can deduct the full cost of any food served to the children in your care.

Question: I sometimes bring work home from the office. A home computer would help me on these occasions. If I buy one, can I deduct the cost as a business expense?

Answer: No. In order for you to deduct the cost, your employer must require you to own a home computer as a condition of holding your job.

BOOK MARKS

Carol Ann Russo, left, director of the Belleville Welfare Department, is shown with Carol Casale, education chair of the Woman's Club of Belleville and owner of the Wise Owl Nursery, right. In cooperation with the Belleville Public Library and Information Center and the New Jersey Library Association, the Woman's Club of Belleville donated 120 books to the Belleville Welfare Department for distribution to needy children in Belleville at holiday time.

Poetry center head to read at library

"Maria Mazziotti Gillan feels about poetry the way another may feel about her homemade pasta: she loves it; she revels in it; she loves making it; and she loves giving it away. She wants you to love it, too. Here, take some. Have some more; it's wonderful," states Barbara Stewart of The New York Times in an article, written about the poet, Maria Gillan, who will be reading her poetry for National Library Week April 10 at 1 p.m. in the Trustees Gallery.

Her works have been collected in several books and with her daughter, Jennifer, she edited an anthology of new American poetry, titled "Unsettling America: An Anthology of Contemporary Multicultural Poetry."

As founder and director of the Passaic County Community College Poetry Center and its cultural affairs department, she is an energetic and devoted doer in the arts, especially poetry. All over Paterson and much of New Jersey, she finds poets and pulls them into readings.

"Where I Come From," published in 1995 by Guernica, is spun out of the world of everyday life. She makes her domain out of the domestic and holds that domain as a mirror to show us her humanity and ours. The poems are a woman's poems: mother and daughter both figure large in them in a way that is blessedly unique in our time. The strength of the work is its simplicity and its directness.

Her other books of poetry include "Winter Light, the Weather of Old Seasons" and "Taking Back My Name." Call the library at 450-3434 for reservations for this program, sponsored by the Friends of the Belleville Public Library, the Literature Dept. of the Woman's Club of Belleville and the Poetry Society. There will be an open reading following the program by anyone who wants to read his or her poetry.

Library staff, volunteers, trustees honored

Cathy Miller, who has done the dried flowers at the White House from Carter to Clinton, will present a program entitled, "Yes, They are Dried Flowers" on Tuesday, April 15 at 1 p.m. at a National Library Week Program, honoring the staff and the volunteers of the library. Although music dominated her early life, her love of flowers made her an avid gardener as well. She acquired a farm with her husband in upstate New York and grew an abundance of beautiful flowers with which she experimented and developed the drying process. Her articles about flowers have appeared in Family Circle, Better Homes and Gardens, Brides and Woman's Day.

The program will start at 11:30 a.m. with the awards ceremony, followed by refreshments, and then the program with Cathy Miller at 1 p.m. The public is invited to attend the program.

"Our library staff deserves accolades for their service to the community of Belleville," stated Adrea Cohen, library director. "It was at the suggestion of Board President Joseph Casale that the recommendation for staff awards be given, and this was unanimously agreed by the trustees. In addition, the yearly volunteer awards' program, coordinated by Joan Taub, head of adult services, will take place.

BOOK MARKS

Noted author Inez Bull to speak April 18

Noted author, Inez Bull, Norwegian ambassador, will be honored at a tea and reception at 12 p.m. at the library, followed by a discussion of her books, "Ole Bull Returns to Pennsylvania," the biography of a Norwegian virtuoso and pioneer in the Keystone state; "Oakeside: A Loving Tribute to Jean Doswell Oakes"; "The Girl on the Medal," a portrait of Julia Jones Pugliese, first women's intercollegiate fencing champion; "Ole Singstad's National Historic Landmark: The Holland Tunnel," just to name a few. Inez Bull has written approximately 15 books, with more to follow soon.

Internationally known coloratura soprano, concert pianist, editor, dedicated teacher of the retarded, director of music for the North Jersey Training School, a state institution for retarded girls, and special education and music coordinator for the Union City public schools, Bull is a graduate of Juilliard School of Music with a bachelor of music degree from New York College of Music and a master's and doctorate in music education from New York University. She is the founder of the Ole Bull Music Festival, the Ole Bull Museum in Pennsylvania, and the founder-director of the Ole Bull Music School. In 1993, the Royal Norwegian government named her Norway's Olympic gold winner for culture, music and art. In addition, she has received the Eisenhower Freedom Medal, the Sterling Silver Plaque from King Olav V of Norway and was named United States Goodwill Ambassador to the United States by King Haakon VII of Norway, as well as receiving the Gov. John S. Fine plaque and Pennsylvania senate citation.

She was named to the 1996 Marquis edition of "Who's Who in American Education" and "Who's Who in the World."

She is listed in The Piano in Concert, a National Endowment for the Arts, Washington, D.C. publication, of "great pianists in history" as a duo-pianist with Vladimir Padwa, a founder-member of the world famous The First Piano Quartet.

Giving over 10,000 concerts in voice throughout the world, she was acclaimed "the greatest coloratura soprano to have sung in France and Norway in history." Nominated for an Academy Award, Judy Garland portrayed Dr. Bull's life as a teacher of the handicapped in the United Artists film, "A Child Is Waiting" which premiered at the White House during the administration of President John F. Kennedy. The National Research Council in Washington, D.C., named her "the outstanding teacher of the handicapped in the United States."

Call the library at 450-3434 for this program, sponsored by the Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center for National Library Week.

Attic Treasures on sale April 12

Attic Treasures, sponsored by Grace Episcopal Church, will be held Saturday, April 12 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the church's parish hall, 200 Highfield Lane, Nutley. Donated "treasures" will be on sale throughout the day.

Used, quality items such as jewelry, kitchen appliances, china/dishware, crystal/glassware, tools/yard equipment and selected yard and household items will be available for sale at bargain prices. The event also features a variety of items for children, including "like new" clothing and an assortment of books, videos, tape cassettes and video games.

All proceeds will benefit Grace Church and its activities. For more info, call 235-1177.

Chorus of Communities to present 'Requiem'

The Chorus of Communities will present its seventh annual spring charity concert on Sunday, April 13, at 3:30 p.m. at St. Valentine's Catholic Church, East Passaic and Hoover avenues, Bloomfield.

This spring season, the chorus will present Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's "Requiem" and other music.

The chorus will be assisted by area professional instrumentalists.

In addition, soloists will be performing, including Jeanette Goleme, soprano of Nutley; David Majeros, bass from New York City; Sandra Moore-Levy, alto of Kearny, and Joseph Cahill, tenor of Belleville, as well as other soloists from the chorus.

The chorus will be performing this favorite work of President John F. Kennedy, which is often used by the advertising media, crossword puzzles, movies and cartoons.

The Chorus of Communities is an ecumenical, interfaith organization with more than 50 members and a 15-member concert committee.

Members represented in this concert are from Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, among other towns,

The chorus is under the direction of William Moore and is accompanied by Rev. Nancy S. Moore.

The organization is sponsored by the Belleville ministerium. For the past seven years, all benefits after expenses have gone to Clara Maass Pastoral Division of the medical center.

This concert will specifically be to the benefit of the Pastoral Division as well as the battered women's and children's shelter of the hospital.

Tickets are on sale at participating churches or by calling 895-4563. Advanced tickets are $10, with seniors and students at $8. At the door, the day of the concert, tickets will be $12.

Casa Nostra Ristorante features surreal art

For the first time in Newark, Casa Nostra Ristorante, 537 Bloomfield Ave. will host two months with internationally recognized surrealist artist Philippe Valy.

Valy's works are widely known and can be found in the private collections of Queen Beatrix of the Netherlands and the Rockefeller Museum. President Clinton added one of Valy's pieces, titled "America 3000," to his private collection.

Born in the South of France, Valy studied at the Arts Decoratifs under the tutelage of Jean Cocteau, Bizet, Gambier and Goetz, who inspired Valy to pursue his surrealist manner of painting.

After an extended exhibition tour in Europe, Valy has decided to make his newest impression with his friends at the restaurant Casa Nostra in Newark and decided to exhibit one part of his collection in the vision to combine culinary art and fine art. The management of the restaurant chose to create a new look named "Sometimes Words Are Not Enough."

HOROSCOPES

April 13-19

ARIES - March 21/April 20

A co-worker tries to help you with a problem, but creates confusion instead. Don't get frustrated; it won't help the situation. Just work together to resolve the problem. Love is in the air at the end of the week. A friend of a friend reveals his or her true feelings for you. Scorpio plays an important role.

TAURUS - April 21/May 21

Your tendency to keep quiet pays off in the beginning of the week. A close friend needs to talk and reveals personal information. Your confidence will be appreciated. When it comes to romance, you'll have to make a decision. Think about where you stand in that special relationship and where you want to end up.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21

Be patient at work this week. While your boss may seem too conservative for you, he or she really has your best interest at heart. You need to look out for yourself when it comes to your personal life. It will feel like everyone is against you. Be cautious when making decisions.

CANCER - June 22/July 22

Don't be the first to volunteer for a new project at work. Wait to see everything that's involved, because it may be more than you've bargained for. However, you should take a chance when it comes to romance this week. Don't wait for that intriguing person to ask you out. Make the first move.

LEO - July 23/August 23

Your sympathetic side will be called on early in the week. A loved one needs you to listen and give moral support. Be honest, but caring. Give in to your desires, and shower yourself in luxury this weekend. It's going to be a hectic week at work, so you deserve to pamper yourself.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22

While you usually like to be alone, working as a team at work this week will make things so much easier. You'll share a lot of good ideas and actually make some close friends. Loved ones will rely on you to take care of a family matter. Aquarius is involved.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23

Seek harmony in the workplace this week. Don't become involved in an office disagreement. Family matters become hectic this week. Loved ones will look to you for advice and support. Take a deep breath. You'll be able to help everyone out and still have time for yourself.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

Follow your instincts in the business world this week. It's your nature to tell the truth, so stick to it. Don't be tempted to embellish; it will backfire. Love takes center stage as the week draws to a close. An old friend will resurface and want to begin a relationship. Follow your heart.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

Be frank when a close friend asks for your opinion. While the truth may not be what he or she wants to hear, it's what he or she needs to hear. Your romantic life slows down this week, but don't get discouraged. This break will give you time to relax and focus on yourself for a change.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20

Now's your chance to shine at work. You'll be given the opportunity to lead a new project; your intelligence and efficiency will shine through. Don't be shy when it comes to meeting new people this week. Your sweet, sensitive side will endear you to someone with a lot of connections.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18

Let your practical side lead you in your decision making as the week begins. While it may seem like a good idea to make an impulsive purchase at first, don't do it. Finances will be tight by the week's end. A relationship will move into high gear when you realize how much you have in common with that special someone.

PISCES - Feb 19/March 20

Slow down this week, because it will feel as if your entire world is closing in on you. A few days off of work will help you relax, and time with loved ones will show you that you're still in control of your life. Virgo and Sagittarius play important roles.

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Papasidero still has strong roots in Belleville

I got a message a few weeks ago. The note said, 'call Joe Papasidero' and it went on to tell me his phone number. When I saw the note, it brought back a lot of memories. 'Joey Paps' (I always called him that) is an executive with a major insurance company and calls Goshen, New York home now. However, there is a part of him that will always call Belleville home, and for good reason.

I've had a strong kinship, if you will, with Joe, that dates back, in essence, four decades. I first moved to Belleville in the Summer of 1969. I was ten years old, but already an avid sports fan. So, when football season began that fall, I was practically a fixture at the Belleville High School football games.

To a 10 or 11 year old kid, high school football players were the equivalent of what pro players are to older people. So, I really enjoyed watching those games back in 1969.

There was a guy named Joe Papasidero who was the Bellboys quarterback that fall. He was a junior at B.H.S. that year. The team was coached by Don Amabile and had a good deal of talent.

Anyway, I remember the '69 Bellboys put together a 6-3 record, and played well down the stretch, beating Passaic, Kearny and Orange in its final three games that fall. I also remember Belleville losing a game that fall to Garfield when Papasidero threw a 101 yard interception.

I don't bring up that interception in a negative tone. Far from it. I bring it up because it was something that Joe would bring up years later, when I got to know him on a reporter-coach basis.

Joe would play his senior year for the Bellboys at defensive safety, graduated Belleville in 1971 and went on to college. Eight years later, he was back on the scene, this time as the varsity basketball coach.

His selection as head coach was met with some resistance. I remember the night he was formerly named the coach, in the Summer of 1979, that there was some heated debate on his qualifications, etc.

A Belleville Times reporter (it wasn't me) who covered the events that night had written an article about Joe's appointment, an article that Papasidero didn't take a liking to.

So, when Joe started practice that fall, he was less than receptive to me when I showed up to meet him and to find out about his team.

"I was going to throw you out of the gym," Papasidero said to me the other day laughing. "I remember asking (then assistant coach) Hank (Adamoski) 'who is that guy' and Hank saying that you were okay. I thought you were that other guy who wrote that article."

So, once Joe knew I was on his side, we quickly became friends. And, for the next five years, I covered his team. Joe had a crazy bunch of guys, and his games were never boring. He was famous for his quotes, the most notable being a conversation I had with him in 1981.

"Joe", I said, "how good is Queen of Peace this year. Do they have anybody back from last years team?"

Papasidero looked at me with terror in his eyes and said, "Mike, they've got guys back who weren't even there last year."

And it was that kind of comedy we shared for a number of years.

Joe and his wife came to my wedding in 1985. (He missed my divorce party, however, 3 1/2 years later). We have been, and always will be, good friends.

As Joe continued to be a school teacher and coach, his family increased. When I first met him, he had a five year old daughter, Jennifer. His son, Joe Jr., was born in 1980 and two years later, his second daughter, Jessica was welcomed into the world.

Joe left teaching and coaching in 1984 to work for an insurance company. In 1987, he ran for and was successfully elected to the Belleville Board of Education. He was elected to serve a three year term, but due to job commitments, was forced to step down in November, 1989.

Ironically, I was chosen by the Board through an interviewing process to fill his seat for four months until Board elections were held in April of 1990.

It was an enjoyable experience that I'll never forget, and, in a way, I have to thank Joe for providing me that opportunity.

Anyway, the purpose of this background material is that in this weeks sports section, there is an article about Joe Papasidero, Jr., who recently advanced to the New York State wrestling finals in the 135 pound category.

Only a junior at Goshen High School, Joe is a marvelous athlete and he could be destined for greatness in the wrestling forum next winter.

Joe Jr. started his wrestling career by competing in the Belleville Recreation program when he was a little guy. Had his dad not been selfish enough to want to improve his career (just kidding), Joe Jr. could have been dominating for the Bucs.

Joe Jr.'s grandparents continue to reside in Belleville and the Papasidero's are regular visitors to the town where it all started for them.

Time has this funny way of going entirely too fast. I remember when Joe Jr. was born. Now he's just a year away from graduating high school. Jennifer was five years old when I first met here. Now, she's 22.

I thought it was just yesterday that Joe and I went to the N.I.T. championships at Madison Square Garden. But it was indeed 17 years ago.

It was good writing about your son, Joe. Your friends miss you around here. Those times we had in the early 1980's will be very hard to repeat. It was because of you that I learned how good fried calamari is at the Zig Zag.

Congratulations to Joe Sr. and Joe Jr. and most importantly, to a wonderful family that continues to prosper and provide such a positive impact, both in life and sports.

Corino concerned about errors

Lady Bucs win 2 of first 3 games

By Mike Lamberti

Following two early season victories, the Lady Buc softball team got a lesson in reality last Saturday. Carl Corino's team defeated Queen of Peace 6-5 and Teaneck 12-0, but the team ended up on the short end of a 9-0 verdict against Caldwell last Saturday.

The team was 2-1 heading into this weeks action. The team will host Barringer this afternoon at 4 p.m. On Saturday, West Essex comes to town beginning at 4 p.m. Next Monday, West Orange visits, next Tuesday, Westfield comes to town and next Wednesday, Passaic will be at Clearmon Field. All of those games begin at 4 p.m.

Corino noted that his team was somewhat fortunate to come out of the week with two victories.

"We struggled against Queen of Peace," the coach said. "It was a sloppy game. We hit the ball well enough, but we're giving up runs that shouldn't be happening."

Belleville needed a seventh inning hit by Joelle DellaVolpe to seal the win over Q.O.P. Chrissie Crescenzi got the win for Belleville, pitching a complete game.

Against Teaneck, Belleville played a solid game. The Lady Bucs received good hitting from Kim Mahoney, DellaVolpe, Jessica Rottino and Annabell Rodriguez, a freshman who has stepped into the varsity lineup.

Crescenzi pitched a solid game, earning her second victory.

Last Saturday, the team lost to Caldwell, a perennial powerhouse in Essex County.

"They were better than us," Corino said of Caldwell. You can't say more than that. They played better than us and they executed better.

"I would have liked to see us be more competitive and that's something the kids have to learn. We have players with experience and we need to be more consistent and to avoid mistakes."

NOTES: Corino noted that the Lady Bucs have a tough week coming up.

Prior to the Barringer game, the team had to play three straight road games against Kennedy, Livingston and Montclair on three consecutive days.

The NNJL Pacific Division schedule begins in earnest on April 24 against Immaculate Heart. There are still tough inter-conference games scheduled with Ridgewood and Bloomfield set for later this month.

Martin not pleased with Bucs loss to Union

By Mike Lamberti

Despite giving up just three hits, the Buccaneer baseball team lost its season opener to Union, 5-1 at Belleville High School last Saturday afternoon.

Chuck Martin's team will be at Barringer tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 4 p.m. This Saturday, the team is at Caldwell for an 11 a.m. start. Next Monday, Bergen Catholic comes to town for a 4 p.m. start and next Wednesday, it's off to Passaic, also at 4 p.m.

Martin was very disappointed with the way his team played against Union.

"It was a matter of our kids not knowing what to do with the ball," Martin said. "The difference between Union and us was that they made the fundamental plays and we didn't. There's no reason why we shouldn't have won this game."

"We didn't concentrate on the game the way we should have. The mental approach was not there. I know these kids can do better than this."

Ed Pagan pitched 5 1/3 innings for the Bucs and did well. After a shaky first inning, he was in command of his pitches.

"Eddie did a good job," Martin said. "We just didn't make what should have been routine plays behind him."

Belleville's only run of the game tied the contest in the second inning. Tom Barbello doubled and later scored on a ground out.

Union went ahead for good in the third inning and eventually pulled away to a four run victory.

"We give up three hits and end up losing by four runs," Martin said. "You can tell from that that it wasn't the pitching. We have to play smarter defense and I know these kids have it in them."

In-Line Tryouts

The Belleville In-Line Hockey Association has announced that tryouts for the spring season will be held this weekend, April 12 and 13, at the Rink on Stephens St. and Greylock Avenue, at School #9.

Coaches are also needed for the spring season.

The times of the tryouts are as follows:

On Saturday, April 12 and Sunday, April 13.

Midget, 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Junior, 2:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Senior, 4:00 to 5:30 p.m.

On Monday, April 14, the midget team will have tryouts from 6-7 p.m., the juniors from 7 to 8 p.m. and the seniors from 8 to 9 p.m.

Those players not selected to be a part of the traveling team will be assigned to a team in the Belleville In-Line Hockey League. The league will begin when the traveling teams are selected.

If there are questions, please call Gary McDonald at 759-2265 or stop by the Recreation Department, located at 407 Joramemon St., Belleville.

Advances to New York State finals

Papasidero finishes season with 37-3 mark

By Mike Lamberti

He might live in upstate New York, but his roots are very much alive and well in Belleville.

Joe Papasidero might be a high school junior at Goshen High School, but if you're a fan of Belleville High School sports, then you know his dad certainly made his mark during his playing, and later, coaching days.

Joe Jr. recently advanced to the state wrestling championships in Syracuse, New York. An honor role student, Papasidero put together a gaudy 37-3 record and captured the Orange County league championship and the Section 9 title this past winter.

At the state championships, he took sixth overall in the 135 pound weight category. He was beaten by the eventual state champ in the quarter finals, then had to pull out of his final match at the states due to an injury.

"Needless to say, we're all proud of him," Papasidero, Sr. said of his son. "He'll be back next year and we're hoping he can advance even further in the states."

"But it was a great year for him. He's done well in school and he's shown good athletic skills."

Joe Jr.'s 37 wins set a new Goshen school record for victories in a season. He tied the school record of 20 pins in a season, a record set 15 years ago.

Papasidero, as mentioned, is the son of Joe Papasidero and Rosary Papasidero. His grandparents, Frank and Nora Papasidero and Carmine and Teresa Mattia are still residents of Belleville.

Papasidero first took an interest in wrestling while growing up in Belleville and taking part in the Belleville Recreation program.

His dad, a former Belleville School Board trustee, was offered a chance to enhance his professional career by moving to New York in 1989.

Papasidero, Sr., played football for Belleville High School from 1968-70 and later was the head basketball coach at Belleville High School from 1979-84.

There is more on the Papasidero family, mainly Joe Sr., in this weeks Buc Shots.

Joe Papasidero Jr. (right) looks for position during wrestling match this past winter. Papasidero finished the season with a 37-3 mark. A Belleville native, he is the son of Joe and Rosary Papasidero, both of whom were Belleville High School graduates.

Boys' tennis team in a rebuilding mode

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville boys' tennis team will have its hands full in 1997.

Tony Salese's squad has dropped its first two matches of the season, to Glen Ridge 5-0 and Passaic, 4-1.

Next Monday, the Bucs are at Kennedy and next Wednesday, they'll be at Barringer. Both of those matches commence at 4 p.m.

"We've got a very inexperienced team this year," Salese said. "Only two of our players have varsity experience, and they've had to move up against some strong competition."

Senior Len Chinchankar played third singles last year. This year, he's made the move to first singles. If you know high school tennis, then you know that that is a very difficult jump.

Chinchankar did post

Belleville's first win against Passaic, winning in three sets, 6-3, 2-6 and 7-6 (7-5 in the tie-breaker).

Tony Corino, a senior, played first doubles last year. This year, he's moved up to third singles.

"Both guys are making a big jump in talent level," Salese said. "It will be a learning year for all our kids. We're in a tough conference, but I think we'll improve as the year goes on."

Junior Pat Lisa will play second singles. The first doubles team will be Mauro Maricillo and Almer Solomon and the second doubles consists of Luis Losado and Steve Rueda.

Maricillo is a sophomore and Solomon is a junior. Losado and Rueda are both seniors who are out for the team for the first time.

Bravette, Hartuk lead Lacordaire softball

Mary Ann Bravette and Jill Hartuk of Belleville will both be accepting challenges as they anchor one side of Lacordaire Academy's infield this spring.

The two girls are graduates of Good Shepherd Academy in Nutley.

Bravette, a junior, will be making the switch from third to shortstop for the softball team. She played tennis this past fall and during the basketball season, served as co-captain.

She should hit high in the batting order this year.

"She will steal some bases for us," said head coach Lynn Taylor.

Hartuk will be making an even bigger adjustment, as she comes in from the outfield to play third. Very quick and athletic, Hartuk must learn the defensive techniques at the "hot corner."

"Jill will probably hit lead off," said Taylor. "She's making a lot of progress at third. I think she's going to do a good job."

Hartuk was a member of the Lacordaire volleyball team that went 13-5 and won the Rutgers Prep Spikers tourney. That team also went to the state semi finals.

Hartuk's father, John, serves as assistant coach for Lacordaire. He is also helping with the schools book sale, scheduled for May 16-18.

There is still plenty of time to donate used books for the sale. Anyone wishing to make a donation should call John at 751-7987 or Mike at 773-3655.

Crew team excels at Kearny Invite

By Kolleen Myers

Last Saturday, the Belleville crew team competed in the 9th Annual Kearny Invitational, along with Poughkeepsie, Beach Channel and rivals Nutley and Kearny.

At the Invitational, the boys' crew team edged Kearny by one point to win the overall team trophy. This title previously had been dominated by a strong Kearny crew, but this year, the Bucs prevailed by taking first place in five events and top finishes in the others they entered. The medal-winning shells include the senior four, junior four, midweight four, novice four, and novice eight.

The senior four shell, with coxswain Chris Adamo and rowers Mike Schmitt, Efrain Mercado, Edwin Garcia and Scott Horst maintained an open water lead over Beach Channel and Kearny to win.

The junior four, consisting of coxswain Alan Imperiale, and rowers Jordan Toro, Rob Swiatowski, Nick Knieram and C.J. Stevens also beat both Kearny and Beach Channel to take home a first place medal.

The midweight four, which is the same shell as the senior four, managed to pull ahead of both Nutley and Kearny near the finish to earn first place honors.

The newly formed novice four, made up of coxswain Chris Sabatelli, and rowers Jeff Larkins, Carlos Figueroa, Rich Otero and Lance Bowers finished in first place, beating rival Nutley by open water.

The other first place finish came in the novice eight category. This shell, with coxswain Sabatelli and rowers Larkins, Figueroa, Otero, Bowers, Junior Morales, Herb Bolante, Kevin Crespo and Rob Percario led from the start and maintained their lead over Nutley through the finish. The boys' junior 4B and freshmen eight shells both finished in third place.

The girls' team was also victorious at this race. The Lady Bucs took home first place medals in four out of the five races they entered. The winning shells include the junior eight, junior four, lightweight four, and novice four.

The junior eight with coxswain Dana Rasczyk and rowers Brienne Kvetkus, Kolleen Myers, Danielle Line, Lauren Dodd, Tracy Starkle, Vanessa Berendt, Ariel Lane and Christie Hartford raced solely against Kearny and beat them for the second time this season.

The junior 4 consisting of Rasczyk, Kvetkus, Myers, Starkle, and Berendt took first place in their heat and overall as well.

The lightweight four of coxswain Jon Pisano and rowers Michelle Verdugo, Odalis Polanco, Lane, and Christie Hartford fought for first place with Nutley throughout their race but pulled ahead at the end to win it.

In their first race of the season, the novice four, made up of coxswain Ashutosh Shukla and rowers Phung Tran, Kim Matthews, Emily Gencarelli and Maide Santos-Arcila managed to maintain an open water lead over Nutley throughout the race. The girls' senior four finished in second place in their heat behind Nutley.

This Sunday, the team will travel to Philadelphia for another Flick race where they hope to continue their success.

Soccer referees being sought

Applications are being accepted by the School and College Officials Association from high school soccer referee candidates.

Candidates must be physically fit and at least 18 years of age. Successful candidates will be eligible to take the New Jersey State

Interscholastic Athletic Association exam which will then qualify them to referee high school soccer matches.

Interested candidates may contact David R. Klein at 37 Bryant Ave., Bloomfield, New Jersey 07003 or by phone at 338-9065.

Rotary Club Golf Classic

The Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield Rotary Clubs will hold their annual Golf Classic on Wednesday, April 23, at Farmstead Golf and Country Club in Andover.

A 1:30 p.m. shotgun start is planned.

Money raised from the event will be given to charities and causes of each club's choosing.

"In order to make this event a success and enable us to reach our goal, we are seeking support and participation from individuals, groups and businesses in the form of golfers and sponsors," Robert Schoeber, co-chairman of the event, said.

A golfer's $80 donation includes green fees, a cart, prizes, lunch and a dinner buffet. For a $100 donation, sponsors will have a sign placed by the hole or tee and receive recognition in the program.

The monies raised from last year's outing were used to refurbish a cabin that the Nutley Rotary sponsors at Camp Merry Heart in Hackettstown, a camp for handicapped individuals. The improvements made the cabin more accessible for the participants.

Funds raised by the Nutley Rotary Club from this year's event will be used to assist the Nutley senior citizens and/or handicapped individuals from the township. The Rotary plans to make contributions in areas such as transportation, wheelchairs and ramps.

"Nutley has numerous senior citizens and handicapped that need assistance, and it will be Rotary's goal to help alleviate their burden," Schoeber said.

Interested parties are asked to respond as soon as possible. Checks should be made payable to the Nutley Rotary Club and sent to Schoeber c/o Realty Title Agency Inc. of New Jersey, 234 Franklin Ave., Nutley, New Jersey 07110. For more information, call Schoeber at 661-2700.

Arson prevention program aids religious institutions

As the result of a new outreach service offered to area churches, synagogues and mosques, the Essex County Sheriff's Office's Church Arson Prevention Unit has begun to respond to requests from members of the clergy and from congregational leaders for comprehensive on-site arson vulnerability analysis of local religious facilities.

County Sheriff Armando Fontoura, who initiated the new service in an effort to prevent the scourge of racially motivated church burnings from spreading to Essex County, stated, "When families visit their house of worship, they should expect to find peace, comfort and solitude, not the charred remains of a hateful act committed by cowards in the night."

"All citizens of good conscience are appalled at the epidemic of arson attacks which have devastated hundreds of southern churches, particularly those of African-American congregations, in the last six years. To date, New Jersey has been spared these fires of hate," he said.

"Through this arson vulnerability program, the law enforcement community mobilizes its resources to combat this despicable evil," Fontoura said.

Fontoura pointed out that his office recently facilitated the distribution of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms' "Church Threat Assessment Guide" to all religious institutions in Essex County. The information in the guide will allow each house of worship to determine and evaluate its own special needs.

However, Fontoura is also making the expertise of his office's Church Arson Prevention Unit available to all congregations on an as-requested basis.

"Our primary goal," the sheriff added, "is to identify and reduce existing areas of arson vulnerability. Our arson prevention analysis will afford specific plans for each participating religious institution, eliminating unnecessary risk, reducing vulnerability and bolstering internal security measures.

"Hopefully, this concentrated prevention program will spare local houses of worship from the fiery fate of heinous arson crimes," he said.

Fontoura explained that the arson assessment and inspection program would focus on existing and potential structural problems, such as exits, lighting, obstructions, non-fire-resistant materials, and furnaces; housekeeping hazards, such as combustible decorations, non-fire-retardant fabric, and candles; church facility electrical circuits and appliances; and, the installation and maintenance of smoke detectors, sprinkler systems, standpipes, hoses and fire alarms.

The arson prevention inspections will be conducted by specially trained arson investigators from the Essex County Sheriff's Office, assisted by trained and certified dogs from the sheriff's K-9 Unit. The arson-sniffing dogs are called upon to aid detectives when investigating suspicious fires and the dogs have been educated to detect a wide variety of flammable accelerants used in arson crimes.

To receive additional information about the Essex County Sheriff's Church Arson Prevention Unit, or to schedule an on-site inspection, religious leaders should call 621-4105.

Forum on joint services to be held Saturday

Officials from throughout Essex County's Fifth Freeholder District will gather on Saturday, April 12, at the Marlboro Inn in Montclair, at a forum designed to examine how local taxpayers can benefit from expanded efforts to provide municipal services in cooperation with neighboring communities.

"Municipal Shared Services: Exploring the Opportunities" will be the theme of the forum.

The officials will hear from experts associated with Rutgers University, the New Jersey State League of Municipalities and the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs.

The forum's principal sponsor is Essex County Freeholder Louise Palagano, who represents the Fifth Freeholder District on the Board of Chosen Freeholders.

Board President Joseph DiVincenzo Jr. and Linda Cavanaugh, the two at-large freeholders who reside in the Fifth District, are associate sponsors. The event is being underwritten by the three sponsoring freeholders.

There are eight towns in the Fifth District: Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Essex Fells, Glen Ridge, Montclair, North Caldwell and Nutley.

Palagano explained that, to varying degrees, these communities "are already demonstrating that it makes good economic sense to perform certain functions on a joint basis."

But, in today's austere fiscal climate, she emphasized, "localities must intensify their search for innovative methods to provide the high-quality services expected of them while also doing all they can to hold the line on property taxes."

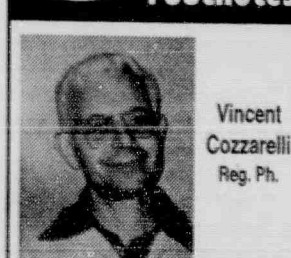

Palagano served for 10 years on the Bloomfield Township Council, so she said she is keenly aware of the budgetary challenges facing local officials.

As a result, she said, she has given top priority to helping communities find ways to deliver public services as efficiently as possible.

The forum, Palagano said, is intended to foster increased communication among municipal officials in the Fifth District and the spark a process that can lead to wider implementation of service-sharing initiatives.

Speakers who will address the forum include Henry Coleman, director of the Center for Government Services, a component of the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers University; Eugene Schneider, coordinator for inter-local services of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities; and John Rasimowicz, manager of the Regionalization and Special Services Unit of the Division of Local Government Services, which is part of the state's Department of Community Affairs.

ALLERGY SUFFERERS GET NEW RELIEF

Those who suffer from allergic rhinitis and its symptoms (stuffed nose and sneezing caused by a reaction to pollen, mold, etc.) have a new medication in their arsenal to combat their allergies. Previously available only by prescription, the FDA recently approved the nasal spray cromolyn sodium for over-the-counter sale. Because it works on a preemptive basis (unlike antihistamines which work to control allergy symptoms as they arise), allergy sufferers are urged to use cromolyn sodium nasal spray a week before they are exposed to the irritant that causes their allergic reactions. The drug does not relieve itchy eyes and to be effective, the spray must be used three to four times per day. It is effective in combating runny noses and sneezing without the side effect of drowsiness.

Information on prescription and over-the-counter medications are available by calling our pharmacist at 759-1956 or 759-1968. ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue. Times watches, transistor radios, candy, and greeting cards are available from us. Stop by daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

HINT: Cromolyn sodium is not intended for the treatment of sensitivity to peanuts and other serious allergies.

The Ice Hut – back with a bang!!

The Ice Hut, Nutley's gourmet Italian ice store, located at 371 Centre St., across the street from the Park Diner, has re-opened with a bang!

According to Don Ullman, owner of The Ice Hut, "We had a great summer last year, our first year in Nutley, and this year looks like it's going to be even better."

So what's new at The Ice Hut? This year, they are offering two new flavors – cappuccino and bubblegum.

Ullman says, "Last year, we asked our customers what flavors they would like to see. Adults wanted cappuccino and kids wanted bubblegum. We worked on those flavors over the winter."

Some locations are also new this year. The Ice Hut, a New Jersey-based chain specializing in delicious, fat free Italian ices, is opening two new stores in Union and Garfield and has another franchised location in Spring Lake.

"We had a lot of people wanting to buy franchises. I guess they see it as a fun, easy business to run. They're right. Where else can you wear a Hawaiian shirt to work," said Ullman.

Douglas J. Eisenfelder joins Schweppe & Co., Realtors

Doug Eisenfelder recently joined Schweppe & Co. as sales associate.

"Doug grew up in Nutley and continues to be extremely active in community activities. His knowledge of the area will be an asset as we continue to expand our market area, and I am pleased to welcome him to our team of sales consultants," states Jay A. Schweppe, president of Schweppe & Co.

Doug currently serves as treasurer and director of the Nutley Historical Society; treasurer, trustee and charter member of the Historic Restoration Trust of Nutley; former vice chairman of the Nutley Zoning Board of Adjustment; and member of the Nutley Planning Board.

His involvement with education includes co-founder and treasurer of the Nutley Committee for

Quality Education; co-founder, executive board member and past

National toll-free pet protection service begun

A new service is available to pet owners from the National Pet Protection Network.

The Colorado-based firm offers a 24-hour, toll-free, pet protection and recovery service which is designed to keep pets safe and aid in recovering them if they are lost, stolen or injured.

Under the National Pet Protection Network (NPPN) plan, full information about the pet and its owner is stored on an information database under the pet's assigned personal security identification number.

The pet receives a stainless steel I.D. tag which is attached to its collar or harness. The tag contains the pet's security code number, the NPPN 24-hour, toll-free telephone number, and a message offering a reward for calling the toll-free number.

A person finding a lost pet calls NPPN national toll-free assistance number. The NPPN operator then contacts the pet owner and arranges for the prompt recovery of the pet.

If the pet is found injured and the owner cannot be immediately contacted, the NPPN operator contacts the family veterinarian or animal shelter to assist in arranging emergency medical treatment. NPPN then pays a reward to the person finding the pet.

According to Alan Hamilton, president of the firm, "The Humane Society reports that over 12 million pets are lost, stolen or abused in the United States annually, and over 8 million pets were terminated, because the owner could not be located in time."

"Under our network protection plan, many of these losses can be avoided and owners will have the security of knowing they have a 24-hour 'guardian' watching over their pets, while keeping the private information about the owner confidential," he said.

Pet owners wishing to have free information about this new service are invited to call Pet Sitters Inc. at 743-5330, or check local pet supplies and grooming stores.

A Message from the President

The March program was a very informative and interesting one. Dr. Dittkoff made an excellent presentation on the symptoms of glaucoma and cataracts. If you were not there, you missed a good meeting.

I want you to know that our executive committee continues to work very hard to generate good programs every month. I believe our programs are presented very well and professionally.

The April program will be conducted by the Rehabilitation Center of Essex County. Come out and enjoy lunch with other members of this fine organization, plus be treated to an interesting program.

The April "Member of the Month" will feature Smith Barney. These articles will appear in Orechio Publication's Bloomfield Life. We thank Orechio Publications for everything they do for our association.

If you know of any potentially new members, please invite them as our guest to one of the meetings. As you know, new members are always welcome.

Your president,
Anthony Bilotta, Sr.

Visit 'Sunflower' first

Are you ready for the summer?

Summer's coming. Are you ready to bare all? You will be if you visit Sunflower unisex tanning, body and skin care European-style salon at 242 Washington Ave., Nutley.

Head-to-toe beauty and well-being are offered to you at affordable prices.

A Swedish massage by certified massage therapists will reduce stress and calm the nervous system while loosening and relaxing tight, tired muscles. Increase your blood circulation and accelerate the healing process with stimulating and calming reflexology (pressure points in the feet, hands, face and head).

Enrich your skin with minerals, activate your metabolism and increase your energy level, exfoliate and moisturize your skin with soothing and rejuvenating body treatments utilizing honey and almond scrub, peppermint twist, seaweed and essential aromatic oil wraps, followed by a full body massage. Contour your body and lose inches with our cellulite program.

Dry, dull skin, the result of months of indoor living in overheated homes and offices, needs a summer wakeup, like a gentle scrub and deep pore cleansing.

Hydrate, rebalance and tone your skin with aloe vera seaweed or collagen treatments and boost your circulation with a luxurious finger facial massage.

Replace heavy make-up with beautiful indoor tanning.

Summer means bare legs. The best and easiest way to hide imperfections is to tan. Unfortunately, the sun is no longer a safe option.

Controlled exposure by indoor tanning is a safe, sensible and easy solution to avoid sun damage and maintain a radiant, dark tan all year long.

Hot, sticky weather can also lead to a shaving problem. To avoid bumps and ingrown hairs, remove your unwanted hair with waxing or electrolysis.

Tanya Poliakova

Don't forget — your hands and feet need as much attention as your face. Get a therapeutic, exfoliating hand and foot treatment and groom your nails with a manicure. Beach-beautiful feet start with indulging in a relaxing pedicure.

Don't miss a very important part of your life — the summer months. And now is the right time to start getting ready. Summer is right around the corner.

Sunflower is open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday; 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday; closed Tuesday and Sunday.

Provident Neighborhood Mortgage Loan program for moderate income families

Incentives for low to moderate income families to own their own home are now being offered to qualified purchasers in nine New Jersey counties by The Provident, New Jersey's oldest savings bank.

Paul M. Pantozzi, president and chief executive officer, said, "We want to help citizens in the communities we serve to realize the American dream of home ownership. To that end, we are offering a lower rate mortgage program for buyers with a combined family income which does not exceed $59,500.

"Provident will also make available an educational seminar to help new buyers understand the important facets of home ownership," Pantozzi stated.

To qualify, applicants must either reside in or be purchasing a home in Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Mercer, Middlesex, Monmouth, Ocean, Somerset or Union counties, where Provident offices are located.

The mortgage program features special rates for 5-year and 7-year adjustable rate and 30-year fixed rate mortgage loans and a minimum down payment as low as 5%. Private mortgage insurance may be required on loans which exceed 80% loan to value. Applications are available at any Provident office. Interested applicants may obtain information by phone by calling toll free, 1-800-448-PROV.

Karyn's Closet introduces new bridal department

Decorated with antiques and potpourri, Karyn's Closet's bright and airy atmosphere resembles an upscale boutique more than the stereotypical "second time around" atmosphere.

Thrifty prices, name brands and designer quality attract discriminating shoppers, searching for women's new and nearly-new or worn-once apparel, accessories, bridal gowns, dresses and gowns for moms and proms, veils (new, custom-made and pre-owned), favors, bridal jewelry and accessories.

Budget-conscious brides-to-be can save up to 80 percent off original prices.

Karyn's Closet also consigns furs, estate jewelry, evening bags, designer signature bags, flower girl dresses, peignoir sets, bridal accessories, cosmetics, day-into-evening wear, by appointment only.

Savvy shoppers hunt for names like Damour, Eve of Milady, Bianchi, Priscilla of Boston, Ilissa, Demetrios, Diamond Collection, Sweetheart, etc., all at a small fraction of the original retail prices.

There are over 100 gowns in stock to choose from in sizes 2 to 22.

Tuxedo rentals are now available.

Evening appointments are available and recommended for brides. Call 998-8710.

Karyn's Closet is located at 264 Kearny Ave., Kearny. Customers are always welcome to browse!

Shhhhh! It's the best kept secret in Hudson County!

Are you tired of rip-offs?

Are you tired of being ripped-off? When it comes to cleaning carpets and furniture, you should be.

When you call some cleaning services for an estimate, they will tell you exactly what you want to hear. They give you their bare bones price for a cleaning, but when the service people come to your house, they try to upsell you.

Being unaware, you okay the extra services, and wind up paying for services you might not need.

Another rip-off that these companies incur on their customers is a travel or access fee. You can pay anywhere from $15 to $50 for them to come to your house.

Are you renting a limousine to bring them to your home? Some of the servicemen live in your town, and they still charge you this fee.

There are other horror stories that many families have been the victim of. Carpets cleaned without the cleaner being added to the water. Carpets left soaking wet. Extra charges for cleaning Berber, wool, etc.

Upholstery cleaning also has its rip-offs. Most companies charge extra for loose-back pillows, throw pillows, etc. They tell you they will clean a six-foot sofa for a certain price; hey, who has a six-foot sofa? Most sofas are seven feet. Most loveseats are under six feet. Who are they kidding?

Last April, a company called Squeaky Clean Carpet and Upholstery Cleaning started its business claiming that there would be "no hidden charges whatsoever." Well, almost a year and 700 satisfied customers later, the company has stood behind its claim.

Owners Art and Donna Velotti do all the work themselves and offer a satisfaction guarantee. All the extras that other companies charge for that you read about in the beginning of this article are not on Squeaky Clean's menu. It is an honestly-run company that sticks to its advertised pricing.

The Velottis will not upsell or take advantage of unsuspecting customers. There are no travel or access fees, and they will do an A-1 job the first time.

For clean carpets, upholstery and now linoleum, wood and tile floors, please call Art or Donna Velotti for an appointment at 743-1122. You will not be dissatisfied with their pricing or services.

Honesty, dependability and quality results has made this small business successful. Please read the ad on this page for Squeaky Clean's reasonable pricing.

THE THRIFTY NIFTY BOUTIQUE, located at 9 First Ave., Bloomfield, specializes in new and gently-used quality merchandise at reasonable prices.

Bloomfield boutique recycles the used

If you are one of those people who love quality merchandise at "bargain basement" prices, then you will surely love The Thrifty Nifty, a recently-opened boutique, located at 9 First Ave., Bloomfield, a short distance from the Rickel Home Center.

Assembled at this boutique is a most eclectic assortment of new and nearly-new merchandise for the hobbyist as well as for the home business, educational or recreational pursuits.

Inside the closely-stocked walls of The Thrifty Nifty, where browsers are always welcomed, one can find just about anything, including crystal or silverware, fine china, old jewelry, cameras, ski boots, antiques, furniture for every room in the home, appliances and electronics.

This boutique is truly a good stomping ground for those discriminating shoppers who seek the unique, the rare, the exotic, at prices that have a healthy respect for the cost of living.

As a matter of fact, one delighted customer was overheard telling a friend, "Finally, there is a place near home where I can redecorate my den without having to apply for a home equity loan or second mortgage!"

Many items can be overlooked, so to make shopping easy, one can just ask the managers, Kofi and Joyce, for any items they may not have seen.

Parking is plentiful and the No. 34 bus to Bloomfield passes right by the doors, which are opened daily from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A phone call to The Thrifty Nifty at 566-0202 will answer all your questions.

Nutrition On-line

By Michael A. DeAngelis

A feature of The Nutley Sun,
Belleville Times, Bloomfield Life
and Glen Ridge Voice

In the spirit of National Nutrition Month's theme "All Foods Can Fit," strange and unique meats are growing in popularity.

Over the years we have all tried to prepare beef, chicken, fish, and pork in as many creative ways as possible. Some people roast, some grill, some marinate, and others deep-fry.

Yet, all of this effort appears to be in vain since people tend to still be bored with the usual choices. Well, the food industry has heard the cries and have begun using such meats as buffalo, goat, rabbit, elk and ostrich to name a few (Yes, ostrich!!).

To some the idea of eating rabbit sounds revolting. To others, alligator is not their first choice.

Well, if this is your attitude, clear your mind and open your eyes. Most of these new and wild meats are actually great tasting and low in fat.

Rabbit meat tastes just like chicken and yet has less fat than chicken breast and other cuts of chicken.

Buffalo and elk are also low in fat and have a taste much like tender beef. Surprisingly, ostrich has been used as a substitute for beef since it looks, cooks, and tastes like beef with over half the fat of beef.

While I was visiting Italy one time, I was tricked, by my father, into eating goat. When I learned it was goat, I kept on eating because it tasted great.

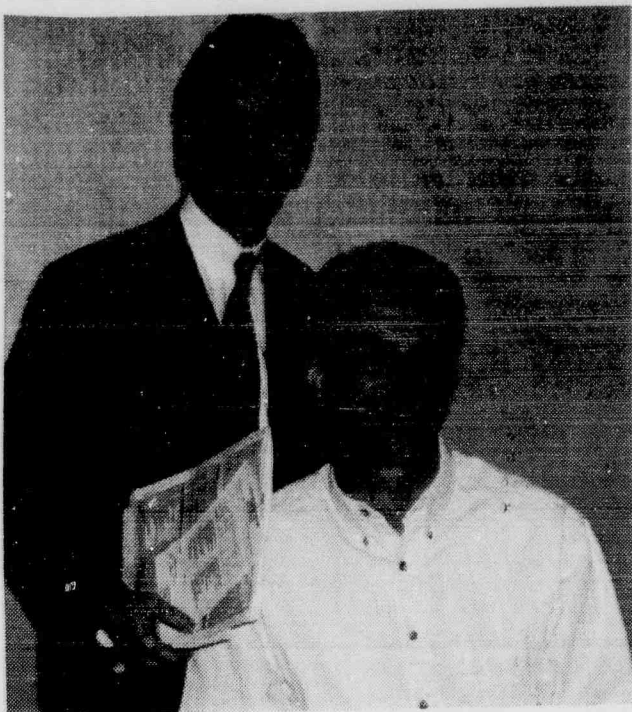

Alligator is popular down south and is a tasty but chewier treat and change of pace.

Deer, caribou, and elk all have low fat contents but are high in flavor. They can be used in any recipe calling for beef.

Specialty meats such as the ones discussed here are growing in popularity because of their unique flavor and low fat content when compared to beef.

Keep an open mind and take a chance. Try a new and unusual meat the next time your looking for a healthy change of pace.

Just think; soon ostrich may be as common as a T-bone steak!

Dr. Timothy Anderson, right, of Bloomfield can now see without glasses, thanks to a procedure done by Dr. Jonathan Dittkoff, left, of The Eye Care Center of New Jersey.

STRESS: friend or foe?

By Dr. Bernadette Scolamiero, Psy.D.

Who among us in this fast-paced world does not experience stress? The fact is that some stress is even good for us!

Without any stress, we would have little to motivate us, and life would become quite dull and unexciting.

The key is to master the stress in our lives, not the other way around!

The first step in managing stress is to identify the bad stressors in our lives, those things which frustrate us emotionally, and/or tax us physically.

It is well documented that too much stress can lead to physical problems such as high blood pressure, ulcers, and heart disease. Once identified, we need to look closely at our stress points.

We may find that some stressors can be eliminated by simplifying our lives, by saying "no" at times to outside demands.

Obviously, there are instances when this isn't possible. The next step, then, is to prioritize the demands we face, evaluating things realistically and responding appropriately.

Asking for help in managing the demands on our time is the next step in the process of stress management. Admitting that we are not perfect can relieve a lot of pressure all by itself.

The fourth step in healthy stress management is preparing our mind and body for those times when steps one through three have not been totally successful. In order to boost our emotional immune system to fight stress, we can engage in "stress inoculation" as an aid to maintaining our emotional well-being. This is much the same process as physical inoculations help us to ward off disease.

A generally healthy lifestyle is as important to emotional health as to physical health. An adequate diet, sufficient rest, some form of regular exercise and relaxation are all important.

Additionally, many people are turning to specific types of relaxation training such as meditation, breathing exercises, guided imagery, etc.

When practiced regularly, all of these things will help the mind and body to fight off the negative effects of "bad stress" when, sooner or later, it does come into our lives.

At times, there may be prolonged or unusual stressors which tax our resources to an unhealthy degree. At such times, it is important to reach out for professional help.

There are many trained mental health providers who can be of assistance when such needs arise. Usually, a brief course of treatment can bring most individuals back to a healthy, comfortable mode of functioning.

Dr. Scolamiero is a licensed psychologist in Bloomfield. Her practice includes treating children and adolescents, as well as adults.

Bloomfielder enjoys life without wearing glasses

After 15 years of wearing contact lenses and a lifetime of wearing glasses, Dr. Timothy Anderson, a Bloomfield resident and a scientist at Hoffmann-LaRoche in Nutley, knew it was time to investigate new refractive surgical procedures which may reduce a person's need for those vision aids.

"My poor eyesight affected every minute of my life," he said. "With 20/400 vision, I couldn't recognize people or read my alarm clock at night without glasses. I just wanted to be able to get up in the morning without glasses and see well enough to get around," he said.

"I enjoy swimming, but couldn't see anything around me. At work, I couldn't wear contact lenses all day for my eyes would tire. I was constantly taking my glasses on and off in order to use my microscope, to see the computer screen, and to read documents, all essential to my profession as a pathologist," Dr. Anderson said.

Dr. Anderson researched the procedures in the press and on the internet for available alternatives and then discussed his findings with his ophthalmologist, Dr. Jonathan Dittkoff, a corneal specialist at The Eye Care Center of New Jersey, 108-112 Broughton Ave., Bloomfield.

After two consultations at which Dr. Dittkoff explained the technique that would best correct his vision, the options available and the advantages and disadvantages of each, Dr. Anderson underwent a procedure known as Photorefractive Keratectomy (PRK) on his left eye.

"PRK is one of several methods in use today that reshape the cornea of the eye, allowing it to focus light more directly on the retina. An excimer laser, which emits a 'cold' light beam, is used, eliminating the possibility of thermal damage to surrounding tissue. In less than a minute, the laser removes microscopic layers of tissue from the surface of the cornea, flattening it and reducing nearsightedness," noted Dr. Dittkoff.

"As I went over the consent forms carefully with Dr. Dittkoff, I developed a lot of faith and trust in him," Dr. Anderson said.

"He was very thorough - probing me to make sure I asked all my questions and preparing me for what I would see and hear in the operating room so there would be no surprises," he said.

"The PRK was done under topical (eyedrop) anesthesia, and no injection was necessary, so I felt absolutely no pain. Following the procedure, I felt a mild pain in my eye for about two days. It improved each day and by the third day, the pain went away," Dr. Anderson said.

"I had the surgery done on Friday afternoon and was back at work on Monday. I could see a marked improvement immediately, and by day two, I could see and recognize objects. Within one week, I could read large print and within six to eight weeks, was able to read the newspaper without the use of glasses or contacts," he said.

"Without any hesitation, I had Dr. Dittkoff perform PRK on my right eye three months later. It's the best thing I've ever done medically. For a few days of slight pain, I have better vision for the rest of my life," Dr. Anderson said.

"I delighted in throwing away my contacts and all that equipment. My vision went from 20/400 - not being able to see anything without dependence on glasses or contacts - to perfect vision," he said.

Dr. Dittkoff and his colleagues at The Eye Care Center of New Jersey are dedicated to full-service, total-quality eye care, from exams to surgery.

Founded more than 20 years ago by its Medical Director Dr. S. Jerome Holtz, M.D., the Bloomfield-based practice offers general ophthalmology services, as well as the treatment of cataracts, glaucoma and corneal and retinal problems.

For further information on their services, which include free eye screenings and providing speakers for community groups and events, please call 743-1331.

My best bets on lens options

Over the last two months, I have been writing about ophthalmic lenses. Today, I'd like to sum up the important ideas and give you my best bets in eyeglass lens options. Hopefully, this will (1) make you an informed consumer, and (2) get you to realize value and function outway price in glasses.

Initially, I stated that you should decide on lenses first before selecting frames. This is important because some types of frames will be inappropriate for certain lenses. Bifocal lenses need certain depth to be cut, especially progressive lenses. It's a waste of time to find out after the fact that your choices were wrong and you need to start again.

My best bets in lenses are just a collection of my favorite recommendations. Hope you take this as advice the next time you need eyewear.

In 1997, glass is virtually not used and plastic is quickly becoming an old hat. The high index or polycarbonate lenses are quickly becoming standard. These are thinner, lighter and safer to the patient.

As for lens design, if you need bifocals, progressive addition lenses are being used more and more. These have no line and allow a variable focus. The best lens brand is Varilux Comfort. All the others measure themselves up to Varilux, so why not use the best?

Once you select the style and material, your best option to enhance your glasses is an anti-reflection coating. This is best for glare at night and on computers. It looks nicer too. I for one will never get a new pair of glasses without it. A large percentage of my patients get it too because I like it so much.

So when I'm presented with the individual who wants quality and value, I find it easy to help them. I just think of myself and what I would do for me or my family. It usually is successful.

In coming weeks, I want to focus on frames as well as the other health issues, like dry eyes, cataracts and glaucoma. Please let me know what you think at 667-0331.

Sealants prevent cavities

By Dr. Edward Shluper, DDS

Can we be immunized against cavities in our teeth, the way we are immunized against other diseases?

Probably not yet, but sealants applied to the teeth is the next best thing. Sealants are plastic coats applied on the chewing surfaces of the teeth. On the chewing surfaces of the back teeth are pits and fissures. Their presence is the major cause of cavities because the bacteria accumulate in these sites. Since those areas are beyond the reach of a toothbrush, they cannot be cleaned well.

The sealant obliterates those surface fissures, preventing the accumulation of bacteria there and thus preventing decay.

The best time for the application of the sealant is shortly after the eruption of the back teeth. Sealing those surfaces is very effective, easy and involves minimal treatment, which most children have no difficulty accepting. The reaction of the patient to the sealant is so favorable that it is difficult to understand why this treatment is underutilized and not as widespread as immunization is.

Research shows that 95% of all cavities are in the pits and fissures of the chewing surfaces and the routine use of sealants could virtually eliminate caries. Sealing the carious susceptible teeth is a very wise investment from an economical point of view. Sealing is cheaper than filling those teeth when they become carious, and there is an additional benefit: research has shown that placing a filling in a tooth can lead to the need to remove and replace the filling in five to ten years, with consequent increase in the size of the cavity. Eventually, the tooth structure is so weakened that a crown is required, and a bad crown may lead to the loss of the tooth.

Sealants are a proven and effective means to prevent decay, but they do not last forever. As time goes by, the protective covering is lost.

In my office, I encourage the parents to treat the teeth of their young children with sealants. At future checkups, the sealant is evaluated and if it has to be renewed, it is done at no cost.

Dr. Edward Shluper, D.D.S., is a graduate of New York University College of Dentistry and a member of the Academy of General Dentistry.

Pain is a guide -- not a goal

By Robert Ruffalo, PT, DC, CCSP

Another Spring season of outdoor athletics has arrived! Now is the time to get out your athletic gear. Before you participate in your favorite organized sport, try to remember to limber up before setting out for the field.

Year after year, we make the mistake of overdoing it. "Weekend Warrior" is a popular term for individuals who work all week and play all weekend. More often than not, they are the type of athlete who sustains a traumatic injury such as a dislocated shoulder or a knee injury. Usually, they do not seek medical attention because they give their injury a rest for one week and resume playing on the weekend.

Paradoxically, professional athletes will play through pain and seek treatment earlier because their livelihoods depend on optimal performance. Pain is a warning signal that there is a problem. Whether treatment is hands-on or recommending rest, a functional evaluation should be considered. As a licensed chiropractor and physical therapist, pain gives me guidelines as to how to progress with treatment. A predictable pattern of inflammation and other levels of healing lead me to tailor rehabilitation exercises accordingly.

"I was so anxious to get out there and compete with the other guys, I gave it all I had . . . and now I feel as if I will be sitting out for this season," commented Martin, a seemingly athletic patient.

"If I pre-ice or take some pain reliever before the game, do you think I'll have a chance to stay in the game?" he questioned.

Sorry, Martin. Masking pain through medication, pre-icing before games or any other activities to defer pain will only lead to more pain later. Unfortunately, working on a solution to the problem may not always yield the immediate results felt when masking pain. Athletes should recognize the importance of continuing a strengthening regimen even if symptoms do not improve right away. They must also recognize the fact that continuing to treat an injury that's not responding as it should has to be re-evaluated.

"Well, at least I am taking care of the problem right away. There may be hope for me this season after all," said Martin.

Remember, pain is often a self-limiting condition of discomfort which may be ignored by professional, college-level, and even high school and grammar school competitors. Recreational athletes who sustain a slow onset injury should use pain as a guide, not a goal!

At A T.E.A.M. Approach Chiropractic & Physical Therapy Center, located at 265 Broad St. in Bloomfield, simple exercise techniques are used to educate patients to help them gain strength and flexibility during spring training. As part of the "Hands on Health" campaign, FREE information is available with tips on how to exercise before the games start. For more information, call 429-3001.

Fitness Center for Women offers cardio television

Soon it will be time to shed those coats. Spring is on the way!

What better way to get ready for summer than by starting a fitness program.

The Fitness Center for Women offers a full-service fitness facility and salon with spa services. The Center makes it fun and affordable.

Its philosophy differs from other women's facilities based on membership structure. The Center does not overcrowd its facility with gimmick membership rates. It offers one affordable rate.

Ladies, grab the kids. The Center has supervised child care. Hop on a treadmill and "tune in" on the newly installed cardio television, and while working out, watch your favorite soaps, Kathie Lee and Regis or Rosie. Then enjoy a cappuccino at the juice bar or a relaxing massage and facial. Get your nails done while your children are in the children's activity room. It's as simple as that.

The Fitness Center for Women offers a variety of classes, the latest in cardio and resistance training equipment plus a full-service salon including skin and nail care. Come and relax, relieve your stress - it's a phone call away at 429-2808.

Enjoy yourself at the Fitness Center for Women, the place for women, at 462 Broad St., Bloomfield.

Tickets on sale at college for 1997 Kickoff Classic

Through Friday, April 25, Bloomfield College will have tickets available for the 15th annual Kickoff Classic, the first college football game of the season.

The 1997 game, set for Sunday, Aug. 24, at 2 p.m. at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, will pit the Syracuse Orangemen of the Big East Conference against the Wisconsin Badgers of the Big Ten Conference.

Syracuse finished the 1996 season with a 9-3 record and a 30-17 victory over Houston in the Liberty Bowl.

Wisconsin defeated Utah in last year's Copper Bowl and finished with an 8-5 record.

Syracuse holds a 2-1-1 edge over Wisconsin in their series.

The Independent College Fund of New Jersey (ICFNJ), of which Bloomfield College is a member, is the only local benefactor from the annual Kickoff Classic. A portion of the proceeds will benefit Bloomfield College and the other 13 member institutions of the ICFNJ.

Tickets are $32.

To purchase tickets for the 1997 Kickoff Classic, send a check, payable to the ICFNJ, to Bloomfield College, Office of College Relations, 229 Liberty St., Bloomfield, New Jersey 07003. Attention: Paula Craig.

Ticket orders must be received by April 25.

For more information, call Craig at 748-9000, extension 295.

Soccer camp scheduled

Hills Soccer Camps, Inc., now in its 17th year, has scheduled a camp for Monday, Aug. 18, through Friday, Aug. 22, at Bloomfield Middle School, 60 Huck Road, Bloomfield.

The camp will be for boys and girls ages 4-14, and will include programs for beginners, intermediate players and select players.

Both half-day and full-day sessions will be available.

All camp participants will be organized into teams, and will be given the opportunity to experience all positions. Goalkeeping programs will be offered.

For more information, call Joe LaSpada, president of Hills Soccer Camps, Inc., at 1-908-537-7248.

Pre-school registration

The Belleville Department of Recreation and Cultural Affairs is accepting registration for the pre-school play program for 4-year-old children.

The program consists of games, stories, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties especially designed for pre-school children.

A session will be from 9 to 10:45 a.m. or 12:45 to 2:30 p.m., five days a week, with class limited to a maximum of 23 students in each session. The cost of the 32-week program is $150. The mothers of the children accepted must participate by serving one duty day about every eight or nine days according to a published schedule.

School will begin on Monday, Sept. 15, and will run through May 1998.

Children born between October 1992 and September 1993 who will enter kindergarten in September 1998 are eligible. Participants must be Belleville residents. Applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis only.

Children (and their parents) must be able to speak and understand English in order to participate.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.
