BEFORE THE FALL - Mario Drozd mounts tree ladder while helping cleanup effort at historic Belleville Reformed Church cemetery.

Council member is hurt in tree-cutting accident

By Howard Klausner

Supporting the adage that no good deed goes unpunished is the mishap that befell 4th Ward Council Member Mario Drozd Saturday while he was helping to clear debris and trim trees at the Belleville Reform Church Cemetery.

Drozd sustained a fractured rib when he fell some 12 feet, knocked from a ladder by a swinging branch that he had just sawed.

Drozd was using his own small power saw for the job.

Although in pain, Drozd refused to have an ambulance called. He went home, where his wife then drove him to the Clara Maass Medical Center emergency room.

Mrs. Drozd reported that her husband received a battery of tests at the Trauma Center of the hospital, after it was found he had internal bleeding.

He was able to return home the same day, still in considerable pain.

Drozd will wear a temporary brace during the healing process, which could take several weeks.

The Township Council cancelled a special meeting for Monday night because of Drozd's absence.

Sponsored by Kiwanis and the Reformed Church, the clean-up drew scores of volunteers.

The cemetery contains the remains of 64 Revolutionary War soldiers, the largest number in a private cemetery in the United States.

The cleanup was also part of the Reformed Church's observance of its 300th anniversary this year, under the leadership of its pastor, the Rev. William Moheit.

It is the oldest continuously functioning congregation in New Jersey, and is listed on the National Register of Historic Sites.

The cleanup effort was also in recognition of the efforts by the late Ed O'Neil, president of the Belleville Historical Society, to look after the cemetery, and to preserve its history. He sometimes worked on restoring headstones and defining burial plots, doing the job single handed, or with the aid of a friend or two.

The community-wide effort this year may have been the first of its kind in recent memory.

Bids on Town Hall are due on May 22

Bids for the renovation of the Municipal Building will be received by May 22, after the Township Council voted to put the job out for bid again.

The Council had been considering 13 bids, but had to reject them when it failed to enact a bonding ordinance - due to an error made by a weekly publication in the publication of the bonding ordinance.

The ordinance would have provided more than $2 million for the job of renovating the interior of the building, which dates back to 1912.

The bids ranged from a low of $1,026,375 to a high of $1,998,000.

Besides the delay in the job caused by the rejection of the bids, other problems may now arise since the contractors now are aware of their competitors' proposals.

One problem encountered by the Council was that almost none of the contractors fulfilled all the stipulations of the contract, particularly in giving work schedules, or other requested information.

In the meantime, plans to move Township offices to other locations are on hold.

Board takes new tack

Molinaro, Pallante head school board, Villano takes office; contract next hurdle

By Howard Klausner

After several days of backstage maneuvering, the Board of Education Monday night elected Robert Molinaro as president and Louis Pallante as vice-president. The vote was 7 to 0.

The eighth member, newly elected William Villano, was then sworn into office.

Villano, who ran second in a field of four, thanked the voters for their support.

The outward show of unity contrasted with a reported effort to re-elect Ralph Mazzuca as president, and to make Frank Montagna vice president.

Molinaro's strong showing in his re-election bid, running 470 votes ahead of any other candidate, strengthened his own bid for the presidency.

John Notari, who had been vice president and presumably was in line to succeed Mazzuca, pulled out of contention.

He reportedly is concentrating on his studies for a Ph.D. degree.

Pallante, Molinaro, Notari and Mazzuca were generally allied in a pro-administration stand. Molinaro's re-election was welcomed by the school administration as the endorsement of a strong supporter.

Robert Fuscaldo, who lost his seat on the board to Villano, was on hand to congratulate his successor and the rest of the board.

Mazzuca, in casting his vote for Molinaro, thanked the citizens and the educators who were supportive of him during his two years as president.

Molinaro said he anticipated a spirit of cooperation on the board. He said later, "We have a fine school administration, and I am going to continue to support it."

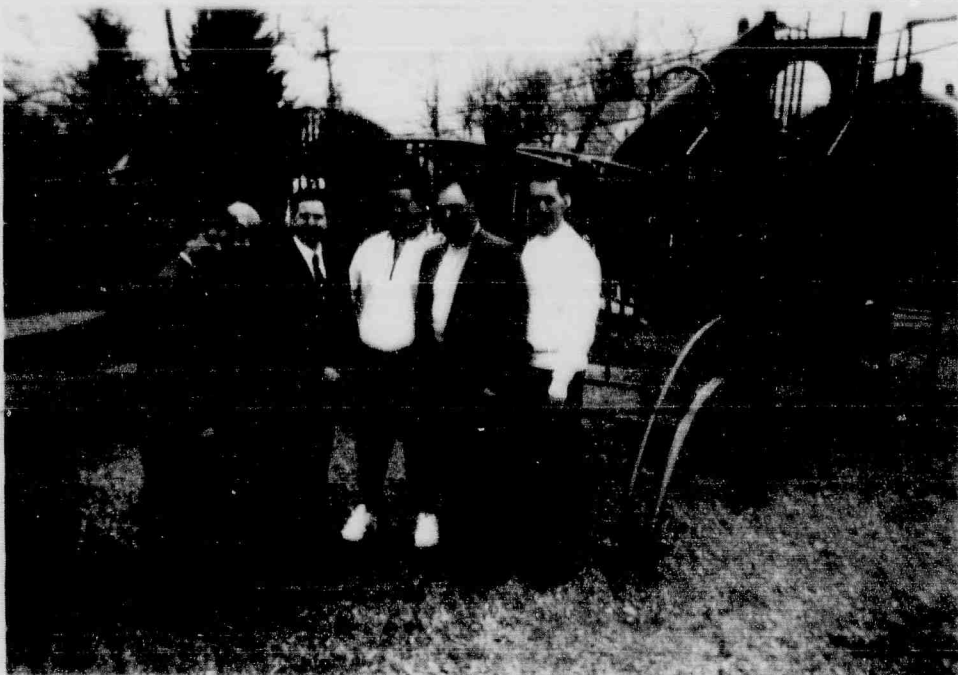

The Board elected Pallante to be its representative to the New Jersey School Boards. Judy Piscatowski was elected representative to the Urban School Boards.

Notari was elected representative to the Essex County School Boards and the Essex County Educational Commission.

A state fact finder reportedly made a report on the contract negotiations between the board and the unions representing the teachers and administrators.

The details were not made public, while both sides studied them.

Regardless of the outcome of the contract negotiations, Molinaro said, the current budget would not be affected because any wage adjustments had been taken into consideration.

'Logging in' on the town's walls Fight goes on against graffiti

By Howard Klausner

Graffiti has become a street language of its own. It may be a way of sending a message, to some, but to police and property owners, it is still vandalism.

From the Belleville Police Mini-precinct van on Franklin Street, Police Lieutenant Frank Manno works to end a wave of graffiti vandalism that has grown in recent months.

Silver Lake has been hit particularly hard by the phenomenon, and it was one of the reasons for the new mini-precinct operation.

"Our presence has had an effect," Manno said.

One of the immediate effects has been an attack of the graffiti itself. Community service workers - persons who are performing community chores by court order as part of their sentences - are being used to remove or paint over the markings left on local walls.

"They use the walls to mark their territories, to challenge others, to show their presence," Manno said.

"Each graffiti artist has his own 'tag' that identifies his work. Some of them show some remarkable talent, in fact. But it is still an attack on private property."

Gradually, police have built up a file of information about the graffiti artists, their signatures and their language.

"We can tell if they are issuing a challenge to a fight, by the way they leave their tags," Manno said.

Apparently, most, if not all, of the graffiti artists are from out-of-town, in neighborhoods bordering Belleville.

Manno said that some of them are in for surprises as police close in on them.

The sale of paint spray cans to minors is now illegal, but many of the graffiti artists are adults.

It has gone beyond random scrawls to a form of street communication. And as police decipher the language, it becomes the downfall of the graffiti artists.

"Maybe they should find a better way," Manno said. "They have talent."

NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T - At left is the wall of Luongo's Auto Center, 24 North 7th St., whose white expanse seems a favorite target of graffiti perpetrators. Community service workers working under police supervision painted over the scrawls. Police say there is a language to the graffiti operation.

Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

Barbara Spillane is an example of today's modern teacher. She has travelled extensively to the Far East, with time spent in Korea and Japan, and she has been in Europe as well. We state this in some awe, as the great travelling event for our Miss Bjornsen of P.S. 152 was her grand cruise to the Caribbean, from which she returned with elaborate brochures and entire books about the ship and the ports of call. We knew of others in the community who took trips to Europe, but mostly they were being deported. • • • Mrs. Spillane is hardly alone as a traveller. Our teachers range the world from the rain forests of South America and the villages of Africa to out-of-the-way territories made available since the collapse of the Soviet Union. The wonderful thing about teachers is that they bring back information to fire the imagination of their students and provide more insights about the world than we ever had, as kids. • • • Mrs. Spillane reminds us that the Woman's Club of Belleville will be sponsoring a Broadway theater trip to see "Victor/Victoria" - the musical starring Julie Andrews, on May 1. The tickets are $70 each and include the cost of transportation from the high school at 5:30 p.m. Further information can be obtained by calling (201) 751-4353. • • • Scott Davis will be performing in the Montclair Operetta Guild production of "42nd Street" on May 2, 3 and 4 at the Mt. Hebron School in Upper Montclair. Scott, 24, is a guitarist who had his own band for a while, so naturally he is a dancer in the show. "I've had four tap lessons, and I can hold my own," he says. He is also an actor who played lead roles in "Our Town" and "La Cage aux Folles" in area theater. He is 6 feet 1, weighs 170 and is not sure he wants to make the theater his career. He is gainfully employed as a data processor in Manhattan, and that's where the money is. • • • "42nd Street" is a great musical, and you can get tickets by calling (201) 239-4454. • • • Lou Cicenia is campaigning for a change in the signs which now greet incoming traffic to the Township. What bothers Lou is that the sign states that Belleville was "founded" in 1839. In point of fact, it was founded two centuries earlier than that. It was incorporated as a Township in 1839, but it was actually named Belleville on June 26, 1797. Lou quotes a history of Belleville to the effect that two days earlier, the same good citizens had named the village Washington. They then changed their minds. Meeting at the home of John Ryerson, they stated: "We, the subscribers, inhabitants and freeholders living near the Bridge at the village, commonly called Second River, . . . resolve to distinguish the said village by the name of Belleville." • • • But the village was founded long before that. The Dutch Reformed Church was founded in 1697 by the good farmers who had long been in residence here. The beginning of Belleville really occurred in the 1650s when Arendt Schuyler arrived with a number of Dutch settlers, moving down here from Fort Orange - now Albany - in New York. The sign could say safely and accurately, "Founded circa 1650". And that's how far back this township goes. • • • Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says he is satisfied that volunteerism will be a great solution to the nation's economic problems. "We no longer will have unemployment. The out-of-work will be simply be called our national pool of volunteers." • • • Zilch's political supporters, the Kool Kukumber Boys, are concerned about the current stand-off between the Republic of Texas and the rest of us. "It could start a precedent. What happens if the United States decides to secede from Belleville?" • • • Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten, says that the Artist, formerly known as Prince, could set a trend. "How about Mr. Insolvent, formerly known as Taxpayer?"

The Crime Watch: Roundup

quarters, police said they found a syringe and a vial of cocaine in her possession, plus two more warrants, from Edison and Newark. Bail was set at $1,387 for an April 30 court appearance.

At 3:40 p.m., April 24, outside of Rickels on Franklin Avenue a truck became home to two 14-year-old boys who reportedly tried to make off with the driver's pager and a bag of tools.

The driver turned the boys over to Police Officer Patrick Goldrick, and police released them to their parents.

It was a clear case of arson, according to Police Officers Nicholas Breiner and John Pinto, when they spotted Nathaniel Harris, 28, of Newark setting fires in Branch Brook Park, at Mill Street and Franklin Avenue.

Police said several debris fires have been set in the park over the last five months. They are questioning Harris about them.

A 15-year-old boy was seen walking south on Route 21, at 4:37 a.m., April 22. Police Officer Anthony Passarella stopped him and was told he was walking to a girl friend's house in Newark.

Police found there was a Passaic warrant for him, and he was returned to his grandmother in Passaic.

Three boys, two of them 14 and one 16, were charged with underage drinking after police reported finding them with a 40-ounce bottle of malt liquor on Hendricks Field Golf Course, at 9:30 p.m. April 21.

Detectives Dante Pasquale and Michael Giuliano chased the youths after they fled a parked car near the field. Reports by neighbors of juveniles drinking in the area had brought the detectives there.

Walking on the railroad tracks at 7:30 p.m. on April 21 brought John Parisi, 41, to the attention of police.

Captain John Mailot saw him, as did Police Officer James Melillo.

Police said that investigation uncovered a bag of cocaine in his possession. He also had outstanding warrants from Newark and Bloomfield.

Tylenol seemed attractive to two suspected shoplifters, police said.

At 3 p.m. on April 21, Pathmark security officers stopped Amid Oliveras, 22, of Newark, and found him with seven boxes of Tylenol, the pain remedy. Police found an outstanding warrant for him from Newark, and he was held in $450 bail.

At 7:26 p.m. on April 21, Pathmark security stopped David Lee Heckle, 25, of Montclair, claiming he had tried to make off with $301 worth of Tylenol.

Police Officer De Coma arrested him, and Heckle was held in $200 bail.

Flowers Leave Their Fragrance on the Hand that Bestows Them

There's an old Chinese proverb that, if practiced each day, Would change the whole world in a wonderful way. Its truth is so simple, it's so easy to do, And it works every time and successfully, too. For you can't do a kindness without a reward, Not in silver nor gold but in joy from the Lord. You can't light a candle to show others the way Without feeling the warmth of that bright little ray. And you can't pluck a rose, all fragrant with dew, Without part of its fragrance remaining with you.

Helen Steiner Rice

Get well wishes to Dominick Lalli who is in the hospital but coming home any day. Also to Angelina Mariano, Danny Ippolito and Sam Molineri.

A special get well message to my son, Joseph, who had painful one-day surgery at Clara Maass and is now recuperating at home.

To all the friends of Maud Baumer, a special service will be held on May 4 at 3 p.m. at the Episcopal church on Essex Street and Washington Avenue.

Condolences to Yola Befumo on the loss of her sister.

On Saturday, April 19, at the Branch Brook Manor, the Concerned Citizens of Belleville held their annual scholarship dinner dance to raise funds for scholarships to Belleville High School seniors. President Joseph Restaino greeted the many guests and Chairman Vincent Frantantoni took over as master of ceremonies. Co-ordinating the affair with Vinnie were his wife, Phyllis, Joe Celfo, Florence Penthol (who was there even though she was recuperating from a knee operation), and Edith DeFeo. Among the guests were Councilwomen Angie Paserchia, Assemblymen John Kelly and Paul DiGaetano, Freeholder Louise Palagano, and that smiling Irishman Pat Kiernan. Sitting with me at my table were my wife, Mary, Ed and Dot Barbig, Tom and Carmel Palente, Leah Swanhart, Irene Caruso, Ralph Galle and Pat. The fantastic Tony Donato Trio supplied the dance music for the evening and what a job they did. What English? All I can say is that we all had a swell time and the committee is to be thanked for the terrific effort by them to make this a successful endeavor.

My wife and I are a little sad because one of our better friends from the Senior Citizen Club has moved out of town and will not be attending any of the meetings. Maria Cataldo, one of the old time members of the club (in fact, she made the beautiful Tuesday Club banner hanging on the wall) moved to Fairfield to reside with her daughter. A good move for Marie but a loss for us. We miss you but keep in touch.

Welcome back to Nick Mauncelle who returned from a vacation in Florida. Incidentally, Nick is running for president of the Friday Club as is Edith DeFeo. I understand that Jo Molinaro had cataract surgery and that George Sbarra, ex fire chief, also had cataract surgery.

Josephine Molinaro and Pauline Dauduone became great grandparents when Michael and Dana Dauduone became parents of a daughter, Carle Megan. Congratulations.

And a happy anniversary to my sister and brother-in-law Anna and Rudy Bini of Lincoln Terrace.

My 'Best Friend'

This is for all teenagers and young adults who smoke and say, "I can quit any time I want." Do yourselves a favor and quit TODAY because as you get older, it becomes harder and harder.

Cigarettes become your best friend. They are always there for you. When you're stressed, frustrated, sad, bored or lonely, cigarettes never let you down. Ending this "friendship" will be one of the hardest things you will ever do. I know because I smoke. I'm 33 and had my first cigarette at 14. I've been smoking for more than half my life. I decided to quit today after a terrible coughing spell. I know it's going to be pure hell to part with my best friend of nearly 20 years, but I'm determined.

Smoking was cool when I started, but it's not so cool any more. Neither is spending a half hour every morning hacking away or having my clothes and hair smell of stale butts. Smell an ashtray sometime, and you will know what YOU smell like.

If you are one of those people who keeps saying, "I can quit any time I want to," prove it by quitting today.

Just lost my "best friend" and glad of it

Don't forget the mandolin orchestra concert at Bloomfield Middle School on May 4 at 3 pm. For those who have never been to one, you are in for a treat. It is something you will enjoy and talk about, so make it your business to attend.

Tid bit: Why is it that some people just won't let go and have to put their trademark on others? Guess who? I know.

Keep Belleville Beautiful.

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

I made another blunder, guys. Remember last week I told you a out all the "good men" I danced with at Bobby Byrne Night? Well, I forgot; someone, as usual. With all that swaying and dipping and waltzing, I forgot I boogied with Richard Yanuzzi.

I can hear all of you saying, did she really forget, or did she do it on purpose? Well, you all know me. Would I do something like that? Of course not. Sorry, Richard.

Our friendly United Parcel Service Man: When you see this big brown truck zipping up and down your Silver Lake streets, you know it's your friendly UPS man, Victor Pasquariello. How lucky can we get, having the same UPS man in Silver Lake for over 15 years?

Vic is a resident of Belleville and lives on Elmwood Avenue with his wife Cetta and his children Alexandra, 8, and Victor, 6, and their toddler, Leana.

I bumped into Victor while leaving my doctor's office at 5 Franklin Ave. Since I am a little nervous about elevators, I decided to take the stairs. I was descending and Vic was ascending, and we met at the pass. We got talking and he said how great the people are in Silver Lake.

To quote Vic, he said, "it's like being home every day." Being a "Mickey Mouse" reporter like I am, I did my interview of him on the stairwell. I was curious to know who his best customers were in the

Bicycle registration scheduled May 17

Belleville police will register bicycles owned by local residents, and throw in some lessons on safety as well.

Besides obtaining registration markings on the bicycles, which will be useful in recovering lost or stolen vehicles, youngsters will have the chance to try out a police safety obstacle course, and receive on the proper operation of bicycles.

The registration will be offered at the Mobile Mini-precinct, 58 Franklin St., from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Police Lieutenant Frank Manno said that as a special inducement, a drawing will be held for a 24-inch bicycle provided by Belleville K-Mart, and two bicycle helmets provided by the Branch Brook Pool store in Newark.

Children must be accompanied by adults, Manno said. Each youngster will receive a special certificate.

The rain date is May 24, and further information may be obtained by calling 450-3444.

Lake. He scratched his head a little but came up with the answers immediately: Just Parties on Franklin Street, and Angela Cuozzo Zarro of Salter Place were about his "bestest" customers. So, I guess these two keep Vic in business with their orders.

I'm not too good a customer, but every once in a while I get into the act of ordering. Vic has a lot of fans, one being Gary Marchese of Frederick Street. Everyone knows the UPS man.

Hey, Vic, have you every thought of running for office in Silver Lake? I bet you'd win hands down. My observation of Vic is "service with a smile." Hey, Vic, I'd be you never lost a package, at least I hope you haven't. Just kidding! You're great!

Went to an affair the other night and met up with a cute little four-year-old dude named Jude Loungo who is the son of Jude and Jennifer. Little Jude informed me that he had a dog named Bojo who went to work and never came home. Could it be "doggie heaven"?

This little darling boy attends Love and Learn Nursery School on Franklin Street in Silver Lake. He named a few of his teachers like Ms. Valerie, Jackie and Alice.

Jude announced at the table that "the weather was going backwards." We all thought for a while, and finally figured out what he meant - that spring was never coming. You know, Jude, you could be on to something.

Oops, let me mention his baby sister, Gianna, who is 2 years old. It was definitely my pleasure to make your acquaintance. You charming dude, Jude.

Remember, we love Silver Lake.

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

I made another blunder, guys. Remember last week I told you a out all the "good men" I danced with at Bobby Byrne Night? Well, I forgot someone, as usual. With all that swaying and dipping and waltzing, I forgot I boogied with Richard Yanuzzi.

I can hear all of you saying, did she really forget, or did she do it on purpose? Well, you all know me. Would I do something like that? Of course not. Sorry, Richard.

Our friendly United Parcel Service Man: When you see this big brown truck zipping up and down your Silver Lake streets, you know it's your friendly UPS man, Victor Pasquariello. How lucky can we get, having the same UPS man in Silver Lake for over 15 years?

Vic is a resident of Belleville and lives on Elmwood Avenue with his wife Cetta and his children Alexandra, 8, and Victor, 6, and their toddler, Leana.

I bumped into Victor while leaving my doctor's office at 5 Franklin Ave. Since I am a little nervous about elevators, I decided to take the stairs. I was descending and Vi

Lake. He scratched his head a little but came up with the answers immediately: Just Parties on Franklin Street, and Angela Cuozzo Zarro of Salter Place were about his "bestest" customers. So, I guess these two keep Vic in business with their orders.

I'm not too good a customer, but every once in a while I get into the act of ordering. Vic has a lot of fans, one being Gary Marchese of Frederick Street. Everyone knows the UPS man.

Silver Lake? I bet you'd win hands down. My observation of Vic is "service with a smile." Hey, Vic, I'd be you never lost a package, at least I hope you haven't. Just kidding! You're great!

Went to an affair the other night and met up with a cute little four-year-old dude named Jude Loungo who is the son of Jude and Jennifer. Little Jude informed me that he had a dog named Bojo who went to work and never came home. Could it be "doggie heaven"?

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

I made another blunder, guys. Remember last week I told you a out all the "good men" I danced with at Bobby Byrne Night? Well, I forgot someone, as usual. With all that swaying and dipping and waltzing, I forgot I boogied with Richard Yanuzzi.

I can hear all of you saying, did she really forget, or did she do it on purpose? Well, you all know me. Would I do something like that? Of course not. Sorry, Richard.

Our friendly United Parcel Service Man: When you see this big brown truck zipping up and down your Silver Lake streets, you know it's your friendly UPS man, Victor Pasquariello. How lucky can we get, having the same UPS man in Silver Lake for over 15 years?

Vic is a resident of Belleville and lives on Elmwood Avenue with his wife Cetta and his children Alexandra, 8, and Victor, 6, and their toddler, Leana.

I bumped into Victor while leaving my doctor's office at 5 Franklin Ave. Since I am a little nervous about elevators, I decided to take the stairs. I was descending and Vic was ascending, and we met at the pass. We got talking and he said how great the people are in Silver Lake.

To quote Vic, he said, "it's like being home every day." Being a "Mickey Mouse" reporter like I am, I did my interview of him on the stairwell. I was curious to know who his best customers were in the

Bicycle registration scheduled May 17

Belleville police will register bicycles owned by local residents, and throw in some lessons on safety as well.

Besides obtaining registration markings on the bicycles, which will be useful in recovering lost or stolen vehicles, youngsters will have the chance to try out a police safety obstacle course, and receive on the proper operation of bicycles.

The registration will be offered at the Mobile Mini-precinct, 58 Franklin St., from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Police Lieutenant Frank Manno said that as a special inducement, a drawing will be held for a 24-inch bicycle provided by Belleville K-Mart, and two bicycle helmets provided by the Branch Brook Pool store in Newark.

Children must be accompanied by adults, Manno said. Each youngster will receive a special certificate.

The rain date is May 24, and further information may be obtained by calling 450-3444.

Lake. He scratched his head a little but came up with the answers immediately: Just Parties on Franklin Street, and Angela Cuozzo Zarro of Salter Place were about his "bestest" customers. So, I guess these two keep Vic in business with their orders.

I'm not too good a customer, but every once in a while I get into the act of ordering. Vic has a lot of fans, one being Gary Marchese of Frederick Street. Everyone knows the UPS man.

Hey, Vic, have you every thought of running for office in Silver Lake? I bet you'd win hands down. My observation of Vic is "service with a smile." Hey, Vic, I'd be you never lost a package, at least I hope you haven't. Just kidding! You're great!

Went to an affair the other night and met up with a cute little four-year-old dude named Jude Loungo who is the son of Jude and Jennifer. Little Jude informed me that he had a dog named Bojo who went to work and never came home. Could it be "doggie heaven"?

This little darling boy attends Love and Learn Nursery School on Franklin Street in Silver Lake. He named a few of his teachers like Ms. Valerie, Jackie and Alice.

Jude announced at the table that "the weather was going backwards." We all thought for a while, and finally figured out what he meant - that spring was never coming. You know, Jude, you could be on to something.

Oops, let me mention his baby sister, Gianna, who is 2 years old. It was definitely my pleasure to make your acquaintance. You charming dude, Jude.

Remember, we love Silver Lake.

OUR OPINION

The Franklin Street crossing

The proposed extension of the Newark Subway into Silver Lake has brought a strong reaction from the residents of that independent community.

Basically, they see it as an intrusion into their lives that will make the neighborhood worse, rather than better.

Supporters of the idea, and they are a beleaguered few in Silver Lake, point out the economic benefits that would come from a shopping center built around a subway terminal.

Our own position is that if the residents of the neighborhood would work with New Jersey Transit, they would stand to benefit more than by simply saying no to the idea.

NJT has the right to push its right of way into Silver Lake and there is only one reason we see that NJT should be prevented from doing so.

Unless the transit company is willing to either bridge over or tunnel under Franklin Street, the danger of allowing a trolley car to pass that point, sometimes at intervals of three minutes or less, is an invitation to tragedy.

There is no question that children would have to cross the track to get to School 4. There is a mathematical certainty that in time, a child - or even an adult - will be hurt.

The only street grade crossing that the Newark Subway has is at Orange Street in Newark. This is essentially in a factory area, although there are high rise low income developments nearby.

We do not know how many accidents have occurred at the Orange Street crossing, but we can assume that some have.

In any case, the situation on Orange Street in Newark does not guarantee that accidents will not happen on Franklin Street in Silver Lake.

We have seen the maps and the proposed developments suggested by New Jersey Transit, and we think they would indeed help bring Silver Lake into the 21st Century, whether it wants to be there or not.

But we do not see that any of this is worth the life of a child, or an adult, or the injury of anyone.

The crossing of Franklin Street by a rapid trolley line is not going to help vehicular traffic, either.

During rush hour, Franklin Street traffic is impossible now. The intrusion of the trolley will have a devastating effect - unless that trolley line is under or above the street.

The improved trolleys that are planned for the route will make the situation even worse. They will be virtually silent.

Anyone who has enjoyed the Boston trolley systems knows how quiet they can be.

Too quiet, for the safety of motorists or pedestrians alike.

The Franklin Street crossing is a matter that must be answered before the project can be permitted.

Otherwise, we can understand, and even support, the threats of Silver Lakers to lie on the tracks to block the trolleys.

We hope it will never come to that. And if NJT has any brains in its management team, it will see to it that the crossing of Franklin Street will be a safe one.

On grand delusions

There has to be some good reason why the cults and survivalists who proliferate through so much of the nation do not seem to have sprouted in New Jersey.

Not that New Jersey has not shared in a few aspects of national madness, from Prohibition to the Klan, but for the most part, the cuckoos in our midst seem to be individualists rather than joiners.

The odd thing about the death cults, from Jonestown to Heaven's Gate, is that they seem to appeal to good, native stock Americans, people whose ancestors struggled to create a nation on an untamed continent, who fought wars for freedom and created the world's greatest working Constitution.

The assumption in America has always been that foreigners bring in the bad ideas. In the 1840s, the Know Nothings knew that the Irish and Germans were tools of the Pope who would overrun and destroy our democracy.

At the turn of the century, the villains were the immigrants from Southern and Eastern Europe who could never and would never become good Americans.

So why do not the Wacos and the Republics of Texas recruit from these groups that are perceived as threats to America?

Probably the reason is two-fold - the basic bigotry of the cultists and the recognition of America's values by the more recent arrivals.

The appeal of the cultist seems to be the same in all cases - a surrender of private will to the group.

This mass surrender of individuality is the premise of totalitarianism.

Huey Long, who virtually ruled Louisiana as a dictator during the early 1930s, once said that if dictatorship ever came to America, it wouldn't be wearing a black shirt or a red shirt, but a red-white-and-blue shirt.

There are people, and tragically they are more times than less people with every advantage of having been born and bred in this nation, who do not appreciate it.

Otherwise, how could they give up everything to follow false prophets - a Jim Jones, a Koresh - who would only lead them to their own deaths?

It may well be that the struggle to establish ourselves as part of America has given us an appreciation of it that those born to it do not share.

The same struggle has also produced a toughness of mind that is a bulwark against the lure of false premises. We are more questioning, less trusting and more inclined to look for the reasons behind a statement.

In fact, New Jersey has been a bellwether state in national elections since the turn of the century.

Well, our premise on our relative sanity may be blown up by the next headline, but in the meantime we can say that the lunatic fringe is more likely to be found at a Board of Education meeting than in the mainstream of our society.

Thanks from Jamie's family

To the editor:

As Jamie Conway's family, we would like to thank each and every person who came to Jamie's fundraisers or has supported Jamie in her battle against R.S.D. The outpouring of love, prayers and support has helped us get through the last 23 months.

Thanks to Pat Dunn and the Belleville Fire Department for all that they have done for us. It's a comfort to know that they are always there for us.

Thanks to Lynda, Maria, Janice and their families. They have done so much for us. We could never thank them enough. Their emotional support has been a Godsend. Thank you for walking through this storm beside us. You have become an important part of our family. Thanks for being the best friends that anyone could ever have.

Lastly, we would like Jamie to know how very proud we are of her. Her strength and determination is truly amazing. No one should have to suffer as she has for the last 23 months, but she keeps fighting. She is truly an inspiration to us all. Jamie, keep on fighting! Soon this storm will end and that golden sky will come shining through! Keep believing, it will happen! We love you!

Thanks again for the wonderful support we have received from so many people. It keeps us fighting.

Not meddling

To the editor:

The comments in the April 10 "Of All Things" column stating that I am "meddling" in the Bloomfield Board of Education election were strange.

It stated that "I am supporting one candidate whose prime purpose for running is his known interest in retaining the expensive legal firm." It continued to state that "it would be interesting to check contributors' lists for both myself and (the candidate in question)."

After reviewing my contributor records for the past several years, I can not find one instance where this law firm ever contributed to my campaign.

For the record, I did not formally endorse anyone in this year's Board of Education election, although several candidates have worked closely with me on township issues. All six candidates have acquired extensive civic involvement, and I am confident the voters selected the best people.

Finally why would the column suggest that I give up the chair of the Bloomfield Republican County Committee simply because I am seeking re-election? Does the author suggest that our county chairs within the state give up their positions because they are running for re-election to a state, county, or municipal office? It doesn't make sense to me.

I am committed to the members of the Bloomfield Republican Committee simply because they duly elected me as their chair. I am also committed and dedicated to my constituents who saw fit to elect me as their state representative.

I am surprised that I was not contacted before this gossip was printed. In the past, information was always verified with me, particularly as to my support of various candidates.

Please note that this letter is being submitted prior to the April 15 school board election, although it will be published after that date.

I wish the three successful candidates all the best for a successful term, and I congratulate those candidates not elected for their commitment to the children and taxpayers of Bloomfield.

Marion Crecco
Assemblywoman
34th Legislative District

Molinaro thanks voters

To the editor:

I would like to extend to the people of Belleville my appreciation and thanks for the honor of being re-elected to the Belleville Board of Education for a second term. Their faith and trust in me is truly humbling, and I will certainly continue to try to do what is best for our school system and for Belleville.

I also would like to thank those who helped my re-election effort in any way. I certainly would not have won without their support.

Finally, I want to offer my congratulations to all the candidates who were in this contest. They all are to be commended for running clean and positive campaigns, and also for their wanting to be involved in the future of Belleville's educational system.

Robert Molinaro

Thanks from Fontanas

We are very grateful for your kindness, as it has helped life our spirits greatly. We look forward to quick recovery and a great season.

A feature of the Nutley Sun, Bloomfield Life, Belleville Times and Glen Ridge Voice

BELLEVILLE, NUTLEY, BLOOMFIELD AND GLEN RIDGE HIGH SCHOOL Senior Classes of 1997 will be participating in their individual annual Project Graduation celebrations - alcohol and drug free, chaperoned parties attended by the class members. These events are possible only through the generous support of private and corporate members of the communities. Consider a donation to this worthy activity of our youth which will create a wonderful memory for each graduating senior attending. Interested contributors should contact the individual high schools.

A NEW day has arrived in the Township of Bloomfield. With the swearing-in of the re-elected Board of Education members Michael Fede, Anthony Pettillo and Dr. Nicholas Rizzitello, a majority is committed to reasonable legal fees - the one, single issue that caused a revolution among the heavily-burdened taxpayers. The school board majority is dedicated to saving taxpayer dollars.

NUTLEY ELKS LODGE #1290 has installed Richard O'Connell Sr. as its 1997-1998 Exalted Ruler. Mr. O'Connell, born in Jersey City, is a graduate of St. Michael's High School of Union City and attended the University of Maryland and NYU. He has also served in the U. S. Army Chemical Corp. for two years and in the Army Reserve. Married to the former Marie Zingales for 34 years, they have three sons and six grandchildren. Mr. O'Connell recently retired as Assistant vice President from First Chicago-J.P. Morgan Bank where he was employed for 35 years. He was an active member and coach in the American Little League and the Nutley Basketball League, serving as Coach and Vice President, and is an active member of the Third Half Club of Nutley. He has been a member of the Nutley Elks since 1985 and served as Trustee from 1987-1990.

BELLEVILLE POLICE-MEN'S BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION LOCAL 28 is currently holding its annual fundraiser drive. Proceeds assist the organization in supporting many worthy causes - the Special Education and College Scholarship Programs, Belleville Little League, Recreation Department and other worthy organizations. The PBA also provides financial assistance to citizens who have suffered personal tragedy such as prolonged illness, fire and being victimized by crime. The Belleville PBA strives to make our community a better place to live and work. Citizens donating to the cause will receive automobile decals designating them as supporters of the PBA. You may forward your contribution to the Belleville PBA Local 28, P. O. Box 27, Belleville.

THE Tuesday flyback to Jersey was very pleasant, and I shared the same plane with the Dave Infusino family. As frequently as they make the trip over the years, this is probably the second time that we shared the same plane.

A LITTLE HISTORY FIRST.

Last couple of years, Whitman was looking for ways to fund the state budget without new taxes. She located cash funded reserves in the State Pension Fund - money legally necessary to accommodate pensions of retired and retiring state employees. When this happened, all kinds of bells and whistles were sounded cautioning Whitman to refrain from invading these sacred, legally protected reserves. She paid them no mind - and used dedicated pension funds to balance her 1996 budget.

Recently to balance her July 1st budget, Whitman proposes to authorize the issuance of a Three Billion Dollar Bond Issue payable over 36 years. Together with the interest charges - the projected Whitman plan to balance her July 1st budget will cost taxpayers an estimated 35 Billion Dollars over the 35 years after she leaves office - quite a legacy - and an incredible burden for taxpayers. There remains one BUT!

The senators and assemblymen and women are standing in the way of Whitman's proposal.

They are all up for re-election. They are learning from their taxpayer voters the Whitman bond proposal is stillborn.

Voters are clamoring for Whitman to place the bond issue question on the November ballot. For obvious reasons, she is not buying into this proposal. However, Democrats are talking about submitting the bond issue to the voters on the November ballot.

FOR our Florida home, I recently signed up for Direct TV Satellite Broadcasting. A terrific new world opened up and at very reasonable prices - and after three months notice - I could eliminate the cable service because it will not be needed.

On April 3rd, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cohen found out that the power of commitment has no boundaries.

The trees were already revealing their spring buds on March 31, 1997 when it happened. The biggest storm of the year, a nor'easter, dumped nearly three feet of snow on the little town of Forestburgh, New York. Thousands were left without power, including Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cohen. With the massive outage draining their resources, Rockland Electric Company asked their closest neighbors for help. On Thursday, April 3rd, a brigade of PSE&G trucks arrived on the scene and 25 orange-suited crewmembers quickly worked most of the night to restore power to the Cohens and their neighbors. At PSE&G we spend a lot of time talking about our commitment. But, as millions of people like the Cohens will attest, we also spend a lot of time proving it.

Subject: Power Outage of April 1997

I must write this message before all others. It is the first time that I have been able to do same since Monday March 31st at 7:10PM. At that point due to the extreme storm we lost our electricity. This loss continued until 12:15PM April 4th.

To all those who have suffered through such an experience I do not have to describe it and to those who have never experienced it, words alone can never describe it. On Thursday April 3rd without bugles and cavalry charges the PSE&G trucks and crew in large numbers arrived to accept the challenge of restoring power to a large area devastated by the storm. Accepting a responsibility that was not theirs, brought in from another state to help fellow Americans. They were friendly, smiling and cooperating with each other and in a minimum amount of time completed what to a laymen appeared to be an impossible and endless task.

To me there was an additional sense of satisfaction. My wife and I have been stockholders for over 35 years. You are a great company, with a great bunch of loyal employees and you certainly provided us with a substantial additional dividend this year.

On behalf of my neighbors and friends who may not take the time to thank you I wish to express their appreciation and best wishes.

From my wife and I—WELL DONE PSE&G WELL DONE!

10 good reasons to see your eye doctor

1. Many serious, sight-threatening eye diseases do not have early signs or symptoms.
 2. Every day your ability to work, play, relax or enjoy hobbies depends on your vision.
 3. Among the most common reasons people see their eye doctors are headaches and eye strain, which both can often be corrected by vision treatment.
 4. Changes in our environment increase such vision risks as ultraviolet exposure, eye strain and irritation from pollution, making preventive eye care more important than ever.
 5. Early pediatric eye examinations are the only reliable way to prevent children from developing amblyopia, or lazy eye.
 6. Ninety percent of people age 45 and over need eyeglasses because they develop presbyopia, the inability to see close tasks clearly.
 7. Half of people with glaucoma risk permanent vision loss because they do not know they have it. Or, they stop treatment, mistakenly believing that the treatment is unsuccessful.
 8. Many general health problems, such as diabetes, high blood pressure and others can be detected by regular, preventive eye exams.
 9. A significant amount of myopia, or near-sightedness, develops during the teenage years and can affect children's skills and performance.
 10. Vision is the most valued sense in our lives, as reported by many studies. Yet, many people fail to seek preventive exams for their eyes as regularly as they do for other health conditions.
- To schedule your exam, contact Dr. Walter Shurminsky, 420 Centre St., Nutley, at 667-0331.

Anxiety disorder screening slated

Do you experience the symptoms of anxiety?

Excessive worrying, felling keyed up or restless, avoidance of social activities, obsessions or compulsions, muscle tension and discomfort with social situations can all be indicators of anxiety.

"Anxiety is a huge problem that often is unrecognized," stated Alice Ricco, executive director of Community Mental Health Services, 50 Belleville Ave., Belleville.

"We hope that those members of the community that suffer from these symptoms will attend our free screening on Wednesday, May 6, at 2 p.m. and 6:30 p.m.," she said.

There will be an opportunity to view a video about anxiety and fill out a questionnaire. Dr. Luisa Schottl, the center's medical director, and staff clinicians will be available to speak with guests and answer questions. Refreshments will be served.

The screening will be held at Community Mental Health Services located at the Cancer Research Center complex at the intersection of Belleville and Franklin avenues. For information, call 450-3100.

Fitness Center for Women offers cardio television

Soon it will be time to shed those coats. Spring is on the way!

What better way to get ready for summer than by starting a fitness program.

The Fitness Center for Women offers a full-service fitness facility and salon with spa services. The Center makes it fun and affordable.

Its philosophy differs from other women's facilities based on membership structure. The Center does not overcrowd its facility with gimmick membership rates. It offers one affordable rate.

Ladies, grab the kids. The Center has supervised child care. Hop on a treadmill and "tune in" on the newly installed cardio television, and while working out, watch your favorite soaps, Kathie Lee and Regis or Rosie. Then enjoy a cappuccino at the juice bar or a relaxing massage and facial. Get your nails done while your children are in the children's activity room. It's as simple as that.

The Fitness Center for Women offers a variety of classes, the latest in cardio and resistance training equipment plus a full-service salon including skin and nail care. Come and relax, relieve your stress - it's a phone call away at 429-2808.

Enjoy yourself at the Fitness Center for Women, the place for women, at 462 Broad St., Bloomfield.

Job Haines Home to host breakfast for professionals

The Job Haines Home, 250 Bloomfield Ave., Bloomfield, will hold its semi-annual health care professionals' breakfast on Wednesday, May 7.

The guest speaker will be Linda O'Brien, R.N., director of geriatrics at Cooper Medical Center in Camden.

O'Brien has recently completed a study on treatment options and health care decision-making in the elderly population. Her presentation will focus on the results of this study.

Anita Merrill, assistant administrator at Job Haines, said "We find the results of this study extremely important. It reveals that the choices made by elderly people often run counter to what health care professionals may recommend."

The program is intended to benefit social workers and other health care professionals who assist elderly people through the decision-making process, specifically in the area of advance directives (i.e., living wills).

Originally called the social worker's breakfast, this semi-annual continuing education program has been expanded and the name changed to accommodate the many other professionals interested in attending.

Registration and breakfast will begin at 8 a.m. to allow participants to attend before the start of the work day.

For more information or to register for the program, contact Merrill at 743-0792.

HOROSCOPES

May 4-10

ARIES — March 21/April 20

The sun is shining on you at work. Everything is going your way, and you should revel in it. Now's your chance to get yourself noticed. Romance blossoms in your personal life. Someone whom you thought was just a friend reveals his or her true feelings for you.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21

Strong and steady wins the race, and your personality fits the bill. When everyone else is frantic over a mistake at work, your calm nature will correct the problem and save the day. A loved one reveals a secret to you. Keep his or her confidence, and be supportive.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21

You may feel like you have a split personality this week. Everyone will be pulling you in a different direction, and you don't know which way to turn. Take a step back, relax, and think about how you really feel. Do what you believe in, and don't let others pressure you. Aquarius plays a role.

CANCER — June 22/July 22

You're in the doghouse at work this week. It seems as if everything you do is wrong. However, this too shall pass. Hold tight, and do your best. You'll be doing well again soon. As for your love life, it's just the opposite. You have suitors knocking at your door at all hours of the day and night. Don't be overwhelmed.

LEO — July 23/August 23

Your outgoing nature wins you points with your superiors at work early in the week. However, remember not to get cocky. It can be a fine line between outgoing and obnoxious. A friend you haven't seen in a few months returns to your life. Catch up on the time you've missed with each other. Taurus plays an important role.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22

Take a backseat at work this week. Let someone else get a chance to shine. Just because you're not in the spotlight doesn't mean that your work isn't good. You're still being noticed by superiors. A loved one needs your help at the end of the week. Give him or her support.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23

Your time is a popular commodity this week. Between co-workers, family and friends, it seems that you have no time for yourself. Everyone needs your advice and help. Give what you can, but remember to take care of yourself. There comes a time when you have to look out for No. 1.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22

Don't be afraid to go out on a limb at work this week. Ingenuity is called for, and your crazy idea really does have merit. Don't hold yourself back from sharing it with your manager. A loved one is there for you when a relationship ends. Take him or her up on the offer of a shoulder to cry on.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21

When you make a mistake at work this week, admit it. Everyone can see through your lies. A co-worker is there to help you correct the problem. As for your love life, don't worry — there are no mistakes in sight. That special someone you've had your eye on finally asks you out. Say yes!

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20

Put your nose to the grindstone at work early in the week. There's too much to be done to goof off. Besides, it's in your best interest to get a lot of work done; your superiors are watching. A family matter erupts into a huge fight later in the week. Don't choose sides.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18

You're in over your head at work this week. Ask for help. It's not a sign of weakness; it's a sign of intelligence. A close friend needs your advice this week. Be honest, and don't let petty jealousy get in the way. Remember, this is a good friend who always has helped you.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20

Family matters take center stage this week. Give your support to loved ones, but don't get drawn into a family fight. Try to keep everyone objective. It will work out. As for your love life, you won't have to work hard at all. An old flame returns to rekindle your relationship.

Belleville SPORTS

BUG SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

15 years later, Lady Buc softball team remains special

There has been some glorious history when it comes to Belleville High School softball. Since Carl Corino took over as coach prior to the 1980 campaign, there has been a "big time" approach when it comes to Lady Buc softball.

Corino has posted 350 wins as the coach, spanning 17 seasons, including this years excellent 13-3 start through last Saturday's game. He will probably hit the 400 win mark sometime in the 1999 season.

Like anything this successful, it had to start somewhere. In Corino's case, you can point to two seasons in particular, where the program gained stature.

The first was Corino's initial season as coach, when he led a group of upstarts to the county championship game and an overall 20-8 mark.

No one expected Belleville to challenge for the county title that season. They won a shocking 4-3 semi final over Columbia after trailing 3-0 heading into the last inning. The '80 team ended up losing in the county finals to a powerhouse from Cedar Grove.

After a somewhat 'disappointing' season in 1981 (the team was 18-8 but was eliminated early from the county and state tournaments), there was some high hopes heading into the 1982 season.

The players that made up the '82 team were, for the most part, a veteran core. They had learned from the '80 success and were determined to right what had happened in 1981.

So, there was a swagger to the '82 club, even though they had yet to win a championship of any sorts. Don't forget, in 1982, Belleville was still an independent team (they did not join the NNJL until the Fall of 1982) and the only trophies the team could claim back then were either the county, or state sectional titles.

The infield featured Mona Stampe at first, Rosie Leonidis at second, Kim Indiero playing shortstop and Nancy Coffey at third. Tracey Buono was the catcher and Dina DeAquino the starting pitcher, with Kathy Woods seeing extensive time as the second pitcher.

The outfield was flanked by centerfielder Donna Campana. Corino will still tell you today that Campana might be one of the best defensive players he's ever seen. I'll say that Campana, Simone Edwards (class of 1989) and 1993 standout Colleen Mannion are the three best center fielders in school history.

While Coffey, Chimento, Campana and Leonidis were the senior base that year, players like DeAquino and Buono were just sophomores, yet they played like upper classmen.

They went on record early that season in saying that they would win at least the county title and were looking past that toward state supremacy.

And they played with that swagger from the first game of the season. They would jump out to a quick start before losing their first game at Kearny in late April. A month later, they would avenge that loss by dominating Kearny at Belleville High School. (In '82, Belleville's home games were played at the high school, not Clearmon Field).

By mid May, this team was rolling along, with just a loss and a tie and were looking at the county tournament as a chance to prove their dominance.

There would be a span of games in May that showed not only this team's greatness, but also their resiliency. The greatness came in a semi final win over Verona, mainly because the team hit the ball when necessary and Campana made one of the best catches I've ever seen in a key moment of the game. She went after a long fly ball to deep center with the bases loaded and two outs. Had it gotten over her head, Verona could have tied, or gone ahead in the game. Instead, she chased it, put her glove out, and, circa Willie Mays 1954, made a classic catch.

In a state tournament game against a pesky Montclair team a few days later, the game was tied at one when a rain storm stopped the game. The rain was so intense that it was decided to replay the game in its entirety the next day.

Corino decided to pitch Woods for that rematch, because his team would have to play Livingston twice in the next five days, once for the sectional semi final and the other for the county championship game.

Of course, the state game with Livingston would never have been played had it not been for the thrilling win over Montclair. Woods pitched a solid game and Coffey came through with the key hit in the last of the seventh inning that drove home the winning runs, giving Belleville a 3-2 win.

It appeared that Belleville would prevail easily over Livingston in the state sectional semi. The game was played at home and Belleville took an early 4-0 lead.

But Livingston would rally, tying the game and winning a stunning 8-6 contest in extra innings. To many teams, it could have been a demoralizing loss, but this team would not quit.

Instead, it used the loss as more motivation for the county final, once again versus Livingston.

On a Saturday night in late May, Belleville exploded for a seven run fourth inning and cruised to an 8-0 victory, winning its first of three county crowns in the 1980's.

The '82 team would finish 24-2-2. There have been great seasons since, and we'll look back at the tenth anniversary of that great '87 club later this spring. But, like I said, it had to start somewhere, and the '82 team began the lofty tradition which stands today.

Coffey, Leonidis, DeAquino, Buono and Stampe are members of the Belleville High School Hall of Fame today. Indiero should be there as well.

It was a very special team.

Lopreato homer beats Glen Ridge, county quarter this Saturday

M. Rotino home run stuns Nutley

By Mike Lamberti

In winning 13 of their first 16 games, the Lady Buc softball team can credit a total team effort for its success.

Carl Corino's team posted wins over Ridgewood, Nutley and Glen Ridge last week. The team will be at Paramus tomorrow afternoon at 4 p.m. and will host Montclair on Saturday in the quarter final round of the Essex County tournament. Game time there is 2 p.m.

Next Monday, Teaneck comes to town and next Wednesday, the team is at Paramus Catholic. Both of those games start at 4 p.m.

Last week, the Lady Bucs blanked Ridgewood 10-0 as pitcher Chrissie Crescenzi hurled a no-hitter. In beating a good Nutley team, 6-4, Jessica Rotino and Marissa Rotino excelled. Last Saturday, in the first round of the Essex County tournament, Nikki Lopreato led the offensive attack in a 13-2 victory over Glen Ridge.

Belleville's only loss last week came to powerful Immaculate Heart, 8-4 last Thursday at Clearmon Field. In that game, Jennifer Piscatowski led the way.

"The kids have played well," Corino said. "We had goals at the beginning of the season, mainly getting to at least the semi finals of the county tournament, winning 20 games, advancing in the states."

"If we keep winning, then we'll get some home games for the state tourney. We were the third seed for the county, so we get to play two games at home. That's all you can ask for."

Crescenzi retired 15 of the 18 batters she faced in blanking Ridgewood.

"It was maybe the best game she's pitched since she started with our team," Corino said of Crescenzi. "She walked just two and kept ahead in the count.

"We played a great game. We hit the ball and played good defense."

Ridgewood is generally a solid team in the NNJL Atlantic Division and winning this game by ten runs, on the road, was certainly a plus for the Lady Bucs.

Jessica Rotino had two hits and two ribbies in the game and her sister, Marissa, had one hit (a triple) and drove in two runs.

Kim Mahoney stole two bases and scored twice.

The Belleville-Nutley game was a typical battle. Nutley held a 2-1 lead going into the sixth inning before Belleville scored five times to go ahead for good.

In the sixth, Piscatowski tripled and scored on a Jessica Rotino single. Marissa Rotino then drilled a long home run to give Belleville a 4-2 lead.

Anabelle Rodriguez followed the homer with a single. Melissa Brodo walked and a ground out scored Rodriguez. Mahoney then singled to score Brodo.

Belleville took an early 1-0 lead in the first inning when Mahoney was hit by a pitch, stole second and later scored on a ground out.

Nutley scored once in the second and fourth innings to take a 2-1 lead, setting the stage for the Belleville rally in the sixth.

"We had to work hard for that one," Corino said. "We had a 6-2 lead, but Nutley came back and scored twice in the seventh inning. We were able to hold on."

Crescenzi was the winning pitcher, earning her 11th win of the season.

Although Belleville lost its third game of the season last week to Immaculate Heart, Corino felt his team was able to play competitively against the fourth ranked team in the state.

"The score (8-4) was not indicative of how we played," the coach said. "We were right in the game. I think our kids found out we can play with a team of that calibre."

"Immaculate Heart is a very good team, no question. We'll get better by playing teams like them."

I.H. took an early 7-1 lead after three innings, but Belleville hung in there and cut the lead to four runs in the seventh inning.

Piscatowski was the leader of the offense here, getting three hits. Crescenzi had two hits and Mahoney scored twice.

Last Saturday, Belleville beat Glen Ridge in five innings, 13-2 to advance in the Essex County tournament.

Lopreato led the way with three hits, including a home run. She drove in three runs and scored twice.

Joelle DellaVolpe, Mahoney and Piscatowski had two hits each and Janelle Romano, a freshman, scored two runs.

"We've got some real tough games coming up," Corino said. "Paramus is ranked in the state and Montclair will be a tough opponent. We'd like to get back to Pulaski Park (for the county semi finals) and we need to beat Montclair."

"It should be a big week for us."

NOTES: The other quarter final games this weekend feature Caldwell-Nutley, West Essex-Cedar Grove and Bloomfield-Mt. St. Dominic.

The four winners this weekend advance to the "Final Four" of the county tourney on May 10 at Pulaski Park in Bloomfield.

West Essex is the top seed this year, followed by Caldwell and then Belleville.

Lady Bucs defeated Montclair earlier this season. They lost to Caldwell and West Essex in early April.

Belleville last played in the Final Four back in 1995.

Pagan gem leads Bucs past Bloomfield

By Mike Lamberti

Chuck Martin has been concerned about his teams lack of consistency since the start of the 1997 baseball season.

That inconsistency was very noticeable last week as the Bucs split four games, beating Ridgewood and Bloomfield, then losing, badly to Nutley and Don Bosco.

The team was 6-5-1 heading into this weeks action, which began last Monday versus St. Joe's. Yesterday, the team was at Hackensack and tomorrow, Paramus comes to town for a 4 p.m. start. This Saturday, the Bucs, who drew a bye in the preliminary round, will host Montclair Kimberly Academy in the first round of the Greater Newark Tournament. That game begins at 2 p.m.

Next Monday, it's off to Teaneck and next Wednesday, Paramus Catholic comes to town. Both of those games commence at 4 p.m.

The Bucs began last week with two impressive wins, beating NNJL Atlantic Division foes Ridgewood 8-4 and Bloomfield, 4-2. The win over Bloomfield, which went to eight innings, was a stirring victory, highlighted by a marvelous pitching performance by Ed Pagan.

"Eddie was outstanding," Martin said. "Our entire team was ready to play. They came with intensity. It was a good win for us, especially coming at their place, at night."

"But then, we play Nutley the next day and, literally, don't show up. It was embarrassing, maybe the most embarrassed I've ever been since coaching. We slept walked

Track team excels at Millburn Relays

By Mike Lamberti

As the weather gets warmer, the performances get better for the Buccaneer track team.

John Tosato's team will compete in the Essex County relays tomorrow afternoon and will "host" Paramus next Tuesday, at Nutley's facility. That meet commences at 4 p.m.

The Bucs lost a one-sided meet to St. Joe's of Montvale, but come away with some good performances.

"There were real good," Tosato said of St. Joe's. "In a meet like that, you're looking to improve performances. We got that done."

Tristyn Kvetkus ran a strong 100 meters, taking second overall with a time of 11.6. The winner of that race was St. Joe's Cooper Rego, an All American football player who will be in the backfield at Notre Dame next fall.

Kvetkus also was second in the high jump (5'8") and did well in the long jump (17'5 1/2"), although he didn't place in that event.

Nick Colucci took second in the 400 meter hurdles (60.2) and placed third in the 100 hurdles (17.4).

Jose Moreno continued to show versatility, competing in the 400 meter hurdles for the first time and taking third with a time of 63.1. Moreno also took second in his more familiar event, running 10:48.3 in the 3200 meters.

Angelo Chavez closed out the Belleville scoring, taking second in the long jump (18' 1/4") and third in the triple jump (37'1").

The Bucs were at the Millburn Relays last weekend and Tosato came away from the event happy with the performances.

Leading the way was a team of freshman and sophomores, who combined for a bronze medal in the sprint medley.

The team of Jose Pagan, Terrance Gaines, Luis Rios and Moreno ran 4:09.7. Perez ran the first 200 meters in 25.6 and Rios ran 400 meters in an impressive 60.5. Moreno closed out the race with a solid 2:14.4 in the 800 meters.

For the first time, the Bucs ran a 3 x 400 hurdles team and did very well. Colucci (60.7), Moreno (63.8) and John Bolkas (64.6) combined to lead the team to a fifth place finish in 3:09.1.

The Buc mile relay team ran 3:49.1, led by Bolkas (55.9), Chavez (59.0), Kvetkus (53.7) and Colucci (59.8). The most notable performance was that of Kvetkus, who ran the 400 meters for the first time this season and turned in the fastest performance in 53.7.

The distance medley team of Moreno, Joe Ruffalo, Pete Beltran and Mike Deluca finished in 16:07 and the 4 x 100 team of Kvetkus, Chavez, Ruffalo and Colucci ran 49.1.

The javelin relay team of Chris Muscara and Ruffalo finished with a combined throw of 190'1", the shot put relay team (Brie Compusano and Ajmal Zadrán) threw 72'7" and the discus relay (Zadrán and Lou Capadona) finished at 101'10".

"We had a lot of young kids do well in the relays," Tosato said. "We know we'll have our hands full in the conference, but the team continues to improve, and that's the most important thing."

Baseball team battles M.K.A. Saturday

through the game."

Nutley dominated the game, winning 9-1. Two days later, the Bucs were in Ramsey and once again, played poorly in an 11-6 defeat.

First the good news. The games with Ridgewood and Bloomfield were well played.

Versus Ridgewood, the Bucs trailed 2-0 in the bottom of the second, but came back to tie the game. Pagan and Rich DeFalco singled. Ricci Bello singled, but Pagan was out at the plate attempting to score.

A walk loaded the bases and a subsequent walk to Rick Roberto forced home DeFalco. A fielders choice then scored Bello.

Belleville went ahead for good in the third inning. Greg Sheridan singled and Tom Dyer doubled him home. Dyer scored on a fielders choice by Pagan and Pagan later scored on two wild pitches.

Ridgewood cut the lead to 5-4 in the fourth, but the Bucs came back with a run when Sheridan singled and scored on a DeFalco hit.

In the fifth, Roberto doubled and Dan Rispoli singled him in. Rispoli later scored the Bucs eighth run.

This was enough for Marc Lawrence, who pitched five innings and gained the win, his first of the year. Pagan, who would excel the next day, hurled two innings of scoreless relief and gained the save.

Sheridan was 3 for 3 to lead the Belleville attack. Dyer, Pagan and DeFalco had two hits each.

Against Bloomfield last Tuesday night, Pagan was outstanding. He hurled the entire eight innings, fanning 13 batters. He gave up solo runs in the fifth and sixth innings.

"I haven't seen a performance like that in a long time," said assistant coach George Zanfini. "Eddie was dominant."

The Bucs took a 2-0 lead in the second. Justin Mohren reached on a fielders choice. He stole second and scored on a Roberto single. Dyer later singled to score Roberto.

After Bloomfield tied the game in the sixth, the Bucs went ahead with two runs in the eighth. Rispoli singled and was bunted to second. Dyer singled Rispoli home with the go-ahead run and Lawrence grounded out to score Dyer with the insurance tally.

About 18 hours later, the Bucs were home to play Nutley and were flat, to say the least.

The team committed four errors and made life for Nutley pretty enjoyable on the road.

"Routine plays turned into debacles," Martin said. "I had hoped that they would have learned from that game when we went to Don Bosco."

But the Bucs were once again flat, committing six errors and allowing ten unearned runs, including five in the last of the first inning.

Lawrence pitched a complete game for the Bucs and deserved a much better fate.

"He should have thrown seven pitches in the first and gotten them one-two-three," Martin said of Lawrence. "But we didn't help him in the field. Routine ground balls were bobbled. Marc pitched a very good game. He deserved better."

Mohren and Pagan both had two hits to lead Belleville.

"When we come to play, we're pretty good," Martin said. "But we're not good enough to just show up and think we're going to win. Some of the kids had better decide what they want from this game. It's disappointing to see kids that have talent not reaching their potential."

Pharmacy Footnotes

FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION

While many are aware that certain drugs can interact dangerously, it may surprise many more to learn that some foods can also pose problems when mixed with certain medications. For instance, grapefruit juice should never be taken with calcium channel blockers because a compound in the grapefruit slows the rate at which the body metabolizes these drugs, in effect making the drugs more potent. Broccoli should never be taken with the widely prescribed blood thinner warfarin because this otherwise healthy vegetable counteracts the drug's effect. Cheddar cheese should never be taken with MAO inhibitors because the cheese contains high levels of the chemical tyramine which adversely affects the antidepressant. Always ask the pharmacist if any foods should be avoided when taking your medications.

We will not only tell you what foods should be avoided, but also if the medication should be taken before or after a meal. Our pharmacist is always available to answer your questions at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1968, 759-1956). HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS Tips On Window Shopping (NAPS)—Whether remodeling or building a new home, knowing the right questions to ask before buying windows can save you time, trouble and money.

• Is the manufacturer certified? A sure sign of a well-constructed, quality unit is the certification label etched in the glass or printed on the spacers between the lites of glass.

Windows can earn one of three designations—C, CB or CBA—depending on test results. The CBA level is the highest rating and means a window has passed through three levels of simulated weatherization without showing signs of condensation or fogging.

• Does the window manufacturer offer a warranty? If you are considering purchasing a dual pane, sealed window unit, ask about the manufacturer's warranty. A well-constructed unit should last a minimum of ten years. If the window system fails in five years, causing excessive drafts or allowing condensation to form between the panes, will the manufacturer replace it?

Also, inquire as to whether any of the window components are covered. For instance, Tremco, the manufacturer of the insulating glass edge spacer, Swiggle® Seal, offers window manufacturers a warranty on their product.

• What is the U-Value of the window? Window manufacturers use U-values, a measure of heat transfer, to indicate thermal performance or energy efficiency. The lower the U-value, the better. A U-value of .40 is considered excellent.

• Is the window constructed with conventional or warm-edge spacers? Dual and triple pane windows are constructed with edge spacers designed to reduce heat loss around the window's edges. The materials used to construct them in summer. To prevent this, some window manufacturers use low-Emissivity (low-E) coatings on one pane. Low-E coatings block the radiation that can account for as much as 60 percent of a window's heat loss. They also protect indoor furnishings from sun damage.

It makes sense to ask your contractor for recommendations, but a little homework of your own can help you end up with the most appropriate windows for your construction or remodeling project.

struct these edge spacers can mean the difference between a drafty window edge and one that is well insulated against the cold.

Some window manufacturers use aluminum spacers filled with moisture-absorbing material that helps prevent condensation from building up between the panes. However, because metal conducts heat, aluminum spacers diminish the insulation value of a window, resulting in a higher U-value.

Others have abandoned aluminum spacers for warm-edge spacers. But not all warm edge seals perform identically. A window constructed with a warm-edge spacer such as Swiggle Seal will be nine degrees warmer and reduce condensation by up to 80 percent more than an identical window constructed with an aluminum spacer.

• Does the window have Low-E glass? Regular, uncoated glass releases heat in winter, and Monthly payments are for 30 year conventional fixed rate mortgages on different basis. Please ask about: Lower Down Payments, Lower Monthly Payments, Cash Options.

For purchase prices up to $268,375, monthly mortgage payments (principal + interest) quoted in our ads are to qualified buyers, based upon a 20% downpayment and a conventional 30 year fixed rate mortgage. For example: a $100,000 loan would mean 360 monthly payments of $716.42. For purchase prices from $268,375 to $625,000, the monthly payments are to qualified buyers based upon a 20% downpayment, and calculated at 7.675% with 3 points on a "Jumbo" 30-year fixed rate mortgage with an A.P.R. of 8.20%. An example of a $500,000 loan would mean 360 monthly payments of $3,582.07. Figures herein are approximate and do not include property taxes, hazard insurance, or homeowners association dues for a condominium purchase. Interest rates quoted are as of April 2, 1997, and subject to change. Not responsible for typographical errors, while information is believed accurate, we request that the payment be validated with a mortgage provider prior to purchase.
