Salary guide enacted; election jobs offered

Paserchia 'offers' budget cuts but her plan is still a mystery

By Howard Klausner

Council Member Angie Paserchia says she has suggestions to reduce the proposed municipal budget by $1.5 million, and end the threat of a 53-point tax increase.

At Tuesday's Council meeting, she announced that the budget changes she had suggested in private session would be amended.

She did not make public her proposals, but she did issue a statement which hinted at where she saw room to save money.

"One of the suggestions I made is to cap attorney costs at $75,000 a year. This means any lawyer wishing to work as the Township Attorney must agree to work for $75,000 a year.

"Currently, we pay our Township attorney over $100,000 a year in legal fees in addition to a $42,000 salary. This has to end."

Paserchia also said that there were moneys "buried" in the budget for "professional services" and that there was no "adequate explanation for these expenditures".

Council members have not commented on her suggestions.

The Council is expected to introduce the budget for public hearing on June 10.

Errors in water meter reading caused critical comment on both the Council and in the audience.

The Council voted to endorse the keeping of Welfare office operations in the municipality, rather than have it absorbed into a County operation in Newark.

The Council also formally introduced the Police and Municipal Employee salary guide, incorporating proposed 4 percent annual pay increases over the next three years.

The Township Manager's salary is set at $110,000 a year, with no increases over the next three years.

Mayor Victor Canning said there was a need for Election workers, a job which pays $100 for one day's work.

Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood said that Election Board workers were needed, and asked that applicants contact her at 450-3302.

Rescue arrives at the party to make a 4-year-old happy

By Howard Klausner

Maria Vazquez visited the Belleville Fire House with her mother, Lucy, to learn about fire safety.

"I strongly recommend that all children get lessons in fire safety before they go to school," Mrs. Vazquez. "It really works."

It was on the visit to the fire house that Lucy got the idea of a theme for Maria's upcoming fourth birthday party. Maria was delighted by Rescue, the Dalmatian mascot of the firefighters.

"It would be 101 Dalmatians."

Mrs. Vazquez won a promise that Rescue would attend.

On Monday, 17 children came to the Vazquez home on Celia Avenue to help celebrate Maria's birthday.

And to the delight of all, a genuine fire truck pulled up, with Firefighter Angelo Rotonda bringing Rescue, plus a supply of paper fire helmets and pencils.

"The children had a wonderful time, and it was so very nice of the firemen to come, and to come in their truck with Rescue," Mrs. Vazquez said.

"It was so beautiful."

Newark Authority, Valley National give help Silver Lake beautification in full flower

By Howard Klausner

The maintenance staff of the Stephen Crane Homes in Newark, and a bank on Bloomfield Avenue, each added to the beautification of Silver Lake.

Valley National Bank, standing at the Belmont Avenue approach to Belleville, has placed large plantings at its door step.

Branch Manager Barbara Freda was thanked by Marie Strumolo-Burke, Phyllis Scangillo and Angela Cuzzo-Zarro of the Silver Lake Beautification Committee for the institution's providing floral beauty to this entry way to the community.

At the Newark Avenue entry to Silver Lake, a stand of 10 trees and some dozen flower bushes has been planted, courtesy of the Newark Housing Authority.

The cost of the plantings is about $5,000 and is borne by the housing authority. Karriem Ali, maintenance manager at Stephen Crane Village, and the entire crew of maintenance workers, did the planting in memory of Ann Kearney, who was for many years the manager of the Village.

The Authority provided maples, Bradford pear trees, weeping cherry and pine oaks, along with azaleas and flowering arborvitae.

Mrs. Burke, president of the Silver Lake Civic Association, expressed her gratitude to the maintenance workers, Mr. Ali and the Housing Authority.

"We have worked for many years to have this area cleaned up and now it is a place of beauty," Mrs. Burke said.

"It is a wonderful tribute to the people who made it possible."

THE GOOD NEIGHBOR - Valley National Bank was honored as a 'Good Neighbor' by the Silver Lake Civic Association for the bank's use of floral display to beautify the Bloomfield Avenue office. From left are Marie Strumolo Burke, president of the SLCA; bank Branch Manager Barbara Freda, and SLCA members Angela Cuzzo-Zarro and Phyllis Scangillo who headed the beautification drive in community.

Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

The statesmen make the mistakes, and the rest of us pay for them. Joe Celfo was the father of a two-month-old boy when the urgency of war in January 1942 sent him into the Army. America had been caught unprepared, so the rush was on to shove every able-bodied man into uniform. In practically no time, he was a tank driver with a Tank Destroyer Battalion in the Third Armored Division, seeing combat in France, Belgium and the Battle of The Bulge. Assigned to the 95th Infantry Division, he was to participate in the capture of the Remagen Bridge that enabled the Allies to cross the Rhine. "MacArthur wanted us for the invasion of Japan, and we were getting ready to move, when the war ended." At that point, son Joseph added enough discharge points for him to make his exit back to civilian life, in December 1945. But the need to draft fathers had reached the point during the war that men with four and five children were called up, and a number of them were casualties. It was part of the payoff for the spirit of isolationism that had left the country defenseless between World War I and World War II. . . . Angelo Marone went into the Army on Feb. 11, 1942 - "My father Nick's birthday" - and he, too, went into armored warfare. He joined the 6th Armored Division at Fort Smith, Arkansas, and went off to England by way of Camp Shanks. He landed in France on June 17 as a tank commander. "It was a Sherman. We had a .75 cannon - it was a pea shooter! The Germans had .88's that could put a shell through a Sherman. It could fire up at an aircraft, it could fire a shell that exploded over the infantry. An .88 actually landed in the muzzle of our cannon! I thought we'd get a rest for a while, but in four days they turned up with a .75 being pulled by a truck!" Marone says he was puzzled that America could make good airplanes and good equipment, but the Germans had better tanks and better cannon. "We won we because we had so many more tanks, so many more guns, so many more men". . . . He recalled seeing General Patton in action. "We had so many guys getting killed, he told us to lay off on the heroism. 'It isn't your job to die for your country,' he said. 'Let that other SOB die for his country!' When someone said to me that Patton would walk through the mud with his boots, I said, 'Of course. He's got someone to clean them for him.'"

My buddy said, 'Only someone like you would make a remark like that!'" In the battle to take the French port city of Brest, he received a leg wound that hospitalized him for six weeks. Then he went to Antwerp to work in the Port Battalion, essentially doing stevedore work. "There was a ship that was unloading ammunition at a certain dock. They moved it, and another ship replaced it. The next day a German plane dropped a 500-pound bomb on that ship. A spy had to tell them about the ammunition ship, and they didn't know it had been replaced. Another time, I was supposed to go to a movie theater with a friend. At the last minute, I decided, 'Let's get a drink, instead.' While we were at the bar, a buzz bomb hit the movie theater." Marone received his honorable discharge on Dec. 12, 1945. . . . Tony Branca was a teen-ager in the Calabrian village of Gagliuto, with a population of a thousand, when his father, Salvatore, who was in Bridgeport, Connecticut, sent for him. "In the village, we knew nothing of what was going on," he recalled, even as Benito Mussolini was apparently equally unaware of what was happening as he blundered towards war. Tony joined his father, and then found a job as sheet metal worker in Newark, where the local Selective Service Board called him up in February, 1943. "My English wasn't that good, really, but that didn't seem to matter. I could handle a rifle." He was sent to join the 3rd Infantry Division in Italy. "It was kind of a funny feeling, to be back there. I visited my mother, and oh, was she happy to see me!" Then he visited Monte Cassino. "At the front, it was not a matter of where you were, what country you were in. It was the front!" In time, a shell burst sent a shower of shrapnel into his body and burst his ear drums. "I still have ringing in my ears, and trouble with hearing," Tony said. Then there was six months in an Army hospital.

But the Army did not let him go. He was kept on as hospital technician, and he was on a hospital ship bound for Indo-China when the war ended. . . . Back home, he found a job as a sheet metal worker, and ultimately made his way to marriage and Belleville. His hospital training has stayed with him. "I have put in more than 8,000 hours of volunteer work with the veterans at the East Orange Veterans Hospital. I am a D.A.V. representative there, looking after the interests of the veterans, too." . . . Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch has suggested that the public turn to television for help. "I'd like Unsolved Mysteries to come up with a few answers, like Whatever Happened to the Safety Net? Or, Where Are The Ratables for Belleville?" Zilch's political supporters, the Kool Kucumber Boys, are urging a new approach to school funding. "The Lost World movie made a hundred million dollars in a weekend, mostly from school kids. Let the schools sponsor the next Spielberg sci-fi movie, get the money from the kids, and put it back into the schools!" Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro Di Vincenzo Mitten, says it looks like the Town Hall will be vacated by the end of June. "By the time they finish the renovation, and by the time they've built a new Rutgers Street Bridge, people will be so unaccustomed to coming downtown that they'll be able to build a new municipal stadium there and no one will notice."

The Crime Watch: Pursuit!

It was 1:30 p.m. on May 23, in Belleville Park, when Detective Michael Giuliani reportedly saw two men performing sexual acts.

One suspect said he didn't want to be arrested, when Giuliani identified himself as a police officer.

Accordingly, James Pica, 34, of Belleville, 6 foot 2 and weighing 230 pounds, knocked Giuliani to the ground and fled the dead end area of Belleville Park, heading for the Second River.

Police said Pica, who reportedly had been acting in a suspicious manner, jumped into the river and attempted to swim out of the clutches of the law. However, a number of police officers converged on him and brought the flight to a halt.

Pica was charged with open lewdness and aggravated assault on a police officer. A companion, Manuel Cirino, 46, of Newark, was charged with lewdness.

The Mill Street dead end is a popular locale for some people.

At 8 p.m. on May 22, Detectives William Palatella and Dante Pasquale arrested Ramon Villablanca, 55, of Newark, and charged him with performing a lewd act.

Later, Detectives Michael Giuliani and Robert Capece arrested Antonio Pozo, 67, who allegedly touched Giuliani in a lewd manner.

On May 17, in the same park location, Detectives Pasquale and William Palatella arrested Delroy Souden, 31, of Newark, on a charge of open lewdness.

Shoplifting also cropped up. Police Officers Anthony Weedo and Philip DeComa arrested Angel

Morales, 38, of Newark for allegedly trying to make off with a supply of vitamins, travel irons and a coffee maker from the Pathmark on Belmont Avenue. The estimated value of the items was $90.52.

On May 24, at 1:46 p.m., Police Officers Brendan Dullaghan and Vincent Cerca arrested Anna Maria Garcia, 55, of El Salvador, who reportedly had $33 worth of toothbrushes, Clairol, glue sticks and a glue gun, when she tried to leave the Foodtown store on Main Avenue.

Police said that Tammy Marie DiPaolo, 26, of Bloomfield, tried to leave the K-Mart Store on Main Avenue on May 23, with an electronic thesaurus, a video tape, three audio cassettes, a Casio watch, some Looney Tune stickers, BIC pens, Disney ornaments, socks, Duracell batteries, Advil, T-shirts and a Devils Hockey watch. The total value was set at $267.71. Police Officers Stephen Linfante and Albert Henry made the arrest.

On the drug front, Police Officers Rocco Andreottola and John Pinto stopped a car that was travelling on Washington Avenue at 1 a.m., May 24, with no taillight.

wearing a black ski mask, seized her from behind, forced her back into the house and punched and beat her.

She was tied by her hands and feet and shoved into the bathroom, and the door was locked.

Her sister, who is bedridden, was bound and gagged in her bed.

Then the intruder went through the house, causing havoc, and locating a large amount of cash.

Police said the women apparently did not trust banks and kept their savings in the house.

"We are working on some strong leads," Panier said.

The sisters reportedly own a store in Montclair.

Police said a passenger in the car tried to hide two vials and a heroin cooker when the police approached.

Arrested was Wanda Cajigas, 39, of Newark, for possession of illegal drugs and drug paraphernalia.

On May 21, at 10:45 p.m., Detectives Giuliani and Capece stopped a northbound car that had a broken windshield and was being driven erratically.

Michael George, 28, of Nutley, was charged with possession of a wax fold of heroin and misuse of dealer plates.

Children

Since Children's Day comes in the month of June, it might be nice to say a few words in their honor.

Children are the "spice of life" and frequently they can make you laugh when you feel like crying.

God's Word says that children are the Lord's plan for replenishing the earth.

Youngsters today face a cruel and hard old world to grow up in. Be kind to them. This does not mean we must give them everything they want in the way of worldly goods. In some cases, children who seem to be deprived of so many good things in life often turn out better and more appreciative than those who have wanted for nothing.

Much of the time their real want is to be able to share some time with Mom and Dad. Parents who are so busy they have no time for their children might wake up sometime later in life finding their own children will have little time for them!

Praise the Lord for the gift of children. They're among the greatest of God's gifts!

In my last column, I stated that Jim Troiano was the ex-president of the Friday Senior Citizen Club. I must apologize to Jim because at that time, he was still president. The new officers did not take over until this past Friday when they were sworn in by Congressman Bill Pascrell. The new officers are as follows: President Nick Mauncelle, Vice President Elanore Hrusko, Treasurer Ida Hovsepian, Secretary Theresa Leonardis, Corresponding Secretary Ann Strelecki, Vice President Josephine Molinaro, Parliamentarian Adolph Vecchione, Sergeant at Arms Francis Zoppa and Andy Casese, Elanore Belina and Francis Zoppa, trustees. Good luck to all.

On May 20, as president of the Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church in Nutley, I had the honor of attending the 43rd annual spiritual directors' dinner of the Essex-West Hudson Federation of Holy Name Societies. At this time, the Holy Name man of the year is announced. The Holy Family group going consisted of myself, Dominick Cucinello, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Testa, Sr. (Mr. Testa was the honoree from Holy Family), Mr. and Mrs. Sy Testa, Frank Restucci, Bill King and John Caruso, Sr.

A Mass was held at St. Valentine Church and dinner at the Essex Manor in Bloomfield. Congratulations to Mr. Testa!

As a representative of the Concerned Citizens of Belleville, I also attended the 20th scholastic awards ceremony where I had the honor of presenting the CCB scholarship award to Richard Nejman. This is an award presented by the CCB every year to a deserving student chosen by the Belleville counselors. The award ceremony was held at Belleville High School. While there, I ran into Judge Tom Zampino and his wife, plus a fit looking Mike Marotti. I also saw Grace Purdue there. Before I forget, I must wish my son Alan and his beautiful wife Debra (Graziano) a happy anniversary. Many, many more.

Don't forget the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary All-Night Vigil at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 60 Byrd Ave., Bloomfield. For information, call 338-9190. Date June 6-7 from 9 p.m. to 6 a.m.

I understand that the Friday club's trip to Hampton Inn was a huge success. Jo Molinaro, trip chairperson, told me they had a few winners at A.C. But of course, there were plenty of losers. Elanore Belina and Gert Trimarco were co-chairpersons on the trip.

Congratulations to Edith DeFeo who was one of three seniors honored by the Essex County Park Commission at its 22nd annual awards dinner held on May 6 at Mayfair Farms. Edith is president of the Belleville Park Monday Club and very active in town affairs. She is also a member of the Belleville High School Advisory Board and a member of the Rent Leveling Board.

Christine Peccarelli, member of the Wednesday Club and sunshine lady was also honored as was Rae DeLoreto, president of the Thursday Belleville Park Club.

Get well wishes to Libby Prosperi who is in the hospital with a broken shoulder and to Andy Ippolito who is not feeling well.

Condolences to the family of Patsy Coppola who died recently, to Millie Falcone who lost her sister, to Mary Ammendola who lost her sister also, to Grace Grosso who lost her brother-in-law and to Ann Lambert who lost her son-in-law.

Tid bit: Scatter seeds of kindness everywhere you go. Scatter bits of courtesy, watch them grow and grow. Gather buds of friendship, keep them 'til full blown. You will find more happiness than you have ever known. Amy R. Raabe.

Beautiful Belleville. Help keep it that way.

COST CONSIDERATIONS

Patients with managed-care insurance plans should be aware of drug "formularies" and the influence they may exert on medical prescriptions. Simply put, a formulary is a list of drug names. Such lists are drawn up by insurance companies with the hope of limiting prescriptions to the most economical choices. Often the insurer will negotiate bulk discounts with manufacturers, then encourage doctors to prescribe only drugs on the list. While it must be pointed out that cost concerns do not necessarily conflict with good medical care, prescription decisions should not be based solely on cost. To root out any potential conflicts, patients are advised to find out if their insurers' drug plans use a formulary. If so, prescription changes should be noted.

For complete prescription service you can depend on us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1968 and 759-1956). "Your Doctor Knows Us-Your Doctor Trusts Us." Shop early for Father's Day and graduation gifts. Cameras, film, Timex watches, toiletries, and greeting cards are available 9am-10pm, 9am-7pm Sundays.

HINT: Substituting a generic drug for its brand-name equivalent is generally a good idea, but it still won't hurt to discuss any such changes with the prescribing physician, including a discussion about any difference in effectiveness or side effects.

Wheel-A-Thon '97 seeks volunteers

Wheel-A-Thon '97, an annual fundraising event of Cerebral Palsy of Essex and West Hudson in Belleville, is planned for Sunday, June 8, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Brookdale Park in Bloomfield.

The event will raise funds in support of the center, which provides programs and services for more than 550 infants to adults who have physical and developmental disabilities.

The center is seeking volunteer participants who will "wheel" around the track on a variety of vehicles such as bicycles, roller blades, scooters, wheelchairs, carriages, etc. These volunteers solicit pledges from friends, family and associates for laps they complete.

This full-day family event will also provide a variety of activities including refreshments, music, clowns, face painting, prizes, games, raffle and fortune teller Madam Zelda.

Individuals who wish to participate should call the center at 751-0200 to request a pledge form and for additional information.

Chairman of the committee is Paul Lagermasini.

Life in Silver Lake By Marie Strumolo Burke

First, let me say how proud I am to have a neighbor like Garry Ianco live right down the street from me.

This great kid is a junior at Belleville High School, and a member of the Orchestra and the music program.

Before I continue to spotlight him, I suggest that you get a little comfy, pour yourself a cup of coffee, put your slippers on, kick back and relax, because, it's gonna take some time to tell you about Silver Lake's best-kept secret.

Number one, he is the concertmaster and soloist for the BHS Orchestra. Or, shall I say, first chair, first violin. What this means is that Garry is the assistant conductor under the conductor, Mr. Ed Black, his teacher. Smart, aren't I? No, not really, just clued in on the lingo by the conductor.

A competition was held for the All-North Jersey Orchestra, and 135 violins competed; they selected 40 and Garry came out ninth, making him the ninth chair in the North Jersey Orchestra. Wow! What an accomplishment for him and a honor for Silver Lake.

Garry auditioned and won a master class with Ani Kavifian, a nationally acclaimed violinist with the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center in New York. Other credits include being a member of the Youth Orchestra of Essex County; ASTA Conference at Rowan University - are you getting tired yet of listening to all these - No? O.K., I'll continue - auditioned for and won North Jersey Regional I Orchestra; auditioned for and won All-State Orchestra; first violinist with Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra and soloist at their winter concert; and performed several solos at Allwood Community Church in Clifton at the Tenebrae service (Good Friday).

Garry's dream is to be a professional musician and attend a music school like Julliard, which, by the way, is a conservatory (music school) and one of the best schools for professional music. A little bird told me that he has a good chance of being accepted.

Mr. Black remarked that "Garry is a joy to work with and a talented musician whose mind is always open to suggestion."

And to think that this all started years ago when he was a student at School #4. He came home one day with a violin in hand, and that was the beginning.

Garry is a member of the Foreign Language and Italian clubs and is in the top 5 percent of his class and won high honors the last two years. And for those who don't know what that means, listen up; it means that he has received all "A's" in his classes.

When I attended high school, it was called the "Super Honor Roll," but whatever you call it, Garry is on it. He has an excellent chance of receiving a number of music scholarships. How can he miss? The junior class just received its ranking, and he came out 10th. By the time you reach your senior year, Garry, I won't be surprised if you hit the No. 1 spot.

Silver Lake is cheering you on. Do you hear us?

Marie Strumolo Burke

When you have a son like Garry, good parents are not far behind. So, Valerie Ianco, and Garry's dad, Armand Ianco, take a bow, or better yet, take as many as you like, 'cause you sure raised a wonderful young man who we're all proud of.

A fourth birthday bash for the SLCA is planned at the Moose lodge on Monday, June 2, and we cordially extended an invitation to Garry to perform a few selections, along with a few of his classmates in the music program.

That means you, too, Vincent Pipitone of Frederick Street.

We also invited Mr. Black, Principal Petrillo and the super and assistant super, Mike Lally and Dr. Joe Ciccone. Remember, it's a date, and don't be late.

And to all of you out there who keep bashing our town and schools, remember Garry Ianco, Silver Lake's treasure. It's not where you live or whom you go to school with; it's your child and how you raise them. The education is there if you want it. Just reach out and grab it, kids.

And if you don't like Belleville, move, and take your negativities with you to another town. And, when you're not satisfied with your new home, me again. And I suggest you keep your suitcases packed, because you will find out that it's not better somewhere else. Life is what you make it!

And never forget, we love Silver Lake, and Garry Ianco, too.

OUR OPINION

For the GOP

Scott, Kelly and DiGaetano

Senator John Scott, Assemblyman John Kelly and Assembly Majority Leader Paul DiGaetano have legislative records that they are pointing to as a reason to be renominated in order to carry the Republican banner in the Fall election. They have served their party well. Among the three, the broad spectrum of the party is well represented, with Scott the more conservative of the three.

They have earned the right to represent the Republican Party in November despite a carping critic from Lyndhurst who probably will need a road map to find Nutley and Belleville.

The complaint made against Scott by his adversary is that Scott represents special interests. That may be true — for Scott has represented the special interests of his constituency within the context of the Republican philosophy which more often than not determines his vote. Republicans with whom we have spoken believe Scott has done a good job representing the people of the district. Indeed, he found solutions with headlines following the results.

Both Kelly and DiGaetano have been faithful to state Republican leadership as represented by Governor Whitman no less than Scott has; and consequently, they, too, have earned the right to carry the Republican banner in the November General Election.

Since Governor Christie Whitman is not challenged in the Primary Election, the free ride will permit her to utilize President Clinton's technique — while the opponents get involved in a name-calling Primary Election, she rides above the clouds in a euphoria only she can create. However,

Whitman can prepare herself to respond to the following issues which Democrats say will lose her the election:

1. Whitman's proposed $3 Billion state bond issue to replenish the state employee pension retirement reserve that she used to balance last year's budget.
2. The $3 Billion bond issue which will cost the taxpayers billions more in interest over 35 years is to provide funds to balance the July 1st budget — meanwhile, state pension deficits continue.
3. College tuition costs have increased due to the reforms of the Whitman administration.
4. Property taxes have risen as state aid to communities declined.
5. Miscellaneous taxes disguised as surcharges come out of the pockets of taxpayers.
6. The Whitman answer to funding state education has been declared illegal by the New Jersey Supreme Court.

All in all, it appears that Whitman's second term is not a sure shot. She has much fence-mending to do. Her refusal to share the same ballot line as legislative candidates has angered county bosses and some legislative candidates.

While Whitman boasts that she made a 30% income tax cut, the ordinary voter has yet to feel its impact. Moreover, opponents charge that Whitman did not make a corresponding decrease in the cost of running government, thus requiring her to improperly use state pension trust fund reserves to operate the government. Democrat Congressman Robert Andrews looks upon Whitman's three and a half years as a failed governorship. Only time will tell.

For the Democrats

Furnari, Sivella and Sorkin

Nutley Mayor Garry Furnari has obtained an uncontested Democrat state senatorial nomination. A protege of former Senate President Carmen Orechio, Furnari served many years as an aide to Orechio during his 18 years in the Senate.

His running mates for the Assembly are David Sivella of Rutherford and Kenneth Sorkin of Passaic.

The Democrat Gubernatorial Nominees — Our Recommendation

Congressman Robert Andrews

Three Democrats are seeking the party's gubernatorial nomination next Tuesday. They are Middlesex County State Senator Jim McGreevey; former Morris County Prosecutor Michael Murphy whose claim to fame is to be the stepson of the late wonderful human being, former Chief Justice/Governor Dick Hughes; and Camden County Congressman Robert E. Andrews.

The Democrat who stands the best chance of winning the November Election appears to be Congressman Robert Andrews of south Jersey. Slight of built and boyish looks, Andrews is regarded as having a sharp mind, dry wit and polished speaking style. He has the overwhelming support of Democrats in the eight south Jersey counties. Andrews also recently received the significant and politically important endorsement from the New Jersey Environmental Federation, one of the state's largest environmental organizations. That says a lot about Andrews. McGreevey, endorsed by the Essex County Democrat Organization wrongfully accuses Andrews of joining House Speaker Newt Gingrich in voting to slash funding for toxic waste cleanups. In an unusual election period action, the New Jersey Environmental Federation filed a complaint with the New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission accusing McGreevey of misrepresenting his environmental record in radio ads, further claiming that McGreevey has misused public funds on the ads by misstating his position.

The powerful Hudson County Democrat organization has endorsed Congressman Andrews. When your Primary Election opponents single you out as the man to beat — well that says a lot about your strength.

For the Democrats looking for a possible win in the November Gubernatorial sweepstakes, we recommend Congressman Andrews.

An Orechio Publication

They all served the Nation

We thank the Disabled American Post 22 for providing the Belleville Times with a list of the men and women of Belleville and Nutley known to have died in combat, or from combat related causes.

It is a somber honor to print that list. Would that it had never been necessary.

So many times in America's history, there has been the dreaded contemplation of the cost in human life that our wars have entailed.

The Civil War, of course, was the most terrible conflict in our history. A total of 3 million men served on both sides, and 600,000 of them died.

In the Civil War, more than two men died of illness for every man who died of wounds. In the First World War, one of the worst influenza epidemics in modern history took the lives of as many American soldiers as did combat.

The memorials to both wars list all of the dead, from whatever cause.

The same holds true for memorials to the fallen of World War II and the Korean War, and, we assume, the Vietnam Conflict.

Any person who put on the uniform was in harm's way. Thousands died in training accidents. Thousands died of exposure to the elements. Thousands died of pneumonia and gangrene brought on by frostbite. Thousands died of tropical diseases.

Some 30,000 Americans were captured by the Japanese in the Philippines and other Pacific locations at the outset of World War II. At the end of the war, some 8,000 were still alive, the survivors of malnutrition, torture and murder.

Thousands of Americans died as prisoners of war in the German stalags, and as forced labor.

Just before D-Day, storms in the English Channel swamped scores of landing craft on maneuvers, drowning hundreds, if not thousands of soldiers. Thousands of sailors and soldiers died in storms at sea, ship collisions and other non-combat causes.

People have even died in accidents en route to training camp.

We hope that the names of all the war dead of our communities will be recorded, and honored, whatever the cause of their deaths.

The grief of the survivors is the same for all. Death does not differentiate.

All of the war dead deserve remembrance. They all served the Nation.

YOUR OPINION

Library states its case

To the editor:

It is with deep regret that the Library Board of Trustees finds it necessary to reduce its hours and services to the community, probably the first time in forty years.

We have tried in good faith to negotiate our budget to last year's level with a three percent increase. Our salary increase represented only a little less than $21,000. The real cut being made here is in the maintenance of the library and the purchase of materials.

A long-range plan for the community looks well on paper, but when you cut off the life-blood of the informational, educational and cultural services to the children, young people, the unemployed, the college students who use the library widely, the adults in the community, the disabled, and the senior citizens, the long-range plan is not being implemented. People moving into the township want good schools and an excellent library with the latest in computer technology.

On Tuesday evening, we ask the Manager and Council to act in good conscience and to restore the funding to the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, providing last year's budget with a three percent increase, a compromise from our original budget. This figure would amount to $631,081 from the township.

Please act in good faith and restore the funding to one of the finest and well-recognized libraries in New Jersey.

The Library Board of Trustees of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center

Of All Things

By Frank Orechio

A feature of the Nutley Sun, Bloomfield Life, Belleville Times and Glen Ridge Voice

• WALL STREET analyst, Standard & Poor, has criticized Governor Whitman's $3 Billion bond deal to replenish the pension funds she used to balance last year's budget and which she expects to use to balance this year's budget.

Legislators who vote for and support the scandalous $3 Billion bond proposal will have a hard time winning re-election this November.

In last week's Star Ledger, an editorial critiques the Governor's proposal to borrow billions of dollars via a bond issue:

"The Governor might have made the hard choice of either finding ways to tighten the state's belt or holding back on the tax cuts until she had. Instead, Whitman has served up, and legislators have swallowed, all kinds of gimmicks and one-shot deals to balance the budget. The biggest gimmick was declaring the pension fund to be so fat that the state could withhold money from it — oddly, just about the same amount the Governor now wants to borrow and feed the pension plan.

What if the budgets had been balanced, instead of manipulated to look even? Think where the state would be when the windfall blows in. And if we must borrow $2.76 billion in a boom year, what in heaven's name will we have to do in the lean?"

• BLOOMFIELD-GLEN RIDGE voters will be asked to make a choice for legislative representation. Incumbent Assembly persons Zecker and Crecco have decided that Senator stutents and are supporting Senate candidate Norm Robertson. During the last three years, Bubba got only 30% of the state average for school funding and this year, he did even worse. Bubba only got the taxpayers 23% of the state average costing Glen Ridge taxpayers $153 per home and Bloomfield taxpayers $276.

In 1976, Bubba urged Passaic County officials to negotiate a lease for office space in Passaic with convicted felon Richard Doren, and now Bubba criticizes the county for doing the same thing this year.

Norm Robertson

Last year, Bubba introduced legislation to change state investment guidelines on trust accounts administered by county surrogates — a year after he allegedly had a conversation with Passaic County Surrogate Rosalie Masseri about investing $28 Million in minors' trust funds in securities sold by Bubba's employer, Prudential. Bubba denies the charges.

But there's one Bubba caper which he cannot deny. Bloomfield and Glen Ridge find themselves with legislative representation overwhelmingly elected by Passaic County voters, when in the past, Bloomfield and Glen Ridge were always represented by Essex County legislative representatives. But the 1990 census required action by a State Redistricting Commission — and who do you think was a member of the Redistricting Commission? Joe Bubba. And what did he do? He took Glen Ridge and Bloomfield out of the Essex County delegation representation and put it with his Passaic County communities with which Glen Ridge and Bloomfield have nothing in common. On the other hand, he replaced those two communities whereby voters of Nutley and Belleville are part of a legislative district that includes the City of Passaic and several communities in Bergen County. This maneuver gave Bubba Republican Glen Ridge and Bloomfield, and to the detriment of Nutley and Belleville pushed those two Essex communities into a Bergen County dominated legislative district. For this action, we owe Bubba one. If for no other reason, Bloomfield and Glen Ridge Republican voters should send a message to Bubba to stop manipulating the legislative process for his personal gain.

According to reliable sources, at year's end, Bubba was trolling for a job — seeking $125,000 a year with a secretary and a five-year contract.

For a full listing of the content of each workshop, pick up a flyer at the library.

Each workshop includes a question and answer session and refreshments.

Volunteer tutors needed

The Belleville Public Library is seeking persons interested in participating as volunteer tutors in its English language instructional program, "Passport."

Individuals are needed to work on a one-on-one basis practicing conversation skills with non-native English speakers. No prior teaching experience is required. A willingness to commit one to two hours of time per week is the primary prerequisite.

Individuals able to commit time in the early evening hours are particularly needed. Orientation and ongoing support is provided to all volunteers.

Established last year, "Passport" is an adjunct to the library's classroom program in English. Its purpose is to extend the library's reach to the foreign born by creating language-learning partnership between native English-speaking members of the community and newcomers. Over the past year, native English speakers have been paired with people from a host of different countries, including Ecuador, Peru, Columbia, Mexico, India, Vietnam, mainland China and Taiwan, Italy, the Czech Republic, and the former Soviet Union.

Children's artwork on display

The James J. Cozzarelli Children's Room at the Belleville Public Library is now displaying some of the artwork created by children who participated in the Fire Prevention Poster Contest that was sponsored by the Belleville Fire Department. The participants included students from elementary school through high school.

Prize-winning posters were created by James Briting, Adria Caputo, Javier Cruz, Arthur Gencarelli, Timothy Hands, Elizabeth Horst, Mee Jin Kim, Kate McAteer, Frank Meglio, Sapna Patel, Gerardo Quintero, Mike Scarola and Mohammed Shama.

Many other contest entries are on display as well. Posters will be on exhibit until May 29.

Note: All events unless otherwise noted take place at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Ave.

Sales tax rules for garage sales, flea markets

There are many clear signs that spring has arrived in New Jersey. Baseball season has started. The shad are running in the Delaware River. Bushes are blooming everywhere. And so are garage sales and flea markets.

The Division of Taxation gets hundreds of calls from people who want to know if they have to charge sales tax on items they sell at garage sales, flea markets and arts and crafts shows.

The key factor that determines sales tax collection is whether or not your sale of taxable items falls under the Division's definition of a "business."

For example, if you clean out your basement and hold a garage sale, you're not required to charge sales tax on the items you sell. Even if you get together with your neighbors and hold a group garage sale, no sales tax collection is involved.

The Division calls these kinds of events "casual sales" because you and your neighbors are not involved in the "business" of holding garage sales.

However, if you start holding garage sales frequently, or if you routinely drag your old junk to a flea market and try to sell it there, you're moving into a different category.

Because you are now conducting sales on a regular basis, you are considered a "business" and are required to register with the Division and collect and remit sales taxes.

Sales of arts and crafts items present a different problem. Every year, thousands of people with creative hobbies — like woodworking, glassblowing, painting or pottery — decide to supplement their incomes by selling their work at flea markets, craft shows or similar events.

That's considered to be a "business" under state law, even if the crafter sells at just one or two shows a year, so the vendor is required to register and collect and remit sales taxes on a regular basis.

People who are thinking about selling taxable items at shows or flea markets should take this advice to heart because in the past year, the Division has stepped-up its enforcement of sales tax registration and collection requirements.

If you rent a space to sell your wares at a show or fair, you'll probably meet one of our investigators who will ask to see your registration certificate and who will run a check on your compliance record on the spot.

We do this because New Jersey taxpayers lose out on more than $100 million a year in uncollected or unremitted sales taxes. Much of the non-compliance comes from cash business conducted at flea markets, expos and craft and collectible shows.

It may seem harsh when our investigators ask for $50 in back sales taxes from someone selling pottery or hand-tied fishing flies, but this kind of petty tax evasion — some of it by people who aren't even aware that they owe taxes — goes on every day, all over the state.

And the ultimate losers are the rest of the taxpayers in New Jersey, who pay more in the long run to make up for those unpaid taxes.

If you have a question about sales tax collection, or if you need to register your business, call the Division's Tax Hotline at (609) 588-2200.

Forms and tax publications are also available through the Division's TaxFax line at (609) 588-4500, or through our home page at <http://www.state.nj.us/treasury/taxation>.

HOROSCOPES

June 1-7

ARIES — March 21/April 20

This week, it feels as if your get-up-and-go got up and went, Aries. With very little energy, you have no desire to take the lead. Don't get frustrated; just wait it out. You'll be back to your old self soon. A close friend is there to lift your spirits through this difficult time. Sagittarius plays an important role.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21

Your strong, silent nature pays off this week. A superior at work feels that he or she can confide in you and tells you about future business plans. This confidence brings you into the "inner circle" and definitely will have positive results when it comes to a promotion. However, don't get too wrapped up in work; your family needs you this week.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21

Change is not in the cards for you this week. Your tasks at work seem monotonous, and this makes you restless. Don't start looking for a new job just yet. Your superiors know how capable you are and are planning to put you on a new project. You bump into a friend you haven't seen in a long time; sparks will fly.

CANCER — June 22/July 22

You won't be crabby at all this week. Cancer. Everything goes your way at work. Co-workers come to you for advice, and superiors commend your efforts. As for family members, they all want to see you this week. Don't get overwhelmed. You certainly can make the time to get together with all of them.

LEO — July 23/August 23

You're in control this week. Your insight solves a major problem at work, and your efforts are rewarded with an unexpected bonus. Your love life is on the upswing. Someone you've had your eye on for a long time finally makes a move. Don't be afraid to say yes. Scorpio and Pisces are involved.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22

Your perfectionism gets in the way at work early in the week. Your efforts delay a project by a day or two. However, don't get too worried. While superiors are somewhat disappointed, there won't be any serious damage to your career. A loved one needs a shoulder to cry on. Be supportive.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23

Your good nature is tested early in the week. Everyone from co-workers to family members is trying your patience. Remain calm; getting upset only will make matters worse. You meet an interesting person near the end of the week. Be cautious, but try to get to know him or her better.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22

Don't try to be someone you're not at work this week. You know your limitations; stick to them. You'll get more rewards by doing your job well than by doing someone else's tasks poorly. Your family is there for you when a long-term relationship hits a snag. Don't keep your feelings bottled up.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21

It seems that you're always sticking your foot in your mouth this week. Don't get too embarrassed; just try to explain what you really mean. Work won't present any problems. Loved ones, on the other hand, will have you on the verge of tears. Don't get disheartened; they're only trying to help you make good decisions.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20

While many people will be vying for your attention at work this week, don't get distracted. Keep your mind on the task at hand, and you will succeed. A friend of a friend asks you out. You've only seen him or her a few times, but don't be afraid. Go out on a date. Aquarius plays an important role.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18

You feel that you're in over your head at work early in the week. While it's disconcerting, you still must give 100 percent of yourself to your job. A little determination will go a long way. A loved one comes to you for advice. Be objective; don't let your feelings get in the way of helping him or her.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20

You help out a co-worker who seems to be floundering in his or her job responsibilities. Not only will he or she appreciate your assistance, but higher-ups also will notice your efforts and keep you in mind when a promotion is available. It's your time to shine.

Belleville SPORTS

Cifelli, Santiago set new school records

Hernandez, Kvetkus, Colucci lead track team

By Mike Lamberti

For the first time in 11 years, the Buccaneer boys' track team has posted a win over Bloomfield in a dual meet.

John Tosato's team was a 66-56 winner over the Bengals last week. The team also lost a tough match to Teaneck 70-50 and competed in the county and sectional championships.

Tomorrow evening, Yezaida Santiago of the Bucs will continue her season at the group championships in South Plainfield. She reserved her spot at the groups with a fifth place finish in the high hurdles last weekend in the sectional finals.

In the win over Bloomfield, senior Tristyn Kvetkus had a stand-out day, winning the 100 and 200 meters in times of 11.6 and 23.4 respectively.

He also took second in the high jump at 5'6".

Another senior, Nick Colucci, was also outstanding, taking second in the 400 meter hurdles (64.7), 100 high hurdles (18.9) and the 200 meters (25.4).

Colucci won the long jump with a leap of 16'10 3/4".

Jose Moreno took second in the 1600 and 3200 meters with respective times of 5:08 and 11:55. John Bolkas was second in the 400 meters (58.7) and Ernie Compusano placed second in the shot put (40'1"). Ajmal Zadrn was second in the discus (103'2").

Taking valuable third place points in the Bloomfield meet were Bolkas (400 meter hurdles, 67.6 and the triple jump, 29'5 1/2"), Joe Ruffalo (13.3 in the 100 meters), Angelo Chavez (58.8 in the 400 meters), Luis Rios (21.2 in the 110 high hurdles, 13:10 for the two mile and 5' in high jump) and Louis Capadona (91' in the discus).

The race came down to the mile relay and the Bucs won it, literally, on a photo finish. The team of Kvetkus, Bolkas, Mike Dribnak and Randy Herrera was declared the winner after the judges originally wanted to call it a tie.

"It was real close," Tosato said. "If the judges gave it to Bloomfield, then the meet would have ended in a tie. The meet was that close."

Tosato was happy with the win, especially for his seniors.

"We have kids on the team that have competed four, and in some instances, five years. Some of the kids began with the team in the eighth grade. I was glad they were able to win their finale, especially against a rival like Bloomfield."

The Bucs had one of their better performances, ever, against Teaneck, but lost 70-50 on Teaneck's beautiful new track facility.

Kvetkus won the 200 meters (23.0, a personal best) and the high jump (5'6") while taking second in the long jump (18'7 1/2"), also a personal best) and second in the 100 meters (11.3).

Moreno won both the 1600 and 3200 meters with times of 5:03.1 and 11:05.5 respectively. Bolkas captured the 800 meters (2:19) and was second in the intermediate hurdles (63.0).

Chavez was second in the triple jump (36'11") and third in the long jump (17'7").

Rios took a pair of seconds in the high hurdles (19.6) and high jump (5'10") and Compusano was second in the shot put (39'2 1/2").

Chris Muscara finished second in the javelin to close out the Belleville scoring with a throw of 102'5".

In the county championships, held on May 16 and 17 at Montclair, Dilma Hernandez took sixth in the javelin. Moreno ran 4:51.7 in the mile and Colucci did well in the high and low hurdles, with times of 16.9 and 61.0 respectively.

Last weekend, the team completed its season, with the exception of Santiago, in the sectional championships.

Santiago set a new school record in the 110 meter high hurdles, running 15.8 in the championship race. Her fifth place finish advanced her to the group finals. She broke the school record of 16.5 which was set by Franchette Polite back in 1981.

Santiago ran 16.8 in the trials and 16.7 in the semis before her record breaking performance in the finals.

Another long standing school record also fell at the sectionals. Melissa Cifelli ran the mile in 5:43.9, eclipsing the 19 year old mark of 5:46, set by Sue Smith.

Cifelli's time was outstanding, but in the tough Group IV, Section II field, it wasn't enough for her to advance to the groups.

"That time would have won the race in Group II and I," Tosato said. "We were real proud of her. She broke one of the toughest, longest standing school records."

Cifelli's accomplishment was even more spectacular when you consider she had to wait six hours to run her race. The sectionals began at 8:30 a.m. but her race didn't begin until nearly 2:30 p.m.

"It's never easy to sit around for Tristyn Kvetkus of Belleville runs the 100 meter dash during county championships at Montclair. Kvetkus had some standout performances for Bucs as team wound down season.

six hours and keep your focus," Tosato said. "Give her a lot of credit."

Jen Spano high jumped 4'4" and ran the high hurdles in 19.5. Kvetkus ran 11.7 in the 100 meters and Moreno ran the difficult combo of the mile and two mile, coming through with good times of 5:06 and 10:38.8 respectively.

In the field events, Compusano threw the shot put 40'3 1/2". Michelle Jablonski threw the discus 67'10" and Ruffalo and Muscara competed in the javelin, with respective throws of 110'6 and 108".

"Overall, it was a good day for us," Tosato said. "Everyone worked hard and we had some good results at the sectionals."

Jose Moreno (left) looks to gain advantage during race in the county championships. Moreno has enjoyed a good season for Buc track team.

New Buc football coach

Dowling anxious to get started

By Mike Lamberti

For the first time since Jimmy Carter was in his early days as President of the United States, the Belleville football team will have a new head coach.

Patrick Dowling was officially named the new head coach at the May 12 Board of Education meeting. He takes over for John Senesky, who tendered his resignation after 20 years as head coach following the final game of the 1996 season.

Dowling, 33, most recently the head coach at Ridgefield High School, is a native of Cresskill. He will assume a teaching position at Belleville next fall as well.

"I'm really excited about it," the new coach said following the official appointment. "I've been coaching for eight years and have wanted the opportunity to coach at the highest level of high school football."

"Belleville is a Group 4 school with great tradition. They play a tough schedule, and as a coach, you want to play the best. I'm really looking forward to working with the kids."

During his high school days, Dowling played football at Cresskill High School. He then continued his playing career at Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts.

His head coaching resume includes three years at Wood Ridge High School, three at Ft. Lee and one at Wallington prior to moving to Ridgefield.

While this is his fifth coaching stop, Dowling wants it to be his last.

"High school football is what I enjoy the most," the coach said. "I want to help develop the younger programs in town and I want to be here for a long time."

"I'd like to be the winningest coach in Belleville history when I'm done here."

That will be a tough chore for Dowling, considering the schedule his team faces.

"Being from Bergen County, I know all about Hackensack, St. Joe's, Don Bosco, Teaneck, etc.," the coach said. "But I've heard from coaches in the league about how tough the Belleville player is, too. The Belleville player is hard nosed, maybe not as big as their competition, but they play hard and never give up."

Dowling is also familiar with the tradition of excellence the program had established in the 1980's.

"I know they dominated in the late 70's and 80's. They've had tough times lately. I'm hoping to change all that. We're going to have a young team this fall. Last years team graduated 20 seniors, so in a way, it's a new beginning for myself and the kids."

The coach realizes that establishing the younger players is what will make the program successful.

"I'm going to ear mark the freshman and sophomore classes," Dowling said. "This is not to say that the juniors and seniors aren't a big part of the team, because they are. Their leadership is key to our team and it's a big time for them to show what they can do."

"But we're a young team and we want to develop a winning relationship with the kids that will carry over for many years."

Dowling realizes the difficulty of his teams schedule, but is not in the business of just competing.

"I want to come in and establish the program in the direction I want it to go. Right now, I think we're in the middle of the pack. I want to move to the upper echelon of the NNJIL (Pacific Division). I want this program to be able to compete on the highest level."

The coach knows that with the school year rapidly coming to an end, he needs to meet with the prospective players for the 1997 team soon.

"I'll be at the school in a week to meet with the kids and begin working on the summer plans," the coach said. "I wanted to wait until the spring sports were over with, so I didn't cause any distractions with the sports that are going on."

"I'm hoping to take the kids to a 7 on 7 passing tournament in June and get the weight room assignments set for the summer and setting up quasi mini camps. I want the kids to enjoy their summer, but we're behind the eight ball, somewhat, when it comes to timing and we need to catch up."

Dowling likes the passing game and promises an interesting offensive scheme this fall.

"I like the split back, single back, tight end, flanker, multiple sets," the coach said. "I think we'll be passing the ball about 60 percent of the time, but that could go up, or down, depending on where our strengths are."

There is plenty of enthusiasm on the part of the new coach. His first assignment, however, is to set up a coaching staff.

"I've got two coaches that I've worked with at Ridgefield that will be coming with me," he said. "There are still some open spots on the staff, and that's something I need to address as soon as possible."

Coach Dowling will certainly be busy, working on developing a winning program at a school that hasn't had a team above .500 since 1990.

"I'm looking on moving the program in a different direction," Dowling said. "I'm very excited about this opportunity. I think this program can do a lot of good things."

Dowling has been hired as a Special Education teacher for the fall of 1997 at Belleville High School. He has been an educator for ten years.

Dowling was recently married and has purchased a home in Cresskill.

Struggling baseball team drops 4 games

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville baseball team had its losing streak extended to nine following losses last week to Paramus Catholic 3-1, Teaneck 5-3, Union 9-5 and Paramus 7-2.

Chuck Martin's team was 10-16-1 entering its season finale last Tuesday with Clifton.

Martin missed last Thursday and Friday's games with Teaneck and Paramus Catholic due to the flu. Assistant coach George Zanfini ran the team and reiterated the same feelings the coaching staff has expressed all season long.

"We just don't hit," Zanfini said. "Simple as that. We've gotten pretty good pitching, but we just don't take advantage of what is given us."

"It's been very frustrating," Martin said last weekend. "Guys we were hoping would carry us offensively haven't been able to get out of the slump. We haven't hit in key situations. What's disappointing is that this is not an inexperienced team."

"A lot of these guys got 40 to 50 at bats last year. We were hoping that the varsity experience would carry over."

This is Martin's fourth year as varsity coach. He noted that in his first year, back in 1994, there wasn't a freshman team.

"People forget that," Martin said. "That was the year that the freshman program was cut (because of budgetary constraints)."

"The kids who are seniors now did not play freshman ball, so there was a wasted year there. That missing year really hurts."

Versus Paramus Catholic, the Bucs received a solid pitching performance from Marc Lawrence (2-6).

"Lawrence did a good job," Zanfini said. "We didn't take advantage of the opportunities. We left the bases loaded three different times and left two men on base on three other occasions. How are you going to win?"

All told, the Bucs left 15 men on base.

In the Teaneck game, the Bucs held a 3-1 lead in the sixth inning, but a two out error allowed three Teaneck runs to score.

Ricci Bello (2-4) pitched well, but was hit with the loss.

Versus Union in the Group IV, Section II state tourney, the Bucs took a 4-0 lead in the top of the first inning on a home run by Tom Barbella and a two run homer from Greg Sheridan.

However, Buc ace Ed Pagan wasn't able to hold that lead and Union, who defeated Belleville back on opening day 5-1, came back to score nine unanswered runs and advanced to the next round.

In the loss to Paramus, Lawrence pitched the first four innings before giving way to Mike Biasi, who pitched the final two. The Bucs had only five hits in the game.

Buc players converge on infield fly during recent game at Belleville High School. Team is in the midst of a nine game losing streak.

Ed Pagan delivers pitch during earlier game this season. Pagan was 5-4 entering the season finale last Tuesday against Clifton.

Plenty going on in Belleville Recreation, BBC, BSC

1997 Playgrounds Open

The Belleville Recreation Department's summer playground program will begin June 30 and will continue through August 8.

Under the supervision of the Dept. of Recreation and Cultural Affairs, the five playground sites are located at School No. 9, the Municipal Stadium, the Recreation House, Clearmon Field and the Friendly House. The special education playground is set up at the Belleville Little League field.

The playground will be open daily to all Belleville residents from grades Kindergarten through 9 from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Playgrounds are closed noon to 1 p.m. for lunch and when it rains.

While there are no restrictions as to which area a person must attend, generally youngsters attend the closest playground to their home.

An adult director will be on hand at each playground to organize athletics, games, tournaments, parties and other activities; and an arts and crafts supervisor will travel from site to site to do special projects with the children one day each week.

Tentatively, tennis lessons, "open swim" and special tournaments are planned throughout the summer. These programs are all pending the hiring of qualified instructors/supervisors and pending the availability of adequate facilities.

Applications for all summer programs participants must be completed and signed by a parent. Registration forms will be available at the Rec House office and at all playgrounds. No pre-registration will be required; however, parents must accompany their children to the playground on the first day so that application forms may be signed before participation.

There will also be a special event for all children ages 4-12 on July 4 at the Municipal Stadium.

For further information, call 450-3422. Special education playground information may be obtained by calling 450-3494.

Lifeguard is needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is currently seeking a lifeguard for its 1997 "Open Swim" program. The program will run for approximately six weeks, beginning the week of June 30 at the Friendly House.

Qualified applicants must possess either an Advanced Lifesaving or Water Safety Instructor certificate issued by the American Red Cross. If interested, please call the Recreation Department at 450-3422 between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

There will not be an open swim program if no lifeguard is present.

Let the games begin.

The Belleville Baseball Commission and the Belleville Softball Commission are joining forces once again to host their second annual carnival extravaganza from Wednesday June 4 through Sunday June 8 at Belleville High School, 100 Passaic Avenue, Belleville.

The carnival will open from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Wednesday June 4, Thursday, June 5 and Friday, June 6, 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday, June 7, and from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Sunday, June 8. Various challenging games of chance along with many exciting kiddie rides will be on hand. Several special features will highlight the five day event as well.

One added attraction will be the dunk tank. The BBC & BSC are finalizing negotiations with Belleville PBA Local 28 to have a dunk-a-cop competition with all proceeds generated from this attraction to go to the PBA as a token of the BBC's and the BSC's appreciation for its assistance with furnishing the policing needed for the carnival.

The BBC and BSC are also attempting to blend in a dunk-a-coach and/or politician competition. Other special attractions include the speed pitch, the computer portrait and the test-your-strength challenge.

A special offer is available to those attending the carnival on Saturday, June 7 and Sunday, June 8 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. as for just $10, kids can go on as many rides as they want. In an effort to assist Belleville's youth in need, the BBC and BSC will have designated areas for special raffles to take place for the Andrew Idenden Fund, the Friends of Jamie Conway, the Jr. Legion baseball program and the girls' softball all-stars.

Plenty of traditional carnival foods and treats will be on hand. Those include zeppoles, pizza, soft ice cream, sausage and peppers, hot dogs, cheese steaks and more.

All regular proceeds from the carnival are split equally between the BBC and the BSC and go toward purchasing safer playing equipment, proper field maintenance, quality uniforms, and the hiring of certified umpires. The organizations will once again be associating with State Fair Amusement Corporation to arrange the carnival.

For more information on the carnival, contact BBC president Bruce Morgan at 759-1663 or BSC director Mary Anne Lopreato at 759-8313. To sponsor the event, call BBC vice president Anthony Sessa at 450-4753.

Explanation of Appropriations for "Other Expenses"
The amounts appropriated under the title of "Other Expenses" are for operating costs other than "Salaries & Wages".
Some of the items included in "Other Expenses are:
Materials, supplies and non-bondable equipment;
Repairs and maintenance of buildings, equipment, roads, etc.;
Contractual services for garbage and trash removal, fire hydrant service, aid to volunteer fire companies, etc.
Printing and advertising, utility services, insurance and many other items essential to the services rendered by municipal government.

The 1997 Municipal Budget presented herewith, indicates an estimated 1997 Local Tax Rate of $4.46 per $100.00 of assessed valuations, as compared to the 1996 Local Tax Rate of $3.93 per $100 of assessed valuations, an increase of .53 points. The following schedule compares the estimated components of the 1997 levy with those of 1996 for Township purposes only:

	Local Tax Levies			Local Tax Rates
	1997 Estimated	1996 Actual	Increase (Decrease)	1996 Estimated	1995 Actual	Increase (Decrease)
For All Municipal Purposes	17,041,582.79	14,922,177.40	2,119,405.39	3.91	3.42	.49
For Reserve for Uncollected Taxes	2,396,000.00	2,207,000.00	189,000.00	0.55	0.51	0.04
Total Local Tax for Municipal Purposes	19,437,582.79	17,129,177.40	2,308,405.39	4.46	3.93	0.53
Assessed Valuations	435,537,800.00	435,704,500.00	(166,700.00)

The above comparisons deal only with Municipal Purposes. County and School tax levies, however are used in establishing the "Reserve for Uncollected Taxes" or the so called "Cash Basis Overlay", which conform to mandatory provisions governing the preparation of the Local Municipal Budget.

Ch. 68, P.L. 1978, as amended by Ch. 49, P.L. 1983 ch.203, pl. 1986 and Ch. 89 and 95, P.L. 1990, places limits on certain municipal expenditures. The limit for 1997 is 2.5%, however, the Township of Belleville adopted an index rate ordinance increasing their allowable spending limitation to 5%. This limit, generally referred to as a "CAP", is calculated by methods established by law. The following schedule, subject to review and approval by the Division of Local Government Services in the State Department of Community Affairs, shows the computation of the maximum amount of increase allowable in the Budget for 1997 over that of 1996 Adopted Budget for the Appropriations subject to the "5% CAP".

Total 1995 Allowable General Appropriations for Municipal Purposes Within "CAPS"	27,216,612.45
Total General Appropriations for Municipal Purposes Within "CAPS" as indicated on sheet 19, is the sum of 26,216,118.50 which is 1,000,493.95 under the statutory "CAP" limitation.

After deliberations on the details of departmental requests, operating appropriations have been set at minimum levels to continue to provide needed services. In this connection it is pointed out that a substantial portion of operating expenses is determined by contractual obligations for both salary and other expense elements, over which the Governing Body has little or no control. The Mayor and Council urge all taxpayers to attend the hearing on the Budget for the year 1997 to be held at Town Hall on June 10, 1997. The Mayor and Council shall be pleased to respond to any questions at that time.

The Mayor and Council
The Township of Belleville

CAPITAL BUDGET AND CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

This section is included with the Annual Budget pursuant to N.J.A.C. 5:30-4. It does not in itself confer any authorization to raise or expend funds. Rather is it a document used as part of the local unit's planning and management program. Specific authorization to expend funds for purposes described in this section must be granted elsewhere, by a separate bond ordinance, by inclusion of a line item in the Capital Improvement Section of this budget, by an ordinance taking the money from the Capital Improvement Fund, or other lawful means.

NARRATIVE FOR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

The Capital Improvement Program for the Township of Belleville is presented herein. Capital projects for the years 1997-1999 are detailed herein. The Township of Belleville, exclusive, of the Board of Education does not contemplate any capital projects beyond 1999. Should the need arise, the Capital Budget can and will be revised accordingly.

The Mayor and Council
Township of Belleville

HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

Additional Bathroom Adds Convenience, Value

(NAPS)—Transforming even the tiniest space into a second bathroom can give your home a very large lift. Aside from the convenience for your family and guests, an additional bathroom also adds value to your home.

Experts at Kohler Co., a leading manufacturer of elegant plumbing fixtures and faucets, point out that no matter how small your bath is, you can still give it a personality of its own. When creating an additional bath, here are some points you may want to remember:

- This room may not be as heavily trafficked as your primary bathroom that's used for getting ready in the morning. This means you don't need as much storage or counterspace for toiletries and makeup. All of which makes it the perfect opportunity for a pedestal lav, which can be striking in appearance but offers little if any space for toiletries.

- To accommodate for lack of counterspace, you might want to consider a lower profile, one-piece toilet. They readily fit under a cabinet, providing added storage space.

- Also, since you're not buying faucets for a lav, tub or shower, you can afford to spend more on a high design lav faucet which could be considered the finishing touch and can give the room that certain special look.

- Powder rooms also provide opportunity to specify fixtures in more vivid or dramatic colors.

The Prairie Flower design on this Pedestal Lavatory and tiles was inspired by 18th century dinnerware created for Catherine the Great.

Since there is only a toilet and lav, the color doesn't overwhelm the space. The important thing is not to let room size limit your creativity.

- Decorative fixtures, like the pedestal lav, above, don't overpower, and are an easy way to make a design statement.

A colorful booklet with ideas for bath and powder rooms is available by calling 1-800-4KOHLER.

Weichert, Realtors reports best 1st quarter in history

With consumer confidence running strong, Weichert, Realtors recently announced that its first quarter home sales hit an all-time high, to conclude as the best first quarter in company history.

First quarter sales were up six percent from the first three months of 1996.

In announcing the record results, President James M. Weichert said the sustained effects of a vibrant economy and favorable interest rates have fostered an "overwhelming demand for homes, both from buyers looking for a first home and those feeling increasingly confident about trading up."

"Sales activity is up in every price range and in every region of our company," Weichert said.

This demand, he cautioned, is putting pressure on the supply of available homes.

"The spot shortages we saw last spring are now extending to virtually every segment of the marketplace," he said. "Our salespeople are reporting more incidences of multiple offers and competitive bidding."

The most noticeable effect of the diminishing supply of inventory, he said, will be buyers quicker to act. "Attractive, competitively priced homes will not linger on the market," said Weichert.

Long-term demographic trends were also cited by the Weichert president as growing influences on home sales. Key among these are the influx of a more affluent immigrant population with the money to purchase a home and an increase in the creation of new households headed by the divorced and single.

The company's record first quarter comes on the heels of a record-high year. Weichert, Realtors posted a sales volume of $11.8 billion in 1996, to exceed its 1995 record by over $1 billion and to capture a greater share of business in its markets.

Weichert, Realtors has 7,500 sales associates in 200 offices in Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and Washington D.C.

Weichert handles both residential and commercial real estate, and offers a full array of time-efficient, one-stop shopping services, including mortgages, insurance, rentals, relocation, new homes and land, estate marketing, title services, property management, and moving services.

Monthly payments are the 30-year conventional fixed rate mortgage with a 2% down payment. For purchase price up to $268,375, monthly mortgage payments (principal + interest) quoted in our ads are to qualified buyers, based upon a 20% down payment and a conventional 30-year fixed rate loan at 7.75% with 3 points, A.P.R. 8.07%. As an example, a $100,000 loan would result in 360 monthly payments of $718.49. For purchase price from $268,375 to $625,000, the monthly payments to qualified buyers based upon a 20% down payment and calculated at 7.875% with 3 points on a "Jumbo" 30-year fixed rate mortgage with an A.P.R. of 8.20%. An example of a $300,000 loan would result in 360 monthly payments of $738.07. Figures herein are approximate and do not include property taxes, hazard insurance, or homeowners association dues for a condominium purchase. Interest rates quoted are as of April 2, 1997, and subject to change. Not responsible for typographical errors; while information is believed accurate, we request that the payment be validated with a mortgage provider prior to purchase.

ShopRite always the Low Price Leader!

Make The Right Choice.
USDA Choice Beef
The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) grades beef to indicate quality standards. Although ALL meat is inspected for wholesomeness, grading is strictly voluntary.
Look For This Shield At ShopRite
Your Assurance Of Quality
Don't be misled. Some supermarkets create fancy sounding names for their beef, which is a way to sell lower quality cuts of meat that may not meet the Department of Agriculture's USDA Choice standards. Look for the USDA Choice Beef logo for wholesome and delicious USDA Choice Beef. It says so right on the package.
