Township offices relocating as renovation project nears

By Howard Klausner

Even the computers closed down this week as the Township offices were moved from their old locations in the Municipal Building to make way for the renovation of the building's interior.

The accumulation of 85 years of records, papers, documents and memorabilia has been cleared from basement to attic.

Built in 1912, the building has undergone exterior work over the years, most recently in the past two years.

The interior has been changed in recent years. The most drastic change was the elimination of the old domed Council Chamber and its replacement as storage space, with some offices for the Township Clerk, some six years ago.

Many old documents have been shredded. Cancelled checks dating back 40 and 50 years have been found.

Preserved are minutes of meetings going back to before World War I.

But a lot of history has had to be eliminated for lack of anywhere to place it.

The business of collecting fees and taxes came to a complete halt, temporarily, on Tuesday, as the Tax Office was moved.

When the dust settles, the locations of the Township offices will be as follows:

The offices of the Mayor and the Township Manager will be at 383 Washington Ave.

Also at 383 Washington Ave. will be the offices of the Township Clerk, the Township Engineer, the Tax Assessor, the Construction Code clerk and the Human Resources Personnel office.

The Welfare office will continue to be at 383 Washington Ave.

In the Public Safety Building, 152 Washington Ave., the Finance Office, the Tax Office, the Law Office and the Purchasing Office will be found on the third floor.

A balk on County tax

By Howard Klausner

The Township Council voted down Tuesday a resolution to pay the quarterly Essex County tax of some $2.5 million.

At its previous session two weeks ago, the Council voted to withhold the tax until county services "improved".

In particular, the condition of county park land was criticized, and compared to the condition of Verona Park, which Council members claimed received preferential treatment.

Essex County Executive James Treffinger was Mayor of Verona when he was elected to the county office.

Treffinger contacted Mayor Mario Drozd to express dismay at the decision. Last Friday, Essex County Administrator Vincent Del Mauro and several Parks and Public Works officials came to Belleville for a meeting with Drozd. Belleville Township Manager Ray Kimble, Superintendent of Public Works Charles Cerami and Council Member Angie Paserchia.

County officials pointed out cleanup work going on in the park areas at that moment.

They also said they planned to build a stone retaining wall along Belleville Avenue and fill in a gully in Belleville Park, to make it easier to clean that part of the park.

Drozd said on Monday that he would introduce a resolution to pay the taxes, but he did not support the resolution on Tuesday.

Supporting the resolution was Paserchia. Deputy Mayor Arnaldo Carrera was absent.

However, the way was left open to vote on the resolution at the next session of the Council.

Paserchia warned that a fine and interest could be charged to the township for failing to pay the tax.

Clerk's phones to be off

Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood has announced that her office will be without telephone service for the public on Monday and Tuesday.

The Crime Watch: Kidnap!

Detective Thomas Gazzo is investigating the report of a man who said he was kidnapped at gunpoint in his pickup truck and forced to drive two armed men to Lodi.

According to Police Officers Rory Scheumeister and Pat Goldrick, the driver, who was not identified, was halted at a Stop sign at Lavergne Street and Belleville Avenue at 10:46 a.m., July 16 when two men approached his vehicle.

They were described as black males, in their mid-20s, muscular, bald, each about 5 feet 10 inches tall, and each holding a revolver.

Both were wearing white t-shirts. One wore black trousers, the other, red.

One of the men reportedly placed his handgun's muzzle at the driver's head while the other man then jumped into the cab of the truck.

One reportedly said, "Drive and don't look at us."

With a gun aimed at his head, the kidnap victim drove to the Garden State Parkway, then exited to Route 3 and went west, turning north on Route 46.

In Lodi, a black Oldsmobile was parked on Route 46, apparently waiting for them.

The armed men got out of the truck - one of them rapping the driver on the head with his pistol - and then entered the waiting car.

The driver of the truck was left in his vehicle as the Oldsmobile was driven off. He sped to the nearest service station to telephone police with his story.

Detective Michael Giuliano and Essex County Police Sergeant Frank Esposito filed a number of charges against John Dixon, 22, of Brick Township after they arrested him at the Mill Street dead end at 12:30 p.m. on July 15.

The primary arrest was for alleged use of drugs and possession of cocaine and drug paraphernalia. The second charge was for assault on a police officer, when he allegedly spat on Sergeant Esposito and shouted that the white powder the police found in his car was actually chalk.

Finally, he was charged with giving false information. He originally claimed he was "John Gary Correia, 20, of Harrison" police said, but his real identity was Dixon.

Dixon told police that Holmdel had a warrant for him in the amount of $2,500 and Fairfield had a warrant for him in the amount of $500.

Detectives Giuliano and Robert Capece interrupted a shouting match between a man driving a car and a woman passenger, who was familiar to them as a repeated drug law violator.

The driver, her ex-husband, informed the police that she "may have some dope on her". Investigation showed that she was carrying six vials of cocaine, police reported.

The woman, 27, of Glen Ridge, was held in $1,000 bail. The driver was not charged.

Police Officers Albert Henry and Richard Giordano arrested Tyrone Brown, 29, of Montville at the K-Mart store on July 20 for allegedly stealing a backpack in the store and then loading it with some $300 in merchandise, including two cordless telephones.

Later the same day, Henry and Street projects set on grant approval

The repaving of five township streets is planned over the next year, provided that grants are approved, the Engineering Office reported this week.

Awaiting Department of Transportation approval are improvements of Greylock Avenue from Main Street to the end and Little Street from Washington Avenue to Union Avenue.

Awaiting Community Development Block Grant approval are improvements of Lake Street from Honiss Street to Franklin Street; Valley Street from Williams Street to Belleville Avenue, and Maple Avenue from Mill Street.

Improvements will include work on curbing, driveways and disabled access ramps. If enough money is provided, sidewalks will also be replaced.

Treatment at $30,000 a week

Musical planned to help Jamie

By Robert Oakes

Each summer since 1950, the Bloomfield-based Talent Time organization has presented a Broadway musical to benefit a disabled local resident with consequently high medical costs.

This year, these talented high-school and college students have sacrificed a sizable chunk of their summer vacations to produce and perform "Hair" at Bloomfield Middle School. The performance will take place on Aug. 7, 8 and 9.

The proceeds from the show will benefit 14-year-old Jamie Conway, a Belleville resident who suffers from a crippling nerve disorder called reflex sympathetic dystrophy (RSD).

Linda Morgan of Belleville, the head of The Friends of Jamie group, which for two years has raised money to help defray the extraordinary medical expenses, described Jamie as spirited, bright and talented.

When she is able, Morgan said,

Jamie studies at school and has recently been placed on the honor roll. She is a flautist and danced from the age of three, until the paralyzing disease began to take effect two years ago.

Jamie, the daughter of Joanne and Ed Conway, was diagnosed with RSD after complaining of severe ankle pain, which doctors initially believed to be a sprain or fracture.

Morgan said that they did not immediately suspect the disease because usually it is found only among the elderly.

"Doctors have difficulty helping Jamie because they're not used to treating RSD in young children," said Morgan. "She's undergone many medical procedures, but they have not done much for her."

Louisa Tambone, treasurer of Talent Time and the show's choreographer, described Jamie's symptoms as being "like extremely bad arthritis. She has much pain in her joints and walks very slowly."

Tambone said that the disease is slowly spreading throughout her body, making it increasingly difficult for her to perform everyday tasks.

She said, "this disease is very difficult for Jamie and her parents, not only because of the physical pain but also because their insurance does not cover the cost of her doctor visits or any of her treatments."

The treatments that the doctors have attempted have been very costly. At one point, said Tambone, Jamie spent nearly two months in a children's hospital receiving therapy at a cost of $30,000 per month.

It has been very tough for the family, Tambone said, yet Jamie is in good spirits in spite of her disease.

"Jamie is a fighter," said Morgan. "She does not like to sit back and let things take over. She has received a lot of family support and is very excited about the

Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

Marion McTigue, the ever-faithful secretary of the Law Department, had a problem. A Superior Court order involving a variance appeal was missing. It was among the tons of papers being moved about as the Municipal Building was being evacuated before the great renovation project begins. Tax Collector Steve Vogel was a forlorn figure, standing bravely with a briefcase, not yet informed where his new office would be. (It was on the third floor of the Public Safety Building.) Finance Officer Mark Minsky had left his private office on the first floor to find he was now stationed behind a partition on the third floor of Public Safety. To reach his office, and the Law Department, people will go through a once-locked entrance to the Detective Bureau, which has mysteriously disappeared. In its place are people from Purchasing and Tax Collection, plus a number of wandering citizens, payment checks clutched in their hands, looking for someone to take the money for their water bill, their property tax, and in one case, their dog licenses. "I just moved into town and I've got dogs," the gentleman said. A disabled driver went from floor to floor to have a parking ticket voided. He finally succeeded after going from the second to the first to the third to the second floor, finally staggering out to Washington Avenue. And Barbara Tuchi, the custodian of Town Hall, discovered that she was also the custodian of 383 Washington Ave. and the Public Safety Building. The move was on, and when it would end, nobody knew.

Walter Beresford is due to return to duty as a Fire Officer on Aug. 1, maybe. Suspended for six months without pay after falling through the floor of a demonstration building, and then being demoted in rank for the same incident - the argument being that he should not have entered a condemned building - Beresford is still on an odyssey that began four years ago, when he took on then Mayor Marina Perna who wanted him to reduce his budget requests to make her budget look good. Then came the famous call by Council Member Frank Noonan to the State Department of Investigation to seize the Township books and investigate the administration of former Township Manager Bert Kendall.

The SCI found nothing to pin on Kendall, but it did make charges against Fire Chief Beresford for paying overtime to department members who had volunteered their efforts to restore the Silver Lake Firehouse with their own labor. By the time the Essex County Prosecutor ruled there was no reason to prosecute Beresford. By that time he had agreed to quit as chief, giving up his claims as a disabled veteran - something which attorney Michael Querques says was in violation of the State Constitution. In any case, the Township offered to buy him out with a two-thirds pension, and then withdrew that offer when he seemed inclined to accept. It is a weird merry-go-round in which a good public official has been lost to the town and the lawyers are the only ones profiting, mostly from the taxpayers.

The endless anonymous poison pen campaign against former Board of Education President Gabe Nazzola continues. It is having patchy results. Gabe has put his Jaguar up for sale. But he has bought a Rolls Royce. Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says, "Governor Christie Whitman told a prominent Republican that the reason she named Belleville's Council Member Angie Paserchia to the Passaic Valley Water Commission is that 'Angie supported me at a time when few others did.' And the only other vacancy available was Head Brain Surgeon at the University of Medicine and Dentistry. The public is lucky." Zilch's political supporters, the Kool Kukumber Boys, are planning their annual boat ride up the Hudson. "There's never been a drowning. We have enough money to get to the dock. And that's as far as we get." Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro Di Vincenzo Mitten says, "No one at Town Hall is sure when they will get back to the seat of government, while the renovation goes on. And if the change of government petitions get enough signers, they may not find a government when they get back."

FINANCIAL CHAOS - Belleville Finance Officer Mark Minsky held out to the last in his cluttered office as he prepared to move to new location in the Public Safety Building. It was time of confusion for all.

FOR COLUMBUS - Sponsored by the Belleville Columbus Day Parade Committee, a carnival will be held tonight, July 24, through Sunday, July 27, at the Belleville Municipal Stadium field. The carnival vendor, Lester Jacoby, is dedicating 5 percent of the proceeds to funds for Macho Rivera and Jamie Conway.

THREE PROUD GENERATIONS - Michael Escott was sworn in as Belleville Police Officer last week in the presence of his father, retired Detective Captain William Escott and his grandfather, retired Police Officer and former Mayor Michael Marotti. You know, even I need a break sometime. No, not a coffee break! So, see you in a week, and if anyone cares or asks where I am, tell them... GONE FISHING!!!! BUT ALWAYS REMEMBER... WE LOVE SILVER LAKE.

AND DON'T FORGET TO KEEP THOSE CARDS AND LETTERS COMING... BECAUSE I ALWAYS CAN USE SOME GOS-SIP, NEWS OR WHATEVER YOU WANT TO CALL IT.

National Night Out set for Aug. 5

On Tuesday, Aug. 5, neighborhoods throughout Belleville will be joining hands with thousands of communities nationwide for the 14th annual National Night Out crime/drug prevention event.

Sponsored locally by the District Partnership of Silver Lake, this will be the 5th annual "Belleville Barbecues Crime."

It is expected that more than 9,000 communities and 30 million people will participate in "America's Night Out Against Crime."

The District Partnership, an organization of Silver Lake business owners, along with the Belleville Police and event supporter Spencer Savings, is inviting all residents, merchants, and organizations to participate.

National Night Out is held to heighten crime and drug prevention awareness; generate support and participation in local anti-crime efforts; strengthen neighborhood spirit and police/community relations; and to send a message to criminals letting them know our neighborhoods are alert, organized, and fighting back.

More than 2,000 people participated in Belleville last year, according to District Partnership Chairman Larry Walsh.

The intention the township is to get small groups of neighbors together in their own front yards or porches.

Giordano arrested Jesus Morales, 28, of Newark for allegedly taking a VCR valued at $239 from the K-Mart. He had brought his own backpack, police said.

On July 19, Police Officers Joseph Richiuso and John Holland were at the K-Mart to arrest Fausto Vivar, 32, of Guttenberg, who allegedly had tried to make off with $282 worth of items ranging from clothing to a cordless telephone, apparently carrying the load in his arms.

Police Officer Frank Malfatto arrested a 33-year-old North Arlington woman who reportedly was walking erratically on Washington Avenue at 2:29 p.m. On July 18.

She reportedly yelled obscenities at Malfatto and struck his face with her hand. When Police Officer Carmen Cerreto came to assist Malfatto, she allegedly shoved him.

Subsequently, she apologized to the police, and was held in $500 bail, charged with assault.

Detectives Capree and Giuliano arrested a 36-year-old East Hanover woman on July 17, after they reported seeing her nodding off while seated at the curb near a fast food store on Washington Avenue.

Police reported finding a hypodermic needle and cocaine in her possession.

show." Jamie will play the flute in the orchestra during the performance and has been attending many of the rehearsals.

Noelle Quevedo, Talent Time's Vice President, said Jamie and her family will fly to Florida this weekend to visit a doctor there. She said, the group will give her family $1,100 for admission to Disney World and spending money.

"She was ecstatic," Quevedo said, when she learned about the vacation.

Talent Time is a division of the Charles Selter Foundation, an organization of young volunteers who work throughout the year to find a needy local resident who will benefit from their summer performance.

The foundation began 47 years ago when Charles Selter, a Bloomfield resident, was struck by a train and lost one of his legs. To help pay for his medical expenses, a group of his friends gathered together to do a variety show, which they called "Talent Time."

Since then, many young people have given their time and talents, during their summer vacations, to help local residents in need.

The three performances of "Talent Time" will begin at 8 p.m. at the middle school. Tickets are $7 and can be purchased either at the door or in advance. By calling Talent Time president Pam Langan at 429-7470.

Some Day

Some day when you're feeling important,
Some day when your ego's in bloom,
Some day when you're feeling you're the most important man in the room,
Take a bucket and fill it up with water,
Stick your hand in — up to the wrist.
Pull it out, and the hole that remains is the measure of how much you'll be missed.
You may splash all you wish when you enter,
Stir the water around galore,
But you find when you finally leave it,
It's exactly the same as before.
So, as you follow your daily agenda,
Always do the best that you can.
Be proud of yourself, but remember,
There is no indispensable man.

Last week, I was saddened by the death of four persons close to me. Josephine Malizia passed away after a long illness. Josephine was my cousin and almost like a sister to me. Her mother (Anne, nee Restaino) was my father's (Michael Restaino) sister. Her father (Joe Cocchiola) was my mother's (Felice, nee Cocchiola) brother. So you see, we have the same blood in us. Josephine left two sons, Francis who owns White Oak Pharmacy, and Joseph who lives in Maryland. She also left a sister, Mrs. Maria Caciolo and two brothers, Albert and Nutley Commissioner Frank Cocchiola.

Anthony Aranecki, a past president of the Tuesday Senior Citizen Club, Inc., and a member of the Friday Senior Club and the Belleville Old Guard. Anthony was a longtime friend and neighbor. We have worked together for many years for the benefit of the Tuesday and Friday clubs. He was the official man in charge of the Senior Center for many years, having been appointed to this post by past Mayor Mike Marotti. In the many years that I served as president of the Tuesday Club, Tony was vice president and parliamentarian. He would open the club, close the club, take care of Bingo, take charge of parties. He was a one-man tornado and was one of the hardest workers I have known. He will be sorely missed by all. He leaves a wife, Madelain, a brother and two sisters.

Anthony Natale, an usher and member of the Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church in Nutley. Anthony was active in politics and a long-time Democratic district leader. He died after a short illness.

Dorothy Bonadonna, nee Delackamo, passed away after a long illness. We were both members of the bridal party of the late Carl and Elizabeth (Viola) Orechio. May their souls rest in peace.

It is time again for the all-night vigil of the Alliance of Two Hearts. The Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary Communion of Reparation All-Night Vigil, August 1-2, (9 p.m. to 6:30 a.m.) First Friday-First Saturday at St. Valentine's Church, 125 No. Spring St., Bloomfield. For further information, please call 743-0220. All are invited to attend.

A happy birthday to Lani Orbe. Thank you for the sunshine you are bringing into our lives.

A warning about discarding papers with your name, address, Social Security number and any personal information on them. Make sure that all important information is destroyed before discarding these papers. Unscrupulous characters will use this information to harm you, so make sure all important financial records are torn up before putting them in the trash.

Congratulations to new Mayor Mario D'Amico and Deputy Mayor Arnaldo Carrera.

OUR OPINION

On our forgotten history

We are pleased to print the article on Belleville history by Louis Cicenía on this page.

Mr. Cicenía, a long time businessman in Belleville, developed an interest in the remarkable story of the American Industrial Revolution, and its place in our community.

For whatever reason, the fact that Belleville is where the first modern American steam engines were manufactured, beginning in the administration of President George Washington, and that Belleville was the home of Josiah Hornblower, who brought the steam engine to America from England in 1753, is given very little consideration, even in our own schools.

It was Joseph Hatch, a Belleville man who is a fifth generation descendant of Hornblower, who first brought to our attention the story of Hornblower.

The significance of Hornblower's contribution to American history cannot be overrated. Steam is what powered the industrial revolution, here and abroad.

It was Hornblower's knowledge and experience with steam power that brought a number of men to our community who among them pioneered in steam power for water works, steam power for boats and steam power for railroads.

We are barely familiar with such personalities as Nicholas Roosevelt, who pioneered in the manufacture of the modern steam engine here; Colonel Philip Schuyler, whose contributions to steam development have been overlooked in history; Chancellor Robert Livingston, who made Fulton's steamboat possible and Robert Stevens, who founded the American railroad industry.

And behind these men is the figure of Alexander Hamilton, a close friend to each of them, and the man who helped finance Roosevelt's engine factory.

Why should we care about this?

Because Belleville's place in history is the starting point for Belleville's future.

We note that the proposals and aims of Belleville 2000 make a passing reference to the history of the town.

But the history of the town is the springboard to a greater future. Without knowing the past, we can hardly grasp the future.

Our goal should be federal recognition of Belleville as Birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution and the preservation of that past through the recognition of historic sites.

Paterson received $3 million in grants for much less historic reason.

A Lost Chapter in American History Part I

By Louis Cicenía

May I remind you and your readers of a famous cliché in American history, as stated by the famous Robert R. Livingston, the majestic figure who administered the oath of office to George Washington, served as Secretary of Foreign Affairs at the end of the Revolution and was Minister to Napoleon's court in France, where he succeeded in negotiating the Louisiana Purchase.

"Mechanics is my hobby horse," he said.

Livingston owned the largest iron foundry in the New York area. He proposed in 1797 to enter into a partnership with the now famous John Stevens, and with Nicholas J. Roosevelt who had a foundry in New Jersey in what was then Soho.

The name Soho was selected by Roosevelt after the famous Boulton and Watts Works in England.

Under Roosevelt there the 12 men, two of whom, Staudinger and Smallman, who had actually worked for James Watt in England.

The work turned out by the American Soho was so good, in fact, that it drew the attention of the esteemed Mr. Livingston.

Roosevelt was a hard working man in his mid-30s when he learned that the Schuyler copper mine on the Passaic River near Newark was for sale.

He bought the mine as he raised money from his relatives and his savings accumulated over 15 years of diligent work.

He built a foundry and machine shop patterned after the Boulton and Watts Works. History tells us today that this location, in a letter he described as a foundry in New Jersey, was then Soho, on the Second River and in what is now called Belleville, on the Passaic.

John Cox Stevens had inherited a great deal of property in New Jersey from his father, as had his sister, Mary, who was the wife of Chancellor Livingston, making Livingston and Stevens brothers-in-law.

The Stevens property was neglected during the Revolution and was encumbered with debts. Stevens was usually floating through the world on a cloud of promissory notes. But he had an inventive mind, indeed the mind of a genius.

Born in 1749, Stevens was noted as an inventor. He was Surveyor-General of New Jersey in 1782 and 1783 and played a leading role in the development of steam boilers. He eventually pioneered in the development of the railroad in America. The first American built locomotive operated on his estate in Hoboken in 1825.

Nicholas Roosevelt was struggling to pay his bills as the federal government order to sheathe the hulls of three new 74-gun frigates was cancelled. The project was devastating to him due to the cost of copper and the hiring of additional men. As he was in deep debt, it was a shattering blow.

The Congress had indeed cancelled the order when Livingston approached Roosevelt.

History does not record this powerful consortium and has not focussed its accreditation to the Belleville, New Jersey community where steam industrialization in America began, together with a web of auxiliary development that tied many powerful individuals together.

• PARTIAL birth abortion, to me, is murder of the worst kind.

• THE Republican Primary vote in Passaic County should be very disconcerting to Governor Whitman. 15,000 Passaic County Republican voters cast their ballots last month with Whitman receiving only 9,000. 40% of Republicans did not vote for their Governor in the Primary. If I were Whitman, I'd reach out for a guy like Frank Holman and get him to do what he always did best -- cultivate the troops for election day at the grass roots level.

• WELL, the inevitable finally happened at the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission. General Counsel Ralph Salerno, Bloomfield, was terminated last week. For the first six months of this year, Salerno was paid $250,000. For the prior three years, Salerno was paid ONE MILLION DOL-

• KATE O'BEIRNE, Washington editor of the highly respected National Review, wrote a commentary on the status of Christie Whitman. The headline and subhead introducing the article reads, "GOP NOWHERE GIRL -- N.J.'s first woman governor has lost her national luster".

Kate O'Beirne notwithstanding, WHITMAN HAS EARNED A SECOND TERM. I campaigned with her father, the late Webster Todd, former GOP State Chairman, and her mother, Eleanor Todd, worked under my direction in 1954 when I managed Cliff Case's successful U.S. Senate campaign. Chris Whitman is a clone of her mother, gracious, forthcoming, determined, focused, and with utmost integrity.

The final activity for the summer will be "Bad Hair Day Pins."

Please register with Zita McGarry for each session at the library, so she has sufficient materials for each program.

Explore science in the children's room

This summer, the library is providing many programs for the children in the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room.

On Wednesday, July 23, there is a science storytime at 10 a.m., followed by a program titled "Do Funny Bones Make You Laugh?" and "Do Bones Mend and Other Questions" to be discussed by Dr. Annette Cozzarelli, Belleville physician, on Thursday, July 24 at 2 p.m.

On Friday, "Computers Work & Help" will be offered from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, while "Science @ the Movies" will be shown at 2 p.m.

On Monday, July 28, "Bugs, Spiders and Snakes" will be a special program, provided by Bob Conrad as part of the Eight Live Monday Evenings at the library at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are required.

On Tuesday, July 29, there will be a "Science Storytime" at 10 a.m., followed by "Computers and Art" at 2 p.m. On July 30, there will be a program titled "Be A Physicist" at 2 p.m.

There are many other offerings this summer in the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room, as well as "Science @ the Library Reading Program," weekly exhibits, the live Monday evening family programs, science storytimes, computers, be a scientist, as well as the Belleville Library Players.

Take part in a fun and educational program as well at the library.

Remember the library!

Remember the library, when you are doing your summer cleaning, and have new or almost new books that the library could use, or if you are moving.

The library, however, can not use old encyclopedias and old textbooks, just those copyrighted after 1994, or those that are of historical value. Torn or mildewed books should not be donated. New or almost new videos, CD's and cassettes are accepted and appreciated.

Elks seeking blood

The second annual type "O" blood drive sponsored by the Belleville Elks Lodge in conjunction with the Blood Center of New Jersey, will be held on Tuesday, July 29, from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the lodge, 254 Washington Ave.

This drive is particularly geared to individuals who have type "O" negative or "O" positive blood.

"Last year, the first year a drive of this type was held at the Elks, the response from the community was tremendous," said Judy Knecht Daniels, blood center spokesperson.

"We were expecting 50 donors and over 80 walked through the door! This year, we will have plenty of staff on hand to process donors as quickly as possible," she added.

"The summer period is an extremely difficult season for the blood supply," Daniels said. "We are dealing on a day-to-day basis, with blood going out to hospitals as quickly as it is donated. People with type 'O' blood are in extreme demand, because it cannot be imported from other states because of national shortages," she added.

All donors will receive complimentary, unique "O" positive and "O" negative t-shirts and a cholesterol screening.

According to blood center officials, people with type "O" negative blood are considered to be "universal donors." The term "universal donor" means that the individual's blood can be transfused into virtually everyone.

"O" negative blood is needed frequently for trauma cases, pregnant women and premature babies. This type of blood is rare, found in only 6.6 percent of the population, yet it is the most needed.

Individuals with type "O" positive blood can give to 85 percent of the population. Although "O" positive is the most common blood type, shortages occur because of its value to so many patients.

All other donors are welcome, and all donors will receive t-shirts regardless of blood type.

Donors should be in general good health, be 18 years or older and weigh at least 110 pounds. Seventeen-year-olds can fill out a permission slip available to them through the Blood Center.

Donors need to bring a signed form of identification and know their social security number. There is a 72-hour deferral for dental work, including routine cleaning, and donors who have traveled outside of the United States recently should call the blood center for eligibility criteria.

For more information or to sign up to donate, call the Blood Center of New Jersey at 1-800-BLOOD-NJ.

Joint admissions accord signed by MSU and county college

Continuing its tradition of academic excellence and commitment to community service, Montclair State University has entered into a joint admissions agreement with County College of Morris.

The agreement allows CCM graduates to enroll as juniors at MSU and pursue a bachelor of arts degree in anthropology, classics, English, general humanities, geography, history, linguistics, philosophy, political science, psychology, religious studies or sociology.

"As president of Montclair State University, the only public teaching university in New Jersey, I am pleased that we are able to offer admission to qualified students of this excellent community college," said Irvin D. Reith, president of MSU.

"This is a perfect example of an educational partnership that will be highly beneficial to New Jersey students," he continued.

"The college is very supportive of any form of arrangement to facilitate the transfer of our students to Montclair State University," added Edward Yaw, president of CCM.

The agreement is designed to allow students to obtain a bachelor of arts degree after successfully completing an associate's degree in liberal arts from CCM. CCM students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 to be admitted to the program.

The agreement goes into effect in August.

MSU has established similar relationships with Union County College, Middlesex County College, Essex County College and Raritan Valley Community College.

Additionally, through a joint admission agreement between MSU and the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, qualified students can enroll at MSU and, if they continue to meet the standards stipulated in the agreement, be assured a place at UMDNJ upon graduation.

Keeping the weight off . . .

The Goen way!!

If you don't have a weight problem . . . Well, lucky you!

But for those of us who do, it's no fun dieting and exercising, watching everything we eat. As we age, the harder it becomes to defy gravity. Body parts change shape and every part seems to sag down around the approximate middle part of our body.

The trick isn't to lose the weight. The trick is to keep the weight off. Now you can learn to lose weight and keep it off by attending the next Goen Seminar.

The program addresses three distinct factors that affect people who are overweight. The first is the psychological factor. We all know about that. We know, but we don't seem to be able to control it, do we?

How does Alex Goen address this problem? Through hypnosis. Now, this is nothing new. It's been done for years. The method is the key. Alex Goen concentrates on permanent weight reduction. You change your perception of food intake through hypnosis.

The second point to consider is the physiological factor. Alex Goen deals with physiological hormones, nutrients, neuro-transmitters, peptides, neuro-peptides and how behavior, modern diet and lifestyle conflict with nature's normal process for keeping the body at its optimum weight.

The third point is the neuro-genetic factor. Environment, seasonal changes, the time of day that you eat and even something as strange as the perception of famine are dealt with through education. How does your body speak to you? Do you listen to what it tells you?

The Goen Seminar works or your money is cheerfully refunded (110%)!

At the very reasonable cost of $39.99 for a program that gives you this kind of guarantee, what do you have to lose besides pounds?

Come on! Drag your hubby, wife, girlfriend, boyfriend, brother, sister, daughter or son down to this event. After all, it's for their own good!

The Goen Seminar will be held at the VFW Hall in North Arlington at 222 River Road, just one mile north of the Belleville Pike, on Monday, August 4, 7 to 10:15 p.m.

You have nothing to lose but those unwanted pounds and inches. Guaranteed! Be there!

Chronic pain workshop July 30

When a neurologic medical doctor and a chiropractor square off to discuss which approach is better for the treatment of chronic pain, you might expect to get your "ear" chewed off.

However, this will not be the case as Dr. Sylvain Junger, M.D., neurologist, and Dr. Steven Clarke, chiropractor, two leading authorities in the field of chronic pain medicine, invite the public to a chronic pain workshop on Wednesday, July 30, at 7:30 p.m. at 271 Washington Ave., Nutley.

The evening will feature live demonstrations of each doctor's proven techniques.

Dr. Clarke obtained a doctorate of chiropractic from the Logan College of Chiropractic, St. Louis, Mo.

In addition to residency at the Montgomery clinic, Dr. Clarke spent three years as a physician's assistant to two of the nation's top-ranked chiropractors. He brings these skills and techniques to one of Essex County's most successful chronic pain practices.

Dr. Clarke specializes in neuromuscular rehabilitation and personal injury and has his pain clinic in Nutley.

Dr. Junger is the director of the Pain Center of North Central Neurology.

After obtaining his medical degree at the Medical College of Virginia, he completed a neurology residency at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Mich., and then a neuromuscular fellowship in Chicago, Ill.

He has served as a medical consultant for a pain center in Northern New Jersey and maintains offices in Belleville, Denville and Lafayette.

Anyone interested in attending the chronic pain workshop should call 586-8555 for reservations. Refreshments and handouts will be available.

A drawing will be held during the program and the winner will receive a whole body therapeutic massage by a licensed therapist.

CHRONIC PAIN WORKSHOP

The public is invited to join a Chiropractor and a Neurologist as they debate which approach is better for the treatment of chronic pain. The answers will surprise you. The program will feature live demonstrations of each doctor's proven techniques.

- Dr. Steven Clarke - Chiropractor specializing in rehabilitation of musculoskeletal conditions and in personal injury.
- Sylvain Junger, M.D. - Neurologist, specializing in the treatment of Fibromyalgia and pain of muscular or nerve origin.

HOROSCOPES

July 27-August 2

ARIES — March 21/April 20

It's an easy week for you, Aries, as things go smoothly at work. Superiors are pleased with your efforts, and co-workers are eager to help you. As for your family life, things aren't going quite as well. A loved one turns to you for help with a personal problem. Be supportive, but don't overreact.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21

Don't get caught up in the heat of the moment at work early in the week. Try to remain calm. While it may seem as if a superior is leaving you out of the loop, he or she really is looking out for your best interest. A close friend introduces you to someone who intrigues you. Enjoy!

GEMINI — May 22/June 21

You're at your best this week, Gemini. You breeze through your workload and win praise from the higher-ups. As for your personal life, someone whom you've been interested in finally responds to your advances. Don't stop now — you're sure to win his or her heart.

CANCER — June 22/July 22

Don't let life pass you by this week. Now is your chance to make a move at work and in your love life. A little extra effort from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. can get you noticed. As for that special someone, don't take him or her for granted. Show how much you really care by doing something romantic.

LEO — July 23/August 23

Your loyalty is needed this week, Leo. A close friend comes to you with a serious problem and needs your help. Don't let him or her down. Give your time, effort and support to someone who always has been there for you. It is sure to bring the two of you even closer.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22

While it's not easy for you, Virgo, try not to worry this week. Everything works out for you. You take care of a problem at work and end up being the hero. Superiors notice your efforts. Your personal life moves into high gear when a former significant other returns to the scene. Take it slowly at first.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23

Try to maintain a balance in your life this week. Superiors at work will try to keep you in the office to finish a difficult project. Do your best and work diligently, but don't let your job take over your life. You need to relax and spend time with loved ones.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22

Your possessive nature takes control of you at work early in the week. You won't let anyone help you with an important project. While you get the job done, you end up looking foolish for having done it all yourself. Later in the week, a close friend takes you out for a night on the town. Enjoy!

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21

Try to remain optimistic this week, Sagittarius. There are some problems at work that make co-workers concerned about the company's future. Keep their spirits — and your own — up. Family members turn to you for advice about a gathering. Do your best to help.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20

Don't let your personal life distract you when you are at work this week. The higher-ups have their eyes on you for a promotion; you must work diligently. However, once the workday is through, revel in a new relationship. That special someone is adding a new dimension to your life.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18

Be practical early in the week, Aquarius. You can't do everything, and you need to distribute some responsibilities at work and at home. Let co-workers help with an important project, and have loved ones do their fair share. You'll feel better by Friday.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20

Don't be hard-hearted at work, Pisces. Give a helping hand to a co-worker in need. He or she would do the same for you. When it comes to your love life, take a step back to examine the situation. The person you've been dating wants to get serious. Think about it before making a commitment.

Clown Week show Aug. 2

Many members of the Merrimakers Clown Alley No. 31 of Bloomfield will perform at the seventh annual National Clown Week show on Saturday, Aug. 2 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the Green in Bloomfield Center.

This year's theme is "The Big Top."

There will be face-painters, balloonists, bubble stations, photos taken with your favorite clowns, a clown magic and comedy show and refreshments for all, along with a few extra "Big Top" surprises this year.

Admission is free and certain items will be sold; however, donations to the Boys' and Girls' Club of Bloomfield will also be accepted.

National Clown Week — Friday, Aug. 1 through Thursday, Aug. 7 — celebrates the institution of clowning and the efforts of thousands of clowns nationwide.

The Merrimakers are a recognized Clowns of America International and World Clown Association clown alley that meets twice monthly at Mecca Magic in Bloomfield. The training seminars involve character development, makeup design and technique, circus skills, walk-around props, nursing home and hospital protocol, and balloon-sculpting skills.

Children of all ages and parents are welcome to attend this special day of fun. For more information, call Sal Senatore at 748-1549 or Henry Tuorto, director of the Boys' and Girls' Club of Bloomfield, at 748-0805.

Belleville SPORTS

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Sports certainly has plenty to offer this summer

When you turn to the sports page of the daily newspapers and check the standings, you'll find that there is a sport for just about every fan.

There's baseball, of course, and despite the devastating strike of 1994-95, the game seems to be getting back on its feet. New ball parks have stimulated interest and other cities are buoyed by the fact that they will soon have a new ball park.

In the 1970's stadiums were designed pretty much the same, witness Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and St. Louis. Today, those stadiums are called "cookie cutters". Cincinnati and Pittsburgh are trying for new ball parks, in the look of Baltimore, Chicago's Comiskey Park, Coors Field in Denver and Cleveland's Jacobs Field.

St. Louis did something which I think should catch on in other cities. Instead of waiting years for a new stadium, Busch Stadium was completely renovated, with the artificial turf being torn out and replaced with real grass.

If you look at Busch Stadium today, compared to let's say five years ago, you'd think it was a brand new place. It's more fan friendly, which seems to be the 90's point of view when it comes to ball parks.

Busch Stadium was made a baseball only facility, similar to the aforementioned stadiums in Baltimore, Cleveland, Denver, etc. There was a time when the baseball and football Cardinals both played there. However, the football Cardinals left for Arizona in 1988. Football returned to St. Louis in 1995, but the Rams have their own indoor facility a few miles from Busch.

In Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, the stadiums are shared by football teams, thus it would be a little tougher for those places to change the stadium into a baseball-only facility.

Anyway, getting back to baseball, there are some great pennant races beginning to take shape. The Yankees and Orioles are back in a two team race in the A.L. East, the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox are battling in the Central and Seattle and Anaheim could go down to the wire, similar to their 1995 battle, in the A.L. West.

In the National League, the East has turned into a tremendous battle. Atlanta should win, but look for Florida, Montreal and yes, the Mets, to battle for second place and a berth in the playoffs as the wild card entry.

My Cardinals are battling Pittsburgh and Houston for the Central title and the Dodgers and Giants could once again have a classic pennant race in the West.

I like the Yankees to edge Baltimore in the east, Cleveland to hold off Chicago in the Central and Seattle to win the West with Anaheim taking the wild card. In the National League, I'll go with Atlanta, St. Louis, Los Angeles and Florida for the post season.

I'll be the first to admit that I'm not a Yankee fan, but something tells me that the Yanks will win the A.L. and have a 1996 World Series rematch with Atlanta.

Baseball isn't the only thing that is occupying sports fans these days. There's Metro Stars soccer in the Major Soccer League, the New Jersey Red Dogs, who are playing excellent football in their first year in the Arena Football League, womens basketball in the W.N.B.A. and the A.B.L. and, of course, the National Football League.

For the first time in N.F.L. history, the regular season will start in August. The first week of the regular season commences on August 31, and that's just six weeks from now.

Can you believe it? Giants and Eagles, kickoff 1 p.m. from Giants Stadium on opening day. Wasn't the Super Bowl just played a few weeks ago?

So, if you're a sports fan, there should be plenty to keep you busy during the lazy, hazy days of summer.

And if you're a local sports fan, consider this. The Belleville Twins are still playing in the Metropolitan Baseball League, the high school football team begins practice in a few weeks, with a new coaching staff.

While I don't want to rush the summer months, I'll be looking forward to football. Maybe this year, I'll buy the 18 inch dish and get the N.F.L. package. This way, I won't be forced to watch a Giant-Cardinal game on a Sunday afternoon when my Eagles are playing, hopefully, a key game for the divisional title.

In the meantime, enjoy what the summer offers.

Young Champion

In her first competition, Bloomfield 6-year-old Alexandria Teresa Pascucci, left, captured the Garden State Games figure skating championship at Mennon Sports Arena in Morristown on July 12. Alexandria competed on the Basic Skills Beginner I level, and skated to an instrumental version of Vanessa Williams' "Colors of the Wind" from the Disney movie Pocahontas. The young champion, began figure skating at age 4 and trains at South Mountain Arena in West Orange. Pictured here with her coach, Rick Berg, Alexandria has relatives in Belleville.

Volunteer cheerleading, soccer coaches needed

Fall Applications Available

Applications for the Belleville Recreation 1997 Fall Sports programs are now available in the schools and at the Recreation office. Boys and girls, ages 6-14, may participate in Recreation Soccer. Belleville resident children who will be 6 by December 31 and who will be no older than 14 on December 31, 1997 are eligible. Nobody above 8th grade can play, and all returning players must re-apply.

Boys ages 7-10 can play touch football, if they so choose. Belleville boys who will be 7 by December 31 and who will be no older than 10 on December 31, 1997 are eligible. All returning players must re-apply.

For both soccer and touch football, all completed applications must be returned to the Recreation Department, 407 Joralemon Street, with birth certificates. The registration deadline for soccer is August 1, and the deadline for touch football will be August 22. Children are advised not to register for more than one fall sport since football, soccer and touch football games and practice schedules conflict.

For the convenience of persons unable to register during daytime office hours, registration will also take place at the Recreation office on Wednesday nights, 6-8 p.m., from June 11-August 6.

Call 450-3422 for other information.

Junior Bucs Football Registration

There will be registration for the Belleville Recreation Department's 1997 "Jr. Bucs" tackle football program at the Recreation House, 407 Joralemon Street, now through August 1. Boys who will be 7 years old before September 1 and who will not be 15 before December 31 are eligible. Those wishing to play tackle football must weight a maximum of 145 pounds, and no one above 8th grade can play. Players will be broken down into three teams according to specific age/weight requirements as set by the All-County Youth Football League.

To register, players must obtain an application from their school or the Recreation Department office. All completed applications with parental approval must be brought to the Recreation House by August 1, with two recent passport size photos of the player and a copy of his birth certificate. All returning players from last year's team must re-apply. Practices will begin around July 28. Children are advised not to register for more than one fall sport since football, soccer and touch football games and practice schedules conflict.

For the convenience of persons unable to register during regular daytime office hours, registration will also take place at the Recreation office on Wednesday nights, 6-8 p.m., from June 11-August 6, 1997.

Call 450-3422 for other information.

Pre-School Registration

The Belleville Department of Recreation and Cultural Affairs is accepting registration for the pre-school play program for 4 year old children. The program consists of games, stories, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties especially designed for pre-school children.

A session is from 9 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. or 12:45 p.m. to 2:30 p.m., five days a week with class limited to a maximum of 23 students in each session. The cost of the 32 week program is $150.00. The mothers of the children accepted must participate by serving one duty day about every 8 or 9 days according to a published schedule. School will begin on Monday, September 15, and will run through May, 1998.

Children born between October 1992-September 1993 who will enter kindergarten in September 1998 are eligible. Participants must be Belleville residents. Since there are just a limited number of openings, applications will be accepted

Clara Maass Golf Invitational to be played at Ridgewood CC, set for September

The 1997 Clara Maass Foundation Golf Invitational is scheduled for Monday, Sept. 29 at the Ridgewood Country Club in Paramus. Proceeds from this event will assist in the purchase of a CT/Virtual Simulator for the Radiation Oncology Department at Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville.

The Ridgewood Country Club is renowned as one of the most outstanding golf courses in both the metropolitan area and the United States. Each year, Golf Magazine selects Ridgewood Country Club as one of the top 100 courses in America.

As part of the golf outing, a luncheon and evening cocktail reception will be held on the outdoor patio, which overlooks the golf course. The cocktail reception will be followed by a dinner buffet and a raffle for a number of fabulous prizes. The fee for golfers is $500.

Besides participating as a golfer, there also are a number of ways to support Clara Maass, such as sponsorship of tees, golf carts, the luncheon and cocktail reception. An ad journal also will be distributed at the event.

Last year, 172 golfers participated and the event raised $118,000 to assist in the purchase of diagnostic equipment for the Women's health Center at Clara Maass. For more information about the Clara Maass Golf Invitational, please call 450-2277.

Belleville Flag Football announces registration

The Belleville Flag Football Association is currently taking applications for the 1997 season. Children who will be 10 years old before December 31, 1996 and who will be no older than 13 years old on December 31, 1997 are eligible to play. (Children who played in the league at 13 can play again as long as they will not be older than 14 years of age on December 31, 1997). Only Belleville residents are eligible to play.

The Flag Football program is an instructional league. There is no weight limit. All children will be drafted onto a team and all children are required to play in each game. Games are played Sunday mornings and practices are held during the week at the individual coach's discretion. The season runs from September 6 through the end of November.

For those unfamiliar with the game, players wear a belt with flags attached. Instead of tackling a ball carrier, the defender must remove one of the ball carrier's flags. All block is full contact and players should be prepared for such.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Al DeMeo at 844-9110 after 5:30 p.m. Applications are available at the Recreation House on Joralemon Street, at the offices of DeMeo & LaVista, 390 Union Avenue and at assorted stores throughout town.

on a first come, first served basis only.

Children (and their parents) must be able to speak and understand english in order to participate. Children enrolled in the morning program cannot also be in the afternoon program, or vice versa. A $25.00 deposit is required to hold your spot in the program.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422, as soon as possible, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Volunteers needed

Volunteer cheerleading coaches/advisors are needed for the 1997 programs.

Programs are being run from grades 3 through 8.

Practices will be run during July and August. There will be games starting September and will run through November.

If interested, please call the Recreation Department, 450-3422, any time between 8:30 a.m.-noon and 1-4 p.m.

Soccer Coaches Needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking persons interested in coaching its 6-14 year old soccer league. The league is separated into several divisions according to specific age groups.

The children learn the basics of soccer and all those attending regular practices play in all games. Games are played on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, beginning in mid-September. All volunteer coaches will be required to attend a Certification Clinic before the season begins.

Those interested in coaching may call the Recreation Department at 450-3422, weekdays before 4 p.m. To obtain an application for a coaching position, call league director Carmen Goglia at 751-7560.

Volleyball Teams Needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is taking names of people who would be interested in entering teams in the Women's and Men's Volleyball leagues.

The women's league plays on Tuesday night at School #3, while the men's league plays on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Friendly House. Teams must be composed of three-quarters Belleville residents.

If interested in applying for any of these leagues, please call the Recreation office at 450-3422.

MEDICATIONS AND SUN-SENSITIVITY

If you notice that your skin has become more sensitive to sunlight than it used to be, your prescription medication may be at fault. About fifty medications can sensitize the skin to the sun's ultraviolet rays, including such antibiotics as tetracycline, doxycycline, and ciprofloxacin. Other drugs that may increase photosensitivity include those used to control blood pressure and some nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs such as ibuprofen and naproxen. The use of sunscreens may help in some cases, but many of the drugs interact with a wavelength of light that sunscreens do not protect against. If so, ask the prescribing physician for an alternative that is not photosensitizing, which will put an end to the abnormal skin reactions.

If you are concerned that the medication you are using could cause photosensitivity talk to your pharmacist at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1968, 759-1956). We are Medicare and Blue Cross approved. Many different items are carried including greeting cards, cosmetics, toiletries, baby needs, and Russell Stover candies. Open: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HINT: A photoallergic reaction involves a rash that looks like eczema instead of sunburn.

Roy Bill

Services have been held for Roy R. Bill, 70, of Hazlet, who died July 15 at home.

Arrangements were by the Bedle Funeral Home, Inc., Keyport.

Mr. Bill was a service technician for 15 years with Thermador Corp., Pine Brook, before retiring in 1995.

He served in the Navy during World War II.

He was a member of the Elks Lodge in Nutley.

Born in Newark, he lived in Belleville and Union before moving to Hazlet six months ago.

Surviving are a son, Roy Jr.; two daughters, Teresa Oakes and Lucille Graham; a brother, Charles, and six grandchildren.

Obituaries

Henry Sienkiewicz

Services for Henry J. Sienkiewicz, 70, of Colonia were held Saturday in the Gosselin Funeral Home, Edison.

Mr. Sienkiewicz died July 15 in Rahway Hospital.

He was a truck driver for Union Carbide, Keasbey, for 33 years, retiring in 1986.

A World War II Navy veteran, he was a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 681, Rahway.

Born in Newark, he lived in Belleville before moving to Colonia in 1963.

Surviving are a son, Craig; three daughters, Dale Mendez, Cheryl Flynn and Karen Angeline; a sister, Mary Sammartino, and six grandchildren.

Josephine Malizia

Josephine Malizia, 84, of Belleville died July 16 at home.

A Mass was offered Saturday in Holy Family Church, Nutley. Arrangements were by the S.W. Brown Funeral Home, Nutley.

Mrs. Malizia was a member and president of the Rosary Altar

Society of Holy Family Church.

Born in Nutley, she moved to Belleville 56 years ago.

Surviving are two sons, Frank and Joseph; a sister, Maria Cacino; two brothers, Al and Frank; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Around The House

In The Swim Of Things
—Be Safe Near The Water—

by Jeff Keller

(NAPS)—With that horrible winter over, let's start thinking about summer fun. One of the best summer activities also carries potential serious consequences. So take proper precautions.

If you have a home with a pool, or a residence near a lake or beach, follow these key tips for your safety and the safety of children.

Know the swimming ability of adults and children. Know how to help someone who gets in trouble in the water. Someone should know how to administer CPR.

For natural bodies of water:
• Areas clearly should be separated and designated for activities, including wading, advanced swimming, diving, scuba-diving and boating.

• Know about the tides, currents, waves and the temperature of the water.

• Locate rocks, tree stumps and other natural hazards.

For pools:
• Access should be controlled by a fence with a gate that can be locked.

• Water depths must be marked clearly.

• Maintenance procedures must be followed, including water circulation, chemical balance of water and removal of debris.

The pool area and a dock or diving platform in a natural body of water should have Safety-Walk strips and treads to prevent slips and falls. Expose the adhesive by removing the protective liner on the backside of the abrasive strip. Then, press onto the surface.

Have rescue equipment handy and in prime condition, and know how to use it. Also, somehow, have a phone installed nearby to call for emergency services.

New Product:

A deflated pool toy is sure to dampen water fun. 3M Inflatable Plastic Repair Patches provide strong repairs of rips, tears and punctures of everyday vinyl inflatable items.

A patch bonds to wet or dry surfaces, forming an air-tight repair that is faster and easier than vinyl strips with glue. It seals tightly to edges and contours. Each package contains three patches: 2 X 3 inches, 3 X 4 inches and a three-inch circle. To locate, call: 1-800-854-4266.

Protecting Our Environment

New Technology For Homeowners

(NAPS)—Innovative scientists have come up with ways people can protect themselves from mosquitoes and protect the environment at the same time.

An environmentally friendly mosquito control product is now available to groups of homeowners interested in reclaiming their neighborhood from bugs. During the past ten years, it has become a popular product of choice among Mosquito Abatement Districts (MADs).

Introduced by the Public Health Products Group of Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago, Illinois, Bactimos® offers virtually 100 percent control of mosquitoes in the larval stage.

The active ingredient in Bactimos, Bacillus thuringiensis israelensis, or B.t.i., is a selective larvicide. It affects the mosquito larva, causing minimal adverse effects to beneficial insects, marine life, birds, wildlife, animals, pets, vegetation or humans.

B.t.i. was first isolated from a stagnant pond located in the Nahal Besor Desert river basin near Kibbutz Zeelim in the northwestern Negev Desert of Israel. The northwestern Negev is a winter rainfall desert. Since its detection, B.t.i. has been found elsewhere and has been tested by scientists all over the world. It has been found to be toxic against practically all mosquitoes.

The granules can be distributed by hand across the surface of water breeding sites. Even though Bactimos is minimally harmful, gloves should be worn. The pellets should be spread on lakes, ponds, creeks and other permanent sources of water once every one to two weeks.

As the summer progresses, mosquitoes hatch and mature more quickly. It may take larvae as long as three weeks to complete their development in the spring when temperatures are cool, to as little as four days during the warmest part of the summer. Hence, applications should be made on a weekly basis during the summer months. Temporary breeding sites require treatment following rainfalls if the site can hold water for at least five days.

A 40 lb. Bactimos bag treats about one acre for one year. Extra product can be stored in a cool, dry place. If stored properly, Bactimos remains effective for at least two seasons.

For more information or to order Bactimos, call Toll-Free 1 (888) 212-1726 or fax us at 1 (888) 212-1727.

Sudal and Malone earn sales awards

James M. Weichert, president, has announced that Catherine Sudal and Marge Malone, sales associates with Weichert, Realtors' Caldwell/West Orange Area Office, have won the office's top sales awards for the month of June.

Sudal, who has been a licensed real estate professional for 11 years, holds the professional designation of Graduate, Realtor Instructor (GRI). Her sales accomplishments have qualified her for the New Jersey State Million Dollar Club four times. She and her husband are longtime residents of Nutley.

With 17 years of experience, including 11 as a broker and sales manager, Malone is a seasoned real estate professional. She also holds the GRI professional designation. She is a six-time member of the New Jersey State Million Dollar Club. She is a longtime resident of Bloomfield.

Malone and Sudal are members of the Bloomfield, Belleville, Nutley and Glen Ridge Boards of Realtors. Together they served as chairpersons of the 1995 Realtors Political Action Committee (RPAC) and members of the community service community.

YOU CAN SEE THIS STREET - Some four inches of rain fell on one day last week, but Silver Lake streets did not disappear under water, as they would have, in the days before the 36-inch flood tunnel was built, carrying excess water off to the Second River. Residents report one flood problem in seven years.

Board nixes car storage yard

By Howard Klausner

The Zoning Board of Adjustment turned down a request by a towing service to have a storage yard on its property.

Votes cast by Jerry Del Guercio and William Villano defeated the proposal, which required five votes for passage. Two members of the Board were absent.

The variance was sought by Meglio and Sons, trading as S.O.S. Towing, located in the industrial park at 681 Main St.

Attorney Robert Beck and Donna Mae Meglio, spokesperson for the firm, said that towed cars would be stored on the property temporarily.

Ms. Meglio said there was no intention of having a junkyard for the sale of car parts.

A report on the proposal made by Robert Ringelheim of The Planning Association of North Jersey cautioned, "Testimony is needed to insure that this does not become a junkyard or eyesore."

The negative votes reflected that concern.

The owner of a house on Washington Avenue who said he had purchased it as a three-family house last year but found that it was classified as two-family was advised to find proof that it had been used as a three-family house before 1972, when zoning regulations changed, if he wanted approval of three-family classification.

The Board reorganized, re-electing Al Schmitt as Chairman and William Villano as Vice Chairman.

The Pope, Khomeini and Clinton Author, 81, lives life to fullest

By Howard Klausner

There is a lot the world can learn from Angelo Massaro, who meets the day head on with a jog on his exercycle - "Exercise! To keep in shape, you've got to exercise! There's no other way!" - and who is a man who likes people.

In fact, he has published a book to encompass the love he has for humanity, "Odds and Ends: In My Spare Time".

"I believe there is good in every person, somewhere. I wrote to Khomeini, asking that he let his people have freedom. I would have written to Hitler, telling him the same thing."

It is his belief, he says, that left alone, people will do what is best for them and for society.

At the same time, he does not think that society - or government - should sit still.

"The government should give people jobs. Bring back the C.C.C., the W.P.A. They gave people work. They did good for people," he said, referring to employment programs - the Civilian Conservation Corps and the Works Progress Administration - that were developed under the New Deal of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Born in Newark, and graduated from Barringer High School in 1933, Massaro remembers those days well.

"But I manage to have a job. In fact, I had worked since I was six, because I was always concerned about my parents," he said.

He is the son of Guiseppe and Marianne Massaro. His father was a cabinet maker in Caserta, near Naples and when he came to America he became a lathing contractor, putting up the backing for plaster walls.

Angelo helped his father on the job.

In the 1930s, he worked for a variety of Newark firms - Ward Baking Co., Crucible Steel, General Instrument.

He attended Newark College of Engineering - now the New Jersey Institute of Technology - at night, until he earned a degree in mechanical engineering.

From August 1942 until 1980, he was a designer with ITT Avionics in Clifton. Then he retired.

But working or retired, he was a tireless letter writer - letters to newspapers, to friends, to politi-

Test scores delight the Board

By Howard Klausner

Test scores which show that Belleville students are above state average brought congratulations from the Board of Education, Monday.

A report by Superintendent of Schools Michael A. Lally said that results in three independent tests - the Iowa Test of Basic Skills, the Early Warning Test for Grade 8 and the Official High School Proficiency Test for Grade 11, placed the district students above the state average in every category, and indicated a steady improvement each year.

"For four years, I have worked to improve student grades. It could not have been done without a dedicated staff," Lally said.

Board Member Ralph Mazzuca and Board President Robert Molinaro each praised the school administration.

"I know how difficult a job it can be," Mazzuca, a retired Newark school principal said.

Molinaro said he expressed the sentiments of the Board in commending the administration.

The results were noteworthy in that school officials estimate that 10 to 15 percent of the students speak English as a second language, and 48 percent of the school population is made up of minority ethnic groups. The majority of these are classified as Hispanic, with Asian as the next largest group. State law requires classification by ethnic group.

On the High School Proficiency Test for Grade 11, the percentage of regular students who passed the reading test was 90.8; mathematics, 99.5, and writing, 98.7.

Lally said this was higher than the scores for 1996.

The Iowa Test of Basic Skills was given to children from Kindergarten through Grade 8, in April.

In reading, 96.8 percent met the standard proficiency, which was .2 percent under the 1996 score of 97.0.

The drop may be attributed to a rising number of foreign language students.

In language arts/writing, the result for both years was the same: 97.2 percent met the standard proficiency.

In mathematics, the score improved measurably: 89.7 percent met the standard proficiency in 1997, and 88.9 percent did so in 1996.

In the Early Warning Tests given to 8th Graders, 247 students took the test last year, and 249 took the test this year. They did not include limited English students and special education students.

In 1996, 4.9 percent of the students were found to be in need of remediation in reading. In 1997, this dropped to 4.4 percent.

In mathematics, 17.8 percent of the students needed remediation, in 1996, and 13.7 percent needed remediation in 1997.

In writing, 13.8 percent needed remediation in 1996. This dropped to 6.9 percent in 1997.

The Crime Watch: Muggers

Detective Ralph Marotti did some investigating to find four youths who had mugged a 16-year-old at the corner of Ralph and Holmes Streets, 1:30 p.m. on July 25, taking $10 in cash and a beeper from him.

Marotti tracked down four juveniles, two from Belleville and two from Hillside, two 16-year-olds and two 17-year-olds.

The arrests were made by Police Officers Phillip De Coma and Scott Simonetti.

The suspects had been "hanging around" on the corner, police said, when they decided to mug the teenager.

Police Officers Anthony Weedo and John Pinto prevented some possible car thefts, police said, when they arrested Jose Mendoza, 22, of Belleville at 2:54 a.m., July 27, in his car on Florence Avenue.

The suspected was stopped for erratic driving. Police reported finding a black slap-hammer, a device to pull ignition wires, on the front seat. He was charged with possession of burglary tools.

Narcotics possession caused several arrests, police reported.

Detectives Dante Pasquale and Ralph Marotti stopped a car northbound on Route 21, at 1:30 p.m. on July 25 after it weaved through traffic.

The driver, Morgan Housel, 27, of Bloomfield, reportedly told the detectives he "had a bad habit" and produced two bags of heroin.

Detectives Pasquale and Marotti arrested Salvatore Greck, 41, of Newark after stopping his car on Mill Street in Belleville Park, 12:20 p.m., July 24.

Police said Greck told them he was on his way to a rehabilitation center in Newark and that he had "bought a dime to get through the day." Police said he had a vial of cocaine on his person.

At 12:23 a.m. on July 23, Pasquale and Marotti arrested Darryl Antiorio, 27, of Lyndhurst, for possession of heroin, in a package labelled "Unabomber". Police said the suspect tried to throw the package out a car window when the detectives stopped the car in which he was a passenger.

On July 22, Detectives Pasquale and Marotti arrested Steve Foote, 33, of Lyndhurst for possession of three vials of cocaine, kept in his sock. He was stopped for speeding north on Route 21.

Detectives Robert Capece and Michael Giuliano went to a Belleville home to pick up a 17-year-old youth wanted in Verona on a burglary charge, on July 25.

At police headquarters, police said, the youth was found to possess marijuana.

Night out Walk

Residents are invited to gather at the Mobile Precinct on Franklin Street to meet Merriloon the Clown and start a police-guided walk through Silver Lake, 6:30 p.m. Tuesday.

It will be part of the National Night Out event, to show public awareness of the fight on crime.

The first 125 persons on line will receive coupons entitling them to a free Italian ice at Rita's.

Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

Under the heading of "If You Can't Lick 'em, Join 'em" we offer this news. The old Veterans of Foreign Wars Younger-Alden Post in the Valley disbanded a few years ago and its property was acquired by a private investor who wanted to have a Club Liquor License, but since you cannot transfer a Club License, his application to the Township Council was denied. In recent weeks, neighbors have noticed large numbers of adults entering and leaving the building. Inquiry shows that there are two daily meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous in the old VFW building, presumably renting the premises from the owner. Township officials, however, say they are unaware of the AA meetings, although we do not see why it should be against the law. Some people thought that the building was housing a drug rehabilitation clinic, which does not seem to be the case. . . . Visiting State Senate hopeful Gary Furnari was nearly hauled off to the Borough Supply Yard of Carlstadt, according to the story he told us. It seems he was at a July Fourth celebration - held, naturally, on July 3 - at Riggin Field in East Rutherford. It was a joint celebration of Carlstadt and East Rutherford. The featured speaker was Senator John Scott, Furnari's opponent in November. Furnari was cheerfully passing out campaign lapel stickers when, he said, a man identifying himself as "Donnelly, police commissioner of Carlstadt" told him to stop or be arrested and taken to Carlstadt. "Aside from this being against the Constitution," Furnari quoted himself, "how can you do this when we're in East Rutherford?" When "Donnelly" persisted, Furnari desisted. It turns out that there is a Councilman Donnelly in Carlstadt, and he is in charge of Borough Supplies. Senator Scott denies any knowledge of the incident, but Furnari says it was Scott who put the Carlstadt man up to it. . . . Attending a recent meeting of the Zoning Board of Appeals was a gentleman who wants to have a motorcycle repair shop in town specializing in Harley-Davidson bikes. He was accompanied by his lawyer, and a tall young bearded man wearing a yarmulke. We asked if the religious young man was involved with the motorcycle way of life. No, he was Josh, owner of the property the Harley-Davidson man wanted to acquire. The group decided to delay their appeal for a few weeks, because two members of the board were absent. . . . Kevin Kennedy needed a cane to attend his swearing-in as a member of the Belleville Historic Preservation Commission. The previous day, he had undergone a catheterization to examine his heart, after a physician had warned him he was facing instant demise. The process showed his heart was fine, Kennedy was relieved to learn. But that precious knowledge was bought at a price of considerable pain and discomfort. . . . A wealth of history is being uncovered, and possibly lost, as tons of records are hauled out of the Municipal Building in preparation for the interior renovation. Picked off a floor, no less, by Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood were a couple of advertisements that had appeared in the the New York Times in bygone days. On Oct. 24, 1940, under the slogan "Belleville, The Town that Pays as It Goes" - was a statement attributed to Carl Anderson, President of Eastern Tool and Manufacturing Co., "Your policy of seeking widely diversified industries is sound. Also, the great number of home-owning families interested us. We are pleased we located in Belleville." On the ad was the signature of William H. Williams, Mayor-Finance Director. The other advertisement ran in The New York Times on Jan. 25, 1942. "For years, Belleville has practiced sound financial and management policies . . . Today, these tested policies are Belleville's priceless asset in the service it can render to industries already here . . . and those to come." Oh, well. . . .

Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch reports that Belleville has a new summer recreation activity. "First you tell the County you won't pay your taxes because the parks are awful, and then you dive out of the way as the lawn mower brigade comes tearing through." If done on a weekly basis, it can be invigorating, but hell on the grass. . . . Zilch's political supporters, the Kool Kukumber Boys, are suggesting their own change-of-government proposal. They've given up on Indian Reservation - "We couldn't afford the roulette wheel" - and are now opting for Halfway House - "Lots of our friends report it's really great, and nobody pays rent." . . . Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro Di Vincenzo Mitten, says, "Shirlee Sherman came back from Japan on a Rotary International-sponsored visit to report that the country is beautiful, the people are friendly and the bathroom paper may lead to World War III. Sandpaper!"

Belleville Senior News

By Joseph Restaino

Today

Yesterday has come and gone
And, never more, will be;
Tomorrow's dawn is Grace of God
That may not light for me.
But I still have today to live —
Today belongs to me —
And I must live each precious hour,
The best that I can be.
I can't recall — to better live —
The day that passed away,
And can't be sure God means, for me,
To try, another day,
So all I have is just today —
This tiny breath of time —
To do and say, what best endears,
Each treasured love of mine.

Michael Dubina

My apologies to Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Barbier for the lateness of the announcement that they have become grandparents for the seventh time. Their seventh grandchild, Alexa Marie, weighed 6 pounds, 8 ounces. The happy parents are Christopher and Aida Barbier. Chris is a former resident of Belleville. Alexa was born on May 18. Congratulations!

Sorry to hear that Jean DeCapua is back in the hospital and that Angie Chiricco is recuperating from a fall.

Also, condolences to Franci Iracane who lost her beloved sister.

"It is wonderful what miracles God works in wills that are utterly surrendered to him. He turns hard things into easy, and bitter things into sweet. It is not that he puts easy things in the place of the hard, but he actually changes the hard thing into an easy one." Hannah W. Smith.

"Welcome to the celebration of the sacrament of matrimony of Joseph T. Restaino and Lani Repolles Orbe on July 25, 1997 at three in the afternoon at Holy Family Church, Nutley, N.J."

This was the announcement that the Restaino family had been waiting for for over a year and the happy occasion finally arrived. A beautiful ceremony, blending the Filipino culture with the American culture, created a ceremony that held your attention to the very end. The singing of the three Angbetic sisters, blending with singer Steve Graziano, was fantastic. Considering that there was only one rehearsal, the results were outstanding. The celebrant, the Rev. Ernest C. Tibay, did an outstanding job of coordinating the ceremony and his witty conversation kept a smile on everyone's face. The bride, in her beautiful gown, was the picture of beauty and the groom looked like the handsomest guy in the world. All the bridal party were outstanding in their beautiful gowns and tuxedos.

Escorting the bride were Nestor and Maria Laxima and parents of the groom were Joseph and Mary Restaino. Maid of honor was Lauren Mendona and best man was Alan Restaino, brother of the groom. There were so many people involved in making this occasion a success that it is impossible to name all of them. However, I must mention that Lani was instrumental in planning the entire ceremony. The reception was held at the beautiful Crystal's at King's Court in Lyndhurst. Co-hosts Joe and Barry Maurillo put on an outstanding cocktail party and a dinner that was superb. The D.J. music was by Mike Chieffo who had a bag of tricks that kept the participants on the go all evening and made dancing a pleasure for all. No one wanted to go home so they had to turn the lights out to get everyone out. This was a very memorable night for both families and while it took almost a year of planning, it was over in a short matter of time.

A relative, Elaine Restaino Scully, came from Japan to attend and was surprised when her husband unexpectedly appeared at Crystal's. All in all, this had to be one of the best weddings I have attended. I know that both families are proud of the results of their efforts and I know join me in wishing Joe and Lani health, happiness, prosperity and the blessing of the Lord. Welcome, Lani. We love you.

Congratulations to my friends, Ed and Dotty Barbig on the celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary. A group of relatives and friends helped them celebrate at the Knights of Columbus hall on Chestnut Street in Nutley. Present with me were Dorothea Behan, Tom and Carmel Palante, Leah Swanhart, Frank Federico and my wife, Mary, with Ed and Dot Barbig.

Don't forget the All Night Vigil of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary Aug. 1-2 (9 p.m. to 6:30 a.m.) at St. Valentine's Church, 125 Spring St., Bloomfield. Call 743-0220.

Tid bit: May the blessing of the Lord be with you.
Keep Belleville Beautiful.

Prudential award to James Flynn

James J. Flynn, of Belleville, an agent and registered representative of Prudential Insurance Company of America, has received a Prudential Community Champions Shining Star Award of $1,000 for the Cerebral Palsy Center of Essex and West Hudson.

The Prudential Community Champions awards program, administered by the company's Local Initiatives Division, is recognizing 523 Prudential employees and retirees who excel in volunteer commitment, leadership, and service in their communities.

The Prudential Foundation is providing $472,000 in grants to the organization in which these associates volunteer.

"Associates who volunteer are showing a selfless commitment to the communities where they live and work, and we want to recognize and support them," said Mary Robinson, manager of Prudential's Local Initiatives Division. "Prudential is proud to honor these extraordinary people through the Community Champions Award Program."

Over the past four-and-a-half years, Flynn has raised funds for the Belleville-based Cerebral Palsy Center of Essex and West Hudson as an officer of the Belleville Elks' Handicapped Children Committee.

Currently, he is seeking money to upgrade the Center's eye clinic, which is in need of state-of-the-art equipment. The eye clinic is an intricate part of the Center, since many clients have eye disorders and special needs in this area.

Kristen Schmid visits Kenya

Kristen Schmid, a 1994 graduate of Belleville High School, is spending four weeks in rural Kenya this summer, from July 17 to Aug. 17.

The program is sponsored by the School for Field Studies and Boston University.

She is studying wildlife management and African mammal ecology.

She is currently a senior at Fairleigh Dickinson University.

BHS teacher in NJ pageant

Belleville High School teacher Janice-Lynn Nazziola Shuhan, ranked in the top 10 contestants in the Mrs. New Jersey-America pageant held in Somerset.

The pageant was for married women competing in three categories over four days at the Doubletree Hotel Ballroom: an evening gown competition, a one-piece swimsuit competition, and an interview with each of the five judges.

Contestants were required to have a platform and be able to speak on that issue as well as other issues concerning our society when questioned by the various distinguished panel of judges.

Mrs. Shuhan's platform was "to encourage participation in extra-curricular activities for high school teenagers."

"It builds self-esteem, and with appropriate time management and parental support, the benefits gained will surface in the classroom," she said.

"Looking tall and feeling tall became half the battle of the beauty part of the contest — although the 5-inch platforms did help!" said Shuhan.

Tisha B'Av Services at Ahavath Achim

Irving Berkowitz, president of Congregation Ahavath Achim of Belleville, has announced that Tisha B'Av services will be held on Monday evening, Aug. 11.

Rabbi Philip Fleischer, Spiritual Leader of Congregation Ahavath Achim, will read the Book of Lamentations.

The Congregation is sponsoring its annual membership drive. Mr. Berkowitz at the synagogue has information.

Membership in the Congregation grants each adult member a free ticket for the High Holiday Services. An Oneg Shabbat will be hosted in September honoring all new members.

Congregation Ahavath Achim is located at 125 Academy St., behind the public library, in Belleville. The telephone number is 759-9394 for information. The building is air-conditioned for comfort.

Congregation Ahavath Achim is the only conservative synagogue in the area affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism. Sabbath services are conducted throughout the year, including the summer months, every Friday evening at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday morning at 9 a.m.

Support the library

Support the library, when you are doing your summer cleaning. Donate your new or almost new books that the library could use, or if you are moving. The library, however, cannot use old encyclopedias and old textbooks, just those copyrighted after 1994, or those that are of historical value. Torn or mildewed books should not be donated. New or almost new videos, CD's and cassettes are accepted and appreciated.

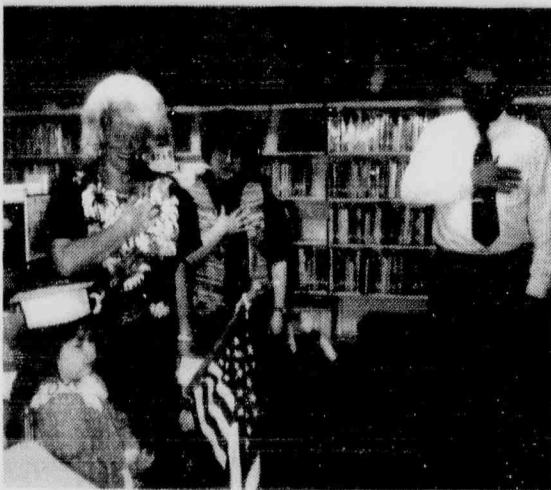

Support the library when you are considering remembering a friend or relative's birthday, a special occasion, or for a memorial by a monetary donation. The library will send a letter acknowledging your donation and a bookplate will be inserted inside the book.

Support the library if you wish to sponsor a concert or provide a large donation. Your deductions are tax-deductible.

Support the library if your organization is considering a needed community project. You might consider a donation for new books, cassettes, videos, CD's or periodicals, which are currently needed. Book plates with the name of your organization and for whom donated will be placed with the books, or the periodicals.

For further information, call Library Director Adrea Cohen or Assistant Library Director Dr. Ming Bao at 450-3434.

BOOK MARKS

Patriotism flourishes as Kiana Baker, left, holds the flag with Rebecca Girimonte, right, at the toddler storytime, as guests salute, along with Frederick Lewis, far right, Shafter Branch Librarian. A storytime is held at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesdays at the branch. Call Lewis for further information at 450-3438 Monday through Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Thanks to patrons sponsoring concerts

The Belleville Public Library and Information Center invites the community to attend the following upcoming concerts at the library, which have been funded by library supporters.

On Wednesday, Aug. 6, young classical pianist Jack Bender will perform in concert at 7 p.m., funded by artists Marcia Miele and Dina Cetrulo.

On Sunday, Oct. 5, at 3 p.m., Susan Santiglia from Belleville will perform in concert, sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Jack Grundfest, the Belleville AARP and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mastrian, titled, "An Afternoon in Italy," a concert of opera and song.

On Wednesday, Oct. 8 at 7 p.m., Bert Singleton and Gerry Weiss will perform "Music From Broadway Shows"

Other concerts will be announced in the near future.

If you or your organization are interested in sponsoring a concert, call Library Director Adrea Cohen at 450-3434.

Please call the Circulation Desk at 450-3434 to reserved tickets for each concert. The library appreciates all the individuals and the organizations that have sponsored concerts for the community.

Shafter to host adult activities

The Shafter Branch Library will host several adult activities at 30 Magnolia St. in Silver Lake.

An adult activity will feature painting Indian designs on rock, which will be held on Monday, Aug. 18, at 11 a.m.

Please register in advance for these activities by contacting the Shafter Branch Library Monday through Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the summer at 450-3438.

Library donors

The following individuals have supported the library's mission with a generous donation: Jerry McCarty, Marvin Scilkin, Celia Czernik; Pamela-Cohen Polifron, Douglas Polifron and Bonnie Cohen in honor of their parents' anniversary; Gerard Iacangelo; the Rotary Club of Belleville; Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward of Newman's Own Fund; the Friend of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center; the Yudin Family, Marie McDonough, and Adrea and Roy Cohen.

If you wish to donate to the library, make you check out to the Belleville Public Library and Information Center. Your donation is tax-deductible.

Note: All events unless otherwise noted take place at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, 221 Washington Ave.

Career counseling continues Monday nights

Since March 1997, the Belleville Public Library and Information Center has provided free career counseling for Belleville and non-Belleville residents on a one-to-one basis, as a result of a Special Populations Grant from the New Jersey State Library.

To date, over 200 people have received services.

The one-on-one counseling continues on Monday evenings through the summer and on Saturday mornings in the fall. For information, or to schedule an appointment, call the library's Circulation Desk at 450-3434.

The services have been provided by Jane Gaertner, assistant director, Office of Cooperative Education and Internships, NJIT, and Glenn Jacobs, employment services representative for the New Jersey Department of Labor.

With the counseling, as well as the resources of the library, assistance is made available for resume preparation, interview coaching, career-related literature, and use of the computer and the Internet for job searching.

Clients have included the following:

- A degreed professional, who accepted a buyout from an organization, but has been unable to find employment for four years. This client has rewritten a resume, improved interviewing skills, and was given advisement with regard to attitude. To date, this client has a job offer pending and is also seeking other options.

- A currently employed Belleville resident who met with a career counselor to focus on career direction and to refine job search skills, as this individual is in a "dead-end" job situation.

- Another Belleville resident with 40 years of service who took an early retirement option and learned how to write a resume and cover letter to begin a second career.

- A client who is pursuing a High School Equivalency Diploma (GED) and has received resume assistance and general career advice.

In addition, reference and circulation materials have been purchased that can assist the clients in the job searches. This is supplemented by the continued availability of the library's computer facilities.

Remember to schedule an appointment on Monday evenings in the summer, or in the fall on Saturdays, Sept. 6, 13 and 20 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. by calling the library at 450-3434.

Travel the U.S. and the world at the library

If you want to travel the world, consider attending the weekly summer Travel Film Class series at the library on Wednesdays at 1 p.m. On July 24, "Travel Tips: New Zealand" will be shown; July 31, "Great Castles of Europe and the British Isles;" Aug. 7, "Travel Through the Holy Land and Israel;" Aug. 14, "Travel Tips: Egypt and Morocco;" and Aug. 21, "Exotic Asia: Maylasia and Indonesia." Enjoy the world of travel and learning at the library.

Lifetime Girl Scout membership available

The Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex and Hudson Counties has announced that Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. (GSUSA) will increase dues for lifetime membership in the organization from $100 to $175, effective Wednesday, Oct. 1.

"Becoming a lifetime member of Girl Scouting is a wonderful way to show your dedication to today's girls and young women," said Jan Lilien, executive director of the council.

All lifetime membership dues will be sent to GSUSA, and will be placed in a membership endowment fund, which is used to support, develop, and extend Girl Scout membership to all girls. All lifetime members receive a membership card and certificate as well as a subscription to Girl Scout Leader magazine.

To register for a lifetime membership, contact the council at 120 Valley Road, Montclair, New Jersey 07042. Call 746-8200 or fax the council at 746-4163.
