Board bans hiring of relatives, supports student candy selling

By Howard Klausner

The Board of Education defended the right of parent-teacher associations to raise money by door-to-door candy sales, and forbade the hiring of close relatives of Trustees, even to nieces and nephews.

The ban on "nepotism", as its sponsors labeled it, put into formal action a policy that has been followed by Superintendent of Schools Michael Lally for the past four years.

The new regulation prohibits the hiring by the School District of any spouse, child, niece or nephew of a current Trustee.

It places no ban on vendors to the Board.

There was no explanation of why nieces and nephews were included in the ban.

The only vocal opposition came from Trustee Ralph Mazzuca who said, "This will only discourage good people from running for office."

He also said it would deprive the District of qualified teachers.

The plan was drawn up by the Policy Committee, headed by Chairman John Notari, and including Trustees Frank Montagna and Judy Piscatowski.

The Board did not vote on the question of permitting students to sell candy for fund raising efforts by the parent-teacher organizations.

Board President Robert Molinaro stated that it was the sense of the entire board that it will never prohibit fund raising sales by the parent-teacher organizations.

Trustee Piscatowski said that the fund raising had provided the schools with things they would never have had otherwise.

"They gave us the fans that cool the high school in summer. They have given us any number of things," Mrs. Piscatowski said.

"In every endeavor, there is an element of risk," Molinaro said, referring to the murder of an 11-year-old boy in Jackson Township, where he had been selling candy door to door for his school.

"The parents must simply make every effort to reduce that risk," Molinaro said.

Confusion exists over status of project

Frantantoni says asbestos removal was voted in 1990

By Howard Klausner

The Belleville Board of Commissioners voted on April 24, 1990, to remove asbestos from the Municipal Building, according to a resolution produced by former Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni.

Frantantoni said this proved that the Commission had responded to a State Department of Health order to remove asbestos from the building.

The work coincided with the installation of a new boiler in the building, according to Township officials.

The work, according to the resolution, was contracted to a firm, Guardian, Inc., which was experienced in asbestos removal, and was to be monitored by Testwell Craig Testing Laboratories, Inc.

According to Frantantoni, a partial removal of the asbestos was ordered, on the assumption that the rest of the job would be done later.

A change of government had been voted, and the new Council-Manager government was to take office in July, 1990.

What work on asbestos removal was done by the new government is still to be reported.

The question of what action the State Department of Health took to follow up its order of Jan. 16, 1988 is also unanswered.

The question of asbestos in the Municipal Building was raised when the Gaglioti Construction Co. suspended work on its $1.2 million interior reconstruction job when asbestos was discovered in the building.

The asbestos was reportedly uncovered when workmen removed plaster on the third floor of the structure.

Built in 1912, the building had asbestos in its plaster as a fire retardant.

The danger posed over the years by the asbestos embedded in the plaster is unknown.

Frantantoni said that it probably posed little danger.

"Unless it is friable - or flaking - the asbestos would not be a danger," Frantantoni said.

The Township Council discussed plans to remove the asbestos so that work could proceed on the reconstruction.

The Council is expected to give the job of asbestos removal to Niram Contractors of West Paterson, at an estimated cost of $285,000.

Reformed Church 300th Birthday fete

Famed New Jersey historian John C. Cunningham will be the guest speaker at the ceremony marking the 300th anniversary of the Belleville Reformed Church, 3 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 26.

Cunningham will speak on the history of the church, which was originally the Dutch Reformed Church, and the influence of the Dutch on this part of the nation.

The oldest functioning congregation in New Jersey, it inhabits the oldest structure in the Township, and it was around the original church building that the community was built.

Prominent New Jerseyans have been invited to the event. Past organists and choir members have also been invited to participate in the event.

Co-chairpersons are Betty Jane Davenport and Michael Chwal. The Rev. William Mobeit, Pastor, will be master of ceremonies.

Kimble testimonial dinner Thursday

Township Manager and Director of Public Safety Raymond Kimble will be honored for his 33 years of service to the Belleville Police Department next Thursday, Oct. 16, at the West Orange Manor.

Kimble has retired as Chief of Police.

Tickets and information may be obtained from Captain Joseph Rotonda, 450-3360; Detective Art Connolly, 450-3354, and Assessor Thomas Salzano, 450-3304.

Dino Gaglioti said that there was no mention of asbestos in the contract.

Greg Comito, Township Planner, who drew up the plans, said his contract did not require him to examine the building for asbestos.

Sources in the Township insisted that asbestos removal work had been done in 1990 by township employees. This was denied by a member of the Department of Public Works who was employed in building maintenance at the time.

Off-duty officer prevents rape of woman in park

By Howard Klausner

Police Officer James Melillo rescued a woman who was being sexually assaulted, and arrested her alleged assailant after a battle, police reported.

Melillo was off-duty when the incident occurred. He was driving on Mill Street at 4 a.m. on Sept. 28 when he heard screams from the park.

He reportedly came upon a man beating a woman while lying on top of her. The man fled, and Melillo caught and subdued him after a struggle.

Arrested was Arthur Thomas Alteri, 38, of Ewing Township.

The victim, a 24-year-old Newark resident, said she had been walking on a bridge in the park, when she was seized from behind by the man.

Alteri was charged with aggravated sexual assault, and assaulting a police officer.

Belleville High student gives speech before State officials

By Howard Klausner

Michael Cesena, a Belleville High School senior, addressed the directors of the State Department of Education in Trenton last week, offering his proposal to fight drugs in the schools.

His proposal is that the state provide drug awareness education for the parents of students.

Cesena was delegated by the New Jersey Association of Student Councils to represent it before the officials. He is secretary of the state-wide organization.

The Board of Education cited him for this honor, and he, in turn, cited his mother, Diane, as being responsible, along with the Belleville schools, for his achievements. "You produced me," he said.

Cesena said the Department was taking his proposal under advisement.

"It was a great moment," he said.

Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

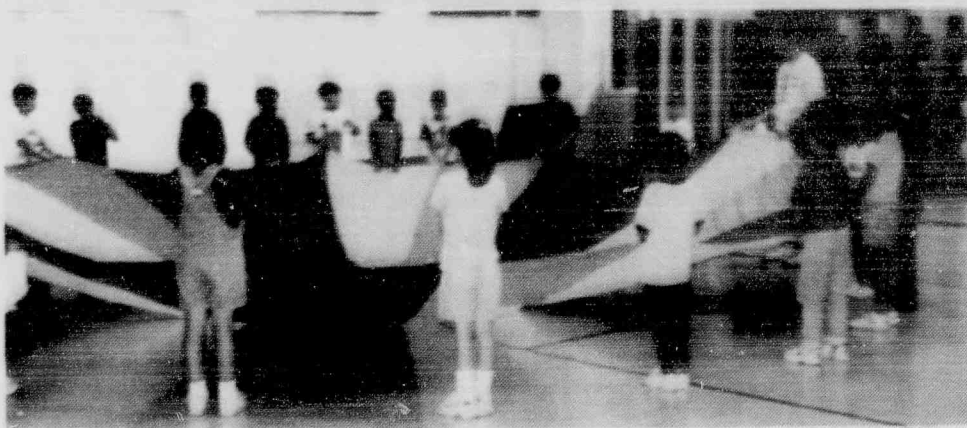

Elizabeth Hourican Corcoran has every right in the world to be designated as Irish Person of The Year, an honor bestowed on her by the Belleville Irish American Association. Born on a farm in Aughnaciffe (she is one of the few persons who can pronounce it correctly) in County Longford, she decided to better her economic situation - farming being what it was at the time - and betake herself to America - "It was the money" - doing it on her own. She landed at LaGuardia Airport in 1947 and went on to the home of her aunt, Helen Sullivan, who lived in Jersey City. She also found her way to Schrafft's, the restaurant chain in New York City, where she worked for a year, before meeting Bartley Corcoran at an Irish dance and subsequently marrying him. Mr. Corcoran was employed by a utility company and the couple first made their home in New York, and then in Jersey City, where they bought a house. The family lived 30 years in the house, raising three children, and it was upon Mr. Corcoran's death that his wife decided to move to Belleville to be with daughter Elizabeth McFadden. Son Thomas moved to California and daughter Marie Fiorentino lives elsewhere in New Jersey. There are six grandchildren, and Mrs. Corcoran is a vigorous grandmother - "I should be in a rocking chair, but I keep active". Activities include the affairs of the Irish American Association, St. Peter's Rosary Society, the Belleville Seniors, Catholic Daughters of America, Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center and the American Association of Retired Persons. She also does a bit of traveling, and two years ago she returned to County Longford. "Things have changed," Mrs. Corcoran reported. "Lots of people are working there, and there is more money around." It seemed appropriate that the spunky immigrant girl who personified so much of the Irish Experience in America should get her just recognition. "Old Timers like myself," she said, "can see the changes." . . . . The look-alike housing development that are part of the American scene gave rise to a play, "At Home", by Richard Dresser, dealing with a couple who come back to a condo which they are not sure is their own, after a night of drinking. Starring in the play, which will be performed in the Black Box Theater of William Patterson University, is Belleville resident Christopher Paseka, 23,

Christopher Paseka

who is working for a degree in Communications and a teaching certification at the school. Paseka, who has been involved in many occupations during his young life, says that acting has appeals to him as a career. "Computers," he said, "are boring." He studied computers at Don Bosco Technical High School in Paterson, where he achieved his high school diploma. He works part-time for Belleville CPA Paul Goldman, and he also does week-end jobs for Knuckleheads, a Wayne firm that organizes parties for children. "I do balloons, cartoons, face painting - things like that." He also is experienced in floral design, because his mother, Joanne Porter, was a principal in Not Just Roses which flourished on Main Street for some five years. "It just became too demanding on our lives," he said. . . . Mr. Paseka notes that he and his mother, step-father Troy Porter, step-sister Amanda Porter and a coterie of cousins that includes Belleville High School students Ryan and Shauna McGowan, and their mother, all live in the same two-family house on Hornblower Avenue. "I like it that way," he said. Much of his interest in acting is due to Professor Philip Cioffari who singlehandedly has been battling to keep drama alive at WPU. The school dropped its drama courses, altogether, but Cioffari responded with something called Performing Arts Research Management Unit which manages to stage campus productions. "You need to open as many doors as you can to find as many opportunities as you can," says the hardworking Mr. Paseka.

Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch notes that the Board of Education has voted to bar school jobs to Trustees' spouses, sons, daughters, nieces and nephews, and whatever. "It sounds like an argument for planned parenthood." . . . . Zilch's political supporters, The Kool Kukumber Boys, have come up with an answer to neighborhood crime. "Evict the neighbors!" . . . . Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro Di Vincenzo Mitten, says Belleville has a different approach to fire safety than most communities. "Every time the State Department of Personnel orders the town to name a fire chief, it sues to block the order. Maybe the lawyers should start answering fire alarms."

FIRST IT'S DOWN - Youngsters at School 8 take part in the parachute game, with Physical Education teacher Chris Catanzaro giving them instruction. The next step is to raise the parachute high overhead.

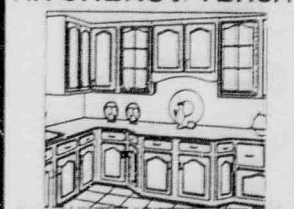

THEN YOU RUN - When the parachute is in the air, and starting to settle to the ground, the children make a dash underneath it, hoping to escape before it enfolds them. Chris did not lose a single student.

THE READING PUBLIC - Two of the many children who enjoyed the Book Fair at Arthur M. Pico School 8 browse before buying. The annual event draws hundreds of buyers for children's books.

Michael Cortellino Junior Buc Coach

The Belleville Jr. Bucs B Football team and the entire football program was grieved by the death of Head Coach Mike Cortellino, 36, of Lyndhurst.

Mr. Cortellino had been with the program for only seven weeks, but had made a lasting impression not only among the 10 and 11-year-old children he coached, but with their parents and friends as well.

Coach Mike was loved and respected by his players for the way he made practice a fun and enjoyable experience.

A product of the Lyndhurst athletic program, Mr. Cortellino played football and baseball for Lyndhurst High School and went on to play semi-pro football for the New Jersey Rams, with Jr. Buc Football Director Joe Troise.

He coached the Jr. Buc B Team with his brothers-in-law, Ralph Chimento and Scott Weaver, along with Luisi Chimento, Dominic Di Paolo and Joe Aquino.

Surviving are his daughter, Jessica, 10, his parents and three sisters Dana Climento, Janine Marton and Nicole Weaver, and his brother, Christopher.

Any memorial donations for his daughter may be sent to the Belleville Recreation Department.

Furnari endorsed by state AFL-CIO

The New Jersey State AFL-CIO voted Tuesday to endorse Nutley mayor and state Senate candidate Garry Furnari.

Furnari is the Democratic contender for the 36th Legislative District seat currently held by Sen. John Scott.

The announcement was made by state president Charles Wowkanech immediately following the voting session of the New Jersey state AFL-CIO endorsement conference.

"I am honored to receive the support of the AFL-CIO," Furnari said. "With their support and the support of all working men and women, I will win in November and go to Trenton and fight to improve the lives of all New Jersey citizens."

"Garry Furnari will be a friend to the hard-working families of the 36th District," said Phil McLewin, Bergen County Central Trades and Labor council president. "Garry has the interests of working people in his heart and will work to make a difference in Trenton."

Belleville Senior News

By Joseph Restaino

I've Missed Some Things
I've missed some things
In life, but say,
So many lovely things
Have come my way.
So much of sunlight,
Dancing through the rain
That it would be ungrateful
To complain.
I've missed some things,
Known things to die,
But there has always been
A bit of sky
Still big enough and
Clear enough and blue
To keep the love of God
Still shining through.

Alice Hansche Mortensen

Glad to hear that Elanore Bellina is out of the hospital and recuperating at home. Get well wishes to Art Pattaruso who has been out sick for quite some time.

Happy birthday to Phil Livecki.

Happy anniversary to Jim and Maria Troiano.

Last month, the Friday Seniors Club held a hot dog party at the Senior Center. After feasting on hot dogs and ice cream, the seniors played games and I can truly say that the large turnout truly enjoyed themselves.

The Belleville Old Guard also had a party on Sept. 24. They held their annual party at the Fairmont. Chairman John McGee introduced President Joseph Restaino who welcomed the large group of guests and then introduced the officers of the organization, Vice President Anthony Lordi, Secretary Hugo Antolini, Treasurer John McGee, Chaplain Anthony Amico, Sergeant at Arms John Iracane. Gerry Gerard was in charge of the raffle and Alphonse Vecchione was co-chairman of the party. Once again, Tony Donato's Trio provided the dance music and not to forget Nick Mauncelle did an excellent job as M.C. All in all, it was a terrific party and congratulations to the committee for a job well done. Needless to say, the food was excellent and with Donato's music, all had a ball.

A dog named Samantha

This true tale started around May of 1997, when my daughter, Lois Johnson of Bloomfield, had to move to a warmer climate for reasons of health and put her house up for sale. She had to move in with us because the house was sold sooner than they expected and they were forced to move out. Well, moving in with us was not that simple because this family consisted of my daughter, Lois, her husband, Allen, her son, Phillip and a Rottweiler named Samantha. Well, if you know anything about dogs, you know that they are huge, but they are very gentle and very affectionate. Sam was no exception. At this time, we were renovating the rooms upstairs for my son, Joseph, who was getting married to Lani Orbe of Nutley. So the whole crew moved in upstairs and we had to work around them. However, Sam lived with us downstairs while the Johnsons were at work. We already were pals, but now we were truly pals. She was a joy to be with and she let you know who the boss was. One problem with Sam was that she was always hungry. If you left any food around, you can be sure that Sam got ahold of it. Not only that, wherever my wife turned, Sam was sure to be there and Mary would take a fit. Well, my son got married in July and my daughter's home in Las Vegas, where they had decided to move, was not ready so the whole kit and kaboodle of them moved into my son's former room. Sometimes my grandson and Sam would sleep in the living room but lots of the time, Sam insisted on sleeping with them in the bedroom. The highlight of my story occurred on my son's wedding day. My son-in-law, who is a professional photographer, had to leave with my daughter for the church to take pictures. My wife and I were ready to leave for church when Sam decided she had to go out and do her thing. Well, there was I, dressed up in my tuxedo, so I had to take her out like that. I guess those who saw us that day must have thought I was nuts. However, I loved every minute of their stay and we miss them very much, especially Sam.

Tid bit: Peace be within thy walls and prosperity within thy palaces. Psalms 122:7

Keep Belleville Beautiful.

Michael Cortellino Junior Buc Coach

The Belleville Jr. Bucs B Football team and the entire football program was gripped by the death of Head Coach Mike Cortellino, 36, of Lyndhurst.

Mr. Cortellino had been with the program for only seven weeks, but had made a lasting impression not only among the 10 and 11-year-old children he coached, but with their parents and friends as well.

Coach Mike was loved and respected by his players for the way he made practice a fun and enjoyable experience.

A product of the Lyndhurst athletic program, Mr. Cortellino played football and baseball for Lyndhurst High School and went on to play semi-pro football for the New Jersey Rams, with Jr. Buc Football Director Joe Troise.

He coached the Jr. Buc B Team in last year's season.

Belleville Senior News

By Joseph Restaino

I've Missed Some Things
 I've missed some things
 In life, but say,
 So many lovely things
 Have come my way.
 So much of sunlight,
 Dancing through the rain
 That it would be ungrateful
 To complain.
 I've missed some things,
 Known things to die,
 But there has always been
 A bit of sky
 Still big enough and
 Clear enough and blue
 To keep the love of God
 Still shining through.

Alice Hansche Mortensen

Glad to hear that Elanore Bellina is out of the hospital and recuperating at home. Get well wishes to Art Fattarusso who has been out sick for quite some time.

Happy birthday to Phil Livecki.

Happy anniversary to Jim and Maria Troiano.

Last month, the Friday Seniors Club held a hot dog party at the Senior Center. After feasting on hot dogs and ice cream, the seniors played games and I can truly say that the large turnout truly enjoyed themselves.

The Belleville Old Guard also had a party on Sept. 24. They held their annual party at the Fairmont. Chairman John McGee introduced President Joseph Restaino who welcomed the large group of guests and then introduced the officers of the organization, Vice President Anthony Lordi, Secretary Hugo Antolini, Treasurer John McGee, Chaplain Anthony Amico, Sergeant at Arms John Iracane. Gerry Gerard was in charge of the raffle and Alphonse Vecchione was co-chairman of the party. Once again, Tony Donato's Trio provided the dance music and not to forget Nick Mauncelle did an excellent job as M.C. All in all, it was a terrific party and congratulations to the committee for a job well done. Needless to say, the food was excellent and with Donato's music, all had a ball.

A dog named Samantha

This true tale started around May of 1997, when my daughter, Lois Johnson of Bloomfield, had to move to a warmer climate for reasons of health and put her house up for sale. She had to move in with us because the house was sold sooner than they expected and they were forced to move out. Well, moving in with us was not that simple because this family consisted of my daughter, Lois, her husband, Allen, her son, Phillip and a Rottweiler named Samantha. Well, if you know anything about dogs, you know that they are huge, but they are very gentle and very affectionate. Sam was no exception. At this time, we were renovating the rooms upstairs for my son, Joseph, who was getting married to Lani Orbe of Nutley. So the whole crew moved in upstairs and we had to work around them. However, Sam lived with us downstairs while the Johnsons were at work. We already were pals, but now we were truly pals. She was a joy to be with and she let you know who the boss was. One problem with Sam was that she was always hungry. If you left any food around, you can be sure that Sam got ahold of it. Not only that, wherever my wife turned, Sam was sure to be there and Mary would take a fit. Well, my son got married in July and my daughter's home in Las Vegas, where they had decided to move, was not ready so the whole kit and kaboodle of them moved into my son's former room. Sometimes my grandson and Sam would sleep in the living room but lots of the time, Sam insisted on sleeping with them in the bedroom. The highlight of my story occurred on my son's wedding day. My son-in-law, who is a professional photographer, had to leave with my daughter for the church to take pictures. My wife and I were ready to leave for church when Sam decided she had to go out and do her thing. Well, there was I, dressed up in my tuxedo, so I had to take her out like that. I guess those who saw us that day must have thought I was nuts. However, I loved every minute of their stay and we miss them very much, especially Sam.

Tid bit: Peace be within thy walls and prosperity within thy palaces. Psalms 122:7

Keep Belleville Beautiful.

Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

Elizabeth Hourican Corcoran has every right in the world to be designated as Irish Person of The Year, an honor bestowed on her by the Belleville Irish American Association. Born on a farm in Aughnaclyffe (she is one of the few persons who can pronounce it correctly) in County Longford, she decided to better her economic situation - farming being what it was at the time - and betake herself to America - "It was the money" - doing it on her own. She landed at LaGuardia Airport in 1947 and went on to the home of her aunt, Helen Sullivan, who lived in Jersey City. She also found her way to Schrafft's, the restaurant chain in New York City, where she worked for a year, before meeting Bartley Corcoran at an Irish dance and subsequently marrying him. Mr. Corcoran was employed by a utility company and the couple first made their home in New York, and then in Jersey City, where they bought a house. The family lived 30 years in the house, raising three children, and it was upon Mr. Corcoran's death that his wife decided to move to Belleville to be with daughter Elizabeth McFadden. Son Thomas moved to California and daughter Marie Fiorentino lives elsewhere in New Jersey. There are six grandchildren, and Mrs. Corcoran is a vigorous grandmother - "I should be in a rocking chair, but I keep active". Activities include the affairs of the Irish American Association, St. Peter's Rosary Society, the Belleville Seniors, Catholic Daughters of America, Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center and the American Association of Retired Persons. She also does a bit of traveling, and two years ago she returned to County Longford. "Things have changed," Mrs. Corcoran reported. "Lots of people are working there, and there is more money around." It seemed appropriate that the spunky immigrant girl who personified so much of the Irish Experience in America should get her just recognition. "Old Timers like myself," she said, "can see the changes." * * * The look-alike housing development that are part of the American scene gave rise to a play, "At Home", by Richard Dresser, dealing with a couple who come back to a condo which they are not sure is their own, after a night of drinking. Starring in the play, which will be performed in the Black Box Theater of William Patterson University, is Belleville resident Christopher Paseka, 23,

Christopher Paseka

who is working for a degree in Communications and a teaching certification at the school. Paseka, who has been involved in many occupations during his young life, says that acting has appeals to him as a career. "Computers," he said, "are boring." He studied computers at Don Bosco Technical High School in Paterson, where he achieved his high school diploma. He works part-time for Belleville CPA Paul Goldman, and he also does week-end jobs for Knuckleheads, a Wayne firm that organizes parties for children. "I do balloons, cartoons, face painting - things like that." He also is experienced in floral design, because his mother, Joanne Porter, was a principal in Not Just Roses which flourished on Main Street for some five years. "It just became too demanding on our lives," he said. * * * Mr. Paseka notes that he and his mother, step-father Troy Porter, step-sister Amanda Porter and a coterie of cousins that includes Belleville High School students Ryan and Shauna McGowan, and their mother, all live in the same two-family house on Hornblower Avenue. "I like it that way," he said. Much of his interest in acting is due to Professor Philip Cioffari who singlehandedly has been battling to keep drama alive at WPU. The school dropped its drama courses, altogether, but Cioffari responded with something called Performing Arts Research Management Unit which manages to stage campus productions. "You need to open as many doors as you can to find as many opportunities as you can," says the hardworking Mr. Paseka.

Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch notes that the Board of Education has voted to bar school jobs to Trustees' spouses, sons, daughters, nieces and nephews, and whatever. "It sounds like an argument for planned parenthood." * * * Zilch's political supporters, The Kool Kukumber Boys, have come up with an answer to neighborhood crime. "Evict the neighbors!" * * * Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro Di Vincenzo Mitten, says Belleville has a different approach to fire safety than most communities. "Every time the State Department of Personnel orders the town to name a fire chief, it sues to block the order. Maybe the lawyers should start answering fire alarms."

FIRST IT'S DOWN - Youngsters at School 8 take part in the parachute game, with Physical Education teacher Chris Catanzaro giving them instruction. The next step is to raise the parachute high overhead.

THEN YOU RUN - When the parachute is in the air, and starting to settle to the ground, the children make a dash underneath it, hoping to escape before it enfolds them. Chris did not lose a single student.

Surviving are his daughter, Jessica, 10, his parents and three sisters Dana, Clemente, Janine Marton and Nicole Weaver, and his brother, Christopher.

Any memorial donations for his daughter may be sent to the Belleville Recreation Department.

Furnari endorsed by state AFL-CIO

The New Jersey State AFL-CIO voted Tuesday to endorse Nutley mayor and state Senate candidate Garry Furnari.

Furnari is the Democratic contender for the 36th Legislative District seat currently held by Sen. John Scott.

The announcement was made by state president Charles Wolkanech immediately following the voting session of the New Jersey state AFL-CIO endorsement conference.

"I am honored to receive the support of the AFL-CIO," Furnari said. "With their support and the support of all working men and women, I will win in November and go to Trenton and fight to improve the lives of all New Jersey citizens."

"Garry Furnari will be a friend to the hard-working families of the 36th District," said Phil McLewin, Bergen County Central Trades and Labor council president. "Garry has the interests of working people in his heart and will work to make a difference in Trenton."

October Art Exhibition features two women professional artists

The October Art Exhibition in the Trustees Gallery of the Belleville Public Library and Exhibition Center, 221 Washington Ave., features the art of Andrew Geller and Leah Raab, two professional artists.

Andrea Geller has been painting in oils for more than 25 years. Her paintings explore the interplay of light and color, using a loose, free-style brushwork. Her recent work has concentrated on the figure and portraiture. She is very interested in capturing the essence of the person. The painters who have influenced her work strongly include Alice Neel and the Bay Area painters.

Ms. Geller has had an extensive career as an illustrator and graphic designer. Her illustrations have appeared in numerous newspapers and magazines, including the New York Times, New Jersey Monthly and American Lawyer magazine.

After studying fine arts at Cornell University, she received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in illustration from the Parsons School of Design. She has continued her studies at the School of Visual Arts, and most recently at the Art Center of Northern New Jersey. She currently teaches at Bergen Community College.

Leah Raab is a professional artist who concentrates on painting and on drawing. After studying art education at the University of New Hampshire, she received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with highest honors from the Bezalel Academy of Arts in Jerusalem.

Ms. Raab has always focused on landscape painting, trying to recapture the feeling and mood of a specific time and place. Much of her work has been influenced by the time she spent as an art student in Jerusalem and many recent visits to Israel. Through her vivid use of color, line, brushstroke and texture, Ms. Raab portrays her emotional connection to the scenes depicted.

We've Come A Long Way

An update on breast cancer diagnosis and treatment

Saturday, October 18, 1997
9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The Women's Health Center at Clara Maass
One Clara Maass Drive
Belleville

Nearly one in eight women in New Jersey will be diagnosed with breast cancer at some point in her life. Advances in medical care have allowed physicians to diagnose and treat breast cancer earlier and more effectively. Emotional support and educational resources are readily available to women and their families to help better understand and cope with the effects of the disease.

This comprehensive program and panel discussion will explore the areas of:

- Medical Oncology • Surgery
- Reconstruction • Genetics
- Radiation Treatment
- Bone Marrow Transplantation
- Psycho-social Issues
- Emotional Needs of Survivors

For more information and to register for this free program, please call

Art auction at Parks and Rec will benefit St. Paul's Church

St. Paul's Congregational United Church of Christ will sponsor an art auction October 18 at Nutley Parks and Rec, 44 Park Ave.

Previewing begins at 7 p.m. with the auction starting at 8 p.m.

Art will be provided by the Heisman Fine Arts Gallery of Ardmore, Pennsylvania. Most starting bids will range from $50 to $150. Included will be oils, watercolors, lithographs, etchings, serigraphs, enamels, sculptures and prints.

Wine, cheese, cake, coffee and more will be served and door prizes will be awarded. Tickets are $7.50 and may be obtained by calling the church at 667-4812 or Helen Maguire at 667-1198.

"We are delighted to again present the Heisman Fine Arts Gallery," said Marietta Capaccio, general chairman of the auction.

"They were with us during our 100th anniversary in 1994 and everyone who purchased prints was delighted by the variety of the offerings, the quality of the work and the five-year 'exchange' policy of the gallery. We hope to see a large crowd on October 18. We guarantee you will not be disappointed."

WPU students to stage plays

Students Tina Glowacki of Bloomfield and Chris Paseka of Belleville are in the cast of "At Home," a one-act play that will be part of a double bill to be presented next week by the Performing Arts Resource Management Unit at William Paterson University in Wayne.

All performances will be presented at Hunziker Theatre on the WPU campus.

Performances of "At Home" and another one-act play, "The Whole Shebang," will be staged Wednesday, Oct. 15; Thursday, Oct. 16; Friday, Oct. 17, and Saturday, Oct. 18, at 8 p.m.

In addition, a 3:30 p.m. matinee will be presented on Thursday, Oct. 16, and a 6 p.m. performance has been scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 19.

"At Home," a satire of modern social mores by Richard Dresser, examines life in a typical condominium development.

In it, a young couple, hoping to be accepted by their new neighbors, endure an eye-opening "initiation night" with bizarre results.

In Richard Orloff's comedy, "The Whole Shebang," a married couple is teleported to a heavenly realm where they must justify the worth of the human race.

Both plays are directed by Philip Cioffari. Reservations are suggested. Tickets may be purchased in advance at the WPU box office, phone number 720-2371, or at the door.

BEST OF THE WEST — New Jersey native Larry Stevens performs with the Steel Canyon Band at the recent Bloomfield Harvest Fest. The country-and-western band, which performs such tunes as "Anything for a Southern Girl," "Room to Dance" and "Where Are You Now?" has been playing clubs in the area. For information and show dates, call the Larry Stevens hotline at 445-6565. Appearing this Monday at 8 p.m. at The Whiskey Cafe in Lyndhurst. (Photo by Jeanne M. Rocco)

HOROSCOPES

October 12-18

ARIES — March 21/April 20

To get what you want this week, Aries, you need to get straight to the point. Don't let others tell you what you need; you know yourself best. That special someone wants to cool things down for a while. Don't get upset. This is not a permanent breakup. Libra plays a key role.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21

While you'd much rather be at home, it's not an option this week. Both professional and personal matters throw you into the social arena all week long. Taurus. Try to make the best of it. You meet an intriguing individual at one of the gatherings. Be yourself to win his or her heart.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21

Patience is what you really need early in the week, Gemini. It seems as if everyone you know is turning to you for emotional and financial support. Don't let them down, but don't let yourself down either. You have to think of No. 1. Pushing yourself too hard only will make things worse.

CANCER — June 22/July 22

Although you're usually not the one to make the first move, you take the initiative early in the week. You realize that you need to be aggressive to get what you want. Don't let a jealous loved one stand in your way. A close friend sends you a little pick-me-up later in the week.

LEO — July 23/August 23

Your arrogance gets you in trouble this week, Leo. You need to remember that you're not the only one who is talented. You must control your ego. A loved one needs your help to deal with a family crisis. Remain calm, and try to be rational. Capricorn and Libra play key roles.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22

Something that you find brings back fond memories and puts you in a good mood for the entire week. Share your happiness with loved ones and friends. A close friend is going through a rough time. Try to comfort him or her. Aquarius plays an important role later in the week.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23

A prudent comment early in the week tips the scales in your favor, Libra. Friends and relatives are on your side, and things go smoothly at work. Nothing can stop you now. That special someone wants to spend more time with you. Don't get nervous; you know that this is what you really want. Sagittarius and Leo play key roles this week.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22

A loved one needs your help this week, Scorpio. Don't let him or her down; nothing is more important than this. You receive a bonus at work for all of the effort you've been putting in lately. Isn't it nice to be appreciated? You get an interesting letter from an old friend late in the week.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21

Happiness is the name of the game this week, Sagittarius. You're in a great mood, and everything is working out well for you. Enjoy it while it lasts. A close friend sets you up with someone. Try not to be nervous; you're sure to have a good time. Cancer plays a key role.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20

Set a good example for your younger relatives. They look to you for guidance; don't steer them in the wrong direction. A loved one shares a secret with you. While it shocks you, you must keep it to yourself, or else there will be a lot of tension at an upcoming family gathering.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18

You're on the go early in the week, Aquarius. Don't let your hectic schedule distract you from your responsibilities. A close friend asks for your advice about a personal relationship. Be honest with him or her. However, don't get caught in the middle of a lover's quarrel. Virgo plays a role.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20

It seems as if everyone you know is holding you back this week, Pisces. No matter how hard you try, you just can't seem to get ahead, and no one will help you. Don't get discouraged; things will change before the week is over. That special someone showers you with romance late in the week.

$25,000 Reward for The Capture of the Flower Bandit!

If anyone has any info regarding this "culprit or culprits", please dial me at 759-6849. The SLCA purchased beautiful flower pots for some of the businesses. The same day they were distributed, someone picked out the flowers from Fred & Sons and Bagels Plus of Franklin Street. Fred's were so disarrayed, we had the pot done over again. This weekend, they went too far. They damaged the pot so badly that it couldn't be salvaged. The Association has spent a great deal of money on these planters and the Beautification Committee numerous hours of time.

We are asking if anyone was in the vicinity of Franklin Street near Fred & Son, and has any clues on who is responsible, to give me a call. Your name will be kept confidential. The reward - a $25 cash fee. And to the flower bandit... don't think you can hide, 'cause... we'll find you!

Send those cards and letters to Mae Murray.

I chuckle a bit when people ask me "why don't you write about so and so and why didn't you mention that it was his birthday, and why and why any. Do you all think that I'm a mind reader and I manufacture the news. Hope Not. But there are some of you out there that know the game... All you have to do is jot down the facts, get them to me, and I'll do the rest. It's as easy as 1,2, 3. Dolores Dopart of Bellevue Avenue is "hep to the step". She keeps my computer filled with some interesting info.

Now let's think back on what she told me. Yep, first it was to thank me for writing a little note on her and her family. The best news she fed me was the Miss Mae Murray, a former teacher at School 4, will celebrate her 90th birthday on Oct. 11, 1997. Yep, you heard me right... 90 years young.

Dolores thought it would be a good idea if all her Silverlake friends, former and present teachers, students, etc. send a birthday greeting to her. You can send them to Ms. Murray at 153 Franklin St., Bloomfield, N.J. 07003.

Let's all join together and make this the best Birthday that Mae Murray ever had. And tell her you read it in the column... 'cause I understand that when we write about her... she runs to the newsstand to buy a copy. Keep it up, Mae... I love it.

Now, let's all sing together, in harmony of course... Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday, Miss Murray, Happy Birthday to you!

And remember, we love Silver Lake and Mae Murray, too.

OUR OPINION

The plot thickens, or something

In response to the inference that the Township Commissioners made no response to a 1988 State Department of Health order to remove asbestos from the Municipal Building, former Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni has produced a resolution of the board authorizing asbestos removal in April 1990.

He added that a partial removal was ordered at that time, on the assumption that further work would be done to remove asbestos - either by the Police Department itself, or by the new administration that was due to take office in July, 1990.

According to Mr. Frantantoni, the failure to remove all the known asbestos was not the responsibility of the old Board of Commissioners, but of the new Council-Manager government.

So far as is known, some parts of the Municipal Building were rid of asbestos by a contractor who presumably used safety precautions to do the job. No further work was done until this year, when the Gaglioti Construction Co. of Belleville went to work on the interior of the building and discovered more asbestos.

The January 1990 resolution would show that some effort was made to remove asbestos. One question remains is about the length of time, a full year, before this work was contracted out.

Another question is whether or not the work was done only because a new boiler was to be installed in the Municipal Building in 1990.

There is also a third question which arises.

It has nothing to do with anybody's culpability in the matter. It has to do with the necessity of virtually gutting the old building to get rid of asbestos in the plaster.

The School District faced similar problems in removing asbestos from its older buildings, but it did not demolish walls. It covered the asbestos with layers of other materials, which apparently were sufficient to meet the State safety requirements.

Is it really necessary to spend $285,000 - more or less - to get rid of the asbestos danger?

Of course, there is no price limit on safety. But there is a price for ignorance. The public needs to know more about the asbestos situation, and why it was not cleared up years ago.

The theory of relativity

Unless there was a rush of relatives of School Trustees to get on the School District payroll, it is hard to understand the necessity for a "nepotism" rule enacted by the Board of Education.

Under the administration of Superintendent of Schools Michael Lally, no close relative of a Trustee has been hired by the District in the past four years.

Under the newly enacted rule, no spouse, child or niece or nephew of a Trustee will be allowed to get near a school job.

It means that the last person ever to have been voted into a job by the school board will have been a relative of Frank Montagna, who was given a minor temporary job. But the vote brought a reprimand from the State Department of Education.

That may have galvanized Montagna into action. If his kin cannot get a job, neither can anyone else's. Fine.

The only question we have is whether accident of birth, even to a collateral relative, should bar anyone from a school job.

We can see the right of the Board to police its own members, by prohibiting them from voting on appointments. How do you go after a nephew or a niece.

This is particularly surprising when you consider that in every wave of immigration, the newcomers have always seemed to go for large families. How many of us can trace ourselves back to families of eight and nine and a dozen siblings?

In some families, right here in Belleville, the number of cousins can be in the scores, all of them denied school jobs if Uncle Fred or Aunt Hannah happen to have been elected to the Board.

Should we stop at nieces and nephews?

How about in-laws, and second cousins, and divorced brothers-in-law? If blood relationships are now a factor, what is to prevent their being extended to relatives of chronic traffic violators, or people who talked back to their teachers?

A nepotism rule is an act of grandstanding, with no more value than a rule prohibiting space aliens from voting. Of course, there is a theory that a lot of space aliens are voting in Belleville, or how would you explain some of the people we have in office?

In the past, Trustees may have stolen with both hands. Why punish their relatives now?

Save Graduation Celebration '98!

To The Editor:

On Oct. 18 and 19, Belleville High School students and their parents will be fundraising for Graduation Celebration '98.

For the past eight years, high school seniors have enjoyed a safe alcohol free and drug free graduation evening.

Immediately after the graduation ceremony, seniors boarded buses to the New York Harbor to cruise around Manhattan all night.

Due to a decrease in funding and an increase in the cost of the cruise, Graduation Celebration '98 is in jeopardy.

Please contribute at our Tag Days, Oct. 18 and 19, at the following locations:

Franklin Avenue Mall, Main Street Mall, Post Office, Taco Bell, Pathmark (both locations).

Kiwanis and the children

To The Editor:

On behalf of the Kiwanis Club of Belleville, I would like to publicly thank all of those who made the 11th Annual Child Safety Day a success, once again.

On Saturday, Sept. 20, approximately 225 children attended this event. This program could not have been a success without the interest of the parents who brought their children and the volunteers who donated their time.

I must thank all of the following:

Belleville Township Manager Raymond Kimble and Essex County Sheriff Armando Fontoura for 11 years of support in supplying the officers annually.

Sergeant Reinhardt from the Montclair Police Department who donates the use of the equipment.

Belleville Detectives Tom Agusta and Jim Giuliano, and Sheriff's Officer Dominic Palmieri, the fingerprint experts.

Belleville Battalion Chief Robert Caruso and Firefighters Pat Dunn, George Royston and Joe Lamin, who distributed fire safety literature and balloons.

Thanks to the Belleville Little League for the use of the field house.

Our Kiwanis members, Nino Bucciarelli, Dominic Tibaldo, Mike Marotti, Tom Grolimond, Al DeMeo, Grace Purdue, Anthony Drozd and four-year-old Alyssa Casella.

Our thanks to all who make this event possible every September.

Asbestos blues

To The Editor:

Whatsamatta wid dese guys anyway? Here, our esteemed municipal government knew back in 1987 - during the past commission form of government, and yes, when Vincent Frantantoni was the building commissioner - that the state ordered them to remove the asbestos from the old municipal building.

And now we learn that the same Messrs. Frantantoni, who whipped it up about his background in construction while campaigning, dithered and dawdled while in office and removed almost nothing. And now, I suppose, the same Frantantoni, will be running for Building Commissioner under his vision of a reincarnated commission form of government. Sounds odd to me.

Actually, this sounds like a scene from Washington on the Potomac rather than Belleville on the Passaic. But if such a thing happened, we could have a Seinfeld script wherein our prosecutor, a Karen Smith, as I recall, would issue enough subpoenas to paper the municipal court and order up all sorts of special counsels to investigate the exertions of the last commission and prepare for the energies of the next. And why not, Belleville loves to spend money on lawyers.

Whereas in Washington, the ongoing debate may rage as to how many bimbos are in Bill Clinton's parlor, they would be seeking here whether the failure to act on the asbestos problem was some refinement of the usual brigandage game - always suspect in Belleville - or, is this just a wink-of-the-eye form of incompetence - another very real possibility.

And hey, either way we got trouble in River City - right.

Still, you've got to love the way Frantantoni carries all this off. He gets his face right up against yours and works fingers like Danny Kaye popping violin strings while sliding stage right in a Sunday afternoon musical.

That's hilarious stuff in a move that has a happy ending. Unfortunately, the ending in Belleville will cost us some $285,000.

Alfred Cook

• THE 6-0 ruling of the New Jersey State Supreme Court dealt a knock-out blow to the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission's effort to get into the business of Privatizing. In a 6-0 vote, the New Jersey Supreme Court said it could not sanction a contract between North Jersey District Water Supply Commission and the City of Bayonne because the New Jersey Legislature never gave North Jersey the power to go from a wholesaler to a retailer of water services. The decision came as a result of a challenge by Hackensack Water Company's United Water Resources, Inc. who took the position that two public entities could not enter into such an agreement. The Supreme Court ruled that when the Legislature passed enabling legislation creating the Commission, it specifically confined its power to transmitting water to municipalities.

Columbus Hospital earns accreditation

Columbus Hospital has been Accredited with Commendation by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations. This is the highest level of accreditation awarded by the Joint Commission, the national accrediting body of health care organizations.

Formed in 1951, the Joint Commission is dedicated to improving the quality of the nation's health care through voluntary accreditation. The Joint Commission's on-site survey of Columbus Hospital occurred in September.

"Receiving Accreditation with Commendation is a significant achievement, one that recognizes exemplary performance by Columbus Hospital," said Dennis S. O'Leary, M.D., president, Joint Commission. "The organization should be commended for its commitment to providing quality care to the people in its community."

In a letter to John G. Magliaro, president and CEO of Columbus Hospital, Charles Blair, the Joint Commission's executive vice president of the Division of Accreditation Operations, says, "This outstanding level of achievement reflects the successful efforts of your organization to provide high quality care for those you serve."

"We are extremely pleased to have achieved this designation," said Magliaro. "Our staff goes an extra mile on a daily basis to provide the best possible health care to our patients. Receiving Accreditation with Commendation is just the icing on the cake for such a dedicated staff."

"But we're not going to rest on our laurels," continued Magliaro. "This is an added incentive to continue to improve our services and to continuously strive to provide our patients with the best care possible."

Columbus Hospital is a 206-bed facility, with more than 400 physicians, serving the health needs of Essex County and surrounding communities.

CAROUSEL BALL -- From left, Hana Kovic, a member of Columbus Hospital's physician liaison committee; Rebecca Vitillo of Nutley, vice president of patient services; Marie Ricciardi, president of the Women's Auxiliary, and Carol Ann Gauthier, Columbus Hospital Foundation executive director, meet to plan the annual Carousel Ball benefitting the Newark hospital. The black-tie gala will begin with a cocktail reception at 7 p.m., followed by dinner at 8 p.m., on Saturday, Nov. 15, at the Birchwood Manor in Whippany. Reservations are $225 per person. ## Rita's Italian Ices to close on Oct. 19

A sure sign of the impending winter is upon us - Rita's Italian Ices will close its doors for the season on Oct. 19.

The business, located at 34-38 Franklin St., Belleville, opened for business in 1997 and according to its owner, Ron Savare, enjoyed a great summer.

"This summer's hot temperatures brought out customers in droves," said Savare. "At the same time, our business has become an important gathering place for the community. Families and friends frequent Rita's to meet one another and enjoy a cold and tasty treat."

There are still a couple of weeks left to buy and freeze quarts to enjoy during the winter months. Mark your calendars now for Rita's first day of spring opening for the 1998 season.

"We'll be back in 1998, ready again to cool off hot summer thirsts," promised Savare.

For more information about Rita's Italian Ices, contact Ron Savare at 759-7482.

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Junior Bucs continue to dominate

This past Sunday, the Junior Buc 'C' team won on the road against a tough Wanaque squad, 21-0.

Leading the way for the Bucs was Joe Droz, who rambled 50 yards for the first score of the game. Belleville would score again in the second quarter on a spectacular 40 yard pass from David Caruso to Joe Pizzi. Belleville's final score was on a five yard run by Joe Roberts.

The Junior Buc defense was at its best, led by Roberts, who intercepted a Wanaque pass, Henri DeFrance, who led the team in tackles, Chris Hemsley, returning to the lineup after incurring a broken arm and Anthony DeVivo, who clogged the middle, stopping Wanaque's running game.

Other standouts included Mike Moresco, Robbie Redmerski and Jose Martinez, all of whom played outstanding defense.

The team will host Kearny this Sunday.

'A' team continues to roll

A strong 'A' team won its fifth game in as many attempts last Sunday, beating Wanaque 26-12 in Wanaque.

Wanaque scored first, recovering an onside kick on the opening kickoff then driving 45 yards for a score. It was just the second touchdown given up by the Bucs this season.

Belleville responded on its next series, driving the length of the field and scoring on a two yard run by Jeff Cruise.

The Bucs went ahead in the game thanks to a 26 yard end around by Roberto Piccardo which set up a two yard scoring run from Lawrence Fusco.

Leading 12-6 near the end of the first half, the Bucs were stunned when Wanaque scored a tying touchdown with just :15 left in the half.

In the third quarter, Belleville went ahead for good. Quarterback Eric Ferriol threw a 16 yard scoring pass to Roberto Carnero on a fourth down situation, giving the Bucs an 18-12 lead. Carnero then kicked the point after conversion, which is good for two points, extending the lead to 20-12.

The Buc defense then went to work. Led by Angel Valle, Mike Fortunato, Anthony Caban, George Serron and John Cappaccio, the defense dominated Wanaque, holding them to minus yards in total offense.

Belleville's final score was set up by a blocked punt from Cappaccio. Chris Hernandez picked up the loose ball and returned it to the 15. From there, Carnero accounted for the final 15 yards, with a fine run in traffic.

Carnero's score gave Belleville a 26-12 lead, and that turned out to be the final score.

The team will be home this Sunday to play Kearny. Kickoff time for the 'A' game is 3 p.m. The action starts at noon with the 'C' team, followed by the 'B' game at 1:30 then the 'A' game at 3.

Did Pizzi really score that touchdown?

Earlier in this column, I mentioned that Joe Pizzi scored a touchdown in the 'C' teams victory over Wanaque.

Joe is the son of Joe and Linda Pizzi. Joe's parents both went through the Belleville school system in the 1970's. I graduated high school with both of them. Today, they are successful people who are raising a family in our township.

Mentioning Joe Jr. reminds me of the analogy 'the apple doesn't fall far from the tree'. If you followed Belleville football in the 70's, you probably know that Joe was a star wide receiver for the-then Bellboys.

Joe started his playing career on the recreation level, much like his son is doing now. And when Joe Sr. played rec football in Belleville in 1970 and '71, he was one of the premier players in town.

I know that all too well, because I played rec football against him and remember many times him running by me on the way to a touchdown.

It's good to see families stay in our township and contribute something very positive to our community.

And finally...

The Buc soccer team is playing very well. The team won two big games last week and is in line for a shot in the state tournament. Good luck to the team this week.

County tourney starts on Sunday

Bucs stun powerful Hackensack

By Mike Lamberti

What a difference a week makes. The Buc soccer team, having gone 0-2-1 two weeks ago, came back strong last week, with shutout victories over NNJIL rivals St. Joe's and Hackensack.

Gino DePinto's team improved to 4-2-1 with those wins and will look to continue the momentum this week.

The Bucs battled Paramus earlier this week. This afternoon, they are host to Teaneck, beginning at 4 p.m. This Sunday, the team is at Montclair Kimberly Academy in a 2 p.m. game in the first round of the Essex County tournament.

Next Tuesday, it's off to Paramus Catholic for a 4 p.m. kickoff.

DePinto called his teams 2-0 victory at Hackensack last Friday night

"one of the best games I've ever seen."

In beating the league power, the Bucs used a solid defense, excellent goaltending from Mike DiPrimio and opportunistic play to prevail.

Dan Almeida and Dave Auerbach scored first half goals for the Bucs, and a solid defensive game in the second half allowed the 2-0 lead to hold.

Almeida, in addition to his goal, assisted on Auerbach's tally.

"It was a great atmosphere," DePinto said. "Playing a night game, against a good team like Hackensack, it was tremendous. Everyone on our team played well. All 18 kids helped with this win."

Versus St. Joe's, the Bucs broke a scoreless first half with three Buc defender (5) plays defense during recent game at Clearman Field. Belleville stopped Hackensack and St. Joe's last week, improving to 4-2-1 on the season.

Clarke-Cameron, Dunn, Rodriguez lead way

Lady Buc soccer team defeats Bloomfield

By Mike Lamberti

Malerie Clarke-Cameron and Katie Dunn provided the offense and Anabelle Rodriguez the defense, helping the Lady Buc soccer team to some good efforts last week.

The team will be home to Teaneck next Monday and plays at Clifton next Wednesday. Both games start at 4 p.m.

Belleville won its second game of the season last week, beating Bloomfield 2-0.

"It was a 100% team effort," head coach Carlos Folleco said. "Everyone contributed to the win. Anabelle played a great game in goal and the team defense was outstanding."

Clarke-Cameron scored both Lady Buc goals, the first assisted by Dunn and the second coming on a 35 yard direct kick.

"Her second goal was outstanding," Folleco said of Clarke-Cameron. "She really hit it well."

The team then lost a 2-1 decision to Hackensack in a game that Folleco wasn't very pleased with.

Belleville held a 1-0 halftime lead on a goal by Dunn, but gave up two second half goals.

"We weren't as intense as I'd like," Folleco said. "Our concentration level was down. I was hoping that we would carry the momentum of the Bloomfield win over to Hackensack, but we didn't. It was a little disappointing."

The loss dropped Belleville's record to 2-6, entering this weeks game against Paramus last Monday.

"I'm happy with the improvement of the team from game to game," Folleco said. "We've already scored 13 goals this year. (Last year, the team scored five for the season). It's nice to see the girls getting better."

On the other side, Folleco wants the team to be more intense for each game, something he discussed with them after the Hackensack game.

"We had a good hard practice last Saturday," the coach said. "The kids know they can compete. They want to win."

The coach also noted the fine play of Jill Ernst and Gennifer Piscatowski.

Lady Buc booter gets ready to kick during game earlier this season. Carlos Folleco's team won its second game of the season last week, downing Bloomfield 2-0.

Belleville and Glen Ridge player battle for loose ball in game at Clearman Field. Belleville takes 2-6 mark into this weeks action.

Football team loses to Teaneck 34-20

By Mike Lamberti

These are frustrating times for the Buc football team and new coach Pat Dowling.

The team has shown signs of improvement, but following last Saturday's 34-20 loss at Teaneck which dropped Belleville to 0-3 on the season, Dowling noted that his team is struggling, both mentally and physically.

The schedule gets no easier this weekend when the Bucs travel to Paramus Catholic for a 1 p.m. kickoff this Saturday. More on P.C. later in this article.

The Bucs showed signs, once again, of being a competitive football team. They played a solid first half of defense last Saturday night, holding a good Teaneck team to seven points for the first 23 minutes of the half.

However, since a half lasts 24 minutes, the effort wasn't enough to keep the Highwaymen off the board one more time.

"We held them, but mistakes gave them a chance to score," Dowling said. "Once they went up two touchdowns, our kids got down. They just felt defeated."

Teaneck held a 7-0 lead late in the first half when the Bucs stuffed a scoring drive at the Belleville 21. The Highwaymen attempted a field goal, which was short, but the Bucs were tagged for a personal foul on the play, giving Teaneck new life and a first down.

Later, an off sides penalty on Belleville further extended Teaneck's drive, which finally resulted in a T.D. with just seconds left in the half.

"Instead of it being 7-0 at the half, we're down two touchdowns, and it affected our kids," Dowling said. "We tried to tell them, 'you're only down two scores. We're right there'. But you could just see they were down at the start of the third quarter. It's something we have to get through to the kids. They can come back."

Teaneck dominated the third quarter, adding two more touchdowns which extended its lead to 27-0.

However, the Bucs did start to show some offensive spark late in the quarter, thanks to a pass from Greg Sheridan to John Farina that put the ball in Teaneck territory.

It wasn't so much the catch, but the tremendous hit afterward and the fact that Farina held on to the ball.

The play seemed to give the Bucs some momentum. Farina, fortunately, was not seriously injured on the play and would return to the game in the fourth quarter.

In the meantime, Sheridan hit Chris Michele with a pass to the

Defensive effort helps 'A' team to 4-0 start

The Belleville Junior Buc 'A' team improved its mark to 4-0 with a resounding 24-0 win over Nutley at Doc Ellis Field.

That win preceded shutout wins over Bloomfield and Nutley by scores of 12-0 and 8-0 respectively and a come-from-behind 14-6 triumph against Lodi.

Versus Bloomfield in the season opener, the Junior Bucs got off fast when Roberto Piccardo returned the opening kickoff 74 yards for a touchdown.

In the first Nutley game, Tristan Ambrosino, a speedy tailback, scored the games only touchdown on a beautiful 75 yard run. The two point conversion kick was made by John Capaccio.

Against Lodi, the Bucs were down 6-0 late in the third quarter when the offense, led by linemen Richard Palo, George Serron, Angel Valle and Al Roberts took control by opening big holes for fullback Jeff Cruise and tailbacks Michael Spiga and Ambrosino.

It was Ambrosino who scored the tying T.D. on a 45 yard run. Quarterback Eric Ferriol later won it with a seven yard score.

Roberto Carnero had two interceptions against Lodi.

In the most recent won over Nutley, Ambrosino rushed for 116 yards and scored twice.

Jeff Cruise intercepted two passes, one of which he returned 83 yards for a score.

Strong defensive efforts were turned in by Anthony Caban, Michael Spiga, Carnero, Serron and Roberts.

The story of this years team so far has been the aggressive defense, led by team captains Spiga, Serron, Mike Fortunato and John Capaccio.

Also playing key roles are Chris Hernandez, Roberts, linebackers Cruise and Laurence Fusco, end Mark Williams and cornerbacks Carlos Gonzalez and Carnero.

Entering last Sunday's game with Wanaque, they had allowed just one touchdown all season.

Almeida, Auerbach lead soccer to 2 wins

goals in the final 40 minutes.

Christian Riquetti scored once and Almeida tallied twice for the Bucs. It was a key win for Belleville, which took an impressive 4-1-1 league mark into this weeks action.

"We've played well," DePinto said. "With a little luck, we could be 5-0-2, maybe even better."

The Bucs two losses so far this year both came in the closing seconds, to Don Bosco and Emerson. The tie with Nutley was tough because Belleville held a 3-0 lead in the second half against the Raiders.

"That's the way this game goes," DePinto said. "We lost a few games the week before and then we come back and play really well against Hackensack."

"We've been struggling with injuries. Lawrence Martin has been hurt. He's been playing, but he's not 100 percent. If we can get all our injured kids back in good health, we should be okay."

NOTES: Bucs lost in E.C.T. to Montclair Kimberly Academy last year. "They've got a good team," DePinto said. "They're a small school, but there's a lot of talent there. We'll have our hands full."

The Buc soccer team has been playing well all season. Gino DePinto's club has faced some of the states best and has fared well. Team gets ready for another busy week of action this week.

Bello scores 2 T.D.'s, but Bucs fall to Teaneck

Teaneck three and two plays later, Ricci Bello ran in from the two for the first Buc score.

Nick Senatore added the point after kick and Teaneck led 27-7.

The Highwaymen put the icing on the win in the fourth quarter, adding a T.D. to extend to a 34-7 lead.

The Bucs continued to battle, with Sheridan hitting Bello on a 69 yard pass to the Teaneck 11. Two plays later, Bello went over for his second touchdown of the game, this time from four yards out.

Senatore once again added the extra point, and it was 34-14.

Late in the game, the Bucs scored their third touchdown, set up by a Sheridan to Bello pass on fourth down that produced a first and later, a T.D. strike from Sheridan to Farina.

"We're just making too many mistakes on offense," Dowling said after looking over the films of the game. "We need to establish a running game more. We're missing blocks and on some instances, we're not holding our blocks well."

"The penalties hurt, too. The off sides penalty was tough last Saturday and the personal foul in the late stages of the first half was a big one."

Dowling noted the fine play of Rich Otero, who continues to play well on defense and Lance Bowers, a sophomore who gets better with each game.

Anthony Marcantuono and Bello, both of whom missed the Paramus game, played well against Teaneck.

"Bello gave us some good runs," Dowling said. "We need his offense. Marcantuono also did a good job."

As for Paramus Catholic, the Bucs will face a team known for its pro style passing attack, but this year also a good running team.

"What you have to watch out for with Paramus Catholic is their ability to make a big play," Dowling said. "They use the double slots, trips, and one back powers. This year, they seem to use the run more which makes them even tougher because now you can't assume they'll just throw the ball."

"They had a tough game with St. Joe's last week (a 42-14 loss), so you know they'll be ready for us."

NOTES: Bucs are 3-6 against Paramus Catholic since rivalry started in 1988. Belleville's three wins came in 1989, '90 and '93. P.C. has won last three, including a 20-19 victory at Belleville in 1995 when the Paladins rallied from a 19-6 fourth quarter deficit to win.

This is the first time Bucs have played at P.C. since 1994. Belleville's last win there was in 1990, 21-6.

Paramus Catholic is 2-1 so far this year, having beaten St. Peters and Nutley before losing at St. Joe's last Friday night.

Bucs come home after P.C. game to face St. Joe's and Hackensack.

It was a total team effort for Gino DePinto's soccer team in the win over Hackensack last week. Bucs posted back-to-back shutouts over Hackensack and St. Joe's and are 4-2-1 heading into this weeks action.

Recreation Roundup in full autumn mode

Fall Programs, 1997

The Belleville Department of Recreation and Cultural Affairs has announced the start of its fall activities schedule.

Girls twirling is being held on Wednesday this year at School #7. The schedule is as follows: Grades 1-4 at 6:30 p.m. and grades 5-8 at 7:30 p.m. Girls must provide their own bats for this activity.

Adult open volleyball will start on Wednesday, October 8, from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at School #3 for men and women. Photo I.D.'s are required of all participants, who must be Belleville residents. Call the Recreation office for photo I.D. information.

For more information on upcoming programs like basketball, volleyball leagues and wrestling, please call 450-3422, between 8:30-4, Monday through Friday. All programs are tentative, with schedules subject to change.

Basketball and wrestling applications for children will be available at the Recreation Dept. office, 407 Joralemon Street, by early October.

The girls' cheerleading clinics for grades 1-8 will begin in January, 1998 at School #8 on Tuesdays and School #3 on Thursdays. These instructional clinics are designed for beginners, as well as for those girls who want to try out for the 1998 Junior Buc cheerleading squads in May. Please check the newspaper in December for details.

Registration for Rec Wrestling

Applications for Recreation Wrestling are now available at the Belleville Recreation Department at 407 Joralemon Street, between 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1:00-4:00 p.m., Monday to Friday. The Belleville Recreation Wrestling Program introduces boys, ages 6-14, to the fundamentals of the sport. Basic techniques, moves and strategy are taught to beginners as well as to the more advanced wrestlers. In competition, the boys are matched up against opponents of the same weight class.

Recreation wrestling will be conducted on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:15-8:15 p.m. in the high school cafeteria, beginning November 3, 1997. Tentatively, ages 6-9 will be given basic instructions from 6:15-7:15, while the 10-14 year olds are prepared for league competition between 6:15-8:15.

Boys can register for the activity by completing an application at the Recreation office before participating. Birth certificates are required for all first-time applicants, who must be Belleville residents and cannot be above eighth grade. For further information, call 450-3422.

Basketball leagues forming for children in grades 3-8

The Belleville Recreation Department is forming basketball leagues for children in grades 3-8 and applications are now available at the Recreation office.

In preparation for the leagues, basketball clinics will be conducted at the Middle School boys' gym. Clinics will be held Monday, November 10 and Tuesday, November 11 as follows: Grades 3-4, from 6-7 p.m.; grades 5-6, from 7-8 and grades 7-8, from 8-9 p.m. Boys and girls shall attend these clinics together. Performance Clinics for player assignment will be held November 17 (girls) and November 18 (boys).

Interested players should pick up application form at the Recreation House, 407 Joralemon Street, and return them with birth certificates before participating. The registration deadline for the basketball leagues is Friday, November 14.

The recreation office on Joralemon Street will tentatively be open for registration on Wednesday nights, 6-8 p.m., beginning October 8.

Volleyball teams needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is taking names of people who would be interested in entering teams in the women's and men's volleyball leagues. The women's league plays on Tuesday night at School #3, while the men's leagues play on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Friendly House. Teams must be composed of three-quarters Belleville residents.

If interested in applying for any of these leagues, please call the Recreation office at 450-3422.

Office open for Registration/Photo I.D.'s

The Belleville Recreation Department office on Joralemon Street will be open on Wednesday nights, 6-8 p.m. for photo I.D.'s and for Recreation Basketball/Wrestling Registration, October 8-November 19.

Photo I.D.'s are required for all adults and children participating in the Open Basketball and Open Volleyball programs in the schools and at the Friendly House, as well as for the use of outdoor recreation fields/facilities.

A $2.00 fee and proof of residency is required when applying for I.D. cards. Belleville residents only will be allowed to use the facilities with their Recreation I.D. cards.

HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

What Every Consumer Should Know About Water "Purifiers"

(NAPS)—Consumers considering the purchase of a home water "purifier" may be interested in knowing that according to the Water Quality Association (WQA), the trade association of the water quality industry, such a product does not technically exist.

WQA literature states that "pure" water exists so rarely, and then only under ideal circumstances that for all practical purposes, it does not exist at all. Reputable water experts agree that obtaining "pure" water would be like reaching infinity. Therefore, the idea of making water pure for in-home use is an impossibility. That's why WQA prohibits member companies from using any form of the word "pure," including purifier and purification, when discussing home water treatment.

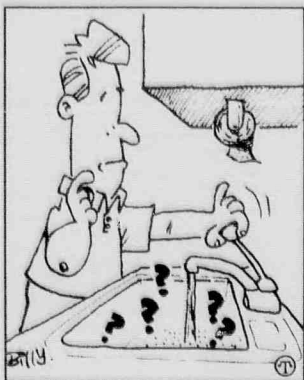

Even reverse osmosis systems, which have been recognized by the Centers for Disease Control as one of the most effective means for treating water, reduce 99+ percent of certain dissolved solids and other materials that may be in the water. But even at this high rate, water is not technically considered "pure."

Less expensive alternatives, such as pour-through or carbon filters, are even less effective because they don't reduce everything that a reverse osmosis system does. They are primarily used for aesthetic purposes to improve taste and remove certain odors; they do not, as a rule, reduce most solids.

Kinetico Incorporated, a leading manufacturer of water treatment systems and a member of WQA, has established a toll-free hotline for consumers who have concerns about their water quality and questions regarding water treatment options and realistic expectations.

"We want to make sure that consumers go into their purchasing decision with the right facts in front of them," notes Neal Sugarman, Manager of Marketing for Kinetico. "If a consumer is looking for the best quality water possible, we are going to recommend a reverse osmosis system. We are not, however, going to insinuate that the water is pure."

Certified water specialists at Kinetico further note the importance of differentiating between

If you have questions regarding the quality of your water and treatment options, call Kinetico's consumer hotline at 1-800-944-WATER.

"removal" and "reduction" claims. They point out that since 100-percent of the dissolved solids are not taken out of the water, it is false advertising to imply that any in-home water treatment system can totally remove contaminants from the water. Rather, the accepted term, according to WQA standards, is "reduce."

When comparing water treatment systems, Kinetico also recommends that consumers inquire about third-party certification. NSF, as an example, is an independent testing organization recognized internationally for its experience in testing and certifying water treatment products to ensure they perform as claimed. Since NSF also reviews all literature for the products it certifies, it restricts manufacturers from making false claims.

In addition to checking for NSF certification, Kinetico encourages consumers to read labels and literature carefully. Every water treatment product on the market today should list the specific contaminants it reduces. Just because a product is certified to reduce one contaminant does not guarantee it is effective at reducing all of them.

For more information, call Kinetico today at 1-800-944-WATER (9283) and request the free brochure Consumer's Guide to Protecting the Water Your Family Drinks.

Safety valves protect your child's delicate skin from thermal shock

Most of us know what happens if a toilet is flushed while the shower is running. A sudden rush of hot water in the shower can cause scalding, while a burst of cold water can send you running or jumping — and in a shower that could lead to a dangerous fall. Sometimes the fluctuating water temperature is merely a nuisance, but there are times when the resulting thermal shock can cause serious accidents and injuries.

Preventing thermal shock is particularly important when the physically impaired, the elderly or small children are bathing or showering. According to the National SAFE KIDS Campaign, more than 5,000 children are scalded by hot tap water in the tub each year, and more than two-thirds of those victims are under age five.

Because their skin is so delicate, children exposed to 140 degree water for only three seconds can receive third degree burns requiring hospitalization and skin grafts.

It is not surprising that design professionals and code boards have been moving toward the installation of "safety" valves as a standard precaution for combating this problem. There are two primary types of "safety" water mixing valves: pressure balance and thermostatic.

Pressure balance valves control water temperature and eliminate shocks by compensating for pressure fluctuations in the water line. They are designed to shut down if hot or cold water pressure is completely lost. Pressure balance valves work best if there are no fluctuations in the temperature of the water supply itself.

Thermostatic valves go a step further. Using a thermal element which adjusts water flow based on temperature fluctuations, a thermostatic valve will maintain water temperature regardless of whether a temperature change is caused by pressure fluctuations or by a change in the temperature of the water supply. Thermostatic valves will also shut down if there is a complete loss of either hot or cold water pressure.

A number of manufacturers offer "safety" faucets and shower valves that can control temperature shocks. One popular model is the Grohmx Thermostat Valve from Grohe America, Inc., of Wood Dale, Ill., which utilizes advanced thermostat technology for the maximum in family bathing safety.

The Grohmx valve makes it possible to pre-set bath or shower water by simply dialing the desired temperature, just as you would the air conditioning or heating in your home.

Accurate to within one degree Fahrenheit, temperature is selected by dialing the Grohmx handle within the 60 to 100 degree comfort zone. Hotter temperatures, up to 140 degrees, can be achieved only by pressing the red override button. Constant manual adjustments to correct water temperature fluctuations are completely eliminated. Grohe offers a complete line of quality, German engineered and manufactured thermostat and pressure balance mixing valves.

Safety valves and faucets offer a simple solution for preventing thermal shock. Incorporating this "ounce of prevention" is a worthwhile investment in both safety and comfort.

Monthly payments are for 30-year conventional fixed rate mortgages as detailed below.
Please ask about: Lower Downpayments-Lower Monthly Payments-Other Options
For purchase prices up to $268,275, monthly mortgage payments (principal+interest) quoted in our ads are to qualified buyers, based upon a 20% downpayment and a conventional 30-year fixed rate loan at 7.125% with 3 points. A.P.R. 7.43%. As an example, a $100,000 loan would mean 360 monthly payments of $673.72. For purchase prices above $268,275, the monthly payments are to qualified buyers based upon a 20% downpayment and calculated at 7.375% with 3 points on a "Jumbo" 30-year fixed rate mortgage with an A.P.R. of 7.69%. An example of a $500,000 loan would mean 360 monthly payments of $3,450.39. Figures herein are approximate and do not include property taxes, hazard insurance, or homeowners association dues for a condominium purchase. Interest rates quoted are as of August 6, 1997, and subject to change. Not responsible for typographical errors, while information is believed accurate, we request that the payment be validated with a mortgage provider prior to purchase.
