GRANDPA'S PUMPKINS - Robert Mozcika, 3, and David Mozcika, 1, grandsons of Michael and Gladys Mozcika of Hilton Street, are as amazed as anyone else by the 300-pound giants their grandfather produced in his own backyard. Robert is the son of Robert and Robyn Mozcika. David is the son of David and Stephanie Mozcika, and while they may not weigh as much as the pumpkins, they are more loveable.

'A vote to get rid of Ray Kimble' Escott hits government change

By Howard Klausner

Some 200 persons attending a testimonial dinner for retired Police Chief Ray Kimble heard claims that the proposed change in government is meant to retire him as Township Manager, as well.

Council Member William Escott, a retired Captain of Detectives who served many years with Vindle cooks bluntly.

Escott praised Kimble as a police officer and as a public official.

"Who knows Belleville better than he does?" Escott said.

He said that serving on the Council during Kimble's term as Manager increased his respect for Kimble.

"There are good things about the Commission form of government, but I am convinced we are better off with a Township manager like Ray Kimble," he said.

Retired Deputy Chief Michael Petrillo attacked the change of government idea as an attempt by malcontents to gain power.

"We can lose a man who could make twice as much money in private industry as he is getting paid now," Petrillo said.

Most of the evening at the Manor Restaurant in West Orange was given over to praise of Kimble as a police officer and as a family man. Plaudits were given him by Congressman William Pascrell, Essex County Sheriff Armando Fontoura, State Senator John Scott, Mayor Mario Drozdz,

Detective Mark Minichini, president of Belleville Policeman's

Benevolent Association, Local 28, and Michael J. Madonna, president of the New Jersey State P.B.A. spoke their praises.

Kimble's two sons, Raymond, Jr. and Steven Kimble, both attorneys, choked up as they spoke about their love for their father.

The applause of the audience showed its approval.

The evening was also dedicated to four police officers who died while in service, and who were friends of Kimble: Detective Harry Lanno, Detective Lieutenant Martin J. McNish, Detective Sergeant Sal LoCoco and Anthony "Big A" Pravata.

Captain Joseph P. Rotonda was chairman of the event. Detective Art Connelly was vice-chairman, assisted by Deputy Chief William Adelheim and Nanette Rotonda. On the ticket committee were John Marotti, Marion McTigue and Thomas Salzano.

Lally announces retirement; District 'disenrolls' some 100

By Howard Klausner

Superintendent of Schools Michael A. Lally will retire in July, 1998, he informed the public on Monday night.

Lally, who has won high marks for the academic achievements of Belleville students during his tenure as well as his ability to produce two zero increase budgets in a row, stated that he would leave the schools system in which he had served for 37 years in order to "explore other interests."

"Increased family time, travel, and ultimately, finding my way back into a high school English class are all part of my future plans," he stated.

Board President Robert Molinaro noted that the trustees were planning to offer Lally another three-year contract, but had been told that he was not interested in extending his time in office.

All the Board members had kind things to say to Lally.

John Notari said, "One thing I admired about you is that you stood up for what you believed in. Any other non-tenured superintendent would have given in to a board. You would not."

Lally listed the positions he had held during his time in the school district - high school English teacher, crew coach, vice principal, high school principal, assistant superintendent of schools and superintendent of schools. "I have had the distinct pleasure to be associated with first-rate instructional, administrative and support staffs. However, it is now my time to conclude this chapter and move on to explore other interests."

He added, "I would like to thank you and all of the productive and farsighted board members with whom I have served these past 14 and one-half years while in Central Office.

"I wish the Belleville School district continued success as it prepares to meet the new challenges of the 21st century."

In other business, the Board vote to disenroll - or expel - "100 plus" students from the seventh, ninth and tenth grades.

These are pupils whose parents or guardians have not responded to specific requests for proof of residence.

On Tuesday, school officials reported a "rush" of responses.

Belleville High School Principal Joseph Petrillo ridiculed the idea of 100 students being illegal residents.

"It's absurd. We have always managed in the past to remove illegal residents without all the publicity and uproar that now accompanies this process."

Petrillo said he blamed Board Member Frank Montagna for exaggerating the number of students who are enrolled illegally.

"I can think of many students from other towns who would love to attend Belleville schools because of the quality of education they would receive here. But we have never allowed it. When it happens, we find out, and we deal with it without the commotion and disruption now going on."

He pointed out that many families are foreign-born, many who are suspicious of official letters and decline to answer them. In other cases, a child may come from a dysfunctional home, where communication with authorities is difficult. Petrilio said he expected the number of "disenrolled" to drop considerably as responses came in.

Superintendent of Schools Lally said he was following the instructions of the Board of Education in sending out notices of disenrollment. "I do it with mixed emotions," he said.

Students at Belleville High School were familiar with the report of more than 100 disenrollments looming. None would say that they knew any of the students affected.

I also wanted a person who wouldn't need a road map to identify the boundaries of the communities our newspapers serve. ## Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

An automobile dealership is one of those businesses where you have to invest millions of dollars in the store and its service department before you can open the door to the first customer, and even then you are dependent on such variables as the whim of your supplier and the vagaries of the economy. Joe Pfeffer is one of those who is smitten with the car business. He bought a dealership in 1942, when there was no such thing as car production because of the war, and he finally bought a functioning dealership in 1946, a Studebaker franchise. Studebaker went to that great Garage in the Sky, and Mr. Pfeffer was able to pick up the Chrysler franchise. That was akin to buying a thrilling ride on a roller coaster, and we know how Chrysler had its ups and downs - the Grand Bailout - and the subsequent rise in its fortunes. Joe Pfeffer has lived through them all. . . . . "They made plenty of mistakes," Mr. Pfeffer said recently, in a moment of retrospection. "And if the dealers asked for some input - after all, we're the ones on the firing line - we were told 'What the hell do you know about manufacturing?" The Titanic syndrome that pervaded Detroit sank quite a few hapless dealerships, but Bigelow Motors remained afloat. "It was called Bigelow because it started on Bigelow Street in Newark," Mr. Pfeffer said. It is not one of those dealerships that goes through constant changes of ownership. How, is Mr. Pfeffer's little secret, but it is probably because he is in love with the business and with his own business in particular. Even in semiretirement, he lives in Bloomfield, only a few minutes away from the showroom. If he had his way, how would he design a car? What would his goal be? "Quality!" he said, emphatically. "People want a car that will last." Just like Joe Pfeffer. • • • • Elizabeth Kenny O'Dell is a porch person. "I could sit on my front porch on a summer evening to 10 o'clock at night." The native of Arklow, a seacoast town in County Wicklow, Ireland, believes in the verities - the Church, the Family, and the Irish Horse. She owns two horses, named appropriately Irish and Shannon, with Shannon due to drop a colt, and they are housed at Durbin Hill Farm near St. Augustine, Florida, a grand horse farm operated by her brother, Jack, who is as daft about horses as she is. The love of horses may be inherited from her Dad, Peter, who rode the steeplechase as a competitor in Ireland. "That's why my brothers and I rode. • • • The seafaring side of the family is descended from Grandfather James Allen, who was born on the island of Guernsey - there was no way to escape the island except by boat - and he was brought to Arklow by no less a personage than Thomas Stewart Parnell. When Mr. Parnell was not orating in behalf of Irish Home Rule, he manufactured cobblestones at Arklow. It was the love of a woman that brought Parnell to political ruin. It was the love of a woman that brought Mr. Allen to marriage. It was the economics of the situation that brought the whole kit and kaboodle of O'Dells, including Mother Elizabeth, Grandfather Allen and brothers Peter, James and Aloysius to Hoboken, where they stayed with an Aunt, Mary Doyle in a large apartment - "I had my own room. It was a cubbyhole, but it was all mine." Jack was born in America. "He's the Narrowback." Young Elizabeth attended St Michael's High School. "There was a stable near the school, and I talked my father into buying a horse. We both went to riding school in Closter." He paid for the horse out of his earnings from a parking lot in Weehawken that he operated with his brotherin-law, Willie Wilmott. . . . Elizabeth met Charles O'Dell at a dance in the Union Club, Hoboken. Mr. O'Dell made a respectable living as a lithographer in Jersey City and the newlyweds bought a house in Belleville 35 years ago. "He was the porch builder. We believed in having porches. I wanted to help him build, so he told me finally to build my own house. So I designed and built my own doll house."

The brothers did all right in the new country. Peter, who served in the Coast Guard, became comptroller for a major company. James left the Navy as a Lieutenant Commander and became an executive of General Electric. Al became a superintendent for Johns-Manville, after his Navy service. And Jack, of course, made enough money in business to become a horse raiser. Husband Charles lived until 10 years ago, and since then, Elizabeth has stayed on in the house he built, or rebuilt, and enjoys the porch they both wanted so much. She does a bit of travelling, including a visit or two to Arklow, which has become a seaside resort - "with a beautiful beach, a river walk, paddle boats, horseback riding, and a hotel" - and she visits her motor home at Jack's place. She occasionally tries, without any luck so far, to induce her cousins to visit America - that Sean, the postman; Eamon, the farmer, and Peter, the forester. She spent 22 years working for the Navy Department at such locations as the Brooklyn Navy Yard and the headquarters in Newark and New York. That ended with the arrival of Charles, who is now engaged to Kelly Ann Chirico of Bloomfield. She is active in the St. Peter's We Care program, St. Peter's Rosary Society, Senior Citizens, the Belleville Irish-American Society, Friends of the Belleville Library and the First Coast Hunter Jumper Association. • • • And so for these and other reasons, the Irish-American Society declared her to be Irish Person of The Year. "I wish I could be like my brothers. They all have the gift of the gab. They all kissed the Blarney Stone. What I regret is that I let the other children in school tease me out of my brogue. I had a beautiful brogue." • • • • Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says that there people of good will on both sides of the Change of Government issue, and some of less than good will. "It's not a case of the white hats versus the black hats. Its a case of the grey hats versus the grey hats." . . . Zilch's political supporters, The Kool Kukumber Boys, are suggesting a lastditch campaign slogan for the GOP - "What would an Irishman know about government?" . . . Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro Di Vincenzo Mitten, notices that the Flag still flies bravely in front of the Municipal Building. "Unfortunately, there's nothing in the building behind it."

I think "How to know when you are growing old" is worth repeating, so here I go.

"Everything hurts and what doesn't hurt, doesn't work. The gleam in your eye is from the sun hitting your bifocals.

You feel like the night before and you haven't been anywhere.

Your little black book contains only names ending in M.D.

You get winded playing cards.

You join a health club and don't go.

You know all the answers but nobody asks you the questions.

You look forward to a dull evening.

You need glasses to find your glasses.

You turn out lights for economy rather than romantic reasons.

You sit in a rocking chair and can't get it going.

Your knees buckle but your belt won't.

Your back goes out more than you do. You have too much room in the house and not enough in the medicine chest.

You sink your teeth into a steak and they stay there."

A warning on infant bathtub seats: it seems that people have been leaving infants in a bathtub seat while they answer the phone or the door bell, only to find the infant drowned on their return. Lifesaving advice on fire!

When in public buildings, always locate the exits near you. If you hear a fire alarm, don't wait to see what others do. In most cases, it is safest to leave the building. When staying in hotels, always set up an escape plan. Again, locate the exits nearest you and check the fire doors to make sure they are unlocked. If the alarm sounds, stay calm and leave quickly.

Thinking of You

This morning as I rose from bed and saw the sun above, I softly said, "Good morning, God. Bless everyone I love." And right away I thought of you and said a loving prayer That he would bless you specially and keep you free from care. I thought of all the happiness your day could hold in store, And wished it all for you, because no one deserves it more. I felt so warm and good inside, my heart was all aglow. # Silver Lake

By Marie Strumolo Burke A feature of Belleville Times

No, it's not spring. It's fall.

But we do our thing anyway here in Silver Lake. Why not take a walk down Belmont Avenue across from Pathmark; well, to be exact, look for 138 Belmont Ave., and you will get a great feeling as you pass the home of Astro Deroma. There are glorious cannon lilies greeting you.

In his driveway you find day lilies, lilliums, impatiens, and petunias to name a few. Would you believe he even has a goldfish pond in his yard and oriental jars containing shaped pine trees!

I know I sound like a horticulturist, or better defined as the art of growing plants, but I'm not. But I do have a "pal" who fetched this info for me - you know, that civicminded chap, Pete Branch of Honiss Street

One day in late summer, he passed by on Heckel Street and noticed the sunflowers that my friend planted, and we got talking about how some of our residents keep their property so beautiful. One came to mind on Belmont Avenue, and that's how this all got Pete visited Mr. Deroma and handed me a "thorough report." Officer John Martucci suggested that an award be given to a deserving resident who maintains their property to perfection. The Beautification Committee of the SLCA agrees wholeheartedly.

So, we will keep you all posted on who the lucky residents will be and when you see a red ribbon tied around their tree, you'll know. So I suggest that you all get your minds working, so that maybe you can say, "Hey, I won the beautification award from the SLCA." Hey, you never know

My phone rang on Saturday, and it was Mae Murray. She asked me to thank each and everyone who sent her a 90th birthday greeting. It seems that a lot of people do read the column 'cause she said she went to her mailbox and it was like an avalanche, with letters falling all over the floor.

Boy, was she thrilled. A former student who she taught in 1941 even sent her a greeting.

In talking with her, she said that years ago a lot of negative things were said of Silver Lake. But tears came to my eyes when she told me that, now let me quote what she said: "Marie, I wouldn't even give up a minute the time I spend in Silver Lake with the children and their parents. They were the best."

Even now, if she hears any derogatory statements, she stops them dead in their tracks. She's Breast cancer is the most frequently diagnosed cancer in women in America; however, early detection and prompt treatment can significantly reduce the suffering and deaths caused by the disease.

Mammography, an x-ray of the breast, is the single most effective method of detecting breast changes that may be cancer, long before physical symptoms can be seen or

Early detection followed by upto-date treatment, provides a woman with the best chance of long-term freedom from breast

Health cancer. Mammography screening should begin at age 40 and continue routinely thereafter.

The risk of developing breast cancer increases as a woman ages.

About 85 percent of all breast cancers occur in women 50 years of age or older. The risk of a woman getting breast cancer increases if her mother, sister or daughter has had breast cancer. Women who have had breast cancer may develop it again. Other risk factors include having a first child after age 30 or never having with Dystonia, a progressive neurological disorder, for 13 years. Every day, she attempts to overcome the pain and frustration of dealing with her debilitating handicap which has caused her to be bedridden and totally dependent upon others. Yet, she is always concerned and caring about others' hardships. She has given to others the strength, courage and inspiration to continue to deal positively with any situation which life may bring. Through her eyes, hugs and kisses, she sends out messages of love, faith and hope. In her daily prayers, she prays for others first, because she is thankful for whatever she does have in her life

National 'Make A Difference Day'

Melissa makes a difference every day, but this year, with National "Make A Difference Day" on October 25, she wanted to do something extra-special for children in need.

Claire Centrella, Ellen Wolf and Gail Beyer were inspired by Melissa to "Make A Difference" for children less fortunate.

They have decided, with Melissa's input, to help Cerebral Palsy of North Jersey/Building Blocks Early Intervention Program. Clara Maass Medical Center has joined this drive by co-sponsoring as a community partner in National "Make A Difference Day."

There are currently three centers: East Orange, run by Jane Fazio; West New York, run by Lisa Cambareri; and Lyndhurst, run by Donna Castalano. This is a non-

Melissa Centrella has suffered profit organization, in existence for over 10 years, which, free of charge, offers help to children up to 3 years old who have developmental delays, any impairments such as C.P., Downs Syndrome, speech delays, autism, etc. The government funds the program; however, there never seems to be enough.

We are asking anyone who would also like to make a difference to donate new or used (but in good condition) toys, baby items, formula, high chairs, car seats, strollers, and other baby items. Checks made out to C.P.N. N.J. are also needed to help pay for doctor visits, medicine and other needs that the families cannot afford.

Let's join together and make this day a big success for those babies in need. Remember that children are our future and we must show them someone cares. Please bring your donations to

OUR OPINION

Whitman - and Scott

Whitman promised tax cuts. She kept her review some of his accomplishments, we promise. Promises made - promises kept. In brief, Whitman's record includes lower taxes, new educational standards, economical growth, welfare changes and reduced crime. With Megan's Law, the Cop's Bill of Rights, "three strikes and you're in," we have crime · in the state income tax. at a 23-year low. Last year was the largest drop in crime in 14 years.

During her first term, Whitman established a system of welfare reform that has now become a national model resulting in a 31% decrease which equals 110,000 less people on welfare.

She didn't skimp on urban aid either. Whitman leveraged $445,000 to 11 cities which had been a goal of a new initiative.

The two issues that elude a successful conclusion are auto insurance and property taxes. If it weren't for a billion dollar increase in municipal and school aid over the last four years, property taxes would have gone through the roof - if they haven't already. Whitman has reduced the size of government which involved the layoff of State House employees in Mercer County, and now she finds those employees organized against her.

Whitman has done her job - not perfect, but better than expected. She has earned the right to a second term, and on November 1st, we intend to vote for Whitman - and we hope you do, too.

But electing Whitman without her Senate majority would be a disaster. For the Nutley-Belleville area, which is part of the 36th legislative district, Senator John Scott has been Scott, too. - FAO.

Four years ago, Governor Christine re-elected twice and has served us well. To recount the more significant ones:

Thursday, October 23, 1997

- · Obtained a $300,000 grant for the Nutley Public Safety Department.
  - Voted to roll back the sales tax in 1992.
- Restoration of the property tax deduction
- · 30 percent decrease in income taxes.
- · Revamped state utilities taxes that resulted in $755 Million municipal aid.
- · Sponsored legislation that would increase income limits for senior citizen income tax deduction and increase veterans deduction from $50 to $100.
- · Scott was credited with bringing almost $2 Million state aid back into our legislative district in just two years.
- · Joint sponsor of Megan's Law, parole Reform, the No-early release bill and legislation that clamped down on drug kingpins.
- Scott is a dedicated opponent of the proposed huge Clifton Commons development.

As a Republican, Scott could do more for us with a Republican Governor than a Democrat with no seniority. Moreover, with Scott, there is a probability that for the first time in memory, a Republican Senator may be singularly influential if he received from the Senate President a designation which would include Nutley and Belleville for his obligatory vote to confirm gubernatorial nominees from Essex. That, indeed, would be a welcomed gift to Nutley-Belleville resi-

If you vote for Whitman, based upon Scott's record, a voter would want to re-elect

will have the opportunity to re-elect a law enforcement official who has devoted more than 30 years of his life protecting people and property from others who try illegally to steal the fruits of hard-won labor.

There is one man among us who on a daily basis quietly and unassumingly, heads one of the greatest and most efficient law enforcement agencies in the state – and that man is Sheriff Armando Fontoura.

His office has been responsible for more arrests of drug dealers than the office of any sheriff preceding him. His anti-drug squad is considered by his peers to be among the most efficient in the state. Under Armando Fontoura, the Bureau of Narcotics was merged with the Prosecutor's Office, resulting in better coordination of local anti-drug efforts. More recently, the Essex County Park Police have been merged with the Office of the Essex County Sheriff, thus reducing the cost of that unit to Essex County taxpayers; and with the help of Essex County able to save tax dollars for the hard-pressed taxpayer.

The Sheriff also oversaw the implementa- of the Year" from Unico. tion for a state-of-the-art courthouse security system, instituted a more efficient record- er term and our vote. - FAO.

keeping system, began full-service bomb detection and K-9 units, expanded the public education unit, and formed task forces to work in cooperation with federal and state law agencies in the areas of fugitive apprehension and car theft.

Fontoura also changed transportation procedures in the department's extradition program - officers now rent cars to pick up and deliver suspects, where they previously flew in commercial airlines - which reportedly saved the taxpayer $100,000 a year. And all this has been taking place while the work load of the Sheriff's office was increased - in effect, the department is now doing more

A graduate of the FBI's prestigious National Academy, Fontoura enjoys close ties with and the confidence of the FBI.

Active for years in the leadership of many charitable and civic endeavors such as the Greater Newark Fresh Air Fund, the Newark Human Rights Commission and the United Way of Essex and West Hudson. Fontoura Executive Jim Treffinger, the Sheriff has been has earned a long list of accolades including "Jerseyan of the Year" from the Star Ledger, WNBC-TV's "Good Cop" award and "Man

YOUR OPINION

Bring in SCI

If you were wondering why your taxes are so high, and where all the money goes, you should have attended the Belleville Council meeting on Oct. 14.

Our Township Council demonstrated how incompetence and political shenanigans are destroying our once-beautiful town.

The alleged asbestos issue has been front page news for the past several weeks and has been discussed at regular town meetings, special meetings, and workshops. It was extremely surprising to attend the Oct. 14 meeting and note the agenda consisted of six items of communications, several ordinances, and 24 resolutions

Not one of these items referred to the asbestos issue. No reference until the published agenda items were all completed and citizens started to leave the meeting room.

Oh, yes, said one official, there just happens to be a little matter of a change order for asbestos removal for a mere $274,000. After a short discussion, the change order was approved by a 5-2 vote. And now the hard questions.

Why was one council member's suggestion to advertise for bids on is expensive issue ignored?

Why were all the discussions on this very public issue held in private session?

Why was this important matter not included in the printed agenda? Why didn't the architect address the asbestos removal in his interior renovation plans?

Why didn't one council member who received a large campaign contribution from the asbestos workers union, abstain from voting on this matter?

Why did the council bond $2.3 million for a project that came in at $1.2 million?

Is it time for the State Commission of Investigation to visit Belleville once again?

Music parents' thanks

I am writing to publicly thank the hundreds of Belleville citizens and those of neighboring communities who helped make our coin toss on Oct. 18 a smashing success.

The Belleville Music Parents Association has sponsored this event for the last 11 years collecting donations to supplement the music programs in our school district, grades K-12.

While our Board of Education provides a quality staff of instructors and instruments to our children, our organizations of volunteers run several fundraising events during each year to supplement equipment repair, purchase new equipment, uniforms, provide financial assistance for students to attend seminars, clinics, Belleville's wonderful Summer Music Program, and give two college scholarships yearly to students graduating from our terrific music program.

It's reassuring to see that Belleville's citizens can help our youth "stay on the right track" by keeping programs like these alive.

I wish to personally thank Town Manager Ray Kimble, Mayor Mario Drozdz, the entire Township Council and the many volunteers from the BMPA who have their time and effort to make this day a

Kennedy for change

A few months ago I wrote a letter about how the private secretary to the manager was not needed.

By, was I wrong about that. He must be really

In 1996, he was making $29,000. As of September, he is making $43,000.

This council form of government is good for some people. I ask the average taxpayer and senior citizen: did you get a $14,000 raise? I guess not. I urge all citizens to go ask the town treasurer which employees have been hired by the township between 1990 and 1997 and ask what salaries are these new employees earning!

I urge all my friends in Belleville to vote "yes" on

In 1989, I was a big supporter of the council-manager form of government. I admit it was a big mis-

The change started off good but ended up to be a cash cow for some people. Vote "yes" and bring back the government that works best for Belleville. It worked from 1914-1959, and then from 1967-1990. It will work again in 1998.

 ESSEX County Prosecutor Clifford Minor is leaving office November 1st – giving himself a birthday gift at age 55. Minor has been in the office for five years and has gained the respect of fellow law enforcement agents throughout the state.

LAST week, the Bloomfield College President's Medal was awarded to the internationally acclaimed photographer, author, film director and composer, Gordon Parks. Mr. Parks is an outstanding Afro-American personality who collected a file of photographs that graphically depict life in rural and urban America which address the social implications of the underprivileged and disenfranchised. Mr.

Parks is a worthy recipient of a coveted prize. It is the facial expressions in Parks' photographs that tell the story of hard work and hardship, of the drudgery and struggle of people's daily lives whether the subject is an old peanut vendor or construction worker.

Deborah Lynch wrote to the Governor, "My husband and I worked out our problem in the privacy of our love for each other and with the help of counseling. #### Visibility is the key to a safe Halloween

Halloween can be a fun, enjoyable time for children and adults, especially when trick-or-treating is practiced safely.

Visibility is the key to a safe Halloween, according to a spokesperson for the New Jersey Automobile Club Foundation for Safety and Education.

Visibility is more than just having children wear costumes bright enough to be seen by drivers. It also means parents should encourage their children to wear makeup instead of a mask, which can hinder a child's vision. And motorists need to do their part as well by being extra cautious if they're driving during the hours children are trick-or-treating

The costume is the most important aspect of visibility. Children should wear simple costumes that are easy to walk in and are made of white or light-colored material. Costumes should be decorated with retroreflective material, which makes children much more visible to drivers after dark. The material reflects the light from an oncoming car back to the driver, catching his or her attention.

When it comes to the trick-ortreat route, parents should advise children only to visit homes in a safe, well-lit neighborhood.

flashlight, making them more visible to traffic. A responsible adult or older teen should accompany the trick-or-treaters and, if traveling in a group, try to limit the group size to four or five children so that the adult can keep track of everyone.

Prior to Halloween night, AAA suggests parents review the following safety precautions with their children:

· Never enter a stranger's house, even if you're invited.

· Always walk, don't run, to avoid falling.

· Cross only at corners, never between parked cars or at the middle of the block, because cars might not see you

· If there is no sidewalk, always walk facing traffic, as far off the roadway as possible.

· Never eat any treats until you get home so they can be sorted and checked for any dangerous materi-

Parents should check the contents of their children's treat bags as soon as they return home. Always wash and cut fruit into small pieces before eating to make sure no foreign objects have been inserted. Anything unwrapped should be discarded. If you do find something dangerous, notify your Children should always carry a local police immediately.

History could be a good lesson here

A note to those players on the Buccaneer football team, especially those who will be back on the team in 1998 and beyond. Remember 1977!

Last Friday, the Bucs lost a 63-0 decision at home to the number one ranked team in the state, St. Joseph's of Montvale,

If you're a fan of Belleville football, then that score probably has some meaning to it. 20 years ago, the Belleville Bellboys (the Buccaneers logo didn't come into effect until 1978) were beaten, at home, by Seton Hall Prep. 63-0.

Losing to Selon Hall Prep back then was not a crime. No team in 1977 beat them. The Pony Pirates were 10-0-1 that year, the only tie coming a week before they played Belleville. The tie was a scoreless one against a not-so-good Paterson Kennedy team.

Seton Hall was primed for a big effort after that tie put a minor blemish on its slate

A light side, if you will, to that game. In 1977, John Senesky was in his first year as head coach. His team had lost its first four games of the season, then won back-to-back games at Irvington and home to Essex Catholic

Prior to the kickoff against Seton Hall Prep, assistant coach Joe D'Ambola noted that Joe Aulist of the Pony Pirates was not wearing the mandatory hip pad. D'Ambola, a fiery guy in his own right, brought out the indiscretion to the official, who promptly flagged Seton Hall 13 yards before the opening kickoff even occurred.

When the Pony Pirate sideline found out why they were penalized, they were annoyed, to say the least.

The rest, as they say, is history. Seron Hall scored 42 points in the first half and poured it on in the second, en route to the 63-0 win.

A key player on that Seton Hall Prep team was Chet Parlavecchio. In 1977, Parlavecchio was a senior. He would go on to a standout career at Penn State, playing linebacker. Following that, he played three years in the N.F.I.

Today, he's the successful head football coach at Passaic Valley High School. I've gotten to know Chet since his coaching days at Bloomfield and have become friends with him. We often kid about D'Ambola and the hip pid.

"We really wanted to beat them after that," Parlavecchio said with a laugh recently. "You know Joe, he's always looking to stir something up.

More importantly, the younger players on that Belleville team remembered very well the beating they took that day. They used it as a motivational tool and wanted a chance to play those guys in the

Two years later, Selon Hall Prep returned to Belleville and the Bues won a thrifter, 14-13. A year after that, Belleville dominated Selon Hall Prep, in South Orange, 34-8.

The point is that the younger players on this years team should use this game as a morrvation for the future. Not something to be for

There is no shame in losing, especially if you've played your best. No one will doubt that St. live'x is a very good fixiball ream.

They're not ranked number one in the state for nothing As was the case 20 years ago, Belleville is coached by a first year head coach, this time Par Dowling. It's safe to say that Dowling and his players have a for oir work to do.

The 1997 season will be one of learning for this learn. The real key will be what the returning players decide to do after the season ends. That's when the 1998 campaign begins, It doesn't start next summer. It starts in December of this year, when the players begin the commitment to the weight room.

Maybe two years from now, the sophomores who played in this game can say, "remember that 63-0 game against St. live's two years ago? Sure seems like a long time ago, diseast it?"

Running it up?

There were a few comments from the crowd last Priday, one from the P.A. system, basically saying that St. The's was 'running up the SCHE, Understand something, please. If you follow foolball, then you know when a team is running up the score. It a team is throwing a EXHIB III I'VE FOURTH quarter Of a fun away game, okay. If a team is tryting an conside kick with a 35 point lead, okav.

But St. Foe's, conclued by one of the class guys in the NNIIIL. Greg Karcich, and everything it could to keep the score down. They pulled their starters early in the third quarter. They were playing scanding the frames and the scanding and

They run straight drive plays over the last two quarters. You can't ask players on a learn not to run hard. It's the other learns responsibillion to make the tackle.

As for the two point conversion, it occurred because of a high shab, this lend tells a phayer to run for the end done if the kick can't be converted. Karcion even apologized to Dowling after the game 彩光 物伦 PARK.

Dowling wild me "the distin't have to apologize for anything, the conclude a good game. His startes were our early in the third quarter. That's a great learn over there. Give them credit."

If we lose to a treach better team, then more accord it and move our Don't feel that, because a ream scores 60 plus points, that it's an attention of zeroschies or appearant.

In Imagnetius. Now, let's see how the players respond to it, that just was your, but in the next few yours.

Long night for Buc football team versus #1 St. Joe's

By Mike Lamberti

So, where do they go from here?

The Belleville Buc football team took it on the chin last Friday night, losing to the number one ranked team in the state, St. Joe's, 63-0 at Doc Ellis Field.

The loss dropped the Bucs season record to 0-5. Pat Dowling's team will try and regroup tomorrow night when Hackensack comes to town for a

There wasn't much Dowling could say or do when the final tally had been registered last Friday night.

"They're a great football team," Dowling said of St. Joe's, who improved to 4-0 on the season with the victory.

"Not much more you can say other than that.'

The Bucs came out fired up and played a few good series in the first quarter. They forced a fumble deep in St. Joe's territory which the Bucs recovered.

However, they were not able to move the ball against a much bigger St. Joe's team and turned it over on downs.

St. Joe's, momentarily stunned by the early turn of events, got back on track later in the quarter, and took a 7-0 lead. Before the quarter ended, it was

The second quarter was a wipe out, with the Bucs being outscored 21-0. It was 35-0 at the half and not even the Homecoming ceremonies could take the sting out of what was

St. Joe's coach Greg Karcich, seeing the outcome of the game was no longer an issue, started playing his younger kids early in the third quarter.

"Coach Karcich handled things with class," Dowling said. "There was no attempt on his part, or his kids, to run up the score. We still have to tackle, we have to make plays.

"Most of their plays in the second half were straight dive plays. There wasn't much mystery to it."

While the Bucs tried to work out a score, St. Joe's tallied 14 more in the third quarter, then finished the game with two more rushing touchdowns. The only mystery at that point was whether this game would match what happened 20 years ago at Municipal Stadium.

In November of 1977, Seton Hall Prep came to Belleville and beat the Bellboys 63-0. When St. Joe's tallied its last score, it made the count 61-0.

However, on the point after conversion, the snap was high and the holder was forced to run for the end zone.

The holder scored on the bad snap, giving St. Joe's two points and a 63-0 lead.

There was a smattering of boos on the play, with the feeling that St. Joe's was trying to rub it in.

"No way," Dowling said, "He (Karcich) even apologized about that play after the game, but it wasn't necessary. It was a bad snap and the kid took off with the ball."

It was just one of those nights for the Bucs, a night in which nothing went right.

NOTES: Bucs fell to 1-8 in the series with St. Joe's. This weeks game with Hackensack will also be a tough test.

While Hackensack is somewhat off their normal high standard this year, they're still a formidable team. The Comets won five straight Group IV, Section I titles under coach Greg Toal from 1992-96. Toal left Hackensack following last sea-

Bucs are 1-9 against Hackensack since series started in 1983. Belleville's only win came in '83. Teams did not meet from 1984-87. Series has been ongoing since 1988.

'B' team stuns Bloomfield, 12-6

The Belleville Junior Buc 'B' squad avenged an earlier loss to Bloomfield, winning 12-6 in Belleville.

The victory kept the Bucs playoff hopes alive and sets up a big game at Livingston this weekend.

Belleville scored first, on a pass from Jose Hernandez to Tommy Rafferty from ten yards out. This score was set up on fine runs from Hernandez, Michael Barnes and Angelo Silletti, runs which accounted for 60 yards.

Bloomfield came back with a score of their own on a 65 yard run, tying the game at six. It remained tied until late in the fourth quarter, when Belleville drove to the Bengal five. There, Barnes ran in the goahead score.

This win vaulted the 'B' team back into the playoff hunt and sets up the critical matchup at Livingston this weekend.

Outstanding efforts on defense were turned in by Joey Banda, who had a key interception late in the game, Anthony Capaccio, who recorded a team leading ten tackles, Frank Cerza and Joe

Pirates remain undefeated

The Junior Buc Pirate 'C' team defeated a tough Caldwell squad 18-7 on the road last Saturday night.

The Bucs scored first on a 65 yard run by Anthony Rivera. In the second quarter, Belleville extended its lead to 12-8 on a 70 yard touchdown pass from Lou Ritacco to Myles Machado.

With: 10 left in the half. Caldwell scored to cut the lead to 12-7.

The final Belleville score came at the outset of the third quarter, a 60 yard time consuming drive that sealed the 18-7 victory. Outstanding efforts for Belleville on offense included Ritacco, who got his first start at quarterback and threw for over 100 yards.

The passing yards were distributed to receivers Machado, Anthony Yasneski and Michael Muresco. Other standouts included Nick Riggi, playing center for the first time, Lance Gomes, John Serron and Chris Hemsley, all of whom did a good job blocking. Defensively, Belleville held Caldwell to 80 total yards. The Buc defense was led by Dom Malanga, Kevin Bridges, Jose Martinez, Ryan Polukord and Robbie Redmerski.

The win improved Belleville's season mark to 3-0 and puts them in first place in the Tri County League.

TIMING MAY BE EVERYTHING

Health experts are becoming increasingly taken with the notion that the time a medicine is taken can make a difference in how effective it is. This new area of research, chronotherapy, is an approach to medicine that takes into account the body's internal rhythms. The fact that hiochemistry guides these internal rhythms is reflected in that, each morning, our heart rate increases, blood pressure rises, blood vessels constrict, and levels of distress hormone cortisol steadily rise. At night, blood vessels relax and dilate, cortisol levels drop, and histamine rises. These are good reasons why the risk of heart attack is 40% higher before moon and asthma attacks occur 100 times more often by night than during the day. Part of the complete service of a pharmacist is providing information on how many times and when to take medications. For all your prescription needs you can depend on us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1956, 759-1968). We are Medicare and Blue Cross approved and carry a large selection of convalescent aids for sale or rental. hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

Treffinger.

"We are gearing all our efforts to helping the 27,000 welfare clients in Essex County make a successful transition into the workforce," said Treffinger. "The idea of the clothing bank entering workforce to be started is a practical solution to a very real need," he said.

"Many of the women we serve through our Division of Welfare do not have the types of clothing appropriate for job interviews or workplace situations. We are asking the citizens of Essex County to help out by donating workplaceappropriate clothing that can be used by clients when they are ready to enter the workforce," Treffinger added. The state's new "Work First New Jersey" law sets timelines for welfare recipients to either enter the workforce or become involved in a work-related activity. Among the clothing items sought are suits, skirts, blouses and jackets that would be suitable for an office setting. Clients who are deemed job-ready by their welfare caseworkers will be referred to the clothing bank to make suitable selections.
