Robert Cozzarelli designs new sign for school

School Three marks its one hundred years

OFFICIALS IN ATTENDANCE - At historic celebration of School Three centennial are, from left, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Dr. Joseph Ciccone; Detective James Giuliano, D.A.R.E. officer; Deputy Police Chief William Adelheim; Township Manager Raymond Kimble and Board of Education Member Ralph Mazzuca, sitting among the children and parents who participated in the event.

THIRD GENERATION - Architect Robert Cozzarelli, whose grandmother attended School Three, was honored speaker. He donated the design of the new sign in front of school.

By Howard Klausner
Principal Raffaella Saulino told an audience of more than 300 of the history of School Three, which celebrated its centennial with the dedication of a new brick school sign.

The school, which is the newest in construction after a fire destroyed the original school in 1973, is an airy, brick structure housing 400 grade school pupils.

Symbolic of the centennial was the dedication of a new sign, designed by architect Robert Cozzarelli, who attended School Three.

Cozzarelli, who gave the design at no charge, was featured speaker. He told the audience that three generations of his family had attended the school, and he recalled the original building, which had imposing archways.

His design of the sign included those archways as a reminder of the original school building, he said.

Among those in attendance were Township Manager Raymond Kimble, Board of Education Member Ralph Mazzuca, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Dr. Joseph Ciccone, Deputy Chief William Adelheim and D.A.R.E. Officer Detective James Giuliano.

Principal Saulino welcome the audience to the next century of School Three's history.

SCHOOL THREE GREET'S WORLD - The new signboard before School Three includes a replica of the arches that graced old school.

Hadassah to honor 'Woman of the Year'

The Belleville-Nutley Chapter of Hadassah will honor Ruth Linz, its Woman of the Year, on Sunday, Nov. 23 at the Myrtle Wreath Award Day brunch to be held at the Marriott Glenpointe Hotel, Teaneck.

The Woman of the Year award is given annually to the chapter member who best exemplifies the goals and ideals of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America.

Linz has been a member of the Belleville-Nutley chapter since 1977 and has held the office of president and education vice president.

Born in Danzig, Germany, she left for England as a teenager in May 1939, then moved to Toronto, Canada, before coming to Nutley in 1958.

Linz earned a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from Rutgers University and a master of arts degree in English and German from Columbia Teachers College. She graduated with a teachers certificate from Hebrew Union College and taught Jewish history for 20 years in New Jersey.

Linz was president of the Nutley Branch of American Association of University Women for three years and is an active member of the community. She has been married to Dr. Curt Linz for 39 years.

In addition to honoring each chapter's Woman of the Year, Myrtle Wreath Award Day, sponsored by the Northern New Jersey Region of Hadassah, recognizes distinguished leaders who have made an outstanding contribution to the community at large.

Hadassah, the largest volunteer organization in the U.S., has more than 300,000 members in 1,500 chapter in all 50 states and Puerto Rico. Each year, Hadassah raises funds for its health, education and youth programs in Israel and in the United States.

For further information, contact the region at 472-1401.

DiVincenzo in bid for Essex Exec post

By James Zoccoli

Hundreds of enthusiastic supporters of Frecholder President Joe DiVincenzo cheered last week as the Nutley resident announced his candidacy for Essex County Executive.

DiVincenzo, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for the post, made the announcement during a banquet held at the Gondola Restaurant, Franklin Avenue, Nutley.

"It's time for the Democratic Party to reclaim the executive's office," DiVincenzo said.

The candidate was praised by numerous speakers, among them,

Barbara Bell-Coleman, formerly of the Amelior Foundation.

Coleman said that DiVincenzo has a proven track record.

"Joe is a natural leader," DiVincenzo said. "He leads by example."

Nutley Mayor Garry Furnari introduced DiVincenzo as a "fiscal conservative" with real heart and compassion.

"Joe and his family have made the town of Nutley very proud," Furnari said.

DiVincenzo thanked the Nutley mayor - who was elected Nov. 4 as state senator - for organizing the

Belleville man held in shooting incident

By Steve Galvacky

A Belleville resident has been charged with attempted murder and weapons violations in connection with a shooting in Bloomfield last week.

John Dean, 53, of Belmont Avenue was apprehended near the scene following the shooting of Kyndra Evans, 19, of Bloomfield on the afternoon of Nov. 13, Bloomfield police said.

Evans, who suffered two gunshot wounds to the arm, was later treated and released at University Hospital, Newark, Bloomfield Police Chief Jack McNiff said.

Bloomfield police said a patrol unit responded to a report of a man pointing a gun at someone at Broughton Avenue and Dewey Street at about 4:25 p.m.

There, police reports said, officers observed a woman later identified as Evans suffering from apparent gunshot wounds.

One of two residents of the area, ages 15 and 17, who said they had witnessed the shooting told the officers that the gunman, along with another man who had accompanied him, had escaped on foot west on Dewey Street, the reports said.

Sgt. Michael Frazzano and Patrolman Michael Falco ran down that street and observed both men, with one of the suspects banging on the door on nearby Hobson Street, making an apparent attempt to enter the house, police said.

The witnesses identified the two as the gunman and his associate, according to police.

The two officers and Patrolman Michael Micelli, who joined them at the scene, ordered the suspects to the ground and patted them down for weapons, but none were found, according to the reports.

Dean's associate, also a Belleville resident, was later released and faces no charges in connection with the incident, McNiff said.

Dean was freed after posting 10 percent of $50,000 bond, and the case will be referred to an Essex County grand jury, McNiff said.

Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

The ability of some, but not all, dogs to sniff out suspicious substances was brought home recently when Chips, a Springer Spaniel, was brought to School Nine by agents of the United States Customs Service to show how effective Man's Best Friend can be. "This is the Million Dollar Dog," K-9 Enforcement Officer Rick Panetta said. "He has found more than a million dollars worth of drugs. Millions, in fact." The children were delighted to see Chips dash from one end of the auditorium to the other, hunting for planted substances. Then he was taken out of the auditorium, and we asked how he could differentiate between one kind of drug and another. "He reads up on it," another agent said. . . . The life of a musician is all Sam LaMonica ever really wanted, and he is enjoying it to the full. The native of Belleville is a graduate of Belleville High School, Class of '73, and he holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in music from Jersey City State College, Class of '83. His interest in music began when he was in grade school, and whereas most youngsters of today are drawn to the guitar - or at least the violin or piano, he went for percussion. At 12, he attended a summer music school at School Seven, and there he met then Band Director Robert Wing and music teacher Archie Freeman, who had been a big band drummer with Ray Anthony and Skitch Henderson. "That's when I began learning everything about music." . . . The music teaching in the Belleville schools was good, he reports. So good, that it confirmed him in his career plans. "It was all I was ever interested in, and I had a lot of good teachers, Tom Finetti, Lou Kosma and John Pepe." There was band, orchestra and chorus, and a lot of opportunity to go beyond drums. "I picked up the mallets - marimba, vibes, xylophone. I studied the classics. I was always interested in rock. That captured my mind. I loved the Beatles, the bands of the '70s. Today, everything in radio is compartmentalized. I'm interested in capturing different emotions, moods. I like non-commercial radio. So please send them contributions to keep them alive." . . . Even while in school, Sam LaMonica was playing in local bands. They made up most of the local music culture in the '80s, playing local clubs and making appearances at the old Dirt Club in Bloomfield. "Mostly, I was with the Blacksmiths and the Smith Boys, me and two other guys, best friends. Dennis Smith was on guitar, Steven Reigns was vocalist. For the past three years, I've been with Stone Caravan." Officially known as Joe D'Urso and the Stone Caravan, the group has played through most of the Northeast and Midwest, ranging as far Arizona, and it has been booked in Great Britain, France and Scandinavia. The band is not famous - it has never been carried by a major label recording company - but it is getting there. Sam has also played with a long time hero of his, Joe Grushecky, who is so highly regarded that Bruce Springsteen has toured anonymously with him. "He kept it low key, because he didn't want to take anything away from Joe. We got so popular that Joe was able to quit his teaching job." While Springsteen appreciated the pure rock played by Grushecky and the Stone Caravan, the number of their devotees is not yet on the level of, say, the Grateful Dead following. But Sam LaMonica has been able recently to give up his own part-time employment - everything from warehouse and construction work to taxi driving in Rutherford, as the band slowly catches on. . . . Springsteen apparently has a sentimental regard for anything New Jersey. "We talked a few times. Just reminiscences about Jersey, growing up in Jersey. A lot of time, I drew strength from his songs. For my generation, there were no heroes from New Jersey, but Springsteen told me 'You can get out if you want, even if everyone tells you that you can't.' A lot of people are public image - Bruce is a real guy." He noted, "It's tragedy to be a king, like Elvis, and be so insulated from real life, surrounded by a lot of yes-men." . . . As for himself, he feels he has found a balance between his music and his private life, although music seems to take up 20 out of 24 hours. "Sometimes you get four hours of sleep. We recorded a lot of songs during the Blizzard of '96 - it was a crazy 36 hours." Breaking out of Jersey or not, he has returned to his home in Belleville, where parents Anthony and Gloria keep the door open for their musician son. (Sister Antonia is "married with a load of kids.") "It's cheaper than renting an apartment I might use for one week a month." . . . Tonight, Thursday, Sam LaMonica will be at the Beacon Theater, 71st Street and Broadway, in Manhattan, sharing the program with the likes of Southside Johnny, Gary U.S. Bonds and Nils Lofgren for a benefit sponsored by WNEW-FM for World Hunger Week. "I'll be meeting the people I used to idolize. It's great." . . . Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch is counting his losses at Atlantic City during the League of Municipalities convention. "I'm beginning to think the League has a piece of the action here. It never meets at Ocean Grove." . . . Zilch's political supporters, the Kool Kukumber Boys, are checking into a report of Bigfoot in the neighborhood. "He was first spotted in the Kittatinny Range. They never would have found him if he hadn't run for the Board of Education." . . . Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro DiVincenzo Mitten, is waiting to see what new delays will occur in the renovation of the Municipal Building. "It could become one of those projects that support the local economy for life."

Reflection of faith

St. Mary's Church of Nutley and its Rosary Society have announced the return of Rev. James Cafone, M.A., S.T.D., for an "Evening of Reflection" on Monday evening, Nov. 24.

The evening will begin with a 7:30 p.m. Mass, followed immediately by Rev. Cafone's reflection.

Rev. Cafone was ordained a priest in 1965. He celebrated his first mass at St. Mary's Church.

Rev. Cafone is presently teaching the course "Faith and Morality" at the seminary and at Seton Hall University. He has been a professor in the Religious Studies Department at Seton Hall since 1968.

The evening is open to all parishioners and friends of Rev. Cafone.

Belleville Senior News

By Joseph Restaino

My Wish for You is...

That you may hold forever in your heart the golden memories of every happy day you have ever known;

That you may be brave in the hour of trial when the cross is laid upon your shoulders, when the hill you must climb seems high and the beacon lights of hope are far away;

That every gift God has given you may grow with the years and fill the hearts of those you love with its fragrance;

That in every hour you may have a friend worthy of your friendship to whom you can confidently reach a hand when the storm breaks; with whom you can ford the torrent and reach the sun-kissed heights;

And that in every hour of joy or of sorrow the peace-giving smile of Christ may abide with you and keep you near to God.

This poem is dedicated to all our members and guests (of the Belleville Italian-American Association) assembled here this evening, by our president, George Sbarra.

The Belleville Italian-American Civic Association held its annual dinner and dance on the evening of Nov. 7 at Tom Apicella's beautiful Chandelier on Franklin Ave., Belleville. The main purpose of this gala affair was to provide a scholarship for a deserving student. The student selected was Johna Giordano of Belleville. Year after year, this organization has given scholarships to deserving students. They hold their executive meetings at the Senior Center and their regular meetings at St. Anthony's Church.

The affair was a huge success, thanks to President George Sbarra and Co-Chairman Adolph Vecchione. Also thanks to the ticket committee of Vinnie Carlo, John Caruso, Romeo Checchette, and Jerry Ingurante. Decorations committee: Clara Campanella, Edith DeFeo and Evelyn White; Gift committee: Lee Carlo, Antoinette Petito and Josephine Rotonda; Awards committee: Flo Kiner, Ann Livecchi, Mary Melchione and Marion Schulthorpe; Hospitality committee: Savino Balducci and Joe Fornarotta; and Scholarship committee: Lee Casale and Lucy Insalucci.

Wow! That's some committee and they should be commended for a good job. Many of the dignitaries of Belleville were present but they were too numerous to mention. Thanks to the excellent food provided by the Apicella family and the superb music of the Tony Donato Trio, the affair was a huge success and everyone had a wonderful evening.

Congratulations to Garry Furnari, Mayor of Nutley, who won the seat of Senator John Scott. When Furnari won mayor of Nutley, I predicted that he would go places and he has started the climb up the ladder. He beat a tough opponent in John Scott who must be commended for the many good things he did while in office.

In Belleville, it was the character of Manager Kimble who saved the day for the Council members and the Council form of government. Manager Kimble is doing a good job with the system he has, but my personal opinion is that the system needs improvement. The taxpayers of Belleville need relief and they need it now. We seniors who are on a fixed income cannot afford the increase in taxes every year. Other towns hold the line or decrease. Why can't Belleville? Many of our seniors have been driven out of the town they love so. Council and manager, please get together so that we who love Belleville can remain here. I know you can do it.

I must be getting senile. I forgot to wish my wife a happy birthday, so I will take this opportunity to wish her the best of everything, and as a penalty, I will play a game of Canasta with you. As always, I love you very much. XXXs. Your husband, Joseph A. Restaino. I hope I got out of it. Love to my part of the family in Las Vegas. We miss you very much.

Fred Behan, we all will miss you very much!

Ti Bit: Faith is the proof of what cannot be seen. What is seen gives knowledge, not faith. Pope Gregory.

Belleville is beautiful.

Police nab suspects in hold-up of store

Police arrested two young men, one of them a 17-year-old juvenile, after they reportedly held up a convenience store at 165 Garden St., last week.

According to the store owner, Ricardo Mendez, 19, of Newark, entered the store with the juvenile and showed a knife stuck in the waistband of his trousers as he demanded access to the cash register. When the store owner refused, Mendez reportedly assaulted him while the younger man took $47 from the register.

The men, wearing ski masks, fled south on Garden Avenue, where they were spotted by Police Officer Brendan Dullaghan, who pursued them while calling for back-up. Police Officers Joseph Tramaglino and Anthony Tucci responded, and police made the arrests.

On Nov. 27, North Arlington police informed Belleville police that a car being driven erratically was on its way into Belleville.

The car was operating on the Belleville Turnpike in North Arlington. It entered Main Street, and police said it switched from lane to lane, driving at least one motorist off the road.

The car then mounted the curb at 414 Main St. and came to a halt.

Police Officers Thomas Zecca and Stephen Linfante arrested Nelson Mickle, 23, of Belleville. He was charged with reckless driving.

On Nov. 13, at 2:47 a.m. Police Officers Joseph Bagonis and James Sochaski arrested Richard Pryor, 36, of Danville, Pa., who was driving a Lincoln Mark VII south on Franklin Avenue in what police said was an erratic manner.

At one point, Pryor reportedly mounted a sidewalk and drove half a block before returning to the roadway. Police said he forced two cars in opposing traffic off the road.

Mr. Pryor was charged with driving while under the influence.

DiGaetano re-elected majority leader

Assemblyman Paul DiGaetano, R-36, has been re-elected by acclamation by his Republican colleagues to a second term as Assembly majority leader.

DiGaetano's district includes Nutley and Belleville.

The vote, which took place at the State House in a caucus meeting, once again places DiGaetano in the second most influential position in the Assembly.

As Assembly majority leader, DiGaetano is responsible to work with the speaker in directing and developing the legislative initiative for the State Assembly.

Commenting on his re-election, DiGaetano said, "It is gratifying to know that my peers continue to have such strong confidence in my abilities. I accept this position with humility and will strive to ensure that the work we do in Trenton will be for the benefit of all the residents of New Jersey."

In addition to DiGaetano's re-election, Assemblyman Jack Collins, R-3, was also re-elected to a second term as speaker of the Assembly.

Cerebral Palsy Center honors Cocco

The Cerebral Palsy Center honored Sal Cocco of Nutley, president of the board of directors for six years, at its annual meeting on Nov. 18 at the Cerebral Palsy Center, Belleville.

The center held its election of officers for a two-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1998.

Paul Amsterdam of south Orange was elected president.

During Cocco's term of office, the following accomplishments were achieved:

- Increased residential services - A group home in Bloomfield and a group home in Belleville.

- Growth in services - A computer lab for students, a rehab technology program the performing arts program, a literacy program, the Louise Nacca scholarship program, an 11-month educational program and a transitional education program.

- Major building renovations included - The repaving of the parking lot, seven newly renovated accessible bathrooms, new heating and air conditioning systems, and the basement renovation program.

- Successful fundraising activities - The Treasure Chest Thrift Shop opened, the annual golf classic, the annual Wheel-a-Thon, two successful art auctions and a night at the Meadowlands fundraiser.

Cocco was also the overseer of the center's 50th anniversary, a year-long celebration of activities in 1995 and 1996.

He will remain on the board of directors as vice president of fundraising.

Donations to the Library

A generous donation has been made to the Belleville Public Library and Information Center by Cecelia Polizzi, the president of teh Belleville Motor Lodge, Inc. The donation will be used for the purchase of a computer in teh adult reference department, a printer, and for business books, business audiocassettes, and children's books for teh library.

"We appreciate donations of this type from the Belleville business community," stated Joseph CAale, president of teh library Board of Trustees. Library Director Adrea Cohen said, "Another computer will provide additional space for a library patron at the many computer classes that teh library offers, as well as daily access for students and adults to the Internet and periodicals online. In addition, it will provide access to information about jobs, as well as information about the township, the library, the nation, and teh world."

Polizzi is an active member of teh Belleville Chamber of Commerce and teh Rotary Club of Belleville.

National Children's Book Week 1997

Sponsored by the Children's Book Council, Inc., since 1919, Children's Book Week, is a time-honored tradition, and one that is celebrated at teh Belleville Public Library and Information Center, to spread the word about children's literature and to encourage the joy of reading.

At the main library, in teh children's room, there will be a scavenger hunt at 11 a.m. on Nov. 22, at which time children will search for trivia, using the library's resources. Prizes will be awarded.

Celebrate teh joy of reading during National Children's Book Week at the Belleville Public Library and all year long. Remember to take out lots of books from the library, too!

Life in Silver Lake

By Marie Strumolo Burke
A feature of Belleville Times

Wow! Look at School No. 4! Let me say that this article should have been written some time ago.

Even though the mums are gone, the leaves are falling off the trees and the bulbs are planted in the ground, I must tell you what happened at School No. 4.

Our new principal, Paula Cummis, was an invited guest at our SLCA meeting in late September. We asked what our association could do to help out the school and the children. I must say, she came up with a smashing idea of donating tulip bulbs so that the children could plant them in front of School No. 4.

She cordially requested, and the SLCA complied. That's how it goes in Silver Lake and that's what it's all about.

Now, let me expound - like that word? It means comment - a little on this subject. But first, close your eyes and try to visualize how the mums and the trees really looked. Do you see them? I hope so.

The SLCA chairman of this project was Lebro Charles of Naples Avenue, along with his co-captain, Anthony Renna. The rest is history.

As an added treat, Lebro bought yellow and white mums to go in between the tulip bulbs. Great thinking on his part.

What a pleasant surprise it was when I arrived at School No. 4 that day. Everyone scurrying - to move in a brisk manner - doing their thing.

Lebro took care of every minute detail. He asked Plant Supervisor Vincent Fiscella if we could have the services of some Board of Education workers so that the ground could be prepared for the planting. Mr. Fiscella ably responded - service with a smile, two of the "bestest workers" around, Joseph Domenick and Richard Montecuccolo.

I thought Joe Domenick looked a tad familiar, and when I found out his last name, it finally registered in my head. He was the son of Jerry Domenick and looked just like his dad. Now, Judy, don't get jealous 'cause he looks a little like you, too.

And to the teachers of the third-grade classes, Judy Disporto and Maria DeLuisi, we all say thanks. When they escorted their students out of the school, we all felt proud that we helped to be a part of this.

Each child was given plastic gloves to keep their little hands clean while planting. The teachers handled their children with ease and deserve praise.

SLCA membership Phyllis Scanzillo, Angela Cuozzo Zarro, Grace Dondarski, Rita Charles and myself cheered on committee members Lebro and Anthony. What an honor it was when Superintendent Mike Lally and Vinny Fiscella arrived on the scene. The newspaper could not be there, but thank God, we had a substitute photographer: Principal Cummis.

And to superintendent Lally, let me say, thank you. At the event I turned to him and commented that it would be a nice touch if we had a beautiful blossom tree in front of the school. He thought a fast second and said, "Mrs. Burke, how about a couple of trees?" The next day and trees were planted.

So, much gratitude to our super superintendent, Mike Lally, and our competent plant supervisor, Vincent Fiscella, for a job well done and appreciated from all our friends at School No. 4, right smack dab in that great part of town, you got it, Silver Lake.

And wait 'till the springtime when the tulips sprout and the trees blossom.

Wait, I forgot someone: our buddy, Patrolman George Geyer of the Silver Lake mini-police station. He stayed close by at the school and assisted us every inch of the way.

And remember, we love Silver Lake, Superintendent Lally and Plant Supervisor Fiscella.

OUR OPINION

School One, again

The Board of Education is considering the future of School One, again.

Not long ago, the prevailing opinion was that the property on Rutgers Street should be sold. Wiser heads are now prevailing, we believe.

Some use will be made of the building, and it should be an educational use. When you consider the investment that the people have made in that structure over the past century, it would seem that no price would be high enough, even if there were any developers around who would be interested.

Board members are not ready to believe an estimate of $6 million to bring the building up to state standards.

They are looking into those figures again, and they should seek some additional opinions. The point is that the township cannot afford to yield any more of its property, and it is not a matter of protecting the legacy for our children in the 21st century.

It is a matter of providing needed facilities now. The Valley will be further revived by a neighborhood school, to complement the great service performed by School Nine.

The community as a whole could use educational services ranging from special education to vocational courses for adults that could be housed in a revived School One.

State funding has been made available to increase classroom space in the school district. It may be possible to put School One back into action without increasing the local tax burden.

A sale would be shortsighted and of brief help to the taxpayers.

A revived School One would be a thing of joy forever.

A time to grieve

Alexander Jegdic, who died the victim of a tragic road accident in Belleville, was only 14. Yet he had lived through turmoil and tragedy caused by the civil war in Bosnia, and spent a large part of his life as a refugee from his homeland.

He was only in Belleville since September, here to begin a new life. His history reflects the experience of many of those who make up this community, some of whose ancestors fled tyranny or economic calamity, some of whom are themselves new residents here.

But it does not matter how long a time he was among us. His schoolmates grieve for him. The parents of his schoolmates grieve as well. The loss of a child is something that strikes the hearts of all of us.

Had it not been for that conflict in Bosnia, Alexander would probably have lived out his boyhood in peace, just as his father would have continued to support himself and his family as a veterinary physician. Today, the father, Alenko, is without a profession in America because his veterinarian credentials are not accepted here. So, until that situation is remedied, he has to support his family as best he can.

He has new friends in the community, and they hope something can be done to restore Alenko Jegdic to his professional career.

In the meantime, the community can only do what it can to make sure that the streets of Belleville are safe for all its children.

It can also ponder the bitter fruits of the ethnic and religious hatreds that have torn a country apart and sent its citizens to far corners of the world.

Alexander's death is an echo of that war. We grieve for him, we grieve for his loved ones and we grieve for the victims of senseless violence everywhere.

After the shouting

The proposal to have Belleville revert to the commission form of government was, in the opinion of the Times, an effort to sell the public a bill of goods.

It provided no real solution to the problems of governing the township, and instead would have made it more inefficient and more open to mismanagement.

We do not have the perfect system in operation. Even a cemetery is not operated to perfection, and you have less political infighting there.

But we do not have politicians acting as administrators.

In some communities, the commission works very well. Not so in Belleville.

The vote itself, tallied most recently as 2,763 yes and 3,039 no.

The outcome does not indicate, as one politician stated, that there is great dissatisfaction with council-manager government.

It indicates that there is no great groundswell of opinion against council-manager.

Proponents of change had two big factors in their favor - questions about the salaries paid to the Manager and his staff, and the 53 point tax hike this year.

Neither factor was enough to convince the voters - or those interested enough to vote - that the old commission form of government would be an improvement.

What the public now deserves is a set of Council members who will represent the best in the community. The present members still have time to prove themselves. New faces are also to be encouraged.

Offer on computers

To the editor:

The following letter was sent to Schools Superintendent Michael Lally:

VDI, "Virtual Development Inc.," would like to meet with the Belleville Board of Education and its associates regarding computers, repairs and Internet services.

VDI, based in Bloomfield, is interested in donating time and equipment, and educating and providing services to the Belleville school system.

With the popularity of the Internet growing steadily, schools across the globe are becoming part of this latest trend. VDI would like the Belleville school system to be involved and to have the latest equipment available. Educating the teachers and support staff is one of the key services we offer.

VDI is a computer wholesaler, retailer and Internet solutions provider. VDI can put the entire school system online and provide e-mail services, Internet access, and video conferencing. We can supply equipment at wholesale cost, maintain computers, train staff and answer any questions you may have regarding the latest technology.

We would like to provide Belleville's parents, staff and students with the best possible pricing for upgrades and new computer systems through VDI. To further this, VDI will donate 5 percent of all purchases made by the Belleville school system's parents, students and staff toward the purchase of additional equipment for the school system.

We will be available to meet with you at your earliest convenience. I look forward to hearing from you.

Walk raised $70G

To the editor:

Thank you, Essex County. We did it! You did it! Thanks to the support of Essex County's citizens and businesses, 1997 was another successful year for the American Heart Association's Heart Walk. Close to 400 walkers and volunteers participated in 1997 AmeriHealth - American Heart Walk in Essex County. Their collective feet raised close to $70,000.

Survivors walked and people walked for fathers, mothers, children, friends and associates. They walked for the 1.8 million people in New Jersey who have some form of cardiovascular disease and for the 30,000 who die each year in New Jersey from its No. 1 and No. 3 killers - heart disease and stroke.

Money raised from Essex County's AmeriHealth

- American Heart Walk will help to fund American Heart Association cardiovascular education and community programs, research and advocacy.

During the past two years, Heart Walk has helped the American Heart Association fund more than $2.2 million in research grants throughout the state of New Jersey. We are funding research to find answers.

In addition to the incredible contributions from Essex County teams, walkers and volunteers, a big part of our Heart Walk; contributing statewide sponsor Centrum multivitamins; New Jersey media sponsors: News 12 New Jersey; Comcast Cablevision; and Cable Television Network (CTN) of New Jersey; and local Essex County sponsors: St. Barnabas Healthcare System, Kings Supermarket, Broad National Bank, Organon, Clara Maass Medical Center, Fleet Bank, UMDNJ and Worrall Community Newspapers.

Thank you, Essex County. We hope to see more Essex County teams and walkers at 1998 Heart Walk.

For more information on heart disease, stroke or AmeriHealth - American Heart Walk, call your local office of the American Heart Association or call 1-800-AHA-USA1.

'A Tribute to Leaders'

To the editor:

I thought you would be interested in this poem by an unknown author.

A Tribute to Leaders

One woman takes her extra time
And knits it into lace.
Another takes her extra time,
Embroideries to trace.
The lace may wear a year or two,
Perhaps go out of style.
The colors of embroideries fade
In just a little while.
But she who twines her extra time
In lives of lad and lass,
Produces that which shall endure
When time and tide shall pass.

Senator Robert Torricelli, "voted in favor of a sweet deal for sugar growers that costs American consumers $1.4 Billion a year in higher prices." Torricelli received $19,000 in contributions from sugar producers despite the fact that New Jersey grows no sugar. Because of the effectiveness of the sugar lobby, Money Magazine claims a 40 cent pound bag of sugar costs 10 cents more than it should. The import quotas and guaranteed loans that prop up domestic sugar prices cost U. S. consumers $1.4 Billion last year according to Money Magazine.

Painting the map of the United States on the playground of School Four are, from left, Jaime Rocha, Anna Zarfino, Robert Mattia, Christopher Velasquez, Nicole Manochio and Siobhan Fields.

The Fifth Grade classes of Miss Christine Rossi and Mrs. Cara Greely, and Mr. Philip Squatrito's Sixth Grade, complete the painting of a map of the United States on the playground of School Four. The project took two days to complete. On Day 1, the Fifth Grade stenciled the map with chalk and then painted the states. On Day 2, the Sixth Grade outlined and labeled the states and major bodies of water. The entire school will be able to use the map for lessons in various content areas, including social studies, science and reading.

The Second Graders of School Nine enjoyed a rain forest presentation by Science Supervisor Bruce Kemnitz. The children enjoyed the sounds of the rain forest, the interesting artifacts and the pictures that were displayed.

CLEAR PERSPECTIVE

Dr. Walter Shurminsky Jr.
Optometrist

This is Part III of a series of articles that take us from early childhood vision up to the mature years. Hopefully, you'll get some valuable pointers, both for yourself and your children. It will be a four-part series discussing various aspects of vision at different stages of life.

The working years

From the moment you open them, your eyes are working for you. Your eyes are so much a part of your lifestyle that when they are working under stress or not functioning properly, it can significantly reduce your productivity at work or your enjoyment at play.

To take care of your eyes during your working years:

- Be alert for symptoms of vision problems or stress, including frequent headaches, tired or burning eyes, blurred vision, frequent accidents, difficulty parking, frequent near misses when driving, difficulty reading newspapers or other small print, poor sports performance, and a decreased interest in tasks requiring close work.
- Wear proper eye safety equipment when doing hazardous tasks like handling chemicals, using power tools or participating in eye-hazardous sports like racquetball.
- Provide good lighting for your work area.
- Take rest breaks from visually demanding tasks.
- Take steps to handle glare properly. Wear sunglasses when outdoors or shade windows to reduce glare on TV screens or video display terminals.
- Maintain proper viewing angle and distance from the screen when using a video display terminal.
- Have a thorough professional eye examination every two years during your early working years and annually after about age 35. Tell your optometrist about symptoms you have noticed; how you use your eyes on the job and about your hobbies and sports.

With the right care, you can protect your eyes, keep them healthy and help them do all the tasks you ask of them without stress or strain.

What is amnesia? How is your memory?

By Dr. Stacey Warren
Rutgers Memory
Disorders Project

When the ability to form new memories is damaged, it affects every component of someone's life.

Imagine being unable to remember what you did yesterday, being unable to remember what day it is or even what year it is. Imagine being unable to remember that a close family member has died or that your child has now graduated from college. All of this information fades away soon after it is encountered. This is what is experienced by persons who have what neuroscientists call "anterograde amnesia."

The most obvious defining feature of anterograde amnesia is a deficit in the ability to learn and remember new information. This is very different from the movie version of amnesia where the person forgets the past or forgets who they are. That type of amnesia is called retrograde amnesia and has not yet been linked to any known physical brain system.

There are many different things that can cause anterograde amnesia. The most widely known cause is Alzheimer's disease. This is what is called a progressive disease because the person gradually gets worse.

Initially, he or she may only show signs of anterograde amnesia, but after a while, other types of cognitive functions become impaired as well.

There are other causes of amnesia that are not progressive. These are less well known, however. Some of the causes include encephalitis, often herpes encephalitis; status epilepticus, a seizure that lasts too long; brain aneurysm; stroke; brain surgery to remove a seizure focus, usually the temporal lobe region - the part behind your ear; Korsakoff's disease, from years of excessive alcohol consumption paired with malnutrition; head injury or anoxia/hypoxia, such as from a near-drowning experience. There are other causes as well, but these are the most common.

In persons with only anterograde amnesia, the deficit is restricted to memory while intelligence and other cognitive functions are left relatively intact. This condition is relatively rare. Such persons are still able to engage in intelligent conversations, enjoy a good joke and even do difficult things such as math.

The impairment becomes evident if you were to ask the person, say one hour later, what you had discussed or what joke you told them. Someone experiencing amnesia would not only have forgotten the joke but would also have no memory that you had even told them a joke.

The length of time it takes for the memories to fade varies with each person and surprisingly, with the memory. Some people are able to retain things for only a minute and some people are able to retain things for hours. The severity and location of the brain damage seems to determine how long something will be remembered.

These types of memories are called explicit or declarative and are the types of memory that are impaired with damage to the limbic system. Other types of memory are not impaired, however, and remain available to persons suffering from anterograde amnesia. These types of memories are called implicit or procedural.

At the present time, we have openings for research participants, both with and without brain damage.

We are looking for persons who suffer from a non-progressive and non-Alzheimer's form of anterograde amnesia. As mentioned above, this is relatively rare.

If you feel that you may suffer from this condition or you know someone who does, and you would like more information about our research program, contact Dr. Stacey Warren at the Rutgers Memory Disorders Project at 353-1080, extension 3222.

Wasted days and wasted nights

By Dr. Peter G. Zazzali, M.D.

"A good night's sleep" and "feeling well rested in the morning" seem like simple enough things to ask for. Why then do so many Americans suffer through restless nights and drag themselves through their daily routine feeling exhausted and fatigued?

The answer for many people lies in the fact that they suffer from one of a variety of sleep disturbances. Our bodies require a good night of restful sleep to replenish the energy necessary to function at their most efficient levels, both physically and mentally.

For those suffering from sleep disturbances, this restful sleep never comes and the thought of going to bed or waking up in the morning can be a nightmare.

There are many disorders that can affect sleep. They vary from problems falling asleep and staying asleep (Insomnia) to the inability to prevent falling asleep (Narcolepsy) to respiratory disorders of sleep (Sleep Apnea).

The final result in all cases is a poor night's sleep leading to daytime fatigue, a decreased ability to concentrate and remember details, irritability and sometimes depression.

The most prominent of these disorders is Sleep Apnea. This condition is commonly under-diagnosed and can cause significant health problems associated with cardiovascular disease, high blood pressure, strokes and respiratory disease.

Warning signs for those at risk for Sleep Apnea include snoring, irregular breathing while asleep, daytime sleepiness and being overweight. Very often these problems are brought to medical attention by a patient's bed partner who is disturbed by the loud snoring and disturbing irregular breathing during the night.

One of the main reasons that these disorders go undiagnosed is that patients and physicians generally do not discuss issues regarding good sleep hygiene.

Therefore, anyone who feels they may suffer from a sleep disturbance should bring it to the attention of their doctor or consider seeing a physician specializing in sleep disorders.

DiVincenzo in bid

The candidate recalled that prior to his own tenure as Freeholder president, there were years of unparalleled fiscal problems facing Essex County.

"Never before had there been such a crisis," DiVincenzo said. "More and more people were talking about the county being out of control."

DiVincenzo said he wants the county to be more responsible.

Earlier this year, Gov. Christine Whitman officiated as DiVincenzo was sworn in as president of the New Jersey Association of Counties.

DiVincenzo was praised by Whitman for his efforts to regionalize services as a cost-saving measure.

DiVincenzo has called regionalization the "next road" that counties must travel in an attempt to maximize services. He also vowed to work harmoniously with local governments, the governor's office and the State Legislature.

"Now is the time for us to unleash the untapped potential that county government has, to help control costs, preserve services and improve efficiencies," DiVincenzo said. "There is no other level of government large enough to be credible, small enough to be manageable, and close enough to the people to understand local sensitivities and local needs."

DiVincenzo said among the issues to be addressed by the next county executive are building a new jail, development of the Hilltop property, and construction of a baseball stadium in Newark.

The candidate said he is prepared to move the county into the next century.

"Essex County needs a new leader ready for the next century," said the 45-year-old candidate.

DiVincenzo departed from the rally and boarded a chartered bus filled with supporters.

The bus travelled to various locales on Wednesday as part of DiVincenzo's campaign kickoff.

The incumbent Essex County executive, James Treffinger, a Republican, is widely expected to seek a second four-year term in the 1998 general election.

Any interested party may appear at said hearing and participate therein in accordance with the rules of the Zoning Board of Adjustment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ascione - nee Nancy Tensfeldt

Mr. and Mrs. Ascione honeymoon in Hawaii

Holy Family Church, Nutley, was the setting recently for the marriage of Nancy Jean Tensfeldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Tensfeldt of Belleville, to John George Ascione, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ascione of Lyndhurst.

The Rev. Albert Malgeri performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at The Tides, North Haledon. Escorted by her father, the bride wore a silk organza and tulle off-the-shoulder gown with a lace appliqued bodice and cathedral train. A matching headpiece held her veil and she carried white roses, stephanotis, freesia and gardenias.

Donna Lynn Civello of New York City was her cousin's honor attendant. Bridesmaids included Mary Tensfeldt of Ledyard, Conn., Julie Tensfeldt of Freehold, Karen Tensfeldt of Randolph, Tracy Ferguson of Salem, Mass., Camille Cichino of Rochelle Park, Theresa Gasparino of Hasbrouck Heights and Karin McGee of Fairfield.

Flower girls were Cali-Ann Tensfeldt of Freehold and Marissa Ascione of Lyndhurst.

The attendants were attired in full length off-the-shoulder red crepe gowns and carried roses, daisies and freesia.

Michael Ascione of Lyndhurst was his brother's best man. Ushering were Robert Schifano of Pt. Pleasant, Ronald Lubertazzo of Lyndhurst, James Haag of Ramsey, Robert Scileri of Lincoln Park, James Jankowski of Fords, Thomas Tensfeldt of Ledyard, James Tensfeldt of Freehold and Donald Tensfeldt of Randolph.

Michael Ascione Jr. was ring-bearer and Travis Charles Tensfeldt was junior ringbearer.

Mrs. Tensfeldt chose a two-piece cream gown featuring a crepe skirt and sequined and ribboned jacket. The groom's mother was in a two-piece peach gown.

Mrs. Ascione, an alumna of Bloomfield College and Dover Business College, Paramus, is a client tech analyst with Automatic Data Processing, Clifton.

Mr. Ascione, a graduate of Monmouth University, is a marketing support representative with ADP.

The couple honeymooned in San Francisco and Hawaii following the August 24 wedding. They are living in Nutley.

Woman's Club of Belleville celebrates 75th anniversary

The Woman's Club of Belleville, under the leadership of President Barbara Spillane, held a reception at its clubhouse November 10 in celebration of the club's 75th anniversary.

Town and county were represented by Mayor Mario Drozd and Town Council members Angie Paserchia and Victor Canning, and Freeholder Louise Palagano.

Drozd and Palagano presented proclamations citing the many civic and community services and projects sponsored by the club and recognized the membership for its hard work and dedication.

The New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs was represented by the executive committee and state board, including NJSFWC President Cathy South and Eighth District President Dorothy Wellinghorst. Club president including Phyllis Schneek, Meadowlands; Carol Doyle, Arlington; Janice Cobb, North Arlington; Barbara Chadwick, Rutherford; Ann Butler, Nutley; Joan Dougan, Lyndhurst, and Doris Monteith, Allwood, conveyed greetings from their members and good wishes for the future.

Adrea Cohen of the Belleville Public Library spoke on the history of the Woman's Club of Belleville and presented the guests with a booklet she had prepared in honor of the club.

Past Presidents Lillian Ferrara and Marie Drake were recognized for past endeavors, as was Virginia Streeter, who could not be at the gathering. A moment of silence was offered for the past presidents and members who had passed on.

Entertainment was provided by Marie Drake, accompanied by Anita Schulz on piano. Drake sang a selection of show tunes from "Carousel," "My Fair Lady," "The Sound of Music," and "Fiddler on the Roof."

Refreshments were served and brought a rewarding and pleasant evening to a close.

1997 World AIDS Day Dec. 1 at Inclusive Community

A special observance of World AIDS Day will take place at the Inclusive Community United Church of Christ in Nutley 7:30 p.m., Dec. 1.

This year's service will be a time of prayer, remembrance and hope. It will include a candlelight procession, special music, readings and prayers of compassion and hope.

There will be a reading of the names of those who have died of AIDS, a time of sharing and the dedication of an AIDS quilt panel. Special emphasis will be given to children living in a world with AIDS.

The public is invited to this memorial and celebration, recalling those have died and seeking to nurture life in those who live with or whose lives are touched by AIDS. Those living with AIDS, their loved ones and friends, caregivers and children are encouraged to attend.

Following the service, refreshments will be provided and informational literature will be available.

The Inclusive Community, a worshipping community of Catholics and Protestants, is located at 10 St. Paul's Place, Nutley. For more information, call the church office at 284-1780.

Plan the ultimate holiday office party at Seasons Resort

Seasons Resort & Conference Center, the former Playboy Club, presents the ultimate holiday office party, 8 p.m. to midnight, Dec. 19.

It includes abundant food, music, surprises and the opportunity to "take the elevator home."

The ultimate price of only $19.95 (plus gratuity and sales tax) offers a special holiday buffet, dancing until midnight, surprises and decorations. A cash bar is available.

Celebrate the evening and take the elevator home. Guest rooms are available at $40 per person (subject to gratuity and sales tax) double occupancy.

For group or individual reservations, call (973) 827-6000, extension 1528, by Dec. 5.

Seasons Resort and Conference Center is located on Rt. 517, Great Gorge.

The boutique, open to the general public, will feature an array of holiday and seasonal crafts, jewelry and miscellaneous items. Gift ideas for all ages will be included.

The Nutley Family Service Bureau is a non-profit organization serving families in need of assistance.

HOROSCOPES

November 23-29

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22

Stand your ground when a business associate questions your decision later in the week, Scorpio. You know you did the right thing, so explain your actions to him or her. He or she is sure to understand. A loved one gets into trouble and needs your help. Don't let him or her down.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21
Stay focused early in the week, Sagittarius. You have a lot to do, so there's no time to go off on tangents. A close friend invites you to a work function. Don't say no; very influential people will be there. You're sure to make a good impression. Taurus and Cancer play important roles late in the week.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20
Now's your chance to get ahead in the workplace, Capricorn. An important project is offered to you. Run with it; you can make it a success. A loved one brings his or her significant other home to meet the family. Try to make it a comfortable evening for everyone — including yourself.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18
That special someone you've been seeing makes you feel trapped. You feel like he or she is always watching you. Instead of abruptly ending the relationship, talk to him or her about it. He or she really doesn't realize how you feel. A family member needs your help planning a social outing. Give your input. Leo plays a key role.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20
While you're generally relaxed and laid-back, a family argument upsets you. Don't hold your feelings inside. Tell people how angry you really are. It will make them realize how silly the disagreement is. That special someone finally calls. Say yes!

ARIES — March 21/April 20

Don't keep your feelings bottled up early in the week, Aries. Let others know what you're thinking. You'll be surprised at how many people actually feel the same way you do. A close friend asks a huge favor. Think about the consequences before making a decision.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21

You need to let off some steam this week. Even the littlest of things sets you off. Before you say something that you regret, spend some time by yourself clearing your mind. If you don't, you're going to be miserable. A loved one introduces you to an intriguing person. Get to know him or her better. Leo plays a key role.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21

Don't be a stick in the mud this week, Gemini. Friends and relatives are concerned about you. Try to get out more, and have a good time. That breakup that you're brooding over isn't worth it. Mr. or Miss Right is right under your nose. Don't let him or her get away.

CANCER — June 22/July 22
Your sense of humor brightens a loved one's day and makes you feel better too. There are too many things to be happy about to fret over a minor setback. A close friend asks your opinion about a romantic relationship. Be honest with him or her, even though he or she may not want to hear the truth. Aquarius plays a role.

LEO — July 23/August 23

Your outgoing nature serves you well early in the week, Leo, when you meet an influential person. You make a good impression, which is going to have a positive impact on your career. He or she has connections. That special someone has an important question to ask you. Give an honest answer to save the relationship.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22

You're on the edge of your seat all week, Virgo. You feel like something exciting is going to happen, but you just don't know what. Don't let this anticipation distract you from your work. You've got a lot to do. Scorpio plays a key role on Friday.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23

You're very indecisive this week. So many people are turning to you for answers, but you just don't know what to tell them. You better get your act together before the end of the week, or a lot of people will begin to doubt your abilities. An intriguing stranger enters your life on Saturday.

Battle Garfield this Sunday in Super Bowl Droz' 3 T.D.'s lead 'C'

The Junior Buc 'C' team advanced to the Super Bowl for the second consecutive year, beating Lodi 25-12 and avenging the teams only regular season loss this fall.

The Bucs opened the scoring with a drive on its first series of the game. It was highlighted by a 40 yard run from Joe Droz.

The Bucs would score again before halftime, once again on a Droz run that extended Belleville's lead to 13-0 at intermission.

The Bucs extended to a 19-0 lead in the third quarter on the running of Joe Pizzi and Joe Muraglia. It was Muraglia who scored the third touchdown on a three yard run.

Lodi staged a late rally, scoring twice to cut the lead to 19-12 with seven minutes left in regulation time.

On the kickoff following the second touchdown, the Bucs were pinned deep in its own territory.

But Muraglia broke loose for a 40 yard run and a few plays later, Droz would score from the one to seal the victory.

The Buc offense was superb as it rushed for 245 yards, aided by outstanding efforts on the line.

Jose Martinez, Chris Serron, Jon Yochum, Lou Ritacco and Pete Maccorone were dominant on the line.

David Caruso was steady at quarterback. Unlike the first meeting with Lodi, the Bucs had no turnovers this time around.

On defense, Henri DeFrance,

Mike Biase, Joe Roberts, Anthony Rivera, Anthony Devivo and Pizzi were outstanding. Pizzi led the Bucs with eight tackles.

The Bucs will play at 10 a.m. this Sunday in the Super Bowl, versus Garfield.

The 'C' squad wishes to thank the cheerleaders for their support in the cold conditions last weekend.

Also, the team wanted to congratulate the 'A' team for its hard fought 13-12 victory in double overtime which sent them to their second straight Super Bowl.

Garfield will field teams in all three title games this weekend. Belleville is in two of the title games and Nutley will take on Garfield in the 'B' game, at the Oval, beginning at 11:30 a.m.

'A' team Bowl bound with O.T. win

Led by the running of Tristian Ambrosino and Jeff Cruise, along with the accurate passing of Eric Ferriol, the Belleville Junior Buc 'A' team stopped Wanaque, 13-12 in double overtime to advance to the 'Super Bowl' this Sunday at Nutley, versus Garfield.

Wanaque struck first, blocking a punt and scoring a touchdown on the play.

On Belleville's next offensive series, Cruise took a handoff and ran 47 yards for a score, but the play was called back because of a penalty. The Bucs regrouped, however, scoring a few plays later when Ferriol hit Ambrosino with a short pass and Ambrosino did the rest, breaking a tackle and out running three defenders to the end zone.

The game remained tied at six until overtime. Both teams displayed excellent defensive efforts. For Belleville, the defense was paced by Laurence Fusco, Chris Hernandez, George Serrone, John Cappaccio, Mike Fortunatto, Mike Shulken, Ambrosino and Cruise.

Wanaque's normally potent offense was held to 53 total yards in the game.

In the overtime, Wanaque got the ball first at the Buc 25 and failed to score. Belleville drove to the Wanaque one on its first series of overtime, but they were stopped there.

In the second O.T., the Bucs got the ball first and made the most of its chance. Roberto Pichardo ran 12 yards on an end around for a first down.

Ambrosino ran ten more yards, setting up a first and goal at the Wanaque three. He then finished the drive with a three yard run, extending Belleville's lead to 12-6.

On the all important extra point, Ferriol hit a wide open Marc Williams in the end zone for the lucky 13th point.

Wanaque would stage one last rally, scoring on its next series to narrow the lead to 13-12.

Wanaque's choices was to try and kick for two points, or run it in and force a third overtime. They chose the one point. Its best runner took a handoff and appeared to be headed to the goal line.

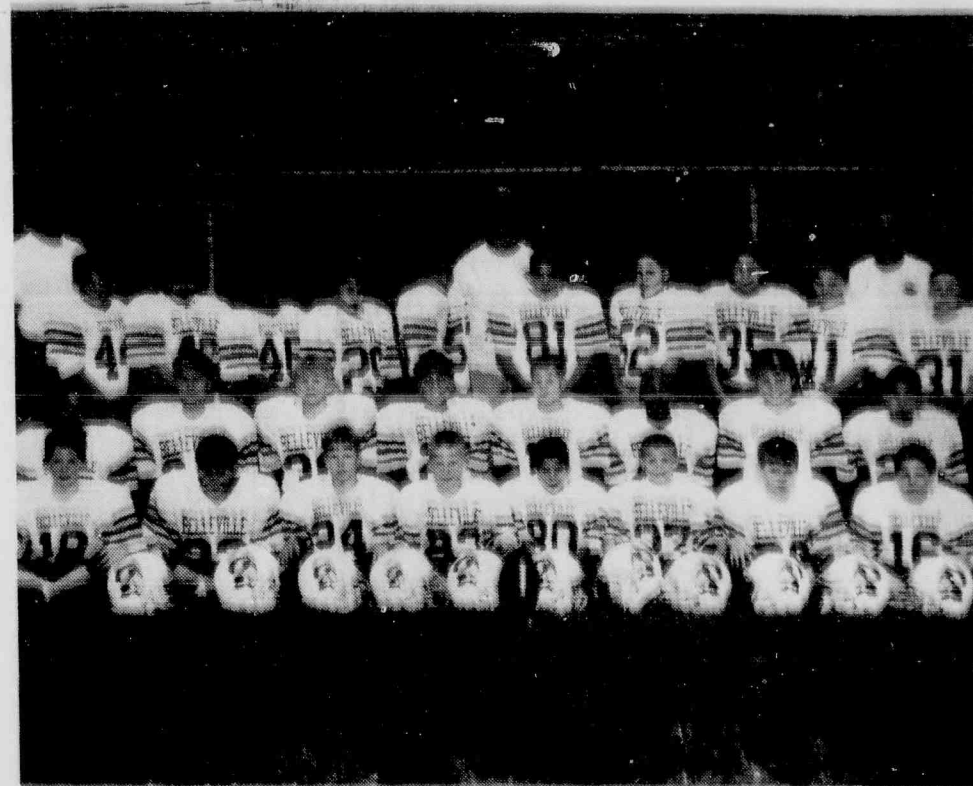

But the Belleville defense wouldn't give in, and five or six players stopped him a foot short of what would have been a third overtime.

A happy group of Belleville fans poured onto the field to congratulate their heroes.

It's the second straight year that the 'A' team will play in the Super Bowl. Kickoff time this Sunday will be 1:30 p.m. from Nutley.

In Garfield, the Bucs will be facing a formidable squad, that has put together a 10-0 mark.

The coaching staff wished to express thanks to everyone in the township for their continued support and enthusiasm.

By Mike Lamberti

The Buccaneer cross country team ended a good campaign by competing in the sectional championships.

On a wet and rainy morning at Warnaco Park in Elizabeth, three Buc runners competed in the sectionals.

Jose Moreno had another solid performance, taking 23rd overall in a time of 18:20. Only Greg Moriello, in 1987, had a faster time for Belleville at the sectional championships (18:03).

Melissa Cifelli added to her record breaking season. The junior was 31st in a solid field, finishing in 21:51. That's the fastest time for a Lady Buc runner in the Tosato-era at Warnaco Park, breaking the mark set by Patty Bliss 12 years ago.

"Four of the top ten teams in the state were in Melissa's bracket," Tosato said. "At first, she was disappointed with her performance, but the more we look at it, it was a very good performance."

Considering the poor conditions and the fact that Cifelli was returning from a knee injury, the race was certainly a good one.

Mike Testa ended his varsity career at the sectionals with an 87th place finish in a very good time of 20:37.

Tosato had nothing but praise for the senior.

"Mike was really psyched for this race," Tosato said. "He was hoping to break 21 minutes, maybe even 20 if the weather was good. But, like I said, with the conditions, it was a good race."

Tosato was happy with the season. The team was very competitive, despite losing a few valuable runners to injury.

"We lost Christie Hartford and Aerial Lane to stress fractures and Joe Ruffalo had an ankle injury," Tosato said. "Christie's a senior, and it was a tough way to end her cross country career. But she was the captain and she never missed a practice or meet. She's hopeful of coming back for indoor track."

Lane, an All Conference runner in 1996, will be back next season. Ruffalo, out for the team for the first time this season, will be graduated in June.

Moreno will lead a talented field next season. He should be a solid first team all conference runner next year. Also returning are Sean Rodriguez, who came out in the middle of this season and made an immediate impact.

Junior Ashutosh Shukla will be back next year, as will sophomore Torny Kvetkus, who is described by Tosato as the most improved runner on the team. Jorge Miranda, a junior, will be a key member of next years team, too.

For the girls, Cifelli, Lane and Maria Insua will return in '98. A talented group of freshman will also give Tosato plenty of optimism. At a freshman girls dual race with Passaic Tech, won by Belleville 16-36, the future of the program gave an excellent account of itself.

Julie Bollante was second overall and first for the Lady Bucs in 16:53. Belleville then took third through sixth, with Lisa Parah (17:30), Stephanie Marino (17:47), Aziza Atwa (17:59) and Anhar Hayek (18:00) all running well on the 2.3 mile course in Nutley.

On November 29, Moreno and Cifelli will compete in the Foot Locker Eastern Cross Country championships at Van Cortlandt Park.

Tosato also thanked the team managers for a dedicated effort this year.

They were Brienne Kvetkus, Diana Cifelli and Renee Delmotte.

Tosato and his team will now get ready for the indoor season, which starts practice on November 28.

Bucs lose to Don Bosco, get ready for season finale with Nutley

By Mike Lamberti

"Commitment is the key."

So says Buc head coach Pat Dowling, who, as the 1997 season winds down, is already the lead architect for the '98 campaign.

Dowling and his team got another lesson as to how far they need to progress after last Monday's 55-8 loss to Don Bosco at Doc Ellis Field.

Belleville will take a winless record into the season finale, on Thanksgiving Day, at Nutley. We'll have more on the rivalry in next weeks issue.

Belleville's only touchdown came in the fourth quarter, on a 20 yard run by Mike Abidelli. The Bucs converted the two point conversion on a Ricci Bello run.

Bello gave the Buc fans a little hope in the first half when he returned a Don Bosco kickoff deep into D.B. territory. However, the Bucs were not able to convert, and as has been the case, the team was victimized by penalties and turnovers.

Dowling was somewhat critical of his teams effort in last Monday's game. He was hoping the game would be played on its original date, last Friday, but heavy rain forced the postponement until the following Monday.

"No excuses," Dowling said, "but playing Monday certainly didn't help. The kids didn't respond well. I don't know, maybe going right from school to a football game wasn't great, but we have to play better than that."

"We're not getting better, and that concerns me. We fell behind early (26-0 early in the second quarter) and we conducted ourselves like a defeated team."

Dowling went on to say he was disappointed with the effort he saw last Monday.

While the coach realizes that 1997 has been a tough campaign, he is far from defeated as far as the future is concerned.

He is pleased with the effort of the freshman team, but notes, "those players have done well, but it's what they do from here on that will count. The commitment has to be made, and it has to start right away."

The Junior Buc football program is also progressing well, witness the two teams that will play in the 'Super Bowl' this weekend at Nutley. Dowling knows that success on a high school level has to begin on the junior levels.

"I plan on meeting with the league directors," Dowling said. "It's important that those kids understand our system on the high school level, so that when they get here, they are aware of what we do and also, what it takes to play varsity football."

Teaching a winning attitude is also as important as playing successfully on the field. Thus, this weekend, Dowling will bring his team to a state high school playoff game.

"The kids who are coming back need to see how other teams get the job done," the coach said. "They need to see what the result is when they put the work in."

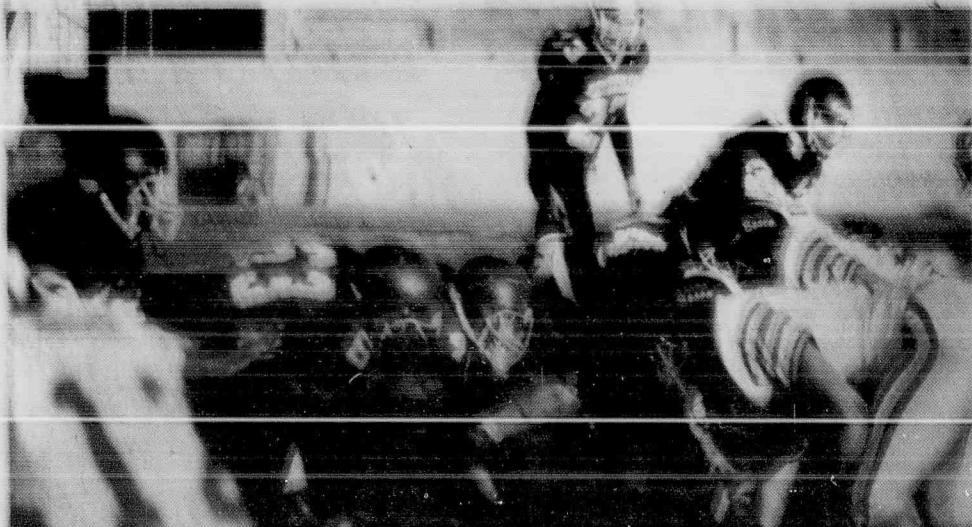

Dowling noted that last weekend, he scouted the Nutley-Hackensack game at Nutley, but saw none of his players at the game.

"Here's a chance for our kids to get a look at their Thanksgiving Day opponent," Dowling said. "But none of them, as far as I know, went to the game. It's important that the kids understand the game, and they'll only do that by watching other teams play and getting familiar with different styles of play."

And speaking of Nutley, Dowling doesn't want to hear that this is a different game.

"Winners play hard all the time," Dowling said. "You can't turn it on when it's time to play Nutley. You have to work hard all the time, especially in practice. Show me in practice that this is a special game. That's where it counts."

Once again, we'll have plenty more on the Thanksgiving Day game in next weeks issue.

Buc defensive line digs in against Don Bosco. It's been tough year for team, but a win over Nutley on Thanksgiving will do a lot for the team, not only this year, but next season.

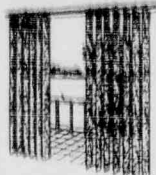

Sophomore quarterback Marquis Talmadge goes back to pass during game last Monday. Talmadge is among a number of talented players who will be back next season.

CABINET MEETING

If there is concern about an elderly friend's or family member's medications, there should be a review of his or her medicine cabinet. This entails making a list of all prescription and nonprescription medications and bringing the list to the pharmacist for a review. The pharmacist can then help identify potentially dangerous drug interactions, as well as clear up any confusion about dosing instructions. A recent study reported in the Journal of the American Geriatrics Association showed that pharmacists who visited the homes of male veterans found that 70 percent had medications that they did not need, 60 percent were taking a drug incorrectly, and more than half were not taking a drug prescribed for them.

Checking your medicine cabinet should be a regular part of house cleaning. If you have a question on any medication, talk to our pharmacist at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1956, 759-1968). Invited out or staying in, a box of Russell Stover candy makes your Thanksgiving dinner more festive. We hope your Thanksgiving is a very happy one.

HINT: In the study mention above, 20 percent of the elderly people whose medications were reviewed by pharmacists were taking medications beyond their expiration dates.

TAX SALE

NOTICE OF SALE OF PROPERTY FOR NON-PAYMENT OF TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND OTHER MUNICIPAL LIENS

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, Collector of Taxes of the Township of Belleville, in the County of Essex, will sell at Public Auction in the Council Chambers in the Town Hall of said Township on TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1997 at 11 a.m. the following described lands:

Said lands will be sold to make the amount of municipal liens chargeable against the same on the first day of July, 1997, as computed in the following list together with interest on said amount from the first day of July to the date of sale and costs of sale.

Said lands will be sold in fee touch persons as will purchase the same subject to redemption at the lowest rate of interest, but in no case in excess of eighteen per centum annum. The payment for the sale shall be made before the conclusion of the sale or the property shall be resold.

Any parcel of real property for which there shall be no other purchase will be struck off and sold to the Township of Belleville in fee for redemption at eighteen per centum, and the municipality shall have the same remedies and rights as other purchasers, including the right to bar or foreclose the right of redemption.

The sale is made under the provision of an act of the legislature entitled, "An act concerning unpaid taxes, assessments and other municipal charges on real property and providing for the collection thereof by the creation and enforcement of liens thereon." (R.S. 54:4-111). At any time before the sale the undersigned will receive payment to the amount due on any property, with interest and costs incurred up to the time of payment.

The said lands so subject to sale are described in accordance with the tax duplicate, including assessments which were in lien thereon the first day of July, 1997; exclusive, however, of the lien for taxes for the year 1996 are listed below:

HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

Water Treatment Not A Do-It-Yourself Project

(NAPS)—The DIY home improvement industry is booming as more and more homeowners are searching for cost-effective ways to upgrade their current homes. But although many DIYers may have developed a skill level that rivals some professionals, there are still some home improvement projects that are best left to specialists.

Even home improvement experts Dean Johnson and Robin Hartl from the popular TV series "HomeTime" recognize that certain projects require an expert—and water treatment is definitely one of them. When Johnson and Hartl decided to upgrade their drinking water and condition the water throughout their homes a couple of years ago, they called their local Kineticco water treatment professional to test their water, recommend the proper equipment and then install it—to ensure the job was done right.

"Of course, there are ways to treat your water without professional assistance," points out Johnson. "Inexpensive pour-through filters and faucet attachments that are simply designed to improve a water's taste and appearance can be easily installed by the homeowner. But for more complete systems that treat an entire home's water or that improve drinking water by handling a long list of contaminants (including lead, cryptosporidium and chlorine by-products) that may be in the water, consumers should rely on a water quality expert."

Exactly why is a professional needed to recommend and install a water conditioner or drinking water system?

First, to analyze the home's water, determine its condition and recommend the proper equipment for the application. Off-the-shelf water treatment solutions cannot treat a wide variety of water conditions, or special problems, such as iron or sulfur that may be in the water. Depending on water conditions and the level of water hardness, a softener might suffice, or a special filter might be needed. In some cases, pre-filtration may be required to remove excess sediment before it goes through the system. A water quality expert can analyze a home's water at no charge and ensure that the proper products are specified.

Second, to determine the necessary flow rate. An analysis of the entire home's water usage patterns determines the required flow rate for a water treatment system. This is based on the number of water outlets throughout the home, such as faucets, dishwashers, ice makers, toilets, water heaters, washing machines, etc. If the flow rate is too low, enough water won't be available when attempting to perform two tasks simultaneously, such as taking a shower and washing clothes.

Third, to specify adequate system capacity and size. The poorer the water quality, the more or larger the equipment you may need to completely solve water quality problems. Also, in case of a reverse osmosis drinking water system, a larger storage tank may be needed to handle additional water needs for cooking and drinking—depending on the number of people in the house.

Fourth, to ensure compliance with local plumbing codes. Unless you're a plumber by trade, you may not be aware of special codes and requirements affecting plumbing sizing, drain hookups and other restrictions. A technical working knowledge of a home's plumbing is also required to adapt it to the new water treatment system, which may have smaller or larger connections. A water treatment professional can also minimize angles in plumbing hookups to ensure maximum water pressure and flow rates.

Finally, to install the system properly without damage to it or household plumbing. Tapping into an existing plumbing line or running additional lines from a drinking water system to an ice maker or water cooler, for instance, is no job for amateurs. You need to know what materials are required, and where and how to connect them. As an example, special plastic tubing, not copper tubing, is needed for a reverse osmosis drinking water system to ensure high quality water.

To assist consumers with their water quality questions, Kineticco has established a consumer hotline. Call 1-800-944-WATER (9283) to speak with a water expert or to request the FREE Consumer's Guide to Better Water. Or visit Kineticco's site on the World Wide Web at <http://www.kineticco.com> for more information about water.

Hot News

(NAPS)—The right thermostat can help you feel more comfortable and save energy.

In fact, top-of-the-line models of the next generation of thermostats can help save up to 30 percent on a family's annual heating and cooling bills. They are designed to give more reliable comfort and convenience. They also have handy new features.

For example, deluxe units have a remote outdoor temperature sensor that is more accurate and far more convenient than a thermometer. You can get an outside reading by just pressing an "Info" key.

You can have programmable fan control. This improves air circulation and helps eliminate those annoying hot and cold spots in your home.

You don't have to remember to change the setting at the semi-annual change to and from daylight savings time. A "perpetual calendar" built into the thermostat remembers, and does the work for you.

All the next-generation Honeywell thermostats have a "no batteries" memory chip. With the chip, you don't have to reprogram the temperature setting after a power failure.

The Honeywell next-generation thermostats can actually help you be more comfortable because they are extremely accurate—within one degree, plus or minus, of the temperature at which you set it.

A new thermostat may save you energy.

If you plan to upgrade your thermostat, call your local heating and cooling contractor. There's more to know about thermostats than there used to be, and substantial energy savings are at stake.

Honeywell offers three standard and three programmable thermostats rated good, better, best respectively. Topping them all is the "breakthrough" unit, the Perfect Climate Comfort Center™ System.

For a free brochure, call 1-800-345-6770, ext. 7226, or send e-mail to info@corp.honeywell.com.

Monthly payments are for 30-year conventional fixed rate mortgages as detailed below. Please ask about Lower Downpayments-Lower Monthly Payments-Other Options.
For purchase prices up to $268,375, monthly mortgage payments (principal + interest) quoted in our ads are to qualified buyers, based upon a 20% downpayment and a conventional 30-year fixed rate loan at 6.75% with 3 points, A.P.R. 7.2227%. As an example, a $100,000 loan would mean 360 monthly payments of $655.92. For purchase prices from $268,375 to $625,000, the monthly payments are to qualified buyers based upon a 20% downpayment and calculated at 7.125% with 3 points on a "Jumbo" 30-year fixed rate mortgage with an A.P.R. of 7.4427%. An example of a $500,000 loan would mean 360 monthly payments of $3,369.58. Figures herein are approximates and do not include property taxes, hazard insurance, or homeowners association dues for a condominium purchase. Interest rates quoted are as of Oct. 2, 1997, and subject to change. Not responsible for typographical errors, while information is believed accurate, we request that the payment be validated with a mortgage provider prior to purchase.
