SO LONG, MARIE - After 23 years as School Crossing Guard, the last 12 years at the corner of Division and Union Avenues, by School Three, Marie Napoliello retired as of Tuesday. Wishing her well, from left, are Guards Marie Gamarro, Colleen Oese, Mrs. Napoliello, Marge Gregor, Carol Patti and Alice Clarkson. With husband Al, she plans retirement to the warmer climate of Florida, when she is ready.

The Guardian Angel needs some earthly aid

By James Zoccoli

Running a thrift shop while she helps battered women get their lives back together is keeping Anna Garbaccio-Scherillo very busy this holiday season.

Scherillo owns The Guardian Angel Thrift Shop, Nutley, which dedicates itself to abused women and children in need of professional guidance.

The Guardian Angel opened its doors on Franklin Avenue nearly one year ago, but many local residents still do not realize it exists, says Scherillo.

Hoping to become more noticed in the community, Scherillo said she is now looking for help in putting up a sign.

"We're trying to raise some money," Scherillo said, noting that a sign may cost upwards of $1,000.

Scherillo has been running the establishment on a shoestring budget since its opening. Earlier this year, Scherillo said her store's electric was temporarily disconnected because she could not pay the bill. Contributions helped save the day.

Council to vote two changes in Town Hall's interior work

By Howard Klausner

At a special session Monday, the Township Council voted to introduce resolutions that would add a second floor mezzanine and provide a concrete sub-floor in the Municipal Building.

The mezzanine was voted as a storage area that was made possible by the removal of the old interior dome of the former Council Chamber.

A proposal to create a fourth floor to house the Health Department was considered and then rejected as impractical.

It would have required special access for the handicapped which the Council considered to be too expensive, Council sources stated.

The Council voted two changes in the plans.

One was the providing of the mezzanine at a cost of $20,000, and the other was for a coating of concrete that would level off the floors.

Council Member Jim Messina called it a "cosmetic job."

Messina was critical of the piecemeal approach to the job, which was first halted by the discovery of asbestos, and now will include the latest changes.

"We are doing now what we should have done years ago," Messina said.

He then noted that a previous Council had voted down a $450,000 bond issue which would have been guaranteed by the State of New Jersey and would have borne a 1 percent interest rate.

"We have wasted a lot of dollars," Messina said.

The plan changes were offered by Council Member Victor Canning, who had been a proponent of bringing the Health Department into the Municipal Building.

Township Manager Raymond Kimble said that the cost of renting offices at 50 Newark Ave. for the Health Department currently costs $1,052 a month, and includes utilities. "It would cost $250,000 to bring it into 383 Washington Ave." Kimble said.

Canning said, "Let's keep the Health Department where it is."

Architect Greg Comito offered the proposals. The cost of the change in floor plans would be $57,667.

Because the cost of the changes are less than 20 percent of the present contract with Gaglioti Contracting Co. of Belleville, the additional work does not require new bids, Township Attorney Robert Giordano said.

The original cost of the renovation was set at $1.2 million. Removal of asbestos added another $280,000.

Messina said he had looked into the now-empty shell of the Municipal Building earlier that day.

"I see a lot of potential in it," Messina said.

Contract for office workers includes 10.5 percent pay hike

By Howard Klausner

The Board of Education has approved a contract with the School District office personnel that provides a 10.5 percent pay increase over three years.

Some 30 employees are affected by the contract, which sets three successive annual pay hikes of 3.7 percent, 3.3 percent and 3.5 percent.

The contract approximates that voted to the teachers earlier this year.

Salaries of office workers range from $19,000 to $35,000 a year, according to Board Secretary Edward Appleton.

The contract was signed with the Belleville Schools Office Personnel Association.

The first performance of the Belleville High School Chamber Orchestra and the Belleville High School String Quartet was offered at the Monday meeting of the Board.

The musical organization was developed by music and arts teacher Edwin Black.

The Quartet performed a work by Schubert. The entire Orchestra played "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer" with a classical effect.

The String Quartet included Garry Ianco, leader; Ariel Peldunas, Ramiro Perez and Jennifer Spano.

Making up the orchestra were the members of the quartet and players Christie Hartford, Marisa Rotino, Jason Sack and Suzanne San Philip.

Listeners praised the professional quality of the young performers.

In Black's absence, the musical groups were introduced by Joseph Kraemer, Supervisor of Music and Arts.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Dr. Joseph Ciccone said, at the conclusion of the applauded concert, "The Center for the Performing Arts was not in Newark tonight. It was on this stage."

Council Member John Notari said that he believed there was both a need and a demand for the offering of drama in the schools.

"I saw the performance of the children at School 10, in a tribute to Principal Nick Petti on his retirement, and I am convinced there is a cry for the teaching of drama in the schools."

"I saw the way the children sang and danced, and there was no shyness about them. They wanted to perform."

School Four youngsters pitch in to help Toys for Tots effort

PRINCIPAL ROLE - School Four Principal Paula Cummis concentrated on her job of gift wrapping. She was helping her Sixth Graders to meet goal of providing several hundred gifts for needy.

CHRISTMAS WRAP-UP - Philip Squadrito, Sixth Grade Class Advisor at School Four, aided by Police Officer George Geyer, left, and Captain Frank Manno, right, oversee Sixth Graders' wrapping.

DOING THEIR SHARE - Parents and students at School Four prepared hundreds of gifts Friday to be distributed under the Police Department's Toys for Tots program. It was school's holiday gift.

Aside from That

By Howard Klausner

The only authentic Santa Claus whom we know is Bill Jernick, who has made providing a Christmas to the children of a poverty stricken area of New York State his personal Good Deed. It is no longer a secret locally that Bill, and some good friends, have been doing the job, but it hopefully is still not known to the young recipients, in an area near Cooperstown, where a dying dairy industry has left a once-prosperous area a place of great natural beauty and little income. . . . Bill operates his insurance company out of Nutley, and he has plenty of clients in Belleville. A Marine Corps veteran, a devout parishioner of his church, a man active in youth and community activities, a long time Elk and an avid collector of everything from baseball memorabilia to Native American artifacts, he manages to find time for his business, his family, his community and a lot of families living several hundred miles away. For those who do not know of this Santa Claus operation, it begins when the country newspapers in the area print a notice that Santa Claus will be visiting a few days before Christmas, and that letters to him can be sent to the local Post Office. The letters arrive, and the Postmaster holds them for Bill. He then attempts to provide the gifts requested. . . . Some of the requests are not answerable by any earthly power. Some require social services and medical assistance. But down-to-earth gift requests, from bicycles and dolls to clothing can - and are - answered. Bill and his friends raise several thousand dollars a year, a lot of it coming out of Bill's own pocket, and go out to find the gifts. Delivery is by horse-drawn sleigh, or by wagon, if the roads are dry. The itinerary is mapped out carefully, and as each home is passed, Santa halts the vehicle, descends and hands out the gifts to the waiting children. Sometimes, a parent accepts the gift for a child too ill to be there. Sometimes, Santa is approached by someone who isn't on the list. "Oh, yes," Santa says, "I knew he wanted something, so I brought it along." Out of the reserve supply comes the gift. . . . We had the honor, and the pleasure, of accompanying Bill and his friends one December day. While the hill country was blanketed with snow, the road was too dry for a sleigh, so the four great Percherons were harnessed to a great hay wagon, loaded with Christmas supplies for the day. The day began early and ended late. Darkness fell early, and a freezing wind came through the wagon, never fazing Santa or his helpers. Well, it did faze them somewhat. We stood frozen to the floor of the wagon, unable to get ourselves to the warmth of the cab of the accompanying truck. It won the admiration of Santa's helpers who did not realize our jaws were too frozen to utter our cry for help. But every last gift, and more, went to their intended recipient. . . . The delivery of the gifts is followed by a traditional vow of never doing this again, it's getting to be too much of an ordeal, we can't be spending this much time and money any more, and we'll never live to get back to Jersey. And in the same tradition, Bill Jernick, the spirit of Santa, and his helpers, were on the frozen roads of that rural county again this past week-end, and several score families knew that children's laughter would be in their homes again. (We were with them in spirit, or at least our shoes were. They are still frozen to the floor boards of that wagon). . . . In Putnam County, New York, our neighbors on Bullet Hole Road were the Petersens. Mrs. Petersen was a Lockwood, whose family went back in the county to Colonial times. Eric Petersen was a Norwegian. So between the two traditions, there was always a grand celebration of Christmas at their farm property. One Petersen tradition was the decoration of a great pine tree by their house. It required a ladder to reach the upper branches, and it took a few days to decorate it. Among the fascinated onlookers were our country dog, Lassie, and our cat. Lassie had an ongoing relationship with the Petersen collie, Bonnie. Whenever we would show Mrs. Petersen a litter of pups, each one of them a dead ringer for Bonnie, she would say, "Oh, our Bonnie is a good boy. He would never do anything like that." This would be followed by a laugh. At Christmas, we usually left a bottle of cheer with the Petersens. Then we would be staggered by a cup of Erik's aquavit-laced eggnog. One holiday season, Lassie and the cat headed up to the Petersen property to enjoy the tree lighting. This time, when they came back, a fair-sized brightly decorated package was hanging from Lassie's collar. The card said, "Season's Greetings. We thought it was time to reciprocate." The contents were a supply of Hanukkah chocolates. . . . Fifth Ward Councilman Harry Zilch says that an answer to race relations problems may be auto accidents. "People say mean things about other groups, until you have an auto accident. Then everyone rushes to help the victims, regardless of who they are. Do it often enough, and we may learn to like each other." . . . Zilch's political supporters, the Kool Kumbur Boys, are prepared for their annual "It's The Spirit that Counts" party. "Since we can afford only one gift, we'll spend the day passing it around to each other, and have a great time." . . . Our Copy Cat, Baldassaro Di Vincenzo Mitten, says the pigeons are planning a retaliation for their eviction during the renovation of Town Hall. "They'll follow the Council members to their car washes, wait for them to drive out, and then -Whammo!"

however, and electrical service was reconnected.

She is now hoping other contributors will come forward to help her erect a sign. Currently, the thrift shop has a simple paper sign in its window.

The shop has already received some recent donations. The Garden State Hospice has aided the cause and most recently, the American Legion Auxiliary Post 118, Secaucus.

The sign may have to wait till after the holidays, however, as Scherillo said she is entering her busy season, not in sales at the shop, but in spousal abuse.

"I've been spending a lot of time on the phone," she said. "There are a lot of people that need help this time of year."

Scherillo said that family abuse generally triples during the holiday season.

When a battered and abused woman calls for help, Scherillo directs them to either a counselor or a safehouse, which is affiliated with Clara Maass Hospital, Belleville.

The safehouse was established 11 years ago and has already logged 20,000 incidents of domestic violence in Nutley, Belleville, Glen Ridge and Bloomfield. During that time, the safehouse has sheltered 6,000 women and chil-

St. Peter's Young Adults' Holiday Social, Dec. 30

St. Peter's Church invites all young adults, 21-35, to enjoy a Holiday Social on Tuesday, Dec. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Youth Room of the School, 152 William St.

Beer, wine, soda and snacks will be served. Publicity Chairperson Judy Nucci has announced.

Those attending may park their cars in the lot on Bridge Street and use the school entrance in the corner near the fire escape.

dren. Scherillo said she understands that it's extremely difficult to escape the torment of a violent relationship.

"People always ask, 'Why don't you just leave?'" Scherillo said. "But it's not easy ... It's very, very difficult to get out."

Too often, Scherillo said, wives become "like faithful dogs," who return to their masters no matter how badly they've been treated.

Scherillo, a Glen Ridge resident, eventually decided to help other women suffering through violent relationships. She then decided to set up shop in Nutley and use the profits to help battered women get re-established in life.

Over the past year, a wide variety of items have been donated to the thrift shop, Scherillo said.

"We sell anything and everything," she said.

Scherillo said her goal is to help as many women as possible, but added that she feels she will have succeeded even if she achieves only one success story.

"If I've saved one life, I've done my job," she said.

The Guardian Angel is located at 177 Franklin Ave., Nutley. Its hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday-Saturday.

DiGaetano urges designation of Passaic as heritage river

A resolution urging President Bill Clinton to designate the Passaic River as an American Heritage River was introduced by Assembly Majority Leader Paul DiGaetano, R-36.

DiGaetano's district includes Belleville and Nutley.

The measure, which will be sent to both the president and the President's Council on Environmental Quality, was introduced by DiGaetano in response to the president's State of the Union address last February. In it, Clinton announced an American Heritage River initiative, supporting community-led efforts relating to rivers that spur economic revitalization, protection of natural resources and the environment as well as the preservation of historic and cultural heritage.

In 1998, the president said he will designate 10 American Heritage Rivers which will assist communities in revitalization and protection of their river corridors.

According to DiGaetano, "Through this program, we will be able to integrate natural resource conservation and economic development while at the same time preserving historical and cultural values."

Since the program is voluntary and locally driven, he said, communities can choose to participate or terminate their involvement at any time.

According to the Passaic River Coalition, to date, most of the 45 municipalities along the Passaic River have expressed their support for this program, DiGaetano said.

The initiative creates no new regulatory requirements or rules for property owners and state or local governments and utilizes existing federal resources for this venture, DiGaetano said.

He said that significant progress has been made over the years to revitalize the Passaic River's water quality.

Currently, the Passaic River's surface water and its aquifer systems serve as a supplier of drinking water to millions of people in one of the most densely-populated areas in the nation, and the river is home to more than 27 species of freshwater fish, DiGaetano said.

"Through various Green Acres programs we have sponsored in the Legislature, the Passaic River has and continues to improve, despite years of neglect," he said.

Pause A Moment

There is no special time for prayer,
One can pray 'most anywhere,
When things aren't going quite your way,
Pause a moment, just to pray.
If everything seems to bother you
And nag at you the whole day through,
To dispel those awful clouds of gray,
Pause a moment, just to pray.
If there is no hope in sight,
You see the tunnel but not the light,
Do not wander, do not stray,
Pause a moment, just to pray.
When all your efforts seem in vain,
You struggle hard but see no gain,
Do one thing without delay,
Pause a moment just to pray.
When you feel there is no hope,
When with life you cannot cope,
God will help along the way,
Pause a moment, just to pray.

A happy anniversary to Don and Irma Mastro of Nutley.

A belated happy birthday to Ann Sarchio Cerami.

Last week, two of my nieces, Angela and Janet, from Long Island paid my wife and I their annual Christmas visit. It is always a pleasure to see them and we never know who will come on the visit with them. This trip, they brought their nephew, Jason and niece, Nicole. It was an enjoyable visit and we look forward to next year's visit.

Leave Room for Charity

A child of the Depression
I cannot spend a cent
Without much contemplation
Lest I wake up to repent.
For years, I did without, made do,
Mended, shortened, lengthened,
Submerged my true desires
Until my will had strengthened.
No wonder that I find it hard
From money now to part.
I hope all this frugality
Left some charity in my heart.

A Prayer

Thank you, God,
For moments free from pain.
Thank you for the warmth
Of sun - and cooling rain.

Thank you for the faith
And strength to bear
The weight of those who need
Our loving care.
And when we falter, helpless,
Tired and weak,
Hold our Your hand.
Give us the grace we seek.

The Essex County Council of Seniors had their 1998 election of officers. For eight years, Joseph DeFabbio has been elected president. George Turturiello has been elected 1st vice president and a newcomer from Belleville, Pat Orsagno, was elected trustee for three years. All of the rest of the officers are from out of Belleville. They were sworn in at their Christmas party at the Fairmount Dec. 18 by Vanessa Williams, executive director of the Essex County Division of Aging. Present at the party were the Hon. William Pascrell, Sheriff Armondo Fontoura, Essex County Executive James Treffinger and Essex County Clerk Pat McNally.

Bond blows away X-mas competition in latest flick

By Kelly Tahaney

Rating: 1/2

The James Bond Dossier: Mid-thirties forever; expert pistol shot, boxer and knife thrower; speaks French and German; vices/drinks but not to excess and women; doesn't accept bribes; and he has a license to kill.

Slowly but surely Pierce Brosnan is making Bond fans forget about Timothy... what was his name?

That doesn't mean a whole lot because Timothy Dalton was heavy on the stale side.

In Metro Goldwyn Mayer's "Tomorrow Never Dies," Bond battles a media tycoon with the capabilities to start a nuclear war.

Jonathan Pryce memorably plays media mogul Elliot Carver.

Carver controls a daily newspaper with a circulation of 100 million and satellite systems capable of reaching every TV on earth.

Bond is sent on a mission to destroy Carver before Carver starts a war between China and Great Britain.

007 infiltrates Carver's world by seducing Mrs. Paris Carver (played by the lovely Teri Hatcher of Superman fame).

Joining James on this mission is martial arts expert Michelle Yeoh.

She has great screen chemistry with Brosnan in "Tomorrow" and she holds off Bond's advances for a whole minute.

One thing is certain, the 1997 Bond may not be the 1960's womanizing, cigarette smoking, martini guzzling playboy anymore, but he hasn't lost the charm, humor and coolness that Sean Connery began.

"Tomorrow Never Dies" is now playing at the Wellmont Theater in Montclair.

'Amahl and the Night Visitors' to be staged in Bloomfield

The Bloomfield Federation of Music will present three performances of the opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors" on Friday, Jan. 2, at 8 p.m.; Saturday, Jan. 3, at 3 p.m. and Sunday, Jan. 4, at 3 p.m. at Bloomfield High School, 160 Broad St.

Gian Carlo Menotti's work concerns Amahl, a crippled boy who is visited by three kings who are seeking shelter. Amahl invites shepherds of the village who bring gifts to greet the kings, and then as they share their story with Amahl and his mother, a miracle happens.

Tickets for all performances are $6 for students and senior citizens and $9 for adult at the door. Tickets may be purchased in advance at $5 for students and senior citizens and $7 for adults by calling 338-8140 or 201-837-7214.

Sponsored by Golden Age of Nutley

Spaces still available for trip to Atlantic City

Golden Age of Nutley presents a 2-day, 1-night trip to Atlantic City, with accommodations at the Holiday Inn Boardwalk Hotel.

The Jan. 13 to Jan. 14 trip at $65 per person, double occupancy ($85 single), includes round trip transportation, deluxe accommodations, $15 in coin from the Taj Mahal Casino, $4 dinner discount at the hotel restaurant, full breakfast at the Tropicana Casino, located next door to the Holiday Inn, $10 in coin from the Tropicana, a box of salt water taffy, room tax, state surcharge and baggage handling.

The bus leaves Nutley Parks and Recreation, 44 Park Ave., at 9:30 a.m.

For more information and/or reservations, call Aurora Mitrano at 661-2548.

Organist to perform in concert Jan. 11 at Glen Ridge church

Glen Ridge Community Concerts will present acclaimed organist David Messineo in concert on Sunday, Jan. 11, at 3 p.m. in the sanctuary of the Glen Ridge Congregational Church, 195 Ridgewood Ave.

Messineo, minister of music at the church, will perform a varied program of European and American masterpieces. Transcriptions of well-known orchestral pieces, including Wagner's overture to "Die Meistersinger," interspersed with lighter fare, will give the concert a flavor that has made Messineo a favorite with audiences across the country, in Canada and in Europe.

Messineo traveled to Germany this past summer, concertizing in many churches, including St. Thomas in Leipzig, where Bach himself was an organist. This season's concert will feature music from his tour, including the famous "Passacaglia and Fugue in C Minor."

Widely acclaimed for his range of virtuosity on piano and pipe organ, Messineo was praised by The Star-Ledger as having "top-rate technique with a skill for organ registration."

The concert will be performed on the church's 84-year-old, 55-rank pipe organ.

Tickets are $12 for adults, $10 for senior citizens and $6 for children 12 and under. They may be obtained at the door or in advance by calling 743-5596.

HOROSCOPES

Dec. 28-Jan. 3

ARIES — March 21/April 20

The end of the year brings some stressful evenings for you, Aries. People expect a lot of you, and there's just not enough time to meet everyone's demands. Set your priorities, and do what you can. Yet, remember that you need to put yourself first. The new year brings with it some peace and quiet.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21

A touchy situation with a friend has you on edge. Try to relax and keep your mind on other things. By week's end, everything will be back to normal. A loved one needs your help with a romantic problem. Even though you really don't want to get involved, you have no choice. Be honest.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21

Business plans fall through at the last moment, Gemini, putting you in a bad financial situation. Don't panic. Think about all of the options you have before making any decisions. That special someone needs to talk to you. Don't worry — everything is going to be fine. Virgo plays a key role.

CANCER — June 22/July 22

Even though things are going well for you this week, you feel depressed. Try to look at the bright side of things, and don't take your bad mood out on your loved ones. They're doing all that they can to help you feel better. A close friend reveals his or her true feelings for you. Think before you respond.

LEO — July 23/August 23

Your outgoing nature serves you well early in the week, Leo. You're in the right place at the right time, and your opinions grab the attention of an influential person. He or she is going to present you with an unexpected opportunity. A loved one takes you on a surprise outing. Enjoy yourself.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22

Don't be too hard on yourself during the middle of the week, even though a decision that you make puts a friend in a compromising situation. He or she understands that it is an honest mistake. You meet an interesting stranger during the weekend. Be yourself, and you're sure to win him or her over. Leo plays a key role.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23

All is right with the world this week, Libra. Things go well for you professionally and personally. You win praise at work, and that special someone finally says yes. Enjoy yourself! An old friend calls you up unexpectedly. Take the time to get to know him or her again. It will be worth your while.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22

You're on cloud nine early in the week, Scorpio, when a friend asks you out on a date. However, don't get overexcited. Remember to keep things in perspective. A family problem takes up a lot of your time at the end of the week. Keep it to yourself; things are going to work out in time.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21

Your generally happy nature is challenged by a touchy situation at work. Don't get angry or upset. Think the situation through before you say something that you regret. A friend offers advice — take it. A loved one reveals a shocking secret to you late in the week. Keep it to yourself. Pisces plays an important role.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20

You become the center of attention during a large get-together and don't really know how to react. Just be yourself, and you'll win people's hearts. That special someone doesn't call for a while. Don't get nervous. He or she simply is busy with family duties. Your relationship is not in danger.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18

The new year brings new opportunities for you, Aquarius. Seize the day! It's your turn to shine. Don't let a few minor setbacks discourage you. A close friend needs your help later in the week. Try to do all that you can for him or her; your efforts will be appreciated. Cancer plays a key role.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20

It's a long week, and it seems that you just don't have any time to yourself, Pisces. Everyone needs something from you. Do what you can when you can, but don't burn yourself out. Take some time to pamper yourself this weekend. You deserve it.

Life in Silver Lake

By Marie Strumolo Burke
A feature of Belleville Times

The Silver Lake Civic Association has lost two of its noteworthy residents. Condolences to the families of Angelina Cuzzo of Salter Place and Carmine (Codey) Mattia of Brook Street. REST IN PEACE.

Belmont Avenue Resident Hits the Big '50'

It's belated but the meaning is still there. On Sept., 29, Michael Averna of Belmont Avenue, right here in Silver Lake, reached the 50-year plateau. Now I know it's December but it's better late than never. Happy Birthday, Michael.

This chap graduated St. Anthony's Grammar School and attended Essex Catholic H.S. He then went on to Seton Hall University and Montclair State College. Michael, works as an EKG Technician at Morristown Memorial Hospital. I told you all his schooling, now let me get down to what a "good" human being he is. Remember in the summer when I told you about my sunflowers? Well, he was the man who planted the seeds for me. And boy did they spring. And would you believe that after the flowers had died, he showed up one Saturday afternoon with "clippers" in hand to tear them down.

Whenever or wherever he's needed, he shows. I notice him every morning walking to Jeraldo Street visiting his friend, Joe Risoli. Joe is not feeling too well, but Michael "perks" him up/ He even picks him up and brings him to church, does his grocery shopping every morning and, when needed, takes him to the Doctor. I bet you're all saying, "Are there still people around who actually help others?" In Silver Lake there is, and his name is MICHAEL.

Michael was born on Belmont Avenue and still resides with his mom of 85 years, Rose Averna. And, oh, what a beauty she is. Years ago, Michael ought about entering the priesthood. I can still remember him tutoring my brother, Pete Strumolo, many moons ago.

The height of this fine gentleman is 6 feet, 5 inches, and that's how big his HEART is. I can't think of anyone more deserving to award my "SILVER LAKE MAN OF THE YEAR" to than MICHAEL AVERNA OF BELMONT AVENUE. AND BY THE WAY, HAPPY BELATED 50TH TO MY FRIEND MICHAEL.

Now that I gave you my pick for "Man of The Year", let me tell you who the "SILVER LAKE WOMAN OF THE YEAR" is.

First, let me tell you a little about her. Her claim to fame is that she, too, is a Belmont Avenue resident . . . the south side of Franklin Street, or North Belmont Avenue, to be exact. This gracious lady always has her hand in her pocket. She said that "God is good to her" and she wants to share it with others. She was the first to start the ball rolling with her generous donation to our Holly Tree. She bakes the "bestest" sheet cakes in Town for the Church and always saves a big chunk for her son's pal Lebro Charles of Naples Avenue. She crochets the most beautiful hats and donates them to the underprivileged.

This grand lady is 83 years young and has lived in Silver Lake 80 of them. Her latest philanthropic (defined as humanitarian) act was donating $30 to our Holiday

Wednesday, December 24, 1997

Dance, since she couldn't attend. Need I say more? A FIRST CLASS LADY, TO SAY THE LEAST.

I know the suspense is killing you, so it gives me great pleasure to award MARION VENIERO OF NORTH BELMONT AVENUE THE 'SILVER LAKE WOMAN OF THE YEAR'.

You know, I was thinking, it must be the Belmont Avenue water they drink to have two humanitarians from the same block win the awards. REMEMBER, WE LOVE SILVER LAKE, MARION VENIERO AND MICHAEL AVERNA, TOO.

TO ALL MY LOYAL READERS. LET ME WISH YOU ALL A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON.

OUR OPINION

This time of year

The packages have been wrapped. The gifts have been delivered. The material side of the holiday season has been consummated.

If we ask ourselves why we feel so good about having made what for most of us is a sacrifice of time and money, the answer may be that we feel we have met an obligation.

It is a moral obligation to show that we can rise above selfishness and self interest to show concern for others. It is a proof that we are human beings with a sense of responsibility.

The sense of the season is that it brings out the best in people. The gifts are simply the concrete expressions of that sentiment.

The practical result is that aid is given to people in need, that children are shown that they are loved, that friends and dear ones have another evidence of our regard for them.

A person living on a desert island would not have need to show regard for others.

But humans are not meant to live in isolation.

Our Creator has made it necessary for us to depend on each other for our very survival.

Humanity has always known that the answer to our perils is cooperation. Usually, it chooses conflict.

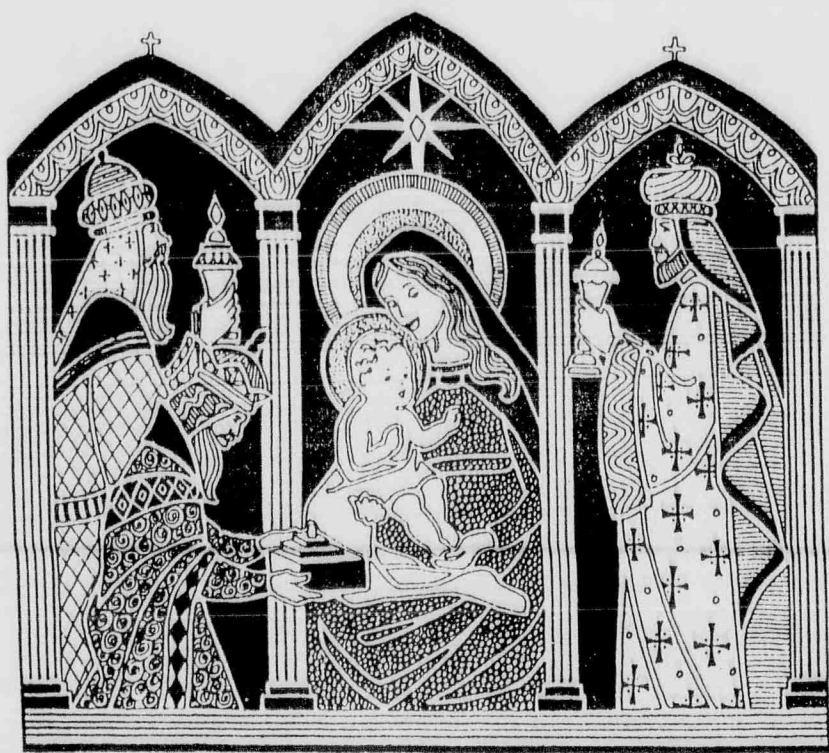

The idea of placing the good of others over our own material needs has taken many thousands of years to achieve.

It is a sign of civilization. It is in contrast with the greed that is instinctive with us.

It is easy to scoff at those who seek to express their love by buying gifts. We can say that this is not what the season is all about.

But self-sacrifice is indeed what our better nature asks of us. And many of us save all year just to make this expression of love.

So the packages and the gifts do have their value. It is a time when the giver does find it is at least as joyful to give as it is to receive.

Share holiday benevolence throughout the entire year

The holiday season marks a time of year when people rekindle their interest in helping the needy.

Feelings of benevolence and charity always overtake Americans as they buy thoughtful gifts, donate to worthy causes and seek to aid those less fortunate than themselves.

While such holiday goals are indeed laudable, a sociological gap of enormous proportions still exists between rich and poor — a financial great divide that is routinely overlooked during non-holiday times.

This is not to say that average citizens are to blame for the plight of the needy, the homeless, and the chronically disabled that now roam the streets of many cities. Average citizens are simply overwhelmed trying to make ends meet and do their jobs in a world filled with constant change and confusion.

Still, each person who lives in this bountiful land has a moral obligation to focus on trying to understand just how people from all walks of life fall into desperate times, despite living in the so-called "richest nation in the world."

What's the problem? ... Why are so many good people falling between the cracks?

There have been multitudes of government programs and sweeping efforts by energetic religious groups, all with good intentions. But despite such efforts, a void continues to exist between rich and poor.

The holiday season brings out the best in people; a heartfelt urge to care and a passion to share. The next step, however, is to expand that "holiday" feeling of benevolence to encompass the entire year.

YOUR OPINION

From mother of boy injured by car that took his friend's life

To the Editor,

It is with grateful appreciation that we would like to thank everyone who said prayers, sent good wishes and visited Rasid during his injury.

(Rasid Bosnjakovic was struck by the same car that fatally injured his friend, Alexander Jegdic, when they were crossing Union Avenue on Nov. 7. Both boys were 14 years old.)

We send special thanks to Dr. Frank Mazzarella for his extremely caring attention and Dr. Gerald Vizzone for his surgical expertise — also, the kindness of the orthopedic unit of Clara Maass Medical Center.

Much thanks for the promptness of the Belleville

Police and Fire Departments.

Our thanks as well go out to all the following people: Mayor Mario Drozd for his helpful advice and his family, to all those teachers, principals and Parent-Teacher Association who visited Rasid, especially Mrs. Bonnie Cook, who set up a tutoring program for him.

Thanks to our family, friends, neighbors, Rasid's soccer team, classmates, the Belleville Boy Scouts and any other Belleville citizen who helped us.

The outpouring of kindness shown to us was overwhelming.

Sincerely, Mrs. Zehra Bosnjakovic and son, Rasid
Belleville

Bucs' parents write

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many people who helped the Belleville Jr. Bucs Parents Association this season.

Due to the outpouring of cooperation from the parents, friends, and town vendors, we have completed our most successful season yet.

Thank you especially to Joanne Caputo for her continuous support and to John Caruso for always making himself available to assist wherever and whenever needed.

To the outgoing officers, Vice President Anthony Campisi, Secretary Angela Ferruggia and Treasurer Joanne Caputo: many thanks for all your dedication, time served and hard work. You should have received combat pay this year.

To all of the wonderful people who worked tirelessly, especially Phyllis Giangrande, Connie Fusco, Linda Pizzi, Camille Grasso, John and Diane Morgan and Tom McGinley: I could not have done this without you.

To Dennis Buckley, Audrey Rolle and Bonnie Rafferty: thank you for the support you give our organizations and all of the efforts you put into our children's programs. I will miss working with you next year.

To everyone else, too numerous to mention, who helped: you know who you are and I thank you.

To those whose only participation was to complain about and try to ruin the reputation of the officers and the organization: you know who you are also, and all I have to say to you is that despite your efforts, we succeeded and I for one am extremely proud to have been associated with the aforementioned officers and this organization. Good luck to the next group of officers. You certainly will need it.

Of All Things

By Frank Orechio

A feature of the Nutley Sun, Bloomfield Life, Belleville Times and Glen Ridge Voice

• AN NBC recent 7 PM News special featured an interesting in-depth review of police. The commentary included a national observation that 40 percent of the police are involved in some kind of abuse — whether it be family, personal relations or public perception. The statistic is difficult to believe because cops are human beings and extrapolating the numbers across the nation, we would then conclude that 40 percent of the population is involved in some kind of abuse — and this we can't believe.

• IN a rather unusual development, former Glen Ridge Councilman Ray Carnevale says he will not accept another term on the council because he sees it as an insult to his intelligence. When the new members are sworn in January 1st, Carnevale will be among the missing. He has resigned. He disagrees with the Council in how fiscal affairs should be managed. Carnevale is Treasurer of Hackensack.

• A NEWARK detective has brought shame upon the uniform and the badge he wears. Detective Anthony Moraes was found guilty by a Superior Court last week of theft by deception, attempted theft and fraudulent use of a credit card. The detective used an altered credit card to steal $4,500 worth of merchandise. This is a detective who received fifty commendations for arrests and other acts of bravery during his eight-year career. You never know, do we?

• AND on the subject of police corruption, let's take a look at what the city council of Washington, DC recently did.

Together with the U. S. Attorney, the members agreed to have an inspector general "lead a task force to find corruption in the District of Columbia Police Department". When does it end — and where?

• CONGRATULATIONS to Belleville's 2000 Committee, a group charged with finding ways to revitalize the community. Belleville is strategically seated. It is governed by an honest, hard-working group of council persons and a board of education that is acting responsibly and prudent. Confidence in local government is one of the important aspects of the selection process when industry decides to locate in the community. We commend the volunteers on this committee who are giving up family time in an effort to benefit the entire community.

• GOVERNOR WHITMAN is taking it on the chin for the scheme to raise inauguration contributions from individuals and corporations by using charities as a vehicle for contributors who would not have to concern themselves with a donation cap. Under New Jersey law, contributions to the inaugural committee are limited to $500. But Whitman is asking corporations to direct donations as high as $50,000 to charitable organizations specially designated to pay for inaugural events controlled by the committee. The evasion is legal since the law exempts charitable organizations from the $500 contribution limit. But we have a gutsy Governor who will ride out the storm.

• THE Nutley Yantacaw School Mothers' Club has scheduled its annual dinner and fashion show for Thursday, March 19, 1998 at the Landmark in East Rutherford. 350 Nutley females are expected to attend this group's major fundraiser. Proceeds help subsidize various activities and extra educational materials for the students. In a selected mailing, Jane Dinan and Jocelyn Lindsay, Co-Presidents of the Yantacaw Mothers' Club have appealed for support. This is one of the most worthwhile activities that makes Nutley the quality community that we know it to be. If any reader is interested in contributing, give a ring to Yantacaw School at 661-8892 for the details.

• BELLEVILLE Planning Board and Board of Education member Judy Piscatowski is being urged by her friends to make a run for Council-at-large. The next election is May 1998.

Judy Piscatowski

• TO ALL MY FRIENDS - I want them to know that personal circumstances did not permit me to have our usual pre-Christmas celebration. If you didn't receive an invitation, it's because I didn't have one.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all our readers, advertisers and staff a Joyous Holiday Season and a New Year filled with peace and happiness.

Belleville AARP Chapter enjoys active year of service

Belleville AARP Chapter #2051 was founded in 1975. It meets 1 p.m. the first Wednesday of each month at the Senior Center.

Its purpose is "to serve, not to be served" and its members are engaged in many community and fundraising activities.

During the past year, the chapter has made monetary contributions to the Belleville Dept. of Health and Human Services at Thanksgiving and to the Missionaries of Charity (Mother Theresa's order) at Christmas.

Members also donated a decoration to the Clara Maass Christmas tree and continue to knit articles for Clara Maass on a regular basis.

The undertaking for the coming year will be the "Care Closet" at Christ Episcopal Church in Belleville. Shelves will be stocked with items not allowed to be purchased with food stamps, such as paper and soap products. The closet will be open the last Monday of each month and AARP will support this project.

The group's next meeting will be Jan. 7 at the Senior Center, 125 Franklin Ave. Dr. Ming Bao will discuss "The Internet: The Wonder of the 20th Century."

A CHRISTMAS PARTY at the Fairmont was held Dec. 1. Above, President Anthony Lordi, 2nd Vice President Terry Brunn, Margery Lordi, Marie Cairoli and May Burns enjoy the affair.

PARTY GOERS include Richard Drake, 1st vice president; Marie Drake, and Doris and Edward Cxypolski.

VIRGINIA CAMPBELL and Marie McDonough also enjoyed the party at the Fairmont.

THE CHORAL GROUP from the Belleville Public Schools entertained the membership at its Dec. 3 meeting and enjoyed refreshments after the program.

BUG SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Holiday greetings

So, it's that time of the year again. I think I've heard more people say it this year than ever before. How did Christmas and Hanukkah get here so quickly? Wasn't it just July 4th a few days ago?

Since the calendar does say it's December, I guess it's safe to say that the holidays are upon us. A new year will soon be here, and with that, the hope that 1998 will produce all the desired results one could imagine.

This week, I'll have my usual holiday wishes to friends and family. Next week will be my usual list of mock predictions for 1998.

Before I get started, may I wish everyone the very best for a safe and prosperous holiday season. If 1997 wasn't a good year for you, then may these holiday seasons produce a time of happiness and hope for the new year. If '97 was a big-time year for you, then here's hoping that the miracle of the season will continue your prosperity.

So, here we go....

To "T.V.": It's been a long 4 1/2 years and now, more than ever, I realize how special you are and how my life is so much more fulfilled with you in it. I'm really glad that you and I are spending some time together and can only hope that this time, it will be very special. I think it's hard to find two people who have as much in common and enjoy each others company as much as we do. There's a great passage in the book "Bridges of Madison County" that one day I hope to show you. In the meantime, I can only hope that whatever we have can reach its full potential, because I think we both know it can be something special.

To John Senesky: The hope that you and Carmela have a wonderful holiday. We missed you on the field this year. How was it for you?

To Rich Ruffalo: It's an oldie, but a goodie. May we all see the world as well as you do.

To John Tosato: Here's hoping that everyone realizes what a good coach you are. You've done quite a job in getting our track and cross country programs on the beam.

To "Diamond Dave": Don't ever change. We've known each other for close to 20 years now and you've always been a good friend.

To Nick Coffaro: I always wished Don Roll that 6'6" center. I won't do that for you because you've got some tall kids on your team. So, here's hoping that your first year as a varsity coach is a successful one.

To 'Babe': One day, they're really going to name that song by 'Styx' just for you.

To Lauren Kelly Murray: My beautiful God daughter is now 3 1/2 years old and is absolutely the love of my life. Thanks for another great Christmas card. I'm looking forward to another 50 cards together.

To 'Big Guy': Maybe our Eagles will win the Super Bowl in 1998. This year, let's pull for 'Our Lions'.

To Pat Dowling: It certainly wasn't an easy season for you, but you've got what it takes to be successful. Hang in there.

To Cheryl Marion: Here's hoping for a good season in 1998 for you and your team. You deserve it.

To 'Shirl': We miss you, especially on Tuesday's. Don't forget, 'I'll walk'!!!!

To My St. Louis Cardinals: 1982 was a long time ago. Let's win a World Series in 1998. I've waited long enough.

Again, to all my friends, my very best for a peaceful holiday. Stay tuned for my New Year's predictions next week.

Winter sports are underway

Congratulations to the Buccaneer wrestling team on winning a quad match last weekend at West Essex. The team is 3-0 and will practice over the Christmas vacation in preparation for a big match against St. Joe's of Montvale on January 7 at Belleville High School.

The boys' basketball team wasn't as fortunate, losing to Ridgewood last Friday evening at B.H.S. It wasn't what new coach Nick Coffaro had hoped for, but it's a long season and the team should improve.

The girls' basketball team also struggled in its opener, losing last Saturday at Montclair. Cheryl Marion's team is young and inexperienced, but the coach is very optimistic about her teams chances.

Both the boys and girls teams will compete in Christmas tournaments starting later this week.

Grapplers sweep quad match

By Mike Lamberti

It promised to be a good early season test and last Saturday, the Buccaneer wrestling team passed it with flying colors.

Joe Nisivoccia's team won a quad match, beating Clifton 49-24, Passaic Valley 46-36 and West Essex, 46-33. The Bucs will now be off until January 7, when the team will host powerful St. Joe's of Montvale.

"It was a nice win," Nisivoccia said. "They are all formidable teams and it was good to get off to a 3-0 start. The kids did a good job."

In the Clifton match, Anthony Bello got off to a slow start in the 103 pound match, losing a 12-5 decision.

"Anthony came back and wrestled well in the next two matches," Nisivoccia said. "He was a little nervous, but once he got into the flow, he did well."

Jim Smith was pinned at 112 pounds, but he, too, came back and did well in the next two matches.

Anthony Conte didn't even need to get on the mat to earn six points at 119, as Clifton forfeited the match. Juan Rodriguez earned a forfeit victory for Belleville at 125 pounds and Lawrence Martin dominated the 130 pound match, winning 13-3.

Mike Fusco was awarded a forfeit win at 135 pounds. Mohammad Shama lost his match at 140, but Frank Zarro pinned his man 145 in 1:15 of the first round.

Jay Isip prevailed at 152 pounds, pancaking his man in just :32 of the first round. Mike DiPrimio won by forfeit at 160 pounds and the only other Buc to wrestle after that was Joe Spina, who lost a hard fought match in overtime at 215 pounds.

Indoor track team does well at East Brunswick Relays

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville indoor track team opened its season last Saturday by competing in the East Brunswick Relays.

John Tosato's team will take part in the Nutley Relays this Saturday. Some of the team will run at the Seton Hall Invitational, also set for this Saturday.

There was a big turnout for indoor track this season, with over 100 students coming out for the team. Currently, there are 60 runners and throwers taking part in practice.

"It was a great turnout," Tosato said. "What's good is that we have experienced kids on the team and our senior captains have taken charge."

The four captains this year are Christie Hartford, Brienne Kvetkus, Jessie Santiago and Dana Rasczyk.

"All four run practices and warmups," Tosato said of his senior captains. "They seem really happy with their roles as leaders."

In the first meet of the season, held outdoors last Saturday, the Bucs had some good performances.

The girls 4 x 800 relay team finished in 12:46.8. That team was made up of Hartford, who was running in her first meet since sustain-pounds.

There wasn't much time for the Bucs to catch their wind, because Passaic Valley was next on the quad card. There, Belleville jumped out to a big lead as Bello and Smith won by pins in times of 3:16 and :18 of the first round respectively and Cruz, Conte and Martin were awarded forfeit wins.

The two pins and forfeits gave the Bucs an early 30-0 lead and the team never looked back. Zarro won for Belleville at 145 pounds, pinning his man in just :34 and Rich Hoffelder was victorious at 171 pounds, beating Matt Jaudi 9-7.

Spina rounded out Belleville's win with a pin of Aristides Guzman in the 215 pound class in 1:28 of the first round.

In the West Essex match, the Bucs once again jumped out to a 30-0 lead. Bello won by forfeit at 103 pounds and Smith got his second victory of the day, pinning his man in what Nisivoccia called a "key match" at 112 pounds.

"Jimmy reacted well and did his job," Nisivoccia said. "It was a big win for the team."

Conte, after being awarded wins by forfeit in the first two matches of the day, finally got on the mat and made quick work of his man with a pin at 1:09 of the first period.

"Anthony was in control," Nisivoccia said. "He's much stronger than last year and has a lot of confidence."

Martin also won by pin at 125 pounds, downing his man in 1:47 of the first.

"Anthony and Larry give us a great 1-2 punch," Nisivoccia said. "And with Bello and Smith doing well at the top of the lineup, it gives us an opportunity to get ahead of teams early."

Fusco won by pin in the 130

ing a stress fracture in her leg early in the cross country season, Laura Frances, Kvetkus and Rasczyk.

The boys 4 x 800 team of Jose Moreno, Ashutosh Shukla, Torny Kvetkus and Mike Testa finished in 10:20. Testa ran an anchor leg of 2:28 in the 800 meters.

The boys 4 x 200 team, consisting of Jesus Perez, Herb Bollante, Luis Rios and Sean Rodriguez came within a second of the school record with a time of 1:42.7.

A good performance was turned in by the girls 4 x 200 relay team of Jessie Santiago, Jen Spano, Aerial Peldunas and freshman Glorivette Santiago. That foursome combined for a time of 2:06.6. Jessie Santiago ran the opening leg in 28.6.

The sprint medley team of Bollante, Sean Brown, Rodriguez and Shukla finished in 4:32.9. Some of the highlights of that race included Brown's 24.9 in the 200 meters and Rodriguez' 56.7 in the 400 meters.

The distance medley team of Robin Dholoria, Randy Herrera, Testa and Moreno ran 12:48.

In the field events, the high jump relay team of Spano and Peldunas combined for a jump of 8'10". The shot put relay of Diana Cifelli and Gul-Ruth Ayyub set a new school record with a throw of 49 6 3/4.

Rec wrestling team starts season

The Belleville recreation wrestling team started its season in Easton, Pa. and did a good job.

Leading the way for Belleville was Angelo DiLeo, who won the gold with a strong performance. Joe Troise came back strong to capture a third place and Nick Mattia finished fourth.

On November 30, the team competed in the tough Voorhees tournament. Matt Fusco won the only gold medal for Belleville. DiLeo and Mattia both won silver medals and Lawrence Fusco, fresh off the football field, took a third.

The Bucs are looking to improve on last years third place finish in Essex County. With four returning state place finishers in Fusco, DiLeo, M. D'Elia and Mattia, and three more state qualifiers in Giordano, Troise and Dan D'Elia, Belleville could be a real force in the county.

pound class, giving the Bucs a 30-0 lead. Fusco's pin came at 1:38 of the first round.

After two West Essex victories, Zarro got Belleville back on track with a pin in the 145 pound class (1:08 of the first) and DiPrimio won a majority decision in the 160 pound class, 17-3.

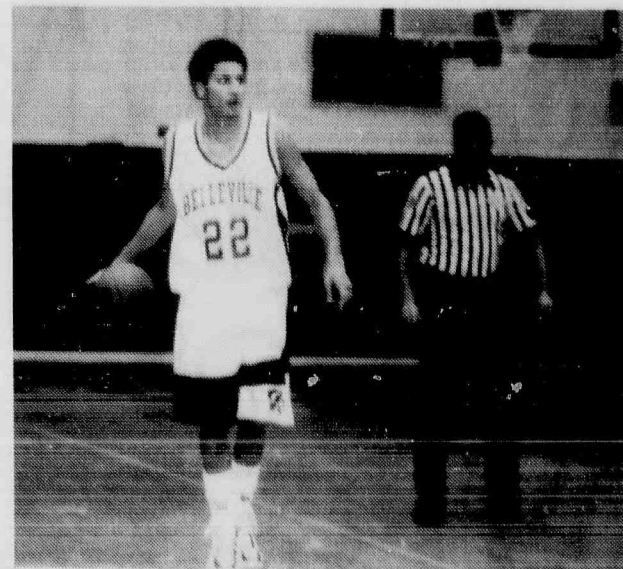

Belleville's final win came from Spina at 215 pounds, a pin at 1:47 of the first round.

NOTES: Hoffelder did a good job in the West Essex match at 171 pounds, but lost a 10-7 decision.

"Hoffelder wrestled well," Nisivoccia said. "Some of our younger kids will get better with experience."

"Overall, I've got to be happy with the way we've wrestled. We'll have some time off and it will give the coaches a chance to work with the kids and get them ready for the St. Joe's match."

Buc point guard Ray Quinn brings ball up court during season opener last Friday at B.H.S. Bucs lost, but team is hopeful for a good season in '97-98. Bucs will compete in Christmas tournament next Monday.

LIP READING

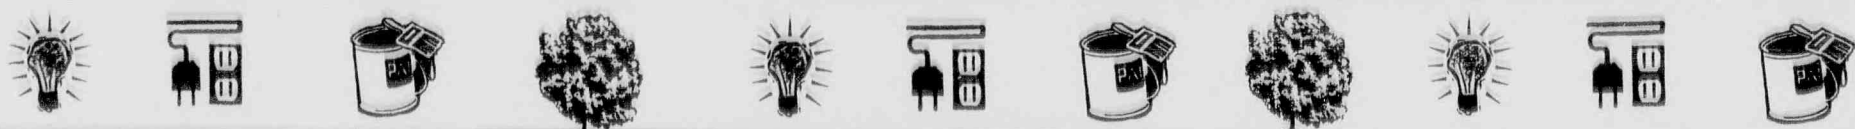

There is news for those who regularly suffer from cold sores caused by herpes simplex virus. The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved a drug that has been demonstrated to help heal the lip sores. When penciclovir cream is applied to the lips within the first hour that symptoms appear, and applied every two hours thereafter for the rest of the day, cold sores heal about one day sooner than when a placebo cream is used. According to research, applying the prescription cream also resulted in pain relief about a half-day sooner than with the placebo. While these benefits may seem modest, those who suffer from recurring cold sores will tell you that every day counts.

When time is important, you can count on us for fast, efficient service. Complete prescription service is always available at ROSS-MORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1956, 759-1968). We are Medicare and Blue Cross approved. "Your Doctor Knows Us - Your Doctor Trusts Us." Wheelchairs, walkers, crutches, canes and other convalescent aids are available for sale or rent. Open: Daily 9am-10pm. Sundays 9am-9pm. Our very best wishes for a happy and healthy New Year.

HINT: Penciclovir has been found to heal cold sores better than any antiviral drug to date.
