Early church lies in disrepair Page 3

JOHN MONTALVO/BELLEVILLE TIMES

Last March, a ceiling in the Belleville Reformed Church collapsed around a group of parishioners who were trying to determine a solution to the building's deteriorating condition. Despite wide publicity, the congregation hasn't been able to raise the money to fix it. Above, the church's minister, Rev. William Moheit with Martin Dunkelman of B'Nai Israel, a Kearny synagogue that's been the church's only financial charitable donor.
