2 BHS Marching Band makes clean sweep

Belleville Times
Thursday, October 7, 2004

The Belleville High School Marching Band made a clean sweep at the Roselle Park Band Competition Sept. 26, taking first place, best percussion section, and best color guard, according to the Belleville High School Music Boosters.

Under the direction of Paul Haase, this year's marching band is led by Drum Majors Stina Calungsod and Kim Kondreck with Color Guard Captain Mindy Cendana. Also, there are flute co-captains Marifae and Marijoy Tibay; clarinet captain Tim Loprieto; alto sax daptain Al Arceo; trumpet captain and Assistant Drum Major Dominic Garcia; low brass and woodwind captain Joe Longo; and percussion captain Anthony Freda.

Their 2004 field show is entitled "Memorable Movie Music" and features medleys of popular movie themes from the past. The first medley contains the "20th Century Fox Theme," "Tara's Theme" from "Gone With the Wind," and "The Magnificent Seven." The band's next number is a medley of the "Austin Powers Theme," and the "James Bond Theme," featuring a flute duet by Drum Majors Calungsod and Kondreck and an alto sax solo by Arceo. The band continues with the themes from the action/adventure movies "Rocky," "Indiana Jones," and "Star Wars."

The band concludes its performance with a medley of "Unchained Melody" from "Ghost," and the theme from "The Way We Were," featuring soloists Arceo on alto sax and Garcia on trumpet. The boosters and the members of the Belleville High School Marching Band invite all to see this show during halftime at the Belleville High School home football games.

POLICE BLOTTER

■ Police arrested and charged Giovanni Guacho, 19, of Belleville with possession of drug paraphernalia after a stop for a motor vehicle violation on his 1999 Mitsubishi Eclipse on Washington Avenue and Little Street on Sept. 29. Police found a pipe on Guacho. He was released on his own recognizance.

■ Police arrested and charged Sarita Bosque, 37, of Newark with possession of drug paraphernalia after she was stopped for hitchhiking at Joralemon Street and Washington Avenue at 12:39 a.m. on Sept. 30. She tried to conceal a glass pipe and a straw from police. She had 12 outstanding warrants from Newark totaling $10,900 and a Belleville warrant totaling $2,000. She also had warrants from Clark and Union.

■ A mountain bike was reported stolen from a garage on Adelaide Street on Oct. 1.

■ Police arrested and charged Louis Henry Auricchio, 21, of Belleville with aggravated assault after police said he stabbed his 47-year-old mother eight times with a knife and a fork on Sept. 28. The mother was taken to University Hospital. He was held on $3,000 bail.

■ Several teens between 16 and 19 committed aggravated assault on a police officer and eluded police after attempting to steal a BMW near Hornblower and Van Houten avenues on Sept. 28. The teens' stolen 2003 black Audi struck a police car while leaving the scene. A chase ensued into Newark, where the car struck a parked car. All four of the teens fled and were not apprehended.

■ A burglary and theft was reported to a storage trailer on Montgomery Street's industrial section on Sept. 28. The paint company reported a pressure washer, tools for sealing driveways and other paving materials were stolen, worth $3,000.

■ A 1993 Lexus was reported stolen from Division Avenue between Sept. 25 and Sept. 28 and recovered on Branch Brook Drive on Sept. 28.

■ Police arrested and charged Omar Rodriguez, 20, of Newark with possession of marijuana, eluding, hindering apprehension and giving false information after a chase on Sept. 29. Police responded to a report of a motorist driving rapidly in circles, or "doing donuts," on Mill Street. Police then chased the suspect into Newark, where his car blew a tire and he was captured after a foot chase. He had outstanding warrants from Newark totaling $1,500.

All persons charged are considered innocent until proven guilty.

College planning discussed at BHS

On Sept. 16, the Belleville High School Student Services Department sponsored "College Planning Night" and "The Internet and the College Application Process."

"College Planning Night" for seniors and their parents was very well attended. Over 130 students and their parents were present as senior counselors, Maria Coyle, Camille De Jianne and Josephine Mlodzienski discussed college applications, academic testing for college placement, and the college application process. Special presentations by Mrs. Joanne Kessell, English supervisor on "Writing the College Essay" and Mrs. Patricia Guardino, student assistance counselor on "Senior Stress" were also on the agenda. Evaluations completed by the parents and students gave the presenters extremely high marks. Mrs. Perri, the director of Student Services was commended for the department's community outreach.

The "Internet Workshop and the College Application Process" had over 20 participants in attendance in a high school computer room. Parents commented on the amount of information that was covered and the number of resources available on the BHS Student Services Website. Perri attributes the success of both programs to the publicity on the BHS website, the WBHS station, daily school announcements and the counselor's word of mouth.

The next scheduled parent/student workshops in the evening (6:45PM) at BHS are as follows:

- Oct. 6: NCAA Eligibility Night
- Oct. 21: Paying for College-Financial Aid
- Nov. 18: College and Career Fair

Wall recognizes excellence of BHS grads

The Belleville Board of Education has commissioned the inauguration of a Wall of Recognition for the high school to recognize outstanding graduates. These graduates have gone on to make significant and lasting contributions in their chosen professions. The board has established a committee in accordance with its by-laws to consider all nominations for acceptance to the Wall of Recognition.

The following Belleville High School graduates - properly and formally submitted to the aforementioned committee were recently inducted into the Belleville High School Wall of Recognition.

Honorable Leonard D. Ronco, Superior Court Judge, a Belleville High School graduate of the Class of 1943.

Judge Ronco entered the United States Navy during World War II, serving as a turret gunner aboard the USS Quincy, a heavy cruiser deployed in both the European and Pacific theaters; and,

Ronco later served in private and public practice as an attorney in the positions of referee of the Juvenile Conference Committee of Belleville, state assemblyman from Essex County, secretary to the Essex County Superintendent of Elections, associate counsel of the Essex County Welfare Board, assistant Essex County prosecutor, the first state deputy public defender in charge of the Essex County Region, chief trial attorney for the prosecutor's office, acting Essex County prosecutor, and as a Superior Court judge; and,

Ronco served as the director of the State Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and the director of the Governor's Office of Casino Policy, both appointments made by New Jersey Governor Brendan Byrne; and,

Ronco holds the distinction of having served in all three branches of the state government in New Jersey as a legislator, executive and jurist.

Dr. Felice Salerno, a Belleville High School graduate of the Class of 1951.

Salerno has achieved remarkable success in his chosen field of vascular surgery, and has worked at such prestigious institutions in Texas as Baylor University Medical Center, Temple Veterans Administration Center, and the US Darnell Army Hospital; and in New Jersey at Mountainside Hospital and Hunterdon Medical Center.

He has held such distinguished positions as staff general and vascular surgeon, chief of general surgery and director of residency training, chairman of the Department of Surgery, president of the medical staff, and president of the specialty staff among many others, and has published numerous papers on surgery and medicine in a variety of medical journals; and,

Salerno's academic appointments include clinical assistant professor of surgery at the Robert Wood Johnson Medical School in New Brunswick; and, Salerno's longstanding commitment and service to our community has been recognized with many awards, including his selection as one of the top surgeons in New Jersey by New Jersey Monthly Magazine.

Warren Kimble, a Belleville High School graduate of the Class of 1953.

Kimble has become one of America's best-loved contemporary folk artists who has combined his love of Americana, antiques and collectibles, architecture, and painting to create an accessible, universally appealing new style of American folk art.

The popularity of Kimble's contemporary folk art images has helped position him as one of the country's most successful home furnishings designers, with more than 45 licensing partners that generate more than $100 million in yearly retail sales.

Kimble's outstanding original paintings, which include both fine art and folk art works, have been the subject of one-person gallery shows in New York, Boston, and Syracuse, as well as in towns throughout Vermont; and,

His honors and awards include Syracuse University's 2002 George Arents Pioneer Medal, the university's highest alumni honor, and an honorary doctor of fine arts degree from Green Mountain College in Poultney, Vermont, the selection of his work for "The Original Art 2001" by the Society of Illustrators Museum in New York, and the recognition of his work for excellence by numerous marketing and trade organizations.

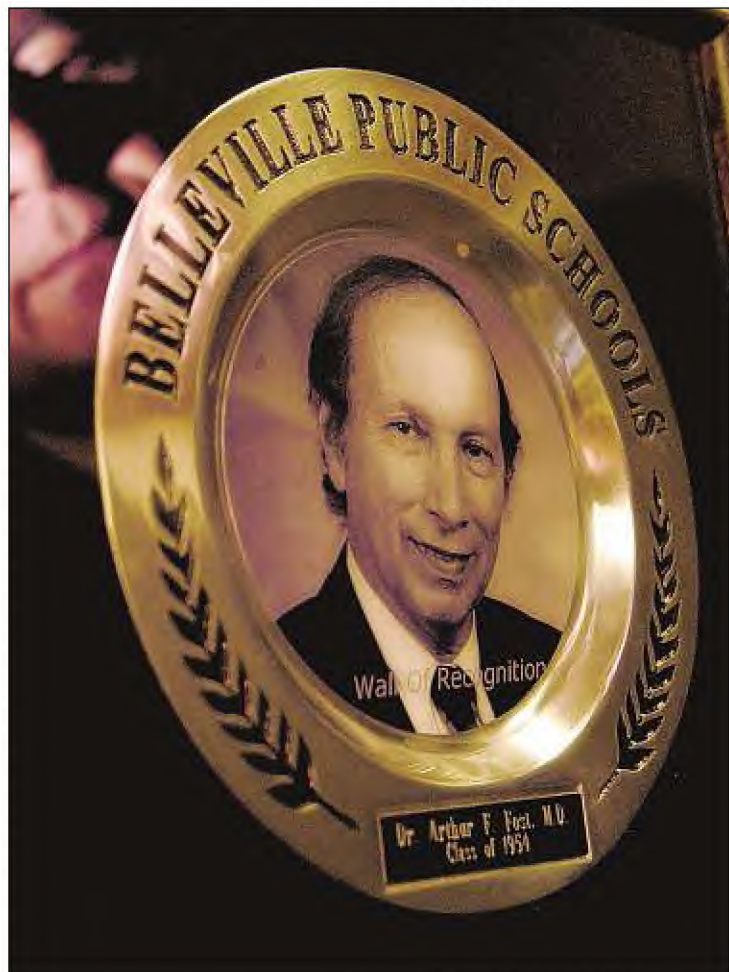

Dr. Arthur F. Fost, a Belleville High School graduate of the Class of 1954.

Fost started the first allergy training program in New Jersey, continues to be active in research and testing, and has published papers in the medical journals on asthma and allergies.

He has been repeatedly cited in New York Magazine and New Jersey Magazine as "Best Doctors in the New York City Area and "Best Doctors in New Jersey" for his work in allergy.

Fost has spent a lifetime of volunteerism to help the less fortunate in countries such as Ethiopia, Rwanda, Guatemala, El Salvador and the Middle East; and,

His longstanding commitment and service to our community has been recognized with many awards, including a State of New Jersey Joint Legislative Resolution, and the New Jersey Leadership Volunteer Award.

STILL NO WORD

The wait for WalMart is getting ridiculous

Naysayers of the WalMart proposed for the Valley are certainly being given plenty of time to revel in the absolute vacuum of activity around the selected Walter Kidde site.

While the WalMart Corporation hasn't officially announced that it's pulling out of the contract to purchase the 23.5-acre site from Route 21 Associates, the sluggish pace of the due diligence is giving proponents of the venture plenty of time to build up a nervous sweat.

Route 21 Associates, which was granted the coveted commercial zoning for the parcel by the township council, assured everyone that the WalMart deal was legit, and not a ploy to have the lot's designation upgraded from industrial to commercial.

Route 21 blames the lot's former owners, the Walter Kidde fire extinguisher company — now known as Millennium — for trying to do the lot's required clean-up on the cheap, thus cramping the process. They may also have animosity against the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, which some feel is handling the inspection process with the zeal of a social worker who's lost his love of the job.

What can be said for sure is that whether or not WalMart pulls out, Route 21 Associates can't really lose. It has its lucrative commercial zoning, which means it can turn around and sell the property for top dollar to someone else. This doesn't bode well for the company's desire to look like it has a genuine interest in fulfilling the WalMart vision.

If WalMart is indeed coming to Belleville, it will say more about WalMart's patience in awaiting the clean-up than of Route 21 Associates, or especially Millennium's desire to quickly clean up the property. Regardless, there will be someone waiting when the cleanup is finally done. For those in Belleville hoping for WalMart, all they can do is keep their fingers crossed.

For those who see WalMart as the end of all small business in Belleville, there is still hope that the company will lose patience and pull out. The only sure winner here is Route 21 Associates. That's why owning real estate is such a guarantee of continued wealth.

Kennedy says thanks

TO THE EDITOR:

On Sat., Oct. 2, close to 150 people attended the dedication of the park on Fairway Avenue to the Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood Memorial Park. I would like to thank Township Clerk Kelly Nash, Deputy Clerk Mary Docherty and former Township Manager Raymond Kimble for all their help.

I also would like to thank former Mayor Angie Paserchia, former Council Member Angelo Risoli, Board of Education Trustee Anthony Sessa and First Ward Council Member Marie Strumolo Burke for coming. Thank you also to former Council Member Bill Cook for a great speech, the Knights of Columbus 835 and Antonio's Restaurant for great food, Flowerama for the beautiful floral arrangements and Scott Sims and Jack McGarry for playing the bagpipes.

Most of all, thank you to the citizens of Belleville who were there. There are too many to list here, but with their help Mary Lou's memory is kept alive.

In the future, I hope to construct a building for the sports players and fans to use when they are at the park, which I believe will make it a nicer place to play sports. God bless you all.

Fuming at teacher choice

TO THE EDITOR:

I will be the voice for our Belleville High School (BHS) students who were torn apart recently at a board of education meeting when they found out that Mr. Ryan Sheridan was removed from his position as mass communications teacher. However, the board never explained why this was done and tried to make it look like the decision was just made last night.

Come clean board of education! I read the agenda and know what it read. You agreed that the position of mass communications teacher would be given to Mr. David Simonetti on Sept. 13 in private session. Shame on you!

In summary, when the students were informed last Thursday that Mr. Sheridan was being replaced, no additional information was given and no explanation was given. Therefore, the students of BHS took it upon themselves to attend this board of education meeting last week with the hopes of really believing that they, the student population, could help Mr. Sheridan keep his job.

Little did the students know that the decision to replace Mr. Sheridan with Mr. David Simonetti was already a "done deal!" The students were not aware of this and, unfortunately, neither was I since I did not receive a copy of the agenda when I entered the meeting last night.

With the attendance in excess of 100 people, mostly students, there were soon no copies of the agenda left for everyone. Again, poor planning on the part of the board.

Or, perhaps, students, we took the board by surprise. They should have sufficient copies for everyone in attendance. Nevertheless, I was able to obtain a copy of the agenda.

In a hurry, John? I know exactly what you did, and you should hang your head in shame! If I had been able to read the agenda at the start of the meeting, my comments would have been different. I would have told the students to leave before John McManus first closed the public portion of the meeting since the decision to replace Mr. Sheridan was already made on Sept. 13! It was a waste of my time and the students' time. Shame on you board of education.

When the meeting was over, the students remained in their seats waiting for an answer to their question — was Mr. Sheridan replaced?

I approached John McManus and told him that these kids are not aware of how the board of education meetings are conducted since these kids never attend. In all honesty, I don't think he cared. The meeting was over and he was going to leave.

However, the students were not leaving without some explanations. I guess we sort of pressured John McManus to answer certain things, but he was not helpful at all. I wonder why? Did he vote Mr. Sheridan down? Let him tell us the actual votes, since no one really heard the individual votes because I don't think any of them had the microphones on. But it wouldn't have mattered anyway, because I didn't have the agenda in my hand and the students were not aware of the agenda.

So, now it happens...we get the official word. I tell the students this, Sheridan is out! I tell them because John McManus didn't have the decency to say it out loud in front of the students in plain English.

Mr. McManus knew immediately that he could have had problems on his hands and became very defensive even with me. His face was turning red, and I know he could feel it, but guess what? I saw it and so did your children.

We need to attend these meetings and put the pressure on this board. They wouldn't bring the meeting down a level to where the students could comprehend and absorb everything, so we need to attend and bring the meeting up a level. Guess what parents? We are just as smart as the board, if not smarter. And yes John, we will be smarter...we are experiencing a new learning process now. We are learning who to vote for in the next election. And guess what? You do not have my vote. And, my voice and the voices of our students will be heard. Our parents will vote you down and all of your other board members as well for not allowing Mr. Sheridan to remain as permanent teacher of the mass communications class.

Mr. McManus, I still think there might be time for you and your board to undo the injustice you and your board have done to our town, our teachers, our parents and, most importantly, our children. And when you get in the apologizing mood, I think you also owe Mr. Simonetti an apology for putting him in his new position. We have also done a grave injustice to him since our children don't know him and don't want him.

Mr. Simonetti, our children would have accepted you and respected you, perhaps, at another time and in another position. I, and the students, wish you all the luck in the world and want you to know that our board of education members owe you a very big apology also.

Students and parents, once again our board has failed us and we cannot allow them to do this time and time again and get away with it. I personally will do all that is possible to help correct the injustice they have done to our children and to help ease the pain they are again feeling with the loss of Mr. Alves.

Our children have suffered enough, and it's time we unite and help them heal and end the mourning process by the unfortunate and expected death of a teacher whom our children loved and respected. Let's fight this board and help our children heal by getting Mr. Ryan Sheridan appointed as the new permanent mass communications teacher. Don't let the board get away with their wrong decision.

So, who voted Mr. Sheridan down? Our board of education! And now, who will vote down the Belleville Board of Education? I will! And so will all the students of Belleville High School and their parents, once this letter is printed in the newspapers. We are here to stay. Unfortunately, board members come and go.

And we can't wait until this board is gone! Not all of you, just those of you who didn't vote for Mr. Sheridan and let us down. Shame on you! How do you sleep at night?

In memory of Mr. Alves, we will win! The students of Belleville High School miss you! Mr. Sheridan is the best person for the job, and Mr. Sheridan will keep your memory alive!

State approval next step to WalMart coming

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

The owners of the former Walter Kidde property on Main Street said approval from the state Department of Environmental Protection is expected "any minute," allowing plans for a Wal-Mart store to jump start.

In a related matter, a Kearny deal across the river for a WalMart has been in the works for a long time and has no effect on the Belleville project, according to Harold Finkelstein of Route 21 Associates, LLP, which owns the 23.5 acres of land on Main Street.

"WalMart needs a date where they can start to build," Finkelstein said. "They're so slow at (Walter) Kidde with the clean-up, that I won't live long enough to see it."

For that reason, once the DEP approves the clean-up, the Finkelsteins will remove the earth that needs remediation, paying their own way. "It will take six weeks to two months," Finkelstein said.

The can't promise WalMart a date until they get the DEP approval, he said.

In an effort to keep WalMart under contract to purchase the former Walter Kidde property Main, the owners are planning a more extensive clean-up of the property, which will cost $1.5 million to $2 million, according to Finkelstein.

The former Walter Kidde company, now known as Millennium, has spent between $5 million and $6 million on a clean-up of contaminated soil and place monitoring and treatment wells for groundwater coming in offsite, according to Barry Osmond, lawyer for Route 21 Associates.

It is fairly regular for clauses to be included in contracts like the one between WalMart and Route 21 that would allow the buyer to back out if the seller does not complete due diligence, such as environmental clean-up.

The Millennium clean-up "may or may not be enough for Wal-Mart," said John Glock, who is handling the environmental aspect of the deal between Route 21 Associates and WalMart.

Glock said the only way around that problem is for Route 21 Associates to enter into a redevelopment agreement with the state for a higher cleanup standard to satisfy WalMart.

The previous cleanup timetable, set by WalMart, was June 30 through Sept. 30.

Glock said there is not that much to do, but so many people are needed to approve what's being done.

Osmond said the contract is still in force with WalMart. Millennium is trying to do the cleanup spending as little money as possible, which is why the cleanup took so long.

Because of the recent state Highlands legislation, the state has fast tracked other approvals in areas in need of development, Osmond said. The Highlands legislation makes development of land in areas of Bergen, Morris and Sussex counties prohibited.

Once the cleanup is done, Route 21 Associates can get some of its money back through any taxes on the property, including sales tax revenue and the transfer tax when the land is purchased, Osmond said.

Osmond said WalMart is trying to speed up the process.

WalMart and possibly Home Depot are supposed to come to the Valley section, as part of economic redevelopment for the area.

Representatives of WalMart said the plans for stores in Belleville and Bloomfield are still in force.

6 Search for School Superintendent narrows to six

Belleville Times

Thursday, October 7, 2004

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

Belleville public schools will have a new superintendent of schools in October, according to officials.

Former superintendent Dr. Joseph Ciccone retired to take a teaching job at the College of St. Elizabeth, teaching school administration. Joseph Kraemer, who was director of curriculum and instruction, was named acting superintendent, but is no longer a candidate for the superintendent's job, Kraemer said.

"We're in phase three," he said, as a member of the evaluation committee. "Phase one was screening resumes. Phase two was the first round of interviews. Phase three is the second round of interviews, with six candidates remaining."

The evaluation committee has three school board members, who Board President John McManus said he did not want to name in order to keep the process private. Besides Kraemer, Board Administrator Edward Appleton is the facilitator. There are also representatives from the supervisors' union, the administrators' union and the Belleville Education Association, which is the teachers' union. A Home and School Association representative is also present at all interviews, McManus said.

"We will be evaluating the final six, and the board will look at all of the evaluations," McManus said.

The majority of board members will have seen all six candidates before the last meeting, which could include only one candidate or several, according to McManus. "At that point, we will make an offer to one candidate," he said.

"This has taken a lot longer than I wanted," McManus said.

The interviews and possibly all other investigations should be concluded before the next board meeting scheduled for Oct. 18.

"I expect us to make an offer no later than the end of October," McManus said.

The reason the process has taken so long is that schedules had to be coordinated to accommodate all parties involved.

"It was a scheduling nightmare for Mr. Appleton," McManus said.

Take 'Action Against Hunger' this Sunday

The North Jersey Media Group will sponsor 13th annual Action Against Hunger™ Food Drive October 10 at 4pm in Bergen, Essex, Morris and Passaic counties at more than 120 convenient locations including most local supermarkets. The event will be coordinated through the Community FoodBank of New Jersey.

In Belleville, the Pathmark on 726 Washington Ave., and the Pathmark at 115 Belmont Ave. are the two collection sites.

The effort, which includes food and financial donations, will benefit the 65 registered North Jersey pantries that provide emergency food to 40,000 people in urgent need in North Jersey, including the working poor.

One may not think that anyone is hungry in North Jersey, one of the most affluent regions in the world. However, hunger is in North Jersey, although often hidden from daily view. Even more alarming, according to Kathleen DiChiara, executive director of the Community FoodBank of New Jersey, increased numbers of people approached emergency pantries and soup kitchens this past year for help due to the hard choices some families and individuals were making between paying for health care, rent or food."

Through the Community FoodBank of New Jersey's distribution system, food donated through the thirteenth Action Against Hunger™ Food Drive in North Jersey on October 10, from noon to 4 p.m., will be distributed to North Jersey's network of pantries that serve 40,000 local people in need.

Action Against Hunger Food Drive is sponsored by the North Jersey Media Group Foundation and administered by The Record, Herald News and North Jersey Community Newspapers.

"We are asking each North Jersey resident that is able to give to participate in the food drive this year at any level, whether that is with one can or a trunk-load of food," said Jonathan Markey, president of the North Jersey Media Group. "The food drive enables people to make a tangible difference in the community with very little effort beyond purchasing a few extra items during one's regular trip to the grocery store in the coming weeks. Volunteers will be outside most supermarkets in North Jersey during the food drive on October 10th collecting the food for distribution to the pantries."

For donation locations, check the web site www.actionagainsthunger.com, or look for ads running regularly in this newspaper. For volunteer opportunities including collecting, donating as a group, transporting food or having your service group or business adopt a collection site, please email fooddrive@northjersey.com or call 1-888-829-2595.

Studio D Hair Design, LLC pays tribute to Avanti Hair Studio

The owners and staff of Studio D Hair Design, LLC, 111 Watchung Ave., Upper Montclair, salute and celebrate the life and work of the late Diana Bruno-Conte, former owner of Avanti Hair Studio in Bloomfield which recently closed.

Danine Cutrona and Susan DiGangi, owners of Studio D, are former employees of Avanti. Staff members from Avanti, now serving customers at Studio D, include Gina Cassatt, Nicole Egidio and Dianna Safee.

The memories of Diana Bruno-

Conte, and the good times shared, will always be cherished memories to the "old crew" of Avanti. She was an inspiration to her staff, not only as a boss but a dear friend and will always be remembered and dearly missed. Farewell...

Say 'thank you' to job interviewer

Your mother taught you to say thank you. She nagged and pleaded with you, and finally, it's become second nature.

Be sure to perfect the art of saying thank you when interviewing for a job. Career experts advise that you send a thank you note after every interview - no employer will ever complain about getting one.

Besides, since more people do not send thank you notes than send them, you can use the thank you note as your opportunity to shine.

Scores of students protest teacher decision

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

As many as 50 to 60 students and parents came out to the Sept. 29 school board meeting to protest the hiring of a new mass communications teacher, replacing a popular temporarily assigned teacher.

Sharon Senatore, saying she was speaking for Belleville High School students, said she was upset that Ryan Sheridan was removed from his position.

"The board never explained why this was done," she said. Senatore also said she was upset that the decision was made in private session on Sept. 13 and voted on in public on Sept. 29.

School Board President John McManus said as per the law, the position was posted, and that Sheridan was one of the candidates considered, but the board can't discuss personnel with the public.

David Simonetti, who does not reside in Belleville, was hired over Sheridan, who went to Belleville High School, got his teaching certificate and then came back. He replaced Albert Alves, who died in August.

"I understand that the students got attached to him," McManus said.

As for making the decision in private session, that is how such decisions are made, and then a formal vote is taken in public, McManus said.

Senatore said the students were very disappointed by the situation.

"The students of BHS took it upon themselves to attend the meeting last night (Sept. 29) with the hopes of really believing that they (the student population) could help Mr. Sheridan keep his job," she said. "Little did they know the decision to replace Mr. Sheridan with Mr. Simonetti was already a 'done deal.'"

She complained about not being able to get an agenda for the meeting. McManus explained that the board didn't anticipate the larger crowd and printed the normal number of agendas.

McManus said Senatore "incited" the students. He said Sheridan is still a substitute in the system.

"I wish him every success," McManus said. "He's a good person. We selected the best candidate."

Hiring Simonetti comes after a recommendation by the Superintendent of Schools, in this case Acting Superintendent of Schools Joseph Kraemer, who would not discuss his decision, because it involves personnel.

"The board made this decision fairly and accurately, by a unanimous vote," McManus said.

Before that vote, board member Dawson Bloom tried to have the hiring tabled, but was voted down.

Others pointed out that Sheridan's father, Dennis Sheridan, is a Republican District Leader who won over candidates supported by Republican Chairman and school board member Antoinette "Toni" Marone.

Marone said, "I didn't even realize that. I thought the fella who ran was younger. I didn't even know him. We (the school board) just go by qualifications."

Senatore said there might still be time to overturn the hiring.

"Mr. McManus, I still think there might be time for you and your board to undo the injustice you and your board have done to our town, our school, our teachers, our parents, and most importantly, our children," she said. "...Students and parents, once again our board has failed us and we cannot allow them to do this time and time again and get away with it."

Senatore said she would do all possible to get Sheridan his job back.

McManus said the hiring has been made and there is no going back.

"This is just normal hiring practice," he said. "There is no intent. The kids had an impassioned plea but didn't have all the facts."

Four-year-old play going on now

The Belleville Dept. of Recreation and Cultural Affairs is accepting registration for the Pre-School Play Program for four-year-old children.

A session is from 9 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. or 12:45 p.m. to 2:30 p.m., five days a week with class limited to a maximum of 20 students in each session.

A minimum of 10 children is required in each session. The cost of the 32-week program is $175. The mothers of the children accepted must participate by serving one duty day about every eight or nine days according to a published schedule. School will run through May 2005.

Children born between Oct. 1999 and Sept. 2000 who will enter kindergarten in Sept 2005 are eligible. Participants must be Belleville residents. Since there is a limited number of openings, applications will be accepted on a first come-first serve basis only.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Department at (973) 450-3422 as soon as possible Mon. through Fri. from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Registration began Jan. 5, 2004

Red Cross cupboards bare

Help stock the shelves this summer at the Montclair-Glen Ridge-Nutley Red Cross Food Pantry at 169 Chestnut Street, Nutley.

During the summer months food donations decline and the Red Cross is asking for community support in stocking the pantry with items such as cereal, Parmalat, canned fruit and vegetables, pasta sauce, beef stew, coffee and tea.

Deliver food donations to the Chapter at 169 Chestnut Street in Nutley between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

For additional information, or if an organization would like to participate in a food drive, call Susan Schwei at (973) 667-3818. In the past year, the Red Cross Food Pantry has served 875 families who needed assistance.

A Beautiful Haven by Design

Even capable do-it-yourselfers waste an extraordinary amount of time designing and constructing a garden shed, pool cabana or weekend cabin to fit their exact needs. Until now, there really weren't too many choices in the way of design; choose a standard package or go your own way. Unique, customized plans were simply not available.

Cottage and do-it-yourself enthusiast Tim Henderson says he found an easy way to create a unique garden shed/guest house. "I simply purchased a stunning design plan on the Internet. It provided me with building instructions including design drawings, photos, helpful tips and ideas and a shopping list of exactly what I needed from the hardware store and lumberyard. What a timesaver!"

"Every year, hundreds of people take on projects like these, but they don't know where to get started. Our Web site is a great place for ideas and designs because our structures can be customized to fit the most discriminating tastes," says Summerwood's Peter Harvey, president of North America's leading designer of architecturally styled garden structures. "With our comprehensive plans, we've taken the hassle out of the design and planning phase so the do-it-yourselfer can take pride in his accomplishment."

Building plans for garden sheds, pool cabanas, weekend cabins, children's playhouses and home offices may be downloaded online at www.summerwood.com.

PUSHCART PLAYERS

'Tree Tales' to debut Oct. 9

The Pushcart Players' latest production will debut at their new home, located at 562 Bloomfield Ave., Bloomfield, in October.

In collaboration with 12 Miles West Theatre Company and several other area arts organizations, the former vaudeville and then movie theatre is being transformed into a performing arts center designed to help put the "bloom" into Bloomfield by serving up the arts for families in Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Belleville, Nutley and other surrounding communities.

Pushcart will offer the first of several weekend matinee series on Saturday, Oct. 9 at 3 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 10 at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m.

The upcoming play is entitled "Cuentos Del Arbol" (Tree Tales). Drawn from Spanish and Latin-America folklore, this charming bilingual musical play revolves around a tree that claims to know "more stories than there are stars in the sky or fish in the sea." Having lived for centuries, the tree, Arbol, has sheltered, shielded and nurtured countless characters that have passed her way over the years. Their stories are filled with humor, wit, adventure and magic. In sharing a few of these tales, Arbol offers a fiesta of themes, indigenous to the locale while universal to the human experience. Young and family audiences will be enchanted by the colorful lore and spirited beat that enables Arbol to lift her branches and find new ways to grow each day.

The series will continue with a holiday celebration piece, entitled "American Sampler," on Saturday, Dec. 18 at 3 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 19 and 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. "American Sampler" is filled with music, dance and Americana stories, including winter holiday festivities as celebrated on the Plains in the mid-1800s.

Tickets for all Pushcart series programs are $10 for children and $12 for adults. Group rates and series discounts are available. Tickets may be reserved by calling (973) 259-9187.

For more information about Pushcart performances, call (973) 857-1115 or visit the Web site www.pushcartplayers.org.

'Reader's Theater' to debut with 'All About Eve' on Sunday

Nutley Little Theatre's first "Reader's Theater" group event for 2004-05 will be a reading of the screenplay "All About Eve," an Academy Award-winning story involving backstage Broadway. The readings will take place on Sunday, Oct. 10 at 7:30 p.m. at the NLT Barn and Saturday, Oct. 16 at 2 p.m. at the Nutley Public Library.

Alex Oleksij of Nutley will direct and narrate the production, which is free and open to the public. Reader's Theater features dramatic readings of new and established plays, supplementing NLT's regular, fully staged performances.

Joseph L. Mankiewicz won Oscars for best screenplay and director in 1950, when his tale of lies, betrayal and deceit won the Academy Award for best picture. It is among the American Film Institute's Top 100 Films of All Time.

For more information about this or other productions, call (973) 667-0374.

CASINO CONFIDENTIAL

Cassidy At Mohegan Sun

David Cassidy, who achieved superstardom with the beloved 1970s TV series, "The Partridge Family," is not resting on those laurels. He will perform in a new show at the Wolf Den, Friday, Oct. 8 and Saturday, Oct. 9 and admission is free.

Once again, let me point out that Atlantic City's 11 casinos do not have any free shows in any of their casinos especially featuring a performer of Cassidy's status. That's just an other example of creative marketing policy planning by the Mohegan Sun executive staff.

Cassidy has consistently been in the public eye over the past three decades, conquering virtually every medium and touring world-wide. He has sold over 50 million records and received numerous awards, including an Emmy nomination for one of his many starring roles on television.

He went on to star in the original Broadway production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat as well as Blood Brothers. He then opened the $75 million production EFX at the MGM Grand in Las Vegas, winning every award possible there and went on to partner with Don Reo to produce "At the Copa," in which he starred.

Cassidy also wrote and directed "The Rat Pack is Back!," a celebration of 1960s Vegas, which is a regular favorite attraction at Mohegan Sun's Cabaret Theatre. With a new DVD due Nov. 15 and his invaluable participation both on camera and as co-executive producer of VH-1's in "Search of The New Partridge Family, Cassidy remains as busy as ever."

David Cassidy's engagement at the Wolf Den will blend the best of the old and the new in a way that will keep you entertained. He is, after all, an established pro whose mother is still going strong in musical theater. I recommend him to you without reservation and this will also give those of you who still have never been to the Mohegan Sun an incentive to get over there.

Once there, you'll realize what you've been missing.

THINGS AND STUFF YOU MIGHT LIKE TO KNOW

In effect since Sept. 7, Leisure Line (COACH USA) has ceased operating all scheduled services from all points in New Jersey and New York to all casinos in Atlantic City and Foxwoods.

This however does not impact the casino services (scheduled, tour and charter services) operated by other Coach USA companies, such as Shortline, Olympia, Community, Suburban and Cape Transit. These Coach USA companies will continue to operate all casino services as currently advertised. Any questions regarding this should be directed to 1-877-878-8777.

You don't have to be German to enjoy the 11th Annual Oktoberfest at the Trump Taj Mahal on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 23-24. The casino is celebrating this festive international event with a weekend of authentic German entertainment, food, dancing and more, including a chance for guests to win round-trip airfare to Germany. So you're all invited to join the party as the "Taj Mahal Arena" is transformed into a German marketplace! Indulge in authentic German foods, hoist a stein of genuine German beer and find gifts.

G&DLRC

New members and would be members looking for information on how and where and when to join the club are pouring into the club mailbox. People are beginning to grasp and understand the purpose of the club and what its potential is for getting the casino operators to actively pursue our business and not treat us low rollers like orphans. This club has national potential, since there are millions of low rollers visiting casinos throughout this country and the world.

If you wish to join and get the tremendous perks offered, contact Casino Confidential, PO Box 317, 1360 Clifton Avenue, Clifton, NJ 07012. Your name will be submitted to the participating casinos "The Borgata," Trump Marina and Trump Plaza and soon, the Mohegan Sun. Some have already received a letter from the Trump Marina listing your first series of available perks.

■ RECIPE

Pumpkin Spice Cake

1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. pumpkin pie spice
1/2 tsp. baking soda
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup cooking oil
1 egg, unbeaten
1/2 cup hot coffee
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup chopped walnuts

Sift first five ingredients into a small bowl. In large bowl, place brown sugar, oil and egg and beat thoroughly. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with hot coffee and pumpkin. Beat only until smooth. Add raisins and/or nuts. Pour into a greased 8 x 8 inch pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 45 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. For plumper raisins, soak in hot coffee before starting recipe.

MAX NEEDS A HOME

Max is a Cocker Spaniel, from 7 to 8 years old. He needs to get to know a person before he becomes friendly toward them, so Max should go into a home without young children. If you can give Max a permanent, loving home, please visit with him at the Bloomfield Animal Shelter, 61 Bukowski Place, Bloomfield, or call (973) 680-4135.

Got some time on your hands? Volunteers are always needed

I came across this poem that should be shared with all of you. The name is 'What a Deal,' written by Alice Mendelsohn, a retiree from Morris County. Her poem lauds the returns one receives from volunteering, a valuable investment of time, inspiring others to give of themselves in this manner.

What do you do in your spare time?

Do you waste it? I hope not. There are people out there who need you.

Are you willing to share what you've got?

Give of yourself, you'll be amazed

How good it makes you feel
You give with love, receive even more.

Hey now, that's a good deal.

Now why did I print this? Because if you have time on your hands, join a civic group and help out the neighborhood, stop by the Shafter Branch Library and see Mrs. Helen Infusino. I'm sure she can keep you busy or stop by at School #4, they are always looking for residents to read to the children. You know it will keep you young and the most important thing is that you will be helping your community and the children.

LIFE IN SILVER LAKE

The other night I attended the Kiwanis Tricky Tray at the Branch Brook Manor. Since there were so many there, another table had to be set up. And that's where I met the nicest people. This woman said to me that I looked a bit familiar and asked if I was that woman who wrote the column in the Belleville Times. I perked up a bit and told her that I was. Now Allison Fletcher is not a Belleville resident, but hails from Bloomfield, our sister town. But her mother, Melinda Fletcher is a homeowner who lives on Cedar Hill Ave. It was nice making your acquaintances. And you gals made by evening.

Well it's that time again. Frankie the Fly will hit the 63rd plateau in his life on Oct. 8. What a pip to say the least. We all know that he is the 'Boss of The Lake,' and don't you all forget it. Frankie, you never change and you are a legend even if it's in your own mind. But the boss is the boss so let's all wish him a happy birthday. When the Fly reads this tribute, the first thing he will do is go out and buy a few copies and then deliver them to all the boys in Silver Lake. I can just see him now with all the copies under his arm.

At our meeting of the SLCA the other evening, Pete Branch of Honiss Street got up in the neighborhood complaint segment and asked this question. 'Where is the disappearing fire hydrant?' Well, Mr. Branch, we have been working on it for months, but I am happy to report that, just like magic, it has reappeared back in its place on Honiss Street. No, just kidding, there was no magic, we just had to get a bit rough with the Newark Water Department, but they did respond and everything is working fine. Thanks Newark.

Remember, we love Silver Lake.

Cozzarelli arraignment on tax, fraud Oct. 5

BY ANNA SPIEWAK
of Belleville Times

Former township attorney Frank J. Cozzarelli who disappeared a few weeks ago after being indicted on federal charges for tax evasion and fraud is listed to appear in U.S. District Court in Newark on Tuesday, Oct. 5.

"His attorney gave us assurance that he will be appearing in court for his arraignment," said Mike Drewniak, a spokesman for the U.S. Attorney's Office.

The Belleville attorney will be appearing in front of Judge Dickinson Debevoise, said Drewniak, the same judge who issued a warrant for his arrest the day after his disappearance on Sept. 21.

Cozzarelli, 51, was not arrested at the time of his indictment two weeks earlier, per his attorney's request, because he was not seen as a threat. But after disappearing without a trace thereafter, a fugitive warrant was signed against him. After a broad search by authorities, family and friends, Cozzarelli returned to his North Caldwell residence.

While attorney Franklin Sachs said his client was despondent and failed some suicidal attempts, some family friends said he just went away to clear his head and plan the next step of action in his life.

Shortly after his return home a couple of weeks ago, Cozzarelli was admitted to a psychiatric unit at a hospital in Teaneck, but would be released for the court appearance.

"Because of the nature of his emails (sent to family while he was missing), it was better to have him evaluated," said Michael Melham, former Belleville Councilman and family friend.

Drewniak said at the arraignment it would be known whether Cozzarelli would be set free before the trial date or be incarcerated. But Sachs said Cozzarelli will post the necessary bail and be released on his own recognizance.

The charges against Cozzarelli stated that he "intentionally" failed to report around $1.6 million total in income from 1996 and 1997 from a $7 million deal involving Russian investors in the country, according to the U.S. Attorney's Office.

But Sachs said his client will plead not guilty, because he has not committed a federal tax crime. Sachs told the press that Cozzarelli did not report the income in question, because the money was frozen in a lawsuit with the Russian investors.

Cozzarelli served as the Belleville municipal attorney from 1987 to 1990. He still has a law practice on Joralemon Street in the township, which he shares with his father along with other attorneys on counsel. Melham said Cozzarelli's law license is not in jeopardy because of the charge, and after a conviction it would be up to the New Jersey Bar Association to decide what happens next. In the meantime, while Cozzarelli is busy preparing for his defense, other attorneys will pick up the work load at his law firm, said Melham.

The former councilman said he will be in court and later at Cozzarelli's home on Tuesday for moral support to the family.

"They're in good spirits and everyone wants to get Frank the proper legal help he can get," he said.

Cozzarelli resigned his longtime post as attorney, at no cost, to the Belleville Public Library and Information Center. He will be replaced by Township Prosecutor Emil Nardachone, according to Richard Yanuzzi, president of the library Board of Trustees.

"He was competent and brilliant," Yanuzzi said. "He did an outstanding job. He has our full approval. We never would have appointed someone else had he not taken this action. He allowed us to achieve great things."

His short resignation letter said that for the time being he was removing himself from public service because he doesn't have the time to commit, Yanuzzi said.

Richard Dickon contributed to this story.

Fire safety week now observed

The Belleville Fire Department is joining the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) and other safety advocates this fall to remind children and adults about fire safety during Fire Prevention Week, now through Oct. 9.

This year's theme, "It's Fire Prevention Week: Test Your Smoke Alarms," highlights the importance of all families installing and maintaining smoke alarms in the home.

Smoke alarms are the most effective early warning devices available for the home. Since they were introduced to consumers in the 1970s, they have helped to reduce the home fire death rate by one half. Even though they are now widely popular, roughly 70 percent of home fire deaths result from fires in homes with no smoke alarms or no working smoke alarms.

Fires can spread through a home rapidly and, in some cases, individuals may have as little as two minutes to escape to safety once the alarm sounds. The Belleville Fire Department encourages residents to keep smoke alarms working and to leave immediately when a smoke alarm sounds.

Here are some key smoke alarm installation and maintenance tips:

- Install at least one smoke alarm on every level of the home and outside each separate sleeping area.
- Mount smoke alarms on ceilings or high walls.
- Test smoke alarms once a month, following the manufacturer's instructions.
- Replace batteries once a year or as soon as the device "chirps," indicating that the battery is low.
- Replace all smoke alarms after 10 years, even those that are hard-wired or smoke alarms with "long-life" (10-year) batteries. Smoke alarms with "long-life" (10-year) batteries also need to be replaced when the alarm "chirps" or fails to respond to periodic testing. The batteries in these units cannot be replaced.

NCLB scores improve, schools sanctioned

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

The good news is that overall test scores have improved for the high school, middle school and School #4 from the year before.

The bad news is that for the second consecutive year, the schools are among the quarter of New Jersey's public schools that failed in meeting all of the requirements of the federal No Child Left Behind act last year. The state also improved overall over the year before – but local officials are still critical of the Bush Administration's landmark law.

The law mandates that schools show "adequate yearly progress" in overall student test scores and participation, within every category broken down by race, socioeconomic status and special education, according to Acting Superintendent of Schools Joseph Kraemer.

"The intent of the law is good," Kraemer said. "The mechanics still have a lot of kinks to be worked out."

For the second straight year, the high school, middle school and School #4 did not make adequate yearly progress in at least one area under NCLB. The law requires that schoolwide average test scores and participation meet achievement criteria in 40 categories, including the testing of students with disabilities and limited-English-speaking students.

The only testing area that was failed by the overall student population was math at School #4, which failed for the fourth consecutive year, despite showing improvement in the NJASK4 testing. The scores improved five percent, to 41.5 percent passing. The adequate yearly progress (AYP) percentage is 53 percent.

In the high school, students with disabilities did not reach the AYP in language arts or math. African Americans likewise did not pass either side of the test, Kraemer said.

In the middle school, students with disabilities did not pass either part of the test.

At School #4, the federal government is paying $1,000 per student for supplemental educational services at outside learning centers.

Unfortunately, Kraemer said the money is not designated based on performance, but is instead given to students who are deemed economically disadvantaged.

"They're saying poor students need services," he said. "It's not just poor students that need help. Performance is the second criteria, so we're handcuffed. The glitches in the law were supposed to be cleared up. This is a form of discrimination."

There were summer and after school programs at School #4, and math summer school in the middle school.

"We want to keep students on schedule for a college track," he said.

At the high school 74.4 percent of students passed language arts, making adequate yearly progress for the third consecutive year. In math, the percentage was 57.7 percent, while AYP was 53.2.

At the middle school, language arts was down slightly to 64.1 percent, but still better than the 58 percent AYP. In math, the school was up 10 percent to 47.2 percent, while the AYP was 39 percent.

At School #4, language arts passed with 65 percent, after passing last year. Math did not pass, as reported earlier.

A list of 621 schools failed to meet precise test score and participation levels for 2003-04 required under President Bush's law, while last year, the number was almost 1,000, according to Kraemer.

Almost 300 other schools met the requirements in 2004 but because of previous scores, they remain on the failed list until they hit the marks for two straight years, according to state Department of Education information.

It won't get any easier for schools to meet these mandates, Kraemer said, since the state's required performance levels rise this year. Sixty-two percent of fourth-graders will be required to pass in math and 75 percent in language arts this year, he said. That is rising from last year's 53 percent and 68 percent, respectively.

NCLB was passed in 2002, and will eventually require 100 percent proficiency in both reading and math by 2013.

All schools that fail to meet standards face stronger sanctions the longer they fail to reach the mark. Sanctions can include the option for students to transfer or receive free outside tutoring, as at School #4.

Red Cross recommends having disaster kit

Disasters happen anytime and anywhere. And when disaster strikes, there may not be much time to respond. The American Red Cross advocates family emergency preparedness by offering tips that will help to prepare and respond if a disaster were to happen.

One way to prepare is by assembling a Disaster Supplies Kit because once disaster hits, there won't be time to shop or search for supplies. But if supplies are gathered in advance, a family can endure an evacuation or home confinement.

"To prepare for a disaster, stock water, food and first aid supplies" advises Director of Emergency Operations John Kocotos at the Montclair-Glen Ridge-Nutley Red Cross. "Keep the items that would most likely be needed during an evacuation in an easy-to-carry container, such as a large, covered trash container, a camping backpack or duffel bag."

"Store your kit in a convenient place known to all family members and keep a smaller version of the kit in the trunk of the car," Kocotos said. "Change your stored water and rotate stored foods every six months, replace batteries, and ask your physician or pharmacist about storing prescription medications."

The American Red Cross also advises to discuss the types of disasters that could occur at a family meeting, explain how to prepare and respond to them and discuss what to do if advised to evacuate.

"Plan how your family will stay in contact if separated by disaster," he added. "Pick two meeting places such as a location a safe distance from your home in case of fire and a place outside your neighborhood in case you can't return home. Also, choose an out-of-state friend as a check-in contact for everyone to call."

In preparing for disaster, post emergency telephone numbers by every phone, be sure smoke detectors are working and show responsible family members how and when to shut off water, gas and electricity at main switches.

"Meet with neighbors and plan how the neighborhood could work together after a disaster," Kocotos added. "Know your neighbors' skills (medical and technical), consider how you would help those with special needs, such as elderly or disabled persons, and make plans for child care in case parents can't get home."

After a disaster, local officials and relief workers will be on the scene, but they may not be able to reach everyone immediately. There may be help in hours, or it may take days. It is important to have a family plan and a disaster supply kit prepared before disaster strikes.

The following is a Disaster Supplies Checklist provided by the American Red Cross:

Water – Store one gallon of water per person, per day in plastic containers such as soft drink bottles. Avoid using containers that will decompose or break, such as paper milk cartons or glass bottles.

Food – Store at least a three-day supply of non-perishable food. If you must heat food, pack a can of sterno. Include a selection of the following foods in your supplies: ready-to-eat canned meats, fruits, vegetables and juices; high energy foods/vitamins; food for infants and pets.

First Aid Kit – Assemble a first aid kit for your home and one for each car. It should include: sterile adhesive bandages in assorted sizes; safety pins; cleansing agent/soap and antiseptic; 2 pairs of latex gloves; sunscreen; 2 and 4 inch sterile gauze pads (4-6 of each); 3 triangular bandages; non-prescription drugs; 3 rolls each of 2 and 3 inch roller bandages; scissors, tweezers, needle; moistened towelettes; thermometer; petroleum jelly.

For additional information contact John Kocotos at the Montclair-Glen Ridge-Nutley Chapter House at (973) 746-1800.

Bucs can't keep up with the Ridgers

TIMOTHY DENMAN/BELLEVILLE TIMES

Jen Acosta brings the ball down the field last Friday in the Bucs 8-1 loss to Glen Ridge.

BY TIMOTHY DENMAN
of Belleville Times

The Belleville High girls' soccer team fell to Glen Ridge 8-1, and fell to 1-6 on the season.

The Ridgers have been the victims of some tough losses this season, losing all of their games by one goal, and now stand at 3-5 for the season.

"It was a total team effort today," Ridger Head Coach Oscar Viteri said after the victory. "I am very pleased with the way we played. Everyone got involved and we did some good things."

Neither team was able to get the ball in the net for most of the first half, but Adria DeSimone got the Ridgers on the board with 23 minutes to go in the first period to take the 1-0 lead.

Although Glen Ridge was unable to score early in the game, the offensive unit completely dominated the Bucs and was able to keep the ball on the Belleville side of the field for most of the half.

Brooke Schnabel found herself unguarded in front of the net four minutes later, and scooped up an open ball and put it into the back of the net to increase the Ridgers' lead to 2-0.

Melissa Mayer got into the action 10 minutes later when she broke loose and tallied another score for the Ridgers.

It looked like the Bucs weren't going to put up much of a fight, but they were able to get onto the scoreboard late in the first half when Stephanie DeVito beat the Ridgers' Sarah Kruse for Belleville's lone goal of the contest.

When the two teams took the field for the start of the second half, the Bucs made a push to get back into the game, dominating the first five minutes of the half.

Belleville had the Ridgers on their heels at the start of the second period, but was unable to score before Glen Ridge took control again.

Fourteen minutes into the second half, Jaime Centanni increased the Ridgers' lead to 4-1 when she beat the goalie in the lower left corner on an unassisted goal.

Following Centanni's goal, Viteri pulled Kruse, and put back-up Katie Trojanowki in goal, to get the freshman a little work between the posts.

Lindsey Exon got into the action on an assist from Maddie Malone to increase the Glen Ridge lead to 5-1. The Belleville goalie looked like she had made the save, but the officials ruled that although she caught the shot, she did so beyond the goal line.

Just seconds later freshman Katie LaRocco scored on an assist for Centanni for the Ridgers' sixth goal.

Junior Cara Connell scored the Ridgers' final two goals of the game to make the final score 8-1. The last goal was scored on a corner kick by Malone that Connell headed past the goalie.

The Bucs fell to 1-6 with the loss, but Head Coach Frank Tafur was able to walk away with a positive feeling. "Glen Ridge is a very good team," Tafur said. "The score might not show it, but I think we played well today. We are progressing every game, and it is just a matter of time before everything starts to click."

The Ridgers will be back in action tomorrow at 4 p.m. when they take on Lacordaire at home.

Fall baseball teams looking very strong

BY MIKE LAMBERTI
for Belleville Times

The Belleville fall baseball teams are enjoying solid seasons thus far.

Belleville has two teams playing fall baseball. A younger group, consisting of freshmen and sophomores, plays in the Connie Mack/Bob Henry Instructional League. The coaches are former Belleville standouts Dave Lelinho, Mike SanPhilip and Anthony Dal-bo.

"The Connie Mack league is mostly instructional," explained Belleville varsity baseball coach Alan Frank. "Won-loss records aren't kept. It's a very good league, and will only help our younger kids in getting game competition. I'm very happy that Dave, Mike and Anthony are coaching this team. They're doing an outstanding job."

We'll have more on the players in an upcoming issue.

A second Belleville team plays in the Red Hawk League, an 18-and-under division.

"We're playing teams from Passaic, Bergen and Essex counties," Frank said. "In that league, records are kept. We have sophomores, juniors and seniors playing, and they're doing quite well. The competition is very good."

Belleville was 5-1 through games of last weekend, having defeated Wayne Hills 8-4 last Sunday. The team hosts Wayne Valley tonight at 6:30 p.m. This weekend, Belleville plays a Passaic County All-Star team on Saturday and a Bergen County squad on Sunday. Both of those games are on the road.

The Belleville coaches are Anthony Malanga, Frank Marinella, Joe Cassese and Howie Cimmet. The team is led by senior second baseman and varsity captain Craig Binkowicz, who is also the lone senior on the roster.

The juniors are 1B James Rovell; 3B/P Giancarlo Cifelli; P/IF Andrew Brenneman; catchers Matt Roman, Justin Biss and Brian Cimmet; outfielders Dominick Malanga and Anthony Marinella and pitcher David Caruso.

The sophomores are Jonathan Serrano and Michael Cassese, both of whom pitch and play the infield.

Bucs fall to Bergen Catholic, 4-0

BY MIKE LAMBERTI
for Belleville Times

It wasn't an ideal week for the Belleville boys' soccer team, as the Bucs tied Paramus 2-2 and lost a 4-0 decision to Bergen Catholic.

Coach Len Marino's team took a 4-2-2 record into a game against Barringer last Monday. The Bucs also faced Clifton earlier this week. This afternoon, Belleville visits Paterson Kennedy in a 4 p.m. start. This Sunday, the team will play a first round, Essex County Tournament game. The site and time for that game were undetermined as of press time. Next Tuesday, Belleville hosts Bloomfield at 4 p.m.

While Belleville didn't fare well in the won-lost department last week, what concerned Marino more were two key injuries to defensive players against Bergen Catholic. Josh Droz hurt his ankle in the game while Nick Marino suffered a knee injury.

"I'm hoping they can get back for this week," Len Marino said. "But with leg injuries, there's a lot of question marks. It's disappointing, but I hope the kids are okay."

Belleville had some good scoring chances against Bergen Catholic, a team ranked in the state's top 20.

"We hit the post three times," Marino said. "They scored their first goal on a penalty kick. I thought we played them pretty well. I just wish we had our full team for that game."

Earlier in the week, the Bucs tied Paramus 2-2.

"It was a very physical game, similar to Bergen Catholic," Marino said. "We had the lead twice, but they came back to tie."

Dennis Pupcevic scored both Belleville goals while Alex Ceron and Diego Saldano contributed assists.

NOTES: The Belleville JV team lost 2-1 decisions to Paramus and Bergen Catholic. The freshmen lost a 2-1 game to Bergen Catholic and lost to Harrison, 4-1.

"The younger teams are coming along," Marino said. "They're playing well."

Bucs play hard, fall to Hackensack

BY MIKE LAMBERTI
for Belleville Times

The progress has been slow, but steady. And while the Belleville football team is 0-4, head coach Joe Fischer is far from discouraged.

Belleville lost a 35-8 decision to perennial powerhouse Hackensack last Friday night. The team will look to rebound tomorrow evening when Paterson Kennedy comes to Belleville for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

"We showed some good signs," Fischer said of the Hackensack game. "They beat us on a few long passes, but overall we ran the ball well and contained their running game. Joe Roberts had an outstanding game for us, with 11 tackles. I saw a lot of promising things out there."

The first quarter was scoreless, but Hackensack broke the game open with four unanswered touchdowns in the second quarter. Belleville scored its touchdown in the fourth quarter on a three-yard run by Chris Turner and a two-point conversion run by quarterback Paul Frudenvoll.

Belleville's rushing game was effective. Jason Luzzi, Mark Saavedra and Turner combined for 180 yards on the ground. Sophomore wide receiver Rahmid Thompson had three catches and continues to be a legitimate scoring threat.

"If we had played as well against Bloomfield as we did against Hackensack, we could have gotten a win against Bloomfield," Fischer said. "But that's the way it goes. We're learning how to play, and how to win. It takes time. I wish we weren't 0-4, but we're making progress."

NOTES: Bucs will play a good team on Friday in Paterson Kennedy. "They have good speed and size," Fischer said. "Their passing game is outstanding."

Paterson Kennedy is 3-1 so far this season.

No injuries to report from the Hackensack game. Fischer also noted the good play of Carlos Atuncar, who had a good run on a reverse play.

Cuzzi will work the plate in MLB playoffs

Belleville native Phil Cuzzi, who will be umpiring in the upcoming Atlanta Braves-Houston Astros divisional series, will be behind the plate for today's Game 2 in Atlanta, beginning at 4 p.m.

Cuzzi will work on an experienced umpiring crew, featuring crew chief Joe Brinkman and veteran Tim McClelland, who was Cuzzi's crew chief back in the 2000 season.

Brinkman is one of the most veteran umpires in baseball while McClelland has worked four

BUC SHOTS
MIKE LAMBERTI

World Series since 1993 and was the home plate umpire in Game 7 of last year's American League Championship Series between the Yankees and Red Sox.

For Cuzzi, today's game marks another milestone in his umpiring career. Having just completed his sixth full year as an umpire, Cuzzi is in the playoffs for the second straight season and today, he works behind the plate for the first time in the playoffs.

"Last year, I worked every position in the field, but missed the plate," Cuzzi said. "This time, I start at first base and will get the plate in the second game. Obviously, I'm excited about it."

Unlike last year, when umpiring crews moved around during the divisional series, this year the crews will stay with the same series. Thus, Cuzzi will begin the series in Atlanta, continue in Houston this weekend, and go back to Atlanta for a Game 5, if necessary early next week.

While umpires who work the divisional round are eligible for the World Series, Cuzzi doesn't see a World Series assignment in his immediate future.

"Not this year," Cuzzi said. "But this is another step, and I'm very proud. Maybe next year, I can get a shot at the League Championship Series, and after that, who knows?"

Congratulations to Cuzzi on another outstanding year. Belleville baseball fans should tune in today at 4 to see one of their native sons working at baseball's highest level of competition.

The Belleville volleyball team is playing well so far this season. Veteran coach Grace Worley has seen her team defeat Nutley, Barre and Paterson Eastside so far this year.

"The kids are working hard," Worley, in her 28th season and the program's only coach, said. "Our seniors are doing a very good job."

Those seniors, Yanira Almagro, Jackie Hernandez, Jessilyn McManus, Rosario Carhuayo and Evelyn Bazan have shown excellent athletic and leadership skills.

Hernandez is a solid outside hitter and has done well blocking at the net.

"She's been super," Worley said of Hernandez.

Almagro is a good net player and a solid middle hitter. McManus' service game and blocking at the net have been outstanding.

Juniors Emily Burde, Rusaffa Mahmood, Jen Thai and Anna Vilchez, along with freshman Samantha Ramos, have also been impressive.

The girls will host Clifton today at 4 p.m. Tomorrow, the Wizards visit Holy Angels.

Local Elks Lodge holding semi-annual blood drive

Belleville Elks Lodge #1123, in conjunction with The Blood Center of New Jersey, will be holding its semi-annual blood drive at the Belleville Elks Hall, 254 Washington Ave., on Sat., Oct. 9, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

According to the Belleville Elks, they are committed to the Blood Center of New Jersey's challenge, which is "rebuilding our most precious resource-one hero at a time."

Blood Center officials point out that the number of blood donors has been dramatically decreasing over the past several years and it is now crucial to the health of everyone in the community to rebuild the blood supply.

The public is being urged to donate blood so that an adequate supply will be there when it is needed. Giving blood is completely safe and easy. All materials, including the needle are sterile, used only once, and safely destroyed. The entire procedure takes less than an hour, and actual donation takes less than 10 minutes.

Each donation is broken down into components, so that one's blood donation is very likely to be used for up to three different patients.

Donors should be 18 years of age. Seventeen-year-olds may donate with parental permission. Donors must weigh at least 110 pounds and be free of cold or flu symptoms. Individuals should know their Social Security number and bring a signed form of identification with them. All donors will be given a mini physical which includes blood pressure, temperature, pulse, iron level and a cholesterol screening, which will be sent to their home after the donation. There is metered parking available on Washington Avenue as well as parking in the lots of two nearby banks. Additional parking is available behind the Elks Hall on Valley Street.

“Donated food from the massive single-day food drive is expected to last through Thanksgiving,” said Rhona Bronson, director of marketing for North Jersey Media Group. “Therefore, in addition to food, we also welcome financial donations, which are used to restock pantry shelves throughout the winter.”

Mark your calendar now to donate non-perishable food on October 10.

Most-needed non-perishable food include: canned meat, fish, spaghetti sauce, fruit, vegetables, beans, gravy; powdered milk; 100% fruit juice packs; cold and hot boxed cereal; pancake mix and syrup; macaroni and cheese; peanut butter and jelly; rice; instant mashed potatoes; cranberry sauce (for Thanksgiving); cake and pie mixes; coffee and tea. Organizers request no glass containers or outdated items.

Contribute financial donations used to purchase food on an as-needed basis year-round. Tax deductible donations may be made payable to Action Against Hunger, and mailed c/o North Jersey Media Group Foundation, P.O. Box 271, Hackensack, NJ 07601, or by credit card through PayPal at www.actionagainsthunger.com. Donations are tax deductible.

The American Red Cross wants residents to be practice family emergency preparedness and John Kocotos, the Director of Emergency Operations at the Montclair-Glen Ridge-Nutley Red Cross, offers the following tips:

■ Stock water, food and first aid supplies. Keep items in an easy-to-carry container, such as a large, covered trash container, a camping backpack or duffel bag.

■ Ask your physician or pharmacist about storing prescription medications.

- Plan how your family will stay in contact if separated; pick two meeting places.

- Show responsible family members how and when to shut off water, gas and electricity at main switches.

■ Maintain a full tank of gas in your car, check oil, fluids and air in tires on a regular basis

- Keep emergency equipment in the car.

Kocotos said the emergency kit for the car should contain basically the same items as that for the home, in addition to: cell phone and charger; battery-powered radio and extra batteries; flashlight and extra batteries; blanket or sleeping bags; First Aid kit; bottled water and non-perishable high-energy foods (such as granola bars, raisins, and peanut butter); road maps, tire repair kit and pump; flares; tow rope; booster cables and fire extinguisher, diapers.

Visit www.ActionAgainstHunger.com or call 1-888-829-2595 now for more information.

Also on October 10th, the Greater Hackensack Chamber of Commerce Run and Walk will kick-off the food drive activity in The Record headquarters parking lot at 150 River Street, Hackensack at 9:30 a.m. (On-site registration for the Run and Walk is 7:45 a.m.) Participants are encouraged to bring a food donation to the race.

The program supports emergency food providers including: Center for Food Action, Bergen County; CUMAC/ECHO, Passaic County; Emergency Food Coalition of Passaic County; MEND, Local sponsors that support the food drive with food, transportation and communication services include: A&P, Dynamex, Foodtown, Hackensack University Medical Center, Kings, Marcal, Pathmark, Shop Rite, Stop & Shop and Wachovia.

Community FoodBank of New Jersey is located at 31 Evans Terminal Road, Hillside, N.J. 07205.

The Community FoodBank of New Jersey is the state's largest distributor of donated food to non-profit organizations serving people in need in 18 of New Jersey's 21 counties. Last year, the FoodBank distributed over 20 million pounds of groceries to 1500 charities serving more than 500,000 people struggling with economic hardship.

Action Against Hunger is recognized as the largest food drive in the metropolitan area and as a national model program by America's Second Harvest, the largest domestic hunger-relief organization in the United States. 2003 donations from the food drive totaled 110 tons.

North Jersey Media Group and the North Jersey Media Group Foundation, a 501 (C) (3) Fund, is located is headquartered at 150 River Street, Hackensack, NJ 07601.

The monthly mortgage payment quoted in this ad on a qualified borrower buying a single family owner-occupied residence, based upon a 30% downpayment. The payment is calculated using a 3-1 interest only adjustable rate mortgage with an initial interest rate of 3.25%, with 12 payments, and an initial APR of 4.75%. Payments are shown only for the first 10 years, and then over 11 through maturity, amortization is based on 20 years. The interest rate is based on an index plus a margin, with a floor amount of $500,000. The payment is fixed for the first 3 years, and because the interest rate may change after 3 years, the payment shown may change at the 4th year and annually thereafter subject to applicable margin and/or caps. If such adjustment, the interest rate is of 2.5% below the index (margin) and if more than decreases in more than 2 percentage points (cap), and one the day of the loan. If an example on a $500,000 down payment with an initial interest rate of 3.25%, the maximum interest that the interest rate can rise under this loan program is 4 percentage points to 9.50%, and the estimated monthly payment for the first 3 years is $146.48 on a maximum interest payment of $199.17 this year 10 (based on 10th in Landing Disclosure Exhibit) and a maximum principal and interest payment of $251.12 after year 10.

There will be more than 120 collection locations in Bergen, Passaic, Essex and Morris counties.

"Donated food from the massive single-day food drive is expected to last through Thanksgiving," said Rhona Bronson, director of marketing for North Jersey Media Group. "Therefore, in addition to food, we also welcome financial donations, which are used to restock pantry shelves throughout the winter."

How to help
Community members and organizations can help with the 2004 Action Against Hunger Food Drive in many ways, including:

Mark your calendar now to donate non-perishable food on October 10.

Most-needed non-perishable food include: canned meat, fish, spaghetti sauce, fruit, vegetables, beans, gravy; powdered milk; 100% fruit juice packs; cold and hot boxed cereal; pancake mix and syrup; macaroni and cheese; peanut butter and jelly; rice; instant mashed potatoes; cranberry sauce (for Thanksgiving); cake and pie mixes; coffee and tea. Awareness of mental illness stressed now

Northwest Essex Community Healthcare Network will celebrate Mental Illness Awareness Week, now through Oct. 9, by urging those who are feeling overwhelmed by stress and other issues to seek help. If diagnosed, the success rates for treating many mental illnesses out pace those of many physical diseases, including cancer and heart disease.

"In today's fast-paced world, it is easy for people to become overwhelmed by the many demands being placed on them," said Anthony Lucibello, executive director, MPA, CSW. "One in five people will be affected by a mental illness in their lifetime, yet most will not seek treatment due to the stigma and discrimination associated with these diseases. People need to realize that if they seek help they can recover from these biologically-based brain diseases and reclaim their lives."

Mental Illness Awareness Week is a national observance held annually the first week of October. During this week, millions of Americans will be honoring the challenges encountered by mental illness, as well as celebrating the recoveries they or their loved ones have embraced.

Events include National Depression Screening Day on Oct. 7, which promotes in-person and online screening for four of the most common and frequently co-occurring mental disorders: depression, bipolar disorder, generalized anxiety disorder and post-traumatic stress disorder; and World Mental Health Day (Oct. 10), which this year seeks to focus worldwide attention and concern on the identification, understanding and treatment of co-occurring mental illness and substance use disorders.

Symptoms of mental illness often manifest themselves as something physical or are often dismissed as just being in a bad mood. Common symptoms include:

- Physical
 - Aches, pains or other physical complaints
 - Marked changes in appetite
 - Change in sleeping patterns
 - Fatigue
- Emotional
 - Pervasive sadness
 - Apathy
 - Decreased pleasure
 - Crying for no apparent reason
 - Indifference to others

If you or someone you know are experiencing any of these symptoms, contact Northwest Essex Community Healthcare Network at (973) 450-3100.

Disaster donations now being taken

September 7, 2004, will go down in history as one of the worst days in the lives of the people of Grenada. Winds with gusts of 150 miles per hour roared through in the form of Hurricane Ivan, toppling, uprooting and ripping apart anything in their path. In the rural areas, where supplies are hard to obtain to begin with, board and concrete houses succumbed to the battering of the wind and rain.

In an attempt to restore even a small amount of normalcy to the lives of its people, an organization has been formed called Grenada Relief Organization of New Jersey. While clothing and shelter are obviously needed, the procurement of food is most important. Nonperishable and canned goods are being requested so that supplies can be immediately shipped.

Clara Maass Medical Center will be accepting donations in drop-off boxes located in the cafeteria on the lobby level of the medical center between the hours of 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. The Clara Maass Medical Center is located at One Clara Maass Drive, Belleville.

In addition to food items, other essentials needed include flashlights and batteries, towels and blankets, personal hygiene items, including soap, deodorant, sanitary products, diapers, clothing, shoes and sleeping bags.

For more information, contact Lesly Ann Victor at (973) 393-8081, Christine Fabrizio at (973)

NON-COMPLIANCE ENTREATY

While there are many medications for the treatment of a number of serious illnesses, each day, about 50 million Americans either forget to take medications that their physicians have prescribed or purposely decide not to take them. The majority of medications taken by people aged 50 and older are prescribed for chronic illnesses such as hypertension, diabetes, depression and heart disease. In many cases, these medications do not cure the condition but are intended to be taken for months or years to prevent the disease's progression. The major reason for non-adherence is that some patients mistakenly believe they no longer need a medication to keep their condition under control. If you have questions about medication, consult with the pharmacist.

Patients should never stop taking any prescription medications without first checking with their doctor. Whenever you need information on a medication feel free to ask us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Avenue (759-1968, 759-1956). "Your Doctor Knows Us-Your Doctor Trusts Us".

HINT: If cost or side effects factor into your decision not to take a medication, ask your physician or pharmacist about alternatives or a different dosage.

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE
Oh Holy St. Jude, apostle and martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my urgent petition. In return I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. Say three Our Father's, Hail Mary's and Gloria's. Publication must be promised. St. Jude, pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. This novena must be said for nine consecutive days.....GM
