Lowe's 'still a go,' despite kinks

BY RICHARD DICKON of Belleville Times

The good news for taxpayers is that the Lowe's Home Improvement Center planned for Main Street is still on, as of last month.

The bad news is that the owners of the property and Lowe's are at an impasse over who should pay for water treatment plan required by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection before a shovel is dug in at the site, ers, who own Route 21 Associates, according to Township Manager the property holding company, Victor Canning. Then the wild card in the negotiations is, of course, the ongoing economic crisis, the manager said.

"Who knew the market would be doing what it's doing?" he asked. "This is something we've never seen before. Lowe's may say expanding is not something we want to do. But as of a little over a month ago, I have been told it is still a go?

Canning said the Belleville area. where the store would be located, "has an extreme amount of buying could be a problem."

'Who knew the market would be doing what it's doing? Lowe's may say expanding is not something we want to do. But as of a little over a month ago, I have been told it is still a go.'

What already is a major problem is that the Finkelstein brothsubmitted a water treatment plan that Lowe's officials said could not be accepted by the DEP, Canning said.

"We're at an impasse," he said. The Finkelsteins are not at fault for not wanting to foot the bill for the cleanup, he said. That bill should fall to the Walter Kidde Corp., which allegedly experimented with toxic substances at the site while developing fire-extinguish-ing equipment in the 1940s and Sebastian "Sammy" Papa said the beyond, he said.

The Belleville Planning Board ers, who own Route 21 Associates, has granted Lowe's a one-year extension to complete site plan approval of the store.

The project is in Councilman John Notari's Fourth Ward, and he remains optimistic, comparing the project to major commercial projects in nearby Clifton.

The Township Council has continued to support the plans.

A site plan approval predicated on the developers' receiving clearance from the state Department of Environmental Protection was granted at a special meeting held in May 2006.

SENIOR HOUSING

Land sale may put project back on track

BY RICHARD DICKON of Belleville Times

The long anticipated and hoped-for senior housing project in Belleville has made some important, major progress in recent months, according to Township Manager Victor Canning.

Canning said the township has a "fruitful" meeting with the railroad company that owns land at the proposed site for the housing, near the senior citizens building at the corner of Mill Street and Franklin Avenue.

"There is part of an abandoned line that we need to purchase, and the shareholders have to let us senior housing have failed when know what value they put on the the town's application to begin property so the council can see if it is worth purchasing," Canning said. federal Housing and Urban Devel-"I believe the railroad is very inter- opment Department.

"Things take time, but at least there are no environmental issues," Canning said, comparing the plans to the long-standing odyssey to build a Lowe's Home Improvement Center on Main Street, where environmental problems continue to plague that project (see story, page 1).

Previous plans had the building to be built at 121 Franklin Ave. and would have been a five-story structure that would have had the ability to house roughly 75 residents in all, according to officials. The next planned building would have been almost directly across the street from the current Belleville senior citizen center. the Clara Maass Medical Center. Housing for the facility would have been determined on a first come, first serve basis, with the possibility of a lottery for the final spots. Prospective residents would not have been limited to just Belleville senior citizens because the project would have been federally funded.

According to Dean Boorman of the Montclair-based Boorman & Associates, the most recent project failed because of a lack of funds. Boorman stated in a prior interview that there is a funding limit for projects like this one and that the government only funds about three projects of this kind statewide.

The diocese would have bought the property from the town and then $\frac{1}{2}$ constructed the facility without any cost to the town through the HUD funding they tried to obtain.

Previous plans had Belleville receiving upwards of $60,000 a year in revenue in lieu of taxes, from which the building would have been evenuet have been exempt.

Final words on the historic 2008 election

Making history

"You can be anything you want, even the president." You can say that all you want, but if a U.S. president has never shared your background or ethnicity, it may be hard to believe. Without a track record, you're a dreamer.

Well, for African Americans, the dream has been realized with the victory of Barack Obama. We should vote on qualifications, not race, gender or religion. But if the person who meets our qualifications to lead a government happens to be a different color, sex or worshiper, to vote for that candidate sends to the world a message of tolerance and respect.

President-elect Obama has a long road ahead, especially addressing the failed economy and two raging wars. He will make mistakes and some unpopular choices; his record will be tested. But it shouldn't be tested on his ethnicity.

It is hoped he'll apply the strategy of Lincoln and

Unit pricing

TO THE EDITOR:

Times are economically hard for our citizens.

One way to stretch our dollars is by unit pricing. To get the most for our money, unit pricing helps, in addition to watching for sales and comparing prices.

This system tells us the costs per unit (such as per quart, per pound, per 100 pieces, etc.). It is especially helpful in the grocery store. Some stores made errors and compare ounces with pounds or quarts.

Éssex County Weights & Measures provides the following examples in a booklet: 32 ounce Corn Flakes ($5.12); 20 ounce Corn Flakes ($3); 14 ounce Corn Flakes ($2.52). That computes out to a unit price of 18 cents for 14 ounces, 15 cents for 20 ounces, and the best unit price of 16 cents for 32 ounces.

Remember, the larger package is not always the best buy. And sometimes the brand product, such as Kellogg's Pop Tarts, is cheaper than the store brand.

The unit price also tells us when something is very expensive. For example, Bell's Seasoning is $31.84 per pound or $1.99 per ounce; Gorton's flounder is $13.32 per pound; Celeste pizza is $2.29 for 5.7 ounces, but the unit price is $6.28 per pound. Wise potato chips are $5.98 per pound while store brand chips are $2.92 per pound; Morrell bacon is $3.99 per pound while store brand bacon is $1.99 per pound.

Companies are downsizing the quantities in their containers. Ice cream usually came in half-gallon containers. Now, Turkey Hill is 1.5 quarts and Breyer's is 1.75 quarts, rather than 2 quarts.

Unit pricing allows us to com-

Clinton, bringing a variety of views to the table and weighing all options with an open mind.

Exit polling

This election, New Jersey counties placed tighter restrictions on the press at the polls.

A court decision a few months back lumped reporters in with people doing exit polling. The press was told it had to register to ask questions at the polls, and all media were banned from inside the buildings where voting took place.

First off, the press is not conducting any official poll for any particular interest. Reporters usually ask random questions of the "man on the street" - just who they supported and a general reaction to the issues. People - as they often do - can decline to be interviewed. Others are more than a happy to put in their two cents for their neighbors' gratification.

Secondly, the government is stopping the press from

The media hasn't reported much about the problem. The election as a whole was a priority. However, these stumbling blocks, keeping the press at bay, keeps the public uninformed.

Sign off

The election is over. If you as a voter or campaigner put up signs in support of your candidate, did you leave the signs behind? If so, now is past the time to go pick them up.

Whether you trash them in disgust or hang them proudly on a wall, get them off the streets and yards. Litter blowing in the wind with a name on it does not reflect kindly on the candidate. In fact, if elected, it's worth considering voting the litter out the next go round.

Petraeus was Bush's pick, wasn't he? Is Obama still going to bring the troops home in six weeks or six months?

Obama blasted Bush's tax cuts, but Barry now promises more tax cuts. It was George Bush who signed a prescription drug entitlement program and expanded the U.S. Department of Education, much to the chagrin of conservatives and the delight of Democrats. Bush also led the failed attempt of amnesty for illegal invaders, a program supported by Democrats.

George Bush is really a Democrat, and he accomplished much of Obama's agenda before Barak even started his campaign.

We must also note that Bush's low approval rating is much higher than the Democrat congress.

DEVELOPMENT Old factory property being prepped for retail, rentals

BY RICHARD DICKON of Belleville Times

With officials working to bring ratable properties to the township, one plan for the north end of Washington Avenue is on track, while at the same time one of the anchors of the south end of the avenue continues "a slow death," according to Township Manager Victor Canning.

The former ice factory property adjacent to the Pathmark, and further back from Washington Avenue, is undergoing asbestos remediation, Canning said. "It's not that extensive, but its enough to take some time," he said.

The developer, George Jacobs, told Canning that once the asbestos is removed, demolition of ness. Canning said the southern the existing structures should happen in January or February, to be replaced by retail businesses on the ground floor topped by four floors of residential properties, in which the designation has changed because of the slumping housing market.

"They will now all be rentals, instead of for purchase condos," Canning said. "It has been a great pleasure to deal with Mr. Jacobs. He has not left us in the dark about anything."

At the same time, a major improvement is moving ahead at the north end of the avenue, Bigelow Motors, a car dealership for many decades on the south end of town that is going out of busi-

The major development at the former ice factory gained Belleville Planning Board approval for a site plan to bring 135 rental units and 20,000 square of retail space to the now rundown area.

The area is in Deputy Mayor John Notari's Fourth Ward, and he said the planning board approved the development mixed uses.

He said he is "very excited" about this major development in his ward, crediting the efforts of Mayor Raymond Kimble, Canning and the entire council for rezoning the area for mixed usage, calling it "a real start for Washington Avenue?

Jacobs described the development in detail and credited Belleville officials for being "incredible" in welcoming the developer to the township.

The site was home to Liquid Carbonics dry ice factory for many vears, and was later sold of for use as a warehouse before closing altogether and becoming an eyesore buried behind overgrown vegetation

He said all of that is being knocked down, and he is putting up two, four-story buildings. The front building will have rentals above and retail on the first floor. There will be a total of 135 condominiums between the two

HERNIATED DISC?

Dr. Diego Ruiz, D.C.

For Lower back pain caused by overexertion, strain or sprain, medications and injections might offer relief. But for those suffering from chronic and more severe back pain, there has been little rescue – until now. Dr. Diego Ruiz, D.C., has recently introduced a revolutionary back pain treatment to Essex County. This is know as non-surgical Spinal Decompression.

The new Spinal Decompression procedure specializes in treating lower back pain caused by disc bulges and herniations, sciatica, stenosis, degenerative discs, arthrititis and facet syndrome. The concept behind this new medical breakthrough was inspired by studying the effects of an anti-gravity environment on the human body during space travel.

The research showed that the anti-gravity environment helped relieve back pain and increased the height of the disc. This led to the development of this new technology, which now allows practitioners to recreate the effects of anti-gravity here on earth and rescue those with chronic back pain.

"For years, I've seen patients suffer despite multiple opinions and therapies. I'm thrilled to be able to alleviate my patient's pain with this state-of-the-art treatment," says Dr. Ruiz.

This non-surgical procedure is ideal for those with clinically unstable lower backs who have tried medication or have been scheduled for lengthy or alternative therapies with no success. In fact clinical studies have even shown spinal decompression is effective on patients who have already had surgery that failed.

"The procedure is non-surgical, drug and needle free and I'm excited to bring it to Belleville," says Ruiz.

Shocking News About Surgery

The most common procedure for herniated discs thus far has been surgery. Yet a report in the New England Journal of Medicine states that "51 percent of all back surgery is unnecessary."

According to the American Journal of Pain Management, "Decompression therapy has provided relief for herniated intervertebral discs."

Dr. Ruiz responds, "As a Chiropractic physician, I air on the side of skepticism, especially of anything with such profound miraculous achievement, but the majority of patients recover in a very short period of time with no documented side effects."

Medical Breakthrough

The U.S. Public Heath Service reports that the number one reason for visiting a neurologist or an orthopedist is back pain. Back Pain is the number two reason for hospitalization, second only to childbirth.

We currently spend 25 percent of our annual heath care budget on lower back pain, yet it remains at epidemic proportions.

With 30 million people in pain, many struggle to find a reliable treatment and few hold hope for a permanent cure.

This is an astounding breakthrough for those who have been to numerous doctors, have tried a variety of treatment, have been told to live with it or those who were scheduled for lengthy therapy protocols or surgery. And it is affordable for all.

How it Works

Non-surgical spinal decompression creates negative pressure inside the disc, which draws in any bulging or herniated disc material, like suction. This stimulates the body to undergo a process know as "fibroblast activity" producing fresh new tissue cells. These new cells attach themselves to the torn fibers of the disc that cause its contents to bulge. In essence, it is like a bone healing so when complete, it is even stronger than before. This is truly more of a cure than a temporary remedy

What Patients Say

"I couldn't stand or sit for any period of time, as my leg would go numb. The pain would be so severe in my lower back then travel into my hip and buttock then go down my leg that I couldn't work, play with or pick up my daughter.

"I was anxious and frustrated because nothing helped. After undergoing the non-surgical spinal decompression therapy at the Spinal Aid Center, I have been pain-free and back to full activities. I recommend the procedure to anyone with back pain - especially if you haven't found help elsewhere." Jackie Thomas.

Saturday nights belong to Madame at the Starlight Room

Now more than ever, Resorts is the place to be on Saturday nights! After the huge success of the glitzy Boogie Nights disco recapturing the nostalgia of the '70s and '80s, Resorts guests will now be treated to the antics of Madame, the raunchy puppet created by Wayland Flowers and evoking hysterical spasms of outrage through that same era. Every Saturday from this weekend through January 3, the reincarnated Madame will perform her unique cabaret show at Resorts Starlight Room.

First achieving national fame with frequent appearances on Rowan & Martin's Laugh In, then taking over the coveted center square on the popular game show Hollywood Squares, one of Madame's classic retorts was to the question "Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert and Strauss lived in the same place. Where did they all live?" Madame's answer: "At the YMCA!" Over the years, it was actually the raucous in-person cabaret show which provided the setting for Madame's most provocative performances. Playing trendy nightspots across the nation, the character of Madame is an "outrageous old broad" who entertains with double entendres and witty comebacks. Bedecked in fabulous evening wear and "summer diamonds" ("Some are diamonds; some are not"), Madame's look is based on old-time movie stars, reportedly a takeoff on the aging Gloria Swanson. Sadly, when Wayland Flowers passed away, Madame was left speechless.

After 15 years of silence, Madame is making a comeback! With the assistance of puppeteer extraordinaire Rick Skye, Madame has her sights set on Atlantic City, as she brings her hilariously raunchy cabaret show to the Starlight Room at Resorts every Saturday night. The elegant 150-seat Starlight Room, one floor above the dining level, is reminiscent of old Hollywood, the perfect backdrop for Madame as she relives her glamorous road to fame, dishes on celebrities and entertains with the quick and biting wit of a true diva. Tickets for Madame are $10. The show is 9 p.m. Saturdays, after which the crowds will be flocking to the brightly illuminated floor at Boogie Nights to dance to the tunes they've grown up with.

On Saturday night, Resorts will present seventime Grammy Award winner, Al Jarreau at the Superstar Theater. The only vocalist in history to have won Grammys in three categories; jazz, pop and R&B, Jarreau's awards have spanned four consecutive decades from the 1970s to the current time.

Born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, the son of a vicar, Jarreau's first singing experiences were in a church choir. He attended Ripon College, where he also sang non-professionally with a group called the Indigos, and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology. He went on to earn a master's degree in Vocational Rehabilitation from the University of Iowa and worked as a rehabilitation counselor in San Francisco while also performing evenings with a jazz trio headed by George Duke. After an enthusiastic reception at local jazz clubs, he finally determined to pursue his music as a full-time career.

He wrote and performed the Grammy-nominated theme to the 1980s TV show Moonlighting. He was also a featured vocalist on USA for Africa's "We Are the World." He has toured and performed with such greats as Joe Sample, Kathleen Battle, Miles Davis, David Sanborn, Rick Braun and George Benson. He also performed the role of the Teen Angel in the Broadway production of Grease. Among other things, he is well-known for his scat singing and the ability to imitate conventional guitar, bass and percussive instrumentation.

His Grammy Awards include Best Jazz Vocal Performance for "Look To The Rainbow" and "All Fly Home;" Best Pop Vocal Performance for "Blue Rondo A La Turk" and "Breakin' Away;" Best R&B Vocal Performance for "Heaven and Earth;" Best Traditional R&B Vocal Performance for "God Bless The Child", together with George Benson and Jill Scott; and Best Album for Children for "In Harmony A Sesame Street Record." In 2001 he received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Al Jarreau will perform at Resorts Superstar Theater Saturday at 8 p.m. Tickets are $45.

Trump Taj Mahal is the latest to bring to AC a seaside outpost of one of New York's premier restaurants. Il Mulino, a popular fixture in New York's Greenwich Village since 1981, and ranked the number one Italian restaurant in the City by the Zagat Survey for over two decades, has arrived at the Taj in a two-pronged dining concept. Il Mulino New York offers the traditional white table cloth experience with tuxedo-clad waiters and an extensive list of daily specials with wine recommendations. The Trattoria offers a more casual dining experience featuring many of the creative fares of Il Mulino New York, along with more traditional pizzas, pastas and lighter dishes.

Hillside Café hosts Duncan & McCarthy

The Hillside Café, a non-profit blessed with one roaring set of music venue in Nutley devoted to acoustic music, will feature Amanda Duncan and Terry McCarthy on Saturday, Nov. 15 at 8 p.m. Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

Terry McCarthy

A Nutley resident, Terry McCarthy has been making music his whole life. Mostly playing in bands, he has decided to test the waters as a solo performer in an acoustic setting. McCarthy's writing style is multifaceted, ranging from quiet ballads to full out rock tunes. Before the demise of MP3.com, he had multiple songs in the State Top Ten. He also charted songs on their National Chart's Top 100 in two different genres.

Amanda Duncan

When you see Amanda Duncan in person, it is easy to think, "How does all that sound come out of that little body?" Never quite it the Web site www.hillsideblessed with height, Amanda was cafe.com.

pipes ... and a knack for writing lyrics so honest, they cut right to the core of her audience. For listeners in search of something refreshing, Duncan delivers. She infuses the pop country structure with a folksier sound than most current artists. But what really sets her apart from the rest is her dedication to simplicity and her traditionally acoustic sound, reminiscent of the bluegrass style.

The Hillside Café is located at 45 Hillside Crescent, Nutley, at the corner of Church and Prospect streets, in the Franklin Reformed Church community room.

Admission is $10, and reservations are suggested.

Childcare is available by reservation, and the café is handicapped accessible.

HOPING FOR A HOME

After a hard day of playing and eating, and more playing and eating, Pudjee is exhausted. This guy has plenty of energy and appetite, but it is difficult to exercise when you are confined to a cage. Pudjee could sure use a home in which to start his own exercise routine to help lose those extra pounds he's been packing on at the shelter. A real charmer, who sleeps in this amusing position, Pudjee is neutered, up-to-date on his shots and looking forward to starting a new life. Meet Pudjee at the John A. Bukowski Shelter for Animals, 61 Bukowski Place, Bloomfield. Telephone: 973-748-0194.

Dino is an all-around good boy. Vigorous and energetic, he is also very friendly, gets along well with people and many of the dogs at the shelter. He plays well with a group of other dogs, and especially, Delilah (his girlfriend), another great dog in our care. Delilah and Dino can often be seen frolicking in the play cage. Though he has a strong and burly body frame, Dino is an excellent walker, listens to commands on leash and sits when asked. He is a definite favorite at the shelter, and we cannot say enough about him. You need to check him out for yourself at the John A. Bukowski Shelter. Telephone: 973-748-0194.

SECOND ANNUAL DOG DAY AFTERNOON

Obal's Inn, located on Broad Street in Bloomfield, hosted their Second Annual Dog Day Afternoon on Sunday, Oct. 5, to raise money for the Pound Animal Welfare Shelter, located on 77 N. Willow Road in Montclair. The event raised $402 for the shelter. Also at the event were dogs up for adoption from PAWS. Both dogs and owners had a great time. The owners spent the afternoon chatting with each other, while the dogs competed for prizes on Obal's patio. Medals awarded included best costume, best trick, dog/owner look alike, and best in show. For more information about PAWS, call 973-746-5212.

TOY DRIVE Christmas comes to Belleville

BY MEGHAN GRANT of Belleville Times

With a winter-like chill starting to be felt throughout Belleville, residents are beginning to turn their thoughts towards the upcoming holidays. One such Belleville native has visions of sugar plums in a big way.

Michael Chieffo has been dazzling children with his animated Christmas displays for 11 years, and collecting gift donations to bring the warmth of the season to those who need it most.

This year's toy drive will benefit children with cancer in local and New York City hospitals, as well as the family of fallen Belleville police officer Kenneth Santucci. The 32year-old officer was killed in a traffic accident on Sept. 6 of this year while responding to a call.

The toys will be distributed by the National Kidney Foundation. Collections in past years have totaled more than 2,500 gifts.

All are invited to check out the Christmas decorations, which run through Christmas at 269 New St. The ornate display includes an animatronic waving Santa and Nativity scene.

Santa will personally make an appearance from 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 13, with a Sunday, Dec. 14, rain date.

PULSE 87.7FM will be there promoting their new dance radio station. Children can sit on Santa's lap and tell them what they want for Christmas, and get their picture taken with him and the surprise cartoon guest. Hot chocolate, cookies, donuts and such will be served.

Chieffo is asking all those who wish to participate in the toy drive to bring unwrapped items. Children who want to get their letters to the big guy in red can drop off letters to Santa's Mail Box, also located at 269 New St.

Bucs down St. Anthony

Now look for consolation, winning record against Passaic Valley

BY MIKE LAMBERTI for Belleville Times

Nick Herrman turned in another stellar performance with two touchdowns and three extra points to lead the Belleville football team past St. Anthony of Jersey City, 39-12, last Friday night at Doc Ellis Field.

SPORTS

Belleville improved to 4-4 on the season and will play an NJSI-AA consolation game tomorrow night, at home, against Passaic Valley of Little Falls. This will be just the second meeting on the gridiron between the schools. Belleville won the only other game, 27-0, in the 1982 season opener in a contest played at Montclair State.

Last Friday's win snapped a three-game losing streak for Belleville, which had dropped close games to Paterson Kennedy, Paramus and Paramus Catholic. The victory also marked the first time since 1991 that the program has won four games, or more, in consecutive seasons.

season as our final three games to a championship," Belleville coach Chris Strumolo said. "We had three tough games and we needed to get back on track last Friday and our kids came through with a good defensive effort."

For Strumolo, last Friday's game was also a big victory in his short, but thus far successful head coaching career. He became the first Belleville coach since Tom Testa in 1974 to win at least four games in his first year at the helm. In Testa's case, 1974 marked his second tenure as Belleville's coach and the Bellboys eventually finished 5-4 that year.

Versus St. Anthony, Dan Grosch got Belleville going when he recovered a fumble in the end zone to give the Bucs a quick 6-0 lead. Later in the first, Herrman followed Grosch's lead by recovering a second St. Anthony fumble in its end zone to extend Belleville's advantage to 12-0. Before the first quarter ended, Belleville was ahead 18-0 thanks to a 15-yard "We're looking at this part of the scoring strike from quarterback

"I was very happy with the way our defense created those first two scoring opportunities," Strumolo said. "Ever since I came here, the emphasis has been on tough defense and we did that last Friday. We had a size advantage on the line, which is something we normally don't have, and we were able to control the game."

A three-yard scoring run by Iavon Rivers in the second quarter. Herrman made it 25-0 at halftime. After a scoreless third quarter, Belleville went ahead 32-0 on a seven-yard run by Eddie Feliciano. Belleville's final score of the game came on a two-yard score by William Woodley. The final two scores were followed by successful conversion kicks by Herrman.

Strumolo sees the opportunity for his team to put together its best season in nearly two decades.

"We've got a chance to finish 6-4," the coach said. "We've got two big games left. If we can get a win this Friday, then we're looking followed by a conversion kick from at 5-4 heading into the Nutley game on Thanksgiving. There's certainly a lot to play for." NOTES: Since the start of the since 1990.

NJSIAA consolation format in 1998, Belleville has appeared in nine contests, compiling a 4-5 mark. The wins came over Kearny in 1998, Phillipsburg in 1999, Livingston in 2000 and West Orange in 2005. Belleville lost to Morris Knolls (2001), Randolph (2002), Newark West Side (2003), Fair Lawn (2004) and Woodbridge (2006). Last year, the program qualified for the NJSIAA championship round for the first time since 1984.

Passaic Valley has a potent offense, led by quarterback Frank Giardina, halfback Dom Coiro and wide receiver Alan Bogoevski. Its defense is paced by Brendan Murphy, Mike Governali, Dan Mesa, Max Wassel and Tom Romeo. The Hornets, coached by Angelo DeSalvo, come in with a 4-5 mark and this game will mark its season finale.

If Belleville wins tomorrow, it will head into the Nutley game with a 5-4 record and a chance to win six games for the first time

In her first year as the head coach of the Belleville High girls' soccer program, Lois Johansen added a much needed energy and enthusiasm to a program that has struggled to build an identity since its inception 15 years ago.

Despite the overall popularity of girls soccer throughout Essex County on the high school level, the sport had never caught on with a fervor at Belleville. Eason starting youth basketball league

BY MIKE LAMBERTI for Belleville Times

Former Belleville High boys' basketball coach Duane Eason has been busy forming a traveling AAU basketball team for eighth grade boys in the Newark area.

The program, entitled Promoting Progress for Youth (PPY), has adopted a mission of creating a positive training ground, where middle school boys can maximize their character, academic and basketball potential, under the guidance of committed volunteers, professional educators and standards of excellence.

"The city has many negative fac-tors that plague it, and a program like this one would provide some relief to middle school age boys," Eason, a teacher in Newark who was head boys basketball coach at Belleville from 2002 to 2006, said. "The high school boys drop out rate, gang presence and drug infestation has been increased while positive programs have decreased. At the same time, many of the boys that have made it through the turmoil have failed to meet the academic requirements of the NCAA. All of these factors make a program like this one a need in the community."

According to Eason, there are two types of AAU basketball programs for youth, one that is sponsored by corporate or individuals which cover all expenses. The other is non-sponsored and have all expenses covered through a registration fee paid by the individual participants. Needless to say, the sponsored programs can generally build a better talent base because those players can travel and play at no cost.

Currently, Newark has two nonsponsored AAU basketball programs and a majority of the players from the Brick City end up playing in other New Jersey towns that have sponsored programs.

Eason's goal is to provide a 12month, sponsored AAU basketball program for less fortunate middle school boys, ages 12-14.

Such a program would provide the players maximum exposure on the local, state, regional and national levels. The program would also incorporate character education and academic strategies into practice sessions, train athletes in advanced individual and team basketball concepts while participating in local, state and regional events.

The program is underway and Eason has a team which will be competing over the next several months.

Currently, there is one team for eighth graders. They will play in approximately 16 tournaments, a winter league and some exposure camps and showcases, through next August.

Games will be played on weekends, mainly in New Jersey, as well as New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Washington, D.C., Florida and Las Vegas.

The fundraising also continues, and if anyone is interested in learning more about Eason's work, they may contact him at coacheason @hotmail.com.

Job Haines Home offers workshop

Be our guest as Job Haines Home celebrates Family Caregivers Awareness Month, "Lessons in Living for Family Caregivers, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, November 25.

For most of us, our longest, hardest journeys are the ones we take as caregivers. These journeys can include caring for dear parents, long-term spouses, and sometimes, beloved children. Caregiving requires effort, time and patience. Within this framework, realistic possibilities exist, even for lives dramatically changed by the rigors of this task.

This workshop will offer caregivers information, education and support, which will be valuable personally, for family and friends, and for all who experience the caregiving journey.

The guest speaker will be Judith Pedersen, MSW, LSW, founder and executive director of Interregnum: Services for Loss & Life Transitions. Join us for this informative seminar. Refreshments will be served.

To RSVP or for more information, call 973-743-0792, ext. 115, or visit www.job-haines.org.

Back pain relief, the perfect combo

DRX9000 decompression is the newest therapy that helps herniated and bulging discs. It is for people who have constant reoccurring back pain; sciatica; leg pain; and numbness in the lower limbs.

If a symptom is reoccurring, it is not just a muscle spasm. Spasms relieve on rest and ice application. If your pain continues, you should be checked for nerve compression, disc compression and subluxation (when the vertebra has moved out of its normal position and is compressing the nerve roots).

As a chiropractor, Dr. Susan M. Guarino addresses the pain as a signal that your body says "stop." More pressure on this low back is dangerous, that is why most people lay down for relief. The disc is under the least compression when lying down.

Along with traditional chiropractic care, Guarino puts the patient on decompression therapy. After a series of decompression, she sends the patient to the physical therapist for the strengthening and stabilization of their muscles.

Call Guarino's office for a complimentary visit at 973-759-3600. The office is located at 858 Joralemon Street, Belleville, N. J.

Deaths resulting from medication mistakes are rising at an alarming rate. According to a recent analysis of nearly 50 million U.S. death certificates, over a recent 20-year span, there has been more than a 700 percent increase in the number of deaths from medication errors in the home. Researchers involved in the study point to the increased use of prescription painkillers and other potent drugs, which were once solely used in hospitals. In addition, many patients ignore the warning not to mix alcohol with their prescription medications, thinking one drink will not matter, but then go ahead and have three or four. The increase in fatal medication mistakes at home was greatest among people in their 40s and 50s.

A medication mistake can be fatal. Please take the time to speak to your health care professionals, including your pharmacist, so that you can safely take medicines. At ROSS-MORE PHARMACY, we take the time to make sure that you know exactly how to take a particular medicine as well as educate you on the possible side effects. come to 338 Washington Avenue for service you can trust. Our phone number is 973-759-1968 or 973-759-1956.

HINT: while abuse of prescription drugs plays a role in deaths due to medication errors at home, many people remain unaware of the dangers of mixing certain medications.

Used Vehicles To Be Sold For $9

Record breaking sales have lead to vehicles being sold at rediculus prices, some vehicles are selling for as low as $99.

BLOOMFIELD, NJ- Tony Halley, General Manager of Lynnes Nissan/Subaru and Pre-Owned Super Center located on 318 Bloomfield Avenue, has just announced that Lynnes is having a $99 Used Car Sale Saturday, October 18th, 2008, between 10am and 2pm. This is a one-of-a-kind, one day only sale featuring unheard of bargains and unbeatable value.

Lynnes' record breaking new Nissan and Subaru vehicle sales are at an all time high and as a result, the inventory of high quality used car trade-ins has increased enormously. These additional pre-owned vehicles are taking up much-needed space as the new model year approaches, and must be sold at any cost. In addition to Lynnes' extra inventory, additional vehicles have been acquired at incredible prices from various banks, repossession companies, auto auctions, credit unions, lease companies, and rental companies solely for this sale.

The $99 Used Car Sale will make vehicles available that are not normally sold to the general public. According to Dan Libman, Lynnes' General Sales Manager, "This will be a sale like none other before it." Customers are encouraged to arrive as early as 8am to inspect the entire inventory and find the car that is right for them. All vehicles will be displayed on the lot by Lynnes Nissan's main entrance and on the storage lots on both sides of the dealership. Every vehicle will be cleaned, detailed, and fully prepared for instant delivery. At 9am, Mr. Halley and his team will mark the special sale price on each and every vehicle.

Lynnes owner, Mr. Dominick Tozzo, has given the dealership's financing manager the resources necessary to get most customers' credit approved on the spot, regardless of any past credit issues. This means that customers with "less than- perfect" credit history can attend this sale worry free, have their credit approved, and drive a quality pre-owned car, truck, or SUV home by lunchtime on Saturday. Even if a customer's credit report shows a bankruptcy, divorce, tax lien, slow payment history, missed payment, or repossession, or if a customer is a first time buyer, Lynnes can get them approved.

This sale is a must for anyone who is currently in the market for a pre-owned vehicle. Great deals are going to be right here at Lynnes Nissan/Subaru & Pre-Owned Super Center on 318 Bloomfield Avenue in Bloomfield, NJ. This special, one day only, $99 Used Car Sale will be held this Saturday, October 18th, between 10am and 2pm. Customers are encouraged to arrive as early as 8 AM for the start of inspection. Incredible sale prices, starting as low as $99, will be posted no later than 9am. All vehicles will be sold on a first come, first serve basis. Lynnes is expecting a high volume of customers for this sale, so be sure the sale at 1pm Saturday, we will immedirequested that other dealers or dealer representatives intending to purchase vehicles for resale at their dealerships please not attend this sale.

Customers wishing to trade-in a vehicle are asked to bring their title or payment book for immediate delivery. Lynnes Nissan/Subaru will even pay off your trade-in in full, no matter how much you still owe on it. Mr. Tozzo stressed, "At the close of to reserve your spot early. Mr. Tozzo has ately resume our regular pricing. Most of these surplus pre-owned vehicles will get sent directly to auto auctions for liquidation. So, if anyone has been thinking about purchasing a good, clean, dependable preowned car, truck, van or sport utility vehicle, do not miss this special one day only sale."

Subrief, special practice is held at ≓Bethany on the first Sunday of every month directly after the regular 9 a.m. and 10:15 a.m. worship services. Everyone is welcome to ਸ਼ੂ attend.

Sunday Afternoons with Iglesia Luterana

The Lutheran Latino service, ☐ Iglesia Luterana, is held every Sunday at 1 p.m. in the sanctuary of Bethany Lutheran Church. The Rev. Nancy S. Moore presides over the service and the distribution of Holy Communion every week. Once a month, she delivers a sermon that is simultaneously interpreted into Spanish. Diaconal ministers Pedro Dulanto and Madeline Dulanto, assist the pastor in the worship service spoken

This community of worshippers hosts many different religious and social activities every week at Bethany including nightly ESL Classes at 8:30 p.m. during the week and Folk Dances beginning at 7:30 p.m. every Monday and Friday.

Bethany Lutheran Church is a "Reconciling in Christ" parish. It is the stated policy of this congregation to welcome and fully include persons of every race, age, gender, marital status, ability and sexual orientation. The church is located at 188 New Street, Belleville, Call 973-759-1555.

Christ Episcopal Church

New members

Christ Church will receive new members into the family of faith at Christ Church at its regular 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday, Nov. 23. Persons wishing to unite with the community of faith are asked to contact The Rev. Paul Walker, Vicar of Christ Church, at 973-751-0616.

Christ the King

Christ Church has announced its annual observance of The Solemnity of Christ the King for Sunday, Nov. 23. The morning service will include a Solemn Procession, Solemn Mass and Benediction of the Most-blessed Sacrament. The Rev. Paul Walker, Vicar of Christ Church, will officiate and preach. It occurs on the last Sunday of the Christian Year, which is Nov. 25 this year. The day was instituted in response to the First World War, and looks for the day that Christ will return again to rule the world in justice and peace.

Care Closet

The Care Closet, an outreach program of Christ Episcopal Church, has announced its November distribution day for Monday, Nov. 24, beginning at 3 p.m. until all of the supplies are exhausted. The Care Closet distributes packages of paper products, cleaning products and personal hygiene items to persons with Families First cards. The parish is always receiving gifts of individually wrapper paper towels, facial tissue and toilet tissue; the program also is in need of brown grocery bagging for packing the supplies each month. Additionally volunteers are always welcome both for the preparation of the bags and on distribution day. For more information please phone the parish.

Thanksgiving Liturgy

Christ Church has announced its annual Thanksgiving Liturgy and Mass for Wednesday, Nov. 26 at 7 p.m. The Rev. Paul Walker, Vicar of Christ Church, will be the officiant and speaker.

The annual Thanksgiving Dinner will be offered on Thursday, Nov. 27 at 6 p.m.

The dinner is free and open to the public. Those wishing to attend are asked to phone the parish so that the parish can prepare sufficient food.

Christ Church is an inclusive church in the Anglican tradition, located at 393 Washington Ave., Belleville. For more information, call 973-751-0616.

Taking the time to take it all in esis, starts out at a dizzy pace. If you were reading the Bible for the very first time you would think, "What a gripping opener!" That first chapter of Genesis reveals so much about God, about His nature and His character. We read of His creativity, His almighty power, His holiness, His providential care, His fatherhood and that He is one God, but a Trinity of persons. So much about the greatness of God is seen in every verse. But as we grow older we seem to take things for granted like the setting and rising of the sun. We just expect them to happen every day and there is no thought of who or what is behind it. Our world gets so small, so confined that we no longer take time to appreciate the beauty of this world. We are so preoccupied that we no longer smell the roses. Let me tell you about someone who appreciated God's work.

Across the driveway on the other side from the development is an existing 63,000-square-foot, one-본 story office building.

Jacobs said his company will gut the existing offices and renovate the building. For the next couple of years, the building will serve an initial use as a sales office and showroom for the development, he said. Later it will be rented out to businesses, Jacobs said.

As for dealing with Belleville ∞ officials, Jacobs was effusive in his praise, calling the council very professional and straightforward, one of the best treatments he has received in 30 years as a developer.

He said the development would amount to an investment of "somewhere around $40 million."

Jacobs is the managing partner of the Livingston Town Center in Livingston, which includes 114 housing units, 65,000 square feet of retail space and a 270-vehicle garage. His company also took over the Styretown retail area in Clifton in 1999 and also owns the adjacent Styretown apartments.

Tips for our readers on how to submit photos to the Belleville Times

Organizations often hold a meeting, ceremony or fete and seek a mention of it in the newspaper. The event often can be summed up in a photograph, which can be more attention-grabbing than a press release.

The standard "passing-a-check" or "line-'em-up-and-shoot-'em" photographs usually go unnoticed by readers. Recognizing this fact, Belleville Times is reluctant to publish photographs of static lines of people staring at the camera. Candid photos of people having a good time or actually doing something will draw readers' interest.

Editors choose photos that are of the best quality. Please make sure your group's best photographer is behind the lens and captures an imaginative image.

Please also include the photographer's name with the photo submission, and identify everyone in the photo, with their first and last names.

Pictures may be submitted electronically in JPEG format, with a resolution of at least 200 dots per inch, to bellevilletimes@ northjersev.com.

Send hard copies to Belleville Times, 90 Centre St, Nutley, NJ 07110-1093. For more information. call 973-667-3895.

No person shall deposit any recyclable materials unless in accordance with Township Recycling guidelines or in specially designated recycling areas as established by the Township.

ship. SECTION III.C. Public Litter Basket(s)/Receptacles: 1. The public litter basket(s)/Receptacles as located throughout the Township of Belleville, New Jersey are specifically to be used for litter. They are not to be used for the purposes of dumping private refuse, which should be disposed of through scavenger services. SECTION IV. Enforcement:

SECTION IV. Enforcement:
A. Publication of Notice.
1. Within Six (6) months after the effective date of this amendment and at least once every Six (6) months thereafter, the Township Recycling Coordinator or the Township Manager's designee, shall cause a notice to be published in one official newspaper of the Township stating the requirements, which this amendment imposes upon responsible solid waste generators. The Recycling Coordinator or Township Manager's designee shall cause such other notice to be given, if any, as the Township Council may deem necessary and appropriate. A failure to give any notice required by this section shall not relieve a responsible solid waste generator dits obligations under this article and shall not be grounds for any claim by such generator.
2. This ordinance shall be enforced by the Police Department and/or other Municipal Officials of the Township of Belleville or any other municipal personnel as designated by the Town-of the Township of Belleville or any other municipal personnel as designated by the Town ship Manager. SECTION V. Penalties:

Any person(s) who is found to be in violation or fails to comply with the provision(s) of this Ordinance shall, upon conviction, be subject to the following violations and penalties:
 A. First offense: a fine not exceeding $500.00
 B. Second offense: a fine not exceeding $500.00
 C. Each offense thereafter: a fine of $1,000.00 and up to Thirty (30) days in jail. Such person(s) may also be ordered to perform community service for a period of time not to exceed 240 hours of community service.

SECTION VI. Severability: Each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase of this Ordinance is declared to be an independent section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase, and the finding or holding of any such portion of this Ordinance to be unconstitutional, void, or ineffective for any reason, shall not affect any other portion of this Ordinance SECTION VII. Effective date: This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its adoption and any publication as may be required by law Belleville Times 2469235

Following the tax sale, the property continues to be assessed in the name of the owner. The reason for this is that a tax sale certificate does not give the purchaser thereof tills to the land and does not divest the tax delinquent owner of this till. The tax certificate merely gives the purchaser of the certificate an interest in the property and the right to foreclose pursuant to established statutes. Said lands to be sold in fee to such persons that will purchase the same subject to redemption of the same at the lowest rate of interest but in no case in excess of eighteen per cent per annum.
