The Friendly House's second-floor basketball court was good enough for a pickup game before a winter without the heat reduced the paint to large peeling strips.

Will a new recreation center emerge?

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

A tour of the former recreation center known as the Friendly House in Silver Lake shows a stark contrast between the past and the present. It is clear that as recently as 2007, parts of the three-story structure on Frederick Street were still being actively used.

Now, however, after a winter where the interior was not heated, paint is peeling everywhere, black mold is growing and a once thriving facility has been allowed to deteriorate to the point that the Belleville Township Council has voted to demolish the structure.

The Friendly House is a playground and recreation facility owned by the township, a more than 75-year-old brick building that was renovated more than 20 years ago, but because of frequent usage and poor maintenance, officials said it fell into disrepair again.

A tour starts with the first floor, where a colorful paper mural from 2005 shows paper hands arranged on a board, while below it paint is peeling in big strips. Aging ping-pong and billiard tables sit idle, having been stilled by a decision to close the facility to all activities in 2008. There is a swimming pool that ran from 3 to 8 feet deep that officials estimate has not been used in 20 years.

The second floor shows an even more striking contrast between the very recent past and the present, with basketball hoop nets, and a wooden plank floor in more than good enough condition for a pickup game. But a winter without heat reduced the paint on the walls to large peeling strips.

The visual clues paint a picture of the competing forces within township officials, with some holding out hope that spending more than $2 million to refurbish the facility would have been worth

■ Police arrested and charged a 16-year-old male Newark juvenile with burglary, obstruction and resisting arrest at 11:32 p.m.

After police responded to a burglary report from the 540 block of Washington Avenue, they found an open rear window with fresh footprints and papers from a business that was part of the building. Police checked the structure and heard a noise, then saw a male with a ponytail and a black sweatshirt fleeing the building.

After a chase, the suspect was tackled and fought capture before finally being subdued. The suspect was taken into custody by the juvenile division.

Resident questions validity of no tax hike

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

Questions were debated at a recent council meeting about whether a virtually zero tax increase budget is tainted because the council deferred $2.3 in pension payments that will have to be paid for down the line.

The Belleville Township Council has introduced the 2009 municipal budget, at this point containing virtually no tax increase from 2008.

Resident Vincent Frantantoni said that by deferring the pension payment, "We will pay more in future years. It's like early retirement was years ago, a liability down the line."

At-Large Councilman Kevin Kennedy asked, "How many times did you lower taxes?" a reference to Frantantoni's time as mayor and commissioner before the change in the form of government more than two decades ago.

Mayor Raymond Kimble took exception to Frantantoni's comparing the council to the school board, which did not defer pension payments and ended up with an average $84 tax increase that led to a school budget defeat. The council has since trimmed $914,000 from that budget, meaning that no tax increase for residents is coming from either the municipal or school budgets.

"For the school board, it made no sense to defer pensions," Kimble said. "There was no way we could get a cap waiver from the state that we needed without agreeing to the defer the pension. They had us over a barrel."

Township Manager Victor Canning weighed in on the situation, saying, "The state had us backed into a corner. I think people are happy to have no increase in tough times. Our hope is that two, three years down the line, things will get better and we can afford the increase. I'd prefer not kick people when they're down."

Earlier, Canning said he wanted to credit the council for coming up with a zero increase budget and bringing the school board to zero.

"Other towns are trying not to get residents killed with tax increases," Canning said. "The council deserves credit."

Canning said previously the largest area of reduction in the municipal budget came through attrition, where five positions each in the police and fire departments and a few more in the area of town employees were not filled after retirement or people leaving their jobs. That helped keep the total tax portion of the budget virtually even, from $37,527,401 in 2008 to $37,519,034 in 2009.

He said the town had to look at either layoffs or attrition, and officials were "lucky" to be able to do it through attrition.

Canning said that at least three municipal departments are decreasing in operating expenses, and the council is "taking some gambles" that increased costs won't come later.

For example, $300,000 less is being allocated for municipal insurance, which could be wiped out if employees have serious health problems.

Then there is the garbage contract, where $370,000 has been taken out, but where the township could end up paying for the collection of cans, bottles and newspapers rather than being paid $10 a ton. That depends on economic conditions, Canning said.

Elsewhere, Canning said officials "just nickled and dimed it - $50,000 here, $100,000 there, but it all adds up."

In December, the council compelled each municipal department director to come before the governing body. Each was asked what they were doing to trim costs, and then asked to find more to cut. Canning said he speaks with department heads daily about the progress of those cuts.

HOUSING

Council, public argue proposed 55+ units

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

The firm looking to bring a redevelopment plan that would bring subsidized housing for those 55 and older to the township addressed the Belleville Township Council recently, but did not stop a few residents from continuing to criticize the plans.

Ralph Salerno of the Franklin Development Group, speaking at an earlier May council meeting, explained how the funding for the project would need to unfold. But a frequent critic of the township said the council was catering to developers and taking away one of the last areas of open space in the township. Another resident said there are too many houses for sale and too many properties not rented, so adding to that makes no sense.

Officials also said the project might help the township meet its requirements for the state Coalition on Affordable Housing, which Township Manager Victor Canning said could be as many as 50 to 60 low- to moderate-income housing units needed.

Officials for the Salerno group said financing the project would not be easy, and that "a whole bunch of subsidies" will be needed. Those subsidies, officials said, would need to fund as much as $10 million of the $16 million projected to be necessary to fund the project.

What's next for the Friendly House site?

Two questions are at the forefront of the demolition of the Friendly House in Silver Lake. First, officials need to answer whether or not the facility could still have been used more effectively and completely if it had been properly maintained during the past two decades.

Secondly, something must be built to replace the structure for those who live in the Silver Lake section and for everyone in a township where there is not enough recreation space and facilities.

As for maintaining the more than three-quarters of a century old building, with asbestos and lead paint, the facility might be too antiquated to be saved over the long haul without throwing good money after bad. Still, for more than a year, the building has languished, leaving youngsters without an important recreation option.

The fact that the swimming pool went about 20 years without being used is even more frustrating of a question. It seems that proper maintenance of the facility from bottom to top would have provided a higher quality level of recreation use up until the time that old furnaces and dangerous building materials made it's continued use ill-advised.

Now, it is a moot point, and the new question of what to do to replace the structure comes to the forefront. First Ward Councilwoman Marie Strumolo Burke, a lifetime activist for the Silver Lake section, has some serious questions that need answers.

First, is NJTransit ever going to make good on a promise to build a recreation center along with a new firehouse in Silver Lake? If so, how will they make sure that the fire engines do not put youngsters using a recreation facility in danger?

Rather than wait for a facility that may never come and has safety issues, Burke wants to solicit Essex County funding to build some kind of new structure on the site of the current Friendly House. This may be feasible, and is certainly worth pursuing. If NJTransit ever builds another recreation facility, then the township will have more for youngsters to use instead of having no where in Silver Lake to play.

Fundraiser for church, St. Anthony fest scheduled

LIFE IN SILVER LAKE
MARIE STRUMOLO BURKE

Every year, our Vera Castellano of Eugene Place holds a fundraiser in honor of St. Anthony's Church. This year, she is sponsoring a breakfast on Saturday, May 23 at 9 a.m. at the Moose Lodge, Eugene Place in Belleville.

St. Anthony is Vera's saint, and she has a strong devotion to him. If you would like to attend, please give her a call at 973-751-4356.

Tickets are priced at $25 each.

In honor of St. Anthony of Padua or as they say in Italian, "Festa di Sant' Antonio di Padova," will be held on June 12, 13 and 14, on Franklin Street in front of St. Anthony's Church in Silver Lake. The hours are Friday, 6 to 11 p.m.; Saturday, 3 to 11 p.m.; and Sunday, 1 to 10 p.m. Entertainment will be Friday, Sandy & The Wanderers; Saturday, Jersey Sound; Sunday, from 2 to 3 p.m., the Belleville High School Jazz Group; and Sunday, Sunset Soundz.

There will be a variety of foods, along with games, religious articles and a big 50/50 drawing on Sunday. A procession will go through the streets on Saturday after the 5:30 Mass and on Sunday, June 14 after the noon Mass.

Anyone wishing to help at the festival should call the Rectory. If you cannot volunteer at the festival, but would like to bake some homemade cakes or cookies for the volunteers to enjoy, please do so.

For the past years, our Silver Lake Ladies have attended the English Tea at the Main Library on Washington Avenue. You should see us on that afternoon when we all don our beautiful hats and dress up to the nines. Unfortunately, I could not be there due to my husband's illness, but I do understand that the tea was quite lovely.

The Angel and her sister Grace Constantino did attend and gave us the rundown. When the tea starts, the chairlady, or shall we say the driving force of the tea, tells all how to steep a pot of tea. The person who pours the tea is called the "mother."

The teapots are one cuter than the other and most of them have been donated. If you would like to donate a teapot, give me a ring.

Now let's get back to the innovator of the English Tea, named Marjorie Lordi. She is the perfect lady who hails from England, and I am sure had many fancy tea parties. The Friends of the Library bake their specialties and Ms. Marjorie bakes the scones, which are yummy.

We are so lucky that we have a person like Marjorie Lordi, who goes that extra step to make this library the best. And to you, Joan Taub, the director of the Library, you make it all happen with style and class.

To everyone who never paid the library a visit, I think it's time to do so because you don't know what you are missing.

And remember, we love Silver Lake.

What is that pain?

BY BARBARA BALABAN
Guest Columnist

Recently, I've learned that just about everyone on the planet has had, at some point in his/her life, a sciatica problem.

In case you weren't aware, the sciatic nerve is the longest nerve in your body. It runs from your spinal cord through your butt, and down the back of each leg, and it's a highly sensitive nerve at that.

Back in March, a close friend of mine underwent four weeks of hell with a crippling leg pain, unable to walk, incapable of even standing up straight, for days on end. It literally brought her to her knees, as she had to crawl from room to room in her house.

This is a person who has not missed one day of work in 10 years, and suddenly is out of work for a month because of a herniated disk and the resulting pressure on her sciatic nerve.

Nothing specific seemed to trigger it either. One day, she came home from work with a pain in her leg, and the next morning, she found that she couldn't get out of bed; couldn't walk. She was ambushed overnight.

Within the course of the next three days, she rushed to the emergency room, limped into an extraordinarily busy pain management practice, underwent a 45-minute MRI, was referred to a neurological surgeon and recommended to a chiropractor. All in the frenetic pursuit of relief from debilitating pain.

TO THE EDITOR:

I have someone else to compliment. This person is Rush Limbaugh from the radio station 77WABC. I agree with Rush Limbaugh that the changes President Obama proposes to change America we do not agree with.

When I was 15 years old, I became an American citizen. The judge asked me if I would defend America, I said yes. I did not know that I was to become concerned in defending America. I thought that I was going to look out for other countries in hurting America; I was wrong. Now I realize that I focus on the American presidents, of what changes are going to be made for America. Personally, I believe that America should not be changed. the funds. But the council finally decided to take down the building that has been a place for fun for children for decades.

Officials talk about unwanted youths from out of town crashing the facility, perhaps misusing parts of it, and that many people outside of Silver Lake did not know until they became involved in the running of the township that the Friendly House even existed. For Silver Lake residents that feel they do not receive a fair shake from township officials, the demolition is a bitter reality.

Interviews with two council members and the township manager reveal the frustration that more than 20 years of neglect and outdated building standards have forced the demolition, with competing ideas about what to do next. One longtime critic of what he called "intentional neglect" said the facility could have been saved if proper maintenance had been done.

First Ward Councilwoman Marie Strumolo Burke, who represents the Silver Lake sections, said she wants another structure, even if only one floor, to be built in place of the existing Friendly House.

Township Manager Victor Canning said he wants to hold NJTransit to a promise to build a recreation structure next to a promised new Silver Lake Firehouse in the Franklin Street vicinity.

The Friendly House's swimming pool, running 3 to 8 feet deep, has not been used in about 20 years, officials estimate.

At-Large Councilman Kevin Kennedy said he is leery of any NJTransit promises, which are part of an agreement that brought light rail train service to Franklin Street. While he said he still hopes such a recreation project will come, he wonders if anything will be around to replace the Friendly House.

Burke cited mold, asbestos, old furnaces and buckling walls as more than the council can overcome in a reasonable funding scenario.

There was first to be $800,000 bond ordinance, and then two bids received of more than $2.5 million to refurbish the facility, but the costs were seen as prohibitive in light of the promised recreation facility from NJTransit.

"What the town did in not taking care of the building, it was more than just one administration, it goes way back," Burke said.

Burke said she does not see the logic from a safety perspective of placing a recreation center next to a fire station with engines speeding out to fires. The Shafter Branch library of Silver Lake might also be there, which she said was equally not sensible.

Rather than spend what Burke said was $750,000 at that site, she wants, "If not a two-story rec center, than one story. Let's get something. County officials seem willing to help. This place was used by the

Councilman wants to spruce up avenue

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

With Belleville's downtown business area on Washington Avenue struggling like most because of the severe economic downturn, officials recently discussed one way to make the area more attractive.

Streetscape improvements are to be done to many areas of Washington Avenue. The improvements can include how the front of a business storefront looks, what type of brick or pavers are used on the sidewalk outside, and what type of canopy might hang from the storefront, officials said.

At-Large Councilman Michael Nicosia brought up the subject at an earlier May council meeting.

"I want to talk about the streetscape program for Washington Avenue," Nicosia said.

He said he wanted architect and planner John Madden to become involved in the process.

"I want to have John Madden come to our next work session," Nicosia said.

He said he wants to make sure that any of the new development that comes to town will conform to one specific set of criteria.

"I want to talk about the streetscape program for Washington Avenue."

Michael Nicosia
At-Large Councilman

"We need to push this through," Nicosia said.

He then said he wanted there to be an ordinance put together that spells out what the council wants for each new development.

Township Manager Victor Canning said developers can be persuaded to conform even without the ordinance being completed.

"Even though we don't have an ordinance, we can still ask for what we want in a site plan," Canning said.

That can include things like canopies and what colors are allowed.

"Madden will come before us and report on what we need to do," Canning said.

He said he shared Nicosia's concerns that the township needs a conforming set of standards.

"We don't want to see some purple or hot pink canopies," he said.

Gambling suspect is a fire battalion chief, authorities say

BY RICHARD DICKON
of Belleville Times

A Bergen County assistant prosecutor confirmed Tuesday that Belleville Fire Battalion Chief Pat Nufrio has been arrested and charged with one count of conspiracy to promote gambling in connection with an alleged Mafia-run gambling ring that handled more than $1 million in wagers each week.

James Donohue is assistant Bergen County Prosecutor and Chief of the Special Investigations Squad. He said Tuesday that Nufrio has been arraigned on the charge.

The case is now awaiting grand jury, Donohue said. However, the case may be resolved for some defendants before the grand jury phase, he said.

Because Nufrio, as a firefighter, is presumed to have no previous criminal record, the possibility exists that he will receive probation and not spend time in jail, Donohue said.

Belleville Township Attorney Thomas Murphy said his office was aware that Nufrio had been arrested and charged, but that the township has not yet been told what the charges was.

Murphy said it was his understanding that none of the alleged wrongdoing by Nufrio took place while he was on the job in Belleville, and no action has been taken by the township against Nufrio.

Neither Nufrio nor his attorney could be reached for comment.

Nufrio, born and raised in Belleville, resides in Cedar Grove, according to officials.

Many of the suspects were swept up during raids beginning April 28 across northern New Jersey and Westchester County, according to officials. Detectives executed 20 search warrants that netted $1.2 million, officials said.

Also among the accused are Belleville resident Gerald Napolitano, 60, an employee of La Pasteria in Summit. He is charged with racketeering, promoting gambling and conspiracy to promote gambling. Belleville residents Robert Caprio, 53, and Vincent Marchello, 43, are both charged with promoting gambling and conspiracy to promote gambling.

Dr. Paul Lama after performing New Jersey's first Trabectome surgery.

Clara Maass performs glaucoma surgery

According to Prevent Blindness America, it is estimated that more than 4 million Americans have glaucoma, one of the leading causes of blindness.

For the first time in New Jersey, patients with glaucoma have a surgical therapy option known as Trabectome. The minimally invasive procedure is available at Clara Maass Medical Center, an affiliate of the Saint Barnabas Health Care System, located in Belleville.

"The purpose of Trabectome surgery is to lower eye pressure by removing the obstruction of the flow of internal eye fluid thereby restoring the eye's natural drainage pathway," said Dr. Paul J. Lama, Clara Maass glaucoma specialist and surgeon. He is the medical director of the Glaucoma Institute of Northern New Jersey in Hackensack and is the only certified Trabectome surgeon in New Jersey.

Glaucoma is a common blinding eye condition in which the pressure inside the eyes rises because of impaired fluid drainage from inside the eye. If untreated, it may damage the optic nerve, causing the loss of peripheral vision or blindness.

Vision loss caused by glaucoma cannot be restored. Treatments, such as Trabectome, aim to reduce eye pressure to prevent further damage to the optic nerve.

Trabectome is a FDA-cleared device for minimally invasive surgical treatment of glaucoma. The Trabectome procedure uses a small probe that opens the eye's drainage system once inserted through a tiny incision in the eye's cornea. It removes a small portion of a specific tissue in the eye, so the drainage functions better.

The surgery will be considered when medications or trabeculectomy (a laser procedure) fail to reduce or control pressure to an adequate level. The surgery is an outpatient procedure, requires very little sedation and patients generally recover within a week.

For more information about Trabectome, call 1-888-724-7123.

Summer concerts at Memorial Park

The Nutley Recreation Department's annual Summer Concert Series returns with a performance by The Infernos on Thursday, June 18 at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Park I (the Mud Hole) at the intersection of Passaic and Vreeland avenues, Nutley.

The Infernos are an acclaimed show band, having performed Big Band, Motown, Jazz and contemporary hits in concert. Their performances are intended to entertain all audiences.

The second concert, as part of Nutley's "Sizzling Summer Celebration," is scheduled for Thursday, July 23 at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Park I (the Mud Hole). "The Cameos" are scheduled to lead an evening of timeless classics, encompassing Oldies, Doo-Wop and more. The Cameos were founded in 1959 by Roger "Mr. Bassman" DelRusso, who at age 17 had a lifelong enthusiasm for the harmonies of Doo-Wop music. The rain date is Thursday, July 30.

Food (hot dogs, hamburgers, sausage, wings, ribs and more) will be provided by Nutley restaurants beginning at 7 p.m. Children can get their faces painted, a caricature drawn or a balloon sculpture, while adults can enjoy a tropical cocktail from the tiki hut.

Patrons can bring lawn chairs and blankets. For more information on these events, contact the Nutley Recreation Department at 973-284-4966 between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

ATLANTIC CITY

Jefferson Starship FREE at Bally's Penn & Teller appearing at Harrah's for the holiday

Memorial Day is early this year, and Atlantic City is ready! The resort will welcome visitors with the most exciting holiday weekend entertainment menu that's been seen in years! In AC's early (legal) gaming era, the casinos piled on the headliners on "off" weekends, the assumption being that the holiday weekends would themselves be sufficient attractions to attract swarms of visitors, hence no need to feature headline entertainment. My, how times have changed! In keeping with the happy holiday mood, we've got a great selection of hot contemporary comedy stars. Check out this lineup!

One of my own all-time favorite rib-ticklers is the magical duo Penn & Teller, who'll be here for three magical and mirthful shows at Harrah's this weekend. Perhaps not generally classified as comedians, P&T are definitely masters of the mystifying, but their unique delivery of trickery, debunkery and comedy have branded them the bad boys of magic, exposing so many of the sacrosanct illusions of some of the genre's most celebrated magicians. They have an arsenal of their own logic-defying antics, frequently delivered amid the massive Penn Gillette's incessant abuse of his diminutive, mute and unflappable partner. Over three decades they've earned just about every award out there, and they've caused havoc guesting on every major TV show as well as setting records for their own controversial Showtime series Penn & Teller: Bulls! about to enter its seventh season.

Each show is a whole new bag of tricks, bringing fans back time and again for a wonderful theatrical experience! Showtimes at Harrah's are Friday Saturday and Sunday, 9 p.m. all three evenings. Ticket prices range $45 to $75.

Resorts' Superstar Theater hosts another very offbeat, edgy and near-indefinable comedy talent in the persona of Rodney Carrington, who'll play the Superstar Theater this weekend. He's a C&W singer, but his songs are not the sentimental home-on-the-range variety. His compositions are definitely on the rough edge, even the titles being suggestive: "Show Them to Me" and "Rhymes with Truck." Carrington has built an enthusiastic cult following on syndicated radio and across the nation's comedy club circuit. He's got a half-dozen albums of standup comedy and country music, and co-starred with singer Toby Keith in the feature film Beer for My Horses. He delivers a family-friendly show with his self-titled ABC-TV sitcom Rodney, but his live performances are something else. Leave the little ones at home! Rodney Carrington's shows at Resorts are Saturday 8 p.m. and Sunday at 7 p.m. Tickets are $65 and $55.

A great kickoff for the summer of '09 is Jefferson Starship's FREE concert Sunday in the historic Dennis Courtyard at Bally's Atlantic City. Well before the gaming era, the space in front of the glorious old Dennis Hotel was a grassy park, with a bar and area for a band and dancing. For the past 20-some years, it's been blocked off by a strip of tacky shops and hot dog stands. With the razing of the commercial structure, the newly restored Dennis Courtyard will serve as a truly unique venue to see this show right on the Atlantic City Boardwalk with sweeping ocean views. Jefferson Starship is a collaboration of celebrated musicians that plays from the rich songbook of its legendary forefathers Jefferson Airplane and the original incarnation of Jefferson Starship. Three of the band members were original members of Jefferson Airplane, and have been inducted into The Rock & Roll Hall Of Fame. Since re-forming, Jefferson Starship has performed almost 500 concerts in 16 countries. The free concert is open to all ages and begins at 5 p.m. on Sunday. The area will open at 4 p.m.

Another harbinger of the season is the opening this weekend of the A.C. Hilton's Beach Bar. They'll be open 12 noon to 10 p.m. Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, with live cover bands and dancing. There'll be an ideal beach menu of casual snacks, salads, sandwiches and seafood—everything from potato chips and pretzels to fresh fruit, u-peel shrimp, clams on half-shell, Eastern Shore crab cakes, a great Jersey Shore Fish Sandwich, burgers and hot dogs, even barbeque spare ribs. The Beach Bar frozen concoctions include a variety of exotic flavored margaritas and daiquiris, cold beer on tap, and specialties like the Man Overboard, Beach Bull, Razzberry Lemonade and Poseidon's Passion. Hilton's Beach Bar will be open weekends for the next few weeks, later to seven days as the season gets underway.

The hot comedian and TV personality Joel McHale will be doing three shows at Borgata's Music Box Saturday and Sunday. Writer, producer and host of El's weekly show "The Soup," McHale satirizes pop culture and current events and attracts over 4 million viewers each week. Joel has had roles on the television shows "Oliver Beene," "CSI: Miami," "Will & Grace" and "Pushing Daisies." He also appeared in the movie "Spider-Man 2" and done commercials for Burger King, Dockers, and Sealy. Currently, Joel stars opposite Matt Damon in the upcoming Steven Soderberg film "The Informant." The Saturday shows at 8 and 11 p.m. were quick sellouts. A third show has been added Sunday night at 11:30 p.m., but these tickets are going fast as well! Tickets are $75, $85 and $95.

NLT announces 'Lonesome' dates

Nutley Little Theatre's next production, the darkly comic "The Lonesome West" by Irish playwright Martin McDonagh, opens Friday, June 12.

The third in McDonagh's "Leenane" trilogy, along with "The Beauty Queen of Leenane" and "A Skull in Connemara," this hilariously dark Irish play depicts the shocking and violent goings-on in the "lonesome" far Western Irish town of Leenane. A Tony Award nominee in 1999 for Best Play and Best Actor in a Play, it features two battling brothers and a priest driven to despair over his inability to resolve their differences or any of the recent unsolved murders in his parish.

TRIBUTES TO MOM

Happy Mother's Day

My mother, Frances Pisano, means the world to me. Growing up, I never realized just how good I had it.

You assume that everyone's mom does what your mom does. Well, I've come to learn that my mother is really spectacular and that I have been very fortunate to have her.

She always puts her children first, even now that my brother and I are both adults. She never says no to anything that we may need or ask of her. She is sad when we are sad, happy when we are happy, and always believes in us.

She always taught us that family is the most important thing we have. We should always stick together and let the small stuff go because it's never worth it.

When I think of my mother, I feel love, security and gratitude. And my greatest joy is to see my son smile at his Nana and get to be blessed with having her in his life.

— Christine Sarno of Nutley

Dear Rose Marie D'Agostino (Belleville),

Happy Mother's Day in heaven. It's been six months since our hearts were broken. We miss your beautiful smile, your loving way and all the love you gave to us all. We miss you so, so much.

— Your loving husband Anthony, loving son Vincent, loving daughter Michelle and her husband Joe.

HOPING FOR A HOME

Sierra is a hound/terrier mix who is about 6 years old. She has very interesting coloring with a kind of patchwork of patterns and soft sad eyes. She's incredibly sweet and gentle and just an all around nice dog. Sierra's waiting for a loving family to adopt her from the John A. Bukowski Shelter. So take the family down to 61 Bukowski Place, Bloomfield and meet Sierra. Telephone: 973-748-0194.

A farewell note to my customers, friends, and family,

I would like to thank all of you for making my dream come true. When I was in high school, I decided that I wanted to open a retail store. I went to school for fashion merchandising, spent ten years at Bamberger's (remember that name) and three years in the garment center.

Then in 1988, I started baby boom. It began in my dining room at 99 Wildwood Avenue. I bought a monogram machine and began making gift baskets for babies that included bibs and blankets with the baby's name monogrammed.

In May 1989, I opened baby boom at 197 Bellevue Avenue. I was seven months pregnant at the time. All of you gave me a warm welcome and I began doing layettes, baby registries, and shower gifts for the babies of Montclair. Three years later we moved to our present location at 598 Valley Road. I have been living my dream, and I have all of you to thank for my success.

Now after 20 years, I have decided to move on and do something new. I want to thank all of you for being loyal customers, supportive family and dear friends. All of us at baby boom have enjoyed being a part of your family and watching your children grow. Our first babies are in college now, including my daughter. It has been a wonderful twenty plus years.

We will have a giant celebration sale beginning today and continue the sale event until we close our doors at the end of June. We will begin by offering 20% off everything in our store and increase our percentage off each week. Shop early for the best selection. All sales will be final. Be sure to use your store credits and gift certificates. They will no longer be accepted after June 30, 2009.

Please stop by and say hello. I wish you all the chance to live your dream,

With warm thanks, Gail Wagner

BASEBALL

Judge fans 13 in first round

BY MIKE LAMBERTI
for Belleville Times

The 2009 regular season started ominously for the Belleville baseball team when it traveled to Ridgewood and lost a 10-0 decision on April 1. A little over six weeks later, Belleville returned to the scene of that one-sided loss and won a classic, 3-1, in the first round of the NJSIAA North I, Group IV State Sectional last Monday, as Chris Judge hurled another gem for the Bucs.

With the win, Belleville will play at top seeded Union City tomorrow night at 7 p.m. Joe Sorce's team took a 13-12 record into a game last Tuesday with Paterson Kennedy. Next Wednesday, Belleville will host Don Bosco Prep of Ramsey at 4 p.m. at George Zanfini Field. There's also a possible makeup game with Nutley, as well as a third state contest next week if Belleville defeats Union City tomorrow night.

"It was a tremendous ball game," Sorce said of the win over Ridgewood. "Both teams played very well. Our kids showed a lot of resiliency, and now we have a chance to play the top seed in our section."

Judge pitched eight innings of scoreless ball, striking out 13 and walking one while yielding just three hits. The game was scoreless until the top of the ninth. Belleville loaded the bases and Vin Wolf was hit by a pitch to force home Joe O'Donnell.

In the bottom of the ninth, Ridgewood tied the game, but Belleville bounced back in the 10th inning.

Eric Mieloch walked and went to third on a double by Juan Lisojo. O'Donnell was intentionally walked to load the bases and Judge followed with a sacrifice fly to plate Mieloch with the go-ahead run. Winning pitcher Steve Rovell followed with a suicide squeeze bunt to score Lisojo and make it 3-1.

"Judge pitched an outstanding game," Sorce said. "If he feels he's ready, he'll get the ball on Friday. If not, then Gerard Smallstey will probably start."

NOTES: Last week, Belleville defeated both Bergen Tech of Hackensack and Teaneck by 6-3 marks. The Bucs also lost to Paramus Catholic, 11-5 and Warren Hills, 14-2.

Smallstey was the winning pitcher against Bergen Tech with Judge pitching in relief. Rovell pitched four solid innings of relief to get the win against Teaneck.

SOFTBALL

Belleville falls in county semifinals

BY MIKE LAMBERTI
for Belleville Times

The Belleville softball team gave a good effort at the Essex County Tournament semifinals last Friday night at Ivy Hill Park in Newark, but the Bucs lost to eventual champion Mount St. Dominic of Caldwell, 12-2.

Chris Cantarella's team took a 16-5 record into a first round NJSIAA North I, Group IV contest against Passaic. If Belleville won that game, it will host the Montclair-Kearny winner this afternoon at 4 p.m.

A loss to Passaic would end Belleville's season, since make up league games with Passaic and Clifton are improbable, at best, due to the lateness of the regular season.

Belleville split four games overall last week, defeating Bergen Tech of Hackensack, 8-5 and Teaneck, 14-9. Belleville lost to Paramus Catholic, 3-1 and to Mount St. Dominic.

"I thought we were solid on defense in all four games, and the pitching was good for most of the week," Cantarella said. "We ran into a hot hitting team in Mount St. Dominic. Our kids did a good job of battling and staying in the game, but Mount St. Dominic played very well."

The week started with the Paramus Catholic game.

"We had the bases loaded in the first and fourth innings, but we couldn't get that big hit," Cantarella said. "After the West Essex game (a 6-5 win in the county quarterfinals on May 9), I thought we might have been a little flat, but we played well. Alexa (Veniero) pitched a good game, and we had our chances to win against a very strong team."

Against Bergen Tech, Sandra Binkiewicz got three hits, while Nicole Velardi had two and scored three runs. Winning pitcher Veniero finished with two RBIs.

Veniero went 4-for-5 with a homer versus Teaneck, and Mariah Lucena added three hits. Jessica Benacquista and Victoria

Girls J.V. 4 earns bronze at Stotesbury Regatta

BY MIKE LAMBERTI
for Belleville Times

The Belleville girls' J.V. 4 crew team enjoyed a special weekend at the most prestigious race of the season, the Stotesbury Regatta in Philadelphia, taking third place in a very talented field of rowers.

It was the first medal for a Belleville crew team at the Stotesbury in 13 years.

"We're very proud," coach Gail Lahm said. "There were 64 boats in the event and it's quite an achievement to take third place. The girls have trained hard all season, so this is a well-deserved medal. The girls were also appreciative to the entire team for cheering them along the length of the course. It really made a difference. Although our other boats did not move on from the qualifying events, they all came off the water with no regrets and gave their best effort against tough competition."

Michiru Sprague, Nadine Marte, Caitlyn Vreeland, Lisa Lorenz and coxswain Olga Boldero led the girls' J.V. four shell.

The other boats that competed at the Stotesbury included the varsity four boys and girls, J.V. four boys and the J.V. eight boys and girls.

The Stotesbury Regatta celebrated its 83rd year last weekend. More than five thousand athletes, representing 181 schools from two countries and 15 states participated. Overall there were 868 boats competing in 30 championship events.

"It's the most competitive and prestigious high school regatta in the world," Lahm said. "We are grateful to the Belleville Board of Education and school administration for their continued support of crew, especially (Athletic Director) Karen Fuccello."

Next up for the rowers will be the Scholastic Nationals tomorrow and Saturday, at Mercer County Park. The J.V. four girls will race at the nationals, as well as the varsity four girls.

The nationals also mark the final race of the 2009 high school season.

School year winding down; summer baseball is next

Okay, I can't quite believe I'm saying this, but Memorial Day weekend starts tomorrow afternoon. If you're looking for me after today, through this Sunday, I'll be at my favorite beach on the Jersey shore, in Margate.

For me, there's nothing more relaxing than a few days of watching the ocean, reading a book, or two, listening to music, or a ball game, and getting some sun. The unofficial start of summer is here.

While the school year is winding down, there will be plenty of excitement for local sports fans this summer. Belleville should have a junior and senior legion baseball team, as well as two entries in the

MIKE LAMBERTI

Metropolitan, or Met League. The Met League is generally for players who are out of high school. It's a high quality level of baseball, and it uses only wood bats.

The Belleville Blue Jays, who are coached by former Buccaneers standout David Caruso, opened their season earlier this week at Wayne. The team's first home game is May 31 at 8 p.m. at Belleville High School.

Also representing Belleville are the New Jersey Spartans. They are coached by another former Belleville High standout, Giancarlo Cifelli. The Spartans opened their season earlier this week against Hackensack and tomorrow, the team will host Teaneck in a 7 p.m. game at Belleville High.

The Spartans and Blue Jays will face off a few times, the first coming on June 21.

Both teams should have a lot of former Belleville players. We'll have regular coverage of the teams starting in two weeks, as well as plenty of American League coverage when that season begins in mid June.

In the meantime, good luck to the Belleville spring sports teams as they begin to wind down some successful campaigns. We'll continue to have coverage of the final two weeks of the season which, hopefully, could include a nice run in the state tournament for Belleville High's varsity entries.

Finally, it's that time of the year to look at some sports feature stories, so if you have any thoughts, please write me at mike051893@aol.com.

Andreola also chipped in with two hits apiece. Elisa Hoehe got the win, while Kristina Gomez collected the save.

Mount St. Dominic was the defending county champion and was expected to be a tough assignment for Belleville. They delivered, getting 21 hits against the Bucs.

Belleville's outfield defense was especially impressive, as left fielder Vanessa Gomez, center fielder Binkiewicz and the right field tandem of Erika Giangrande and Andreola made some very good catches.

"We've got talented kids," Cantarella said. "And there is a good core of players returning next year. I was happy with the way we played. I don't think Mount St. Dominic is 10 runs better than us, but they played well that day."

NOTES: Pitcher Gabby Chimento continues to be on the mend with a broken thumb. She's been out the past two weeks, and Cantarella is unsure if she will return this year.

While you're ordering don't forget "Anthony's famous Italian Potato Salad", you'll always come back for more! We carry Thumann's, Schickhaus Griddlers, and Sabrett Hot Dogs, and of course all the fixin's.

When you step into Cavallo's, and it's like stepping back in time to the 1930's, when Cavallo's first opened their doors. Now in its third generation of ownership, Cavallo's has expanded from a butcher shop to a much larger Italian grocer, with a pizzeria as well as a full service restaurant specializing in the finest Italian cuisine.

It's at Cavallo's that you'll discover items you just don't find at your local supermarket, because Cavallo's features only the finest Italian or Italian-American products. Meats are cut to order, so if it's a T-bone steak you desire, tell the butchers and they'll cut it to your specifications. If you plan on making your grandmother's traditional veal osso bucco, they'll cut the shanks for you, sell you authentic Italian ingredients, including fresh vegetables and herbs, and likely even chat with you about the best way to prepare your meals. They also make fresh sausage, both hot and sweet, and you can buy authentic prepared dishes such as sausage and peppers that are second to none.

If you don't want to prepare from scratch, then purchase some authentic, imported pasta and sauce from Cavallo's. They have home-made ravioli, with fillings as varied as cheese (and you know the cheese is authentic, and delicious), ground meat, sausage, mushroom, spinach, you name it, they carry it, and they're all amazingly tasty. Stuffed shells are also available daily, and the sauces taste as if Strega Nonna herself created them, including their tangy marinara, hearty bolognese, and their famous vodka sauce, a best-seller.

Cavallo's also features hot and hearty soups, such as traditional Minestrone and Italian Wedding soup, either for eating in or for taking home to reheate. They also sell sandwiches made with only the finest and freshest ingredients, including what owner Anthony Cavallo describes as the "best prosciutto in the world, Galloni's Prosciutto Di Parma." Right now there is a super special on Galloni's $14.99 lb. So hurry in for this special offer.

The meals at the restaurant are traditional Italian, prepared fresh and to order using the finest ingredients, and are a great value - lots of delicious food made the old-fashioned way, which will surely leave you full and happy. The pizza is famous in town for just the right balance of cheese, tomato and crust; in fact, the sausage pizza is close to perfection!

Cavallo's also does catering both on and off premises. Anthony promises "lots of great food all freshly prepared to order, with only the finest, freshest ingredients so your guests will be well fed and happy". So come back in time to an era when Italian food meant a hearty meal, well prepared with authentic ingredients that would bring a smile to your grandma's face.

Bad Cholesterol More Prevalent in Overweight Women Than Men

Oftentimes, when the subject of high cholesterol is broached, it's common to consider the concern is exclusive to overweight men. However, according to government statistics from NIDDK (a part of the National Institutes of Health), overweight women are more susceptible to high cholesterol levels, to the point where bad cholesterol and its consequences, is now a bigger concern for them.

Women looking to lower their levels of bad cholesterol while losing weight should also consider the following tips:

Eat steamed, boiled or baked vegetables. Deep-frying veggies or dressing them with cheese or creams negates the positive effects they can have on a healthy diet.

Exercise daily. Studies have shown that as little as 30 minutes of daily exercise can make a very positive impact on overall health.

Make subtle dietary changes. A drastic overhaul of diet is typically unnecessary. Rather, subtle changes, such as choosing lowfat cuts of meat and including positive protein sources such as dried beans, lentils or split peas in your daily diet can greatly improve overall health.

For more information, including the comprehensive diet and exercise plan to attain maximum weight loss and cholesterol lowering results, visit www.MegaTplus.com.

Among the areas or agencies that would be tapped, officials said, is Essex County low-income tax credits, Division of Community Affairs tax credits and other state and county agencies to help finance the project.

At-Large Councilman Michael Nicosia told the officials, "It would almost be like a 50/50 split." He said because it was a private project officials could "push Belleville" residents for first opportunity to live in the project.

Officials said that because of Belleville's diversity, the odds were very good that local residents would receive the first opportunities.

"It's a win/win all around," Nicosia said.

First Ward Councilwoman Marie Strumolo Burke said that for five years the council has tried for senior citizen housing, and that the federal Housing and Urban Development department had turned the township down.

"I would not support this if I didn't feel it was the best thing for Belleville," Burke said. "The rents are reasonable."

Talk then turned to the amenities available, and Salerno officials compared what has been done at other area projects.

They said there is to be a large patio, bocci ball, and a large green area. Inside, there will be a pool table, a flat screen television for everyone to share, and movie, bingo and card playing nights, keeping residents busy "seven nights a week."

At other sites, residents chip in $2 a month and are given a break-fast by the development every Tuesday morning.

Burke suggested a contest to name the building.

All of the positive discussion by officials did not prevent resident Vincent Frantantoni from expressing doubts about the development during the public portion of the meeting. A second resident questioned whether the units would be rented when so many properties are now empty in town.

Frantantoni said he realizes that because the area in question has been named an area in need of redevelopment, the township can negotiate with any developer it wishes. "But this is one of the last bits of open space left in town," he said. "I'd like to see a combination baseball/soccer field put there. But the developers have the power, and the hell with the residents. First of all, it's not senior housing, because the age is not 62, and second rents will be higher than what is being said."

Later, resident Diane Rothwell said she has researched the town, and 365 homes are on the market, and some 195 are in some form of foreclosure, with 80 on the market at least 180 days, and prices have dropped anywhere from $5,000 to $100,000.

"You can't afford any more houses on the market," Rothwell said. She also said she was concerned about all of the proposed development and the effect it could have bringing children to already overcrowded schools.

Canning said the developments are designed not to attract families with children, and disagreed with Frantantoni that a ball field could successfully be placed at the site of the 55 and up development. Nicosia also said the developments are being done responsibly to mix commercial with less residential and not cause a major influx into schools.

Rothwell said she had to bring down the price on a rental property she owns, and that too many properties are vacant.

At-Large Councilman Kevin Kennedy and Rothwell than had a spirited discussion about mortgages, with Kennedy saying that too many people were allowed to take on mortgages that they could not afford.

"It's not our fault that the market collapsed," Kennedy said. "There were mortgages given to people who had no right to get them."

As for the 55 and over development, at an earlier council meeting, an ordinance was introduced to redevelop the large area at the intersection of Franklin Avenue and Mill Street.

Canning has reiterated that many people younger than senior citizen age could benefit from the plan in the weak economy.

He responded to criticism, agreeing that the poor economy and the age restrictions could affect the plan and might not meet the criteria to subsidize the development for low- and moderate-income residents. Parking is also a concern, where he said more than half the units may need parking spaces, causing residents to park at the senior building and affecting the quality of life for senior citizen club members.

Still, he has said a development of more than 150 units with a state-of-the-art recreation area, other amenities and round-the-clock security is tough for those 55 and over to find.

As the development is presently set, rents would be $750 a month for a one-bedroom efficiency unit and $850 for a two-bedroom, which Canning called very reasonable. If the number of units were reduced, the rents would rise, he said.

On last Nov. 25, the council authorized the Planning Board to prepare a redevelopment plan, and the township hired John Madden, a professional planner, to assist the board. The planning board found the redevelopment plan was consistent with the township's Master Plan and recommended the redevelopment plan to the council for adoption, the ordinance states.

The redevelopment plan supersedes all existing zoning regulations, according to the ordinance.

Canning has called it "shameful" that no housing exists for people 55 and over.

Florence Pentol, a senior citizen, has said previously that people can't afford to purchase the units, so they will be rented "to anybody, that age 55 and up "is not a senior," and that many will find it cheaper to stay in their residential homes.

Canning has said calling the project not for seniors "is a play of words," and if the units are properly subsidized the project will help a lot of residents who are not 65 but need help.

Canning has said the parking may become an issue because many who were prepared to retire may now have to keep working because of the economic downturn and their savings, so they may need a car to go to work. There have been assurances by the developer, however, that the tenants will not be permitted to park at the senior center, he said.

Belleville Police Department to participate in 'Click It or Ticket' campaign

Law enforcement officers from the Belleville Police Department will be cracking down on unbuckled motorists and their passengers as part of the national "Click It or Ticket" campaign.

From May 18 to May 31, the annual initiative includes high visibility law enforcement seat belt checkpoints and saturation patrols, as well as local and national publicity designed to ensure that drivers and passengers recognize the life-saving value of seat belts.

"Using a seat belt is the simplest way for a motorist and his or her passengers to protect themselves when on the road," said Pam Fischer, director of the New Jersey Division of Highway and Traffic Safety. "Motor vehicle occupants who buckle-up are between 45 and 75 percent less likely to face life threatening injuries in a car crash."

Last year, the seat belt usage rate in New Jersey rose for the 12th consecutive year to 91.75 percent. Fischer noted that while seat belt usage rates continue to increase in New Jersey, law enforcement and safety officials would not rest until the state achieves a 100 percent compliance.

"New Jersey has one of the strongest seat belt usage in the nation, but our work isn't done," Fischer added. "To meet our goal, we must continue to focus on enforcement and public outreach efforts to educate motorists and their passengers about the critical importance of buckling up, every ride."

During the 2008 "Click It or Ticket" campaign, 473 police agencies participated in the two-week initiative. As a result of the effort, law enforcement officers issued 46,026 seat belt citations and 6,831 speeding summonses.

TOPICAL TREATMENTS FOR OSTEOARTHRITIS

While most people afflicted with osteoarthritis pain continue to focus on pain relievers in pill form, they may be helped just as well by medicated creams and patches. These topical NSAID (non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs) pain relievers, which are quite popular in other countries, were recently found by experts at the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality to be just as effective as pills at relieving the pain of osteoarthritis. In some cases, these topical treatments may cause skin reactions, but they help avoid the adverse reactions associated with NSAID pill use. Over-the-counter creams include Aspercreme and Myoflex. If a stronger medication is needed, a consultation with a doctor can result in the prescription of Voltaren gel or the Flector patch.

Osteoarthritis itself is not life threatening, but a person's quality of life can significantly deteriorate from pain and loss of mobility. At ROSSMORE PHARMACY, we stay up to date on as many studies and much medical research as possible. We do this to educate ourselves and hone our ability to give you the best advice possible. If you have questions about any medication please come to 338 Washington Venue or call 973-759-1968 or 973-759-1956. We are Medicare, and Blue Cross approved. We are open 7 days a week, including Sundays from 9am to noon. Greeting cards, cosmetics, toiletries, cameras and film, timex watches, radios, baby needs, Russell Stover candies and other gift items are available. We also offer Free delivery. Your doctor Knows U-Your Doctor Trusts Us.

HINT: The Voltaren gel and the Flector patch both contain diclofenac, a non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drug (NSAID) that works by reducing hormones that cause inflammation and pain in the body.

FROM COCKTAILS TO SOUP

Clockwise, from top left, The Rev. Paul Walker shares the Mary and Martha Soup Kitchen's accomplishments as Father Randy Webster and Michael Ippolito look on. The cocktail party at Nanina's in the Park raised funds for the kitchen, operated by Christ Episcopal Church in Belleville. Mario Drozd presents proclamations from U.S. Rep. Bill Pascrell (D-8th) and State Assemblyman Ralph Caputo. Walker shares a laugh with Dr. Lori Ippolito of Nutley and Christie Megaro of Belleville.

Ner Tamid is accepting registration for the 2009-2010 school year. The preschool, appropriately named Shosh, Hebrew for roots, establishes "roots" to build the foundation upon which the youngest children can grow and flourish. The NAEYC accredited program offers full and part time programs for 2, 3 and 4-year olds and is a first step in developing skills that will be nurtured over the course of the exciting 2009/2010 school year as the children grow socially, emotionally, cognitively and physically. The professionally staffed preschool offers a variety of programs in both morning and afternoon classes, as well as early morning drop-offs and afternoon enrichment programs.

"Mommy & Me" program

There's a "Mommy & Me" program for 15 to 24 months that caters to the youngest students and provides them with age appropriate activities that will transition the children into the two-year-old program. The curriculum includes art, music, dance, computer instruction, science and nature in a fun-filled setting. The student body is diversified in both religion and race with children from Nutley, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair and surrounding communities and gives individualized attention in small classes with the important low teacher/student ratio allowing each child to develop in a comfortable and nurturing setting.

Temple Ner Tamid is located at 936 Broad St. in Bloomfield. For more information, call 973-338-1500 or visit www.nertamid.org.

BELLEVILLE CLERGY ALLIANCE

Friendship's relation to faith

"You've got a friend" is a song by James Taylor which has some wonderful words such as, "When you're down and troubled and you need a helping hand, you just call out my name and you know wherever I am, I'll come running to see you again."

In John 15:14-17 Jesus tells his disciples (and us) that he calls us his friends because he has made known to us everything that the father (God) has told him. Jesus says that we did not choose him, but Jesus chose us. Our main command from him is that we love one another; that we are friends.

The hymn, "What a friend we have in Jesus," is also an uplifting song especially in the present time of hardships and illness and war.

Do you find yourself calling out to God for advice, help, direction and companionship? Do you ever sense God's presence or response? To your prayers, or your songs and hymns of praise?

Let me tell you a mystery. On May 12 I was traveling in my car and (as usual) singing six hymns which have comforting and exciting words of faith. For about three months I've been trying to memorize all the words to these songs.

Repetition and interest works wonders for the memory!

But on that Tuesday I felt I had attained my goal and decided to just drive quietly. After about 15 minutes I suddenly heard someone say "Hello!" Loud and clear!

No one was in my car; windows are shut, no radio or CD turned on, and no cars passing by! This was in the middle of the day and I had not rushed out of the house half-awake!

And no—I am not crazy.

All I know is that the voice was "real" to me.

Maybe James Taylor's words apply here, "Winter, spring, summer, or fall, all you've got to do is call (or sing)—and I'll be there?"

"Hello!"

Nutley's Third Annual "Relay for Life" will take place on Friday, May 29, and consists of more than 575 registered, according to Commissioner Mauro G. Tucci. Teams can consist of 15 people maximum.

The Recreation Department along with the American Cancer Society has worked to get the message out and raise awareness to assist in making an impact in the fight against cancer. There is still time to be a part of this event. Log on to the Cancer Society Web site to form a team or donate at www.relayforlife.org/NutleyNJ and get started!

This event is an overnight team event whereby teams are formed in honor or in memory of someone who has battled cancer, and they raise funds in advance of the event. The money raised stays within the area to provide education and patient services to those diagnosed with cancer and their families, as well as to fund life saving research going on at the area hospitals and universities. It's called a relay because team members take turns walking all night, the idea being that one person from every team is walking on the track for the entire duration of the event.

The theme for this year's event is "Hollywood." Participants are encouraged to decorate their tents for the event around this theme. Prizes will be given for the best decorated. Special events are scheduled throughout the evening such as midnight volleyball tournaments, bingo, softball games and more.

"Relay For Life", the American Cancer Society's signature event, is an overnight celebration of hope, progress and answers. Relay

For Life is a unique event that raises community awareness of prevention and detection of cancer and of services for those currently battling the disease, while raising much-needed funds in the fight for the cure. Preparing for the event requires the work of many different sub-committees. These include ones for membership, luminaria sales, entertainment, logistics, advocacy, cancer control and online fundraising just to name a few.

The opening ceremonies will begin at 6:30 p.m. and are dedicated to cancer survivors, who are our honored guests for the evening. They proudly walk the first lap, demonstrating for all that there is hope in the fight. As the sun goes down, Relay For Life becomes quite emotional as survivors are honored and loved ones are remembered with a candle lighting ceremony. The track becomes quiet as participants take time to mourn loved ones and rejoice at those who survived. Teams participate in planned entertainment, listen

TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE

The foregoing Ordinance was introduced at a Regular Meeting of the Municipal Council of the Township of Belleville held on May 4, 2009 and was read for the first time. This ordinance will be further considered for final passage by the said Municipal Council in the Council Chambers, Town Hall, 152 Washington Avenue, Belleville, NJ on Tuesday, June 9, 2009 beginning at 7:00 p.m. or at any time and place to which such meeting may be adjourned. All persons interested will be given the opportunity to be heard concerning such ordinance.

Kelly A. Cavanagh,
Municipal Clerk

"AN ORDINANCE OUTLINING THE USAGE OF TOWNSHIP PAID CELLULAR PHONES, PERSONAL CELLULAR PHONES AND THE USE OF CELL PHONES BY EMPLOYEES WHILE DRIVING"

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY:

The Township of Belleville Employee Handbook is hereby amended as follows:

Township Paid Cellular Phones:

Where job or business needs demand immediate access to an employee, the Township may provide a business cell phone to an employee for work related communications. To protect the employee from incurring tax liability for the personal use of this equipment, such phones are to be used for business reasons only. Cell phones are NOT to be used for text messages and/or internet access.

Each employee will be provided with a plan that allows a specific number of minutes on a monthly basis. If an employee exceeds the allowable monthly minutes, the employee will be responsible for reimbursing the Township for the overage charge. The employee may provide reimbursement through an authorized payroll deduction or via personal check. If the overage is due to business use, the employee should notify the township so alternative plans may be reviewed.

Employees in possession of Township equipment such as a cellular phone is expected to protect the equipment from loss, damage or theft. Upon resignation or termination of employment, or at any time upon request, the employee may be asked to produce the phone for return or inspection. Employees unable to present the phone in good working condition within the time period requested, may be requested to bear the cost of a replacement.

Personal Cellular Phones

Employees should limit personal calls during work time to no more than one per day as needed. Excessive personal calls during the workday, regardless of the phone used, can interfere with employee productivity and may be distracting to others. Flexibility will be provided in circumstance demanding immediate attention.

The Township will not be liable for the loss of personal cellular phone brought into the workplace.

The use of ANY hand-held cell phone while driving Township of Belleville vehicles is strictly prohibited.

Violations of this policy will be subject to a disciplinary action and/or termination.

This ordinance shall take affect upon publication in accordance with the law.
