About 125 Attend Banquet Given At Italian Church

About 125 attended the banquet Friday night of the Young Men's Club of the Italian Baptist Church, Silver Lake section. Many were present from First Baptist Church, Bloomfield, of which the Italian church was a mission until about six months ago.

Speakers included Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy, Mayor Charles Demarest of Bloomfield, Dr. Winfield Booth of the Baptist City Mission Society, Newark; P. C. Corbo, a Newark attorney, and Roy Allen, a deacon of the parent church and superintendent of the Italian Baptist Sunday school.

Mayor Kenworthy extolled the pastor Rev. Benedetto Pascale, for his ability to keep the young men interested in the church. Mayor Demarest spoke on ideals. Mr. Booth said the work of Mr. Pascale and his congregation in achieving church independence was to be given place in the Baptist Book of Remembrance next year.

James Petrucci, a club member, entertained with novelty numbers. Elmo Pascale, the pastor's six-year-old son, sang and his daughter Alba, ten, played. The choir quartet sang spirituals and a junior quartet also sang. Numbers also were given by a trio composed of Elijah Pascale, cornetist, of Newark; John Rossi of Belleville, clarinetist, and Mrs. Pascale, wife of the pastor.

BELLEVILLE ONLY OUTSTRIPPED BY NEWARK IN ASSESSMENT APPEALS

Commissioner Gibson Expresses Dissatisfaction With The Present Method Of Evaluating Properties

More petitions for reductions in tax assessments have been received by the Essex County Tax Board from Belleville than from any other municipality in the county except Newark.

The Belleville News exclusively predicted many would appeal weeks ago.

In 1928 the petitions granted and remissions passed, at the request of the Belleville Board of Assessors totaled $1,173,000. In 1927 the amount was $914,000. Last year Colonel Isaac Shoenthal, chairman of the county board, instructed the Belleville officials to assess in such a manner as to obviate so many petitions and requests for remissions.

The large number of appeals by residents of Belleville is attributed by Assessor William G. Hunt, to the fact that this is the year before town elections. A large number of property owners have been led to believe, he said, that for this reason they may expect favors from the town commission, and have, therefore, appealed their assessments.

In support of this Mr. Hunt cited the case of three buildings on the same block that were assessed the same as last year, but have been appealed this year.

Not As Mere Favors
The total number of appeals, Mr. Hunt said, was but little more than last year, but the number that have been carried to the county, instead of the town, has increased greatly. This was due, he said, to the fact that local officials had been adverse to reducing assessments, merely as "favors."

Belleville's tax rate for 1929 has dropped three points, although the land valuations, according to James Gibson, Director of Revenue and Finance, have been increased about $5 a foot.

Dissatisfaction was expressed by both Mr. Hunt and Mr. Gibson with the method of evaluating property, which they also believe has augmented the number of complaints. Most assessments, they said, are made by examining the exterior of a building with no thought as to the number of its rooms, plumbing or heating. To remedy this situation, Mr. Gibson has recommended a complete survey of the town for next year, with a complete tabulation of the value of every building, by a group of engineers.

VARIETY OF PROGRAMS TO MARK SCHOOL CLOSING NEXT FRIDAY

Belleville public schools will close a week from today, according to the calendar of the Board of Education.

In connection with the closing, special programs will be presented by the Senior Class of the High School and the eighth grades of the grammar schools. The high school expects to graduate nearly eighty and the aggregate of the five grammar schools having eighth grades therein is about 375 pupils of whom 312 have stated they intend to enter high school.

The calendar of the special programs is as follows:— High School Class Night, Friday evening June 14; School No. One, Wednesday evening, June 19; School No. Three, Thursday evening, June 20; School No. Four, Wednesday afternoon, June 19; School No. Seven, Wednesday evening, June 19; School No. Eight, Thursday evening, June 20 and the Thirty-second Annual Commencement of Belleville High School, Friday evening, June 21.

All of these programs will be given in the respective buildings, except that of School No. Three which will be presented in the high school auditorium. All will be at 8:15 in the evening, except that of School No. Four, which will be at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Admission to each of these programs will be by ticket only, which may be obtained of the members of the Board of Education, the business manager, or the members of the classes. The number of tickets for each event is limited to the seating capacity of the several assembly halls, and children under twelve cannot be admitted unless with their parents.

On Waters' Picture

Editor of the News:
Your paper is to be congratulated for displaying, on the front page, a picture of Patrick Waters, our genial commissioner. It is about time that a Belleville paper has extended to this man, the recognition he so richly deserves. We must have him back next year for another term.

Respectfully,

Separation Suit Balked By Attempt At Reconciliation

The interruption of the trial of a separation suit and its cross action for divorce between Mrs. Mary A. Hayden, 452 Washington avenue, Belleville, and Emerson A. Hayden, two months ago, had an uncompleted sequel before Vive Chancellor Berry Tuesday, when counsel for the husband sought unsuccessfully to stage a reconciliation in court.

When the counter cases were on final hearing April 10, Vice Chancellor Berry halted the testimony to ask Mrs. Berry if she was willing to go to her husband. The reply was negative, the explanation being that not only were conditions at the Hayden Home, 109 Park avenue, Passaic, intolerable on the account of the presence of the husband's mother, but the proposal was repulsive because the wife had lost all love for her willom helpmate. To the same question, Hayden registered an unqualified assent.

On the representation of James J. Farley, appearing for the wife, that the husband was trying to put over a "trick" on the complainant, the vice chancellor allowed the couple a week to get together. In the meanwhile, Farley told the court yesterday, Mrs. Hayden was induced to agree to return to her husband, "despite her feeling that his overture was not made in good faith." This feeling, the lawyer pointed out, was accentuated by Hayden's having made no conciliatory efforts in the two years he had remained away from his family.

It was further explained that Hayden had announced arrangements for the elimination of the mother-in-law element, thereupon the respective attorneys entered into a stipulation that the status of the parties should not be disturbed.

"My client's mother," said Jacob Van Der Clock, representing Hayden, "is prepared to step out of the house at an hour's notice. He is in court and ready to let bygones be bygones and begin all over again. All that is necessary is for the wife to say the word and a telephone message to the mother-in-law will do the rest. Her valises are marked and she will be out of the picture before the reunited pair can journey to Passaic."

Farley promptly protested that any talk of a reunion at this time was premature, insisting that Mrs. Hay-

TOWN REQUIRES LARGER SEWER

Belleville Will Need $100,000 Worth Of System In Near Future

Belleville will have to build a larger storm drainage system to carry off water from the hilly western part of the town that will cost $100,000.

County Engineer William A. Stickle so informed the freeholder road committee Monday when the subject of repaving Union avenue was discussed. Mr. Stickle said the freeholders and Belleville should reach an agreement now that drainage in that area should be provided by the town.

West of Union avenue real estate developments are still in progress. Mr. Stickle said when the area is fully built up the existing town drainage system would be inadequate. Town Engineer Blank concurred in this opinion.

The county will install a larger storm sewer under Union avenue before repaving the road. It will be ample for the future growth of the vicinity. Mr. Stickle said Belleville should be informed the building of this bigger sewer will not be responsible for increased load dumped into the town system. He said the water from the high land west of Union avenue as it is improved will be carried in the county sewer and then into municipal line. According to Mr. Stickle, there will be no immediate need for the town to enlarge its system. He said Belleville could accomplish it over a period of years.

Mr. Blank will arrange a conference between the Belleville commissioners, Mr. Stickle and Freeholder Crane, chairman of the road committee, to reach an agreement on the project.

The committee concurred in Mr. Stickle's recommendation that Union avenue be paved from curb to curb from the Newark line to Joralemon street, Belleville, a width of thirty-six feet; from curb to curb from Joralemon street to Nutley line, a width of forty-eight feet and from curb to curb from Nutley line to Center street, Nutley, a width of forty feet. The first section will not be made wider because it would mean between Belleville avenue and Joralemon street. Mr. Stickle said if thirty-six feet proves too narrow for growth of traffic, parking could be eliminated, and that under those circumstances, property owners might withdraw their objections to the loss of the trees. At the present time he said thirty-six feet would be sufficient. Widening to thirty-six feet will mean cutting down eleven trees.

Accident Causes Lateness

Due to an unavoidable accident the Belleville News is a few hours late this week.

Rose Marie DeBoey, three, and her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Marie DeBoey, of 100 Sherman avenue, Glen Ridge, received slight cuts and bruises when a baseball was batted through the rear window of their automobile in Franklin avenue, Friday night. Neither required medical attention.

The machine was operated by the child's father, Gerard DeBoey, who reported to police he was passing Park Oval when the window was broken. The ball had been hit by a member of the Manhattan Baseball Club team of Passaic, who was playing a team of the LaMonte mill.

den "still thinks the whole purpose of her husband is to defeat the aim of the suit.

"Neither can she forget," counsel added, "that her love for him is absolutely dead."

"If they are not reconciled by next Tuesday," the court finally ruled, "I will sign an order for the completion of testimony on the original issues."

Before the parties left court, arrangements had been made for a meeting of the litigants at a neutral point before the end of the week.

MICONE MAY BATTLE HARDWARE CLOSING ORDINANCE IN COURT

"Not Worth The Paper It's Written On" Says George R. Jackson, His Counsel From Newark.

George R. Jackson, counsel for the Micone Hardware Company of Washington avenue, which was closed Sunday with fourteen other hardware dealers from a list compiled by Corporation Counsel John B. Brown from the town directory may test the ordinance's validity in court.

Jackson charged the commission had discriminated against certain store owners. He said the ordinance had been passed at the request of seven of nine hardware men, which the commission had construed as a majority and that it now develops that fourteen stores were ordered closed by Director of Public Safety William D. Clark.

"The ordinance is not worth the paper it is written on," Jackson said, "and if these men take it to court the matter would be laughed at and thrown out."

Commissioner Patrick A. Waters said he did not approve of the method used to enforce the ordinance. At the close of last week's meeting it was agreed to leave open the stores, he said, and Saturday this was changed. Fifteen minutes after Saturday's conference Brown submitted the list of fourteen to Clark, he added, declaring Saturday's meeting was merely to make formal the closing.

Sunday, Waters said, he visited several stores in town which were not labeled hardware stores but they were selling hardware articles. He made a purchase in one and demanded the police close it. He was told the police only had orders to close the fourteen.

Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy declared that if Brown had stated the ordinance was not effective he had done so illegally.

Another Odd Case

H. Solomon, proprietor of a 5, 10 and 25-cent store in Washington avenue, appeared before the board Tuesday afternoon, saying he had exchanged a dress for a woman Sunday although he was on the closed list. He said the woman demanded the exchange or her money back about the time Commissioner Frank J. Carragher happened along. Carragher told Solomon he could make the exchange, but not open for business, he said.

"Young Riot"

The argument, which in the words of Mayor Kenworthy, created a "young riot" in Belleville, would be settled finally Saturday afternoon, the Mayor said.

The ordinance, the Mayor declared, was not the result of a reform movement but of a voluntary petition signed by seven of the nine hardware dealers in town. When the ordinance went into effect last Sunday, it was found that garages, five and ten cent stores, and even drug stores were affected by it, since they all sold some articles of hardware. As a result they were all closed and over thirty of these dealers appeared before the commission meeting a week ago in protest.

Petty Politician?
The Mayor charged that the entire dispute had been started by petty politicians, who had agitated shop owners to appear before the commission in order to display their own power over it. The Mayor added that the special meeting Saturday afternoon would be "for the express purpose of combating these self-styled local bosses."

Micone Arrested
John Micone, who Sunday opened for business the hardware store at 27-29 Washington avenue, was arrested by Patrolman Robert Anderson who made Micone close the store, then took him to headquarters, where he spent most of the forenoon in jail, before giving $10 cash bail for his appearance before Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons.

A. S. Micone, described as the leader of the opposition, is said to have given his brother John instructions to keep the store open, despite the ordinance, before he left the Newark Airport by airplane last week to be present at the graduation of another brother at Georgetown University.

Plan Entertainment At K. of C. Meeting

Belleville Council, K. of C. on Monday evening will hold an evening of entertainment to be known as "Past Grand Knights' Night" in conjunction with their regular meeting.

Alexander Derbyshire, lecturer of the Council, has worked hard and with the able assistance of Grand Knight James Specht has lined up a splendid array of talent.

The evening will open with an address on "The General Good of the Order," by Rev. Robert J. Graham, Grand Knight of St. Elizabeth's Council, Bernardsville. Father Graham is an ardent exponent of Columbianism and thrilled his hearers when he addressed the K. of C. Convention recently convened at Asbury Park. His ardor and oratory are well worth the attention of any member of the order.

Next will be the beloved Tom Norton of Jersey City. He needs no introduction to Knights past and present. He calls his talk "Reminiscence" and any one who knows of Tom Norton's long years of service will tell you he will have lots to talk about.

Talks will also be given by John T. X. Landregan, Grand Knight of Star of the Sea Council, Grand Knight Sheridan of Kearny Council and Grand Knight Guinan of Nutley Council. Of interest to older members of the Council will be the visit of Michael Higgins, who twenty-five years ago was the first district deputy assigned to Belleville Council.

The meeting will be for third degree members only and the guests of honor will be all the Past Grand Knights of Belleville Council.

Interspersed with the talks will be entertainment furnished by the members of nearby councils. Refreshments will be served. The meeting will start at 8:15 P. M.

If necessary the president, Mrs. Anna Ruff, will call a brief business meeting just preceding the social afternoon.

The next or fall meeting will be September 4 at the Recreation House.

Just as the meeting closed Commissioner Carragher, who happened to be at the Recreation House on business asked permission to speak to the members on the request of the Recreation Commission to the Commissioners for permission to expend $10,000 on the House and grounds, thus providing a place for mothers and children to meet for pleasure and out-of-door summer recreation. Although informal, those women present were in favor of the movement. The matter will probably be brought up for further discussion on June 19.

Roof Tree Sunbeams met directly following the meeting of the Roof Tree Branch. Thirty interested children were present all listening intently to both the business and musical parts. New members are Albert Erath of 257 Greylock parkway, Eleanor Eppler of 21 Beech street, Matthew Horman of 481 De Witt avenue and Robert Ewald of 71 Forest street.

THE CLOCK THAT TOLD A STORY INSTEAD OF THE TIME

A CLOCK that does not run nor tell time but that does tell a story has been added to the Edison exhibits which Henry Ford is collecting for his Historical Museum at Dearborn, Michigan. It hails from the Fort Myers laboratory of Thomas A. Edison and is of the vintage of the early eighties.

The works of this clock were removed by Mr. Edison immediately after he purchased it. He also replaced its face and its pendulum with cross-sectional pieces of log. Originally the clock was a rather good-looking timepiece, being enclosed in a walnut case of ornate design. Edison's face-lifting operation upon it did not improve its appearance but it portrayed very graphically his aversion to "clock watchers," and he preferred to have it tell that story to his assistants than to tell them the time.

Mr. Edison's other early laboratory was at Menlo Park, New Jersey, where both Edison and his assistants frequently worked for more than 24 hours at a stretch. It was in this laboratory that the incandescent lamp and numerous other inventions were worked out. The successful lamp, it is reported, was the climax of forty hours' continuous work.

Both the Fort Myers and Menlo Park laboratories have been removed to Dearborn, where they will be seen by distinguished visitors on October 21st, when the fiftieth anniversary of the invention of the electric light is celebrated there. Mr. Edison himself will be the guest of honor that night at a banquet which Mr. Ford is planning as his personal tribute to his old friend.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drexler and daughter Claire of 353 DeWitt avenue spent the week-end at Spring Lake.

has some surprises for the afternoon, as have others.

Many of the Roof Tree Branch members remained for the Sunbeam meeting and one and all speak highly of the wonderful work the children are doing and the interest that they take. After the meeting the "kiddies" are paired two by two, and with a woman at the head and several bringing up the rear are safely taken to the home of Mrs. Adler on Forest street where they are taken to their homes.

The next meeting will be held at the Recreation House September 4 when Mrs. Anna Ruff will be in charge. Mrs. Gregory Rosenblum will teach the children to make paper flowers, and Mrs. Richard L. Ridgway will assist them to piece crib quilts for the Blind Babies' Home in Summit.

Delightful Program Given By Pupils Of Miss Dobbins

Those who attended the recital at the High School last Saturday afternoon, given by the pupils of Miss Vivian Dobbins, were assured that Belleville has a school of dancing of which to be proud. The entire program was delightfully presented and although the High School gymnasium does not afford a great opportunity for scenery the back ground used, before which the kiddies danced, was pleasing to the eye.

The costume worn by the children though simple in style were in good taste and the color scheme most effective. Credit should be given all those taking part from the older girls who danced with grace and assurance down to the very tiny tots who found it more interesting to stare wide eyed into the audience in search of familiar faces than to take part in the dance. These small ones, however, added mirth to the affair and proved to the spectators that they would dance when they suddenly fell in step.

Special mention should be made of Mildred Boschman and her three-year-old competitor, Jane Zipp. Both children are acrobatic dancers. Mildred dressed a clever performer and Jane showing wonderful possibilities for the future.

The special numbers in both rap and toe dancing were all well done but the toe-tap dance by Lillian Vreeland might need extra mention.

The final, a grand march, by all pupils led by Miss Dobbins, after which the children broke into ball room dancing made a colorful and delightful ending.

Mrs. Ramig is a graduate of Belleville High School. Mr. Ramig came to Newark from Germany six years ago. He was educated in that country.

Miss Ella Batchelor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Batchelor of 109 Adelaide street, and Julius Ra-mig Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ramig of 619 South Thirteenth street Newark were married Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Fifth avenue Presbyterian Church, Newark, by the pastor, Rev. Joseph Hunter.

A TERRIBLE EXAMPLE

The terrible disaster in Cleveland Hospital in which 124 people lost their lives, has directed the attention of the entire world to the menace of fire.

It may never be determined whether or not this conflagration was preventable. But it should bring to every person a realization of the necessity of providing every possible safeguard against fire.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters has already acted to aid in preventing a repetition of disasters like the Cleveland Clinic explosion.

The Board adopted a resolution authorizing its president to appoint a special committee to offer the engineering services of the organization to hospitals throughout the country to develop plans for guarding further against fire and explosion hazards. The resolution invited the American Medical Association and the major hospital associations of the country to join with the Board in forming a committee to cooperate in improving safeguards.

There are more than 8,000 institutions designated as hospitals in the country and most of them are connected directly or indirectly with the Associations invited to join in the movement to increase the safety of patients and hospital staffs.

The National Board is to be commended for its prompt action in offering to help solve new fire problems which accompany scientific research today. This is a service rendered freely and voluntarily by stock fire insurance companies as part of their duty in protecting lives and property of citizens.

WHO DARE BE THE JUDGE?

We have seen a strange phenomenon in the United States the past few months in efforts that have been made to curb individual buying of securities on the ground that this was necessary to prevent the public being injured by inflated market values.

It is a ticklish undertaking to try to tell certain individuals of certain banks that they cannot borrow or loan money on certain transactions which some other individual or bank feels is over-priced.

Marriage might be said to be as much of a lottery as stock buying and yet what authority dares check the practice or choose the partners in the transactions?

Government protection of an investor against fraud is one thing. Paternalism which tells an individual what he can do with his money is quite a different thing.

The present inclination of the public to buy stocks and bonds in our industrial enterprises is as commendable as was its inclination to buy only land and mortgages a few years back, and it is bringing more growth and prosperity to the country.

COMMON SENSE ROAD BUILDING

The solution of the automobile accident problem is within the control of the people and state road building authorities. Narrow pavements, sharp unbanked turns and worn and rutty surfaces take toll of thousands of lives each year. Main highways should be wide enough for several cars to pass.

It is now necessary to build secondary roads not only to relieve traffic on the main highways but to give a fair distribution of road tax funds and to develop the back country. Secondary roads increase the value of farm land, put new life into smaller towns, relieve congestion of traffic in the larger centers by furnishing better distributing and marketing facilities and opening new avenues for traffic.

Improvement of secondary roads can be accomplished at moderate expense through the scientific use of asphaltic materials and road oils which can be utilized to give a water proof surface that eliminates mud and dust. Each state probably needs 10 miles of secondary, or feeder roads to one mile of state highway if a road system is properly developed and tax funds equitably distributed.

THE ABSENT-MINDED BURGLAR

The absent-minded burglar has at last appeared to take his place alongside the absent-minded college professors as a theme for jesters. In Chicago the other day a man broke into an apartment and helped himself to $3,000 worth of jewels. As he was getting ready to go he saw a nice topcoat hanging in a closet. His own coat was shabby, so he tossed it on the floor, put on the new one and went away. A few hours later the owners of the place came home and discovered the burglary. They picked up the burglar's discarded coat and prepared to throw it away, but a policeman happened to look in its pockets first. There he found the $3,000 of jewels. The burglar had forgotten to transfer them to the pocket of the new coat.

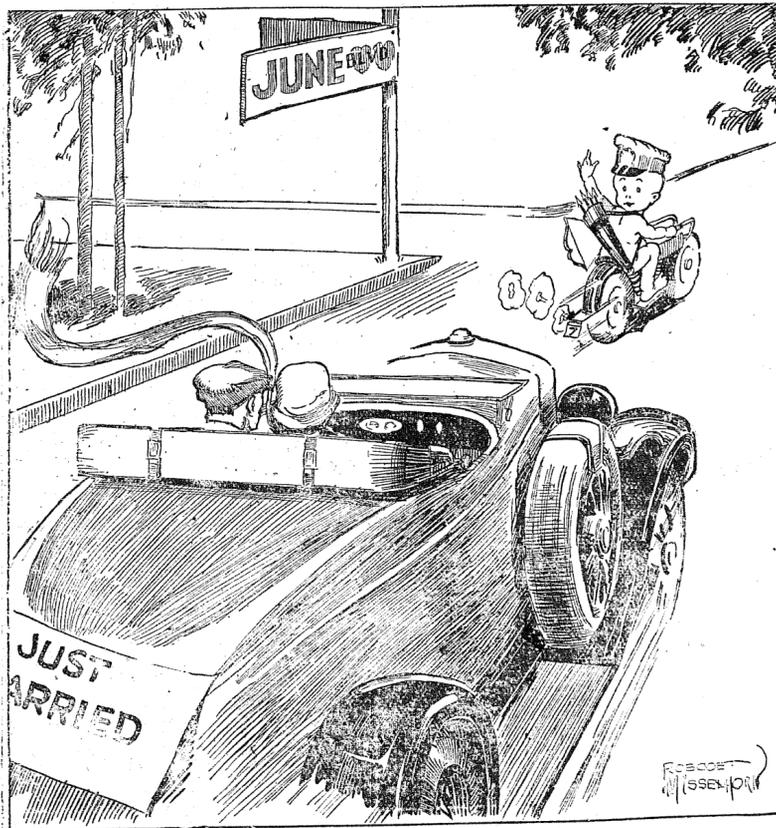

AN INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE

The Daily Telegraph of London, commenting on the fact that differences in language are at present a barrier to international communications, foresees a time when one or two languages will be understood the world over. The linking up of the great American and foreign powers by telephone has given a strong impetus to this movement.

Once international telephony comes into greater use, through a common language, it will mean a great step forward in promoting understanding and friendliness among the great nations of the world.

Again American private initiative and enterprise blaze the trail for world progress.

Citizen Cites

The demand for politeness is great, but the supply is short.

Money's a good thing to have, but a poor thing to worship.

No man ever needs an oculist when looking for trouble.

The average family tree demonstrates that the less a man amounts to himself, the prouder he is of his ancestors.

Contentment seems to demonstrate that some people require more happiness than others.

Money won't buy everything but it favors everything.

Strangely enough, time robs us of lots of things we would do if we only had time.

A business career never lowered the stature of any real gentleman.

How true it is that unless we share our happiness, we shrink it to half what it might be!

The principal recreation of some people consists of changing other people's minds.

A business man's leisure is simply the time he doesn't know what to do with.

Some people are born lucky, and others try to get rich quick.

The last shall be first and fortunate is the man whose first love is his last.

Too many people permit religion to monopolize their talk, but bar it from their lives and business.

The hard thing about making money last is making it first.

The real orator stops while the audience still wants more.

In Mexico you first run for President, then you run for your life.

The eternal triangle has no right angles.

The man who thinks he is the early bird frequently turns out to be only the poor worm.

Wife (reading newspaper)—It says here that a person speaks on an average of about 12,000 words a day.

Husband—Well, I've always said you were above the average.

There, mon, ye canna show anything like that in your country.

"Oh, I don't know," said Snodgrass. "I guess we can better that. Why, in my camp, in the Rockies, when I go to bed, I just lean out of my window and call out: 'Time to get up! Wake up! and eight hours afterward the echo comes back, and wakes me.'"

Farmer—I never seen such a season. My corn isn't an inch high!

Neighbor—An inch? Why, the sparrows have to kneel down to eat mine.—From the Montreal Star.

Jokes

A coster and his best girl were discussing the recent marriage of two of their acquaintances.

"Arry—Did you read the list of presents Ann Smith had for her wedding?"

"Arriet—Yes, I did. The hidea for sich as them 'aving the weddin' put in the paper! They might be haristocrats."

"Arry—Fancy her mother giving such a 'andsome present as a 'orse and trap."

"Arriet—Garn! It was a clothes 'orse and mouse trap; that's their bloomin' pride!"

"Why such a hurry?"

"I have a terrible lot of work to do and nobody to help me."

"What about the little girl you used to have in the office?"

"She is not able to work any more."

"How is that?"

"She is married now."

"Really? To whom?"

"To me."

Boy Scout Chosen To Accompany Great Smoky Mountain Expedition

Chosen as the most outstanding Boy Scout of western North Carolina, 16-year-old Eagle Scout William "Billy" Greet, of Asheville, will accompany the Asheville Times exploration expedition into the Great Smoky Mountains. More than a thousand Scouts were entered in the contest sponsored by the newspaper to select the outstanding Scout from the group to participate in the great adventure. The Great Smoky Mountain Expedition left Asheville today, and will be gone about four weeks. A base camp will be established by the expedition at Indian Gap, an old camp place on the crest of the Smokies accessible to pack horses. From this base point the explorers will travel afoot with their equipment on their backs. They will use carrier pigeons to send occasional reports to the Times and for emergency communication if necessary.

The purposes and objectives of the Times Great Smokies Expedition are: To explore and "discover" the most rugged and wildest parts of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park area for the general public; to find, along with other Indian relics, if possible, the ancient Indian writings, which according to Cherokee Indian stories exist on the unexplored and precipitous cliffs in the Sawtooth country, but concerning which there is no authoritative record; to publish an accurate picture by word and photograph of what tourists and campers who will soon have access to the Great Smoky Mountain National Park, may expect to find in the way of birds, animals, flowers, trees, shrubs, streams, waterfalls and scenic and camping attractions generally; to publish an accurate account of the experiences whatever they may be of a typical American boy and two "Tenderfoot" newspapermen adventuring into the most marvelous wilderness and last surviving primeval forest in the United States. The explorers will be provided with the absolute minimum camping equipment and provisions and will in a large measure have to depend on their own resourcefulness in woodcraft. To describe for the camper, fisherman, hiker and outdoor sportsman, the equipment preparations and experiences of these mountain explorers in the hope that it will be of great interest and benefit to them in planning their own outdoor ventures; to promote hiking, camping, fishing, good woodcraft and outdoor life generally in Western North Carolina.

EASTERN STATES EXPOSITION

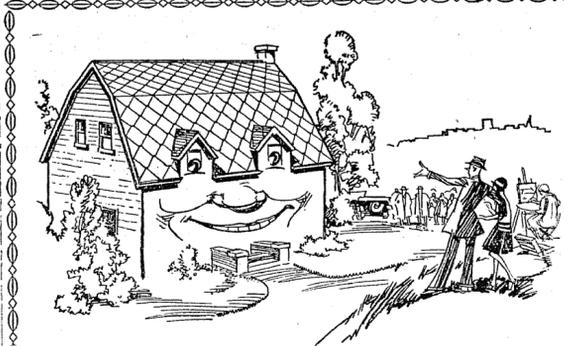

100 Scouts, the outstanding woodsmen of ten eastern states, will take part this year in the Tenth Annual Mohawk Indian Village Encampment of the Boy Scouts of America at the Eastern States Exposition which will be held at Springfield, Massachusetts, from September 15 to 22 this year. Scouts from Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania, the outstanding boys of their home communities, will be selected to take part in the demonstrations.

One of the features of the Scout Demonstrations will be a large exhibit of handicraft articles made by Scouts in every part of the country. A mounted Troop of Scouts, who will do roping stunts, will be present, as will the two world championship pine tree patrols of Stamford, Connecticut, and Hoboken, New Jersey.

TUBERCULOSIS CAMPAIGN
Thirty-eight Boy Scouts in Hartford, Connecticut, recently placed 750 posters with the slogan, "Tuberculosis—early Discovery—early Recovery. Let Your Doctor Decide," in store windows in Hartford and East Hartford. The boys worked in cooperation with the Hartford Tuberculosis and Public Health Society in their April campaign, using material supplied by the state tuberculosis commission from the National Tuberculosis association. The society will make use of window exhibits, the movies, talks and leaflets.

SCOUT SERVICE

During the recent "blossom festival" at Benton Harbor, Michigan, and vicinity, Boy Scouts of the Benton-Berrien-Cass Area Council assisted in the handling of more than 100,000 people. The school authorities cooperated by letting the boys out of school on an arranged schedule. The traffic at the new airport was turned over to the Scouts entirely, and then as a tribute to the efficiency of the Scouts, the cities of Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, Michigan, permitted Scouts to govern the two cities for a day. The Scouts held regular Commissioners' meetings, handled the traffic, served with the Fire Department and gave demonstrations in fire net jumping. 9,500 hours of public service were given by the Scouts during the two weeks.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS
Spreading appeals for kindness to animals, 300 gas filled toy balloons were released by Boy Scouts at the headquarters of the Western Pennsylvania Humane Society on Bigelow Boulevard, Pittsburgh, recently, as part of the "Be Kind to Animals Week" program. Each balloon carried a card which when filled out and returned to the society headquarters, would bring to the finder a natural history magazine.

SCOUT MUSEUM
Boy Scouts of East Orange and that vicinity of New Jersey are working together in a movement to sponsor a Scout museum.

A copy of the proposed by-laws for the organization have been submitted to Mayor Charles H. Martens of East-Orange, for suggestions and approval. According to the mayor, the museum would have four officers, a president, vice president, secretary and a treasurer. The Scout Executive of East Orange would be president of the museum.

The name officially proposed is the East Orange Boy Scouts Museum of Nature and Woodcraft. Under the proposed plan Boy Scouts would arrange the exhibit to be on display and be members of the staff of the museum.

GOOD TURN

aid when a fire consumed three large business houses. It was due to the watchfulness of these Scouts that the safety of the town was assured after the fire fighters had succeeded in stopping the spread of flames. The Boy Scouts remained on guard throughout the night around the burned district and promptly put out any fire that was kindled by the breezes. We could not well get along without the Boy Scouts." The letter was signed by Jno. W. Tisdale, Mayor.

Summer Directory Has Been Delivered To Phone Subscribers

The New Jersey Bell Telephone Company has completed distribution of the new Summer Directory in the Newark area, it was announced today by C. R. O'Neill, manager for the company. A total of about 101,176 directories was delivered to subscribers in this district.

The volume attains a new record in size with forty-one more pages of listings than the winter book it displaces. More than a half a million copies of the directory, each containing 952 pages, have been printed and bound, and the distribution throughout Northern New Jersey is rapidly being completed.

Increasing use of telephone in homes and offices reflecting growth in population and industry in the northern part of the state, account for approximately 15,000 new listings in the directory than the winter volume contained. Adding the new listings is only part of the task of preparing the directory, however, as Mr. O'Neill stated that 120,856 listing changes also had to be made in the new book before it was issued. A total of 393,794 listings are contained in the new book.

The immensity of the production job entailed in issuing the directories for the entire state is indicated in the use of 2,000,000 pounds of paper, 18,000 pounds of cloth, 14,000 pounds of glue and 26,000 pounds of printing ink to produce over the half million copies needed.

The general appearance of the directory is unchanged, except for use of a blue cover. A book mark for recording out-of-town telephone numbers is provided with each copy. An enlarged classified business and professional directory on yellow pages in the back of the volume lists business and professional addresses and telephone numbers, presenting in easily accessible form the articles subscribers may wish to buy and the services they may need.

Boys Believed To Have Entered Stores

Three Chain Grocery Jobs In Belleville Net $69.01 Cash

Belleville police are working on the theory that boys broke into three chain stores Monday night and got away with a total of $69.01 in cash, causing several hundred dollars' damage through vandalism.

The stores that were entered are the National Grocery Company at 482 Washington avenue, the A. & P. store at 386 Washington avenue and the Mutual Grocery Company at Little street and Washington avenue.

The National store was entered by prying a rear door with a stove lifter found in the cellar. Cash amounting to $49.78 was stolen from a place in the back room, where it had been hidden.

At the A. & P. store about eight large bags of sugar were ripped open and the contents thrown on boxes of vegetables stored in the back room. The same was done to numerous small parcels of sugar already packed. Cash amounting to $17.23 was stolen from the cash register. A bunch of bananas was cut in halves and hurled all over the place. Entrance was made by kicking in a board at the front of the store leading to the cellar, where a door was forced open.

Entrance to the Mutual store was made by climbing on the roof with the aid of piled boxes, breaking one glass in the skylight and dropping twenty-two feet to the floor. Two dollars in pennies was the loot obtained there.

Because of the smallness of the opening police are inclined to place the blame on boys.

Boy Scouts Receive Awards At Court

John Ray Presents Merit Badges To About Twenty-five

The Boy Scout Court of Honor for the Belleville district was held Friday night at Belleville High School. Charles L. Steel, principal of the school, presided. More than twenty-five boys received merit badges.

Presentation was made by John Ray of the Belleville organization committee. Harold Drake of Troop 4 was given the star badge by W. D. Clark, director of public safety.

A. E. Locher of the organization committee presented the five-year service pin to Scoutmaster Robert A. Conklin. Warren W. Brundage, executive of the Newark Boy Scout Council, described the value of scouting.

Jock Harris, an entertainer, provided a program. Led by Alphonse Cece, the Boys' Harmonica Band of Belleville played.

Judging from the length of time it's taking the "Yellow Bird" and the "Green Flash" to start on their trans-atlantic flights, it looks as though Lindy was the only one who knew better than to believe the weather man.

Nash Export Sales On The Increase

Kenosha, Wis. June 14.—C. H. Bliss, general sales manager of The Nash Motors Company, announced today that export sales of the new "400" Series cars in the first five months of 1929 were thirty-eight percent greater than were Nash sales in foreign countries during the same period a year ago. He added that this substantial increase in the overseas demand for this type Nash car has brought the export totals to 9.1 percent of the entire factory production and compares more than favorably with the export business of American industry as a whole.

"This increase in the Nash overseas demand is another striking indication of the enthusiasm with which indiscriminating automobile buyers have received the '400's,'" said Mr. Bliss. "and of how perfectly the Series meets all motoring requirements. European buyers, hedged in as they are by almost prohibitive motor taxes and high fuel costs, watch values, operating costs and prices with extreme care; and their approval measures the extent of the Nash achievement in building fine cars at moderate costs. Reports show that car stocks in the hands of export dealers are normal at this time despite the late European spring and consequently difficult markets."

Germany and Sweden were found to be two of the best Nash overseas markets, although the increased demand for the "400's" was felt in all parts of the world. Reports also showed that The Nash Motors Company and its export organization is actively engaged in pushing its frontiers into new territories and in opening up virgin markets.

Man Is Fined As Drunken Driver

Found guilty Tuesday of driving while drunk, John Rohm of 187 Franklin avenue, Nutley, was fined $200 and costs and his license was revoked for two years by Recorder George Fitzsimmons.

Rohm's car was in collision with one driven by Albert E. Johnson of 99 Oakland road, Maplewood, at Belleville avenue and Union avenue. Dr. Frederick Bootay, town physician declared him unfit to drive.

"I hereby sentence you to 20 years at hard labor in the state penitentiary," said the stern old judge, "and what request have you to make?" "Just one, your honor," said the prisoner, "and that is please call my wife and tell her I won't be home for dinner."

Hill Top Association Favors Appropriation For Play Provision

Members of the "Hill Top Improvement Association," have urged the Board of Commissioners, to grant the Recreation Commission, the $10,000 appropriation, for improvements to the recreation house and grounds. An ordinance in this respect passed first reading at the commission meeting Tuesday.

Recent street paving in the community has increased traffic to such an extent, that lives of children are endangered. Providing a playground will avoid the occurrence of fatal accidents, say the members.

"One child's life is of greater value, to our minds, than the pending appropriation and just this nature of expenditure, is by all means the best that could be granted," adds one member.

The association has been active in many community projects and has a great desire for anything of this nature.

Why?
The time will soon be here again when the average husband takes his family from all the joys and conveniences of the modern home, to sojourn at a spot where mosquitoes are as thick as flies around a garbage wagon, where it is necessary to walk a mile or more to obtain pure drinking water, and where a sudden thunder shower at night means getting out of bed in order to place pots and pans under the leaks in the roof.
This suffering is usually undergone for the purpose of bathing in a muddy lake or stream, which, for sheer enjoyment, cannot be compared to the bath tub at home.

ELECTRICITY and the FORT LEE BRIDGE

ELECTRIC energy, so adaptable that surgeons and dentists use it in the most delicate of their operations, is playing a major part in the construction of the greatest of suspension bridges now being thrown over the Hudson at Fort Lee.

Electric cranes lift into place the beams and girders for the piers; electrically driven air compressors operate the riveting machines and the drills that are digging the anchorage tunnels and so with other necessary machinery, while when the time comes, electricity will provide power for winding the thirty-six inch cables that are to carry the bridge structure.

Electricity makes power available wherever it is needed on this big job, and for every other task requiring energy, electricity supplies it in its most useable form. In home and factory, for illuminating and power use electricity.

Bachelors Lose To Capitol Club, 8-6

In a close game at Clearman Field Tuesday the Bachelors dropped an 8-6 decision to the strong Capitol nine.

After a bad first inning, when the Capitols scored six runs, Byrnes twirled good ball for the Bachelors. Uhries, on the mound for the Capitols, pitched a steady brand of ball behind the big lead his teammates gave him and was especially effective in the pinches.

Jimmie Dunleavy's homer to deep center field with the bases loaded was the high light of the Capitols' six run barrage in the first frame. Bingles by Schessler and Lilori, coupled with several Bachelor errors accounted for the two additional tallies.

In their half of the first the Bachelors put over a single tally on Donohue's double. Lawler's sacrifice and a Capitol error.

Again in the third the Capitols dented the rubber when Jim Mallack singled, stole second and scored on a wild throw. In their half of the same frame, however, the Bachelors came back with a four run outburst. Singles by Phelps and Lawler interspersed with three Capitol errors accounted for the run-scoring in this frame.

The Bachelors then tallied their sixth and last run in the fifth on Lawler's free ticket, a stolen base and Loesner's single. In the sixth the Capitols came back with their final run, the result of John Mallack's walk, his steal of second and Dunleavy's double against the left field fence.

Dunleavy again led the Capitol stick wielders with a home run and a double, driving in five of his team's eight run total. John Mallack played best in the field for the winners.

"Jim" Clark played a great defensive game in the outfield for the Bachelors scoring several drives that were labelled base hits, while "Pat" Dunn made a beautiful one hand catch of a hot liner off Jim Mallack's bat in the fifth frame. Donahue and Lawler led the Bachelor attack.

NUTLEY P. C. TAKES A SHOT AT SEPARATES' ACCOUNT OF GAME

Sporting Editor:

Read with astonishment the ambiguous report of the Belleville Separate-Nutley Pleasure Club baseball game on the sporting pages of last week's News. In that issue the Separates declared themselves winners and accused the Nutley Pleasure Club of "Unsportsmanlike conduct."

On behalf of our Club I wish to refute these charges. Legally, according to the rules of baseball, the Nutley nine are victors by a 9-0 tally by virtue of Umpire Metzger declaring the game in that fashion because the Separates walked off the field. Regarding their "unsportsmanlike" accusation. Can they name one instance in which our nine acted other than gentlemen. Did our pitcher attempt to "dust off" certain batters, as a certain party did with success at the discussed game? Was it the Nutley Club that harangued and held up the game as early as the third inning when the umpire detected a balk motion in the repertoire of the Belleville Twirler. No. But it was the Nutleyites who, rather than have their opponents walk off the field, as they threatened several times, asked the umpire to let George off with a warning. Again in the sixth it was the Pleasure Club that was guilty of "unsportsmanlike conduct," when, with Belleville runners at first and third and one out, Parcell hit to the pitcher who threw to first. The P. C. first baseman in attempting a throw home, hit the base runner's hands which were upstretched over his head, a most unnatural position. Did the Nutleyites act in such a manner as to be called "Unsportsmanlike," when the Separates again threatened to leave unattended the run scored was counted. As any baseball fan knows the man attempting to score had to go back to third. Rule 55, Sect. 7, covers this play.

The play that culminated in the Belleville Separates quitting the game came about in the following manner.

Will Plato, first Nutley batter in the tenth, drove a short off the pitcher's glove that rolled toward center field as Jacques, who patrolled center field for the Seeps, allowed the ball to go through him. Will Plato was rounding second. The ball rolled into the quarry in center field which under ordinary circumstances would have been a two-base hit, but the umpire ruled—being that two fielders had attempted or erred on the said hit, the runner was entitled to all he could get. For the third time rather than have the game end in an argument, did not the Pleasure Club offer to compromise and place the runner on third? Did our worthy opponents accept this proposition? No. They went away and the following week was spent in publicly denouncing the Nutley Pleasure Club as guilty of "Unsportsmanlike Conduct."

You will notice that my letter deals mainly in reply to accusations on our reputation. We did not claim a forfeit game but have it on record as a 9 inning 2-2 contest. We know we have a better baseball club. We can trounce them anywhere, anytime. But we cannot understand on what grounds the Separates management bases its charge of "Unsportsmanlike Conduct."

Thanking you for your aid in publishing this account of the affair, Yours truly,
I. Zuckar,
President, Nutley, P. C.

Arrows Annex Another

The Nutley Junior Arrows took an easy win from the Stanford Aces of Belleville, 17to 6, Saturday, rain stopping the slaughter in the seventh with the Nutley team well in the lead.

Moraski pitched a good game for the winners allowing but eight hits and fanning thirteen of the opposing batsmen with his fast ball. In addition to this Moraski connected for four safe blows in as many times at bat. Maurillo, Bridges and Baldino also hit well for the winners. Carter and Mitchell both gathered two hits for the Belleville team.

Separates Hang Up Their Ninth Win

Woods Was Invincible For Eight Frames, Sixteen Fanning.

Belleville Separates scored their ninth victory over the week-end at Recreation Field by defeating the Senate Club of Harrison, 4-3, in a thirteen inning contest.

Manager Johnny Woods, who registers fifteen or more strike-outs per game started on the mound for the Separates. Woods was invincible for eight innings fanning sixteen batters and allowing but two hits. In the ninth he gave way to Jim Mallack due to an injury to his throwing arm. Captain Joe Parcell and Jim Mallack, the latter playing his first game for the Belleville nine led the attack for the winners each getting two hits. In the ninth inning with the score 2-1, in favor of the Separate Club, the Separates started with Parcell getting a single. England walked, Marty Mallark grounded to short, the play being made on England for the first out. Tuozolo pinch-hitting for Polasek drove a single through short scoring Parcell and Mallack. Mills and Woods were both struck out to end the rally. In their half of the ninth the Senate Boys managed to push over a run thus creating a tie and giving the home rooters a new lease on life only to be nosed out in the thirteenth inning when Jim Mallack shot a Texas leaguer behind second and scored on two errors.

On Saturday afternoon the Belleville Separates will travel to Caldwell to encounter the strong Caldwell A. C. team in the second game of a series. Sunday afternoon the Separates will be the guests of the Vailsburg Collegiates at Boylan Oval.

Manager Woods who over the week-end has signed Jim Mallack and Ray England for outfield berths, is dickering for the services of J. Pastena, an infielder who formerly played with the Nyack A. C. team. He is one of the classiest ball players on sand lots today. With the acquisition of these players the Separates now form one of the strongest semi pro nines in the state.

Fans in Nutley and Belleville may soon be able to attend a game between the newly formed Nutley A. C. team and the Belleville Separates which will be played at Park Oval in the near future.

BELLEVILLE AMERICAN LEGION TEAM OPENS AGAINST PATERSON P. S. NINE

Panthers Overwhelm Pal A. C. of Newark

Tomorrow afternoon the Belleville American Legion team, made up of star players from the American Legion Twilight League, will inaugurate a heavy semi-pro ball schedule.

Playing the Public Service nine of Paterson. This team is made up of many semi-pro players of state-wide reputation and they are the present champs of the Paterson Twilight League.

The probable battery for the visitors will be Proctor or Klomba pitching and Machel on the receiving end.

The Belleville Legion nine, composed of many well-known local players such as Artie Lamb, Biddle Carragher, Joe Curran, Jim Metz and Tommie Dunn, are sure to furnish the Paterson nine real opposition. Manager Lamb of the localites will probably select his pitcher from Ray Flynn, George Meniot and Lefty Kintzing. Jim Dunleavy or Gene Gelschen will receive their slants.

This strong team made up entirely of local talent will play Saturday games at Clearman Field throughout the rest of the season, booking only the best semi-pro attractions in the state.

The Separates opened the game auspiciously with a run in the first frame on successive passes to Forrester and Weber and Johnston's single. A double by Wengel with two on base in the third accounted for two more tallies for the Separates.

In their half the Bachelors also tallied once on successive bingles by Lawler, Loesner, and Clark. After the Separates had run their total to four with a single marker in the fourth, the Bachelors proceeded to counter twice more in their half of the same frame. In this inning Dunn's single, a hit batsman and successive singles by Loesner, Connelly and Rothwell accounted for the tallies.

In the fifth frame the Bachelors tied the score due to Schwartz's double followed by Leonard's single. There was no further scoring until the eventful seventh when the Separates went on their batting rampage to sound the tocsin seven times.

A lone tally in the ninth by the Bachelors concluded their day's scoring. This run resulted from successive bingles by Schwartz, Dunn, and Leonard.

The Bachelors collected fifteen hits from the offerings of McDonald, Separates' pitcher, but McDonald was especially effective with men on the bases. With the exception of the seven run debacle in the seventh frame Dunn pitched excellent ball for the Bachelors.
