Young Robbers Point Out Jobs

Admit Thirty Burglaries In Belleville And Newark

Two youths arrested Sunday who confessed to thirty robberies in Newark and Belleville were driven around Belleville Sunday in an effort to have them point out places they are alleged to have burglarized.

The youths, Philip Veneziano, seventeen, of 166 Parker street and Mario Pastore, sixteen, of 18 Seventh avenue, both of Newark, were arrested by Special Policeman James A. Oran as he was on his way to 8 o'clock mass in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church at Summer avenue and Heller parkway, Newark.

According to Oran, he saw the youths leaving the church school and his suspicions became aroused. He questioned them and they gave evasive answers. Oran took the pair into the church rectory, where they were questioned further by Rev. Francis B. Fallon and a police court official who was attending mass.

Confess Burglaries
A handful of loose change and a fountain pen were found in their possession. When the youths could not explain where they had obtained the money and pen, Oran was told to take them to the Eighth Precinct station.

Later they were turned over to Detectives Sansom, Schmitt and Seltzer, who interrogated them at length at police headquarters. Finally, the detectives said, the youths admitted having committed thirty burglaries but they were unable to tell the addresses.

Investigation showed the church Sunday School had not been robbed. Sunday the youths were taken on a tour of Belleville by Newark detectives and Patrolmen Robert Anderson and James Flynn of Belleville. They admitted entering eleven places, all in Washington avenue. Police estimated the total loot at $200.

At a Mutual grocery store at 497 Washington avenue entry was made three times, the youths told police, through a skylight from which they had loosened a pane of glass. Police had been mystified at the entries, since no doors or windows had been tampered with. Two hundred pennies were taken from the store the last time, police said.

Other places entered, with the amount stolen were, Kaden's Drug Store, 364 Washington avenue, $8 and four fountain pens; A. & P., 368 Washington avenue, $17.23; National Grocery, 482 Washington Avenue, $49.88; National Grocery, 394 Washington avenue, $7; grocery of Mrs. Anna Crowley, 39 Washington avenue, $7.

Sonneborn Players Out To Avenge Office's First Win

Saturday N. Y. Sonneborn Sons and their New York office will engage in their second clash on the diamond. In their first clash the New York Moguls came out on top to the tune of 13-5.

Not being satisfied with the result, the factory men feel sure that they can take the New Yorkers in their second clash. The Moguls are using their original line with one new face in the lineup, while the Belleville nine have made quite a few shifts. Here is how they will probably shape up for the clash:

Carragher Causes Lively Battle At Meeting Of Town Board

Disputes Cost Of Brighton Avenue And Wallace Street Jobs Which Were Done About Four Years Ago

A street paving job squabble, four years old, which came under investigation of the Belleville Town Commission about a month ago was further under discussion Tuesday night at the regular weekly meeting.

The investigation, which was urged by Commissioner Frank J. Carragher, got under way as reported in the Belleville News when property owners in Brighton avenue and Wallace street said they questioned whether the two streets had been properly paved and assessed.

The property owners raised a cry through Gordon Gant, Newark lawyer, over the "present bad condition" of the streets which have been resurfaced several times.

It was revealed at the meeting a month ago that cross section maps of the work, which show whether the proper excavation had been made, were missing. Commissioner Patrick A. Waters and Town Engineer Albert S. Blank were ordered to make an investigation.

Disappearance of the papers led Gant to ask for a postponement of the confirmation of assessment.

"It is a bad state of affairs when a board cannot obtain records to check assessments," said Gant.

He was assured by Waters that the papers would be found, or corresponding figures produced. The work was done by the William J. D. Lynch Company, Inc., of Nutley, under a former Commission.

Criticizes Carragher
Tuesday night Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy played Carragher for giving to the press a story hinting of mismanagement as regards the jobs.

"If you had any idea of mismanagement you should have told the board, not the press," said the Mayor.

"I didn't give any story at all to the papers," said Carragher. "They got the information from the Town Hall records."

"You state there are interest charges of $5,000 on the work," said the Mayor. "How did you arrive at this figure?"

Carragher declared he figured this out at six per cent on the total cost from the time the job was paid for until this year when the assessment figures were submitted for confirmation.

Verbal Clash
Carragher and Commissioner James Gibson had a verbal setto when Gibson said the statements Carragher had given out were untrue. Gibson rose from his seat next to Carragher and bent over the latter

Jewelry And Money Stolen At Hospital

About $200 Worth Vanishes At Local County Institution

About $200 worth of jewelry and cash was stolen Tuesday afternoon from the Nurses' Home at the Essex County Hospital for Contagious Diseases at Belleville and Franklin avenues. No clues have been obtained.

One nurse missed a diamond ring and watch shortly after noon and other articles were reported stolen after that time. Work has just started at the hospital for the new $3,000,000 structure, to make the institution the largest of its kind in the country.

Fire Chief Question Given An Airing

Waters Would See Hirdes As Full Fledged Officer.

Ordinances introduced by Commissioner William D. Clark, raising the pay of policemen $100 a year and Firemen $150 were passed on first reading at the Commission meeting Tuesday night.

Commissioner Patrick Waters objected to continuing Fire Chief William T. Hirdes on a part time basis.

"About a year and a half ago," said Waters, "Clark came to me and said that he wanted to bring the police and fire departments up to the standards of other towns. I don't see how the fire department can come up to the standard with a part time chief. The chief works in a factory and when the fire bell rings has to board a trolley car to get to the fire."

Commissioner Gibson suggested that before any change in the department be made, a full fledged fireman be brought in and made fire commissioner or chief to see that the men are properly trained.

Waters said there wouldn't be any change.

"You have a chief," he said, "but in name only. I just want you to increase his salary from $1,600 to $3,200 a year, a living wage. I'm not trying to get charity for Chief Hirdes, I'm only pleading for a man who has spent thirty years on the department and eight years as part time chief."

According to Waters the reason the original proposal was not carried out was because the town elections were near and Chief Hirdes was a Democrat.

Explosion Rocks Silver Lake Section

An explosion early Wednesday morning shattered the front and rear of an unoccupied store and flat above it at 53 Belmont avenue, Silver Lake section of Belleville.

Firemen from Bloomfield and Belleville battled for an hour a blaze that burned out the interior. What caused the fire and explosion has not been determined.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville R. Clinard announce the arrival of a daughter, Phyllis Ruth, born Monday.

"Becky" Gilchrest, Belleville's War Vet, With Government Citation, Revives Man Overcome By Gas In Ditch

This Marks Third Life Local Man Has Saved—One Ocean And One Canal Drowning Prevented By His Work.

Overcome by gas in a ditch in and topped over. Gilchrest, who drives a water truck for the town, waiting for him to arrive, Gilchrest morning Emanuel Caleo, 28, of 98 ran to Caleo and attempted to revive him with artificial respiration. This failed and "Becky" rushed him to the Essex County Hospital for Contagious Diseases which is near the scene of the accident.

A doctor was notified and, while waiting for him to arrive, Gilchrest worked over Caleo. When the doctor appeared he ordered an oxygen tank from the hospital, Gilchrest continuing the respiration remedy.

When the oxygen failed to revive the man, Gilchrest again applied the respiration method. Slowly Caleo was revived. The police were notified and Patrolman John Flynn and Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons rushed Caleo to St. Michael's Hospital. He will recover.

The Public Service Company has obtained Gilchrest's name and address. It is believed some recognition will be taken of his work by the company.

Craftsman's Club Has Stag Outing

Belleville Shows The Way In Ball Game With Nutley

The stag party outing of the Belleville Craftsman's Club and Nutley Masonic Club held at Idlewood Park, Little Falls last Saturday was a great success. Seventy two were present, everyone had a good time, either participating in the various events, rooting, or at the banquet.

The ball game between the Belleville and Nutley boys was a very one-sided affair until the Belleville boys gave half their team to Nutley in the sixth inning when the score stood at 10-1, the game ending with the final score 13-7 in favor of Belleville.

The result was never in question, with Ed Pratt umpiring and Al Page, acting as scorer for both sides. The winners were presented with gold handled engraved pocket knives.

The game was marred by one casualty when C. Picarelli, catching for Nutley, discarded the mask and the next ball inflicted a bad cut over the right eye, necessitating the doctor's care and two stitches. However, he stood the ordeal and was back in time for the banquet.

The other events were a sack race won by Sid Sheard, prize eversharp pencil. Three leg race won by J. L. Ferris and Phil Cooper, award neckties. Fifty yard dash won by Sid Sheard, award Masonic Emblem. Fat man's race won by Ed Hollweg, award shoe shine set.

Tug of war was won by Nutley, award, Masonic emblems. Paul Breen and his committee are to be complimented on having made such a success of the outing. Dave Wells was chef. Fine eats, Dave Ed Pratt deserves thanks for his unselfish decisions in the ball game enabling Belleville to win handsomely and Dave Boyd for his outstanding accomplishment in getting Ed Pratt to eat supper without potatoes.

Kenworthy Cohorts Defeated In Three Committee Contests

Certain sections of Belleville had a keen interest in the primary Tuesday. In particular the defeat of Schofield by Elmer Hyde in the Third Ward, Third District, represented a clash between Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthyites and opposition, the opposition winning.

In the same ward, Second District, Mrs. Emma Wenzel, another Kenworthyite, defeated the vice chairman of the Belleville Republican County Committee, Mrs. Phoebe Bradshaw, who received Kenworthy cohorts' support. Hyde was victorious 114 to 82 and Mrs. Wenzel, 80 to 66.

Walter P. Weiss, secretary of the committee was defeated by George Rawcliffe in the First Ward, Third District, 115 to 48. Other results follow: Peritz Becker beat Joseph Jackson and Ida Levine defeated Anna Engel in the First Ward, Second District; Frank Fuselle and Marie Christiana defeated Martin Christiana and Tessie Roselle in the Fourth Ward, Third District. In the Fifth District of the same ward George Beach defeated Charles Gardella.

The Democratic contest in the First Ward, Third District was won by Otto Streit over Joseph Natale, 31-26. In the Second Ward, Sixth District, John Hudson defeated John J. Oldham, 89 to 76. Charles Lowe in the Third Ward, First District won over Edward McFadden, 55-40. James Constantino defeated Theodore Saults, 75-15, in the Fourth Ward, First District.

Miss Frances Williamson was in charge of the games which were unique and entertaining. The first consisted of pasting together different kinds of heads and bodies and naming the picture. Gladys Reyle's was judged the funniest and Elizabeth Martin's the most grotesque. Then came blowing paper cones along on strings, Balloon tennis or volley ball and a peanut hunt. The girls received points on each game, prizes being awarded to the five highest—Lorraine Ross, Marjorie Davis, Charlotte Schwartz, Catherine McCluskey and Alice Miller being the winners.

A tentative program for next fall was outlined by the Branch President Mrs. George Kelsall, and sounded very interesting. On account of rain the all day hike which was to have taken place on the 8th was postponed until September and changed to a sunset or supper hike.

Thus closed a successful and interesting season.

SUNBEAMS

Sunbeams, the Junior Branch of the International Sunshine Society held its closing picnic at Belleville Park Saturday with about fifty children in attendance. The children left the corner of Overlook avenue and Bell street at about 10:30 and proceeded to the home of Mrs. Alfred Adler on Forest under the supervision of Mrs. Anna Ruff where they joined the hill children and marched to the Park.

Luncheon was served at 12 noon, after which the children enjoyed the swings, chutes and other amusements. Mrs. Ruff, Mrs. Rudolph Luhrs, Mrs. Gregory Rosenblum and Mrs. Harry Mellion were in charge of refreshments. Mrs. Ruff lined the children up for a pie eating contest and this was won by Gladys Lovett and Alfred Adler—followed by the exciting potato race and this was won by Eleanor Eppler and William Duffy. A running race was won by Eleanor Eppler and Arthur Adler. Mrs. Adler was in charge of the potato race and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Littell took charge of the May Pole. As there was no hole in which to set the May Pole Mr. Littell held it, and a more badly tangled up man it is hard to imagine, but with the help of all the "kiddies" he was soon set right amidst shouts of laughter. Mrs. C. E. Armstrong, first vice-president of the N. J. State Board motored over with her sister Mrs. C. E. Lester and her two children and were kept busy snapping pictures of the busy group.

Tired but happy many of the children left for home about 4:30 while others remained under the supervision of Mrs. R. C. Smith of Overlook avenue.

This ends a very successful year for the Juniors with more than 45 members, many bouquets sent to the sick members and help for those who were poor and in trouble. The "kiddies" are looking forward already to their September meeting and planning help for many an unfortunate. They are a delightful little crowd, sunny and bright and much latent talent is being developed. Nothing marred the happy afternoon and with pleasant good byes they separated to meet in the fall.

young ladies of literary aspiration who hope to profit by their summer vacations to the extent of collecting color for novels having a theatrical background. The bookstands have lately been crowded with books about Broadway, many of which have been successful, and this has probably contributed to the number of new faces in the waiting rooms. Most of the footlight-minded are doomed to disappointment for in the ensemble what is seen is much more important than is hidden in the brain cells, but there are several who have managed to measure up to the standards of bathing suit beauty. One of the successful is Evelyn Wetherbee who is in "A Night In Venice," the musical comedy revue at the Shubert Theatre, New York, who has a book of poetry and novel on next spring's lists. Miss Wetherbee believes that three months in a dressing room will provide all the color needed for a back stage novel.

Notwithstanding the popularity of golf, the favorite sport of the comedians in the Broadway shows appears to be boating—probably in the belief that by this means they can go further away from the many who persist in talking to them of the theatre. Some believe in boating and fishing while others just fish. Among the former is Joseph Lertora of "Music in May." Among the latter, Ted Healy of "A Night In Venice."

Jack Pearl, the German-accenting comedian of "Pleasure Bound," has attempted, for years, to obtain parts with other than Teutonic qualities. As he is master of French, Italian, and Russian, in addition to German, he is linguistically prepared to accept any sort of a comedy role but the producers insist that he stick to his created character. They probably feel that there is nothing better than Jack has to offer.

The success of the English plays has brought a goodly number of London actors to Broadway. Now that the Shubert offices have announced that they intend casting two more companies of "Bird in Hand," John Drinkwater's play, Times Square will have a large sized English colony.

Star Cancels Performance To Attend Daughter's Graduation

Miss Ethel Barrymore Omits Matinee Performance of "The Love Duel" June 5th, to Witness Graduation of her Daughter, Ethel Barrymore Colt.

was graduated on that day. The institution is located in Moylan, Rose Valley, Pennsylvania and Miss Barrymore was able to return in time for the evening performance. It is from this school that Miss Barrymore left to go on the stage and from which her mother, Georgie Drew-Barrymore, was graduated.

Lionel Atwill To Open In New Play
Lionel Atwill, one of the leading actors in America, has opened in "Stripped," a new play by Jane Murn, at Atlantic City, June 3. Miss Marfin was co-author with Jane Cowell for the evening performance. It is from this school that Miss Barrymore left to go on the stage and from which her mother, Georgie Drew-Barrymore, was graduated.

Gas for unequalled

hot water service

NEARLY everyone now-a-days attributes his health and fitness to his favorite sport—tennis, golf, riding. Outdoor sports, sunshine and air, are prescribed by physicians for tired and nervous patients, and it is the warm bath at the end that leaves us relaxed and refreshed.

Do you always have plenty of hot water? Do you have it when you need it most—at the end of a busy day, when, fatigued, you need the soothing stimulation that only a warm tub or shower can give?

There is only one sure way to have plenty of hot water all the time. Heat water with gas and relieve yourself of all the worry and work that is involved when you heat water by other means.

A gas automatic water heating system can be purchased for as little as $70.00 installed and there are payment terms as low as $5 down and $5 a month.

$10 for your old water heater if you replace it with a copper automatic system.

OPPORTUNITIES AT ANNAPOLIS AND W. POINT

One Hundred and eighty-two enlisted men of the Navy took and passed the entrance examinations to the Naval Academy this year. Only one hundred of them will become midshipmen because there are only that number of vacancies. The eighty-two who failed to get into the academy will have to wait until another year unless some provision is made for them by Congress.

The Naval Academy examination is very hard. The young man who succeeds in passing it must have a thorough foundation and be an exceptionally good student. Physically the candidate must be in almost perfect condition. A great many young men in civilian life take this examination each year and a large proportion of them fail to pass it.

There was a time when appointments to the Naval Academy and to West Point were given to those who were possessed of political influence, social influence, social position or came from wealthy families. Today most Senators and Representatives to Congress who have appointments to make to these institutions throw them open to competition. These competitive examinations do not carry with them the right to enter the Government academies but enable the candidates to take the entrance tests. Even after winning a competitive examination many candidates fail to measure up to the requirements of the Naval Academy or West Point.

In recent years cadets in the Military Academy and at the Naval Academy are thrown open to the enlisted men of the Army and Navy who are of the right age. A certain number of young men are also admitted to the Military Academy at West Point who have served a year's enlistment in the National Guard. It has been found in both the Navy and the Army that men who receive their appointments to the Government Academies in this way make fine midshipmen or cadets. They have learned something about discipline in the Army or Navy before they take their entrance examinations and this is of great help to them when they become "plebes" or first year men.

The opportunities afforded enlisted men in the Navy, the Army and the National Guard to compete for appointments to the Government academies attract the finest type of young men to the services. The Army, the Navy and the National Guard have many such men. As a rule, when they have succeeded in graduating from either West Point or the Naval Academy at Annapolis they make excellent officers.

OUR FLOATING RESORTS

"You may rest in the unbroken quiet of the residential section . . . or dine and dance in moonlit cafes with no fear of curfew ringing. By day you play golf and tennis . . . swim in beautiful pools . . . shop in boulevard promenades . . . then go to the theatre."

These glowing words are not extracted from an advertisement of a Palm Beach or an Atlantic City hotel, but from a description of what an Atlantic passage is like on one of the big new liners. Some time, perhaps, one of the steamship lines will be original and advertise that passengers can rest and look out at the sea. That might be enticing to some tourists who do not want an ocean trip on a floating summer resort. It would, at any rate, be a novel advertisement.

WHAT'S IT ABOUT

The Commissioners have learned of an ordinance which may be submitted next week, the purport of which is to name a purchasing agent at $350 a year.

If Belleville has reached the point where it needs a full-time purchasing agent it would hardly seem that $350 a year would be sufficient pay for the job. To create such a job, means that a salary fitting the job is also a requisite, or else it is not necessary.

If, as rumored, it may be to create a job for one of the present members of the Board of Assessors, who now gets $250, which job it is also rumored may be abolished, it appears worth considerable thought. It has been said that this is what may happen. If such is the case we agree that Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy made clear his stand and ours, as well, when he said Tuesday "this needs deep and serious thought."

NEWSPAPER AND RADIO ADVERTISING

Roger W. Babson, business statistician and forecaster, recently told a lecture audience at Cleveland that his organization had been using both the newspapers and the radio for advertising and had been making a comparison as the results obtained from both media. He spent the same amount of money with each of these agencies, $3,000. One advertisement published in five newspapers in five different cities brought his organization 222 replies to every one he received through the radio. Each reply to his advertisements over the radio cost his organization $166.66 while each one he received from the newspapers cost him 75 cents each.

This test of the pulling power of radio so far as advertising is concerned compared with the newspapers has probably been made by others although their findings have not been made public. Some advertisers get a thrill out of hearing their names broadcast over the radio. They think because they tune in especially to hear it that an untold number of people do the same thing. They have no idea how many radio listeners "tune out" on programs which do not appeal to them.

Babson told his lecture audience in Cleveland that from one advertisement published in five cities he drew 4,600 replies. The number he got through the radio was 16 letters and two telegrams. To put his "stuff" over Babson employed an expensive orchestra which provided a fine program of music.

We heard a man mourning over the opportunities he had lost and telling with a good deal of gusto of the truth of the saying that Opportunity knocks but once on the door and never returns. Now it just struck us that that particular man wouldn't recognize Opportunity if he saw her sitting on his doorstep. For Opportunity returns again and again stretching out anxious and inviting arms even to those who turn a cold shoulder. If it is easier to sit on the street corner or lean on the back yard fence and discuss the neighbor's shortcomings instead of to follow her it certainly isn't the lady's fault. It always makes us irritated to hear some man or woman, who has taken the path of least resistance, blame poor persistent Opportunity for knocking only once on their door.

Some one has given the definition of joy as a sunbeam between two clouds. There are thousands of gems along the wayside of life still unappreciated. Every passing cloud, however tiny, has its effect on sunshine and shadow. The morning seems all the brighter for the storm of yesterday. There is joyous beauty all around us if we can trace it in familiar things and not neglect to give to the world the best that is in us to give. The bright side is the right side. The lane will turn and the night will end in the day. In the long run, we must remember, the great balance rights itself. There is more virtue in one sunbeam than in a whole hemisphere of clouds and gloom. As Bishop Halls quaintly remarks, "For every bad there might be a worse and when a man breaks his leg he should be thankful that it is not his neck."

Love is like a rose,—beautiful in its existence, but eventually it will fade, while naught but thorns remain.

We wonder at the inconsistency of the British people. Helen Willis caused much criticism by her stockless appearance on the tennis court. Yet those who shouted loudest will go to any number of musical shows where the characters appear in much more abbreviated costumes, not to be free of any encumbrance to their skill, but for the sole purpose of amusing these critics.

Our Poet's Corner

Myron W. Morse, Newark's first Flag custodian, has graciously condescended to write a series of poems for the Belleville and Nutley News. Mr. Morse has always assisted in local affairs as far as possible and for that reason his poems should have a local interest.
Mr. Morse has been writing gospel poems and others for forty years. He has been in the real estate business that length of time and is the dean of Newark real estate men. He has held the Flag custodian position for ten years without salary.

IT COSTS VERY LITTLE
It doesn't cost much to say thank you,
It costs very little to smile,
It takes but a moment of effort,
And surely the effort's worth while.

It costs very little to lift up
Some one fallen down in life's way,
It takes but a thought and an action
To make some one happy today.

Resolve then to always say thank you,
Resolve to smile where'er you be,
Resolve to give aid where 'tis needed,
And your day from care will be free.

Jokes

The discovery of a manuscript of an unpublished story by Joel Chandler Harris ("Uncle Remus") recalls the story about him when he was working on an Atlanta newspaper. One night an old-time reporter looked over at him and said:
"Just how do you spell 'graphic'?"
With one 'f' or two?"
"Well," said Joel, who was too gentle to hurt even a common adjective. "If you are going to use any, Bill, I guess you might as well go the limit."

"Pa, you offered me $5.00 if I passed in school."
"Yes, son."
"Well, you ain't a gonna have that expense."

It is reported that Mr. Icken, our highly respected local citizen, was once tried for manslaughter. These are the details, we cannot, however, vouch for their accuracy.
While Mr. Icken was abroad he arranged a visit to Scotland. There he decided to play the part of the benefactor of sports and offered a five dollar prize for a diving contest. There were five entrants, all native Scotchmen. The prize was to go to the one who remained under water longest. All five Scotchmen were drowned.

The worried countenance of the bridegroom disturbed the best man. Tiptoeing up the aisle, he whispered, "What's the matter, Jock? Hae ye lost the ring?" "No," blurted out the unhappy Jock, "the ring's safe eno'. But, mon, I've last ma enthusiasm."

A western farmer was astonished to receive the following letter from his son in college: "Dear Father: I am in a deuce of a hole. Kindly send me $100, and oblige. Your loving son, Pat."
"P. S.—After writing this letter I was so stricken with remorse that I ran after the postman and tried to get it back. I can only pray that it will not reach you."
But who could be more astonished than the son to receive this reply: "Dear Son: Your prayers are answered. The letter did not reach me. Dad."

Did You Ever Stop To Think

By EDSON R. WAITE

W. B. Foshay, President of the W. B. Foshay Company, operators of businesses throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico and Central America, says:

The question of what constitutes success seems to be the thing that is uppermost in most people's minds, and when they ask an official of a successful company about his formula for success they are generally disappointed in that it is simple instead of some complicated formula. There are three outstanding requirements in a man if he is going to be successful: First, he must be loyal to his employer, his employer's customers and himself, at all times and above all things. Second, he must believe that whatever is to be done is possible. The motto of our organization is "It Can Be Done." Third, he must work and love his work. If a man gets pleasure out of his work, if it appears to him in the same light as the golf game, the tennis game, of the card game, does it well played, then he will, if he is loyal and optimistic, be sure to be a success.

Some people think that an optimist is a man who tries to do the impossible, but my opinion of an optimist is a man who is able to foresee the trend of future events sufficiently to so pursue his course in business that he may accomplish what is best for his business and make a success of it. No man without vision ever accomplished anything and vision is to a certain extent optimism.

The employee who when asked to do something, cheerfully says with a smile on his face, "I will do it" is the one who succeeds and he is the one who makes his organization happy by not only saying he will do it, but going out and doing it because that is the type of man who does what he will do and believes always that "It Can Be Done." It isn't a hard program, this road to success, for a man who really wants it, but most men don't want to pay the price—that of sincere loyalty, common sense, optimism and real honest hard work. If you practise these three attributes honestly, sincerely and happily day in and day out, there is no question as to the result that will be accomplished.

Twelve years of applying these principles to the business of our company has proved to every one of our employees from the office boy to the president what can be done if one wants to do it and that it can be done happily and that all of those doing it can enjoy it. There must be no selfishness in such a program, the mutual interest of all concerned must be considered, and that really comes under loyalty; it is the first and greatest attribute of a successful employee, business man or government official.

It May Be Conscience
Possibly the most cowardly people in the Nation are the lovers of spinach who won't defend it against its enemies.—Toledo Blade.

Police Forced to Control Traffic At Ethel Barrymore Theatre

A sight which New York has not seen in many a day is the action of the crowd outside of the Ethel Barrymore Theatre, New York City, where the star after whom the theatre is named is appearing in "The Love Duel." To the many who believe that interest in the theatre is dying, a visit to the theatre on any of the matinee days would be enlightening. Ever since the theatre opened considerable numbers have gathered to wait for the star to make her exit from the building but with the arrival of mild weather the numbers have so increased that it has been necessary to station several policemen at the theatre to take care of traffic.

Ted Healy Buys Yacht To Hold "A Night In Venice" Company

Ted Healy, veteran yachtsman as well as comedian in "A Night in Venice," at the Shubert Theatre, New York City, has sold his present boat and is buying another which will have a carrying capacity of over one hundred on which he hopes to be able to entertain the major portion of the members of "A Night in Venice." Ted's adventures as a yachtsman have broken into print more than once. Not so many years ago, when he was playing in a Broadway show, he was carried out to sea on a Sunday afternoon by a violent gale and he and several of his co-actors were compelled to miss the Monday evening performance.

How to Play BRIDGE Series 1928-29 by Wynne Ferguson Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

ARTICLE No. 24

There is one way to use the information double to great advantage that is overlooked by many players. Suppose the dealer has three good suits, but no cards or a singleton in the fourth suit. Such a hand is not a justifiable no trumper, for clever opponents with a set-up suit will pass and win enough tricks in the dealer's missing suit to save game. With this type of hand, it is much better tactics to bid a suit and then, if overbid by an opponent, to double informatorily. Such a double, after an original suit bid and a pass by partner, is an informatory double and requests partner to bid that one of the other two suits which best fits his hand. If he has no other four-card suit, he should bid two in the suit first bid by the dealer. For example:

Hearts—K, 9, 6, 3 Clubs—K, 10, 4, 3 Diamonds—10, 6, 3 Spades—Q, 9

Hearts—4, 2 Clubs—A, Q, J, 9, 7, 5 Diamonds—Q Spades—K, 10, 4, 2

Hearts—A, J, 10, 7 Clubs—none Diamonds—A, K, J, 4 Spades—A, 8, 7, 5, 3

No score, rubber game. Z dealt and bid one spade. A bid two clubs and Y and B passed. Z had the type of hand just discussed; so he doubled the two club bid. This double was informatory and was asking Y to bid two hearts or two diamonds, whichever of the two suits was the longer and stronger in his hand. A passed. Y figured that his heart suit was too weak to offer a chance for game, but felt that his two club tricks would enable him and his partner to defeat the two club bid. Y, therefore, disregarded Z's express request to bid his long suit and passed. Y played at two clubs doubled Y Z defeated the bid by one trick, while at hearts they would have scored an easy game and rubber. In this hand, if Y wanted to depart from Z's request to bid his long suit, he could have done so to better advantage by bidding two no trump, instead of trying to defeat the two club bid. There was a game and a rubber for Y Z either at hearts or at no trump, but they failed to grasp their opportunity and on the next deal A B won the game and rubber.

Be on the lookout for such opportunities, and if your partner makes an informatory double, do as he requests and not as you think. He knows his hand much better than you do and is, therefore, in a much better position to direct the plan of play. Here is a hand where the declarer made a little slam. Try your skill and compare results with the analysis that will be given in the next article.

Problem No. 28 Hearts—Q, J, 4 Clubs—A, K, 9, 8, 6, 4 Diamonds—K Spades—A, 4, 2

Hearts—K, 8, 7, 6 Clubs—Q, J, 5, 4, 2 Diamonds—8, 4, 2 Spades—J, 6, 3

Hearts—A, 10, 5, 3 Clubs—10 Diamonds—A, J, 7, 6, 3 Spades—K, 8, 7

No score, rubber game. Z dealt and bid one diamond. A passed, Y bid two clubs, B passed and Z bid two no trumps. All passed and A opened the six of hearts. How should Z now play the hand so that he can score a little slam against any defense? It is a fine example of the double squeeze. Try to figure it out. Here's what happens to the Contract player when he makes a bid for game. You have to make some clever plays now and then or lose your bid.

Problem No. 29 Hearts—7 Clubs—A, 8, 5 Diamonds—A, Q, 10, 8, 5, 2 Spades—10, 8, 5

Hearts—K, Q, 4, 2 Clubs—Q, 10, 9, 4, 3 Diamonds—7, 5 Spades—4, 2

Hearts—8, 5, 3 Clubs—K, J, 7 Diamonds—6, 4 Spades—A, Q, 9, 6, 3

No score, first game at Contract. Z dealt, bid one spade and A passed. Y bid two diamonds, B bid two hearts and Z passed. A bid three hearts, Y bid three spades and B bid four hearts. Z bid four spades, A and Y passed and B doubled. All passed and A opened the king of hearts which held the trick. He then led the seven of diamonds. Y played the queen and B won the trick with the king. B then led the six of clubs. How should Z plan the play from this point on? Solution in the next article.

Answer to Problem No. 27 Hearts—K, 8 Clubs—4, 2 Diamonds—K, 8, 7 Spades—A, Q

Hearts—10, 7 Clubs—J, 10, 9 Diamonds—9, 5, 3 Spades—8

Hearts—none Clubs—K, Q, 8, 7 Diamonds—6, 5, 4, 2

There are no trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y Z so play the hand that they can win eight of the nine tricks against any defense? Z should lead the suit of diamonds, winning the trick in Y's hand with the king. Y should now lead the king of hearts and Z should discard the deuce of spades. Y should now lead the seven of diamonds which B must win with the jack and on which Z should discard the four of spades. B is now forced to lead the trey of spades which Y wins with the queen. Y should now lead the ace of spades and A is forced to discard. He cannot discard a club or Z's four clubs will win the rest of the tricks. A is forced, there-

LUTHERANS MEET SOON AT CHICAGO

More than a thousand delegates, representing 1,100,000 members of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and Other States, will sit in session at Concordia Teachers' Seminary, River Forest, Ill., from June 19 to 29. Reports on the work for the past three years will be rendered and plans made for the coming triennial. Important decisions regarding educational matters and mission projects must be reached. Milern and western cities is carried on together with the affiliated Wisconsin, Norwegian and Slovak Synods. Sixty-five organized congregations and thirteen preaching places are maintained. The report on the latest among Missouri Synod missions, the Mission to the Blind, will be heard with great interest. A new sphere of activity was recently opened through the printing of Luther's Catechism and the monthly publication of The Lutheran Messenger for the Blind in Braille. The appropriation of funds for these diverse projects, the possibilities of expansion and particularly the opening of missions in Africa, are subjects that will engage much of the time of the delegates.

Education Stressed
Sessions will be held in Concordia Teachers' Seminary at River Forest, Ill. This institution, together with the normal school at Seward, Neb., trains teachers, chiefly men, whose life will be devoted to teaching in the parish schools conducted by congregations affiliated with the Missouri Synod. Of these there are 1,370 with 81,457 pupils enrolled. These schools, in addition to giving all the subjects demanded by state laws, daily devote time to religious instruction. They are maintained by the voluntary contributions of the members of congregations conducting them. The Missouri Synod is thoroughly convinced that for proper Christian training of children a religious atmosphere in the schools and week-day instruction in religion are necessary.

A group of ten colleges and junior colleges in the United States and one junior college in Edmonton, Canada, is under synodical control and supported by the Synod. Theological seminaries in St. Louis, Mo., Springfield, Ill., and Porto Alegre, Brazil, top the list of educational institutions. Appropriations for additional buildings at many of these schools will be sought.

and the revelation of God in the Bible. It accepts the Bible as God's inspired Word. It teaches that Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, is the one hope of sinful man. It believes that sin has corrupted human nature and that only the power of God can effect the change which will make of man a child of God and thus a real brother to his fellowmen. It relies upon the Word of God and the Sacraments to bring about this conversion and consequent change in life.

Standing firmly upon this platform, the Missouri Synod conceives its only purpose to be the preaching of the Gospel. It is strongly opposed to the intrusion of the Church into the sphere of politics. It maintains no lobby in Washington. It advocates neither prohibition nor saloons. No resolutions will be passed in Chicago, urging the United States to join the League of Nations or to get out of Nicaragua. No committee will report on the soft coal situation or industrial activity in the South. Individual members may feel very strongly on some of these points. They will not make their Church a vehicle for driving those convictions somewhere. The efficient conduct and expansion of missionary undertakings and the strengthening of the synodical educational system will be the chief topics for discussion. The Missouri Synod is convinced that the best service it can render the nation is the awakening and deepening of Christian faith, consciousness and life in the individuals with whom it comes in contact.

A World-Wide, Polyglot Organization
The most important mission reports will be rendered by the Boards for Home Missions in North America and for Church Extension. Their sphere of activity extends from Alaska to Mexico and Cuba. Through the Board for Foreign Language Missions work is being done among Persian, Lithuanian, Polish, Lettish, Slovak, Italian, Spanish and Mexican immigrants to this country. Nineteen missionaries, working under the direction of the Board for Deaf-Mute Missions, are serving 134 places. An immigrant missionary in New York City and another one in Winnipeg, Canada, meet strangers arriving in the United States and Canada. The Board for European Missions subsidizes congregations in Germany, France, Finland and Estonia. The need for extending the work among the North American Indians will be presented by a Lutheran leader among his people, Mr. Sam Miller, known as the last sachem of the Mohicans. The Board for South American Missions assists two growing synods in Brazil and Argentina, where natives and German immigrants are served. Quadracentennial Celebration of the Catechism

The four hundredth anniversary of the publication of Martin Luther's Catechism is celebrated by Lutherans this year. For four centuries this modest booklet has served the Lutheran Church both as text-book for the instruction of children and adults and as a platform for the concise statement of the fundamentals of Lutheranism. It has been translated into more languages than any other book save the Bible. It was the first book rendered into the language of a North American Indian tribe. In order to commemorate this unique anniversary in a fitting manner a monster celebration is planned for Soldiers' Field, Sunday, June 23. The program includes a parade of fifteen floats, depicting Biblical teachings and the work of the Lutheran Church, a flag drill by 6,000 pupils of Lutheran parishes, anthems by a choir of 3,000 voices, appropriate addresses, and as a climax the confession of the Apostolic Creed by the entire audience, very likely numbering at least 100,000.

Behind the Scenes

And The World Is A Small Place After All.

Frank Petley, who plays the fastidious lawyer Goldolphin K. C. in "Bird in Hand" and contributes much to the hilarity at the Morosco Theatre, New York, must be forgiven for repeating a trite saying about the smallness of the universe. He and Ivor Barnard, the sardine salesman in the same production, decided to see New York on a sight seeing bus. They passed the usual route as far north as Grant's Tomb and then down into Chinatown. There with the rest of the tourists they visited a joss house, had a cursory glance at what was reputed to be a Chinese theatre and then giped chop suey in a garish restaurant. As Barnard and Petley were about to reenter the charabanc (that's the English word he used in telling the tale) a soft stepping young Chinaman tapped Petley on the shoulder. Petley whispered in embarrassment, "I hope you paid the check, Barney?" Barnard assured him they hadn't jumped the bill and Petley turned to his accoster. "Don't you remember me?" queried the stranger. All Chinamen look alike to Caucasians, so in his best London manner, the English acor apologized that he did not. "Are you not Mr. Frank Petley who played Lo San Ki in 'East is West' in 1920 at the Lyric Theatre, London?" Petley admitted this was true. "Well I am the young man who taught you to speak your Chinese words—I was but a humble super. Perhaps you need to learn more Chinese? All Petley could answer in amazement at this memory feat was "isn't the world a small place, after all?"

Actor Becomes Marquis
Paco Moreno, who plays in "Pleasure Bound," at the Majestic Theatre, was advised by cable recently of the death of his father in Barcelona, Spain, at the age of seventy-one. As Mr. Moreno is the eldest son he inherits the title becoming Marquis de Valde Hayos Vizconde de Naveron. The new Marquis' wife and daughter are also appearing in "Pleasure Bound."

Hoyer To Stage University Show
Roy Hoyer, leading man in "Pleasure Bound," at the Majestic Theatre, New York, has been engaged to stage the annual show given by the students of the University of Michigan. The first performance will take place in New York at the Metropolitan Opera House in June. Due to the fact that Mr. Hoyer will be occupied with the revue in which he is appearing, the entire cast will be sent here from Ann Arbor, and the show will be rehearsed in this city. Hoyer has directed six annual shows for the university, of which he is a graduate.

Agatha Phillips Gets Big Opportunity
Agatha Phillips, ensemble lady in "Pleasure Bound," at the Majestic Theatre, New York City, has just been offered the biggest opportunity of her life. Wednesday night a motion picture director saw the revue. After the performance he went backstage to see Miss Phillips, and offered her a big part in a forthcoming picture. She leaves the show Friday night, departing for Hollywood Monday afternoon.

Nutley Beats Newark In League Tilt

Nutley A. C. Saturday in the Suburban Loop opened its season on home grounds by eking out a 1-0 victory over St. Benedict's C. C. representing Newark in the League. The game featured by the pitching of Sheppard, Nutley moundsman, and Kaiser, the visitors' twirler. Together they issued but two passes and allowed one run and nine hits. Quite a record for any two pitchers.

Sunday the Nutley A. C. traveled to Jersey City and played a fourteen inning 5 to 5 tie before darkness interfered. Cy Burke collected four hits in five trips to the plate.

Panthers Defeat Royal Bears For Seventh Win

Sunday afternoon, the Belleville Panthers travelled to Weequahic Park and administered a 16-4 drubbing to the Royal Bears of Newark.

Schenck, twirling for the Panthers, let down the Newark team with three hits, which included a triple by Wyniski with three runs. This was the only effective blow off his delivery.

The Panthers easily cinched the game in the fourth frame with a seven run barrage, after having tallied five times in the second. In this frame the whole side batted around, seven consecutive safe wallops driving the Royal Bear pitcher to cover.

Bill Murphy and McCarthy played the stellar roles for the Panthers, each accounting for three safe drives including a triple and a double apiece McCarthy who has been consistently effective with the stick for the Panthers now leads the club batting with an average well over .700. Byrnes also played well for the Panthers.

Wyniski and R. Webster led the Royal Bears' attack as well as fielding to perfection.

St. Anthonys Defeat Bell-Nuts, 9-5, in Legion League Tilt

The St. Anthonys advanced into a tie for second place in the American Legion League with a 9-5 victory over the Bell-Nuts, Thursday.

Snell, St. Anthonys' star twirler, was in brilliant form allowing but seven hits and striking out ten of the Bell-Nuts batters. With the exception of the third frame, when the Bell-Nuts tied the score with a four run outburst, Snell was never in danger.

Baney and Baykowski, who divided the twirling burden for the losers, were ineffective against the hard-hitting "Saints," who amassed thirteen hits from their combined offerings.

De Ricco, Baron, Paschal, Juliano and M. Carchio each got two safe wallops to lead the "Saints' heavy offensive, while Jacobson with a pair of bingles hit best for the Bell-Nuts.

Each team played errorless ball, with "Artie" Lamb and Sentner featuring the Bell-Nuts' defense and De Ricco and Paschal fielding best for the winners.

Paterson P. S. Overwhelms Local 9

In a wild swatfest the Paterson Public Service nine, champs of the Passaic County Twilight League, spoiled the Belleville American Legion nine's debut with a decisive 16-6 victory at Clearman Field, Saturday afternoon.

Kromka, Paterson's star port-sider was on the hill for the winners, but he was nicked for twelve hits, including two homers and four doubles, by the Belleville sluggers. The hefty clouting of his team-mates, who amassed a total of twenty-one hits, including six for extra bases, was easily sufficient to assure him of the victory, however, and he finished under wraps.

Curran and Lawler were hit hard and often in their short stays on the mound for the localites, but Juliano, who relieved Lawler in the fifth, held the slugging Patersonites in check for the remainder of the game. A home run by McQuillan in the eighth was the only damaging blow off his delivery, while he proceeded to strike out five of the visiting swatsmiths.

The hard-hitting Patersonites scored at least one run in every inning except the seventh and reached their high-water mark with a five run barrage in the third frame.

The Bellevillites scored their initial marker in the first on doubles by Lawler and Dunleavy. A crashing home run drive over the center field fence by Juliano with one on gave the Bell-boys two more in the third. Another four-ply blow to deep right center, this time by Dunleavy with one man on base, accounted for a pair of tallies in the fifth. Lew Gentello's second successive double, followed by a single by Gelschen gave the localites their final marker in the eighth.

Jim Dunleavy, who garnered a homer and a double, featured the Legion attack. Joe Curran, who collected three successive singles, and Lew Gentello, with a pair of doubles over the fence in his only two appearances at the plate, also were outstanding on the offense for the Bellevillites. Juliano, who hurled a great game in his stay on the mound, starred with a long home run, besides crossing the platter twice.

Gallagher and Stagg, each of whom collected four bingles, shone for the Public Service boys, who gave the best singing exhibition in collecting their twenty-one hits seen hereabouts in a long while. Dorman and McQuillan also featured with three solid wallops.

The fielding of the Patersonites, led by McQuillan, Dorman and Christacher, was also of big league caliber and their exhibition as a whole left a highly favorable impression upon the many fans present.

The local Legion nine, with the absence of several star members of their cast, put up a creditable showing against their highly efficient opponents and with a few more games under their belts, should go along in fine style.

LOUIS PEREZ TO COME BACK IN FIGHT AT GRAND VIEW PARK

Louis Perez, Belleville's boxer, is scheduled to fight Thursday at Grand View Park, his opponent to be announced later.

Louis has been out of the ring seven months due to pneumonia. His last scrap was in the Ridgewood Club, Brooklyn, where he flattened "Kid" Roberts.

Of late Louis has topped the featherweight limit, now scaling at 136½ pounds. He is now classed as a lightweight.

Louis' fight Thursday will be over the eight-round schedule. Since coming to this country he has mixed in twenty-seven bouts, losing only three. His total fastkick record is sixty-nine fights with eleven losses.

Belleville Separates Hang Up No. 10

Belleville Separates scored their tenth victory Sunday afternoon over the Vailsburg Collegiates 14-4 at Boylan Oval. Jim Mallack, a local boy who has seen service in the Minor Leagues, toed the rubber for the Belleville nine and had his opponents baffled at all stages of the game fanning eight batters and letting them down with nine scattered hits.

Mallack, Parcell, Mills and England led the attack for the winners, each getting a brace of bingles, one of England's blows being a circuit clout with the sacks loaded.

The Separates who have yet to taste defeat on their grounds will return to their field to encounter the strong Lackawanna P. C. on Saturday afternoon. Sunday afternoon they will go to Nisuaue Field to battle the McConnell A. C. nine, one of the best semi-pro teams in the state. The batteries will be picked from J. Mallack, "Peps" George, and Joe Curran. Gus Mills will don the mask.

Local Banks Lose To Town Hall

A combined baseball team consisting of players from both the First National and People's National Banks lost a hotly contested game to the Town Hall baseball team, recently.

The game was nip and tuck all the way. The Mayor's men started clouting in the first inning and scored four runs before they could be stopped. The bankers came back with three tallies. The second inning saw both teams score three more credits. In the third, the Town Hall boys went wild, scored four runs and held their opponents to one.

With the score 11-7, both teams played first rate ball, neither teams scoring for three consecutive innings. The bank team went into the last half of the seventh determined to win. Five one baggers resulted in a tie score 11-11.

In the extra inning, Ward hit but was put out on his way to second. O'Connor hit, landed safely on first and stole to second. Then our Mayor showed the boys how to play ball. For the fourth time during the game, he hit, driving the winning run across the home plate. Dunn struck out two more of the bank ball players and Howley was caught trying to stretch a single into a double.

Mayor Kenworthy leads the batting list with four singles out of five chances. Four of his team mates got three apiece, as did Wagner of Peoples and Karosen of the First. King and Dunn pitched good ball as did Dingle of the bank team. Had there been fewer errors on the part of Dingle's teammates, he would have pulled through with a victory.

Parks Nose Out Bachelor Club, 6-5

The Parks scored their first league victory with a close 6-5 win over the Bachelors at Clearman Field Tuesday.

A three run rally in the sixth and last frame by the Parks to overcome a 4-3 margin held by the Bachelors featured the tilt. Four passes and singles by Zakuteny and C. Mays and featured this rally.

A last minute effort on the part of the Bachelors to salvage the game in the sixth fell a single tally short of tying the count. An error, a pass and an infield out accounted for the score.

One run outbursts by each club in the first and second innings comprised the early scoring. In the third the Parks, however, forged into the lead with a third tally on successive singles by Zakuteny and C. Mays and Cavallo's infield out.

In the fourth the Bachelors proceeded to knot the count on a pass, a Park error, a stolen base and an infield out.

Another run in the fifth, resulting from an error and successive singles by Parcell and Fitzpatrick sent the Bachelors into a short lived lead. C. Mays with three hits including a double, led the Park attack, closely followed by Zakuteny, who garnered two safe wallops.

Parcell shone on the attack for the Bachelors with a double and a single besides fielding capably. Fitzpatrick starred in the field for the Bachelors beside getting one of the four safe hits gathered by the losers.

Carragher Causes Lively Battle
Concrete and asphalt cost much more but are considered more lasting and less expensive in upkeep.

The board agreed to lease 3,000,000 gallons of its 11,000,000 gallons in the Passaic Valley sewer to Lodi at a total of $22,500 for three years. Belleville, at present, is using only 1,500,000 gallons and allowing for double this in three years will still have a surplus, it was pointed out.

Anthony Micone, proprietor of the Micone Hardware Company, Washington avenue, appeared before the board, demanding that the ordinance which closes hardware, housefurnishing and paint stores on Sunday be enforced to cover all such stores or rescinded. Micone is one of fourteen storekeepers closed. He said other dealers in hardware and house furnishings are permitted to remain open.

"Why this discrimination?" he asked. "You'll have to see the chief of police," replied Commissioner William D. Clark, adding, "I have placed the matter in his hands. It is up to him to enforce the ordinance."

"I have seen him and he says he will only close those on the list you gave him. As his superior I come to see that he carries out the meaning of the ordinance."

Bridge Party

Miss Mae Livingston, daughter of Mrs. Mary Livingston of 124 Rutgers street, gave a bridge at her home Tuesday night in honor of Miss Mae Crowley of Hornblower avenue, who will be married Wednesday evening to Theodore R. Cherry. Miss Crowley was honored Saturday night at a surprise luncheon and shower given by Miss Marguerite Crane of Brooklyn at Alice Foote McDougall's, New York. The color scheme, in pink, green and ochre, was observed in floral decorations, table linens and candies.

A bridge, with four tables in play, followed the luncheon. Belleville guests included, besides Miss Allcroft, Mrs. Wilhelmina Allcroft, Mrs. Theodore H. Clarke and Mrs. A. Stanley Miller. Others were from Brooklyn, Westfield, New York and New Brunswick.
