

WILLIAMS CHARGES POLITICAL TINKERING

MAKES BITTER TIRADE AGAINST MEDDLING; TELLS OF 1284 TAX BILLS "LOST" IN THE TOWN HALL

Will Immediately Dismiss Subordinates Who Do Not Do Their Utmost

ORATORY FLOWS FREE AS ALL COMMISSIONERS JOIN BATTLE

Declaring that political tinkering during the last administration was responsible for the "deplorable condition" in the Department of Revenue and Finance and that "the entire Board and the Tax Collector" were guilty of being derelict in their duties, Commissioner William H. Williams Tuesday night waged an aggressive battle against "un-businesslike methods" that allowed 1284 tax bills to be "lost" in the Town Hall during the past four years.

With oratory that flowed like molasses in the sun, Commissioner Williams denounced the "lax methods" in the Department of Revenue and Finance. He stated that since 1927 tax bills totaling $87,746.92 and made out to owners of 1284 parcels of property, had not been sent out by the collector when it was "clearly his duty to do so, according to article 6, chapter 236."

The law, as read by Commissioner Williams, stated that it was mandatory for the collector to file with the town governing body on the first of each month, a report of the money collected the previous month.

Everybody Accused

"As far as I have been able to determine, this has never been done and I find the entire board and the tax collector (Roy W. Brooks) derelict in their duty," the Commissioner declared. "The condition has been remedied," he assured the Board, "and the tax collector has been instructed to file this report as required by law."

Williams' bitter tirade sprang from an event of last week when the Commissioners, in his absence,

BELLEVILLE PLAYGROUND TEAM WINS TWO EVENTS ON ANNUAL FIELD DAY

Approximately 1,000 children participated in the annual field day held under the auspices of the Essex County Park Commission, Tuesday. The event this year was held at Belleville Park and children from Belleville, Nutley, Orange and Branch Brook playgrounds took part.

The following events were held: relay races, volley ball, dodge ball, kite flying contest, quoits, and drills. Belleville emerged triumphant in dodge ball and the relay race. The local youngsters won in the sterling time of one minute and fifty seconds in the dodge ball contest.

Besides the large number of participants there was also an overflowing crowd of spectators present. Every year the field day is held at a different park with so many parks in each district represented.

WORKING LATE INTO NIGHT TO FINISH ROOF BEFORE RETURN OF REV. PASCALE

According to report received from one of the volunteer workers at the new gymnasium adjoining Friendly Playground in Silver Lake, the building is rapidly nearing completion. The young men are working by electric light until 10 or 11 o'clock every evening and will be on the job all day Monday, sacrificing their holiday in an effort to finish the roof before the return of Rev. Benedetto Pascale, pastor of First Italian Baptist Church. Rev. Pascale has been on vacation at Monterey, Mass. where he joined Mrs. Pascale a week ago. They expect to return after Labor Day.

SCHOOL BOARD ARRANGES FOR SILVER LAKE HIGH SCHOOL EXPRESS BUSES

Arrangements have now been completed between the Belleville Board of Education and the Public Service Coordinated Transport for the transportation of pupils to the High School.

The Public Service busses will leave No. 4 School in Silver Lake at 8:30 every morning. Two of them will travel direct to the High School and two others will proceed by way of Soho, stopping at Harrison and Mill streets, at Stevens road and Belleville avenue and at Lavergne street and Belleville avenue.

At the close of school the busses will leave the High School at 3:20 to carry pupils to their home sections, in reverse of the morning route.

SECOND LEAGUE BANQUET

The second annual banquet of the Belleville American Legion baseball leagues will be held at the Elks Home Saturday evening, September 27. Prizes will be awarded to both senior and junior leagues. There will also be many prominent guests and a limited number of outsiders present. Tickets will be distributed shortly.

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE

The Belleville delegation traveled to Summit to watch Vince go through his workouts in preparation for his bout last night at Dreamland Park with Abie Rain, whom he has already fought twice before. They were impressed with the Fairway avenue boy's form and the additional power behind his punches. They predicted a decisive victory over Bain.

TOWN EMPLOYEE SERVING 60 DAYS

Martin Flanagan, Road Foreman Found Guilty Of Impersonating An Officer

DISMISSAL IS NOW UNLIKELY

Martin Flanagan, fifty-two, of 217 Greylock parkway, an employee of the town since the reign of "Doc" Waters and foreman of the road department for the past five years, is in jail at Monticello, N. Y. serving a sixty-day sentence after having been found guilty of impersonating an officer to exact money from motorists for traffic violations. He was sentenced last Friday after having started out on his two weeks' vacation.

In Belleville, Flanagan's escape is said to be due to intoxication. His fellow employees in the town hall say that he is not "the kind" to impersonate an officer while sober and they excuse his act by telling of his weakness to "many people think he is someone of importance."

Was Wealthy

By these same fellow employees, Flanagan is said to have "plenty of money" and they testify to the fact that he often carries in his pocket money amounting to $300. They say he had a weakness for the badge he was given to show his authority as a road foreman and hold to the belief that it was Authorities said Monday that Sausolini broke up furniture and bit Mrs. De Stefano on the little finger of her left hand, besides grappling with and bruising her husband, when he refused payment of the claim.

ANTHONY PASCAL, DRIVER, RECEIVES SPINAL INJURY

Miraculously escaping serious or fatal injuries when their car turned over three times, and came to a stop in a demolished condition, five Belleville residents were recovering this week from injuries suffered in a collision at High and Spruce streets, Newark, on Sunday, when they collided with another machine driven by a Brooklyn motorist.

Those hurt were Jerry Bonavita, of 96 Heckel street, arm lacerated, local High School athlete; his sisters Minnie and Mildred, the former suffering an injury to the left leg, and the latter to the left shoulder; their brother, Nicholas, whose head and side were bruised and cut and Anthony Pascal of 125 Prospect street, driver of the car, whose spine was hurt. Pascal was a former director of recreation at the Silver Lake playground.

The accident took place when Robert Appel, the Brooklyn driver, struck the Belleville machine while trying to avoid crashing with a third car.

Jerry Bonavita was a former Silver Lake correspondent of THE TIMES and is well known for athletic ability, having been varsity pitcher on the High School baseball team and star end on last year's football team.

Freezing Not Fatal

Fish and many insects can be frozen without destroying life. Caterpillars, according to entomologists, regularly live after being frozen during the winter. One investigator froze the grubs of the species known as daddy-long-legs until they would readily break, and those not broken survived. Fish have been frozen in solid ice without killing them.

Breaks Plate Glass Window To Get Three Antique Guns

A thief who evidently knew just what he wanted was successful Saturday night at 11:30 when he broke the display window of an antique store at 141 Belleville avenue, operated by Harry Young, and made off with three firearm relics. Other articles in the window were untouched. The loot consisted of a Colt cap and ball revolver valued at $25, a silver mounted flint lock pistol, $13.50 and a Remington revolver, $13.50. Patrick Gelshen of 136 Belleville avenue, said he heard the falling glass and looked out in time to see a roadster driving away from near the antique shop. It disappeared rapidly, he was unable to get the license number. Police made a search of the neighborhood but found no trace of the thief.

Insects Farmer's Friends

Some insects catch other insects in snares, like the spider web, or pits of ingenious construction, like the ant lion's trap. These predatory insects, as they are called, account for a great many victims. But the great majority of insect eating insects, when young, live within the bodies of their victims and eat their way out, or with their eggs. These are the parasites; they are the farmer's real friends.

Directions For Returning To School

Expect Bigger Enrollment But Schools Are Prepared

Grammar School Graduates To Go Direct To High School For Registration

OTHERS TO OLD CLASSROOMS

According to the calendar adopted by the Board of Education, Belleville Public Schools will open on Wednesday, September 3.

It is anticipated that there will be a large increase in the enrollment as the schools gained 418 pupils last year. Ample provision has been made, however, so that it is believed there will be accommodation for all.

Pupils will report to the school in the district in which they reside with certain exceptions, and to the same class room they occupied last year. Pupils who enter these schools by transfer from other systems should bring their report card from previous schools with them when they enter.

Pupils who have never attended any school before should have a birth certificate with them. The entrance ages for such pupils are, by New Jersey law, four years for kindergarten and five years for first grade.

The exceptions to reporting as last year are as follows: those who have finished the eighth grade in their several grammar schools should report directly to the High School; pupils who have finished the sixth grade at School No. 2 should report either to School No. 4 or School No. 10, according to their place of residence, the former canal bed being the dividing line; pupils who have completed the seventh grade at School No. 9 should attend School No. 1; pupils who have finished the seventh grade at School No. 10 should re-

WARNER BROTHERS PRESENT BUILDING TO VETERANS' POST

Following negotiations for the purchase of the three story building at Moore and Salem streets, Hackensack, Warner Bros. Pictures Corp., owners of the Capitol Theatre in Belleville, announced yesterday that the structure will be presented as a gift to the Van Wetering Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The post has been hunting an adequate home for its members and activities for some time and two weeks ago Richard C. Happe, chairman of the building committee asked Warner Bros. to set a price on the structure which the post planned to remove to another location at River and Salem streets.

The matter was referred to D. E. Weshner, general manager of the Warner Theatre Circuit of New Jersey and when he learned that the building was wanted by an organization of veterans he arranged that it be presented to the ex-soldiers without cost.

CHANGE COLLECTION HOURS FOR MAIL IN BELLEVILLE

A new schedule of Sunday mail collection at Belleville boxes was put in effect last Sunday whereby the hour of collection is advanced from 6 o'clock to 4 o'clock. This means the trucks leave Newark at that hour and return three hours later, although the actual time required to make the rounds is only forty-five minutes.

At the local postoffice, cards from Washington, containing a new schedule for both daily and Sunday collections, were being awaited and are not expected for about three weeks. All old cards announcing collection time have been removed. The hours of daily collection were recently advanced and Postmaster Bock of Newark is preparing a schedule which is expected to be permanent.

FIRE TRUCK IS CALLED TO PREVENT 'FLY' MENACE

Cherry juice—two barrels of it—stained the pavement a bright crimson at Cortlandt and Schuyler streets last Thursday, when a truck driven by William H. Doranoy of 518 Pine street, lurched or bounced, causing the barrels to fall off while passing that intersection.

The fire department was called upon to send a hose cart to wash the juice down the sewers, to prevent it from forming a slippery menace to passing traffic, in addition to drawing flies. The product was being transported for the Pas-saic Transportation Company of 57 Freeman street, Newark.

HECKEL STREET RAID ENDS IN DISCOVERY OF BIG STILL

A raiding party composed of five Belleville policemen descended upon a 500-gallon still at 72 Heckel street, Silver Lake, at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, arriving just in time to see a man climbing out of a window to make a safe getaway. Prohibition officers in Newark were notified and several responded later to dismantle the plant. They seized $3,500 in equipment.

The party consisted of Captain James Flynn, Sergeant J. Schurr, Patrolmen Robert Anderson, Kenneth Smith and James Anderson. They found the plant to consist of a one-story, flat-roofed building, with a cellar beneath and the distilling plant on the ground floor.

Thirty gallons of re-distilled alcohol were in the place, but no mash.

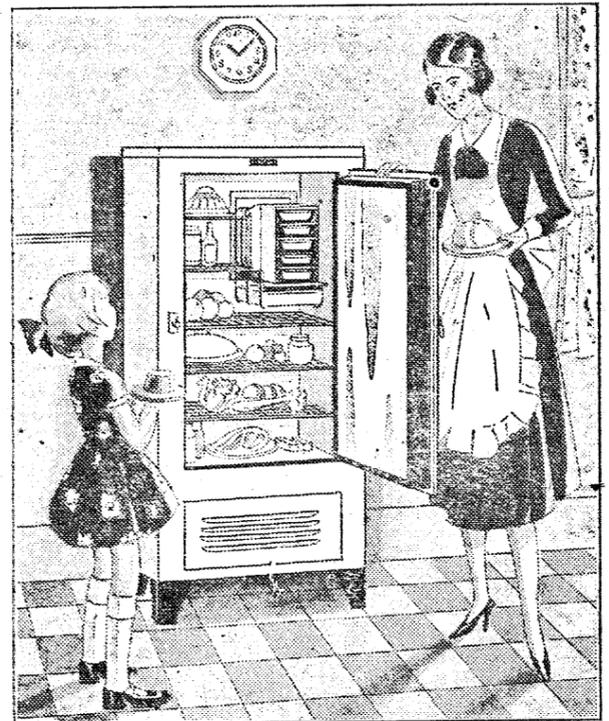

Michael Raimo, who lives next door, was identified by the raiders as the owner of the building. He was questioned but denied knowing the operator of the still.

COULDN'T CONVINCE NEWARK POLICE HIS CAR WAS STOLEN

A new racket in car stealing came to light Thursday of last week—new so far as the Belleville victim is concerned—when a man and his young woman companion "accepted" a car for purchase and, persuading the owner to let them drive to Newark to get the payment money, went off and failed to reappear.

A. P. Rose, dealer in used motors at 16 Washington avenue, told local police Friday morning that he had given the pair ample time to return since 8:15 o'clock Thursday night when they left, and thought it was time to tell his story.

Ross said the Newark police were notified, but the Record Bureau would not list the auto as stolen until he suggested that it might be used in a holdup. He described the pair in detail, giving the ages as about twenty-eight and twenty-five respectively.

LAST WEEK'S WINNERS

The average number of correct answers we received for last week was unusually large. One young man gave us eleven and one-half correct answers—that is, one of his replies was half right and half wrong.

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is need. In cases of colic, diarrhea or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. A coated tongue calls for just a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed.

YOUTHS ACCUSED OF TRYING TO FORCE TOOLHOUSE LOCK

Accused by Thomas Marrow, of 19 Church street, South Orange, a watchman, of trying to break into a tool shed in Mill street, west of Union avenue, where construction work is in progress, Matto Marfino of 256 Second avenue and John Scalara of 286 Clifton avenue, both of Newark, were arrested Monday night by Sergeant Leighton and Patrolman Demgard.

They were with girls and professed no intent to disturb the property when apprehended. The watchman said they were tampering with a lock. The girls were freed and the youths were to be arraigned before Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons last night, results of which were too late for this week's issue of THE TIMES.

TAX BILLS LOST

told John Travers, real estate man, that they would investigate the possibility of taxing Hillside Park on the basis of building lots instead of acreage as is now being done.

Mayor Kenworthy, Commissioners William D. Clark and Patrick Waters, the only three present, expressed a favorable attitude toward the real estate man's suggestion and Mayor Kenworthy said the Board would convene for a discussion after Labor Day.

Commissioner Williams said that the matter should have been turned over to him, since he was head of the Department of Revenue and Finance which makes assessments. "Then," he declared, "it would be time enough for the issue to be discussed by the Board."

He charged that this constituted meddling in affairs of his department.

Threats of Removal

"It was this practice during the past four years that threw the Department of Revenue and Finance into the condition it is in today," he stated. "If I am head of the department I am going to see that the subordinates do not serve two masters and if I hear that they are being influenced by officials other than myself I'll separate them from the town payroll without a minute's delay."

"I want no tinkering with affairs in my department. I want the man I appoint to be absolutely free."

Mayor Kenworthy answered by saying that he had never exerted an influence with the tax assessor and that he did not believe the other members of the Board had done so but Williams sprang up.

"Members of your Board did tinker with affairs of the department. I say it again in unqualified terms! You are not going to do with me what you did to Commissioner Nelson—drive him into a mental condition that was wholly unpleasant so that he resigned and Commissioner Gibson who, after two years, developed an attitude toward his job that said 'What's the use?'"

Mayor Kenworthy charged Williams with dragging down the reputation of Former Assessor Davidson and Williams denied it.

"Davidson is a good fellow, in fact he is a whale of a good fellow and I did not mean to say anything against him."

"But you did accuse him of being influenced."

"I say very frankly, Mr. Mayor, that your allusions to Mr. Davidson constitute nothing more than a red herring. I did not say anything against his character."

"I beg your pardon," began the Mayor.

"I do say that politics entered into his assessments and I reiterate, in unqualified terms, this charge."

Mayor Denies Interference

"I don't believe anyone on the Board ever interfered with Mr. Davidson and while I will not go into a lengthy defense of him I will say that I do not believe that any member of the Board could influence him. It is unfortunate that he is not here."

"Let's forget Davidson," interrupted Williams, "let's discuss Belleville's financial affairs and not cloud the issue. The particular thing that seems to strike no one is that $87,000 in tax bills have not been sent out according to law and due to inefficiency in the Department of Revenue and Finance."

"Well what do you want us to do about it? Do you want us to pat you on the back and say you have done a good thing? As it strikes me, you have uncovered some things and it is now up to you to go ahead with the remedy," the Mayor responded.

"But why has not some member of the Board expressed himself on this subject? It seems to me that the revelation of these deplorable conditions should elicit some comments from Belleville's governing officials instead of sitting back and saying nothing," the director of Revenue and Finance prodded.

Kenworthy then said, "If these statements you have made, Commissioner Williams, are true, I agree that they should be corrected and you will get the help of the Board."

Refers To Campaign

"What about your statement then, that the Board has given the town a good business administration during the past four years? Now you admit a deplorable condition. Inconsistency, thou art a jewel!"

Accusations were flung back and forth across the Commission chamber and all members of the Board had their say. Mayor Kenworthy, Commissioners Clark and Waters all expressed themselves as being innocent of the fact that Commissioner Williams had previously worked on the matter of raising assessments on Hillside Park and Mayor Kenworthy added that he had expressed regret at the last meeting, that Williams was not present for the discussion.

All denied that they sought to "cop the credit" and were supported by Travers who explained to Williams that he alone was responsible.

The three also emphasized that it was not possible to interfere with assessments while Davidson was assessor.

"Let's Take Lid Off"

Commissioner Carragher took sides with Williams and lauded him for "digging up something" that would reduce taxes. He said, in a burst of feeling one time during the meeting, "Let's take the lid off the pot and let the public know about the real conditions around the town hall."

Several times during the night there were scuffles by Commissioners for the floor. At one time Carragher and Williams vaulted to their feet simultaneously.

"Just let me have the floor a minute," said Carragher.

"Commissioner, will you please let me take it," commanded Williams.

Another time the Mayor and Williams struggled for the floor. Williams was talking when the Mayor interrupted and the former yelled, "Mr. Mayor, I insist that you do not interrupt me," to which the Mayor retorted, "You just interrupted me."

Tension Is Relieved

The atmosphere was tense for more than two hours. A reporter smoked a cigarette but was not asked to stop and no one seemed to notice him. Citizens in the seats were leaning forward to catch every word and it was not until Commissioner Carragher, with a modulated voice, made several humorous remarks, that matters toned down.

The basis of Williams' charge that there had been political tinkering with assessments were in his statements about the following cases:

"We have an apartment house in Belleville which the owners valued at $360,000, according to good authority, when they made application for a mortgage. A loan was granted amounting to $172,000 yet this property is assessed for only $50,000 on the building and $6,000 on the land.

"Another property on Holmes street, on which a building and loan organization granted a loan of $18,000 is assessed at only $5,000 and I was assured by the president of that building and loan society that the $18,000 was a conservative allowance indicating that the property in reality is worth $30,000.

Holmes Street Cited

"I further discovered that properties all along Holmes street received reduced assessments when the new concrete street was in the course of construction and it would be a consequent fact that values would increase.

"On my own property on Rossmore place I am paying at the rate of thirty cents a square foot yet property on Holmes street which must be regarded as a good, if not better, property owners are paying at the rate of seventeen cents a square foot.

"Still another case of unequalized assessments is found in another property on Holmes street where the owner is paying at the rate of $17 a front foot for a plot 75x120 while his next door neighbor whose plot measures only 75x100 is paying at the rate of $18.

Joralemon Street Values

"Land on Joralemon street is assessed at $25 a foot but it cannot be bought for three or four times that amount. One man who is drawing money from the town who lives on Academy street is paying on the basis of only $25 a foot and there again I happen to know that a man could not buy the property for less than $100 a foot.

"A chief executive of the town government is paying taxes on Washington avenue property on a basis of $65 a foot less than another nearby owner and Riviera Park was reduced $11,500 this year for the most amazing reason that it had a high bank on one side.

"I want to say, Mr. Mayor, that it is high time for the Town of Belleville to throw itself into business gear. If any private business was run as this town has been run every person would be discharged."

Commissioner Waters did not say that these statements were untrue but said that assessments had not been right for a number of years. It was his belief that conditions could not be remedied within one year—the length of Davidson's service.

By R. E. HARMAN
Essex Co. Agricultural Agent,
State College of Agriculture.

Burned or scorched lawns are recovering from the recent drought. Many lawns in Essex County could not be watered because of lack of water. Other lawns suffered because their owners were "Scotch."

Be sure that the green patches first to recover are not made up of such undesirable grasses as crab and up-side-down grass. The parts of the lawn which do not recover at once show that they are deficient in organic matter. This should be supplied now in the form of good sifted top soil, or sifted material from the humus pile, or by the purchase of a commercial humus.

Either material spread over the lawn, raked over evenly and worked in between the grasses by dragging a steel door mat in two directions will take care of the organic matter deficiency for one or two years.

If the lawn is thin one (1) pound of one of the New Jersey College Grass Seed Mixtures (or your dealer's best seed) per one thousand (1,000) square feet put on before applying the above will be the thing to do. Hard bare places should be loosened up beforehand. The entire lawn will be greatly benefited if you rent a "spike" roller and use it both directions before applying the humus.

Dried out lawns if not cared for before September 15, will show this summer's dry weather effects for a couple of years and will present weed problems in 1931.

A man with a wife and a worry, appeals to the New York Journal. "My encumbrance," he wails, "threatens to close down on my golf unless I can show her a mention of the game in the Bible. A-wah! I have finished the course.'" —Pathfinder Magazine.

Hopes For Bathing Beaches When River Is an 'Estuary'

Cook Conklin of Rutherford, a member of the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission, says that the Passaic River will be a lot cleaner in 1931 than residents of this section have seen in the past twenty years.

"It is only natural," he said, "with the drought and the work of the dredger that residents of the section near the Passaic would be put to some inconvenience. During the summer of 1929 3,000,000 to 5,000,000 gallons of raw sewage daily were brought down Second River at Belleville, while the Orange outlet sewer was being reconstructed. This sewage was eliminated in October, 1929.

"Last summer the river brought down the combined pollution at Lodi and Belleville and gave off a very offensive odor as in earlier years. If the commission's plans as to Lodi could have been carried out and an outlet sewer constructed there the river this summer would have been in fine condition. We have every reason to expect that next year will see the Lodi sewer completed.

"Of course the water is dirty and, oily because of the action of the two dredges, one above Belleville and one at Rutherford, which are deepening the channel to about sixteen feet at high tide and ten feet at low tide. When this deepening has been completed we shall have a fine tide water river. In the future we shall have an estuary of the sea and not a fresh water river."

Extension of the Essex County Park System along the west bank of the Passaic River through Belleville and Nutley, was discussed Tuesday by Robert S. Sinclair of South Orange, president of the Essex County Park Commission, in a talk before members of Newark Rotary Club.

Mr. Sinclair expressed the hope that in a few years the river would be in condition for bathing, when beaches might be created by the commission. He said the commission was proceeding with that optimistic idea, in a scheme of combining practical use with artistic effect in preservation of the natural beauties of the stream.

Mr. Sinclair detailed the history of the development of the parks. Creation of the parks, he said, not only had given Essex one of the best systems in the country, but had eliminated many disease-breeding areas, such as the swamp which was the site of Branch Brook Park.

In the last twenty years, the speaker said, the parks had grown from quiet places where men and women and children might walk or ride, to public recreation grounds. For the development of the recreation use, Mr. Sinclair paid tribute to David I. Kelly, secretary of the commission.

PARKING VIOLATORS FINED

Three violators of town parking ordinances were fined by Acting Recorder Joseph P. Dallenegra Friday night. They were Elmer Stout of New York City and R. T. Beckel of 33 Adelaide street, Belleville, $2 each and George Constine of 126 Warren street, Newark, $4.

MAN'S ARM HURT IN ONE OF TWO MINOR ACCIDENTS

Two motor collisions, both resulting in damage to the cars involved, but in which the casualties were slight, were reported to the police Saturday.

A car driven by William Nave of Newark, going west in Rutgers street, crashed with a taxicab driven by Charles Edwards, also of Newark, going north in Washington avenue.

Edward's left arm was hurt and his cab damaged. The cab is owned by Bravell Nesbitt of 107 Steuben street, East Orange.

The other accident, said to be the result of driving against a red light, took place at Washington avenue and Little street. Angelo Bissell, twenty-two, of 42 Greylock avenue, driving a truck across Washington avenue was struck by a car driven by Pauline Vilka of 182 Berkshire place, Irvington. Bissell said he had a green light ahead and that Miss Vilka passed a red one.

Every time you hear Amos and Andy on the radio you don't hear them until after the orchestra has played an introductory piece somewhat resembling a slumber song. And you are not sure the Amos and Andy program is through until you have heard the same piece played in conclusion.

It is estimated that not one-fourth of one per cent of the people who hear Amos and Andy know the name of the piece the orchestra plays. The title is "The Perfect Song," composed by Joseph Carl Briel. It is the same song that was used as part of the musical score for D. W. Griffith's great motion picture, "The Birth of a Nation."

There are three musicians in the Amos and Andy orchestra—a pianist, violinist and cellist. Before "The Perfect Song" was chosen to feature the Amos and Andy program, nineteen other compositions were considered.

Miniature golf isn't the right name for the newest fad. Magnified marbles would be better.

The trouble with miniature golf is that it will never have the class regular golf has—not until they introduce caddies. The caddie is the boy who lifts golf out of the gutter.

People who play miniature golf are warned to look out for drunken drivers. One of them missed a swing the other night and knocked the other fellow's eye out. The drunken driver should be banished from the links just as he is banished from the highways. The only link that goes with booze is baloney.

We read that some of the men who have gone into the game this year and profited, intend to set up miniature indoor golf courses for the winter season. They will use abandoned theatres and second-story rooms for the purpose. It is questionable, however, whether indoor golf will prove as popular as outdoor golf.

When caught violating a motor vehicle law or traffic ordinance, every wise driver knows what to do. The thing to do is to stand the bawling out from the officer. Just sit still and take it. If you utter a word it is sure to cost you plenty.

We live in hope that this order will be changed. In Mattituck, N. Y., an officer bawled out a driver nasty and the driver bawled back just as nasty. Naturally the driver was taken before a magistrate, where the officer swore out a warrant charging the man with disorderly conduct.

They are going to fight the case right up to the supreme court. The driver contends that the officer had no right to bawl him out. The only right the officer had under the law was to serve him with a summons for violation of the ordinance.

The automobile driver has had to put up with a lot. Perhaps he will now have his day in court. A man in uniform is not such a superior person as he often pictures himself.

We heard a quarrel between a cop and a driver once and if the profanity used had been punishable at ten days in jail for each oath, both men would have been sent to prison for life.

An advertisement reads: "Who can remember 'way back when we had to thaw out the pump to get a drink?'"

And who can remember when we had to pour a little water into the pump before it would pump?

And where is that old village watering trough for man and beast and the hitching post for horses? And the clock in the church steeple?

If there isn't one way to get a man clear of murder on a technicality there is always another way. The insanity racket has been overdone and smart lawyers are studying up new defects in the law. Over in Pennsylvania a murderer put up a plea of "irresistible impulse," and because the judge would not permit the plea, the case was appealed.

Down South they lynch men for that "irresistible impulse."

One of our citizens, just back from a tour of the New England States, reports having seen this sign: "Ye Olde Gasse Statione."

Pretty soon they will be having George Washington and Robert E. Lee Gasse Stationes.

And Henry VIII Gasse.

Radio stations have coast-to-coast hookups every night or two. Airplanes make coast-to-coast flights.

The latest is a coast-to-coast police search for a Detroit gunman.

Things certainly have changed since the day of the old covered wagon.

Here is a sweet little story that will please those of romantic mind:

It is about a young farm boy who discovered a turtle that had his initials carved upon its shell. The letters were carved by a pretty miss of the neighborhood. A romance developed and they were married.

That was many years ago. The story seems to stop there. No one seems to know whether the man kept a turtle as a house pet or whether he got sore and hacked it to death with an axe.

Hackettstown has a promising new industry—a factory to manufacture waste baskets. The plan is to sell them to editors.

Officers stopped a Sunday ball game recently and arrested the manager and players. The point was brought out by lawyers at the hearing that under the old blue laws of 1704 no policeman shall make an arrest on the Sabbath.

We read in the papers that an American Legion Post is about to enter competition against private individuals by erecting a miniature golf course.

The papers also tell of a Methodist church that is going to put up one of these courses and endeavor to make enough money to pay off the church mortgage. The courses will be open every day except Sunday. On that day they will give the other fellow a chance.

New York City has investigated herself and comes through with a clean bill of health. No corruption and no political influence in the appointment of judges has been discovered. Tammany Hall doesn't know a thing about it. The city is pure, clean and wholesome — as white as a lily.

We are pretty white over here in Jersey ourselves. The reason we are so white is because we use a whitewash brush. We swing a mean brush.

Saratoga is another spot as white as a clean sheet, according to an investigation by the New York State authorities. The State has had the evil reports investigated and the law enforcement officials have just reported to Governor Roosevelt that they have been unable to find "the slightest indication" that there has been any gambling or vice in Saratoga this season.

This is apt to prove a black eye for Saratoga because that is exactly what people by the hundreds of thousands go there for. The visiting gamblers ought to get a good laugh out of that official report.

No one can doubt that Saratoga is wide open—as much so as our own Asbury Park or Atlantic City.

Scientists say that lack of moisture promotes insect life and this may be true, judging by conditions in New Jersey. During the late dry spell, many people reported an unusual number of insect pests that not only annoy persons and animals but also destroy plants. Fleas are unusually numerous and pestiferous this year. If you don't believe this, ask your nearest dog.

One of our observant New Jersey editors notes that the State Board of Taxes and Assessments is satisfied that assessments throughout the State are now equal. In other words, an equal number of complaints come from all parts, indicating that everybody in the State is equally dissatisfied.

This is something like the story of the man who bragged about his wife. He said she had the most even disposition of any woman on earth—she was always mad.

A Somerville paper gets off a good one about a boy infant of that town that fell out of a two-story window and wasn't hurt. The reporter referred to him as "a bouncing baby boy."

COMMISSIONER WILLIAMS TAKES A STAND

Something of a bombshell was dropped into this week's meeting of the Board of Commissioners by Mr. Williams. The gist of his remarks were that he wanted other members of the Board to keep their hands off his department, particularly tax valuations. This is a reasonable request, for he is responsible for the department, and certainly he cannot be expected to father acts brought about by his colleagues unless their action is taken openly and collectively.

Ever since the Walsh Act was adopted some eighteen or twenty years ago there has been disagreement among the legal profession and even the courts as to how far the individual control of each commissioner over his department extends. Decisions have at one time indicated that it is absolute and at other times that it is not. Generally speaking the rulings have pointed in one direction, however. The individual commissioner is supreme in his department both as to appointments and control in matters which concern his own department solely. Where they lap over the edge of some other department or where an appointee serves several departments or the town at large the board as a whole has something to say.

Mr. Williams' other hint, that tax valuations have been adjusted to the advantage of owners without logical regard to real value, because of being friends with Commissioners, is something to be shown conclusively before anybody gets excited. The rest of the Commissioners denied that they had used their influences to have assessments reduced and the charge must be balanced by denial until facts prove otherwise. Reductions may have been made quite innocently.

Efficiency in the tax department is another matter to be delved into a bit further. There have been rather frequent changes in the tax department for the last dozen years. This has complicated the job of the department to function efficiently. However, if Commissioner Williams can banish favoritism, bring about better attention to detail and more equitable assessments, more power to him. He should be given every chance. In the meantime the best thing to do is keep our ears to the ground and wait.

AN OLD NUISANCE REVIVES

Complaint is being heard again by motorists that solicitors for bazaars, fairs and "benefits" are disregarding the provision of the Traffic Act prohibiting the stopping of motor cars for the sale of tickets. This was a serious abuse a few years ago and seems to be reviving.

In many sections of the State the bazaar season is in full swing and zealous citizens are seeking to obtain contributions by "tagging" motorists. With highways taxed to their capacity the practice has caused much confusion and congestion, with consequent addition to the hazards of motoring.

The Legislature took cognizance of this condition several years ago and the Traffic Act expressly prohibits persons from standing in the highways (to stop, impede, hinder or delay the progress of any vehicle, for the purpose of soliciting the purchase of goods, merchandise or tickets, or for the purpose of soliciting contributions for any cause whatsoever).

It has long been the custom of volunteer fire companies, churches and lodges to increase the receipts of their "benefits" by stationing members in the street. Many of them no doubt do not realize that the practice has become actionable under the law. But the fact remains that they are liable to arrest and a fine of $50 for failing to observe this provision of the Traffic Act.

There is not much chance of evading the penalty if arrest is made because the law provides that "the only question of law and fact in determining guilt under this subdivision shall be whether goods, merchandise or tickets were tendered or offered for sale, or whether a contribution was solicited."

THERE MUST BE HONESTY SOMEWHERE

Tammany Hall has withstood many proofs of civic unrighteousness and thousands of charges of evil. And this isn't the first time that a controlled judiciary has been traced to its door. Possibly the present scandal will go the way of all others. But if we have any antenna for public feeling at all there is a growing belief among Americans, even New Yorkers, that somewhere there must be a body or a group where justice is put before political expediency and selfish gain.

The Presidency always has been in this class. While cynically admitting that politics instead of right makes most of our legislative wheels go 'round it is rare to find an American calloused enough to be unconcerned over any attempt to undermine the absolute integrity of either the office of President or its incumbent. That same feeling is growing about the judiciary.

The Democratic party in New York State apparently is genuinely concerned over the present series of exposures culminating in the Wald case. Perhaps it is only a gesture, but if it is we believe Tammany is going to have scars after a few more elections.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

THERE was a family out in Kansas that struck oil and began to put on airs. The kid was a boy only eleven years old, and he didn't like the high-hat stuff a bit. But he had to go to wearing expensive clothes and everything, and he got some terrible bawlings out about his manners. His folks hired a governess to teach him manners. One of the things she taught him was to stand up whenever a lady entered the room.

Well, Jack's boy friend Bob was always kidding Jack about his high-hattiness. One day Bob's mother went to call on the new oil folks, and she took Bob along to play with Jack. When Bob and his mother came in, Jack stood up, and Bob looked kinda funny at him. But an hour later, when they were playing on the floor, Bob's mother came in again, and Jack jumped right up and stood like a soldier.

Bob says, "Say, Jack, what do you think my old lady is anyhow, the Star Spangled Banner?"

Town Officials Put Skids Under 32 lb. Snapping Turtle

Eyes widened and jaws stood agape at the Town Hall as tales were told about the struggle of a Belleville fishing party with a thirty-two pound snapping turtle, brought ashore at Glen Wild Lake, near Bloomingdale, last Thursday.

The party was composed of Commissioner William D. Clark, Health Officer Eugene T. Berry, Police Chief Michael A. Flynn and Sergeant Joseph Schurr.

In addition to the snapping turtle, they brought home seventeen bass and perch, the largest of which weighed six pounds and measured about twelve inches. Their word for it.

The snapping turtle episode nearly resulted in a ducking for some of the fishermen they relate. The reptile put up a fight only slightly less vigorous than that of an Arctic whale. It was snared on a triple hook cast by Health Officer Berry.

The line tightened and all but pulled him overboard. Commissioner Clark lent a hand and together they battled for twenty minutes. Finally Berry seized the quarry by the tail and he was tossed ashore. His circumference was described as equal to a double armful.

Mr. Berry is having the specimen mounted.

BOMB SUSPECT DISMISSED FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE

After being lodged in a cell at police headquarters on suspicion in connection with the explosion of a bomb beside a six-family house at 220 Passaic avenue early on Thursday morning of last week, Matty Izzo, forty, of 36 Mechem street, was dismissed for lack of evidence, when arraigned Friday night before Acting Recorder Joseph P. Dallenegra.

The explosion, which shattered several windows and damaged the building, was heard by Sergeant Elmer Leighton and Patrolman James Anderson, who were making their rounds nearby. Nick Zoppia, owner, told them Izzo had exacted some money from him "to keep a gang from blowing up his home."

On this complaint, Izzo was arrested and Zoppia held as a material witness, but he was unable in court to produce evidence in support of his claims.

The Woman Citizen

By ANNE E. GILSON

A woman member of the President's Cabinet seems to be assured by the congressional nomination of Miss Grace Abbott to post of Secretary of Labor, to fill the vacancy to be created by the expected resignation of Secretary Davis.

Since 1921 Miss Abbott has been Chief of the Children's Bureau. The announcement of her nomination has received nation-wide approval. One paper says, "Miss Abbott is not a politician, either of labor or the party variety but a trained expert whose heart is in her work." And another adds, "She is a direct sort of person with a sense of humor, quiet efficiency, kindness and human understanding of the people with whom she is associated." It is said by the Woman's Journal that "there is perhaps no one today, man or woman, better qualified to fill adequately the labor post in Mr. Hoover's cabinet than Grace Abbott."

The Monmouth Country Women's Republican Club, Mrs. Marie S. Linburn, president, will be hostess to women throughout the State at a luncheon and celebration of the tenth anniversary of the granting of suffrage to women, at Camp Larson, Sea Girt, on Tuesday. Those expecting to go are asked to notify Mrs. May H. Rehm, Long Branch.

Old-age pensions, unemployment insurance and labor injunctions, are some of the announced subjects for a State labor institute or conference to be held at Rutgers University, probably in June, 1931, at the request of the New Jersey Federation of Labor. Since these subjects are of interest to many of the women's organizations, the institute will give an opportunity for some highly instructive discussion. The Association for Old Age Security and the League of Women Voters will no doubt be on hand.

New Jersey, in the Metropolitan areas, doesn't seem to know just what to do with all the brooks and rivers which once were so attractive but which now are chiefly a sanitary problem. In Caldwell they are installing a huge pipe and covering up what used to be a charming little stream. "Open brooks are unsanitary in a town," remarked some one. The Passaic river, the Elizabeth river, the Raritan river, have all become noisome pestilences in the summer time. And it is all so unnecessary. Every little brook and river could be made a joy of delight, a commercial asset even, if the government bodies of our municipalities were civilized enough to appreciate them.

It is positively sacrilegious, the treatment we are giving to our streams in built-up sections. About on a par with the way we have sacrificed trees along the highways. We need a popular demand for conservation. Women have undertaken to make the highways beautiful by doing away with ugly signboards and have secured the co-operation of the federal and state government in planting trees. Let's all get together now and see if we can't save the streams.

Conservation is the big idea back of the Woman's Committee for Flood Control and Mosquito Extermination in the Passaic valley. Mrs. William Rae, vice-chairman of this organization, who is traveling in Europe, writes that she has had an interesting conference with the Thames River Conservation Commission, and she will, on her return, no doubt have some definite suggestions to make showing how a river can not only be lived with but made a source of pleasure for even thickly populated cities.

Does a wife own her wages earned outside her home? Can a father will away the custody of the child? Does the mother share equally with the father in the guardianship of the child during their joint lives? Questions such as these are being asked by someone every day in every state according to the National League of Women Voters.

A new pamphlet in a bright orange cover called "A Survey of the Legal Status of Women in the Forty-eight States" has just been published by the National League of Women Voters which is designed to answer all such questions dealing with the ever interesting subject of the status of women under the law. Prepared under the direction of Dr. Sophonisba P. Breckinridge, a professor of social economy at the University of Chicago and for three years chairman of the League's Committee of Legal Status of Women, the publication is designed to furnish concise, clear, and ready information on the legal provisions that affect married women. The research on the details of the laws in the various states was done by Mrs. Savilla Millis Simons, a graduate of the University of Chicago.

The new publication is in new and interesting form a reprint of a 1924 publication for which the demand was so heavy that it was soon exhausted. It names the states (not New Jersey) in which a father can will away from the mother the custody of her own child, and gives the property rights which married women have in every state.

It relates the causes of divorce in the states, those in which common law marriages are held valid and conditions under which marriage licenses are issued. A complete picture of the legal position of married women in every state is given with a summary at the beginning. The answers to questions about provisions in each state are followed by references and authorities for the statement and its 228 pages are filled with information of general interest.

OUTDOOR MEALS

WHEN planning an outdoor meal remember that people get very hungry when out-of-doors, so pack the picnic basket generously. Then, too, remember to keep the foods fresh and moist; nothing is so disappointing to a hungry guest as dried out sandwiches or cake.

To help supply the tartness and coolness to an outdoor meal, include pickles, fresh fruits and take along cold drinks in thermos bottles or else plan to get the cold drinks at some soft drink stand along the way.

It makes planning of the picnic supper easier when a good shoulder of ham dinner has been served earlier in the week, for ham sandwiches are always the picnic lunch standbys. Varied as they can be, by adding chopped pickles, chopped cooked egg or onion or a bit of horseradish sauce, they are sure to be eagerly eaten. Then a sandwich of good nut bread and butter with a deviled egg, some olives and pickles makes a good main course for our meal. Serve raisin-filled cookies, a piece of fudge cake and a ripe, juicy plum, pear or peach, with your cold drink and the meal ends with everyone satisfied and saying, "Um, that was good."

"A Flock of Free Taxicabs In Denver", Kenworthy Says

Tells About Experience In Denver During Organization's Convention

MCCABE GETS PLATINUM PIN

Every privately owned car in Denver, Colo. was a free taxi for delegates to the Lions convention in that city recently, Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy, president of the local club, told members at the regular meeting in the Elks Club last Thursday.

A member of the Lions Club could hail any car having the courtesy ticket pasted on the windshield and ask to be taken any place in the city. The driver would willingly comply with the request, regardless of where he may have been headed before being stopped. "It was almost too good to be true" the Mayor commented.

Other than that, he said, was the unlimited cooperation of all service clubs in the city. Rotarians and Kiwanis worked hand in hand with the Lions of Denver to make the convention a complete success.

MAYBE TORONTO

Toronto, Canada, was mentioned as the city for next year's convention. Mayor Kenworthy urged, if it was held in the Canadian City, that members of the Belleville Club make arrangements to attend. Henry Charrier, George VonArx and Charles Klausman were named to the committee in charge of the annual Lions Club pilgrimage to the Boys' Home at Jamesburg, which this year takes place September 17.

Past president Thomas McCabe was presented with a platinum past president's pin set with pearls in token of esteem held for his services by fellow members. President Kenworthy made the presentation.

Make Pet of Mongoose

In India mongooses are often caught and tamed. They are quick and sharp-eyed, and live almost entirely upon snakes and reptiles. They are often kept in houses as snake killers. They are intelligent and make excellent pets.

Slack Coal Combustion

The reason slack coal cannot be used in the ordinary furnace is that the draft in domestic furnaces or stoves is usually insufficient to overcome the resistance to the flow of air through the fire bed.

Treason

Misprision of treason consists in general of having knowledge of, concealing and not disclosing the treason of others. The penalty is imprisonment for not more than seven years, and a fine of not more than $1,000, or both fine and imprisonment.

Learn to Concentrate

Concentration on the task at hand is the first rule of progress. Time is too valuable to spend it watching others, or looking at the clock, or day-dreaming. To do these things is to stand aside unconsciously while the busy world moves on.—Grit.

The useful trait of a leaking fountain pen, we have found, is that you can put it in a drawer with a supply of postage material and cancel your own stamps.—Detroit News.

Cow 7 Per Cent Hide

Large meat packing establishments consider that in the case of cattle an average of about 7 per cent of the live weight and about 11 per cent of the value of the live animal is in the hide.

the shield that led him astray, along with an intoxicated condition.

Among the anecdotes told about him is one relating to his relations with subordinates in the employ of the town. Instead of giving out the checks to them on pay day he would insist on having them make deposits in a savings account to take care of the lean winter months.

After they made these deposits, Flanagan would appropriate the bankbooks and refuse to allow withdrawals until the men were out of work and then he would only allow so much to be withdrawn every week.

Generous When Drunk

On the other hand, Flanagan himself was reputed to be the most generous of persons and a man who would spend money like water "when he was drunk."

Although nothing has been done to replace him in his capacity as foreman, it was whispered that his dismissal was imminent. Commissioner Patrick Waters, however, when reached by telephone yesterday, said that he has been a good employee and could not be too severely criticized for one overt act.

He said he was going to see him later this week at Monticello. Steps have been taken by Flanagan's friends to make things easy for him during his incarceration.

Not Endurance Runners

Lions and tigers can run just as fast as the swiftest horses, but only for short distances. After a kilometer or so they lose their strength, rather, proper respiration, so they can continue no longer at high speed. Unlike the lungs of horses or dogs, the lungs of lions and tigers cannot maintain a high degree of oxygenation for long distances, but function badly after the beast has been running a short time.

Porcupine's Revenge

Large animals such as cougars, lynx and even bears very often lose their lives as a result of an attack on a lowly porcupine. Quills lodge in the animal's mouth, swelling it to a size that makes eating impossible and the victim slowly starves to death.

WOMAN LOSES TOOTH WHEN THREE CARS CRASH SUNDAY

Two women were injured in a triple collision at Holmes street and Union avenue at noon Sunday, when a car driven by Miss Sadie Jones of 158 Summer avenue collided with two other cars which had crashed.

A car driven by John Masterly of 23 Rutgers avenue, Jersey City, struck one driven by Mrs. Gladys Davidson of 214 Franklin street, Bloomfield, and since both cars came to a stop on the west side of Union avenue in the path of south-bound traffic, Mrs. Jones ran into both.

Miss Floria Jones, thirty, a passenger in the car driven by Mrs. Jones, was cut about the head and knee and lost a tooth. Mrs. Davidson suffered an injured knee and slight lacerations on her head.

The theory of a protective tariff dates back to the Seventeenth century, when Colbert, minister under Louis XVI of France, advocated the policy in order to keep money within the country. Police Doggone Busy With Dogs; Demgard Is Attacked

"Horses, Horses, Horses," used to be a popular ditty, but it was "Dogs, Dogs, Dogs," around police headquarters last weekend, the cops having had a doggone busy time taking care of calls that related to canines.

Officer Ray Demgard answered a call to Couzza street to "see about dogs," and was attacked by one of them before he could shoot it.

Frank Parcell of Belleville avenue and Smith street reported he had lost his police dog, which was tagged with license no. 250. The police sympathized.

Then Charles J. Zencarelli, fourteen, of 500 Greylock avenue, reported he had been bitten by a dog at 205 Forest street, which is the home of Andrew J. Giglio. Dr. Rizzolo treated the wound.

Following that, Mrs. H. Crerand of 79 Harrison street reported a dog from 17 Bellevue avenue killed two chickens in her coop. The dog's owner was not given. The directory lists James Beninati and Hugh F. Dunn at the Bellevue avenue address.

ROTARIANS HEAR LECTURE ON ULTRA VIOLET LIGHT

Dr. H. C. Rentschler, A. B., M. A., Ph. D., of East Orange, director of research of the Westinghouse Lamp Company of Bloomfield, delivered an instructional lecture on the uses of the ultra violet light and the methods of measuring it at the meeting of the Rotary Club at the Nereid Boat Club yesterday.

Ultra-violet light as it is being used today is a part of the light of the spectrum and known as the vital region technically described as the region between 3100 and 2800 angstrom units.

By the means now developed bulbs will soon be on sale that give this properly controlled light and can be used on the ordinary house light circuit. This bulb will be truly known as a health bulb and has so far been demonstrated to be a cure for skin diseases, hay fever and many other forms of bacterial diseases.

In ten minutes this bulb will produce on the human skin a sunburn equivalent to an hour's direct sun bath. This means that this valuable method of treatment for curing and invigorating mankind is obtainable in any kind of weather and at any time of day or night.

The lamp is not to be confused with lamps at present being sold as sun lamps as it has new and improved properties which can be measured and controlled so there will be no cases of over-exposure.

John DeGraw, president of the club, presided at the meeting.

KEEP DAHLIAS GROWING BY A. C. McLEAN

N. J. Agricultural Extension Serv.

This is the time of the year when the dahlia growers start to worry about their plants which have stopped growing. In hot, dry weather the dahlia is very apt to harden up its growth, produce a lot of leafy shoots, and practically stop growing. This condition is brought about by heat, insects (such as leaf-hopper injury), overstimulation by fertilizers when young, or other causes.

The only remedy is to prune back the plant severely. This should be done at once for it takes about three weeks from the time the shoot starts to bud to produce a first-class dahlia. Good dahlias are produced only on soft, young growth. This means growth in which the nodes are long and the plant growing rapidly.

your plants severely at this time of the year if they are large and husky. In cutting back, however, be careful not to remove too many of the large bottom leaves, because the plants need them to stimulate and maintain new growth. Thin out the growing shoots to not more than five, but leave those nearest the ground.

This is the right time to start feeding dahlias for best results.

A 5-10-6 fertilizer, applied at the rate of one tablespoonful to a plant, is suggested. Thoroughly mix this fertilizer with the soil around the plant and water for quick results.

MARION WINS BY KNOCKOUT BUT ROSSI LOSES DECISION

Jack Marion, slugging Silver Lake heavyweight scored his fifth consecutive knockout last Saturday night at the Oceanview A. A. in Long Branch. His victim was Chief Newberry, sturdy Indian, who coaches the Long Branch high school basketball team.

The end came in the fourth, when Marion sent a fusillade of left hooks to the Chief's head, followed by a terrific right hand to the jaw, which felled the Indian for the count. The bout was scheduled for eight rounds and was the semi-final windup.

In the main ten rounder, Al Rossi, brother-in-law of Vince Dundee, dropped the referee's decision to Tony Lambert of Newark. The more experienced Lambert was a last minute substitute for Al Fisher.

Lambert hung the "Indian sign" on the youthful Rossi in the first three rounds and won the contest with little opposition. The defeat was Rossi's second out of twenty-five. Both boys are light weights.

Because of his spectacular showing in New Jersey, Marion has been booked for three fights in Cleveland. A good showing there will make Marion a contender. One of his opponents will be K. O. Kastner, popular Akron, O. heavyweight.

ST. PETER'S HAVE LITTLE TROUBLE BEATING PARKS

Score 9 To 1 Victory and Assure Themselves Of Crown Berth In League

FLYNN SHOWS INVINCIBLE FORM, STRIKES OUT TEN

St. Peter's made sure of finishing at least in a tie for first place in the American Legion Senior League as a result of their 9 to 1 victory over the Parks Thursday night. Ral Flynn, St. Peter's twirler, had the Parks eating out of his hand during the entire contest.

He allowed only one hit and would have had a shutout but for an error. St. Peter's, however, were not interested in a shutout. They wanted to win that game and they certainly played like champions. Villicari's single in the second was the lone Park hit.

The Parks were the first to score. With two out in the second inning Machonis walked. He stole second and when Clancy threw wild, Machonis took third. Villicari then singled to send in the Parks' only run.

Flurry of Hits

St. Peter's went to work in their half of the second. Oscar Lawson singled for a starter. Bidy Carragher singled and Lawson took third. Lilori sent a fly to right field which would have been good for a sacrifice, but Vogel made it more valuable by muffing it. Lawson and Carragher scored on the play.

Parcells reached first safely on an error and promptly stole second, Lilori scoring on the same error. Parcells scored on Clancy's single. The latter then stole second and advanced to third on Ral Flynn's infield out, later coming home on Ryan's single. Taylor walked but Curran flied out to center field and when Ryan tried for home Murphy threw him out at the plate.

St. Peter's added another run in the third when Carragher walked, advanced to second and came home on Parcells' single. Two hits, a base on balls, a wild pitch and an error gave the William Streeters three more runs in the fourth.

Ral Flynn was in a "strike-out mood." He forced ten of the Park batters to whiff the ozone in five innings of play. Seibert, who started in the box for the Parks, was relieved by Villicari in the fourth.

PARKS TROUNCED IN FREE HITTING BALL GAME, 7-4

Elks Bob Back Again In First And Second To Take The Lead

LOSERS COULD NOT GET PAST TWO RUN BARRIER

The Belleville Elks chalked up another victory Monday night when they defeated the Parks to the tune of 7 to 4 in an American Legion League contest at Clearman Field. It was a free-hitting affair with the Elks outhitting their opponents 8 to 7. The difference was that the Elks made their hits at opportune moments.

Jim Mallack started in the box for the winners, but retired after the third inning because of pitching the previous night and because he is scheduled to pitch again Saturday. The Parks nicked him for three runs right in the first inning, however.

Here's how they did it. Scotty Travers made a double. Colannino advanced him to third with a sacrifice bunt. Then De Work doubled, scoring Travers. Watson singled and De Work ambled home. Zyla fanned, but Murphy shot a single to left, scoring Watson.

ELKS DUPLICATE FEAT

But the Elks were undismayed. They went out in their half of the first inning and treated themselves to an equal number of runs. Tommy Dunn singled, Arty Lamb walked and Kastner walked, filling the bags.

Tommy Dunn was out at home on Dunleavy's infield tap, but Jim Mallack's infield out scored Art Lamb. Jim Dunn, always a good batter in a pinch, came through with a single to left center, scoring Kastner and Dunleavy.

The Parks went the Elks one better by scoring a run in the second. In this frame Machonis walked, stole second and then scampered home on Travers's double.

PUT ON ICE

The Elks then determined to put the game on ice and made three runs in their half of the second. Suderley popped up and Tommy Dunn doubled, only to be caught off second a moment later when De Work took Art Lamb's roller and whirled to second, catching Dunn.

Lamb stole second and took third on Kastner's single. Jim Dunleavy sent the latter two home with a double. Jim Mallack's single, which rolled through Murphy's legs, enabled Dunleavy to score.

RUN ON ERROR

In the fourth the "Hello Bills" added another run to their collection. With two out Kastner reached first on an error. Dunleavy's double put Kastner on third and Dunleavy on second. Jim Mallack singled to score Kastner with the final run of the game.

Jim Dunleavy, with a pair of doubles, Tommy Dunn, with a double, and Jim Mallack with a brace of singles led the Elks' attack. Scotty Travers, youthful Park third baseman had two doubles in three trips to the plate. Watson had two singles and a walk for a perfect night at bat. The score:

Here and There

By Harry Metz

It hardly seems possible that we are going into the last week of baseball. That is, it is the last week as far as the American Legion is concerned. It is our personal opinion that the league has improved at least fifty per cent.

Efficient management was marked this season. Everyone concerned, in an executive capacity, apparently has profited from last year's experience. Joe Williams is getting so perfect that he can take a look at the crowd and say, "Well, I imagine we'll take in about twenty-five tonight." And Joe invariably is correct.

The league has not only realized greater profits but has furnished more interesting competition. From this latter standpoint it has improved leaps and bounds these past few weeks. No longer are the Parks and Colored Giants set-ups for the rest of the league. It is true that the Parks haven't won any games, but several of the games lost were close. Like the Giants, they will be a much improved ball club next season.

Although the official batting averages are not out yet, unofficial reports indicate that they will be much lower this year. The reason is a big mystery.

There are several theories advanced. It is a well-known fact that ball players have their "on and off" years. One season they are slapping the ball in great style and the next year they are in a slump.

An example of this is found in Jim Dunleavy who murdered the ball last year and made an average of around .550. This season he is 'way down in the averages. Bill Buttons is another example. Down low this year, he hit over .500 last season.

Another theory is that the pitching is much better. Most of the pitchers have improved while Ted Coeyman, Ketchell, Lew Beliski and several other hurlers of no mean ability were not in the league last year. Few games have been played this year where a team has collected more than ten hits.

It was unfortunate that rain spoiled Saturday's game between the American Legion nine and Nutley A. C. These teams are scheduled to meet this Saturday, however. The game will take place at Park Oval, Nutley, instead of at Clearman Field.

It should be a great battle. Jim Mallack promises to have his underhand delivery right up to snuff and when Jim is in form it's just too bad for the other team. Our Nutley brothers will have a great little twirler tossing them up in the personage of Carl Gordinier. The latter is a former star of Barringer High School, and later a luminary of Rutgers in football and baseball. He recently handed the West Orange team a 6 to 1 lacing.

The thump of the old pigskin can already be heard in many places. Most of the college elevens have started practice and some local high schools have begun to kick the ball around.

In recent years we have noticed that Belleville is always late in getting started. Here's a hint to the football authorities down there. Why not get started the first or second day of school?

Perhaps the late start is the reason Belleville looks so dismal early in the season. Take last season. In the first game they were tied by Dickinson Evening, a team they should have defeated.

In the second game they were defeated by Bloomfield. Then after that they won every game. An earlier start would have had the team in better shape for those first two games.

Remember the husky lad who played with St. Anthonys against the Bell-Nuts some time ago? He played first base and looked like a promising ball player. His name is Tony Biase. From a reliable source we have learned that he is coming to high school in the fall. What a fullback he would make!

PARKS FINALLY COME OUT AHEAD

Whitewash St. Anthony's 6 To 0 At Clearman In Their Best Game Of Year

BOTH PITCHERS WERE GOOD

It took them a long time to do it, but they finally accomplished the trick. Yes, the Parks won a ball game Tuesday night at Clearman Field. They defeated St. Anthony's 6 to 0 and played the best brand of ball they have displayed in their two seasons in the league.

Andy Colannino and Jim Villicari divided twirling honors, the former twirling the first two frames and the latter tossing them up for the final three. Needless to say both Colannino and Villicari pitched great ball, especially in the pinches. The Saints gathered six hits in five innings of play but were helpless in the pinches.

OUT AT HOME

The Parks scored a run in the opening frame. Colannino singled with one out and scored a moment later on DeWork's triple to right center. The latter was thrown out at the plate trying to stretch it into a homer.

This lone run would have been enough to win but the Parks were taking no chances. They blew themselves to two more runs in the third inning. Three singles, coupled with an infield out and a wild throw, did the trick. In the fifth and final inning they added two more to their total by cracking out two doubles and a single.

Scotty Travers continued his brilliant playing with the Parks, while DeWork and McManus had a brace of hits for the winners. Mullins starred for the Saints with two hits in two trips to the plate. The score:

Cards Out of Junior League Race

St. Anthony Jrs. Hammer Out Four Runs; End Card Hopes

Gallagher, Moundsman, Allows Only One Hit; Was Never In Serious Trouble

CARCHIO GETS HOMER, TRIPLE

St. Anthony Jrs. shattered the Cardinal hopes of winning the pennant in the Junior League by administering a 4 to 0 defeat Monday night at Belleville Park. The Saints played wonderful ball, in fact it was their best exhibition of the season.

Mike Gallagher, Saints' moundsman, pitched a masterpiece. He allowed but one hit and with the exception of the second inning was in no serious trouble. Duscheck, on the mound for the losers, pitched a good game, but could not match Gallagher. The former allowed the hard-hitting Saints five hits and struck out nine.

SCORES IN SECOND

St. Anthony's started their scoring in the second inning. Fabio singled. Nick Bonavita also singled. Duscheck then fanned Cieri and Carter. Sal Pico was hit by a pitched ball and the bases were filled. Riccio hit a hot one at Duscheck and the latter barely touched it. Christell came running in, but it went through his legs and Fabio and Bonavita scored.

The Saints scored a run in the fourth by the queerest of methods. With one out Cieri doubled. Duscheck pitched a few balls to the next batter and then tried to catch Cieri napping. His thro waught Cieri on the head and rolled far out into the outfield allowing Cieri to score. "Jocko" Carchio's terrific home run to deep right field was the final St. Anthony tally.

GOOD CHANCE FAILED

The Cardinals had a good chance to score in the second, but a great throw by Fabio cut off a run. Christell was on second as the result of a walk and a sacrifice. Eddie O'Neil then blasted the only Cardinal hit of the night into right field. Christell was thrown out at the plate on the play.

"Jocko" Carchio was the Babe Ruth of the night. He blasted out a home run and a triple that was long enough to be another homer if Carchio was faster. Cieri, Nick Bonavita and Fabio secured the other three St. Anthony bingles. Sal Pico was the fielding star of the fray.

As a result of this victory St. Anthony's are still in the running for the pennant. They must defeat the Cardinals in another post-

It's Not Real So Don't Worry

It doesn't look fair to match Vince Dundee (middleweight, of Fairway avenue, Belleville) against the 230 pound Giuseppe Gelormini of Chatham as they are pictured above. And it wasn't done. The picture was taken at Madame Bey's training camp in Summit, Monday, just after Vince had gone through a stiff workout in preparation for his bout at Dreamland Park last night. Vince is showing the new find of Manager Eddie Giuliana (Belleville) just what he intends to do to Abie Bain and the heavyweight is saying "Suppose Abie should loose his left just like this."

ELKS WIN, 9-4, FROM LAKE TEAM

Kastner Retires Three St. Anthony Men In Rapid Order During First

MAKE SIX RUNS IN THIRD

The Belleville Elks gave a 9 to 4 beating Friday night to the St. Anthony nine at Clearman Field. Butch Kastner, crack Elk south-paw twirler, was again strong. St. Anthonys were first to bat and they proved easy prey for Kastner who forced the first three batters to retire via the strike-out route. The Elks scored one in the first. Tommy Dunn led by getting a base on balls. He promptly stole second and scampered home on Arty Lamb's single.

The latter was out trying to stretch his hit into a double. Jim Mullaek popped up and Dunleavy grounded out to end the inning.

More And More--

The Elks added two more runs in the second. John Mullaek grounded out, Jimmy Dunn walked and Gene Gelschen did likewise. Kastner singled scoring Jimmy Dunn, then Tommy Dunn singled to score Gelschen.

The Elks went to work in the third frame harder than ever. Seven hits, including a double by Dunleavy and a triple by John Mullaek, coupled with a sacrifice and an error, gave the Elks six runs. Every man in the Elks' line-up batted in this inning.

Out of The Slump

St. Anthonys came out of their slump in the fifth inning. Tony Carchio singled for a starter. Cozzi hit to Zimo Flynn, but the latter fumbled and Carchio took third. Carchio scored a moment later on Klemz's error. Mercurio singled, scoring Cozzi. Peters scored on an infield out and Jerry Bonavita's single scored Mercurio with the final St. Anthony run.

A glance at the box score shows that the Elks had their eyes on the ball. They hammered Cozzi and Snell for eleven safeties. Jim Dunleavy, with a triple and a double, and Tommy Dunn, Arty Lamb and Kastner with two singles apiece led the attack. St. Anthonys went hitless up until the fifth inning when darkness interfered.

Lots of "Ifs" Before Coach Can Produce Football Team As Good as the 1929 Outfit

It won't be long now. We mean the football season. Coach Carl Erickson of the local High School football eleven will probably issue a call for candidates some time next week. Before the season starts the Blue and Gold coach will be confronted with several "ifs."

If he can develop a fair backfield this season he should have a fairly successful season. If he can develop a tackle he will have a line which should be like the Rock of Gibraltar. Last season the situation was just the opposite.

The 1929 eleven had such backs as Paul Short, Paul Schweiker, "Ook" Anderten, Turk Byrnes and others. Imagine losing four backfield men, especially these four! It is enough to discourage any coach. However, Erickson is not the type to sit back and moan. Before the season is very old "Pop" will develop a good quartet.

ONLY VETERAN

The only veteran backfield man left is Fritz Plenge. The latter is a good back, but cannot be classed with Short or Schweiker. Plenge is the plunger type, not particularly fast, but always good for a gain. He will be a good man to fill Anderten's shoes.

There are several youths who performed with the second team backfield last season who should make good. They are Bill Griffin, Nick Bonavita and "Fuzzy" Ryder. Griffin showed to good advantage towards the latter part of last season. Bonavita is a good running back and should make the grade. Ryder is a fairly good back, but is light for a gruelling campaign.

Jerry Bonavita, crack end of last season's eleven, may win a backfield berth. Jerry is fast, husky, a fair passer and a mediocre punter. Of all the backfield candidates Jerry Bonavita has the best build for a backfield man.

HALF DOZEN OF ONE

Still, shifting Jerry Bonavita to the backfield means the loss of a crackerjack end. Ralph Casale, who saw considerable service as an end last season is practically certain of winning a regular berth as a wingman.

Casale is the best tackler on the squad and it was only his slight stature that cost him a regular berth last season. Casale has picked up weight since last season and should be one of the stars of this year's team.

Just who will be Casale's running mate at the other end is a big problem. There's a big opening there and a keen battle among some of the new candidates for this position is expected.

Chuck Plenge, a second string end from last season, will be back in school. If he can pick up a little on his form of last season he has a good chance of gaining the berth.

REST OF LINE IS GOOD

The rest of the line is fairly well fortified. Captain Lou Galluba, veteran tackle is certain to play at his old position. Galluba hovers around the 190 mark and looks like a man mountain in a football uniform.

Other veteran linemen are Harold Bade, Red McMaster, Butter Brandt, Homer Estelle and Stan Goodrich. Brandt played in every game last season and is a fine pivotman. Bade started last season as a second stringer, but won a regular berth after a few games.

He is a good guard who has the goods and if he plays like he did towards the latter part of the season Erickson is sure to have a great lineman. McMaster and Estelle had tough luck last year. Both were injured in the middle of the season, just when they were at the peak of their game.

PARK ATHLETIC AND SOCIAL CLUB LEASES CLUBHOUSE; PLAN ON PERMANENT HOME

Negotiations were completed last week between the Park Athletic and Social Club, Inc., and Mrs. J. Kriss, for leasing of the first floor premises at Belleville and Parkview avenues. The treasurer has spent a considerable amount for furnishings and when all is put in place the members will have a comfortable home to spend their evenings. The official opening will take place on September 2.

Park A. C. will celebrate its third year of incorporation in October, and each year it has moved to larger and better headquarters. The Board of Trustees have promised their members that their next move will be to a house of their own, and this will probably take place next summer.

New Orleans Never Second

In answer to a query the bureau of the census says New Orleans has never ranked second in size, according to population. In 1840 New Orleans ranked third. New York and Baltimore were both larger than New Orleans. The population of New York, Baltimore and New Orleans at this time was: New York, 312,170; Baltimore, 102,313, and New Orleans, 102,193.

Brass Bands Popular

The brass band movement, which has greatly influenced the musical tastes and talents of the working class of England, originated more than 100 years ago, and there are now more than 3,000 brass bands in the villages and larger towns.

Girth Unit of Measurement

Ancient units of measurement were far from accurate. The Roman weights were true only to one part in fifty. The Egyptians were unable to test the accuracy of their units of length closer than one part in 350. Going back further we find they were very rough indeed. In primitive times a yard was probably at first the length around the waist, which naturally was apt to vary.

It is a mistaken idea that graves are placed so they are not directly east and west. In modern cemeteries graves are located so that they conform to the paths leading through the cemetery, rather than to a certain point of the compass.
