Veterans Feel Certain Of Walk-A-Marathon

Commission Leaves It Up
To Local Police Department

A delegation of Veterans of Foreign Wars appeared before the Board of Commissioners in conference Tuesday afternoon requesting that the local veterans association be granted a permit to conduct a "Walk-A-Marathon," at Riviera Park. The board's attitude was favorable toward the request, but, permission is being withheld pending the decision of Chief of Police Michael Flynn.

The "Walk-A-Marathon" is a combination of walking and dancing which relieves the strain of continuous dancing. It was also made known that a doctor and a nurse will be in attendance at all times and every possible step will be taken to safeguard the health of the entrants.

A discussion took place on the possibility of immortality at an affair of this type. This was immediately settled when it was made clear that the affair would be under the supervision of the police at all times.

Another benefit of the marathon is that between forty and sixty local men will be given employment for an indefinite length of time and chancemen now idle, would be put back on the job.

At the evening session Commissioner Williams made his third plea that all bills made out to the same company be combined and read as one total. This would save time by cutting down the number of individual bills read each week. The question was laid over for further discussion at a future conference of the board.

Three Ordinances authorizing the issuance of a total of $240,000 in assessment bonds, were passed on first reading.

The town will shortly receive $2,563.68 in personal taxes covering a four year period, from the insolvent United States Cutlery Company, formerly located at 10 Main street.

This arrangement was made after Commissioner Williams agreed to reduce the interest on the firm's 1929 taxes and deduct taxes for the latter part of 1932 during which time the concern was out of business and in the hands of a receiver. It is the receiver of the concern who agreed to pay these back taxes to the town.

HOMESPUN SENSE

ETHICS OF BANKING

By MELVIN A. TRAYLOR
President
First National Bank, Chicago

Melvin A. Traylor

The function of a bank is, after all, a quasi-public one, and the banker who has no regard for the ultimate prosperity of his customers, and his community will be very quickly condemned by the common sense of the latter, and will ultimately destroy not merely his own reputation but also bring about the downfall of his community.

In other words, the prosperity of a bank is founded upon the prosperity of the community and country in which it is situated.

Banker in Strategic Position

The banker has always held a strategic position in the business world, and obviously the first requisite necessary is that the banker shall be honest. I do not mean with "honest" merely that he should be honest to the extent that he would not embezzle funds or swindle his customers and clients. The honesty to which I refer must be of a much higher and greater type.

He must be willing to forego momentary advantages because in the long run the specific action may bring harm to his customers or possibly to business generally.

Sentiment in Business

Sentiment in business? Yes, there is nothing else. What is it that prompts agitation for reforms in every avenue of life? Why is it we are interested in better agriculture, better roads, better schools, better community life? It is sentiment; it is affection; it is pride; it is sense of duty.

It is faith, confidence, hope, the intangible that forms the very wool and warp of modern business, and nowhere in so large a degree is this true as in banking, and in no sphere of banking to so great an extent as in the country bank.

Truly the work of the country banker touches the life of the community at every point, from the wedding chancel to the cemetery, and at no point does it touch so lightly as at that of cold-blooded business consideration. It is sentiment from the opening hour until the closing hour, and many hours when no banking can be done.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Summerfield and daughter Eleanor of Little street spent the week-end at their summer home at Glenwood Lake, Sussex.

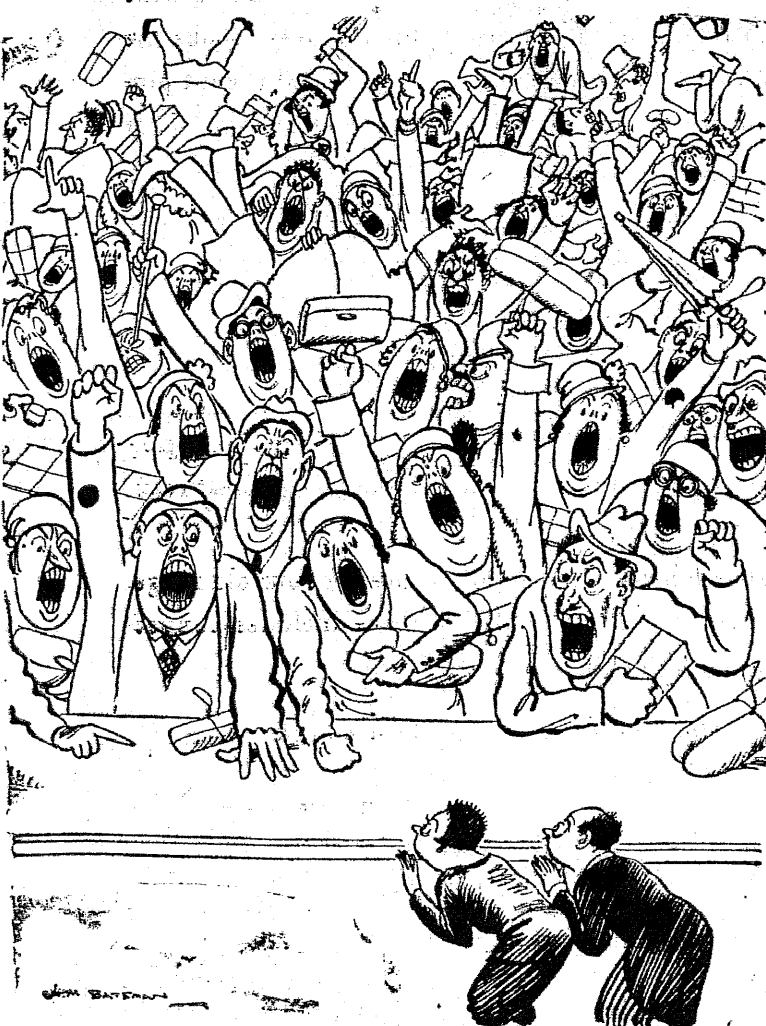

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Ridgway of Little street were guests of friends at Fanwood, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swick of Little street had as guests over the past week-end Mrs. Katherine Barbey and daughter Miss Louise Barbey of New York City. Monday the group included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Preston, and Mrs. Mary Specht of Belleville and all motored to Annandale, where they were guests of relatives of Mr. Swick's.

Harry Phillips and Charles Schumacher led the flag salute and the recital of the school creed. Scripture reading by Ethel Searl, band selections led by Carl A. Erikson of the faculty and singing by students concluded the program. Principal Charles Steel presided. Miss Regina Brennan of the faculty arranged the service.

After exercises in the assembly at School No. 2 the same afternoon there was a service on the lawn at the base of the William T. Smith memorial tree. The Henry Vreeland Woman's Relief Corps of Belleville participated. R. E. Bert, principal of the school, spoke and Mrs. Edith Hahn of Bloomfield, chaplain of the corps, offered prayer.

A play, "The Old Veteran," was given at School No. 9, of which Thomas Gryczka is principal. Miss Violet McElathery and Mrs. Wilma Oswald Smith directed the performance, which was given by third and fourth grade pupils.

Well, it won't be long now! Exams started today and will continue to the latter part of next week.

The annual class night program is scheduled for Tuesday, June 21 and the date for Commencement exercises is set as June 28.

was chock full of news, jokes, dirt, etc. about the future seniors of Belleville High.

Belleville High's first year book is due within the next few weeks and everyone is anxious to help make it a huge success. (If they have the fifty cents to buy it).

Mr. Kane, Scout Master of Troop 92, met with Troop 4 on Monday night, May 23 and reorganized it. The troop committee met at the same time with Mr. Brumbach, District Commissioner of the Boy Scouts. J. Phillips was appointed Scout Master and many plans were made to make Troop 4 one of our leading troops of boys.

Mr. Kane has kindly agreed to meet with Mr. Phillips and the boys each week until the end of the season. By September the troop will be very well organized with Mr. Phillips in full charge.

Mr. Brumbach took a group of about twenty fellows on a week-end hike to Camp Mohican. The party left 6:30 P. M. May 27 and did not get back until night on Memorial Day. The boys surely had a good time and although tired, they were very happy when they returned.

Troop 89 had a 100 per cent attendance at their last meeting on Monday evening. This shows the kind of fellows belonging to Troop 89. Dr. Reock visited the troop and was delighted with the spirit of the troop.

The baseball team of 89 played its second game of the season and won again, 12-10. This time they played the Orioles.

For the summer months it was decided to have just one meeting each month. This was agreed upon because many of the fellows will be away with their parents on vacation.

The Heritage American Room

No. 6—Overcoming Bad Architectural Features

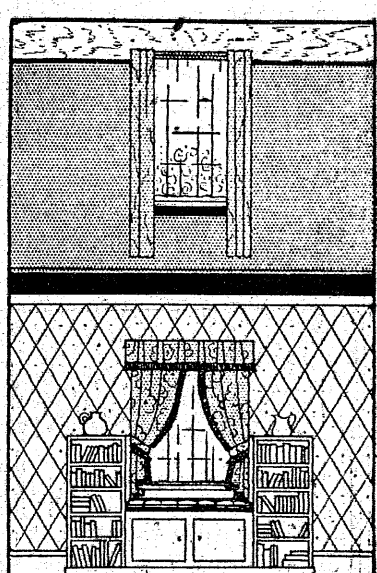

By CARL HECK

Consulting Art Director, Bigelow Weavers

MANY of the homes in this country show the influence of the local builder, because the majority of the older homes were built from the plans made by the builder, unassisted by the architect. Consequently, many interior architectural features, now recognized as undesirable, are common to most of these older homes. Our Heritage American room is no exception.

The chief trouble in the room we are now doing over is a solitary window that stands directly in the center of the left wall and presents a difficult problem of arrangement. We can overcome this difficulty by building up-to-date open bookshelves on each side of the window, connected by a window seat. This enables us to discard the antiquated golden oak sectional bookcase which originally stood opposite the one window. These shelves, together with the new draperies and valances now form an interesting wall grouping. One of the lower book shelves, incidentally, makes an excellent location for a small radio set. The window seat is topped with a blue-green pad of the same material as the sofa to repeat the green color note found in the rug. Old magazines and other odds and ends can be hidden away in the cabinet under the window seat. By treating the wall in this manner, we form a focal point of interest around the window and bookshelves which serves the same decorative purpose as a fireplace in other rooms.

Another bad feature found in many homes is an unusually large entrance way between the living room and the dining room. Here long draperies can be hung to reduce the size of the entrance. These draperies are useful as well as decorative since they can be drawn whenever necessary to separate the two rooms.

This novel window group supplies the focal point of interest usually furnished by the fireplace. It converts the awkward window into a charming setting.

We have now prepared our room for the additional new pieces which we have wanted for a long time and which are necessary to complete our picture. The next article will deal with these new pieces.

PUBLIC HEALTH

by Dr. Edwin F. Hahn

ASTHMA

This is a term applied to many conditions associated with difficult breathing as for instance in the course of heart and kidney disease. Strictly speaking the term according to Osler should be limited to the condition known as Bronchial or Spasmodic Asthma. The causes of this condition are many and varied. A certain percentage of sufferers have a poorly balanced nervous system.

Spasm of the bronchial muscles. Swelling of the lining membrane of the bronchial tubes spasmodic contraction of the diaphragm have been mentioned as causing certain generalities with regard to cause should also be considered such as sex—males more frequently than females, family history—frequent running in families especially those of a neurotic tendency. Its close resemblance to and association with hay fever. Odors from hay, flowers, and emanations from animals may cause an attack. Climate and locality often exert a marked influence. The object of this article however, is to call attention to the fact that great many conditions are masquerading under the name of asthma which are not asthma at all. In the words of the eminent Dr. Jackson of Philadelphia, "All is not asthma that wheezes." It is extremely important to bear this in mind because if the true diagnosis is missed the possibility of cure is greatly diminished.

The following conditions have been diagnosed as asthma incorrectly repeatedly.

Constriction or occlusion of either the trachea (wind pipe) or one of both main bronchial tubes by compression from some of the glands or growths lying upon their outer wall. In children the thymus gland is a frequent offender, in adults the thyroid (goiter). In addition growths upon the inner walls of the breathing tubes just mentioned may cause symptoms of asthma. These growths vary in size and character. Inflammation either acute or chronic of the entire respiratory tract or any part of it may cause the same symptoms such as, for instance sudden severe swelling of the vocal cords or a partial paralysis of the same. To the above must be added infection especially chronic, of the nasal sinuses which is present in a large percentage of chronic asthmatics and is frequently the primary factor. Infected teeth too occasionally play a part.

In addition foreign bodies in the respiratory tract are frequent causes. So much so that to quote figures from one clinic 48 children whose symptoms were entirely due to a foreign body and its secondary pus formation had come for treatment after being diagnosed as asthma. In seven of the 48 cases the foreign body was in the Esophagus. Armed with the above information one can readily see that a diagnosis cannot be made without due care and deliberation together with intensive observation and frequent examination. When we consider that treatment and ultimate outcome depend upon this we realize its importance.

First: A diagnosis of bronchial asthma is safe to say should never be made without a Bronchoscopic examination performed by a man skilled in this type of work. All the larger hospitals now are equipped to do this.

Secondarily: A diagnosis of asthma is not complete without an X-ray examination of chest, sinuses and teeth.

If these precautions are taken many cases of so-called Bronchial Asthma will be correctly diagnosed and proper treatment instituted to the gratification of patient and physician.

Health questions will be answered by Dr. Hahn. Write him in care of this paper. The answer will be published in our next issue.

Question: Will you please write through "The" cure or at least relief for callous on the soles of feet. I thank you.
MRS. H. W.

Answer: Drug stores have a green plaster composed of Cannabis and Salicylic Acid. Apply this to callous spots, soak feet in a solution of washing soda and warm water. When perfectly dry use a corn file to scrape off. You will find great relief if you wear insoles with hole cut out where the callous spot is located. Wear proper fitting shoes with a good substantial sole.
EDWIN F. HAHN, M.D.

Question: My trouble is in the rectum. When I go to stool or force myself a piece of soft flesh about 1/2-inch long comes down and later I think there is matter. I suffer no pain only inconvenience. I have had it for a few years. Otherwise I am well only pains in my knees, and a slight pain in back once in a while. Hoping I am not troubling you too much.
S. M. J.

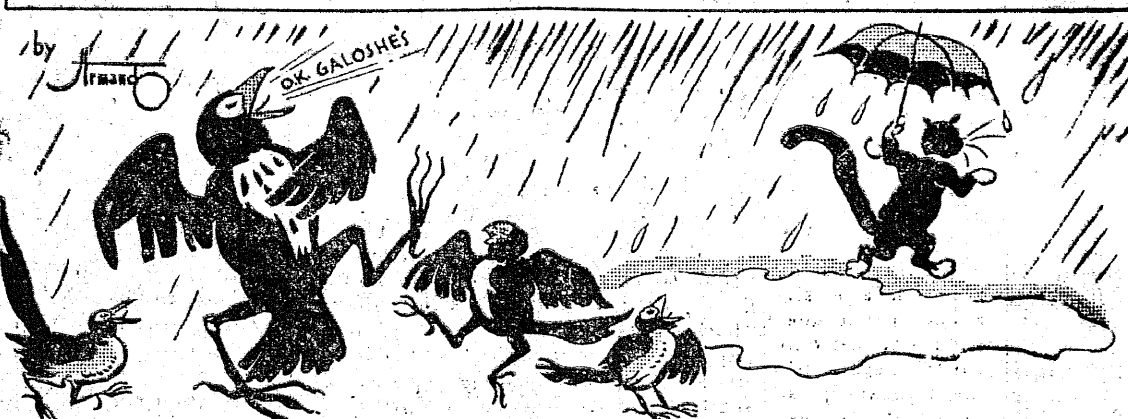

Answer: From your description should say this is a Hemorrhoid. Piles—internal—as you are not suffering from same it is not of much concern, still it could and should be healed. Get some Nuttall Ointment, insert some up inside 3 times a day. Keep bowels regular with Mineral Oil and Agar Agar. Rub knees and back with Oil of Wintergreen.

EDWIN F. HAHN, M.D.

Question: School boy age 13, suffering from headaches past 2 years. Have not paid attention to them but lately have them 2 or 3 times a week and feel nauseous. What is the cause?
MR. L. B.

Answer: Headache is a symptom from many causes, mainly eye strain, overstudy, incorrect diet, constipation, worry, run-down condition, heart, anaemia, weakness. I would advise a thorough physical examination to find and treat the cause.
EDWIN F. HAHN, M.D.

NEW MEDICINE WORKING WONDERS

CONQUERS CONSTIPATION

It is often very difficult to recognize constipation. You may be having regular bowel movements but they may not be thorough. Self-poisoning might occur, which is the absorption into the blood of poisons from accumulating waste matter in the intestines. The blood saturates the body daily with these poisons. Results are often serious. From the continued attack of intestinal poisons some vital organ eventually breaks down and chronic invalidism and shortened life results.

For your guidance in recognizing and hence over-coming constipation and its dread results, we are listing below some of the symptoms by which physicians recognize the presence of constipation.

If you are often subject to one or more of these disorders, constipation is very probably the cause.

Headache
Gas
Belching
Bad Breath
Dizziness
Coated Tongue
Flatulence
Insomnia
(Sleeplessness)
Biliousness
Continual Fatigue
Pimples
Hemorrhoids
(Piles)

Abdominal Tenderness
Lack of Appetite
Incalculable Hunger
Nausea (1-3 Hrs. After Eating)
So-called Rheumatism
High-Blood Pressure
Auto-intoxication
Springtime Weakness

Unfortunately, up to within recent years it was difficult if not impossible to secure efficient evacuation of the bowel contents. It cannot be accomplished by the use of drugs commonly known as purgatives, cathartics, or laxatives, such as castor oil, pills, salts, mineral water and the like. These disturb and irritate the stomach and often affect the kidneys. Only through the principle of lubrication as embodied in Alagar can regular thorough elimination of waste matter be harmlessly accomplished.

Alagar is an emulsion of Russian Mineral Oil with Agar Agar and the well-known intestinal antiseptic Phenolphthalein. Its distinct Maple Flavor makes it very pleasant and palatable.

This product, Alagar, which contains pure ingredients, is a finely emulsified preparation of a pinkish color and is prepared with special care by our chemists in our own laboratory. It is regularly prescribed by leading physicians in their daily practice and in hospitals.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed
in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas floats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

DOUBLE CROSSING

WE hear so much of "double-crossing" in these hectic days of political warfare we were interested to learn where the term originated. Of course it is really a slang term meaning to betray one person to another. About forty or fifty years ago a political boss in New York testified before an investigating committee that when a constituent asked a favor he was in the habit of making a record of the person's name and the request. If he intended to grant the petition he would mark a cross after the name. Occasionally he changed his mind when he would add another cross. As he testified he stated, "I crossed Jones and I double-crossed Smith." This explanation is probably only a theory but the word aptly describes that unspeakable class of political hangers-on who make it a business to "play both sides in."

AUTOMOBILE-MANNERS

NOT only is the technique of British automobile drivers improving, but their manners are equally progressive toward perfection, according to a report issued by the automobile association of London. In this country there is a sustained drive by scores of agencies looking toward the improvement of driving ability or technique. It might be a good idea to stress manners also. If you don't think a lesson in manners is needed, try to cross a street and see how many drivers will stop to let you proceed. And watch motorists driving through puddles on rainy days, splashing pedestrians on all sides.

THE TALKING ROBOT

IT was bound to come! The robot supersalesman has been invented and is being shown at a Chicago convention. The mechanical talking man, once a person enters the room, begins to talk, and there is no way to avoid him short of leaving the room. The invention has a sneaking sort of approach, too, for the victim is unaware of the scheme until his ears are assailed. The only ray of hope is in the possibility that the robot orator will be employed in giving political speeches. He certainly should do better than many political spouters, and his speech can be confined to a subject.

Gertrude Lang, Student Prince Star, Knows Her Broiled Steaks

Gertrude Lang shows how she makes a round steak "fit for a king" by adding salt, pepper, and sugar as seasoners.

Reveals Trick of Seasoning Which Helps Improve The Flavor

MAYBE it's the depression or maybe they like to cook, but fact, the stars on Broadway and even the stars in Hollywood are all trying to outshine each other in producing culinary masterpieces.

Out on the coast, platinum blonde Jean Harlow does tricks with a bunch of beet and a saucepan that makes even the family cook turn green with envy.

Not to be outdone, Gertrude Lang, Broadway songbird, who stars as "Kathie" in Gotham's revival of the Student Prince, has taken her cookbook in hand and produced a steak that is guaranteed to make the most jaded appetite snap back into life.

"There is nothing really mysterious or difficult about broiling a steak," said Miss Lang. "The reason why so many steaks taste like a piece of old felt hat is because they are tossed in a broiler and left to nature and a good strong flame. Seasoning is just as important in meat cooking as it is with vegetables and I believe all amateur cooks should be made to repeat over to themselves a dash of sugar, a pinch of salt and a little pepper at least one thousand times before they approach the kitchen range.

Salt and pepper are extremely important for their seasoning qualities and the sugar, while used primarily as a seasoner, also has added value. When rubbed into steaks it caramelizes, forming a thick brown crust which seals in the juices, giving added nutritional value to the meat.

Here is Miss Lang's favorite recipe which looks so good. It's worth trying for dinner tonight.

Broiled Round or Rump Steak

Select a steak cut 1 to 1½ inches thick, rub into it a mixture of 1 teaspoonful each of salt and sugar and ¼ teaspoonful of pepper. Brush a ¼ teaspoonful of oil or butter with fat and place the steak to cook. Turn now and then until done to your taste, serve on a hot platter, dotting butter over the meat before serving.

Descriptive Pamphlets Free For Use by Legion Posts

RESUME WRITTEN IN PLAIN LANGUAGE WITH SUGGESTIONS ON HOW TO PRESENT CLAIMS

Every veteran who has joined, or becomes a member of the American Legion for 1932, and whose card and dues are of record with the national organization by July 10th, will receive without charge a thirty-two-page magazine-size booklet, written in plain language, describing all federal and state laws pertaining to World War veterans.

This announcement was made by Arthur H. Christie, post commander of the Legion here, following advice received from national headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Not only will there be a full description of all such laws, in words that any person will be able to understand, but all confusing technicalities, and most of the legal references, such as "202-10," will be eliminated.

Contains Suggestions On Claims One of the most important features of the booklet will be suggestions as to how claims may be started and followed through. Often, according to Legion officials, an ex-service man knows in his own heart that he has a just claim for compensation, and that, the government is willing, and eager to do the right thing, but too often lack of information prevents the case receiving the attention it deserves. He gets a copy of the law and doesn't understand it. Perhaps he has written a few letters, when first he should have obtained an affidavit, made a certified copy of his discharge papers, or included a statement from his physician.

So far as national headquarters of the American Legion has been able to discover, there is no such consolidated material in existence as will be contained in this booklet, and certainly there is none available without charge.

Available to Members Only The booklet will be available only to those who are members of the Legion. It can not be purchased, and besides being of great value to the individual veteran, it likewise will be a sure guide to those veterans who are requested from time to time to aid others with their claims.

In nearly every hamlet in the United States, the merchants and other outstanding public figures are often requested for advice by ex-service men, and the possession of this booklet will undoubtedly be the center of such gatherings in many places following its issuance.

Distribution of the booklet will be made with the August issue of The American Legion Monthly as a supplement of that publication, which goes each month to every member of the organization whose membership card and dues have been received. This means that the monthly cards from all new members wishing to get this supplement must be cleared through posts and actually in The American Legion Monthly offices on July 10th.

Become A Member Before June 25 This point should be made clear to prospective members by all posts, as there can be no extension beyond the July 10 date, because the booklets will not be furnished outside the Monthly mailing list. The post, therefore wishes to conclude this activity by June 25.

The booklet will be periodically revised and pages issued for inserts. It should in no way be confused with the government codification of federal laws of interest to veterans of ALL WARS, and which the Legion sponsored in Congress. The codification is being compiled by the Veterans' Bureau. That will be a voluminous technical document, and no doubt will be sold to individuals about six months from now at a comparatively considerable price.

The Legion booklet has been produced by the highest class of writers in the country, staff men and editors of The American Legion Monthly who have followed each law as it was proposed, introduced in Congress, passed, and then put into operation.

Writers Understand Problems These men know the needs of veterans, not only as those needs are met in provisions of the law, but they also know the trials and problems of the veterans who try to get benefits from the law.

The Legion booklet has been written especially to meet the requirements of every World War veteran, and to answer the thousands of requests for information that come into the editorial offices and the national headquarters, as well as into the national rehabilitation offices in Washington, which is the national head of the Legion's service work, and which has carefully passed judgment on everything written in the booklet.

NOT ON THE AIR

by JERRY WALD

Buzzing Bits 'Bout Broadcasting Blvd!

Old age is creeping on us! . . . The strain and strife attached to twenty daily hours of gossip-gathering is wearing these young shoulders down and is dimming these youthful eyes! . . . For example, in our comment of the Rogers' opening yesterday, we mentioned some facts concerning Lew Brown, the songsmith, and now it develops that the accident we reported happened to two other fellows . . . Lew was sore, and rightly so, and so are we to some extent, at the moment! . . . Our profound apology, Lew, all we can say to you is that your reaction to the line was the same as any other decent man would have been under the same circumstances . . . We probably need glasses! . . . Empire State Building takes to the airwaves via WOR, next Wednesday, with Frances Langford and Freddy Berin's orchestra starring the bill . . . Both networks are angling for that Boston sweet singer of songs, Rennie Weeks! . . . Olsen and Johnson, the vaudeville favorites, will be dotted lined by those yeast sponsors for a thirteen-week period . . . Those splendid Sherlock Holmes programs fade off the air channels June 27 . . . Howard Lane, with his union trouble all patched up, will replace Max Smolen June 13 on those "Evening in Paris" periods . . . So Jacques Repard doesn't go for limburger cheese . . . Get him to tell you why and when it all happened! . . . Nestle and Victor Moore arguing about salary cuts, with the stage star saying "no-go" . . . Despite what you've heard to the contrary, Buddy Rogers turned in his "Hot-Cha!" notice some two weeks ago . . . Last week the producer announced a 25 per cent. cut, which naturally Rogers refused to take! . . . Latest reports say that the show will exit from the boards this Saturday eve, so you can expect the former flicker favorite to start flirting for sponsored offerings . . . Frank Hazzard, a guy, is taking lessons from Cantor Rosenblatt, as to the correct way of warbling "Bill, Bill" and "Kol Nidre" . . . They're not so satisfied with June McCloy's work on the Penn roof, so she may be zipped from there in a fortnight . . . I say "may" . . . Harriet Lee is suffering from a nervous shock as the result of that auto spill she was in Tuesday eve, in which a 19-year-old lad was fatally injured . . . Abe Lyman and Con Conrad go Bermuda-ing for the week end . . . Those funny Gloomchaser fellows stage at the Loew's State tomorrow . . . Frank Knight, the word-slinger, is burning because he broke his pet walking stick . . . Don't be surprised if Larry Lowman, vice-president of CBS, follows in Bill Paley's footsteps and ties up with a swanky seventh sweet, whose initials are M. U.

Sudden Switchings of the Static Social Spotlight!

Man the boats! . . . And if it's real boat atmosphere you crave, you should have been up at that Freddie Martin opening on the roof of the Hotel Bossert, out Brooklyn way, Tuesday eve! . . . Everything in the way of decorations and scenery to remind you're bounding along the bounding main . . . Even so far as a clear sight of the Statue of Liberty staring up at you from the East River bay, while you glide along to Capt. Martin's waves of melody along with Elmer Feldkamp's sea of songs . . . Here is a music-making outfit that deserves to cross the river and set the tempo at one of the birge soots on this side of the Brocklyn Bridge . . . And for a novelty a non-wise-cracking job of master-of-cermoning was done by Louie Dean, the Madison Avenue Air Castle word-slinger . . . Not so good, but the sincerity of his introductions made up for anything else he lacked . . . Which again proves that a radioiste should stick to his mike! . . . Among those on deck was the genial Doc Ransom, purveyor of radio smiles, who didn't seem to mind being introduced as the much-mistaken-for Eddie G. Robinson, of flicker fame! . . . Directly across the floor sat another radio scribbler, the portly Dave Bratton, chewing on some chips with his smiling young wife cautioning him to be KIND to his waistline . . . George (orchestra leader) Hall, forgetting to Tarry at the Taft, was there in all his splendor, which seems to consist, as far as we can see, in a very small mustache which he is forever slinging with a cigar smoked down below the danger line! . . . Nell (CBS artist bureau) Conklin and his missus, who had to applaud at Dean's meager quips because of the good ol' Alma Columbia! . . . Lou hardly had chance to introduce Helen (double-you-able-see songstress) Hunter before she was finished with the introduction and half through the chorus of "Too Many Tears" . . . In justice to Helen, though, she told us that she hated to have people think that she wanted coaxing! . . . Then there was that well ga-ga watered gal who came over to us with a pen and requests "Won't you please autograph my glove, Uncle Nick" . . . Dave (Irving Berlin) Dryer correcting the lass by telling her that we were Mike Foster . . . Lou again showing his allegiance to his Madison Avenue boss by introducing Doug O'Connor of the press dept!

The big table of the evening was occupied by the Feist constituency, the Bob Schueings, Benny Alberts and Johnny Loeb, while Dave Green, the Ballyhoo Boy, sitting at the same table, but yelling for songs from Shapiro-Bernstein, where Green's office is located! . . . Another lad, Ben Cutler and a favorite of Society, spent a few minutes singing about "One Hour With You" . . . The event of the evening was the necessity of persuading Art (sing 'em quick) Jarrett, who was widely supported by the presence of Nemo, to warble . . . When he finally did take to the floor, he took the roof by storm and was compelled to do three encores, among which he optimistically heralded his (perhaps) replacement of Eddy Rogers in "Hot-Cha!" by singing "You Can Make My Life a Bed of Roses" the Lew Brown-Ray Henderson hit tune of the show . . . Eddie Lane, the lanky pilot of the musical destinies of the Hotel McAlpin ensemble, struts in late and when called upon for a bow, throws in a little speech about the reason for his attending openings of late is that he is preparing to become a song-plugger in case his fiddle tails him . . . And that reminds us, the other chairs were warmed by the good old brother-hood of "Please Play My Singers."

By all reports, Joe Moss must have had a snooty opening at the Pierre Roof, with that flock of fabulous fifty femmes on hand to help Joe break in the roof! . . . Early Tuesday evening, we taxi with Columbia's Bob Tiplinger to see Ted Husing and quite surprised to see the sportsinger walking around and just itching to get out of the ailing room, which will probably be today or tomorrow . . . Chin-chattering on this and that we learn now that summer is even closer to the corner than television or prosperity, golf is the order of the day among your favorite microphoners! . . . The broadcasters have more opportunity to trudge the fairways than do those of stage and screen, because, for the most part, their mornings and early afternoons are free . . . Thus the repetition rooms at both air castles these nights are replete with such gab as "You should have seen the par I shot on the long eight" and "if I could only had a six on the last hole, I'd cracked 90" . . . Trying to award a Radio Row golf championship is a difficult task . . . Bing Crosby, one of the better golfers, is out of town and none of his recent scores have been telegraphed back to a waiting world! . . . In his absence, the palm probably should go to Al Newman. Abe Lyman's ace piano tickler!

WOMAN

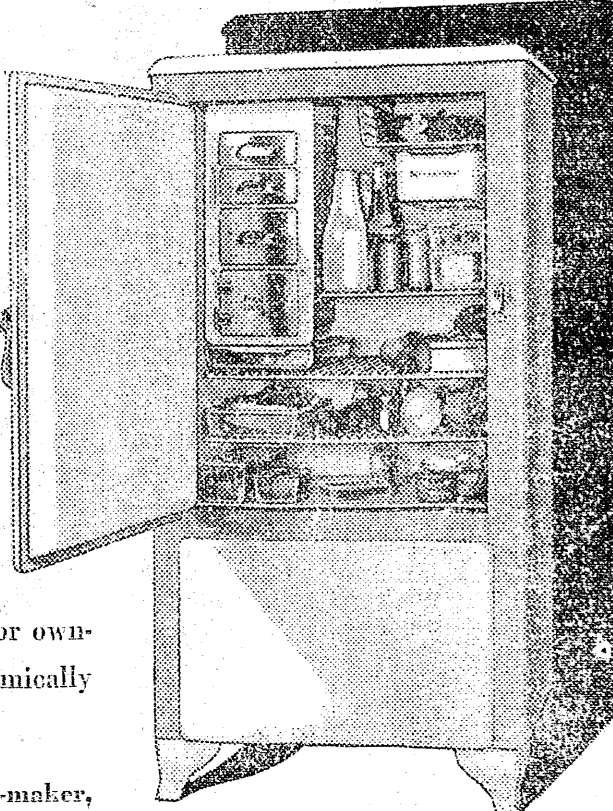

THIS year feminine fashionables all over the world are all for stripes. And they favor stripes in varying widths and use them in not only one direction but in three or four. Indeed, one frock oftentimes boasts of that many... the stripes will go one way on the bodice, another way in the skirt, and still another way in the epaulets. (McCall 6917).

The very smart frock illustrated uses color at its odd closing neckline and in the contrasting solid-colored belt. The epaulets and close-fitting oval neckline give that broad-shouldered look... an essential feature of 1932 styling. (By courtesy of The McCall Company).

Do You Know What Love Is?

By ELITA WILSON

Has love brought you unhappiness? Have you known the torture of watching love die, feeling helpless to save it? Is your marriage going on the rocks? Then write Elita Wilson and she will help you.

Although the national divorce rate has increased during the past year, the divorce rate out in Chicago has decreased about 22 per cent.

Judge Joseph Sabath, who has heard 50,000 divorce cases during his sixteen years on the bench, attributes this decrease to hard times.

"When the going is difficult, a man and wife will usually do better team work," he said. "Very few married couples have much money to spend on pleasures, and this has resulted in a drawing closer together, staying more at home."

Another interesting angle brought out by Judge Sabath is the decrease in hasty marriages. "Young people now have serious things to think about when considering marriage," he declared, "but hard times should not discourage when real love is there. I was making $7 a week when I got married and that marriage has never brought me anything but happiness."

SPEAKING OF MARRIAGE

Forty years is a long time to wait for your honeymoon; a long time, too, to keep romance alive. Yet George Pierce and his wife, Lucy, of Oklahoma City, have done both. They have just left for their belated honeymoon. After all these years their ship has come in via an Oklahoma oil field.

SHE REALLY MEANT IT

Remember the article printed in this column recently by Alice Foote MacDougall, who put the American room on an efficiency basis? And do you recall that she said that "the thrills of business never compensate a woman for all that she sacrifices"—and that she, herself, was looking forward to the time when she could have a real home again?

Well, Mrs. MacDougall meant what she said. Her million-dollar business has gone into the hands of a receiver. She feels she has not the energy and enthusiasm she once had. She's tired. She wants to spend her remaining years just "being a woman."

ANOTHER CINDERELLA

Another "little taxi dancer" has walked off with a social register and heir to millions, and Park Avenue debt are having a splendid first. The latest dance hall romance to culminate in marriage is that of pretty Peggy Price and Robert Schermerhorn Randolph, Yale student. They were married early last fall, and have been sharing a tiny apartment uptown whenever Robert could escape the watchful eye of his family and social obligations.

OLD ENGLISH CUSTOM?

Here's a new racket, just uncovered across the big pond.

An English bookmaker's clerk has married sixty-seven women, sometimes marrying at the rate of two or three a day. No, it isn't a habit, nor is he a new type of Don Juan.

The clerk would cross the English Channel, marry a woman, bring her into Great Britain as his wife, and then, for a fee of $50 to $250, get her a real husband.

WOMEN MORE SPIRITUAL

Dr. Wells P. Eggleston, Newark brain specialist, says that a woman's brain in certain portions is more highly developed than a man's.

"I refer particularly," he says, "to that portion that controls moral and ethical reactions. This makes her more spiritual, while man always remains more carnal. The fact that a woman's brain is smaller than a man's does not impair her reasoning ability one whit."

COMPANIONATE MARRIAGE OUT

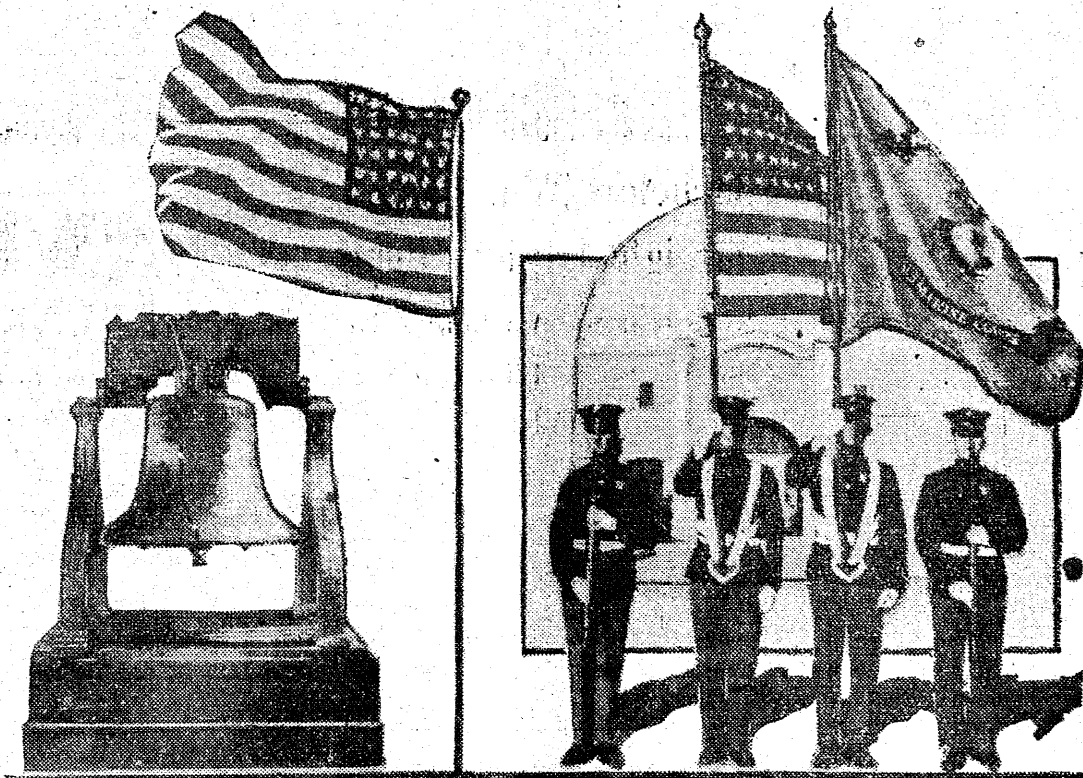

The majority of 164 men of Haverford College, Philadelphia, declared themselves opposed to companionate marriage.

SAFETY IN NUMBERS

King Lukenga of the Belgian Congo has 700 wives. He doesn't give them time to find out whether they like married life or not. When they aren't giving him children they are out tilling the fields or ministering to his comfort.

King Lukenga's male subjects can have as many wives as they want, the only stipulation being that they can support them. But there isn't a catch to it, because Belgian Congo wives are put to work by their husbands instead of hired labor.

SUN NEVER SETS ON OLD GLORY REVERED BY NATION SINCE 1777

Less than a year after the Liberty Bell rang out to celebrate the Declaration of Independence, the Stars and Stripes became the official flag of our country on June 14, 1777. The anniversary is now observed as Flag Day. At Right: U. S. Marines on parade with the National Flag and their regimental colors.

WE Americans may well be proud of our flag. It is the most beautiful of all national colors, and has pointed the way to freedom for countless thousands. It stands for patriotism, loyalty and fidelity to the ideals of America. For 155 years it has been waving in the breeze, the most-beloved symbol of our country.

Woodrow Wilson said: "This flag, which we honor and under which we serve, is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no other character than that which we give it from generation to generation."

"The choices are ours. It floats in majestic silence above the hosts that execute those choices, whether in peace or in war. And yet, though silent, it speaks to us—speaks to us of the past, of the men and women who went before us, and of the records they wrote upon it."

On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress decided "that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation." In the intervening years it has remained unchanged, save only for an occasional variation in the number of stripes and the addition of a star for each new state.

The story of the flag is the story of the nation. It has kept pace with the march of events that followed the Revolution, and has braved the battle and the breeze during more than a century and a half of national growth.

Its influence has gradually extended around the globe, and in our generation the sun never sets on the Stars and Stripes. Every minute of the twenty-four hours, somewhere on our planet the folds of Old Glory are flying in the breeze.

It is the custom of the U. S. Marines to raise the flag every morning at eight o'clock. It remains flying until sunset.

Three hours after the U. S. Marines at New York, Boston, Norfolk and other East Coast naval stations have raised the flag, the Marines at posts along the Pacific seaboard present arms to the colors as they are hoisted smartly to the top of the flagstaff—the time interval varying only when daylight saving is in vogue.

About two and a half hours later the ceremony is repeated in the Hawaiian Islands. More than five hours have rolled around before the flag is raised by the Soldiers of the Sea in the far-off Philippines, and at virtually the same hour in Shanghai, China, the Marines of the Fourth Regiment hoist the flag above their regimental headquarters.

Several hours later the westward march of daylight catches the fluttering folds of the Stars and Stripes flying over American Consulates in the Near East or in Europe, and when the sun has passed its zenith in the Old World, the flag is again flung to the breeze on the Atlantic seaboard.

Thus the Stars and Stripes makes its appearance in the early morning in all parts of the globe, and remains flying until the sun disappears over the horizon.

Our flag has never been a symbol of military aggression. At home or in some far distant outpost, it is America's guarantee to justice to those who seek protection under its folds.

A Heavy Tax on Wines And Beer Will Cure The Depression

The taxation question is a subject that is worrying business men everywhere at this time. They do not know where they are at.

Men who are active in promoting businesses of various kinds resent a heavy income tax; they consider it unfair. And if this whole tax question could be settled with a heavy tax on wines and beer, there would be a change in the business situation overnight.

Everybody would know that the budget would be balanced with this one method of taxation. The anti-prohibition propaganda has advertised liquor to such an extent that there is more drinking in this country per capita than there ever has been at any other time in the history of the nation.

The prohibitionists have over-reached themselves. In a blind effort to remedy the difficulty, they have made it many times worse, and they will have to begin all over again with the educational campaign that was conducted with outstanding success until they got the idea of forcing their principles upon others by law.

If the government really wants to remedy this depression, if they want to hasten the return of normal times, they can remove the fear of cutthroat taxation on legitimate business by placing a heavy tax on wines and beer. People everywhere are paying 25 cents a glass for beer. It could be sold for 10 cents a glass and taxed 5 or 6 cents a glass and still the manufacturer would have a liberal profit. A similar tax could be placed on wines.

This tax would raise all the money that the government needs to balance the budget. Then business men could return to their normal activities with the realization that their profits will not be taken from them, and at the same time the government will learn some details of the high cost of the income tax and its restrictive and handicapping influence on business, and will substitute another tax, such as the sales tax, for this costly error. Then everything will be plain sailing ahead—no obligations, no restrictions—business can go on building and developing with unlimited faith in future developments.

Tax the incomes of idlers if desired, but even this would to a certain extent handicap the investment of capital in businesses, which would be undesirable. Furthermore, there are so many ways of avoiding the payment of income tax that it is absolutely impossible for the government to secure a fair return from this source.

Taxes Will Be Topic Of Convention Friday

Spring Onions French Fried New Thrill

It's so often we have the great thrill of discovering something absolutely new—and here is a recipe of that kind. French fried onions have been appreciated for a long time but how many have tried deep fat frying for the young spring onion? Can you imagine the result of putting the sweet stalks of that very popular early vegetable, in milk and flour and cheese, too, if you wish, and then frying to a golden brown?

You have a real delight in store for you. The evaporated milk gives a perfect coating for deep fat purposes—it is easy to handle and makes the flour stick perfectly. When they are done, the young onions have a crisp, attractive brown jacket that nearly approaches pastry crust in thickness and palatable flavor.

French Fried Spring Onions

1/2 cup spring onion Flour
1/2 cup milk Grated cheese
1/2 cup salt
Evaporated milk Grated cheese
Select young spring onions. Clean and remove almost all of the green tops. Let stand 5 or 10 minutes in undiluted evaporated milk to which a little salt has been added. Remove one at a time and dip quickly in flour, then in milk again and flour. Or dip in finely grated cheese, then in the milk and flour. As much milk as possible should cling to the onions. Fry in deep fat hot enough to turn a 1-inch cube of bread golden-brown in 60 seconds (300° F.). Drain on unglazed paper, sprinkle with a little salt and grated cheese and serve at once.

The young onions prepared this way will be excellent for garnishing chops, roasts and steaks, and the homemaker who tries this recipe can expect a great many compliments on her ingenuity.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Walker of Bremond street, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elia A. Walker to Elmer B. Hosking, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hosking of 97 Tappan avenue, at an informal family dinner followed by cards Monday night. Members of both families present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hosking and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hosking of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hosking of Bloomfield and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brinkerhoff and daughter Barbara of Belleville. No definite date has as yet been announced for the wedding.

League of Municipalities while "The State's Viewpoint," will be discussed by Senator Arthur N. Pierson of Union County.

It is the hope of the officers and directors of the association that out of the convention this year will come a concrete program that will produce results and pull the State of New Jersey out of the slough and on a sound and solid road toward prosperity.

IN REGARD TO PLANTING

IN SPADING up your ground, drive the spade into the earth its full length before turning the earth.

THE general rule for covering seeds is to cover them twice their thickness. In the case of very fine flower seeds, they should merely be pressed firmly into the ground.

THE moisture that is in the ground is sufficient for most seeds. Too much moisture may rot the seeds and cause the seedlings to damp off after germination. Damping off is a fungus disease that flourishes when the soil is too wet.

SALVIA or scarlet sage furnish a brilliant red note to the garden. They are at their most gorgeous best in the fall. There are other colorings that have been developed in salvia, but the scarlet types are the popular ones.

IT TAKES twenty-five years to grow a tree and half that many minutes to cut it down and once it is down it can't be put back.

PEAS do best in a rich soil. Give them an application of fertilizer between the rows when planting the seed. The pea produces one crop and when the first full crop is harvested the vines should be pulled up. For a continuous supply, depend upon a succession of plantings.

DO NOT plant too thick either with vegetables or flowers. It is hard to thin out at times, especially where the young plants seem to be doing so well but, it must be done ruthlessly if you are to have worth while results.

BE SURE and include a few new varieties in your seed order. The novelties introduced this year will probably be standard varieties two or three years from now.

AS you plant your seeds be sure and mark the rows. The wooden labels are inexpensive and will last as long as you need them. A soft lead pencil is best for writing the varieties.

THE time of germination of the seeds you plant varies according to the variety. Radishes will appear sometimes in less than a week. Parsley will require about three weeks.

Ten Times Biggest Circus Here Soon

Ringling Bros. And Barnum
And Bailey Offers Stupendous Program

The world's largest circus, traveling on four trains of double-length steel railroad cars, with 1,600 people, 50 elephants, 1,009 menagerie animals and 700 horses will exhibit in Newark June 6 and 7 and throughout this section plans are perfecting for the attendance of every man, woman and child—so it seems—at one of the performances.

Everybody wishes to see the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus this year, and it is a foregone conclusion that the world's largest tent, seating 16,000 persons, will be filled to the last chair afternoon and night. Seven rings and stages and the hippodrome track, to say nothing of the vast maze of aerial and wire display rigging, will be filled by the earth's foremost acrobatic talent—eight hundred acknowledged kings and queens of daring, grace, skill and incredible agility. One hundred clowns will project ten times that number of mirth waves. Countless new foreign features and innovations new to America are introduced in the gigantic program of the Greatest Show on Earth this year.

By popular demand, a tribe of monster-mouthed Ubangi Savages from Africa's darkest depths are presented in the main performances.

A herd of the largest and tallest giraffes in captivity; 26 zebras and the same number of camels, two rhinoceroses and the seven herds of elephants will be seen in the huge menagerie tent, where 1,009 rare wild animals pace to and fro in ornate dens and cages.

Throughout circus day the three gigantic tented stables of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey organization will be open to the public free of charge. Here lovers of fine horses may view at random hundreds of the world's most beautiful thoroughbreds. Perfect specimens of almost every known strain will be found in the big show's great horse hall which also includes a congress of tiny Shetland ponies to delight the little folks.

Bell-boy Netsters

Lose To Central, 3-2

Anderten And Culkin Win Singles Matches For Locals

The Belleville High tennis aces had their victory string broken, Thursday afternoon, at the Clearman Field courts, going down before Central High of Newark, 3-2.

Failure to show to advantage in the doubles matches cost the Bell-boys the series. Both Belleville doubles combinations dropped their matches, after "Gowgie" Anderten and Al Culkin, playing in the singles had defeated their opponents, in easy fashion.

Anderten swamped the Central No. 1 man, Perlman, in love sets, 6-0, 6-0. Culkin also won his match in straight sets, downing Kofsky of the visitors, 6-4, 6-3. In the third singles set, Don Gauss, diminutive Bell-boy netster, bowed to Weinick, 3-6, 1-6.

Weinick and Kofsky of Central defeated the local combine of Manger-Leadbeater, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4, in the first doubles match while Perlman-Trachtenberg downed Brumbach and Cocks, 8-6, 7-5, in the other.

Gordonier Shuts Out Moose With One Hit

Elks Hit Hard In Their Second Inning Effort

Carl Gordonier turned in the best pitching performance of the current American Legion ball loop season, Wednesday night, at Clearman Field, as he pitched almost perfect ball for the Elks to shut out the Moose, recent conquerors of St. Peter's, 7-0.

The graceful left-hander was never better as he moved down the reputed hard-hitting Moose with monotonous regularity. After the first inning when Jerry Liori of the Moose connected for his team's lone safety, a one-bagger, the losers were absolutely powerless before Gordonier's shoo-fly. Eight of their number whiffed the ozone in vain efforts to hit the pellet.

On the other hand, the Elks showed plenty of power with the willow. It took them three innings to score on Jack McHugh, Moose ace, but in the final three innings they landed on him for eight safe wallops and one less run. "Butch" Kastner, Elkanian first sacker, led this assault on McHugh, with a double, single and walk in three trips to the pentagon for a perfect day at bat.

"Abbie" Leitch, well known Newark semi-pro star, though failing to do anything with Gordonier's superb hurling contributed some fancy fielding around third base. He robbed Tommie Dunn of a sure hit in the third canto, with a sensational play.

BY ARTHUR BLOEMER

A SURE-FIRE THREAT

AFTER witnessing the spectacle of Lou Beliski shutting out the strong Belleville A. A. with three hits, Tuesday night, the fact comes very definitely to the forefront that the Bachelors are going somewhere this season in the Legion ball loop.

In other years, all the Bachelors seemed to lack was hard hitting. They were often referred to as the "hitless wonders." But those days seem gone forever.

Manager McCarthy appears to have lined up a crew of winners, if ever there was one. Three straight wins over the Moose, St. Anthony's and the Belleville A. A. make the Bachelors just about the most feared club in the circuit.

Two of the new Bachelor acquisitions, "Turk" Schummel, at first base, and Ryan, the catcher, seem to be the particular spark-plugs of the inspired Bachelor offensive.

From all indications, the team that beats the Bachelors should cop the bunting in the local twilight league.

HITTING AND THEN SOME

ALL the pent-up batting, that was so noticeably lacking in the two consecutive shut-out defeats administered to the Belleville High baseballers recently, was poured down on unlucky Lyndhurst, Tuesday.

Twenty-two hits rang from Bell-boy bats in their 20-1 win, before the game was abruptly terminated in the eighth inning at the earnest behest of the Lyndhurst coach.

On of the most pleasing features of the carnage was the hard hitting of Charley Christell, at third base. In five trips to the platter, the veteran infielder hit safely every time. "Mac" Lamb, too, was at his usual best both on the mound and at bat.

This wholesale run-getting carnival should start the Belleville boys on the way to a happy climax of their season.

The Brightons were held to an even break Decoration Day, at Belwood Park, winning from the Orions, 12-6, and losing to the New All Stars, 1-6.

Hesterfer started the first game for the Brightons but was a bit wild and had to be removed in the second inning with four runs chalked up against him. Findlay went in to relieve him, and held his opponents easily, allowing but three hits and fanning fifteen Orions. The game being a seven-inning affair made the feat remarkable as he only twirled five and one-third innings of the contest. Hitting stars of the game were Zwirk of the Orions with a double and single, and Rosamilla with a triple.

The second affair was a tough one to lose as the Brightons had many opportunities to bag the game but failed miserably in the pinches. Foster allowed but ten hits, and caused his own defeat by dropping a pop fly. Pfennig's relief hurling and hitting ruined the day for the Brightons. De Fabbio with two doubles and a single led the attack for the losers.

Bachelors Win Second Straight Legion Game

4-2 Score Thursday

Night

The Bachelors went on to their second straight victory in the local American Legion Twilight Baseball League, Thursday night, nosing out a valiant St. Anthony crew, 4-2.

Two of the Bachelors' latest acquisitions, "Turk" Schummel and Ed Shorter were the heroes in this latest conquest. Schummel followed Shorter around the bases in the fourth inning, after hitting a homer to deep right field, that accounted for both of the winning Bachelor tallies.

The fast-ball ace, Shorter, was highly effective in his debut in a Bachelor uniform. Toting the slab for the winners, he gave the Saints just three hits, and fanned nine. Two extra base hits, a triple by Nicastro, leading off in the first, and Zicaro's double over the left field fence, in the fourth were instrumental in the two St. Anthony tallies.

Schummel singled in the third, in addition to his homer, to head the Bachelor eight-hit offensive. Ryan, Bachelor catcher, contributed a pair of singles, his second bingle in the third inning driving in the first two Bachelor markers.

Christell Leads Attack As

Lamb Allows Four

Hits

The Belleville High ball squad reached its peak batting form of the season, Tuesday afternoon, at Clearman Field, in massacring Lyndhurst, 20-1. The Bell-boys slammed out twenty-two hits in ringing up their most decisive victory in years.

"Mac" Lamb, Blue and Gold pitching ace, was never pressed in giving the visitors but four hits and just missing a shut-out. After the heavy hitting Bellevillites had chalked up eleven runs in the seventh to bring their total up to twenty, the game was called by agreement.

Charley Christell, at third base, was the chief bomber, connecting for five hits for a perfect day with the willow. "Mac" Lamb's homer to deep right field in the fourth was the longest hit.

Reynolds Golden came through with some sensational catches in right field for the locals.

DAVE WALSH SPEAKS HIS MIND

I've Been Given to Understand That—

WHEN the A. P. called up Mr. Cornelius Mack of Philadelphia to confirm a report that he had asked waivers on Max Bishop and Bing Miller, the gentleman launched into a dissertation of much length and no moment.

"But, Mr. Mack," said the sterling reporter, at the end of ten minutes, "Have you asked waivers on Max Bishop and Bing Miller?"

So Mr. Mack went on to explain that virtue is its own reward, and a boy's best friend is his mother.

"Yes, yes, Mr. Mack," said the reporter, patiently. "But have you asked waivers on Max Bishop and Bing Miller?"

So Mr. Mack spoke of dramatic criticism and the Minsky brothers; of Hoover, prosperity, Russ Columbo, horse flies and life in the raw, as seen in Fort Wayne, Ind.

"But Mr. Mack—"

The incident was closed. Mr. Mack had hung up.

Also That—

They've about decided to postpone the Dempsey-Carnera fight at Reno to a September date and throw in King Levinsky and Max Baer for July 4, with Dempsey as the promoter. In fact, the Carnera matter may be tossed out on the sidewalk altogether to die in its own blood.

And, Furthermore—

That, so far as any one knows, Mr. Shikat, the wrestler, and Mr. Lewis, the wrestler, will have at each other in a real "shootin' match" on June 9 at the Garden bowl, both being imbued with the notion that you can't lose what you haven't got. So, having nothing at the start and a title at the finish, the assumption is that the boys ought to be very earnest this time.

That Chick Fawster, the former Yankee, has lined up Joe Rodriguez, the former Giant; Eddie Goebel, the former Senator; Gene Sheridan, the former Dodger; Sterling Stryker, the former Giant, and Woody Fullerton, the former Red Sox or Sock, as the case may be, for his semi-professional team in Brooklyn. But they say his best man is liable to be Irving Jacobson, the former nobody.

That the real reason the Sharkey-Schmeling fight was postponed from June 16 to June 21 was that some of the politicians found the first date inconvenient.

Likewise, That—

Mr. Lavelle (Buddy) Ensor, far from forgetting favors received in those dark days not so long ago when he didn't have the change out of a nickel, is practically "carrying" a lot of track attendants who formerly were in the money and are now out. They made pretty rugged money a couple of years ago and it wasn't difficult for a number of stable hands to help Ensor. But it isn't so easy for Ensor to help a number of stable hands.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Ed Frayne, the New York sport writer, was about to enter the hospital to undergo a serious operation when he was called upon by Joe Massaguer, the Cuban sport writer, who confided that he'd like to have Mr. Frayne visit him next week. Mr. Massaguer, it seemed, was about to undergo a serious operation.

"Don't forget. I'll be in the Medical Centre Hospital for the next four weeks."

"That's nothing," says Mr. Frayne. "So will I" . . .

Unless he tires of the association, Mr. James J. Johnston will be identified with Madison Square Garden for the next three years, a contract to that effect, I learn, being (a) in existence and (b) in Mr. Johnston's safe . . .

Stanislav Loayza, the South American, is about to attempt a comeback. So is Tony Vaccarelli . . .

By the way, how far is back?

Chief Flynn Hears Of Good Fortune

Assured Of Cash Award In Canadian Sweepstakes

Chief of Police Michael J. Flynn has received notification that he had drawn Seminole in the Canadian Army and Navy Veterans Sweepstakes. Chief Flynn is also assured a cash award in the Canadian sweep and may win the maximum award of $22,000.

During the twenty-five years he has headed the Belleville Police Department, Chief Flynn has habitually taken "tickets for this and tickets for that," without attending the event half the time if the ticket was that kind, or without ever winning anything if the ticket was of that sort. "As the thing stands," the chief said, "I'm supposed to be, sure of around $6,000."

"Guess it'll be my turn to give a blowout," the chief told his friends. "But wait till I get the money in my hand first," he added. The chief's friends wished him luck, feeling if any one deserved to win, surely the chief did, after all the tickets he's bought from every one.

THREE FROCKS WITH ONE THOUGHT

HOW many cotton frocks are you going to have in your wardrobe? Ask any fashionable that question and her answer will invariably be—As many as I can! For this is essentially a cotton season, not for reasons of economy but purely because cotton is a high fashion item.

The smart woman who wants to get the utmost in chic from the cotton vogue will plan to have at least three frocks of varied cottons in her closet. We've sketched them for you above. On the left is a frock of tangerine cotton mesh with a wide belt insert, sleeves and collar all of plain yellow cotton. (McCall 6934). In the center is a dainty early afternoon model of printed muslin in a red design with a yoke and puffed sleeves of egg-shell. (McCall 6907). And lastly, we have a model in white wide wale pique with clever trimming of blue and white stripes and a red belt. (McCall 6927). They're all grand for summertime activities. (By courtesy of The McCall Company).

HAVE THEM CLEANED AND STORED

Let us take your rugs this summer, clean, shampoo and store them.
Our service will surprise you in both its efficiency and cost.
