Bond Transfer Gives County Headache

Local School Officials Now Claim $78,000 Is Due On Deal

The Board of Freeholders' finance committee last year wanted to aid Belleville officials, by an exchange of town scrip among the town, county and state to clear up 1932 state school taxes and release state school money to the town. Now the county has a headache.

Despite heavy county and state taxes owed by Belleville, which figure in a Supreme Court mandamus action to enforce collection, school officials of the town want the freeholders to pay $78,000, the balance of Belleville's 1932 state school allotment. The freeholders turned the request over to County Counsel Vanderbilt.

The freeholders' finance committee August 21 approved a proposition advanced by Director Williams of the Belleville Department of Revenue and Finance. Belleville owed $90,420.35 in state school taxes, but its allotment of state money was $159,822.80, based on its proportionately large school attendance.

How It Was Done
Williams proposed payment of the $90,420.35 state school tax with $81,378.31 of the town's scrip and $9,042.04 cash. The finance committee was agreeable. Williams gave Belleville school officials $81,378.31 in scrip and took a receipt. Then he gave the county treasurer this receipt and a check for $9,042.35. The county sent the receipt and check to State Treasurer Middleton, who credited the county with payment of $81,378.31 on account of Belleville's $159,822.80.

The Belleville school authorities now insist the town has paid its 1932 state school taxes in full and that the schools are entitled to the $78,000 unpaid allotment balance, due from the county. The freeholders are wondering what county's technical position is.

Dramatists Prepare "Peg 'O My Heart"

St. Peter's Players Are Now In Third Week Of Rehearsals

The Irish comedy drama, "Peg O' My Heart," will be the next presentation of the St. Peter's Dramatic Club. The players, now in their third week of active rehearsing, have shown a natural aptitude, which once more brings the club to the forefront in amateur theatricals.

The play, to be produced on Thursday and Friday evenings, February 8 and 9, has a well balanced cast. Aided coached and directed by the pastor, the Rev. Joseph M. Kelly, it has every indication of being the hit of the Belleville dramatic season.

This latest venture of the club brings into the limelight three new finds in the amateur dramatic field. Miss Bessie L. McMahon, who portrays "Peg," Miss Margaret M. McMahon, as "Mrs. Chiechester," and Miss Mary H. Sullivan as "Bennett" the maid. They are fittingly surrounded by a host of old favorites, including Miss Emily L. Marshall, who so splendidly portrayed the part of "Agnes Lynch" in "Within the Law." James A. Leonard, who, as "Alaric," adds another hit to his well earned laurels, William J. Brady as "Jerry," John M. Mac Donald as "Mr. Hawkes," William H. Cort as "Christian Brent" and John J. Roberts as "Jarvis, all of whom will be remembered for their excellent interpretation of the characters in "Journey's End."

Miss Maude V. Donnelly is general chairman of the committee which is doing great work in aiding the cast to put over the show. Working with Miss Donnelly are Kathryn E. Donahue, general admission tickets; Grete M. Kinnealy, reserved seats; Helen M. Gray, usherettes; Agnes M. Jordan, music, and John M. Mac Donald, publicity. The property committee consists of William A. Mc Gough, Albert A. Rush, William J. Erick and Leo J. McClintchey. The Misses Irene Millington, Marguerite Mann, Anne Sullivan and Eleanor Stockton make up the general sub-committee.

It will be presented in St. Peter's School Hall, William street, Belleville. Dancing will follow the performance on both nights and the proceeds will be added to the sinking fund for the new school.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony. At the conclusion of a trip to Atlantic City, the couple will live at the Washington avenue address.

Commissioners Pass 1934 Town Budget

New Budget Asks $23,927 Raise In Taxation Figure

After the adjourned meeting of the Town Commission Tuesday night due to the absence of Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy, who spends most of his time in Trenton, and Commissioner Patrick A. Waters who was ill, the other three board members, Commissioners William D. Clark, W. Williams and Frank J. J. passed on first reading the budget Wednesday night.

By local taxation $712,521.11 be raised as against $688,593 year, an increase of $23,927.92.

Principal reason for the increase Finance Director Williams said, was loss of more than $25,000 in revenue from the State gasoline levy, formerly distributed among municipalities but repealed by the Legislature last year.

Since a corresponding sum is expected to be credited to Belleville through the dropping of the State road tax from the county budget, Finance Director Williams is hopeful that town's 1934 tax rate may slump several points from the 1933 figure. $4.14 per $100 of assessed valuation which figure in Belleville is approximately $31,000,000.

Anticipated Revenue in 1934
$167,700 and was $159,320.33 in 1933. The sum of $880 was dropped from the tentative budget Wednesday night. Public works salaries were cut $400 to $8,600 and Public Property wage appropriations $300 to $8,435. The entire estimate of $ for engineering department was omitted.

Departmental budgets were estimated as follows: Public Affairs, $32,800, a decrease of $1,650; Public Works, $34,200, an increase of $1,347.50, largely due to a new CWA charge of $2,000; Public Safety, $201,850, a decrease of $730; Parks and Public Property, $17,735, an increase of $409.60, and Revenue and Finance, $26,701, a decrease of $337.50.

Estimates of non-departmental expenditures have been increased by $34,258.99; from $532,676.15 in 1933 to $566,935.14 for the coming year. The total of departmental budgeting is $313,286, and from the sum of the non-departmental estimates, the anticipated revenue from non-taxation sources is deducted.

Resolutions were passed calling for a license hearing January 30 and the public budget hearing February 7. In the meantime, the budget will be advertised according to law, and citizens may urge changes on the latter date. Final adoption of the budget, which may be slightly revised, is expected late next month.

Absence of Mayor Kenworthy and Director Waters from the commission session Monday night caused postponement of action on the budget.

2 Held For Grand Jury On Liquor Selling Charge

Charged With Operating Tavern Without A Town License

Due to the fine detective work of Police Captain Elmer Leighton and Officer John J. Flynn, Rose Weidman, 35, of Tiffany avenue, Newark, and Jess Hawr, of the same address were held under $200 and $250 bail respectively to await the action of the grand jury on charges of selling alcoholic beverages without a town license, before Police Recorder Everett Smith Wednesday night.

Recorder Smith said that the penalties for violation of the state law was thirty days to six months in jail or $100 to $500 fine or both. He said that due to the large penalties imposed in such cases he could only arrange the defendants for the grand jury, although both defendants sign waivers.

Both Weidman and Hawr were arrested the night of January 16 on Union avenue where they were staying a tavern without a license.

OUR PET and ITS CARE

— by —
CAMERON C. W. ARGUE, D. V. M.
Essex County Veterinary Hospital,
Orange, N. J.

Due to the sudden change of the weather at this time of the year it is very important to take special care of your dog's health. Before man cultivated dogs into domestic creatures they ran wild, with shaggy coats in winter, secure from the elements by protection nature gives to wild things.

Now Towser sleeps indoors and shares his master's food and lodging. He is softened by civilization and will sneeze when in a draught as readily as will his master. Colds in dogs almost always develop into distemper and pneumonia.

Distemper, which in simple language is a severe cold throughout the entire body, associated with complications affecting the intestinal tract, lungs and nervous system, is responsible for more deaths than all other dog disease. People have often asked why distemper is so serious. The answer is embodied in two reasons. First, the disease attacks many different organs of the animal's body at once and the multiple complications give the dog little chance to live. Second, the disease is not often treated immediately and gains a foothold before a veterinarian is consulted.

When your dog loses his pep and lies around listless and shivering, chances are that he is in the first stages of distemper. The real danger is in treating the animal for something else, such as worms which lowers the pup's vitality even more, allowing the disease to reach the second stage which is more difficult to cure.

About the matter of bathing: be careful that your pet is thoroughly dried before he is exposed to draught and cold. Wash him only as often as is absolutely necessary during these coming cold months. If you have a puppy, see that his sleeping place is away from draughts and warm enough to compensate for his thin coat.

But you can protect your dog even further. Don't pet strange dogs! We human beings often carelessly do that, sometimes carrying distemper germs and death to our own price-less pals.

Do not hesitate to ask questions concerning the health of your dog. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The News and I'll be glad to personally answer your case.

Commissioners Pass

until 7:30 Tuesday, when a special meeting was called.

Finance Director Williams read the tentative budget figures to a capacity audience Tuesday. The amount tentatively slated to be raised by local taxation must be added to the Board of Education budget, set a week ago at $330,667.

Since Belleville's share of the county 1934 budget has not been assessed, Williams declined to state whether a raise from 1933's tax rate of $4.14 might be anticipated. He said he thought the town's gasoline tax loss would be defrayed through credit on the State road tax, which will no longer be assessed. Belleville's assessed valuation is approximately $31,000,000.

Appointment of Paul D. Robinson of 15 Prospect street as a member of the zoning board of adjustment was announced, and by resolution $8,000 was set as the annual debt of the Borough of Lodi for use of part of Belleville's sewer system.

Pay cuts of town employees evoked considerable discussion at a conference Saturday, but they will be continued this year. Director William D. Clark of the public safety department said that a group of policemen had been to him asking that 4 per cent of their average 14 per cent reduction be restored.

Williams declared these employees should "consider themselves lucky they were working and getting a salary, even if it is in bonds, in view of the recent financial difficulties of the town." Other commissioners and Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy agreed with him that this is not the time to restore pay cuts. Clark explained he had presented the matter simply because it had been put up to him.

Commissioner Carragher favors a 5 per cent restoration of the 15 per cent pay cuts made three years ago in police salaries by the town commission.

Carragher had little to say on the subject at the conference session, but admitted that policemen had come to him with the same request. Today he contended that in view of the fact that the town employees are being paid in bonds rather than cash they should benefit, at least in part, in the money saved by the town in the issuance of the bonds in lieu of a cash salary.

In non-departmental appropriations, interest deficiency notes will be raised at the suggestion of the State Department of Municipal Accounts, Belleville town auditors, from $27,000 to $60,000. In the event that the town can close down on various outstanding assessments, a part of this will be excluded. Another item of increase necessary this year is the 1930 tax revenue bond, amounting to $58,000.

As the small-bond plan will be continued, Williams has included $5,500 to pay for their cost. He pointed out, however, that the town had saved many thousands of dollars by the "baby-bond" method of paying town employees. These savings, he claimed are helping to reduce the town's debt.

Because of recent transactions made by Williams, involving extensions granted by the State Sinking Fund Commission of 4 1/2 per cent bonds due this year, the bond retirement item in the 1934 budget will drop from $78,000 to $39,000. Williams states this is a direct saving to the taxpayer, since the money could not be obtained at such a low interest rate elsewhere at this time.

To save money on street lighting is "false economy" in the opinion of Mayor Kenworthy and Commissioner Clark, but Clark does not intend to recommend an increase in the $34,000 lighting appropriation in the 1934 municipal budget.

Belleville saved $5,000 last year by turning out half the lights along Washington avenue and some on Greylock parkway. [Smaller bulbs were used in others. Almost eighty lights, each burning about $60 worth of electricity annually, were cut out.

"I wish the town could afford to restore these lights," said Clark. "Statistics show that lack of adequate street lighting costs the taxpayers more in auto accidents and increased insurance rates than they save in electricity."

Mayor Kenworthy declared merchants along the avenue probably had lost $5,000 in business since the "white way" was abolished.

In compliance with request to fix a date for hearing in connection with applications for licenses for sale of alcoholic beverages, the Board of Commissioners have set Tuesday evening, January 30 at 8 o'clock as the time at the Commission Chamber in the Town Hall, 144 Washington avenue.

All municipal employees will be covered by compensation insurance if the Board of Commissioners adopts a recommendation made by Finance Director Williams.

The plan will cost $6,500 a year in premiums.

BELLEVILLE LIBRARY NOTES

Since its start three years ago, the juvenile department has rapidly increased in books and in members. This department circulates a wide variety of the best in children's books attractively bound and beautifully illustrated.

Among the new children's books are: Romany Road, by Brown, the rollicking story of a little boy who went for a jaunt with the gypsies; The King's Mule, by Akers, the story of the adventures of three boys and a mule; Three Little Pigs, by Disney, an account of that popular history, with pictures in color taken from the movies.

The Teachers' Shelf holds the following new books: Picture Book of Poetry, Fireside Poems, Picture Book of the States, and All Through the Year, a book of poems and stories for all holidays.

The Story Hour from 10:30 to 11:30 on Saturday mornings, is very popular with the children. About 20 children come out to listen to the story-teller every week. Since this project is still in its beginning, proper facilities for seating the children have not, as yet, been made. However, with chairs from the juvenile room, the children are comfortably grouped to hear the stories.

Observing Belleville's Basketeers

By ARTHUR BLOEMEKE

High School Team Reaches Heights, Then Touches Bottom.

The Belleville High netsters reached inspired heights, Friday night, in subduing a tall Kearny quintet, 33-23, at the local gym.... Irvington High, however, featuring a powerful Druze-Choborda scoring combine, went on a point-garnering rampage against the Bell-boys, Tuesday afternoon, again at the local court.... 46-24 was the final scoring summary of the lacing.

Lanky Joe Shanahan was the big gun of the Kearny victory, scoring the first seven points of the game, and coming up with a final total of twelve for the evening.... Jim Tully also played some "sweet" ball at center.

The fast-stepping Bell-boy Jayvees chalked up two more victories, Kearny bowing, 30-11, and Irvington, 30-21.

The Varsity's win over Kearny was marked by the non-appearance of the scheduled referee—result—Football Coach Dave Buchanan and his assistant Bill Chapman were pressed into service as referee and umpire respectively.... And, what is more, they did a good job of it.... Kearny's coach, Dick Oberdahn was so disgusted with his first team's poor play, that he yanked them midway in the fourth quarter, and followed them off the court.

The local high school's court schedule calls for the appearance of Orange's crack squad, Friday night, and Weequahic, Newark's new high school, Tuesday afternoon, both at the local gym.

Local County League Leaders
Win Another; East Orange
Victimized, 38-25

East Orange's netsters proved just another stepping stone for the local Kennymen, Saturday night, at the Recreation Center court. The final figures gave the local County loop leaders a 38-25 verdict. "Jitty" Wisniewsky and Vic Di Filippo found the basket with plenty of regularity all through the game, as the locals outscored their opponents, 22-9, in the final half, after being tied 16-16, at the end of the first semester.... The Belleville quintet was missing the services of three of its regular number, Bill Levine, Tommie O'Beirne and Johnnie McGuire.... Levine was down to Philadelphia with the Joe Fays, while the latter two were on the injured list.

All three will be on hand for tomorrow night's home stand at the Recreation Center with Verona as the attraction.... The usual dancing program will also be in effect.

Lamb's Crescents
Are Easy Victors

"Mac" Lamb's first Saturday night basketball venture at the high school gym was both a social and sporting success.... Little opposition was afforded the Crescents as they walked off with a 37-13 verdict over a motley collection of basketeers bearing the cognomen of Passaic Jinx.

Al Culklin, diminutive forward, was high scorer with a ten point total.

Triple Tie Now Existing
In Recreation Major Court League

The Belleville Rosery tightened up the Recreation Commission's Major Court League race, Monday night, at the Recreation Center, with a 35-17 win over the previously undefeated W. H. Williams Association quintet.... A 39-16 victory by Frank's Diner over the Progress Club created the triple tie for first place.... The Williams, Rosery and Diner quintets are now all bunched up in first place.

The Williams team and the Diner will have it out in a private duel all their own, next Monday night.

Carl Wittish and Mac Lamb were the big guns of the Rosery victory.... Leo Cavanaugh and Johnnie Yuknus did the honors for Frank's Diner, while Al Culklin came through with his usual high scoring act for the Falcons, amassing a total of sixteen markers.

Down the Junior Recreation trail, the Middletown Juniors, Panthers and Bell-boys, continued in a triple tie for the lead in the Belleville Minor Basketball League.... The Middletown posted a 22-12 victory over the Eagles, Panthers spoiled the evening for the Royals, 33-21; and the Bell-boys swamped the Blue Falcons, 24-8.

The Wednesday night Community Basketball League's battles last week found the Williams Association Juniors and the A. A. Rubin Association, formerly the Valleys, knotted for first place with defeatless records so far.... The Williams Junior team, led by Caruso and TenBroeck, had an easy time of it vanquishing the Fenn-Smith Presbyterian Club, 34-14, while the Rubins also won handily over St. Anthony's 41-12.... The Trojans nosed out the T. D'Avella Association, 18-17, and the Rosery Juniors turned back the Stuywards, 22-11, in other games.

Williams Five In Surprise
Victory Take Two From Oldhams
In Legion Pin Loop

The W. H. Williams Association bowlers came through with the surprise victory of the local American Legion Bowling League campaign in taking two from the league-leading Oldhams, Monday night, at Ferrara's North Newark alleys.... The dual defeat for the league leaders, coupled with the El Club's triple triumph over the NRA club, reduced the Oldhams' league lead to three games and tightened up things considerably.

The Knights of Columbus and Democratic Club, waging a merry battle all their own for third place, won three games from the Moose and Woodhouse Association respectively.... The powerful Waters Association quintet took two from the Mayer Association, while the Belleville B. C. won two of three games from the Gebhard Association in a private battle for last place in the other encounters.

Tommie O'Beirne, the big figure in the Williams surprise victory, captured high individual score honors over the evening with a 255 in the first game.

Flynn and Osinski of the Williams; Gelshen and Grinstead of the Oldhams; Schlecker, Stout, Lawlor and Shaughnessy, all of the El Club, Ventura of the NRA Club, Klenz, Kovack and Mallack, Democratic Club; Bill Byrnes, Jr., Snyder, and Weber of the Knights of Columbus, Whitten and Speary of the Waters club; and Carrough of the Mayers, belong on the night's individual honor roll for best three-game performances.

Last Place All Church
Team In Surprise Win

The tail-end All-Church bowling quintet in the local church loop accounted for the season's biggest surprise, last week, taking two of three games from the league-leading Fenn-Smith Men's Club.... C. Van Esselstine, and the Noonan brothers were mainly responsible for this surprise triumph.... A seven pin victory for the Men's Club in the final game prevented the All-Churchers from making it a clean sweep.

The second place Forest Hill combine managed to take advantage of this lapse on the part of the league leaders, winning all three of their games with Montgomery.... Christ Episcopal kept up the pace with Forest Hill, winning three from Bethany Lutheran to remain seven games back of the Men's Club.... Grace Baptist took the odd game from the Fenn-Smith Presbyterians in the remaining set.

Leissler, of Forest Hill, copped the high individual score award with his 221 for Grace Baptist.

tist closely pressed him.... Leissler's score was no flash-in-the-pan, as he surrounded it with 219 and 188 games.... Whitfield and Gill of Montgomery; Birdsall, Forest Hill; and Bennett of the Men's Club were others to reach the coveted 200 mark during the evening.

Sonneborns Increase
Manufacturers' Lead

Sonneborn's league-leading bowlers in the local Manufacturers' Bowling League increased their lead to five and one-half games, Friday night, at the North Newark alleys with three wins over Eastwood's.... National Grain and Yeast, Hanlon and Goodman, Mono Service and Martin-Dennis all won three games in a night marked by "clean sweeps." Wilson, Mono Service anchor man and Walker, Wallace and Tiernan tied for high individual score award each with 236.

Giants Just That In
Lion's Pin Loop

The league-leading Giants in the Lion's Club Bowling circuit are proving to be just that.... Their latest feat was a two-out-of-three win over the second-place Cubs, to advance their lead to four games.... The Bears took three from the Speedsters in the other match to go into a third place tie with their victims.... Mead of the Bears, Zeigler of the Speedsters and Dailey of the Giants contributed the best performances.

Elks Win Two More In Merris And Essex League

The local Elks took the measure of the Newark A. C. pinner's, last week, at the home alleys in two of three games.... After winning the first two, the locals slipped a notch in the third which prevented them from getting a clean sweep.... The Elks are now nine games out of first place.

Bob Whitten, who is leading the Belleville bowlers in the M. & E. loop with his 190.43 average had another good night with a pair of double century counts.... Whitten is also leading the American Legion bowlers in the individual averages.

Perfection.

Pete Schneeman, a member of the Knights of Columbus quintet in the Legion Bowling League and a familiar figure in local bowling circles, Saturday night, turned in a perfect 300 bowling score in open competition, at Ferrara's North Newark alleys.... It was the first perfect score on the alleys since 1928.... Al Culklin, manager of the alleys; Fred Brown, Robert Donnelly and Anthony Volira comprised the group bowling with Schneeman at the time.

Simmons And Haas To Visit Overbrook When Old Stars Play

Preparations are under way to give basketball fans of Newark and vicinity a real treat today. This is the date set for the stars of yesterday to get together at the Overbrook Hospital auditorium to renew acquaintances. All of the players, who in past years represented Overbrook Hospital, will be invited to attend. Whether uniforms can be made to fit some of them is a mooted question. After laying off from the strenuous game for years it is quite natural that dame nature has taken its course. It is common knowledge that when an athlete gives up training he usually takes on weight, and so when the "boys" meet on today, good natured joshing will be in order. One of the star attractions for the evening will be the appearance of George "Mule" Haas, who played for Overbrook years ago and is now one of the star out-fitters in the American League. "Mule" assures Manger Sachs that he will be there and to make the night eventful will bring Al Simmons, the best baseball player in the American League, along with him. Among the old-timers who will probably play are: Alex Ferguson of Bloomfield, a star pitcher in the big league, Cliff Booth, one of the stars who helped Overbrook clean up all opponents; Carl Hattersley, Pete Rizzolo, Tom Robertson, "Harp" Reilly, "Weary" Mc Callan, Frank Mc Gary, Jim Mahoney, Denny, Mc Mahon, Charlie Stockel, Frank Kennedy, Artie Powers, Jiggs Donohue, one of the sweetest players on the court four or five years ago; Jim Lennon, Frank "Pop" Boyle, Ed "Red" Flanagan, Dick Lynch, Nap. Daly, Chick Farley, Gil Schwab, Herman Lapizeu, Dewey Schwankert, Boub and Tuschler, all of the National Turners; Tom O'Rourke and Frank Bruggy of Elizabeth, "Stretch" Mcenan, Elmer Rachow and Bel Evans.

The undefeated Overbrook Rambler Girls' team will play the preliminary game, meeting the Mutual Benefit team of Newark.

Nurses and doctors will be in attendance as the old timers try to come back.

The committee is working hard to give the old-timers a big reception on that night. Dancing and entertainment will be part of the evening's program.

Six-Day Thrills In Store For Roller Race At Dreamland

Spills, jams, lap pilfering and all other exciting moments of a six-day bicycle race will be stacked into the twenty-one day International Roller Skating Championship at Dreamland Park, Newark, which starts Wednesday night, February 7 and concludes three weeks later, or February 28.

The new venture which will be a novelty to Newark fans only, as it is a very interesting sport in Canada, Philadelphia, New York, and European countries has already caught the fancy of sport enthusiasts. The sport lovers just love a real thrill and there is more than one tingling moment in a roller skating contest.

Buddy Brown, in charge of the affair, who has two other partners, Harry Mendel, manager of the Nutley Velodrome and Jack Mitneck, known as the Bazaar King, yesterday announced that twenty teams would take part in the championship grind which will be held on a twelve lap banked saucer.

Five sterling skaters have already put their John Hancock on contracts and they are as follows: Claude Cawthorn, St. Louis shiek; Bob Ringwald, Newark lad; Ernie Meiers, Jersey flier; Harry Sutphen, Detroit star and Malcolm Carey, Philadelphia speed king, holder of the one mile sprint and 24 hours continuous grind titles.

Pat Mulvey, veteran builder of six-day bicycle tracks will install the bowl for the skaters. Skating entries are still being received by Brown at Dreamland Park and he expects to make public the first team in the early part of next week.

Light Bulbs

Man Demonstration Of
Bulbs Staged By Westing-
House Expert

That light is capable of many range uses was clearly demonstrated at the meeting of the Lions Club, held in Belleville, today in the Evergreen Club, when R. L. Zahour of the Westinghouse Lamp Company, Bloomfield, literally staged a one-man sideshow of light bulbs.

Boasting some 8,000 standard types the incandescent lamp family possesses many odd designs and shapes which are used for rare but important uses. Perhaps the greatest contrast in members of this family is between the Grain of Wheat lamp, which gives a mere speck of light, and the 10 K. W. lamp which does a good job of competing with the sun.

Aid To Medical Progress
Paving the way for the surgeon's knife, the Grain of Wheat lamp is the "headlight" of surgical instruments used for exploring various parts of the human anatomy for the purpose of diagnosis and his been responsible for much progress in this class of work.

These tiny lamps get their name from their size and shape which closely resemble that of an actual grain of wheat. One lamp consumes 1.5 of a watt of electricity and could be burned all day long for a year at a cost of only 10 cents.

At the other extreme is the 10 K. W. lamp which consumes 10,000 watts. To burn continuously for one day it costs $14.40. The glass bulb of this lamp is 12 inches in diameter and larger than a man's head. These huge light sources are used in moving picture studios and for special floodlighting applications.

Oddity Of 1933
One of the newest oddities in the incandescent lamp family, demonstrated during Mr. Zahour's lecture today, is the "detector" lamp for use on Christmas tree string. It is named for its characteristic after glow following a burnout, thus making a bad lamp easy to detect.

Heretofore, it was often necessary to test every one of the eight lamps in a string before locating the bad one. With the new "detector" lamp, the burned out lamp, by continuing to glow when all the other lamps are dark, will be easy to find.

Lives 1-200th Seconds
Most standard type lamps are designed for a life varying from 500 to 1,500 hours, but one lamp demonstrated by Mr. Zahour lives for only 1-200th of a second. It is the Photoflash lamp used in photographic work.

Several sheets of aluminum foil, so thin they will float in air, are contained in the bulb of this lamp. When electric current is turned on a filament wire inside the bulb ignites the aluminum foil, producing the brilliant flare of light that is stronger than ten K. W. lamps.

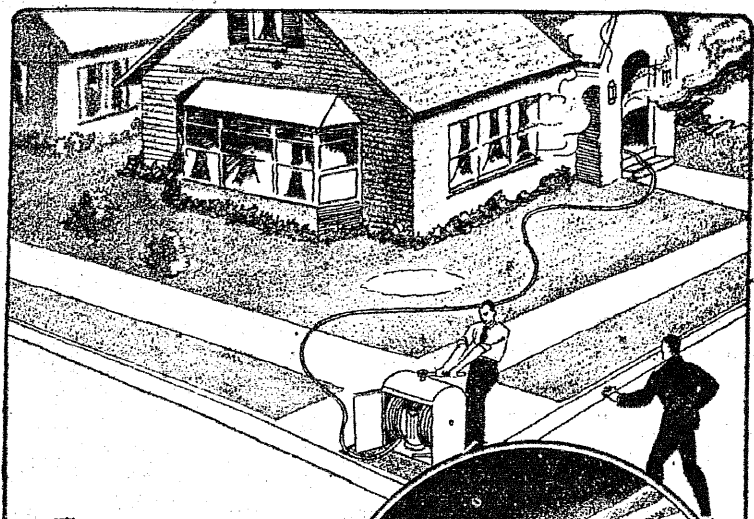

Other odd lamps of interest in Mr. Zahour's display included a "yardstick" tubular lamp, 3 feet long and one inch in diameter and used for modern light sources built into pillars and columns; a special 5,000 watt diving lamp used for exploring sunken ocean liners; various sizes of aviation lamps which provide light along our airways and on our airports; and a black bulb which produces the invisible ultraviolet rays or "black" light for special purposes.

Supreme Court Upholds
Kenworthy Appointment

Election of Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy as executive secretary of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities was sustained by the Supreme Court in an opinion by Justice Heher Wednesday. Kenworthy was elected secretary of the executive committee of the league at a meeting in Paterson, November 28, 1932.

Kenworthy's election was contested in quo warranto proceedings brought in the name of William J. Tonkin, director of revenue and finance of Ridgewood. Kenworthy, then president of the league, succeeded Barrett L. Crandall of Leonia, elected secretary upon the death of Sedley H. Phinney of Princeton. This action was followed by a clash in the league, resulting in two factions. In justification in the removal of Crandall it was claimed he was responsible for increased administrative expenses and irregularities in the management of the league's affairs.

The controversy led to the resignation of several league members and the calling of a convention, at which a new constitution was adopted. There were two rival sets of officers in the field.

Three grounds of attack were urged before the Supreme Court for Kenworthy's removal. First was that the office was not vacant at the time of his election by the executive board. The second was that Kenworthy, as president, was ineligible for secretary. The last point was the election was illegal because notice of the meeting had not been given members of the advisory board as required, it was claimed, by the constitution.

Justice Heher said the first ground of attack was clearly untenable as Crandall was not elected for a fixed term. In holding the second point groundless, the court said it was not intended Kenworthy should function in both offices nor did Kenworthy attempt to do so. He did not hold the offices contemporaneously, resigning as president immediately upon his election as secretary. Manifestly, it was not essential, the court said, that Kenworthy should resign the presidency to be an eligible candidate for secretary.

The court also failed to find substance in the argument the election

Handling Of CWA

Veterans' Meeting
Next Meeting Of Council
Of Administration Set
For Belleville

The Department of New Jersey Council of Administration of the Veterans of Foreign Wars held its meeting Sunday at the post rooms of Michael Kelly Post, Union. At this meeting several commanders from various posts made complaints on the way employment of veterans was handled by the CWA in New Jersey.

James M. Caffrey, past commander of the Bertram Kinnamann Post of Newark, said an investigation at the local headquarters of the CWA revealed that successful applicants bore letters of recommendation from the various congressmen of the state. A delegation of veterans from Hudson County said the same thing existed in their county.

State Commander Cohn expressed confidence in the state director of the employment service, and stated he would conduct a personal investigation of the complaints.

The next meeting of the council of administration will be held on March 11 at the post rooms of Younginger Post of Belleville. At this meeting the place for the 1934 state encampment will be announced. The encampment will be held on June 28, 29 and 30.

Younginger Post was represented at the county council meeting by Commander Jacobson, Adjutant Alden, Wirtz and Scott. Barry was A. W. O. L. The next meeting of the council will be held at Irvington on February 14.

was invalid, due to the failure to notify the advisory board of the meeting. Authority to select a secretary, the court said, was vested exclusively in the executive committee. The court awarded costs to Kenworthy.
